Ellomay Capital Announces that Standard & Poor's Maalot Reaffirmed the Company's iIA- Rating and Revised the Outlook to "Negative"

Tel-Aviv, Israel, November 21, 2016 – Ellomay Capital Ltd. (NYSE MKT; TASE: ELLO) (“Ellomay” or the “Company”), an emerging operator in the renewable energy and energy infrastructure sector, today announced that Standard & Poor's Maalot Ltd. (“S&P Maalot”) reaffirmed the iIA- rating of the Company and its debentures and updated the rating outlook from “Stable” to “Negative.”

In its report, S&P Maalot notes that the Company previously executed a cooperation agreement with Ludan Energy Overseas B.V. with respect to energy and gas production facilities in the Netherlands. S&P Maalot further notes that the Company is in due diligence process with respect to two biogas projects in the U.S., however at this stage there is no certainty as to the execution of a definitive investment agreements in connection with these projects. S&P Maalot's base scenario assumes a public debt offering of $50 million, equity investments in prospective projects in the Netherlands, the U.S. and in Israel of approximately $80 million, and stable revenues of approximately $18 million with gross profit of approximately 80% from active projects.

S&P Maalot stated that the negative outlook reflects S&P Maalot's assessment that the substantial equity investments contemplated by the Company, which will mainly be financed by new debt, will, if and to the extent fully executed, cause the Company not to meet one or more of the debt coverage ratios determined by S&P Maalot as sufficient for the current rating.

The public offering described in this press release, if made, will be made in Israel only and not to U.S. persons. The debentures, if offered, will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and will not be offered or sold in the United States without registration or applicable exemption from the registration requirements according to the U.S. Securities Act of 1933. Nothing in this press release constitutes a public offering or an invitation to purchase the Company's securities.
