GENERAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE BUSINESS

History

Headquartered in Exeter, New Hampshire, we are a leading designer, developer and manufacturer of high performance sports equipment and related apparel. Our mission is to elevate performance and protection for athletes at all levels through a combination of athlete insights and superior innovation.

As part of our growth strategy, we have acquired, integrated and significantly accelerated the growth of seven businesses since 2008, completing our most recent acquisition, Easton Baseball/Softball (as defined below), in April 2014. Highlights of our strategic acquisitions since 2012 are described below.

The Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition

On April 15, 2014, we completed the acquisition of the Easton baseball and softball business and the assets formerly used in Easton-Bell Sports, Inc.'s lacrosse business ("Easton Baseball/Softball") from Easton-Bell Sports, Inc., now named BRG Sports, Inc. ("BRG Sports"), for $330 million in cash, plus a net working capital adjustment of $21.7 million (the "Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition").

EASTON is one of the world's leading and most iconic diamond sports (baseball and softball) brands with authentic brand equity accumulated over 40 years of designing and manufacturing high performance diamond sports products. Building upon its heritage in bats, EASTON has developed into one of the strongest and most innovative brands in baseball and softball, and holds the No. 1 position in diamond sports in North America with an approximate 27% market share and strong positions in multiple product categories. Easton Baseball/Softball has gained market share through innovative and higher-priced new product lines, an effective go-to-market strategy and significant brand investment.

We acquired Easton Baseball/Softball as part of an ongoing strategy to utilize our proven acquisition platform to expand our business into complementary categories and sports. The acquisition has greatly enhanced our brand portfolio, offers us another significant lever for growth, has added valuable intellectual property (including 130 patents and patents pending) and provides a significant counter-seasonal business to our existing revenue stream and working capital needs. Additionally, our R&D-focused platform allows for cross-pollination of technologies between EASTON and COMBAT, as well as our other sports, and provides the necessary infrastructure to grow the EASTON brand.

The acquisition has provided numerous financial benefits including being accretive to Adjusted EPS within the first year of ownership and generating significant cash flow to support our growth. The spring/summer season of baseball and softball is highly complementary to the fall/winter season of hockey, and our quarterly sources of revenue and profitability are more balanced throughout the year as a result. The more evenly distributed seasonality of the combined business provides more consistent working capital levels and allows us to improve our efficiency in our manufacturing, distribution and other efforts.

As a result of the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition, we acquired the EASTON and MAKO brands and trademarks and entered into an intellectual property agreement to license back the use of these trademarks to BRG Sports (and their permitted successors and assigns) for use in their hockey and cycling businesses on an exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free basis. Since our acquisition of Easton Baseball/Softball, BRG Sports sold the Easton Hockey business to private investment firm Chartwell Investments and its cycling business to Chris Tutton, the owner of Race Face Performance Products Inc.

The Company initially financed the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition, as well as refinanced certain existing indebtedness, with a $200 million secured asset-based revolving credit facility (the "ABL Facility") and a $450 million secured term loan credit facility (the "New Term Loan Facility" and, together with the "New ABL Facility", collectively, the "Credit Facilities"). On June 25, 2014, the Company completed an underwritten initial public offering on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") and a new issue of common shares of the Company ("Common Shares") in Canada for net proceeds of approximately $119.5 million (the "U.S. IPO"), including the exercise in full of the over-allotment option. The Company used the net proceeds of the U.S. IPO to reduce leverage and repay approximately $119.5 million of the Company's New Term Loan Facility.

The Combat Acquisition

On May 6, 2013, we completed the acquisition of substantially all of the assets of Combat Sports ("Combat Sports" and, such acquisition, the "Combat Acquisition") for an aggregate purchase price of approximately Cdn$4 million in cash. The acquisition of Combat Sports was funded from cash on hand.

From 1998 through its acquisition by the Company, Combat Sports had been supplying composite and hybrid composite products for both its own COMBAT brand as well as for high-end brand name companies in the baseball and softball bat, hockey stick and lacrosse shaft markets. Since the acquisition, Combat Sports has focused solely upon the baseball and softball bat market, as well as related apparel. The business has developed a reputation for its premier and innovative composite technology, with the latest composite advancements in performance and durability serving players from the grassroots level to the elite professional levels. Combat Sports and several of its key employees have a long history of expertise in composite materials, including developing innovative products for NASA, the U.S. military and several leading manufacturers. By continuing to focus resources in the areas of Combat Sports' success - baseball, softball and advanced composite technologies - we expect to further strengthen the COMBAT brand and grow our overall portfolio of high-performing products.

The Inaria Acquisition

On October 16, 2012, we completed the acquisition of Inaria International Inc. ("Inaria" and, such acquisition, the "Inaria Acquisition"). The Company entered into a purchase agreement with Inaria and its shareholders, pursuant to which we purchased substantially all of the assets of Inaria for an aggregate purchase price of approximately Cdn$7 million in cash. The Company used its former credit facility to fund the Inaria Acquisition.

Inaria, a Toronto-based company named after the Italian soccer phrase "in the area", was founded in 1999 and began its business with a focus on soccer uniforms and products. INARIA has since become a growing brand in the team sports and active wear industry, providing a full-line of team apparel products, including pro-style jerseys, practice jerseys, socks, warm-up suits and training apparel for both youth sports programs and the most elite-level teams.

The company's expertise in developing quality products with competitive pricing and rapid turnaround time quickly propelled INARIA into ice hockey and other sports. The Inaria Acquisition strengthened our position in team apparel, establishing Performance Sports Group as a reliable and competitive supplier in this growing segment of the market.

The Cascade Acquisition

On June 29, 2012, we completed the acquisition of Cascade Helmets Holdings, Inc. ("Cascade" and, such acquisition, the "Cascade Acquisition"). The Company entered into a purchase agreement with Cascade and its shareholders, pursuant to which we purchased all of the outstanding shares of Cascade for an aggregate purchase price of $64 million in cash subject to adjustment.

In order to fund the Cascade Acquisition, the Company (i) completed a public offering of 3,691,500 Common Shares at a price of Cdn$7.80 per share, including the exercise in full of the over-allotment option, for gross proceeds of approximately Cdn$28.7 million; (ii) completed a concurrent private placement of the equivalent of 642,000 Common Shares at the same price as those sold under the public offering, for gross and net proceeds of approximately Cdn$5.0 million; and (iii) entered into amendments to its former credit facilities.

The Cascade Acquisition significantly expanded our presence in the growing lacrosse market, through the addition of an industry-leading brand whose helmet and headgear products have been complementary to our existing offering of lacrosse equipment products under the MAVERIK brand.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

Sporting Goods Industries

We design, develop, manufacture and sell performance sports equipment and related apparel for ice hockey and roller hockey, baseball and softball, lacrosse and soccer.

We operate in the global sporting goods industry with a primary focus on North America and Europe. We believe this global industry is growing, including in the United States where, from 2009 to 2014, manufacturers' wholesale sales of sporting goods increased from $48.3 billion in 2009 to $56.9 billion in 2014, representing a compound annual growth rate of 2.8%.

A Large and Growing Addressable Market

Within the sporting goods industry, we currently target an approximately $3.3 billion directly addressable market with attractive growth rates across multiple team sports, consisting of approximately $2 billion in equipment wholesale sales and approximately $1.2 billion in apparel wholesale sales. The growing size of team sports and the improving U.S. macroeconomic outlook serve as a strong tailwind for our growth. The anticipated annual percentage growth in each of our sports categories is as follows:

Sport/Category	Anticipated Annual Percentage Growth of Industry
Hockey equipment (Global)	Low-Single-Digit to Mid-Single Digit
Hockey apparel (Global)	Mid-Single-Digit to High-Single-Digit
Baseball/Softball equipment (Global)	Low-Single-Digit
Baseball/Softball apparel (Global)	Low-Single-Digit
Lacrosse equipment (U.S., Canada)	Mid-Single-Digit to High-Single-Digit
Lacrosse apparel (U.S., Canada)	Mid-Single-Digit to High-Single-Digit
Soccer team apparel (U.S., Canada)	Low-Single-Digit to Mid-Single Digit

Our addressable market features attractive category fundamentals, including frequent replacement cycles and innovation-driven rising average selling prices.

Ice Hockey

Ice Hockey Participation Rates and Demographics

Ice hockey is a team sport played in over 80 countries by more than an estimated six million people. While ice hockey is played around the world, the largest and most significant markets for ice hockey are Canada, the United States and a number of European countries, including the Nordic countries (principally, Sweden and Finland), Central European countries (principally, the Czech Republic, Germany, Switzerland, Austria and Slovakia) and Eastern European countries (principally, Russia).

According to the International Ice Hockey Federation's ("IIHF") 2014 survey of players, there are approximately 1.8 million registered players in the world, up from 1.6 million registered players in 2013, an increase of 12.5%. According to the IIHF, in the past five years, registered players have grown 20%, from 1.5 million players in 2010 to 1.8 million in 2014. In addition to registered players, management estimates another 4 million unregistered players globally, creating a total of approximately 6 million hockey players.

There are 533,172 registered players in the United States, according to USA Hockey's 2014-15 Season Report, up from 519,417 in 2014, a 2.6% increase. In the past five years, registered players in the U.S. have increased 6.5% (500,579 in 2011 to 533,172 in 2015).

In Canada, there were 634,892 registered players in 2014, according to Hockey Canada's 2014 Annual Report, representing a 1.6% increase from 625,152 players in 2013. In the past five years, registered players in Canada have increased 10.0% (577,077 in 2010 to 634,892 in 2014).

According to IIHF membership data, 63% of hockey players globally are under the age of 20. Due to this younger demographic, there is a need to purchase new equipment more frequently as these young participants grow.

Ice Hockey Equipment and Related Apparel Industry

Management estimates that the global ice hockey wholesale equipment market is approximately $670 million and the global ice hockey apparel market (including licensed apparel) is approximately $390 million.

The global ice hockey equipment and related apparel industry has significant barriers to entry and is stable in certain regions and growing in others, such as the United States and Eastern Europe. Russia had experienced significant growth prior to calendar 2015 but has entered a period of instability due to macroeconomic conditions in the region. Ice hockey equipment and related apparel sales are driven primarily by global ice hockey participation rates (registered and unregistered). Other drivers of equipment sales include demand creation efforts, the introduction of innovative products, a shorter product replacement cycle, general macroeconomic conditions and the level of consumer discretionary spending. Skates and sticks are the largest contributors to equipment sales, accounting for an estimated 60% of industry sales in calendar 2014, according to management estimates.

Management estimates that 90% of the ice hockey equipment market is attributable to three major competitors: Bauer Hockey, Reebok International Ltd. ("Reebok"), a subsidiary of adidas AG, which owns both the REEBOK and CCM brands, and Easton Hockey (which is owned by private investment firm Chartwell Investments and utilizes the EASTON brand under a trademark license from the Company), each of whom offers consumers a full range of products (skates, sticks and full protective equipment). The remaining equipment market is highly fragmented among many smaller equipment manufacturers that offer specific products, catering to niche segments within the broader market.

The following table shows our estimated ranking of the three major competitors referenced above, in total and by major product category:

Company	Total Market	Skates	Sticks	Helmets	Protective	Goalie
BAUER	#1	#1	#1	#1	#1	#2
REEBOK/CCM	#2	#2	#2	#2	#2	#1
EASTON	#3	#3	#3	#3	#3	n/a

Licensed apparel is included in the ice hockey-related apparel market and represents approximately one-third of the market. The related apparel market is more fragmented than the equipment market and includes a variety of larger and smaller participants. We expect consolidation in this market to occur in the coming years, in a manner similar to what has occurred in the ice hockey equipment industry.

Roller Hockey

Roller Hockey Participation Rates and Demographics

Roller hockey is a team sport played principally in the United States, particularly in warmer regions such as California. According to a 2015 Sports and Fitness Industry Association ("SFIA") report, total U.S. participation in roller hockey was approximately 1.8 million in 2014, up 33.3% over 1.3 million players in 2013. In the past five years, roller hockey has grown 26.3%, from 1.4 million participants in 2010 to 1.8 million in 2014.

Roller Hockey Equipment and Related Apparel Industry

The roller hockey equipment and related apparel industry shares similar characteristics to the ice hockey equipment and related apparel industry given the similarity of the sports. Management estimates that the wholesale roller hockey equipment market generated approximately $20 million in sales in calendar 2014. Through our Company's MISSION and BAUER brands, we hold the No. 1 and No. 2 market share positions in the roller hockey equipment market, respectively, and have a substantial lead over our primary competitors, including Reebok, Tour and a few competitors in niche categories, such as wheels and accessories.

Street Hockey

Street Hockey Participation Rates and Demographics

Street hockey is a team sport played throughout the world, primarily in the largest ice hockey markets. According to management estimates and industry sources, there are approximately 93,000 registered players in Canada, approximately 48,000 registered players in the United States, and approximately 50,000 registered players in the rest of the world. Youth players represent approximately 50% of the registered participants. Management believes that registered participation represents only a small portion of the overall consumer base for street hockey products and that unregistered participants far exceed registered participants in number.

Street Hockey Equipment Industry

The street hockey equipment industry shares similar characteristics to the ice hockey equipment and related apparel industry given the similarity of the sports. Management estimates that the wholesale street hockey equipment market generated approximately $25 million in sales in calendar 2014. The Company entered the street hockey market with a full line of street hockey equipment and accessories in April 2015 under the BAUER brand.

Baseball and Softball

Baseball and Softball Participation Rates and Demographics

Baseball and softball are team sports played principally in the United States, Japan, certain other Asian countries (such as South Korea), and Latin America. Global baseball/softball participation is estimated to be approximately 65 million, according to the World Baseball Softball Confederation. Baseball remains one of the most popular team sports by participation in the United States, second only to basketball, according to SFIA.

According to SFIA, total baseball and softball (fast pitch and slow pitch) participation in the U.S was 22.7 million in 2014, equal to the overall participation rate in 2013. In the past five years, overall participation in baseball and softball has decreased by a total of 9.9%, from 25.2 million participants in 2010 to 22.7 million in 2014.

While participation for baseball and softball in the United States has remained flat or decreased, the market continues to grow as innovation, particularly in bats, has driven rising prices.

Baseball and Softball Equipment and Related Apparel Industry

Management estimates that, in calendar 2014, the global baseball and softball wholesale equipment market was approximately $1.2 billion, while the global baseball and softball wholesale apparel market (excluding footwear) was estimated to be approximately $560 million. North America provides the largest portion of the global wholesale market, with an estimated $700 million equipment market and a $430 million apparel market (not including footwear).

With approximately 65 million participants globally, we believe the enthusiast base in these sports will experience continued growth, driven by the increasing popularity of travel ball, club baseball and softball, and more frequent play.

The baseball and softball equipment market is fragmented and is currently led by five major brands: our EASTON brand, MIZUNO, Jarden-owned RAWLINGS, and Amer Sports-owned WILSON and LOUISVILLE SLUGGER. Similar to Easton Baseball/Softball, our major competitors offer a full line of baseball and softball products and varying degrees of related apparel. In total, we compete with over a dozen brands in the baseball and softball equipment market, including, in addition to those above, Amer Sports-owned DEMARINI, MARUCCI, Jarden-owned MIKEN and WORTH, NOKONA, ZETT and SSK. In addition, NIKE and UNDER ARMOUR also are competitive brands in specific categories such as batting gloves.

The following table shows our estimated ranking in North America of the five major brands referenced above, in total and by major product category:

Company	Total Market	Bats	Batting Helmets	Catcher Protective	Equipment Bags	Batting Gloves	Apparel w/o Uniform	Accessories	Ball Gloves
EASTON	#1	#1	#1	#2	#1	#3	#4	#3	#6
WILSON/ DEMARINI	#2	#2	n/a	#6	#5	n/a	#7	n/a	#2
RAWLINGS/ WORTH	#3	#3	#2	#3	#6	#6	#2	#5	#1
MIZUNO	#4	n/a	#4	#4	n/a	#5	#5	n/a	#3
LOUISVILLE SLUGGER	#5	#4	n/a	n/a	#4	n/a	n/a	n/a	#4

Lacrosse

Lacrosse Participation Rates and Demographics

Lacrosse is a team sport played principally in the United States and Canada. Management estimates that the total global participation is approximately 900,000. According to U.S. Lacrosse, there were 772,772 registered players in the United States in 2014, up 3.5% from 2013 (746,859). In the past five years, registered players in the U.S. grew 23.7%, from 624,593 players in 2010 to 772,772 in 2014. In Canada, we estimate that there are approximately 100,000 participants.

The drivers of this growth included: (i) the establishment and popularity of the National Lacrosse League and Major League Lacrosse, (ii) the rapid expansion of high school and youth programs, (iii) emerging growth outside of key lacrosse markets in the Mid-Atlantic and Northeastern United States, (iv) enhanced funding and popularity of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (the "NCAA") lacrosse programs, and (v) increased visibility of the sport in media and advertising.

Approximately 93% of lacrosse participants in the United States are under the age of 20, with 55% of participants in the youth (15 and under) category and 38% of participants in the high school category. Similar to ice hockey, the high representation of youth in the sport provides the industry with a more frequent product replacement cycle, as these young players outgrow their equipment.

Lacrosse Equipment and Related Apparel Industry

Management estimates that, in calendar 2014, the global lacrosse equipment market was approximately $120 million, with the United States accounting for approximately $110 million while the Canadian market was estimated to be approximately $10 million in size. Management estimates that the wholesale market for lacrosse apparel (including team) is approximately $40 million in size.

Management estimates that the lacrosse market will continue to grow in the range of mid-single digits to high-single digits for the next several years. The lacrosse equipment market is made up of four primary equipment categories: sticks (shafts and heads), gloves, helmets and protective equipment. Sticks currently make up the largest segment of the lacrosse equipment market, representing approximately 35% of calendar 2014 industry-wide United States sales. Helmets currently make up approximately 20% of calendar 2014 industry-wide United States sales.

The North American lacrosse equipment and related apparel market is a high growth, emerging sports equipment market underpinned by strong growth in participation rates. The lacrosse equipment market is currently led by six major brands: New Balance-owned WARRIOR and BRINE, our MAVERIK and CASCADE brands, STX, and Jarden-owned DEBEER (women's only). The Company's three major competitors all offer full lines of lacrosse equipment products, while Cascade's product offering is primarily focused on helmets.

The following table shows our estimated ranking in North America of our four major competitor brands, in total sales:

	WARRIOR / BRINE	MAVERIK / CASCADE	STX	DEBEER LACROSSE

Team Apparel Industry

Team apparel and uniforms make up a large and growing market characterized by high fragmentation and competition, which provides significant competitive advantages to companies that can offer a one-stop shopping experience for high-quality products and a unified look (equipment and apparel) under authentic brands.

Management estimates that the overall non-footwear apparel market (including team, performance and lifestyle) in the sports markets we address is approximately $1.2 billion in size (Hockey - $390 million, Baseball/Softball - $560 million, Lacrosse - $40 million, Soccer - $300 million (team uniforms in Canada and the United States)).

Our mission is to elevate performance and protection for athletes at all levels through a combination of athlete insights and superior innovation. Our model is simple. We combine authentic brands and sport-specific employee expertise with our platform strengths, particularly our high performing R&D and game changing product creation processes, to annually grow our overall revenue, market share and profitability. On a constant currency basis, we strive to grow our revenues each year faster than the total market for each of our sports and to grow our profitability faster than revenues, both as measured excluding the year-over-year impact of foreign exchange.

Our products are marketed under the BAUER (ice and roller hockey), MISSION (roller hockey), MAVERIK (lacrosse), CASCADE (lacrosse), INARIA (soccer apparel), EASTON (baseball and softball) and COMBAT (baseball and softball) brand names and are sold by sales representatives and independent distributors throughout the world. Our brands have a rich history of innovation, authenticity and market leadership, with the BAUER and EASTON brands dating back to 1927 and 1922, respectively.

In recent years, we have experienced strong revenue and profit growth through innovation, product development, marketing and acquisitions that have driven market share gains in all of our sports. Our scale, strong distribution and manufacturing relationships, disciplined cost management and sourcing strategies have enabled us to maintain consistent and attractive Adjusted EBITDA margins and to compete successfully. Our annual revenues have grown from $219.5 million in Fiscal 2008 to $654.7 million in Fiscal 2015, representing a compound annual growth rate of 16.9%; Adjusted EBITDA has grown from $22.9 million in Fiscal 2008 to $98.3 million in Fiscal 2015, representing a compound annual growth rate of 23.1%; and Adjusted EPS has grown from $0.15 in Fiscal 2010 to $1.02 in Fiscal 2015, representing a compound annual growth rate of 45.5% (we did not report Adjusted EPS prior to Fiscal 2010). Our Adjusted EBITDA, together with our relatively low level of capital expenditures and certain tax attributes, allow us to generate predictable and significant cash flows to invest in R&D, pursue acquisitions and other growth initiatives, and reduce our indebtedness.

As part of our growth strategy, we have acquired, integrated and significantly accelerated the growth of seven businesses since 2008, completing our most recent acquisition, Easton Baseball/Softball, in April 2014.

Our Core Businesses

We have the most recognized and strongest brands in ice hockey, roller hockey, baseball and softball, and hold top market share positions in these sports, with an expanding presence in the fast-growing lacrosse market. Our mission is to elevate player performance and protection at all levels through a combination of athlete insights and superior innovation.

Hockey and Related Apparel

We offer a complete line of head-to-toe performance-driven equipment under the BAUER and MISSION brands for players in every major ice and roller hockey market in the world. Our equipment offerings include skates, sticks, protective equipment, helmets and goalie equipment for ice hockey, roller hockey and street hockey.

We drive market share growth by introducing new products with performance improvements each year in most of our equipment categories, alternating three sub-brands of products for ice hockey, the VAPOR, SUPREME and NEXUS lines. Through this strategy, we have grown sales by creating excitement and dialogue at the retail level with retailers and consumers and maintaining a significant advantage over competitors who introduce new products less frequently.

In addition to equipment, we offer a full assortment of hockey apparel, including team apparel and uniforms, performance apparel and lifestyle apparel. While the hockey apparel industry is highly fragmented with several niche brands, our ability to offer a reliable and competitive apparel experience combined with access to our leading equipment creates a unique opportunity for team business.

BAUER holds the No. 1 market share position in ice hockey equipment with approximately 56% overall market share. MISSION and BAUER combined have the No. 1 market share position in roller hockey equipment at approximately 70%.

Baseball/Softball and Related Apparel

With the EASTON and COMBAT brands, we offer a broad line of baseball and softball equipment for all ages and levels of play. Our equipment and accessories (bats, gloves, protective equipment and apparel) for athletes and enthusiasts serve the professional, inter-scholastic, and recreational levels of the diamond sports market across a variety of price points.

EASTON is one of the world's leading and most iconic diamond sports brands with authentic brand equity accumulated over 40 years of designing and manufacturing high performance diamond sports products. Building upon its heritage in bats, EASTON has developed into one of the strongest and most innovative brands in baseball and softball, and holds the No. 1 position in diamond sports in North America, with an approximately 27% market share and strong positions in multiple product categories.

As we have done with prior acquisitions, we have utilized our platform to accelerate Easton Baseball/Softball's growth and look to increase market share in every category of baseball and softball equipment both domestically and internationally, and to expand EASTON's presence in apparel.

COMBAT's proprietary bat manufacturing process has created a unique bat technology that has a loyal following. COMBAT's patented technology, combined with its unique connection to the sport and its emphasis on grassroots marketing has elevated the COMBAT brand at all levels.

Both EASTON and COMBAT offer a wide variety of baseball/softball specific apparel and we expect to expand both brands' apparel offering to include uniforms.

Lacrosse and Related Apparel

With our MAVERIK and CASCADE brands, we offer a comprehensive line of lacrosse equipment for all skill levels and hold approximately a 28% market share.

Through the MAVERIK brand, we offer a full line of gloves, heads, shafts and protective equipment, as well as a women's specific line of product, for players of all ages. MAVERIK, founded in 2005 and acquired by the Company in 2010, continues to expand its brand presence, with five MAVERIK teams participating in the 16-team 2015 NCAA Division I tournament, including No. 1 overall seed Notre Dame.

CASCADE has been a pioneer in head protection since 1986 and is the No. 1 brand in lacrosse head protection with 90% market share. Since 1995, 16 NCAA champions have worn CASCADE helmets. CASCADE provides a wide variety of helmets for all ages, as well as several options for eye protection for the female player. In addition, CASCADE offers a 48-hour turnaround time for customer helmets.

In addition to equipment, CASCADE and MAVERIK design and manufacture accessories and related apparel, including performance apparel and lifestyle apparel.

Soccer Apparel

INARIA designs and manufactures a full-line of soccer apparel, including pro-style jerseys, practice jerseys, socks, warm-up suits and training apparel. The company offers full finishing, embellishment and unique customization services at its Canadian headquarters.

INARIA has recently elevated its brand at the youth, college and professional soccer levels through a variety of sponsorships and partnerships. INARIA is a sponsor of Schwan's USA Cup, one of the world's largest youth soccer tournaments, and recently signed professional team Minnesota United FC as the team's official uniform provider. In addition, INARIA has also signed several NCAA Division I programs, including Cornell University and Colgate University.

Our Core Strengths

We believe the following strengths are integral to enhancing our leadership position and market share in all product categories in all our sports:

Strong and Authentic Brands in Attractive Markets

We have the No. 1 brands in the ice hockey, roller hockey and North American diamond sports (baseball and softball) equipment industries through the BAUER, MISSION and EASTON brands, respectively. BAUER is the most recognized and strongest brand in ice hockey with an estimated 56% overall worldwide market share. MISSION and BAUER combined are the leading brands in roller hockey with an estimated 70% market share. EASTON is one of the most iconic diamond sports brand with the No. 1 market share in North America, estimated at 27%. Easton Baseball/Softball has an opportunity to meaningfully increase its market share by growing its core bats category and expanding its position in several other large and profitable diamond sports categories where it is underpenetrated today. In the lacrosse category, our MAVERIK and CASCADE brands combined have an estimated 28% market share, with our CASCADE brand continuing to be the leading helmet provider with an estimated 90% market share. Through continued rapid growth of our CASCADE and MAVERIK brands, we aim to become the market leader in the lacrosse market by 2016. Our market leadership within each sport extends across multiple product categories through a full product suite that addresses our consumers' needs for high performance equipment and apparel for players of all ages.

We believe the strong brand recognition and consumer loyalty for our brands is the result of regularly bringing to market innovative, top quality equipment with superior performance, our "true to the game" authenticity, and consistent and effective brand communication. Our brand recognition in every sport creates significant barriers to entry in our markets, as many consumers believe that brands with heritage and authenticity will provide the best products to improve their game. This belief is reinforced by the numerous professional and elite-level athletes who utilize our products and who thereby create a halo effect that influences our broader group of consumers. These elite athletes include the 75% of National Hockey League ("NHL") players who wore BAUER skates last season, 40 of the last 48 NCAA Division I lacrosse national championship finalist teams who wore CASCADE helmets, and 17 EASTON teams competing in the 2015 College World Series.

Our brands and their broad product offerings address an attractive, highly popular team sports market that is estimated at approximately $3.3 billion. Despite modest participation growth in these sports, these markets exhibit strong dollar value growth due to positive underlying fundamentals. There are attractive purchasing patterns in the markets we service. A short replacement cycle is driven by our core youth consumers regularly outgrowing their equipment and parents wanting to provide their children with the highest performing products. Additionally, we deliver products to market using short innovation-led product cycles that ensure a relentless flow of the latest technologies are available for consumers. Consistent innovation that improves the quality and performance of our products also allows us to raise average selling prices, further underpinning growth in the size of our markets.

Integrated Performance Sports Platform

We have achieved our leadership position and growth by leveraging our world-class performance sports products platform. Customer-facing, consumer-facing and product development functions are managed individually by sport and by category within each sport. Back-end functions and certain R&D activities are shared across sports to drive operational synergies and efficiency. This integrated platform is supported by authentic brands, deep consumer insights, significant R&D investments, and strong intellectual property. We originally developed this organizational structure to promote and support the rapid growth of our ice hockey equipment business but have also used it to successfully integrate and significantly grow the new performance equipment and apparel categories and sports markets we have entered through our recent acquisitions.

Each of our businesses maintains dedicated management, sales, marketing, product development and R&D teams, while leveraging highly scalable and shared resources such as sourcing & manufacturing, distribution & logistics, advanced R&D, information technology, human resources, finance and legal. These distinct units within each business often collaborate with their counterparts across the Company. This approach ensures we benefit from our scale and capitalize on opportunities to apply key advances across our platform without compromising the functions that support our strong consumer connections, "true to the game" authenticity, high performance products and well-established retailer relationships.

Our category management structure allows us to drive growth opportunities in every sport by deploying a multi-disciplinary approach to product development. We have a strong product development process that allows us to share best practices and innovation across the Company. These resources are both scalable and shareable across sports and categories. We believe this collaborative approach to product development yields superior results and products.

Industry-Leading R&D and Innovation

We believe our development capabilities and intellectual property portfolio provide us with a strategic competitive advantage by allowing us to create advanced products, drive new purchases and create barriers to entry. Our intellectual property portfolio includes 638 patents (including design patents and patents pending).

Our mission is to elevate player performance and protection at all levels by combining athlete insights with superior innovation. To achieve this we have consistently invested in R&D, spending on average, from Fiscal 2009 to Fiscal 2015, approximately 4.0% of our annual revenues on R&D ($24.2 million in Fiscal 2015, $18.5 million in Fiscal 2014 and $16.1 million in Fiscal 2013). Few of our competitors can match this level of investment due to their lack of scale or their concentration on a single sport. We employ a passionate and committed team of more than 75 designers, developers, engineers and technicians, who work closely with our scientific and research partners, including McGill University, the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, the Composites Innovation Center and the University of Bath. This team has a world-class reputation and leads the sporting goods industry by continuously bringing to market innovative, often revolutionary, top-quality equipment with superior performance that is trusted by players of all skill levels.

We have a disciplined, rolling, multi-year product development program through which we bring hundreds of new products to market across all of our sports in an organized and efficient manner every year. We introduce new products on a regular basis, with the timing of new product launches typically driven by one- to five-year product life cycles, depending on the sport and the product category.

Diversified and Balanced Business Model

We have built a balanced business model that provides a consistent flow of revenue across several product categories, sports seasons, and geographies. Hockey represents approximately 60% of our sales, with baseball and softball accounting for approximately 30% of sales and other sports contributing the remainder. Within each sport, we maintain a broad product offering across all major equipment categories, with an increasing team and related-apparel offering.

As illustrated below, the majority of sales for the spring/summer season of baseball and softball are shipped December through March, a perfect complement to ice hockey, where the majority of sales are shipped May through October. We believe this diversified model generates more consistent cash flow to allow us to invest in other growth opportunities and/or pay down our debt more evenly each year. The complementary seasonality of ice hockey and diamond sports offers us incremental benefits in physical distribution, raw material purchasing and internal manufacturing, and allows for the most efficient utilization of our third-party manufacturing partners' annual production capacity.

Fiscal 2015 Revenue by Quarter

Source: Management estimates.

The Company has a global sales and distribution network in over 60 countries to service a broad and diverse customer base. We sell to more than 5,000 retailers in Canada, the United States, Scandinavia and Finland, and more than 60 distributors in other international markets. The majority of our sales are to independent or specialty retailers, such as Pure Hockey, Monkey Sports, Pro Hockey Life, Total Hockey, and Lacrosse Unlimited. As a result we have relatively low customer concentration, as evidenced by the fact that our largest customer, Canadian Tire Corporation, Limited, represents only approximately 10% of the Company's sales. The specialty channel offers us numerous attractive qualities, including higher margins, a focus on higher performance products, superior levels of customer service that drive customer engagement with our brand, a more diversified customer base and higher barriers to entry for new brands due to the fragmented nature of the channel and the associated investment to properly service it.

Our sales are diversified geographically, with increased geographic sales concentration in the United States as a result of our acquisition of Easton Baseball/Softball. In Fiscal 2015, approximately 42% of our total sales were in the United States, approximately 33% were in Canada, and approximately 25% were in the rest of the world.

Proven Acquisition Platform

We have a proven capability to identify, acquire, integrate and rapidly grow complementary businesses. We believe that our integrated performance sports platform and scale enable us to materially enhance the synergy potential and success of an acquisition by leveraging our industry-leading R&D expertise, customer relationships, marketing resources and low-cost manufacturing.

Since September 2008, as part of our growth strategy, we have acquired, integrated and significantly accelerated the growth of seven businesses, completing our latest Easton Baseball/Softball in April 2014. Building upon our base with Bauer Hockey, we acquired Mission-ITECH Hockey Inc. ("MISSION") in September 2008, the leader in roller hockey and at the time the fourth largest ice hockey company; entered the performance apparel market through the acquisition of certain intellectual property assets from Jock Plus Hockey Inc. in November 2009; secured a lacrosse platform brand with our acquisition of Maverik Lacrosse LLC ("Maverik" and, such acquisition the "Maverik Acquisition") in June 2010; complemented Maverik with the acquisition of Cascade, the industry-leader in lacrosse helmets, in June 2012; acquired Inaria in October 2012 to provide the capability to support all of our existing sports with team and performance apparel and enter the youth soccer apparel market; entered the diamond sports market through the acquisition of specialty bat manufacturer Combat Sports in May 2013; and gained the market-leading position in the North American baseball and softball market through the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition in April 2014.

As we expand our performance sports platform, we remain focused on valuation, maintaining prudent debt levels and acquiring only those brands and businesses that allow us to drive significant organic revenue, market share and earnings growth. We also maintain the discipline to forgo other acquisition opportunities that do not meet our criteria.

Seasoned Management Team

We are led by an experienced and committed management team with a successful track record of developing and marketing innovative products, integrating strategic acquisitions, and implementing successful growth strategies that continually outperform the respective market in which we compete. Under their leadership, we have expanded our market share in hockey, sourced and integrated seven acquisitions since September 2008, and dramatically increased sales and earnings.

Led by Kevin Davis, Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), who has been with the Company for more than 13 years and Amir Rosenthal, President, PSG Brands, and Chief Financial Officer ("CFO") who has been with the Company for more than seven years, the senior management team has an average of more than 20 years' experience in the sporting goods and consumer product industries, including with Nike, Procter & Gamble, Newell Rubbermaid, Unilever, Cleveland Golf and the Boston Bruins. On a company-wide basis, our dedicated and passionate employees have been with the Company for an average of more than eight years, which we believe represents a strong commitment to the Company and an enthusiasm for our sports categories.

Growth Strategies

Significantly Grow Market Share in Baseball and Softball

The Easton Baseball/Softball business provides us with significant opportunities to build on the brand's strong foundation to further drive revenue growth opportunities in the United States and internationally. We believe EASTON's brand equity well positions us to expand in other diamond sports equipment categories that have historically been less of a focus for the business, such as ball gloves, accessories, batting gloves and apparel. We expect to increase Easton Baseball/Softball's market share in diamond sports equipment by accelerating investment in product development, instilling category management resources and enhancing already strong connections with consumers. We also believe we can leverage our team apparel capabilities to add uniforms to Easton Baseball/Softball's apparel business, further increasing its revenue growth potential. Another area of revenue growth opportunity is the expansion of EASTON's presence internationally, particularly in Japan, the second largest baseball market globally.

We also intend to use the COMBAT brand, its dedicated and passionate team and its intellectual property assets to grow our diamond sports business. We believe COMBAT will continue its rapid growth in bats through an expansion of marketing and grass roots initiatives and by leveraging our unique and proprietary technologies. COMBAT has significant experience embodied in trade secrets and know how related to prototyping and manufacturing advanced composite sporting goods and other products using proprietary software, formulations, seamless construction and precision molding processes. This knowledge enables advanced composite products to be manufactured with greater quality and efficiency, and provides a significant competitive advantage over existing and potential competitors.

Continue to Grow in Hockey

BAUER is the most recognized brand in ice hockey equipment and has been synonymous with the sport itself for more than 85 years. We believe that this strong brand recognition is the result of consistent brand communication, our "true to the game" authenticity, and regularly delivering to market innovative top-quality equipment with superior performance. We have the leading market share in the overall ice hockey equipment market, with an estimated 56% market share in Fiscal 2015.

As the result of our continued focus on category management, product development and consistent innovation, we have increased our ice hockey market share substantially from approximately 35% in 2007 and hold the No. 1 market share position in each of our ice and roller hockey equipment categories, with the exception of goalie equipment for which we now hold the No. 2 market share position. For Fiscal 2015, we estimate that we had more than a 70% market share in ice hockey skates, 65% in helmets and protective, 45% in sticks and 35% in goalie.

While we are already the leading player in ice hockey, we believe there is still a substantial opportunity to increase our market share. We intend to expand our market share in all categories, and are particularly focused on categories where we have a leading but less than 65% market share, such as sticks, the largest ice hockey product category. Historically, we have driven market share growth by introducing new products with performance improvements each year, and we intend to continue leveraging our world-class R&D and product development platform to develop high performance and innovative products that advance player performance and protection and distinguish us from our competitors.

In addition, we are utilizing Bauer Hockey's unique position in the market to develop partnerships and initiatives to drive hockey participation growth across the world. In October 2012, Bauer Hockey, in partnership with the Canadian Hockey Association ("Hockey Canada"), launched "Grow the Game", a multi-faceted global initiative to add one million new players globally to the game of hockey by 2022 (double the recent industry growth rate) and increase player safety. The first round of pilot programs for the "First Shift" program launched in Canada in 2014 and included innovations such as reducing the length of seasons, parent outreach and education, and cost reduction initiatives. In the past year, we have expanded the program across Canada and are working with USA Hockey, Inc. ("USA Hockey") to launch a similar program in the United States. Based on our success in hockey, we see an additional opportunity to launch similar initiatives in other sports.

Bauer Hockey also opened its first ever Own The Moment Hockey Experience in the Boston suburb of Burlington, Massachusetts and plans to open a total of 8-10 retail stores in key North American hockey markets, including Bloomington, Minnesota in the Fall of calendar year 2015. A transformative and historic initiative for Bauer Hockey, these premium retail experiences are expected to elevate the BAUER brand, deliver an unmatched consumer educational experience and serve as the ultimate BAUER brand and product showcase.

Built to inform and inspire hockey players, each Own The Moment Hockey Experience will have expertly trained associates to guide each consumer through a "fit, learn and experience" process. The process includes understanding the player's needs, a customized fit based on the athlete's style of play and the opportunity to try-before-you-buy on an indoor ice rink that will be housed inside the Own The Moment Hockey Experience. The in-store fitting protocol and experience will be personalized for the entire hockey community, including players of all ages and abilities. Every Own The Moment Hockey Experience will have dedicated areas for each product category as well as specific areas to easily educate new-to-hockey families and welcome them to the sport.

Equipped with advanced fitting protocols and unique in-store educational tools, the Company plans to continually test various retail strategies and share the findings with its authorized retail partners throughout the world to improve the consumer experience at every retail destination and further elevate the BAUER brand. In addition to sharing overall strategies, each Own The Moment Hockey Experience will serve as a training site for local retailer staff to learn the latest information about BAUER equipment.

The Company expects its retail operations to grow its overall business and be profitable in the next 12 to 16 months.

Grow Apparel Across All Sports

Our ice hockey, roller hockey, lacrosse and diamond sports authentic brands and product offerings provide us with an opportunity to develop and sell a comprehensive line of related apparel and accessories, including team performance and lifestyle apparel. Drawing on our experience in ice hockey, where we have successfully grown our apparel revenues at a 33% compound annual growth rate from Fiscal 2009 to Fiscal 2015, we believe we can also grow our share in each of these apparel categories in other sports.

We deliver convenience and consistent branding to a traditionally fragmented team apparel market, thus helping our retail partners to provide a fully customized service to their customers. We are expanding our team apparel offering across our high performance sports platform, including building on our iconic EASTON and cutting-edge MAVERIK brands in the diamond sports and lacrosse apparel markets, respectively, while focusing the INARIA brand on the soccer apparel market. The expansion of our team apparel capabilities in hockey under the BAUER brand has provided another lever of growth to our hockey business by combining team apparel offerings with customized equipment such as helmets and pants.

In addition to team apparel, we believe there is a significant opportunity to leverage our strong brand names to increase our presence and product offering in performance and lifestyle apparel. We have made significant R&D investments in apparel as well as in our equipment categories. Recent examples of products developed from these efforts include our training and base layer products for hockey utilizing the 37.5™ moisture management system and our new line of protective hockey apparel utilizing Poron®XRD™, a proprietary foam exclusively available to us for use in hockey and lacrosse. Our performance apparel business has seen the benefit of this investment and grown at a 51% compound annual growth rate from Fiscal 2009 to Fiscal 2015.

Continue Our Rapid Growth in Lacrosse

Through our CASCADE and MAVERIK brands, we estimate our lacrosse market share to be 28%, including a 90% market share in helmets. We believe our intellectual property assets, authentic lacrosse brand names, and strong R&D and product development platform position us well to achieve overall market leadership by 2016.

We intend to continue to focus and drive growth amongst core youth (15 and under) and high school markets, which represent 38% and 55% of lacrosse participants in the United States, respectively. Similar to ice hockey and baseball, the high representation of youth in the sport provides the industry with a more frequent product replacement cycle as players grow out of their equipment.

With our CASCADE brand, we are the leading manufacturer and distributor of men's and youth lacrosse helmets in North America. CASCADE has been able to develop its leading market position, long-term relationships with retailers and strong industry-wide brand recognition due to an efficient manufacturing process and supply chain that allows it to manufacture and ship customized products within 48 hours of order. Cascade has been the helmet sponsor of Major League Lacrosse since 1999, with 85% of the league wearing CASCADE helmets. In addition, 40 of the last 48 NCAA Division I lacrosse national championship finalist teams have exclusively worn CASCADE helmets. We are the exclusive helmet provider for approximately 72% of all NCAA Division I collegiate lacrosse teams, and 48 of the top 50 high school teams in the United States.

Our lacrosse business operates a 72,000 square-foot manufacturing facility in Liverpool, New York with multiple production lines, as well as operations in New York City and Exeter, New Hampshire. As most of our lacrosse business' component suppliers and vendors have facilities located within 300 miles of the Liverpool facility, we are able to manufacture and ship individualized products within a 48-hour turnaround time from order confirmation. We intend to maintain our factory custom competitive advantage while ensuring our lacrosse business continues to provide its specialty dealers and retailers with strong customer service and product customization capabilities, which are particularly important for the many school and travel lacrosse teams that customize the color schemes of their helmets as part of the team uniforms. These unique attributes have enabled our lacrosse business to develop long-term relationships with its retailers while also building strong industry-wide brand recognition. We manufacture and deliver all of our lacrosse helmet products to retailers and other distributors through our facility in Liverpool, New York and our other lacrosse equipment products through our third-party facility in Aurora, Illinois.

Beyond increasing market share in our current men's lacrosse categories, we see substantial opportunity to expand our presence in women's lacrosse and in lacrosse team apparel by leveraging the combined product innovation and research capabilities of the Company. We are well positioned to deliver advancements in women's head protection as a result of CASCADE's leadership position in helmets and recently launched MAVERIK branded lacrosse uniforms through a targeted strategy incorporating our team apparel capabilities and Cascade's strong customization-based customer relationships.

Continue to Pursue Strategic Acquisitions

We have repeatedly used our world-class performance sports product platform to grow our business into new performance equipment and apparel categories and sports markets. Our successful acquisition and integration of seven businesses since 2008 has demonstrated our ability to identify targets and integrate acquired businesses. We are continuing to explore a number of potential near-term opportunities to complement our organic growth. When evaluating potential targets, we look for the ability to leverage our world-class performance sports platform, existing or potential market leaders, authentic brand equity and heritage and sports that demand high quality, innovative performance products. We are disciplined in our approach and have foregone many acquisition opportunities that did not satisfy our criteria.

Operating Segments

The Company has four operating segments: (i) Hockey, (ii) Baseball/Softball, (iii) Lacrosse and (iv) Soccer. Hockey and Baseball/Softball are reportable operating segments, and the remaining operating segments do not meet the criteria for a reportable segment and are included in Other Sports. The Hockey segment includes the BAUER and MISSION brands. The Baseball/Softball segment includes the EASTON and COMBAT brands. Other Sports includes the Lacrosse and Soccer operating segments, which includes the MAVERIK, CASCADE, and INARIA brands.

For operating segments data and geographic segments data, see "Segment Results" and refer to Note 17 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements.

Customers

Our customer base spans over 5,000 retailers in Canada, the United States, the Nordic countries and more than 60 distributors. We sell our products through diverse channels of distribution including: (i) specialty retailers that cater to sports enthusiasts who typically seek premium products at the highest performance levels, (ii) national and regional full-line sporting goods retailers and distributors ("big box"), (iii) institutional buyers such as educational institutions and athletic leagues, and (iv) mass retailers that offer a focused selection of products at entry-level and mid-level price points.

In Fiscal 2015, approximately 58% of our total sales were in the United States, approximately 24% were in Canada, and approximately 18% were in the rest of the world. By channel, 27% of our sales were to big box accounts and 73% was to sport-specific specialty accounts (including larger, multi-door accounts).

Our ten largest customers together accounted for approximately 37% of the Company's sales in Fiscal 2015, with our top customer, Canadian Tire Corporation, Limited, accounting for approximately 10% of our sales.

Bauer Hockey sells directly to our customers in Canada, the United States, and the Nordic countries. In Fiscal 2015, approximately 83% of our ice hockey equipment sales were to these markets. By channel, 18% of Bauer Hockey sales were to large big box accounts and 82% were to hockey specialty accounts (including larger, multi-door accounts). In these jurisdictions, our customers are typically independently-owned specialty hockey retail stores and large sporting goods retailers. Bauer Hockey sells through distributors outside North America and the Nordic countries. In Fiscal 2015, approximately 17% of our ice hockey equipment sales were to distributors representing over 1,000 retail outlets globally, providing us access to the world's largest hockey markets outside North America and the Nordic countries. We believe that larger, more established equipment manufacturers like Bauer Hockey are able to more effectively serve the spectrum of retail channels globally, through established relationships and developed distribution capabilities.

Our lacrosse business exclusively sells its products through dealers and retailers, with minimal direct sales to end-consumers. In Fiscal 2015, approximately 89% of our lacrosse revenues were generated from lacrosse specialty and independent dealers, who then sell through to individuals, teams and institutions. The remaining 11% of our lacrosse revenues were from big box retailers and sporting goods retail chains, primarily on an exclusive basis. Through our grassroots and product-focused marketing approach, we have developed a diverse lacrosse customer base, with no customer representing more than 16% of total Fiscal 2015 sales.

COMBAT's sales and distribution network focuses primarily on North America. COMBAT's customers are made up of online stores, big box retailers, sporting goods chains and baseball specialty dealers. By channel, 3% of COMBAT sales were to big box and sporting goods chains and 97% were to baseball specialty accounts (including larger, multi-door accounts). COMBAT's revenues are also generated via direct sales to end-consumers through team buy-in programs. COMBAT's products are geared towards the high-end baseball and softball market which is currently served by the various retailers described above. This range allows for a wide variety of customers.

Easton Baseball/Softball's sales and distribution network focuses primarily on North America. Easton Baseball/Softball's customers are made up of online stores, big box retailers, sporting goods chains and baseball specialty dealers. By channel, 51% of Easton Baseball/Softball sales were to big box and sporting goods chains and 49% were to baseball specialty accounts (including larger, multi-door accounts). Easton Baseball/Softball's products are geared towards the high-end baseball and softball market which is currently served by the various retailers described above. This range allows for a wide variety of customers.

Inaria predominantly sells its products directly to teams and associations. In Fiscal 2015, approximately 66% of revenues were generated in Canada. The primary soccer product being sold is a "player kit" that includes a jersey, shorts and matching socks for each member of the team or association. Each player kit is sized and personalized with team identifiers and numbering. Revenue is also generated from supplemental products such as off-field apparel, balls, bags and coaching accessories.

Research and Development

We have a disciplined, rolling, multi-year product development program through which we bring hundreds of new products to market annually across all of our sports. To support the successful execution of our new product launches, we (i) fully integrate our manufacturing partners into our R&D program, (ii) incorporate advanced materials into our product design to create lighter, more durable products, (iii) maintain a strong focus and discipline on cost management, and (iv) heavily test prototypes throughout the development phase, including utilization lab tests and on-ice/on-field trials by elite and high level players. We believe that this collaborative process yields superior equipment and performance apparel.

Our brands were founded on and exemplify the principles of performance, innovation and quality. We constantly strive to improve product performance and reduce costs through the use of biomechanical research, high performance materials, efficient manufacturing processes and valuable consumer insights. We believe that the application of next generation manufacturing technology solidifies our position as the industry leader in ice, roller hockey and baseball/softball equipment and will continue to drive the MAVERIK and CASCADE brands in lacrosse. We have been combining relevant technologies, where applicable, across all of our sports to strengthen our equipment offerings.

We work closely with athletes at all levels to provide insights that help us develop new equipment, including some of the world's top professionals. In hockey, we have exclusive partnerships with NHL athletes such as Patrick Kane, Alexander Ovechkin, Steven Stamkos and Henrik Lundqvist who wear BAUER equipment exclusively and offer their insight and guidance to our industry-leading R&D team as we develop the most advanced hockey equipment in the industry. We believe that this collaborative process yields superior ice and roller hockey equipment and that partnering with elite athletes in our lacrosse, baseball and softball businesses will yield similar benefits.

Global Manufacturing, Sourcing and Distribution

Sourcing and Manufacturing

We have an established and comprehensive manufacturing platform with our key suppliers, primarily with facilities in Canada, China, Thailand and Vietnam, where most of our hockey equipment and related apparel is produced exclusively for us at what we believe to be low costs. During Fiscal 2015, greater than 90% of our manufactured products were sourced from international suppliers. We have excellent long-term relationships with our manufacturing partners and vendors, whom we fully integrate into our R&D and product development programs.

Bauer Hockey manufactures the majority of its hockey equipment with an exclusive vendor base. Over 90% of our overseas production is located in China, Thailand and Vietnam. Our remaining hockey products are manufactured either at non-exclusive facilities or at our in-house manufacturing facility in Blainville, Québec, the location of our new world-class research design and development center. Quality control for our products manufactured in Asia is managed from Blainville, Québec and our office in Taichung, Taiwan, where we have a dedicated staff responsible for liaising with internal resources located at our many partner locations.

Our suppliers and manufacturers are contractually bound by strict security and privacy provisions to ensure the protection of our proprietary trade secrets. We have agreements with our manufacturing partners that renew automatically every two years, and many of our manufacturing relationships vary from 10 years to more than 30 years. In the event that there are performance issues with our manufacturers, we retain the right to terminate any of our agreements with no more than 30 days' notice. In our core product categories, we dual-source many products to mitigate the risk of supply disruptions. In addition, we employ strategies with our vendors to reduce the variability of material price increases over certain time periods.

We believe that we have one of the lowest manufacturing costs amongst our equipment competitors based on our manufacturing scale and infrastructure, coupled with our distribution network and R&D processes. We strive to obtain the lowest costs for materials and manufacturing of our products, including a focused initiative on lean manufacturing. In doing so, we seek alternative sources of supply and manufacturing capacity in existing and new markets.

We operate a 72,000 square foot manufacturing facility in Liverpool, New York, with multiple production lines for lacrosse and ice hockey helmets. For MAVERIK branded lacrosse products, we source primarily from suppliers in China, Vietnam, and Taiwan. For uniforms, we source raw materials and work-in-process primarily from suppliers in Asia and finish production at a facility in Toronto, Ontario. Our Combat Sports business manufactures its finished goods at its Ottawa, Ontario manufacturing facility as well as in China.

Easton Baseball/Softball manufactures 100% of its composite bats with an exclusive vendor located in China. Its remaining baseball and softball products are manufactured in non-exclusive facilities that are located throughout Asia, China, Thailand, Indonesia and Vietnam. A very small percentage of Easton Baseball/Softball products are sourced through vendors based in the United States. A majority of our EASTON branded wood bats are manufactured in our Van Nuys, California facility.

In October 2014 the Company announced a five-year plan to improve pre-tax profitability by $30 million (excluding certain non-recurring costs or one-time costs that may be required to implement some of these initiatives). The initiative is focused on efficiency, product cost reductions and inventory quality improvements. The Company expects to increase service levels throughout the supply chain and improve the overall distribution footprint. The cost reductions are expected to begin in Fiscal 2016, with the majority of the benefit to be experienced in the latter stages of the five-year plan.

Distribution

Our ice and roller hockey products are sold in over 60 countries through a distribution network of more than 2,400 retailers and distributors worldwide. We distribute our hockey products to retailers and other distributors through our facility in Mississauga, Ontario, as well as through third-party logistics providers in Aurora, Illinois, Romeoville, Illinois, Salt Lake City, Utah and Boras, Sweden. Our lacrosse products are sold in 10 different countries through a distribution network of more than 600 retailers and distributors worldwide. INARIA branded soccer products are sold directly to teams, clubs and associations across North America. All products are embellished and shipped from our 40,000 square feet facility located in Toronto, Ontario. Easton Baseball/Softball and Combat Sports' products are sold through a distribution network of more than 1,700 retailers and distributors in North America and Europe. With the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition, we added a Salt Lake City, Utah distribution facility and a third-party logistics provider in Memphis, Tennessee. In addition to Baseball/Softball, the Salt Lake City facility also serves as a distribution facility for select hockey products.

Environment

We are not aware of any material environmental problems with respect to any of our operations or facilities. Existing applicable environmental laws and requirements have not had any adverse financial or operational effects on our capital expenditures, earnings or competitive position and we do not anticipate that continuing compliance with such laws and requirements will have a material adverse effect upon our expenditures, earnings or competitive position in future years.

Intellectual Property

We have an extensive portfolio of intellectual property which creates a strategic competitive advantage and can be applied to new performance equipment sports categories. Our portfolio includes 638 patents (including design patents and patents pending). We protect our technologies, products and brands under the patent, copyright and trademark laws of those countries in which we do business. We aggressively defend any infringements of our patents to the fullest extent possible.

In addition, we own a significant number of trademarks including BAUER, SUPREME, NEXUS, MISSION, MAVERIK, CASCADE, INARIA, COMBAT, EASTON and MAKO. Other significant trademarks include COOPER, ITECH, JOCK PLUS and TUUK, as well as LANGE, MICRON, DAOUST, MEGA, LASER, and FLAK.

At the time of the sale of the Bauer Hockey Business by NIKE, Inc., including its affiliates ("Nike"), where "Bauer Hockey Business" means the business consisting of, among other things, the design development, manufacturing and marketing of performance sports products of ice hockey and roller hockey, as at the time of the sale of such business by Nike, Nike granted to us an exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free, perpetual limited license to use the VAPOR brand in connection with the manufacture and sale of certain products, subject to the terms and conditions set out in the trademark license agreement, dated April 16, 2008 (the "Vapor License Agreement"). Pursuant to a co-existence agreement, Nike assigned to us its ownership of the SUPREME brand with respect to hockey and skating equipment and related apparel.

Information Technology

We use our information systems to manage our customer orders, deliveries and manufacturing processes. We primarily operate a global SAP infrastructure. We have a North American integrated business-to-business system for our sales representatives and retailers, BauerBiz, which facilitates approximately 80% of our hockey-related orders. Along with other business systems, these tools provide business process support and intelligence across our entire integrated business process, from concept to consumer. In order to protect our ability to conduct business, several risk mitigation techniques are used across our hardware and network equipment, and telecommunications. In addition, despite the Company's implementation of security measures, its systems, are vulnerable to damages from computer viruses, unauthorized access, cyberattack and other similar disruptions. In the event we experience significant disruptions with our information technology system, we may not be able to fix our systems in an efficient and timely manner. These risks are greater with increased information transmission over the Internet and the increasing level of sophistication posed by cyber criminals. See "Risk Factors- If we experience significant disruptions in our information technology systems, our business and financial results may be adversely affected."

Employees and Culture

We have an innovative and energetic culture. Our entire Performance Sports Group team is passionate about our brands, our businesses, ice and roller hockey, lacrosse, baseball and softball, soccer and sports in general. Most of our employees are involved in hockey, lacrosse, or baseball and softball outside of work in one manner or another. Our employees' commitment and dedication to our company is supported by their significant length of service. Our employees have been with the Company an average of approximately eight years.

As of May 31, 2015, the Company had 872 employees globally. By function, these employees are in Customer Service (72), Distribution (142), Factory (149), Foreign Sourcing (14), Product/R&D (162), Sales (78), Marketing (58), and Administrative (197). By location, these employees are in Canada (370), U.S. (445), Taiwan (19), Sweden (24), Germany (8), and Finland (6). By line of business, these employees are in hockey and shared services (473), baseball and softball (263), lacrosse (73), and apparel (53).

No employees in the United States are represented by any labour union or covered by a collective bargaining agreement. In Canada, certain of our employees are represented by unions. In Mississauga, Ontario, approximately 54 of our employees belong to the Glass, Molders, Pottery, Plastics and Allied Workers International Union and are subject to a three-year collective bargaining agreement expiring on July 6, 2017. In Blainville, Québec, 34 of our full-time employees are members of the United Steelworkers Union of America and are subject to a five-year collective bargaining agreement expiring on November 30, 2017. We have not experienced any labour-related work stoppages and we believe that our relationship with our employees is good.

Seasonality

Our business demonstrates substantial seasonality, although this seasonality has been reduced as a result of the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition. The spring/summer season of baseball and softball is highly complementary to the fall/winter season of hockey, and our quarterly sources of revenue and profitability are more balanced throughout the year as a result. The more evenly distributed seasonality of the combined business provides more consistent working capital levels and allows us to improve our efficiency in our manufacturing, distribution and other efforts.

Generally, our highest sales volumes for hockey occur during the first quarter of our fiscal year. Our next highest sales volumes for hockey occur during the second quarter of our fiscal year. Our lowest sales volumes for hockey occur during the third quarter of our fiscal year. In ice hockey, we have three sub-brands of products - VAPOR, SUPREME and NEXUS. In certain fiscal years, we have launched new products under more than one sub-brand. The launch timing of our products may change in future periods.

In lacrosse, our highest sales volumes for MAVERIK and CASCADE products occur in the second and third fiscal quarters.

In baseball/softball, our highest sales volumes for EASTON and COMBAT products occur in the third and fourth fiscal quarters.

The shipment of INARIA soccer products occurs substantially in the first and fourth fiscal quarters. We expect our team apparel revenues, including uniforms for ice hockey, roller hockey, lacrosse and other team sports, to align with the underlying sports' selling seasons as we expand our team apparel offering. In addition, these custom team orders are typically fulfilled within a 30 to 60 day turnaround time, so the visibility to customer orders in advance is limited.

The following table reflects the seasonality of net revenues for each of the quarters in the three most recent fiscal years:

		Percent of Fiscal Net Revenues
Fiscal Year		Three-Month Period Ended August 31	Three-Month Period Ended November 30	Three-Month Period Ended February 28	Three-Month Period Ended May 31
2015 [(1)]		30.1%	26.3%	21.0%	22.6%
	2014	34.5%	26.2%	13.9%	25.4%
	2013	37.1%	27.4%	13.8%	21.7%

(1) Revenue seasonality more balanced as a result of the Easton baseball/softball acquisition.

See "Risk Factors-Our business is affected by seasonality, which could result in fluctuations in our operating results and the trading price of the Common Shares."

Item 1A. RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the risks described below, which are qualified in their entirety by reference to, and must be read in conjunction with, the detailed information appearing elsewhere in this annual report on Form 10-K and all other information contained in this annual report on Form 10-K. The risks and uncertainties described below are those we currently believe to be material, but they are not the only ones we face. If any of the following risks, or any other risks and uncertainties that we have not yet identified or that we currently consider not to be material, actually occur or become material risks, our business and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected.

Risks Related to Our Business

Our business depends on strong brands, and if we are not able to maintain and enhance our brands we may be unable to sell our products, which would harm our business and cause the results of our operations to suffer.

We believe that the brand image we have developed has significantly contributed to the success of our business. We also believe that maintaining and enhancing the BAUER, VAPOR, SUPREME, NEXUS, MISSION, MAVERIK, CASCADE, INARIA, COMBAT, EASTON and MAKO brands is critical to maintaining and expanding our customer base. Maintaining and enhancing our brands may require us to make substantial investments in areas such as R&D, marketing and employee training, and these investments may not be successful. A primary component of our strategy involves expanding into other geographic markets, particularly within Russia and other Eastern European countries (for ice hockey), in Japan and other non-North American countries (for baseball and softball) and in Canada (for lacrosse). As we expand into new geographic markets, consumers in these markets may not accept our brand image and may not be willing to pay a premium to purchase our sporting equipment as compared to the locally established branded equipment. We anticipate that as our business expands into new markets, maintaining and enhancing our brands may become increasingly difficult and expensive. If we are unable to maintain or enhance the image of our brands, it could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Sales of our products may be adversely affected if we cannot effectively introduce new and innovative products that meet our quality standards.

Although design, safety and performance of our products is a key factor for consumer acceptance of our products, technical innovation and quality control in the design and manufacture of sporting equipment and related apparel is also essential to the commercial success of our products. R&D plays a key role in technical innovation. We include specialists in the fields of biomechanics, engineering, industrial design and related fields, as well as research committees and advisory boards made up of athletes, coaches, trainers, equipment managers and other experts to develop and test cutting-edge performance products. While we strive to produce quality products that enhance athletic safety and performance and maximize comfort, if we fail to introduce high quality technical innovation in our products the consumer demand for our products could decline.

The sporting equipment and related apparel industry is subject to constantly and rapidly changing consumer demands based, in part, on performance benefits. Our continued success depends, in part, on our ability to anticipate, gauge and respond to these changing consumer preferences in a timely manner while preserving the authenticity and quality of our brands. We believe the historical success of our business has been attributable, in part, to the introduction of products that represent an improvement in performance over products then available in the market. Our future success and growth will depend, in part, upon our continued ability to develop and introduce innovative products. Successful product design, however, can be displaced by other product designs introduced by competitors which shift market preferences in their favor. If we do not introduce successful new products or our competitors introduce products that are superior to ours, our customers may purchase more products from our competitors, which would result in a decrease in our revenues and an increase in our inventory levels, either of which could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Our success is also dependent on our ability to prevent competitors from copying our innovative products and on the laws and law enforcement practices in respect of intellectual property in the countries in which we manufacture and sell our products. We may not be able to obtain intellectual property protection for an innovative product and, even if we do, we cannot assure that we would be successful in challenging a competitor's attempt to copy that product. Conversely, our competitors may obtain intellectual property protection for superior products that would preclude us from offering the same or similar features on our products. If a competitor's proprietary product feature were to become the industry standard, our customers may purchase more products from our competitors, which would result in a decrease in our revenues and an increase in our inventory levels, either of which could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

If we experience problems with the quality of our products, we may incur substantial expense to remedy the problems and our reputation and brands may be harmed, which could adversely affect our business and financial condition. See also "Risk Factors - We are subject to product liability, warranty and recall claims, and our insurance coverage may not cover such claims."

Our financial results will be affected by market conditions in the sporting equipment and related apparel industry, which is highly competitive and has certain segments with low barriers to entry.

The sporting equipment industry is highly competitive. Competitive factors that affect our market position include the style, quality, technical and safety aspects and pricing of our products and the strength and authenticity of our brands. While our brand recognition creates significant barriers to entry in most of our markets, there are minimal barriers to entry into certain segments of the sporting equipment industry and related apparel industry. For example, there are low barriers to entry in the related apparel market, including certain performance, team and lifestyle segments. The general availability of offshore manufacturing capacity allows for rapid expansion by competitors and new entrants. Our competitors may overproduce or face financial or liquidity difficulties which may lead them to release their products at lower prices into the market or offer discounts to clear their inventory, resulting in decreased demand for our products. We face competition from well-known sporting goods companies, such as adidas AG-owned Reebok, which has strong brand recognition inside and outside of hockey (and which also owns both the REEBOK and CCM brands) and Easton Hockey (which utilizes the EASTON brand under a trademark license from us). In baseball and softball, we compete with a number of international peers such as Jarden-owned RAWLINGS, Amer Sports-owned WILSON and LOUISVILLE SLUGGER and Mizuno Corp.-owned MIZUNO. In lacrosse, our principal competitors include New Balance-owned WARRIOR and BRINE, and privately-held STX, each of which has significant market share (other than in the helmet category), as well as Jarden-owned DEBEER in women's lacrosse. We also compete with smaller companies who specialize in marketing to our core customers. Our inability to effectively compete in the sporting equipment and related apparel market could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

One of our growth strategies is to operate in the highly competitive apparel market and the brand recognition, size and resources of some of our competitors may allow them to compete more effectively than we can, resulting in us failing to execute on such growth strategy, a loss of our market share and a decrease in our net revenue and profitability.

The market for athletic apparel is highly competitive and there are low barriers to entry in certain segments of the apparel market, including performance, team and lifestyle segments. Competition may result in pricing pressures, reduced profit margins or lost market share or a failure to grow our market share, any of which could adversely affect our business and financial condition. We compete directly against wholesalers and direct retailers of athletic apparel, including large, diversified apparel companies with substantial market share and established companies expanding their production and marketing of athletic apparel. We also face competition from wholesalers and direct retailers of traditional commodity athletic apparel, such as cotton T-shirts and sweatshirts. Many of our competitors in this segment are large apparel and sporting goods companies with strong worldwide brand recognition, such as Nike, Under Armour, Inc. and adidas AG, which includes the ADIDAS and REEBOK brands. Due to the fragmented nature of the industry, we also compete with other apparel sellers, including those specializing in hockey, baseball and softball, and lacrosse related apparel. Many of our competitors have significant competitive advantages, including longer operating histories, larger and broader customer bases, more established relationships with a broader set of suppliers, greater brand recognition and greater financial, R&D, store development, marketing, distribution and other resources than we do. In addition, much of our athletic apparel is sold at a price premium to our competitors.

Our competitors may be able to create and maintain brand awareness and market share in apparel more quickly and effectively than we can by using traditional forms of advertising or otherwise. Our competitors may also be able to increase sales in their new and existing markets faster than we do by emphasizing different distribution channels than we do, such as catalog sales or an extensive franchise network and team dealer network, as opposed to distribution through retail stores or wholesale, and many of our competitors have substantial resources to devote toward increasing sales in such ways. If we are unable to grow our apparel business, it could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Our success is dependent on our ability to protect our valuable intellectual property rights worldwide and, if we are unable to acquire, enforce, defend and protect our intellectual property rights, our competitive position may be harmed.

We rely on a combination of patent, trademark, industrial design and trade secret laws in our core geographic markets and other jurisdictions, to protect the innovations, brands and proprietary trade secrets and know how related to certain aspects of our business. We seek to protect our confidential proprietary information, in part, by entering into confidentiality and invention assignment agreements with our employees, consultants, contractors, suppliers, and collaborators. While these agreements are designed to protect our proprietary information, we cannot be certain that such agreements have been entered into with all relevant parties, and we cannot be certain that our trade secrets and other confidential proprietary information will not be disclosed or that competitors will not otherwise gain access to our trade secrets or independently develop substantially equivalent information and techniques. For example, any of these parties may breach the agreements and disclose our proprietary information, including our trade secrets, or any third party may independently develop similar trade secrets and know how, and we may not be able to obtain adequate remedies for such breaches or independent developments. We also seek to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of our confidential proprietary information by maintaining physical security of our premises and physical and electronic security of our information technology systems, but it is possible that these security measures could be breached.

We cannot assure that our actions taken to establish and protect our technology and brands will be adequate to prevent others from seeking to block sales of our products or to obtain monetary damages, based on alleged violation of their patents, trademarks or other proprietary rights. In addition, our competitors have obtained and may continue to obtain patents on certain features of their products, which may prevent us from offering such features on our products, may subject us to patent litigation, and in turn, could result in a competitive disadvantage to us. Moreover, third parties may independently develop technology or other intellectual property that is comparable with or similar to our own, and we may not be able to prevent their use of it. We cannot assure that any third-party intellectual property, including patents and trademarks, for which we have obtained licenses are adequately protected to prevent imitation by others. If those third-party owners fail to obtain or maintain adequate intellectual property protection or prevent substantial unauthorized use of the licensed intellectual property, we risk the loss of our rights under the third-party intellectual property and competitive advantages we have developed based on those rights.

While we have selectively pursued patent and trademark protection in our core geographic markets, in some countries we have not perfected important patent and trademark rights. Further, the laws of some foreign countries do not protect proprietary rights to the same extent or in the same manner as the laws of Canada or the United States. As a result, we may encounter significant problems in protecting, enforcing and defending our intellectual property outside of Canada and the United States. If we are unable to prevent material disclosure of the proprietary and confidential know how and trade secrets related to our technologies to third parties, we will not be able to establish or maintain a competitive advantage in our market, which could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

We may be involved in lawsuits to protect, defend or enforce our intellectual property rights, which could be expensive, time consuming and unsuccessful.

Our success depends in part on our ability to protect our trademarks, patents and trade secrets or know how from unauthorized use by others. To counter infringement or unauthorized use, we may be required to file infringement or misappropriation claims, which can be expensive and time-consuming. Any claims that we assert against perceived infringers could also provoke these parties to assert counterclaims against us alleging that we infringe or misappropriate their intellectual property rights. In addition, in an infringement proceeding, a court may decide that a patent or trademark of ours is invalid or is unenforceable, in whole or part, or may refuse to stop the other party in such infringement proceeding from using the technology or mark at issue on the grounds that our patents do not cover the technology in question or misuse our trade secrets or know how. An adverse result in any litigation or defense proceedings, including proceedings at the patent and trademark offices, could put one or more of our patents or trademarks at risk of being invalidated, held unenforceable or interpreted narrowly, and could put any of our patent or trademark applications at risk of not being issued as a registered patent or trademark. We cannot be sure that our patents, trademarks and trade secrets, including our contractual restrictions, will be adequate to prevent imitation of our products and technology by others. We may be unable to prevent third parties from using our intellectual property rights without our authorization, particularly in countries where we have not registered such rights, where the laws or law enforcement practices do not protect our intellectual property rights as fully as in Canada or the United States, or where intellectual property protection is otherwise limited or unavailable. In some foreign countries, where intellectual property laws or law enforcement practices do not protect our intellectual property rights as fully as in Canada and the United States, third-party manufacturers may be able to manufacture and sell imitation products and diminish the value of our brands as well as infringe our trademark rights. Furthermore, because of the substantial amount of discovery required in connection with intellectual property litigation, there is a risk that some of our confidential proprietary information could be compromised by disclosure during this type of litigation. In addition, there could be public announcements of the results of hearings, motions or other interim proceedings or developments. If securities analysts or investors perceive these results to be negative, it could have a substantial adverse effect on the price of the Common Shares. If we fail to obtain enforceable patent, trademark and trade secret protection, maintain our existing patent, trademark rights and trade secret protection, or prevent substantial unauthorized use of our trade secrets or know how and brands, we risk the loss of our intellectual property rights and competitive advantages we have developed, causing us to lose revenues and have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition. Accordingly, we devote substantial resources to the establishment and protection of our trademarks, patents, industrial designs and trade secrets or know how, and we continuously evaluate the registration of additional trademarks, industrial designs and patents, as appropriate. We cannot guarantee that any of our pending applications will be approved by the applicable governmental authorities. Moreover, even if the applications will be registered during the registration process, third parties may seek to oppose or otherwise challenge these applications or registrations.

Our success relies on our ability to protect our known brands and our rights to the use of such brands. Any difficulties in maintaining these brands may result in damage to our business and financial condition.

Our best known brands include BAUER, VAPOR, SUPREME, NEXUS, MISSION, MAVERIK, CASCADE, INARIA, COMBAT, EASTON and MAKO. We believe that these trademarked and licensed brands, as applicable, are core assets of our business and are of great value to us. If we lose any rights necessary for the use of a product name, our efforts spent building that brand will be lost and we will have to build another brand for that product, which we may not be able to do.

VAPOR, one of our key hockey brands, is not owned by us and VAPOR and SUPREME are subject to use by third parties on products outside of hockey and skating. Our rights to the VAPOR brand are licensed from Nike, and Nike continues to own the mark and the goodwill associated therewith. We are required to comply with certain conditions regarding our use of the VAPOR mark, and are not permitted to use it on apparel or equipment primarily manufactured for participants in athletic activities other than hockey or skating. If we materially breach certain provisions of the Vapor License Agreement and do not or are unable to remedy such breach following notice by Nike, the Vapor License Agreement could be terminated, which would have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition. Nike has rights to use the VAPOR mark and the SUPREME mark on equipment and apparel outside of the hockey and skating markets. If Nike's or its licensees' use of the VAPOR or SUPREME marks is associated with negative publicity, it may have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition.

While we retain ownership of the EASTON and MAKO marks, in connection with the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition, we granted to BRG Sports and its successors and assigns a license to use these brands to identify and market their hockey and cycling products. Under the terms of this license agreement, BRG Sports must ensure that all products, packing and advertising materials are of the same quality attained by BRG Sports in its 2013-2014 hockey and cycling product lines and marketed and distributed through channels that are consistent with maintaining this quality standard. Further, as a result of the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition, we assumed a license granted by Easton-Bell Sports, Inc. to a company owned by one of its founding members, to use the EASTON trademark in connection with the manufacture and sale of archery bows and accessories. As we do not control either of the above licensees or their successors, we can make no assurances as to how they will conduct business under the EASTON and MAKO brand names. If the conduct or product of a licensee were to create negative publicity for the EASTON or MAKO brands, it may have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition.

Our products may infringe the intellectual property rights of others, which may cause us to incur unexpected costs or prevent us from selling our products.

From time to time, third parties have challenged our patents, trademark rights and branding practices, or asserted intellectual property rights that relate to our products and product features. We may be required to defend such claims in the future, which, whether or not meritorious, could result in substantial costs and diversion of resources and could have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition or competitive position. If we are found to infringe a third party's intellectual property rights, we could be forced, including by court order, to cease developing, manufacturing or commercializing the infringing product. Alternatively, we may be required to obtain a license from such third party in order to use the infringing technology and continue developing, manufacturing or marketing the infringing product. However, we may not be able to obtain any required license on commercially reasonable terms or at all. Even if we were able to obtain a license, it could be non-exclusive, thereby giving our competitors access to the same technologies licensed to us. We may also need to redesign or rename some of our products to avoid future infringement liability. In addition, we could be found liable for monetary damages, including treble damages and attorneys' fees if we are found to have willfully infringed a patent. A finding of infringement could prevent us from commercializing our products or force us to cease some of our business operations, which could materially harm our business. We may also elect to enter into license agreements in order to settle patent infringement claims or to resolve disputes prior to litigation, and any such license agreements may require us to pay royalties and other fees that could be significant. Claims that we have misappropriated the confidential information or trade secrets of third parties could have a similar negative impact on our business. Moreover, our involvement in litigation against third parties based on infringement of our intellectual property rights presents some risk that our intellectual property rights could be challenged and invalidated. See also "- We may be involved in lawsuits to protect or enforce our intellectual property rights, which could be expensive, time consuming and unsuccessful". Any of the foregoing could cause us to incur significant costs and prevent us from manufacturing or selling certain of our products, which could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

We may not be successful in designing and manufacturing products that satisfy the testing protocols and standards established by testing and athletic governing bodies or independent third-party testing methods, which could adversely affect our business and financial conditions.

Our success depends on, among other things, the value and reputation of our brands. Negative publicity regarding any of our brands or products, could adversely affect our reputation and sales. Our products are designed to satisfy the standards established by a number of regulatory and testing bodies, including the Canadian Standards Association (the "CSA"), the Hockey Equipment Certification Council, and National Operating Committee on Standards for Athletic Equipment ("NOCSAE"), as well as by athletic organizations and governing bodies, including the NHL, MLB, NCAA, Little League Baseball and USA Baseball. For certain products, we rely on our in-house testing equipment to ensure that such products comply with these standards. In addition, conferences within these athletic organizations have their own standards that can be stricter than the standards promulgated by the organizations themselves. Furthermore, independent research organizations may evaluate the safety and performance of our products under their own testing protocols and publicize these evaluations.

There can be no assurance that our products will continue to satisfy, and future products will satisfy, the standards established by testing and athletic governing bodies, that our in-house testing equipment will produce the same results as the equipment used by the applicable testing bodies, athletic organizations and governing bodies or that existing standards or testing protocols will not be interpreted and altered in ways or at times that adversely affect our brands and the sales of our products. Any failure to comply with applicable standards or resolve identified issues with applicable governing bodies and any negative publicity that results from third-party evaluation of our products could have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition. Our products also expose us to warranty claims and product liability claims, class action lawsuits and regulatory investigations, in the event that products designed, manufactured or sold by us actually or allegedly fail to perform as expected, or the use of those products results, or is alleged to result, in personal injury, death or property damage.

Sales of our baseball and softball products will be adversely affected if we cannot satisfy the standards established by athletic organizations and governing bodies. These standards can be changed on short notice and in ways that are disruptive to manufacturers such as us. USA Baseball announced a new bat standard for all youth baseball (which covers players 14 years old and under) that will take effect January 1, 2018. All youth baseball play governed by USA Baseball (with the exception of USSSA Baseball), must use bats compliant with USA Baseball's youth standard.

In the past, in response to injuries or death caused by balls hit off non-wood bats, industry governing bodies such as Little League Baseball and several state legislatures and other local governing bodies introduced bills to ban non-wood bats in youth sports. For example, in March 2007, the New York City Council passed a law banning non-wood bats in high school games. A successful bill in a state legislature or other local governing bodies or a change in NCAA regulations to restrict or ban the use of non-wood bats could adversely affect our business and financial condition. In the past, the NCAA has also considered restricting the use of non-wood bats and passed regulations limiting batted ball speed. In August 2009, the NCAA placed a moratorium on the use of composite bats in NCAA competition. The NCAA's concern about composite bats is that they are susceptible to performance improvement above standards set by the NCAA, either through normal use or alterations to the bats made illegally by players. Subsequently, the NCAA has decided that composite bats will be allowed to be used provided that they pass the revised performance standards limiting batted ball speed. If the NCAA, Little League Baseball, USA Baseball or other governing bodies were to prohibit composite bats, or if we were not able to adapt our products to the standards the NCAA may develop, it could have a negative impact on our operating results.

Some of our lacrosse products are made to meet requirements of governing bodies and athletic organizations such as the NCAA, National Federation of State High School Associations ("NFHS") and U.S. Lacrosse. Specifically, lacrosse helmets, facemasks and lacrosse balls must meet the NOCSAE standard. Lacrosse goggles are made to meet an American Society for Testing and Materials standard for lacrosse eyewear. These requirements and standards may change on short notice and any failure to comply with applicable requirements or standards could have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition. For example, in November 2014, NOCSAE questioned the manner of the Company's testing and the adequacy of certain of its quality assurance/quality control procedures which NOCSAE asserted were required to support manufacturer certification to the helmet standard. In connection with this inquiry, NOCSAE decertified the CASCADE R model helmet on November 20, 2014, although this model helmet had received passing test results at two of the three independent laboratories approved by NOCSAE for helmet testing and certification. In addition to public announcement of the decertification of the R model helmet, NOCSAE notified the various sports governing bodies which require that lacrosse helmets used in league play under their jurisdiction be certified to NOCSAE standards.

In order to satisfactorily resolve the decertification issue, the Company and NOCSAE reached agreement on a modification to existing R model helmets that met NOCSAE requirements for recertification of the subject helmets. NOCSAE and the Company announced this resolution on December 12, 2014. We immediately implemented the modification program with an extensive outreach, including direct contact to consumers. After completion of certification testing and passing a third-party quality audit at our Liverpool , New York manufacturing facility, NOCSAE on December 24, 2014 approved our shipments of both retrofitted R helmets and newly manufactured R helmets.The estimated number of retrofitted R helmets to date is approximately 80,000, but the Company estimates that approximately 92,000 R helmets will be retrofitted pursuant to the modification program.

Academic institutions or other independent research organizations may evaluate the safety and performance of our products under their own testing protocols and publicize these evaluations. For example, in March 2015, Virginia Tech University unveiled its STAR Rating System for hockey helmets, which assigned all commercially available hockey helmets with a star ranking based upon the results of its own testing protocol which purportedly measures a helmet's capacity to reduce concussion risk. Each helmet was given a rating between one and five stars or not recommended (below one star). The initial study examined 32 helmets with one helmet receiving a three-star rating, six helmets receiving two-star ratings, 16 helmets receiving one-star rating and nine being not recommended. Bauer Hockey had two two-star-rated helmets, five one-star-rated helmets, and three helmets not recommended. Mission Hockey had two helmets rated one-star. The methodology and findings of Virginia Tech's STAR Rating System have been questioned by hockey equipment manufacturers and independent experts.

We may not be successful in converting booking orders into realized sales.

Our revenues are generated from (i) booking orders, which are typically received several months in advance of the actual delivery date or range of delivery dates, (ii) repeat orders, which are for at-once delivery, and (iii) other orders. Booking orders include firm orders for which we are given specific delivery dates and planning orders for which we are given a range of delivery dates. Planning orders represent a small, but growing part of our total booking orders. In recent years, the conversion rate of planning orders, or the percentage of planning orders which are ultimately shipped, is not materially different than the conversion rate of firm orders. There can be no assurances that this trend will continue for upcoming seasons.

The seasonality of our business and the manner in which we solicit orders could create quarterly variations in the percentage of our revenues that are comprised of booking orders. Although our booking orders give us some visibility into our future financial performance, there may not be a direct relationship between our booking orders and our future financial performance given several factors, among which are: (i) the timing of order placement compared to historical patterns, (ii) our ability to service demand for our product, (iii) the willingness of our customers to commit to purchasing our product, and (iv) the actual sell-through of our products at retail driving changes in repeat orders. As a result, there can be no assurances that our booking orders will translate into realized sales. Failure to convert booking orders into realized sales could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Our business is affected by seasonality, which could result in fluctuations in our operating results and the trading price of the Common Shares.

We experience material fluctuations in aggregate sales volume during the year. Historically, revenues in the first fiscal quarter have exceeded those in the second and fourth fiscal quarters and revenues in the third fiscal quarter are lower than the other quarters. While the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition has reduced our seasonality, the mix of product sales may nevertheless vary considerably from time to time as a result of changes in seasonal and geographic demand for particular types of equipment and related apparel. In addition, our customers may cancel orders, change delivery schedules or change the mix of products ordered with minimal notice. We may also make strategic decisions to deliver and invoice product at certain dates in order to lower costs or improve supply chain efficiencies. As a result, we may not be able to accurately predict our quarterly sales. Accordingly, our results of operations are likely to fluctuate significantly from period to period. This seasonality, along with other factors that are beyond our control, including general economic conditions, changes in consumer preferences, weather conditions, availability of import quotas, and currency exchange rate fluctuations, could adversely affect our business and financial condition. Our operating margins are also sensitive to a number of factors, including those that are beyond our control, as well as shifts in product sales mix, geographic sales trends, and currency exchange rate fluctuations, all of which we expect to continue. Results of operations in any period should not be considered indicative of the results to be expected for any future period.

Our success depends in large part on the continued popularity of ice hockey, baseball and softball, roller hockey, and lacrosse as recreational sports and the popularity of the NHL, Major League Baseball ("MLB"), MLL, NCAA and Little League Baseball and other high-performance leagues for sports in which our products are used.

The demand for our ice hockey equipment and related apparel is directly related to the popularity of the sport of ice hockey, the number of professional and amateur ice hockey participants, and the amount of ice hockey being played by these participants. If ice hockey participation decreases, sales of our ice hockey equipment and related apparel could be adversely affected. The popularity of the NHL, as well as other professional ice hockey leagues in North America, Europe and the rest of the world, also affect the sales of our ice hockey equipment and related apparel. Our brands receive significant "on-ice" exposure as a result of our endorsements with, or purchases by, NHL players and other professional athletes. We depend on this "on-ice" exposure of our brands to increase brand recognition and reinforce the quality and high performance of our products. The Company maintains an important and valuable relationship with the NHL, the world's premier professional hockey league, and any work stoppages or significant reduction in television coverage of NHL games or any other significant decreases in either attendance at NHL games or viewership of NHL games will reduce the visibility of our brands and could adversely affect our sales of hockey equipment and related apparel. The NHL entered into a lockout during a portion of the 2012-2013 NHL regular season, and during that time the Company was unable to sell BAUER products to NHL teams or continue our NHL-related marketing efforts, reducing the visibility of BAUER products. There was a resolution to the NHL lockout on January 12, 2013, but we cannot assure you there will not be another lockout or long term decrease in the popularity of the NHL or other professional hockey leagues or in the "on-ice" exposure of BAUER products, which may adversely affect player participation rates and our sales of ice hockey equipment and related apparel.

Likewise, our sales of baseball and softball, roller hockey and lacrosse equipment and related apparel depend on the popularity of these sports, professional and amateur participation, and brand exposure from league play which if negatively impacted could adversely affect our business and financial condition. If MLB, the NCAA or Little League Baseball were to experience a significant reduction in television coverage or any other significant decreases in either attendance at games or viewership (including, in the case of MLB, as a result of work stoppages), the visibility of our brands would decrease, which could adversely affect the sales of our baseball/softball and lacrosse equipment.

We can provide no assurance that we will be able to maintain our existing endorsements with professional athletes or relationships with these leagues in the future or that we will be able to attract new leagues or athletes to endorse our products. Larger companies with greater access to capital for athlete or league sponsorship may in the future increase the cost of sponsorship to levels we may choose not to match. If this were to occur, our athlete or league sponsors may terminate their relationships with us and endorse the products of our competitors and we may be unable to obtain endorsements from other comparable sponsors.

The value of our brands and sales of our products could be diminished if we, the athletes who use our products or the sports in which our products are used, are associated with negative publicity.

We sponsor a variety of athletes and feature those athletes in our advertising and marketing materials, and many athletes and teams use our products, including in connection with teams or leagues for which we are an official supplier. Actions taken by athletes, teams or leagues associated with our products that harm the reputations of those athletes, teams or leagues could also harm our brand image and result in a material decrease in our revenues, net income, and cash flows which could have an adverse effect on our financial condition and liquidity. We may also select athletes who are unable to perform at expected levels or who are not sufficiently marketable, which could also have an adverse effect on our business. If we are unable in the future to secure prominent athletes and arrange athlete endorsements of our products on terms we deem to be reasonable, we may be required to modify our marketing platform and to rely more heavily on other forms of marketing and promotion, which may not prove to be as effective or may result in additional costs. Also, union strikes or lockouts affecting professional play could negatively impact the popularity of the sport, which could have an adverse effect on our revenues from products used in that sport. Furthermore, negative publicity resulting from severe injuries or death occurring in the sports in which our products are used could negatively affect our reputation and result in restrictions, recalls or bans on the use of our products, whether or not such injuries or deaths are related to our products, and if the popularity of ice hockey, baseball and softball, or lacrosse (or other sports for which we design, manufacture and sell equipment and related apparel) among players and fans were to decrease due to these risks or the associated negative publicity, sales of our products could decrease and it could have an adverse impact on our revenues, profitability and operating results. We could become exposed to additional claims and litigation relating to the use of our products and our reputation may be adversely affected by such claims, whether or not successful or meritorious, including potential negative publicity about our products, which could adversely impact our business and financial condition.

Many of our products or components of our products are provided by a limited number of third-party suppliers and manufacturers and, because we have limited control over these parties, we may not be able to obtain quality products on a timely basis or in sufficient quantities.

We rely on a limited number of suppliers and manufacturers for many of our products and for many of the components in our products. During Fiscal 2015, approximately 95% of our manufactured products were sourced from international suppliers. In addition, a substantial portion of our products are manufactured by third-party manufacturers. During Fiscal 2015, the Company's four largest suppliers of inventory produced approximately 62% of our total inventory purchases.

If we experience significantly increased demand, or if, for any reason, we need to replace an existing manufacturer or supplier, there can be no assurance that additional supplies of raw materials or additional manufacturing capacity will be available when required on terms that are acceptable to us, or at all, or that any new supplier or manufacturer would allocate sufficient capacity to us in order to meet our requirements. In addition, should we decide to transition existing manufacturing between third-party manufacturers, the risk of such a problem could increase. For example, prior to our acquisition of Easton Baseball/Softball, the business experienced quality issues when the manufacturing of composite baseball and softball bats was outsourced, which led to an increase in returns of defective bats in 2008. The issue was successfully addressed by working with the supplier in Asia to improve process controls to allow for the identification and resolution of quality issues prior to products being sold into the marketplace. Even if we are able to expand existing or find new manufacturing sources, we may encounter delays in production and added costs as a result of the time it takes to train our suppliers and manufacturers in our methods, products and quality control standards. Any material delays, interruption or increased costs in the supply of raw materials or manufacture of our products could have an adverse effect on our ability to meet customer demand for our products and result in lower revenues and net income both in the short and long term.

We have occasionally received, and may in the future receive, shipments of products that fail to conform to our quality control standards. In that event, unless we are able to obtain replacement products in a timely manner, we risk the loss of revenues resulting from the inability to sell those products and could incur related increased administrative and shipping costs, and there also could be a negative impact to our brands which could adversely impact our business and financial condition.

Problems with our distribution system could harm our ability to meet customer expectations, manage inventory, complete sales, and achieve objectives for operating efficiencies.

We rely on our distribution facility in Mississauga, Ontario, and on third-party logistics providers in Boras, Sweden, Romeoville, Illinois and Aurora, Illinois for substantially all of our hockey product distribution. We broadened our arrangement with the Romeoville, Illinois and the Aurora, Illinois third-party vendor to encompass the distribution of all U.S. ice hockey equipment, and may further broaden our arrangements with both third-party vendors for additional products, but there can be no assurance that we will be able to enter into an agreement with these third parties on acceptable terms. We rely on our facilities in Salt Lake City, Utah and a third-party logistics provider in Memphis, Tennessee for substantially all of our baseball and softball product distribution. We rely on our facility in Liverpool, New York for substantially all of our lacrosse helmet product distribution and we also distribute certain hockey helmets from this facility. Our distribution network includes computer processes and software that may be subject to a number of risks related to security or computer viruses, the proper operation of software and hardware, electronic or power interruptions or other system failures. We maintain business interruption insurance, but it may not adequately protect us from the adverse effects that could result from significant disruptions to our distribution system, such as the long-term loss of customers or an erosion of our brand image. Our distribution facilities include computer controlled and automated equipment, which means their operations are complicated and may be subject to a number of risks related to security or computer viruses, the proper operation of software and hardware, electronic or power interruptions or other system failures. In addition, because substantially all of our products are distributed from a few locations, our operations could also be interrupted by labour difficulties, or by floods, fires or other natural disasters near our distribution centers. In addition, our distribution capacity is dependent on the timely performance of services by third parties, including the shipping of our products to and from the Aurora, Illinois, Romeoville, Illinois, Boras, Sweden, Memphis, Tennessee, Salt Lake City, Utah, Mississauga, Ontario and Liverpool, New York distribution facilities. If we encounter problems with our distribution system, our ability to meet customer expectations, manage inventory, complete sales and achieve objectives for operating efficiencies could be harmed, which could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

The loss of one or more key customers could result in a material loss of revenues.

Our customers do not have any contractual obligations to purchase our products on a multi-season or multi-year basis. Our ten largest customers together accounted for approximately 37% of the Company's sales in Fiscal 2015, with our top customer, Canadian Tire Corporation, Limited, accounting for approximately 10% of our sales. We face the risk that one or more of our key customers may not increase their business with us as much as we expect, may suffer from an economic downturn, may significantly decrease their business with us, may negotiate lower prices or may terminate their relationship with us altogether. The failure to increase our sales to these customers would have a negative impact on our growth prospects and any decrease or loss of these key customers' business or lower gross margins as a result of negotiated lower prices could adversely affect our business and financial condition. In addition, our customers in the retail industry continue to experience consolidation and some may face financial difficulties from time to time. A large portion of our sales are to specialty and "big box" sporting goods retailers, certain of whom are not strongly capitalized. Adverse conditions in the sporting goods retail industry can adversely impact the ability of retailers to purchase our products, or could lead retailers to request credit terms that would adversely affect our cash flow and involve significant risks of non-payment. As a result, we may experience a loss of customers or the un-collectability of accounts receivable in excess of amounts against which we have reserved, which could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

The cost of raw materials could affect our operating results.

The materials used by us, our suppliers and our manufacturers involve raw materials, including carbon-fiber, aluminum, steel, resin and other petroleum-based products. Significant price fluctuations or shortages in petroleum or other raw materials, including the costs to transport such materials or finished products, the uncertainty of Asian currencies' fluctuations against the U.S. dollar, increases in labour rates, and/or the introduction of new and expensive raw materials, could have an adverse effect on our cost of goods sold, results of operations and financial condition.

We are subject to numerous risks associated with doing business abroad, any one of which, if realized, could adversely affect our business or financial condition.

Our business is subject to the risks generally associated with doing business abroad. We cannot predict the effect of various factors in the countries in which we sell our products or where our suppliers are located, including, among others: (i) economic trends in international markets; (ii) legal and regulatory changes and the burdens and costs of our compliance with a variety of laws, including trade restrictions and tariffs; (iii) difficulties in obtaining, enforcing, defending and protecting intellectual property rights; (iv) increases in transportation costs or delays; (v) work stoppages and labour strikes; (vi) increase and volatility in labour input costs; (vii) fluctuations in exchange rates; (viii) political unrest, terrorism and economic instability; and (ix) limitations on repatriation of earnings. If any of these or other factors were to render the conduct of our business in a particular country undesirable or impractical, our business and financial condition could be adversely affected. Should our current third-party manufacturers become incapable of meeting our manufacturing or supply requirements in a timely manner or cease doing business with us for any reason, our business and financial condition could be adversely affected.

A significant amount of our finished goods are purchased from international third-party suppliers, the majority of which are located in mainland China and Thailand. Most of what we purchase in Asia is finished goods rather than raw materials. We may increase our international sourcing in the future.

Any violation of our policies or any applicable laws and regulations by our suppliers, manufacturers or licensees could interrupt or otherwise disrupt our sourcing, adversely affect our reputation or damage our brand image. While we do not control these suppliers, manufacturers or licensees or their labour practices, negative publicity regarding the production methods of any of our suppliers, manufacturers or licensees could adversely affect our reputation and sales and force us to locate alternative suppliers, manufacturing sources or licensees, which could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Another significant risk resulting from our international operations is compliance with the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA"), Canadian Corruption of Foreign Public Officials Act ("CFPOA"), and other anti-bribery laws applicable to our operations. In many foreign countries, particularly in those with developing economies, it may be a local custom that businesses operating in such countries engage in business practices that are prohibited by the FCPA, the CFPOA or other U.S., Canadian and foreign laws and regulations applicable to us. Although we have adopted policies designed to ensure compliance with the FCPA, the CFPOA and similar laws, there can be no assurance that all of our employees, agents and other channel partners, as well as those companies to which we outsource certain of our business operations, will not take actions in violation of our policies. Any such violation could have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition.

We may not be successful in our efforts to expand into international market segments.

We intend to expand into additional international markets, particularly Russia and other Eastern European countries (for ice hockey), Japan and other non-North American countries (for baseball and softball), and in Canada (for lacrosse), in order to grow our business. These expansion plans will require significant management attention and resources and may be unsuccessful. We have limited experience adapting our products to conform to local cultures, standards and policies, particularly in non-Western markets. In addition, to achieve satisfactory performance for consumers in international locations, it may be necessary to locate physical facilities, such as regional offices, in the foreign market. We may not be successful in expanding into any additional international markets or in generating revenues from foreign operations.

In addition to risks described elsewhere in this annual report on Form 10-K, our international sales and operations are subject to a number of risks, including:

- economic and political conditions, including inflation, fluctuation in interest rates and currency exchange rates;
- government regulation and restrictive governmental actions (such as trade protection measures, including export duties and quotas and custom duties and tariffs), nationalization, measures protecting cultural industries, expropriation and restrictions on foreign ownership and/or corruption or criminal activity;
- restrictions on sales or distribution of certain products and uncertainty regarding enforcement and protection of intellectual property rights;
- business licensing or certification requirements;
- lower levels of consumer spending and fewer opportunities for growth compared to our existing markets; and
- geopolitical events, including unstable governments and legal systems, war, civil unrest, and terrorism.

Adverse developments in any of these areas could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Our results of operations may suffer if we are not able to accurately forecast demand for our products.

To reduce purchasing costs and ensure supply, we place orders with our suppliers in advance of the time period we expect to deliver our products. However, a large portion of our products are sold into consumer markets that are difficult to accurately forecast. If we fail to accurately forecast demand for our products, we may experience excess inventory levels or inventory shortages. Factors that could affect our ability to accurately forecast demand for our products include, among others:

- changes in consumer demand for our products or the products of our competitors;
- new product introductions by our competitors;
- failure to accurately forecast consumer acceptance of our products;
- inability to realize revenues from booking orders;
- work stoppages or negative publicity associated with leagues or athletes we endorse;
- unanticipated changes in general market conditions or other factors, which may result in cancellations of advance orders or a reduction or increase in the rate of reorders placed by retailers;
- weakening of economic conditions or consumer confidence in future economic conditions, which could reduce demand for discretionary items, such as our products;
- terrorism or acts of war, or the threat thereof, which could adversely affect consumer confidence and spending or interrupt production and distribution of products and raw materials;
- abnormal weather pattern or extreme weather conditions including hurricanes, floods, etc., which may disrupt economic activity; and
- general economic conditions.

Inventory levels in excess of consumer demand may result in inventory write-downs and the sale of excess inventory at discounted prices, which could significantly harm our operating results and impair the value of our brands. Inventory shortages may result in unfulfilled orders, negatively impact customer relationships, diminish brand loyalty and result in lost revenues, any of which could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

We are subject to product liability, warranty and recall claims, and our insurance coverage may not cover such claims.

Our products expose us to warranty claims and product liability claims in the event that products manufactured, sold or designed by us actually or allegedly fail to perform as expected, or the use of those products results, or is alleged to result, in personal injury, death or property damage. Further, we or one or more of our suppliers might not adhere to product safety requirements or quality control standards, and products may be shipped to retail partners before the issue is identified. In the event this occurs, we may have to recall our products to address performance, compliance, or other safety related issues. The financial costs we may incur in connection with these recalls typically would include the cost of the product being replaced or repaired and associated labour and administrative costs and, if applicable, governmental fines and/or penalties.

For example, in 2010, Bauer Hockey conducted a voluntary recall of approximately 130,000 youth hockey sticks in North America after we found that the paint on these sticks contained lead in excess of the regulatory limits established in Canada and the United States for children's products. The manufacturer of these sticks assumed full responsibility for the costs incurred by us in connection with this recall, but there can be no assurance that the costs of any future recalls will not be borne, at least in part, by us. In 2012, the lacrosse division of Easton-Bell Sports, Inc. conducted a recall of the Easton "Raptor" lacrosse helmet. The chin bar on the subject helmet was determined to be susceptible to breakage, in which event the wearer would be exposed to a jaw or facial injury. The recall involved approximately 12,000 helmets, was initiated voluntarily, and was performed in conjunction with staff from the Consumer Product Safety Commission ("CPSC"). In March 2015, Bauer Hockey, in cooperation with the CPSC and Health Canada, voluntarily recalled approximately 2,500 goalie mask cages and replacement wires, after determining that the wires on the mask may break, creating a potential risk of facial injury.

Product recalls can harm our reputation and cause us to lose customers, particularly if those recalls cause consumers to question the safety or reliability of our products. Substantial costs incurred or lost sales caused by future product recalls could adversely affect our business and financial condition. Conversely, not issuing a recall or not issuing a recall on a timely basis can harm our reputation and cause us to lose customers for the same reasons as expressed above. Product recalls, withdrawals, repairs or replacements may also increase the amount of competition that we face.

We vigorously defend or attempt to settle all product liability cases brought against us. However, there is no assurance that we can successfully defend or settle all such cases. We believe that we are not currently subject to any material product liability claims not covered by insurance, although the ultimate outcome of these and future claims cannot presently be determined. Because product liability claims are part of the ordinary course of our business, we maintain product liability insurance which we currently believe is adequate. Our insurance policies provide coverage against claims resulting from alleged injuries arising from our products sustained during the respective policy periods, subject to policy terms and conditions. The primary portion of our product liability coverage is written under a policy expiring on June 1, 2016 with a primary limit of $5 million, and with a self-insured retention of $50,000 for all products, including helmets and soft goods. We have first umbrella coverage with a limit of $10 million above the primary layer and a second umbrella layer with a limit of $10 million, for a total of $20 million. The umbrella coverages expire on June 1, 2016. We also have first excess liability coverage, expiring on June 1, 2016, with a limit of $25 million above the umbrella layers, and a second excess layer with an additional limit of $25 million, also expiring on June 1, 2016, providing a total of $75 million of liability insurance. Management believes the insurance will be renewed on substantially similar terms upon its expiry but there can be no assurance that this coverage will be renewed or otherwise remain available in the future, that our insurers will be financially viable when payment of a claim is required, that the cost of such insurance will not increase, or that this insurance will ultimately prove to be adequate under our various policies. Furthermore, future rate increases might make insurance uneconomical for us to maintain. These potential insurance problems or any adverse outcome in any liability suit could create increased expenses which could harm our business. We are unable to predict the nature of product liability claims that may be made against us in the future with respect to injuries, diseases or other illnesses resulting from the use of our products or the materials incorporated in our products.

With regard to warranty claims, our actual product warranty obligations could materially differ from historical rates which would oblige us to revise our estimated warranty liability accordingly. Also, certain products sold by us, such as composite ice hockey sticks and aluminum and composite baseball bats, have a higher warranty expense than other products. Adverse determinations of material product liability and warranty claims made against us could have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition (including gross profit) and could harm the reputation of our brands.

We may not be able to successfully open and operate Own The Moment Hockey Experience retail stores, which could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Our ability to successfully open and operate Own The Moment Hockey Experience retail stores as and when contemplated depends on many factors, including, among others, our ability to identify and secure suitable locations; negotiate acceptable lease terms; hire, train and retain store personnel with the appropriate expertise; immerse new store personnel into our corporate culture; stock sufficient inventory levels; and successfully integrate new stores into our existing company operations and information technology systems.

Our Own The Moment Hockey Experience retail stores will also generally be subject to the risks associated with operating in a retail environment, including, among others, the following: risks associated with leasing real estate as our Own The Moment Hockey Experience locations are, and will be, leased; changing customer demographics, which may result in the planned locations of our Own The Moment Hockey Experiences becoming less attractive; social or economic conditions where our Own The Moment Hockey Experience retail stores are expected to be located could decline in the future, thus resulting in potentially reduced sales at those locations; intense competition in the retail hockey equipment industry with the industry being fragmented with respect to product level and brand selection, price points, physical store formats, customer experience and service and location being the principal competitive factors; changing customer demands, shopping patterns or preferences with customers having a number of shopping alternatives, including e-commerce shopping alternatives; potential breaches of customer, employee or company data, which could attract a substantial amount of media attention, damage our customer relationships and reputation and result in lost sales, potential fines or lawsuits; and extreme or unseasonable weather conditions in the areas in which our Own The Moment Hockey Experience retail stores are expected to be located.

Furthermore, failure to design, integrate and/or execute our plans for our Own The Moment Hockey Experience retail stores may result in, among other things, incremental financial expenditures, loss of capital investment, divergence of management time and resources, potential disruption or impact on our relationship with existing retail partners and negative customer experiences and related impressions with our brand.

Our strategic initiatives are subject to numerous assumptions and factors, many of which are outside our control, and there are no assurances that such initiatives will be realized or on the anticipated timeline.

In order to operate our business, achieve our goals and remain competitive, the Company continuously seeks to identify and devise, invest in, implement and pursue strategic, business, technological and other important initiatives. These initiatives, including activities relating to their development and implementation, may be adversely impacted by a wide range of factors, many of which are beyond the Company's control. Such factors include those relating to foreign exchange rates, labour issues or wage increases, liquidity, competition, cost of raw materials and commodities, unanticipated expenses, economic conditions (including inflationary risk), the performance of third parties (including suppliers), the implementation and integration of such initiatives into the Company's other activities and processes as well as the adoption and acceptance of these initiatives by the Company's customers, suppliers, employees and personnel.

In October 2014, the Company launched a profitability improvement initiative aimed at securing increased efficiency, product cost reductions, inventory quality improvements and improvements in the overall effectiveness of the Company's supply chain, with the goal of realizing approximately $30 million of increased pre-tax profitability within five years (excluding certain non-recurring costs or one-time costs that may be required to implement some of these initiatives). Despite the Company's plans and objectives, the Company may not be able to successfully achieve its target goal within the five year time period or fully realize the underlying objectives of its profitability improvement initiative, including those which seek to decrease costs, improve service levels throughout the Company's supply chain or promote efficiencies.

The Company launched a cash flow improvement initiative that is targeting an improvement in net cash flow from working capital of $30 million in Fiscal 2016. Despite the Company's plans and objectives, the Company may not be able to successfully achieve its target goal within Fiscal 2016 or fully realize the underlying objectives of its cash flow improvement initiative.

The Company's profitability improvement initiative and cash flow improvement initiative are based on certain market conditions and other reasonable assumptions, estimates, analyses, beliefs and opinions of management, including, but not limited to certain macro-economic factors, such as currency rates, as well as labour, raw material and other input costs, which management believes to be relevant as of the date hereof, but are subject to inherent risks and uncertainties, which give rise to the possibility that the Company's assumptions, estimates, analyses, beliefs and opinions may not be correct and that the Company's expectations, goals and initiatives will not be achieved.

A delay or failure to sufficiently and successfully identify and devise, invest in or implement any of the Company's strategic initiatives, including the profitability improvement initiative, could adversely affect the Company's ability to operate its business, achieve its goals and remain competitive and could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

There can be no assurance that our third-party suppliers and manufacturers will continue to manufacture products that comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

The labeling, distribution, importation and sale of our products are subject to extensive regulation by various federal agencies, including the Competition Bureau (Industry Canada) in Canada, and the Federal Trade Commission, the CPSC, and state attorneys general in the United States, as well as by various other federal, state, provincial, local and international regulatory authorities in the countries in which our products are manufactured, distributed or sold. If we fail to comply with applicable regulations, we could become subject to significant penalties or claims, which could harm our results of operations or our ability to conduct our business. In addition, the adoption of new regulations or changes in the interpretation of existing regulations may result in significant compliance costs or discontinuation of product sales and may impair the marketing of our products, which could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Our ability to source our merchandise profitably or at all could be affected if new trade restrictions are imposed or existing trade restrictions become more burdensome.

The United States and the countries in which our products are produced or sold internationally have imposed and may impose additional quotas, duties, tariffs, or other restrictions or regulations, or may adversely adjust prevailing quota, duty or tariff levels. For example, under the provisions of the World Trade Organization ("WTO"), Agreement on Textiles and Clothing, effective as of January 1, 2005, the United States and other WTO member countries eliminated quotas on textiles and apparel-related products from WTO member countries. In 2005, China's exports into the United States surged as a result of the eliminated quotas. In response to the perceived disruption of the market, the United States imposed new quotas, which remained in place through the end of 2008, on certain categories of natural-fiber products that we import from China. These quotas were lifted on January 1, 2009. Countries impose, modify and remove tariffs and other trade restrictions in response to a diverse array of factors, including global and national economic and political conditions, which make it impossible for us to predict future developments regarding tariffs and other trade restrictions. For example, although Canada cut its tariffs on hockey equipment in 2013, it is impossible for us to predict whether they will return in the future. Trade restrictions, including tariffs, quotas, embargoes, safeguards and customs restrictions, could increase the cost or reduce the supply of products available to us or may require us to modify our supply chain organization or other current business practices, any of which could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

If we lose the services of our CEO or other members of our team who possess specialized market knowledge and technical skills, it could reduce our ability to compete, to manage our operations effectively, or to develop new products and services.

Many of our team members have extensive experience in our industry and with our business, products, and customers. Since we are managed by a small group of senior executive officers, the loss of the technical knowledge, management expertise and knowledge of our operations of one or more members of our team, including Kevin Davis, our CEO, or Amir Rosenthal, our President, PSG Brands, and CFO, could result in a diversion of management resources, as the remaining members of management would need to cover the duties of any senior executive who leaves us and would need to spend time usually reserved for managing our business to search for, hire and train new members of management. The loss of some or all of our team could negatively affect our ability to develop and pursue our business strategy, and/or our ability to integrate recent acquisitions, which could adversely affect our business and financial condition. In addition, the market for key personnel in the industry in which we compete is highly competitive, and we may not be able to attract and retain key personnel with the skills and expertise necessary to manage our business. We do not maintain "key executive" life insurance.

Litigation may adversely affect our business and financial results.

Our business is subject to the risk of litigation by employees, customers, consumers, suppliers, competitors, shareholders, government agencies, or others through private actions, class actions, administrative proceedings, regulatory actions or other litigation. For example, on June 5, 2014, the Company received notice from the Canadian Competition Bureau that it had commenced an inquiry relating to certain representations allegedly made by Bauer Hockey Corp. in relation to the RE-AKT hockey helmet. The Company reached a settlement with the Canadian Competition Bureau in respect of its inquiry in November 2014. There can be no assurance that the Company will not be the subject of further regulatory inquiries in the future. The outcome of litigation, particularly class action lawsuits, regulatory actions and intellectual property claims, is difficult to assess or quantify. Plaintiffs in these types of lawsuits may seek recovery of very large or indeterminate amounts, and the magnitude of the potential loss relating to these lawsuits may remain unknown for substantial periods of time. In addition, certain of these proceedings, if decided adversely to us or settled by us, may result in liability material to our financial statements as a whole or may negatively affect our operating results if changes to our business operations are required. The cost to defend future litigation may be significant. There also may be adverse publicity associated with litigation that could negatively affect customer perception of our business or our products, regardless of whether the allegations are valid or whether we are ultimately found liable. As a result, litigation may adversely affect our business and financial condition.

We may be subject to certain class action lawsuits, which could result in negative publicity and, if decided against us, could require us to pay substantial judgments, settlements or other penalties.

In addition to being subject to litigation in the ordinary course of business, in the future, we may be subject to certain class action lawsuits. We expect that this type of litigation may be time consuming, expensive and distracting from the conduct of our daily business. It is possible that we will be required to pay substantial judgments, settlements or other penalties and incur expenses that could have an adverse effect on our operating results, liquidity or financial position. Expenses incurred in connection with these lawsuits, which include substantial fees of lawyers and other professional advisors and our obligations to indemnify officers and directors who may be parties to such actions, could adversely affect our operating results, liquidity or financial position. We do not know if any of this type of litigation and resulting expenses will be covered by insurance. In addition, these lawsuits may cause our insurance premiums to increase in future periods. For example, certain sports equipment manufacturers are currently subject to ongoing class action lawsuits. The Company and Cascade are defending two putative class action lawsuits (one filed in Pennsylvania and the other filed in Connecticut) on behalf of purchasers of the CASCADE R helmet model, in each case with allegations and claims arising in connection with NOCSAE's decertification of the helmet in November 2014. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to prevail in, or achieve a favorable settlement of, this litigation or any other class action lawsuits that may arise in the future. There also may be adverse publicity associated with class action lawsuits that could negatively affect customer perception of the sports in which our products are used or of our business, regardless of whether the allegations are valid or whether we are ultimately found liable.

Employment-related matters, such as unionization, may affect our profitability or reputation.

As of May 31, 2015, 88 of our 872 employees were unionized. Although we have good labour relations with these unionized employees, we have little control over union activities and could face difficulties in the future. Our collective bargaining agreement with a union in Mississauga, Ontario, covering 54 employees, expires on July 6, 2017. Our collective bargaining agreement with a union at our R&D and manufacturing facility in Blainville, Québec, covering 32 employees, expires on November 30, 2017. Labour organizing activities could result in additional employees becoming unionized. We can provide no assurance that we will be able to negotiate new collective bargaining agreements on similar or more favorable terms or that we will not experience work stoppages or other labour problems in the future at our unionized and non-union facilities. We could experience a disruption of our operations or higher ongoing labour costs, which could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

In addition, labour disputes at our suppliers or manufacturers create significant risks for our business, particularly if these disputes result in work slowdowns, lockouts, strikes or other disruptions during our peak importing or manufacturing seasons, and could have an adverse effect on our business, potentially resulting in canceled orders by customers, unanticipated inventory accumulation or shortages, and reduced revenues and net income.

Further, any negative publicity associated with actions by any of our employees, whether during the course of employment or otherwise, could negatively affect our reputation, which could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

If we experience significant disruptions in our information technology systems, our business and financial results may be adversely affected.

We depend on our information technology systems for the efficient functioning of our business, including accounting, data storage, customer order processing, retail, marketing, social media, internal/external communication, purchasing and inventory management. Our software solutions are intended to enable management to better and more efficiently conduct our operations and gather, analyze, and assess information across all business segments and geographic locations. However, difficulties with the hardware and software platform could disrupt our operations, including our ability to timely ship and track product orders, project inventory requirements, manage our supply chain, and otherwise adequately service our customers, which would have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition. In addition, despite the Company's implementation of security measures, its systems, are vulnerable to damages from computer viruses, unauthorized access, cyberattack and other similar disruptions. In the event we experience significant disruptions with our information technology system, we may not be able to fix our systems in an efficient and timely manner. These risks are greater with increased information transmission over the Internet and the increasing level of sophistication posed by cyber criminals. If a person penetrates the Company's network security or otherwise misappropriates sensitive data, the Company could be subject to liability, there could be a loss of confidence in the Company's ability to serve its clients or the Company's business could be interrupted, and any of these developments could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, results of operations and financial condition. Costs associated with potential interruptions to our information systems could be significant.

In addition, as these threats continue to evolve, we may be required to invest significant additional resources to modify and enhance our information security and controls or to investigate and remediate any security vulnerabilities. Although none of the threats that have been encountered to date have substantially impacted our business, the impact of a significant event could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business and financial condition.

We may be subject to potential environmental liability.

We are subject to many federal, state, provincial, and local requirements relating to the protection of the environment, and we have made and will continue to make expenditures to comply with such requirements. Past and present manufacturing operations subject us to environmental laws and regulations that regulate the use, handling and contracting for disposal or recycling of hazardous or toxic substances, the discharge of pollutants into the air and the discharge of wastewaters. If environmental laws and regulations become more stringent, our capital expenditures and costs for environmental compliance could increase. Under applicable environmental laws we may also be liable for the remediation of contaminated properties, including properties currently or previously owned, operated or acquired by us and properties where wastes generated by our operations were disposed. Such liability can be imposed regardless of whether we were responsible for creating the contamination. However, due to the possibility of unanticipated factual or regulatory developments, the amount and timing of future environmental expenditures could vary substantially from those currently anticipated and could have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition.

The ability to operate our business will be limited by restrictive covenants contained in the Credit Facilities.

The Credit Facilities contain restrictive financial and other covenants which affect and, in some cases, significantly limit or prohibit, among other things, the manner in which we may structure or operate our business, including by reducing our liquidity, limiting our ability to incur indebtedness, create liens, sell assets, pay dividends, make capital expenditures, be subject to a change of control, and engage in acquisitions, mergers or restructurings. Future financings and other major agreements may also be subject to similar covenants which limit our operating and financial flexibility, which could have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition.

Our failure to comply with our contractual obligations (including restrictive, financial and other covenants) or to pay our indebtedness and fixed costs could result in a variety of material adverse consequences, including the acceleration of our indebtedness and the exercise of remedies by our creditors, and such defaults could trigger additional defaults under other indebtedness or agreements. In such a situation, it is unlikely that we would be able to repay the accelerated indebtedness or fulfill our obligations under certain contracts, or otherwise cover our fixed costs. Also, the lenders could foreclose upon all or substantially all of our assets which secure our obligations.

We have a substantial amount of indebtedness which may adversely affect our cash flow and our ability to operate our business.

As a result of the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition, we have a significant amount of debt which could adversely affect our ability to raise additional capital to fund our operations, limit our ability to react to changes in the economy or our industry, and prevent us from meeting our debt obligations.

In order to finance the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition and refinance our former credit facilities, we incurred $44.4 million of revolving debt under the New ABL Facility and $450.0 million of term debt under the New Term Loan Facility due in 2021. The term debt was reduced by approximately $119.5 million after applying the net proceeds of the U.S. IPO. The amount of debt under our Credit Facilities also includes $16.8 million of financing costs which we are amortizing over the life of the Credit Facilities and finance lease obligations of $0.3 million. Our degree of leverage could have important consequences, including the following:

- a substantial portion of our cash flows from operations will be dedicated to the payment of principal and interest on our indebtedness and other financial obligations and will not be available for other purposes, including funding our operations, growth strategies and capital expenditures for projects such as a new warehouse or distribution center, new R&D facility, and future business opportunities;

- the debt service requirements of our other indebtedness and lease expense could make it more difficult for us to make payments on our debt;

- our ability to obtain additional financing for future acquisitions, working capital and general corporate or other purposes may be limited;

- certain of our borrowings under the Credit Facilities are at variable rates of interest, exposing us to the risk of increased interest rates;

- our debt level may limit our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in our business and in our industry in general, placing us at a competitive disadvantage compared to our competitors that have less debt;

- our leverage may make us vulnerable to a downturn in general economic conditions and adverse industry conditions; and

- changes in interest rates could materially and adversely affect our cash flows and results from operations. Our financing includes long-term debt under the New Term Loan Facility and revolving debt under the New ABL Facility that bears interest based on floating market rates. Changes in these rates result in fluctuation in the required cash flow to service this debt and could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Despite our substantial indebtedness level, we will still be able to incur significant additional amounts of debt, which could further exacerbate the risks associated with our substantial indebtedness.

We may be able to incur substantial additional indebtedness in the future. Although the Credit Facilities contain restrictions on the incurrence of additional indebtedness, such restrictions are subject to a number of qualifications and exceptions, and under certain circumstances, incurrence of indebtedness in accordance with such restrictions could be substantial. Under the Credit Facilities and our current debt instruments we have the flexibility to incur indebtedness in the future. If our current debt levels are increased, the related risks that we now face could intensify.

Our business could suffer if we are unsuccessful in making, integrating, and maintaining acquisitions and investments.

One of our growth strategies is to continue to pursue strategic acquisitions of new or complementary businesses, products or technologies. There can be no assurance that we would be able to expand our efforts and operations in a cost-effective, accretive or timely manner or that any such efforts would increase overall market acceptance. Further, given our current level of market share in the hockey and baseball/softball equipment segments, respectively, any acquisitions or investments may be subject to regulatory approval, and there can be no assurance that such approval would be received, whether in a timely manner or at all.

Furthermore, any new businesses or products acquired by us that were not favorably received by consumers could damage our reputation or our existing brands. The lack of market acceptance of such businesses or products or our inability to generate satisfactory revenues from such businesses or products to offset their cost could have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition.

We have recently acquired and invested in a number of companies and we may acquire or invest in or enter into joint ventures with additional companies. These transactions create risks such as:

- disruption of our ongoing business, including loss of management focus on existing businesses;
- problems retaining key personnel;
- additional operating losses and expenses of the businesses we acquired or in which we invested;
- the potential impairment of tangible assets, intangible assets and goodwill acquired in the acquisitions;
- the potential impairment of customer and other relationships of a company we acquired or in which we invested or our own customers as a result of any integration of operations;
- the difficulty of incorporating acquired businesses and unanticipated expenses related to such integration;
- the difficulty of integrating a new company's accounting, financial reporting, management, information, human resource and other administrative systems to permit effective management, and the lack of control if such integration is delayed or not implemented;
- the difficulty of implementing at a company we acquire the controls, procedures and policies appropriate for a public company;
- potential environmental liabilities;
- potential unknown liabilities associated with a company we acquire or in which we invest; and
- for foreign transactions, additional risks related to the integration of operations across different cultures and languages, and the economic, political, and regulatory risks associated with specific countries.

While we believe that the operations of the Company and our recently acquired companies can be successfully integrated, there can be no assurance that this will be the case. We could face impediments in our ability to implement our integration strategy. In addition, there can be no assurance that unforeseen costs and expenses or other factors will not offset, in whole or in part, the expected benefits of our integration and operating plans. Further, the integration may require substantial attention from, and place substantial demands upon, our senior management, as well as requiring the cooperation of our employees and those employees of the acquired businesses. Moreover, there can be no assurance that our customers and suppliers will look upon the acquisitions favorably. Failure to successfully integrate the operations of the Company and any of the acquired businesses could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

As a result of future acquisitions or mergers, we might need to issue additional equity securities, spend our cash, or incur additional debt, contingent liabilities, or amortization expenses related to intangible assets, any of which could reduce our profitability and harm our business. In addition, valuations supporting our acquisitions and strategic investments could change rapidly given the current global economic climate and the inherent uncertainty involved in such matters. We could determine that such valuations have experienced impairments or other-than-temporary declines in fair value which could adversely impact our business and financial condition.

Acquisitions and investment also increase the complexity of our business and places significant strain on our management, personnel, operations, supply chain, financial resources, and internal financial control and reporting functions. We may not be able to manage growth effectively, which could damage our reputation, limit our growth and adversely affect our business and financial condition.

The successful integration and management of integrating the businesses involves numerous risks that could adversely affect our growth and profitability, including: (i) the risk that management may not be able to successfully manage the acquired business' operations and the integration may place significant demands on management, diverting their attention from existing operations; (ii) the risk that our operational, financial and management systems may be incompatible with or inadequate to effectively integrate and manage acquired systems; (iii) the risk that an acquisition may require substantial financial resources that could otherwise be used in the development of other aspects of our business; and (iv) the risk that customers and suppliers may not be retained following an acquisition, which could be significant to our operations. The successful integration of Easton Baseball/Softball is also subject to the risk that personnel from Easton Baseball/Softball and our existing business may not be able to work together successfully, which could affect the operations of the combined business. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in integrating an acquired business' operations or that the expected benefits will be realized. There is a risk that some or all of the expected benefits of any acquisition will fail to materialize or may not occur within the time periods anticipated.

We continue to evaluate our estimates of cost synergies to be realized from our acquisitions and refine them. Actual cost synergies, the expenses required to realize the cost synergies and the sources of the cost synergies could differ materially from our internal estimates, and we cannot assure you that we will achieve the full amount of such cost synergies on the schedule anticipated or at all or that these cost synergy programs will not have other adverse effects on our business. In light of these significant uncertainties, you should not place undue reliance on our estimated cost synergies.

We may not realize the growth opportunities that are anticipated from the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition.

The benefits we expect to achieve as a result of the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition will depend, in part, on our ability to realize anticipated growth opportunities. Our success in realizing these growth opportunities, and the timing of this realization, depends on the successful integration of Easton Baseball/Softball operations with our business and operations. Even if we are able to integrate these businesses and operations successfully, this integration may not result in the realization of the full benefits of the growth opportunities we currently expect within the anticipated time frame or at all. While we anticipate that certain expenses will be incurred, such expenses are difficult to estimate accurately and may exceed current estimates. Accordingly, the benefits from the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition may be offset by unexpected costs incurred or delays in integrating the companies, which could cause our profit assumptions to be inaccurate.

There may be undisclosed liabilities related to the acquired businesses.

Although we have conducted what we believe to be a prudent and thorough level of investigation in connection with each of our recent acquisitions, an unavoidable level of risk remains regarding any undisclosed or unknown liabilities of the acquired businesses. Following each of the acquisitions, we may discover that we have acquired substantial undisclosed liabilities. In addition, we may be unable to retain the acquired businesses' customers or employees or third parties may attempt to infringe the acquired businesses' intellectual property or claim that the acquired businesses' products infringe such third party's intellectual property. Only certain of these events may entitle us to claim indemnification from the seller of the acquired business under the relevant purchase agreement. In addition, even if indemnification is available it may not offset such liabilities. The existence of undisclosed liabilities, our inability to retain customers or employees, our inability to enforce, protect and defend intellectual property, including proprietary trade secrets and know how, or defend claims for infringement or misappropriation of trade secrets or know how, or the inability to claim indemnification all or in part from each of the sellers of the acquired businesses could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

The market price for the Common Shares may be volatile and subject to wide fluctuations.

The market price for the Common Shares may be volatile and subject to fluctuation in response to numerous factors, many of which are beyond the Company's control, including the following:

- actual or anticipated fluctuations in the Company's quarterly results of operations;
- changes in estimates of our future results of operations by us or securities research analysts;
- changes in the economic performance or market valuations of other companies that investors deem comparable to the Company;

- addition or departure of the Company's executive officers and other key personnel;
- release or other transfer restrictions on outstanding Common Shares;
- sales or perceived sales of additional Common Shares;
- significant acquisitions or business combinations, strategic partnerships, joint ventures or capital commitments by or involving the Company or its competitors; and
- news reports relating to trends, concerns or competitive developments, regulatory changes and other related issues in the Company's industry or target markets.

Financial markets continue to experience significant price and volume fluctuations that have particularly affected the market prices of equity securities of companies and that have, in many cases, been unrelated to the operating performance, underlying asset values or prospects of such companies. Accordingly, the market price of the Common Shares may decline even if the Company's operating results, underlying asset values or prospects have not changed. Additionally, these factors, as well as other related factors, may cause decreases in asset values that are deemed to be other than temporary, which may result in impairment losses. As well, certain institutional investors may base their investment decisions on consideration of the Company's environmental, governance, diversity and social practices and performance against such institutions' respective investment guidelines and criteria, and failure to meet such criteria may result in limited or no investment in the Common Shares by those institutions, which could adversely affect the trading price of the Common Shares. There can be no assurance that continuing fluctuations in price and volume will not occur. If such increased levels of volatility and market turmoil continue, the Company's business and financial condition could be adversely impacted and the trading price of the Common Shares may be adversely affected.

The Common Shares are listed on the NYSE and the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX"). Volatility in the market prices of the Common Shares may increase as a result of the Common Shares being listed on both the NYSE and the TSX because trading is split between the two markets, resulting in less liquidity on both exchanges. In addition, different liquidity levels, volume of trading, currencies and market conditions on the two exchanges may result in different prevailing trading prices.

Securities class action litigation often has been brought against companies following periods of volatility in the market price of their securities. We may in the future be the target of similar litigation. Securities litigation could result in substantial costs and damages and divert management's attention and resources, which could adversely affect our business. Any adverse determination in litigation against us could also subject us to significant liabilities.

We may require additional capital in the future and we cannot give any assurance that such capital will be available at all or available on terms acceptable to us and, if it is available, additional capital raised by us may dilute holders of the Company's Common Shares.

We may need to raise additional funds through public or private debt or equity financings in order to:

- fund ongoing operations;
- take advantage of opportunities, including more rapid expansion of our business or the acquisition of complementary products, technologies or businesses;
- develop new products; or
- respond to competitive pressures.

Any additional capital raised through the sale of equity will dilute the percentage ownership of holders of the Company's Common Shares. Capital raised through debt financing would require us to make periodic interest payments and may impose restrictive covenants on the conduct of our business. Furthermore, additional financings may not be available on terms favorable to us, or at all. Our failure to obtain additional funding could prevent us from making expenditures that may be required to grow our business or maintain our operations.

As a result of the loss of our foreign private issuer status, we are now required to comply with the Exchange Act's domestic reporting regime, which may cause us to incur additional legal, accounting and other expenses.

As of November 28, 2014, we determined that we no longer qualify as a "foreign private issuer" as such term is defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act, which means that we are required to comply with all of the periodic disclosure and current reporting requirements of the Exchange Act applicable to U.S. domestic issuers, such as Forms 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K, rather than the forms we have filed with the SEC in the past as a foreign private issuer, such as Forms 40-F and 6-K. We are accordingly required to prepare our financial statements filed with the SEC in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("U.S. GAAP") (and must recast prior financial statements and selected financial data from the International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") into U.S. GAAP for all periods required to be presented in the financial statements). As of June 1, 2015, we have also been required to comply with the provisions of U.S. securities laws applicable to U.S. domestic issuers including, without limitation, the U.S. proxy rules, Regulation FD and the Section 16 beneficial ownership reporting and short swing profit rules. We have modified certain of our policies to comply with good governance practices associated with U.S. domestic issuers. In addition, we have lost our ability to rely upon exemptions from certain corporate governance requirements on the NYSE that are available to foreign private issuers.

As a result of such compliance with these additional securities laws, including the transition from IFRS to U.S. GAAP, as well as NYSE rules applicable to U.S. domestic issuers, the regulatory and compliance costs to us under U.S. securities laws may be significantly higher than the cost we would incur as a foreign private issuer and, therefore, we expect that the loss of foreign private issuer status will increase our legal and financial compliance costs and make some activities highly time-consuming and costly and that the costs associated with compliance will increase further once we are no longer an emerging growth company.

The IRS may assert that a certain acquisition is an inversion transaction.

In certain circumstances, a U.S. corporation that is acquired by a non-U.S. corporation may be required to recognize certain taxable income, or the new foreign parent corporation may be treated as a U.S. corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes ("inversion transactions"). If the Company were treated as a U.S. corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Company and its shareholders ("Shareholders") that are not U.S. holders could be subject to adverse tax consequences. The Company believes, based on the facts and circumstances of the acquisition of the Bauer Hockey Business at the time of the Company's initial public offering of Common Shares on the TSX completed on March 10, 2011 (the "Canadian IPO") and the Company's operations that such acquisition was not an inversion transaction, but there can be no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") will not challenge this conclusion.

We do not currently intend to pay dividends on our Common Shares.

We currently intend to retain future earnings, if any, for future operation, expansion and debt repayment. Any decision to declare and pay dividends on our Common Shares in the future will be made at the discretion of the board of directors of the Company (the "Board of Directors") and will depend on, among other things, our financial results, cash requirements, contractual restrictions and other factors that our Board of Directors may deem relevant. In addition, our ability to pay dividends may be limited by covenants of any existing and future outstanding indebtedness we incur, including the Credit Facilities. As a result, Shareholders may not receive any return on an investment in the Common Shares in the foreseeable future unless their Common Shares are sold for a price greater than that which was paid for it. See "Dividends".

We are a holding company.

We are a holding company and a substantial portion of our assets are the capital stock of our subsidiaries. As a result, investors in the Company are subject to the risks attributable to our subsidiaries. As a holding company, we conduct substantially all of our business through our subsidiaries, which generate substantially all of our revenues. Consequently, the Company's cash flows and ability to complete current or desirable future corporate initiatives are dependent on the earnings of its subsidiaries and the distribution of those earnings to the Company. The ability of these entities to pay dividends and other distributions will depend on their operating results and will be subject to applicable laws and regulations which require that solvency and capital standards be maintained by such companies and contractual restrictions contained in the instruments governing their debt. In the event of a bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization of any of our subsidiaries, holders of indebtedness and trade creditors will generally be entitled to payment of their claims from the assets of those subsidiaries before any assets are made available for distribution to the Company. The Common Shares are effectively junior to indebtedness and other liabilities (including trade payables) of our subsidiaries.

An investor may be unable to bring actions or enforce judgments against us and certain of our directors.

The Company is incorporated under the laws of the Province of British Columbia. Some of our directors reside principally outside of the United States and a portion of our assets and a substantial portion of the assets of these persons are located outside the United States. Consequently, it may not be possible for an investor to effect service of process within the United States on us or those persons. Furthermore, it may not be possible for an investor to enforce judgments obtained in United States courts based upon the civil liability provisions of United States federal securities laws or other laws of the United States against us or those persons.

Risks Related to Macroeconomic Environment

Fluctuations in the value of the Canadian dollar and the U.S. dollar in relation to each other and other world currencies may impact our operating and financial results and may affect the comparability of our results between financial periods.

We are exposed to market risks attributable to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, primarily changes in the value of the U.S. dollar versus other currencies such as the Canadian dollar, the euro and the Swedish krona. Exchange rate fluctuations could have an adverse effect on our results of operations. We conduct business in many geographic markets. For example, most of our supply purchases are in U.S. dollars, and historically approximately one-third of our revenues have been in Canadian dollars, and approximately 3% and 2% of our revenues have been in Swedish krona and euro, respectively. Therefore, a fluctuation in the exchange rate of the U.S. dollar versus other currencies such as the Canadian dollar, the euro and the Swedish krona, could materially affect our gross profit margins and operating results. We have entered into various arrangements to mitigate our foreign currency risk, but there can be no assurances that such arrangements will prove to be favorable to the Company.

Our consolidated financial statements are presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and we report, and will continue to report, our results in U.S. dollars. Some of our operations are conducted by subsidiaries in Canada or other countries outside of the United States. The results of operations and the financial position of these subsidiaries are reported in the relevant foreign currencies and then translated into U.S. dollars. Any change in the value of the Canadian dollar or of the currencies in the other markets in which we operate against the U.S. dollar during a given financial reporting period would result in a foreign currency loss or gain on the translation of U.S. dollar denominated revenues and costs. The exchange rates between many of the currencies in the other markets in which we operate against the U.S. dollar have fluctuated significantly in recent years and may fluctuate significantly in the future. Consequently, our reported earnings could fluctuate materially as a result of foreign exchange translation gains or losses and may not be comparable from period to period.

In addition, the value of a U.S. Shareholder's investment in us will fluctuate as the U.S. dollar rises and falls against the Canadian dollar. Also, if we pay dividends in the future, we may pay those dividends in Canadian dollars. In that case, and if the U.S. dollar rises in value relative to the Canadian dollar, the U.S. dollar value of the dividend payments received by U.S. Shareholders would be less than they would have been if exchange rates were stable.

The Company employs a hedging strategy that can include foreign currency forwards, interest rate contracts, and foreign exchange swaps as economic hedges. Currency hedging entails a risk of illiquidity and the risk of using hedges could result in losses greater than if the hedging had not been used. Hedging arrangements may have the effect of limiting or reducing the total returns to the Company if purchases at hedged rates result in lower margins than otherwise earned if purchases had been made at spot rates. In addition, the costs associated with a hedging program may outweigh the benefits of the arrangements in such circumstances.

An economic downturn or economic uncertainty in our key markets may adversely affect consumer discretionary spending and reduce sales of our products.

We sell recreational, non-essential products. The success of our business depends to a significant extent upon discretionary consumer spending. Factors affecting the level of consumer spending for such discretionary items include general economic conditions affecting disposable consumer income, particularly those in North America, and other factors such as consumer confidence in future economic conditions, fears of recession, the availability of consumer credit, levels of unemployment, tax rates and the cost of consumer credit. As global economic conditions continue to be volatile or economic uncertainty remains, trends in consumer discretionary spending also remain unpredictable and subject to reductions due to credit constraints and uncertainties about the future. The current volatility in the United States economy in particular has resulted in an overall slowing in growth in the retail sector because of decreased consumer spending, which may remain depressed for the foreseeable future. These unfavorable economic conditions may lead consumers to delay or reduce purchases of discretionary items including our sporting equipment and related apparel. Consumer demand for our products may not reach our sales targets, or may decline, when there is an economic downturn or economic uncertainty in our key markets, particularly in North America. Our sensitivity to economic cycles and any related fluctuation in consumer demand could adversely affect our business and financial condition. Anticipating and forecasting such changes in discretionary consumer spending is difficult and cannot be done with certainty. We use internal forecasts to plan and make important decisions relating to our business, however these forecasts may prove to be incorrect and this can lead to negative economic consequences for the business.

Changes in tax laws and unanticipated tax liabilities could adversely affect our effective income tax rate and profitability.

We are subject to income taxes in Canada, the United States, and numerous foreign jurisdictions. Our effective income tax rate in the future could be adversely affected by a number of factors, including changes in the mix of earnings in countries with differing statutory tax rates, changes in the valuation of deferred tax assets and liabilities, changes in tax laws, and the outcome of income tax audits in various jurisdictions around the world. We regularly assess all of these matters to determine the adequacy of our tax provision, which is subject to discretion. If our assessments are incorrect, it could have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition.

Changes in import/export tariff rates on our products may have an impact on our profitability. For example, on March 21, 2013, the Canadian government announced that it would reduce import tariffs on certain hockey equipment effective as of April 1, 2013 ("Canadian Tariff Reduction"). Prior to April 1, 2013, the Company's tariffs on hockey equipment imported into Canada were up to 18.0% and were included in the Company's cost of goods sold. Retroactive to April 1, 2013, Bauer Hockey reduced wholesale prices to its Canadian retail partners to reflect the lower duties on certain categories of hockey equipment. The reduced wholesale prices on affected products had a limited impact on future profitability, as the reduction in the costs of goods sold was passed on to retailers. We also reduced wholesale prices on products affected by the Canadian Tariff Reduction that were imported prior to April 1, 2013. The total amount of import tariffs paid on products imported prior to April 1, 2013 was $1.6 million, of which $1.1 million was recognized in the twelve months ended May 31, 2014. Although the Company was able to minimize the impact of the reduction of certain import tariffs on certain hockey equipment, any future change in tariffs could have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition.

Natural disasters, unusual weather, pandemic outbreaks, boycotts and geo-political events or acts of terrorism could adversely affect our operations and financial results.

The occurrence of one or more natural disasters, such as hurricanes, floods and earthquakes, unusually adverse weather, pandemic outbreaks, boycotts and geo-political events, such as civil unrest in countries in which our suppliers are located and acts of terrorism, or similar disruptions could adversely affect our operations and financial results. These events could result in physical damage to one or more of our properties, increases in fuel or other energy prices, the temporary or permanent closure of one or more of our warehouses or distribution centers, the temporary lack of an adequate workforce in a market, the temporary or long-term disruption in the supply of products from some local and overseas suppliers, the temporary disruption in the transport of goods from overseas, delay in the delivery of goods to our warehouses and distribution centers, and disruption to our information systems. These factors could otherwise disrupt our operations and could have an adverse effect on our business and financial condition.

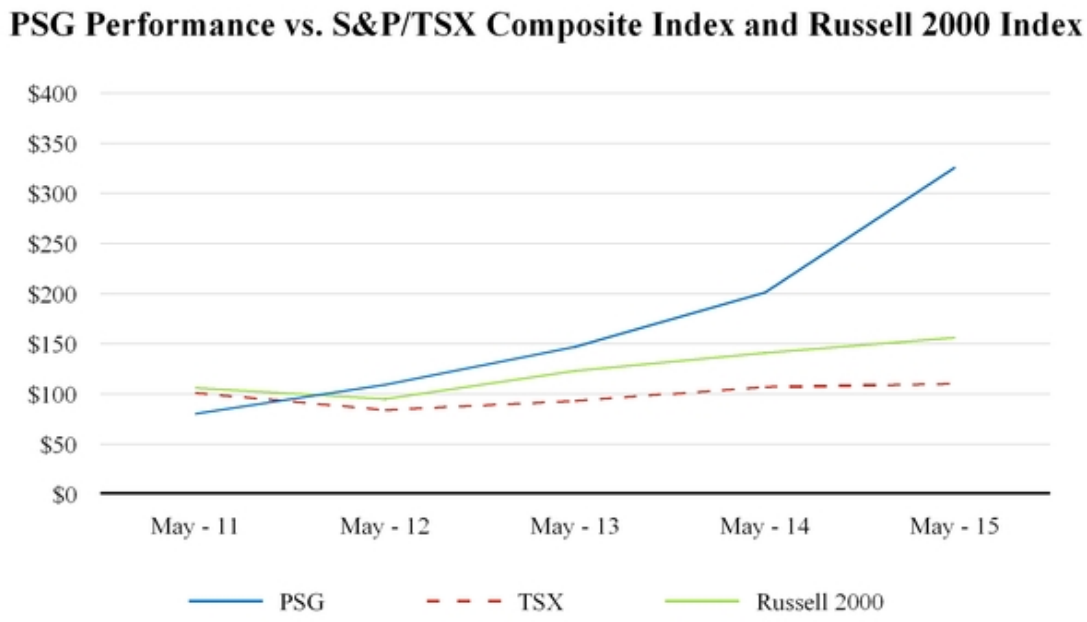
Dividends

The Company has never declared or paid any cash dividends on either its Common Shares or its proportionate voting shares (the “Proportionate Voting Shares”). The Company currently intends to use its earnings to finance the expansion of its business and to reduce indebtedness. Any future determination to pay dividends on Common Shares will be at the discretion of the Board of Directors and will depend on, among other things, the Company’s results of operations, current and anticipated cash requirements and surplus, financial condition, contractual restrictions and financing agreement covenants, solvency tests imposed by corporate law and other factors that the Board of Directors may deem relevant. As of August 25, 2015, there were no Proportionate Voting Shares outstanding.

Performance Graph

The following graph compares the total cumulative return of a Cdn$100 investment in the Common Shares made on March 10, 2011, being the date on which the Common Shares started trading on the TSX, with the cumulative return on the Standard & Poor's Ratings Services ("S&P")/TSX Composite Index and the Russell 2000 Index for the same period. The graph plots the respective values on the last trading day of fiscal years 2011 through 2015. The stock performance shown on the performance graph below is not necessarily indicative of future performance.



The Company completed its Canadian IPO in March 2011 and as such, there is limited history of its Common Shares trading on the TSX and it may not be possible to draw conclusions from short-term trends. Since the Canadian IPO, the overall compensation to the Company's executive officers has increased modestly, and the Company's operating performance has steadily improved based on the following performance metrics: market share in ice hockey equipment (56% in 2015 vs. 49% in 2011), Company-wide net revenues (20.9% compound annual growth rate from Fiscal 2011 to Fiscal 2015) and Adjusted EPS (16.7% compound annual growth from Fiscal 2011 to Fiscal 2015). As discussed in "Non-GAAP Financial Measures," the Company uses Adjusted EPS, an objective performance metric, to determine annual cash bonuses payable to its executive officers for Company performance. The Company believes that year-over-year growth in Adjusted EPS will lead to long-term shareholder value. The Company does not compensate its executive officers based on its share price, which may fluctuate for factors outside the control of the Company, including macro-economic environmental risks.

Use of Proceeds from Registered Securities

The U.S. IPO was effected under a registration statement on F-10 (File No. 333-196614), which became effective upon filing with the SEC on June 19, 2014. In connection with the U.S. IPO, we registered and sold 8,161,291 Common Shares at a price per share to the public of $15.50 for an aggregate offering price of $126.5 million, including the exercise in full of the over-allotment option. Morgan Stanley, BofA Merrill Lynch and RBC Capital Markets acted as joint book-running managers for a syndicate of underwriters in connection with the U.S. IPO. The U.S. IPO closed on June 25, 2014, and we used the net proceeds of the U.S. IPO to reduce leverage and repay approximately $119.5 million of the Company's New Term Loan Facility, which was used to finance part of the purchase price in the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition.

Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities

The Company did not sell any unregistered securities during Fiscal 2015.

Issuer Purchases of Equity Securities

The Company has not purchased any of its Common Shares during Fiscal 2015, nor has it made any plans or established any additional programs to purchase any of its Common Shares during the same period.

Executive Overview

Performance Sports Group Ltd. is a leading developer and manufacturer of ice hockey, roller hockey, lacrosse, baseball and softball sports equipment, as well as related apparel and soccer apparel. The Company is the global leader in hockey with the strongest and most recognized brand, and it holds the No. 1 North American position in baseball and softball. Its products are marketed under the BAUER, MISSION, MAVERIK, CASCADE, INARIA, COMBAT and EASTON brand names and are distributed by sales representatives and independent distributors throughout the world. In addition, the Company distributes its hockey products through its Burlington, Massachusetts Own The Moment Hockey Experience retail store. The Company is focused on building its leadership position by growing market share in all product categories and pursuing strategic acquisitions.

Our mission is to elevate player performance and protection through athlete insight and superior innovation. Financially, our objectives are to grow our revenues each year faster than the total market for each of our sports and grow our profitability faster than revenues in constant currency. We have a diversified and balanced business model and are focused on growth through the following opportunities:

- Significantly grow market share in Baseball/Softball - as we did with Hockey, we look to expand our market share in Baseball/Softball by investing in product development, developing a disciplined category management process and connecting with our core consumers.

- Continue to grow in Hockey - although we hold the No.1 market share position, we look to continue to expand market share in every category, with a particular focus on sticks, the largest dollar category in the industry.

- Grow apparel across all sports - the apparel market is highly fragmented and we look to grow apparel across all of our sports by leveraging the strength of our brands as well as continued R&D investments in apparel.

- Continue rapid growth in Lacrosse - Lacrosse continues to be one of the fastest growing sports in the United States and we look to grow market share, targeting market leadership by 2016. We focus our efforts on the fast-growing youth and high school markets, including the women's game.

- Continue to pursue strategic acquisitions - we are an acquirer of choice and our global operating platform is applicable for many sports. We have established an effective internal process for identifying, acquiring and integrating target companies.

Highlights of Fiscal 2015

- A 51% increase in revenues on a constant currency basis, generating $675.2 million million in revenue in Fiscal 2015, compared to $446.2 million in Fiscal 2014;

- Currency neutral Adjusted Net Income increased by 64.6%, to $61.4 million or $1.32 per diluted share, compared to $37.3 million, or $1.00 per diluted share in Fiscal 2014;

- We continued to outpace the growth of the markets in which we participate by growing market share and profitability and we continue to leverage our performance sports platform, which is improving efficiency and driving constant currency profit growth that exceeds revenue growth;

- We announced a supply chain initiative that we expect to improve pre-tax profitability of $30 million by Fiscal 2020;

- We announced a cash flow improvement initiative that is targeting an improvement in net cash flow from working capital of $30 million in Fiscal 2016;

- Our leading hockey market share strengthened, growing from 54% to 56%;

- On a constant currency basis, our total apparel sales grew approximately 36% for the year, driven by a 50% growth in team uniforms and a 50% growth in performance apparel;

- Easton Baseball/Softball continued its dominant share at the NCAA level as 17 EASTON teams competed in the NCAA College World Series;

- Maverik continued to gain momentum, signing High Point University and Penn State as college partners. Maverik sales also increased by approximately 28% for the year; and

- In January 2015, we announced our plans to open 8-10 Bauer Hockey Own The Moment Hockey Experience retail stores. The first location opened in Burlington, Massachusetts on August 15, 2015.

Factors Affecting our Performance

Seasonality

Our business demonstrates substantial seasonality, although this seasonality has been reduced as a result of the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition. The spring/summer season of baseball and softball is highly complementary to the fall/winter season of hockey, and our quarterly sources of revenue and profitability are more balanced throughout the year as a result. The more evenly distributed seasonality of the combined business provides more consistent working capital levels and allows us to improve our efficiency in our manufacturing, distribution and other efforts.

Generally, our highest sales volumes for hockey occur during the first quarter of our fiscal year. Our next highest sales volumes for hockey occur during the second quarter of our fiscal year. Our lowest sales volumes for hockey occur during the third quarter of our fiscal year. In ice hockey, we have three sub-brands of products - VAPOR, SUPREME and NEXUS. In certain fiscal years, we launch new products under more than one sub-brand. The launch timing of our products may change in future periods.

In lacrosse, our highest sales volumes for MAVERIK and CASCADE products occur in the second and third fiscal quarters.

In baseball/softball, our highest sales volumes for EASTON and COMBAT products occur in the third and fourth fiscal quarters. The seasonality of our baseball/softball businesses will substantially reduce the seasonality of our overall business.

The shipment of INARIA soccer products occurs substantially in the first and fourth fiscal quarters. We expect our team apparel revenues, including uniforms for ice hockey, roller hockey, lacrosse and other team sports, to align with the underlying sports' selling seasons as we expand our team apparel offering.

Revenues

We generate revenues from the sale of performance sports equipment and related apparel and accessories. We offer various cooperative marketing incentive programs to assist our sales channels with the marketing and selling of our products. These costs are recorded as a reduction of revenues. Each sport within PSG manages its own commercial organization and go-to-market strategy.

The current sales channels for our sports include (i) retailers in North America and the Nordic countries, and (ii) distributors throughout the rest of the world (principally, Western Europe, Eastern Europe, and Russia). Based on the regional mix, our revenues are generated in multiple currencies. For revenues, we are exposed to foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations of the U.S. dollar against the Canadian dollar, the euro, the Swedish krona, Norwegian krona and Danish krona.

The following table highlights revenues for the periods indicated:

(millions of U.S. dollars, except for percentages)	Twelve Months Ended May 31, 2015	Twelve Months Ended May 31, 2014	Period Over Period Growth Rate[1]
Revenues:
Canada	$ 157.0	$ 145.3	8.1%

Total Revenues	$ 654.7	$ 446.2	46.7%

For further detail on our geographic segments data, please refer to Note 17 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements.

Cost of Goods Sold

Our cost of goods sold is comprised primarily of (i) the cost of finished goods, materials and components purchased from our suppliers, manufacturing labour and overhead costs in our manufacturing facilities, (ii) supply chain-related costs, such as freight, duties, warehousing and other distribution costs, (iii) warranty costs and (iv) inventory provisions and write-offs. Our warranty costs result from a general warranty policy providing coverage against manufacturing defects. Warranties range from 30 days to one year from the date sold to the consumer, depending on the type of product. Our warranty costs are primarily driven by sales of composite ice hockey sticks and baseball bats. Amortization associated with certain acquired intangible assets, such as purchased technology and customer relationships, is also included in cost of goods sold. We also include charges to cost of goods sold resulting from the fair market value adjustment to inventory associated with certain acquired inventories.

PSG's cost of goods sold are exposed to transactional foreign currency risk in the following ways:

- PSG's entities purchase finished goods inventory directly from third party factories in U.S. dollars. These purchases generate a foreign currency exposure for those PSG entities with a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar, primarily PSG's Hockey business outside of the U.S. which has a functional currency of primarily Canadian dollars, Swedish krona and euro. As a result, a stronger U.S. dollar increases the inventory cost incurred by PSG whereas a weaker U.S. dollar decreases its cost. The Company uses foreign currency forward contracts to hedge a portion of our exposure to fluctuations in the value of the U.S. dollar against the Canadian dollar. The resulting realized gain/loss on derivatives is an economic offset to the cost of goods sold.

- We source the majority of our products from suppliers in China and Thailand and agree to buy such products in U.S. dollars. We enter into supplier agreements ranging from six to twelve months with respect to the U.S. dollar cost of our Asian-sourced finished goods. In these agreements, we adjust for changes in the relevant foreign exchange rates in which the factory labor, materials and overhead are denominated. As a result, our cost of goods sold is impacted by the fluctuations of the Chinese renminbi, Thai baht and certain other Asian currencies against the U.S. dollar. Therefore, a strengthening U.S. dollar relative to these Asian currencies decreases PSG's U.S. dollar sourced product cost, whereas a weakening U.S. dollar increases our sourced product cost. We do not currently hedge our exposure to fluctuations in the value of these factory input cost currencies.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Our SG&A expenses consist primarily of costs relating to our sales and marketing activities, including salaries, commissions and related personnel costs, customer order management and support activities, advertising, trade shows, and other promotional activities. Our marketing expenses include promotional costs for launching new products, advertising, and athlete endorsement costs. Our administrative expenses consist of costs relating to information systems, legal and finance functions, professional fees, insurance, and other corporate expenses. We also include share-based payment expense, costs related to share offerings, and acquisition costs, including rebranding and integration costs, in SG&A expenses. We expect our SG&A expenses to increase as we make investments in the Easton business, launch our Bauer Hockey retail business, and continue to invest in certain PSG platform functions.

Research and Development Expenses

R&D expenses consist primarily of salaries and related consulting expenses for technical personnel, contracts with leading research facilities, as well as materials and consumables used in product development. To date, no development costs have been capitalized. We incur most of our R&D expenses in Canada and are eligible to receive Scientific Research and Experimental Development investment tax credits for certain eligible expenditures which are recorded as a reduction to income tax expense. We currently expect our R&D expenses to grow as a result of investments in our Easton business, and as we focus on enhancing and expanding our product lines.

Interest Expense

Interest expense is derived from the financing activities of the Company and consists of interest expense on our term loan and revolving loan, and the amortization of deferred financing fees. As of May 31, 2015, the Credit Facilities consist of a $450 million New Term Loan, denominated in U.S. dollars of which $330.5 million was drawn, and a $200 million New ABL Facility, denominated in both Canadian dollars and U.S. dollars of which $92.9 million was drawn, the availability of which is subject to meeting certain borrowing base requirements. Please see “Indebtedness” for a more detailed discussion of the Credit Facilities.

Impact of Foreign Exchange and Hedging Practices

As a global company with significant operations outside the United States, in the normal course of business we are exposed to risk arising from the changes in currency exchange rates. Our primary foreign currency exposures arise from the recording of transactions denominated in non-functional currencies and the translation of foreign currency denominated results of operations, financial position, and cash flows into U.S. dollars.

Our foreign exchange risk management efforts are intended to lessen both the negative and positive effects of currency fluctuations on our consolidated results of operations, financial position, and cash flows. We manage global foreign exchange risk centrally on a portfolio basis to address those risks that are material to PSG. We manage these exposures primarily through the use of foreign exchange forward contracts, which are recorded on the consolidated statements of financial position at fair value (see Note 18 - Derivatives and Risk Management and Note 19 - Fair Value Measures in the accompanying Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements). Our hedging practices are designed to provide stability around the receipt of cash, and at least partially offset the impact of exchange rate changes on the underlying exposures being hedged. Where exposures are hedged, our program has the effect of reducing volatility in our financial results and at least delaying the impact of exchange rate movements on our consolidated financial statements when a currency’s direction is sustained over a longer period; the length of delay is dependent upon hedge horizons. We do not hold or issue derivative instruments for trading or speculative purposes.

The Company primarily uses foreign currency forward contracts to hedge the effect of changes in currency exchange rates on its product costs (see the "Cost of Goods Sold” section above). The resulting realized gain/loss on derivatives is an economic offset to the cost of goods sold that are recorded in the Company’s Gross Profit. The Company has not elected hedge accounting; therefore, the changes in the fair value of these derivatives are recognized as unrealized gains and losses through profit or loss each reporting period. In Fiscal 2015 and Fiscal 2014, the Company settled Canadian dollar forward contracts for $102.0 million and $129.5 million U.S. dollars, respectively, at a weighted average exchange rate of 1.05 and 1.00, respectively. As of May 31, 2015, the amount of Canadian dollar forward contracts outstanding is $78.0 million U.S. dollars at a weighted average exchange rate of 1.24.

The Company’s reporting currency is the U.S. dollar. Many of our foreign subsidiaries operate in functional currencies other than the U.S. dollar, the most significant of which are in Canadian Dollars, Swedish krona, and euro. Fluctuations in currency exchange rates create volatility in our reported results as we are required to translate the balance sheets, operational results, and cash flows of these subsidiaries into U.S. dollars for consolidated reporting. Balances on the statements of financial position are converted at the month-end foreign exchange rates or at historical exchange rates, and all profit and loss transactions are recognized at monthly average rates. In the translation of our Consolidated Statements of Income, a weaker U.S. dollar in relation to the Canadian Dollar, Swedish krona, and euro benefits our consolidated revenues and earnings, whereas a stronger U.S. dollar reduces our consolidated revenues and earnings. Adjustments resulting from translating foreign functional currency balance sheets into U.S. dollars are included in the foreign currency translation adjustment, a component of accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) in equity. Re-measurement gains and losses generated by the effect of foreign exchange on recorded assets and liabilities denominated in a currency different from the functional currency of the applicable entity are recorded in Foreign Exchange Gain/

Loss in the period in which they occur. The Company does not currently hedge these translation or re-measurement exposures.

In this annual report on Form 10-K, we provide the impact of foreign exchange on our various financial measures. These amounts reflect the impact of translating the current period results at the monthly foreign exchange rates of the prior year period, the effect of changes in the value of the Canadian dollar against the U.S. dollar on our cost of goods purchased for sale outside of the United States including the related realized gains/losses on derivatives described above, and the realized gains/losses generated from revaluing non-functional currency assets and liabilities. The reported foreign exchange impact does not include the impact of fluctuations in Asian currencies against the U.S. dollar and their related effect on our Asian-sourced finished goods. See the "Cost of Goods Sold" section above for a more detailed description of these foreign exchange impacts.

As a percentage of revenues, currency neutral gross profit decreased to 33.9% for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 from 34.6% in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014.

Including the impact of foreign exchange, gross profit in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 increased by $52.1 million, or 33.7%, to $206.4 million driven by the factors mentioned above, partially offset by an unfavorable impact from foreign exchange. As a percentage of revenues, gross profit decreased to 31.5% for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 from 34.6% in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 driven by the unfavorable impact from foreign exchange partially offset by the addition of Easton Baseball/Softball (including the aforementioned purchase accounting related amortization and non-cash charges to cost of goods sold resulting from the fair value adjustment of inventories). Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

SG&A expenses in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 increased by $35.4 million, or 33.9%, to $140.0 million, due to the addition of Easton Baseball/Softball, the impact of the gain from the BRG Sports intellectual property litigation settlement in the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2014, higher share-based payment expense and costs related to the lacrosse helmet decertification. Excluding the impact of acquisition-related costs, costs related to share offerings, share-based payment expense, and costs related to the lacrosse helmet decertification, our SG&A expenses increased by $33.0 million, or 37.5%, to $121.2 million driven by the addition of Easton Baseball/Softball SG&A, and the impact of the gain from the BRG Sports intellectual property litigation settlement in the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2014.

As a percentage of revenues, our R&D expenses decreased to 3.8% for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 from 4.4% for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014, driven by the addition of Easton Baseball/Softball, which historically has spent less on R&D expenses as a percentage of sales than the Company's prior year levels. The translation impact of foreign exchange for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 decreased our reported R&D expenses by $0.8 million compared to prior year.

Adjusted EBITDA

Currency neutral Adjusted EBITDA in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 increased by $47.5 million, or 69.0%, to $116.4 million from $68.9 million due to a $35.2 million increase in Baseball/Softball Segment EBITDA resulting from the addition of Easton Baseball/Softball and a $17.9 million currency neutral increase in Hockey Segment EBITDA, partially offset by an increase in unallocated PSG corporate expenses resulting from the gain from the BRG Sports intellectual property litigation settlement in the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2014. As a percentage of revenues, currency neutral Adjusted EBITDA increased to 17.2% for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 from 15.4% for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014, driven primarily by the addition of Easton Baseball/Softball. Including the impact of foreign exchange, Adjusted EBITDA in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 increased by $29.4 million, or 42.7%, to $98.3 million from $68.9 million due, driven by the above factors and an unfavorable impact from foreign exchange of $18.1 million. Derivative and Foreign Exchange Gains/Losses

Unrealized loss on derivatives increased $0.2 million, or 9.4%, to a loss of $2.2 million from a loss of $2.0 million. The Company has not elected hedge accounting and therefore the changes in the fair value of derivative contracts are recognized through profit or loss each reporting period.

Foreign exchange (gain) loss decreased $24.4 million, to a loss of $19.6 million from a gain of $4.8 million. The foreign exchange gain/loss represents the realized and unrealized gains/losses generated from revaluing non-functional currency assets and liabilities to their respective functional currency. The Company's effective tax rate was 50.6%, compared to 23.9% for the same period in the prior year. The increase in the effective tax rate was due to a relatively low amount of income before income tax and the non-recognition of tax benefits from unrealized losses on capital items in the current year period, partially offset by the tax benefits derived from the financing of the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition.

Net Income

Net income in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 decreased by $16.7 million, or 83.6%, to $3.3 million from net income of $20.0 million in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 driven by the operating results described above in the Adjusted EBITDA section, which were more than offset by the unfavorable change in the unrealized foreign exchange (gains) and losses, higher purchase accounting related amortization and non-cash charges to cost of goods sold resulting from the fair value adjustment of inventories related to the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition, higher interest expense, higher share-based payment expense, and costs related to the lacrosse helmet decertification. The impact of foreign exchange for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 decreased our net income by $13.8 million compared to the prior year.

Adjusted Net Income/Loss removes unrealized foreign exchange gains/losses, acquisition-related charges, share-based payment expense, and other one-time or non-cash expenses. Please see the Adjusted Net Income/Loss table in the "Non-GAAP Financial Measures" section for the reconciliation of net income (loss) to Adjusted Net Income/Loss and Adjusted EPS.

Comparison of Fiscal 2014 with Fiscal 2013

Revenues

Revenues in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 increased by $46.6 million, or 11.7%, to $446.2 million due to strong growth in apparel, the addition of Easton Baseball/Softball and Combat Sports revenues, and continued growth in lacrosse and hockey, which grew 19.0% and 4.1%, respectively. Apparel revenues grew by 42.0% driven by the addition of hockey, lacrosse and soccer uniforms, 30.1% growth in off-ice team apparel, 27.0% growth in our base layer performance apparel, and 34.2% growth in lifestyle apparel.

Excluding the impact of foreign exchange, revenues increased 13.7%, and excluding the impact of foreign exchange, the impact of lower wholesale prices as a result of the Canadian Tariff Reduction, and the impact of the Easton Baseball/Softball, Inaria, Cascade, and Combat Sports acquisitions, revenues increased 6.5%. Overall revenues in North America grew by 13.8% and increased by 5.6% in the rest of the world. The translation impact of foreign exchange in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 decreased our reported revenues by $8.3 million compared to the prior year.

Cost of goods sold

Cost of goods sold in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 increased by $39.4 million, or 15.6%, to $291.8 million, driven by the increase in cost of goods sold as a result of higher revenues, higher purchase accounting related amortization and non-cash charges to cost of goods sold resulting from the fair value adjustment of inventories related to the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition, and higher initial costs to support the growth in the uniforms business. The impact of foreign exchange for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 did not have a significant impact on our reported cost of goods sold expenses as compared to the prior year.

Gross Profit

Gross profit in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 increased by $7.2 million, or 4.9%, to $154.4 million. As a percentage of revenues, gross profit decreased to 34.6% for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 from 36.8% in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2013 driven by the above items, an unfavorable impact from foreign exchange, and higher initial costs to support the growth in the uniforms business. The translation impact of foreign exchange in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 decreased gross profit by $3.9 million compared to the prior year. from 38.3% for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2013 driven by the unfavorable impact from foreign exchange and higher initial costs to support the growth in the uniforms business described above, which more than offset higher margins on ice hockey equipment. Please see the Adjusted Gross Profit table for the reconciliation of gross profit to Adjusted Gross Profit in the "Non-GAAP Financial Measures" section.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

SG&A expenses in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 increased by $14.1 million, or 15.6%, to $104.6 million, due to higher acquisition related-costs, the addition of Easton Baseball/Softball and Combat Sports, an additional four and a half months of Inaria expenses in Fiscal 2014, higher share-based payment expense, partially offset by the $6.0 million gain from the Easton litigation settlement. Excluding the impact of acquisition-related charges (which do not include the Easton litigation settlement), costs related to share offerings, and share-based payment expense, SG&A expenses increased by $8.4 million, or 10.6%, to $88.2 million driven by the SG&A expenses from the acquisitions noted above, additional hires to support the growth of the business, higher selling expenses to support the higher revenues, higher endorsement expense in Fiscal 2014 as compared to Fiscal 2013 during which the NHL Lockout occurred, and higher legal expenses to support intellectual property litigation related matters, offset by the $6.0 million gain from the Easton litigation settlement.

As a percentage of revenues, our SG&A (including acquisition-related charges, costs related to share offerings, and share-based payment expense) increased to 23.4% for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 from 22.6% of revenues for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2013. Excluding the impact of acquisition-related charges (which do not include the Easton litigation settlement), costs related to share offerings, share-based payment expense, and the Easton litigation settlement, SG&A expenses as a percentage of revenues decreased slightly to 19.8% for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 from 20.0% of revenues for the twelve-month period May 31, 2013. The translation impact of foreign exchange for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 decreased our reported SG&A expenses by $1.4 million compared to prior year.

Research and Development Expenses

R&D expenses in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 increased by $3.0 million, or 17.6%, to $19.8 million, due to our continued focus on product development efforts and the addition of Easton Baseball/Softball and Combat Sports. As a percentage of revenues, our R&D expenses increased to 4.4% for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 from 4.2% of revenues for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2013. The translation impact of foreign exchange for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 decreased our reported R&D expenses by $0.5 million compared to prior year.

Adjusted EBITDA

Adjusted EBITDA in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 increased $6.1 million, or 9.7%, to $68.9 million from $62.8 million for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2013 due to higher Adjusted Gross Profit, a favorable change in realized gain on derivatives, which are included in finance income, and the impact of the Easton litigation settlement, partially offset by higher R&D and SG&A spending and the unfavorable impact of foreign exchange. As a percentage of revenues, Adjusted EBITDA decreased slightly to 15.4% for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 from 15.7% for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2013. Foreign exchange (gain) loss increased $4.3 million, to a gain of $4.8 million from a gain of $0.5 million. The foreign exchange (gain) loss represents the realized and unrealized (gain) loss generated from revaluing non-functional currency assets and liabilities to their respective functional currency. The realized foreign exchange gain increased $0.9 million, to a gain of $1.3 million from a gain of $0.4 million.

Income Taxes

Income tax expense for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 decreased by $2.4 million from $8.6 million to $6.3 million. The Company's effective tax rate was 23.9%, compared to 25.5% for the same period in the prior year. The decrease in the annual effective tax rate was primarily due to a larger proportion of pre-tax income earned in lower-tax jurisdictions than in the prior year, partially offset by benefits recorded in the prior year related to specific income tax matters that did not occur in the year ended May 31, 2014.

Net Income

Net income in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 decreased by $5.2 million, or 20.8%, to $20.0 million from net income of $25.2 million in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2013 as the growth in Adjusted EBITDA and lower tax rate described above, were more than offset by higher acquisition-related charges, higher share-based payment expense, an unfavorable change in the unrealized (gain) loss on derivatives, the loss on extinguishment of debt, and higher interest expense. The translation impact of foreign exchange for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 decreased the Company's net income by $2.0 million compared to prior year.

Adjusted Net Income in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014 increased by $1.5 million, or 4.1%, to $37.3 million from $35.8 million in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2013 driven by the operating results reflected in the Adjusted EBITDA section which was partially offset by higher interest expense and a higher tax rate as a result of favorable prior period tax items recorded in the twelve months ended May 31, 2013. Adjusted Net Income/Loss removes unrealized foreign exchange (gain) loss, acquisition-related charges, share-based payment expense, costs related to share offerings, and other one-time or non-cash expenses. Please see the Adjusted Net Income/Loss table in the "Non-GAAP Financial Measures" section for the reconciliation of net income to Adjusted Net Income/Loss and Adjusted EPS.

Fiscal 2015 compared to Fiscal 2014

Hockey

Currency neutral Hockey revenues increased by $51.4 million, or 13.3% driven by 18.6% growth in helmets resulting from the launch of the RE-AKT 100 helmet and continued growth in the retail team business, 15.6% growth in composite sticks due to the strong demand for the new SUPREME and VAPOR family of sticks, 10.1% growth in protective equipment, and 7.4% growth in skates due to a two family launch of NEXUS and VAPOR products compared to the one family SUPREME launch in Fiscal 2014 as well as strong sales for the VAPOR 1X skate. Hockey apparel revenues grew by 36.4% driven by strong growth in all apparel categories which includes performance apparel, uniforms, off-ice team apparel, lifestyle apparel and bags. Including the impact of foreign exchange, reported Fiscal 2015 Hockey revenues increased by $32.2 million, or 8.3%, driven by growth in all hockey equipment categories and strong growth in apparel, partially offset by an unfavorable impact from foreign exchange.

Currency neutral Hockey segment EBITDA increased by $17.9 million, or 26.6% driven by the higher revenues described above, higher gross margins and lower R&D and SG&A spending as a percent of sales. Hockey gross margins improved as a result of higher margins on hockey uniforms driven by the higher initial costs to support uniforms growth in Fiscal 2014, which more than offset the impact of growth in sticks and apparel which carry slightly lower gross margins than other ice hockey equipment categories. Including the impact of foreign exchange, reported Fiscal 2015 Hockey segment EBITDA decreased by $0.6 million, or 1.0%, to $66.6 million driven by the significant impact of foreign exchange, which more than offset the impacts described above.

Baseball/Softball

Baseball/Softball revenue in Fiscal 2015 increased by $174.9 million, or greater than 100%, to $199.3 million due to the addition of Easton Baseball/Softball.

Baseball/Softball segment EBITDA in Fiscal 2015 increased by $35.4 million, or greater than 100%, to $35.9 million due to the addition of Easton Baseball/Softball.

Other Sports

Revenues in our Other Sports segment in Fiscal 2015 increased by $1.5 million, or 4.1%, to $36.9 million due to 6.0% growth in lacrosse sales driven by 28.0% growth in MAVERIK lacrosse equipment and the addition of team uniforms, partially offset by a 3.9% decline in lacrosse helmet sales as a result of the NOCSAE decertification in November 2014. Growth in MAVERIK lacrosse equipment was led by strong demand for the new line of heads and shafts, as well as strong growth in the new line of protective equipment and team gloves.

Other Sports segment EBITDA in Fiscal 2015 increased by $0.1 million, or 1.2%, driven by the impact of higher revenues, which was largely offset by lower gross margins in our lacrosse business as a result of the decline in helmet sales, and higher sales and marketing expenses in our soccer segment.

Hockey

Hockey revenues were $386.2 million in Fiscal 2014, compared to $370.9 million in Fiscal 2013, an increase of $15.3 million or 4.1%. The increase in Hockey revenues was driven by 4.1% growth in ice hockey equipment and 40.3% growth in hockey apparel, partially offset by unfavorable impacts from foreign exchange and the impact of lower wholesale prices as a result of the Canadian Tariff Reduction. Ice hockey equipment revenue growth was driven by 4.2% growth in sticks, 4.4% growth in protective equipment, 3.7% growth in skates, and 19.5% growth in accessories due to strong demand for the TUUK LIGHTSPEED EDGE holder and replacement steel blades. Hockey apparel growth was driven by the addition of team uniforms, 30.1% growth in off-ice team apparel, 27.0% growth in our base layer performance apparel, and 34.0% growth in lifestyle apparel. Excluding the impact of foreign exchange and the impact of lower wholesale prices as a result of the Canadian Tariff Reduction, Hockey revenues increased by 6.9%.

Hockey segment EBITDA in Fiscal 2014 increased by $1.1 million, or 1.7%, driven by higher gross margins in ice hockey equipment, partially offset by the impact of foreign exchange and higher initial costs to support the growth in the uniforms business. Excluding the impact of foreign exchange, Hockey segment EBITDA increased by $2.7 million, or 4.0%.

Baseball/Softball

Baseball/Softball revenue was $24.5 million in Fiscal 2014, compared to $0.1 million in Fiscal 2013, an increase of $24.4 million or greater than 100%. The increase in Baseball/Softball revenue resulted from the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition in April 2014 and the Combat Acquisition in May 2013.

Baseball/Softball segment EBITDA in Fiscal 2014 increased by $1.1 million, from a loss of $0.6 million to income of $0.5 million due to the addition of Easton Baseball/Softball. The increase in Baseball/Softball segment EBITDA resulted from the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition in April 2014, and the Combat Acquisition in May 2013.

Other Sports

Other Sports revenues were $35.5 million in Fiscal 2014, compared to $28.6 million in Fiscal 2013, an increase of $6.9 million or 24.1%. The increase in Other Sports revenues was driven by 19.0% growth in Lacrosse as a result of strong demand for the new CASCADE “R” helmet, the new line of Maverik products, including the launch of a women’s product line, and twelve months of Cascade sales in Fiscal 2014 as compared to eleven months in Fiscal 2013. Additionally, Other Sports revenue growth benefited from a full year of Inaria soccer uniform sales compared to four and a half months in Fiscal 2013.

Other Sports segment EBITDA in Fiscal 2014 increased by $0.9 million, or 37.7%, driven by the revenue growth in Lacrosse and improvement in Soccer segment EBITDA resulting from the impact of a full year of Inaria soccer uniform sales and the integration of Inaria into the PSG platform.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

This annual report on Form 10-K makes reference to certain non-GAAP measures. These non-GAAP measures are not recognized measures under U.S. GAAP and do not have a standardized meaning prescribed by U.S. GAAP. When used, these measures are defined in such terms as to allow the reconciliation to the closest U.S. GAAP measure. These measures are therefore unlikely to be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies. Rather, these measures are provided as additional information to complement those U.S. GAAP measures by providing further understanding of the Company's results of operations from management's perspective. Accordingly, they should not be considered in isolation nor as a substitute for analyses of the Company's financial information reported under U.S. GAAP. We use non-GAAP measures, such as Adjusted Net Income/Loss, Adjusted EPS, Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted Gross Profit, to provide investors with a supplemental measure of our operating performance and thus highlight trends in our core business that may not otherwise be apparent when relying solely on U.S. GAAP financial measures. We also believe that securities analysts, investors and other interested parties frequently use non-GAAP measures in the evaluation of issuers. We also use non-GAAP measures in order to facilitate operating performance comparisons from period to period, prepare annual operating budgets, and to assess our ability to meet our future debt service, capital expenditure, and working capital requirements.

Constant Currency

The Company also presents certain information related to our current period results of operations in this Item 7 through "constant currency", which is a non-GAAP financial measure and should be viewed as a supplement to our results of operations and presentation of reportable segments under U.S. GAAP. These amounts reflect the impact of translating the current period results at the monthly foreign exchange rates of the prior year period, the effect of changes in the value of the Canadian dollar against the U.S. dollar on our cost of goods purchased for sale outside of the United States including the related realized gains/losses on derivatives described above, and the realized gains/losses generated from revaluing non-functional currency assets and liabilities. The reported foreign exchange impact does not include the impact of fluctuations in Asian currencies against the U.S. dollar and their related effect on our Asian-sourced finished goods. Constant currency is used to enhance the visibility of the underlying business trends excluding the impact of foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations. We also use the terms "currency neutral" or "excluding the impact of foreign currency" to describe the constant currency impact. See "Factors Affecting Our Performance - Impact of Foreign Exchange and Hedging Practices" and "Results of Operations - Segment Results".

The definition and reconciliation of Adjusted Gross Profit, Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted Net Income/Loss, and Adjusted EPS used and presented by the Company to the most directly comparable U.S. GAAP measures follows below.

Adjusted Gross Profit

Adjusted Gross Profit is defined as gross profit plus the following expenses which are part of cost of goods sold: (i) amortization and depreciation of intangible assets, (ii) charges to cost of goods sold resulting from fair market value adjustments to inventory as a result of business acquisitions, (iii) reserves established to dispose of obsolete inventory acquired from acquisitions, and (iv) other one-time or non-cash items. We use Adjusted Gross Profit as a key performance measure to assess our core gross profit and as a supplemental measure to evaluate the overall operating performance of our cost of goods sold.

The table below provides the reconciliation of gross profit to Adjusted Gross Profit:

	Twelve Months Ended May 31,
(millions of U.S. dollars)	2015	2014	2013
Gross profit	$ 206.4	$ 154.3	$ 147.2

Other [3]	2.4	1.0	0.5
Adjusted Gross Profit	$ 229.4	$ 164.7	$ 153.0

(1) Upon completion of the purchase of the Bauer business from Nike in 2008, the Maverik Acquisition in 2010, the Cascade Acquisition in June 2012, the Inaria Acquisition in October 2012, the Combat Acquisition in May 2013, and the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition in April 2014, the Company capitalized acquired intangible assets at fair market value. These intangible assets, in addition to other intangible assets subsequently acquired, are amortized over their useful life and we recognize the amortization as a non-cash cost of goods sold.

(2) Upon completion of the Inaria, Combat Sports and Easton Baseball/Softball acquisitions, the Company adjusted Inaria's, Combat Sports' and Easton Baseball/Softball's inventories to fair market value. Included in the twelve-month periods ended May 31, 2015, May 31, 2014 and May 31, 2013 are charges to cost of goods sold resulting from the fair market value adjustment to inventory. This line also includes costs associated with the integration of the Inaria Acquisition in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014.

(3) Other represents the impact of costs related to the lacrosse helmet decertification for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015. Other represents the impact of the Canadian Tariff Reduction for the twelve-month periods ended May 31, 2014 and May 31, 2013.

See "Factors Affecting our Performance - Impact of Foreign Exchange and Hedging Practices" for Adjusted Gross Profit in constant currency.

Adjusted EBITDA

Adjusted EBITDA is defined as net income adjusted for income tax expense, depreciation and amortization, losses related to amendments to the credit facilities, gain or loss on disposal of fixed assets, net interest expense, deferred financing fees, unrealized gains/losses on derivative instruments, and realized and unrealized gains/losses related to foreign exchange revaluation, and before restructuring and other one-time or non-cash charges associated with acquisitions, other one time or non-cash items, costs related to share offerings, as well as share-based payment expenses. We use Adjusted EBITDA as the key metric in assessing our business performance when we compare results to budgets, forecasts and prior years. Management believes Adjusted EBITDA is an important measure of operating performance and cash flow, and provides useful information to investors because it highlights trends in the business that may not otherwise be apparent when relying solely on U.S. GAAP measures, and eliminates items that have less bearing on operating performance and cash flow. It is an alternative to measure business performance to net income and operating income, and management believes Adjusted EBITDA is a better measure of cash flow generation than, for example, cash flow from operations, particularly because it removes cash flow fluctuations caused by extraordinary changes in working capital. Adjusted EBITDA is used by management in the assessment of business performance and used by our Board of Directors as well as our lenders in assessing management's performance. It is also the key metric in determining payments under incentive compensation plans.

Adjusted Net Income/Loss and Adjusted EPS

Adjusted Net Income/Loss is defined as net income adjusted for all unrealized gains/losses related to derivative instruments and unrealized gains/losses related to foreign exchange revaluation, non-cash or incremental charges associated with acquisitions, amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets for acquisitions since the Canadian IPO in March 2011, costs related to share offerings, share-based payment expense and other non-cash or one-time items. Adjusted EPS is defined as Adjusted Net Income/Loss divided by the weighted average diluted shares outstanding. We use Adjusted Net Income/Loss and Adjusted EPS as key metrics for assessing our operational business performance and to assist with the planning and forecasting for the future operating results of the underlying business of the Company. We believe Adjusted Net Income/Loss and Adjusted EPS are useful information to investors because they highlight trends in the business that may not otherwise be apparent when relying solely on U.S. GAAP measures.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash Flows

The primary sources of the Company’s cash are net cash flows from operating activities and funds available under its New ABL Facility (defined herein). We believe that ongoing operations and associated cash flows, in addition to our cash resources and New ABL Facility, provide sufficient liquidity to support our business operations for at least the next 12 months. Furthermore, as of May 31, 2015, the Company held cash and cash equivalents of $2.9 million, our working capital was $332.4 million, and we had availability of $105.7 million under the New ABL Facility, which provides further flexibility to meet any unanticipated cash requirements due to changes in working capital commitments or liquidity risks associated with financial instruments. Such changes may arise from, among other things, the seasonality of our business (see “Factors Affecting our Performance - Seasonality” and “Liquidity and Capital Resources”), the failure of one or more customers to pay their obligations (see the “Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk-Credit Risk” section) or from losses incurred on derivative instruments, such as foreign currency forwards and interest rate contracts (see “Factors Affecting our Performance - Interest Expense”).

The following table summarizes our net cash flows provided by and used in operating, investing and financing activities:

	Twelve Months Ended
(millions of U.S. dollars)	May 31, 2015	May 31, 2014
Net cash flows from (used in) operating activities	$ 11.6	$ 9.9
Net cash flows from (used in) investing activities	(16.8)	(358.4)
Net cash flows from (used in) financing activities	1.8	351.3
Effect of exchange rate changes on cash	(0.6)	(0.5)
(Decrease) / increase in cash	(4.0)	2.4
Beginning cash	6.9	4.5
Ending cash	$ 2.9	$ 6.9

Net Cash From (Used In) Operating Activities

Our largest source of operating cash flows is cash collections from the sale of inventory. Our primary cash outflows from operating activities are inventory purchases, personnel-related expenses, occupancy costs, payment of interest and payment of taxes. Net cash from operating activities for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 was $11.6 million, an increase of $1.7 million, compared to net cash from operating activities of $9.9 million for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014, primarily driven by the following:

- $22.3 million lower use of cash from accounts receivable, due to an increase in payments received for receivables;
- $5.9 lower use of cash from accrued liabilities related to the timing of settlement for the liabilities; partially offset by

- $11.9 million lower source of cash from inventory, due to increasing inventory needs required to support future revenue growth;
- $4.9 million lower source of cash from accounts payable related to the timing of payments for inventory purchases; and
- $8.3 million higher use of cash as a result of lower cash earnings.

Net Cash From (Used In) Investing Activities

Our cash outflows from investing activities are primarily for acquisitions and the purchase of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets. Net cash used in investing activities for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 was $16.8 million, an increase of $341.6 million, compared to net cash used of $358.4 million for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014, primarily due to the following:

- $353.1 million lower cash outflow due to the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition in the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014; offset by
- $11.5 million of higher cash outflow related to the purchase of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets.

Net Cash From (Used In) Financing Activities

Our cash flows from financing activities consist primarily of proceeds from and repayment of debt, proceeds from the issuance of Common Shares and share issuances under stock option plans. Net cash from financing activities for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 was $1.8 million, a decrease of $349.5 million, compared to net cash from financing activities of $351.3 million for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014, primarily due to the following:

- $116.8 million of net cash inflow related to the net proceeds of the U.S. IPO; partially offset by
- $433.2 million lower net cash inflow related to the financing of the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition with a combination of an asset-backed revolving credit facility and senior secured loans in the twelve months ended May 31, 2014;
- $13.0 million increase in net cash outflow related to repayment of debt; and
- $17.4 million decrease in net cash inflow related to the net movement in revolving debt.

Indebtedness

Credit Facilities

Concurrently with the closing of the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition, the Company entered into the New Term Loan Facility (as defined herein) and the Company and certain of its subsidiaries entered into the New ABL Facility (as defined herein). The New Term Loan Facility and the New ABL Facility (referred to herein together as the “Credit Facilities”) replaced the Company's existing credit facilities.

As of May 31, 2015, $330.5 million was drawn under the New Term Loan Facility and $92.9 million was drawn under the New ABL Facility. Following completion of the U.S. IPO on June 25, 2014, the Company used the net proceeds of the U.S. IPO and repaid approximately $119.5 million under the New Term Loan Facility. The repayment was first applied against the outstanding amortization payments and as such no further amortization payments are due for the life of the facility.

New Term Loan Facility

Concurrently with the closing of the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition, the Company entered into an amortizing term credit facility in the principal amount of $450 million U.S. dollars by and among the Company, as borrower, Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent and collateral agent, Bank of America, N.A., J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, RBC Capital Markets and

Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc., as joint lead arrangers, Bank of America, N.A., J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, and RBC Capital Markets, as bookrunners, JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A. and RBC Capital Markets, as syndication agents, and the lenders party thereto from time to time (the "New Term Loan Facility"). The New Term Loan Facility matures on April 15, 2021. The New Term Loan Facility contains representations and warranties, affirmative and negative covenants and events of default customary for credit facilities of this nature.

The New Term Loan Facility may be prepaid at any time in whole or in part without premium or penalty, upon written notice, at the option of the Company, other than reimbursement of the New Term Loan Facility lenders for any funding losses and redeployment costs (but not loss of margin) resulting from prepayments of LIBOR advances in certain circumstances. Any amounts prepaid under the New Term Loan Facility may not be reborrowed. In certain circumstances, the Company is permitted to add one or more incremental term loan facilities under the New Term Loan Facility. As well, in certain circumstances and from time to time, the Company is permitted to refinance loans or incremental term loans under the New Term Loan Facility, in whole or in part.

Interest Rates

The interest rates per annum applicable to the New Term Loan Facility equal the sum of (a) the applicable margin percentage (as described below), plus, at the Company's option, (b) either LIBOR, subject to a 1% floor or the U.S. base rate (each as determined in accordance with the terms of the New Term Loan Facility). The applicable margin is 3.50% per annum in the case of LIBOR advances and 2.50% per annum in the case of U.S. base rate advances. The Company's $119.5 million repayment from the net proceeds of the U.S. IPO activated the Leverage Step-Down Trigger (as defined in the New Term Loan Facility). Effective July 1, 2014, the applicable margin is 3.00% per annum in the case of LIBOR advances and 2.00% per annum in the case of U.S. base rate advances for so long as the Consolidated Total Net Leverage Ratio (as defined in the New Term Loan Facility) remains less than 4.25:1.00. If the Consolidated Total Net Leverage Ratio (as defined in the New Term Loan Facility) is greater than or equal to 4.25:1.00, the applicable margin is 3.50% per annum in the case of LIBOR advances and 2.50% per annum in the case of U.S. base rate advances.

Guarantees and Security

The obligations of the Company under the New Term Loan Facility are guaranteed by certain subsidiaries of the Company, including each of the existing and future direct and indirect wholly-owned material Canadian and U.S. subsidiaries of the Company (collectively, the "Term Loan Guarantors"). The New Term Loan Facility is secured by a perfected first priority security interest (subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions) in: (a) all present and future shares of capital stock of each present and future subsidiary of the Company (subject to certain exceptions); (b) all present and future debt owed to the Company or any Term Loan Guarantor; and (c) all present and future property and assets, real and personal (other than assets constituting ABL Priority Collateral (as defined herein)) of the Company and each Term Loan Guarantor; and (d) all proceeds and products of the property and assets described above (collectively, the "Term Priority Collateral"). The New Term Loan Facility is further secured by a perfected second priority security interest in the ABL Priority Collateral (as defined herein), subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions.

New ABL Facility

Concurrently with the closing of the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition, the Company and certain of its subsidiaries entered into a revolving, non-amortizing asset-based credit facility in an amount equal to the lesser of $200 million U.S. dollars (or the Canadian dollar equivalent thereof) and the Borrowing Base (as defined herein) by and among Bauer Hockey Corp. and its Canadian subsidiaries from time to time party thereto, as Canadian borrowers (collectively, the "Canadian ABL Borrowers"), Bauer Hockey, Inc. and its U.S. subsidiaries from time to time party thereto, as U.S. borrowers (collectively, the "U.S. ABL Borrowers" and, collectively with the Canadian ABL Borrowers, the "ABL Borrowers"), the Company as parent, Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent and collateral agent, JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A. and an affiliate of RBC Dominion Securities Inc., as syndication agents, Bank of America, N.A., J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, RBC Capital Markets and Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc., as joint lead arrangers, Bank of America, N.A., J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, and RBC Capital Markets, as bookrunners, and the various lenders party thereto (the "New ABL Facility"). The ABL Borrowers are permitted under the New ABL Facility to solicit the lenders to provide additional revolving loan commitments in an aggregate amount not to exceed $75 million U.S. dollars (or the Canadian dollar equivalent thereof). The New ABL Facility matures on April 15, 2019 and may be drawn in U.S. dollars by the U.S. ABL Borrowers and either U.S. dollars or Canadian dollars by the Canadian ABL Borrowers, as LIBOR loans, CDOR loans, U.S. base rate loans, Canadian prime rate loans, as applicable, or letters of credit or swingline loans (with a sublimit of up to $25 million U.S. dollars available for letters of credit and up to $20 million U.S. dollars for swingline loans (or, in each case, the Canadian dollar equivalent thereof)), each as determined in accordance with the terms of the New ABL Facility. The New ABL Facility contains representations and warranties, affirmative and negative covenants, and events of default customary for credit facilities of this nature.

Under the New ABL Facility, the ABL Borrowers were permitted to draw up to $25 million U.S. dollars (or the Canadian dollar equivalent thereof) to partially finance the Easton Baseball/Softball Acquisition and drew approximately $22 million in connection therewith. The ABL Borrowers are permitted to use the undrawn amount under the New ABL Facility from time to time for ordinary course working capital and for general corporate purposes. Voluntary reductions of the unutilized portion of the New ABL Facility commitments and voluntary prepayments under the New ABL Facility are permitted at any time, without premium or penalty, subject to reimbursement of the Lenders' redeployment costs in the case of prepayments of LIBOR advances in certain circumstances. Voluntary prepayments under the New ABL Facility may be reborrowed.

Borrowing Base

The borrowing base (the "Borrowing Base") under the New ABL Facility for the interim period up until the 90 th day following April 15, 2014 (subject to extension at the discretion of the Agent) is deemed to be the greater of $100 million or as calculated by adding the net book value of (a) Accounts of Bauer Hockey Corp. and Bauer Hockey, Inc. (collectively, the "Borrowers"), multiplied by the advance rate of 50%, plus (b) the net book value of Inventory of the Borrowers located in the United States or Canada multiplied by the advance rate of 45%. The Borrowing Base for the interim period up until the 90th day following April 15, 2014 was extended to September 15, 2014.

After the interim period the Borrowing Base equals the sum of the Canadian Borrowing Base (as defined herein) and the U.S. Borrowing Base (as defined herein).

The "Canadian Borrowing Base" means, subject to customary reserves and eligibility criteria, the sum of: (a) 85% of the Canadian ABL Borrowers' eligible accounts receivable; plus (b) the lesser of 70% of the cost (valued on a first in, first out basis) of the Canadian ABL Borrowers' eligible inventory, or 85% of the appraised net orderly liquidation value of the Canadian ABL Borrowers' eligible inventory.

The "U.S. Borrowing Base" means, subject to customary reserves and eligibility criteria, the sum of: (a) 85% of the U.S. ABL Borrowers' eligible accounts receivable; plus (b) the lesser of 70% of the cost (valued on a first in, first out basis) of the U.S. ABL Borrowers' eligible inventory, or 85% of the appraised net orderly liquidation value of the U.S. ABL Borrowers' eligible inventory.

Interest Rates and Fees

At the option of the ABL Borrowers, until August 31, 2014, the interest rates under the New ABL Facility were (i) LIBOR or CDOR, as applicable, plus 1.75% per annum or (ii) the U.S. base rate or Canadian prime rate, as applicable, plus 0.75% per annum. Following August 31, 2014, interest rate margins under the New ABL Facility are determined with reference to the following grid, based on the average availability, as a percentage of the aggregate commitments, during the immediately preceding quarter:

Average Availability (% of Line Cap)	Interest Rate Margin for LIBOR/CDOR Rate Loans	Interest Rate Margin for U.S. Base Rate/Canadian Prime Rate Loans
Equal to or greater than 66%	1.50%	0.50%
Less than 66% but equal to or greater than 33%	1.75%	0.75%
Less than 33%	2.00%	1.00%

The ABL Borrowers may elect interest periods of one, two, three or six months (or 12 months if agreed to by all the Lenders) for LIBOR or CDOR loans.

A per annum fee equal to the interest rate margin for LIBOR or CDOR loans under the New ABL Facility will accrue on the average daily amount of the aggregate undrawn amount of outstanding letters of credit, payable in arrears on the first day of each quarter. In addition, the ABL Borrowers shall pay (a) a fronting fee equal to 0.125% on the average daily amount of the aggregate undrawn amount of outstanding letters of credit, and (b) customary issuance and administration fees.

The ABL Borrowers initially paid a commitment fee of 0.50% per annum on the average daily unused portion of the New ABL Facility. From and after August 31, 2014, the commitment fee is determined by reference to the following grid based on the average utilization of the commitments under the New ABL Facility during the immediately preceding fiscal quarter:

Average Usage (% of commitments)	Commitment Fee %
Less than 50%	0.375 %
Equal to or greater than 50%	0.25 %

The interest rate on the Credit Facilities for the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 ranged from 1.9% to 4.5%. As of May 31, 2015, there are five letters of credit totaling $1.4 million outstanding under the New ABL Facility.

Guarantees and Security

The obligations of the ABL Borrowers under the New ABL Facility are guaranteed by the Company and certain subsidiaries of the Company, including each of the existing and future direct and indirect wholly owned material Canadian and U.S. subsidiaries of the Company (collectively, the "ABL Guarantors").

The New ABL Facility is secured by a perfected first priority security interest (subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions) in (a) all present and future accounts receivable (except to the extent constituting proceeds of equipment, real property or intellectual property and intercompany loans); (b) all present and future inventory; (c) all present and future instruments, chattel paper and other contracts, in each case, evidencing, or substituted for, any accounts receivable referred to in clause (a) above; (d) all present and future guarantees, letters of credit, security and other credit enhancements in each case for the accounts receivable; (e) all present and future documents of title for any inventory referred to in clause (b) above; (f) all present and future commercial tort claims and general intangibles in each case to the extent relating to any of the accounts receivable referred to in clause (a) above or inventory referred to in clause (b) above, but excluding intercompany debt and capital stock; (g) all present and future bank accounts, securities accounts (including all cash and other funds on deposit therein, except to the extent constituting identifiable proceeds of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral (as defined therein) or any such account which holds solely such identifiable proceeds of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral) or investment property and any capital stock; (h) all present and future tax refunds; (i) all present and future supporting obligations, documents and books and records relating to any of the foregoing; and (j) all substitutions, replacements, accessions, products or proceeds (including, without limitation, insurance proceeds) of any of the foregoing (collectively, the "ABL Priority Collateral"). The New ABL Facility is further secured by a perfected second priority security interest in the Term Priority Collateral (subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions).

Leverage Ratio

The former credit facilities and the current Credit Facilities define Leverage Ratio as Net Indebtedness divided by EBITDA. Net Indebtedness includes such items as the Company's term loan, capital lease obligations, subordinated indebtedness, and average revolving loans for the last 12 months as of the reporting date, less the average amount of cash for the last 12 months as of the reporting date. EBITDA is defined in both the former credit facilities and Credit Facilities. The following table depicts the Company's Leverage Ratio:

	As of May 31, 2015 [1]	As of February 28, 2015	As of November 30, 2015	As of August 31, 2015	As of May 31, 2014
Leverage Ratio	4.29	3.87	3.62	3.61	4.78

(1) Excluding the impact of foreign exchange on the Company's Fiscal 2015 EBITDA, the Leverage Ratio was 3.62.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We enter into agreements with our manufacturing partners on tooling requirements for our manufactured products. These agreements form an important part of the Company's supply chain strategy and cash flow management. The following table summarizes our vendor tooling commitments as of May 31, 2015 and Fiscal 2015:

(millions of U.S. dollars)

Vendor	Tooling acquisition value	Cost paid	Owed amounts as of May 31, 2015	Open purchase orders amortization value	Outstanding liability Fiscal 2015
Supplier A	$ 6.9	$ 5.1	$ 1.8	$ 0.2	$ 1.6
Supplier B	6.3	5.1	1.2	0.3	0.9
Supplier C	1.3	0.5	0.8	0.1	0.7
Supplier D	0.6	0.6	—	—	—
Supplier E	0.6	0.3	0.3	0.1	0.2
Supplier F	0.3	0.2	0.1	—	—

Supplier H	0.1	0.1	—	—	—
Total	$ 16.2	$ 12.0	$ 4.2	$ 0.7	$ 3.5

Capital Expenditures

In the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2015 and the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2014, we incurred capital expenditures of $17.6 million and $6.0 million, respectively. As a percentage of revenues, our capital expenditures for the twelve months ended May 31, 2015 were 2.7% of revenues, compared to 1.4% of revenues for the twelve months ended May 31, 2014. The capital investments were incurred for information systems to assist in streamlining our growing organization, leasehold improvements related to the Blainville, Quebec research, design and development facility, investments related to the Own The Moment Hockey Experience retail stores, tooling, R&D and investments in retail marketing assets. The year-over-year increase is driven by higher investments in information systems, leasehold improvements related to the Blainville, Quebec research, design and development facility investments related to the Own The Moment Hockey Experience retail stores and the addition of Easton Baseball/Softball, as compared to the prior year. Our ordinary course of operations requires minimal capital expenditures for equipment, given that we manufacture most of our products through our manufacturing partners. Going forward, to support our growth and key business initiatives, we currently anticipate moderately higher levels of capital expenditures and investment.

Contractual Obligations

The following table summarizes our contractual obligations as of May 31, 2015 and the effect such obligations are expected to have on our liquidity and cash flows in future periods:

	Payments due by period
(millions of U.S. dollars)	Total	Less Than 1 Year	1 - 3 Years	3 - 5 Years	More Than 5 Years
Operating lease obligations [1]	$ 14.8	$ 5.4	$ 3.9	$ 1.7	$ 3.8
Financing and capital lease obligations [1]	21.3	1.6	3.4	3.4	12.9
Endorsement contracts [2]	14.8	7.2	5.6	1.1	0.9
Long-term borrowings: [3]

Term loan due 2021	330.5	—	—	—	330.5
Interest payment obligations	78.7	13.4	26.8	26.8	11.7

Non-inventory purchases [5]	11.1	5.6	1.8	2.6	1.1
Total	$ 653.6	$ 215.6	$ 41.5	$ 35.6	$ 360.9

(1) Future operating lease obligations are not recognized in our consolidated balance sheets. The operating lease obligations for buildings and equipment expire at various dates through the fiscal year ended May 31, 2026. The financing and capital lease obligations for buildings expire at various dates through the fiscal year ended May 31, 2030. Certain of the operating and capital leases contain renewal clauses for the extension of the lease for one or more renewal periods.

(2) The amounts listed for endorsement contracts represent approximate amounts of base compensation and minimum guaranteed royalty fees the Company is obligated to pay athletes, sports teams, and other endorsers of the Company's products. Actual payments under some contracts may be higher than the amounts listed as these contracts provide for bonuses to be paid to the endorsers based upon certain achievements and/or royalties on product sales in future periods. Actual payments under some contracts may also be lower as these contracts include provisions for reduced payments if certain performance criteria are not met. In addition to the cash payments, the Company is obligated to furnish the endorsers with products for their use. It is not possible to determine how much the Company will spend on this product on an annual basis as the contracts do not stipulate a specific amount of cash to be spent on the product. The amount of product provided to the endorsers will depend on many factors including general playing conditions, the number of sporting events in which they participate, and the Company's decisions regarding product and marketing initiatives. In addition, the costs to design, develop, source, and purchase the products furnished to the endorsers are incurred over a period of time and are not necessarily tracked separately from similar costs incurred for products sold to customers.

(3) The revolving loan and the term loan due 2021 amounts represent principal payments on outstanding debt. The interest payment obligations represent interest payments on the term loan due 2021. Estimates of interest payments are based on outstanding principal amounts, currently effective interest rates as of May 31, 2015, and the term of the debt obligation. The interest payment obligations exclude expected interest payments on our revolving loan, which can fluctuate based on the amount of outstanding borrowings in any given period. For more information, please refer to the “Indebtedness” section and the notes to the audited annual consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2015.

(4) Inventory purchase obligations include various commitments in the ordinary course of business that would include the purchase of goods that are not recognized in our consolidated balance sheets.

(5) Non-inventory purchase obligations include other binding commitments for the expenditure of funds that are not recognized in our consolidated balance sheets, including (i) amounts related to contracts not involving the purchase of inventories, such as the non-cancelable portion of service or maintenance agreements for management information systems, and (ii) capital expenditures for approved projects.

Contingencies

In connection with the purchase of the certain assets from Nike on April 16, 2008 (the “Business Purchase”), a subsidiary of Kohlberg Sports Group Inc., a Cayman Island corporation (“KSGI”), agreed to pay additional consideration to Nike in future periods based upon the attainment of a qualifying exit event. As of May 31, 2015, the maximum potential future consideration pursuant to such arrangements, to be resolved on or before the eighth anniversary of April 16, 2008, is $10.0 million. As a condition to the acquisition in connection with the U.S. IPO, the former securityholders of KSGI who sold KSGI and its subsidiaries to the Company on March 10, 2011 pursuant to the acquisition agreement dated March 3, 2011 (the “Existing Holders”) entered into a reimbursement agreement with the Company pursuant to which each such Existing Holder agreed to reimburse the Company, on a pro rata basis, in the event that the Company or any of its subsidiaries are obligated to make such a payment to Nike.

The Company previously entered into employment agreements with the former owners of Inaria in connection with the closing of the Inaria Acquisition. Included in the employment agreements are yearly performance bonuses payable in the event Inaria achieves gross profit targets in the period one to four years following the closing. These amounts will be accrued over the required service period. As of May 31, 2015, the potential undiscounted amount of the future payments that the Company could be required to make is between $0 and $0.9 million Canadian dollars.

In addition to the matters above, during the ordinary course of its business, the Company is involved in various legal proceedings involving contractual and employment relationships, product liability claims, trademark rights and a variety of other matters. The Company does not believe there are any pending legal proceedings that will have a material adverse impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make judgments, estimates, and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amount of assets, liabilities, income, and expenses. The judgments and estimates are reviewed on an ongoing basis and estimates are revised and updated accordingly. Actual results may differ from these estimates. Significant areas requiring the use of judgment in application of accounting policies, assumptions, and estimates include fair value determination of assets and liabilities in connection with business combinations, fair valuation of financial instruments, impairment of non-financial assets, valuation allowances for receivables and inventory, amortization periods, provisions, employee benefits, share-based payment transactions, and income taxes. We believe our critical accounting estimates are those related to acquisitions, valuation of derivatives, share-based payments, warranties, retirement benefit obligations, depreciation and amortization, income taxes, and impairment of non-financial assets. We consider these accounting estimates critical because they are both important to the portrayal of our financial condition and operating results, and they require us to make judgments and estimates about inherently uncertain matters.

Acquisition Accounting

Part of our growth strategy has included the acquisition by us of numerous businesses. The purchase price of each acquisition has been determined after due diligence of the target business, market research, strategic planning and the forecasting of expected future results and synergies. Estimated future results and expected synergies are subject to revisions as we integrate each acquisition and attempt to leverage resources.

The fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination is estimated based on information available at the date of the acquisition. The estimate of fair value of the acquired intangible assets (including goodwill), property, plant and equipment, and other assets, and the liabilities assumed at the date of acquisition, as well as the useful lives of the acquired intangible assets and property, plant and equipment is based on assumptions. The measurement is largely based on projected cash flows, discount rates and market conditions at the date of acquisition. We use a variety of information sources to determine the fair value of acquired assets and liabilities and we generally use third party appraisers to assist us in the determination of the fair value and useful lives of identifiable intangible assets. We estimate the fair values of the assets acquired in each acquisition as of the date of acquisition and these estimates are subject to adjustment based on the final assessments of the fair value of acquired intangible assets (including goodwill), property, plant and equipment, and other assets, and the liabilities assumed. We complete these assessments within one year of the date of acquisition.

Our estimates of fair value are based upon assumptions believed to be reasonable at that time but which are inherently uncertain and unpredictable. Assumptions may be incomplete or inaccurate, and unanticipated events and circumstances may occur, which may affect the accuracy of such assumptions.

Valuation of Derivatives

In the valuation of the Company's outstanding derivatives, foreign currency forward contracts, the fair value is based on current foreign exchange rates at each reporting date. Since the Company recognizes the fair value of these financial instruments on the consolidated statements of financial position and records changes in fair value in the current period earnings, these estimates will have a direct impact on the Company's net income or loss for the period.

Share-Based Payments

Share-based compensation expense is measured at the grant date based on the fair value of the award and is recognized as expense over the applicable vesting period of the stock award (generally four years) using an accelerated method. Determining the fair value of share-based compensation awards at grant date requires significant judgment and estimates regarding valuation variables such as volatility, expected forfeiture rates and the expected term of the awards. Expected volatility is estimated based on the historic average share price volatility of the Company's peers based on the recent period commensurate with the estimated expected term of the stock options. When estimating pre-vesting forfeitures, we consider voluntary termination behavior. We reflect the impact of forfeitures for stock options based on historical experience. The Company uses the "simplified method" to estimate the expected life of options for employee awards that qualify as "plain-vanilla" options as it lacks sufficient company-specific historical information as it relates to the exercise of options. The "simplified method" calculates the expected life of a stock option equal to the time from grant to the midpoint between the vesting date and contractual term, taking into account all vesting tranches. The calculation of the grant date fair value requires the input of highly subjective assumptions and changes in subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate.

Warranties

Estimated future warranty costs are accrued and charged to cost of goods sold in the period in which revenues are recognized from the sale of goods. When we evaluate our reserve for warranty costs, we consider our product warranty policies, historical claim rates, product category and mix, current warranty claim trends, and the historical cost to replace or repair its products under warranty. If we determine that a smaller or larger reserve is appropriate, we will record a credit or a charge to cost of goods sold in the period in which we make such a determination. The recognized amount of future warranty costs is based on management's best information and judgment.

Retirement Benefit Obligations

Accounting for the costs of the defined benefit obligations is based on actuarial valuations. The present value of the defined benefit obligation recognized in the consolidated statements of financial position and the net financing charge recognized in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income is dependent on current market interest rates of high quality, fixed rate debt securities. Other key assumptions within this calculation are based on market conditions or estimates of future events, including mortality rates. Since the determination of the costs and obligations associated with future employee benefits requires the use of various assumptions, there is measurement uncertainty inherent in the actuarial valuation process.

Income Taxes

The measurement of income tax expense and deferred income tax assets and liabilities requires management to make judgments in the interpretation and application of the relevant tax laws. In evaluating our ability to recover our deferred income tax assets, we consider all available positive and negative evidence, including current and proposed tax legislation, current and projected future taxable income, future reversals of existing taxable temporary differences and tax-planning strategies. We record a valuation allowance against deferred tax assets for which we are unable to conclude that recoverability is more likely than not. Given the judgments and estimates required and the sensitivity of the results to the significant assumptions used, we believe the accounting estimates used in relation to the recognition of deferred income tax assets are subject to measurement uncertainty and are susceptible to a material change if the underlying assumptions change.

We are subject to income taxes in the United States, Canada and various foreign and state jurisdictions. Our policy is to recognize interest expense and penalties related to income tax matters as a selling, general and administrative expense. As of May 31, 2015, we do not have any significant accruals for interest related to unrecognized tax benefits or tax penalties. Our intercompany transfer pricing policies are currently subject to audits by various foreign tax jurisdictions. Although we believe that our intercompany transfer pricing policies and tax positions are reasonable, the final outcomes of tax audits or potential tax disputes may be materially different from that which is reflected in our income tax provisions and accruals. The actual amount of income taxes only becomes final upon filing and acceptance of the tax return by the relevant authorities, which occurs subsequent to the issuance of the financial statements.

Impairment of Non-Financial Assets

We perform annual impairment tests on goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives in the fourth quarter of each fiscal year, or when events occur or circumstances change that would, more likely than not, reduce the fair value of a reporting unit or an intangible asset with an indefinite life below its carrying value. Goodwill is tested annually on March 1. Indefinite lived intangible assets are tested annually on May 31. Events or changes in circumstances that may trigger interim impairment reviews include significant changes in business climate, operating results, planned investments in the reporting unit, planned divestitures, or an expectation that the carrying amount may not be recoverable, among other factors. We may first assess qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. If, after assessing the totality of events and circumstances, we determine that it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is greater than its carrying amount, the two-step impairment test is unnecessary. The two-step impairment test requires us to estimate the fair value of our reporting units. If the carrying value of a reporting unit exceeds its fair value, the goodwill of that reporting unit is potentially impaired and we proceed to step two of the impairment analysis. In step two of the analysis, we measure and record an impairment loss equal to the excess of the carrying value of the reporting unit's goodwill over its implied fair value, if any.

Management exercises judgment in assessing whether there are indications that goodwill or intangible assets may be impaired. In determining the recoverable amount of assets, in the absence of quoted market prices, impairment tests are based on estimates of discounted cash flow projections and other relevant assumptions. The assumptions used in the estimated discounted cash flow projections involve estimates and assumptions regarding discount rates and long-term terminal growth rates. Differences in estimates could affect whether goodwill or intangible assets are in fact impaired and the dollar amount of that impairment.

Indefinite-lived intangible assets primarily consist of acquired trade names and trademarks. We may first perform a qualitative assessment to determine whether it is more likely than not that an indefinite-lived intangible asset is impaired. If, after assessing the totality of events and circumstances, we determine that it is more likely than not that the indefinite-lived intangible asset is not impaired, no quantitative fair value measurement is necessary. If a quantitative fair value measurement calculation is required for these intangible assets, we utilize the relief-from-royalty method. This method assumes that trade names and trademarks have value to the extent that their owner is relieved of the obligation to pay royalties for the benefits received from them. This method requires us to estimate the future revenue for the related brands, the appropriate royalty rate, and the weighted average cost of capital.

It is possible that the Company's conclusions regarding impairment or recoverability of goodwill or intangible assets in any reporting unit could change in future periods. There can be no assurance that the estimates and assumptions used in our goodwill and intangible asset impairment testing performed as of the beginning of the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2015 will prove to be accurate predictions of the future, if, for example, (i) the businesses do not perform as projected, (ii) overall economic conditions in Fiscal 2016 or future years vary from current assumptions (including changes in discount rates), (iii) business conditions or strategies for a specific reporting unit change from current assumptions, including loss of major customers, (iv) investors require higher rates of return on equity investments in the marketplace or (v) enterprise values of comparable publicly traded companies, or actual sales transactions of comparable companies, were to decline, resulting in lower multiples of revenues and EBITDA. A future impairment charge for goodwill or intangible assets could have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial position and results of operations.

New Accounting Pronouncements

See Item 8 of Part II, "Financial Statements and Supplementary Data - Note 2 - Significant Accounting Policies - Recent Accounting Pronouncements".

Item 7A. QUANITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Market risk represents the risk of loss that may impact our financial position due to adverse changes in financial market prices and rates. Our market risk exposure is primarily a result of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates. We do not hold or issue financial instruments for trading purposes.

Foreign Currency Risk

The Company is a global enterprise subject to the risk of foreign currency fluctuations. We are exposed to foreign exchange rate risk driven by the fluctuations against the U.S. dollar of the currencies in which we collect our revenues: the Canadian dollar, euro, Swedish krona, Norwegian krona, and Danish krona. Our exposure also relates to debt held in Canadian dollars and purchases of goods and services in foreign currencies. While we purchase a majority of our products in U.S. dollars, we are exposed to cost variability due to fluctuations against the U.S. dollar of certain foreign currencies, primarily: the Canadian dollar, Chinese renminbi, Taiwanese new dollar and Thai baht. Approximately 41% of the Company's revenues in Fiscal 2015 were generated in international markets. Most of our foreign businesses operate in functional currencies other than the U.S. dollar. In periods where the U.S. dollar strengthens relative to the Canadian dollar, euro or other foreign currencies where the Company has operations, there is a negative impact on the Company's operating results upon translation of those foreign operating results into the U.S. dollar. The Company currently does not hedge the translation of foreign currency operating results into the U.S. dollar; however, management does hedge foreign currency transactions as discussed later in this section.

The reported values of assets and liabilities in these foreign businesses are subject to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates. For net advances to and investments in the Company's foreign businesses that are considered to be long-term, the impact of changes in foreign currency exchange rates on those long-term advances are deferred as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) in shareholders' equity. The U.S. dollar value of net investments in foreign subsidiaries fluctuates with changes in the underlying functional currencies. The Company does not hedge this balance sheet translation exposure and currently does not intend to do so.

We currently generate a portion of our revenue and incur a portion of our expenses in Canada, Sweden and Finland. The reporting currency for our consolidated financial statements is the U.S. dollar. The strengthening of the U.S. dollar against the Canadian dollar, Swedish krona, and euro during Fiscal 2015 has resulted in:

- A reduction in our revenue upon translation of the sales made by our Canadian, Swedish and Finnish operations into U.S. dollars for the purposes of consolidation;
- A reduction in our R&D and selling, general and administrative expenses, as well as certain Canadian dollar denominated cost of goods sold incurred by our Canadian, Swedish and Finnish operations into U.S. dollars for the purposes of consolidation; and
- An increase in our cost of goods sold for sourced products purchased in U.S. dollars.

The Company monitors net foreign currency market exposures and enters into derivative foreign currency contracts to hedge the effects of exchange rate fluctuations for a significant portion of forecasted foreign currency cash flows or specific foreign currency transactions (relating to cross-border inventory purchases). Currently, the Company uses only forward exchange contracts. This use of financial instruments allows management to reduce the overall exposure to risks from exchange rate fluctuations on the Company's cash flows and earnings, since gains and losses on these contracts will offset losses and gains on the transactions being hedged. The Company has not elected hedge accounting and therefore the changes in the fair value of these derivatives are recognized through profit or loss each reporting period. In subsequent periods, the income statement impact of the mark-to-market adjustment is effectively offset when the inventory being hedged is sold. While these effects occur every reporting period, they are of much greater magnitude when there are sudden and significant changes in currency exchange rates during a short period of time.

For derivative foreign currency contracts outstanding at the end of Fiscal 2015, if there were a hypothetical change in foreign currency exchange rates of 10% compared with rates at the end of Fiscal 2015, it would result in a change in fair value of those contracts of approximately $7.6 million. However, any change in the fair value of the hedging contracts would be offset by a change in the fair value of the underlying hedged exposure impacted by the currency rate changes.

Commodity Price Risk

We are subject to market risk from fluctuating market prices of certain purchased commodities and raw materials including steel, aluminum, petroleum-based resins, and diesel fuel. In addition, we are a purchaser of components and parts containing various commodities, including steel, aluminum, rubber and others, which are integrated into the Company's end products. While such materials are typically available from numerous suppliers, commodity raw materials are subject to price fluctuations. We generally buy these commodities and components based upon market prices that are established with the vendor as part of the purchase process. The Company does not currently enter into futures contracts or otherwise hedge its exposure to commodity price risk. In the event of significant commodity cost increases, we may not be able to adjust our selling prices sufficiently to mitigate the impact on our margins. Based on our current outlook for commodity prices, the total impact of commodities is expected to have a positive impact on our gross margins for Fiscal 2016 when compared to Fiscal 2015.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument will be affected by changes in market interest rates. Our financing includes long-term debt and a New ABL Facility that bears interest based on floating market rates. Changes in these rates result in fluctuations in the required cash flow to service this debt. We have entered into an interest rate cap on a portion of our term debt to mitigate our interest rate risk. Based on the average amount of variable rate borrowings during Fiscal 2015, the effect on reported interest expense of a hypothetical 1.0% change in interest rates is approximately $1.4 million (assumes LIBOR on the New Term Loan Facility is below the 1% floor).

Credit Risk

Credit risk is when the counterparty to a financial instrument or a customer fails to meet its contractual obligations, resulting in a financial loss to the Company. The counterparties to all derivative transactions are major financial institutions with investment grade credit ratings. However, this does not eliminate the Company's exposure to credit risk with these institutions. This credit risk is generally limited to the unrealized gains in such contracts should any of these counterparties fail to perform as contracted. To manage this risk, the Company has established strict counterparty credit guidelines that are continually monitored and reported to senior management according to specified guidelines.

We sell to a diverse customer base over a global geographic area. We evaluate collectability of specific customers' receivables based on a variety of factors including currency risk, geopolitical risk, payment history, customer stability, and other economic factors. Collectability of receivables is reviewed on an ongoing basis by management and the allowance for doubtful accounts is adjusted as required. Account balances are charged against the allowance for doubtful accounts when we determine that it is probable that the receivable will not be recovered. We believe that the geographic diversity of the customer base, combined with our established credit approval practices and ongoing monitoring of customer balances, mitigates the counterparty risk.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that we will not be able to meet our financial obligations as they become due. We continually monitor our actual and projected cash flows. We believe our cash flows generated from operations combined with our New ABL Facility provide sufficient funding to meet our obligations. See "Liquidity and Capital Resources" for more information.

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND ORGANIZATION

Nature of the business:

Performance Sports Group Ltd. and its subsidiaries (‘‘PSG’’ or the ‘‘Company’’) is a public company incorporated pursuant to the laws of the Province of British Columbia. The Company is listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE: PSG) and the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX: PSG).

The Company is engaged in the design, manufacture and distribution of performance sports equipment for ice hockey, roller hockey, baseball and softball, lacrosse, as well as related apparel and accessories, including soccer apparel. The ice hockey products include skates, helmets, protective gear, sticks, team apparel and accessories. The roller hockey products include skates, helmets, protective gear, sticks and accessories. The baseball and softball products include bats, gloves, helmets, protective gear, apparel and accessories. The lacrosse products include sticks (shafts and heads), helmets, protective gear and apparel. The Company distributes its products primarily in the United States, Canada and Europe to specialty retail stores, sporting goods and national retail chains as well as directly to sports teams.

Basis of presentation:

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries, which have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”). All intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

In prior years, the Company had prepared its financial statements under International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”), as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board, for reporting as required by securities regulators in Canada, as well as in the United States under the status of a foreign private issuer as defined by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). During the year ended May 31, 2015, the Company determined that it no longer qualified as a foreign private issuer under the SEC rules. As a result, beginning with the Company’s annual report on Form 10-K as of and for the year ended May 31, 2015, the Company is required to report with the SEC on domestic forms and comply with domestic public company rules in the United States. The Company is permitted in Canada, in accordance with securities regulators, to prepare its consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The transition to U.S. GAAP was made retrospectively for all periods presented.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of estimates:

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amount of assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. Significant estimates and assumptions reflected in these consolidated financial statements include, but are not limited to, fair value determination of assets and liabilities in connection with business combinations, fair valuation of financial instruments, impairment of non-financial assets, valuation allowances for receivables and inventory, amortization periods, accruals, employee benefits, share-based payment transactions, and income taxes. Estimates are periodically reviewed in light of changes in circumstances, facts and experience. Actual results could differ from the Company’s estimates.

Trade and other receivables, net:

Trade accounts receivable are recorded at net realizable value. This value includes appropriate allowances for estimated uncollectible accounts to reflect any loss anticipated on the trade accounts receivable balances and charged to the allowance for doubtful accounts. The Company assesses collectability of receivables on an ongoing basis to determine any adjustments to the allowance for doubtful accounts. The allowance is determined based on review of specific customer accounts where collection is doubtful, as well as assessment of the collectability of total receivables considering the aging of balances, historical collection experience, customer disputes, historical and anticipated trends and economic conditions. Receivables are written off against the allowance when it is probable the amounts will not be recovered.

Trade and other receivables, net on the consolidated balance sheet represents amounts due from customers less the allowance for doubtful accounts as well as allowances for discounts and returns.

The Company recognizes long-term receivables related to debt investments within other non-current assets on its consolidated balance sheets. Interest earned on the loan receivable is recognized within interest income in the consolidated statements of income.

Inventories, net:

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined by the first-in, first-out method and includes all costs incurred in bringing each product to its present location and condition. Market value is based on estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less any further costs expected to be incurred to completion and disposal. The estimated allowance for obsolete or unmarketable inventory is based upon current inventory levels, sales trends and historical experience as well as management's understanding of market conditions and forecasts of future product demand, all of which are subject to change.
Inventory, net is made up of the following balances:

	May 31, 2015	May 31, 2014
Raw Materials	$ 6,062	$ 4,545
Work-in-process	443	222
Finished goods	172,798	158,322
Inventories, gross	179,303	163,089
Less: allowance for obsolete inventory	(4,757)	(3,797)
Total inventories, net	$ 174,546	$ 159,292

Property, plant, and equipment:

Property, plant and equipment are recorded at cost, less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Such cost includes costs directly attributable to making the asset capable of operating as intended. Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognized as a separate component as appropriate, only when it is probable that the future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and its cost can be reliably measured. The carrying amount of any replaced asset is derecognized. All repairs and maintenance costs are charged to profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred. Depreciation is provided on all property, plant and equipment. The Company periodically reviews assets' estimated useful lives based upon actual experience and expected future utilization, and any change in estimated useful life is treated as a change in accounting estimate and recognized prospectively.

Depreciation expense is recognized in earnings on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the related asset. The estimated useful lives are as follows:

Buildings	30 years
Machinery and equipment	2-8 years
Computer software and equipment	3-10 years
Furniture and fixtures	2-8 years
Leasehold improvements	Shorter of lease term or remaining life of the assets
Assets under capital lease	Shorter of lease term or remaining life of the assets

The Company assesses potential impairments of its long-lived assets, including definite-lived intangible assets whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the asset's carrying value may not be recoverable. An impairment charge would be recognized when the carrying amount of a long-lived asset or asset group is not recoverable and exceeds its fair value. The carrying amount of a long-lived asset or asset group is not recoverable if it exceeds the sum of the undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use and eventual disposition of the asset or asset group. If the carrying amount is not recoverable, an impairment charge would be recognized when the carrying amount of the long-lived asset or asset group exceeds its fair value, as based on its discounted cash flows.

Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying value of the asset and is recognized in selling, general and administrative expenses.

Intangible assets and goodwill:

Goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets are not amortized and are required to be tested for impairment at least annually or more frequently when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the assets may be impaired. A significant amount of judgment is involved in determining if an indicator of impairment has occurred. Such indicators may include deterioration in general economic conditions, adverse changes in the markets in which an entity operates, increases in input costs that have negative effects on earnings and cash flows, or a trend of negative or declining cash flows over multiple periods, among others. The fair value that could be realized in an actual transaction may differ from that used to evaluate the impairment of goodwill and other intangible assets.

Goodwill is tested annually on March 1. The Company may first assess qualitative factors before utilizing a quantitative assessment to determine whether a goodwill impairment exists. Under the goodwill two-step quantitative impairment test, the evaluation of impairment involves comparing the current fair value of each reporting unit to its carrying value, including goodwill. The first step of the test compares the carrying value of a reporting unit, including goodwill, with its fair value. We estimate the fair value using level 3 inputs as defined by the fair value hierarchy. Refer to Note 2 for the definition of the levels in the fair value hierarchy. The inputs used to calculate the fair value include a number of subjective factors, such as estimates of future cash flows, estimates of our future cost structure, discount rates for our estimated cash flows, required level of working capital, assumed terminal value, and time horizon of cash flow forecasts. If the carrying value of a reporting unit exceeds its fair value, we complete the second step of the test to determine the amount of goodwill impairment loss, if any, to be recognized. In the second step, we estimate an implied fair value of the reporting unit's goodwill by allocating the fair value of the reporting unit to all of the assets and liabilities other than goodwill (including any unrecognized intangible assets). The impairment loss is equal to the excess of the carrying value of the goodwill over the implied fair value of that goodwill.

Indefinite lived intangible assets are tested annually on May 31. The Company may first assess qualitative factors before performing a quantitative impairment test for its intangible assets. The estimates of fair value are determined using a relief-from-royalty method.

Intangible assets with definite lives are amortized over their estimated useful lives and tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying amount of the asset may be impaired. Intangible assets with definite lives are evaluated for impairment using a process similar to that used in evaluating elements of property, plant and equipment. If impaired, the asset is written down to its fair value.

The Company did not record any impairment charges in the years ending May 31, 2015, 2014 or 2103, respectively.

A summary of the policies applied to the Company's intangible assets are:

	Useful Life	Weighted-average amortization period	Method of amortization
Trade names and trademarks	Indefinite
Purchased technology	Finite	9 years	Straight-line
Customer relationships	Finite	18 years	Cash flow
Leases	Finite	6 years	Straight-line
Non-compete agreements	Finite	3 years	Straight-line

Segment reporting:

The Company's operating segments are organized on the basis of the management structure established to assess segment performance. The Hockey segment includes the Bauer and Mission brands; the Baseball/Softball segment includes the Easton and Combat brands; and Other Sports includes the Lacrosse and Soccer operating segments, which includes the Maverik and Cascade brands for Lacrosse and the Inaria brand for Soccer.

Income taxes:

The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method, whereby deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the expected future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred taxes are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in years in which the differences are expected to reverse. The effect of a change in tax rates on deferred tax assets and liabilities is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

A valuation allowance is provided against deferred tax assets if, based on the weight of available evidence, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized.

The Company uses a two-step process for the measurement of uncertain tax positions that have been taken or are expected to be taken in a tax return. The first step is a determination of whether it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on the basis of the technical merits of the position. The second step determines the measurement of the tax position based on the probability of it being sustained in the event of a tax examination. The Company records potential interest and penalties on uncertain tax positions as a component of income tax expense.

Fair value measurements:

Certain assets and liabilities are carried at fair value under U.S. GAAP. Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. Valuation techniques used to measure fair value must maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. Financial assets and liabilities carried at fair value are to be classified and disclosed in one of the following three levels of the fair value hierarchy, of which the first two are considered observable and the last is considered unobservable:

- Level 1 - Quoted prices in active market for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 - Observable inputs (other than Level 1 quoted market prices) such as quoted prices in active market for similar assets or liabilities, quoted prices in markets that are not active for identical or similar assets or liabilities, or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data.
- Level 3 - Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to determining the fair value of the assets or liabilities, including pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies and similar techniques.

The Company's foreign currency forward contracts and variable cash bonuses (see Note 18) are carried at fair value determined according to the fair value hierarchy described above. The carrying amounts shown for the Company's cash, trade and other receivables and trade and other payables approximate fair value because of the short term maturity of those instruments. The carrying amount of the loan receivable approximates fair value due to the recent nature of this transaction. The fair value of the Company's long-term debt (see Note 8) bearing interest at variable rates is considered to approximate the carrying amount. The finance lease obligations are recorded at carrying value, which approximates fair value.

Derivatives:

In the normal course of business, the Company's consolidated balance sheets and consolidated statements of income are impacted by currency rate movements in foreign currency denominated assets, liabilities and cash flows as the Company purchases and sells goods in local currencies, except for the purchases of finished goods inventory, which are predominantly in U.S. dollars. The Company is also impacted by interest rate movements on its variable interest rate debt. The Company has established policies and business practices that are intended to mitigate a portion of the effect of these exposures. The Company uses derivative financial instruments, specifically foreign currency forward contracts and interest rate contracts to manage exposures. Currently, all of the Company's derivative financial instruments are not designated as derivatives that qualify for hedge accounting, and are accordingly recorded at fair value in the consolidated balance sheets with changes in fair value included in unrealized (gain) loss on derivatives. Derivative instruments are included in current assets, non-current assets, current liabilities and non-current liabilities depending on their term to maturity. The Company does not enter into derivative financial instruments for speculative or trading purposes.

Foreign currency translation:

The results and financial position of all of the Company's foreign operations are translated into the Company's reporting currency, the U.S. dollar. The assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated into U.S. dollars at exchange rates in effect at each accounting period end date. The income and expense items of foreign operations are translated to U.S. dollars at average exchange rates during the period. Gains or losses arising from translation of the financial statements of these foreign operations are recorded in foreign currency translation adjustments, a component of other comprehensive income (loss) in the consolidated statements of stockholders' equity.

Transaction gains and losses generated by the effect of foreign exchange on recorded assets and liabilities denominated in a currency different from the functional currency of the applicable entity are recorded in foreign exchange (gain) loss in the consolidated statements of income in the period in which they occur.

Revenue recognition:

Sales are recognized, in general, as products are shipped to customers, net of an allowance for sales returns and sales programs in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Topic 605, Revenue Recognition. In certain cases, the Company recognizes sales when products are received by customers, depending on the country of sale and the agreement with the customer. Amounts billed to customers for shipping and handling costs are included in revenues and costs incurred related to shipping and handling are included in cost of goods sold. The criteria for recognition of revenue are met when persuasive evidence that an arrangement exists and both title and risk of loss have passed to the customer, the price is fixed or determinable and collectability is reasonably assured. Sales returns are estimated based upon historical returns, current economic trends, changes in customer demands and sell-through of products. The Company also records estimated reductions to revenue for sales programs such as incentive offerings, including special pricing agreements, promotions, advertising allowances and other volume-based incentives. Sales program accruals are estimated based on agreements with applicable customers, historical experience with the customers and/or product, historical sales returns, and other relevant factors.

Share-based compensation:

The Company maintains share-based compensation plans providing executives, board members, certain other employees and consultants with stock options. The options vest in tranches over a vesting period of up to 6 years and expire after 10 years.

The Company uses the Black-Scholes option-pricing model to estimate the fair market value of all share-based compensation awards, excluding awards which may be partially settled in cash (see Note 18) and deferred share units (see Note 14), which requires various assumptions, including volatility and expected option life. The Company uses the "simplified method" to estimate the expected life of options for employee awards that qualify as "plain-vanilla" options as it lacks sufficient company-specific historical information as it relates to the exercise of options. The "simplified method" calculates the expected life of a stock option equal to the time from grant to the midpoint between the vesting date and contractual term, taking into account all vesting tranches. For all options granted to nonemployees, the estimated expected term is equal to the contractual life of the option, which is 10 years. The risk free interest rate is based on the yield for the U.S. Treasury bill or Canada Benchmark Bond Yield rates, as applicable, with a maturity equal to the expected life of the stock option. Expected volatility is estimated based on the historic average share price volatility of the Company's peers.

The fair value of each tranche of the options granted to senior management, board members, and certain other employees is determined separately at the date granted using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The grant date fair value, net of expected forfeitures, is expensed over the vesting period of each tranche, using an accelerated method. Expected forfeitures are estimated based on the Company's historic average.

For stock options granted to nonemployees, compensation expense is recognized over the period during which services are rendered by such nonemployee consultants until completed. At the end of each financial reporting period prior to completion of service, the fair value of these awards is remeasured using the then-current fair value of the Company's common stock and updated assumption inputs in the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The Company issues new shares of its common stock upon exercise of its stock options.

Share-based payments expense is classified as selling, general and administrative expense in the consolidated statements of income with a corresponding increase in equity.

Advertising costs:

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and are included as a component of selling, general and administrative expenses.

A significant amount of the Company's promotional expenses results from payments under endorsement contracts. Accounting for endorsement payments is based upon specific contract provisions. Generally, endorsement payments are expensed on a straight-line basis over the term of the contract after giving recognition to periodic performance compliance provisions of the contracts. Prepayments made under contracts are included in prepaid expenses and other assets.

Through cooperative advertising programs, the Company reimburses its retail customers for certain costs of advertising the Company's products. The Company records these costs as a reduction of revenues at the point in time when it is obligated to its customers for the costs, which is when the related revenues are recognized. This obligation may arise prior to the related advertisement being run.

For the years ended May 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, advertising costs, expensed by the Company in selling, general and administrative expenses, were $30,484, $22,936 and $19,570, respectively.

Research and development:

Research and development costs are charged to operations as incurred.

Earnings per share:

Basic earnings per common share are calculated by dividing net income by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per common share are calculated by adjusting the weighted average outstanding shares, assuming conversion of all potentially dilutive stock options.

Warranty Policy:

The Company has a warranty policy for its products ranging from 30 days to one year. The Company's policy is to accrue the estimated cost of satisfying future warranty claims at the time the sale is recorded. In estimating its future warranty obligations, the Company considers various relevant factors, including the Company's stated warranty policies and practices, the historical frequency of claims, and the cost to replace or repair its products under warranty. Warranty expense is classified as a cost of goods sold in the consolidated statements of income.

The following table provides a reconciliation of the activity related to the Company's reserve for warranty expense:

	Year Ended May 31,
	2015	2014	2013

Recent Accounting Pronouncements:

During fiscal year 2015, the Company transitioned its accounting from IFRS to U.S. GAAP. The transition was made retrospectively for all periods presented. The transition to U.S. GAAP included the adoption of any relevant accounting pronouncements effective for fiscal years ended prior to May 31, 2015.

In January 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-01, Income Statement-Extraordinary and Unusual Items (Subtopic 225-20): Simplifying Income Statement Presentation by Eliminating the Concept of Extraordinary Items. This ASU eliminates the concept of extraordinary items in Accounting Standards Codification Subtopic 225-20, Income Statement-Extraordinary and Unusual Items. The standard eliminates and no longer requires that an entity recognize an unusual and infrequent event separately in the income statement as an extraordinary item, net of tax. This ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2015, and for interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company has adopted this standard in the fourth quarter ending May 31, 2015. The adoption of this standard had no impact on the consolidated statements of income.

In April 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-03, Interest - Imputation of Interest - Simplifying the Presentation of Debt Issuance Costs, which, when effective, will require that debt issuance costs related to a recognized debt liability be presented in the balance sheet as a direct deduction from the carrying amount of that debt liability, consistent with debt discounts. The recognition and measurement guidance for debt issuance costs are not affected by the amendments in this update. The guidance is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2015 and interim periods within that year. An entity should apply the new guidance on a retrospective basis, wherein the balance sheet or each individual period presented should be adjusted to reflect the period-specific effects of applying the new guidance. Early adoption is permitted. The Company has adopted this standard in the fourth quarter ending May 31, 2015 and applied it retrospectively for all periods presented.

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers: Topic 606. This ASU outlines a single comprehensive model for entities to use in accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers and supersedes most current revenue recognition guidance. This accounting standard is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim reporting periods within that reporting period. Early adoption is not permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact this accounting standard will have on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In June 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-12, Accounting for Share-Based Payments When the Terms of an Award Provide That a Performance Target Could Be Achieved after the Requisite Service Period. ASU 2014-12 requires that a performance target that affects vesting, and that could be achieved after the requisite service period, be treated as a performance condition. As such, the performance target should not be reflected in estimating the grant date fair value of the award. This update further clarifies that compensation cost should be recognized in the period in which it becomes probable that the performance target will be achieved and should represent the compensation cost attributable to the period(s) for which the requisite service has already been rendered. The amendments in this ASU are effective for annual periods and interim periods within those annual periods beginning after December 15, 2015. The Company does not expect this update to have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements as the terms of outstanding share-based payments do not include awards related to performance targets. However, the Company will continue to evaluate this accounting standard for future issuances of share-based payments.

In August 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-15, Presentation of Financial Statements-Going Concern. The new guidance addresses management's responsibility to evaluate whether there is substantial doubt about an entity's ability to continue as a going concern and to provide related footnote disclosures. Management's evaluation should be based on relevant conditions and events that are known and reasonably knowable at the date that the consolidated financial statements are issued. The standard will be effective for the first interim period within annual reporting periods ending after December 15, 2016. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is evaluating the effect that this guidance will have on its consolidated financial statements.

The Company has reviewed all other recently issued accounting standards in order to determine their effects, if any, on the consolidated financial statements. Based on that review, the Company believes that none of these standards will have a significant effect on current or future earnings or results of operations.

3. BUSINESS ACQUISITIONS

Easton Baseball/Softball

On April 15, 2014, the Company acquired substantially all of the assets and assumed certain liabilities formerly used in Easton-Bell Sports, Inc.'s baseball, softball and lacrosse businesses ("Easton Baseball/Softball") from Easton-Bell Sports, Inc. (now named BRG Sports, Inc. ("BRG Sports")). The acquisition allowed the Company to expand its presence in the baseball and softball market as Easton is North America's leading diamond sports brand.

Upon closing of the acquisition, the Company also owned the Easton brand. In connection with the acquisition, the Company granted a license to BRG Sports to permit BRG Sports and its assigns to use the Easton name in their hockey and cycling businesses only. The Company and BRG Sports also settled certain intellectual property litigation matters related to patents held by the Company concurrently with the closing of the acquisition. The Company received $6,000 from BRG Sports which was recognized as an offset to selling, general and administrative expenses during the year ended May 31, 2014.

The purchase price paid by the Company at closing was $330,000 in cash, plus a working capital adjustment of $21,657. The Company financed the acquisition, and refinanced certain existing indebtedness, with a combination of a $200,000 asset-based revolving loan and a $450,000 term loan. Refer to Note 8 - Debt for details on the Company's outstanding debt.

The Company has completed its valuation of assets acquired and liabilities assumed. The allocation of the purchase price to the individual assets acquired and liabilities assumed under the purchase method of accounting resulted in $55,301 of goodwill of which the entire amount is expected to be deductible for tax purposes. The goodwill associated with the transaction was due to management's conclusion that the acquisition coincided with the Company's strategy of expanding its baseball and softball product offerings to drive revenue growth and expected synergies from combining operations.

The following table presents the final allocation of purchase price related to the business as of the date of the acquisition:

Net assets acquired:
Trade receivables	$	72,119
Inventories		39,473
Property, plant and equipment		3,904
Intangible assets		205,550
Other assets		786
Total Assets acquired		321,832
Current liabilities		(25,476)
Total liabilities assumed		(25,476)
Net assets acquired	$	296,356
Consideration paid to seller	$	351,657
Goodwill	$	55,301

The estimated fair values and useful lives of intangible assets acquired as of the acquisition date were as follows:

		Amount	Weighted-Average Remaining Useful Life
Trade names and trademarks	$	134,300	Indefinite
Customer relationships		61,450	20
Purchased technology		9,800	6
Total intangible assets acquired	$	205,550

The trade names and trademarks and purchased technology were valued using the relief-from-royalty method. The relief-from royalty method recognizes that the current value of an asset may be premised upon the expected receipt of future economic benefit in the use of the acquired technology. These benefits are generally considered to be higher income resulting from the avoidance of a loss in revenue that would likely occur without the specific technology.

Customer relationships were valued using the excess earnings method. The excess earnings method recognizes that the current value of an asset may be premised upon the present value of the earnings it generates, net of a reasonable return on other assets also contributing to that stream of earnings.

As a result of the acquisition, the Company stepped-up the acquired inventory to fair market value. The amount of the step-up was $10,055. Of this amount, $7,234 and $2,857 was charged to costs of goods sold for the years ended May 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

The Company incurred acquisition-related costs in the years ended May 31, 2015 and 2014 of $282 and $4,331, respectively, relating to external legal fees, consulting fees and due diligence costs. The costs are included in selling, general and administrative expenses.

The amounts of Easton Baseball/Softball's revenue and net loss included in the Company’s consolidated statements of income for the year ended May 31, 2014 was $13,955 and $2,979, respectively.

At May 31, 2014, trade and other receivables, net includes a receivable from BRG Sports in the amount of $33,009 which consists of cash receipts from customers paid to BRG Sports that was owed to the Company. The Company received $33,009 by July 2014.

Pro forma information (Unaudited)

The following unaudited pro forma financial information presents the consolidated results of operations if the Easton Baseball/Softball acquisition had occurred on June 1, 2012:

	Year ended May 31,
	2014	2013
Revenues	$ 602,228	$ 562,388
Net income	35,251	33,926
Earnings per share:
Basic	$ 0.99	$ 0.99
Diluted	$ 0.94	$ 0.93

In determining these amounts, management has assumed the fair value adjustments which arose on the date of acquisition would have been the same if the acquisitions had occurred on June 1, 2012. In addition, the intellectual property litigation would have settled on June 1, 2012. This pro forma information is not necessarily indicative of the results of operations that actually would have been achieved had the acquisitions been consummated at that time, nor is it intended to be a projection of future results. The pro forma results also do not include, among other items, the effects of the anticipated synergies from combining the two companies or differences in the combined Company's operating structure.

On May 3, 2013, the Company acquired substantially all of the assets and assumed certain liabilities of Combat Sports ("Combat"), a manufacturer and distributor of composite baseball and softball bats, hockey sticks and lacrosse shafts. The acquisition provided the Company with intellectual property that strengthened its research and development portfolio and expanded the Company's product offering into baseball and softball. The purchase price paid by the Company at closing was $3,342 in cash, net of $630 collected on trade receivables. The acquisition was funded through cash on hand. The allocation of the purchase price to the individual assets acquired and liabilities assumed under the purchase method of accounting resulted in a gain on bargain purchase as a result of the excess of the estimated fair value of the assets and liabilities acquired over the purchase price. The gain on bargain purchase of $1,190 was due to the fact that Combat was in bankruptcy and was being sold through a bidding process. The Company acquired substantially all the assets and assumed liabilities of Combat out of bankruptcy. Due to the bankruptcy it is impractical to provide pro forma financial information for the impact on revenue and consolidated net income as the information cannot be reasonably determined.

On October 16, 2012, the Company acquired substantially all of the assets of Inaria International ("Inaria"), a manufacturer and distributor of team sports and active apparel. The acquisition provided the Company with full team apparel capabilities, including the design, development and manufacturing of uniforms for soccer, ice hockey, roller hockey, lacrosse, baseball, soccer and other team sports. The purchase price paid by the Company at closing was $7,145 in cash. The acquisition was funded by additional borrowings on the revolving credit line.

On June 29, 2012, the Company purchased all of the issued and outstanding shares of the capital stock of Cascade Helmets Holdings, Inc. ("Cascade"), primarily a manufacturer and distributor of lacrosse equipment and a growing hockey helmet business. The acquisition allowed the Company to expand its presence in the growing lacrosse market, whose helmet and headgear products were complementary to the Company's existing offering of lacrosse equipment products under the Maverik brand. In addition, the Company leveraged Cascade's patented head-protection technologies in both lacrosse and hockey. The total consideration paid to the seller at closing was $68,131 in cash, or $64,788 net of cash acquired of $3,343. The acquisition was funded by a public offering of 3,691,500 common shares at a price of $7.80 Canadian dollars per share for aggregate proceeds, net of underwriting fees of $1,401 ($1,440 Canadian dollars), of $26,613 ($27,354 Canadian dollars) and the issuance of 642,000 common shares resulting in proceeds of $4,888 ($5,008 Canadian dollars). The acquisition was also funded by a $30,000 senior secured term facility maturing on March 16, 2016 and the balance through additional borrowings on the revolving loan.

If the Inaria and Cascade acquisitions had occurred on June 1, 2012, consolidated revenue would have been approximately $405,005 and consolidated net income would have been approximately $24,829 for the year ended May 31, 2013. In determining these amounts, management has assumed the fair value adjustments which arose on the date of acquisition would have been the same if the acquisitions had occurred on June 1, 2012. This pro forma information is not necessarily indicative of the results of operations that actually would have been achieved had the acquisitions been consummated at that time, nor is it intended to be a projection of future results.

New Credit Facility

On April 15, 2014, the Company, concurrently with the Easton Baseball/Softball acquisition, entered into the New Term Loan Facility (as defined herein) and the Company and certain of its subsidiaries entered into the New ABL Facility (as defined herein) with Bank of America, B.A. The New Term Loan Facility and the New ABL Facility (referred to herein together as the “Credit Facilities”) replaced the Company’s existing credit facilities. The Credit Facilities are comprised of a (i) $450,000 term loan facility (the ‘‘New Term Loan Facility’’) and a (ii) $200,000 asset-based revolving loan (the ‘‘New ABL Facility’’). The Company refinanced its former credit facilities, financed the cash purchase price of the Easton Baseball/Softball acquisition and paid fees and expenses incurred in connection with the transaction with the use of cash on hand and an aggregate amount of $475,000 drawn from the Credit Facilities. In connection with the Credit Facilities, the Company incurred and capitalized $16,803 in fees in the year ended May 31, 2014.

The New Term Loan Facility of $450,000 matures on April 15, 2021 and is subject to quarterly amortization of principal equal to 0.25% of the original aggregate principal amount of the New Term Loan Facility drawn, with the balance of the New Term Loan Facility payable on maturity. The interest rates per annum applicable to the New Term Loan equal an applicable margin percentage, plus, at the Company’s option, (i) the U.S. base rate or (ii) LIBOR (subject to a 1% floor). The applicable margin is 2.50% per annum in the case of U.S. base rate advances and 3.50% per annum in the case of LIBOR advances, subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of the Leverage Step-Down Trigger (as defined in the New Term Loan Facility) for so long as the Consolidated Total Net Leverage Ratio (as defined in the New Term Loan Facility) remains less than 4.25:1.00.

On June 25, 2014, the Company completed its underwritten public offering in the United States and Canada (the "Offering") of 8,161,291 common shares at a price to the public of $15.50 U.S. dollars per share, for total gross proceeds of approximately $126,500, including the exercise in full of the over-allotment option. Refer to Note 13 - Stockholders' Equity. The Company used the net proceeds of the Offering to repay $119,500 of the New Term Loan Facility. The repayment was first applied against the outstanding amortization payments and as such no further amortization payments are due during the life of the facility. The repayment also reduced the applicable margin by 0.50% per annum which is a component of the interest rate on the New Term Loan Facility.

The New ABL Facility of $200,000 matures on April 15, 2019 and is equal to the lesser of $200,000 (or Canadian dollar equivalent) and the borrowing base. The borrowing base is based on the Company’s accounts receivable and inventory balances. The New ABL Facility includes a $25,000 letter of credit facility and a $20,000 swing loan facility. The amounts outstanding under the New Term Loan Facility and the New ABL Facility are secured by certain assets, including the Company’s trade and other receivables and inventory, with priority given first to the New ABL Facility. At the option of the Company, until August 31, 2014, the interest rates under the New ABL Facility were (i) LIBOR or CDOR, as applicable, plus 1.75% per annum or (ii) the U.S. base rate or Canadian prime rate, as applicable, plus 0.75% per annum. Following August 31, 2014, interest rate margins under the New ABL Facility are determined with reference to the following grid, based on the average availability, as a percentage of the aggregate commitments during the immediately preceding quarter:

Average Availability (% of Line Cap)[1]	Interest Rate Margin for LIBOR/CDOR Rate Loans	Interest Rate Margin for U.S. Base Rate/Canadian Prime Rate Loans
Equal to or greater than 66%	1.50 %	0.50 %
Less than 66% but equal to or greater than 33%	1.75 %	0.75 %
Less than 33%	2.00 %	1.00 %

(1) The term "% of Line Cap" represents the Company's percentage of aggregate commitments

At May 31, 2015 there are five letters of credit in the amount of $1,403 outstanding under the New ABL Facility. The maximum amount of additional indebtedness (as defined by the New ABL Facility) that could have been outstanding on May 31, 2015, after outstanding borrowings and letters of credit was approximately $106,000.

Former Credit Facility

On June 29, 2012, the Company amended the previous credit facility (the ''Amended Credit Facility'') to increase its borrowing capacity. The Company maintained the Amended Credit Facility up to April 15, 2014. The total loss on extinguishment of debt for the year ended May 31, 2014 was $2,589. The Amended Credit Facility was comprised of a (i) $130,000 term loan facility, denominated in both Canadian dollars and U.S. dollars and (ii) $145,000 revolving loan, denominated in both Canadian dollars and U.S. dollars, the availability of which was subject to meeting certain borrowing base requirements, such as eligible accounts receivable and inventory.

The revolving loan included a $20,000 letter of credit subfacility and a $10,000 swing line loan facility. The term loan and the revolving loan were to mature on March 10, 2016. In connection with the Amended Credit Facility, the Company incurred $1,569 in fees, of which $304 was recognized in selling, general and administrative expenses in the year ended May 31, 2013 and $1,265 was capitalized.

The interest rates per annum applicable to the loans under the Amended Credit Facility equal an applicable margin percentage, plus, at the Company's option depending on the currency of borrowing, (i) the U.S. base rate/Canadian Base rate or (ii) LIBOR/Bankers Acceptance rate. The applicable margin percentages and the unused commitment fee was subject to adjustment based upon the ratio of the total debt to Adjusted EBITDA as follows:

Total Debt to Adjusted EBITDA	Base Rate/Canadian Base Rate	LIBOR/BA Rate	Unused Commitment Fee
Equal to or greater than 3.0x	1.25 %	2.50 %	0.50 %
Equal to or greater than 2.5x but less than 3.0x	1.00 %	2.25 %	0.45 %
Equal to or greater than 2.0x but less than 2.5x	0.75 %	2.00 %	0.40 %
Less than 2.0x	0.50 %	1.75 %	0.35 %

The Amended Credit Facility included covenants that required the Company to maintain a minimum fixed charge ratio, a minimum leverage ratio and maximum capital expenditures.

The range of interest rates on the credit facilities is as follows:

	2015	2014

The Company evaluates its ability to realize the tax benefits associated with deferred tax assets by analyzing both historical and projected future operating results, the reversal of existing temporary differences, taxable income in prior carry-back years and the availability of tax planning strategies. The valuation allowance of $1,683 at May 31, 2015 relates to Canadian unrealized losses on capital items which are subject to tax deduction limitations.

A tabular roll forward of the Company's gross unrecognized tax benefits is presented below:

	Year ended May 31,
	2015	2014	2013
Balance at beginning of year	$ 1,600	$ 1,611	$ 1,611
Translation gain	(27)	(11)	—
Balance at end of year	$ 1,573	$ 1,600	$ 1,611

Of the $1,573 of gross unrecognized tax benefits from uncertain tax positions outstanding at May 31, 2015, $183 would affect the Company's tax rate if recognized. The Company recognizes interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as a component of selling, general and administrative expense. Accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax positions as of May 31, 2015 and 2014, and recorded in each of the years ended May 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013 were not significant.

The Company conducts business globally and, as a result, its subsidiaries file income tax returns in Canada, U.S. federal and state jurisdictions and various foreign jurisdictions. In the normal course of business the Company may be subject to examination by taxing authorities throughout the world, including such major jurisdictions as Canada and the United States. The Company is currently under income tax examination in Germany for the fiscal years ended May 31, 2003 through 2011. The statute of limitations in the Company's other tax jurisdictions remain open for various periods between 2011 and the present. However, carryforward attributes from prior years may still be adjusted upon examination by tax authorities if they are used in an open period.

At May 31, 2015 and 2014 the Company has Canadian non-capital loss carryforwards of $25,113 and $18,868, respectively, which expire at various times through 2035. At May 31, 2015, the Company has capital loss carryforwards in Canada of $1,854 for which a full valuation allowance exists. These capital losses are available indefinitely to offset taxable capital gains.

The Company has recognized a deferred income tax liability in the amount of $654 for the undistributed earnings of two of its foreign subsidiaries in the current or prior years for the earnings it expects to repatriate. We have not provided for deferred income taxes or withholding taxes on the undistributed earnings of the remaining foreign subsidiaries because such earnings are considered permanently reinvested. It is not practicable to estimate the amount of tax that may be payable upon distribution because such liability, if any, is dependent on circumstances existing if and when such remittance occurs.

11. EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

Defined benefit plans

The Company has two defined benefit pension plans. These plans are not registered, are not funded, and do not accept new participants. Additionally, current participants do not earn any additional benefits outside of those earned by eligible employees during their service period with the Company. The Canadian defined benefit pension plan was available to designated senior management and executives. The U.S. defined benefit pension plan was available to designated employees. Payouts under these plans are dependent on the Company's ability to pay at the time the participants are entitled to receive their payments. The Company also pays all of the costs of a post-retirement life insurance plan which is available to most Canadian employees. This plan is not funded.

The following table provides the defined benefit plan liabilities:

	Defined Benefit Pension Plan		Post-retirement Life Insurance Plan		Total Retirement Benefit Obligation
	May 31, 2015	May 31, 2014	May 31, 2015	May 31, 2014	May 31, 2015	May 31, 2014

Net liability recognized in consolidated balance sheets	$ 4,793	$ 5,314	$ 5,271

Estimated amortization of net actuarial losses (gains) from accumulated other comprehensive income into net periodic benefit cost for the following fiscal year is $35.

	Year ended May 31,
	2015	2014	2013
Canadian Plan
Discount rate	3.60%	4.00%	4.10%

U.S. Plan
Inflation rate	N/A	N/A	N/A

The discount rate was selected based on a review of current market interest rates of high quality, fixed rate debt securities adjusted to reflect the duration of expected future cash outflows for the defined pension benefit payments. The rate is determined by management with the aid of third-party actuaries. The mortality table used for the defined benefit plan obligation and benefit plan costs was UP-94 Generational.

The effect of a 1% change in the discount rate and inflation rate of the defined benefit pension obligation is reflected in the following table:

	Discount Rate for the year ended May 31, 2015		Inflation Rate for the year ended May 31, 2015
	1% Increase	1% Decrease	1% Increase	1% Decrease

2020	320
Thereafter	3,777

Defined contribution plans

The Company has two defined contribution pension plans: a defined contribution Registered Retirement Savings Plan (“RRSP”) which is available to most Canadian employees and a defined contribution 401(k) plan that covers all employees in the United States. The terms of the RRSP provides for annual contributions by the Company as determined by executive management. Contributions to the RRSP for the years ended May 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013 were $499, $451 and $447, respectively. The RRSP contributions are included in cost of goods sold, selling, general and administrative expenses and research and development expenses.

Employees are eligible to participate in the defined contribution 401(k) plan immediately upon hire; there is no service requirement. The 401(k) plan provides for matching contributions in an amount equal to 100% of the first 4% contributed by the employee to the plan. Matching contributions to the 401(k) plan were $872, $562 and $478 for the years ended May 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The 401(k) plan contributions are included in cost of goods sold, selling, general and administrative expenses and research and development expenses.

Financing Obligations: Build-to-suit Leases

In September 2010, the Company entered into a lease agreement as a second tenant of a property in Exeter, New Hampshire (the “Exeter property”) for a lease term of 144 months. During the Company’s assessment of the Exeter property, it was determined that the facility was not in a functional state of use. Per the terms of the lease agreement and due to the Company’s involvement in the restoration of the facility, the Company was determined to be the owner of the facility. Subsequent to the completion of the restoration of the Exeter property, the Company maintained continuing involvement in the premise and consequently did not transfer the substantial risks and rewards of ownership, and thereby failing to meet the provisions for sale-leaseback accounting. Therefore, the Company recognizes the Exeter property and related improvements as a lease financing obligation in accordance with ASC 840 Topic, "Leases" ("ASC 840").

In April 2014, the Company entered into a lease agreement for a building under construction in Blainville (Quebec), Canada (the “Blainville property”) for a lease term of 183 months. Per the terms of the lease agreement and due to the Company’s involvement during the construction of the facility, the Company was determined to be the owner of the Blainville property. Subsequent to the completion of construction of the Blainville property, the Company maintained continuing involvement in the premise and consequently did not transfer the substantial risks and rewards of ownership, and thereby failing to meet the provisions for sale-leaseback accounting. Therefore, the Company recognizes the Blainville property and related improvements as a lease financing obligation in accordance with ASC 840.

At May 31, 2015, the maximum potential future consideration pursuant to such arrangements, to be resolved on or before the eighth anniversary of April 16, 2008, is $10,000. On April 16, 2008, all of the security holders of KSGI (collectively, the "Existing Holders") entered into a reimbursement agreement with the Company pursuant to which each such Existing Holder agreed to reimburse the Company, on a pro rata basis, in the event that the Company or any of its subsidiaries are obligated to make a payment to Nike, Inc. Deferred Share Unit Plan ("DSU Plan")

On September 18, 2012, the Board adopted a Deferred Share Unit Plan (the "Plan") for the directors of the Company. The purpose of the Plan is to promote a greater alignment of interests between certain eligible directors ("Eligible Directors") and the shareholders of the Company. Under the terms of the Plan, each Eligible Director may elect to receive director fees (i.e. retainers, meeting fees) and other cash compensation payable for services as an independent contractor paid entirely in cash or up to 100% in deferred share units ("DSUs"). If the Eligible Director elects to receive any portion of the director fees and other compensation in deferred share units, the amount of the compensation is fixed at the election. The number of shares awarded to satisfy that liability is variable based on the value of the shares at the time of settlement of the liability. The DSUs are therefore classified as liability awards. If an Eligible Director ceases, for any reason except as a result of death, to be a director of the Company, DSUs held by such Eligible Director may be redeemed at the election of such Eligible Director on or prior to December 15 in the first calendar year commencing after the date that the Eligible Director retires from or otherwise ceases to hold such positions. In the event of death of an Eligible Director, the Company will redeem all DSUs held by the Eligible Director within 90 days of the death.

The Company reserved 100,000 Common Shares for issuance under the Plan. Of the 100,000 DSUs authorized for issuance under the plan, 40,883 were available for issuance as of May 31, 2015. During the year ended May 31, 2015, 30,706 DSUs were issued and a total amount of $470 was credited to accrued liabilities. As of May 31, 2015, 59,117 DSUs are outstanding with related accrued liabilities amounting to $706. For the years ended May 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, the Company recognized $470, $226 and $98 in share-based payment expense in its consolidated statements of income. Share based payment expense is included in selling, general and administrative expenses.

16. ACCUMULATED OTHER COMPREHENSIVE INCOME (LOSS)

Comprehensive income (loss) consists of net income and specified components of other comprehensive income (loss) ("OCI"). OCI consists of changes in assets and liabilities that are not included in net income under U.S. GAAP but are instead deferred and accumulated within a separate component of stockholders' equity in the consolidated balance sheets. Comprehensive income (loss) is presented in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income (loss).

The changes in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss), net of taxes, are as follows:

17. SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company has two reportable operating segments, Hockey and Baseball/Softball. The remaining operating segments do not meet the criteria for a reportable segment and are included in Other Sports. The Hockey segment includes the Bauer and Mission brands. The Baseball/Softball segment includes the Easton and Combat brands. Other Sports includes the Lacrosse and Soccer operating segments, which includes the Maverik and Cascade brands for Lacrosse, and the Inaria brand for Soccer.

These operating segments were determined based on the management structure established, as a result of the Easton Baseball/Softball acquisition, in the fourth quarter of the year ended May 31, 2014 and the financial information, among other factors, reviewed by the Chief Operating Decision Maker ("CODM") to assess segment performance. Operating segment profit is evaluated using EBITDA adjusted for items excluded by the CODM, which is not a measure defined by U.S. GAAP, and is reviewed by the CODM. Certain PSG functional platform costs are directly allocated to each operating segment based on usage or other relevant operational metrics. PSG's functional platform costs consist of expenses incurred by centrally-managed functions, including global information systems, finance and legal, distribution and logistics, sourcing and manufacturing, and other miscellaneous costs.

PSG corporate expenses, currency related gains (losses), acquisition related expenses and other costs are not controlled by the management at each operating segment and therefore are excluded from segment EBITDA. PSG corporate expenses consist of executive compensation and administration costs, public company costs, certain tax credits and other miscellaneous costs. Currency related gains (losses) consists of foreign exchange gains (losses) and the unrealized gain (loss) on derivative instruments. The realized gain (loss) on derivative instruments is included in the Hockey operating segment because it currently relates specifically to Hockey cost of goods sold. Acquisition related expenses consist of charges to cost of goods sold resulting from the fair market value adjustment to inventory, integration costs, costs related to reviewing corporate opportunities, and transaction costs. Other costs consist of share-based payment expenses and items that the CODM excludes from segment EBITDA, for example, items that are infrequent in nature such as costs related to share offerings.

18. DERIVATIVES & RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company is exposed to global market risks, including the effect of changes in foreign currency exchange rates, and uses derivatives to attempt to manage financial exposures that occur during the normal course of business. From time to time, the Company may elect to enter into foreign currency forward contracts to reduce the risk associated with foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations, and recognizes such instruments as economic hedges. Foreign currency exchange contracts are used only to meet the Company's objectives of minimizing variability in the Company's operating results arising from foreign exchange rate movements. The Company does not enter into foreign currency exchange contracts for speculative purposes. The use of derivatives exposes the Company to counterparty credit risk for nonperformance. The Company manages its exposure to counterparty credit risk by purchasing contracts with major financial institutions with investment grade credit ratings.

The Company accounts for its foreign currency forward contracts in accordance with ASC Topic 815, "Derivatives and Hedging" ("ASC 815"). ASC 815 requires the recognition of all derivatives as either assets or liabilities on the consolidated balance sheets at fair value. During the years ended May 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, the Company did not designate any foreign currency exchange contracts as derivatives that qualify for hedge accounting under ASC 815 and therefore recognizes the changes in the fair value of these derivatives through profit or loss at each reporting period.

At May 31, 2015 and 2014, the notional amounts of the Company's foreign currency forward contracts used to mitigate the exposures discussed above were approximately $78,000 and $52,000, respectively. The Company estimates the fair values of foreign currency forward contracts using inputs that are based on readily available market data using pricing models based on current market rates, and records all derivatives on the consolidated balance sheets at fair value with changes in fair value recorded in the consolidated statements of income. The foreign currency forward contracts are classified under Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy (see Note 19).

At May 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company recorded a liability for a variable cash settlement in connection with a stock option award. The Company recognized the issuance of the options as an equity-classified award. The amount of the variable cash settlement obligation is dependent upon the total intrinsic value of the options granted, at the fourth anniversary of the original grant date. The fair value of the cash portion of the award is determined using inputs based on readily available market data. The award is recognized on the consolidated balance sheets and changes in the fair value of the award are recognized in the consolidated statements of income.

The following table summarizes the fair value of derivative instruments by contract type as well as the location of the asset and/or liability on the consolidated balance sheets at May 31, 2015 and 2014:

	Balance Sheet Location	May 31, 2015	May 31, 2014
Assets:
Foreign currency forward contracts	Prepaid and other current assets	$ 697	$ 3,193
Foreign currency forward contracts	Other non-current assets	54	—
Liabilities:
Foreign currency forward contracts	Accrued liabilities	141	—
Variable cash settlement	Other non-current liabilities	20	307

The following table summarizes the location of gains and losses on the consolidated statements of income that were recognized during the years ended May 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively, in addition to the derivative contract type:

Derivatives not designated as hedging instruments	Location of (gain) loss recognized in income on derivative instruments	Year Ended May 31, 2015	2014	2013
Foreign currency forward contracts	Realized gain on derivatives	$ (6,858)	$ (6,069)	$ (300)

19. FAIR VALUE MEASURES

The following tables present information about the Company's assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of May 31, 2015 and 2014 and indicate the level of the fair value hierarchy utilized by the Company to determine such fair value:

	Fair Value Measurements as of May 31, 2015 Using: Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Assets:
Foreign currency forward contracts	$ —	$ 751	$ —
Liabilities:
Foreign currency forward contracts	$ —	$ 141	$ —
Variable cash settlement	$ —	$ 20	$ —

	Fair Value Measurements as of May 31, 2014 Using: Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Assets:
Foreign currency forward contracts	$ —	$ 3,193	$ —
Liabilities:
Variable cash settlement	$ —	$ 307	$ —

As of May 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company's foreign currency forward contracts were measured using a generally accepted valuation technique which is the discounted value of the difference between the contract's value at maturity based on the foreign exchange rate set out in the contract and the contract's value at maturity based on the foreign exchange rate that the counterparty would use if it were to renegotiate the same contract at today's date under the same conditions. The Company's variable cash settlement, discussed in Note 18, was valued using a Monte Carlo simulation based on the value of the Company's underlying common share price, a Level 2 input.

Item 9A. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

In May 2013, the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) released COSO 2013, an update of its Internal Control - Integrated Framework (1992). The COSO 2013 Internal Control-Integrated Framework formalizes the principles embedded in the original COSO 1992, incorporates business and operating environment changes over the past two decades, and improves the original 1992 framework's ease of use and application. We completed our transition to COSO 2013 in the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2015. The transition to COSO 2013 did not have a significant impact on our underlying compliance with the applicable provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, including internal control over financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures.

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Management, under the supervision of and with the participation of the Company's CEO and CFO, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, respectively, evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15(d)-(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") as of May 31, 2015. Based on the evaluation, the CEO and CFO concluded that such disclosure controls and procedures as of May 31, 2015 are effective.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during its last fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Management's Annual Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Management, under the supervision of and with the participation of the Company's CEO and CFO, evaluated and concluded, as of May 31, 2015, that the Company's internal controls over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) were effective. This evaluation included review of the documentation of controls, evaluation of the design and testing the operating effectiveness of controls, and a conclusion about this evaluation. Based on their evaluation, the CEO and the CFO have concluded that, as at May 31, 2015, the Company's internal control over financial reporting is effective in providing reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Such internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that in reasonable detail accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets; (ii) provide reasonable assurance (A) that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors; and (B) regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of our assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

In making this evaluation, management used the Internal Control-Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO 2013 Framework). This evaluation also took into consideration the Company's Corporate Disclosure Policy and the functioning of its Disclosure Committee.

Because we are an emerging growth company under the JOBS Act, this annual report on Form 10-K does not include an attestation report of our independent registered public accounting firm.

SHARES AND SHARE CERTIFICATES

2.1 Authorized Share Structure

The authorized share structure of the Company consists of shares of the class or classes and series, if any, described in the Notice of Articles of the Company.

2.2 Form of Share Certificate

Each share certificate issued by the Company must comply with, and be signed as required by, the Business Corporations Act.

2.3 Shareholder Entitled to Certificate or Acknowledgment

Unless the shares of which the shareholder is the registered owner are uncertificated shares within the meaning of the Business Corporations Act, each shareholder is entitled, without charge, to (a) one share certificate representing the shares of each class or series of shares registered in the shareholder's name or (b) a non-transferable written acknowledgment of the shareholder's right to obtain such a share certificate, provided that in respect of a share held jointly by several persons, the Company is not bound to issue more than one share certificate or acknowledgment and delivery of a share certificate or an acknowledgment to one of several joint shareholders or to a duly authorized agent of one of the joint shareholders will be sufficient delivery to all.

2.4 Delivery by Mail

Any share certificate or non-transferable written acknowledgment of a shareholder's right to obtain a share certificate may be sent to the shareholder by mail at the shareholder's registered address and neither the Company nor any director, officer or agent of the Company is liable for any loss to the shareholder because the share certificate or acknowledgement is lost in the mail or stolen.

2.5 Replacement of Worn Out or Defaced Certificate or Acknowledgement

If the directors are satisfied that a share certificate or a non-transferable written acknowledgment of the shareholder's right to obtain a share certificate is worn out or defaced, they must, on production to them of the share certificate or acknowledgment, as the case may be, and on such other terms, if any, as they think fit:

(1) order the share certificate or acknowledgment, as the case may be, to be cancelled; and

(2) issue a replacement share certificate or acknowledgment, as the case may be.

2.6 Replacement of Lost, Destroyed or Wrongfully Taken Certificate

If a person entitled to a share certificate claims that the share certificate has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the Company must issue a new share certificate, if that person:

(1) so requests before the Company has notice that the share certificate has been acquired by a protected purchaser;

(2) provides the Company with an indemnity bond sufficient in the Company's judgement to protect the Company from any loss that the Company may suffer by issuing a new certificate; and

(3) satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed by the directors.

A person entitled to a share certificate may not assert against the Company a claim for a new share certificate where a share certificate has been lost, apparently destroyed or wrongfully taken if that person fails to notify the Company of that fact within a reasonable time after that person has notice of it and the Company registers a transfer of the shares represented by the certificate before receiving a notice of the loss, apparent destruction or wrongful taking of the share certificate.

2.7 Recovery of New Share Certificate

If, after the issue of a new share certificate, a protected purchaser of the original share certificate presents the original share certificate for the registration of transfer, then in addition to any rights under any indemnity bond, the Company may recover the new share certificate from a person to whom it was issued or any person taking under that person other than a protected purchaser.

2.8 Splitting Share Certificates

If a shareholder surrenders a share certificate to the Company with a written request that the Company issue in the shareholder's name two or more share certificates, each representing a specified number of shares and in the aggregate representing the same number of shares as represented by the share certificate so surrendered, the Company must cancel the surrendered share certificate and issue replacement share certificates in accordance with that request.

2.9 Certificate Fee

There must be paid to the Company, in relation to the issue of any share certificate under Articles 2.5, 2.6 or 2.8, the amount, if any and which must not exceed the amount prescribed under the Business Corporations Act, determined by the directors.

2.10 Recognition of Trusts

Except as required by law or statute or these Articles, no person will be recognized by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company is not bound by or compelled in any way to recognize (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or fraction of a share or (except as required by law or statute or these Articles or as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the shareholder.

ISSUE OF SHARES

3.1 Directors Authorized

Subject to the Business Corporations Act and the rights, if any, of the holders of issued shares of the Company, the Company may issue, allot, sell or otherwise dispose of the unissued shares, and issued shares held by the Company, at the times, to the persons, including directors, in the manner, on the terms and conditions and for the issue prices (including any premium at which shares with par value may be issued) that the directors may determine. The issue price for a share with par value must be equal to or greater than the par value of the share.

3.2 Commissions and Discounts

The Company may at any time pay a reasonable commission or allow a reasonable discount to any person in consideration of that person purchasing or agreeing to purchase shares of the Company from the Company or any other person or procuring or agreeing to procure purchasers for shares of the Company.

3.3 Brokerage

The Company may pay such brokerage fee or other consideration as may be lawful for or in connection with the sale or placement of its securities.

3.4 Conditions of Issue

Except as provided for by the Business Corporations Act, no share may be issued until it is fully paid. A share is fully paid when:

(1) consideration is provided to the Company for the issue of the share by one or more of the following:

(a) past services performed for the Company;

(b) property;

(c) money;
and

(2) the value of the consideration received by the Company equals or exceeds the issue price set for the share under Article 3.1.

3.5 Share Purchase Warrants and Rights

Subject to the Business Corporations Act, the Company may issue share purchase warrants, options and rights upon such terms and conditions as the directors determine, which share purchase warrants, options and rights may be issued alone or in conjunction with debentures, debenture stock, bonds, shares or any other securities issued or created by the Company from time to time.

SHARE REGISTERS

4.1 Central Securities Register

As required by and subject to the Business Corporations Act, the Company must maintain a central securities register. The directors may, subject to the Business Corporations Act, appoint an agent to maintain the central securities register. The directors may also appoint one or more agents, including the agent which keeps the central securities register, as transfer agent for its shares or any class or series of its shares, as the case may be, and the same or another agent as registrar for its shares or such class or series of its shares, as the case may be. The directors may terminate such appointment of any agent at any time and may appoint another agent in its place.

4.2 Closing Register

The Company must not at any time close its central securities register.

SHARE TRANSFERS

5.1 Registering Transfers

The Company must register a transfer of a share of the Company if either:

(1) the Company or the transfer agent or registrar for the class or series of share to be transferred has received:

(a) in the case where the Company has issued a share certificate in respect of the share to be transferred, that share certificate and a written instrument of transfer (which may be on a separate document or endorsed on the share certificate) made by the shareholder or other appropriate person or by an agent who has actual authority to act on behalf of that person;

(b) in the case of a share that is not represented by a share certificate (including an uncertificated share within the meaning of the Business Corporations Act and including the case where the Company has issued a non-transferable written acknowledgement of the shareholder's right to obtain a share certificate in respect of the share to be transferred), a written instrument of transfer, made by the shareholder or other appropriate person or by an agent who has actual authority to act on behalf of that person; and

(c) such other evidence, if any, as the Company or the transfer agent or registrar for the class or series of share to be transferred may require to prove the title of the transferor or the transferor's right to transfer the share, that the written instrument of transfer is genuine and authorized and that the transfer is rightful or to a protected purchaser; or

(2) all the preconditions for a transfer of a share under the Securities Transfer Act have been met and the Company is required under the Securities Transfer Act to register the transfer.

5.2 Waivers of Requirements for Transfer

The Company may waive any of the requirements set out in Article 5.1(1) and any of the preconditions referred to in Article 5.1(2).

5.3 Form of Instrument of Transfer

The instrument of transfer in respect of any share of the Company must be either in the form, if any, on the back of the Company's share certificates or in any other form that may be approved by the Company or the transfer agent for the class or series of shares to be transferred.

5.4 Transferor Remains Shareholder

Except to the extent that the Business Corporations Act otherwise provides, the transferor of shares is deemed to remain the holder of the shares until the name of the transferee is entered in a securities register of the Company in respect of the transfer.

5.5 Signing of Instrument of Transfer

If a shareholder or other appropriate person or an agent who has actual authority to act on behalf of that person, signs an instrument of transfer in respect of shares registered in the name of the shareholder, the signed instrument of transfer constitutes a complete and sufficient authority to the Company and its directors, officers and agents to register the number of shares specified in the instrument of transfer or specified in any other manner, or, if no number is specified but share certificates are deposited with the instrument of transfer, all the shares represented by such share certificates:

(1) in the name of the person named as transferee in that instrument of transfer;
or

(2) if no person is named as transferee in that instrument of transfer, in the name of the person on whose behalf the instrument is deposited for the purpose of having the transfer registered.

5.6 Enquiry as to Title Not Required

Neither the Company nor any director, officer or agent of the Company is bound to inquire into the title of the person named in the instrument of transfer as transferee or, if no person is named as transferee in the instrument of transfer, of the person on whose behalf the instrument is deposited for the purpose of having the transfer registered or is liable for any claim related to registering the transfer by the shareholder or by any intermediate owner or holder of the shares, of any interest in the shares, of any share certificate representing such shares or of any written acknowledgment of a right to obtain a share certificate for such shares.

5.7 Transfer Fee

There must be paid to the Company, in relation to the registration of any transfer, the amount, if any, determined by the directors.

PART 6
TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

6.1 Legal Personal Representative Recognized on Death

In the case of the death of a shareholder, the legal personal representative of the shareholder, or in the case of shares registered in the shareholder's name and the name of another person in joint tenancy, the surviving joint holder, will be the only person recognized by the Company as having any title to the shareholder's interest in the shares. Before recognizing a person as a legal personal representative of a shareholder, the directors may require the original grant of probate or letters of administration or a court certified copy of them or the original or a court certified or authenticated copy of the grant of representation, will, order or other instrument or other evidence of the death under which title to the shares or securities is claimed to vest.

6.2 Rights of Legal Personal Representative

The legal personal representative of a shareholder has the rights, privileges and obligations that attach to the shares held by the shareholder, including the right to transfer the shares in accordance with these Articles, if appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency within the meaning of the Securities Transfer Act has been deposited with the Company. This Article 6.2 does not apply in the case of the death of a shareholder with respect to shares registered in the shareholder's name and the name of another person in joint tenancy.

ACQUISITION OF COMPANY'S SHARES

7.1 Company Authorized to Purchase or Otherwise Acquire Shares

Subject to Article 7.2, the special rights or restrictions attached to the shares of any class or series of shares and the*Business Corporations Act*, the Company may, if authorized by the directors, purchase or otherwise acquire any of its shares at the price and upon the terms determined by the directors.

7.2 No Purchase, Redemption or Other Acquisition When Insolvent

The Company must not make a payment or provide any other consideration to purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any of its shares if there are reasonable grounds for believing that:

(1) the Company is insolvent; or

(2) making the payment or providing the consideration would render the Company insolvent.

7.3 Sale and Voting of Purchased, Redeemed or Otherwise Acquired Shares

If the Company retains a share redeemed, purchased or otherwise acquired by it, the Company may sell, gift or otherwise dispose of the share, but, while such share is held by the Company, it:

(1) is not entitled to vote the share at a meeting of its shareholders;

(2) must not pay a dividend in respect of the share; and

(3) must not make any other distribution in respect of the share.

PART 8
BORROWING POWERS

8.1 Borrowing Powers

The Company, if authorized by the directors, may:

(1) borrow money in the manner and amount, on the security, from the sources and on the terms and conditions that the directors consider appropriate;

(2) issue bonds, debentures and other debt obligations either outright or as security for any liability or obligation of the Company or any other person and at such discounts or premiums and on such other terms as the directors consider appropriate;

(3) guarantee the repayment of money by any other person or the performance of any obligation of any other person; and

(4) mortgage, charge, whether by way of specific or floating charge, grant a security interest in, or give other security on, the whole or any part of the present and future assets and undertaking of the Company.

ALTERATIONS

9.1 Alteration of Authorized Share Structure

Subject to Article 9.2, Part 26 and the Business Corporations Act, the Company may by directors' resolution, unless an alteration to the Company's Notice of Articles would be required, in which case by ordinary resolution:

(1) create one or more classes or series of shares or, if none of the shares of a class or series of shares are allotted or issued, eliminate that class or series of shares;

(2) increase, reduce or eliminate the maximum number of shares that the Company is authorized to issue out of any class or series of shares or establish a maximum number of shares that the Company is authorized to issue out of any class or series of shares for which no maximum is established;

(3) subdivide or consolidate all or any of its unissued, or fully paid issued, shares;

(4) if the Company is authorized to issue shares of a class of shares with par value:

(a) decrease the par value of those shares; or

(b) if none of the shares of that class of shares are allotted or issued, increase the par value of those shares;

(5) change all or any of its unissued, or fully paid issued, shares with par value into shares without par value or any of its unissued shares without par value into shares with par value;

(6) alter the identifying name of any of its shares; or

(7) otherwise alter its shares or authorized share structure when required or permitted to do so by the Business Corporations Act; and, if applicable, alter its Notice of Articles and, if applicable, its Articles, accordingly.

9.2 Special Rights or Restrictions

Subject to Part 26 and the Business Corporations Act, the Company may by ordinary resolution:

(1) create special rights or restrictions for, and attach those special rights or restrictions to, the shares of any class or series of shares, whether or not any or all of those shares have been issued; or

(2) vary or delete any special rights or restrictions attached to the shares of any class or series of shares, whether or not any or all of those shares have been issued; and alter its Articles and Notice of Articles accordingly.

9.3 Change of Name

The Company may by directors' resolution authorize an alteration to its Notice of Articles in order to change its name.

9.4 Other Alterations

If the Business Corporations Act does not specify the type of resolution and these Articles do not specify another type of resolution, the Company may by ordinary resolution alter these Articles.

PART 10
MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

10.1 Annual General Meetings

Unless an annual general meeting is deferred or waived in accordance with the*Business Corporations Act*, the Company must hold its first annual general meeting within 18 months after the date on which it was incorporated or otherwise recognized, and after that must hold an annual general meeting at least once in each calendar year and not more than 15 months after the last annual reference date at such time and place as may be determined by the directors.

10.2 Resolution Instead of Annual General Meeting

If all the shareholders who are entitled to vote at an annual general meeting consent by a unanimous resolution to all of the business that is required to be transacted at that annual general meeting, the annual general meeting is deemed to have been held on the date of the unanimous resolution. The shareholders must, in any unanimous resolution passed under this Article 10.2, select as the Company's annual reference date a date that would be appropriate for the holding of the applicable annual general meeting.

10.3 Calling of Meetings of Shareholders

The directors may, at any time, call a meeting of shareholders, to be held at such time and place as may be determined by the directors.

10.4 Notice for Meetings of Shareholders

The Company must send notice of the date, time and location of any meeting of shareholders (including, without limitation, any notice specifying the intention to propose a resolution as an exceptional resolution, a special resolution or a special separate resolution, and any notice to consider approving an amalgamation into a foreign jurisdiction, an arrangement or the adoption of an amalgamation agreement, and any notice of a general meeting, class meeting or series meeting), in the manner provided in these Articles, or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by ordinary resolution (whether previous notice of the resolution has been given or not), to each shareholder entitled to attend the meeting, to each director and to the auditor of the Company, unless these Articles otherwise provide, at least the following number of days before the meeting:

(1) if and for so long as the Company is a public company, 21 days;

(2) otherwise, 10 days.

10.5 Record Date for Notice

The directors may set a date as the record date for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of any meeting of shareholders. The record date must not precede the date on which the meeting is to be held by more than two months or, in the case of a general meeting requisitioned by shareholders under the Business Corporations Act, by more than four months. The record date must not precede the date on which the meeting is held by fewer than:

(1) if and for so long as the Company is a public company, 21 days;

(2) otherwise, 10 days.

If no record date is set, the record date is 5 p.m. on the day immediately preceding the first date on which the notice is sent or, if no notice is sent, the beginning of the meeting.

10.6 Record Date for Voting

The directors may set a date as the record date for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders. The record date must not precede the date on which the meeting is to be held by more than two months or, in the case of a general meeting requisitioned by shareholders under the Business Corporations Act, by more than four months. If no record date is set, the record date is 5 p.m. on the day immediately preceding the first date on which the notice is sent or, if no notice is sent, the beginning of the meeting.

10.7 Failure to Give Notice and Waiver of Notice

The accidental omission to send notice of any meeting of shareholders to, or the non-receipt of any notice by, any of the persons entitled to notice does not invalidate any proceedings at that meeting. Any person entitled to notice of a meeting of shareholders may, in writing or otherwise, waive that entitlement or agree to reduce the period of that notice. Attendance of a person at a meeting of shareholders is a waiver of entitlement to notice of the meeting unless that person attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called.

10.8 Notice of Special Business at Meetings of Shareholders

If a meeting of shareholders is to consider special business within the meaning of Article 11.1, the notice of meeting must:

(1) state the general nature of the special business; and

(2) if the special business includes considering, approving, ratifying, adopting or authorizing any document or the signing of or giving of effect to any document, have attached to it a copy of the document or state that a copy of the document will be available for inspection by shareholders:

(a) at the Company's records office, or at such other reasonably accessible location in British Columbia as is specified in the notice; and

(b) during statutory business hours on any one or more specified days before the day set for the holding of the meeting.

10.9 Notice of Dissent Rights

The Company must send to each of its shareholders, whether or not their shares carry the right to vote, a notice of any meeting of shareholders at which a resolution entitling shareholders to dissent is to be considered specifying the date of the meeting and containing a statement advising of the right to send a notice of dissent together with a copy of the proposed resolution at least the following number of days before the meeting:

(1) if and for so long as the Company is a public company, 21 days;

(2) otherwise, 10 days.

10.10 Advance Notice Provisions

(1) Nomination of Directors

Subject only to the Business Corporations Act and these Articles, only persons who are nominated in accordance with the following procedures shall be eligible for election as directors to the board of directors of the Company. Nominations of persons for election to the board at an annual meeting of shareholders, or at a special meeting of shareholders called for any purpose which includes the election of directors to the board may only be made:

(a) by or at the direction of the board or an authorized officer of the Company, including pursuant to a notice of meeting;

(b) by or at the direction or request of one or more shareholders pursuant to a proposal made in accordance with the provisions of the Business Corporations Act or a requisition of shareholders made in accordance with the provisions of the Business Corporations Act; or

(c) by any person entitled to vote at such meeting (a "Nominating Shareholder"), who:

(i) is, at the close of business on the date of giving notice provided for in this Article 10.10 and on the record date for notice of such meeting, either entered in the securities register of the Company as a holder of one or more shares carrying the right to vote at such meeting or who beneficially owns shares that are entitled to be voted at such meeting; and

(ii) has given timely notice in proper written form as set forth in this Article 10.10.

(2) Exclusive Means

For the avoidance of doubt, this Article 10.10 shall be the exclusive means for any person to bring nominations for election to the board before any annual or special meeting of shareholders of the Company.

(3) Timely Notice

In order for a Nominating Shareholder to provide timely notice (a "Timely Notice") of its intention to nominate a person for election as a director (a "Proposed Nominee"), the Nominating Shareholder's notice must be received by the corporate secretary of the Company at the principal executive offices of the Company:

(a) in the case of an annual meeting of shareholders, not later than 5:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on the 30th day and not earlier than 9:00 a.m. (Toronto time) on the 65th day before the date of the meeting; provided, however, if the first public announcement made by the Company with respect to the date of the annual meeting is less than 50 days prior to the meeting date, not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the day on which the first public announcement of the date of such annual meeting is made by the Company; and

(b) in the case of a special meeting (which is not also an annual meeting) of shareholders called for any purpose which includes the election of directors to the board, not later than the close of business on the 15th day following the day on which the first public announcement of the date of the special meeting is made by the Company.

(4) Time Period Determination

The time periods for giving of a Timely Notice shall in all cases be determined based on the original scheduled date of the annual meeting or the first public announcement of the annual or special meeting, as applicable. In no event shall an adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting or special meeting of shareholders or any announcement thereof commence a new time period for the giving of a Timely Notice as described in this Article 10.10.

(5) Proper Form of Notice

To be in proper written form, a Nominating Shareholder's notice to the corporate secretary must comply with all the provisions of this Article 10.10 and:

(a) disclose or include, as applicable, as to each Proposed Nominee:

(i) their name, age, business and residential address and principal occupation and/or employment for the past five years;

(ii) their direct or indirect beneficial ownership in, or control or direction over, any class or series of securities of the Company as of the record date for the meeting of shareholders (if such date shall then have been made publicly available and shall have occurred) and as of the date of such notice, including the number or principal amount and the date(s) on which such securities were acquired;

(iii) any relationships, agreements or arrangements, including financial, compensation and indemnity related relationships, agreements or arrangements, between the Proposed Nominee or any affiliates or associates of, or any person or entity acting jointly or in concert with, the Proposed Nominee or the Nominating Shareholder;

(iv) any other information relating to such Proposed Nominee that would be required to be included in a dissident proxy circular or other filings required to be made in connection with the solicitation of proxies for election of directors pursuant to the Business Corporations Act or applicable securities law; and

(v) a duly completed personal information form in respect of the Proposed Nominee in the form prescribed by the Toronto Stock Exchange; and

(b) disclose or include, as applicable, as to each Nominating Shareholder giving the notice, and each beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination is made:

(i) their name, business and residential address, direct or indirect beneficial ownership in, or control or direction over, any class or series of securities of the Company, including the number or principal amount and the date(s) on which such securities were acquired;

(ii) their interests in, or rights or obligations associated with, an agreement, arrangement or understanding, the purpose or effect of which is to alter, directly or indirectly, the person's economic interest in a security of the Company or the person's economic exposure to the Company;

(iii) any proxy, contract, arrangement, agreement or understanding pursuant to which such person, or any of its affiliates or associates, or any person acting jointly or in concert with such person, has any interests, rights or obligations relating to the voting of any securities of the Company or the nomination of directors to the board;

(iv) a representation that the Nominating Shareholder is a holder of record of securities of the Company, or a beneficial owner, entitled to vote at such meeting, and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to propose such nomination (and in the case of a beneficial owner, provided such beneficial owner has provided the Company with evidence of such ownership acceptable to the Company in its sole discretion acting reasonably);

(v) a representation as to whether such person intends to deliver a proxy circular and/or form of proxy to any shareholder of the Company in connection with such nomination or otherwise solicit proxies or votes from shareholders of the Company in support of such nomination; and

(vi) any other information relating to such person that would be required to be included in a dissident proxy circular or other filings required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies for election of directors pursuant to the Business Corporations Act or by applicable securities law.

(6) Additional Information

The Company may require a Proposed Nominee to furnish such other information as may reasonably be required by the Company to determine the eligibility of such Proposed Nominee to serve as an independent director of the Company or that could be material to a reasonable shareholder's understanding of the independence, or lack thereof, of such Proposed Nominee. The Nominating Shareholder's notice must be accompanied by a written consent of each Proposed Nominee to being named as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected.

(7) Ineligibility

No person shall be eligible for election as a director of the Company unless nominated in accordance with the provisions of this Article 10.10; provided, however, that nothing in this Article 10.10 shall be deemed to preclude discussion by a Shareholder (as distinct from the nomination of directors) at a meeting of Shareholders of any matter in respect of which it would have been entitled to submit a proposal pursuant to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act.

(8) Currency of Nominee Information

All information to be provided in a Timely Notice pursuant to this Article 10.10 shall be provided as of the date of such notice. The Nominating Shareholder shall provide the Company with an update to such information forthwith so that it is true and correct in all material respects.

(9) Delivery of Information

Any notice, or other document or information required to be given to the corporate secretary pursuant to this Article 10.10 may only be in writing, given by personal delivery, courier or facsimile (but not by email) to the corporate secretary at the address of the principal executive offices of the Company and shall be deemed to have been given and made:

(a) if sent by personal delivery or courier, on the date of delivery if it is a business day and the delivery was made prior to 5:00 p.m. (Toronto time) and otherwise on the next business day; or

(b) if sent by facsimile (provided that receipt of confirmation of such transmission has been received), on the business day following the date of confirmation of transmission by the originating facsimile.

(10) Defective Nomination Determination

The chair of any meeting of shareholders of the Company shall have the power to determine whether any proposed nomination is made in accordance with the provisions of this Article 10.10, and if any proposed nomination is not in compliance with such provisions, must declare that such defective nomination shall not be considered at any meeting of shareholders.

(11) Failure to Appear

Despite any other provision of this Article 10.10, if the Nominating Shareholder (or a qualified representative of the Nominating Shareholder) does not appear at the meeting of shareholders of the Company to present the nomination, such nomination shall be disregarded, notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such nomination may have been received by the Company.

(12) Shareholder Communication Content

Nothing in this Article 10.10 shall obligate the Company or the board to include in any proxy statement or other shareholder communication distributed by or on behalf of the Company or board any information with respect to any proposed nomination or any Nominating Shareholder or Proposed Nominee.

(13) Waiver

The board may, in its sole discretion, waive any requirement in this Article 10.10.

(14) Definitions

For the purposes of this Article 10.10, "public announcement" means disclosure in a press release disseminated by the Company through a national news service in Canada, or in a document filed by the Company for public access under its profile on the System of Electronic Document Analysis and Retrieval at www.sedar.com.

PROCEEDINGS AT MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

11.1 Special Business

At a meeting of shareholders, the following business is special business:

(1) at a meeting of shareholders that is not an annual general meeting, all business is special business except business relating to the conduct of or voting at the meeting;

(2) at an annual general meeting, all business is special business except for the following:

(a) business relating to the conduct of or voting at the meeting;

(b) consideration of any financial statements of the Company presented to the meeting;

(c) consideration of any reports of the directors or auditor;

(d) the setting or changing of the number of directors;

(e) the election or appointment of directors;

(f) the appointment of an auditor;

(g) the setting of the remuneration of an auditor;

(h) business arising out of a report of the directors not requiring the passing of a special resolution or an exceptional resolution;

(i) any other business which, under these Articles or the Business Corporations Act, may be transacted at a meeting of shareholders without prior notice of the business being given to the shareholders.

11.2 Special Majority

The majority of votes required for the Company to pass a special resolution at a general meeting of shareholders is two-thirds of the votes cast on the resolution.

11.3 Quorum

Subject to the special rights or restrictions attached to the shares of any class or series of shares and to Article 11.4, the quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of shareholders is two persons who are, or who represent by proxy, shareholders who, in the aggregate, hold at least 5% of the issued shares entitled to be voted at the meeting.

11.4 One Shareholder May Constitute Quorum

If there is only one shareholder entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders:

(1) the quorum is one person who is, or who represents by proxy, that shareholder, and

(2) that shareholder, present in person or by proxy, may constitute the meeting.

11.5 Persons Entitled to Attend Meeting

In addition to those persons who are entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders, the only other persons entitled to be present at the meeting are the directors, the president (if any), the secretary (if any), the assistant secretary (if any), any lawyer for the Company, the auditor of the Company, any persons invited to be present at the meeting by the directors or by the chair of the meeting and any persons entitled or required under the Business Corporations Act or these Articles to be present at the meeting; but if any of those persons does attend the meeting, that person is not to be counted in the quorum and is not entitled to vote at the meeting unless that person is a shareholder or proxy holder entitled to vote at the meeting.

11.6 Requirement of Quorum

No business, other than the election of a chair of the meeting and the adjournment of the meeting, may be transacted at any meeting of shareholders unless a quorum of shareholders entitled to vote is present at the commencement of the meeting, but such quorum need not be present throughout the meeting.

11.7 Lack of Quorum

If, within one-half hour from the time set for the holding of a meeting of shareholders, a quorum is not present:

(1) in the case of a general meeting requisitioned by shareholders, the meeting is dissolved, and

(2) in the case of any other meeting of shareholders, the meeting stands adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place.

11.8 Lack of Quorum at Succeeding Meeting

If, at the meeting to which the meeting referred to in Article 11.7(2) was adjourned, a quorum is not present within one-half hour from the time set for the holding of the meeting, the person or persons present and being, or representing by proxy, one or more shareholders entitled to attend and vote at the meeting constitute a quorum.

11.9 Chair

The following individual is entitled to preside as chair at a meeting of shareholders:

(1) the chair of the board, if any; or

(2) if the chair of the board is absent or unwilling to act as chair of the meeting, the president, if any.

11.10 Selection of Alternate Chair

If, at any meeting of shareholders, there is no chair of the board or president present within 15 minutes after the time set for holding the meeting, or if the chair of the board and the president are unwilling to act as chair of the meeting, or if the chair of the board and the president have advised the secretary, if any, or any director present at the meeting, that they will not be present at the meeting, the directors present must choose one of their number to be chair of the meeting or if all of the directors present decline to take the chair or fail to so choose or if no director is present, the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting who are present in person or by proxy may choose any person present at the meeting to chair the meeting.

11.11 Adjournments

The chair of a meeting of shareholders may, and if so directed by the meeting must, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business may be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

11.12 Notice of Adjourned Meeting

It is not necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting of shareholders or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting of shareholders except that, when a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as in the case of the original meeting.

11.13 Decisions by Show of Hands or Poll

Subject to the Business Corporations Act,

(1) for so long as any Proportionate Voting Shares are outstanding, every motion put to a vote at a meeting of shareholders will be decided by a poll;

(2) if no Proportionate Voting Shares are outstanding, every motion put to a vote at a meeting of shareholders will be decided on a show of hands unless a poll, before or on the declaration of the result of the vote by show of hands, is directed by the chair or demanded by any shareholder entitled to vote who is present in person or by proxy.

11.14 Declaration of Result

The chair of a meeting of shareholders must declare to the meeting the decision on every question in accordance with the result of the show of hands or the poll, as the case may be, and that decision must be entered in the minutes of the meeting. A declaration of the chair that a resolution is carried by the necessary majority or is defeated is, unless a poll is directed by the chair or demanded under Article 11.13, conclusive evidence without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

11.15 Motion Need Not be Seconded

No motion proposed at a meeting of shareholders need be seconded unless the chair of the meeting rules otherwise, and the chair of any meeting of shareholders is entitled to propose or second a motion.

11.16 Casting Vote

In the case of an equality of votes, the chair of a meeting of shareholders does not, either on a show of hands or on a poll, have a second or casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which the chair may be entitled as a shareholder.

11.17 Manner of Taking Poll

Subject to Article 11.18, if a poll is duly demanded at a meeting of shareholders:

(1) the poll must be taken:

(a) at the meeting, or within seven days after the date of the meeting, as the chair of the meeting directs; and

(b) in the manner, at the time and at the place that the chair of the meeting directs;

(2) the result of the poll is deemed to be the decision of the meeting at which the poll is demanded; and

(3) the demand for the poll may be withdrawn by the person who demanded it.

11.18 Demand for Poll on Adjournment

A poll demanded at a meeting of shareholders on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately at the meeting.

11.19 Chair Must Resolve Dispute

In the case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote given on a poll, the chair of the meeting must determine the dispute, and his or her determination made in good faith is final and conclusive.

11.20 Casting of Votes

On a poll, a shareholder entitled to more than one vote need not cast all the votes in the same way.

11.21 No Demand for Poll on Election of Chair

No poll may be demanded in respect of the vote by which a chair of a meeting of shareholders is elected.

11.22 Demand for Poll Not to Prevent Continuance of Meeting

The demand for a poll at a meeting of shareholders does not, unless the chair of the meeting so rules, prevent the continuation of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

11.23 Retention of Ballots and Proxies

The Company must, for at least three months after a meeting of shareholders, keep each ballot cast on a poll and each proxy voted at the meeting, and, during that period, make them available for inspection during normal business hours by any shareholder or proxyholder entitled to vote at the meeting. At the end of such three month period, the Company may destroy such ballots and proxies.

VOTES OF SHAREHOLDERS

12.1 Number of Votes by Shareholder or by Shares

Subject to any special rights or restrictions attached to any shares and to the restrictions imposed on joint shareholders under Article 12.3:

(1) on a vote by show of hands, every person present who is a shareholder or proxy holder and entitled to vote on the matter has one vote; and

(2) on a poll, every shareholder entitled to vote on the matter is entitled, in respect of each share entitled to be voted on the matter and held by that shareholder, to that number of votes provided by the Articles or the Business Corporations Act and may exercise that vote either in person or by proxy.

12.2 Votes of Persons in Representative Capacity

A person who is not a shareholder may vote at a meeting of shareholders, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, and may appoint a proxy holder to act at the meeting, if, before doing so, the person satisfies the chair of the meeting, or the directors, that the person is a legal personal representative or a trustee in bankruptcy for a shareholder who is entitled to vote at the meeting.

12.3 Votes by Joint Holders

If there are joint shareholders registered in respect of any share:

(1) any one of the joint shareholders may vote at any meeting of shareholders, personally or by proxy, in respect of the share as if that joint shareholder were solely entitled to it; or

(2) if more than one of the joint shareholders is present at any meeting of shareholders, personally or by proxy, and more than one of them votes in respect of that share, then only the vote of the joint shareholder present whose name stands first on the central securities register in respect of the share will be counted.

12.4 Legal Personal Representatives as Joint Shareholders

Two or more legal personal representatives of a shareholder in whose sole name any share is registered are, for the purposes of Article 12.3, deemed to be joint shareholders registered in respect of that share.

12.5 Representative of a Corporate Shareholder

If a corporation that is not a subsidiary of the Company is a shareholder, that corporation may appoint a person to act as its representative at any meeting of shareholders of the Company, and:

(1) for that purpose, the instrument appointing a representative must be received:

(a) at the registered office of the Company or at any other place specified, in the notice calling the meeting, for the receipt of proxies, at least the number of business days specified in the notice for the receipt of proxies, or if no number of days is specified, two business days before the day set for the holding of the meeting or any adjourned meeting; or

(b) at the meeting or any adjourned meeting, by the chair of the meeting or adjourned meeting or by a person designated by the chair of the meeting or adjourned meeting;

(2) if a representative is appointed under this Article 12.5:

(a) the representative is entitled to exercise in respect of and at that meeting the same rights on behalf of the corporation that the representative represents as that corporation could exercise if it were a shareholder who is an individual, including, without limitation, the right to appoint a proxy holder; and

(b) the representative, if present at the meeting, is to be counted for the purpose of forming a quorum and is deemed to be a shareholder present in person at the meeting.

Evidence of the appointment of any such representative may be sent to the Company by written instrument, fax or any other method of transmitting legibly recorded messages.

12.6 When Proxy Holder Need Not Be Shareholder

A person must not be appointed as a proxy holder unless the person is a shareholder, although a person who is not a shareholder may be appointed as a proxy holder if:

(1) the person appointing the proxy holder is a corporation or a representative of a corporation appointed under Article 12.5;

(2) the Company has at the time of the meeting for which the proxy holder is to be appointed only one shareholder entitled to vote at the meeting;

(3) the shareholders present in person or by proxy at and entitled to vote at the meeting for which the proxy holder is to be appointed, by a resolution on which the proxy holder is not entitled to vote but in respect of which the proxy holder is to be counted in the quorum, permit the proxy holder to attend and vote at the meeting; or

(4) the Company is a public company.

12.7 When Proxy Provisions Do Not Apply to the Company

If and for so long as the Company is a public company, Articles 12.8 to 12.16 apply only insofar as they are not inconsistent with any Canadian securities legislation applicable to the Company, any U.S. securities legislation applicable to the Company or any rules of an exchange on which securities of the Company are listed.

12.8 Appointment of Proxy Holders

Every shareholder of the Company, including a corporation that is a shareholder but not a subsidiary of the Company, entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders may, by proxy, appoint one or more proxy holders to attend and act at the meeting in the manner, to the extent and with the powers conferred by the proxy.

12.9 Alternate Proxy Holders

A shareholder may appoint one or more alternate proxy holders to act in the place of an absent proxy holder.

12.10 Deposit of Proxy

A proxy for a meeting of shareholders must:

(1) be received at the registered office of the Company or at any other place specified, in the notice calling the meeting, for the receipt of proxies, at least the number of business days specified in the notice, or if no number of days is specified, two business days before the day set for the holding of the meeting or any adjourned meeting; or

(2) unless the notice provides otherwise, be received, at the meeting or any adjourned meeting, by the chair of the meeting or adjourned meeting or by a person designated by the chair of the meeting or adjourned meeting.

A proxy may be sent to the Company by written instrument, fax or any other method of transmitting legibly recorded messages.

12.11 Validity of Proxy Vote

A vote given in accordance with the terms of a proxy is valid notwithstanding the death or incapacity of the shareholder giving the proxy and despite the revocation of the proxy or the revocation of the authority under which the proxy is given, unless notice in writing of that death, incapacity or revocation is received:

(1) at the registered office of the Company, at any time up to and including the last business day before the day set for the holding of the meeting or any adjourned meeting at which the proxy is to be used; or

(2) at the meeting or any adjourned meeting, by the chair of the meeting or adjourned meeting, before any vote in respect of which the proxy has been given has been taken.

12.12 Form of Proxy

A proxy, whether for a specified meeting or otherwise, must be either in the following form or in any other form approved by the directors or the chair of the meeting:

[name of company]

(the "Company")

The undersigned, being a shareholder of the Company, hereby appoints [name] or, failing that person, [name], as proxy holder for the undersigned to attend, act and vote for and on behalf of the undersigned at the meeting of shareholders of the Company to be held on [month, day, year] and at any adjournment of that meeting.

Number of shares in respect of which this proxy is given (if no number is specified, then this proxy is given in respect of all shares registered in the name of the undersigned): _____

Signed [month, day, year]

[Signature of shareholder]

[Name of shareholder - printed]

12.13 Revocation of Proxy

Subject to Article 12.14, every proxy may be revoked by an instrument in writing that is received:

(1) at the registered office of the Company at any time up to and including the last business day before the day set for the holding of the meeting or any adjourned meeting at which the proxy is to be used; or

(2) at the meeting or any adjourned meeting, by the chair of the meeting or adjourned meeting, before any vote in respect of which the proxy has been given has been taken.

12.14 Revocation of Proxy Must Be Signed

An instrument referred to in Article 12.13 must be signed as follows:

(1) if the shareholder for whom the proxy holder is appointed is an individual, the instrument must be signed by the shareholder or his or her legal personal representative or trustee in bankruptcy;

(2) if the shareholder for whom the proxy holder is appointed is a corporation, the instrument must be signed by the corporation or by a representative appointed for the corporation under Article 12.5.

12.15 Chair May Determine Validity of Proxy.

The chair of any meeting of shareholders may determine whether or not a proxy deposited for use at the meeting, which may not strictly comply with the requirements of this Part 12 as to form, execution, accompanying documentation, time of filing or otherwise, shall be valid for use at the meeting, and any such determination made in good faith shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the meeting.

12.16 Production of Evidence of Authority to Vote

The chair of any meeting of shareholders may, but need not, inquire into the authority of any person to vote at the meeting and may, but need not, demand from that person production of evidence as to the existence of the authority to vote.

DIRECTORS

13.1 First Directors; Number of Directors

The first directors are the persons designated as directors of the Company in the Notice of Articles that applies to the Company when it is recognized under the Business Corporations Act.

The Company shall have a minimum of three and a maximum of 10 directors. The number of directors is the number within the minimum and maximum determined by the directors from time to time. If the number of directors has not been determined as provided in this section, the number of directors is the number of directors holding office immediately following the most recent election or appointment of directors, whether at an annual or special general meeting of the shareholders, or by the directors pursuant to Articles 14.4 or 14.8.

13.2 Change in Number of Directors

If the number of directors is set under Article 13.1:

(1) the shareholders may elect or appoint the directors needed to fill any vacancies in the board of directors up to that number; or

(2) the directors, subject to Article 14.8, may appoint directors to fill those vacancies.

No decrease in the number of directors will shorten the term of an incumbent director.

13.3 Directors' Acts Valid Despite Vacancy

An act or proceeding of the directors is not invalid merely because fewer than the number of directors set or otherwise required under these Articles is in office.

13.4 Qualifications of Directors

A director is not required to hold a share of the Company as qualification for his or her office but must be qualified as required by the Business Corporations Act to become, act or continue to act as a director.

13.5 Remuneration of Directors

The directors are entitled to the remuneration for acting as directors, if any, as the directors may from time to time determine. If the directors so decide, the remuneration of the directors, if any, will be determined by the shareholders. That remuneration may be in addition to any salary or other remuneration paid to any officer or employee of the Company as such, who is also a director.

13.6 Reimbursement of Expenses of Directors

The Company must reimburse each director for the reasonable expenses that he or she may incur in and about the business of the Company.

13.7 Special Remuneration for Directors

If any director performs any professional or other services for the Company that in the opinion of the directors are outside the ordinary duties of a director, or if any director is otherwise specially occupied in or about the Company's business, he or she may be paid remuneration fixed by the directors, or, at the option of that director, fixed by ordinary resolution, and such remuneration may be either in addition to, or in substitution for, any other remuneration that he or she may be entitled to receive.

13.8 Gratuity, Pension or Allowance on Retirement of Director

Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, the directors on behalf of the Company may pay a gratuity or pension or allowance on retirement to any director who has held any salaried office or place of profit with the Company or to his or her spouse or dependants and may make contributions to any fund and pay premiums for the purchase or provision of any such gratuity, pension or allowance.

ELECTION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

14.1 Election at Annual General Meeting

At every annual general meeting and in every unanimous resolution contemplated by Article 10.2:

(1) the shareholders entitled to vote at the annual general meeting for the election of directors must elect, or in the unanimous resolution appoint, a board of directors consisting of the number of directors for the time being set under these Articles; and

(2) all the directors cease to hold office immediately before the election or appointment of directors under paragraph (1), but are eligible for re-election or re-appointment.

14.2 Consent to be a Director

No election, appointment or designation of an individual as a director is valid unless:

(1) that individual consents to be a director in the manner provided for in the Business Corporations Act;

(2) that individual is elected or appointed at a meeting at which the individual is present and the individual does not refuse, at the meeting, to be a director; or

(3) with respect to first directors, the designation is otherwise valid under the Business Corporations Act.

14.3 Failure to Elect or Appoint Directors

If:

(1) the Company fails to hold an annual general meeting, and all the shareholders who are entitled to vote at an annual general meeting fail to pass the unanimous resolution contemplated by Article 10.2, on or before the date by which the annual general meeting is required to be held under the Business Corporations Act; or

(2) the shareholders fail, at the annual general meeting or in the unanimous resolution contemplated by Article 10.2, to elect or appoint any directors; then each director then in office continues to hold office until the earlier of:

(3) when his or her successor is elected or appointed; and

(4) when he or she otherwise ceases to hold office under the Business Corporations Act or these Articles.

14.4 Places of Retiring Directors Not Filled

If, at any meeting of shareholders at which there should be an election of directors, the places of any of the retiring directors are not filled by that election, those retiring directors who are not re-elected and who are asked by the newly elected directors to continue in office will, if willing to do so, continue in office to complete the number of directors for the time being set pursuant to these Articles until further new directors are elected at a meeting of shareholders convened for that purpose.

14.5 Directors May Fill Casual Vacancies

Any casual vacancy occurring in the board of directors may be filled by the directors.

14.6 Remaining Directors' Power to Act

The directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the board of directors, but if the Company has fewer directors in office than the number set pursuant to these Articles as the quorum of directors, the directors may only act for the purpose of appointing directors up to that number or of calling a meeting of shareholders for the purpose of filling any vacancies on the board of directors or, subject to the Business Corporations Act, for any other purpose.

14.7 Shareholders May Fill Vacancies

If the Company has no directors or fewer directors in office than the number set pursuant to these Articles as the quorum of directors, the shareholders may elect or appoint directors to fill any vacancies on the board of directors.

14.8 Additional Directors

Notwithstanding Article 13.2, between annual general meetings or unanimous resolutions contemplated by Article 10.2, the directors may appoint one or more additional directors, but the number of additional directors appointed under this Article 14.8 must not at any time exceed:

(1) one-third of the number of first directors, if, at the time of the appointments, one or more of the first directors have not yet completed their first term of office; or

(2) in any other case, one-third of the number of the current directors who were elected or appointed as directors other than under this Article 14.8.

Any director so appointed ceases to hold office immediately before the next election or appointment of directors under Article 14.1(1), but is eligible for re-election or re-appointment.

14.9 Ceasing to be a Director

A director ceases to be a director when:

(1) the term of office of the director expires;

(2) the director dies;

(3) the director resigns as a director by notice in writing provided to the Company or a lawyer for the Company; or

(4) the director is removed from office pursuant to Articles 14.10 or 14.11.

14.10 Removal of Director by Shareholders

The Company may remove any director before the expiration of his or her term of office by special resolution. In that event, the shareholders may elect, or appoint by ordinary resolution, a director to fill the resulting vacancy. If the shareholders do not elect or appoint a director to fill the resulting vacancy contemporaneously with the removal, then the directors may appoint or the shareholders may elect, or appoint by ordinary resolution, a director to fill that vacancy.

14.11 Removal of Director by Directors

The directors may remove any director before the expiration of his or her term of office if the director is convicted of an indictable offence, or if the director ceases to be qualified to act as a director of a company and does not promptly resign, and the directors may appoint a director to fill the resulting vacancy.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

15.1 Powers of Management

The directors must, subject to the Business Corporations Act and these Articles, manage or supervise the management of the business and affairs of the Company and have the authority to exercise all such powers of the Company as are not, by the Business Corporations Act or by these Articles, required to be exercised by the shareholders of the Company.

15.2 Appointment of Attorney of Company

The directors may from time to time, by power of attorney or other instrument, under seal if so required by law, appoint any person to be the attorney of the Company for such purposes, and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the directors under these Articles and excepting the power to fill vacancies in the board of directors, to remove a director, to change the membership of, or fill vacancies in, any committee of the directors, to appoint or remove officers appointed by the directors and to declare dividends) and for such period, and with such remuneration and subject to such conditions as the directors may think fit. Any such power of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection or convenience of persons dealing with such attorney as the directors think fit. Any such attorney may be authorized by the directors to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions for the time being vested in him or her.

INTERESTS OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

16.1 Obligation to Account for Profits

A director or senior officer who holds a disclosable interest (as that term is used in the*Business Corporations Act*) in a contract or transaction into which the Company has entered or proposes to enter is liable to account to the Company for any profit that accrues to the director or senior officer under or as a result of the contract or transaction only if and to the extent provided in the Business Corporations Act.

16.2 Restrictions on Voting by Reason of Interest

A director who holds a disclosable interest in a contract or transaction into which the Company has entered or proposes to enter is not entitled to vote on any directors' resolution to approve that contract or transaction, unless all the directors have a disclosable interest in that contract or transaction, in which case any or all of those directors may vote on such resolution.

16.3 Interested Director Counted in Quorum

A director who holds a disclosable interest in a contract or transaction into which the Company has entered or proposes to enter and who is present at the meeting of directors at which the contract or transaction is considered for approval may be counted in the quorum at the meeting whether or not the director votes on any or all of the resolutions considered at the meeting.

16.4 Disclosure of Conflict of Interest or Property

A director or senior officer who holds any office or possesses any property, right or interest that could result, directly or indirectly, in the creation of a duty or interest that materially conflicts with that individual's duty or interest as a director or senior officer, must disclose the nature and extent of the conflict as required by the Business Corporations Act.

16.5 Director Holding Other Office in the Company

A director may hold any office or place of profit with the Company, other than the office of auditor of the Company, in addition to his or her office of director for the period and on the terms (as to remuneration or otherwise) that the directors may determine.

16.6 No Disqualification

No director or intended director is disqualified by his or her office from contracting with the Company either with regard to the holding of any office or place of profit the director holds with the Company or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, and no contract or transaction entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which a director is in any way interested is liable to be voided for that reason.

16.7 Professional Services by Director or Officer

Subject to the Business Corporations Act, a director or officer, or any person in which a director or officer has an interest, may act in a professional capacity for the Company, except as auditor of the Company, and the director or officer or such person is entitled to remuneration for professional services as if that director or officer were not a director or officer.

16.8 Director or Officer in Other Corporations

A director or officer may be or become a director, officer or employee of, or otherwise interested in, any person in which the Company may be interested as a shareholder or otherwise, and, subject to the Business Corporations Act, the director or officer is not accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefits received by him or her as director, officer or employee of, or from his or her interest in, such other person.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

17.1 Meetings of Directors

The directors may meet together for the conduct of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, and meetings of the directors held at regular intervals may be held at the place, at the time and on the notice, if any, as the directors may from time to time determine.

17.2 Voting at Meetings

Questions arising at any meeting of directors are to be decided by a majority of votes and, in the case of an equality of votes, the chair of the meeting does not have a second or casting vote.

17.3 Chair of Meetings

The following individual is entitled to preside as chair at a meeting of directors:

(1) the chair of the board, if any;

(2) in the absence of the chair of the board, the president, if any, if the president is a director; or

(3) any other director chosen by the directors if:

(a) neither the chair of the board nor the president, if a director, is present at the meeting within 15 minutes after the time set for holding the meeting;

(b) neither the chair of the board nor the president, if a director, is willing to chair the meeting; or

(c) the chair of the board and the president, if a director, have advised the secretary, if any, or any other director, that they will not be present at the meeting.

17.4 Meetings by Telephone or Other Communications Medium

A director may participate in a meeting of the directors or of any committee of the directors:

(1) in person;

(2) by telephone; or

(3) with the consent of all directors who wish to participate in the meeting, by other communications medium;

if all directors participating in the meeting, whether in person, or by telephone or other communications medium, are able to communicate with each other. A director who participates in a meeting in a manner contemplated by this Article 17.4 is deemed for all purposes of the Business Corporations Act and these Articles to be present at the meeting and to have agreed to participate in that manner.

17.5 Calling of Meetings

A director may, and the secretary or an assistant secretary of the Company, if any, on the request of a director must, call a meeting of the directors at any time.

17.6 Notice of Meetings

Other than for meetings held at regular intervals as determined by the directors pursuant to Article 17.1 or as provided in Article 17.7, reasonable notice of each meeting of the directors, specifying the place, day and time of that meeting must be given to each of the directors by any method set out in Article 23.1 or orally or by telephone.

17.7 When Notice Not Required

It is not necessary to give notice of a meeting of the directors to a director if:

(1) the meeting is to be held immediately following a meeting of shareholders at which that director was elected or appointed, or is the meeting of the directors at which that director is appointed; or

(2) the director has waived notice of the meeting.

17.8 Meeting Valid Despite Failure to Give Notice

The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting of directors to, or the non-receipt of any notice by, any director, does not invalidate any proceedings at that meeting.

17.9 Waiver of Notice of Meetings

Any director may send to the Company a document signed by him or her waiving notice of any past, present or future meeting or meetings of the directors and may at any time withdraw that waiver with respect to meetings held after that withdrawal. After sending a waiver with respect to all future meetings and until that waiver is withdrawn, no notice of any meeting of the directors need be given to that director, and all meetings of the directors so held are deemed not to be improperly called or constituted by reason of notice not having been given to such director.

Attendance of a director at a meeting of the directors is a waiver of notice of the meeting, unless that director attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called.

17.10 Quorum

The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the directors is a majority of the number of directors in office or such greater or lesser number as the directors may determine from time to time, provided that the minimum number of directors to constitute a quorum cannot be less than two directors.

17.11 Validity of Acts Where Appointment Defective

Subject to the Business Corporations Act, an act of a director or officer is not invalid merely because of an irregularity in the election or appointment or a defect in the qualification of that director or officer.

17.12 Consent Resolutions in Writing

A resolution of the directors or of any committee of the directors may be passed without a meeting:

(1) in all cases, if each of the directors entitled to vote on the resolution consents to it in writing; or

(2) in the case of a resolution to approve a contract or transaction in respect of which a director has disclosed that he or she has or may have a disclosable interest, if each of the other directors who have not made such a disclosure consents in writing to the resolution.

A consent in writing under this Article 17.12 may be by any written instrument, fax, e-mail or any other method of transmitting legibly recorded messages in which the consent of the director is evidenced, whether or not the signature of the director is included in the record. A consent in writing may be in two or more counterparts which together are deemed to constitute one consent in writing. A resolution of the directors or of any committee of the directors passed in accordance with this Article 17.12 is effective on the date stated in the consent in writing or on the latest date stated on any counterpart and is deemed to be a proceeding at a meeting of the directors or of the committee of the directors and to be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors or of the committee of the directors that satisfies all the requirements of the Business Corporations Act and all the requirements of these Articles relating to meetings of the directors or of a committee of the directors.

EXECUTIVE AND OTHER COMMITTEES

18.1 Appointment and Powers of Executive Committee

The directors may, by resolution, appoint an executive committee consisting of the director or directors that they consider appropriate, and during the intervals between meetings of the board of directors all of the directors' powers are delegated to the executive committee, except:

(1) the power to fill vacancies in the board of directors;

(2) the power to remove a director;

(3) the power to change the membership of, or fill vacancies in, any committee of the directors; and

(4) such other powers, if any, as may be set out in the resolution or any subsequent directors' resolution.

18.2 Appointment and Powers of Other Committees

(a) the power to fill vacancies in the board of directors;

(b) the power to remove a director;

(c) the power to change the membership of, or fill vacancies in, any committee of the directors; and

(d) the power to appoint or remove officers appointed by the directors; and

(3) make any delegation referred to in paragraph (2) subject to the conditions set out in the resolution or any subsequent directors' resolution.

18.3 Obligations of Committees

Any committee appointed under Articles 18.1 or 18.2, in the exercise of the powers delegated to it, must:

(1) conform to any rules that may from time to time be imposed on it by the directors; and

(2) report every act or thing done in exercise of those powers at such times as the directors may require.

18.4 Powers of Board

The directors may, at any time, with respect to a committee appointed under Articles 18.1 or 18.2:

(1) revoke or alter the authority given to the committee, or override a decision made by the committee, except as to acts done before such revocation, alteration or overriding;

(2) terminate the appointment of, or change the membership of, the committee; and

(3) fill vacancies in the committee.

18.5 Committee Meetings

Subject to Article 18.3(1) and unless the directors otherwise provide in the resolution appointing the committee or in any subsequent resolution, with respect to a committee appointed under Articles 18.1 or 18.2:

(1) the committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper;

(2) the committee may elect a chair of its meetings but, if no chair of a meeting is elected, or if at a meeting the chair of the meeting is not present within 15 minutes after the time set for holding the meeting, the directors present who are members of the committee may choose one of their number to chair the meeting;

(3) a majority of the members of the committee constitutes a quorum of the committee; and

(4) questions arising at any meeting of the committee are determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and in the case of an equality of votes, the chair of the meeting does not have a second or casting vote.

OFFICERS

19.1 Directors May Appoint Officers

The directors may, from time to time, appoint such officers, if any, as the directors determine and the directors may, at any time, terminate any such appointment.

19.2 Functions, Duties and Powers of Officers

The directors may, for each officer:

(1) determine the functions and duties of the officer;

(2) delegate to the officer any of the powers exercisable by the directors on such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as the directors think fit; and

(3) revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of the functions, duties and powers of the officer.

19.3 Qualifications

No officer may be appointed unless that officer is qualified in accordance with the Business Corporations Act. One person may hold more than one position as an officer of the Company. Any person appointed as the chair of the board or as a managing director must be a director. Any other officer need not be a director.

19.4 Remuneration and Terms of Appointment

All appointments of officers are to be made on the terms and conditions and at the remuneration (whether by way of salary, fee, commission, participation in profits or otherwise) that the directors think fit and are subject to termination at the pleasure of the directors, and an officer may in addition to such remuneration be entitled to receive, after he or she ceases to hold such office or leaves the employment of the Company, a pension or gratuity.

INDEMNIFICATION

20.1 Definitions

In this Article 20:

(1) "eligible penalty" means a judgment, penalty or fine awarded or imposed in, or an amount paid in settlement of, an eligible proceeding;

(2) "eligible proceeding" means a legal proceeding or investigative action, whether current, threatened, pending or completed, in which a director or former director of the Company (an "eligible party") or any of the heirs and legal personal representatives of the eligible party, by reason of the eligible party being or having been a director of the Company:

(a) is or may be joined as a party;
or

(b) is or may be liable for or in respect of a judgment, penalty or fine in, or expenses related to, the proceeding;

(3) "expenses" has the meaning set out in the Business Corporations Act.

20.2 Mandatory Indemnification of Directors

Subject to the Business Corporations Act, the Company must indemnify a director or former director of the Company and his or her heirs and legal personal representatives against all eligible penalties to which such person is or may be liable, and the Company must, after the final disposition of an eligible proceeding, pay the expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in respect of that proceeding. Each director is deemed to have contracted with the Company on the terms of the indemnity contained in this Article 20.2.

20.3 Permitted Indemnification

Subject to any restrictions in the Business Corporations Act, the Company may indemnify any person.

20.4 Non-Compliance with Business Corporations Act

The failure of a director or officer of the Company to comply with the Business Corporations Act or these Articles or, if applicable, any former Companies Act or former Articles, does not invalidate any indemnity to which he or she is entitled under this Part 20.

20.5 Company May Purchase Insurance

The Company may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any person (or his or her heirs or legal personal representatives) who:

1) is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company;

(2) is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation at a time when the corporation is or was an affiliate of the Company;

(3) at the request of the Company, is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation or of a partnership, trust, joint venture or other unincorporated entity;

(4) at the request of the Company, holds or held a position equivalent to that of a director or officer of a partnership, trust, joint venture or other unincorporated entity; against any liability incurred by him or her as such director, officer, employee or agent or person who holds or held such equivalent position.

DIVIDENDS

21.1 Payment of Dividends Subject to Special Rights

The provisions of this Part 21 are subject to the rights, if any, of shareholders holding shares with special rights as to dividends.

21.2 Declaration of Dividends

Subject to the Business Corporations Act, the directors may from time to time declare and authorize payment of such dividends as they may consider appropriate.

21.3 No Notice Required

The directors need not give notice to any shareholder of any declaration under Article 21.2.

21.4 Record Date

The directors may set a date as the record date for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to receive payment of a dividend. The record date must not precede the date on which the dividend is to be paid by more than two months. If no record date is set, the record date is 5 p.m. on the date on which the directors pass the resolution declaring the dividend.

21.5 Manner of Paying Dividend

A resolution declaring a dividend may direct payment of the dividend wholly or partly in money or by the distribution of specific assets or of fully paid shares or of bonds, debentures or other securities of the Company or any other corporation, or in any one or more of those ways.

21.6 Settlement of Difficulties

If any difficulty arises in regard to a distribution under Article 21.5, the directors may settle the difficulty as they deem advisable, and, in particular, may:

(1) set the value for distribution of specific assets;

(2) determine that money in substitution for all or any part of the specific assets to which any shareholders are entitled may be paid to any shareholders on the basis of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties; and

(3) vest any such specific assets in trustees for the persons entitled to the dividend.

21.7 When Dividend Payable

Any dividend may be made payable on such date as is fixed by the directors.

21.8 Dividends to be Paid in Accordance with Number of Shares

All dividends on shares of any class or series of shares must be declared and paid according to the number of such shares held.

21.9 Receipt by Joint Shareholders

If several persons are joint shareholders of any share, any one of them may give an effective receipt for any dividend, bonus or other money payable in respect of the share.

21.10 Dividend Bears No Interest

No dividend bears interest against the Company.

21.11 Fractional Dividends

If a dividend to which a shareholder is entitled includes a fraction of the smallest monetary unit of the currency of the dividend, that fraction may be disregarded in making payment of the dividend and that payment represents full payment of the dividend.

21.12 Payment of Dividends

Any dividend or other distribution payable in money in respect of shares may be paid by cheque, made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent, and mailed to the registered address of the shareholder, or in the case of joint shareholders, to the registered address of the joint shareholder who is first named on the central securities register, or to the person and to the address the shareholder or joint shareholders may direct in writing. The mailing of such cheque will, to the extent of the sum represented by the cheque (plus the amount of the tax required by law to be deducted), discharge all liability for the dividend unless such cheque is not paid on presentation or the amount of tax so deducted is not paid to the appropriate taxing authority.

21.13 Capitalization of Retained Earnings or Surplus

Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, the directors may from time to time capitalize any retained earnings or surplus of the Company and may from time to time issue, as fully paid, shares or any bonds, debentures or other securities of the Company as a dividend representing the retained earnings or surplus so capitalized or any part thereof.

PART 22
ACCOUNTING RECORDS AND AUDITOR

PROHIBITIONS

25.1 Definitions

In this Part 25:

(1) "security" has the meaning assigned in the Securities Act;

(2) "transfer restricted security" means

(a) a share of the Company;

(b) a security of the Company convertible into shares of the Company;

(c) any other security of the Company which must be subject to restrictions on transfer in order for the Company to satisfy the requirement for restrictions on transfer under the "private issuer" exemption of Canadian securities legislation or under any other exemption from prospectus or registration requirements of Canadian securities legislation similar in scope and purpose to the "private issuer" exemption.

25.2 Application

Article 25.3 does not apply to the Company if and for so long as it is a public company.

25.3 Consent Required for Transfer of Shares or Transfer Restricted Securities

No share or other transfer restricted security may be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the directors and the directors are not required to give any reason for refusing to consent to any such sale, transfer or other disposition.

SPECIAL RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS

The special rights and restrictions attached to the Common Shares and the Proportionate Voting Shares of the Company are as follows:

26.1 Special Rights and Restrictions of both Common Shares and Proportionate Voting Shares

(1) Equality

Except as set out in this Part 26, the Common Shares and Proportionate Voting Shares (collectively, the "Equity Shares") have the same rights and are equal in all respects and are treated by the Company as if they were shares of one class only.

(2) Liquidation Entitlement

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Company or any other distribution of its assets among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, all the property and assets of the Company available for distribution to the holders of the Equity Shares will be paid or distributed to the holders of the Equity Shares on the basis that each Proportionate Voting Share will be entitled to 1,000 times the amount distributed per Common Share, but otherwise there is no preference or distinction among or between the Equity Shares.

(3) Dividend Rights

The holders of Equity Shares are entitled to receive non-cumulative dividends at such times and in such amounts as the directors may in their discretion from time to time determine. If, as and when dividends are declared by the directors, each Proportionate Voting Share is entitled to 1,000 times the amount paid or distributed per Common Share.

The directors may, at any time and from time to time, declare and pay a stock dividend:

(a) payable in Common Shares on the Common Shares, provided that at the same time a stock dividend payable in Proportionate Voting Shares is declared and paid in the same number of shares per share on the Proportionate Voting Shares; or

(a) payable in Proportionate Voting Shares on the Proportionate Voting Shares, provided that at the same time a stock dividend payable in Common Shares is declared and paid in the same number of shares per share on the Common Voting Shares.

(4) Meetings

The holders of Common Shares and Proportionate Voting Shares are entitled to receive notice of any meeting of shareholders of the Company, and to attend and vote at those meetings, except those meetings at which holders of a specific class of shares are entitled to vote separately as a class under the Business Corporations Act.

The Proportionate Voting Shares carry 1,000 votes per share for all matters coming before shareholders.

The Common Shares carry one vote per share for all matters coming before shareholders.

(5) Variation of Rights

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, but subject to the Business Corporations Act, the special rights and restrictions attached to any Equity Shares may be modified if the amendment is authorized by not less than 66 2⁄3% of the votes cast at a meeting of holders of Equity Shares duly held for that purpose. However, if the holders of Proportionate Voting Shares, as a class, or the holders of Common Shares, as a class, are to be affected in a manner materially different from such other class of Equity Shares, the amendment must, in addition, be authorized by not less than 66 2⁄3% of the votes cast at a meeting of the holders of the class of shares which is affected differently.

(6) Subdivision or Consolidation

No subdivision or consolidation of the Common Shares or Proportionate Voting Shares may be carried out unless, at the same time, the Common Shares or Proportionate Voting Shares, as the case may be, are subdivided or consolidated in the same manner and on the same basis, so as to preserve the relative rights of the holders of each class of Equity Shares.

26.2 Common Shares

In addition to the special rights and restrictions set out in section 26.1 and subject to section 26.3(2) (c), the Common Shares have the special rights and restrictions set out in this section 26.2.

(1) Conversion Rights

Subject to section 26.3(2)(c), Common Shares may at any time, at the option of the holder, be converted into Proportionate Voting Shares on the basis of 1,000 Common Shares for one Proportionate Voting Share. The conversion right may be exercised at any time and from time to time by notice in writing delivered to the transfer agent of the Company (the "Transfer Agent") accompanied by the certificate or certificates representing the Common Shares or, if uncertificated, such other evidence of ownership as the Transfer Agent may require, in respect of which the holder wishes to exercise the right of conversion. The notice must be signed by the registered holder of the Common Shares in respect of which the right of conversion is being exercised or by his or her duly authorized attorney and must specify the number of Common Shares which the holder wishes to have converted.

Upon receipt of the conversion notice and share certificate or share certificates or other evidence of ownership satisfactory to the Transfer Agent, the Company will issue a share certificate or other evidence of ownership representing Proportionate Voting Shares on the basis set out above to the registered holder of the Common Shares. If fewer than all the Common Shares represented by a certificate accompanying the notice are to be converted, the holder is entitled to receive a new certificate representing the shares comprised in the original certificate which are not to be converted.

Except as provided for in subsection (2), no fractional Proportionate Voting Shares will be issued on any conversion of Common Shares.

(2) Take-over Bids and Fractional Shares

In addition to any rights contained in subsection (1) and subject to section 26.3(2)(c), if an offer (the "Offer") is being made for Proportionate Voting Shares where:

(a) by reason of applicable securities legislation or stock exchange requirements, the offer must be made to all holders of the class of Proportionate Voting Shares; and

(b) no equivalent offer is made for the Common Shares, the holders of Common Shares have the right, at their option, to convert their Common Shares into Proportionate Voting Shares for the purpose of allowing the holders of the Common Shares to tender to that offer.

In the event that holders of Common Shares are entitled to convert their Common Shares into Proportionate Voting Shares in connection with an Offer pursuant to this subsection (2), holders of an aggregate of Common Shares of less than 1,000 (an "Odd Lot") will be entitled to convert all but not less than all of such Odd Lot of Common Shares into a fraction of one Proportionate Voting Share, at a conversion ratio equivalent to 1,000 to one, provided that such conversion into a fractional Proportionate Voting Share will be solely for the purpose of tendering the fractional Proportionate Voting Share to the offer in question and that any fraction of a Proportionate Voting Share that is tendered to the Offer but that is not, for any reason, taken up and paid for by the offeror will automatically be reconverted into the Common Shares that existed prior to such conversion.

26.3 Proportionate Voting Shares

In addition to the special rights and restrictions set out in section 26.1, the Proportionate Voting Shares have the special rights and restrictions set out in this section 26.3.

(1) Conversion at the Option of the Holder

Each issued and outstanding Proportionate Voting Share may at any time, at the option of the holder, be converted into 1,000 Common Shares. The conversion right may be exercised at any time and from time to time by notice in writing delivered to the Transfer Agent accompanied by the certificate or certificates representing the Proportionate Voting Shares or, if uncertificated, such other evidence of ownership as the Transfer Agent may require, in respect of which the holder wishes to exercise the right of conversion. The notice must be signed by the registered holder of the Proportionate Voting Shares in respect of which the right of conversion is being exercised or by his or her duly authorized attorney and must specify the number of Proportionate Voting Shares which the holder wishes to have converted.

Upon receipt of the conversion notice and share certificate or share certificates or other evidence of ownership satisfactory to the Transfer Agent, the Company will issue a share certificate or other evidence of ownership representing Common Shares on the basis set out above to the registered holder of the Proportionate Voting Shares. If fewer than all the Proportionate Voting Shares represented by a certificate accompanying the notice are to be converted, the holder is entitled to receive a new certificate representing the shares comprised in the original certificate which are not to be converted.

No fractional Common Shares will be issued on any conversion of Proportionate Voting Shares.

(2) Automatic Conversion

If, at any time on or after July 1, 2011, the directors, in good faith, determine that none of the Original Holders (as defined below) owns, controls or directs, directly or indirectly, any Proportionate Voting Shares, then, effective on the date approved by the directors, the following shall occur and be deemed to occur in the following order:

(a) all of the Proportionate Voting Shares held by each holder shall, without any further action on the part of any holder of Proportionate Voting Shares, immediately and automatically be converted into fully paid Common Shares at the conversion ratio of 1,000 Common Shares for each Proportionate Voting Share;

(b) concurrently with the conversion of Proportionate Voting Shares in (a), the Company shall issue and promptly deliver to each holder of Proportionate Voting Shares share certificates or other evidence of ownership representing fully paid and non-assessable Common Shares in the amount equal to the number of Proportionate Voting Shares multiplied by 1000, and shall cancel all share certificates or other evidence of ownership representing Proportionate Voting Shares, whether or not such certificate or other evidence of ownership is delivered to the Company;

(c) the right in section 26.2 of holders of Common Shares to convert their shares into Proportionate Voting Shares shall be terminated; and

(d) the directors shall not be entitled to issue any further Proportionate Voting Shares.

In this section 26.3(2), "Original Holders" means the initial holders of Proportionate Voting Shares on the closing of the Company's initial public offering and any of their affiliates.

Once repaid, Incremental Term Loans may not be reborrowed.

(b) The obligations of the Lenders hereunder to make Term Loans or any other payments are several and not joint. The failure of any Lender to make any Loan or to make any other payment on any date required hereunder shall not relieve any other Lender of its corresponding obligation to do so on such date, and no Lender shall be responsible for the failure of any other Lender to so make its Term Loan or payment.

Section 2.02. Minimum Amount of Each Borrowing . The aggregate principal amount of each Borrowing of Term Loans under any Tranche shall not be less than the Minimum Borrowing Amount. More than one Borrowing may occur on the same date, but at no time shall there be outstanding more than ten (10) Borrowings of LIBO Rate Term Loans in the aggregate for all Tranches of Term Loans.

Section 2.04. Disbursement of Funds. No later than 1:00 P.M. (New York City time) on the date specified in each Notice of Borrowing, each Lender with a Commitment of the relevant Tranche will make available its pro rata portion (determined in accordance with Section 2.07) of each such Borrowing requested to be made on such date. All such amounts will be made available in U.S. Dollars and in immediately available funds at the Payment Office, and the Administrative Agent will make available to the Borrower at the Payment Office the aggregate of the amounts so made available by the Lenders. Unless the Administrative Agent shall have been notified by any Lender prior to the date of any Borrowing that such Lender does not intend to make available to the Administrative Agent such Lender's portion of any Borrowing to be made on such date, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such amount available to the Administrative Agent on such date of Borrowing and the Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to), in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the Borrower a corresponding amount. If such corresponding amount is not in fact made available to the Administrative Agent by such Lender, the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to recover such corresponding amount on demand from such Lender. If such Lender does not pay such corresponding amount forthwith upon the Administrative Agent's demand therefor, the Administrative Agent shall promptly notify the Borrower and the Borrower shall immediately pay such corresponding amount to the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent also shall be entitled to recover on demand from such Lender or the Borrower interest on such corresponding amount in respect of each day from the date such corresponding amount was made available by the Administrative Agent to the Borrower until the date such corresponding amount is recovered by the Administrative Agent, at a rate per annum equal to (f) if recovered from such Lender, the overnight Federal Funds Rate for the first three days and at the interest rate otherwise applicable to such Term Loans for each day thereafter and (g) if recovered from the Borrower, the rate of interest applicable to the relevant Borrowing, as determined pursuant to Section 2.08. Nothing in this Section 2.04 shall be deemed to relieve any Lender from its obligation to make Term Loans hereunder or to prejudice any rights which the Borrower may have against any Lender as a result of any failure by such Lender to make Term Loans hereunder.

Section 2.05. Notes. (e) The Borrower's obligation to pay the principal of, and interest on, the Term Loans made by each Lender shall be evidenced in the Register maintained by the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 12.04(c), and shall, if requested by such Lender, also be evidenced (a) in the case of an Initial Term Loan, by a promissory note duly executed and delivered by the Borrower substantially in the form of Exhibit B-1, with blanks appropriately completed in conformity herewith (each, an "Initial Term Note" and, collectively, the " Initial Term Notes"), and (b) in the case of Incremental Term Loans, by a promissory note duly executed and delivered by the Borrower substantially in the form of Exhibit B-2 (with such modifications thereto as may be necessary to reflect differing classes of Incremental Term Loans), with blanks appropriately completed in conformity herewith (each, an "Incremental Term Note" and, collectively, the "Incremental Term Notes").

(c) Each Lender will note on its internal records the amount of each Term Loan made by it and each payment in respect thereof and prior to any transfer of any of its Notes will endorse on the reverse side thereof the outstanding principal amount of Term Loans evidenced thereby. Failure to make any such notation or any error in such notation shall not affect the Borrower's obligations in respect of such Term Loans.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above in this Section 2.05 or elsewhere in this Agreement, Notes shall only be delivered to Lenders which at any time specifically request the delivery of such Notes. No failure of any Lender to request or obtain a Note evidencing its Term Loans to the Borrower shall affect or in any manner impair the obligation of the Borrower to pay the Term Loans (and all related Obligations) incurred by the Borrower that would otherwise be evidenced thereby in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement, and shall not in any way affect the security or guaranties therefor provided pursuant to the various Credit Documents. Any Lender that does not have a Note evidencing its outstanding Term Loans shall in no event be required to make the notations otherwise described in the preceding clause (d). At any time when any Lender requests the delivery of a Note to evidence any of its Term Loans, the Borrower shall promptly execute and deliver to the respective Lender the requested Note in the appropriate amount or amounts to evidence such Term Loans.

Such conversion shall be effected by the Borrower by giving the Administrative Agent at the Notice Office prior to 11:00 a.m.(New York City time) at least three Business Days' prior notice (in the case of any conversion to or continuation of LIBO Rate Term Loans) or one Business Day's notice (in the case of any conversion to Base Rate Term Loans) (each, a "Notice of Conversion/Continuation") in the form of Exhibit A-2, appropriately completed to specify the Term Loans of a given Tranche to be so converted, the Borrowing or Borrowings pursuant to

(b) During the occurrence of an Event of Default as set forth in Section 10.01(a) (with respect to overdue amounts) or Section 10.01(e) (with respect to all amounts), principal and, to the extent permitted by law, interest in respect of each Term Loan and any other amount payable hereunder shall, in each case, bear interest at a rate per annum equal to (e) for Base Rate Term Loans and associated interest, 2% per annum in excess of the Applicable Margin for Base Rate Term Loans plus the Base Rate, (f) for LIBO Rate Term Loans and associated interest, 2% per annum in excess of the Applicable Margin for LIBO Rate Term Loans plus the LIBO Rate and (g) with respect to fees and all other amounts, 2% per annum in excess of the Applicable Margin for Base Rate Term Loans plus the Base Rate, each as in effect from time to time, in each case with such interest to be payable on demand.

(c) Accrued (and theretofore unpaid) interest shall be calculated daily and payable (h) in respect of each Base Rate Term Loan, quarterly in arrears on each Quarterly Payment Date, (i) in respect of each LIBO Rate Term Loan, on (x) the date of any conversion thereof into a Base Rate Term Loan, pursuant to Sections 2.06, 2.09 or Section 2.11, as applicable

(on the amount converted) and (y) the last day of each Interest Period applicable thereto and, in the case of an Interest Period in excess of three months, on each date occurring at three-month intervals after the first day of such Interest Period and (j) in respect of each Term Loan, on (x) the date of any prepayment or repayment thereof (on the amount prepaid or repaid), (y) at maturity (whether by acceleration or otherwise) and (z) after such maturity, on demand.

(d) Upon each Interest Determination Date, the Administrative Agent shall determine the LIBO Rate for each Interest Period applicable to the respective LIBO Rate Term Loans and shall promptly notify the Borrower and the Lenders thereof. Each such determination shall, absent manifest error, be final and conclusive and binding on all parties hereto.

(e) For the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest to which any rate calculated on the basis of a period of time different from the actual number of days in the year (three hundred sixty (360) days, for example) is equivalent to the stated rate multiplied by the actual number of days in the year (three hundred sixty-five (365) or three hundred sixty-six (366), as applicable) and divided by the number of days in the shorter period (three hundred sixty (360) days, in the example), and the parties hereto acknowledge that there is a material distinction between the nominal and effective rates of interest and that they are capable of making the calculations necessary to compare such rates and that the calculations herein are to be made using the nominal rate method and not on any basis that gives effect to the principle of deemed reinvestment of interest.

Section 2.09. Interest Periods. At the time the Borrower gives any Notice of Borrowing or Notice of Conversion/Continuation in respect of the making of, or conversion into, any LIBO Rate Term Loan (in the case of the initial Interest Period applicable thereto) or prior to 11:00 a.m.(New York City time) on the third Business Day prior to the expiration of an Interest Period applicable to such LIBO Rate Term Loan (in the case of any subsequent Interest Period), the Borrower shall have the right to elect the interest period (each, an "Interest Period") applicable to such LIBO Rate Term Loan, which Interest Period shall, at the option of the Borrower be a one, two, three or six month period (or twelve months if agreed to by all applicable Lenders); provided that (in each case):

(i) all LIBO Rate Term Loans comprising a Borrowing shall at all times have the same Interest Period;

(ii) the initial Interest Period for any LIBO Rate Term Loan shall commence on the date of Borrowing of such LIBO Rate Term Loan (including, in the case of LIBO Rate Term Loans, the date of any conversion thereto from a Borrowing of Base Rate Term Loans and each Interest Period occurring thereafter in respect of such LIBO Rate Term Loan shall commence on the day on which the next preceding Interest Period applicable thereto expires;

(iii) if any Interest Period for a LIBO Rate Term Loan begins on a day for which there is no numerically corresponding day in the calendar month at the end of such Interest Period, such Interest Period shall end on the last Business Day of such calendar month;

(iv) if any Interest Period for a LIBO Rate Term Loan would otherwise expire on a day which is not a Business Day, such Interest Period shall expire on the next succeeding Business Day; provided, however, that if any Interest Period for a LIBO Rate Term Loan would otherwise expire on a day which is not a Business Day but is a day of the month after which no further Business Day occurs in such month, such Interest Period shall expire on the next preceding Business Day;

(v) unless the Required Lenders otherwise agree, no Interest Period for a LIBO Rate Term Loan may be selected at any time when a Default or an Event of Default is then in existence; and

(vi) no Interest Period in respect of any Borrowing of any Tranche of Term Loans shall be selected which extends beyond the Maturity Date therefor.

With respect to any LIBO Rate Term Loans, at the end of any Interest Period applicable to a Borrowing thereof, the Borrower, may elect to split the respective Borrowing of a single Type under a single Tranche into two or more Borrowings of different Types under such Tranche or combine two or more Borrowings under a single Tranche into a single Borrowing of the same Type under such Tranche, in each case, by having the Borrower give notice thereof together with its election of one or more Interest Periods, in each case so long as each resulting Borrowing (x) has an Interest Period which complies with the foregoing requirements of this Section 2.09, (y) has a principal amount which is not less than the Minimum Borrowing Amount applicable to Borrowings of the respective Type and Tranche, and (z) does not cause a violation of the requirements of Section 2.02. If by 11:00 a.m.(New York City time) on the third Business Day prior to the expiration of any Interest Period applicable to a Borrowing of LIBO Rate Term Loans, the Borrower has failed to elect, or is not permitted to elect, a new Interest Period to be applicable to such LIBO Rate, the Borrower shall be deemed to have elected in the case of LIBO Rate Term Loans, to convert such LIBO Rate Term Loans into Base Rate Term Loans with such conversion to be effective as of the expiration date of such current Interest Period.

Section 2.10. Increased Costs.

(a) Increased Costs Generally. If any Change in Law shall:

(i) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, compulsory loan, insurance charge or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended or participated in by, any Lender (except any reserve requirement reflected in the Adjusted LIBO Rate);

(ii) subject any Recipient to any Taxes (other than (i) Indemnified Taxes and (ii) Taxes described in clauses (a) through (d) of the definition of Excluded Taxes) on its loans, loan principal, letters of credit, commitments, or other obligations, or its deposits, reserves, other liabilities or capital attributable thereto; or

(iii) impose on any Lender or the London interbank market any other condition, cost or expense (other than Taxes) affecting this Agreement or Term Loans made by such Lender; and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender or such other Recipient of making, converting to, continuing or maintaining any Term Loan or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Term Loan, or to increase the cost to such Lender or such other Recipient, or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender or other Recipient hereunder (whether of principal, interest or any other amount) then, upon request of such Lender or other Recipient, the Borrower will pay to such Lender or other Recipient, as the case may be, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or other Recipient, as the case may be, for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(b) Capital Requirements. If any Lender determines that any Change in Law affecting such Lender or any lending office of such Lender or such Lender's holding company, if any, regarding capital or liquidity requirements, has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's capital or on the capital of such Lender's holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement, the Commitments of such Lender or the Term Loans made by such Lender to a level below that which such Lender or such Lender's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's policies and the policies of such Lender's holding company with respect to capital adequacy), then from time to time the Borrower will pay to such Lender, as the case may be, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Lender's holding company for any such reduction suffered.

(c) Certificates for Reimbursement. A certificate of a Lender setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or its holding company, as the case may be, as specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section and delivered to the Borrower, shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrower shall pay such Lender, as the case may be, the amount shown as due on any such certificate within 10 days after receipt thereof.

(d) Delay in Requests. Failure or delay on the part of any Lender to demand compensation pursuant to this Section shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's right to demand such compensation; provided that the Borrower shall not be required to compensate a Lender pursuant to this Section for any increased costs incurred or reductions suffered more than 180 days prior to the date that such Lender, as the case may be, notifies the Borrower of the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions, and of such Lender's intention to claim compensation therefor (except that, if the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the 180-day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof).

Section 2.11. Illegality. If any Lender determines that any Law has made it unlawful, or that any Governmental Authority has asserted that it is unlawful, for any Lender or its applicable Lending Office to make, maintain or fund Term Loans whose interest is determined by reference to the LIBO Rate, or to determine or charge interest rates based upon the LIBO Rate, or any Governmental Authority has imposed material restrictions on the authority of such Lender to purchase or sell, or to take deposits of, Dollars in the London interbank market, then, on notice thereof by such Lender to the Borrower through the Administrative Agent, (i) any obligation of such Lender to make or continue LIBO Rate Term Loans or to convert Base Rate Term Loans to LIBO Rate Term Loans shall be suspended, and (ii) if such notice asserts the illegality of such Lender making or maintaining Base Rate Term Loans the interest rate on which is determined by reference to the LIBO Rate component of the Base Rate, the interest rate on which Base Rate Term Loans of such Lender shall, if necessary to avoid such illegality, be determined by the Administrative Agent without reference to the LIBO Rate component of the Base Rate, in each case until such Lender notifies the Administrative Agent and the Borrower that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer exist. Upon receipt of such notice, (x) the Borrower shall, upon demand from such Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), prepay or, if applicable, convert all LIBO Rate Term Loans of such Lender to Base Rate Term Loans (the interest rate on which Base Rate Term Loans of such Lender shall, if necessary to avoid such illegality, be determined by the Administrative Agent without reference to the LIBO Rate component of the Base Rate), either on the last day of the Interest Period therefor, if such Lender may lawfully continue to maintain such LIBO Rate Term Loans to such day, or immediately, if such Lender may not lawfully continue to maintain such LIBO Rate Term Loans and (y) if such notice asserts the illegality of such Lender determining or charging interest rates based upon the LIBO Rate, the Administrative Agent shall during the period of such suspension compute the Base Rate applicable to such Lender without reference to the LIBO Rate component thereof until the Administrative Agent is advised in writing by such Lender that it is no longer illegal for such Lender to determine or charge interest rates based upon the LIBO Rate. Upon any such prepayment or conversion, the Borrower shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so prepaid or converted.

Section 2.12. Compensation. The Borrower agrees to compensate each Lender, upon its written request (which request shall set forth in reasonable detail the basis for requesting such compensation and the calculation of the amount of such compensation), for all losses, expenses and liabilities (including, without limitation, any loss, expense or liability incurred by reason of the liquidation or reemployment of deposits or other funds required by such Lender to fund its LIBO Rate Term Loans but excluding loss of anticipated profits) which such Lender may sustain: (k) if for any reason (other than a default by such Lender or the Administrative Agent) a Borrowing of, or conversion from or into, LIBO Rate Term Loans does not occur on a date specified therefor in a Notice of Borrowing or Notice of Conversion/Continuation (whether or not withdrawn by the Borrower or deemed withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.10); (l) if any prepayment or repayment (including any prepayment or repayment made pursuant to Section 4.01, Section 4.02 or as a result of an acceleration of the Term Loans pursuant to Article 10) or conversion of any of its LIBO Rate Term Loans occurs on a date which is not the last day of an Interest Period with respect thereto; (m) if any prepayment of any LIBO Rate Term Loans is not made on any date specified in a notice of prepayment given by the Borrower; or (n) as a consequence of (x) any other default by the Borrower to repay LIBO Rate Term Loans when required by the terms of this Agreement or any Note held by such Lender or (y) any election made pursuant to Section 2.11.

Section 2.13. Change of Lending Office and Replacement of Lenders . (h) If any Lender requests compensation under Section 2.10, or requires the Borrower to pay any Indemnified Taxes or additional amounts to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 4.04, then such Lender shall (at the request of the Borrower) use reasonable efforts to designate a different lending office for funding or booking its Term Loans hereunder or to assign its rights and obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or affiliates, if, in the judgment of such Lender, such designation or assignment (i) would eliminate or reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.10 or Section 4.04, as the case may be, in the future, and (ii) would not subject such Lender to any unreimbursed cost or expense and would not otherwise be disadvantageous to such Lender. The Borrower hereby agrees to pay all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by any Lender in connection with any such designation or assignment.

(a) If any Lender requests compensation under Section 2.10, or if the Borrower is required to pay any Indemnified Taxes or additional amounts to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 4.04 and, in each case, such Lender has declined or is unable to designate a different lending office in accordance with Section 2.13(a), the Borrower may replace such Lender in accordance with Section 12.20.

Section 2.14. [Reserved].

Section 2.15. Extended Term Loans. (i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, subject to the terms of this Section 2.15, the Borrower may at any time and from time to time when no Event of Default then exists request that all or a portion of the Initial Term Loans, the Extended Term Loans or any Tranche of Incremental Term Loans (each, an "Existing Initial Term Loan Tranche," "Existing Extended Term Loan Tranche" and "Existing Incremental Term Loan Tranche," respectively), together with any related outstandings, be converted to extend the scheduled maturity date(s) of any payment of principal with respect to all or any portion of the principal amount (and related outstandings) of such Initial Term Loans, Extended Term Loans or Incremental Term Loans (any such Term Loans which have been so converted, "Extended Initial Term Loans," "Extended Existing Term Loans" and "Extended Incremental Term Loans," respectively) and to provide for other terms consistent with this Section 2.15. In order to establish any Extended Term Loans, the Borrower shall provide a notice to the Administrative Agent (who shall provide a copy of such notice to each of the Lenders under the applicable Existing Term Loan Tranche) (each, an "Extension Request") setting forth the proposed terms of the Extended Term Loans to be established, which shall (x) be identical as offered to each Lender under the relevant Existing Term Loan Tranche (including as to the proposed interest rates and fees payable) and (y) be identical to the Term Loans under the relevant Existing Term Loan Tranche from which such Extended Term Loans are to be converted, except that: (a) all or any of the scheduled amortization payments of principal of the Extended Term Loans may be delayed to later dates than the scheduled amortization payments of principal of the Term Loans of such Existing Term Loan Tranche to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment; (b) the Effective Yield with respect to the Extended Term Loans (whether in the form of interest rate margin, upfront fees, original issue discount or otherwise) may be different than the Effective Yield for the Term Loans of such Existing Term Loan Tranche to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment; (c) the Extension Amendment may provide for other covenants and terms that apply solely to any period after the Latest Maturity Date that is in effect on the effective date of the applicable Extension Amendment (immediately prior to the establishment of such Extended Term Loans); (d) Extended Term Loans may have mandatory prepayment terms which provide for the application of proceeds from mandatory prepayment events to be made first to prepay the Term Loans under the Existing Term Loan Tranche from which such Extended Term Loans have been converted before applying any such proceeds to prepay such Extending Term Loans; and (e) Extended Term Loans may have optional prepayment terms (including call protection and terms which allow Term Loans under the relevant Existing Term Loan Tranche from which such Extended Term Loans have been converted to be optionally prepaid prior to the prepayment of such Extended Term Loans) as may be agreed by the Borrower and the Lenders thereof; provided that no Extended Term Loans may be optionally prepaid prior to the date on which all Term Loans with an earlier final stated maturity (including Term Loans under the Existing Term Loan Tranche from which such Term Loans were converted) are repaid in full, unless such optional prepayment is accompanied by a pro rata optional prepayment of such other Term Loans; provided, however, that (i) in no event shall the final maturity date of any Extended Term Loans of a given Extension Series at the time of establishment thereof be earlier than the then Latest Maturity Date of any other Term Loans hereunder and (ii) the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of any Extended Term Loans of a given Extension Series at the time of establishment thereof shall be no shorter than the remaining Weighted Average Life to Maturity of any other Tranche of Term Loans then outstanding. Any Extended Term Loans converted pursuant to any Extension Request shall be designated a series (each, an "Extension Series") of Extended Term Loans, as applicable, for all purposes of this Agreement; provided that any Extended Term Loans converted from an Existing Term Loan Tranche may, to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment, be designated as an increase in any previously established Extension Series with respect to such Existing Term Loan Tranche.

(a) The Borrower shall provide the applicable Extension Request at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the date on which Lenders under the Existing Term Loan Tranche are requested to respond, and shall agree to such procedures, if any, as may be established by, or acceptable to, the Administrative Agent, in each case acting reasonably to accomplish the purposes of this Section 2.15. No Lender shall have any obligation to agree to have any of its Term Loans of any Existing Term Loan Tranche converted into Extended Term Loans pursuant to any Extension Request. Any Lender (each, an "Extending Term Loan Lender") wishing to have all or a portion of its Term Loans under the Existing Term Loan Tranche subject to such Extension Request converted into Extended Term Loans shall notify the Administrative Agent (each, an " Extension Election") on or prior to the date specified in such Extension Request of the amount of its Term Loans under the Existing Term Loan Tranche which it has elected to request be converted into Extended Term Loans (subject to any minimum denomination requirements imposed by the Administrative Agent). Any Lender that does not respond to the Extension Request on or prior to the date specified therein shall be deemed to have rejected such Extension Request. In the event that the aggregate principal amount of Term Loans under the applicable Existing Term Loan Tranche exceeds the amount of Extended Term Loans requested pursuant to such Extension Request, Term Loans of such Existing Term Loan Tranche, subject to such Extension Elections shall either (f) be converted to Extended Term Loans of such Existing Term Loan Tranche on a pro rata basis based on the aggregate principal amount of Term Loans of such Existing Term Loan Tranche included in such Extension Elections or (g) to the extent such option is expressly set forth in the applicable Extension Request, be converted to Extended Term Loans upon an increase in the amount of Extended Term Loans so that such excess does not exist.

(b) Extended Term Loans shall be established pursuant to an amendment (each, an " Extension Amendment") to this Agreement among the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and each Extending Term Loan Lender providing an Extended Term Loan thereunder, which shall be consistent with the provisions set forth in Section 2.15(a) above (but which shall not require the consent of any other Lender). The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each relevant Lender as to the effectiveness of each Extension Amendment. After giving effect to the Extension, the Initial Term Loan Commitments so extended shall cease to be a part of the Tranche they were a part of immediately prior to the Extension.

(c) Extensions consummated by the Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.15 shall not constitute voluntary or mandatory payments or prepayments for purposes of this Agreement. The Administrative Agent and the Lenders hereby consent to each Extension and the other transactions contemplated by this Section 2.15 (including, for the avoidance of doubt, payment of any interest or fees in respect of any Extended Term Loans on such terms as may be set forth in the applicable Extension Request) and hereby waive the requirements of any provision of this Agreement (including, without limitation, 4.01, 4.02, 4.03, 12.02 or 12.06) or any other Credit Document that may otherwise prohibit any Extension or any other transaction contemplated by this Section 2.15, provided that such consent shall not be deemed to be an acceptance of any Extension Request.

(d) Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that this Agreement and the other Credit Documents may be amended pursuant to an Extension Amendment, without the consent of any other Lenders, to the extent (but only to the extent) necessary to (h) reflect the existence and terms of any Extended Term Loans incurred pursuant thereto, (i) modify the scheduled repayments set forth in Section 4.02(a) with respect to any Existing Term Loan Tranche subject to an Extension Election to reflect a reduction in the principal amount of the Term Loans thereunder in an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Extended Term Loans converted pursuant to the applicable Extension (with such amount to be applied ratably to reduce scheduled repayments of such Term Loans required pursuant to Section 4.02(a)), (j) make such other changes to this Agreement and the other Credit Documents consistent with the provisions and intent of Section 12.11(d)(i), (k) establish new Tranches or sub- Tranches in respect of Term Loans so extended and such technical amendments as may be necessary in connection with the establishment of such new Tranches or sub-Tranches, in each case on terms consistent with this Section 2.15, and (l) effect such other amendments to this Agreement and the other Credit Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, to effect the provisions of this Section 2.15, and each Lender hereby expressly authorizes the Administrative Agent to enter into any such Extension Amendment. In connection with any Extension, the applicable Credit Parties shall (at their expense) amend (and the Administrative Agent is hereby directed to amend) any Mortgage that has a maturity date prior to the Latest Maturity Date so that such maturity date is extended to the Latest Maturity Date (or such later date as may be advised by local counsel to the Administrative Agent), to the extent required pursuant to applicable local law.

Section 2.16. Incremental Term Loan Commitments. (j) So long as no Default or Event of Default is then in existence or would exist after giving effect thereto, the Borrower shall have the right, in consultation and coordination with the Administrative Agent as to all of the matters set forth below in this Section 2.16, but without requiring the consent of the Administrative Agent or any of the Lenders, to request at any time and from time to time that one or more Lenders (and/or one or more other Persons that are Eligible Transferees and which will become Lenders) provide Incremental Term Loan Commitments to the Borrower and, subject to the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement and in the relevant Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement, make Incremental Term Loans pursuant thereto; it being understood and agreed, however, that (a) no Lender shall be obligated to provide an Incremental Term Loan Commitment as a result of any such request by the Borrower, and until such time, if any, as such Lender has agreed in its sole discretion to provide an Incremental Term Loan Commitment and executed and delivered to the Administrative Agent an Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement as provided in clause (b) of this Section 2.16, such Lender shall not be obligated to fund any Incremental Term Loans, (b) any Lender (including any Eligible Transferee who will become a Lender) may so provide an Incremental Term Loan Commitment without the consent of any other Lender, (c) each Tranche of Incremental Term Loan Commitments shall be denominated in U.S. Dollars, (d) the amount of Incremental Term Loan Commitments made available pursuant to a given Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement shall be in a minimum aggregate amount for all Lenders that provide an Incremental Term Loan Commitment thereunder (including Eligible Transferees who will become Lenders) of at least $20,000,000, (e) the aggregate amount of all Incremental Term Loan Commitments provided pursuant to this Section 2.15 after the Closing Date, shall not exceed the amount that could be incurred at such time without causing the Consolidated First Lien Net Leverage Ratio, determined on a Pro Forma Basis as of the last day of the Test Period then most recently ended for which financial statements have been delivered (or, if no Test Period has ended as of such time, for the period of four consecutive fiscal quarters of the Borrower then most recently ended for which financial statements have been delivered), to exceed 4.25:1.00 plus, from and after the date on which the Leverage Step-Down Trigger occurs (which shall only be required to occur once), $100,000,000, (f) the proceeds of all Incremental Term Loans incurred by the Borrower shall be used for working capital and other general corporate purposes (including, without limitation, to finance one or more Permitted Acquisitions and to pay fees and expenses in connection therewith), (g) each Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement shall specifically designate, with the approval of the Administrative Agent, the Tranche of the Incremental Term Loan Commitments being provided thereunder (which Tranche shall be a new Tranche i.e., not the same as any existing Tranche of Incremental Term Loans, Incremental Term Loan Commitments or other Term Loans), unless the requirements of Section 2.16(c) are satisfied), (h) Incremental Term Loans shall be on terms and pursuant to documentation to be determined, provided that except to the extent such terms and documentation are not consistent with the Initial Term Loans (except with respect to distinctions otherwise addressed by this paragraph), all documentation with respect to such Incremental Term Loans shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent; provided, however, that (i) the maturity and amortization of such Tranche of Incremental Term Loans may differ, so long as such Tranche of Incremental Term Loans shall have (i) an Initial Incremental Term Loan Maturity Date of no earlier than the Latest Maturity Date and (ii) a Weighted Average Life to Maturity of no less than the Weighted Average Life to Maturity as then in effect for the Tranche of then outstanding Term Loans with the then longest Weighted Average Life to Maturity, (ii) the Effective Yield applicable to such Tranche of Incremental Term Loans may differ from that applicable to the then outstanding Tranches of Term Loans, with the Effective Yield applicable thereto to be specified in the respective Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement; provided, however, that if the Effective Yield for such Incremental Term Loans as of the date of incurrence of such Tranche of Incremental Term Loans exceeds the Effective Yield then applicable to any then outstanding Initial Term Loans by more than 0.50% per annum, the Applicable Margins for all then outstanding Initial Term Loans shall be increased as of such date in accordance with the requirements of the definition of "Applicable Margin" so that the Effective Yield applicable to such tranche is no greater than 0.50% per annum higher than the Effective Yield applicable to the Initial Term Loans; provided that if the LIBO Rate Floor or Base Rate floor for such Incremental Term Loan is greater than the LIBO Rate Floor or Base Rate floor, respectively, for the then outstanding Initial Term Loans, any resulting increase in the Effective Yield on account of such increased LIBO Rate Floor or Base Rate floor shall be implemented by increasing the LIBO Rate Floor or Base Rate floor applicable to such Initial Term Loans, and (iii) such Tranche of Incremental Term Loans may have other terms (other than those described in preceding clauses (A) and (B)) that may differ from those of other Tranches of Term Loans, including, without limitation, as to the application of optional or voluntary prepayments among the Incremental Term Loans and the existing Term Loans (but mandatory prepayments shall not be required on a greater than pro rata basis with the Initial Term Loans) and such other differences as may be agreed to by the Administrative Agent, (ii) all Incremental Term Loans (and all interest, fees and other amounts payable thereon) incurred by the Borrower shall be Obligations of the Borrower under this Agreement and the other applicable Credit Documents and shall be secured by the Security Agreements, and guaranteed under each relevant Subsidiaries Guaranty, on a pari passu basis with all other Term Loans secured by the Security Agreements and guaranteed under each such Subsidiaries Guaranty, (iii) each Lender (including any Eligible Transferee who will become a Lender) agreeing to provide an Incremental Term Loan Commitment pursuant to an Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement shall, subject to the satisfaction of the relevant conditions set forth in this Agreement, make Incremental Term Loans under the Tranche specified in such Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement as provided in Section 2.01(a) and such Term Loans shall thereafter be deemed to be Incremental Term Loans under such Tranche for all purposes of this Agreement and the other applicable Credit Documents and (xi) the Incremental Term Loan Conditions shall be satisfied.

(a) At the time of the provision of Incremental Term Loan Commitments pursuant to this Section 2.16, the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and each such Lender or other Eligible Transferee which agrees to provide an Incremental Term Loan Commitment (each, an "Incremental Term Loan Lender") shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit L (appropriately completed), with the effectiveness of the Incremental Term Loan Commitment provided therein to occur on the date on which (w) a fully executed copy of such Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement shall have been delivered to the Administrative Agent, (x) all fees required to be paid in connection therewith at the time of such effectiveness shall have been paid (including, without limitation, any agreed upon upfront or arrangement fees owing to the Administrative Agent), (y) all Incremental Term Loan Conditions are satisfied, and (z) all other conditions set forth in this Section 2.16 shall have been satisfied. The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Lender as to the effectiveness of each Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement, and at such time, (i) Schedule 1.01(b) shall be deemed modified to reflect the revised Incremental Term Loan Commitments of the affected Lenders and (j) to the extent requested by any Incremental Term Loan Lender, Incremental Term Notes will be issued at the Borrower's expense to such Incremental Term Loan Lender, to be in conformity with the requirements of Section 2.05 (with appropriate modification) to the extent needed to reflect the new Incremental Term Loans made by such Incremental Term Loan Lender.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above in this Section 2.16, the Incremental Term Loan Commitments provided by an Incremental Term Loan Lender or Incremental Term Loan Lenders, as the case may be, pursuant to each Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement shall constitute a new Tranche, which shall be separate and distinct from the existing Tranches pursuant to this Agreement (with a designation which may be made in letters (i.e., A, B, C, etc.), numbers (1, 2, 3, etc.) or a combination thereof (i.e., A-1, A-2, B-1, B-2, C-1, C-2, etc.), provided that, with the consent of the Administrative Agent, the parties to a given Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement may specify therein that the Incremental Term Loans made pursuant thereto shall constitute part of, and be added to, an existing Tranche of Term Loans, in any case so long as the following requirements are satisfied:

(i) the Incremental Term Loans to be made pursuant to such Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement shall have the same Borrower, the same Maturity Date and the same Applicable Margins as the Tranche of Term Loans to which the new Incremental Term Loans are being added;

(ii) the new Incremental Term Loans shall have the same Scheduled Repayment dates as then remain with respect to the Tranche to which such new Incremental Term Loans are being added (with the amount of each Scheduled Repayment applicable to such new Incremental Term Loans to be the same (on a proportionate basis) as is theretofore applicable to the Tranche to which such new Incremental Term Loans are being added, thereby increasing the amount of each then remaining Scheduled Repayment of the respective Tranche proportionately; and

(iii) on the date of the making of such new Incremental Term Loans, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in Section 2.09, such new Incremental Term Loans shall be added to (and form part of) each Borrowing of outstanding Term Loans of the applicable Tranche on a pro rata basis (based on the relative sizes of the various outstanding Borrowings), so that each Lender holding Term Loans under the respective Tranche of Term Loans participates in each outstanding Borrowing of Term Loans of the respective Tranche (after giving effect to the incurrence of such new Incremental Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.01(a)) on a pro rata basis.

To the extent the provisions of preceding clause (iii) require that Lenders making new Incremental Term Loans add such Incremental Term Loans to the then outstanding Borrowings of LIBO Rate Term Loans of such Tranche, it is acknowledged that the effect thereof may result in such new Incremental Term Loans having short Interest Periods i.e., an Interest Period that began during an Interest Period then applicable to outstanding LIBO Rate Term Loans of such Tranche and which will end on the last day of such Interest Period). In connection therewith, it is hereby agreed that, to the extent the Incremental Term Loans are to be so added to the then outstanding Borrowings of Term Loans of such Tranche which are maintained as LIBO Rate Term Loans, the Lenders that have made such Incremental Term Loans shall be entitled to receive from the Borrower such amounts, as reasonably determined by the respective Lenders, to compensate them for funding the new Incremental Term Loans of the respective Tranche during an existing Interest Period (rather than at the beginning of the respective Interest Period based upon rates then applicable thereto). All determinations by any Lender pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence shall, absent manifest error, be final and conclusive and binding on all parties hereto.

Section 2.17. Refinancing Facilities. (k) The Borrower may by written notice to the Administrative Agent elect to request the establishment of one or more additional Tranches of Term Loans under this Agreement ("Refinancing Term Loans") or (x) one or more series of debt securities which are unsecured or secured on a pari passu or junior basis to the Term Loans or (y) loans which are unsecured or secured on a junior basis to the Term Loans ((x) and (y), collectively, "Refinancing Notes"), which refinance, renew, replace, defease or refund one or more Tranches of Term Loans (including any Incremental Term Loans or Extended Term Loans) under this Agreement; provided, that such Refinancing

Term Loans and/or Refinancing Notes may not be in an amount greater than the aggregate principal amount of the Term Loans being refinanced, renewed, replaced, defeased or refunded plus unpaid accrued interest and premium (if any) thereon and upfront fees, underwriting discounts, fees, commissions and expenses incurred in connection with the Refinancing Term Loans and/or Refinancing Notes; provided that such aggregate principal amount may also be increased to the extent such additional amount is capable of being incurred at such time pursuant to Section 9.04 (and Section 9.01 to the extent secured) and such excess incurrence shall for all purposes hereof be an incurrence under the relevant subclauses of Section 9.04 (and Section 9.01 to the extent secured). Each such notice shall specify the date (each, a "Refinancing Effective Date") on which the Borrower proposes that the Refinancing Term Loans shall be made or the Refinancing Notes shall be issued, which shall be a date not less than three (3) Business Days after the date on which such notice is delivered to the Administrative Agent; provided that:

(iv) the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of such Refinancing Term Loans and/or Refinancing Notes shall not be shorter than the remaining Weighted Average Life to Maturity of the Term Loans being refinanced and the Refinancing Term Loans and/or Refinancing Notes shall not have a final maturity before the Maturity Date applicable to the Term Loans being refinanced;

(v) such Refinancing Notes shall not have any scheduled amortization;

(vi) such Refinancing Term Loans and/or Refinancing Notes shall have pricing (including interest rates, fees and premiums), (without limitation of clause (i)) amortization (in the case of Refinancing Term Loans), optional prepayment, mandatory prepayment and redemption terms as may be agreed to by the Borrower and the relevant Refinancing Term Loan Lenders (as defined below) and/or Refinancing Note Holders (as defined below); provided, however that such Refinancing Term Loans or Refinancing Notes shall not contain any mandatory prepayment provisions (other than related to customary asset sale and change of control offers or events of default) that could result in prepayment of such Refinancing Term Loans or Refinancing Notes prior to the applicable Maturity Date and any Refinancing Term Loans or Refinancing Notes shall share in prepayments with the existing Term Loans on a no greater than pro rata basis;

(vii) such Refinancing Term Loans and/or Refinancing Notes shall not be issued, borrowed or guaranteed by any Person other than the Borrower or a Subsidiary Guarantor;

(viii) in the case of any such Refinancing Term Loans and/or Refinancing Notes that are secured (i) such Refinancing Term Loans and/or Refinancing Notes are secured by only assets comprising Collateral (as defined in the Security Documents), and not secured by any property or assets of the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries other than the Collateral (as defined in the Security Documents) and (B) the Junior Representative in respect of such Refinancing Notes has entered into an Additional Intercreditor Agreement (and, in the case of debt securities that are secured on a pari passu basis, the applicable Senior Representative has entered into a joinder to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement);

(ix) all other terms applicable to such Refinancing Term Loans and/or Refinancing Notes (excluding pricing (including interest rates margins, rate floors, discounts, fees and premiums), (without limitation of clause (i)) amortization (in the case of Refinancing Term Loans), optional prepayment or optional redemptions terms) shall (ii) be substantially identical to, or (iii) (taken as a whole) be otherwise not materially more favorable to the Refinancing Term Loan Lenders and/or Refinancing Note Holders than those applicable to the then outstanding Term Loans, except to the extent such covenants and other terms apply solely to any period after the Maturity Date of the Term Loans being refinanced (provided that a certificate of a Responsible Officer of the Borrower delivered to the Administrative Agent in good faith at least five Business Days prior to the incurrence of such Indebtedness, together with a reasonably detailed description of the material terms and conditions of such Indebtedness or drafts of the documentation relating thereto, stating that the Borrower has determined in good faith that such terms and conditions satisfy the requirement set out in the foregoing clause (v), shall be conclusive evidence that such terms and conditions satisfy such requirement unless the Administrative Agent provides notice to the Borrower of an objection during such five Business Day period (including a reasonable description of the basis upon which it objects)); and

(x) The proceeds of such Refinancing Term Loans or Refinancing Notes shall be substantially simultaneously applied to permanently prepay in whole or in part the applicable Refinanced Debt.

(b) The Borrower may approach any Lender or any other Person that would be an Eligible Transferee of Term Loans to provide all or a portion of the Refinancing Term Loans (a "Refinancing Term Loan Lender") or Refinancing Notes (a "Refinancing Note Holder"); provided that any Lender offered or approached to provide all or a portion of the Refinancing Term Loans and/or Refinancing Notes may elect or decline, in its sole discretion, to provide a Refinancing Term Loan or purchase Refinancing Notes. Any Refinancing Term Loans made on any Refinancing Effective Date shall be designated a series (a "Refinancing Term Loan Series") of Refinancing Term Loans for all purposes of this Agreement; provided that any Refinancing Term Loans may, to the extent provided in the applicable Refinancing Term Loan Amendment, be designated as an increase in any previously established Refinancing Term Loan Series of Refinancing Term Loans made to the Borrower.

(c) The Administrative Agent and the Lenders hereby consent to the transactions contemplated by Section 2.17(a) (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the payment of interest, fees, amortization or premium in respect of the Refinancing Term Loans and Refinancing Notes on the terms specified by the Borrower) and hereby waive the requirements of this Agreement or any other Credit Document that may otherwise prohibit any transaction contemplated by Section 2.17(a). The Refinancing Term Loans shall be established pursuant to an amendment to this Agreement among the Borrower and the Refinancing Term Loan Lenders providing such Refinancing Term Loans (a " Refinancing Term Loan Amendment ") which shall be consistent with the provisions set forth in Section 2.17(a). The Refinancing Notes shall be established pursuant to a Refinancing Notes Indenture which shall be consistent with the provisions set forth in Section 2.17(a). Each Refinancing Term Loan Amendment shall be binding on the Lenders, the Administrative Agent, the Credit Parties party thereto and the other parties hereto without the consent of any other Lender and the Lenders hereby irrevocably authorize the Administrative Agent to enter into amendments to this Agreement and the other Credit Documents as may be necessary or appropriate in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, to effect the provisions of Section 2.17, including in order to establish new Tranches or sub-Tranches in respect of the Refinancing Term Loans and such technical amendments as may be necessary or appropriate in connection therewith and to adjust the amortization schedule in Section 4.02(a) (insofar as such schedule relates to payments due to Lenders the Term Loans of which are refinanced with the proceeds of Refinancing Term Loans; provided that no such amendment shall reduce the pro rata share of any such payment that would have otherwise been payable to the Lenders, the Term Loans of which are not refinanced with the proceeds of Refinancing Term Loans). The Administrative Agent shall be permitted, and each is hereby authorized, to enter into such amendments with the Borrower to effect the foregoing.

Section 2.18. Reverse Dutch Auction Repurchases. (l) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or any other Credit Document, the Borrower may, at any time and from time to time, conduct reverse Dutch auctions in order to purchase Term Loans of a particular Tranche (each, an "Auction") (each such Auction to be managed exclusively by MLPFS or another investment bank of recognized standing selected by the Borrower following consultation with the Administrative Agent (in such capacity, the "Auction Manager")), so long as the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) each Auction shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures, terms and conditions set forth in this Section 2.18(a) and Schedule 2.18(a)(i);

(ii) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of the delivery of each auction notice and at the time of purchase of Term Loans in connection with any Auction;

(iii) the minimum principal amount (calculated on the face amount thereof) of all Term Loans that the Borrower offers to purchase in any such Auction shall be no less than $5,000,000 (unless another amount is agreed to by the Administrative Agent);

(iv) the Borrower shall not use the proceeds of any borrowing under the ABL Credit Agreement to finance any such repurchase;

(v) the aggregate principal amount (calculated on the face amount thereof) of all Term Loans so purchased by the Borrower shall automatically be cancelled and retired by the Borrower on the settlement date of the relevant purchase

(and may not be resold);

(vi) no more than one Auction may be ongoing at any one time;

(vii) the Borrower shall make the Undisclosed Information Representation; provided this shall not require that the Borrower not be in possession of material non-public information with respect to the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries; and (viii) at the time of each purchase of Term Loans through an Auction, the Borrower shall have delivered to the Auction Manager an officer's certificate of a Responsible Officer certifying as to compliance with preceding clauses (ii), (iv) and (vii).

(b) The Borrower must terminate an Auction if it fails to satisfy one or more of the conditions set forth above which are required to be met at the time which otherwise would have been the time of purchase of Term Loans pursuant to such Auction. If the Borrower commences any Auction (and all relevant requirements set forth above which are required to be satisfied at the time of the commencement of such Auction have in fact been satisfied), and if at such time of commencement the Borrower believes in good faith that all required conditions set forth above which are required to be satisfied at the time of the purchase of Term Loans pursuant to such Auction shall be satisfied, then the Borrower shall have no liability to any Lender for any termination of such Auction as a result of its failure to satisfy one or more of the conditions set forth above which are required to be met at the time which otherwise would have been the time of purchase of Term Loans pursuant to the such Auction, and any such failure shall not result in any Default or Event of Default hereunder. With respect to all purchases of Term Loans made by the Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.18, (x) the Borrower shall pay on the settlement date of each such purchase all accrued and unpaid interest (except to the extent otherwise set forth in the relevant offering documents), if any, on the purchased Term Loans up to the settlement date of such purchase and (y) such purchases (and the payments made by the Borrower and the cancellation of the purchased Term Loans, in each case in connection therewith) shall not constitute voluntary or mandatory payments or prepayments for purposes of Sections 4.01, 4.02 or Section 12.06. At the time of purchases of Term Loans pursuant to an Auction, the then remaining Scheduled Repayments shall be reduced by the aggregate principal amount (taking the face amount thereof) of Term Loans repurchased pursuant to such Auction, with such reduction to be applied to such Scheduled Repayments on a pro rata basis (based on the then remaining principal amount of each such Scheduled Repayments).

(c) The Administrative Agent and the Lenders hereby consent to the Auctions and the other transactions contemplated by this Section 2.18 (provided that no Lender shall have an obligation to participate in any such Auctions) and hereby waive the requirements of any provision of this Agreement (including, without limitation, Sections 4.01, 4.02 and Section 12.06 (it being understood and acknowledged that purchases of the Term Loans by the Borrower contemplated by this Section 2.18 shall not constitute Investments by the Borrower)) or any other Credit Document that may otherwise prohibit any Auction or any other transaction contemplated by this Section 2.18. The Auction Manager acting in its capacity as such hereunder shall be entitled to the benefits of the provisions of Article 11 and Section 12.01 mutatis mutandis as if each reference therein to the "Administrative Agent" were a reference to the Auction Manager, and the Administrative Agent shall cooperate with the Auction Manager as reasonably requested by the Auction Manager in order to enable it to perform its responsibilities and duties in connection with each Auction.

Section 2.19. Open Market Purchases. (m) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or any other Credit Document, the Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries or any of its or their Affiliates may, at any time and from time to time, make open market purchases of Term Loans (each, an "Open Market Purchase"), so long as the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such Open Market Purchase or result therefrom;

(ii) the aggregate principal amount (calculated on the face amount thereof) of all Term Loans purchased pursuant to this Section 2.19 shall not exceed 15% of the then outstanding Term Loan Commitments;

(iii) the Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries shall not use the proceeds of any borrowing under the ABL Credit Agreement to finance any such repurchase;

(iv) the aggregate principal amount (calculated on the face amount thereof) of all Term Loans so purchased by the Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries shall automatically be cancelled and retired by the Borrower on the settlement date of the relevant purchase (and may not be resold);

(v) the Borrower shall make the Undisclosed Information Representation; provided this shall not require that the Borrower not be in possession of material non-public information with respect to the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries; and

(vi) at the time of each purchase of Term Loans through Open Market Purchases, the Borrower shall have delivered to the Administrative Agent an officer's certificate of a Responsible Officer certifying as to compliance with preceding clauses (i), (iv) and (v).

(b) With respect to all purchases of Term Loans made by the Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.19, (x) the Borrower shall pay on the settlement date of each such purchase all accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on the purchased Term Loans up to the settlement date of such purchase (except to the extent otherwise set forth in the relevant purchase documents as agreed by the respective selling Lender) and (y) such purchases (and the payments made by the Borrower and the cancellation of the purchased Term Loans, in each case in connection therewith) shall not constitute voluntary or mandatory payments or prepayments for purposes of Sections 4.01, 4.02 or 12.06. At the time of purchases of Term Loans pursuant to any Open Market Purchase, the then remaining Scheduled Repayments shall be reduced by the aggregate principal amount (taking the face amount thereof) of Term Loans repurchased pursuant to such Open Market Purchase, with such reduction to be applied to such Scheduled Repayments on a pro rata basis (based on the then remaining principal amount of each such Scheduled Repayments).

(c) The Administrative Agent and the Lenders hereby consent to the Open Market Purchases contemplated by this Section 2.19 and hereby waive the requirements of any provision of this Agreement (including, without limitation, Sections 4.01, 4.02 and 12.06 (it being understood and acknowledged that purchases of the Term Loans by the Borrower contemplated by this Section 2.19 shall not constitute Investments by the Borrower)) or any other Credit Document that may otherwise prohibit any Open Market Purchase by this Section 2.19.

Section 2.20. Canadian Interest Considerations. The parties hereto intend to comply with applicable law relating to usury. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or any other Credit Document, in no event shall any Credit Document require the payment or permit the collection of interest or other amounts in an amount or at a rate in excess of the amount or rate that is permitted by applicable law or in an amount or at a rate that would result in the receipt by the Lender or the Agents of interest at a criminal rate, as the terms "interest" and "criminal rate" are defined under the Criminal Code (Canada). Where more than one applicable law applies to the Credit Parties, the Credit Parties shall not be obliged to make payment in an amount or at a rate higher than the lowest permitted amount or rate. If from any circumstance whatever, fulfilment of any provision of any Credit Document would result in exceeding the highest rate or amount permitted by applicable law for the collection or charging of interest, the obligation to be fulfilled shall be reduced to reflect the highest permitted rate or amount. If from any circumstance the Agents or the Lenders shall ever receive anything of value as interest or deemed interest under any Credit Document that would result in exceeding the highest lawful rate or amount of interest permitted by applicable law, the amount that would be excessive interest shall be applied to the reduction of the principal amount of the relevant Term Loan, and not to the payment of interest, or if the excessive interest exceeds the unpaid principal balance of the relevant Term Loan, the amount exceeding the unpaid balance shall be refunded to the Credit Parties. In determining whether or not the interest paid or payable under any specified contingency exceeds the highest lawful rate, the Credit Parties, the Agents and the Lenders shall, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, (i) characterize any non-principal payment as an expense, fee or premium rather than as interest, (ii) exclude voluntary prepayments and their effects, (iii) amortize, prorate, allocate and spread the total amount of interest throughout the term of the applicable Term Loan so that interest does not exceed the maximum amount permitted by applicable law, and/or (iv) allocate interest between portions of the Obligations to the end that no portion shall bear interest at a rate greater than that permitted by applicable law. For the purposes of the Criminal Code (Canada), if there is any dispute as to the calculation of the effective annual rate of interest, the determination of a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries appointed by the Agents shall be

FEES; REDUCTIONS OF COMMITMENT

Section 3.01. Fees. (n) The Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent for distribution to each Incremental Lender such fees and other amounts, if any, as are specified in the relevant Incremental Commitment Agreement, with the fees and other amounts, if any, to be payable on the relevant Incremental Term Loan Borrowing Date.

(a) The Borrower agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent such fees as may be agreed to in writing from time to time by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries and the Administrative Agent.

(b) At the time of the effectiveness of any Repricing Transaction that is consummated prior to the sixth month anniversary of the Closing Date, the Borrower agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the ratable account of each Lender with outstanding Initial Term Loans that are repaid or prepaid (and/or converted) pursuant to such Repricing Transaction (including each Lender that withholds its consent to such Repricing Transaction and is replaced as a Non-Consenting Lender under Section 12.20), a fee in an amount equal to 1.00% of (x) in the case of a Repricing Transaction of the type described in clause (1) of the definition thereof, the aggregate principal amount of all Initial Term Loans prepaid (or converted) by Borrower in connection with such Repricing Transaction and (y) in the case of a Repricing Transaction of the type described in clause (2) of the definition thereof, the aggregate principal amount of all Initial Term Loans outstanding with respect to the Borrower on such date that are subject to an effective reduction of the Applicable Margin pursuant to such Repricing Transaction. Such fees shall be due and payable upon the date of the effectiveness of such Repricing Transaction.

Section 3.02. Mandatory Reduction of Commitments. (o) In addition to any other mandatory commitment reductions pursuant to this Section 3.02, the Total Initial Term Loan Commitment shall terminate in its entirety on the Closing Date (after giving effect to the incurrence of Initial Term Loans on such date).

(a) In addition to any other mandatory commitment reductions pursuant to this Section 3.02, the Total Incremental Term Loan Commitment pursuant to an Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement (and the Incremental Term Loan Commitment of each Lender with such a Commitment) shall terminate in its entirety on the Incremental Term Loan Borrowing Date for such Total Incremental Term Loan Commitment (after giving effect to the incurrence of the relevant Incremental Term Loans on such date).

(b) Each reduction to the Total Initial Term Loan Commitment and the Total Incremental Term Loan Commitment under a given Tranche pursuant to this Section 3.02 as provided above (or pursuant to Section 4.02) shall be applied proportionately to reduce the Initial Term Loan Commitment or the Incremental Term Loan Commitment under such Tranche, as the case may be, of each Lender with such a Commitment.

PREPAYMENTS; PAYMENTS; TAXES

Section 4.01. Voluntary Prepayments. (p) The Borrower shall have the right to prepay the Term Loans, without premium or penalty (other than as provided in Section 3.01(c)), in whole or in part at any time and from time to time on the following terms and conditions: (a) the Borrower shall give the Administrative Agent at its Notice Office written notice (or telephonic notice promptly confirmed in writing) of its intent to prepay the Term Loans, whether such Term Loans are Initial Term Loans or Incremental Term Loans of a given Tranche, the amount of the Term Loans to be prepaid, the Types of Term Loans to be repaid, the manner in which such prepayment shall apply to reduce the Scheduled Repayments and, in the case of LIBO Rate Term Loans, the specific Borrowing or Borrowings pursuant to which made, which notice shall be given by the Borrower (x) prior to 11:00 a.m.(New York City time) at least one Business Day prior to the date of such prepayment in the case of Term Loans maintained as Base Rate Term Loans and (y) prior to 11:00 a.m.(New York City time) at least three Business Days prior to the date of such prepayment in the case of LIBO Rate Term Loans (or, in the case of clause (x) and (y), such shorter period as the Administrative Agent shall agree in its sole and absolute discretion), and be promptly transmitted by the Administrative Agent to each of the Lenders; (b) each partial prepayment of Term Loans pursuant to this Section 4.01(a) shall be in an aggregate principal amount of at least $1,000,000 or such lesser amount as is acceptable to the Administrative Agent, provided that if any partial prepayment of LIBO Rate Term Loans made pursuant to any Borrowing shall reduce the outstanding principal amount of LIBO Rate Term Loans made pursuant to such Borrowing to an amount less than the Minimum Borrowing Amount applicable thereto, then if such Borrowing is a Borrowing of LIBO Rate Term Loans, such Borrowing shall automatically be converted into a Borrowing of Base Rate Term Loans and any election of an Interest Period with respect thereto given by the Borrower shall have no force or effect; (c) each prepayment pursuant to this Section 4.01(a) in respect of any Term Loans made pursuant to a Borrowing shall be applied pro rata among such Term Loans, provided that it is understood and agreed that this clause (iii) may be modified as expressly provided in Section 2.15 in connection with an Extension Amendment; (d) each prepayment of principal of Initial Term Loans and Incremental Term Loans of a given Tranche pursuant to this Section 4.01(a) shall be applied as directed by the Borrower in the applicable notice of prepayment delivered pursuant to Section 4.01(a) or, if no such direction is given (i) first, to reduce the Scheduled Repayments of the applicable Tranche which will become due within twelve months after the date of such repayment in direct order of maturity of the dates of such Scheduled Repayments, and (ii) second, to the extent in excess of the amount applied as provided in the preceding clause (1), to reduce the then remaining Scheduled Repayments of the applicable Tranche of Term Loans on a pro rata basis (based upon the then remaining unpaid principal amounts of the Scheduled Repayments of such Tranche of Term Loans after giving effect to all prior reductions thereto). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, any such notice of prepayment pursuant to Section 4.01(a), if such prepayment would have resulted in a refinancing of all of the Term Loans and Commitments, may state that it is conditioned upon the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event specified therein (including the effectiveness of other credit facilities), in which case such notice may be revoked by the Borrower (by written notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied.

(c) In the event (e) of a refusal by a Lender to consent to certain proposed changes, amendments, waivers, discharges or terminations with respect to this Agreement which have been approved by the Required Lenders as (and to the extent) provided in Section 12.11(b), or (f) any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, the Borrower may, upon five (5) Business Days' prior written notice to the Administrative Agent at the Notice Office (which notice the Administrative Agent shall promptly transmit to each of the Lenders) repay all Term Loans, together with accrued and unpaid interest, Fees and other amounts owing to such Lender in accordance with, and subject to the requirements of, said Section 12.11(b), so long as the consents, if any, required under Section 12.11(b) in connection with the repayment pursuant to clause (b) have been obtained. Each prepayment of any Term Loan pursuant to this Section 4.01(b) shall reduce the then remaining Scheduled Repayments of the applicable Tranche of Term Loans on a pro rata basis (based upon the then remaining unpaid principal amounts of Scheduled Repayments of the respective Tranche after giving effect to all prior reductions thereto).

Section 4.02. Mandatory Repayments. (q) In addition to any other mandatory repayments pursuant to this Section 4.02, on each date set forth below (each, a "Scheduled Initial TL Repayment Date"), the Borrower shall be required to repay that principal amount of Initial Term Loans, to the extent then outstanding, as is set forth opposite each such date below (each such repayment, as the same may be reduced as provided in this Agreement, including in Section 2.18, 2.19, 4.01 or 4.02(h), or as a result of the application of prepayments in connection with any Extension as provided in Section 2.15, a "Scheduled Initial TL Repayment"):

(a) In addition to any other mandatory repayments pursuant to this Section 4.02, the Borrower shall be required to make, with respect to each new Tranche (i.e., other than Initial Term Loans, which are addressed in the preceding clause (a)) of Incremental Term Loans to the extent then outstanding, scheduled amortization payments of such Tranche of Incremental Term Loans on the dates and in the principal amounts set forth in the Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement applicable thereto (each such repayment, as the same may be reduced as provided in this Agreement, including in Sections 2.18, 2.19, 4.01 and 4.02(h), a "Scheduled Incremental TL Repayment").

(b) In addition to any other mandatory repayments pursuant to this Section 4.02, within five (5) Business Days following each date on or after the Closing Date upon which the Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries receives any cash proceeds from any issuance or incurrence of Indebtedness (other than Indebtedness permitted to be incurred pursuant to Section 9.04 (other than Section 9.04(xxvi)), an amount equal to 100% of the Net Debt Proceeds therefrom shall be applied as a mandatory repayment in accordance with the requirements of Sections 4.02(h) and (i).

(c) In addition to any other mandatory repayments pursuant to this Section 4.02, unless the Leverage Step-Down Trigger has occurred (following which occurrence this Section 4.02(d) shall cease to apply), within five (5) Business Days following each date on or after the Closing Date upon which the Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries receives any cash proceeds from any issuances of Equity Interests by the Borrower, 100% of the Net Equity Proceeds therefrom, or such lesser amount as shall be necessary to cause the Leverage Step-Down Trigger to occur, shall be applied as a mandatory repayment in accordance with the requirements of Sections 4.02(h) and (i).

(d) In addition to any other mandatory repayments pursuant to this Section 4.02, within five Business Days following each date on or after the Closing Date upon which the Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries receives any cash proceeds from any Asset Sale of Term Priority Collateral, an amount equal to 100% of the Net Sale Proceeds therefrom shall be applied as a mandatory repayment in accordance with the requirements of Sections 4.02(h) and (i); provided, however, with respect to no more than $7,500,000 in the aggregate of such Net Sale Proceeds received by the Borrower and its Restricted Subsidiaries in any fiscal year of the Borrower, such Net Sale Proceeds shall not be required to be so applied or used to make mandatory repayments of Term Loans if no Event of Default then exists. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower may deliver within 45 days of the date of receipt of such Net Sale Proceeds a certificate to the Administrative Agent setting forth that portion of such Net Sale Proceeds that the Borrower and/or its Restricted Subsidiaries, as the case may be, intends to reinvest in the purchase of assets useful in the business of the Borrower and its Restricted Subsidiaries, in each case to be used in the business of the Borrower and its Restricted Subsidiaries within 12 months following the date of receipt of such proceeds (or, if within such 12-month period, the Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries enters into a binding commitment to so reinvest such Net Sale Proceeds, within 18 months following the date of receipt of such proceeds); provided, further, that if within 12 months (or, to the extent applicable, 18 months) after the date of receipt by the Borrower or its Restricted Subsidiaries of such Net Sale Proceeds, the Borrower or its Restricted Subsidiaries have not so used all or a portion of such Net Sale Proceeds otherwise required to be applied as a mandatory repayment pursuant to this sentence, the remaining portion of such Net Sale Proceeds shall be applied as a mandatory repayment in accordance with the requirements of Sections 4.02(h) and (i) on the last day of such 12-month (or, to the extent applicable, 18-month) period.

(e) In addition to any other mandatory repayments pursuant to this Section 4.02, on each Excess Cash Flow Payment Date, an amount equal to the remainder of (a) the Applicable Prepayment Percentage of the Excess Cash Flow for the related Excess Cash Flow Payment Period less (b) the aggregate amount of (i) all voluntary prepayments of Term Loans made pursuant to Section 4.01(a) and prepayments of revolving loans under the ABL Credit Agreement or any other revolving credit facility secured by a Lien on the Collateral ranking senior or pari passu with the Lien on the Collateral securing the Indebtedness hereunder or under the ABL Credit Agreement, in each case, to the extent accompanied by permanent reductions in commitments therefor, during such Excess Cash Flow Payment Period with Internally Generated Cash and (ii) all dollars spent on the repurchase of Term Loans (including through Auctions and Open Market Purchases), during such Excess Cash Flow Payment Period, shall be applied as a mandatory repayment in accordance with the requirements of Sections 4.02(h) and (i).

(f) In addition to any other mandatory repayments pursuant to this Section 4.02, within 10 days following each date on or after the Closing Date upon which the Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries receives any cash proceeds from any Recovery Event, an amount equal to 100% of the Net Recovery Event Proceeds from such Recovery Event shall be applied as a mandatory repayment in accordance with the requirements of Section 4.02(h) and (i); provided, however, with respect to no more than $7,500,000 in the aggregate of such Net Recovery Event Proceeds received by the Borrower and its Restricted Subsidiaries in any fiscal year of the Borrower, such Net Recovery Event Proceeds shall not give rise to a mandatory repayment within such ten-day period to the extent that no Event of Default then exists. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower may deliver within 45 days of the date of receipt of such Net Recovery Event Proceeds a certificate to the Administrative Agent setting forth that portion of such Net Recovery Event Proceeds that the Borrower and/or its Restricted Subsidiaries, as the case may be, intends to (c) in the case of a Recovery Event in respect of ABL Priority Collateral, (x) prepay Indebtedness under the ABL Credit Agreement or any other Indebtedness secured by Liens ranking senior to the Liens securing the Indebtedness hereunder on such ABL Priority Collateral and in the case of revolving borrowings, to the extent accompanied by permanent reductions in commitments with respect thereto or (y) apply such cash proceeds in accordance with clause (ii) below or (d) in the case of a Recovery Event with respect to Term Priority Collateral, reinvest in the purchase of assets useful in the business of the Borrower and its Restricted Subsidiaries, in each case to be used in the business of the Borrower and its Restricted Subsidiaries within 12 months following the date of receipt of such proceeds (or, if within such 12-month period, the Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries enters into a binding commitment to so reinvest in such Net Sale Proceeds, within 18 months following the date of receipt of such proceeds) (and, in connection therewith, shall thereafter promptly provide such other information with respect to such reinvestment as the Administrative Agent may from time to time reasonably request); provided, further, that if within 12 months (or, to the extent applicable, 18 months) after the date of receipt by the Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of such Net Recovery Event Proceeds, the Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries have not so used all or a portion of such Net Recovery Event Proceeds otherwise required to be applied as a mandatory repayment pursuant to this sentence, the remaining portion of such Net Recovery Event Proceeds shall be applied as a mandatory repayment in accordance with the requirements of Sections 4.02(h) and (i) on the last day of such 12-month (or, to the extent applicable, 18-month) period, as the case may be.

(g) Each amount required to be applied pursuant to Section 4.02(c), (d), (d), (f) and (g) in accordance with this Section 4.02(h) shall be applied to repay the outstanding principal amount of Term Loans, with each Tranche of then outstanding Term Loans to be allocated its Term Loan Percentage of each amount so required to be applied. Except as otherwise provided below, all repayments of outstanding Term Loans of a given Tranche pursuant to Sections 4.02(c), (d), (d), (f) and (g) (and applied pursuant to this clause (h)) shall be applied to reduce the Scheduled Repayments of the applicable Tranche in direct order of maturity of such Scheduled Repayments.

(h) With respect to each repayment of Term Loans required by this Section 4.02, the Borrower may (subject to the priority payment requirements of Section 4.02(h)) designate the Types of Term Loans of the applicable Tranche which are to be repaid and, in the case of LIBO Rate Term Loans, the specific Borrowing or Borrowings of the applicable Tranche pursuant to which such LIBO Rate Term Loans were made, provided that: (e) repayments of LIBO Rate Term Loans pursuant to this Section 4.02 may only be made on the last day of an Interest Period applicable thereto unless all such LIBO Rate Term Loans of the applicable Tranche with Interest Periods ending on such date of required repayment and all Base Rate Term Loans of the applicable Tranche have been paid in full; and (f) each repayment of any Term Loans made pursuant to a Borrowing shall be applied pro rata among such Term Loans. In the absence of a designation by the Borrower as described in the preceding sentence, the Administrative Agent shall, subject to the above, make such designation in its sole discretion.

(i) In addition to any other mandatory repayments pursuant to this Section 4.02, all then outstanding Term Loans of any Tranche of Term Loans shall be repaid in full on the Maturity Date for such Tranche of Term Loans.

(j) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Section 4.02, (g) to the extent that any or all of the Net Sale Proceeds of any Asset Sale by a Foreign Subsidiary (a "Foreign Asset Sale"), the Net Recovery Event Proceeds of any Recovery Event incurred by a Foreign Subsidiary (a "Foreign Recovery Event") or Excess Cash Flow attributable to Foreign Subsidiaries are prohibited or delayed by applicable local law or applicable organizational documents of such Foreign Subsidiary from being repatriated to the United States, the portion of such Net Sale Proceeds, Net Recovery Event Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow so affected will not be required to be applied to repay Term Loans at the times provided in this Section 4.02 but may be retained by the applicable Foreign Subsidiary so long, but only so long, as the applicable local law or applicable organizational documents of such Foreign Subsidiary will not permit repatriation to the United States (the Borrower hereby agreeing to use all commercially reasonable efforts to overcome or eliminate any such restrictions on repatriation and/or minimize any such costs of prepayment and/or use the other cash sources of the Borrower and its Restricted Subsidiaries to make the relevant prepayment), and if within one year following the date on which the respective prepayment would otherwise have been required such repatriation of any of such affected Net Sale Proceeds, Net Recovery Event Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow is permitted under the applicable local law or applicable organizational documents of such Foreign Subsidiary, such repatriation will be immediately effected and such repatriated Net Sale Proceeds, Net Recovery Event Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow will be promptly (and in any event not later than two Business Days after such repatriation) applied (net of additional taxes payable or reserved against as a result thereof and additional costs relating to such repatriation) to the repayment of the Term Loans pursuant to this Section 4.02 and (h) to the extent that the Borrower has determined in good faith that repatriation of any of or all the Net Sale Proceeds of any Foreign Asset Sale, Net Recovery Event Proceeds of any Foreign Asset Sale or Foreign Recovery Event or Foreign Subsidiary Excess Cash Flow would have adverse tax cost consequences with respect to such Net Sale Proceeds, Net Recovery Event Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow, such Net Sale Proceeds, Net Recovery Event Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow so affected may be retained by the applicable Foreign Subsidiary.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Section 4.02, except in the case of a mandatory prepayment of the type described in Section 4.02(d), each Lender shall have the right to reject its pro rata share of any mandatory prepayments described above, in which case the amounts so rejected may be retained by the Borrower.

Section 4.03. Method and Place of Payment . All payments to be made by the Borrower shall be made free and clear of and without condition or deduction for or any counterclaim, defense recoupment or setoff. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all payments under this Agreement and under any Note shall be made to the Administrative Agent or the account of the Lender or Lenders entitled thereto not later than 11:00 a.m.(New York City time) on the date when due and shall be made in U.S. Dollars in immediately available funds at the Payment Office of the Administrative Agent. Whenever any payment to be made hereunder or under any Note shall be stated to be due on a day which is not a Business Day, the due date thereof shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day and, with respect to payments of principal, interest shall be payable at the applicable rate during such extension.

Section 4.04. Net Payments. (r) All payments made by or on account of any Credit Party under any Credit Document shall be made free and clear of, and without deduction or withholding for, any Taxes, except as required by applicable law (as determined in the good-faith discretion of the withholding agent). If any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes are required to be withheld or deducted from such payments, then the Credit Parties jointly and severally agree that (a) to the extent such deduction or withholding is on account of an Indemnified Tax or Other Tax, the sum payable by the Credit Parties shall be increased as necessary so that after making all required deductions or withholding (including deduction or withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 4.04), the Administrative Agent or Lender (as the case may be) receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions or withholdings been made, (b) the applicable withholding agent will make such deductions or withholdings, and (c) the applicable withholding agent shall timely pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law. In addition, the Credit Parties shall timely pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law. As soon as practicable after any payment of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes to a Governmental Authority, the Credit Parties will furnish to the Administrative Agent certified copies of tax receipts evidencing such payment by the applicable Credit Party, a copy of the return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent. The Credit Parties jointly and severally agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Administrative Agent and each Lender, and reimburse the Administrative Agent and each Lender, within 10 days of written request therefor, for the amount of any Indemnified Taxes (including any Indemnified Taxes imposed on amounts payable under this Section 4.04) payable or paid by the Administrative Agent or such Lender or required to be withheld or deducted from a payment to the Administrative Agent or such Lender, and any Other Taxes, and any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to the Borrower by a Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), or by the Administrative Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of a Lender, shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(a) Any Lender that is entitled to an exemption from or reduction of withholding Tax with respect to payments made under any Credit Document shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, at the time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, such properly completed and executed documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, certifying as to any entitlement of such Lender to an exemption from, or a reduce rate of, withholding Tax. In addition, each Lender shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, at the time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, such other documentation prescribed by applicable law or reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as will enable the Borrower or the Administrative Agent to determine whether such Lender is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Each Lender shall, whenever a lapse in time or change in circumstances renders such documentation (including any specific documents required below in Section 4.04(c)) expired, obsolete or inaccurate in any respect, deliver promptly to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent updated or other appropriate documentation (including any new documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent) or promptly notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent in writing of its inability to do so.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in the event that the Borrower is a U.S. Borrower: (x) Each Lender that is not a United States person (as such term is defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent on or prior to the Closing Date or, in the case of a Lender that is a Lender to the Borrower and that is an assignee or transferee of an interest under this Agreement pursuant to Section 12.04 or Section 12.20 (unless the relevant Lender was already a Lender hereunder immediately prior to such assignment or transfer), on the date of such assignment or transfer to such Lender, (d) two accurate and complete original signed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN (or successor form) claiming eligibility for benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party or Form W-8ECI (or successor form), or (e) in the case of a Lender claiming exemption from U.S. federal withholding tax under Section 871(h) or 881(c) of the Code with respect to payments of "portfolio interest," "a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit C (any such certificate, a " U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate") and two accurate and complete original signed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN (or successor form) certifying to such Lender's entitlement as of such date to a complete exemption from U.S. withholding tax with respect to payments of interest to be made under this Agreement and under any Note; or (f) to the extent a Lender is not the beneficial owner (for example, where the Lender is a partnership or a participating Lender), two accurate and complete original signed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8IMY (or successor form) of the Lender, accompanied by Form W-8ECI, Form W-8BEN, U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate, Form W-8IMY, and/or any other required information (or successor or other applicable form) from each beneficial owner that would be required under this Section 4.04(c) if such beneficial owner were a Lender (provided that, if the Lender is a partnership for U.S. federal income Tax purposes (and not a participating Lender), and one or more beneficial owners are claiming the portfolio interest exemption), the U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate may be provided by such Lender on behalf of such beneficial owners); (y) Each Lender to the Borrower that is a United States person, as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code, shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, at the times specified in Section 4.04(b), two accurate and complete original signed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-9, or any successor form that such Person is entitled to provide at such time, in order to qualify for an exemption from U.S. federal backup withholding requirements; and (z) if any payment made to a Lender under any Credit Document would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Sections 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, at the time or times prescribed by applicable law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, such documentation prescribed by applicable law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as may be necessary for the Borrower or the Administrative Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA, to determine whether such Lender has complied with such Lender's obligations under FATCA or to determine, if necessary, the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this Section 4.04(c)(z), "FATCA" shall include any amendment made to FATCA after the Closing Date.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 4.04, a Lender shall not be required to deliver any form that such Lender is not legally eligible to deliver.

(c) If the Administrative Agent or any Lender determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by the Credit Parties or with respect to which a Credit Party has paid additional amounts pursuant to Section 4.04(a), it shall pay to the relevant Credit Party an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made, or additional amounts paid, by such Credit Party under Section 4.04(a) with respect to the Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, including any Taxes, of the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as the case may be, and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund), provided that the relevant Credit Party, upon the request of the Administrative Agent or such Lender, agrees to repay the amount paid over to such Credit Party (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) to the Administrative Agent or such Lender in the event the Administrative Agent or such Lender is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 4.04(d), in no event will the Administrative Agent or any Lender be required to pay any amount to any Credit Party pursuant to this Section 4.04(d) the payment of which would place the Administrative Agent or any Lender in a less favorable net after-Tax position than such party would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This Section 4.04 shall not be construed to require any Administrative Agent or any Lender to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to any Credit Party or any other Person.

(d) Each party's obligations under this Section 4.04 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent or any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all obligations under any Credit Document.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT

Section 11.01. Appointment and Authority

(ss)Each of the Lenders hereby irrevocably appoints Bank of America to act on its behalf as the Administrative Agent hereunder and under the other Credit Documents and authorizes the Administrative Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Administrative Agent by the terms hereof or thereof, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. The provisions of this Article are solely for the benefit of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders and neither the Borrower nor any other Credit Party shall have rights as a third party beneficiary of any of such provisions. It is understood and agreed that the use of the term "agent" herein or in any other Credit Documents (or any other similar term) with reference to the Administrative Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable Law. Instead such term is used as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between contracting parties.

(b) The Administrative Agent shall also act as the "Collateral Agent" under the Credit Documents, and each of the Lenders hereby irrevocably appoints and authorizes the Administrative Agent to act as the agent of such Lender for purposes of acquiring, holding and enforcing any and all Liens on Collateral granted by any of the Credit Parties to secure any of the Obligations, together with such powers and discretion as are reasonably incidental thereto. In this connection, the Administrative Agent, as "collateral agent" and any co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact appointed by the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 11.05 for purposes of holding or enforcing any Lien on the Collateral (or any portion thereof) granted under the Security Documents, or for exercising any rights and remedies thereunder at the direction of the Administrative Agent), shall be entitled to the benefits of all provisions of this Article 11 (including Section 11.05, as though such co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact were the "collateral agent" under the Credit Documents) as if set forth in full herein with respect thereto.

Section 11.02. Rights as a Lender.

The Person serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent and the term "Lender" or "Lenders" shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the Person serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder in its individual capacity. Such Person and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, own securities of, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Borrower or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if such Person were not the Administrative Agent hereunder and without any duty to account therefor to the Lenders.

Section 11.03. Exculpatory Provisions.

The Administrative Agent shall not have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth herein and in the other Credit Documents, and its duties hereunder shall be administrative in nature. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent:

(a) shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default has occurred and is continuing;

(b) shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby or by the other Credit Documents that the Administrative Agent is required to exercise as directed in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Credit Documents), provided that the Administrative Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose the Administrative Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Credit Document or applicable law, including for the avoidance of doubt any action that may be in violation of the automatic stay under any Debtor Relief Law or that may effect a forfeiture, modification or termination of property of a Defaulting Lender in violation of any Debtor Relief Law; and

(c) shall not, except as expressly set forth herein and in the other Credit Documents, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to the Borrower or any of its Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by the Person serving as the Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity.

(d) The Administrative Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (i) with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary, or as the Administrative Agent shall believe in good faith shall be necessary, under the circumstances as provided in Section 10.02 and Section 12.11) or (ii) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by a final and nonappealable judgment. The Administrative Agent shall be deemed not to have knowledge of any Default unless and until notice describing such Default is given to the Administrative Agent by the Borrower or a Lender.

(e) The Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement or any other Credit Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein or the occurrence of any Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement, any other Credit Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien purported to be created by the Security Documents, (v) the value or the sufficiency of any Collateral, or (v) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article 5 or elsewhere herein, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Administrative Agent.

Section 11.04. Reliance by Administrative Agent.

The Administrative Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, Internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or otherwise authenticated by the proper Person. The Administrative Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Term Loan that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender, the Administrative Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice to the contrary from such Lender prior to the making of such Term Loan. The Administrative Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Borrower), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

Section 11.05. Delegation of Duties.

The Administrative Agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers hereunder or under any other Credit Document by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Related Parties. The exculpatory provisions of this Article shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Related Parties of the Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any sub-agents except to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction determines in a final and nonappealable judgment that the Administrative Agent acted with gross negligence or willful misconduct in the selection of such sub-agents.

Section 11.06. Resignation of Administrative Agent.

(k) The Administrative Agent may at any time give notice of its resignation to the Lenders and the Borrower. Upon receipt of any such notice of resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right, in consultation with the Borrower, to appoint a successor, which shall be a bank with an office in the United States, or an Affiliate of any such bank with an office in the United States. If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Administrative Agent gives notice of its resignation, (or such earlier day as shall be agreed by the Required Lenders) (the "Resignation Effective Date"), then the retiring Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) on behalf of the Lenders, appoint a successor Administrative Agent meeting the qualifications set forth above. Whether or not a successor has been appointed, such resignation shall become effective in accordance with such notice on the Resignation Effective Date.

(b) If the Person serving as Administrative Agent is a Defaulting Lender pursuant to clause (d) of the definition thereof, the Required Lenders may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, by notice in writing to the Borrower and such Person remove such Person as Administrative Agent and, in consultation with the Borrower, appoint a successor. If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days (or such earlier day as shall be agreed by the Required Lenders) (the "Removal Effective Date"), then such removal shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice on the Removal Effective Date.

(c) With effect from the Resignation Effective Date or the Removal Effective Date (as applicable) (1) the retiring or removed Administrative Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Credit Documents (except that in the case of any collateral security held by the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Lenders under any of the Credit Documents, the retiring Administrative Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security until such time as a successor Administrative Agent is appointed) and (2) except for any indemnity payments or other amounts then owed to the retiring or removed Administrative Agent, all payments, communications and determinations provided to be made by, to or through the Administrative Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender directly, until such time, if any, as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Administrative Agent as provided for above. Upon the acceptance of a successor's appointment as Administrative Agent hereunder, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring (or removed) Administrative Agent (other than as provided in Section 4.04(e) and other than any rights to indemnity payments or other amounts owed to the retiring or removed Administrative Agent as of the Resignation Effective Date or the Removal Effective Date, as applicable), and the retiring or removed Administrative Agent shall be discharged from all of its duties and obligations hereunder or under the other Credit Documents (if not already discharged therefrom as provided above in this Section). The fees payable by the Borrower to a successor Administrative Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrower and such successor. After the retiring or removed Administrative Agent's resignation or removal hereunder and under the other Credit Documents, the provisions of this Article and Section 11.04 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring or removed Administrative Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while the retiring or removed Administrative Agent was acting as Administrative Agent.

Section 11.07. Non-Reliance on Administrative Agent and Other Lenders. Each Lender acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement. Each Lender also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement, any other Credit Document or any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder.

Section 11.08. No Other Duties, Etc. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, none of the Bookrunners, Arrangers or other titles as necessary listed on the cover page hereof shall have any powers, duties or responsibilities under this Agreement or any of the other Credit Documents, except in its capacity, as applicable, as the Administrative Agent or a Lender hereunder.

Section 11.09. Administrative Agent May File Proofs of Claim; Credit Bidding. In case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relative to any Credit Party, the Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Term Loan shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrower) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise:

(d) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Term Loans and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders and the Administrative Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders and the Administrative Agent and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Lenders and the Administrative Agent under Section 3.01 and Section 11.04) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and

(b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender to make such payments to the Administrative Agent and, if the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders, to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under Section 3.01 and Section 11.04.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender to authorize the Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender or in any such proceeding.

The Secured Parties hereby irrevocably authorize the Administrative Agent, at the direction of the Required Lenders, to credit bid all or any portion of the Obligations (including accepting some or all of the Collateral in satisfaction of some or all of the Secured Obligations pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise) and in such manner purchase (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) all or any portion of the Collateral (a) at any sale thereof conducted under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code of the United States, including under Sections 363, 1123 or 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code of the United States, or under the provisions of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) or the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada), or any similar Laws in any other jurisdictions to which a Credit Party is subject, (b) at any other sale or foreclosure or acceptance of collateral in lieu of debt conducted by (or with the consent or at the direction of) the Administrative Agent (whether by judicial action or otherwise) in accordance with any applicable Law. In connection with any such credit bid and purchase, the Obligations owed to the Secured Parties shall be entitled to be, and shall be, credit bid on a ratable basis (with Obligations with respect to contingent or unliquidated claims receiving contingent interests in the acquired assets on a ratable basis that would vest upon the liquidation of such claims in an amount proportional to the liquidated portion of the contingent claim amount used in allocating the contingent interests) in the asset or assets so purchased (or in the Equity Interests or debt instruments of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles that are used to consummate such purchase). In connection with any such bid (i) the Administrative Agent shall be authorized to form one or more acquisition vehicles to make a bid, (ii) to adopt documents providing for the governance of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles (provided that any actions by the Administrative Agent with respect to such acquisition vehicle or vehicles, including any disposition of the assets or Equity Interests thereof shall be governed, directly or indirectly, by the vote of the Required Lenders, irrespective of the termination of this Agreement and without giving effect to the limitations on actions by the Required Lenders contained in clauses (a) through (g) of Section 12.11, (iii) the Administrative Agent shall be authorized to assign the relevant Obligations to any such acquisition vehicle pro rata by the Lenders, as a result of which each of the Lenders shall be deemed to have received a pro rata portion of any Equity Interests and/or debt instruments issued by such an acquisition vehicle on account of the assignment of the Obligations to be credit bid, all without the need for any Secured Party or acquisition vehicle to take any further action, and (iv) to the extent that Obligations that are assigned to an acquisition vehicle are not used to acquire Collateral for any reason (as a result of another bid being higher or better, because the amount of Obligations assigned to the acquisition vehicle exceeds the amount of debt credit bid by the acquisition vehicle or otherwise), such Obligations shall automatically be reassigned to the Lenders pro rata and the Equity Interests and/or debt instruments issued by any acquisition vehicle on account of the Obligations that had been assigned to the acquisition vehicle shall automatically be cancelled, without the need for any Secured Party or any acquisition vehicle to take any further action.

Section 11.10. Collateral and Guaranty Matters. Without limiting the provision of Section 11.10, the Lenders irrevocably authorize the Administrative Agent, at its option and in its discretion,

(a) to release any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Administrative Agent under any Credit Document (i) upon termination of the Aggregate Commitments and payment in full of all Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations), (ii) that is sold or otherwise disposed of or to be sold or otherwise disposed of as part of or in connection with any sale or other disposition permitted hereunder or under any other Credit Document to a Person that is not a Credit Party, (iii) that constitutes "Excluded Property" (as such term is defined in the Security Agreement), or (iv) if approved, authorized or ratified in writing in accordance with Section 12.11;

(b) to release any Guarantor from its obligations under the Subsidiaries Guaranty if such Person ceases to be a Subsidiary as a result of a transaction permitted under the Credit Documents; and

(c) to subordinate any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Administrative Agent under any Credit Document to the holder of any Lien on such property that is permitted by Section 9.01(vi).

Upon request by the Administrative Agent at any time, the Required Lenders will confirm in writing the Administrative Agent's authority to release or subordinate its interest in particular types or items of property, or to release any Guarantor from its obligations under the Subsidiaries Guaranty pursuant to this Section 11.10. In each case as specified in this Section 12.11, the Administrative Agent will, at the Borrower's expense, execute and deliver to the applicable Credit Party such documents as such Credit Party may reasonably request to evidence the release of such item of Collateral from the assignment and security interest granted under the Security Documents or to subordinate its interest in such item, or to release such Guarantor from its obligations under the Subsidiaries Guaranty, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Credit Documents and this Section 11.10.

The Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for or have a duty to ascertain or inquire into any representation or warranty regarding the existence, value or collectability of the Collateral, the existence, priority or perfection of the Administrative Agent's Lien thereon, or any certificate prepared by any Credit Party in connection therewith, nor shall the Administrative Agent be responsible or liable to the Lenders for any failure to monitor or maintain any portion of the Collateral.

Without limiting the powers of the Collateral Agent under this Agreement and the Security Documents, each Lender and the Collateral Agent acknowledges and agrees that the Collateral Agent shall, for the purposes of holding any security granted under the Security Documents governed by the laws of the Province of Québec to secure payment of bonds or any other title of Indebtedness (collectively, in this subsection, the "Bonds"), be the holder of an irrevocable power of attorney (fondé de pouvoir), within the meaning of Article 2692 of the Civil Code of Québec, for all present and future holders and depositaries of the Bonds. Each of the Lenders and the Collateral Agent constitutes, to the extent necessary, the Collateral Agent as the holder of such irrevocable power of attorney (fondé de pouvoir) in order to hold security granted under the Security Documents governed by the laws of the Province of Québec to secure payment of the Bonds. Each Person who becomes a Lender and any successor to the Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have confirmed and ratified the constitution of the Collateral Agent as the holder of such irrevocable power of attorney (fondé de pouvoir). Furthermore, the Lenders hereby authorize the Collateral Agent to act in the capacity of the holder and depositary of any Bond for the benefit of all present and future Lenders. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 32 of an Act respecting the Special Powers of Legal Persons (Québec), the Collateral Agent may acquire and be the holder of a Bond. Each Credit Party acknowledges that each of the Bonds executed by it shall constitute a title of indebtedness, as such term is used in Article 2692 of the Civil Code of Québec. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 12.10, the provisions of this subsection shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Québec and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein.

Section 11.11. Rights as a Lender. The Person serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent and the term "Lender" or "Lenders" shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the Person serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder in its individual capacity. Such Person and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, own securities of, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Borrower or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if such Person were not the Administrative Agent hereunder and without any duty to account therefor to the Lenders.

Section 11.12. Reliance by Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, Internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or otherwise authenticated by the proper Person. The Administrative Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Term Loan that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender, the Administrative Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice to the contrary from such Lender prior to the making of such Term Loan. The Administrative Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Borrower), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

Section 11.13. Special Provisions Applicable to Joint Lead Arrangers and Syndication Agents . Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above in this Article 11, the Lenders and Credit Parties hereby recognize and agree that the Joint Lead Arrangers and the Syndication Agents are titles given for recognition purposes only, and no Joint Lead Arranger or Syndication Agents shall have any obligation, duty or responsibility under this Agreement or the other Credit Documents. Furthermore, each Joint Lead Arranger or Syndication Agents may at any time resign hereunder by providing written notice of such resignation to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower.

Section 11.14. Withholding Taxes. To the extent required by any applicable law (as determined in the good-faith discretion of the withholding agent), the Administrative Agent may withhold from any payment to any lender an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding Tax. If the Internal Revenue Service, the Canada Revenue Agency or any other authority of the United States, Canada or other jurisdiction asserts a claim that the Administrative Agent did not properly withhold Tax from amounts paid to or for the account of any Lender for any reason (including, without limitation, because the appropriate form was not delivered or not properly executed, or because such Lender failed to notify the Administrative Agent of a change in circumstance that rendered the exemption from, or reduction of withholding Tax ineffective), such Lender shall, within 10 days after written demand therefor, indemnify and hold harmless the Administrative Agent (to the extent that the Administrative Agent has not already been reimbursed by the Borrower pursuant to Section 4.04 and without limiting or expanding the obligation of the Borrower to do so) for all amounts paid, directly or indirectly, by the Administrative Agent as Taxes or otherwise, together with all expenses incurred, including legal expenses and any other out-of-pocket expenses, whether or not such Tax was correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under this Agreement or any other Credit Document against any amount due the Administrative Agent under this Section 11.14. The agreements in this Section 11.14 shall survive the resignation and/or replacement of the Administrative Agent, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all other Obligations.

(b) The Credit Parties hereby jointly and severally agree to: (a) if the Closing Date occurs, pay all reasonable invoiced out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the Agents (including, without limitation, the reasonable fees and disbursements of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP and Borden Ladner Gervais LLP and, if reasonably necessary, one local counsel in any other relevant jurisdiction) in connection with the preparation, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents and the documents and instruments referred to herein and therein, the administration hereof and thereof and any amendment, waiver or consent relating hereto or thereto (whether or not effective), of the Agents in connection with their syndication efforts with respect to this Agreement and of the Agents and each Lender in connection with the enforcement of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents and the documents and instruments referred to herein and therein or in connection with any refinancing or restructuring of the credit arrangements provided under this Agreement in the nature of a "work-out" or pursuant to any insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings (and, in each case, in the case of an actual or perceived conflict of interest, where the party affected by such conflict informs the Borrower of such conflict and thereafter retains its own counsel, of another firm of counsel, for each such affected party similarly situated); (b) pay and hold each Agent and each Lender harmless from and against any and all Other Taxes with respect to the foregoing matters and save each Agent and each Lender harmless from and against any and all liabilities with respect to or resulting from any delay or omission (other than to the extent attributable to such Agent, such Lender or Joint Lead Arranger) to pay such Other Taxes; and (c) indemnify each Agent and each Lender and each of their respective Affiliates, successors and assigns, and the partners, officers, directors, employees, trustees, agents, advisors, controlling persons, investment advisors and other representatives of each of the foregoing (each, an "Indemnified Person") from and against and hold each of them harmless against (and will reimburse each Indemnified Person as the same are incurred for) any and all liabilities, obligations (including removal or remedial actions), losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses and disbursements (including reasonable attorneys' and consultants' fees and disbursements and documented out-of-pocket expenses) incurred by, imposed on, assessed or asserted against any of them as a result of, or arising out of, or in any way related to, or by reason of, (a) any investigation, litigation or other proceeding (whether or not any Agent or any Lender is a party thereto and whether or not such investigation, litigation or other proceeding is brought by or on behalf of any Credit Party) related to the entering into and/or performance of this Agreement or any other Credit Document or the proceeds of any Term Loans hereunder or the consummation of the Transaction or any other transactions contemplated herein or in any other Credit Document or the exercise of any of their rights or remedies provided herein or in the other Credit Documents, or (b) the actual or alleged presence of Hazardous Materials in the Environment relating in any way to any Real Property owned, leased or operated, at any time, by the Borrower, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective predecessors; the generation, storage, transportation, handling, treatment, use, Release or threat of Release of Hazardous Materials by or on behalf of the Borrower, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective predecessors at any location, whether or not owned, leased or operated by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective predecessors; the non-compliance by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective predecessors with any Environmental Law (including applicable permits thereunder); or any Environmental Claim or liability under any applicable Environmental Laws related to the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective predecessors or relating in any way to any Real Property at any time owned, leased or operated by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective predecessors (but excluding in each case any losses, liabilities, claims, damages or expenses (d) to the extent incurred by reason of the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of the applicable Indemnified Person or any of its Related Indemnified Persons (e) to the extent incurred by reason of any material breach of the obligations of such Indemnified Person under this Agreement or the other Credit Documents (in the case of each of preceding clauses (i) and (ii), as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision) or (f) that do not involve or arise from an act or omission by the Borrower or Guarantors or any of their respective affiliates and is brought by an Indemnified Person against an Indemnified Person (other than claims against any Agent or any Joint Lead Arranger in its capacity as such or in its fulfilling such role). To the extent that the undertaking to indemnify, pay or hold harmless any Agent or any Lender or other Indemnified Person set forth in the preceding sentence may be unenforceable because it is violative of any law or public policy, the Credit Parties shall make the maximum contribution to the payment and satisfaction of each of the indemnified liabilities which is permissible under applicable law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 12.01(a) shall not apply with respect to Taxes other than any Taxes that represent losses, liabilities, claims and damages arising from a non-Tax claim.

(c) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each of the Credit Parties shall not assert, and hereby waives, and acknowledges that no other Person shall have, any claim against any Indemnified Person, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any other Credit Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, any Term Loan or Letter of Credit or the use of the proceeds thereof. No Indemnified Person referred to above shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by others of any information or other materials distributed to such party by such Indemnified Person through telecommunications, electronic or other information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement or the other Credit Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby other than for direct or actual damages resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Person as determined by a final and nonappealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(d) To the extent that the Credit Parties for any reason fail to indefeasibly pay any amount required under subsection(a) or (b) of this Section to be paid by it to the Administrative Agent (or any sub-agent thereof) or any Affiliate thereof, each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent (or any such sub-agent) or such Affiliate, as the case may be, such Lender's pro rata share (determined as of the time that the applicable unreimbursed expense or indemnity payment is sought based on each Lender's share of the aggregate Term Loan Commitments at such time) of such unpaid amount (including any such unpaid amount in respect of a claim asserted by such Lender), such payment to be made severally among them based on such Lenders' Applicable Percentage (determined as of the time that the applicable unreimbursed expense or indemnity payment is sought), provided, further that, the unreimbursed expense or indemnified loss, claim, damage, liability or related expense, as the case may be, was incurred by or asserted against the Administrative Agent (or any such sub-agent) or against any Affiliate thereof acting for the Administrative Agent (or any such sub-agent) in connection with such capacity. The obligations of the Lenders under this subsection (c) are subject to the provisions of Section 2.01(b).

(e) In addition to any rights now or hereafter granted under applicable law or otherwise, and not by way of limitation of any such rights, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Administrative Agent and each Lender is hereby authorized at any time or from time to time, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind to any Credit Party or to any other Person, any such notice being hereby expressly waived, to set off and to appropriate and apply any and all deposits (general or special) (other than accounts used exclusively for payroll, payroll taxes, fiduciary and trust purposes, and employee benefits) and any other Indebtedness at any time held or owing by the Administrative Agent or such Lender (including, without limitation, by branches and agencies of the Administrative Agent or such Lender wherever located) to or for the credit or the account of the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries against and on account of the Obligations and liabilities of the Credit Parties to the Administrative Agent or such Lender under this Agreement or under any of the other Credit Documents, including, without limitation, all interests in Obligations purchased by such Lender pursuant to Section 12.06(b), and all other claims of any nature or description arising out of or connected with this Agreement or any other Credit Document, irrespective of whether or not the Administrative Agent or such Lender shall have made any demand hereunder and although said Obligations, liabilities or claims, or any of them, shall be contingent or unmatured.

(f) NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING SUBSECTION (a), AT ANY TIME THAT THE LOANS OR ANY OTHER OBLIGATION SHALL BE SECURED BY REAL PROPERTY LOCATED IN CALIFORNIA, NO LENDER SHALL EXERCISE A RIGHT OF SETOFF, LIEN OR COUNTERCLAIM OR TAKE ANY COURT OR ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION OR INSTITUTE ANY PROCEEDING TO ENFORCE ANY PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY NOTE UNLESS IT IS TAKEN WITH THE CONSENT OF THE REQUIRED LENDERS OR APPROVED IN WRITING BY THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT, IF SUCH SETOFF OR ACTION OR PROCEEDING WOULD OR MIGHT (PURSUANT TO CALIFORNIA CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE SECTIONS 580a, 580b, 580d AND 726 OF THE CALIFORNIA CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE OR SECTION 2924 OF THE CALIFORNIA CIVIL CODE, IF APPLICABLE, OR OTHERWISE) AFFECT OR IMPAIR THE VALIDITY, PRIORITY OR ENFORCEABILITY OF THE LIENS GRANTED TO THE COLLATERAL AGENT PURSUANT TO THE SECURITY DOCUMENTS OR THE ENFORCEABILITY OF THE NOTES AND OTHER OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER, AND ANY ATTEMPTED EXERCISE BY ANY LENDER OF ANY SUCH RIGHT WITHOUT OBTAINING SUCH CONSENT OF THE REQUIRED LENDERS OR THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT SHALL BE NULL AND VOID. THIS SUBSECTION (b) SHALL BE SOLELY FOR THE BENEFIT OF EACH OF THE LENDERS AND THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT HEREUNDER.

Section 12.03. Notices; Effectiveness; Electronic Communications.

(d) Notices Generally. Except in the case of notices and other communications expressly permitted to be given by telephone (and except as provided in subsection (b) below), all notices and other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand or overnight courier service, mailed by certified or registered mail or sent by facsimile or electronic mail as follows, and all notices and other communications expressly permitted hereunder to be given by telephone shall be made to the applicable telephone number, as follows:

(xiii) if to the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such Person on Schedule 1.01(c); and

(xiv) if to any other Lender, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified in its Administrative Questionnaire (including, as appropriate, notices delivered solely to the Person designated by a Lender on its Administrative Questionnaire then in effect for the delivery of notices that may contain material non-public information relating to the Borrower).

Notices and other communications sent by hand or overnight courier service, or mailed by certified or registered mail, shall be deemed to have been given when received; notices and other communications sent by facsimile shall be deemed to have been given when sent (except that, if not given during normal business hours for the recipient, shall be deemed to have been given at the opening of business on the next Business Day for the recipient). Notices and other communications delivered through electronic communications to the extent provided in subsection (b) below shall be effective as provided in such subsection (b).

(e) Electronic Communications. Notices and other communications to the Lenders hereunder may be delivered or furnished by electronic communication (including e-mail and Internet or intranet websites) pursuant to procedures approved by the Administrative Agent, provided that the foregoing shall not apply to notices to any Lender pursuant to Article 2 if such Lender has notified the Administrative Agent that it is incapable of receiving notices under such Article by electronic communication. The Administrative Agent or the Borrower may each, in its discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by it, provided that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications.

Unless the Administrative Agent otherwise prescribes, (i) notices and other communications sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received upon the sender's receipt of an acknowledgement from the intended recipient (such as by the "return receipt requested" function, as available, return e-mail or other written acknowledgement), and (ii) notices or communications posted to an Internet or intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (i) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefor; provided that, for both clauses (i) and (ii), if such notice, email or other communication is not sent during the normal business hours of the recipient, such notice, email or communication shall be deemed to have been sent at the opening of business on the next business day for the recipient.

(f) The Platform. THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE." THE AGENT PARTIES (AS DEFINED BELOW) DO NOT WARRANT THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM, AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM LIABILITY FOR

ERRORS IN OR OMISSIONS FROM THE BORROWER MATERIALS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY ANY AGENT PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE PLATFORM. In no event shall the Administrative Agent or any of its Related Parties (collectively, the "Agent Parties") have any liability to the Borrower, any Lender or any other Person for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of the Borrower's, any Credit Party's or the Administrative Agent's transmission of Borrower Materials through the Internet except for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses (x) are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by a final an nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Agent Party.

(g) Change of Address, Etc. Each of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent may change its address, facsimile or telephone number for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the other parties hereto. Each other Lender may change its address, facsimile or telephone number for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent. In addition, each Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent from time to time to ensure that the Administrative Agent has on record (i) an effective address, contact name, telephone number, facsimile number and electronic mail address to which notices and other communications may be sent and (ii) accurate wire instructions for such Lender. Furthermore, each Public Lender agrees to cause at least one individual at or on behalf of such Public Lender to at all times have selected the "Private Side Information" or similar designation on the content declaration screen of the Platform in order to enable such Public Lender or its delegate, in accordance with such Public Lender's compliance procedures and applicable Law, including United States Federal and state securities Laws and Canadian Federal and provincial securities Laws, to make reference to Borrower Materials that are not made available through the "Public Side Information" portion of the Platform and that may contain material non-public information with respect to the Borrower or its securities for purposes of such Laws.

(h) Reliance by Administrative Agent and Lenders . The Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall be entitled to rely and act upon any notices (including telephonic or electronic Committed Loan Notices) purportedly given by or on behalf of the Borrower even if (i) such notices were not made in a manner specified herein, were incomplete or were not preceded or followed by any other form of notice specified herein, or (ii) the terms thereof, as understood by the recipient, varied from any confirmation thereof. The Borrower shall indemnify the Administrative Agent, each Lender and the Related Parties of each of them from all losses, costs, expenses and liabilities resulting from the reliance by such Person on each notice purportedly given by or on behalf of the Borrower. All telephonic notices to and other telephonic communications with the Administrative Agent may be recorded by the Administrative Agent, and each of the parties hereto hereby consents to such recording.

Section 12.04. Successors and Assigns

(d) Successors and Assigns Generally. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and each Lender and no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder except (i) to an assignee in accordance with the provisions of Section 12.04(b), (ii) by way of participation in accordance with the provisions of Section 12.04(d), or (iii) by way of pledge or assignment of a security interest or hypothec subject to the restrictions of Section 12.04(e) (and any other attempted assignment or transfer by any party hereto shall be null and void). Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, Participants to the extent provided in subsection (d) of this Section and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Related Parties of each of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement. No Lender may assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder to an Ineligible Transferee. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall have no responsibility for monitoring any assignments or participations to Ineligible Transferees. The list of all Ineligible Transferees shall be made available to all Lenders.

(e) Assignments by Lenders. Any Lender may at any time assign to one or more assignees all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment(s) and the Term Loans at the time owing to it); provided that any such assignment shall be subject to the following conditions:

(A) in the case of an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Commitment and/or the Term Loans at the time owing to it or contemporaneous assignments to related Approved Funds that equal at least the amount specified in paragraph (b)(i)(B) of this Section in the aggregate or in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund, no minimum amount need be assigned; and

(B) in any case not described in subsection (b)(i)(A) of this Section, the aggregate amount of the Commitment (which for this purpose includes Term Loans outstanding thereunder) or, if the applicable Commitment is not then in effect, the principal outstanding balance of the Term Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment, determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption Agreement with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent or, if "Trade Date" is specified in the Assignment and Assumption Agreement, as of the Trade Date, shall not be less than $1,000 000 unless each of the Administrative Agent and, so long as no Event of Default under Sections

10.01(a) or (e) has occurred and is continuing, the Borrower otherwise consents (each such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

(x) Proportionate Amounts. Each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement with respect to the Term Loans or the Commitment assigned;

(xi) Required Consents. No consent shall be required for any assignment except to the extent required by subsection (b)(i)(B) of this Section and, in addition:

(A) the consent of the Borrower (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required unless (1) an Event of Default under Sections 10.01(a)or (e) has occurred and is continuing at the time of such assignment or (2) such assignment is to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund; provided that the Borrower shall be deemed to have consented to any such assignment unless it shall object thereto by written notice to the Administrative Agent within five (5) Business Days after having received notice thereof; and

(B) the consent of the Administrative Agent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required for assignments in respect of (i) any unfunded Term Commitment if such assignment is to a Person that is not a Lender with a Term Commitment, an Affiliate of such Lender or an Approved Fund with respect to such Lender or (ii) any Term Loan to a Person that is not a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund.

(xii) Assignment and Assumption. The parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Assumption Agreement, together with a processing and recordation fee in the amount of $3,500; provided, however, that the Administrative Agent may, in its sole discretion, elect to waive such processing and recordation fee in the case of any assignment. The assignee, if it is not a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire.

(xiii) No Assignment to Certain Persons. Except as expressly provided herein, no such assignment shall be made (A) to the Borrower or any of the Borrower's Affiliates or Subsidiaries, (B) to any Defaulting Lender or any of its Subsidiaries, or any Person who, upon becoming a Lender hereunder, would constitute any of the foregoing Persons described in this clause (B), (C) to an Ineligible Transferee or (D) to a natural Person.

(xiv) Certain Additional Payments. In connection with any assignment of rights and obligations of any Defaulting Lender hereunder, no such assignment shall be effective unless and until, in addition to the other conditions thereto set forth herein, the parties to the assignment shall make such additional payments to the Administrative Agent in an aggregate amount sufficient, upon distribution thereof as appropriate (which may be outright payment, purchases by the assignee of participations or subparticipations, or other compensating actions, including funding, with the consent of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, the applicable pro rata share of Term Loans previously requested but not funded by the Defaulting Lender, to each of which the applicable assignee and assignor hereby irrevocably consent), to (x) pay and satisfy in full all payment liabilities then owed by such Defaulting Lender to the Administrative Agent, or any Lender hereunder (and interest accrued thereon) and (y) acquire (and fund as appropriate) its full pro rata share of all Term Loans in accordance with its Applicable Percentage. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that any assignment of rights and obligations of any Defaulting Lender hereunder shall become effective under applicable Law without compliance with the provisions of this paragraph, then the assignee of such interest shall be deemed to be a Defaulting Lender for all purposes of this Agreement until such compliance occurs.

(xv) Subject to acceptance and recording thereof by the Administrative Agent pursuant to subsection (c) of this Section, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Assumption Agreement, the assignee thereunder shall be a party to this Agreement and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption Agreement, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption Agreement, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Assumption Agreement covering all of the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto) but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Section 2.10, Section 2.12, Section 4.04 and Section 12.01 with respect to facts and circumstances occurring prior to the effective date of such assignment; provided, that except to the extent otherwise expressly agreed by the affected parties, no assignment by a Defaulting Lender will constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder arising from that Lender's having been a Defaulting Lender. Upon request, the Borrower (at its expense) shall execute and deliver a Note to the assignee Lender. Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this subsection shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with subsection (d) of this Section 12.04.

(f) Register. The Administrative Agent, acting solely for this purpose as an agent of the Borrower (and such agency being solely for tax purposes), shall maintain at the Administrative Agent's Office in the United States of America a copy of each Assignment and Assumption Agreement delivered to it (or the equivalent thereof in electronic form) and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitments of, and principal amounts (and stated interest) of the Term Loans owing to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the " Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrower and any Lender, at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(g) Participations. Any Lender may at any time, without the consent of, or notice to, the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, sell participations to any Person (other than an Ineligible Transferee, a natural Person, a Defaulting Lender or the Borrower or any of the Borrower's Affiliates or Subsidiaries) (each, a "Participant") in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and/or obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and/or the Term Loans owing to it); provided that (i) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (ii) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations and (iii) the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, each Lender shall be responsible for the indemnity under Section 11.14 without regard to the existence of any participation.

Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement; provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, waiver or other modification described in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of the first proviso to Section 12.11 or clause (1) of the second proviso to Section 12.11, in each case, that affects such Participant. The Borrower agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 2.10, Section 2.12 and Section 4.04 to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to subsection (b) of this Section to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section; provided that such Participant (A) agrees to be subject to the provisions of Section 2.13 as if it were an assignee under paragraph (b) of this Section and (B) shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.10 or Section 4.04 (subject to the requirements and limitations therein, including Section 4.04(b)-(c) (it being understood that the documentation required under Section 4.04(b)-(c) shall be delivered to the participating Lender)), than the Lender from whom it acquired the applicable participation would have been entitled to receive, except to the extent such entitlement to receive a greater payment results from a Change in Law that occurs after the Participant acquired the applicable participation. Each Lender that sells a participation agrees, at the Borrower's request and expense, to use reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Borrower to effectuate the provisions of Section 2.13 with respect to any Participant. To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 12.02 as though it were a Lender; provided that such Participant agrees to be subject to Section 12.06(b) as though it were a Lender. Each Lender that sells a participation shall, acting solely for this purpose as an agent of the Borrower, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the principal amounts (and stated interest) of each Participant's interest in the Term Loans or other obligations under the Credit Documents (the "Participant Register"); provided that no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in any commitments, loans, letters of credit or its other obligations under any Credit Document) to any Person except to the extent that such disclosure is necessary to establish that such commitment, loan or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations or in connection with an enquiry by the Canada Revenue Agency in accordance with the provisions of the ITA. The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and such Lender shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrative Agent (in its capacity as Administrative Agent) shall have no responsibility for maintaining a Participant Register.

(h) Certain Pledges. Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest or hypothec in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (including under its Note, if any) to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank; provided that no such pledge or assignment shall release such Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

Section 12.05. No Waiver; Remedies Cumulative. No failure or delay on the part of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Credit Document and no course of dealing between the Borrower or any other Credit Party and the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Credit Document preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege hereunder or thereunder. The rights, powers and remedies herein or in any other Credit Document expressly provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, powers or remedies which the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender would otherwise have. No notice to or demand on any Credit Party in any case shall entitle any Credit Party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of the rights of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Credit Document, the authority to enforce rights and remedies hereunder and under the other Credit Documents against the Credit Parties or any of them shall be vested exclusively in, and all actions and proceedings at law in connection with such enforcement shall be instituted and maintained exclusively by, the Administrative Agent in accordance with Section 10.02 for the benefit of all the Lenders; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not prohibit (a) the Administrative Agent from exercising on its own behalf the rights and remedies that inure to its benefit (solely in its capacity as Administrative Agent) hereunder and under the other Credit Documents, (b) any Lender from exercising setoff rights in accordance with Section 12.02 (subject to the terms of Section 12.11(f)), or (c) any Lender from filing proofs of claim or appearing and filing pleadings on its own behalf during the pendency of a proceeding relative to any Credit Party under any Debtor Relief Law; and provided, further, that if at any time there is no Person acting as Administrative Agent hereunder and under the other Credit Documents, then (i) the Required Lenders shall have the rights otherwise ascribed to the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 9.05 and (ii) in addition to the matters set forth in clauses (b) and (c) of the preceding proviso and subject to Section 12.11(f), any Lender may, with the consent of the Required Lenders, enforce any rights and remedies available to it and as authorized by the Required Lenders.

Section 12.06. Payments Pro Rata.

(e) The Administrative Agent agrees that promptly after its receipt of each payment from or on behalf of any Credit Party in respect of any Obligations of such Credit Party, it shall, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, distribute such payment to the Lenders (other than any Lender that has consented in writing to waive its pro rata share of such payment) pro rata based upon their respective shares, if any, of the Obligations with respect to which such payment was received.

(f) Each of the Lenders agrees that, if it should receive any amount hereunder (whether by voluntary payment, by realization upon security, by the exercise of the right of setoff or banker's lien, by counterclaim or cross action, by the enforcement of any right under the Credit Documents, or otherwise) which is applicable to the payment of the principal of, or interest on, the Term Loans or Fees, of a sum which with respect to the related sum or sums received by other Lenders is in a greater proportion than the total of such Obligation then owed and due to such Lender bears to the total of such Obligation then owed and due to all of the Lenders immediately prior to such receipt, then such Lender receiving such excess payment shall purchase for cash without recourse or warranty from the other Lenders an interest in the Obligations of the respective Credit Party to such Lenders in such amount as shall result in a proportional participation by all of the Lenders in such amount; provided that if all or any portion of such excess amount is thereafter recovered from such Lender, such purchase shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, but without interest.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the provisions of the preceding Sections 12.06(a) and (b) shall be subject to (x) the express provisions of this Agreement which require, or permit, differing payments to be made to Non-Defaulting Lenders as opposed to Defaulting Lenders, (y) the express provisions of this Agreement which permit disproportionate payments with respect to various of the Tranches as, and to the extent, provided herein, and (z) any other provisions which permit disproportionate payments with respect to the Term Loans as, and to the extent, provided therein.

Section 12.07. Calculations; Computations.

(i) The financial statements to be furnished to the Lenders pursuant hereto shall be made and prepared in accordance with IFRS consistently applied throughout the periods involved (except as set forth in the notes thereto); provided that (g) except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all computations of Excess Cash Flow and the Applicable Margin, and all computations and all definitions (including accounting terms) used in determining compliance with Section 8.13, shall utilize IFRS and policies in conformity with those used to prepare the audited financial statements of the Borrower referred to in Section 7.05(a)(i) for the fiscal year of the Borrower ended May 31, 2013 and, (h) to the extent expressly provided herein, certain calculations shall be made on a Pro Forma Basis; provided, further, that if any change in IFRS (including any change that is the result of an election by the Borrower that its financial statements be prepared and maintained in accordance with GAAP or Canadian GAAP) results in a change in the calculation of the financial covenants or interpretation of related provisions of this Agreement or any other Credit Document, then the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders agree to amend such provisions of this Agreement so as to equitably reflect such changes in IFRS (including any change that is the result of an election by the Borrower that its financial statements be prepared and maintained in accordance with GAAP or Canadian GAAP) with the desired result that the criteria for evaluating the Borrower's financial condition shall be the same after such change in IFRS as if such change had not been made; provided, further, that, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Required Lenders' agreement to any amendment of such provisions shall be sufficient to bind all Lenders; provided, further, that until such time as the financial covenants and the related provisions of this Agreement have been amended in accordance with the terms of this paragraph, the calculations of financial covenants and the interpretation of any related provisions shall be calculated and interpreted in accordance with IFRS as in effect immediately prior to such change in IFRS (including any change that is the result of an election by the Borrower that its financial statements be prepared and maintained in accordance with GAAP or Canadian GAAP); provided, further, that all determinations made pursuant to any applicable leverage test or any financial definition used therein shall be determined on the basis of IFRS as applied and in effect immediately before the relevant change in IFRS or the application thereof became effective, until such leverage test or such financial definition is amended. Notwithstanding any other provision contained herein, all terms of an accounting or financial nature used herein shall be construed, and all computations of amounts and ratios referred to herein shall be made, without giving effect to Statement of Financial Accounting Standards 141R or ASC 805 (or any other financial accounting standard having a similar result or effect). Notwithstanding any changes in IFRS after the Closing Date, any lease of the Borrower or the Subsidiaries that would be characterized as an operating lease under IFRS in effect on the Closing Date (whether such lease is entered into before or after the Closing Date) shall not constitute Indebtedness or a Capitalized Lease Obligation under this Agreement or any other Credit Document as a result of such changes in IFRS.

(j) All computations of interest (other than interest based on the Base Rate) and other Fees hereunder shall be made on the basis of a year of 360 days for the actual number of days (including the first day but excluding the last day) occurring in the period for which such interest or Fees are payable. All computations of interest determined by reference to the Base Rate shall be based on a 365 day or 366 day year, as the case may be.

(k) The calculation of any financial ratios under this Agreement shall be calculated by dividing the appropriate component by the other component, carrying the result to one place more than the number of places by which such ratio is expressed herein and rounding the result up or down to the nearest number (with a rounding-down if there is no nearest number).

Section 12.09. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the different parties hereto on separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. A set of counterparts executed by all the parties hereto shall be lodged with the Borrower and the Administrative Agent.

Section 12.10. Headings Descriptive. The headings of the several Sections and subsections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement.

Section 12.11. Amendment or Waiver; etc.

(a) Neither this Agreement nor any other Credit Document nor any terms hereof or thereof may be changed, waived, discharged or terminated unless such change, waiver, discharge or termination is in writing signed by the Credit Parties party hereto or thereto and the Required Lenders (although additional parties may be added to (and annexes may be modified to reflect such additions) the Subsidiaries Guaranty and the Security Documents in accordance with the provisions hereof and thereof without the consent of the other Credit Parties party thereto or the Required Lenders), provided that no such change, waiver, discharge or termination shall:

(i) without the prior written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby, extend the final scheduled maturity or scheduled date of any amortization payment of any Term Loan or Note, or reduce the rate or extend the time of payment of interest or Fees thereon (except in connection with the applicability of any post-default increase in interest rates) or reduce or forgive the principal amount thereof;

(k) except as otherwise provided in the Credit Documents, release all or substantially all of the value of the Subsidiaries Guaranty without the prior written consent of each Lender;

(l) amend, modify or waive any provision of this Section 12.11(a) or Section 12.06 (except for technical amendments with respect to additional extensions of credit pursuant to this Agreement which afford the protections to such additional extensions of credit of the type provided to the Initial Term Loans on the Closing Date), in each case, without the prior written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby;

(m) reduce the percentage specified in the definition of Required Lenders without the prior written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby (it being understood that, with the prior written consent of the Required Lenders, additional extensions of credit pursuant to this Agreement may be included in the determination of the Required Lenders, as applicable, on substantially the same basis as the extensions of Initial Term Loans are included on the Closing Date); or provided, further, that no such change, waiver, discharge or termination shall (i) increase the Commitments of any Lender over the amount thereof then in effect without the consent of such Lender (it being understood that waivers or modifications of conditions precedent, covenants, Defaults or Events of Default or of a mandatory reduction in the Total Commitment shall not constitute an increase of the Commitment of any Lender), (ii) without the consent of each Agent adversely affected thereby, amend, modify or waive any provision of Article 11 or any other provision as same relates to the rights or obligations of such Agent, (iii) without the consent of Collateral Agent, amend, modify or waive any provision relating to the rights or obligations of the Collateral Agent, (iv) except in cases where additional extensions of term loans are being afforded substantially the same treatment afforded to the Term Loans pursuant to this Agreement as in effect on the Closing Date, without the consent of the Majority Lenders of each Tranche which is being allocated a lesser prepayment, repayment or commitment reduction, alter the required application of any prepayments or repayments (or commitment reduction), as between the various Tranches, pursuant to Section 4.01 or 4.02 (although (x) the Required Lenders may waive, in whole or in part, any such prepayment, repayment or commitment reduction, so long as the application, as amongst the various Tranches, of any such prepayment, repayment or commitment reduction which is still required to be made is not altered and (y) any conversion of any Tranche of Term Loans into another Tranche of Term Loans hereunder in like principal amount and any other conversion of any Tranche of Term Loans into Extended Term Loans pursuant to an Extension Amendment shall not be considered a "prepayment" or "repayment" for purposes of this clause (4)) or (v) without the consent of the Majority Lenders of the respective Tranche affected thereby, amend the definition of Majority Lenders (it being understood that, with the consent of the Required Lenders, additional extensions of credit pursuant to this Agreement may be included in the determination of the Majority Lenders on substantially the same basis as the extensions of Term Loans and Commitments are included on the Closing Date); and provided further that only the consent the Administrative Agent shall be necessary for amendments described in clause (y) of the second proviso contained in clause (vi) of the definition of "Permitted Junior Loans."

(n) consent to the assignment or transfer by the Borrower of any of its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of each Lender;

(b) If, in connection with any proposed change, waiver, discharge or termination of any of the provisions of this Agreement as contemplated by clauses (i) through (v), inclusive, of the first proviso to Section 12.11(a), the consent of the Required Lenders is obtained but the consent of one or more of such other Lenders whose consent is required is not obtained (such Lender, a "Non-Consenting Lender"), then the Borrower shall have the right, so long as all Non-Consenting Lenders whose individual consent is required are treated as described in either clauses (A) or (B) below, to either (ii) replace each such Non-Consenting Lender or Lenders with one or more replacement Lenders pursuant to Section 12.20 so long as at the time of such replacement, each such replacement Lender consents to the proposed change, waiver, discharge or termination or (iii) terminate such Non-Consenting Lender's Commitments and/or repay the outstanding Term Loans of each

Tranche of such Lender in accordance with Section 4.01(b), provided that, unless the Commitments that are terminated, and Term Loans repaid, pursuant to the preceding clause (B) are immediately replaced in full at such time through the addition of new Lenders or the increase of outstanding Term Loans of existing Lenders (who in each case must specifically consent thereto), then in the case of any action pursuant to preceding clause (B) the Required Lenders (determined after giving effect to the proposed action) shall specifically consent thereto, provided, further, that in any event the Borrower shall not have the right to replace a Lender, terminate its Commitments or repay its Term Loans solely as a result of the exercise of such Lender's rights (and the withholding of any required consent by such Lender) pursuant to the second proviso to Section 12.11(a).

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in clause (a) of this Section 12.11, the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and each Incremental Term Loan Lender may, in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.16 enter into an Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement, provided that after the execution and delivery by the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and each such Incremental Term Loan Lender of such Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement, such Incremental Term Loan Commitment Agreement, may thereafter only be modified in accordance with the requirements of clause (a) above of this Section 12.11.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in clause (a) above of this Section 12.11, this Agreement may be amended (or amended and restated) (o) with the written consent of the Required Lenders, the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, (x) to add one or more additional credit facilities to this Agreement and to permit the extensions of credit from time to time outstanding thereunder and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof to share ratably in the benefits of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents with the Term Loan and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof and (y) to include appropriately the Lenders holding such credit facilities in any determination of the Required Lenders and (p) with the written consent of the Administrative Agent, the Borrower and the Refinancing Term Loan Lenders, in connection with any refinancing facilities permitted pursuant to Section 2.17.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any fee letter may be amended, or rights and privileges thereunder waived, in a writing executed only by the parties thereto.

(f) Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, during such period as a Lender is a Defaulting Lender, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, such Lender will not be entitled to vote in respect of amendments, waivers and consents hereunder and the Commitment and the outstanding Term Loans or other extensions of credit of such Lender hereunder will not be taken into account in determining whether the Majority Lenders, the Required Lenders or all of the Lenders, as required, have approved any such amendment, waiver or consent (and the definitions of "Majority Lenders" and "Required Lenders" will automatically be deemed modified accordingly for the duration of such period); provided that any such amendment or waiver that would increase or extend the term of the Commitment of such Defaulting Lender, extend the date fixed for the payment of principal or interest owing to such Defaulting Lender hereunder, reduce the principal amount of any obligation owing to such Defaulting Lender, reduce the amount of or the rate or amount of interest on any amount owing to such Defaulting Lender or of any fee payable to such Defaulting Lender hereunder, or alter the terms of this proviso, will require the consent of such Defaulting Lender.

(g) Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 12.11, if following the Closing Date, the Administrative Agent and any Credit Party shall have jointly identified an obvious error or any error or omission of a technical or immaterial nature, in each case, in any provision of the Credit Documents, then the Administrative Agent and the Credit Parties shall be permitted to amend such provision and such amendment shall become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to any Credit Documents if the same is not objected to in writing by the Required Lenders within five (5) Business Days following receipt of notice thereof.

Section 12.12. Survival. All indemnities set forth herein including, without limitation, in Sections 2.10, 2.11, 4.03,Section 11.07 and 12.01 shall survive the execution, delivery and termination of this Agreement and the Notes and the making and repayment of the Obligations.

All representations and warranties made hereunder and in any other Credit Document or other document delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or in connection herewith or therewith shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and thereof. Such representations and warranties have been or will be relied upon by the Administrative Agent and each Lender, regardless of any investigation made by the Administrative Agent or any Lender or on their behalf and notwithstanding that the Administrative Agent or any Lender may have had notice or knowledge of any Default at the time of any Credit Event, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as any Loan or any other Obligation hereunder shall remain unpaid or unsatisfied.

Section 12.13. Domicile of Term Loans . Each Lender may transfer and carry its Term Loans at, to or for the account of any office, Subsidiary or Affiliate of such Lender. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, to the extent that a transfer of Term Loans pursuant to this Section 12.13 would, at the time of such transfer, result in increased costs under Section 2.10, 2.11 or 4.03 from those being charged by the respective Lender prior to such transfer, then the Borrower shall not be obligated to pay such increased costs (although the Borrower shall be obligated to pay any other increased costs of the type described above resulting from changes after the date of the respective transfer).

Section 12.14. Confidentiality.

(a) Subject to the provisions of clause (b) of this Section 12.14, each Agent, Joint Lead Arranger, Syndication Agent and Lender agrees that it will use its commercially reasonable efforts not to disclose without the prior consent of the Borrower (other than to its directors, officers, employees, accountants, auditors, advisors or counsel or other representatives or to another Lender if such Lender or such Lender's holding or parent company in its sole discretion determines that any such party should have access to such information, provided such Persons shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 12.14 to the same extent as such Lender (or language substantially similar to this Section 12.14(a)) any information with respect to the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries that is now or in the future furnished pursuant to this Agreement or any other Credit Document, provided that any Lender may disclose any such information (q) as has become generally available to the public other than by virtue of a breach of this Section 12.14(a) by such Lender, (r) as may be required or appropriate in any report, statement or testimony submitted to any municipal, state, provincial or federal regulatory body having or claiming to have jurisdiction over such Lender or to the Federal Reserve Board or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation or similar organizations (whether in the United States, Canada or elsewhere) or their successors, (s) as may be required or appropriate in respect to any summons or subpoena or in connection with any litigation, (t) in order to comply with any law, order, regulation or ruling applicable to such Lender, (u) to the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, (v) to any prospective or actual direct or indirect contractual counterparty in any swap, hedge or similar agreement (or to any such contractual counterparty's professional advisor), so long as such contractual counterparty (or such professional advisor) agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Section 12.14 (or language substantially similar to this Section 12.14(a)), and (w) to any prospective or actual transferee, pledgee or participant in connection with any contemplated transfer, pledge or participation of any of the Notes or Commitments or any interest therein by such Lender, provided that such prospective transferee, pledge or participant agrees to be bound by the confidentiality provisions contained in this Section 12.14 (or language substantially similar to this Section 12.14(a)); provided, further, that, to the extent permitted pursuant to any applicable law, order, regulation or ruling, and other than in connection with credit and other bank examinations conducted in the ordinary course with respect to such Lender, in the case of any disclosure pursuant to the foregoing clauses (ii), (iii) or (iv), such Lender will use its commercially reasonable efforts to notify the Borrower in advance of such disclosure so as to afford the Borrower the opportunity to protect the confidentiality of the information proposed to be so disclosed.

(b) The Borrower hereby acknowledge and agree that each Lender may share with any of its affiliates, and such affiliates may share with such Lender, any information related to the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries (including, without limitation, any non-public customer information regarding the creditworthiness of the Borrower and its Subsidiaries), provided such Persons shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 12.14 to the same extent as such Lender.

Section 12.15. USA Patriot Act and Canadian AML Acts Notice . Each Lender and the Administrative Agent (for itself and not on behalf of any Lender) hereby notifies the Borrower that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act Title III of Pub. 107-56 (signed into law October 26, 2001 and amended on March 9, 2009) (the "Patriot Act") and the Canadian AML Acts, it is required to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies the Borrower and each Subsidiary Guarantor, which information includes the name of each Credit Party and other information that will allow such Lender to identify the Credit Party in accordance with the Patriot Act and the Canadian AML Acts, and each Credit Party agrees to promptly provide such information from time to time to any Lender.

Section 12.16. Special Provisions Regarding Pledges of Equity Interests in Persons Not Organized in Qualified Jurisdictions . The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the provisions of the various Security Documents executed and delivered by the Credit Parties require that, among other things, all Equity Interests in various Persons owned by the respective Credit Party be pledged, and delivered for pledge, pursuant to the Security Documents. The parties hereto further acknowledge and agree that each Credit Party shall be required to take all actions under the laws of the jurisdiction in which such Credit Party is organized to create and perfect all security interests or hypothecs granted pursuant to the various Security Documents and to take all actions under the laws of the United States or Canada (as applicable) to perfect the security interests in the Equity Interests of any Person organized under the laws of said jurisdictions (to the extent said Equity Interests are owned by any Credit Party).

Section 12.17. Currency Indemnity. If a judgment or order is rendered by any court or tribunal for the payment of any amount owing to the Agents or any Lender under any Credit Document or for the payment of damages in respect of any breach of any Credit Document, or under or in respect of a judgment or order of another court or tribunal for the payment of those amounts or damages, and the judgment or order is expressed in a currency (the "Judgment Currency") except the currency payable under the relevant Credit Document (the "Agreed Currency"), the party against whom the judgment or order is made shall indemnify and hold the Agents and the Lenders harmless against any deficiency in terms of the Agreed Currency in the amounts received by the Agents and the Lenders arising or resulting from any variation as between (a) the actual rate of exchange at which the Agreed Currency is converted into the Judgment Currency for the purposes of the judgment or order, and (b) the actual rate of exchange at which the Agents or the Lender is able to purchase the Agreed Currency with the amount of the Judgment Currency actually received by the Agent or the Lender on the date of receipt. The indemnity in this Section shall constitute a separate and independent obligation from the other obligations of the Credit Parties under the Credit Documents and shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by the Agents or any Lender.

Section 12.18. Waiver of Sovereign Immunity. Each of the Credit Parties, in respect of itself, its Subsidiaries, its process agents, and its properties and revenues, hereby irrevocably agrees that, to the extent that the Borrower and its Subsidiaries or any of their properties has or may hereafter acquire any right of immunity, whether characterized as sovereign immunity or otherwise, from any legal proceedings, whether in the United States, Canada or elsewhere, to enforce or collect upon the Term Loans or any Credit Document or any other liability or obligation of the Borrower or any of their respective Subsidiaries related to or arising from the transactions contemplated by any of the Credit Documents, including, without limitation, immunity from service of process, immunity from jurisdiction or judgment of any court or tribunal, immunity from execution of a judgment, and immunity of any of its property from attachment prior to any entry of judgment, or from attachment in aid of execution upon a judgment, the Borrower, for itself and on behalf of its Subsidiaries, hereby expressly waives, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, any such immunity, and agrees not to assert any such right or claim in any such proceeding, whether in the United States, Canada or elsewhere. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Borrower further agrees that the waivers set forth in this Section 12.18 shall have the fullest extent permitted under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976 of the United States and are intended to be irrevocable for purposes of such Act.

Section 12.19. INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT.

(a) EACH LENDER PARTY HERETO UNDERSTANDS, ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT (AND EACH OF ITS SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS) AND EACH OTHER LENDER (AND EACH OF THEIR SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS) SHALL BE BOUND BY THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, WHICH IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES MAY REQUIRE (AS MORE FULLY PROVIDED THEREIN) THE TAKING OF CERTAIN ACTIONS BY THE LENDERS, INCLUDING THE PURCHASE AND SALE OF PARTICIPATIONS BY VARIOUS LENDERS TO EACH OTHER IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TERMS THEREOF.

(b) THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION 12.19 ARE NOT INTENDED TO SUMMARIZE OR FULLY DESCRIBE THE PROVISIONS OF THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT OR ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT. REFERENCE MUST BE MADE TO THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT OR ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, AS APPLICABLE, TO UNDERSTAND ALL TERMS AND CONDITIONS THEREOF. EACH LENDER IS RESPONSIBLE FOR MAKING ITS OWN ANALYSIS AND REVIEW OF THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND THE TERMS AND PROVISIONS THEREOF, AND NO AGENT OR ANY OF AFFILIATES MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION TO ANY LENDER AS TO THE SUFFICIENCY OR ADVISABILITY OF THE PROVISIONS CONTAINED IN THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT. A COPY OF THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT MAY BE OBTAINED FROM THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT.

(c) THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT IS AN AGREEMENT SOLELY AMONGST THE LENDERS (AND THEIR SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS) AND IS NOT AN AGREEMENT TO WHICH THE BORROWER OR ANY OF ITS SUBSIDIARIES IS PARTY. AS MORE FULLY PROVIDED THEREIN, THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR

AGREEMENT CAN ONLY BE AMENDED BY THE PARTIES THERETO IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS THEREOF.

Section 12.20. Replacement of Lenders. If the Borrower is entitled to replace a Lender pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.13, or if any Lender is a Defaulting Lender or a Non-Consenting Lender, then the Borrower may, at its sole expense and effort, upon notice to such Lender and the Administrative Agent, require such Lender to assign and delegate, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in, and consents required by, Section 12.04), all of its interests, rights (other than its existing rights to payments pursuant to Section 2.10 and Section 4.04) and obligations under this Agreement and the related Credit Documents to an Eligible Transferee that shall assume such obligations (which assignee may be another Lender, if a Lender accepts such assignment), provided that:

(a) the Administrative Agent shall have received all assignment fees required by Section 12.04;

(b) such Lender shall have received payment of an amount equal to the outstanding principal of its Term Loans, accrued interest thereon, accrued fees and all other amounts payable to it hereunder and under the other Credit Documents from the assignee (to the extent of such outstanding principal and accrued interest and fees) or the Borrower (in the case of all other amounts);

(c) in the case of any such assignment resulting from a claim for compensation under Section 2.10 or payments required to be made pursuant to Section 4.04, such assignment will result in a reduction in such compensation or payments thereafter;

(d) such assignment does not conflict with applicable Laws; and

(e) in the case of an assignment resulting from a Lender becoming a Non-Consenting Lender, the applicable assignee shall have consented to the applicable amendment, waiver or consent.

A Lender shall not be required to make any such assignment or delegation if, prior thereto, as a result of a waiver by such Lender or otherwise, the circumstances entitling the Borrower to require such assignment and delegation cease to apply. Each Lender agrees that, if the Borrowers elect to replace such Lender in accordance with this Section, it shall promptly execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Assumption to evidence such sale and purchase and shall deliver to the Administrative Agent any Note (if Notes have been issued in respect of such Lender's Loans) subject to such Assignment and Assumption; provided that the failure of any such non-consenting Lender to execute an Assignment and Assumption shall not render such sale and purchase (and the corresponding assignment) invalid and such assignment shall be recorded in the Register.

Section 12.21. Absence of Fiduciary Relationship. In connection with all aspects of each transaction contemplated hereby (including in connection with any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Credit Document), the Borrower acknowledges and agrees, and acknowledges its Affiliates' understanding, that: (i) (A) the arranging and other services regarding this Agreement provided by the Administrative Agent, the Joint Lead Arrangers, and the Lenders are arm's-length commercial transactions between the Borrower and its respective Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Administrative Agent, the Joint Lead Arrangers, and the Lenders, on the other hand, (B) the Borrower has consulted its own legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors to the extent it has deemed appropriate, and (C) the Borrower is capable of evaluating, and understands and accepts, the terms, risks and conditions of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the other Credit Documents; (ii) (A) the Administrative Agent, the Joint Lead Arrangers and the Lenders each is and has been acting solely as a principal and, except as expressly agreed in writing by the relevant parties, has not been, is not, and will not be acting as an advisor, agent or fiduciary for the Borrower or any of its Affiliates, or any other Person and (B) neither the Administrative Agent, the Joint Lead Arrangers, nor any Lender has any obligation to the Borrower or any of its Affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby except those obligations expressly set forth herein and in the other Credit Documents; and (iii) the Administrative Agent, the Arranger, the Joint Lead Arrangers, the Lenders, and their respective Affiliates may be engaged in a broad range of transactions that involve interests that differ from those of the Borrower and its Affiliates, and neither the Administrative Agent, the Joint Lead Arrangers, nor any Lender has any obligation to disclose any of such interests to the Borrower or its Affiliates. Schedule 2.18(a)(i)

Reverse Dutch Auction Procedures

Reference is made to the Term Loan Credit Agreement dated as of April 15, 2014 (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Credit Agreement"), among Bauer Performance Sports Ltd., a Canadian corporation (the "Borrower"), the lenders party thereto and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent and as collateral agent. Terms defined in the Credit Agreement and not otherwise defined herein have, as used herein, the respective meanings provided for therein.

This outline is intended to summarize certain basic terms of procedures with respect to Reverse Dutch Auctions pursuant to and in accordance with the terms and conditions of Section 2.18(a) of the Credit Agreement to which this Schedule 2.19(a) is attached. It is not intended to be a definitive list of all of the terms and conditions of a Reverse Dutch Auction and all such terms and conditions shall be set forth in the applicable auction procedures documentation set for each Reverse Dutch Auction (the "Offer Documents"). None of the Administrative Agent, Bank of America, N.A. (or, if Bank of America, N.A. declines to act in such capacity, an investment bank of recognized standing selected by the Borrower) (the "Auction Manager") or any of their respective Affiliates makes any recommendation pursuant to the Offer Documents as to whether or not any Lender should sell by assignment any of its Term Loans pursuant to the Offer Documents (including, for the avoidance of doubt, by participating in the Reverse Dutch Auction as a Lender) or whether or not the Borrower should purchase by assignment any Term Loans from any Lender pursuant to any Reverse Dutch Auction. Each Lender should make its own decision as to whether to sell by assignment any of its Term Loans and, if so, the principal amount of and price to be sought for such Term Loans. In addition, each Lender should consult its own attorney, business advisor or tax advisor as to legal, business, tax and related matters concerning any Reverse Dutch Auction and the Offer Documents.

Summary. The Borrower may, subject to Section 2.18(a) of the Credit Agreement, purchase (by assignment) Loans on a non-pro rata basis by conducting one or more Reverse Dutch Auctions pursuant to the procedures described herein; provided that no more than one Reverse Dutch Auction may be ongoing at any one time.

Notice Procedures. In connection with each Reverse Dutch Auction, the Borrower will provide notification to the Auction Manager (for distribution to the Lenders) of the Term Loans that will be the subject of the Reverse Dutch Auction by delivering to the Auction Manager a written notice in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Auction Manager (an "Auction Notice"). Each Auction Notice shall contain (i) the minimum principal amount (calculated on the face amount thereof) of all Term Loans that the Borrower offers to purchase in any such Auction (the "Auction Amount") shall be no less than $5,000,000, (ii) the range of discounts to par (the "Discount Range"), expressed as a range of prices per $1,000 of Term Loans, at which the Borrower would be willing to purchase Term Loans in the Reverse Dutch Auction and (iii) the date on which the Reverse Dutch Auction will conclude, on which date Return Bids (as defined below) will be due at the time provided in the Auction Notice (such time, the "Expiration Time"), as such date and time may be extended upon notice by the Borrower to the Auction Manager not less than 24 hours before the original Expiration Time. The Auction Manager will deliver a copy of the Offer Documents to each Lender promptly following completion thereof.

Reply Procedures. In connection with any Reverse Dutch Auction, each Lender holding Term Loans wishing to participate in such Reverse Dutch Auction shall, prior to the Expiration Time, provide the Auction Manager with a notice of participation in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Auction Manager (the "Return Bid") to be included in the Offer Documents, which shall specify (i) a discount to par that must be expressed as a price per $1,000 of Term Loans (the "Reply Price") within the Discount Range and (ii) the principal amount of Term Loans, in an amount not less than $1,000,000, that such Lender is willing to offer for sale at its Reply Price (the "Reply Amount"); provided that each Lender may submit a Reply Amount that is less than the minimum amount and incremental amount requirements described above only if the Reply Amount comprises the entire amount of the Term Loans held by such Lender at such time. A Lender may only submit one Return Bid per Reverse Dutch Auction, but each Return Bid may contain up to three component bids, each of which may result in a separate Qualifying Bid (as defined below) and each of which will not be contingent on any other component bid submitted by such Lender resulting in a Qualifying Bid. In addition to the Return Bid, a participating Lender must execute and deliver, to be held by the Auction Manager, an assignment and acceptance in the form included in the Offer Documents which shall be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Auction Manager and the Administrative Agent (the "Auction Assignment and Acceptance "). The Borrower will not purchase any Term Loans at a price that is outside of the applicable Discount Range, nor will any Return Bids (including any component bids specified therein) submitted at a price that is outside such applicable Discount Range be considered in any calculation of the Applicable Threshold Price (as defined below).

Acceptance Procedures. Based on the Reply Prices and Reply Amounts received by the Auction Manager, the Auction Manager, in consultation with the Borrower, will calculate the lowest purchase price (the " Applicable Threshold Price") for the Reverse Dutch Auction within the Discount Range for the Reverse Dutch Auction that will allow the Borrower to complete the Reverse Dutch Auction by purchasing the full Auction Amount (or such lesser amount of Terms Loans for which the Borrower has received Qualifying Bids). The Borrower shall purchase (by assignment) Term Loans from each Lender whose Return Bid is within the Discount Range and contains a Reply Price that is equal to or less than the Applicable Threshold Price (each, a "Qualifying Bid"). All principal amount of Term Loans included in Qualifying Bids received at a Reply Price lower than the Applicable Threshold Price will be purchased at a purchase price equal to the applicable Reply Price and shall not be subject to proration. If a Lender has submitted a Return Bid containing multiple component bids at different Reply Prices, then all Term Loans of such Lender offered in any such component bid that constitutes a Qualifying Bid with a Reply Price lower than the Applicable Threshold Price shall also be purchased at a purchase price equal to the applicable Reply Price and shall not be subject to proration.

Proration Procedures. All Term Loans offered in Return Bids (or, if applicable, any component bid thereof) constituting Qualifying Bids equal to the Applicable Threshold Price will be purchased at a purchase price equal to the Applicable Threshold Price; provided that if the aggregate principal amount of all Term Loans for which Qualifying Bids have been submitted in any given Reverse Dutch Auction equal to the Applicable Threshold Price would exceed the remaining portion of the Auction Amount (after deducting all Term Loans purchased below the Applicable Threshold Price), the Borrower shall purchase the Term Loans for which the Qualifying Bids submitted were at the Applicable Threshold Price ratably based on the respective principal amounts offered and in an aggregate amount up to the amount necessary to complete the purchase of the Auction Amount. For the avoidance of doubt, no Return Bids (or any component thereof) will be accepted above the Applicable Threshold Price.

Notification Procedures. The Auction Manager will calculate the Applicable Threshold Price no later than the next Business Day after the date that the Return Bids were due. The Auction Manager will insert the amount of Term Loans to be assigned and the applicable settlement date determined by the Auction Manager in consultation with the Borrower onto each applicable Auction Assignment and Acceptance received in connection with a Qualifying Bid. Upon written request of the submitting Lender, the Auction Manager will promptly return any Auction Assignment and Acceptance received in connection with a Return Bid that is not a Qualifying Bid.

Additional Procedures. Once initiated by an Auction Notice, the Borrower may withdraw a Reverse Dutch Auction by written notice to the Auction Manager no later than 24 hours before the original Expiration Time so long as no Qualifying Bids have been received by the Auction Manager at or prior to the time the Auction Manager receives such written notice from the applicable Borrower. Any Return Bid (including any component bid thereof) delivered to the Auction Manager may not be modified, revoked, terminated or cancelled; provided that a Lender may modify a Return Bid at any time prior to the Expiration Time solely to reduce the Reply Price included in such Return Bid. However, a Reverse Dutch Auction shall become void if the Borrower fails to satisfy one or more of the conditions to the purchase of Term Loans set forth in, or to otherwise comply with the provisions of Section 2.18(a) of the Credit Agreement. The purchase price for all Term Loans purchased in a Reverse Dutch Auction shall be paid in cash by the Borrower directly to the respective assigning Lender on a settlement date as determined by the Auction Manager in consultation with the Borrower (which shall be no later than ten (10) Business Days after the date Return Bids are due or such longer time as otherwise agreed by each of the Administrative Agent, the Auction Manager, the Borrower and the respective assigning Lender), along with accrued and unpaid interest (if any) on the applicable Term Loans up to the settlement date. The Borrower shall execute each applicable Auction Assignment and Acceptance received in connection with a Qualifying Bid.

All questions as to the form of documents and validity and eligibility of Term Loans that are the subject of a Reverse Dutch Auction will be determined by the Auction Manager, in consultation with the Borrower, and the Auction Manager's determination will be conclusive, absent manifest error. The Auction Manager's interpretation of the terms and conditions of the Offer Document, in consultation with the Borrower, will be final and binding.

None of the Administrative Agent, the Auction Manager, any other Agent or any of their respective Affiliates assumes any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of the information concerning the Borrower or any of its Affiliates contained in the Offer Documents or otherwise or for any failure to disclose events that may have occurred and may affect the significance or accuracy of such information.

The Auction Manager acting in its capacity as such under a Reverse Dutch Auction shall be entitled to the benefits of the provisions of Article 11 and Section 12.01 of the Credit Agreement to the same extent as if each reference therein to the "Administrative Agent" were a reference to the Auction Manager, each reference therein to the "Loan Documents" were a reference to the Offer Documents, the Auction Notice and Auction Assignment and Acceptance and each reference therein to the "Transactions" were a reference to the transactions contemplated hereby and the Administrative Agent shall cooperate with the Auction Manager as reasonably requested by the Auction Manager in order to enable it to perform its responsibilities and duties in connection with each Reverse Dutch Auction.

This Schedule 2.19(a) shall not require the Borrower to initiate any Reverse Dutch Auction, nor shall any Lender be obligated to participate in any Reverse Dutch Auction.

Nothing contained in this Annex A or in the Agreement is intended to or shall impair, as between the Borrowers and the Lenders, the obligation of each Borrower, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay to the Lenders the principal of and interest on the Loan as and when the same shall become due and payable in accordance with their terms, or is intended to or shall affect the relative rights of the Lenders and other creditors of the Borrowers other than the Senior Indebtedness, nor, except as specifically provided herein, shall anything herein or therein prevent the Lenders from exercising all remedies otherwise permitted by applicable law upon an event of default under the Agreement, subject to the rights, if any, under this Annex A of the holders of Senior Indebtedness in respect of cash, property, or securities of the Borrowers received upon the exercise of any such remedy. Upon any distribution of assets of an Borrower, each Lender shall be entitled to rely upon any order or decree made by any court of competent jurisdiction in which such dissolution, winding up, liquidation or reorganization proceedings are pending, or a certificate of the liquidating trustee or agent or other person making any distribution to the Lenders, for the purpose of ascertaining the persons entitled to participate in such distribution, the holders of the Senior Indebtedness and other indebtedness of the Borrower, the amount thereof or payable thereon, the amount or amounts paid or distributed thereon and all other facts pertinent thereto or to this Annex A.

SECTION 1.07. Subordination Rights Not Impaired by Acts or Omissions of the Issuers or Holders of Senior Indebtedness. No right of any present or future holders of any Senior Indebtedness to enforce subordination as herein provided shall at any time in any way be prejudiced or impaired by any act or failure to act on the part of an Issuer or by any act or failure to act in good faith by any such holder, or by any noncompliance by a Borrower with the terms and provisions of the Agreement, regardless of any knowledge thereof which any such holder may have or be otherwise charged with.

(b) Procedures.

(i) To the extent that any Pledgor at any time or from time to time owns, acquires or obtains any right, title or interest in any Collateral, such Collateral shall automatically (and without the taking of any action by such Pledgor) be pledged pursuant to Section 3(a) hereof and, in addition thereto, subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, such Pledgor shall (to the extent provided below) take the following actions as set forth below (as promptly as practicable) for the benefit of the Pledgee and the other Secured Creditors:

(A) with respect to a Certificated Security (other than a Certificated Security credited on the books of a Clearing Corporation or Securities Intermediary), such Pledgor shall physically deliver such Certificated Security to the Pledgee, endorsed to the Pledgee or endorsed in blank to the extent the interests represented by such Certificated Security are required to be pledged hereunder;

(B) with respect to an Uncertificated Security (other than an Uncertificated Security credited on the books of a Clearing Corporation or Securities Intermediary), and at any time any Event of Default under the Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing, such Pledgor shall cause the issuer of such Uncertificated Security, promptly, upon the request of the Collateral Agent, to duly authorize, execute, and deliver to the Pledgee, an agreement for the benefit of the Pledgee and the other Secured Creditors substantially in the form of Annex F hereto (appropriately completed to the reasonable satisfaction of the Pledgee and with such modifications, if any, as shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Pledgee) pursuant to which such issuer agrees to comply with any and all instructions originated by the Pledgee without further consent by the registered owner and not to comply with instructions regarding such Uncertificated Security (and any Partnership Interests and Limited Liability Company Interests issued by such issuer) originated by any other Person other than a court of competent jurisdiction;

(C) with respect to a Partnership Interest or a Limited Liability Company Interest (other than a Partnership Interest or Limited Liability Company Interest credited on the books of a Clearing Corporation or Securities Intermediary), (1) if such Partnership Interest or Limited Liability Company Interest is represented by a certificate and is a Security for purposes of the UCC, the procedure set forth in Section 3(b)(i)(A) hereof, and (2) if such Partnership Interest or Limited Liability Company Interest is not represented by a certificate or is not a Security for purposes of the UCC, the procedure set forth in Section 3(b)(i)(B);

(D) with respect to any Note (other than a Note which does not have a principal amount in excess of $100,000), such Pledgor shall physically deliver such Note to the Pledgee, endorsed in blank, or, at the request of the Pledgee, endorsed to the Pledgee; and

(E) with respect to cash proceeds from any of the Collateral described in Section 3(a) hereof, such Pledgor shall deposit of such cash in the Dominion Account or any other Deposit Account that is subject to a Deposit Account Control Agreement; provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 3(b)(i), a Pledgor shall not be required to take the actions set forth in this Section with respect to any Certificated Security, Uncertificated Security, Partnership Interest or Limited Liability Company Interest of a Person that is not a Subsidiary of such Pledgor to the extent the aggregate fair market value of all such Collateral does not exceed $100,000.

(ii) In addition to the actions required to be taken pursuant to Section 3(b)(i) hereof, each Pledgor shall take the following additional actions with respect to the Collateral:

(A) with respect to all Collateral of such Pledgor described in Sections 3

(b)(i)(A) to (D) hereof, whereby or with respect to which the Pledgee may obtain "control" thereof within the meaning of Section 8-106 of the UCC (or under any provision of the UCC as same may be amended or supplemented from time to time, or under the laws of any relevant State other than the State of New York), such Pledgor shall take all actions as may be reasonably requested from time to time by the Pledgee so that "control" of such Collateral is obtained and at all times held by the Pledgee (including, without limitation, the delivery of Certificated Securities, accompanied by executed instruments of transfer endorsed in blank, or, at the request of the Pledgee, endorsed to the Pledgee); and

(B) each Pledgor shall from time to time cause appropriate financing statements (on appropriate forms) under the Uniform Commercial Code, covering all Collateral hereunder (with the form of such financing statements to be reasonably satisfactory to the Pledgee), to be filed in the relevant filing offices, so that at all times the Pledgee's security interest in the Investment Property and other Collateral which can be perfected by the filing of such financing statements (in each case to the maximum extent perfection by filing may be obtained under the laws of the relevant States, including, without limitation, Section 9-312(a) of the UCC) is so perfected.

(c) Subsequently Acquired Collateral. If any Pledgor shall acquire (by purchase, stock dividend, distribution or otherwise) any additional Collateral at any time or from time to time after the date hereof, (i) such Collateral shall automatically (and without any further action being required to be taken) be subject to the pledge and security interests created pursuant to Section 3(a) hereof and, furthermore, such Pledgor will thereafter take (or cause to be taken) all action (as promptly as practicable) with respect to such Collateral in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 3(b) hereof. Without limiting the foregoing, each Pledgor shall be required to pledge hereunder the Equity Interests of any FSHCO or Foreign Subsidiary at any time and from time to time after the date hereof acquired by such Pledgor, provided that any such pledge of Voting Equity Interests of any FSHCO or Foreign Subsidiary shall be subject to the proviso to Section 3(a) hereof.

(d) Transfer Taxes. Each pledge of Collateral under Section 3(a) or Section 3(c) hereof shall be accompanied by any transfer tax stamps required in connection with the pledge of such Collateral.

(e) Certain Representations and Warranties Regarding the Collateral. Each Pledgor represents and warrants that on the date hereof (i) each Subsidiary of such Pledgor, and the direct ownership thereof, is listed in Annex A hereto; (ii) the Stock (and any warrants or options to purchase Stock) held by such Pledgor consists of the number and type of shares of the stock (or warrants or options to purchase any stock) of the corporations as described in Annex B hereto; (iii) such Stock referenced in clause (ii) of this paragraph constitutes that percentage of the issued and outstanding capital stock of the issuing corporation (or other applicable issuer) as is set forth in Annex B hereto; (iv) the Notes held by such Pledgor consist of the intercompany notes and the promissory notes described in Annex C hereto where such Pledgor is listed as the lender; (v) the Limited Liability Company Interests held by such Pledgor consist of the number and type of interests of the Persons described in Annex D hereto; (vi) each such Limited Liability Company Interest referenced in clause (v) of this paragraph constitutes that percentage of the issued and outstanding equity interest of the issuing Person as set forth in Annex D hereto; (vii) the Partnership Interests held by such Pledgor consist of the number and type of interests of the Persons described in Annex E hereto; (viii) each such Partnership Interest referenced in clause (ix) of this paragraph constitutes that percentage or portion of the entire partnership interest of the Partnership as set forth in Annex E hereto; (ix) the Pledgor has complied with the respective procedure set forth in Section 3(b)(i) hereof with respect to each item of Collateral described in Annexes B through E hereto; and (x) on the date hereof, such Pledgor owns no other Securities, Stock, Notes, Limited Liability Company Interests or Partnership Interests which are required to be pledged under Section 3(a) hereof.

Section 4. Appointment of Sub-Agents; Endorsements, Etc.

The Pledgee shall have the right to appoint one or more sub-agents for the purpose of retaining physical possession of the Collateral, which may be held (in the reasonable discretion of the Pledgee) in the name of the relevant Pledgor, endorsed or assigned in blank or in favor of the Pledgee or any nominee or nominees of the Pledgee or a sub-agent appointed by the Pledgee.

Section 5. Voting, Etc., While No Event of Default.

For greater certainty, unless and until there shall have occurred and be continuing any Event of Default under the Credit Agreement, each Pledgor shall be entitled to exercise any and all voting and other consensual rights pertaining to the Collateral owned by it, and to give consents, waivers or ratifications in respect thereof. All such rights of each Pledgor to vote and to give consents, waivers and ratifications shall cease at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and, except in the case of an Event of Default under Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement, upon prior written notice from the Pledgee of its intent to exercise its rights under this Agreement, and Section 7 hereof shall become applicable.

Section 6. Dividends and Other Distributions.

For greater certainty, except as permitted under the Credit Agreement, unless and until there shall have occurred and be continuing an Event of Default and, other than in the case of an Event of Default under Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement, the Pledgee shall have given prior written notice of its intent to exercise such rights to the Pledgor, all cash dividends, cash distributions, cash Proceeds and other cash amounts payable in respect of the Collateral shall be paid to the respective Pledgor, provided, that all cash dividends payable in respect of the Collateral which are reasonably determined by the Pledgee to represent in whole or in part an extraordinary, liquidating or other distribution in return of capital shall be paid, to the extent so determined to represent an extraordinary, liquidating or other distribution in return of capital, to the Pledgee and retained by it as part of the Collateral. While this Agreement is in effect, the Pledgee shall be entitled to receive directly, and to retain as part of the Collateral:

(a) all other or additional stock, notes, certificates, limited liability company interests, partnership interests, instruments or other securities or property (including, but not limited to, cash dividends other than as set forth above) paid or distributed by way of dividend or otherwise in respect of the Collateral;

(b) all other or additional stock, notes, certificates, limited liability company interests, partnership interests, instruments or other securities or property (including, but not limited to, cash (although such cash may be paid directly to the respective Pledgor so long as no Event of Default then exists)) paid or distributed in respect of the Collateral by way of stock-split, spin-off, split-up, reclassification, combination of shares or similar rearrangement; and

(c) all other or additional stock, notes, certificates, limited liability company interests, partnership interests, instruments or other securities or property (including, but not limited to, cash) which may be paid in respect of the Collateral by reason of any consolidation, merger, exchange of stock, conveyance of assets, liquidation or similar corporate or other reorganization.

Nothing contained in this Section 6 shall limit or restrict in any way the Pledgee's right to receive the proceeds of the Collateral in any form in accordance with Section 3 hereof.

All dividends, distributions or other payments which are received by any Pledgor contrary to the provisions of this Section 6 or Section 7 hereof shall be received in trust for the benefit of the Pledgee, shall be segregated from other property or funds of such Pledgor and shall be forthwith delivered to the Pledgee as Collateral in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement).

Section 7. Remedies in Case of an Event of Default. (a) If there shall have occurred and be continuing an Event of Default, then and in every such case, subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, the Pledgee shall be entitled to exercise all of the rights, powers and remedies (whether vested in it by this Agreement, any other Credit Document or by law) for the protection and enforcement of its rights in respect of the Collateral, and the Pledgee shall be entitled to exercise all the rights and remedies of a secured party under the UCC as in effect in any relevant jurisdiction and also shall be entitled, without limitation, to exercise the following rights, with each Pledgor hereby agreeing that the rights set forth in clauses (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (vi) below are commercially reasonable:

(i) to receive all amounts payable in respect of the Collateral otherwise payable under Section 6 hereof to the respective Pledgor;

(ii) to transfer all or any part of the Collateral into the Pledgee's name or the name of its nominee or nominees;

(iii) to accelerate any Pledged Note which may be accelerated in accordance with its terms, and take any other lawful action to collect upon any Pledged Note (including, without limitation, to make any demand for payment thereon);

(iv) to vote (and exercise all rights and powers in respect of voting) all or any part of the Collateral (whether or not transferred into the name of the Pledgee) and give all consents, waivers and ratifications in respect of the Collateral and otherwise act with respect thereto as though it were the outright owner thereof (each Pledgor hereby irrevocably constituting and appointing the Pledgee the proxy and attorney-in-fact of such Pledgor, with full power of substitution to do so);

(v) at any time and from time to time to sell, assign and deliver, or grant options to purchase, all or any part of the Collateral, or any interest therein, at any public or private sale, without demand of performance, advertisement or, notice of intention to sell or of the time or place of sale or adjournment thereof or to redeem or otherwise purchase or dispose (all of which are hereby waived by each Pledgor), for cash, on credit or for other property, for immediate or future delivery without any assumption of credit risk, and for such price or prices and at such time or times, at such place or places and on such terms as the Pledgee may, in compliance with any mandatory requirements of applicable law, determine to be commercially reasonable, provided at least 10 days' written notice of the time and place of any such sale shall be given to the respective Pledgor. The Pledgee shall not be obligated to make any such sale of Collateral regardless of whether any such notice of sale has theretofore been given. Each Pledgor hereby waives and releases to the fullest extent permitted by law any right or equity of redemption with respect to the Collateral, whether before or after sale hereunder, and all rights, if any, of marshalling the Collateral and any other security or the Obligations or otherwise. At any such sale, unless prohibited by applicable law, the Pledgee on behalf of the Secured Creditors may bid for and purchase all or any part of the Collateral so sold free from any such right or equity of redemption. Neither the Pledgee nor any other Secured Creditor shall be liable for failure to collect or realize upon any or all of the Collateral or for any delay in so doing nor shall any of them be under any obligation to take any action whatsoever with regard thereto; and

(vi) to set off any and all Collateral against any and all Secured Obligations, and to withdraw any and all cash or other Collateral from any and all Collateral Accounts and to apply such cash and other Collateral to the payment of any and all Secured Obligations.

(b) It is understood and agreed that in respect of Collateral consisting of Uncertificated Securities, Partnership Interests and Limited Liability Company Interests subject of an agreement substantially in the form of Annex F and as described in Section 3(b)(i)(B), unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Pledgee shall not deliver to the issuer of such Uncertificated Securities, Partnership Interests or Limited Liability Company Interests, as the case may be, a notice stating that the Pledgee is exercising exclusive control of such Uncertificated Securities, Partnership Interests or Limited Liability Company Interests, as the case may be, under, and as described in such respective agreement.

Section 8. Remedies, Cumulative, Etc.

Each and every right, power and remedy of the Pledgee provided for in this Agreement or in any other Credit Document, or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute shall be cumulative and concurrent and, subject to Section 12(c) hereof, shall be in addition to every other such right, power or remedy. The exercise or beginning of the exercise by the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor of any one or more of the rights, powers or remedies provided for in this Agreement or any other Credit Document or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor of all such other rights, powers or remedies, and no failure or delay on the part of the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor to exercise any such right, power or remedy shall operate as a waiver thereof. No notice to or demand on any Pledgor in any case shall entitle it to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of any of the rights of the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand. The Secured Creditors agree that this Agreement may be enforced only by the action of the Pledgee, in each case, acting upon the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors, and that no other Secured Creditor shall have any right individually to seek to enforce or to enforce this Agreement or to realize upon the security to be granted hereby, it being understood and agreed that such rights and remedies may be exercised by the Pledgee for the benefit of the Secured Creditors upon the terms of this Agreement and the Security Agreement.

Section 9. Application of Proceeds.

(a) Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, all monies collected by the Pledgee upon any sale or other disposition of the Collateral as a result of the exercise of any remedies by the Pledgee after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, together with all other monies received by the Pledgee hereunder, shall be applied in the manner provided in the Credit Agreement.

(b) It is understood and agreed that each Pledgor shall remain jointly and severally liable with respect to the Secured Obligations to the extent of any deficiency between the amount of the proceeds of the Collateral pledged by it hereunder and the aggregate amount of the Secured Obligations.

Section 10. Purchasers of Collateral.

Upon any sale of the Collateral by the Pledgee hereunder (whether by virtue of the power of sale herein granted, pursuant to judicial process or otherwise), the receipt of the Pledgee or the officer making such sale shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser or purchasers of the Collateral so sold, and such purchaser or purchasers shall not be obligated to see to the application of any part of the purchase money paid over to the Pledgee or such officer or be answerable in any way for the misapplication or nonapplication thereof.

Section 11. Indemnity and Payment of Expenses.

The terms of Section 12.01 of the Credit Agreement are incorporated herein by reference, mutatis mutandis, and the parties hereto agree to such terms.

Section 12. Pledgee Not A Partner or Limited Liability Company.

(a) Nothing herein shall be construed to make the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor liable as a member of any limited liability company or as a partner of any partnership and neither the Pledgee nor any other Secured Creditor by virtue of this Agreement or otherwise (except as referred to in the following sentence) shall have any of the duties, obligations or liabilities of a member of any limited liability company or as a partner in any partnership. The parties hereto expressly agree that, unless the Pledgee shall become the absolute owner of Collateral consisting of a Limited Liability Company Interest or a Partnership Interest pursuant hereto, this Agreement shall not be construed as creating a partnership or joint venture among the Pledgee, any other Secured Creditor, any Pledgor and/or any other Person.

(b) Except as provided in the last sentence of paragraph (a) of this Section 12, the Pledgee, by accepting this Agreement, did not intend to become a member of any limited liability company or a partner of any partnership or otherwise be deemed to be a co-venturer with respect to any Pledgor, any limited liability company, partnership and/or any other Person either before or after an Event of Default shall have occurred. The Pledgee shall have only those powers set forth herein and the Secured Creditors shall assume none of the duties, obligations or liabilities of a member of any limited liability company or as a partner of any partnership or any Pledgor except as provided in the last sentence of paragraph (a) of this Section 12.

(c) The Pledgee and the other Secured Creditors shall not be obligated to perform or discharge any obligation of any Pledgor as a result of the pledge hereby effected.

(d) The acceptance by the Pledgee of this Agreement, with all the rights, powers, privileges and authority so created, shall not at any time or in any event obligate the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor to appear in or defend any action or proceeding relating to the Collateral to which it is not a party, or to take any action hereunder or thereunder, or to expend any money or incur any expenses or perform or discharge any obligation, duty or liability under the Collateral.

Section 13. Further Assurances; Power-of-Attorney.

(a) Each Pledgor agrees that it will join with the Pledgee in executing and, at such Pledgor's own expense, file and refile under the UCC or other applicable law such financing statements, continuation statements and other documents, in form reasonably acceptable to the Pledgee, in such offices as the Pledgee (acting on its own or on the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors) may reasonably deem necessary or appropriate and wherever required or permitted by law in order to perfect and preserve the Pledgee's security interest in the Collateral hereunder and hereby authorizes the Pledgee to file financing statements and amendments thereto relative to all or any part of the Collateral (including, without limitation, financing statements which list the Collateral specifically and/or as "all assets whether now owned or hereafter acquired" without the signature of such Pledgor where permitted by law), and agrees to do such further acts and things and to execute and deliver to the Pledgee such additional conveyances, assignments, agreements and instruments as the Pledgee may reasonably require or deem advisable to carry into effect the purposes of this Agreement or to further assure and confirm unto the Pledgee its rights, powers and remedies hereunder or thereunder.

(b) Each Pledgor hereby constitutes and appoints the Pledgee its true and lawful attorney-in-fact, irrevocably, with full authority in the place and stead of such Pledgor and in the name of such Pledgor or otherwise, from time to time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and after giving any written prior notice required hereunder (if any) to the relevant Pledgor, in the Pledgee's discretion, to act, require, demand, receive and give acquittance for any and all monies and claims for monies due or to become due to such Pledgor under or arising out of the Collateral, to endorse any checks or other instruments or orders in connection therewith and to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings and to execute any instrument which the Pledgee may deem reasonably necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, which appointment as attorney is coupled with an interest.

Section 14. The Pledgee as Collateral Agent.

The Pledgee will hold in accordance with this Agreement all items of the Collateral at any time received under this Agreement. It is expressly understood, acknowledged and agreed by each Secured Creditor that by accepting the benefits of this Agreement each such Secured Creditor acknowledges and agrees that the obligations of the Pledgee as holder of the Collateral and interests therein and with respect to the disposition thereof, and otherwise under this Agreement, are only those expressly set forth in this Agreement and in Article 11 of the Credit Agreement. The Pledgee shall act hereunder on the terms and conditions set forth herein and in Article 11 of the Credit Agreement.

Section 15. Transfer by the Pledgors.

Except as permitted prior to the date all Secured Obligations have been paid in full and all Commitments under the Credit Agreement have been terminated, pursuant to the Credit Agreement, no Pledgor will sell or otherwise dispose of, grant any option with respect to, or mortgage, pledge or otherwise encumber any of the Collateral or any interest therein.

Section 16. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Pledgors.

(a) Each Pledgor represents, warrants and, until the Termination Date, covenants as to itself and each of its Subsidiaries that:

(i) it is the legal, beneficial and (except as to Securities credited on the books of a Clearing Corporation or a Securities Intermediary) record owner of, and has good and valid title to, all of its Collateral consisting of one or more Securities, Partnership Interests and Limited Liability Company Interests and that it has sufficient interest in all of its Collateral in which a security interest is purported to be created hereunder for such security interest to attach (subject, in each case, to no pledge, lien, mortgage, hypothecation, security interest, charge, option, Adverse Claim or other encumbrance whatsoever, except the liens and security interests created by this Agreement or permitted under the Credit Documents);

(ii) it has full power, authority and legal right to pledge all the Collateral pledged by it pursuant to this Agreement;

(iii) this Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by such Pledgor and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Pledgor enforceable against such Pledgor in accordance with its terms, subject to (A) the effects of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law) and (B) as it relates to the pledge of any capital stock of Foreign Subsidiaries of the Borrower, the effects of the possible judicial application of foreign laws or foreign governmental or judicial action affecting creditors' rights;

(iv) no consent of any other party (including, without limitation, any stockholder, partner, member or creditor of such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries) and no material consent, license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority is required to be obtained by such Pledgor in connection with (A) the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement by such Pledgor, (B) the validity or enforceability of this Agreement against such Pledgor, (C) the filing of any financing statements, the perfection or enforceability of the Pledgee's security interest in such Pledgor's Collateral or (D) except for compliance with or as may be required by applicable securities laws, the exercise by the Pledgee of any of its rights or remedies provided herein, in each case, except as would not reasonable be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(v) neither the execution, delivery or performance by such Pledgor of this Agreement, or any other Credit Document to which it is a party, nor compliance by it with the terms and provisions hereof and thereof, (A) will contravene any provision of any applicable law, statute, rule or regulation, or any applicable order, writ, injunction or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality, domestic or foreign, applicable to such Pledgor, (B) will conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of (or the obligation to create or impose) any Lien (except pursuant to the Security Documents and Permitted Liens) upon any of the properties or assets of any such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of, any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, credit agreement or loan agreement, or any other material agreement, contract or instrument, in each case to which such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which it or any of its properties or assets is bound or to which it may be subject (except, in the case of preceding clauses (A) and (B), other than in the case of any contravention, breach, default and/or conflict, that would not reasonably be expected, either individually or in the aggregate, to have a Material Adverse Effect); or (C) will violate any provision of the certificate or articles of incorporation, certificate of formation, limited liability company agreement or by-laws (or equivalent organizational documents), as applicable, of such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries.

(vi) all of such Pledgor's Collateral (consisting of Securities, Limited Liability Company Interests and Partnership Interests issued by any Pledgor or any Subsidiary of any Pledgor) has been duly and validly issued, is fully paid and non-assessable and is subject to no options to purchase or similar rights;

(vii) each of such Pledgor's Pledged Notes issued by any Pledgor or any Subsidiary of any Pledgor constitutes, or when executed by the obligor thereof will constitute, the legal, valid and binding obligation of such obligor, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that the enforceability thereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law);

(viii) the pledge, collateral assignment and delivery to the Pledgee of such Pledgor's Collateral consisting of Certificated Securities and Pledged Notes pursuant to this Agreement and the continued possession thereof by the Pledgee or an Affiliate creates a valid and perfected security interest in such Certificated Securities and Pledged Notes, and the proceeds thereof, having the priority specified in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, subject to no prior Lien or encumbrance or to any agreement purporting to grant to any third party a Lien or encumbrance on the property or assets of such Pledgor which would include the Securities (other than the liens and security interests permitted under the Credit Documents then in effect) and the Pledgee is entitled to all the rights, priorities and benefits afforded by the UCC or other relevant law as enacted in any relevant jurisdiction to perfect security interests in respect of such Collateral; and

(ix) to the extent required by Section 3(b) hereof, the Pledgor shall have taken all steps in its control so that the Pledgee may obtain "control" (as defined in Section 8-106 of the UCC) over all of such Pledgor's Collateral consisting of Securities (including, without limitation, Notes that are Securities) with respect to which such "control" may be obtained pursuant to Section 8-106 of the UCC, except to the extent that the obligation of the applicable Pledgor to provide the Pledgee with "control" of such Collateral has not yet arisen under this Agreement.

(b) Each Pledgor covenants and agrees that it will defend the Pledgee's right, title and security interest in and to such Pledgor's Collateral (whether now owned or hereinafter acquired) and the proceeds thereof against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever.

Section 17. Pledgors' Obligations Absolute, Etc. The obligations of each Pledgor under this Agreement shall be absolute and unconditional and shall remain in full force and effect without regard to, and shall not be released, suspended, discharged, terminated or otherwise affected by, any circumstance or occurrence whatsoever (other than termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 19 hereof or, with respect to a specific Pledgor, release of such Pledgor pursuant to Section 31 hereof), including, without limitation:

(a) any renewal, extension, amendment or modification of, or addition or supplement to or deletion from any Credit Document (other than this Agreement in accordance with its terms), or any other instrument or agreement referred to therein, or any assignment or transfer of any thereof;

(b) any waiver, consent, extension, indulgence or other action or inaction under or in respect of any such agreement or instrument including, without limitation, this Agreement (other than a waiver, consent or extension with respect to this Agreement in accordance with its terms);

(c) any furnishing of any additional security to the Pledgee or its assignee or any acceptance thereof or any release of any security by the Pledgee or its assignee;

(d) any limitation on any party's liability or obligations under any such instrument or agreement or any invalidity or unenforceability, in whole or in part, of any such instrument or agreement or any term thereof; or

(e) any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, composition, adjustment, dissolution, liquidation or other like proceeding relating to any Pledgor or any Subsidiary of any Pledgor, or any action taken with respect to this Agreement by any trustee or receiver, or by any court, in any such proceeding, whether or not such Pledgor shall have notice or knowledge of any of the foregoing.

Section 18. Sale of Collateral Without Registration.

If at any time when the Pledgee shall determine to exercise its right to sell all or any part of the Collateral consisting of Securities, Limited Liability Company Interests or Partnership Interests pursuant to Section 7 hereof, and such Collateral or the part thereof to be sold shall not, for any reason whatsoever, be effectively registered under the Securities Act, as then in effect, the Pledgee may, in its sole and absolute discretion, sell such Collateral or part thereof by private sale in such manner and under such circumstances as the Pledgee may deem necessary or advisable in order that such sale may legally be effected without such registration. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in any such event the Pledgee, in its sole and absolute discretion (a) may proceed to make such private sale notwithstanding that a registration statement for the purpose of registering such Collateral or part thereof shall have been filed under such Securities Act, (b) may approach and negotiate with a single possible purchaser to effect such sale, and (c) may restrict such sale to a purchaser who will represent and agree, among other things, that such purchaser is purchasing for its own account, for investment, and not with a view to the distribution or sale of such Collateral or part thereof. In the event of any such sale, the Pledgee shall incur no responsibility or liability for selling all or any part of the Collateral at a price which the Pledgee, in its sole and absolute discretion, may in good faith deem reasonable under the circumstances, notwithstanding the possibility that a substantially higher price might be realized if the sale were deferred until the registration as aforesaid.

Section 19. Termination; Release.

(a) On the Termination Date (as defined below), this Agreement shall terminate (provided that all indemnities set forth herein including, without limitation, in Section 11 hereof shall survive any such termination) and the Pledgee, at the request and expense of such Pledgor, will execute and deliver to such Pledgor a proper instrument or instruments acknowledging the satisfaction and termination of this Agreement (including, without limitation, UCC termination statements and instruments of satisfaction, discharge and/or reconveyance), and will duly release from the security interest created hereby and assign, transfer and deliver to such Pledgor (without recourse and without any representation or warranty) such of the Collateral as may be in the possession of the Pledgee or any of its sub-agents hereunder and as has not theretofore been sold or otherwise applied or released pursuant to this Agreement, together with any moneys at the time held by the Pledgee or any of its sub-agents hereunder and, with respect to any Collateral consisting of an Uncertificated Security, a Partnership Interest or a Limited Liability Company Interest (other than an Uncertificated Security, Partnership Interest or Limited Liability Company Interest credited on the books of a Clearing Corporation or Securities Intermediary), a termination of the agreement relating thereto executed and delivered by the issuer of such Uncertificated Security pursuant to Section 3(b)(i)(B) or by the respective partnership or limited liability company pursuant to Section 3(b)(i)(D)(2). As used in this Agreement, "Termination Date" shall mean the date upon which the Commitments under the Credit Agreement have been terminated and all Secured Obligations have been paid in full, no Note under the Credit Agreement is outstanding and all Term Loans thereunder have been repaid in full.

(b) In the event that any part of the Collateral is sold or otherwise disposed of (to a Person other than a Credit Party) at any time prior to the time at which all Secured Obligations have been paid in full and all Commitments under the Credit Agreement have been terminated, in connection with a sale or disposition permitted by Section 9.02 of the Credit Agreement or is otherwise released at the direction of the Required Lenders (or a greater percentage of Lenders if required by Section 12.10 of the Credit Agreement), the Pledgee, at the request and expense of such Pledgor, will duly release from the security interest created hereby (and will execute and deliver such documentation, including termination or partial release statements and the like in connection therewith) and assign, transfer and deliver to such Pledgor (without recourse and without any representation or warranty) such of the Collateral as is then being (or has been) so sold or released and as may be in the possession of the Pledgee (or, in the case of Collateral held by any sub-agent designated pursuant to Section 4 hereof, such sub-agent) and has not theretofore been released pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) At any time that any Pledgor desires that the Pledgee take any action to acknowledge or give effect to any release of Collateral pursuant to the foregoing Section 20(a) or (b), such Pledgor shall deliver to the Pledgee (and the relevant sub-agent, if any, designated pursuant to Section 4 hereof) a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer of such Pledgor stating that the release of the respective Collateral is permitted pursuant to (a) or (b) hereof.

(d) The Pledgee shall have no liability whatsoever to any other Secured Creditor as the result of any release of Collateral by it in accordance with (or which the Collateral Agent in the absence of gross negligence and willful misconduct believes to be in accordance with) this Section 20.

Section 20. Notices, Etc.

(a) Except as otherwise specified herein, all notices, requests, demands or other communications to or upon the respective parties hereto shall be sent or delivered by mail, telegraph, telex, telecopy, cable or courier service and all such notices and communications shall, when mailed, telegraphed, telexed, telecopied, or cabled or sent by courier, be effective when deposited in the mails, delivered to the telegraph company, cable company or overnight courier, as the case may be, or sent by telex or telecopier, except that notices and communications to the Pledgee or any Pledgor shall not be effective until received by the Pledgee or such Pledgor, as the case may be. Section 22. Successors and Assigns.

This Agreement shall create a continuing security interest in the Collateral and shall (i) remain in full force and effect, subject to release and/or termination as set forth in Section 19 hereof, (ii) be binding upon each Pledgor, its successors and assigns; provided, however, that no Pledgor shall assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Pledgee (with the prior written consent of the Required Secured Creditors), and (iii) inure, together with the rights and remedies of the Pledgee hereunder, to the benefit of the Pledgee, the other Secured Creditors and their respective successors, transferees and permitted assigns. (A) with respect to a Certificated Security (other than a Certificated Security credited on the books of a Clearing House or Securities Intermediary), such Pledgor shall physically deliver such Certificated Security to the Collateral Agent, endorsed to the Collateral Agent or endorsed in blank to the extent the interests represented by such Certificated Security are required to be pledged hereunder;

(C) with respect to a Partnership Interest (other than a Partnership Interest credited on the books of a Clearing House or Securities Intermediary), (1) if such Partnership Interest is represented by a certificate and is a Security for purposes of the Securities Transfer Act, 2006 (Ontario) (the "STA)" or securities transfer legislation in another applicable jurisdiction in Canada, the procedure set forth in Section 3(b)(i)(A) hereof, and (2) if such Partnership Interest is not represented by a certificate or is not a Security for purposes of the STA or securities transfer

(ii) In addition to the actions required to be taken pursuant to Section 3(b)(i) hereof, each Pledgor shall take the following additional actions with respect to the Collateral:

(A) with respect to all Collateral of such Pledgor described in Sections 3(b)(i)(A) to (D) hereof, whereby or with respect to which the Collateral Agent may obtain "control" thereof within the meaning of the PPSA, such Pledgor shall take all actions as may be reasonably requested from time to time by the Collateral Agent so that "control" of such Collateral is obtained and at all times held by the Collateral Agent (including, without limitation, the delivery of Certificated Securities, accompanied by executed instruments of transfer endorsed in blank, or, at the request of the Collateral Agent, endorsed to the Collateral Agent); and

(B) each Pledgor shall from time to time cause appropriate financing statements under the PPSA, covering all Collateral hereunder (with the form of such financing statements to be reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent), to be filed in the relevant filing offices, so that at all times the Collateral Agent's security interest in the Investment Property and other Collateral which can be perfected by the filing of such financing statements (in each case to the maximum extent perfection by filing may be obtained under the laws of the relevant jurisdiction, including, without limitation, Section 23 of the PPSA) is so perfected.

(c) Subsequently Acquired Collateral. If any Pledgor shall acquire (by purchase, stock dividend, distribution or otherwise) any additional Collateral at any time or from time to time after the date hereof, (i) such Collateral shall automatically (and without any further action being required to be taken) be subject to the pledge and security interests created pursuant to Section 3(a) hereof and, furthermore, such Pledgor will thereafter take (or cause to be taken) all action (as promptly as practicable) with respect to such Collateral in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 3(b) hereof.

(d) Transfer Taxes. Each pledge of Collateral under Section 3(a) or Section 3(c) hereof shall be accompanied by any transfer tax stamps required in connection with the pledge of such Collateral.

(e) Certain Representations and Warranties Regarding the Collateral. Each Pledgor represents and warrants that on the date hereof: (i) each Subsidiary of such Pledgor, and the direct ownership thereof, is listed in Annex B hereto; (ii) the Stock (and any warrants or options to purchase Stock) held by such Pledgor consists of the number and type of shares of the stock (or warrants or options to purchase any stock) of the corporations as described in Annex B hereto; (iii) such Stock referenced in clause (ii) of this paragraph constitutes that percentage of the issued and outstanding capital stock of the issuing corporation (or other applicable issuer) as is set forth in Annex B hereto; (iv) the Notes held by such Pledgor consist of the intercompany notes and the promissory notes described in Annex C hereto where such Pledgor is listed as the lender; (v) the Partnership Interests held by such Pledgor consist of the number and type of interests of the Persons described in Annex D hereto; (vi) each such Partnership Interest referenced in clause (v) of this paragraph constitutes that percentage or portion of the entire partnership interest of the Partnership as set forth in Annex D hereto; (vii) the Pledgor has complied with the respective procedure set forth in Section 3(b)(i) hereof with respect to each item of Collateral described in Annexes B through E hereto; and (viii) on the date hereof, such Pledgor owns no other Securities, Stock, Notes or Partnership Interests which are required to be pledged under Section 3(a) hereof.

(f) Attachment. Each Pledgor has rights in its Collateral and agrees that the Secured Creditors have given value and that the security interests created by this Agreement are intended to attach (a) with respect to Collateral that is now in existence, upon execution of this Agreement, and (b) with respect to Collateral that comes into existence in the future, upon such Pledgor acquiring rights in the Collateral or the power to transfer rights in the Collateral to the Collateral Agent. In each case, the parties do not intend to postpone the attachment of any security interests created by this Agreement.

(g) In Addition to Other Rights; No Marshalling. This Agreement is in addition to and is not in any way prejudiced by or merged with any other security interest or Lien now or subsequently held by the Collateral Agent in respect of any Secured Obligations. The Secured Creditors shall be under no obligation to marshal in favour of the Pledgors any other security interest or Lien or any money or other property that the Secured Creditors may be entitled to receive or may have a claim upon.

Section 4. Appointment of Sub-Agents; Endorsements, Etc.

The Collateral Agent shall have the right to appoint one or more sub-agents for the purpose of retaining physical possession of the Collateral, which may be held (in the reasonable discretion of the Collateral Agent) in the name of the relevant Pledgor, endorsed or assigned in blank or in favour of the Collateral Agent or any nominee or nominees of the Collateral Agent or a sub-agent appointed by the Collateral Agent.

Section 5. Voting, Etc., While No Event of Default.

For greater certainty, unless and until there shall have occurred and be continuing any Event of Default under the Credit Agreement, each Pledgor shall be entitled to exercise any and all voting and other consensual rights pertaining to the Collateral owned by it, and to give consents, waivers or ratifications in respect thereof. Subject to Section 34 hereof, all such rights of each Pledgor to vote and to give consents, waivers and ratifications shall cease at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and, except in the case of an Event of Default under Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement, upon prior written notice from the Collateral Agent of its intent to exercise its rights under this Agreement, and Section 7 hereof shall become applicable.

Section 6. Dividends and Other Distributions.

For greater certainty, except as permitted under the Credit Agreement, unless and until there shall have occurred and be continuing an Event of Default and, other than in the case of an Event of Default under Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement, the Collateral Agent shall have given prior written notice of its intent to exercise such rights to the Pledgor, all cash dividends, cash distributions, cash Proceeds and other cash amounts payable in respect of the Collateral shall be paid to the respective Pledgor, provided, that all cash dividends payable in respect of the Collateral which are reasonably determined by the Collateral Agent to represent in whole or in part an extraordinary, liquidating or other distribution in return of capital shall be paid, to the extent so determined to represent an extraordinary, liquidating or other distribution in return of capital, to the Collateral Agent and retained by it as part of the Collateral. While this Agreement is in effect, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to receive directly, and to retain as part of the Collateral:

(a) all other or additional shares, units, trust units, partnership, membership or other interests, participations or other equivalent rights, notes, certificates, partnership interests, instruments or other securities or property (including, but not limited to, cash dividends other than as set forth above) paid or distributed by way of dividend or otherwise in respect of the Collateral;

(b) all other or additional shares, units, trust units, partnership, membership or other interests, participations or other equivalent rights, notes, certificates, partnership interests, instruments or other securities or property (including, but not limited to, cash (although such cash may be paid directly to the respective Pledgor so long as no Event of Default then exists)) paid or distributed in respect of the Collateral by way of stock-split, spin-off, split-up, reclassification, reorganization, combination of shares or similar rearrangement; and

(c) all other or additional shares, units, trust units, partnership, membership or other interests, participations or other equivalent rights, notes, certificates, partnership interests, instruments or other securities or property (including, but not limited to, cash) which may be paid in respect of the Collateral by reason of any consolidation, merger, amalgamation, exchange of stock, conveyance of assets, liquidation or similar corporate or other reorganization.

Nothing contained in this Section 6 shall limit or restrict in any way the Collateral Agent's right to receive the proceeds of the Collateral in any form in accordance with Section 3 hereof. All dividends, distributions or other payments which are received by any Pledgor contrary to the provisions of this Section 6 or Section 7 hereof shall be received in trust for the benefit of the Collateral Agent, shall be segregated from other property or funds of such Pledgor and shall be forthwith delivered to the Collateral Agent as Collateral in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement).

Section 7. Remedies in Case of an Event of Default. (a) If there shall have occurred and be continuing an Event of Default, then and in every such case, subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to exercise all of the rights, powers and remedies (whether vested in it by this Agreement, any other Credit Document or by law) for the protection and enforcement of its rights in respect of the Collateral, and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to exercise all the rights and remedies of a secured party under the PPSA and the UCC as in effect in any relevant jurisdiction and also shall be entitled, without limitation, to exercise the following rights, with each Pledgor hereby agreeing that the rights set forth in clauses (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (vi) below are commercially reasonable:

(i) to receive all amounts payable in respect of the Collateral otherwise payable under Section 6 hereof to the respective Pledgor;

(ii) to transfer all or any part of the Collateral into the Collateral Agent's name or the name of its nominee or nominees;

(iii) to accelerate any Pledged Note which may be accelerated in accordance with its terms, and take any other lawful action to collect upon any Pledged Note (including, without limitation, to make any demand for payment thereon);

(iv) to vote (and exercise all rights and powers in respect of voting) all or any part of the Collateral (whether or not transferred into the name of the Collateral Agent) and give all consents, waivers and ratifications in respect of the Collateral and otherwise act with respect thereto as though it were the outright owner thereof (each Pledgor hereby irrevocably constituting and appointing the Collateral Agent the proxy and attorney-in-fact of such Pledgor, with full power of substitution to do so);

(v) at any time and from time to time to sell, assign and deliver, or grant options to purchase, all or any part of the Collateral, or any interest therein, at any public or private sale, without demand of performance, advertisement or, notice of intention to sell or of the time or place of sale or adjournment thereof or to redeem or otherwise purchase or dispose (all of which are hereby waived by each Pledgor), for cash, on credit or for other property, for immediate or future delivery without any assumption of credit risk, and for such price or prices and at such time or times, at such place or places and on such terms as the Collateral Agent may, in compliance with any mandatory requirements of applicable law, determine to be commercially reasonable, provided at least 10 days' written notice of the time and place of any such sale shall be given to the respective Pledgor. The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to make any such sale of Collateral regardless of whether any such notice of sale has theretofore been given. Each Pledgor hereby waives and releases to the fullest extent permitted by law any right or equity of redemption with respect to the Collateral, whether before or after sale hereunder, and all rights, if any, of marshalling the Collateral and any other security or the Obligations or otherwise. At any such sale, unless prohibited by applicable law, the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Secured Creditors may bid for and purchase all or any part of the Collateral so sold free from any such right or equity of redemption. The Collateral Agent may also accept the Collateral in satisfaction of the Secured Obligations. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Creditor shall be liable for failure to collect or realize upon any or all of the Collateral or for any delay in so doing nor shall any of them be under any obligation to take any action whatsoever with regard thereto; and

(vi) to set off any and all Collateral against any and all Secured Obligations, and to withdraw any and all cash or other Collateral from any and all Collateral Accounts and to apply such cash and other Collateral to the payment of any and all Secured Obligations.

(b) It is understood and agreed that in respect of Collateral consisting of Uncertificated Securities and Partnership Interests subject of an agreement substantially in the form of Annex E and as described in Section 3(b)(i)(B), unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Collateral Agent shall not deliver to the issuer of such Uncertificated Securities or Partnership Interests, as the case may be, a notice stating that the Collateral Agent is exercising exclusive control of such Uncertificated Securities or Partnership Interests, as the case may be, under, and as described in such respective agreement.

(c) The Collateral Agent may take proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a receiver (which term includes a receiver and manager) of the Collateral or may by appointment in writing appoint any person to be a receiver of the Collateral. The Collateral Agent may remove any receiver appointed by it and appoint another in its place, and may determine the remuneration of any receiver, which may be paid from the proceeds of the Collateral in priority to other Secured Obligations. Any receiver appointed by the Collateral Agent shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, have all of the rights, benefits and powers of the Collateral Agent under this Agreement, the PPSA or otherwise. Any receiver shall be deemed the agent of the Obligors and the Agent shall not be in any way responsible for any misconduct or negligence of any receiver.

Section 8. Remedies, Cumulative, Etc.

Each and every right, power and remedy of the Collateral Agent provided for in this Agreement or in any other Credit Document, or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute shall be cumulative and concurrent and, subject to Section 12(c) hereof, shall be in addition to every other such right, power or remedy. The exercise or beginning of the exercise by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor of any one or more of the rights, powers or remedies provided for in this Agreement or any other Credit Document or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor of all such other rights, powers or remedies, and no failure or delay on the part of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor to exercise any such right, power or remedy shall operate as a waiver thereof. No notice to or demand on any Pledgor in any case shall entitle it to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of any of the rights of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand. The Secured Creditors agree that this Agreement may be enforced only by the action of the Collateral Agent, in each case, acting upon the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors, and that no other Secured Creditor shall have any right individually to seek to enforce or to enforce this Agreement or to realize upon the security to be granted hereby, it being understood and agreed that such rights and remedies may be exercised by the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors upon the terms of this Agreement and the Security Agreement.

Section 9. Application of Proceeds.

(a) Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, all monies collected by the Collateral Agent upon any sale or other disposition of the Collateral as a result of the exercise of any remedies by the Collateral Agent after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, together with all other monies received by the Collateral Agent hereunder, shall be applied in the manner provided in the Credit Agreement.

(b) It is understood and agreed that each Pledgor shall remain jointly and severally liable with respect to the Secured Obligations to the extent of any deficiency between the amount of the proceeds of the Collateral pledged by it hereunder and the aggregate amount of the Secured Obligations.

Section 10. Purchasers of Collateral.

Upon any sale of the Collateral by the Collateral Agent hereunder (whether by virtue of the power of sale herein granted, pursuant to judicial process or otherwise), the receipt of the Collateral Agent or the officer making such sale shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser or purchasers of the Collateral so sold, and such purchaser or purchasers shall not be obligated to see to the application of any part of the purchase money paid over to the Collateral Agent or such officer or be answerable in any way for the misapplication or nonapplication thereof.

Section 11. Indemnity and Payment of Expenses.

The terms of Section 12.01 of the Credit Agreement are incorporated herein by reference, mutatis mutandis, and the parties hereto agree to such terms.

Section 12. Collateral Agent Not A Partner or Limited Liability Company.

(a) Nothing herein shall be construed to make the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor liable as a member of any limited liability company or as a partner of any partnership and neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Creditor by virtue of this Agreement or otherwise (except as referred to in the following sentence) shall have any of the duties, obligations or liabilities of a member of any limited liability company or as a partner in any partnership. The parties hereto expressly agree that, unless the Collateral Agent shall become the absolute owner of Collateral consisting of a Partnership Interest pursuant hereto, this Agreement shall not be construed as creating a partnership or joint venture among the Collateral Agent, any other Secured Creditor, any Pledgor and/or any other Person.

(b) Except as provided in the last sentence of paragraph (a) of this Section 12, the Collateral Agent, by accepting this Agreement, did not intend to become a member of any limited liability company or a partner of any partnership or otherwise be deemed to be a co-venturer with respect to any Pledgor, any limited liability company, partnership and/or any other Person either before or after an Event of Default shall have occurred. The Collateral Agent shall have only those powers set forth herein and the Secured Creditors shall assume none of the duties, obligations or liabilities of a member of any limited liability company or as a partner of any partnership or any Pledgor except as provided in the last sentence of paragraph (a) of this Section 12.

(c) The Collateral Agent and the other Secured Creditors shall not be obligated to perform or discharge any obligation of any Pledgor as a result of the pledge hereby effected.

(d) The acceptance by the Collateral Agent of this Agreement, with all the rights, powers, privileges and authority so created, shall not at any time or in any event obligate the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor to appear in or defend any action or proceeding relating to the Collateral to which it is not a party, or to take any action hereunder or thereunder, or to expend any money or incur any expenses or perform or discharge any obligation, duty or liability under the Collateral.

Section 13. Further Assurances; Power-of-Attorney.

(a) Each Pledgor agrees that it will join with the Collateral Agent in executing and, at such Pledgor's own expense, file and refile under the PPSA or other applicable law such financing statements, financing change statements, renewals and other documents, in form reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent, in such offices as the Collateral Agent (acting on its own or on the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors) may reasonably deem necessary or appropriate and wherever required or permitted by law in order to perfect and preserve the Collateral Agent's security interest in the Collateral hereunder and hereby authorizes the Collateral Agent to file financing statements and amendments thereto relative to all or any part of the Collateral (including, without limitation, financing statements which list the Collateral specifically and/or as "all present and after-acquired personal property" without the signature of such Pledgor where permitted by law), and agrees to do such further acts and things and to execute and deliver to the Collateral Agent such additional conveyances, assignments, agreements and instruments as the Collateral Agent may reasonably require or deem advisable to carry into effect the purposes of this Agreement or to further assure and confirm unto the Collateral Agent its rights, powers and remedies hereunder or thereunder. Each Pledgor waives the right to receive a copy of any financing statement or financing change statement that may be registered in connection with this Agreement or any verification statement issued with respect to a registration, if waiver is not otherwise prohibited by law.

(b) Each Pledgor hereby constitutes and appoints the Collateral Agent its true and lawful attorney-in-fact, irrevocably, with full authority in the place and stead of such Pledgor and in the name of such Pledgor or otherwise, from time to time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and after giving any written prior notice required hereunder (if any) to the relevant Pledgor, in the Collateral Agent's discretion, to act, require, demand, receive and give acquittance for any and all monies and claims for monies due or to become due to such Pledgor under or arising out of the Collateral, to endorse any cheques or other instruments or orders in connection therewith and to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings and to execute any instrument which the Collateral Agent may deem reasonably necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, which appointment as attorney is coupled with an interest.

Section 14. The Collateral Agent as Collateral Agent.

The Collateral Agent will hold in accordance with this Agreement all items of the Collateral at any time received under this Agreement. It is expressly understood, acknowledged and agreed by each Secured Creditor that by accepting the benefits of this Agreement each such Secured Creditor acknowledges and agrees that the obligations of the Collateral Agent as holder of the Collateral and interests therein and with respect to the disposition thereof, and otherwise under this Agreement, are only those expressly set forth in this Agreement and in Article 11 of the Credit Agreement. The Collateral Agent shall act hereunder on the terms and conditions set forth herein and in Article 11 of the Credit Agreement.

Section 15. Transfer by the Pledgors.

Except as permitted prior to the date all Secured Obligations have been paid in full and all Commitments under the Credit Agreement have been terminated, pursuant to the Credit Agreement, no Pledgor will sell or otherwise dispose of, grant any option with respect to, or mortgage, pledge or otherwise encumber any of the Collateral or any interest therein.

Section 16. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Pledgors.

(a) Each Pledgor represents, warrants and, until the Termination Date, covenants as to itself and each of its Subsidiaries that:

(i) it is the legal, beneficial and (except as to Securities credited on the books of a Clearing House or a Securities Intermediary) record owner of, and has good and valid title to, all of its Collateral consisting of one or more Securities and Partnership Interests and that it has sufficient interest in all of its Collateral in which a security interest is purported to be created hereunder for such security interest to attach (subject, in each case, to no pledge, lien, mortgage, hypothecation, security interest, charge, option or other encumbrance whatsoever, except the liens and security interests created by this Agreement or permitted under the Credit Documents);

(ii) it has full power, authority and legal right to pledge all the Collateral pledged by it pursuant to this Agreement;

(iii) this Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by such Pledgor and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Pledgor enforceable against such Pledgor in accordance with its terms, subject to (A) the effects of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law) and (B) as it relates to the pledge of any Stock of Foreign Subsidiaries of the Borrower, the effects of the possible judicial application of foreign laws or foreign governmental or judicial action affecting creditors' rights;

(iv) other than any approval or consent that may be required from the board of directors or shareholders of any Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to its constating documents, which has already been obtained and will be maintained in full force and effect during the term of this Agreement, except in the case of ULC Shares, no consent of any other party (including, without limitation, any shareholder, unitholder, stockholder, partner, member or creditor of such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries) and no material consent, license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority is required to be obtained by such Pledgor in connection with (A) the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement by such Pledgor, (B) the validity or enforceability of this Agreement against such Pledgor, (C) the filing of any financing statements, the perfection or enforceability of the Collateral Agent's security interest in such Pledgor's Collateral or (D) except for compliance with or as may be required by applicable securities laws, the exercise by the Collateral Agent of any of its rights or remedies provided herein, in each case, except as would not reasonable be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(v) neither the execution, delivery or performance by such Pledgor of this Agreement, or any other Credit Document to which it is a party, nor compliance by it with the terms and provisions hereof and thereof, (A) will contravene any provision of any applicable law, statute, rule or regulation, or any applicable order, writ, injunction or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality, domestic or foreign, applicable to such Pledgor, (B) will conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of (or the obligation to create or impose) any Lien (except pursuant to the Security Documents and Permitted Liens) upon any of the properties or assets of any such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of, any indenture, mortgage, debenture, hypothec, deed of trust, credit agreement or loan agreement, or any other material agreement, contract or instrument, in each case to which such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which it or any of its properties or assets is bound or to which it may be subject (except, in the case of preceding clauses (A) and (B), other than in the case of any contravention, breach, default and/or conflict, that would not reasonably be expected, either individually or in the aggregate, to have a Material Adverse Effect); or (C) will violate any provision of the certificate or articles of incorporation, certificate of formation, limited liability company agreement, by-laws or partnership agreement (or equivalent organizational documents), as applicable, of such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries.

(vi) all of such Pledgor's Collateral (consisting of Securities and Partnership Interests issued by any Pledgor or any Subsidiary of any Pledgor) has been duly and validly issued, is fully paid and non-assessable and is subject to no options to purchase or similar rights;

(vii) each of such Pledgor's Pledged Notes issued by any Pledgor or any Subsidiary of any Pledgor constitutes, or when executed by the obligor thereof will constitute, the legal, valid and binding obligation of such obligor, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that the enforceability thereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law);

(viii) the pledge, collateral assignment and delivery to the Collateral Agent of such Pledgor's Collateral consisting of Certificated Securities and Pledged Notes pursuant to this Agreement and the continued possession thereof by the Collateral Agent or an Affiliate creates a valid and perfected security interest in such Certificated Securities and Pledged Notes, and the proceeds thereof, having the priority specified in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, subject to no prior Lien or encumbrance or to any agreement purporting to grant to any third party a Lien or encumbrance on the property or assets of such Pledgor which would include the Securities (other than the liens and security interests permitted under the Credit Documents then in effect) and the Collateral Agent is entitled to all the rights, priorities and benefits afforded by the PPSA or other relevant law as enacted in any relevant jurisdiction to perfect security interests in respect of such Collateral; and

(ix) to the extent required by Section 3(b) hereof, the Pledgor shall have taken all steps in its control so that the Collateral Agent may obtain "control" within the meaning of the PPSA over all of such Pledgor's Collateral consisting of Securities (including, without limitation, Notes that are Securities) with respect to which such "control" may be obtained pursuant to the PPSA, except to the extent that the obligation of the applicable Pledgor to provide the Collateral Agent with "control" of such Collateral has not yet arisen under this Agreement.

(b) Each Pledgor covenants and agrees that it will defend the Collateral Agent's right, title and security interest in and to such Pledgor's Collateral (whether now owned or hereinafter acquired) and the proceeds thereof against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever.

Section 17. Pledgors' Obligations Absolute, Etc. The obligations of each Pledgor under this Agreement shall be absolute and unconditional and shall remain in full force and effect without regard to, and shall not be released, suspended, discharged, terminated or otherwise affected by, any circumstance or occurrence whatsoever (other than termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 19 hereof or, with respect to a specific Pledgor, release of such Pledgor pursuant to Section 30 hereof), including, without limitation:

(a) any renewal, extension, amendment or modification of, or addition or supplement to or deletion from any Credit Document (other than this Agreement in accordance with its terms), or any other instrument or agreement referred to therein, or any assignment or transfer of any thereof;

(b) any waiver, consent, extension, indulgence or other action or inaction under or in respect of any such agreement or instrument including, without limitation, this Agreement (other than a waiver, consent or extension with respect to this Agreement in accordance with its terms);

(c) any furnishing of any additional security to the Collateral Agent or its assignee or any acceptance thereof or any release of any security by the Collateral Agent or its assignee;

(d) any limitation on any party's liability or obligations under any such instrument or agreement or any invalidity or unenforceability, in whole or in part, of any such instrument or agreement or any term thereof; or

(e) any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, composition, adjustment, dissolution, liquidation or other like proceeding relating to any Pledgor or any Subsidiary of any Pledgor, or any action taken with respect to this Agreement by any trustee or receiver, or by any court, in any such proceeding, whether or not such Pledgor shall have notice or knowledge of any of the foregoing.

Section 18. Sale of Collateral Without Qualification.

If the Collateral Agent determines to exercise its right to sell any or all of the Collateral consisting of Securities or Partnership Interests pursuant to Section 7 hereof, each Pledgor agrees that, upon request of the Collateral Agent, each Pledgor will, at its own expense, do or cause to be done all such other acts and things as may be necessary to make such sale of the Collateral or any part thereof valid and binding and in compliance with applicable law. The Collateral Agent is not required to take steps to qualify, or cause to be qualified, any Securities or Partnership Interests forming part of the Collateral for public distribution or request the issuer to qualify them. The Collateral Agent need not dispose of any Securities or Partnership Interests by public distribution even if they are qualified for public distribution. The Collateral Agent may dispose of Securities or Partnership Interests by an exemption from the prospectus requirements of applicable securities legislation as it considers appropriate notwithstanding that doing so may require them to comply with limitations or restrictions relating to the exemption. The limitations or restrictions may include complying with procedures that may restrict the number of prospective bidders and purchasers, requiring that prospective bidders and purchasers have certain qualifications (including being accredited investors, agreeing to pay a minimum price or demonstrating qualifications required to obtain any approval of the sale or resulting purchase that is required under applicable law), and restricting prospective bidders and purchasers to those who will represent and agree that they are purchasing as principal for their own account for investment and not with a view to distribution or resale. In the event of any such sale, the Collateral Agent shall incur no responsibility or liability for selling all or any part of the Collateral at a price which the Collateral Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, may in good faith deem reasonable under the circumstances, notwithstanding the possibility that a substantially higher price might be realized if the sale were deferred until the registration as aforesaid.

Section 19. Termination; Release.

(a) On the Termination Date (as defined below), this Agreement shall terminate (provided that all indemnities set forth herein including, without limitation, in Section 11 hereof shall survive any such termination) and the Collateral Agent, at the request and expense of such Pledgor, will execute and deliver to such Pledgor a proper instrument or instruments acknowledging the satisfaction and termination of this Agreement (including, without limitation, PPSA financing change statements or discharges and instruments of satisfaction, discharge and/or reconveyance), and will duly release from the security interest created hereby and assign, transfer and deliver to such Pledgor (without recourse and without any representation or warranty) such of the Collateral as may be in the possession of the Collateral Agent or any of its sub-agents hereunder and as has not theretofore been sold or otherwise applied or released pursuant to this Agreement, together with any moneys at the time held by the Collateral Agent or any of its sub-agents hereunder and, with respect to any Collateral consisting of an Uncertificated Security or a Partnership Interest (other than an Uncertificated Security or Partnership Interest credited on the books of a Clearing House or Securities Intermediary), a termination of the agreement relating thereto executed and delivered by the issuer of such Uncertificated Security pursuant to Section 3(b)(i)(B) or by the respective partnership pursuant to Section 3(b)(i)(C)(2). As used in this Agreement, "Termination Date" shall mean the date upon which the Commitments under the Credit Agreement have been terminated and all Secured Obligations have been paid in full, no Note under the Credit Agreement is outstanding and all Term Loans thereunder have been repaid in full.

(b) In the event that any part of the Collateral is sold or otherwise disposed of (to a Person other than a Credit Party) at any time prior to the time at which all Secured Obligations have been paid in full and all Commitments under the Credit Agreement have been terminated, in connection with a sale or disposition permitted by Section 9.02 of the Credit Agreement or is otherwise released at the direction of the Required Lenders (or a greater percentage of Lenders if required by Section 12.10 of the Credit Agreement), the Collateral Agent, at the request and expense of such Pledgor, will duly release from the security interest created hereby (and will execute and deliver such documentation, including termination or partial release statements and the like in connection therewith) and assign, transfer and deliver to such Pledgor (without recourse and without any representation or warranty) such of the Collateral as is then being (or has been) so sold or released and as may be in the possession of the Collateral Agent (or, in the case of Collateral held by any sub-agent designated pursuant to Section 4 hereof, such sub-agent) and has not theretofore been released pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) At any time that any Pledgor desires that the Collateral Agent take any action to acknowledge or give effect to any release of Collateral pursuant to the foregoing Section 19(a) or (b), such Pledgor shall deliver to the Collateral Agent (and the relevant sub-agent, if any, designated pursuant to Section 4 hereof) a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer of such Pledgor stating that the release of the respective Collateral is permitted pursuant to (a) or (b) hereof.

(d) The Collateral Agent shall have no liability whatsoever to any other Secured Creditor as the result of any release of Collateral by it in accordance with (or which the Collateral Agent in the absence of gross negligence and willful misconduct believes to be in accordance with) this Section 19.

Section 20. Notices, Etc.

(a) Except as otherwise specified herein, all notices, requests, demands or other communications to or upon the respective parties hereto shall be sent or delivered by mail, telegraph, telex, telecopy, cable or courier service and all such notices and communications shall, when mailed, telegraphed, telexed, telecopied, or cabled or sent by courier, be effective when deposited in the mails, delivered to the telegraph company, cable company or overnight courier, as the case may be, or sent by telex or telecopier, except that notices and communications to the Collateral Agent or any Pledgor shall not be effective until received by the Collateral Agent or such Pledgor, as the case may be. All notices and other communications shall be in writing and addressed as follows:

or at such other address or addressed to such other individual as shall have been furnished in writing by any Person described above to the party required to give notice hereunder.

(v) Notices and other communications to the Collateral Agent hereunder may be delivered or furnished by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by the Collateral Agent. The Collateral Agent or any Pledgor may, in its discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by it; provided that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications.

Section 21. Waiver; Amendment.

Except as provided in Section 30 and 33 hereof, none of the terms and conditions of this Agreement may be changed, waived, modified or varied in any manner whatsoever except in accordance with the requirements specified in the Security Agreement.

Section 22. Successors and Assigns.

This Agreement shall create a continuing security interest in the Collateral and shall (i) remain in full force and effect, subject to release and/or termination as set forth in Section 19 hereof, (ii) be binding upon each Pledgor, its successors and assigns; provided, however, that no Pledgor shall assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent (with the prior written consent of the Required Secured Creditors), and (iii) inure, together with the rights and remedies of the Collateral Agent hereunder, to the benefit of the Collateral Agent, the other Secured Creditors and their respective successors, transferees and permitted assigns. All agreements, statements, representations and warranties made by each Pledgor herein or in any certificate or other instrument delivered by such Pledgor or on its behalf under this Agreement shall be considered to have been relied upon by the Secured Creditors and shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Credit Documents regardless of any investigation made by the Secured Creditors or on their behalf.

Section 23. Headings Descriptive.

The headings of the several Sections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement.

Section 24. GOVERNING LAW; SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION; VENUE; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO AND THE FEDERAL LAWS OF CANADA APPLICABLE THEREIN. EACH PLEDGOR AGREES THAT THE COURTS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO HAVE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OVER ANY DISPUTE ARISING FROM OR IN RELATION TO THIS AGREEMENT AND EACH PLEDGOR IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY ATTORNS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THAT PROVINCE. EACH PLEDGOR AGREES THAT THE COURTS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO ARE THE MOST APPROPRIATE AND CONVENIENT FORUM TO SETTLE DISPUTES AND AGREES NOT TO ARGUE TO THE CONTRARY. EACH SUCH PARTY FURTHER IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO THE SERVICE OF PROCESS OUT OF ANY OF THE AFOREMENTIONED COURTS IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BY THE MAILING OF COPIES THEREOF BY REGISTERED OR CERTIFIED MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID, TO SUCH PARTY, AS THE CASE MAY BE, AT ITS ADDRESS FOR NOTICES AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 20 ABOVE, SUCH SERVICE TO BECOME EFFECTIVE 30 DAYS AFTER SUCH MAILING. EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION TO SUCH SERVICE OF PROCESS AND FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVES AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING COMMENCED HEREUNDER OR UNDER ANY OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT THAT SUCH SERVICE OF PROCESS WAS IN ANY WAY INVALID OR INEFFECTIVE. NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF THE COLLATERAL AGENT OR ANY SECURED CREDITOR TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR TO COMMENCE LEGAL PROCEEDINGS OR OTHERWISE PROCEED AGAINST ANY OTHER SUCH PARTY IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

(b) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION WHICH IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY OF THE AFORESAID ACTIONS OR PROCEEDINGS ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT BROUGHT IN THE COURTS REFERRED TO IN (a) ABOVE AND HEREBY FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVES

AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM IN ANY SUCH COURT THAT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURT HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM.

(c) EACH OF THE PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENTS OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

Section 25. Pledgor's Duties.

It is expressly agreed, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, that each Pledgor shall remain liable to perform all of the obligations, if any, assumed by it with respect to the Collateral and the Collateral Agent shall not have any obligations or liabilities with respect to any Collateral by reason of or arising out of this Agreement, except for the safekeeping of Collateral actually in Pledgor's possession, nor shall the Collateral Agent be required or obligated in any manner to perform or fulfill any of the obligations of any Pledgor under or with respect to any Collateral.

Section 26. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the different parties hereto on separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall constitute an original, but all of which, when taken together, shall constitute one and the same instrument. A set of counterparts executed by all the parties hereto shall be lodged with each Pledgor and the Collateral Agent. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile, PDF or other electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of an original executed counterpart of this Agreement.

Section 27. Severability.

Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 28. Recourse.

This Agreement is made with full recourse to each Pledgor and pursuant to and upon all the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements on the part of such Pledgor contained herein and in the other Credit Documents otherwise in writing in connection herewith or therewith.

Section 29. Limited Obligations.

It is the desire and intent of each Pledgor and the Secured Creditors that this Agreement shall be enforced against each Pledgor to the fullest extent permissible under the laws applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in furtherance of the foregoing, it is noted that the obligations of each Pledgor constituting a Guarantor have been limited as provided in the Term Loan Guaranty.

Section 30. Release of Pledgors.

If at any time all of the Equity Interests of any Pledgor owned by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries are sold (to a Person other than a Credit Party) in a transaction permitted pursuant to the Credit Agreement, then, such Pledgor shall be released as a Pledgor pursuant to this Agreement without any further action hereunder (it being understood that the sale of all of the Equity Interests in any Person that owns, directly or indirectly, all of the Equity Interests in any Pledgor shall be deemed to be a sale of all of the Equity Interests in such Pledgor for purposes of this Section), and the Collateral Agent is authorized and directed to execute and deliver such instruments of release as are reasonably satisfactory to it. At any time that the Parent desires that a Pledgor be released from this Agreement as provided in this Section 30, the Parent shall deliver to the Collateral Agent a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower stating that the release of such Pledgor is permitted pursuant to this Section 30.

Section 31. Amalgamation, Merger.

If any Pledgor amalgamates or merges with one or more other entities, the Obligations and the security interest granted to the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Agreement shall continue as to the Obligations and the Collateral of such Grantor at the time of amalgamation or merger, and shall extend to the Obligations and the present and future Collateral of the amalgamated or merged entity, and the term Grantor shall extend to the amalgamated or merged entity, all as if the amalgamated or merged entity had executed this Agreement as such Grantor.

Section 32. Limitation Periods.

To the extent that any limitation period applies to any claim for payment of the Secured Obligations or remedy for enforcement of the Secured Obligations, each Pledgor agrees that: (a) any limitation period is expressly excluded and waived entirely if permitted by applicable law; (b) if a complete exclusion and waiver of any limitation period is not permitted by applicable law, any limitation period is extended to the maximum length permitted by applicable law; (c) any applicable limitation period shall not begin before an express demand for payment of the Secured Obligations is made in writing by the Collateral Agent to the Pledgors; (d) any applicable limitation period shall begin afresh upon any payment or other acknowledgment of the Secured Obligations by the Credit Parties; and (e) this Agreement is a "business agreement" as defined in the Limitations Act, 2002 (Ontario) if that Act applies.

Section 33. ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement.

This Agreement and the other Credit Documents are subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement in all respects and, in the event of any conflict between the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement and this Agreement, the terms of ABL/

Term Intercreditor Agreement shall govern. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Lien and security interest granted to the Collateral Agent pursuant to any Credit Document and the exercise of any right or remedy in respect of the Collateral by the Collateral Agent (or any Secured Creditor) hereunder or under any other Credit Document are subject to the provisions of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement and in the event of any conflict between the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, this Agreement and any other Credit Document, the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement shall govern and control with respect to the exercise of any such right or remedy. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no Credit Party shall be required hereunder or under any Credit Document to take any action with respect to the Collateral that is inconsistent with such Credit Parties' obligations under the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement.

Section 34. ULC Provisions.

Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in this Agreement, any other Credit Document or any other document or agreement to which any party to this Agreement is also party, each Pledgor is the sole registered and beneficial owner of the Securities and other Equity Interests (collectively, the "ULC Shares") of each unlimited company, unlimited liability company or unlimited liability corporation incorporated or otherwise existing under the laws of any province of Canada or under the federal laws of Canada, or any other entity whose members or shareholders have liability comparable to that of members or shareholders of any of those entities (each, a "ULC") that is from time to time a Subsidiary. Each Pledgor will remain so until the ULC Shares are, with the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent (which has not been revoked) and in the course of realization of the liens under this Agreement, transferred on the books and records of the applicable issuer into the name of the Collateral Agent, its nominee or a purchaser designated by the Collateral Agent. Accordingly, each Pledgor shall be entitled to receive and retain for its own account any dividend, distribution, payment or other proceeds in respect of the ULC Shares (except insofar as such Pledgor has granted a security interest in the dividend or other distribution in favour of the Collateral Agent under this Agreement, in which case the other terms of the security interest will apply) and shall have the right to vote the ULC Shares and to control the direction, management and policies of the applicable issuer to the same extent as such Pledgor would if the ULC Shares were not pledged to the Collateral Agent. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Credit Document is intended to or shall constitute the Collateral Agent or any Person other than the Pledgors, a shareholder or member of any issuer of ULC Shares for the purposes of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta), the Companies Act (Nova Scotia), the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) or any other applicable legislation governing the formation of a ULC ("ULC Legislation") until such time as the ULC Shares are transferred in the course of realization as described above. To the extent any provision of this Agreement would have the effect of constituting the Collateral Agent or any Person other than the Pledgors as a shareholder or member of any ULC that is from time to time an issuer for the purposes of the ULC Legislation before then, the provision shall be deemed not to apply to the ULC Shares or that ULC, as the case may be, and shall be ineffective without otherwise invalidating or rendering this Agreement unenforceable or invalidating or rendering the provision in question unenforceable insofar as it relates to property that is not the ULC Shares. Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, except upon the exercise of rights to sell or otherwise dispose of the ULC Shares following the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Pledgors shall not cause, permit or enable any issuer of ULC Shares to cause, permit, or enable, the Collateral Agent to:

(a) be registered as a shareholder of the issuer;

(b) have any notation entered in its favour in the share register or other books and records of a ULC in respect of the ULC Shares;

(c) act or purport to act as a shareholder of the issuer, or obtain, exercise or attempt to exercise any rights of a shareholder of the issuer, including the right to attend a meeting of the issuer, or to vote the ULC Shares;

(d) be held out as shareholder or member of the issuer; or

(e) receive, directly or indirectly, any dividends, property or other distributions from the issuer by reason of the Collateral Agent holding a security interest in the ULC Shares.

The limitations in this Section shall not restrict the Collateral Agent from (i) exercising the rights to sell or otherwise dispose of ULC Shares that it is entitled to exercise under this Agreement or (ii) having the ULC Shares registered in its name, in either case at any time that the Collateral Agent is entitled to realize on all or any portion of the ULC Shares pursuant to this Agreement and, in either case, provided that the Collateral Agent has (x) given notice to the applicable Pledgor of its intention to realize upon those ULC Shares (including by selling or disposing of or re-registering those ULC Shares) and (y) consented in writing to any change in registration and not revoked its consent.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each Pledgor and the Collateral Agent have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly elected officers duly authorized as of the date first above written.

W I T N E S S E T H :

WHEREAS, Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. (the "Borrower"), various lenders party thereto from time to time (the "Lenders") and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent and collateral agent (together with any successor administrative agent or collateral agent, the "Administrative Agent") have entered into a Term Loan Credit Agreement, dated as of even date herewith (as amended, modified, restated and/or supplemented from time to time, the "Credit Agreement"), providing for the making of Term Loans to the Borrower, as contemplated therein (the Lenders, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and each other Agent are herein called the "Secured Creditors");

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Subsidiaries Guaranty, each Subsidiary Guarantor has jointly and severally guaranteed to the Secured Creditors the payment when due of all Guaranteed Obligations;

WHEREAS, it is a condition precedent to the making of Term Loans to the Borrower under the Credit Agreement that each Grantor shall have executed and delivered to the Collateral Agent this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, each Grantor will obtain benefits from the incurrence of Term Loans by the Borrower under the Credit Agreement and accordingly, desires to execute this Agreement in order to satisfy the condition described in the preceding paragraph and to induce the Lenders to make Term Loans to the Borrower;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the benefits accruing to each Grantor, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, each Grantor hereby makes the following representations and warranties to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors and hereby covenants and agrees with the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors as follows:

ARTICLE I

SECURITY INTERESTS

1.1 Grant of Security Interests .

(a) As security for the prompt and complete payment or performance, as the case may be, when due of all of the Obligations, each Grantor does hereby pledge and grant to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Creditors, a continuing security interest in all of the right, title and interest of such Grantor in, to and under all of the following personal property and fixtures (and all rights therein) of such Grantor, or in which or to which such Grantor has any rights, in each case whether now existing or hereafter from time to time acquired (but excluding any Excluded Collateral (as defined below)):

(i) each and every Account;

1.2 Certain Exceptions. Notwithstanding Section 1.1, no security interest is or will be granted pursuant hereto in any right, title or interest of any Grantor under or in (each of (a) through (o) collectively, the "Excluded Collateral"):

(a) any leases, licenses, Instruments, Contracts, Chattel Paper, General Intangibles, Permits, governmental licenses, state or local franchises, charters or authorizations or other contracts or agreements with or issued by Persons other than the Borrower or Subsidiaries of the Borrower or an Affiliate thereof (collectively, "Excluded Agreements") that would otherwise be included in the Collateral (and such Excluded Agreements shall not be deemed to constitute a part of the Collateral) for so long as, and to the extent that, the granting of such a security interest pursuant hereto would invalidate or result in a violation, breach, default or termination of such Excluded Agreements or create a right of termination in favor of, or require the consent of, any party thereto (in each case other than the Borrower or a Subsidiary Guarantor) (in each case, except to the extent any such violation, breach, default, termination, right or consent would be rendered ineffective under the UCC or other applicable law); provided, however, that a security interest in an Excluded Agreement in favor of the Secured Creditors shall attach immediately (i) at such time as Grantor's grant of a security interest in such Excluded Agreement no longer results in a violation, breach, default or termination thereof or thereunder or no longer creates such right of termination or such right has been waived or requires such consent or such consent has been obtained, (ii) to the extent severable, to any portion of such Excluded Agreement that does not result in a respective violation, breach, default, termination or right or consent thereof or thereunder and (iii) to any proceeds or receivables of such Excluded Agreement that are not Excluded Collateral; or

(c) any intent-to-use trademark application prior to the filing of a "Statement of Use" or "Amendment to Allege Use" with respect thereto, to the extent, if any, that, and solely during the period, if any, in which, the grant of a security interest therein would impair the validity or enforceability of such intent-to-use trademark application under applicable federal law;

(d) any rights or property to the extent that any valid and enforceable law or regulation applicable to such rights or property prohibits the creation of a security interest therein, except to the extent such prohibition is unenforceable after giving effect to the applicable provisions of the UCC or other applicable law;

(e) those assets located outside of the United States and Canada (solely to the extent action would be required in such other jurisdictions to obtain such security interests);

(f) those assets as to which the Administrative Agent and the Lead Borrower reasonably agree in a writing to the Collateral Agent that the cost of obtaining a security interest therein is excessive in relation to the value of the security to be afforded thereby;

(g) those assets as to which the grant of a security interest or Lien therein in favor of the Secured Creditors could reasonably be expected to result in material adverse tax consequences (including, without limitation, as a result of the operation of Section 956 of the Code or any similar law or regulation in any applicable jurisdiction), as reasonably determined in good faith by the Borrower;

(h) (a) any fee-owned real property with a fair market value less than $5,000,000 and (b) all leasehold interests in real property;

(i) any Equity Interests in (i) a joint venture or other non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary to the extent that granting a security interest in or Lien on such Equity Interests is not permitted by the governing documents of such joint venture or other non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary or would require the consent of any Person who owns Equity Interests in such joint venture or non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary which (other than any Grantor or its Subsidiaries) consent has not been obtained, (ii) Subsidiaries that are not directly owned by a Grantor, and (iii) Unrestricted Subsidiaries;

(n) any Commercial Tort Claims with a value of less than $100,000; and

(o) any of the following:

(1) any property that would otherwise be included in the Collateral (and such property shall not be deemed to constitute a part of the Collateral) if such property has been sold or otherwise transferred in connection with a sale-leaseback transaction permitted under Section 9.02(xi) of the Credit Agreement, or is subject to any Liens permitted under Section 9.01(vii) of the Credit Agreement, or constitutes the Proceeds or products of any property that has been so sold or otherwise transferred, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement, so long as such Proceeds or products remain subject to the Liens referenced above in this clause (1); and in each case pursuant to preceding clauses (o)(1) through (2), for so long as, and to the extent that, the granting or existence of such a security interest pursuant hereto would result in a breach, default or termination of any agreement relating to the respective Lien or obligations secured thereby (in each case, except to the extent any such breach, default or termination would be rendered ineffective under the UCC or other applicable law); provided that immediately upon repayment of the Indebtedness and/or other monetary obligation secured by a Lien referenced in clauses (o)(1) through (2), the relevant Grantor shall be deemed to have granted a security interest in all of its rights, title and interests under or in such asset, Equipment or other property that is the subject of such Lien;

(2) any property or asset that would otherwise be included in the Collateral (and such property or asset shall not be deemed to constitute a part of the Collateral) if such property or assets is subject to a Lien permitted by Section 9.01(xiv) of the Credit Agreement;

provided, however, that Excluded Collateral shall not include any Proceeds, substitutions or replacements of any Excluded Collateral referred to in any of clauses (a) through (o) (unless such Proceeds, substitutions or replacements would constitute Excluded Collateral referred to in any of clauses (a) through (o)).

1.3 Power of Attorney. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, each Grantor hereby constitutes and appoints the Collateral Agent its true and lawful attorney, irrevocably, with full power after the occurrence of and during the continuance of an Event of Default (in the name of such Grantor or otherwise) to act, require, demand, receive, compound and give acquittance for any and all moneys and claims for moneys due or to become due to such Grantor under or arising out of the Collateral, to endorse any checks or other instruments or orders in connection therewith and to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings which the Collateral Agent may deem to be reasonably necessary or advisable to protect the interests of the Secured Creditors, which appointment as attorney is coupled with an interest.

ARTICLE II

GENERAL REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

Each Grantor represents and warrants as of the date hereof, and, until the Termination Date, covenants, which representations, warranties and covenants shall survive execution and delivery of this Agreement, as follows:

2.1 Necessary Perfection Action. The security interest granted to the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Agreement in and to the Collateral for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Creditors is a valid security interest and Lien upon such Grantor's right, title and interest in and to the Collateral. Upon (A) the filing of the UCC financing statements delivered to the Collateral Agent for filing in the appropriate jurisdictions set forth on Annex C, (B) the recordation of Annexes K - M in the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the United States Copyright Office or the Canadian Intellectual Property Office, as the case may be, and (C) the receipt by the Collateral Agent of all instruments, chattel paper and certificated pledged Equity Interests constituting Collateral in suitable form for transfer by delivery or accompanied by instruments of transfer or assignment duly executed in blank, such security interest and Lien shall be perfected in all of the Collateral in which a security interest may be perfected by filing, recording or registering a UCC financing statement or analogous document in the United States (or any political subdivision thereof) and its territories and possessions pursuant to the UCC or other applicable law in such jurisdictions and in which a security interest may be perfected upon the receipt and recording of this Agreement (or a short form hereof) with the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the United States Copyright Office or the Canadian Intellectual Property Office as the case may be; provided, however, that additional filings may be necessary to perfect the Collateral Agent's security interest in, and Lien on, any Recordable Intellectual Property acquired after the date hereof.

Upon the actions taken under this Section 2.1, such security interest will be superior to and prior to all other Liens of all other Persons (other than Permitted Liens), and, subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement, enforceable as such as against all other Persons (except to the extent that the enforceability thereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws generally affecting creditors' rights and by equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law)) other than Ordinary Course Transferees.

2.2 No Liens. Such Grantor is, and as to all Collateral acquired by it from time to time after the date hereof will be, the owner of, or otherwise have the right to use, all Collateral free from any Lien of any Person (other than Permitted Liens), and such Grantor shall, at its own expense, take all commercially reasonable actions necessary to defend the Collateral against all claims and demands of all Persons at any time claiming the same or any interest therein materially adverse to the Collateral Agent.

2.3 Other Financing Statements. As of the date hereof, no Grantor has filed, nor authorized the filing by any third party of any financing statement (or similar statement or instrument of registration under the law of any jurisdiction) covering or purporting to cover any interest of any kind in the Collateral (other than financing statements filed in respect of Permitted Liens), and so long as the Termination Date has not occurred, such Grantor will not authorize to be filed in any public office any financing statement (or similar statement or instrument of registration under the law of any jurisdiction) or statements relating to the Collateral, except financing statements filed or to be filed in respect of and covering the security interests granted hereby by such Grantor or in connection with Permitted Liens.

All Inventory and Equipment (having a fair market value in excess of $1,000,000 with respect to Collateral comprising Equipment only) held on the date hereof, or held at any time during the four calendar months prior to the date hereof, by each Grantor, other than Inventory in transit or Equipment moved in the ordinary course of business, is located at one of the locations shown on Annex B hereto for such Grantor.

2 . 6 Legal Names; Type of Organization (and Whether a Registered Organization); Jurisdiction of Organization; Location; Organizational Identification Numbers; Federal Employer Identification Number; Changes Thereto; etc. As of the Closing Date, the exact legal name of each Grantor, the type of organization of such Grantor, whether or not such Grantor is a Registered Organization, the jurisdiction of organization of such Grantor, such Grantor's Location, the organizational identification number (if any) of such Grantor and the Federal Employer Identification Number of such Grantor (if any), is listed on Annex C hereto for such Grantor. In addition, to the extent that such Grantor does not have an organizational identification number on the date hereof and later obtains one, such Grantor shall promptly thereafter notify the Collateral Agent of such organizational identification number and shall take all actions reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent to the extent necessary to maintain the security interest of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral intended to be granted hereby fully perfected to the extent described in Section 2.1 and in full force and effect.

2.7 Trade Names; Etc. Such Grantor has not and does not operate in any jurisdiction under, or in the preceding five (5) years has not operated in any jurisdiction under, any trade names, fictitious names or other names except its legal name as specified in Annex C and such other trade or fictitious names as are listed on Annex D hereto for such Grantor.

2.8 Certain Significant Transactions. During the one year period preceding the date of this Agreement, no Person shall have merged or consolidated with or into any Grantor, and no Person shall have liquidated into, or transferred all or substantially all of its assets to, any Grantor, in each case except the mergers and consolidations contemplated by the Transaction and the mergers and consolidations described in Annex E hereto. With respect to any transactions so described in Annex E hereto, the respective Grantor shall have furnished such information with respect to the Person (and the assets of the Person and locations thereof) which merged with or into or consolidated with such Grantor, or was liquidated into or transferred all or substantially all of its assets to such Grantor, and shall have furnished to the Collateral Agent such UCC lien searches as may have been reasonably requested with respect to such Person and its assets, to establish that no security interest (excluding Permitted Liens) continues perfected on the date hereof with respect to any Person described above (or the assets transferred to the respective Grantor by such Person), including without limitation pursuant to Section 9-316(a)(3) of the UCC.

2.9 As-Extracted Collateral; Timber-to-be-Cut. On the date hereof, such Grantor does not own, or expect to acquire, any property which constitutes, or would constitute, As-Extracted Collateral or Timber-to-be-Cut. If at any time after the date of this Agreement such Grantor owns, acquires or obtains rights to any As-Extracted Collateral or Timber-to-be-Cut, such Grantor shall concurrently with the delivery of the next Compliance Certificate provided under the Credit Agreement furnish the Collateral Agent with written notice thereof (which notice shall describe in reasonable detail the As-Extracted Collateral and/or Timber-to-be-Cut and the locations thereof) and shall take all actions as may be deemed reasonably necessary or desirable by the Collateral Agent to perfect the security interest of the Collateral Agent therein.

2.10 Collateral in the Possession of a Bailee. If any Inventory or other Goods, the aggregate fair market value of which is equal to or greater than $1,000,000, are at any time in the possession of a bailee, such Grantor shall concurrently with the delivery of the next Compliance Certificate provided under the Credit Agreement furnish the Collateral Agent with written notice thereof and, if requested by the Collateral Agent after an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, shall use its reasonable efforts to promptly obtain an acknowledgment from such bailee, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, that the bailee holds such Collateral for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and shall act upon the instructions of the Collateral Agent, without the further consent of such Grantor, subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement. The Collateral Agent agrees with such Grantor that the Collateral Agent shall not give any such instructions unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and upon notice from the Collateral Agent of its intent to exercise remedies.

2.11 Recourse. This Agreement is made with full recourse to each Grantor and pursuant to and upon all the warranties, representations, covenants and agreements on the part of such Grantor contained herein, in the Secured Debt Agreements and otherwise in writing in connection herewith or therewith.

ARTICLE III

SPECIAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING ACCOUNTS; CONTRACT RIGHTS; INSTRUMENTS; CHATTEL PAPER AND CERTAIN OTHER COLLATERAL

3 . 1 Maintenance of Records. Each Grantor will keep and maintain proper books and records of its Accounts and Contracts, in which full, true and correct entries in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and all Requirements of Law shall be made of all such Accounts and Contracts, and such Grantor will make the same available on such Grantor's premises to officers and designated representatives of the Collateral Agent for inspection in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Credit Agreement. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and at the request of the Collateral Agent, such Grantor shall, at its own cost and expense, deliver all tangible evidence of its Accounts and Contract Rights (including, without limitation, all documents evidencing the Accounts and all Contracts) and such books and records to the Collateral Agent or to its representatives (copies of which evidence and books and records may be retained by such Grantor). Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and if the Collateral Agent so requests, such Grantor shall legend, in form and manner satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, the Accounts and the Contracts, as well as books, records and documents (if any) of such Grantor evidencing or pertaining to such Accounts and Contracts with an appropriate reference to the fact that such Accounts and Contracts have been assigned to the Collateral Agent and that the Collateral Agent has a security interest therein.

3 . 2 Direction to Account Debtors; Contracting Parties; etc. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, after giving notice to the relevant Grantor of its intent to do so, if the Collateral Agent so directs any Grantor, such Grantor agrees (i) to cause all payments on account of the Accounts and Contracts to be made directly to the Cash Collateral Account, (ii) that the Collateral Agent may, at its option, directly notify the obligors in its own name or in the name of others with respect to any Accounts and/or under any Contracts to make payments with respect thereto as provided in the preceding clause (i), and (iii) that the Collateral Agent may enforce collection of any such Accounts and Contracts and may adjust, settle or compromise the amount of payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as such Grantor; provided that, (x) any failure by the Collateral Agent to give or any delay in giving such notice to the relevant Grantor shall not affect the effectiveness of such notice or the other rights of the Collateral Agent created by this Section 3.2 and (y) no such notice shall be required if an Event of Default of the type described in Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, without notice to or assent by any Grantor, the Collateral Agent may, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, apply any or all amounts then in, or thereafter deposited in, the Cash Collateral Account toward the payment of the Obligations in the manner provided in Section 6.4 of this Agreement. The reasonable costs and expenses of collection (including reasonable attorneys' fees), whether incurred by a Grantor or the Collateral Agent, shall be borne by the relevant Grantor. The Collateral Agent shall deliver a copy of each notice referred to in the preceding clause (y) to the relevant Grantor, provided that (x) the failure by the Collateral Agent to so notify such Grantor shall not affect the effectiveness of such notice or the other rights of the Collateral Agent created by this Section 3.2 and (y) no such notice shall be required if an Event of Default of the type described in Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing.

3.3 Modification of Terms; etc. Except in accordance with such Grantor's ordinary course of business and consistent with reasonable business judgment, or as permitted by Section 3.4 hereof or by the Credit Documents, no Grantor shall rescind or cancel any indebtedness evidenced by any Account, or modify any material term thereof or make any material adjustment with respect thereto, or extend or renew the same, or compromise or settle any material dispute, claim, suit or legal proceeding relating thereto, or sell any Account, or interest therein, without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent unless such rescissions, cancellations, modifications, adjustments, extensions, renewals, compromises, settlements, releases, or sales would not reasonably be expected to materially adversely affect the value of the Accounts constituting Collateral taken as a whole. Except as otherwise permitted by the Credit Documents, no Grantor will do anything to impair the rights of the Collateral Agent in the Accounts or Contracts.

3.4 Collection. Each Grantor shall endeavor in accordance with historical business practices to cause to be collected from the Account Debtor named in each of its Accounts or obligor under any Contract, as and when due (including, without limitation, amounts which are delinquent, such amounts to be collected in accordance with generally accepted lawful collection procedures) any and all amounts owing under or on account of such Account or Contract, and apply forthwith upon receipt thereof all such amounts as are so collected to the outstanding balance of such Account or under such Contract. Except as otherwise directed by the Collateral Agent after the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default or otherwise required pursuant to the Credit Agreement, any Grantor may allow in the ordinary course of business as adjustments to amounts owing under its Accounts and Contracts (i) an extension or renewal of the time or times of payment, or settlement for less than the total unpaid balance, which such Grantor finds appropriate in accordance with reasonable business judgment, (ii) a refund or credit due as a result of returned or damaged merchandise or improperly performed services or for other reasons which such Grantor finds appropriate in accordance with reasonable business judgment and (iii) any other adjustments necessary or desirable in the Grantor's reasonable business judgment. The reasonable costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) of collection, whether incurred by a Grantor or the Collateral Agent, shall be borne by the relevant Grantor.

3.5 Instruments. If any Grantor at any time holds or acquires any Instrument constituting Collateral with a face value in excess of $100,000 individually (other than checks and other payment instruments received and collected in the ordinary course of business and promptly deposited into a Deposit Account), such Grantor shall, on or prior to the date of the required delivery of the Compliance Certificate pursuant to the Credit Agreement following such acquisition, notify the Collateral Agent thereof, and upon request by the Collateral Agent (subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement), promptly deliver such Instrument to the Collateral Agent appropriately endorsed in blank or to the order of the Collateral Agent, provided that, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, such Grantor may retain for collection in the ordinary course of business any Instrument received by such Grantor in the ordinary course of business, and the Collateral Agent shall, promptly upon request of such Grantor, make appropriate arrangements for making any Instruments in its possession and pledged by such Grantor available to such Grantor for purposes of presentation, collection or renewal. If such Grantor retains possession of any Instruments pursuant to the terms hereof, upon request of the Collateral Agent, such Instrument shall be marked with the following legend: "This writing and the obligations evidenced or secured hereby are subject to the security interests of Bank of America, N.A., as collateral agent, for the benefit of itself and certain Secured Creditors."

3.6 Grantors Remain Liable Under Accounts. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Grantors shall remain liable under each of the Accounts to observe and perform all of the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by it thereunder, all in accordance with the terms of any agreement giving rise to such Accounts. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Creditor shall have any obligation or liability under any Account (or any agreement giving rise thereto) by reason of or arising out of this Agreement, nor shall the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of any Grantor under or pursuant to any Account (or any agreement giving rise thereto), to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by them or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Account (or any agreement giving rise thereto), to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to them or to which they may be entitled at any time or times.

3.7 Grantors Remain Liable Under Contracts. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Grantors shall remain liable under each of the Contracts to observe and perform all of the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by them thereunder, all in accordance with and pursuant to the terms and provisions of each Contract. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Creditor shall have any obligation or liability under any Contract by reason of or arising out of this Agreement, nor shall the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of any Grantor under or pursuant to any Contract, to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Contract, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to them or to which they may be entitled at any time or times.

3.8 Letter-of-Credit Rights. If any Grantor is at any time a beneficiary under a letter of credit with a stated amount of $100,000 or more, such Grantor shall, on or prior to the date of the required delivery of the Compliance Certificate pursuant to the Credit Agreement following the creation of such letter of credit, notify the Collateral Agent thereof and, at the request of the Collateral Agent after an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, such Grantor shall, pursuant to an agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, use its commercially reasonable efforts to (i) arrange for the issuer and any confirmer of such letter of credit to consent to an assignment to the Collateral Agent of the proceeds of any drawing under such letter of credit or (ii) arrange for the Collateral Agent to become the transferee beneficiary of such letter of credit, with the Collateral Agent agreeing, in each case, that the proceeds of any drawing under the letter of credit are to be applied as provided in this Agreement after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default (it being understood that unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing such proceeds shall be released to such Grantor).

3.9 Commercial Tort Claims. As of the Closing Date, no Grantor has Commercial Tort Claims with an individual claimed value of $100,000 or more other than those described in Annex H hereto. If any Grantor shall at any time after the date of this Agreement hold or acquire a Commercial Tort Claim in an amount (taking the greater of the aggregate claimed damages thereunder or the reasonably estimated value thereof) of $100,000 or more, such Grantor shall, on or prior to the date of the required delivery of the Compliance Certificate pursuant to the Credit Agreement following such acquisition, notify the Collateral Agent thereof in a writing signed by such Grantor and describing the details thereof and shall grant to the Collateral Agent in such writing a security interest therein (subject to Permitted Liens) and in the proceeds thereof, all upon the terms of this Agreement, with such writing to be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent.

3.10 Chattel Paper. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, each Grantor will promptly following any reasonable request by the Collateral Agent, deliver all of its Tangible Chattel Paper with a value in excess of $100,000 to the Collateral Agent, provided that, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, such Grantor may retain for collection in the ordinary course of business any Chattel Paper received by such Grantor in the ordinary course of business, and the Collateral Agent shall, promptly upon request of such Grantor, make appropriate arrangements for making any Chattel Paper in its possession and pledged by such Grantor available to such Grantor for purposes of presentation, collection or renewal. If such Grantor retains possession of any Chattel Paper pursuant to the terms hereof, subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon request of the Collateral Agent, such Chattel Paper shall be marked with the following legend: "This writing and the obligations evidenced or secured hereby are subject to the security interests of Bank of America, N.A., as collateral agent, for the benefit of itself and certain Secured Creditors."

3.11 Further Actions. Each Grantor will, at its own expense, make, execute, endorse, acknowledge, file and/or deliver to the Collateral Agent from time to time such vouchers, invoices, schedules, confirmatory assignments, conveyances, financing statements, transfer endorsements, certificates, reports and other assurances or instruments and take such further steps, including any and all actions as may be necessary or required relating to its Accounts, Contracts, Instruments and other property or rights which constitute Collateral, as the Collateral Agent may reasonably require for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of the security interests, rights and powers herein granted; provided, that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Grantors shall not be required to (i) take any action to perfect any security interest in any Collateral outside of the United States and Canada or (ii) enter into any control agreements or similar arrangements relating to any Deposit Account; provided however, that upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default (each such period, "the Default Period") and the Discharge of the ABL Obligations (as defined in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement) in any such Default Period, the Collateral Agent, during such Default Period (subject to the provisions of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement), shall benefit from, and shall be entitled to, the "control" granted to the ABL Collateral Agent (as defined in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement) in any Deposit Account.

ARTICLE IV

SPECIAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

4 . 1 Additional Representations and Warranties. Annex H hereto sets forth a complete and accurate list of all Recordable Intellectual Property that each Grantor owns. Each Grantor represents and warrants that it is the sole owner of all right, title and interest in all Recordable Intellectual Property listed in Annex H hereto. Each Grantor further warrants that it has no knowledge of any written third party claim received by it within the last twelve (12) months that any such Grantor or aspect of such Grantor's present business operations infringes, misappropriates, dilutes or otherwise violates any Intellectual Property of any other Person other than as has not, and would not, reasonably be expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. Each Grantor represents and warrants that no Recordable Intellectual Property listed in Annex H hereto has been canceled or is presently being opposed and, to such Grantor's knowledge, all such Recordable Intellectual Property is valid and subsisting, and such Grantor is not aware of any pending third-party claim that any of said registrations of Recordable Intellectual Property are invalid or unenforceable, and is not aware that there is any reason that any of said registrations of Recordable Intellectual Property are invalid or unenforceable, and is not aware that there is any reason that any of said applications of Recordable Intellectual Property will not mature into registrations, other than would not reasonably be expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. Each Grantor hereby grants to the Collateral Agent an absolute power of attorney to sign, solely upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, any document which may be required by the United States Patent and Trademark Office, any domain name registrar, the United States Copyright Office, the Canadian Intellectual Property Office or any other governmental authority in order to effect an assignment of all right, title and interest in any Intellectual Property constituting Collateral, and record the same.

4.2 Infringements. Each Grantor agrees, within 60 days of the end of each fiscal quarter, to notify the Collateral Agent in writing of the name and address of, and to furnish such pertinent information that may be available to such Grantor with respect to: (i) any party who such Grantor reasonably believes is infringing, misappropriating, diluting or otherwise violating any of such Grantor's rights in and to any Intellectual Property in any manner that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, or (ii) any party claiming that any Grantor or the conduct of any Grantor's business infringes, misappropriates, dilutes or otherwise violates any Intellectual Property right of any third party in any manner that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Each Grantor further agrees to prosecute diligently in accordance with its reasonable business judgment, any Person infringing, misappropriating, diluting or otherwise violating any Intellectual Property owned by it in any manner that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

4.3 Preservation of Trademarks. Each Grantor agrees to use its Trademarks that are material to such Grantor's business in interstate commerce during the time in which this Agreement is in effect to the extent required by the laws of the United States or other jurisdiction, as applicable, to maintain its rights in such Trademarks and to take all such other actions as are reasonably necessary to preserve such Trademarks as trademarks or service marks under the laws of the United States or other jurisdiction, as applicable (other than any such Trademarks that are deemed by a Grantor in its reasonable business judgment to no longer be material to the conduct of such Grantor's business).

4.4 Maintenance of Registration. Each Grantor shall, at its own expense, diligently maintain all material Recordable Intellectual Property in accordance with its reasonable business judgment, including but not limited to filing affidavits of use and applications for renewals of registration for all of its material registered Trademarks and timely payment of all post-issuance fees required to maintain in force its rights under each issued Patent or registered Copyright, and shall pay all fees and disbursements in connection therewith and shall not abandon any such registration, filing of affidavit of use or application of renewal prior to the exhaustion of all administrative and judicial remedies without prior written consent of the Collateral Agent, not to be unreasonably withheld (other than with respect to registrations and applications deemed by such Grantor in its reasonable business judgment to be no longer prudent to pursue).

4.5 Prosecution of Applications. At its own expense, each Grantor, in accordance with its reasonable business judgment, shall diligently prosecute all material applications for (i) United States Patents listed in Annex J hereto and (ii) Copyrights listed in Annex K hereto, in each case for such Grantor and shall not abandon any such application prior to exhaustion of all administrative and judicial remedies (other than applications that are no longer material or are deemed by such Grantor in its reasonable business judgment to no longer be necessary in the conduct of Grantor's business), absent written consent of the Collateral Agent not to be unreasonably withheld.

4.6 After-Acquired Intellectual Property. In the event that any Grantor, either itself or through any agent, employee, licensee or designee, files an application for or acquires any Recordable Intellectual Property following the date hereof, then the provisions of this Agreement shall automatically apply thereto and any such Intellectual Property (other than any Excluded Collateral) shall automatically constitute part of the Collateral and shall be subject to the Collateral Agent's security interest, without further action by any party, and such Grantor shall within 60 days of the end of each fiscal quarter execute and deliver any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers as necessary to evidence and perfect the Collateral Agent's security interest in such Recordable Intellectual Property provided that such agreements, instruments, documents and papers (the " Writings") are consistent with the terms of and conditions of this Agreement and the Annexes K – M, as applicable, and each Grantor hereby appoints the Collateral Agent as its attorney-in-fact to execute and file such Writings, solely upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and solely for the foregoing purposes, all acts of such attorney being hereby ratified and confirmed; such power, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable until this Agreement is terminated.

ARTICLE V

PROVISIONS CONCERNING ALL COLLATERAL

5.1 Protection of Collateral Agent's Security. Except as otherwise permitted by the Secured Debt Agreements, each Grantor will do nothing to impair the rights of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral. Each Grantor or an affiliate on behalf of such Grantor will at all times maintain insurance, at such Grantor's own expense to the extent and in the manner provided in the Secured Debt Agreements. If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Collateral Agent shall, at the time any proceeds of such insurance are distributed to the Secured Creditors, apply such proceeds in accordance with Section 6.4 hereof. Each Grantor assumes all liability and responsibility in connection with the Collateral acquired by it and the liability of such Grantor to pay the Obligations shall in no way be affected or diminished by reason of the fact that such Collateral may be lost, destroyed, stolen, damaged or for any reason whatsoever unavailable to such Grantor.

5.2 Warehouse Receipts Non-Negotiable. To the extent practicable, each Grantor agrees that if any warehouse receipt or receipt in the nature of a warehouse receipt is issued with respect to any of its Inventory, such Grantor shall request that such warehouse receipt or receipt in the nature thereof shall not be "negotiable" (as such term is used in Section 7-104 of the UCC as in effect in any relevant jurisdiction or under other relevant law).

5.3 Additional Information. Each Grantor will, at its own expense, from time to time upon the reasonable request of the Collateral Agent, promptly furnish to the Collateral Agent such information with respect to the Collateral (including the identity of the Collateral or such components thereof as may have been reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent, the value and location of such Collateral, etc.) as may be requested by the Collateral Agent.

5.4 Further Actions. Each Grantor will, at its own expense and upon the reasonable request of the Collateral Agent, make, execute, endorse, acknowledge, file and/or deliver to the Collateral Agent from time to time such lists, descriptions and designations of its Collateral, warehouse receipts, receipts in the nature of warehouse receipts, bills of lading, documents of title, vouchers, invoices, schedules, confirmatory assignments, conveyances, financing statements, transfer endorsements, certificates, reports and other assurances or instruments and take such further steps relating to the Collateral and other property or rights covered by the security interest hereby granted, which the Collateral Agent deems reasonably appropriate or advisable to perfect, preserve or protect its security interest in the Collateral; provided, that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Grantors shall not be required to (i) take any action to perfect any security interest in any Collateral under the laws of any jurisdiction outside of the United States and Canada or (ii) enter into any control agreements or similar arrangements relating to any Deposit Account.

5.5 Financing Statements. Each Grantor agrees to deliver to the Collateral Agent such financing statements, in form reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent, as the Collateral Agent may from time to time reasonably request to establish and maintain a valid, enforceable, perfected security interest in the Collateral as provided herein and for the purpose of obtaining and preserving the full benefits of the other rights and security contemplated hereby at least to the extent described in Section 2.1. Each Grantor will pay any applicable filing fees, recordation taxes and related expenses relating to its Collateral. Each Grantor hereby authorizes the Collateral Agent to file any such financing statements without the signature of such Grantor where permitted by law (and such authorization includes describing the Collateral as "all assets and all personal property whether now owned or hereafter acquired" of such Grantor or words of similar effect).

ARTICLE VI

REMEDIES UPON OCCURRENCE OF AN EVENT OF DEFAULT

6.1 Remedies; Obtaining the Collateral Upon Default . Each Grantor agrees that, subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, if any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, then and in every such case, the Collateral Agent, in addition to any rights now or hereafter existing under applicable law and under the other provisions of this Agreement, shall have all rights as a secured creditor under any UCC, and such additional rights and remedies to which a secured creditor is entitled under the laws in effect in all relevant jurisdictions and may:

(i) personally, or by agents or attorneys, immediately take possession of the Collateral or any part thereof, from such Grantor or any other Person who then has possession of any part thereof with or without notice or process of law, and for that purpose may enter upon such Grantor's premises where any of the Collateral is located and remove the same and use in connection with such removal any and all services, supplies, aids and other facilities of such Grantor;

(ii) instruct the obligor or obligors on any agreement, instrument or other obligation (including, without limitation, the Accounts and the Contracts) constituting the Collateral to make any payment required by the terms of such agreement, instrument or other obligation directly to the Collateral Agent and may exercise any and all remedies of such Grantor in respect of such Collateral;

(iii) sell, assign or otherwise liquidate any or all of the Collateral or any part thereof in accordance with Section 6.2 hereof, or direct such Grantor to sell, assign or otherwise liquidate any or all of the Collateral or any part thereof, and, in each case, take possession of the proceeds of any such sale or liquidation;

(iv) take possession of the Collateral or any part thereof, by directing such Grantor in writing to deliver the same to the Collateral Agent at any reasonable place or places designated by the Collateral Agent, in which event such Grantor shall at its own expense:

(a) forthwith cause the same to be moved to the place or places so designated by the Collateral Agent and there delivered to the Collateral Agent;

(b) store and keep any Collateral so delivered to the Collateral Agent at such place or places pending further action by the Collateral Agent as provided in Section 6.2 hereof; and

(c) while the Collateral shall be so stored and kept, provide such security and maintenance services as shall be reasonably necessary to protect the same and to preserve and maintain it in good condition;

(v) license or sublicense, on a royalty free, rent basis, whether on an exclusive or nonexclusive basis, any Intellectual Property included in the Collateral (in the case of Trademarks, subject to reasonable quality control and subject to those exclusive licenses granted by Grantors in effect on the date hereof and those granted by any Grantor hereafter to the extent permitted by the Credit Agreement) for such term and on such conditions and in such manner as the Collateral Agent shall in its sole judgment determine, it being understood that any such license, may be exercised, at the option of the Collateral Agent, only upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default; provided, that any such license shall be binding upon the Grantors notwithstanding any subsequent cure of an Event of Default.

(vi) apply any monies constituting Collateral or proceeds thereof in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.4; and it being understood that each Grantor's obligation so to deliver the Collateral is of the essence of this Agreement and that, accordingly, upon application to a court of equity having jurisdiction, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to a decree requiring specific performance by such Grantor of said obligation. By accepting the benefits of this Agreement and each other Security Document, the Secured Creditors expressly acknowledge and agree that this Agreement and each other Security Document may be enforced only by the action of the Collateral Agent acting upon the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors and that no other Secured Creditor shall have any right individually to seek to enforce or to enforce this Agreement or to realize upon the security to be granted hereby, it being understood and agreed that such rights and remedies may be exercised by the Collateral Agent or the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Other Obligations, as the case may be, for the benefit of the Secured Creditors upon the terms of this Agreement and the other Security Documents.

(vii) take any other action as specified in clauses (1) through (5), inclusive, of Section 9-607 of the UCC;

6.2 Remedies; Disposition of the Collateral. To the extent permitted by applicable law, if any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, then any Collateral repossessed by the Collateral Agent under or pursuant to Section 6.1 hereof and any other Collateral whether or not so repossessed by the Collateral Agent, may be sold, assigned, leased or otherwise disposed of under one or more contracts or as an entirety, and without the necessity of gathering at the place of sale the property to be sold, and in general in such manner, at such time or times, at such place or places and on such terms as the Collateral Agent may, in compliance with any mandatory requirements of applicable law, determine to be commercially reasonable. Any of the Collateral may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of, in the condition in which the same existed when taken by the Collateral Agent or after any overhaul or repair at the expense of the relevant Grantor which the Collateral Agent shall reasonably determine to be commercially reasonable. Any such sale, lease or other disposition may be effected by means of a public disposition or private disposition, effected in accordance with the applicable requirements (in each case if and to the extent applicable) of Sections 9-610 through 9-613 of the UCC and/or such other mandatory requirements of applicable law as may apply to the respective disposition. The Collateral Agent may, without notice or publication, adjourn any public or private disposition or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for the disposition, and such disposition may be made at any time or place to which the disposition may be so adjourned. To the extent permitted by any such requirement of law, the Collateral Agent may bid for and become the purchaser (and may pay all or any portion of the purchase price by crediting Obligations against the purchase price) of the Collateral or any item thereof, offered for disposition in accordance with this Section 6.2 without accountability to the relevant Grantor. Each Grantor agrees to do or cause to be done all such other acts and things as may be reasonably necessary to make such disposition or dispositions of all or any portion of the Collateral valid and binding and in compliance with any and all applicable laws, regulations, orders, writs, injunctions, decrees or awards of any and all courts, arbitrators or governmental instrumentalities, domestic or foreign, having jurisdiction over any such sale or sales, all at such Grantor's expense.

6.3 Waiver of Claims. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, EACH GRANTOR HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, NOTICE AND JUDICIAL HEARING IN CONNECTION WITH THE COLLATERAL AGENT'S TAKING POSSESSION OR THE COLLATERAL AGENT'S DISPOSITION OF ANY OF THE COLLATERAL, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY AND ALL PRIOR NOTICE AND HEARING FOR ANY PREJUDGMENT REMEDY OR REMEDIES, and each Grantor hereby further waives, to the extent permitted by law:

(a) all damages occasioned by such taking of possession or any such disposition except any damages which are the direct result of the Collateral Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision);

(b) all other requirements as to the time, place and terms of sale or other requirements with respect to the enforcement of the Collateral Agent's rights hereunder; and

(c) all rights of redemption, appraisement, valuation, stay, extension or moratorium now or hereafter in force under any applicable law in order to prevent or delay the enforcement of this Agreement or the absolute sale of the Collateral or any portion thereof, and each Grantor, for itself and all who may claim under it, insofar as it or they now or hereafter lawfully may, hereby waives the benefit of all such laws.

Any sale of, or the grant of options to purchase, or any other realization upon, any Collateral shall operate to divest all right, title, interest, claim and demand, either at law or in equity, of the relevant Grantor therein and thereto, and shall be a perpetual bar both at law and in equity against such Grantor and against any and all Persons claiming or attempting to claim the Collateral so sold, optioned or realized upon, or any part thereof, from, through and under such Grantor.

6.4 Application of Proceeds.

(a) Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, all moneys collected by the Collateral Agent (or, to the extent the Pledge Agreement or any other Security Document requires proceeds of collateral under such other Security Document to be applied in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Pledgee under, and as defined in, the Pledge Agreement, or collateral agent under such other Security Document) upon any sale or other disposition of the Collateral (or the collateral under the relevant Security Document), together with all other moneys received by the Collateral Agent hereunder (or under the relevant Security Document), in each case, as a result of the exercise of remedies by the Collateral Agent after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, shall be applied as follows:

(i) first, to the payment of all amounts owing the Collateral Agent of the type described in clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv) of the definition of "Obligations";

(ii) second, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to the preceding clause (i), to the payment of all amounts owing to any Agent or any of its Affiliates of the type described in clauses (iv) and (v) of the definition of "Obligations";

(iii) third, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to the preceding clauses (i) and (ii), an amount equal to the outstanding Credit Document Obligations shall be paid to the Secured Creditors as provided in Section 6.4(c) hereof, with each Secured Creditor receiving an amount equal to its outstanding Credit Document Obligations or, if the proceeds are insufficient to pay in full all such Credit Document Obligations, its Pro Rata Share of the amount remaining to be distributed;

(iv) fourth, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to preceding clauses (i) through (iii), inclusive, ratably to any other then remaining unpaid Obligations; and

(v) fifth, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to the preceding clauses (i) through (iv), inclusive, and following the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.8(a) hereof, to the relevant Grantor or to whomever may be lawfully entitled to receive such surplus.

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, " Pro Rata Share" shall mean, when calculating a Secured Creditor's portion of any distribution or amount, that amount (expressed as a percentage) equal to a fraction the numerator of which is the then unpaid amount of such Secured Creditor's Obligations, and the denominator of which is the then outstanding amount of all Obligations.

(c) All payments required to be made hereunder shall be made to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Secured Creditors.

(d) For purposes of applying payments received in accordance with this Section6.4, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely upon the Administrative Agent for a determination (which the Administrative Agent agrees (or shall agree) to provide upon request of the Collateral Agent) of the outstanding Credit Document Obligations owed to the Secured Creditors.

(e) It is understood that the Grantors are and shall remain jointly and severally liable to the extent of any deficiency between the amount of the proceeds of the Collateral and the aggregate amount of the Obligations.

6.5 Remedies Cumulative. Each and every right, power and remedy hereby specifically given to the Collateral Agent shall be in addition to every other right, power and remedy specifically given to the Collateral Agent under this Agreement, the other Secured Debt Agreements or now or hereafter existing at law, in equity or by statute and each and every right, power and remedy whether specifically herein given or otherwise existing may be exercised from time to time or simultaneously and as often and in such order as may be deemed expedient by the Collateral Agent. All such rights, powers and remedies shall be cumulative and the exercise or the beginning of the exercise of one shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to exercise any other or others. No delay or omission of the Collateral Agent in the exercise of any such right, power or remedy and no renewal or extension of any of the Obligations shall impair any such right, power or remedy or shall be construed to be a waiver of any Default or Event of Default or an acquiescence thereof. No notice to or demand on any Grantor in any case shall entitle it to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of any of the rights of the Collateral Agent to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand. In the event that the Collateral Agent shall bring any suit to enforce any of its rights hereunder and shall be entitled to judgment, then in such suit the Collateral Agent may recover reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, and the amounts thereof shall be included in such judgment.

6.6 Discontinuance of Proceedings. In case the Collateral Agent shall have instituted any proceeding to enforce any right, power or remedy under this Agreement by foreclosure, sale, entry or otherwise, and such proceeding shall have been discontinued or abandoned for any reason or shall have been determined adversely to the Collateral Agent, then and in every such case the relevant Grantor, the Collateral Agent and each holder of any of the Obligations shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder with respect to the Collateral subject to the security interest created under this Agreement, and all rights, remedies and powers of the Collateral Agent shall continue as if no such proceeding had been instituted.

ARTICLE VII

7.2 Indemnity Obligations Secured by Collateral; Survival. Any amounts paid by any Indemnified Person as to which such Indemnified Person has the right to reimbursement shall constitute Obligations secured by the Collateral. The indemnity obligations of each Grantor contained in the Credit Agreement shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the full payment of all of the other Obligations and notwithstanding the full payment of all the Notes issued, and Term Loans made, under the Credit Agreement and the payment of all other Obligations and notwithstanding the discharge thereof and the occurrence of the Termination Date.

CANADIAN SECURITY AGREEMENT

CANADIAN SECURITY AGREEMENT, dated as of April 15, 2014 made by each of the undersigned grantors (each, a "Grantor" and, together with any other entity that becomes a grantor hereunder pursuant to Section 9.12 hereof, the " Grantors") in favour of Bank of America, N.A., as Collateral Agent (together with any successor Collateral Agent, the " Collateral Agent"), for the benefit of the Secured Creditors (as defined below). Certain capitalized terms as used herein are defined in Article IX hereof. Except as otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms used herein and defined in the Credit Agreement (as defined below) shall be used herein as therein defined.

W I T N E S S E T H :

WHEREAS, Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. (the "Borrower") and various lenders party thereto from time to time (the "Lenders") and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent and collateral agent (together with any successor administrative agent or collateral agent, the "Administrative Agent") have entered into a Term Loan Credit Agreement, dated as of even date herewith (as amended, modified, restated and/or supplemented from time to time, the "Credit Agreement"), providing for the making of Term Loans to the Borrower, as contemplated therein (the Lenders, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and each other Agent are herein called the "Secured Creditors");

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Subsidiaries Guaranty, each Subsidiary Guarantor has jointly and severally guaranteed to the Secured Creditors the payment when due of all Guaranteed Obligations;

WHEREAS, it is a condition precedent to the making of Term Loans to the Borrower under the Credit Agreement that each Grantor shall have executed and delivered to the Collateral Agent this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, each Grantor will obtain benefits from the incurrence of Term Loans by the Borrower under the Credit Agreement and accordingly, desires to execute this Agreement in order to satisfy the condition described in the preceding paragraph and to induce the Lenders to make Term Loans to the Borrower;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the benefits accruing to each Grantor, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, each Grantor hereby makes the following representations and warranties to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors and hereby covenants and agrees with the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors as follows:

ARTICLE I

1.1 Grant of Security Interests.

(a) As security for the prompt and complete payment or performance, as the case may be, when due of all of its Obligations, each Grantor does hereby pledge, assign, mortgage, charge and grant to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Creditors, as and by way of a fixed and specific mortgage and charge, and grants to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Creditors, a continuing security interest in, all of its present and after-acquired personal property, including, without limiting the foregoing, all of its right, title and interest in, to and under all of the following personal property and fixtures (and all rights therein), or in which or to which it has any rights, in each case whether now existing or hereafter from time to time acquired (but excluding any Excluded Collateral (as defined below)):

(i) each and every Account, including all claims of any kind that such Grantor has, including claims against the Crown and claims under insurance policies;

(ii) the Cash Collateral Account and all Money, Securities, Instruments and other investments deposited or required to be deposited in the Cash Collateral Account;

(iii) all Chattel Paper;

(iv) all Contracts, together with all Contract Rights arising thereunder;

(v) all Equipment and fixtures;

(vi) all Deposit Accounts and all Money, Securities, Instruments and other investments deposited or required to be deposited in any of the foregoing;

(vii) all Documents of Title;

(viii) all Financial Assets;

(ix) all Goods;

(x) all Instruments;

(xi) all Intangibles;

(xii) all Intellectual Property

(xiii) all Inventory;

(xiv) all Investment Property, including shares, stock, warrants, bonds, debentures, debenture stock and other Securities (in each case whether evidenced by a Security Certificate or an Uncertificated Security) and Security Entitlements, Securities Accounts, Futures Contracts and Futures Accounts;

(xv) all rights in letters of credit (whether or not the respective letter of credit is evidenced by a writing);

(xvi) all Money;

(xvii) all Patents;

(xviii) all Permits;

(xix) with respect to the foregoing, all parts, components, renewals, substitutions and replacements of that property and all attachments, accessories and increases, additions and Accessions to that property; and

(xx) all Proceeds and products of any and all of the foregoing, including property in any form derived directly or indirectly from any dealing with such property (all of the above, the "Collateral").

(b) The security interest of the Collateral Agent under this Agreement extends to all Collateral that any Grantor may acquire, or with respect to which any Grantor may obtain rights, at any time during the term of this Agreement.

1.2 Certain Exceptions. Notwithstanding Section 1.1, no security interest is or will be granted pursuant hereto in any right, title or interest of any Grantor under or in (each of (a) through (o) collectively, the "Excluded Collateral"):

(a) any leases, licenses, Instruments, Contracts, Chattel Paper, Intangibles, Permits, governmental licenses, provincial, territorial or local franchises, charters or authorizations or other contracts or agreements (other than an Account or Chattel Paper) with or issued by Persons other than the Borrower or Subsidiaries of the Borrower or an Affiliate thereof (collectively, " Excluded Agreements ") that would otherwise be included in the Collateral (and such Excluded Agreements shall not be deemed to constitute a part of the Collateral) for so long as, and to the extent that, the granting of such a security interest pursuant hereto would invalidate or result in a violation, breach, default or termination of such Excluded Agreements or create a right of termination in favour of, or require the consent of, any party thereto (in each case other than the Borrower or a Subsidiary Guarantor) (in each case, except to the extent any such violation, breach, default, termination, right or consent would be rendered ineffective under the PPSA or other applicable law); provided, however, that a security interest in an Excluded Agreement in favour of the Secured Creditors shall attach immediately (i) at such time as Grantor's grant of a security interest in such Excluded Agreement no longer results in a violation, breach, default or termination thereof or thereunder or no longer creates such right of termination or such right has been waived or requires such consent or such consent has been obtained, (ii) to the extent severable, to any portion of such Excluded Agreement that does not result in a respective violation, breach, default, termination or right or consent thereof or thereunder and (iii) to any proceeds or receivables of such Excluded Agreement that are not Excluded Collateral;

(b) any Consumer Goods;

(c) any intent-to-use trademark application prior to the filing of a "Statement of Use" or "Amendment to Allege Use" with respect thereto, to the extent, if any, that, and solely during the period, if any, in which, the grant of a security interest therein would impair the validity or enforceability of such intent-to-use trademark application under applicable federal law;

(d) any Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods to the extent that any valid and enforceable law or regulation applicable to such Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods prohibit the creation of a security interest therein, except to the extent such prohibition is unenforceable after giving effect to the applicable provisions of the PPSA or other applicable law;

(e) other than Equity Interests in [Redacted – Name of Subsidiary] , those assets located outside of the United States and Canada (solely to the extent action would be required in such other jurisdictions to obtain such security interests);

(f) those Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods as to which the Administrative Agent and the Lead Borrower reasonably agree in a writing to the Collateral Agent that the cost of obtaining a security interest therein is excessive in relation to the value of the security to be afforded thereby;

(g) (a) any fee-owned real property with a fair market value less than $5,000,000 and (b) all leasehold interests in real property;

(h) any Equity Interests in (i) a joint venture or other non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary to the extent that granting a security interest in or Lien on such Equity Interests is not permitted by the governing documents of such joint venture or other non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary or would require the consent of any Person who owns Equity Interests in such joint venture or non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary which (other than any Grantor or its Subsidiaries) consent has not been obtained, (ii) Subsidiaries that are not directly owned by a Grantor, and (iii) Unrestricted Subsidiaries;

(i) any margin stock;

(j) any motor vehicles and assets subject to certificates of title (other than to the extent such rights can be perfected by the filing of a financing statement under the PPSA);

(k) cash that secures any letters of credit outstanding and permitted to be outstanding and secured pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement; and

(1) any Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods that would otherwise be included in the

Collateral (and such Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods shall not be deemed to constitute a part of the Collateral) if such Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods have been sold or otherwise transferred in connection with a sale-leaseback transaction permitted under Section 9.02(xi) of the Credit Agreement, or are subject to any Liens permitted under Section 9.01(vii) of the Credit Agreement, or constitute the Proceeds or products of any Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods that have been so sold or otherwise transferred, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement, so long as such Proceeds or products remain subject to the Liens referenced above in this clause (1); and

(2) any property or asset that would otherwise be included in the Collateral (and such property or asset shall not be deemed to constitute a part of the Collateral) if such property or assets is subject to a Lien permitted by Section 9.01(xiv) of the Credit Agreement;

in each case pursuant to preceding clauses (l)(1) through (2), for so long as, and to the extent that, the granting or existence of such a security interest pursuant hereto would result in a breach, default or termination of any agreement relating to the respective Lien or obligations secured thereby (in each case, except to the extent any such breach, default or termination would be rendered ineffective under the PPSA or other applicable law); provided that immediately upon repayment of the Indebtedness and/or other monetary obligation secured by a Lien referenced in clauses (l)(1) through (2), the relevant Grantor shall be deemed to have granted a security interest in all of its rights, title and interests under or in such Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods that are the subject of such Lien;

provided, however, that Excluded Collateral shall not include any Proceeds, substitutions or replacements of any Excluded Collateral referred to in any of clauses (a) through (l) (unless such Proceeds, substitutions or replacements would constitute Excluded Collateral referred to in any of clauses (a) through (l)).

1.3 Trademarks. The security interest with respect to trademarks constitutes a security interest in, and a charge and pledge of, such Collateral in favour of the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Creditors, but does not constitute an assignment or mortgage of such Collateral to the Collateral Agent or any Secured Creditor.

1.4 Attachment. Each Grantor has rights in its Collateral and agrees that the Secured Creditors have given value and that the security interests created by this Agreement are intended to attach (a) with respect to Collateral that is now in existence, upon execution of this Agreement, and (b) with respect to Collateral that comes into existence in the future, upon such Grantor acquiring rights in the Collateral or the power to transfer rights in the Collateral to the Collateral Agent. In each case, the parties do not intend to postpone the attachment of any security interests created by this Agreement.

1.5 Power of Attorney. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, each Grantor hereby constitutes and appoints the Collateral Agent its true and lawful attorney, irrevocably, with full power after the occurrence of and during the continuance of an Event of Default (in the name of such Grantor or otherwise) to act, require, demand, receive, compound and give acquittance for any and all moneys and claims for moneys due or to become due to such Grantor under or arising out of the Collateral, to endorse any cheques or other instruments or orders in connection therewith and to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings which the Collateral Agent may deem to be reasonably necessary or advisable to protect the interests of the Secured Creditors, which appointment as attorney is coupled with an interest.

1.6 In Addition to Other Rights; No Marshalling. This Agreement is in addition to and is not in any way prejudiced by or merged with any other security interest or Lien now or subsequently held by the Collateral Agent in respect of any Obligations. The Secured Creditors shall be under no obligation to marshal in favour of the Grantors any other security interest or Lien or any money or other property that the Secured Creditors may be entitled to receive or may have a claim upon.

Each Grantor represents and warrants as of the date hereof, and, until the Termination Date, covenants, which representations, warranties and covenants shall survive execution and delivery of this Agreement, as follows:

2.1 Necessary Perfection Action. The security interest granted to the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Agreement in and to the Collateral for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Creditors is a valid security interest and Lien upon such Grantor's right, title and interest in and to the Collateral. Upon (A) the filing of the PPSA and UCC financing statements in the appropriate jurisdictions set forth on Annexes A, B and C, (B) the recordation of Annex H in the Canadian Intellectual Property Office, and (C) the receipt by the Collateral Agent of all instruments, chattel paper and certificated pledged Equity Interests constituting Collateral in suitable form for transfer by delivery or accompanied by instruments of transfer or assignment duly executed in blank, such security interest and Lien shall be perfected in all of the Collateral in which a security interest may be perfected by filing, recording or registering a PPSA financing statement or analogous document in Canada (or any political subdivision thereof) and its territories and possessions pursuant to the PPSA or other applicable law in such jurisdictions and in which a security interest may be perfected upon the receipt and recording of this Agreement (or a short form hereof) with the Canadian Intellectual Property Office; provided, however, that additional filings may be necessary to perfect the Collateral Agent's security interest in, and Lien on, any Recordable Intellectual Property acquired after the date hereof.

Upon the actions taken under this Section 2.1, such security interest will be superior to and prior to all other Liens of all other Persons (other than Permitted Liens), and, subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement, enforceable as such as against all other Persons (except to the extent that the enforceability thereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws generally affecting creditors' rights and by equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law)) other than Ordinary Course Transferees.

2.2 No Liens. Such Grantor is, and as to all Collateral acquired by it from time to time after the date hereof will be, the owner of, or otherwise have the right to use, all Collateral free from any Lien of any Person (other than Permitted Liens), and such Grantor shall, at its own expense, take all commercially reasonable actions necessary to defend the Collateral against all claims and demands of all Persons at any time claiming the same or any interest therein materially adverse to the Collateral Agent.

2.3 Other Financing Statements. As of the date hereof, no Grantor has filed, nor authorized the filing by any third party of any financing statement (or similar statement or instrument of registration under the law of any jurisdiction) covering or purporting to cover any interest of any kind in the Collateral (other than financing statements filed in respect of Permitted Liens), and so long as the Termination Date has not occurred, such Grantor will not authorize to be filed in any public office any financing statement (or similar statement or instrument of registration under the law of any jurisdiction) or statements relating to the Collateral, except financing statements filed or to be filed in respect of and covering the security interests granted hereby by such Grantor or in connection with Permitted Liens.

2.4 Chief Executive Office, Record Locations. The chief executive office of such Grantor is, on the date of this Agreement, located at the address indicated on Annex A hereto for such Grantor. During the period of the four calendar months preceding the date of this Agreement, the chief executive office of such Grantor has not been located at any address other than that indicated on Annex A in accordance with the immediately preceding sentence, in each case unless each such other address is also indicated on Annex A hereto for such Grantor.

2.5 Locations of Collateral. All Inventory, Equipment and other tangible personal property (having a fair market value in excess of $100,000 with respect to Collateral comprising Equipment only) held on the date hereof, or held at any time during the four calendar months prior to the date hereof, by each Grantor, other than Inventory in transit or Equipment moved in the ordinary course of business within the jurisdictions shown on Annex B hereto, is located at one of the locations shown on Annex B hereto for such Grantor. No Grantor shall permit any of its Inventory, Equipment or other tangible personal property to be located out of the jurisdictions shown on Annex B hereto for such Grantor without providing the Collateral Agent with 10 (ten) days advance written notice and promptly taking all action reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent to maintain the security interests of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral intended to be granted hereby at all times fully perfected to the extent described in Section 2.1 and in full force and effect.

2.6 Legal Names; Type of Organization; Jurisdiction of Organization; Location; Organizational Identification Numbers; Federal Employer Identification Number; Changes Thereto; etc. As of the Closing Date, the exact legal name of each Grantor, the type of organization of such Grantor, the jurisdiction of organization of such Grantor, such Grantor's Location, the organizational identification number (if any) of such Grantor and the Federal Employer Identification Number of such Grantor (if any), is listed on Annex C hereto for such Grantor. Such Grantor shall not change its legal name, its type of organization, its jurisdiction of organization, its Location, its organizational identification number (if any) or its Federal Employer Identification Number (if any) from that used on Annex C hereto, except that any such changes shall be permitted (so long as not in violation of the applicable requirements of the Secured Debt Agreements and so long as same do not involve (x) a registered organization ceasing to constitute same or (y) such Grantor changing its jurisdiction of organization or Location from Canada or a province or territory thereof to a jurisdiction of organization or Location, as the case may be, outside Canada or a province or territory thereof) if (i) it shall have given to the Collateral Agent written notice of each change to the information listed on Annex C (as adjusted for any subsequent changes thereto previously made in accordance with this sentence), together with a supplement to Annex C which shall update all information contained therein for such Grantor within five (5) Business Days of such change (or such longer period as agreed to by the Collateral Agent) and (ii) in connection with such change or changes, it shall take all action reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent to maintain the security interests of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral intended to be granted hereby at all times fully perfected to the extent described in Section 2.1 and in full force and effect. In addition, to the extent that such Grantor does not have an organizational identification number on the date hereof and later obtains one, such Grantor shall promptly thereafter notify the Collateral Agent of such organizational identification number and shall take all actions reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent to the extent necessary to maintain the security interest of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral intended to be granted hereby fully perfected to the extent described in Section 2.1 and in full force and effect.

2.7 Trade Names; Etc. Such Grantor has not and does not operate in any jurisdiction under, or in the preceding five (5) years has not operated in any jurisdiction under, any trade names, fictitious names or other names except its legal name as specified in Annex C and such other trade or fictitious names as are listed on Annex D hereto for such Grantor.

2.8 Certain Significant Transactions. During the one year period preceding the date of this Agreement, no Person shall have merged, amalgamated or consolidated with or into any Grantor, and no Person shall have liquidated into, or transferred all or substantially all of its assets to, any Grantor, in each case except the mergers, amalgamations and consolidations contemplated by the Transaction and the mergers, amalgamations and consolidations described in Annex E hereto. With respect to any transactions so described in Annex E hereto, the respective Grantor shall have furnished such information with respect to the Person (and the assets of the Person and locations thereof) which merged with or into or amalgamated or consolidated with such Grantor, or was liquidated into or transferred all or substantially all of its assets to such Grantor, and shall have furnished to the Collateral Agent such PPSA and Bank Act (Canada) lien searches as may have been reasonably requested with respect to such Person and its assets, to establish that no security interest (excluding Permitted Liens) continues perfected on the date hereof with respect to any Person described above (or the assets transferred to the respective Grantor by such Person).

2.9 Consumer Goods. None of the Collateral consists of Consumer Goods.

2.10 Collateral in the Possession of a Bailee. If any Inventory or other Goods, the aggregate fair market value of which is equal to or greater than $1,000,000, are at any time in the possession of a bailee, such Grantor shall concurrently with the delivery of the next Compliance Certificate provided under the Credit Agreement furnish the Collateral Agent with written notice thereof and, if requested by the Collateral Agent after an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, shall use its reasonable efforts to promptly obtain an acknowledgment from such bailee, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, that the bailee holds such Collateral for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and shall act upon the instructions of the Collateral Agent, without the further consent of such Grantor, subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement. The Collateral Agent agrees with such Grantor that the Collateral Agent shall not give any such instructions unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and upon notice from the Collateral Agent of its intent to exercise remedies.

2.11 Recourse. This Agreement is made with full recourse to each Grantor and pursuant to and upon all the warranties, representations, covenants and agreements on the part of such Grantor contained herein, in the Secured Debt Agreements and otherwise in writing in connection herewith or therewith.

ARTICLE III

SPECIAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING ACCOUNTS; CONTRACT RIGHTS; INSTRUMENTS; CHATTEL PAPER AND CERTAIN OTHER COLLATERAL

3 . 1 Maintenance of Records. Each Grantor will keep and maintain proper books and records of its Accounts and Contracts, in which full, true and correct entries in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and all Requirements of Law shall be made of all such Accounts and Contracts, and such Grantor will make the same available on such Grantor's premises to officers and designated representatives of the Collateral Agent for inspection in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Credit Agreement. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and at the request of the Collateral Agent, such Grantor shall, at its own cost and expense, deliver all tangible evidence of its Accounts and Contract Rights (including, without limitation, all documents evidencing the Accounts and all Contracts) and such books and records to the Collateral Agent or to its representatives (copies of which evidence and books and records may be retained by such Grantor). Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and if the Collateral Agent so requests, such Grantor shall legend, in form and manner satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, the Accounts and the Contracts, as well as books, records and documents (if any) of such Grantor evidencing or pertaining to such Accounts and Contracts with an appropriate reference to the fact that such Accounts and Contracts have been assigned to the Collateral Agent and that the Collateral Agent has a security interest therein.

3 . 2 Direction to Account Debtors; Contracting Parties; etc. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, after giving notice to the relevant Grantor of its intent to do so, if the Collateral Agent so directs any Grantor, such Grantor agrees (i) to cause all payments on account of the Accounts and Contracts to be made directly to the Cash Collateral Account, (ii) that the Collateral Agent may, at its option, directly notify the obligors in its own name or in the name of others with respect to any Accounts and/or under any Contracts to make payments with respect thereto as provided in the preceding clause (i), and (iii) that the Collateral Agent may enforce collection of any such Accounts and Contracts and may adjust, settle or compromise the amount of payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as such Grantor; provided that, (x) any failure by the Collateral Agent to give or any delay in giving such notice to the relevant Grantor shall not affect the effectiveness of such notice or the other rights of the Collateral Agent created by this Section 3.2 and (y) no such notice shall be required if an Event of Default of the type described in Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, without notice to or assent by any Grantor, the Collateral Agent may, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, apply any or all amounts then in, or thereafter deposited in, the Cash Collateral Account toward the payment of the Obligations in the manner provided in Section 6.5 of this Agreement. The reasonable costs and expenses of collection (including reasonable legal fees), whether incurred by a Grantor or the Collateral Agent, shall be borne by the relevant Grantor. The Collateral Agent shall deliver a copy of each notice referred to in the preceding clause (y) to the relevant Grantor, provided that (x) the failure by the Collateral Agent to so notify such Grantor shall not affect the effectiveness of such notice or the other rights of the Collateral Agent created by this Section 3.2 and (y) no such notice shall be required if an Event of Default of the type described in Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing.

3.3 Modification of Terms; etc. Except in accordance with such Grantor's ordinary course of business and consistent with reasonable business judgment, or as permitted by Section 3.4 hereof or by the Credit Documents, no Grantor shall rescind or cancel any indebtedness evidenced by any Account, or modify any material term thereof or make any material adjustment with respect thereto, or extend or renew the same, or compromise or settle any material dispute, claim, suit or legal proceeding relating thereto, or sell any Account, or interest therein, without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent unless such rescissions, cancellations, modifications, adjustments, extensions, renewals, compromises, settlements, releases, or sales would not reasonably be expected to materially adversely affect the value of the Accounts constituting Collateral taken as a whole. Except as otherwise permitted by the Credit Documents, no Grantor will do anything to impair the rights of the Collateral Agent in the Accounts or Contracts.

3.4 Collection. Except as otherwise directed by the Collateral Agent after the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default or otherwise required pursuant to the Credit Agreement, any Grantor may allow in the ordinary course of business as adjustments to amounts owing under its Accounts and Contracts (i) an extension or renewal of the time or times of payment, or settlement for less than the total unpaid balance, which such Grantor finds appropriate in accordance with reasonable business judgment, (ii) a refund or credit due as a result of returned or damaged merchandise or improperly performed services or for other reasons which such Grantor finds appropriate in accordance with reasonable business judgment and (iii) any other adjustments necessary or desirable in the Grantor's reasonable business judgment. The reasonable costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees) of collection, whether incurred by a Grantor or the Collateral Agent, shall be borne by the relevant Grantor.

3.5 Instruments. If any Grantor at any time holds or acquires any Instrument constituting Collateral with a face value in excess of $100,000 individually (other than cheques and other payment instruments received and collected in the ordinary course of business and promptly deposited into a Deposit Account), such Grantor shall, on or prior to the date of the required delivery of the Compliance Certificate pursuant to the Credit Agreement following such acquisition, notify the Collateral Agent thereof, and upon request by the Collateral Agent (subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement), promptly deliver such Instrument to the Collateral Agent appropriately endorsed in blank or to the order of the Collateral Agent, provided that, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, such Grantor may retain for collection in the ordinary course of business any Instrument received by such Grantor in the ordinary course of business, and the Collateral Agent shall, promptly upon request of such Grantor, make appropriate arrangements for making any Instruments in its possession and pledged by such Grantor available to such Grantor for purposes of presentation, collection or renewal. of any performance by any party under any Contract, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to them or to which they may be entitled at any time or times.

3 . 9 Chattel Paper. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, each Grantor will promptly following any reasonable request by the Collateral Agent, deliver all of its Chattel Paper with a value in excess of $100,000 to the Collateral Agent, provided that, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, such Grantor may retain for collection in the ordinary course of business any Chattel Paper received by such Grantor in the ordinary course of business, and the Collateral Agent shall, promptly upon request of such Grantor, make appropriate arrangements for making any Chattel Paper in its possession and pledged by such Grantor available to such Grantor for purposes of presentation, collection or renewal. 4 . 1 Additional Representations and Warranties. Annex G hereto sets forth a complete and accurate list of all Recordable Intellectual Property that each Grantor owns. Each Grantor represents and warrants that it is the sole owner of all right, title and interest in all Recordable Intellectual Property listed in Annex G hereto. Each Grantor further warrants that it has no knowledge of any written third-party claim received by it within the last twelve (12) months that any such Grantor or aspect of such Grantor's present business operations infringes, misappropriates, dilutes or otherwise violates any Intellectual Property of any other Person other than as has not, and would not, reasonably be expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. 4.6 After-Acquired Intellectual Property. In the event that any Grantor, either itself or through any agent, employee, licensee or designee, files an application for or acquires any Recordable Intellectual Property following the date hereof, then the provisions of this Agreement shall automatically apply thereto and any such Intellectual Property (other than any Excluded Collateral) shall automatically constitute part of the Collateral and shall be subject to the Collateral Agent's security interest, without further action by any party, and such Grantor shall within 60 days of the end of each fiscal quarter execute and deliver any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers as necessary to evidence and perfect the Collateral Agent's security interest in such Recordable Intellectual Property provided that such agreements, instruments, documents and papers (the "Writings") are consistent with the terms of and conditions of this Agreement and the Annex H and each Grantor hereby appoints the Collateral Agent as its attorney-in-fact to execute and file such Writings, solely upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and solely for the foregoing purposes, all acts of such attorney being hereby ratified and confirmed; such power, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable until this Agreement is terminated.

5.1 Protection of Collateral Agent's Security. Except as otherwise permitted by the Secured Debt Agreements, each Grantor will do nothing to impair the rights of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral. Each Grantor or an affiliate on behalf of such Grantor will at all times maintain insurance, at such Grantor's own expense to the extent and in the manner provided in the Secured Debt Agreements. If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Collateral Agent shall, at the time any proceeds of such insurance are distributed to the Secured Creditors, apply such proceeds in accordance with Section 6.5 hereof. Each Grantor assumes all liability and responsibility in connection with the Collateral acquired by it and the liability of such Grantor to pay the Obligations shall in no way be affected or diminished by reason of the fact that such Collateral may be lost, destroyed, stolen, damaged or for any reason whatsoever unavailable to such Grantor.

5.2 Warehouse Receipts Non-Negotiable. To the extent practicable, each Grantor agrees that if any warehouse receipt or receipt in the nature of a warehouse receipt is issued with respect to any of its Inventory, such Grantor shall request that such warehouse receipt or receipt in the nature thereof shall not be a "negotiable" document of title (as such term is used in Section 26(1) of the PPSA as in effect in any relevant jurisdiction or under other relevant law).

5.3 Additional Information. Each Grantor will, at its own expense, from time to time upon the reasonable request of the Collateral Agent, promptly furnish to the Collateral Agent such information with respect to the Collateral (including the identity of the Collateral or such components thereof as may have been reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent, the value and location of such Collateral, etc.) as may be requested by the Collateral Agent.

5.4 Further Actions. Each Grantor will, at its own expense and upon the reasonable request of the Collateral Agent, make, execute, endorse, acknowledge, file and/or deliver to the Collateral Agent from time to time such lists, descriptions and designations of its Collateral, warehouse receipts, receipts in the nature of warehouse receipts, bills of lading, documents of title, vouchers, invoices, schedules, confirmatory assignments, conveyances, financing statements, transfer endorsements, certificates, reports and other assurances or instruments and take such further steps relating to the Collateral and other property or rights covered by the security interest hereby granted, which the Collateral Agent deems reasonably appropriate or advisable to perfect, preserve or protect its security interest in the Collateral; provided, that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Grantors shall not be required to (i) take any action to perfect any security interest in any Collateral under the laws of any jurisdiction outside of the United States or Canada or (ii) enter into any control agreement or similar arrangements relating to any Deposit Account.

5.5 Financing Statements. Each Grantor agrees to file such financing statements, in form reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent, as the Collateral Agent may from time to time reasonably request to establish and maintain a valid, enforceable, perfected security interest in the Collateral as provided herein and for the purpose of obtaining and preserving the full benefits of the other rights and security contemplated hereby at least to the extent described in Section 2.1.

Each Grantor will pay any applicable filing fees, recordation taxes and related expenses relating to its Collateral. Each Grantor hereby authorizes the Collateral Agent to file any such financing statements without the signature of such Grantor where permitted by law (and such authorization includes describing the Collateral as "all present and after-acquired personal property" of such Grantor or words of similar effect). Each Grantor waives the right to receive a copy of any financing statement or financing change statement that may be registered in connection with this Agreement or any verification statement issued with respect to a registration, if waiver is not otherwise prohibited by law.

REMEDIES UPON OCCURRENCE OF AN EVENT OF DEFAULT

6.1 Remedies; Obtaining the Collateral Upon Default. Each Grantor agrees that, subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, if any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, then and in every such case, the Collateral Agent, in addition to any rights now or hereafter existing under applicable law and under the other provisions of this Agreement, shall have all rights as a secured party under any PPSA, any UCC, and such additional rights and remedies to which a secured party is entitled under the laws in effect in all relevant jurisdictions and may:

(i) personally, or by agents or attorneys, immediately take possession of the Collateral or any part thereof, from such Grantor or any other Person who then has possession of any part thereof with or without notice or process of law, and for that purpose may enter upon such Grantor's premises where any of the Collateral is located and remove the same and use in connection with such removal any and all services, supplies, aids and other facilities of such Grantor;

(ii) instruct the obligor or obligors on any agreement, instrument or other obligation (including, without limitation, the Accounts and the Contracts) constituting the Collateral to make any payment required by the terms of such agreement, instrument or other obligation directly to the Collateral Agent and may exercise any and all remedies of such Grantor in respect of such Collateral;

(iii) sell, assign or otherwise liquidate any or all of the Collateral or any part thereof in accordance with Section 6.2 hereof, or direct such Grantor to sell, assign or otherwise liquidate any or all of the Collateral or any part thereof, and, in each case, take possession of the proceeds of any such sale or liquidation;

(iv) take possession of the Collateral or any part thereof, by directing such Grantor in writing to deliver the same to the Collateral Agent at any reasonable place or places designated by the Collateral Agent, in which event such Grantor shall at its own expense:

(a) forthwith cause the same to be moved to the place or places so designated by the Collateral Agent and there delivered to the Collateral Agent;

(b) store and keep any Collateral so delivered to the Collateral Agent at such place or places pending further action by the Collateral Agent as provided in Section 6.2 hereof; and

(c) while the Collateral shall be so stored and kept, provide such security and maintenance services as shall be reasonably necessary to protect the same and to preserve and maintain it in good condition;

(v) license or sublicense, on a royalty free, rent basis, whether on an exclusive or nonexclusive basis, any Intellectual Property included in the Collateral (in the case of Trademarks, subject to reasonable quality control and subject to those exclusive licenses granted by Grantors in effect on the date hereof and those granted by any Grantor hereafter to the extent permitted by the Credit Agreement) for such term and on such conditions and in such manner as the Collateral Agent shall in its sole judgment determine, it being understood that any such license may be exercised, at the option of the Collateral Agent, only upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default; provided, that any such license shall be binding upon the Grantors notwithstanding any subsequent cure of an Event of Default.

(vi) apply any monies constituting Collateral or proceeds thereof in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.5; and

(vii) take any other action as specified in the PPSA;

it being understood that each Grantor's obligation so to deliver the Collateral is of the essence of this Agreement and that, accordingly, upon application to a court of equity having jurisdiction, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to a decree requiring specific performance by such Grantor of said obligation. By accepting the benefits of this Agreement and each other Security Document, the Secured Creditors expressly acknowledge and agree that this Agreement and each other Security Document may be enforced only by the action of the Collateral Agent acting upon the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors and that no other Secured Creditor shall have any right individually to seek to enforce or to enforce this Agreement or to realize upon the security to be granted hereby, it being understood and agreed that such rights and remedies may be exercised by the Collateral Agent or the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Other Obligations, as the case may be, for the benefit of the Secured Creditors upon the terms of this Agreement and the other Security Documents.

6.2 Remedies; Disposition of the Collateral. To the extent permitted by applicable law, if any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, then any Collateral repossessed by the Collateral Agent under or pursuant to Section 6.1 hereof and any other Collateral whether or not so repossessed by the Collateral Agent, may be sold, assigned, leased or otherwise disposed of under one or more contracts or as an entirety, and without the necessity of gathering at the place of sale the property to be sold, and in general in such manner, at such time or times, at such place or places and on such terms as the Collateral Agent may, in compliance with any mandatory requirements of applicable law, determine to be commercially reasonable. Any of the Collateral may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of, in the condition in which the same existed when taken by the Collateral Agent or after any overhaul or repair at the expense of the relevant Grantor which the Collateral Agent shall reasonably determine to be commercially reasonable. Any such sale, lease or other disposition may be effected by means of a public disposition or private disposition, effected in accordance with the applicable requirements (in each case if and to the extent applicable) of the PPSA and/or such other mandatory requirements of applicable law as may apply to the respective disposition. The Collateral Agent may, without notice or publication, adjourn any public or private disposition or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for the disposition, and such disposition may be made at any time or place to which the disposition may be so adjourned. To the extent permitted by any such requirement of law, the Collateral Agent may bid for and become the purchaser (and may pay all or any portion of the purchase price by crediting Obligations against the purchase price) of the Collateral or any item thereof, offered for disposition in accordance with this Section 6.2 without accountability to the relevant Grantor. The Collateral Agent may also accept the Collateral in satisfaction of the Obligations. Each Grantor agrees to do or cause to be done all such other acts and things as may be reasonably necessary to make such disposition or dispositions of all or any portion of the Collateral valid and binding and in compliance with any and all applicable laws, regulations, orders, writs, injunctions, decrees or awards of any and all courts, arbitrators or governmental instrumentalities, domestic or foreign, having jurisdiction over any such sale or sales, all at such Grantor's expense.

6.3 Remedies; Receiver. The Collateral Agent may take proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a receiver (which term includes a receiver and manager) of the Collateral or may by appointment in writing appoint any person to be a receiver of the Collateral. The Collateral Agent may remove any receiver appointed by it and appoint another in its place, and may determine the remuneration, acting reasonably, of any receiver, which may be paid from the proceeds of the Collateral in priority to other Obligations. Any receiver appointed by the Collateral Agent shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, have all of the rights, benefits and powers of the Collateral Agent under this Agreement, the PPSA or otherwise. Any receiver shall be deemed the agent of the Grantors and the Collateral Agent shall not be in any way responsible for any misconduct or negligence of any receiver.

6.4 Waiver of Claims. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, EACH GRANTOR HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, NOTICE AND JUDICIAL HEARING IN CONNECTION WITH THE COLLATERAL AGENT'S TAKING POSSESSION OR THE COLLATERAL AGENT'S DISPOSITION OF ANY OF THE COLLATERAL, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY AND ALL PRIOR NOTICE AND HEARING FOR ANY PREJUDGMENT REMEDY OR REMEDIES, and each Grantor hereby further waives, to the extent permitted by law:

(a) all damages occasioned by such taking of possession or any such disposition except any damages which are the direct result of the Collateral Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision);

(b) all other requirements as to the time, place and terms of sale or other requirements with respect to the enforcement of the Collateral Agent's rights hereunder; and

(c) all rights of redemption, appraisement, valuation, stay, extension or moratorium now or hereafter in force under any applicable law in order to prevent or delay the enforcement of this Agreement or the absolute sale of the Collateral or any portion thereof, and each Grantor, for itself and all who may claim under it, insofar as it or they now or hereafter lawfully may, hereby waives the benefit of all such laws.

Any sale of, or the grant of options to purchase, or any other realization upon, any Collateral shall operate to divest all right, title, interest, claim and demand, either at law or in equity, of the relevant Grantor therein and thereto, and shall be a perpetual bar both at law and in equity against such Grantor and against any and all Persons claiming or attempting to claim the Collateral so sold, optioned or realized upon, or any part thereof, from, through and under such Grantor.

6.5 Application of Proceeds.

(a) Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, all moneys collected by the Collateral Agent (or, to the extent the Pledge Agreement or any other Security Document requires proceeds of collateral under such other Security Document to be applied in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Pledgee under, and as defined in, the Pledge Agreement, or collateral agent under such other Security Document) upon any sale or other disposition of the Collateral (or the collateral under the relevant Security Document), together with all other moneys received by the Collateral Agent hereunder (or under the relevant Security Document), in each case, as a result of the exercise of remedies by the Collateral Agent after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, shall be applied as follows:

(i) first, to the payment of all amounts owing the Collateral Agent of the type described in clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv) of the definition of "Obligations";

(ii) second, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to the preceding clause (i), to the payment of all amounts owing to any Agent or any of its Affiliates of the type described in clauses (iv) and (v) of the definition of "Obligations";

(iii) third, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to the preceding clauses (i) and (ii), an amount equal to the outstanding Credit Document Obligations shall be paid to the Secured Creditors as provided in Section 6.5(c) hereof, with each Secured Creditor receiving an amount equal to its outstanding Credit Document Obligations or, if the proceeds are insufficient to pay in full all such Credit Document Obligations, its Pro Rata Share of the amount remaining to be distributed;

(iv) fourth, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to preceding clauses (i) through (iii), inclusive, ratably to any other then remaining unpaid Obligations; and

(v) fifth, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to the preceding clauses (i) through (iv), inclusive, and following the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.8(a) hereof, to the relevant Grantor or to whomever may be lawfully entitled to receive such surplus.

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, " Pro Rata Share" shall mean, when calculating a Secured Creditor's portion of any distribution or amount, that amount (expressed as a percentage) equal to a fraction the numerator of which is the then unpaid amount of such Secured Creditor's Obligations, and the denominator of which is the then outstanding amount of all Obligations.

(c) All payments required to be made hereunder shall be made to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Secured Creditors.

(d) For purposes of applying payments received in accordance with this Section 6.5, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely upon the Administrative Agent for a determination (which the Administrative Agent agrees (or shall agree) to provide upon request of the Collateral Agent) of the outstanding Credit Document Obligations owed to the Secured Creditors.

(e) It is understood that the Grantors are and shall remain jointly and severally liable to the extent of any deficiency between the amount of the proceeds of the Collateral and the aggregate amount of the Obligations.

6.6 Remedies Cumulative. Each and every right, power and remedy hereby specifically given to the Collateral Agent shall be in addition to every other right, power and remedy specifically given to the Collateral Agent under this Agreement, the other Secured Debt Agreements or now or hereafter existing at law, in equity or by statute and each and every right, power and remedy whether specifically herein given or otherwise existing may be exercised from time to time or simultaneously and as often and in such order as may be deemed expedient by the Collateral Agent. All such rights, powers and remedies shall be cumulative and the exercise or the beginning of the exercise of one shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to exercise any other or others. No delay or omission of the Collateral Agent in the exercise of any such right, power or remedy and no renewal or extension of any of the Obligations shall impair any such right, power or remedy or shall be construed to be a waiver of any Default or Event of Default or an acquiescence thereof. No notice to or demand on any Grantor in any case shall entitle it to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of any of the rights of the Collateral Agent to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand. In the event that the Collateral Agent shall bring any suit to enforce any of its rights hereunder and shall be entitled to judgment, then in such suit the Collateral Agent may recover reasonable expenses, including reasonable legal fees, and the amounts thereof shall be included in such judgment.

6.7 Discontinuance of Proceedings. In case the Collateral Agent shall have instituted any proceeding to enforce any right, power or remedy under this Agreement by foreclosure, sale, entry or otherwise, and such proceeding shall have been discontinued or abandoned for any reason or shall have been determined adversely to the Collateral Agent, then and in every such case the relevant Grantor, the Collateral Agent and each holder of any of the Obligations shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder with respect to the Collateral subject to the security interest created under this Agreement, and all rights, remedies and powers of the Collateral Agent shall continue as if no such proceeding had been instituted.

ARTICLE VII

Any amounts paid by any Indemnified Person as to which such Indemnified Person has the right to reimbursement shall constitute Obligations secured by the Collateral. The indemnity obligations of each Grantor contained in the Credit Agreement shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the full payment of all of the other Obligations and notwithstanding the full payment of all the Notes issued, and Term Loans made, under the Credit Agreement and the payment of all other Obligations and notwithstanding the discharge thereof and the occurrence of the Termination Date.

4.2.2 Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Attorney hereby irrevocably renounces to all rights and recourses of a hypothecary creditor, including the right to follow contemplated in Article 2700 and Article 2745 of the Civil Code or effect a filing pursuant to Article 2949 of the Civil Code, with respect to the Excluded Property for as long as such property remains Excluded Property.

5. AMOUNT OF THE HYPOTHEC

The amount for which the Hypothec is granted is a principal amount of ONE BILLION THREE HUNDRED TWENTY MILLION DOLLARS ($1,320,000,000) in lawful money of Canada, plus interest thereon from the date hereof at the rate of twenty-five percent (25%) per annum, calculated semi-annually, not in advance, to secure the due payment of the Secured Obligations.

6. SECURED OBLIGATIONS

The Hypothec is granted to secure the due payment of the principal of the Bonds and all interest thereon, together with the payment of all sums due or to become due by the Grantor under or pursuant to this Deed and the due performance and observance by the Grantor of all obligations provided for under or pursuant to this Deed, including all fees and expenses incurred by or on behalf of the Attorney in the exercise of its rights and powers hereunder (collectively, the "Secured Obligations").

Any future obligation hereby secured shall be deemed to be one in respect of which the Grantor has once again obligated itself hereunder according to the provisions of article 2797 of the Civil Code.

7. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO THE HYPOTHEC ON RENTAL INCOME AND LEASES

With respect to any of the Immovable (which does not constitute Excluded Property) generating Rent:

7.1. Information regarding Leases

The Grantor shall provide the Attorney, upon request, with a list containing the name of all tenants of any of the Immovables and details as to their leases.

7.2. Action to Recover Rents

The Attorney shall have the right, after the occurrence and of an Event of Default which is continuing, to bring an action for recovery of Rents provided the Attorney impleads the Grantor, it being understood that the Attorney shall be under no obligation to exercise such right and shall not be liable for any loss or damage which may result from its failure not to collect such Rents. The Attorney shall be at liberty to deduct from any Rents collected collection fees amounting to ten percent (10%) of all collected Rents as well as any commission usually charged by the Attorney for the collection of Rents, miscellaneous costs and expenses (copies, service fees, legal counsel fees and others, opening files, surveillance fees, execution fees or fees for cancellation of lease) incurred as a result of such collection.

8. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS TO THE HYPOTHEC ON CLAIMS

8.1. Maintenance of Records

The Grantor will keep and maintain proper books and records of its Claims, in which full, true and correct entries in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and all Requirements of Law shall be made of all such Claims, and the Grantor will make the same available on its premises to officers and designated representatives of the Attorney for inspection in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the TL Credit Agreement. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and at the request of the Attorney, the Grantor shall, at its own cost and expense, deliver all tangible evidence of its Claims (including, without limitation, all documents evidencing the Claims) and such books and records to the Attorney or to its representatives (copies of which evidence and books and records may be retained by the Grantor). Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and if the Attorney so requests, the Grantor shall legend, in form and manner satisfactory to the Attorney, the Claims, as well as books, records and documents (if any) of the Grantor evidencing or pertaining to such Claims with an appropriate reference to the fact that such Claims have been hypothecated and, if applicable, assigned to the Attorney and that the Attorney has a hypothec therein.

8.2. Direction to Account Debtors; Contracting Parties; etc.

Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, after giving notice to the Grantor of its intent to do so, if the Attorney so directs the Grantor, the Grantor agrees (i) to cause all payments on account of the Claims to be made directly to the Cash Collateral Account, (ii) that the Attorney may, at its option, directly notify the debtors of such claims in its own name or in the name of others with respect to any Claims to make payments with respect thereto as provided in the preceding clause (i) (a "Notice to Debtors"), and (iii) that the Attorney may enforce collection of any such Claims and may adjust, settle or compromise the amount of payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as the Grantor; provided that, (x) any failure by the Attorney to give or any delay in giving such notice to the Grantor shall not affect the effectiveness of such notice or the other rights of the Attorney created by this Section 8.2 and (y) no such notice shall be required if an Event of Default of the type described in Section 10.01(e) of the TL Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, without notice to or assent by the Grantor, the Attorney may, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, apply any or all amounts then in, or thereafter deposited in, the Cash Collateral Account toward the payment of the Secured Obligations in the manner provided in Section 13.10 of this Deed. The reasonable costs and expenses of collection (including reasonable legal fees), whether incurred by the Grantor or the Attorney, shall be borne by the Grantor. The Attorney shall deliver a copy of each Notice to Debtors to the Grantor, provided that (i) the failure by the Attorney to so notify the Grantor shall not affect the effectiveness of such notice or the other rights of the Attorney created by this Section 8.2 and (ii) no such notice shall be required if an Event of Default of the type described in Section 10.01(e) of the TL Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing.

8.3. Modification of Terms; etc.

Except in the Grantor's ordinary course of business and consistent with reasonable business judgment, or as permitted by Section 8.4 hereof or by the Credit Documents, the Grantor shall not rescind or cancel any indebtedness evidenced by any Claim, or modify any material term thereof or make any material adjustment with respect thereto, or extend or renew the same, or compromise or settle any material dispute, claim, suit or legal proceeding relating thereto, or sell any Claim, or interest therein, without the prior written consent of the Attorney unless such rescissions, cancellations, modifications, adjustments, extensions, renewals, compromises, settlements, releases, or sales would not reasonably be expected to materially adversely affect the value of the Claims constituting Hypothecated Property taken as a whole. Except as otherwise permitted by the TL Credit Documents, the Grantor will not do anything to impair the rights of the Attorney in the Claims.

8.4. Collection

The Grantor shall endeavor in accordance with historical business practices to cause to be collected from the debtor or obligor, as the case may be, named in each of its Claims, as and when due (including, without limitation, amounts which are delinquent, such amounts to be collected in accordance with generally accepted lawful collection procedures) any and all amounts owing under or on account of such Claim, and apply forthwith upon receipt thereof all such amounts as are so collected to the outstanding balance of such Claim. The Attorney hereby authorizes the Grantor to collect the Claims. Such authorization may be withdrawn by the Attorney upon the occurrence of an Event of Default which is continuing in accordance with what is provided for by law. Except as otherwise directed by the Attorney after the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default or otherwise required pursuant to the TL Credit Agreement, the Grantor may allow in the ordinary course of business as adjustments to amounts owing under its Claims (i) an extension or renewal of the time or times of payment, or settlement for less than the total unpaid balance, which the Grantor finds appropriate in accordance with reasonable business judgment, (ii) a refund or credit due as a result of returned or damaged merchandise or improperly performed services or for other reasons which the Grantor finds appropriate in accordance with reasonable business judgment and (iii) any other adjustments necessary or desirable in the Grantor's reasonable business judgment. The reasonable costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees) of collection, whether incurred by the Grantor or the Attorney, shall be borne by the Grantor.

8.5. Claims Evidenced by Titles of Indebtedness

If the Grantor at any time holds or acquires any Claim evidenced by a title of indebtedness constituting Hypothecated Property with a face value in excess of $100,000 individually (other than cheques and other payment instruments received and collected in the ordinary course of business and promptly deposited into a Deposit Account), the Grantor shall, on or prior to the date of the required delivery of the Compliance Certificate pursuant to the TL Credit Agreement following such acquisition, notify the Attorney thereof, and upon request by the Attorney (subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement), promptly deliver such title of indebtedness to the Attorney appropriately endorsed in blank or to the order of the Attorney, provided that, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Grantor may retain for collection in the ordinary course of business any title of indebtedness received by the Grantor in the ordinary course of business, and the Attorney shall, promptly upon request of the Grantor, make appropriate arrangements for making any title of indebtedness in its possession and pledged by the Grantor available to the Grantor for purposes of presentation, collection or renewal. If the Grantor retains possession of any title of indebtedness pursuant to the terms hereof, upon request of the Attorney, such title of indebtedness shall be marked with the following legend: "This writing and the obligations evidenced or secured hereby are subject to the hypothec of Bank of America, N.A., as fondé de pouvoir, for the benefit of itself and certain Secured Creditors."

8.6. Grantor Remains Liable Under Claims

Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Grantor shall remain liable under each of the Claims to observe and perform all of the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by it thereunder, all in accordance with the terms of any agreement giving rise to such Claim. Neither the Attorney nor any Bondholder shall have any obligation or liability under any Claim (or any agreement giving rise thereto) by reason of or arising out of this Deed, nor shall the Attorney or any Bondholder be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of the Grantor under or pursuant to any Claim (or any agreement giving rise thereto), to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by them or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Claim (or any agreement giving rise thereto), to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to them or to which they may be entitled at any time or times.

8.7. Rights in Letters of Credit

If the Grantor is at any time a beneficiary under a letter of credit with a stated amount of $100,000 or more, the Grantor shall, on or prior to the date of the required delivery of the Compliance Certificate pursuant to the TL Credit Agreement following the creation of such letter of credit, notify the Attorney thereof and, at the request of the Attorney after an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Grantor shall, pursuant to an agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Attorney, use its commercially reasonable efforts to (i) arrange for the issuer and any confirmer of such letter of credit to consent to an assignment to the Attorney of the proceeds of any drawing under such letter of credit or (ii) arrange for the Attorney to become the transferee beneficiary of such letter of credit, with the Attorney agreeing, in each case, that the proceeds of any drawing under the letter of credit are to be applied as provided in this Deed after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default (it being understood that unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing such proceeds shall be released to the Grantor).

8.8. Further Actions

The Grantor will, at its own expense, make, execute, endorse, acknowledge, file and/or deliver to the Attorney from time to time such vouchers, invoices, schedules, confirmatory assignments, conveyances, publications, financing statements, transfer endorsements, certificates, reports and other assurances or instruments and take such further steps, including any and all actions as may be necessary or required relating to its Claims, instruments, titles of indebtedness and other property or rights which constitute Hypothecated Property, as the Attorney may reasonably require for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of the Hypothec, rights and powers herein granted; provided that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Grantor shall not be required to (i) take any action to render opposable to third parties any hypothec or security interest in Hypothecated Property outside of the United States or Canada or (ii) enter into any control agreement or similar arrangements relating to any Deposit Account; provided however, that upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default (each such period, the "Default Period") and the Discharge of the ABL Obligations (as defined in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement) in any such Default Period, the Attorney, during such Default Period (subject to the provisions of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement) shall benefit from, and shall be entitled to, the "control" granted to the ABL Collateral Agent (as defined in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement) in any Deposit Account. On request by the Attorney, the Grantor shall provide the Attorney with details of all motor vehicles which are classified as equipment of the Grantor and all other serial numbered goods to which provisions of the Civil Code or regulations or orders under the Civil Code regarding serial numbers apply, in each case, having a fair market value in excess of $100,000.

9. GENERAL REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

9.3. No Liens

The Grantor is, and as to all Hypothecated Property acquired by it from time to time after the date hereof, the Grantor will be the owner of, or otherwise have the right to use, all Hypothecated Property free from any Lien of any Person (other than Permitted Liens), and the Grantor shall, at its own expense, take all commercially reasonable actions necessary to defend the Hypothecated Property against all claims and demands of all Persons at any time claiming the same or any interest therein materially adverse to the Attorney.

10.6. After-Acquired Intellectual Property

In the event that the Grantor, either itself or through any agent, mandatary, employee, licensee or designee, files an application for or acquires any Recordable Intellectual Property following the date hereof, then the provisions of this Deed shall automatically apply thereto and any such Intellectual Property Right shall automatically constitute part of the Hypothecated Property and shall be subject to the Hypothec created hereunder, without further action by any party, and the Grantor shall within 60 days of the end of each fiscal quarter execute and deliver any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers as necessary to evidence the Attorney's hypothec in such Recordable Intellectual Property provided that such agreements, instruments, documents and papers (the "Writings") are consistent with the terms of and conditions of this Deed and the Grantor hereby appoints the Attorney as its mandatary to execute and file such Writings, solely upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and solely for the foregoing purposes, all acts of such mandatary being hereby ratified and confirmed.

The Grantor will pay any applicable publication fees, recordation taxes and related expenses relating to the Hypothecated

Property. The Grantor hereby authorizes the Attorney to proceed to the publications referred to in this Section 11.4 without the signature of the Grantor where permitted by law.

12. EVENTS OF DEFAULT

Any such payment then made by the Grantor shall be deemed to have been made in discharge of its obligations hereunder or under the Bonds, and any money so received by the Attorney shall be applied in the same manner as if they were proceeds of realization of the Hypothecated Property;

13.1.2 if the Grantor shall have failed to pay the Attorney, on demand, the principal of and interest on all Bonds outstanding together with any other amounts secured hereby or owing by the Grantor hereunder, the Attorney may, upon receipt of funding and indemnity satisfactory to the Attorney and a Bondholders' Instrument, proceed to realize the Hypothec created by this Deed and to exercise any right, recourse or remedy of the Attorney and of the Bondholders under this Deed or provided for by law, including without limitation any of the hypothecary rights and recourses provided for under the Civil Code and any rights or remedies provided to secured parties under any applicable personal property (movable) security legislation;

13.1.3no holder of Bonds shall have any right to institute any action or proceeding or to exercise any other remedy authorized by this Deed, by law or by equity for the purpose of enforcing payment of principal or interest or of realizing any security, or by reason of jeopardy of security, or for the execution of any power hereunder other than in accordance with the terms hereof, unless a Bondholders' Instrument shall have been tendered to the Attorney and the Attorney shall have received funding and indemnity satisfactory to it and the Attorney shall have failed to act within a reasonable time thereafter. In such case, but not otherwise, any Bondholder acting on behalf of itself and all other Bondholders shall be entitled to take proceedings such as the Attorney might have taken pursuant to the Bondholders' Instrument, for the equal benefit of all Bondholders; and

13.1.4the Attorney shall not be bound to give any notice or do or take any act, action or proceeding by virtue of the powers conferred on it hereby unless and until it shall have been required so to do under the terms hereof; nor shall the Attorney be required to take notice of any default hereunder, unless and until notified in writing of such default, which notice shall distinctly specify the default desired to be brought to the attention of the Attorney and in the absence of any such notice the Attorney may for all purposes of this indenture conclusively assume that no default has been made in the observance or performance of any of the representations, warranties, covenants, agreements or conditions contained herein. Any such notice shall in no way limit any discretion herein given the Attorney to determine whether or not the Attorney shall take action with respect to any default.

13.2. Rights of the Attorney

Subject to the terms and conditions of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, after the occurrence of an Event of Default which is continuing, whichever hypothecary rights or recourses the Attorney may decide to exercise or whichever other rights or recourses the Attorney may wish to exercise in law or in equity, in addition to any rights provided by law, the following provisions shall apply:

13.2.9sell, assign or otherwise liquidate any or all of the Hypothecated Property or any part thereof in accordance with Section 13.3 hereof, or direct the Grantor to sell, assign or otherwise liquidate any or all of the Hypothecated Property or any part thereof, and, in each case, take possession of the proceeds of any such sale or liquidation;

13.2.10.1.forthwith cause the same to be moved to the place or places so designated by the Attorney and there delivered to the Attorney;

13.2.10.2.store and keep any Hypothecated Property so delivered to the Attorney at such place or places pending further action by the Attorney as provided in Section 13.3 hereof; and

13.2.10.3.while the Hypothecated Property shall be so stored and kept, provide such security and maintenance services as shall be reasonably necessary to protect the same and to preserve and maintain it in good condition;

13.2.11license or sublicense, whether on an exclusive or nonexclusive basis, any Intellectual Property Rights included in the Hypothecated Property (in the case of Trademarks, subject to reasonable quality control and subject to those exclusive licenses granted by the Grantor in effect on the date hereof and those granted by the Grantor hereafter to the extent permitted by the TL Credit Agreement) for such term and on such conditions and in such manner as the Attorney shall in its sole judgment determine, it being understood that any such license may be exercised, at the option of the Attorney, only upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default; provided, that any such license shall be binding upon the Grantor notwithstanding any subsequent cure of an Event of Default;

13.2.12apply any monies constituting Hypothecated Property or proceeds thereof in accordance with the provisions of Section 13.10; and it being understood that the Grantor's obligation so to deliver the Hypothecated Property is of the essence of this Deed and that, accordingly, upon application to a court having jurisdiction, the Attorney shall be entitled to a decree requiring specific performance by the Grantor of said obligation.

13.3. Disposition of the Hypothecated Property

To the extent permitted by applicable law, if any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, then any Hypothecated Property repossessed by the Attorney under or pursuant to Section 13.2 hereof and any other Hypothecated Property whether or not so repossessed by the Attorney, may be sold, assigned, leased or otherwise disposed of under one or more contracts or as an entirety, and without the necessity of gathering at the place of sale the property to be sold, and in general in such manner, at such time or times, at such place or places and on such terms as the Attorney may, in compliance with any mandatory requirements of applicable law, determine to be commercially reasonable. Any of the Hypothecated Property may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of, in the condition in which the same existed when taken by the Attorney or after any overhaul or repair at the expense of the Grantor which the Attorney shall reasonably determine to be commercially reasonable. Any such sale, lease or other disposition may be effected by means of a public disposition or private disposition, effected in accordance with the applicable requirements (in each case if and to the extent applicable) of the Civil Code and/or such other mandatory requirements of applicable law as may apply to the respective disposition. The Attorney may, without notice or publication, adjourn any public or private disposition or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for the disposition, and such disposition may be made at any time or place to which the disposition may be so adjourned. To the extent permitted by any such requirement of law, the Attorney may bid for and become the purchaser (and may pay all or any portion of the purchase price by crediting Secured Obligations against the purchase price) of the Hypothecated Property or any item thereof, offered for disposition in accordance with this Section 13.3

without accountability to the Grantor. The Attorney may also accept the Hypothecated Property in satisfaction of the Secured Obligations. The Grantor agrees to do or cause to be done all such other acts and things as may be reasonably necessary to make such disposition or dispositions of all or any portion of the Hypothecated Property valid and binding and in compliance with any and all applicable laws, regulations, orders, writs, injunctions, decrees or awards of any and all courts, arbitrators or governmental instrumentalities, domestic or foreign, having jurisdiction over any such sale or sales, all at the Grantor's expense.

13.4. Taking in payment

If the Attorney elects to exercise its hypothecary recourse of taking in payment the Hypothecated Property and the Grantor requires, in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Civil Code, instead that the Attorney sell itself or under judicial authority the Hypothecated Property on which such right is exercised, the Grantor hereby acknowledges that the Attorney shall not be bound to abandon its recourse of taking in payment unless, prior to the expiry of the time period allotted for surrender, the Attorney (i) has been granted a security which it considers satisfactory, guaranteeing that said Hypothecated Property will be sold at a sufficiently high price to enable the principal of and interest on the Bonds and other moneys secured hereunder to be paid in full, (ii) has been reimbursed of all costs and expenses incurred, including all fees of consultants and legal counsel in connection with this Deed, the Hypothec herein and the indebtedness secured hereby, and (iii) has been advanced the necessary sums for the sale of said Hypothecated Property; the Grantor further acknowledges that the Attorney shall have the right to choose the type of sale it may carry out.

13.5. Surrender of Hypothecated Property

Upon notice by the Attorney declaring due and payable the principal of and interest on the Bonds and all other moneys secured hereby or owing by the Grantor hereunder, the Grantor shall surrender the Hypothecated Property to the Attorney.

13.6. Sale of Hypothecated Property

The Attorney may choose to sell the Hypothecated Property with legal warranty given by the Grantor or with complete or partial exclusion of such warranty; the sale may also be made cash or with a term or under such conditions determined by the Attorney; it can be cancelled in case of non-payment of the purchase price and such Hypothecated Property may then be resold.

13.7. Use of premises

In order to exercise any of its rights, the Attorney may use the premises located in the Immovables without charge from the Grantor.

13.8. Several Administrators

Where several creditors are involved, the parties hereto waive the application of articles 1332 to 1338 inclusively of the Civil Code.

13.9. Waiver of Claims

Except as otherwise provided in this Deed, the Grantor hereby waives, to the extent permitted by applicable law, notice and judicial hearing in connection with the Attorney's taking possession or the Attorney's disposition of any of the Hypothecated Property, including, without limitation, any and all prior notice and hearing for any prejudgment remedy or remedies, and the Grantor hereby further waives, to the extent permitted by law:

13.9.1 all damages occasioned by such taking of possession or any such disposition except any damages which are the direct result of the Attorney's gross or intentional fault (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision);

13.9.2 all other requirements as to the time, place and terms of sale or other requirements with respect to the enforcement of the Attorney's rights hereunder; and

13.9.3 all rights of redemption, appraisement, valuation, stay, extension or moratorium now or hereafter in force under any applicable law in order to prevent or delay the enforcement of this Deed or the absolute sale of the Hypothecated Property or any portion thereof, and the Grantor, for itself and all who may claim under it, insofar as it or they now or hereafter lawfully may, hereby waives the benefit of all such laws.

13.10. Imputation of payments

Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, to the greatest extent permitted by all applicable law, the moneys and other proceeds arising from any sale or realization of the whole or any part of the Hypothecated Property, whether under any sale by the Attorney or by judicial process or otherwise, together with any other moneys or other proceeds then in the hands of the Attorney and available for such purpose, shall be applied on account of the principal and interest of the Bond or, at the option of the Attorney, may be held unappropriated in a collateral account in order to provide for payment of any charge or claim ranking prior to the Hypothec created hereunder.

13.11. Liability of Grantor

In the case of any judicial or other proceedings to enforce the Hypothec hereby created, the Grantor covenants and agrees with the Attorney that judgment may be rendered against it in favour of the Bondholders or in favour of the Attorney, as fondé de pouvoir for the Bondholders, for any amount which may remain due in respect of the Bonds after the application payment thereof of the proceeds of the sale of the Hypothecated Property or any part thereof.

13.12. Cumulative remedies

Each and every right, power and remedy hereby specifically given to the Attorney shall be in addition to every other right, power and remedy specifically given to the Attorney under this Deed, the other Secured Debt Agreements or now or hereafter existing at law, in equity or by statute and each and every right, power and remedy whether specifically herein given or otherwise existing may be exercised from time to time or simultaneously and as often and in such order as may be deemed expedient by the Attorney. All such rights, powers and remedies shall be cumulative and the exercise or the beginning of the exercise of one shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to exercise any other or others. No delay or omission of the Attorney in the exercise of any such right, power or remedy and no renewal or extension of any of the Secured Obligations shall impair any such right, power or remedy or shall be construed to be a waiver of any Default or Event of Default or an acquiescence thereof. No notice to or demand on the Grantor in any case shall entitle it to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of any of the rights of the Attorney to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand. In the event that the Attorney shall bring any suit to enforce any of its rights hereunder and shall be entitled to judgment, then in such suit the Attorney may recover reasonable expenses, including reasonable legal fees, and the amounts thereof shall be included in such judgment.

13.13. Discontinuance of Proceedings

In case the Attorney shall have instituted any proceeding to enforce any right, power or remedy under this Deed by taking in payment, sale or otherwise, and such proceeding shall have been discontinued or abandoned for any reason or shall have been determined adversely to the Attorney, then and in every such case the Grantor, the Attorney and each holder of any of the Secured Obligations shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder with respect to the Hypothecated Property subject to the Hypothec created under this Deed, and all rights, remedies and powers of the Attorney shall continue as if no such proceeding had been instituted.

14. CONCERNING THE ATTORNEY

By way of supplement to the provisions of law relating to fondé de pouvoir, it is expressly agreed that:

14.1. the Attorney shall only be accountable for reasonable diligence in the management of its duties and rights hereunder, and shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted by it in connection herewith unless caused by its gross or intentional fault;

14.2. except as otherwise provided herein, the Attorney shall, with respect to all rights, powers and authorities vested in it, have absolute and uncontrolled discretion as to the exercise thereof, whether in relation to the manner or as to the mode and time for the exercise thereof, and in the absence of fraud, it shall not be in any way responsible for any loss, costs, damages or inconvenience that may result from the exercise or non-exercise thereof;

14.3. the Attorney shall have the right in its discretion to proceed in its name as Attorney hereunder to the enforcement of the Hypothec hereby constituted by any remedy provided herein or by law, whether by legal proceedings or otherwise, but it shall not be bound to do or to take any act or action in virtue of the powers conferred on it by these presents unless and until it shall have been required to do so by way of a Bondholders' Instrument; the Attorney shall not be responsible or liable, otherwise than as a fondé de pouvoir, for any debts contracted by it, for damages to Persons or property or for salaries or non-fulfilment of contracts during any period for which the Attorney managed the Hypothecated Property upon entry, as herein provided, nor shall the Attorney be liable to account for anything except actual revenues or be liable for any loss on realization or for any default or omission for which a mortgagee in possession might be liable; the obligation of the Attorney to commence or continue any act, action or proceeding under this Deed shall, at the option of the Attorney, be conditional upon the Bondholders furnishing, when required, sufficient funds to commence or continue such action or proceeding and indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Attorney;

14.4. in the event of the Grantor making an authorized assignment, or a custodian, trustee or liquidator being appointed in respect of the Grantor or its assets under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act or any analogous act or proceeding, or any legislation which replaces or supplements the foregoing, the Attorney may, if directed to do so by a Bondholders' Instrument, file and prove a claim, value security and vote and act at all meetings of creditors and otherwise in bankruptcy, insolvency or similar proceedings, as agent on behalf of the Bondholders;

14.5. subject to receiving sufficient funds or indemnity in accordance with Section 14.3, the Attorney shall be obliged to act and shall act and be fully protected in acting upon a Bondholders' Instrument in connection with any proceedings, act, power, right, matter or thing relating to or conferred by or to be done under this Deed; none of the provisions of this Deed shall require the Attorney to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of any of its duties or in the exercise of any of its rights and powers unless indemnified as aforesaid;

14.6. the Attorney may act and rely and shall be protected in acting and relying upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, letter, telecopier or other paper document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by or on behalf of the property party or parties;

14.7. the Attorney may employ or retain such counsel, accountants, appraisers, engineers or other experts or advisors as it reasonably required for the purpose of determining and discharging its duties and administering the trusts hereunder and may pay reasonable remuneration for all services so performed by any of them, without taxation of costs of any counsel, and shall not be responsible for any misconduct on the part of any of them. Any remuneration so paid by the Attorney shall be repaid to the Attorney as Secured Obligations;

14.8. the Attorney may act and rely and shall be protected in acting and relying in good faith on the opinion or advice of or information obtained from any counsel, accountant, appraiser, engineer or other expert or advisor, whether retained or employed by the Grantor or by the Attorney, in relation to any matter arising in the administration of the trusts hereof;

14.9. no Person dealing with the Attorney or its agent shall be concerned to enquire whether the Hypothec constituted hereby has become enforceable, or whether the powers which the Attorney is purporting to exercise have become exercisable, or whether any moneys remain due upon the Hypothec hereunder or the Bonds, or as to the necessity or expediency of the stipulations and conditions subject to which any sale shall be made, or otherwise as to the propriety or regularity of any sale or of any other dealing by the Attorney with the Hypothecated Property or any part thereof, or to see to the application of any moneys paid to the Attorney;

14.10. all rights of action under this Deed may be enforced by the Attorney without the possession of the Bonds hereby secured or the production thereof; and

14.11. the Attorney may resign from the performance of all of its functions and duties under this Deed at any time by giving at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Grantor and each Bondholder. Such resignation shall take effect upon the appointment of a successor Attorney pursuant hereto. If a successor Attorney shall not have been appointed within such thirty (30) day period by the Majority Bondholders, the Attorney shall then appoint a successor Attorney who shall serve as Attorney hereunder until such time, if any, as the Majority Bondholders appoint a successor Attorney as provided above. The Attorney may be removed at any time with or without cause by the Majority Bondholders, such removal to take effect upon the appointment of a successor Attorney by the Majority Bondholders. Any new or successor Attorney without further act shall be vested and have all rights, powers and authorities granted to the Attorney hereunder and be subject in all respects to the terms, conditions and provisions hereof. The resigning or removed Attorney following payment of all outstanding fees and expenses and the successor Attorney shall execute such assignments, agreements and other instruments, effect such registrations and do such acts and things as they deem appropriate or the Majority Bondholders may require in order that the successor Attorney possess all the rights and powers and have all the duties of the resigning or removed Attorney hereunder.

15. BONDHOLDERS' INSTRUMENTS

The Bondholders may, by Bondholders' Instrument, direct or authorize the Attorney to (a) modify any of the rights of the holders of the Bonds of all or any series against the Grantor or its undertaking and property, (b) exercise, or refrain from exercising, any power, right, remedy or authority given by this Deed or the Bonds, (c) waive any default on the part of the Grantor in complying with any provision of this Deed or the Bonds either unconditionally or upon any conditions specified in such Bondholders' Instrument, (d) assent to any compromise or arrangement with any creditor or creditors of the Grantor, (e) assent to any modification of or change in or addition to the provisions of this Deed provided however that the Attorney may decline to agree, in its discretion, to any modification, abrogation, alteration, compromise or arrangement which would adversely affect its rights, (f) grant any approval or consent herein provided to be given by the Bondholders or make any determination herein provided to be made by the Bondholders, (g) sanction any scheme of reorganization, consolidation, merger or amalgamation of the Grantor on such terms as may be provided in such Bondholders' Instrument, (h) amend, alter or repeal any previous Bondholders' Instrument, and (i) sign such other deeds, instruments or take such other action or refrain from taking any action as may be specified in such Bondholders' Instrument. Every Bondholders' Instrument shall be binding on all the Bondholders, whether signatories thereto or not, and each and every Bondholder and the Attorney shall be bound to give effect accordingly to every such Bondholders' Instrument.

The Attorney may also, without the consent or concurrence of the Bondholders by Bondholders' Instrument, by supplemental deed or indenture or otherwise, concur with the Grantor in making any changes or corrections in this Deed which it shall have been advised by counsel are required for the purpose of curing or correcting any ambiguity or defective or inconsistent provisions or clerical omission or mistake or manifest error contained herein or in any deed or indenture supplemental or ancillary hereto, provided that in the opinion of the Attorney the rights of the Attorney and of the Bondholders are in no way prejudiced thereby.

17.3. Obligations Absolute

17.5. Grantor's Duties

It is expressly agreed, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, that the Grantor shall remain liable to perform all of the obligations, if any, assumed by it with respect to the Hypothecated Property and the Attorney shall not have any obligations or liabilities with respect to any Hypothecated Property by reason of or arising out of this Deed, nor shall the Attorney be required or obligated in any manner to perform or fulfill any of the obligations of the Grantor under or with respect to any Hypothecated Property.

17.6. Termination; Release

17.6.1 After the Termination Date, this Deed shall terminate, all without delivery of any instrument or performance of any act by any party, and all rights to the Hypothecated Property shall revert to the Grantor (provided that all indemnities set forth herein including, without limitation in Section 16.1 hereof, shall survive such termination) and the Attorney, at the request and expense of the Grantor, will promptly execute and deliver to the Grantor a proper instrument or instruments (including discharges to be published at the Register of Personal and Movable Real Rights and the Land Register of Québec) acknowledging the satisfaction and termination of this Deed, and will duly assign, transfer and deliver to the Grantor (without recourse and without any representation or warranty) such of the Hypothecated Property as may be in the possession of the Attorney and as has not theretofore been sold or otherwise applied or released pursuant to this Deed.

17.6.2 In the event that, at any time prior to the Termination Date, any part of the Hypothecated Property is sold or otherwise disposed of (to a Person other than a Credit Party) in connection with a sale or disposition permitted by Section 9.02 of the TL Credit Agreement or is otherwise released at the direction of the Required Lenders (or all the Lenders if required by Section 12.11 of the TL Credit Agreement), and the fruits and revenues of such sale or disposition (or from such release) are applied in accordance with the terms of the TL Credit Agreement, to the extent required to be so applied, the Attorney, at the request and expense of the Grantor, will duly release from the Hypothec created hereby (and will execute and deliver such documentation, including termination or partial release statements and the like in connection therewith) and assign, transfer and deliver to the Grantor (without recourse and without any representation or warranty) such of the Hypothecated Property as is then being (or has been) so sold or otherwise disposed of, or released, and as may be in the possession of the Attorney and has not theretofore been released pursuant to this Deed.

17.6.3 At any time that the Grantor desires that the Attorney take any action to acknowledge or give effect to any release of Hypothecated Property pursuant to the foregoing Section 17.6.2, the Grantor shall deliver to the Attorney (and the relevant nominee or mandatary, if any, designated hereunder) a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer of the Grantor stating that the release of the respective Hypothecated Property is permitted pursuant to such Section 17.6.2. At any time that either the Borrower or the Grantor desires that a Subsidiary of the Borrower which has been released from the Subsidiaries Guaranty be released hereunder as provided in the last sentence of Section 17.6.2, it shall deliver to the Attorney a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower and the Grantor stating that the release of the Grantor (and its

17.7. Severability

Any provision of this Deed which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

17.8. Irrevocable Mandate

Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, the Grantor hereby constitutes and appoints the Attorney its true and lawful attorney and mandatary, irrevocably, with full power after the occurrence of and during the continuance of an Event of Default (in the name of the Grantor or otherwise) to act, require, demand, receive, compound and give acquittance for any and all moneys and claims for moneys due or to become due to the Grantor under or arising out of the Hypothecated Property, to endorse any cheques or other instruments or orders in connection therewith and to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings which the Attorney may deem to be reasonably necessary or advisable to protect the interests of the Bondholders.

17.9. Additional Security

The Hypothec is hereby created in addition to and not in substitution of or in replacement for any other Lien held or which may hereafter be held by the Attorney and does not affect the Attorney's rights of compensation and set-off.

17.10. Compensation

Provided the Secured Obligations are due and exigible or the Attorney is entitled to declare them owing and exigible, the Attorney may compensate and set-off these obligations with any and all amounts due to it, in its capacity as fondé de pouvoir for the Bondholders, by the Grantor, on any account whatsoever, whether such amount be exigible or not, and the Attorney shall then be deemed to have exercised such right to compensate and set-off as at the time the decision was taken by it even though the appropriate entries have not yet been made in its records.

17.11. Time of Essence

The mere lapse of time provided for to the Grantor to perform its obligations or the arrival of the term shall automatically create a default, without any obligation for the Attorney to serve any notice or prior notice to the Grantor.

17.12. Grantor to Execute Confirmatory Deeds and Additional Documents

In case of any sale under the provisions of this Deed or at law, whether by the Attorney or under judicial proceedings, the Grantor agrees that it will execute and deliver to the purchaser on demand any instrument reasonably necessary to confirm to the purchaser the title of the property so sold and, in case of any such sale, the Attorney is hereby irrevocably authorized by the Grantor to execute on its behalf and in its name any such confirmatory instrument.

Furthermore, the Grantor undertakes to sign a notice given in virtue of article 2949 of the Civil Code with regard to the Immovables where the Grantor's signature is necessary.

17.13. Not a Floating Hypothec or Trust

The Hypothec is not, nor shall it be construed as, a floating hypothec within the meaning of articles 2715 et. seq. of the Civil Code nor shall this Deed be deemed as creating a trust within the meaning of article 1260 of the Civil Code.

17.14. Waiver

Where the Grantor has taken an Immovable in payment for an hypothecated claim ranking prior to the Hypothec, the Grantor waives its right to take advantage of the provisions of Section 2771 of the Civil Code.

To the extent necessary or useful, the parties hereby waive the application of Section 32 of an Act Respecting the Special Powers of Legal Persons, R.S.Q., c. P-16 and of Articles 1310 and 2147 of the Civil Code. Each party renounces any right it may have to invoke the nullity of the Deed, the Bond and all related security documents governed by the laws of the Province of Québec as a result of the application of Section 32 of the Act Respecting the Special Powers of Legal Persons (Québec) or any other applicable law.

FORM OF SUBSIDIARIES GUARANTY

[See Attached.]

TERM LOAN GUARANTY

TERM LOAN GUARANTY, dated as of April 15, 2014 (as amended, modified or supplemented from time to time, this "Guaranty"), made by each of the undersigned guarantors (each a " Guarantor" and, together with any other entity that becomes a guarantor hereunder pursuant to Section 26 hereof, the "Guarantors"). Except as otherwise defined herein, capitalized terms used herein and defined in the Credit Agreement (as defined below) shall be used herein as therein defined.

W I T N E S S E T H :

WHEREAS, BAUER PERFORMANCE SPORTS LTD. (the " Borrower"), the lenders party thereto from time to time (the "Lenders") and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent (together with any successor administrative agent, the " Administrative Agent") have entered into a Term Loan Credit Agreement, dated as of even date herewith (as amended, modified, restated and/or supplemented from time to time, the "Credit Agreement"), providing for the making of Term Loans to the Borrower as contemplated therein (the Lenders, the Collateral Agent, the Administrative Agent and each other agent named therein are herein called the " Secured Creditors");

WHEREAS, each Guarantor is a Subsidiary of the Borrower;

WHEREAS, it is a condition to the making of Term Loans to the Borrower under the Credit Agreement that each Guarantor shall have executed and delivered this Guaranty; and

WHEREAS, each Guarantor will obtain benefits from the incurrence of Term Loans by the Borrower under the Credit Agreement and, accordingly, desires to execute this Guaranty in order to satisfy the condition described in the preceding paragraph;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and other benefits accruing to each Guarantor, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, each Guarantor hereby makes the following representations and warranties to the Secured Creditors and hereby covenants and agrees with each Secured Creditor as follows:

1. Each Guarantor, jointly and severally, irrevocably, absolutely and unconditionally guarantees the full and prompt payment when due (whether at the stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) of all now existing or hereafter arising debts, obligations, covenants, and duties of payment or performance of every kind, matured or unmatured, direct or contingent, owing, arising, due, or payable to any Lender, Agent or Indemnified Person by any Credit Party arising out of the Credit Agreement or any other Credit Document (other than the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement), including, without limitation, all obligations to repay principal or interest (including interest accruing during the pendency of any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar proceeding, regardless of whether allowed or allowable in such proceeding) on the Term Loans, and to pay interest, fees, costs, charges, expenses, professional fees, and all sums chargeable to the Borrower or for which the Borrower is liable as indemnitor under the Credit Documents, whether or not evidenced by any note or other instrument (collectively, the "Guaranteed Obligations"). Each Guarantor understands, agrees and confirms that the Secured Creditors may enforce this Guaranty up to the full amount of the Guaranteed Obligations against such Guarantor without proceeding against any other Guarantor, the Borrower, any security for the Guaranteed Obligations, or under any other guaranty (including the Credit Party Guaranty) covering all or a portion of the Guaranteed Obligations.

2. Additionally, each Guarantor, jointly and severally, unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably, guarantees the payment of any and all Guaranteed Obligations whether or not due or payable by the Borrower upon the occurrence in respect of the Borrower of any of the events specified in Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement, and unconditionally and irrevocably, jointly and severally, promises to pay such Guaranteed Obligations to the Secured Creditors, or order, on demand. This Guaranty shall constitute a guaranty of payment, and not of collection.

3. The liability of each Guarantor hereunder is primary, absolute, joint and several, and unconditional and is exclusive and independent of any security for or other guaranty of the indebtedness of the Borrower, whether executed by such Guarantor, any other Guarantor, any other guarantor or by any other party, and the liability of each Guarantor hereunder shall not be affected or impaired by any circumstance or occurrence whatsoever, including, without limitation: (a) any direction as to application of payment by the Borrower or any other party, (b) any other continuing or other guaranty, undertaking or maximum liability of a Guarantor or of any other party as to the Guaranteed Obligations, (c) any payment on or in reduction of any such other guaranty or undertaking (other than payment of the Guaranteed Obligations in cash in accordance with the terms hereof to the extent of such payment), (d) any dissolution, termination or increase, decrease or change in personnel by the Borrower, (e) any payment made to any Secured Creditor on the indebtedness which any Secured Creditor repays the Borrower pursuant to court order in any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, moratorium or other debtor relief proceeding, and each Guarantor waives any right to the deferral or modification of its obligations hereunder by reason of any such proceeding, or (f) any action or inaction by the Secured Creditors as contemplated in Section 6 hereof or (g) any invalidity, irregularity or unenforceability of all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or of any security therefor.

4. The obligations of each Guarantor hereunder are independent of the obligations of any other Guarantor, any other guarantor or the Borrower, and a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against each Guarantor whether or not action is brought against any other Guarantor, any other guarantor or the Borrower and whether or not any other Guarantor, any other guarantor or the Borrower be joined in any such action or actions. Each Guarantor waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the benefits of any statute of limitations affecting its liability hereunder or the enforcement thereof. Any payment by the Borrower or other circumstance which operates to toll any statute of limitations as to the Borrower shall operate to toll the statute of limitations as to each Guarantor.

5. To the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, each Guarantor hereby waives notice of acceptance of this Guaranty and notice of any liability to which it may apply, and waives promptness, diligence, presentment, demand of payment, protest, notice of dishonor or nonpayment of any such liabilities, suit or taking of other action by the Administrative Agent or any other Secured Creditor against, and any other notice to any party liable thereon (including such Guarantor, any other Guarantor, any other guarantor or the Borrower).

6. Any Secured Creditor may at any time and from time to time without the consent of, or notice to, any Guarantor (except as shall be required by applicable statute and cannot be waived), without incurring responsibility to such Guarantor, without impairing or releasing the obligations of such Guarantor hereunder, upon or without any terms or conditions and in whole or in part:

(a) change the manner, place or terms of payment of, and/or change or extend the time of payment of, renew, increase, accelerate or alter, any of the Guaranteed Obligations (including any increase or decrease in the rate of interest thereon or the principal amount thereof), any security therefor, or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof, and the guaranty herein made shall apply to the Guaranteed Obligations as so changed, extended, renewed or altered;

(b) take and hold security for the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and sell, exchange, release, surrender, impair, realize upon or otherwise deal with in any manner and in any order any property by whomsoever at any time pledged or mortgaged to secure, or howsoever securing, the Guaranteed Obligations or any liabilities (including any of those hereunder) incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof or hereof, and/or any offset there against;

(c) exercise or refrain from exercising any rights against the Borrower, any other Credit Party, any Subsidiary thereof or otherwise act or refrain from acting;

(d) release or substitute any one or more endorsers, Guarantors, other guarantors, Borrowers or other obligors;

(e) settle or compromise any of the Guaranteed Obligations, any security therefor or any liability (including any of those hereunder) incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof or hereof, and may subordinate the payment of all or any part thereof to the payment of any liability (whether due or not) of the Borrower to creditors of the Borrower other than the Secured Creditors;

(f) except as otherwise expressly required by the Security Documents, apply any sums by whomsoever paid or howsoever realized to any liability or liabilities of the Borrower to the Secured Creditors regardless of what liabilities of the Borrower remain unpaid;

(g) consent to or waive any breach of, or any act, omission or default under any Credit Document or any of the instruments or agreements referred to therein, or otherwise amend, modify or supplement any of the Credit Documents or any of such other instruments or agreements;

(h) act or fail to act in any manner which may deprive such Guarantor of its right to subrogation against the Borrower to recover full indemnity for any payments made pursuant to this Guaranty; and/or

(i) take any other action that would, under otherwise applicable principles of common law, give rise to a legal or equitable discharge of such Guarantor from its liabilities under this Guaranty.

7. This Guaranty is a continuing one and all liabilities to which it applies or may apply under the terms hereof shall be conclusively presumed to have been created in reliance hereon. No failure or delay on the part of any Secured Creditor in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Credit Document preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege hereunder or thereunder. The rights, powers and remedies expressly specified herein or in any other Credit Document are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, powers or remedies which any Secured Creditor would otherwise have. No notice to or demand on any Guarantor in any case shall entitle such Guarantor to any other further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of the rights of any Secured Creditor to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand. It is not necessary for any Secured Creditor to inquire into the capacity or powers of the Borrower or the officers, directors, partners or agents acting or purporting to act on its behalf, and any indebtedness made or created in reliance upon the professed exercise of such powers shall be guaranteed hereunder.

8. Any indebtedness of the Borrower now or hereafter owing to any Guarantor is hereby subordinated to the Guaranteed Obligations of the Borrower to the Secured Creditors, and such Guaranteed Obligations of such Borrower to any Guarantor, if the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, so requests, shall be collected, enforced and received by such Guarantor as trustee for the Secured Creditors and be paid over to the Secured Creditors on account of the Guaranteed Obligations of the Borrower to the Secured Creditors, but without affecting or impairing in any manner the liability of such Guarantor under the other provisions of this Guaranty. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Guarantor hereby agrees with the Secured Creditors that it will not exercise any right of subrogation which it may at any time otherwise have as a result of this Guaranty (whether contractual, under Section 509 of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar provision of any other Debtor Relief Law, or otherwise) until all Guaranteed Obligations have been irrevocably paid in full in cash.

9. (a) Each Guarantor waives any right (except as shall be required by applicable law and cannot be waived) to require the Secured Creditors to: (i) proceed against the Borrower, any other Guarantor, any other guarantor of the Guaranteed Obligations or any other person or party; (ii) proceed against or exhaust any security held from the Borrower, any other Guarantor, any other guarantor of the Guaranteed Obligations or any other person or party; or (iii) pursue any other remedy in the Secured Creditors' power whatsoever. Each Guarantor waives any defense based on or arising out of any defense of the Borrower, any other Guarantor, any other guarantor of the Guaranteed Obligations or any other person or party other than payment in full in cash of the Guaranteed Obligations, including, without limitation, any defense based on or arising out of the disability of the Borrower, any other Guarantor, any other guarantor of the Guaranteed Obligations or any other person or party, or the unenforceability of the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof from any cause, or the cessation from any cause of the liability of the Borrower other than payment in full in cash of the Guaranteed Obligations. The Secured Creditors may, at their election, foreclose on any security held by the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor by one or more judicial or nonjudicial sales, whether or not every aspect of any such sale is commercially reasonable, or exercise any other right or remedy any Secured Creditors may have against the Borrower or any other person or party, or any security, without affecting or impairing in any way the liability of any Guarantor hereunder except to the extent the Guaranteed Obligations have been paid in full in cash. Each Guarantor waives, to the fullest extent permitted under law, any defense arising out of any such election by the Secured Creditors, even though such election operates to impair or extinguish any right of reimbursement or subrogation or other right or remedy of such Guarantor against the Borrower or any other party or any security.

(b) Each Guarantor waives, to the fullest extent permitted under law, all presentments, demands for performance, protests and notices, including, without limitation, notices of nonperformance, notices of protest, notices of dishonor, notices of acceptance of this Guaranty, and notices of the existence, creation or incurring of new or additional indebtedness. Each Guarantor assumes all responsibility for being and keeping itself informed of the Borrower's financial condition and assets, and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Guaranteed Obligations and the nature, scope and extent of the risks which such Guarantor assumes and incurs hereunder, and agrees that the Secured Creditors shall have no duty to advise any Guarantor of information known to them regarding such circumstances or risks.

10. The Secured Creditors agree that this Guaranty may be enforced only by the action of the Administrative Agent or any Collateral Agent, in each case acting upon the instructions of the Required Lenders and that no other Secured Creditors shall have any right individually to seek to enforce or to enforce this Guaranty, it being understood and agreed that such rights and remedies may be exercised by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors upon the terms of this Guaranty. The Secured Creditors further agree that this Guaranty may not be enforced against any director, officer, employee, partner, member or stockholder of any Guarantor (except to the extent such partner, member or stockholder is also a Guarantor hereunder).

11. In order to induce the Lenders to make Term Loans to the Borrower pursuant to the Credit Agreement, each Guarantor represents, warrants and covenants that:

(a) Such Guarantor (i) is a duly organized and validly existing corporation, partnership or limited liability company, as the case may be, in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, (ii) has the corporate, partnership or limited liability company power and authority, as the case may be, to own its property and assets and to transact the business in which it is engaged and presently proposes to engage and (iii) is duly qualified and is authorized to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction where the conduct of its business requires such qualification except for failures to be so qualified which, either individually or in the aggregate, has not had, and would not reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Such Guarantor has the corporate, partnership or limited liability company power and authority, as the case may be, to execute, deliver and perform the terms and provisions of this Guaranty and each other Credit Document to which it is a party and has taken all necessary corporate, partnership or limited liability company action, as the case may be, to authorize the execution, delivery and performance by it of this Guaranty and each such other Credit Document. Such Guarantor has duly executed and delivered this Guaranty and each other Credit Document to which it is a party, and this Guaranty and each such other Credit Document constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of such Guarantor enforceable in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that the enforceability hereof or thereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement, moratorium or other similar laws generally affecting creditors' rights and by equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law).

(c) Neither the execution, delivery or performance by such Guarantor of this Guaranty or any other Credit Document to which it is a party, nor compliance by it with the terms and provisions hereof and thereof, will (i) contravene any provision of any applicable law, statute, rule or regulation or any applicable order, writ, injunction or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality, (ii) conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of (or the obligation to create or impose) any Lien (except pursuant to the Security Documents or Permitted Liens) upon any of the property or assets of such Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, loan agreement, credit agreement, or any other material agreement, contract or instrument, in each case to which such Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which it or any of its property or assets is bound or to which it may be subject (except, in the case of preceding clauses (i) and (ii), other than in the case of any contravention, breach, default and/or conflict, that would not reasonably be expected, either individually or in the aggregate, to have a Material Adverse Effect) or (iii) violate any provision of the certificate or articles of incorporation or by-laws (or equivalent organizational documents) of such Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries.

(d) Except to the extent the failure to obtain or make the same would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, no order, consent, approval, license, authorization or validation of, or filing, recording or registration with (except for (x) those that have otherwise been obtained or made on or prior to the Closing Date and which remain in full force and effect on the Closing Date and (y) filings which are necessary to perfect the security interests or hypothecs created under the Security Documents), or exemption by, any governmental or public body or authority, or any subdivision thereof, is required to authorize, or is required to be obtained or made by, or on behalf of, any Guarantor in connection with, the execution, delivery and performance of this Guaranty by such

(e) There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to such Guarantor's knowledge, threatened (i) with respect to this Guaranty or any other Credit Document to which such Guarantor is a party or (ii) with respect to such Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries that, either individually or in the aggregate, has had, or would reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect.

12. Each Guarantor covenants and agrees that on and after the Closing Date and until the Termination Date, such Guarantor will comply, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to comply, with all of the applicable provisions, covenants and agreements contained in Articles 8 and 9 of the Credit Agreement, and will take, or will refrain from taking, as the case may be, all actions that are necessary to be taken or not taken so that it is not in violation of any provision, covenant or agreement contained in Articles 8 or 9 of the Credit Agreement, so that no Default or Event of Default is caused by the actions of such Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries. As used in this Agreement, "Termination Date" shall mean the date upon which the Aggregate Commitments under the Credit Agreement have been terminated, no Note under the Credit Agreement is outstanding and all Term Loans thereunder have been repaid in full.

13. The Guarantors hereby jointly and severally agree to pay all reasonable out- of-pocket costs and expenses of each Secured Creditor in connection with the enforcement of this Guaranty (including, without limitation, the reasonable fees and disbursements of counsels employed by each of the Secured Creditors, consistent with the arrangements provided for in the Credit Agreement) and of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent in connection with any amendment, waiver or consent relating hereto (including, without limitation, the reasonable fees and disbursements of counsels employed by each of the Agents).

14. This Guaranty shall be binding upon each Guarantor and its successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of the Secured Creditors and their successors and assigns.

15. Neither this Guaranty nor any provision hereof may be changed, waived, discharged or terminated except with the written consent of each Guarantor directly affected thereby and with the written consent of either the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Required Lenders (or, to the extent required by Section 12.10 of the Credit Agreement, with the written consent of each Lender) at all times prior to the time on which all Guaranteed Obligations have been paid in full (it being understood that the addition or release of any Guarantor hereunder in accordance with the terms hereof or the Credit Agreement shall not constitute a change, waiver, discharge or termination affecting any Guarantor other than the Guarantor so added or released and shall not require the consent of any Secured Creditor other than the Administrative Agent).

16. Each Guarantor acknowledges that an executed (or conformed) copy of each of the Credit Documents has been made available to a senior officer of such Guarantor and such officer is familiar with the contents thereof.

17. In addition to any rights now or hereafter granted under applicable law (including, without limitation, Section 151 of the New York Debtor and Secured Creditor Law) and not by way of limitation of any such rights, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default (as defined in the Credit Agreement), each Secured Creditor is hereby authorized, at any time or from time to time, without notice to any Guarantor or to any other Person, any such notice being expressly waived, to set off and to appropriate and apply any and all deposits (general or special) and any other indebtedness at any time held or owing by such Secured Creditor to or for the credit or the account of such Guarantor, against and on account of the obligations and liabilities of such Guarantor to such Secured Creditor under this Guaranty, irrespective of whether or not such Secured Creditor shall have made any demand hereunder and although said obligations, liabilities, deposits or claims, or any of them, shall be contingent or unmatured.

18. All notices, requests, demands or other communications pursuant hereto shall be sent or delivered by mail, telegraph, telex, telecopy, cable or courier service and all such notices and communications shall, when mailed, telegraphed, telexed, telecopied, or cabled or sent by overnight courier, be effective when deposited in the mails, delivered to the telegraph company, cable company or overnight courier, as the case may be, or sent by telex or telecopier, except that notices and communications to the Administrative Agent or any Guarantor shall not be effective until received by the Administrative Agent or such Guarantor, as the case may be. All notices and other communications shall be in writing and addressed to such party at (i) in the case of any Secured Creditor, as provided in the Credit Agreement or (ii) in the case of any Guarantor, at: Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. 100 Domain Drive, Exeter, NH, 03833, Attention: Michael Wall, Vice President and General Counsel, Telephone No.: 606-610-5805, Telecopier No.: 603-430-7332; or in any case at such other address as any of the Persons listed above may hereafter notify the others in writing.

19. If claim is ever made upon any Secured Creditor for repayment or recovery of any amount or amounts received in payment or on account of any of the Guaranteed Obligations and any of the aforesaid payees repays all or part of said amount by reason of (i) any judgment, decree or order of any court or administrative body having jurisdiction over such payee or any of its property or (ii) any settlement or compromise of any such claim effected by such payee with any such claimant (including the Borrower) then and in such event each Guarantor agrees that any such judgment, decree, order, settlement or compromise shall be binding upon such Guarantor, notwithstanding any revocation hereof or other instrument evidencing any liability of the Borrower, and such Guarantor shall be and remain liable to the aforesaid payees hereunder for the amount so repaid or recovered to the same extent as if such amount had never originally been received by any such payee.

20. (a) THIS GUARANTY AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE SECURED CREDITORS AND OF THE UNDERSIGNED HEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITHOUT REGARD TO ANY CONFLICTS OF LAW PROVISIONS THAT WOULD CAUSE THE LAW OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION TO APPLY. Any legal action or proceeding with respect to this Guaranty or any other Credit Document to which any Guarantor is a party may be brought in the courts of the State of New York or of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York in each case which are located in the County of New York, and, by execution and delivery of this Guaranty, each Guarantor and each Secured Creditor (by its acceptance of the benefits of this Guaranty) hereby irrevocably accepts for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, the jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts. Each Guarantor and each Secured Creditor (by its acceptance of the benefits of this Guaranty) hereby further irrevocably waives any claim that any such court lacks personal jurisdiction over it, and agrees not to plead or claim in any legal action or proceeding with respect to this Guaranty or any other Credit Document to which it is a party brought in any of the aforesaid courts that any such court lacks personal jurisdiction over such Guarantor. Each Guarantor and each Secured Creditor (by its acceptance of the benefits of this Guaranty) further irrevocably consents to the service of process out of any of the aforementioned courts in any such action or proceeding by the mailing of copies thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to such party at its address set forth in Section 18 hereof, such service to become effective 30 days after such mailing. Each Guarantor and each Secured Creditor (by its acceptance of the benefits of this Guaranty) hereby irrevocably waives any objection to such service of process and further irrevocably waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any action or proceeding commenced hereunder or under any other Credit Document to which it is a party that such service of process was in any way invalid or ineffective. Nothing herein shall affect the right of any such party to serve process in any other manner permitted by law or to commence legal proceedings or otherwise proceed against any other party in any other jurisdiction.

(b) Each Guarantor and each Secured Party (by its acceptance of the benefits of this Guaranty) hereby irrevocably waives (to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law) any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any of the aforesaid actions or proceedings arising out of or in connection with this Guaranty or any other Credit Document to which such Guarantor is a party brought in the courts referred to in clause (a) above and hereby further irrevocably waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any such court that such action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

(c) EACH GUARANTOR AND EACH SECURED CREDITOR (BY ITS ACCEPTANCE OF THE BENEFITS OF THIS GUARANTY) HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS GUARANTY, THE OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENTS TO WHICH SUCH GUARANTOR IS A PARTY OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

21. In the event that a Guarantor becomes an Excluded Subsidiary or all of the capital stock of a Guarantor is sold or otherwise disposed of or liquidated in compliance with the requirements of Section 9.02 of the Credit Agreement (or such sale or other disposition has been approved in writing by the Required Lenders (or all the Lenders if required by Section 12.10 of the Credit Agreement)) and the proceeds of such sale, disposition or liquidation are applied in accordance with the provisions of the Credit Agreement, to the extent applicable, such Guarantor shall upon consummation of such sale or other disposition (except to the extent that such sale or disposition is to another Credit Party) be released from this Guaranty automatically and without further action and this Guaranty shall, as to each such Guarantor, terminate, and have no further force or effect (it being understood and agreed that the sale of one or more Persons that own, directly or indirectly, all of the capital stock of any Guarantor shall be deemed to be a sale of such Guarantor for the purposes of this Section 21).

22. At any time a payment in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations is made under this Guaranty, the right of contribution of each Guarantor against each other Guarantor shall be determined as provided in the immediately following sentence, with the right of contribution of each Guarantor to be revised and restated as of each date on which a payment (a "Relevant Payment") is made on the Guaranteed Obligations under this Guaranty. At any time that a Relevant Payment is made by a Guarantor that results in the aggregate payments made by such Guarantor in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations to and including the date of the Relevant Payment exceeding such Guarantor's Contribution Percentage (as defined below) of the aggregate payments made by all Guarantors in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations to and including the date of the Relevant Payment (such excess, the "Aggregate Excess Amount"), each such Guarantor shall have a right of contribution against each other Guarantor who has made payments in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations to and including the date of the Relevant Payment in an aggregate amount less than such other Guarantor's Contribution Percentage of the aggregate payments made to and including the date of the Relevant Payment by all Guarantors in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations (the aggregate amount of such deficit, the "Aggregate Deficit Amount") in an amount equal to (x) a fraction the numerator of which is the Aggregate Excess Amount of such Guarantor and the denominator of which is the Aggregate Excess Amount of all Guarantors multiplied by (y) the Aggregate Deficit Amount of such other Guarantor. A Guarantor's right of contribution pursuant to the preceding sentences shall arise at the time of each computation, subject to adjustment to the time of each computation; provided that no Guarantor may take any action to enforce such right until the Guaranteed Obligations have been irrevocably paid in full in cash, it being expressly recognized and agreed by all parties hereto that any Guarantor's right of contribution arising pursuant to this Section 22 against any other Guarantor shall be expressly junior and subordinate to such other Guarantor's obligations and liabilities in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations and any other obligations owing under this Guaranty. As used in this Section 22: (i) each Guarantor's "Contribution Percentage" shall mean the percentage obtained by dividing (x) the Adjusted Net Worth (as defined below) of such Guarantor by (y) the aggregate Adjusted Net Worth of all Guarantors; (ii) the "Adjusted Net Worth" of each Guarantor shall mean the greater of (x) the Net Worth (as defined below) of such Guarantor and (y) zero; and (iii) the "Net Worth" of each Guarantor shall mean the amount by which the fair saleable value of such Guarantor's assets on the date of any Relevant Payment exceeds its existing debts and other liabilities (including contingent liabilities, but without giving effect to any Guaranteed Obligations arising under this Guaranty) on such date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above, any Guarantor that is released from this Guaranty shall thereafter have no contribution obligations, or rights, pursuant to this Section 22, and at the time of any such release, if the released Guarantor had an Aggregate Excess Amount or an Aggregate Deficit Amount, same shall be deemed reduced to $0, and the contribution rights and obligations of the remaining Guarantors shall be recalculated on the respective date of release (as otherwise provided above) based on the payments made hereunder by the remaining Guarantors. All parties hereto recognize and agree that, except for any right of contribution arising pursuant to this Section 22, each Guarantor who makes any payment in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations shall have no right of contribution or subrogation against any other Guarantor in respect of such payment until all of the Guaranteed Obligations have been irrevocably paid in full in cash. Each of the Guarantors recognizes and acknowledges that the rights to contribution arising hereunder shall constitute an asset in favor of the party entitled to such contribution. In this connection, each Guarantor has the right to waive its contribution right against any Guarantor to the extent that after giving effect to such waiver such Guarantor would remain solvent, in the reasonable determination of the Required Lenders.

23. Each Guarantor and each Secured Creditor (by its acceptance of the benefits of this Guaranty) hereby confirms that it is its intention that this Guaranty not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance for purposes of the Bankruptcy Code, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act of any similar federal, foreign, state or provincial law. To effectuate the foregoing intention, each Guarantor and each Secured Creditor (by its acceptance of the benefits of this Guaranty) hereby irrevocably agrees that the Guaranteed Obligations guaranteed by such Guarantor shall be limited to such amount as will, after giving effect to such maximum amount and all other (contingent or otherwise) liabilities of such Guarantor that are relevant under such laws and after giving effect to any rights to contribution pursuant to any agreement providing for an equitable contribution among such Guarantor and the other Guarantors, result in the Guaranteed Obligations of such Guarantor in respect of such maximum amount not constituting a fraudulent transfer or conveyance.

24. This Guaranty may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the different parties hereto on separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. A set of counterparts executed by all the parties hereto shall be lodged with the Guarantors and the Administrative Agent.

25. All payments made by any Guarantor hereunder will be made without setoff, counterclaim or other defense (other than payment in cash of such Guaranteed Obligations made in accordance with the terms of this Guaranty) and on the same basis as payments are made by the Borrowers under Sections 2.10 and 4.01 of the Credit Agreement.

26. It is understood and agreed that any Restricted Subsidiary of the Borrower that is required to become a party to this Guaranty after the date hereof pursuant to the requirements of the Credit Agreement or any other Credit Document, shall become a Guarantor hereunder by (x) executing and delivering a counterpart hereof, or a joinder agreement in the form of Exhibit A hereto, and delivering same to the Administrative Agent and (y) taking all actions as specified in this Guaranty as would have been taken by such Guarantor had it been an original party to this Guaranty, in each case with all documents required by the Credit Documents to be delivered to the Administrative Agent and with all documents and actions required by the Credit Documents to be taken to the reasonable satisfaction of the Administrative Agent.

27. If a judgment or order is rendered by any court or tribunal for the payment of any amount owing to the Secured Creditors under any Credit Document or for the payment of damages in respect of any breach of any Credit Document, or under or in respect of a judgment or order of another court or tribunal for the payment of those amounts or damages, and the judgment or order is expressed in a currency (the "Judgment Currency") except the currency payable under the relevant Credit Document (the " Agreed Currency"), each Guarantor shall indemnify and hold the Secured Creditors harmless against any deficiency in terms of the Agreed Currency in the amounts received by that Secured Creditor arising or resulting from any variation as between (a) the actual rate of exchange at which the Agreed Currency is converted into the Judgment Currency for the purposes of the judgment or order, and (b) the actual rate of exchange at which that Secured Creditor is able to purchase the Agreed Currency with the amount of the Judgment Currency actually received by that Secured Creditor on the date of receipt. The indemnity in this Section shall constitute a separate and independent obligation from the other obligations of the Credit Parties under the Credit Documents and shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by the Secured Creditors.

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the Guarantors have entered into the Term Loan Guaranty in order to induce the Lenders to make the Term Loans to the Borrowers;

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 8.11 of the Credit Agreement and Section 26 of the Term Loan Guaranty, each person that is or becomes a Restricted Subsidiary of the Borrower after the Closing Date is required to become a Guarantor under the Credit Agreement. The undersigned Subsidiary (the "New Guarantor") is executing this joinder agreement (" Joinder Agreement") to the Term Loan Guaranty as required by the Credit Agreement.

Each reference to a Guarantor in the Credit Agreement and to a Guarantor in the Term Lon Guaranty shall be deemed to include the New Guarantor.

3. Severability. Any provision of this Joinder Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

4. Counterparts. This Joinder Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Joinder Agreement by facsimile transmission shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Joinder Agreement.

5. No Waiver. Except as expressly supplemented hereby, the Guaranty shall remain in full force and effect.

6. Notices. All notices, requests and demands to or upon the New Guarantor, any Agent or any Lender shall be governed by the terms of Section 18 of the Term Loan Guaranty.

7. Governing Law. THIS AGREEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITHOUT REGARD TO ANY CONFLICTS OF LAW PROVISIONS THAT WOULD CAUSE THE LAW OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION TO APPLY.

FORM OF SOLVENCY CERTIFICATE

[_____], 201[ ]

This SOLVENCY CERTIFICATE (this "Certificate") is delivered in connection with that certain Term Loan Credit Agreement dated as of April 15, 2014 (as amended, supplemented, amended and restated, replaced, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Credit Agreement") among Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. (the "Parent"), BANK OF AMERICA, N.A., as administrative agent and collateral agent, the financial institutions from time to time party thereto as lenders and the other parties thereto. Capitalized terms used herein without definition have the same meanings as in the Credit Agreement.

In my capacity as chief financial officer of the Borrower, and not in my individual or personal capacity, I believe that:

1. Company (as used herein "Company" means the Borrower and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole) is not now, nor will the incurrence of the obligations under the Credit Agreement and the consummation of the Acquisition on the Closing Date, on a pro forma basis, render Company "insolvent" as defined in this paragraph; in this context, "insolvent" means that (i) the fair value of assets is less than the amount that will be required to pay the total liability on existing debts as they become absolute and matured and (ii) the present fair salable value of assets is less than the amount that will be required to pay the probable liability on existing debts as they become absolute and matured, (iii) it is unable to meet its obligations as they generally become due, or (iv) it ceases to pay its current obligations in the ordinary course of business as they generally become due, or (v) its aggregate property is not, at a fair valuation, sufficient, or if disposed of at a fairly conducted sale under legal process, would not be, sufficient to enable payment of all obligations, due and accruing due. The term "debts" as used in this Certificate includes any legal liability, whether matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, absolute, fixed or contingent (to the extent any such contingent liabilities are reasonably anticipated to become due and matured), and "values of assets" shall mean the amount of which the assets (both tangible and intangible) in their entirety would change hands between a willing buyer and a willing seller, with a commercially reasonable period of time, each having reasonable knowledge of the relevant facts, with neither being under compulsion to act.

2. As of the date hereof, after giving effect to the incurrence of the obligations under the Credit Agreement and the consummation of the Acquisition, Company is able to pay its debts as they become absolute and mature.

3. The incurrence of the obligations under the Credit Agreement and the consummation of the Acquisition on the Closing Date, on a pro forma basis, will not leave Company with property remaining in its hands constituting "unreasonably small capital." I understand that "unreasonably small capital" depends upon the nature of the particular business or businesses conducted or to be conducted, and I have reached my conclusion based on my current assumptions regarding the needs and anticipated needs for capital of the businesses conducted or anticipated to be conducted by

Company in light of projected financial statements and available credit capacity, which current assumption I do not believe to be unreasonable in light of the circumstances applicable thereto.

I represent the foregoing information is provided to the best of my knowledge and belief and execute this Certificate as of the date first above written.

Re: Incremental Term Loan Commitments

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Reference is hereby made to the Term Loan Credit Agreement, dated as of April 15, 2014 (as amended, amended and restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Term Loan Credit Agreement", the terms defined therein being used herein as therein defined) among Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. Each Lender (each an "Incremental Term Loan Lender") party to this letter agreement (this "Agreement") hereby severally agrees to provide the Incremental Term Loan Commitment set forth opposite its name on Annex I attached hereto (for each such Incremental Term Loan Lender, its "Incremental Term Loan Commitment"). Each Incremental Term Loan Commitment provided pursuant to this Agreement shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Term Loan Credit Agreement, including Section 2.16 thereof.

Each Incremental Term Loan Lender agreeing to provide an Incremental Term Loan Commitment pursuant to this Agreement, the Borrower and the Administrative Agent acknowledge and agree that the Incremental Term Loan Commitments provided pursuant to this Agreement shall constitute Incremental Term Loan Commitments of the respective Tranche specified in Annex I attached hereto and, upon the incurrence of Incremental Term Loans pursuant to this Agreement, shall constitute Incremental Term Loans under such specified Tranche for all purposes of the Term Loan Credit Agreement and the other Credit Documents.

Each Incremental Term Loan Lender and the Borrower further agree that, with respect to the Incremental Term Loan Commitments provided by each Incremental Term Loan Lender pursuant to this Agreement, each Incremental Term Loan Lender shall receive such upfront fees, if any, as are specified in Annex I attached hereto, which upfront fees shall be due and payable to each Incremental Term Loan Lender upon the Agreement Effective Date (as defined below) or as otherwise specified in said Annex I.

Upon the date of (i) the execution of a counterpart of this Agreement by such Incremental Term Loan Lenders, the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, (ii) the delivery to the Administrative Agent of a fully executed copy (including by way of counterparts and by facsimile) hereof, (iii) the payment of any fees required in connection herewith and (iv) the satisfaction of any conditions precedent set forth in Section 10 of Annex I hereto (such date, the "Agreement Effective Date"), each Incremental Term Loan Lender party hereto agreeing to provide an Incremental Term Loan Commitment pursuant to this Agreement (i) shall be obligated to make the Incremental Term Loans provided to be made by it as provided in this Agreement on the terms, and subject to the conditions, set forth in the Term Loan Credit Agreement and (ii) to the extent provided in this Agreement, shall have the rights and obligations of a Lender thereunder and under the other Credit Documents. The maximum number of drawings with respect to the Incremental Term Loan Commitments provided pursuant to this Agreement shall be as specified in Annex I attached hereto. Furthermore, any undrawn Incremental Term Loan Commitments provided pursuant to this Agreement shall expire on the date specified in Annex I attached hereto.

The Borrower acknowledges and agrees that (i) it shall be liable for all Obligations with respect to the Incremental Term Loan Commitments provided hereby including, without limitation, any Term Loans made pursuant thereto and (ii) all such Obligations (including any such Term Loans) shall be entitled to the benefits of the Security Documents. (iii) file any necessary responsive or defensive pleadings in opposition to any motion, claim, adversary proceeding or other pleading made by any Person objecting to or otherwise seeking the disallowance of the claims of the Fixed Asset Claimholders, including any claims secured by the ABL Priority Collateral, if any, in each case in accordance with the terms of this Agreement;

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, unless and until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred, except as expressly provided in Sections 3.01(a), 6.03(c)(i) and this Section 3.01(c), the sole right of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral is to hold a Lien on such Collateral pursuant to the Fixed Asset Collateral Documents for the period and to the extent granted therein and to receive a share of the Proceeds thereof, if any, after the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred.

(d) Subject to Sections 3.01(a) and (c) and Section 6.03(c)(i):

(i) each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees that it will not, except as not prohibited herein, take any action that would hinder any exercise of remedies under the ABL Credit Documents or that is otherwise prohibited hereunder, including any sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition of the ABL Priority Collateral, whether by foreclosure or otherwise;

(ii) each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, hereby waives any and all rights it or the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders may have as a junior lien creditor with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral or otherwise to object to the manner in which the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders seek to enforce or collect the ABL Obligations or the Liens on the ABL Priority Collateral securing the ABL Obligations granted in any of the ABL Credit Documents or undertaken in accordance with this Agreement, regardless of whether any action or failure to act by or on behalf of the ABL Collateral Agent or ABL Claimholders is adverse to the interest of the Fixed Asset Claimholders; and

(iii) each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent hereby acknowledges and agrees that no covenant, agreement or restriction contained in any of the Fixed Asset Collateral Documents or any other Fixed Asset Document (other than this Agreement) shall be deemed to restrict in any way the rights and remedies of the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral as set forth in this Agreement and the ABL Credit Documents.

(f) Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the receipt by any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholders of payments of interest, principal and other amounts owed in respect of the applicable Fixed Asset Obligations so long as such receipt is not the direct or indirect result of the exercise by such Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholders of rights or remedies as a secured creditor (including set-off) or enforcement of any Lien held by any of them, in each case in contravention of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement impairs or otherwise adversely affects any rights or remedies the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders may have against the Grantors under the ABL Credit Documents, other than with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral solely to the extent expressly provided herein.

The ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, agrees that it will not seek, and hereby waives any right, to have any Fixed Asset Priority Collateral or any part thereof marshaled upon any foreclosure or other disposition of such Collateral.

(iii) file any necessary responsive or defensive pleadings in opposition to any motion, claim, adversary proceeding or other pleading made by any Person objecting to or otherwise seeking the disallowance of the claims of the ABL Claimholders, including any claims secured by the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, if any, in each case in accordance with the terms of this Agreement;

(iii) the ABL Collateral Agent hereby acknowledges and agrees that no covenant, agreement or restriction contained in any of the ABL Collateral Documents or any other ABL Credit Document (other than this Agreement) shall be deemed to restrict in any way the rights and remedies of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents or the Fixed Asset Claimholders with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral as set forth in this Agreement and the Fixed Asset Documents.

(e) Except as otherwise specifically set forth in Sections 3.02(a) and (d) and 3.05, the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders may exercise rights and remedies as unsecured creditors against any Grantor and may exercise rights and remedies with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral, in each case, in accordance with the terms of the ABL Credit Documents and applicable law; provided, however, that in the event that any ABL Claimholder becomes a judgment Lien creditor in respect of Fixed Asset Priority Collateral as a result of its enforcement of its rights as an unsecured creditor with respect to the ABL Obligations, such judgment Lien shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement for all purposes (including in relation to the Fixed Asset Obligations) as the other Liens securing the ABL Obligations are subject to this Agreement.

(f) Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the receipt by the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholders of payments of interest, principal and other amounts owed in respect of the ABL Obligations so long as such receipt is not the direct or indirect result of the exercise by the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholders of rights or remedies as a secured creditor (including set-off) or enforcement of any Lien held by any of them, in each case in contravention of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement impairs or otherwise adversely affects any rights or remedies the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents or the Fixed Asset Claimholders may have against the Grantors under the Fixed Asset Documents, other than with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral solely to the extent expressly provided herein.

Section 3.03. Exercise of Remedies – Collateral Access Rights . (a) The ABL Collateral Agent and the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents agree not to commence any Collateral Enforcement Action until an Enforcement Notice has been given to the other Collateral Agent. Subject to the provisions of Sections 3.01 and 3.02 above, either Collateral Agent may join in any judicial proceedings commenced by the other Collateral Agent to enforce Liens on the Collateral; provided that neither Collateral Agent, nor the ABL Claimholders or the Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, shall interfere with the Collateral Enforcement Actions of the other with respect to Collateral in which such party has the priority Lien in accordance herewith.

(b) If any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, or any agent or representative of any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, or any receiver, shall obtain possession or physical control of any of the Mortgaged Premises, such Fixed Asset Collateral Agent shall promptly notify the ABL Collateral Agent of that fact (such notice, a "Notice of Occupancy") and the ABL Collateral Agent shall, within ten (10) Business Days thereafter, notify the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent as to whether the ABL Collateral Agent desires to exercise access rights under this Agreement (such notice, an "Access Acceptance Notice"), at which time the parties shall confer in good faith to coordinate with respect to the ABL Collateral Agent's exercise of such access rights; provided, that it is understood and agreed that the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall obtain possession or physical control of the Mortgaged Premises in the manner provided in the applicable Fixed Asset Collateral Documents and in the manner provided herein. Access rights may apply to differing parcels of Mortgaged Premises at differing times, in which case, a differing Access Period may apply to each such property. In the event that the ABL Collateral Agent elects to exercise its access rights as provided in this Agreement, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent agrees, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, that in the event that any Fixed Asset Claimholder exercises its rights to sell or otherwise dispose of any Mortgaged Premises, whether before or after the delivery of a Notice of Occupancy to the ABL Collateral Agent, the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall (i) provide access rights to the ABL Collateral Agent for the duration of the Access Period in accordance with this Agreement and (ii) if such a sale or other disposition occurs prior to the ABL Collateral Agent delivering an Access Acceptance Notice during the time period provided therefor, or if applicable, the expiration of the applicable Access Period, shall ensure that the purchaser or other transferee of such Mortgaged Premises provides the ABL Collateral Agent the opportunity to exercise its access rights, and upon delivery of an Access Acceptance Notice to such purchaser or transferee, continued access rights to the ABL for the duration of the applicable Access Period, in the manner and to the extent required by this Agreement.

(c) Upon delivery of notice to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent as provided in Section 3.03(b), the Access Period shall commence for the subject parcel of Mortgaged Premises. During the Access Period, the ABL Collateral Agent and its agents, representatives and designees shall have a non-exclusive right to have access to, and a rent free right to use, the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral for the purpose of arranging for and effecting the sale or disposition of ABL Priority Collateral, including the production, completion, packaging and other preparation of such ABL Priority Collateral for sale or disposition. During any such Access Period, the ABL Collateral Agent and its agents, representatives and designees (and Persons employed on their respective behalves), may continue to operate, service, maintain, process and sell the ABL Priority Collateral, as well as to engage in bulk sales of ABL Priority Collateral. The ABL Collateral Agent shall take proper care of any Fixed Asset Priority Collateral that is used by the ABL Collateral Agent during the Access Period and repair and replace any damage (ordinary wear-and-tear excepted) caused by the ABL Collateral Agent or its agents, representatives or designees and the ABL Collateral Agent shall comply with all applicable laws in connection with its use or occupancy of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral. The ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders shall (to the extent that there are sufficient available proceeds of ABL Collateral for the purposes of paying such indemnity) indemnify and hold harmless the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders for any injury or damage to Persons or property caused by the acts or omissions of Persons under its control. The ABL Collateral Agent and the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall cooperate and use reasonable efforts to ensure that their activities during the Access Period as described above do not interfere materially with the activities of the other as described above, including the right of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents to show the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral to prospective purchasers and to ready the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral for sale.

(d) If any order or injunction is issued or stay is granted which prohibits the ABL Collateral Agent from exercising any of its rights hereunder, then at the ABL Collateral Agent's option, the Access Period granted to the ABL Collateral Agent under this Section 3.03 shall be stayed during the period of such prohibition and shall continue thereafter for the number of days remaining as required under this Section 3.03. If any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent shall foreclose or otherwise sell any of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, such Fixed Asset Collateral Agent will notify the buyer thereof of the existence of this Agreement and that the buyer is acquiring the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral subject to the terms of this Agreement.

(e) The Fixed Asset Collateral Agents (in the case of any Additional Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, to the extent such access rights have been granted to such Collateral Agent) and, to the extent such rights have been granted by the Grantors under any Initial Fixed Asset Documents, the Grantors, agree that the ABL Collateral Agent shall have access, during the Access Period, as described herein and each such Grantor that owns any of the Mortgaged Premises grants a non-exclusive easement in gross over its property to permit the uses by the ABL Collateral Agent contemplated by this Section 3.03. Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent consents to such easement and to the recordation of a collateral access easement agreement, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, in the relevant real estate records with respect to each parcel of real property that is now or hereafter subject to a Fixed Asset Mortgage. The ABL Collateral Agent agrees that upon either the occurrence of the Discharge of ABL Obligations or the expiration of the final Access Period with respect to any parcel of property covered by a Fixed Asset Mortgage, it shall, upon request, execute and deliver to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, or if a Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, to the respective Grantor, such documentation, in recordable form, as may reasonably be requested to terminate any and all rights with respect to such Access Periods.

Section 3.04. Exercise of Remedies – Intellectual Property Rights/Access to Information . Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent (in the case of any Additional Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, to the extent such rights have been granted to such Collateral Agent) and, to the extent such rights have been granted by the Grantors under any Initial Fixed Asset Documents, each Grantor hereby grants (to the full extent of their respective rights and interests) the ABL Collateral Agent and its agents, representatives and designees (a) a royalty free, rent free non-exclusive license and lease to use all of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral constituting Intellectual Property, to complete the sale of inventory and (b) a royalty free non-exclusive license (which will be binding on any successor or assignee of the Intellectual Property) to use any and all Intellectual Property, in each case, at any time in connection with its Collateral Enforcement Action; provided, however, the royalty free, rent free non-exclusive license and lease granted in clause (a) shall immediately expire upon the sale, lease, transfer or other disposition of all such inventory.

Section 3.05. Exercise of Remedies – Set Off and Tracing of and Priorities in Proceeds . (a) The ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, acknowledges and agrees that, to the extent the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholder exercises its rights of set-off against any Grantors' Deposit Accounts or Securities Accounts that contain identifiable Proceeds of Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, a percentage of the amount of such set-off equal to the percentage that such Proceeds bear to the total amount on deposit in or credited to the balance of such Deposit Accounts or Securities Accounts shall be deemed to constitute Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, which amount shall be held and distributed pursuant to Section 4.03; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any set-off by the ABL Collateral Agent against any ABL Priority Collateral to the extent applied to the payment of ABL Obligations.

(b) Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, also agrees that prior to an issuance of an Enforcement Notice, all funds deposited in an account subject to a Deposit Account Control Agreement or a Dominion Account that constitute ABL Priority Collateral and then applied to the ABL Obligations shall be treated as ABL Priority Collateral and, unless the ABL Collateral Agent has actual knowledge to the contrary, any claim that payments made to the ABL Collateral Agent through the Deposit Accounts and Securities Accounts that are subject to such Deposit Account Control Agreements or Dominion Accounts, respectively, are Proceeds of or otherwise constitute Fixed Asset Priority Collateral are waived by the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders.

(c) The ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, further agree that prior to an issuance of an Enforcement Notice, any Proceeds of Collateral, whether or not deposited in an account subject to a deposit account control agreement or a securities account control agreement, shall not (as between the Collateral Agents, the ABL Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Claimholders) be treated as Proceeds of Collateral for purposes of determining the relative priorities in the Collateral.

PAYMENTS.

Section 4.01. Application of Proceeds. (a) Until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred, whether or not any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Grantor, all ABL Priority Collateral or Proceeds thereof received in connection with the sale or other disposition of, or collection on, such Collateral upon the exercise of remedies by the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholder, shall be applied by the ABL Collateral Agent to the ABL Obligations in such order as specified in the relevant ABL Credit Documents. Upon the occurrence of the Discharge of ABL Obligations, the ABL Collateral Agent shall deliver to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent any Collateral and Proceeds of Collateral held by it as a result of the exercise of remedies in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct to be applied by the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent to the Fixed Asset Obligations in such order as specified in Section 4.01(b); it being understood that any security interest in Deposit Accounts in favor of the Fixed Asset Obligations shall no longer exist upon the occurrence of the Discharge of ABL Obligations.

(b) Until the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, whether or not any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Grantor, all Fixed Asset Priority Collateral or Proceeds thereof received in connection with the sale or other disposition of, or collection on, such Collateral upon the exercise of remedies by any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholder, shall be applied by the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent to the Fixed Asset Obligations in the following order: first, to payment of that portion of the Fixed Asset Obligations constituting fees, indemnities, expenses and other amounts payable to each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent in its capacity as such pursuant to the terms of any Fixed Asset Document; second, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities and other amounts (other than principal and interest) payable to the Fixed Asset Claimholders pursuant to the terms of any Fixed Asset Document; and third, to the payment in full of Fixed Asset Obligations of each Series on a ratable basis, and with respect to the Fixed Asset Obligations of a given Series in accordance with the terms of the terms of the applicable Fixed Asset Documents. Upon the occurrence of the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent shall deliver to the ABL Collateral Agent any Collateral and Proceeds of Collateral held by it as a result of the exercise of remedies in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct to be applied by the ABL Collateral Agent to the ABL Obligations in such order as specified in the ABL Collateral Documents.

Section 4.02. Payments Over in Violation of Agreement. So long as neither the Discharge of ABL Obligations nor the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, whether or not any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Grantor, any Collateral or Proceeds thereof (including assets or Proceeds subject to Liens referred to in the final sentence of Section 2.03) received by any Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholders or ABL Claimholders in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy (including set-off and the right to credit bid their debt) relating to the Collateral in contravention of this Agreement shall be segregated and held in trust and forthwith paid over to the appropriate Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Fixed Asset Claimholders or the ABL Claimholders, as the case may be, in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct. Each Collateral Agent is hereby authorized by the other Collateral Agent to make any such endorsements as agent for the other Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholders or ABL Claimholders, as the case may be. This authorization is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable until the Discharge of ABL Obligations and Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations have occurred.

Section 4.03. Application of Payments. Subject to the other terms of this Agreement, all payments received by (a) the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders may be applied, reversed and reapplied, in whole or in part, to the ABL Obligations to the extent provided for in the ABL Credit Documents and (b) the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents or the Fixed Asset Claimholders may be applied, reversed and reapplied, in whole or in part, to the Fixed Asset Obligations in the order set forth in Section 4.01(b).

Section 4.04. Reinstatement. (a) To the extent any payment with respect to any ABL Obligation (whether by or on behalf of any Grantor, as Proceeds of security, enforcement of any right of set-off or otherwise) is declared to be a fraudulent conveyance or a preference in any respect, set aside or required to be paid to a debtor in possession, any Fixed Asset Claimholders, receiver or similar Person, whether in connection with any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise, then the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied shall, for the purposes of this Agreement and the rights and obligations of the ABL Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, be deemed to be reinstated and outstanding as if such payment had not occurred. To the extent that any interest, fees, expenses or other charges (including, without limitation, Post-Petition Interest) to be paid pursuant to the ABL Credit Documents are disallowed by order of any court, including, without limitation, by order of a Bankruptcy Court in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, such interest, fees, expenses and charges (including, without limitation, Post-Petition Interest) shall, as between the ABL Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, be deemed to continue to accrue and be added to the amount to be calculated as the "ABL Obligations".

(b) To the extent any payment with respect to any Fixed Asset Obligation (whether by or on behalf of any Grantor, as Proceeds of security, enforcement of any right of set-off or otherwise) is declared to be a fraudulent conveyance or a preference in any respect, set aside or required to be paid to a debtor in possession, any ABL Claimholders, receiver or similar Person, whether in connection with any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise, then the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied shall, for the purposes of this Agreement and the rights and obligations of the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the ABL Claimholders, be deemed to be reinstated and outstanding as if such payment had not occurred. To the extent that any interest, fees, expenses or other charges (including, without limitation, Post-Petition Interest) to be paid pursuant to the Fixed Asset Documents are disallowed by order of any court, including, without limitation, by order of a Bankruptcy Court in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, such interest, fees, expenses and charges (including, without limitation, Post-Petition Interest) shall, as between the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the ABL Claimholders, be deemed to continue to accrue and be added to the amount to be calculated as the "Fixed Asset Obligations".

OTHER AGREEMENTS.

Section 5.01. Releases. (a) (i) If in connection with the exercise of the ABL Collateral Agent's remedies in respect of any Collateral as provided for in Section 3.01, the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any of the ABL Claimholders, releases any of its Liens on any part of the ABL Priority Collateral, then the Liens, if any, of each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of the Fixed Asset Claimholders, on the ABL Priority Collateral sold or disposed of in connection with such exercise, shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released. Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any such Fixed Asset Claimholders, promptly shall execute and deliver to the ABL Collateral Agent or such Grantor such termination statements, releases and other documents as the ABL Collateral Agent or such Grantor may request to effectively confirm such release.

(ii) If in connection with the exercise of the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent's remedies in respect of any Collateral as provided for in Section 3.02, the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any of the Fixed Asset Claimholders, releases any of its Liens on any part of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, then (x) the Liens, if any, of the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of the ABL Claimholders, on the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral sold or disposed of in connection with such exercise, shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released and (y) the Liens, if any, of each Non-Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, on the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral sold or disposed of in connection with such exercise, shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released. The ABL Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any such ABL Claimholders, and each Non-Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, promptly shall execute and deliver to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or such Grantor such termination statements, releases and other documents as the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or such Grantor may request to effectively confirm such release.

(b) If in connection with any sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition of any Collateral (collectively, a " Disposition") permitted under the terms of both the ABL Credit Documents and the Fixed Asset Documents (other than in connection with the exercise of the respective Collateral Agent's rights and remedies in respect of the Collateral as provided for in Sections 3.01 and 3.02), (i) the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any of the ABL Claimholders, releases any of its Liens on any part of the ABL Priority Collateral, in each case other than (A) except with respect to Deposit Accounts, in connection with the occurrence of the Discharge of ABL Obligations or (B) after the occurrence and during the continuance of a Fixed Asset Default, then the Liens, if any, of each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, on such Collateral shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released, and (ii) the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, releases any of its Liens on any part of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, in each case other than (A) in connection with the occurrence of the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations or (B) after the occurrence and during the continuance of a ABL Default, then the Liens, if any, of (x) the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of the ABL Claimholders and (y) each Non-Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, on such Collateral (or, if such Collateral includes the Capital Stock of any Subsidiary, the Liens on Collateral owned by such Subsidiary) shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released. The ABL Collateral Agent and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, each for itself and on behalf of any such ABL Claimholders or Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, promptly shall execute and deliver to the other Collateral Agents or such Grantor such termination statements, releases and other documents as the other Collateral Agents or such Grantor may request to effectively confirm such release.

(c) Until the Discharge of ABL Obligations and Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations have occurred, the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the other Collateral Agents and any officer or agent of the other Collateral Agent, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full irrevocable power and authority in the place and stead of the other Collateral Agent or such holder or in the Collateral Agent's own name, from time to time in such Collateral Agent's discretion, for the purpose of carrying out the terms of this Section 5.01, to take any and all appropriate action and to execute any and all documents and instruments which may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Section 5.01, including any endorsements or other instruments of transfer or release.

(d) Until the Discharge of ABL Obligations and Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations have occurred, to the extent that the Collateral Agents or the ABL Claimholders or the Fixed Asset Claimholders (i) have released any Lien on Collateral and such Lien is later reinstated or (ii) obtain any new Liens from any Grantor, then each other Collateral Agent, for itself and for the ABL Claimholders or applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, shall be granted a Lien on any such Collateral, subject to the lien priority provisions of this Agreement.

Section 5.02. Insurance. (a) Unless and until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred, subject to the terms of, and the rights of the Grantors under, the ABL Credit Documents, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders agrees, that (i) in accordance with the terms of the applicable Credit Documents, the ABL Collateral Agent shall have the sole and exclusive right to adjust settlement for any insurance policy covering the ABL Priority Collateral in the event of any loss thereunder and to approve any award granted in any condemnation or similar proceeding (or any deed in lieu of condemnation) affecting such Collateral; (ii) in accordance with the terms of the applicable Credit Documents, all Proceeds of any such policy and any such award (or any payments with respect to a deed in lieu of condemnation) if in respect of such Collateral and to the extent required by the ABL Credit Documents shall be paid to the ABL Collateral Agent for the benefit of the ABL Claimholders pursuant to the terms of the ABL Credit Documents (including, without limitation, for purposes of cash collateralization of letters of credit) and thereafter, to the extent no ABL Obligations are outstanding, and subject to the rights of the Grantors under the Fixed Asset Documents, to the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents for the benefit of the Fixed Asset Claimholders to the extent required under the Fixed Asset Collateral Documents and then, to the extent no Fixed Asset Obligations are outstanding, to the owner of the subject property, such other Person as may be entitled thereto or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct, and (iii) if any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholders shall, at any time, receive any Proceeds of any such insurance policy or any such award or payment in contravention of this Agreement, it shall segregate and hold in trust and forthwith pay such Proceeds over to the ABL Collateral Agent in accordance with the terms of Section 4.02.

(b) Unless and until the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, subject to the terms of, and the rights of the Grantors under, the Fixed Asset Documents, the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent other than the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, each agrees that (i) in accordance with the terms of the applicable Credit Documents, the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the Fixed Asset Claimholders shall have the sole and exclusive right to adjust settlement for any insurance policy covering the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral in the event of any loss thereunder and to approve any award granted in any condemnation or similar proceeding (or any deed in lieu of condemnation) affecting such Collateral; (ii) in accordance with the terms of the applicable Credit Documents, all Proceeds of any such policy and any such award (or any payments with respect to a deed in lieu of condemnation) if in respect of such Collateral and to the extent required by the Fixed Asset Documents shall be paid to the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents for the benefit of the Fixed Asset Claimholders pursuant to the terms of the Fixed Asset Documents and thereafter, to the extent no Fixed Asset Obligations are outstanding, and subject to the rights of the Grantors under the ABL Credit Documents, to the ABL Collateral Agent for the benefit of the ABL Claimholders to the extent required under the ABL Collateral Documents and then, to the extent no ABL Obligations are outstanding, to the owner of the subject property, such other Person as may be entitled thereto or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct, and (iii) in accordance with the terms of the applicable Credit Documents, if the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholders shall, at any time, receive any Proceeds of any such insurance policy or any such award or payment in contravention of this Agreement, it shall segregate and hold in trust and forthwith pay such Proceeds over to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent in accordance with the terms of Section 4.02.

(c) To effectuate the foregoing, the Collateral Agents shall each receive separate lender's loss payable endorsements naming themselves as loss payee and additional insured, as their interests may appear, with respect to policies which insure Collateral hereunder. To the extent any Proceeds are received for business interruption or for any liability or indemnification and those Proceeds are not compensation for a casualty loss with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, such Proceeds shall first be applied to repay the ABL Obligations (to the extent required pursuant to the ABL Credit Agreement) and then be applied, to the extent required by the Fixed Asset Documents, to the Fixed Asset Obligations.

Section 5.03. Amendments to ABL Credit Documents and Fixed Asset Documents; Refinancing . (a) The Fixed Asset Documents may be amended, amended and restated, replaced, supplemented or otherwise modified in accordance with their terms and the Fixed Asset Obligations may be Refinanced, in each case, without notice to, or the consent of the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders, all without affecting the lien subordination or other provisions of this Agreement; provided, however, that the holders of such Refinancing debt, or their respective agent or representative on the behalf of such holders, bind themselves in a writing addressed to the ABL Collateral Agent and any other existing Collateral Agents to the terms of this Agreement and any such amendment, supplement, modification or Refinancing shall not contravene any provision of this Agreement.

(b) The ABL Credit Documents may be amended, amended and restated, replaced, supplemented or otherwise modified in accordance with their terms and the ABL Credit Agreement may be Refinanced, in each case, without notice to, or the consent of any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or the Fixed Asset Claimholders, all without affecting the lien subordination or other provisions of this Agreement; provided, however, that the holders of such Refinancing debt, or their respective agent or representative on the behalf of such holders, bind themselves in a writing addressed to the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents to the terms of this Agreement and any such amendment, supplement, modification or Refinancing shall not contravene any provision of this Agreement.

(c) On or after any Refinancing, and the receipt of notice thereof, which notice shall include the identity of a new or replacement Collateral Agent or other agent serving the same or similar function, each existing Collateral Agent shall promptly enter into such documents and agreements (including amendments or supplements to this Intercreditor Agreement) as the Parent or such new or replacement Collateral Agent may reasonably request in order to provide to such new or replacement Collateral Agent the rights, remedies and powers and authorities contemplated hereby, in each case consistent in all respects with the terms of this Intercreditor Agreement.

(d) The ABL Collateral Agent and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent shall each use good faith efforts to notify the other parties hereto of any written amendment or modification to any ABL Loan Document or any Fixed Asset Document, as applicable, but the failure to do so shall not create a cause of action against the party failing to give such notice or create any claim or right on behalf of any third party.

Section 5.04. Bailees for Perfection. (a) Each Collateral Agent agrees to hold that part of the Collateral that is in its possession or control (or in the possession or control of its agents or bailees) to the extent that possession or control thereof is taken to perfect a Lien thereon under the UCC or PPSA, as applicable, (such Collateral being the "Pledged Collateral") as collateral agent for the ABL Claimholders or the Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, and as bailee for the other Collateral Agents (such bailment being intended, among other things, to satisfy the requirements of Sections 8-106(d)(3), 8-301(a)(2) and 9-313(c) of the UCC) and any assignee solely for the purpose of perfecting the security interest granted under the ABL Credit Documents and the Fixed Asset Documents, respectively, subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 5.04.

(b) No Collateral Agent shall have any obligation whatsoever to the other Collateral Agents, to any ABL Claimholder, or to any Fixed Asset Claimholder to ensure that the Pledged Collateral is genuine or owned by any of the Grantors or to preserve rights or benefits of any Person except as expressly set forth in this Section 5.04. The duties or responsibilities of the respective Collateral Agents under this Section 5.04 shall be limited solely to holding the Pledged Collateral as bailee in accordance with this Section 5.04 and delivering the Pledged Collateral upon an occurrence of the Discharge of ABL Obligations or Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations, as the case may be, as provided in paragraph (d) below.

(c) No Collateral Agent acting pursuant to this Section 5.04 shall have by reason of the ABL Credit Documents, the Fixed Asset Documents, this Agreement or any other document a fiduciary relationship in respect of the other Collateral Agent, or any ABL Claimholders or any Fixed Asset Claimholders.

(d) Upon the occurrence of the Discharge of ABL Obligations or the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations, as the case may be, the Collateral Agent under the debt facility which has been discharged shall deliver the remaining Pledged Collateral (if any) together with any necessary endorsements and without recourse or warranty, first, to the other Collateral Agent (for the avoidance of doubt, in the case of the Discharge of ABL Obligations, to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent) to the extent the other Obligations (other than Contingent Obligations) remain outstanding, and second, to the applicable Grantor to the extent no ABL Obligations or Fixed Asset Obligations, as the case may be, remain outstanding (in each case, so as to allow such Person to obtain possession or control of such Pledged Collateral). Each Collateral Agent further agrees, to the extent that any other Obligations (other than applicable Contingent Obligations) remain outstanding, to take all other commercially reasonable action as shall be reasonably requested by the other Collateral Agent, at the sole cost and expense of the Credit Parties, to permit such other Collateral Agent to obtain, to the extent required by the applicable ABL Credit Documents or Fixed Asset Documents, for the benefit of the ABL Claimholders or Fixed Asset Claimholders, as applicable, a first-priority interest in the Collateral or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct.

(e) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, (i) until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred, the ABL Collateral Agent shall be entitled to deal with the Pledged Collateral or Collateral within its "control" in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and other ABL Credit Documents, but only to the extent that such Collateral constitutes ABL Priority Collateral, as if the Liens of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and Fixed Asset Claimholders did not exist and (ii) until the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent shall be entitled to deal with the Pledged Collateral or Collateral within its "control" in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and other Fixed Asset Documents, but only to the extent that such Collateral constitutes Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, as if the Liens of the ABL Collateral Agent and ABL Claimholders did not exist. In furtherance of the foregoing, promptly following the occurrence of the Discharge of ABL Obligations, unless a New Debt Notice in respect of new ABL Credit Documents shall have been delivered as provided in Section 5.05 below, the ABL Collateral Agent hereby agrees to deliver, at the cost and expense of the Credit Parties, to each bank and securities intermediary, if any, that is counterparty to a deposit account control agreement or securities account control agreement, as applicable, written notice as contemplated in such deposit account control agreement or securities account control agreement, as applicable, directing such bank or securities intermediary, as applicable, to comply with the instructions of the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, unless the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred (as certified to the ABL Collateral Agent by the Parent), in which case, such deposit account control agreement or securities account control agreement, as the case may be, shall be terminated.

(f) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary:

(i) each of the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, agrees that any requirement under any ABL Collateral Document that any Grantor deliver any Collateral that constitutes Fixed Asset Priority Collateral to the ABL Collateral Agent, or that requires any Grantor to vest the ABL Collateral Agent with possession or "control" (as defined in the UCC or the PPSA, as applicable) of any Collateral that constitutes Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, in each case, shall be deemed satisfied to the extent that, prior to the occurrence of the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations (other than Contingent Obligations), such Collateral is delivered to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agents, or the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall have been vested with such possession or (unless, pursuant to the UCC or the PPSA, as applicable, control may be given concurrently to the ABL Collateral Agent and the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent) "control", in each case, subject to the provisions of Section 5.04; and

(ii) each of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees that any requirement under any Fixed Asset Collateral Document that any Grantor deliver any Collateral that constitutes Fixed Asset Priority Collateral to such Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, or that requires any Grantor to vest such Fixed Asset Collateral Agent with possession or "control" (as defined in the UCC or the PPSA, as applicable) of any Collateral that constitutes Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, in each case, shall be deemed satisfied to the extent that, prior to the occurrence of the Discharge of Initial Fixed Asset Obligations (other than Contingent Obligations), such Collateral is delivered to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, or the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent shall have been vested with such possession or (unless, pursuant to the UCC or the PPSA, as applicable), control may be given concurrently to the applicable Fixed Asset Collateral Agent and the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent) "control", in each case, subject to the provisions of Section 5.04.

Section 5.05. When Discharge of ABL Obligations and Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations Deemed to Not Have Occurred . If in connection with the Discharge of ABL Obligations or the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations, any Borrower substantially concurrently enters into any Refinancing of any ABL Obligation or Fixed Asset Obligation, as the case may be, which Refinancing is permitted by both the Fixed Asset Documents and the ABL Credit Documents, in each case, to the extent such documents will remain in effect following such Refinancing, then such Discharge of ABL Obligations or the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations, shall automatically be deemed not to have occurred for all purposes of this Agreement (other than with respect to any actions taken pursuant to this Agreement as a result of the occurrence of such Discharge of ABL Obligations or Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations, as applicable) and, from and after the date on which the New Debt Notice is delivered to the appropriate Collateral Agents in accordance with the next sentence, the obligations under such Refinancing shall automatically be treated as ABL Obligations or Fixed Asset Obligations for all purposes of this Agreement, including for purposes of the Lien priorities and rights in respect of Collateral set forth herein, and the ABL Collateral Agent or applicable Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, as the case may be, under such new ABL Credit Documents or new Fixed Asset Documents shall be the ABL Collateral Agent or a Fixed Asset Collateral Agent for all purposes of this Agreement. Upon receipt of a notice (the "New Debt Notice") stating that a Borrower has entered into new ABL Credit Documents or new Fixed Asset Documents (which notice shall include a complete copy of the relevant new documents and provide the identity of the new collateral agent, such agent, the "New Agent"), the other Collateral Agents shall promptly (a) enter into such documents and agreements (including amendments or supplements to this Agreement) as such Borrower or such New Agent shall reasonably request in order to provide to the New Agent the rights contemplated hereby, in each case consistent in all material respects with the terms of this Agreement and (b) deliver to any New Agent that is the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent at such time any Pledged Collateral (that is Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, in the case of a New Agent that is the agent under any new Fixed Asset Documents or that is ABL Priority Collateral, in the case of a New Agent that is the agent under any new ABL Credit Documents) held by it together with any necessary endorsements (or otherwise allow the New Agent to obtain control of such Pledged Collateral). The New Agent shall agree in a writing addressed to the other Collateral Agents for the benefit of the ABL Claimholders or the Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, to be bound by the terms of this Agreement. If the new ABL Obligations under the new ABL Credit Documents or the new Fixed Asset Obligations under the new Fixed Asset Documents are secured by assets of the Grantors constituting Collateral that do not also secure the other Obligations, then, unless and to the extent such Collateral is not required to be granted under the applicable Additional Fixed Asset Documents, the other Obligations shall be secured at such time by a second priority Lien on such assets to the same extent provided in the ABL Credit Documents, the Fixed Asset Collateral Documents and this Agreement.

Section 5.06. Additional Fixed Asset Debt. The Parent and the other applicable Grantors will be permitted to designate as an additional holder of Fixed Asset Obligations hereunder each Person who is, or who becomes or who is to become, the registered holder of any Additional Fixed Asset Debt incurred by the Parent or such Grantor after the date of this Agreement in accordance with the terms of all applicable Additional Fixed Asset Documents. Upon the issuance or incurrence of any such Additional Fixed Asset Debt:

(a) The Parent shall deliver to the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the ABL Collateral Agent of an officers' certificate stating that the Parent or such Grantor intends to enter into an Additional Fixed Asset Instrument and certifying that the issuance or incurrence of Additional Fixed Asset Debt under such Additional Fixed Asset Instrument is permitted by the ABL Credit Documents and each applicable Additional Fixed Asset Documents;

(b) the administrative agent or trustee and collateral agent for such Additional Fixed Asset Debt shall execute and deliver to the Collateral Agents a Joinder Agreement pursuant to which it becomes a Fixed Asset Collateral Agent hereunder, the Additional Fixed Asset Debt in respect of which such Person is a Fixed Asset Collateral Agent constitutes Fixed Asset Obligations and the related Additional Fixed Asset Claimholders become subject hereto and bound hereby as Fixed Asset Claimholders;

(c) the Fixed Asset Collateral Documents in respect of such Additional Fixed Asset Debt shall be subject to, and shall comply with, Sections 2.03 and 2.04 of this Agreement; and

(d) each existing Collateral Agent shall promptly enter into such documents and agreements (including amendments or supplements to this Intercreditor Agreement) as the Parent or the Additional Fixed Asset Collateral Agent for such Additional Fixed Asset Debt may reasonably request in order to provide to them the rights, remedies and powers and authorities contemplated hereby, in each consistent in all respects with the terms of this Intercreditor Agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement will be construed to allow the Parent or any other Grantor to incur additional indebtedness unless otherwise permitted by the terms of each applicable Credit Document.

INSOLVENCY OR LIQUIDATION PROCEEDINGS.

Section 6.01. Finance Issues. Until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred, if any Grantor shall be subject to any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding and the ABL Collateral Agent shall desire to permit the use of "Cash Collateral" (as such term is defined in Section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code) constituting ABL Priority Collateral on which the ABL Collateral Agent or any other creditor has a Lien or to permit any Grantor to obtain financing, whether from the ABL Claimholders or any other Person (whether or not secured by any ABL Priority Collateral) under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar Bankruptcy Law ("DIP Financing") then each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees that it will raise no objection to such Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing so long as such Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing meet the following requirements: (i) the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders retain the right to object to any ancillary agreements or arrangements regarding the Cash Collateral use or the DIP Financing that are materially prejudicial to their interests in the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, and (ii) the terms of the DIP Financing (A) do not compel the applicable Grantor to seek confirmation of a specific plan of reorganization for which all or substantially all of the material terms are set forth in the DIP Financing documentation or a related document, (B) do not expressly require the liquidation of the Collateral prior to a default under the DIP Financing documentation or Cash Collateral order, and (C) do not require that any Lien of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents on the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral be subordinated to or pari passu with the Lien on the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral securing such DIP Financing. To the extent the Liens securing the ABL Obligations are subordinated to or pari passu with such DIP Financing which meets the requirements of clauses (i) through (ii) above, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent will subordinate its Liens in the ABL Priority Collateral to the Liens securing such DIP Financing (and all Obligations relating thereto) and will not request adequate protection or any other relief in connection therewith (except, as expressly agreed by the ABL Collateral Agent or to the extent permitted by Section 6.03).

Section 6.02. Relief from the Automatic Stay. (a) Until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees that none of them shall seek (or support any other Person seeking) relief from the automatic stay or any other stay in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding in respect of the ABL Priority Collateral, without the prior written consent of the ABL Collateral Agent, unless a motion for adequate protection permitted under Section 6.03 has been denied by the bankruptcy court.

(b) Until the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, agrees that none of them shall seek (or support any other Person seeking) relief from the automatic stay or any other stay in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding in respect of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral (other than to the extent such relief is required to exercise its rights under Section 3.03), without the prior written consent of the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, unless a motion for adequate protection permitted under Section 6.03 has been denied by the bankruptcy court.

Section 6.03. Adequate Protection. (a) Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees that none of them shall contest (or support any other Person contesting):

(i) any request by the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders for adequate protection with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral; provided that (A) such adequate protection claim shall not seek the creation of any Lien over additional assets or property of any Grantor other than with respect to assets or property that constitute ABL Priority Collateral and (B) if such additional assets or property shall also constitute Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, (1) a Lien shall have been created in favor of the Fixed Asset Claimholders in respect of such Collateral and (2) the Lien in favor of the ABL Claimholders shall be subordinated to the extent set forth in this Agreement; or

(ii) any objection by the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders to any motion, relief, action or proceeding based on the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders claiming a lack of adequate protection; provided that if the ABL Collateral Agent is granted adequate protection in the form of additional collateral, the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders may seek or request adequate protection in the form of Lien on such additional collateral; it being understood and agreed that (A) if such additional collateral shall also constitute Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the ABL Collateral Agent shall be subordinate to the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and (B) if such additional collateral shall also constitute ABL Priority Collateral, the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the ABL Collateral Agent shall be senior to the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents, in each case with respect to the foregoing clauses (A) and (B), to the extent required by this Agreement.

(b) The ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, agrees that none of them shall contest (or support any other Person contesting):

(i) any request by the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent for adequate protection with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral; provided that (A) such adequate protection claim shall not seek the creation of any Lien over additional assets or property of any Grantor other than with respect to assets or property that constitute Fixed Asset Collateral and (B) if such additional assets or property shall also constitute ABL Priority Collateral, (1) a Lien shall have been created in favor of the ABL Claimholders in respect of such Collateral and (2) the Lien in favor of the Fixed Asset Claimholders shall be subordinated to the extent set forth in this Agreement; or

(ii) any objection by the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent to any motion, relief, action or proceeding based on the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent claiming a lack of adequate protection; provided that if the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents are granted adequate protection in the form of additional collateral, the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders may seek or request adequate protection in the form of Lien on such additional collateral; it being understood and agreed that (A) if such additional collateral shall also constitute ABL Priority Collateral, the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall be subordinate to the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the ABL Collateral Agent and (B) if such additional collateral shall also constitute Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall be senior to the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the ABL Collateral Agent, in each case with respect to the foregoing clauses (A) and (B), to the extent required by this Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions in this Section 6.03, in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding:

(i) if the ABL Claimholders (or any subset thereof) are granted adequate protection with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral in the form of additional collateral of the Credit Parties (even if such collateral is not of a type which would otherwise have constituted ABL Priority Collateral) in connection with any Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing, then the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself or any of the Fixed Asset Claimholders, may seek or request adequate protection with respect to its interests in such Collateral in the form of a Lien on the same additional collateral, which Lien will be subordinated to the Liens securing the ABL Obligations and such Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing (and all Obligations relating thereto) on the same basis as the other Liens of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents on ABL Priority Collateral;

(ii) if the Fixed Asset Claimholders (or any subset thereof) are granted adequate protection with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral in the form of additional collateral of the Credit Parties (even if such collateral is not of a type which would otherwise have constituted Fixed Asset Priority Collateral) in connection with any Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing, then the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself or any of the ABL Claimholders, may seek or request adequate protection with respect to its interests in such Collateral in the form of a Lien on the same additional collateral, which Lien will be subordinated to the Liens securing the Fixed Asset Obligations and such Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing (and all Obligations relating thereto) on the same basis as the other Liens of the ABL Collateral Agent on Fixed Asset Priority Collateral;

(iii) in the event the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself or any of the ABL

Claimholders, seeks or requests adequate protection in respect of ABL Priority Collateral and such adequate protection is granted in the form of additional collateral of the Credit Parties (even if such collateral is not of a type which would otherwise have constituted ABL Priority Collateral), then the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and any of the ABL Claimholders, agrees that the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents may also be granted a Lien on the same additional collateral as security for the Fixed Asset Obligations and for any Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing provided by the Fixed Asset Claimholders, and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and any of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees that any Lien on such additional collateral securing the Fixed Asset Obligations shall be subordinated to the Liens on such collateral securing the ABL Obligations, any such use of Cash Collateral or any such DIP Financing provided by the Fixed Asset Claimholders (and all Obligations relating thereto) and to any other Liens granted to the Fixed Asset Claimholders as adequate protection, all on the same basis as the other Liens of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents on ABL Priority Collateral; and

(iv) in the event any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself or any of the Fixed Asset Claimholders, seeks or requests adequate protection in respect of Fixed Asset Priority Collateral and such adequate protection is granted in the form of additional collateral of the Credit Parties (even if such collateral is not of a type which would otherwise have constituted Fixed Asset Priority Collateral), then each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and any of the Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees that the ABL Collateral Agent may also be granted a Lien on the same additional collateral as security for the ABL Obligations and for any Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing provided by the ABL Claimholders, and the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and any of the ABL Claimholders, agrees that any Lien on such additional collateral securing the ABL Obligations shall be subordinated to the Liens on such collateral securing the Fixed Asset Obligations, any such use of cash Collateral or any such DIP Financing provided by the ABL Claimholders (and all Obligations relating thereto) and to any other Liens granted to the ABL Claimholders as adequate protection, all on the same basis as the other Liens of the ABL Collateral Agent on Fixed Asset Priority Collateral.

(d) Except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Article 6 or in connection with the exercise of remedies with respect to (i) the ABL Priority Collateral, nothing herein shall limit the rights of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents or the Fixed Asset Claimholders from seeking adequate protection with respect to their rights in the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding (including adequate protection in the form of a cash payment, periodic cash payments or otherwise) or (ii) the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, nothing herein shall limit the rights of the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders from seeking adequate protection with respect to their rights in the ABL Priority Collateral in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding (including adequate protection in the form of a cash payment, periodic cash payments or otherwise).

Section 6.04. Avoidance Issues. If any ABL Claimholder or Fixed Asset Claimholder is required in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise to turn over or otherwise pay to the estate of the applicable Grantor any amount paid in respect of ABL Obligations or the Fixed Asset Obligations, as the case may be (a "Recovery"), then such ABL Claimholders or Fixed Asset Claimholders shall be entitled to a reinstatement of ABL Obligations or the Fixed Asset Obligations, as the case may be, with respect to all such recovered amounts. If this Agreement shall have been terminated prior to such Recovery, this Agreement shall be reinstated in full force and effect, and such prior termination shall not diminish, release, discharge, impair or otherwise affect the obligations of the parties hereto from such date of reinstatement.

Section 6.05. Post-Petition Interest. (a) No Fixed Asset Collateral Agent nor any Fixed Asset Claimholder shall oppose or seek to challenge any claim by the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholder for allowance in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding of ABL Obligations consisting of Post-Petition Interest, fees or expenses to the extent of the value of the Lien securing any ABL Claimholder's claim, without regard to the existence of the Lien of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agent on behalf of the Fixed Asset Claimholders on the Collateral.

(b) Neither the ABL Collateral Agent nor any other ABL Claimholder shall oppose or seek to challenge any claim by any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholder for allowance in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding of Fixed Asset Obligations consisting of Post-Petition Interest, fees or expenses to the extent of the value of the Lien securing any Fixed Asset Claimholder's claim, without regard to the existence of the Lien of the ABL Collateral Agent on behalf of the ABL Claimholders on the Collateral.

Section 6.06. Waiver – 1111(b)(2) Issues. (a) Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, waives any claim it may hereafter have against any ABL Claimholder arising out of the election of any ABL Claimholder of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code or out of any grant of a security interest in connection with the ABL Priority Collateral in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding.

(b) The ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, waives any claim it may hereafter have against any Fixed Asset Claimholder arising out of the election of any Fixed Asset Claimholder of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code or out of any grant of a security interest in connection with the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding.

Section 6.07. Separate Grants of Security and Separate Classification. (a) Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, and the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, acknowledges and agrees that the grants of Liens pursuant to the ABL Collateral Documents and the Fixed Asset Collateral Documents constitute separate and distinct grants of Liens, and because of, among other things, their differing rights in the Collateral, the Fixed Asset Obligations are fundamentally different from the ABL Obligations and must be separately classified in any plan of reorganization proposed or adopted in an Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, each for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, and the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, each agrees that the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the ABL Claimholders will vote as separate classes in connection with any plan of reorganization in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding and that no Collateral Agent nor any Claimholder will seek to vote with the other as a single class in connection with any plan of reorganization in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding.

(b) To further effectuate the intent of the parties as provided in this Section 6.07, if it is held that the claims of the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the ABL Claimholders in respect of the Fixed Asset Collateral constitute only one secured claim (rather than separate classes of senior and junior secured claims), then each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders and the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, hereby acknowledges and agrees that, subject to 2.01 and 4.01, all distributions shall be made as if there were separate classes of senior and junior secured claims against the Grantors in respect of the Fixed Asset Collateral (with the effect being that, to the extent that the aggregate value of the Fixed Asset Collateral is sufficient (for this purpose ignoring all claims held by the ABL Claimholders), the Fixed Asset Claimholders shall be entitled to receive, in addition to amounts distributed to them in respect of principal, pre-petition interest and other claims, all amounts owing in respect of Post-Petition Interest, including any additional interest payable pursuant to the Fixed Asset Documents, arising from or related to a default, which is disallowed as a claim in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding) before any distribution is made in respect of the claims held by the ABL Claimholders, with the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, hereby acknowledging and agreeing to turn over to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the Non-Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, amounts otherwise received or receivable by them to the extent necessary to effectuate the intent of this sentence, even if such turnover has the effect of reducing the claim or recovery of the ABL Claimholders).

(c) To further effectuate the intent of the parties as provided in this Section 6.07, if it is held that the claims of the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the ABL Claimholders in respect of the ABL Collateral constitute only one secured claim (rather than separate classes of senior and junior secured claims), then each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders and the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, hereby acknowledges and agrees that, subject to Sections 2.01 and 4.01, all distributions shall be made as if there were separate classes of senior and junior secured claims against the Grantors in respect of the ABL Collateral (with the effect being that, to the extent that the aggregate value of the ABL Collateral is sufficient (for this purpose ignoring all claims held by the Fixed Asset Claimholders), the ABL Claimholders shall be entitled to receive, in addition to amounts distributed to them in respect of principal, pre-petition interest and other claims, all amounts owing in respect of Post-Petition Interest, including any additional interest payable pursuant to the ABL Credit Agreement, arising from or related to a default, which is disallowed as a claim in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding) before any distribution is made in respect of the claims held by the Fixed Asset Claimholders, with each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, hereby acknowledging and agreeing to turn over to the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, amounts otherwise received or receivable by them to the extent necessary to effectuate the intent of this sentence, even if such turnover has the effect of reducing the claim or recovery of the Fixed Asset Claimholders).

(d) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing to the contrary, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, on the one hand, and the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders, on the other hand, shall retain the right to vote and otherwise act in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding (including the right to vote to accept or reject any plan of reorganization) to the extent not inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Section 6.08. Enforceability and Continuing Priority. This Agreement shall be applicable both before and after the commencement of any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding and all converted or succeeding cases in respect thereof. The relative rights of Claimholders in or to any distributions from or in respect of any Collateral or Proceeds of Collateral shall continue after the commencement of any Insolvency Proceeding. Accordingly, the provisions of this Agreement (including, without limitation, Section 2.01 hereof) are intended to be and shall be enforceable as a subordination agreement within the meaning of Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Section 6.09. Sales. Subject to Sections 3.01(c)(v) and 3.02(c)(v) and 3.03, each Collateral Agent agrees that it will consent, and will not object or oppose, or support any party in opposing, a motion to dispose of any Priority Collateral of the other party free and clear of any Liens or other claims under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code if the requisite ABL Claimholders under the ABL Credit Agreement or Fixed Asset Claimholders under the applicable Fixed Asset Documents, as the case may be, have consented to such disposition of their respective Priority Collateral, such motion does not impair, subject to the priorities set forth in this Agreement, the rights of such party under Section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code (so long as the right of any Fixed Asset Claimholder to offset its claim against the purchase price for any ABL Priority Collateral exists only after the ABL Obligations have been paid in full in cash, and so long as the right of any ABL Claimholder to offset its claim against the purchase price for any Fixed Asset Priority Collateral exists only after the Fixed Asset Obligations have been paid in full in cash), and the terms of any proposed order approving such transaction provide for the respective Liens to attach to the proceeds of the Priority Collateral that is the subject of such disposition, subject to the Lien priorities in Section 2.01 and the other terms and conditions of this Agreement. Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent and the ABL Collateral Agent further agrees that it will not oppose, or support any party in opposing, the right of the other party to credit bid under Section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to the provision of the immediately preceding sentence.

RELIANCE; WAIVERS, ETC.

Section 7.01. Reliance. Other than any reliance on the terms of this Agreement, the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders under its ABL Credit Documents, acknowledges that it and such ABL Claimholders have, independently and without reliance on any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholders, and based on documents and information deemed by them appropriate, made their own credit analysis and decision to enter into such ABL Credit Documents and be bound by the terms of this Agreement and they will continue to make their own credit decision in taking or not taking any action under the ABL Credit Agreement or this Agreement. Other than any reliance on the terms of this Agreement, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, acknowledges that it and the Fixed Asset Claimholders have, independently and without reliance on the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholder, and based on documents and information deemed by them appropriate, made their own credit analysis and decision to enter into each of the Fixed Asset Documents and be bound by the terms of this Agreement and they will continue to make their own credit decision in taking or not taking any action under the Fixed Asset Documents or this Agreement.

Section 7.02. No Warranties or Liability. The ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders under the ABL Credit Documents, acknowledges and agrees that no Fixed Asset Collateral Agent nor any Fixed Asset Claimholder has made any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the execution, validity, legality, completeness, collectibility or enforceability of any of the Fixed Asset Documents, the ownership of any Collateral or the perfection or priority of any Liens thereon. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders will be entitled to manage and supervise their respective loans and extensions of credit under the Fixed Asset Documents in accordance with law and the Fixed Asset Documents, as they may, in their sole discretion, deem appropriate. Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, acknowledges and agrees that neither the ABL Collateral Agent nor any ABL Claimholder has made any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the execution, validity, legality, completeness, collectibility or enforceability of any of the ABL Credit Documents, the ownership of any Collateral or the perfection or priority of any Liens thereon. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders will be entitled to manage and supervise their respective loans and extensions of credit under their respective ABL Credit Documents in accordance with law and the ABL Credit Documents, as they may, in their sole discretion, deem appropriate. No Fixed Asset Collateral Agent nor any Fixed Asset Claimholders shall have any duty to the ABL Collateral Agent or any of the ABL Claimholders, and the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders shall have no duty to any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any of the Fixed Asset Claimholders, to act or refrain from acting in a manner which allows, or results in, the occurrence or continuance of an event of default or default under any agreements with any Grantor (including the ABL Credit Documents and the Fixed Asset Documents), regardless of any knowledge thereof which they may have or be charged with.

Section 7.03. No Waiver of Lien Priorities . (a) No right of the Collateral Agents, the ABL Claimholders or the Fixed Asset Claimholders to enforce any provision of this Agreement or any ABL Credit Document or Fixed Asset Document shall at any time in any way be prejudiced or impaired by any act or failure to act on the part of any Grantor or by any act or failure to act by such Collateral Agents, ABL Claimholders or Fixed Asset Claimholders or by any noncompliance by any Person with the terms, provisions and covenants of this Agreement, any of the ABL Credit Documents or any of the Fixed Asset Documents, regardless of any knowledge thereof which the Collateral Agents or the ABL Claimholders or Fixed Asset Claimholders, or any of them, may have or be otherwise charged with.

(b) Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing paragraph (but subject to the rights of the Grantors under the ABL Credit Documents and Fixed Asset Documents and subject to the provisions of Sections 2.03, 2.04 and 5.03), the Collateral Agents, the ABL Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Claimholders may, at any time and from time to time in accordance with the ABL Credit Documents and Fixed Asset Documents and/or applicable law, without the consent of, or notice to, the other Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders or the Fixed Asset Claimholders (as the case may be), without incurring any liabilities to such Persons and without impairing or releasing the Lien priorities and other benefits provided in this Agreement (even if any right of subrogation or other right or remedy is affected, impaired or extinguished thereby) do any one or more of the following:

(i) change the manner, place or terms of payment or change or extend the time of payment of, or amend, renew, exchange, increase or alter, the terms of any of the Obligations or any Lien or guaranty thereof or any liability of any Grantor, or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof (including any increase in or extension of the Obligations, without any restriction as to the tenor or terms of any such increase or extension) or otherwise amend, renew, exchange, extend, modify or supplement in any manner any Liens held by the Collateral Agents or any rights or remedies under any of the ABL Credit Documents or the Fixed Asset Documents;

(ii) sell, exchange, release, surrender, realize upon, enforce or otherwise deal with in any manner and in any order any part of the Collateral (except to the extent provided in this Agreement) or any liability of any Grantor or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof;

(iii) settle or compromise any Obligation or any other liability of any Grantor or any security therefor or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof and apply any sums by whomsoever paid and however realized to any liability in any manner or order that is not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement; and

(iv) exercise or delay in or refrain from exercising any right or remedy against any security or any Grantor or any other Person, elect any remedy and otherwise deal freely with any Grantor.

(c) Except as otherwise provided herein, the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, also agrees that the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall have no liability to the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholders, and the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, hereby waives any claim against any Fixed Asset Claimholder or any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, arising out of any and all actions which the Fixed Asset Claimholders or any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent may take or permit or omit to take with respect to:

(i) the Fixed Asset Documents;

(ii) the collection of the Fixed Asset Obligations; or

(iii) the foreclosure upon, or sale, liquidation or other disposition of, any Fixed Asset Collateral.

The ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, agrees that the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents have no duty to them in respect of the maintenance or preservation of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, the Fixed Asset Obligations or otherwise.

(d) Except as otherwise provided herein, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, also agrees that the ABL Claimholders and the ABL Collateral Agent shall have no liability to the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents or any Fixed Asset Claimholders, and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, hereby waives any claim against any ABL Claimholder or the ABL Collateral Agent, arising out of any and all actions which the ABL Claimholders or the ABL Collateral Agent may take or permit or omit to take with respect to:

(i) the ABL Credit Documents;

(ii) the collection of the ABL Obligations; or

(iii) the foreclosure upon, or sale, liquidation or other disposition of, any ABL Collateral.

Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees that the ABL Claimholders and the ABL Collateral Agent have no duty to them in respect of the maintenance or preservation of the ABL Priority Collateral, the ABL Obligations or otherwise.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Section 8.01. Conflicts. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of any ABL Credit Document or any Fixed Asset Document, the provisions of this Agreement shall govern and control.

Section 8.02. Effectiveness; Continuing Nature of this Agreement; Severability . This Agreement shall become effective when executed and delivered by the parties hereto. This is a continuing agreement of lien subordination and the ABL Claimholders and Fixed Asset Claimholders may continue, at any time and without notice to any Collateral Agent, to extend credit and other financial accommodations and lend monies to or for the benefit of any Grantor in reliance hereon. Each of the Collateral Agents, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders or the Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, hereby waives any right it may have under applicable law to revoke this Agreement or any of the provisions of this Agreement. The terms of this Agreement shall survive, and shall continue in full force and effect, in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding. Consistent with, but not in limitation of, the preceding sentence, each Collateral Agent, on behalf of the applicable Claimholders, irrevocably acknowledges that this Agreement constitutes a "subordination agreement" within the meaning of both New York law and Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction. All references to any Grantor shall include such Grantor as debtor and debtor-in-possession and any receiver or trustee for any Grantor (as the case may be) in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding. This Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force and effect:

(a) with respect to the ABL Collateral Agent, the ABL Claimholders and the ABL Obligations has occurred, on the date the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occured, subject to the rights of the ABL Claimholders under Section 6.04; and

(b) with respect to the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents, the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Obligations, on the date the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, subject to the rights of the Fixed Asset Claimholders under Section 6.04.

Section 8.03. Amendments; Waivers. No amendment, modification or waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement by any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or the ABL Collateral Agent shall be deemed to be made unless the same shall be in writing signed on behalf of each party hereto or its authorized agent and each waiver, if any, shall be a waiver only with respect to the specific instance involved and shall in no way impair the rights of the parties making such waiver or the obligations of the other parties to such party in any other respect or at any other time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Grantor shall have any right to consent to or approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement except to the extent that such amendment, modification or waiver (i) adversely affects or impairs its rights hereunder, under the Fixed Asset Documents or under the ABL Credit Documents or (ii) imposes any additional obligation or liability upon it.

Section 8.04. Information Concerning Financial Condition of the Grantors and their Subsidiaries . The ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders, on the one hand, and the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, on the other hand, shall each be responsible for keeping themselves informed of (a) the financial condition of the Grantors and their Subsidiaries and all endorsers and/or guarantors of the ABL Obligations or the Fixed Asset Obligations and (b) all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the ABL Obligations or the Fixed Asset Obligations. Neither the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders, on the one hand, nor the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, on the other hand, shall have any duty to advise the other of information known to it or them regarding such condition or any such circumstances or otherwise. In the event that either the ABL Collateral Agent or any of the ABL Claimholders, on the one hand, or any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, on the other hand, undertakes at any time or from time to time to provide any such information to any of the others, it or they shall be under no obligation:

(c) to make, and shall not make, any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the accuracy, completeness, truthfulness or validity of any such information so provided;

(d) to provide any additional information or to provide any such information on any subsequent occasion;

(e) to undertake any investigation; or

(f) to disclose any information, which pursuant to accepted or reasonable commercial finance practices, such party wishes to maintain confidential or is otherwise required to maintain confidential.

Section 8.05. Subrogation. (a) With respect to the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets that any of the Fixed Asset Claimholders or any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent pays over to the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders under the terms of this Agreement, the Fixed Asset Claimholders and Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall be subrogated to the rights of the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders; provided, however, that, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, hereby agrees not to assert or enforce all such rights of subrogation it may acquire as a result of any payment hereunder until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred. The Grantors acknowledge and agree that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets received by any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or the Fixed Asset Claimholders that are paid over to the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders pursuant to this Agreement shall not reduce any of the Fixed Asset Obligations.

(b) With respect to the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets that any of the ABL Claimholders or the ABL Collateral Agent pays over to any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or the Fixed Asset Claimholders under the terms of this Agreement, the ABL Claimholders and the ABL Collateral Agent shall be subrogated to the rights of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders; provided, however, that, the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, hereby agrees not to assert or enforce all such rights of subrogation it may acquire as a result of any payment hereunder until the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred. The Grantors acknowledge and agree that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets received by the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders that are paid over to the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents or the Fixed Asset Claimholders pursuant to this Agreement shall not reduce any of the ABL Obligations.

NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY HERETO TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR TO COMMENCE LEGAL PROCEEDINGS OR OTHERWISE PROCEED AGAINST ANY OTHER SUCH PARTY IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

(b) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION WHICH IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY OF THE AFORESAID ACTIONS OR PROCEEDINGS ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT BROUGHT IN THE COURTS REFERRED TO IN CLAUSE (A) ABOVE AND HEREBY FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVES AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM IN ANY SUCH COURT THAT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURT HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM.

(c) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY). EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PERSON HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PERSON WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS PARAGRAPH.

The ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders under the ABL Credit Documents, and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders under the Fixed Asset Documents, and the Grantors, agree that each of them shall take such further action and shall execute and deliver such additional documents and instruments (in recordable form, if requested) as the Parent, ABL Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent may reasonably request to effectuate the terms of and the Lien priorities contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 8.09. Binding on Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon the ABL Collateral Agent, the ABL Claimholders, the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents, the Fixed Asset Claimholders and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 8.10. Specific Performance. Each of the ABL Collateral Agent and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent may demand specific performance of this Agreement. The ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, hereby irrevocably waive any defense based on the adequacy of a remedy at law and any other defense which might be asserted to bar the remedy of specific performance in any action which may be brought by the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders or any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or the Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be.

Section 8.11. Headings. Section headings in this Agreement are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of this Agreement for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

Section 8.12. Counterparts. Section 8.13. Authorization. By its signature, each Person executing this Agreement on behalf of a party hereto represents and warrants to the other parties hereto that it is duly authorized to execute this Agreement.

Section 8.14. No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement and the rights and benefits hereof shall inure to the benefit of each of the parties hereto and its respective successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of each of the Collateral Agents, the ABL Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Claimholders. Nothing in this Agreement shall impair, as between the Grantors and the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders, or as between the Grantors and the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, the obligations of the Grantors to pay principal, interest, fees and other amounts as provided in the ABL Credit Documents and the Fixed Asset Documents, respectively.

Section 8.15. Provisions to Define Relative Rights . The provisions of this Agreement are and are intended for the purpose of defining the relative rights of the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders on the one hand and the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders on the other hand. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to or shall impair the obligations of any Grantor, which are absolute and unconditional, to pay the ABL Obligations and the Fixed Asset Obligations as and when the same shall become due and payable in accordance with their terms.

Section 8.16. Further Intercreditors. In the event that any Grantor incurs any obligations secured by a Lien on any Collateral that is junior to the Fixed Asset Obligations and the ABL Obligations, then the ABL Collateral Agent, the Initial Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent and each Additional Fixed Asset Collateral Agent shall enter into an intercreditor agreement with the agent or trustee for the secured parties with respect to such secured obligation to reflect the relative lien priorities of such parties with respect to the Collateral and governing the relative rights, benefits and privileges as among such parties in respect of the Collateral, including as to application of proceeds of the Collateral, voting rights, control of the Collateral and waivers with respect to the Collateral, in each case so long as (a) such secured obligations are permitted under, and the terms of such intercreditor agreement do not violate or conflict with, the provisions of this Agreement (including regarding the designation and authority of the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent), the ABL Credit Documents or the Fixed Asset Documents and (b) the form and substance of such intercreditor agreement is otherwise reasonably acceptable to the ABL Collateral Agent, the Initial Fixed Assets Collateral Agents, the Controlling Fixed Assets Collateral Agents, as applicable.

Each party hereto agrees that the ABL Claimholders (as among themselves) and the Fixed Asset Claimholders (as among themselves) may each enter into intercreditor agreements (or similar arrangements) governing the rights, benefits and privileges as among the ABL Claimholders or the Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, in respect of the Collateral, this Agreement, the ABL Credit Documents or the applicable Fixed Asset Documents, as the case may be, including as to the application of proceeds of the Collateral, voting rights, control of the Collateral and waivers with respect to the Collateral, in each case so long as the terms thereof do not violate or conflict with the provisions of this Agreement, the other ABL Credit Documents and Fixed Asset Documents, as the case may be.
