commencement of the period for which the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio is being calculated and on or prior to the date on which the event for which the calculation of the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio is made (the "Calculation Date"), then the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio will be calculated on a Pro Forma Basis as if such incurrence, assumption, guarantee, repayment, repurchase, redemption, defeasance or other discharge of Indebtedness, and the use of the proceeds therefrom, had occurred at the beginning of the Test Period.

For purposes of this definition, if any Indebtedness bears a floating rate of interest and is being calculated on a Pro Forma Basis, the interest on such Indebtedness will be calculated as if the rate in effect on the Calculation Date had been the applicable rate for the entire period (taking into account any hedging obligations applicable to such Indebtedness if such hedging obligations have a remaining term in excess of 12 months as of the Calculation Date). For purposes of this definition, interest on a Capitalized Lease Obligation will be deemed to accrue at an interest rate reasonably determined by a Responsible Officer of the Parent to be the rate of interest implicit in such Capitalized Lease Obligation in accordance with IFRS. For purposes of making the computation referred to above, interest on any Indebtedness under a revolving credit facility computed on a pro forma basis will be computed based upon the average daily balance of such Indebtedness during the applicable period. Interest on Indebtedness that may optionally be determined at an interest rate based upon a factor of a prime or similar rate, a eurocurrency interbank offered rate, or other rate, will be deemed to have been based upon the rate actually chosen, or, if none, then based upon such optional rate chosen as the Parent may designate.

ARTICLE 2
AMOUNT AND TERMS OF CREDIT

Section 2.01. Commitments. Subject to and upon the terms and conditions and relying upon the representations and warranties herein set forth, each Lender agrees, severally and not jointly, to make U.S. Dollar Denominated Loans to the U.S. Borrowers and U.S. Dollar Denominated Loans and Canadian Dollar Denominated Loans to the Canadian Borrowers, at any time and from time to time on and after the Closing Date until the earlier of one Business Day prior to the Maturity Date and the termination of the Commitment of such Lender in accordance with the terms hereof, in an aggregate principal amount at any time outstanding that will not result in such Lender's Revolving Exposure exceeding the lesser of (c) such Lender's Revolving Commitment, and (d) such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage multiplied by the Borrowing Base then in effect. Within the limits set forth above and subject to the terms, conditions and limitations set forth herein, the Borrowers may borrow, pay or prepay and reborrow Revolving Loans. All Borrowers shall be jointly and severally liable as borrowers for all Loans regardless of which Borrower receives the proceeds thereof.

Section 2.02. Loans. (a) Each Loan (other than Swingline Loans) shall be made as part of a Borrowing consisting of Loans made by the Lenders ratably in accordance with their applicable Revolving Commitments; provided that the failure of any Lender to make any Loan shall not in itself relieve any other Lender of its obligation to lend hereunder (it being understood, however, that no Lender shall be responsible for the failure of any other Lender to make any Loan required to be made by such other Lender). Except for Loans deemed made pursuant to Section 2.02(f), Loans (other than Swingline Loans) comprising any Borrowing shall be in an aggregate principal amount that is (i) (A) in the case of U.S. Base Rate Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, not less than $500,000 and (B) in the case of LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans, an integral multiple of $100,000, in the case of U.S.

Dollar Denominated Loans, or Cdn.$100,000, in the case of Canadian Dollar Denominated Loans, and not less than $1,000,000, or (ii) equal to the remaining available balance of the applicable Revolving Commitments.

Each Lender may at its option make any LIBO Rate Loan or CDOR Loan by causing any domestic or foreign branch or Affiliate of such Lender to make such Loan; provided that any exercise of such option shall not affect the obligation of the Borrowers to repay such Loan in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or cause the Borrowers to pay additional amounts pursuant to Section 3.01. Borrowings of more than one Type may be outstanding at the same time; provided further that the Borrowers shall not be entitled to request any Borrowing that, if made, would result in more than ten (10) Borrowings of LIBO Rate Loans or ten (10) Borrowings of CDOR Loans outstanding hereunder at any one time. For purposes of the foregoing, Borrowings having different Interest Periods, regardless of whether they commence on the same date, shall be considered separate Borrowings.

(c) Except with respect to Loans made pursuant to Section 2.02(f), each Lender shall make each Loan (other than Swingline Loans) to be made by it hereunder on the proposed date thereof by wire transfer of immediately available funds to such account in New York City as the Administrative Agent may designate not later than 3:00 p.m., New York City time, and the Administrative Agent shall promptly credit the amounts so received to an account as directed by the applicable Lead Borrower in the applicable Notice of Borrowing maintained with the Administrative Agent or, if a Borrowing shall not occur on such date because any condition precedent herein specified shall not have been met or waived, return the amounts so received to the respective Lenders.

(d) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from a Lender prior to the date of any Borrowing that such Lender will not make available to the Administrative Agent such Lender's portion of such Borrowing, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such portion available to the Administrative Agent on the date of such Borrowing in accordance with paragraph (c) above, and the Administrative Agent may, in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the applicable Borrower on such date a corresponding amount. If the Administrative Agent shall have so made funds available then, to the extent that such Lender shall not have made such portion available to the Administrative Agent, such Lender and the Lead Borrowers severally agree to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand such corresponding amount together with interest thereon, for each day from the date such amount is made available to the such Borrower until the date such amount is repaid to the Administrative Agent at (i) in the case of the Lead Borrowers, the interest rate applicable at the time to the Loans comprising such Borrowing and (ii) in the case of such Lender, a rate determined by the Administrative Agent to represent its cost of overnight or short-term funds (which determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error). If such Lender shall repay to the Administrative Agent such corresponding amount, such amount shall constitute such Lender's Loan as part of such Borrowing for purposes of this Agreement.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Lead U.S. Borrower or Lead Canadian Borrower, as applicable, shall not be entitled to request, or to elect to convert or continue, any Borrowing if the Interest Period requested with respect thereto would end after the Maturity Date.

(f) If the Issuing Bank shall not have received from the applicable Lead Borrower the payment required to be made by Section 2.13(e) within the time specified in such Section, the Issuing Bank will promptly notify the Administrative Agent of the LC Disbursement and the Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Revolving Lender of such LC Disbursement and its Pro Rata Percentage thereof. Each Revolving Lender shall pay by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the Administrative Agent on such date (or, if such Revolving Lender shall have received such notice later than 12:00 (noon), New York City time, on any day, not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on the immediately following Business Day), an in U.S. Dollars or Canadian Dollars, as applicable, dependent on the denomination of the applicable Letter of Credit, amount equal to such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of such LC Disbursement (it being understood that such amount shall be deemed to constitute a U.S. Base Rate Loan or Canadian Prime Rate Loan, as applicable, of such Lender, and such payment shall be deemed to have reduced the LC Exposure), and the Administrative Agent will promptly pay to the Issuing Bank amounts so received by it from the Revolving Lenders. The Administrative Agent will promptly pay to the Issuing Bank any amounts received by it from the Lead Borrowers pursuant to Section 2.13(e) prior to the time that any Revolving Lender makes any payment pursuant to this paragraph (f); any such amounts received by the Administrative Agent thereafter will be promptly remitted by the Administrative Agent to the Revolving Lenders that shall have made such payments and to the Issuing Bank, as their interests may appear. If any Revolving Lender shall not have made its Pro Rata Percentage of such LC Disbursement available to the Administrative Agent as provided above, such Lender and the applicable Lead Borrower severally agree to pay interest on such amount, for each day from and including the date such amount is required to be paid in accordance with this paragraph (f) to but excluding the date such amount is paid, to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Issuing Bank at (i) in the case of a Lead Borrower, a rate per annum equal to the interest rate applicable to Revolving Loans pursuant to Section 2.06(a), and (ii) in the case of such Lender, for the first such day, the Federal Funds Rate or another rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation, and for each day thereafter, the U.S. Base Rate or another rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation, in each case, as applicable.

Promptly following receipt of a Borrowing Request in accordance with this Section 2.03, the Administrative Agent shall advise each Lender of the details thereof and of the amount of such Lender's Loan to be made as part of the requested Borrowing.

(d) The entries made in the accounts maintained pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) above shall be conclusive evidence of the existence and amounts of the obligations therein recorded absent manifest error; provided that the failure of any Lender or the Administrative Agent to maintain such accounts or any error therein shall not in any manner affect the obligations of the Borrowers to repay the Loans in accordance with their terms.

(e) Any Lender may request that Loans made by it be evidenced by a promissory note. In such event, the applicable Borrower shall promptly prepare, execute and deliver to such Lender a promissory note payable to such Lender (or, if requested by such Lender, to such Lender and its registered assigns) substantially in the form of Exhibit B-1, Exhibit B-2 or Exhibit B-3, as applicable.

Section 2.05. Fees.

(a) Commitment Fee. The Borrowers shall, jointly and severally, pay to the Administrative Agent, for the Pro Rata benefit of the Lenders (other than any Defaulting Lender), a fee equal to the Commitment Fee Percentage multiplied by the amount by which the Revolving Commitments (other than Revolving Commitments of a Defaulting Lender) exceed the Dollar Equivalent of the average daily balance of outstanding Revolving Loans (other than Swingline Loans) and stated amount of outstanding Letters of Credit during any fiscal quarter (such fee, the "Commitment Fee"). Such fee shall accrue commencing on the Closing Date, and will be payable in arrears on the first calendar day of each fiscal quarter, commencing on the first such calendar date to occur after the Closing Date. Any Commitment Fee owing at any time that the Commitments are termination shall be immediately due and payable.

LC Participation Fees and Fronting Fees will be payable in arrears on the first calendar day of each fiscal quarter, commencing on the first such calendar date to occur after the Closing Date; provided that all such fees shall be payable on the date on which the Revolving Commitments terminate and any such fees accruing after the date on which the Revolving Commitments terminate shall be payable on demand (including documentation reasonably supporting such request). Any other fees payable to the Issuing Bank pursuant to this paragraph shall be payable upon receipt of a written demand (together with backup documentation supporting such reimbursement request). All LC Participation Fees and Fronting Fees shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days and shall be payable for the actual number of days elapsed (from the first day through the last day of the outstanding Letters of Credit balance).

(d) All fees shall be paid on the dates due, in immediately available funds, to the Administrative Agent for distribution, if and as appropriate, among the Lenders (other than Defaulting Lenders), except that the Fronting Fees shall be paid directly to the Issuing Bank. Once paid, none of the fees shall be refundable under any circumstances.

Section 2.06. Interest on Loans. (a) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.06(c), the Loans comprising each Borrowing of U.S. Base Rate Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, including each Swingline Loan, shall bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the U.S. Base Rate or Canadian Prime Rate (as applicable) plus the Applicable Margin in effect from time to time.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.06(c), the Loans comprising each Borrowing of LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans shall bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the LIBO Rate or the CDOR Rate (as applicable) for the Interest Period in effect for such Borrowing plus the Applicable Margin in effect from time to time.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any principal of or interest on any Loan or any fees or other amount payable by the Borrowers hereunder is not paid when due, whether at stated maturity, upon acceleration or otherwise, such overdue amount shall bear interest, after as well as before judgment, at a rate per annum equal to (i) in the case of overdue principal of, or interest on, any Loan, 2% plus the rate otherwise applicable to such Loan or (ii) in the case of any other amount, 2% plus the rate applicable to U.S. Base Rate Loans or Canadian Prime Rate (in each case, the "Default Rate").

(d) Accrued interest on each Loan shall be payable in arrears on each Adjustment Date, commencing with June 1, 2014, for such Loan and, in the case of Revolving Loans, upon termination of the Revolving Commitments; provided that (i) interest accrued pursuant to paragraph (c) of this Section 2.06 shall be payable on demand and, absent demand, on each Adjustment Date and upon termination of the Revolving Commitments, (ii) in the event of any repayment or prepayment of any Loan (other than a prepayment of a U.S. Base Rate Loan or Canadian Prime Rate Loan prior to the end of the Revolving Availability Period), accrued interest on the principal amount repaid or prepaid shall be payable on the date of such repayment or prepayment and (iii) in the event of any conversion of any LIBO Rate Loan or CDOR Loan prior to the end of the current Interest Period therefor, accrued interest on such Loan shall be payable on the effective date of such conversion.

For the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest to which any rate calculated on the basis of a period of time different from the actual number of days in the year (three hundred sixty (360) days, for example) is equivalent to the stated rate multiplied by the actual number of days in the year (three hundred sixty-five (365) or three hundred sixty-six (366), as applicable) and divided by the number of days in the shorter period (three hundred sixty (360) days, in the example), and the parties hereto acknowledge that there is a material distinction between the nominal and effective rates of interest and that they are capable of making the calculations necessary to compare such rates and that the calculations herein are to be made using the nominal rate method and not on any basis that gives effect to the principle of deemed reinvestment of interest.

Each notice delivered by the Lead Borrowers pursuant to this Section 2.07 shall be irrevocable except that, to the extent delivered in connection with a refinancing of the Obligations, such notice shall not be irrevocable until such refinancing is closed and funded. Any effectuated termination or reduction of the Aggregate Commitments shall be permanent. Each reduction of the Aggregate Commitments shall be made ratably among the Lenders in accordance with their respective Revolving Commitments.

Section 2.08. Interest Elections. (a) Each Revolving Borrowing initially shall be of the Type specified in the applicable Notice of Borrowing and, in the case of a Borrowing of LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans, shall have an initial Interest Period as specified in such Notice of Borrowing. Thereafter, the applicable Lead Borrower may elect to convert such Borrowing to a different Type (in the case of a LIBO Rate Loan, to a U.S. Base Rate Loan (or vice versa), and in the case of a CDOR Loan, to a Canadian Prime Rate Loan (or vice versa)) or to continue such Borrowing and, in the case of a Borrowing of LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans, may elect Interest Periods therefor, all as provided in this Section 2.08. The applicable Lead Borrower may elect different options with respect to different portions of the affected Borrowing, in which case each such portion shall be allocated ratably among the Lenders holding the Loans comprising such Borrowing, and the Loans comprising each such portion shall be considered a separate Borrowing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Lead Borrowers shall not be entitled to request any conversion or continuation that, if made, would result in more than ten (10) Borrowings of LIBO Rate Loans or more than ten (10) Borrowings of CDOR Loans outstanding hereunder at any one time. This Section 2.08 shall not apply to Swingline Loans, which may not be converted or continued.

(b) To make an election pursuant to this Section 2.08, the applicable Lead Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent of such election by electronic transmission by the time that a Notice of Borrowing would be required under Section 2.03 if the applicable Lead Borrower was requesting a Revolving Borrowing of the Type resulting from such election to be made on the effective date of such election, subject to Section 3.06. Each such Notice of Conversion/Continuation shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit A-2, unless otherwise agreed to by the Administrative Agent and the applicable Lead Borrower.

(c) Each Notice of Conversion/Continuation shall specify the following information in compliance with Section 2.02:

(i) the Borrowing to which such Notice of Conversion/Continuation applies and, if different options are being elected with respect to different portions thereof, the portions thereof to be allocated to each resulting Borrowing (in which case the information to be specified pursuant to clauses (iii) and (iv) below shall be specified for each resulting Borrowing);

(ii) the effective date of the election made pursuant to such Notice of Conversion/Continuation, which shall be a Business Day;

(iii) in the case of a U.S. Dollar Denominated Loan, whether the resulting Borrowing is to be a Borrowing of U.S. Base Rate Loans or a Borrowing of LIBO Rate Loans, and in the case of a Canadian Dollar Denominated Loan, whether the resulting borrowing is to be a Borrowing of Canadian Prime Rate Loans or a Borrowing of CDOR Loans; and

(iv) if the resulting Borrowing is a Borrowing of LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans, the Interest Period to be applicable thereto after giving effect to such election, which shall be a period contemplated by the definition of the term "Interest Period".

If any such Notice of Conversion/Continuation requests a Borrowing of LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans but does not specify an Interest Period, then the applicable Lead Borrower shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of one month's duration.

(d) Promptly following receipt of an Notice of Conversion/Continuation, the Administrative Agent shall advise each Lender of the details thereof and of such Lender's portion of each resulting Borrowing.

(e) If a Notice of Conversion/Continuation with respect to a Borrowing of LIBO Rate Loans or a Borrowing of CDOR Loans is not timely delivered prior to the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto, then, unless such Borrowing is repaid as provided herein, at the end of such Interest Period such Borrowing shall be converted to a Borrowing of U.S. Base Rate Loans, in the case of U.S. Dollar Denominated Loans, or a Borrowing of Canadian Prime Rate Loans, in the case of Canadian Dollar Denominated Loans. Notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and the Administrative Agent, at the request of the Required Lenders, so notifies the Lead Borrowers, then, after the occurrence and during the continuance of such Event of Default (i) no outstanding Borrowing may be converted to or continued as a Borrowing of LIBO Rate Loans or a Borrowing of CDOR Loans and (ii) unless repaid, at the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto, each Borrowing of LIBO Rate Loans shall be converted to a Borrowing of U.S. Base Rate Loans and each Borrowing of CDOR Loans shall be converted to a Borrowing of Canadian Prime Rate Loans.

Section 2.09. Optional and Mandatory Prepayments of Loans.

(a) Optional Prepayments. The Lead Borrowers shall have the right at any time and from time to time to prepay, without premium or penalty, any Borrowing, in whole or in part, subject to the requirements of this Section 2.09; provided that each partial prepayment shall be in an amount that is an integral multiple of $100,000, in the case of U.S Dollar Denominated Loans, or Cdn.$100,000, in the case of Canadian Dollar Denominated Loans.

(b) Revolving Loan Prepayments.

(i) In the event of the termination of all the Revolving Commitments, the Lead Borrowers shall, on the date of such termination, repay or prepay all the outstanding Revolving Borrowings and all outstanding Swingline Loans and Cash Collateralize or backstop on terms reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent the LC Exposure in accordance with Section 2.13(j).

(ii) In the event of any partial reduction of the Revolving Commitments, then (A) at or prior to the effective date of such reduction, the Administrative Agent shall notify the Lead Borrowers and the Revolving Lenders of the Aggregate Exposures after giving effect thereto and (B) if the Aggregate Exposures would exceed the Line Cap then in effect, after giving effect to such reduction, then the Lead Borrowers shall, on the date of such reduction (or, if such reduction is due to the imposition of new Reserves or a change in the methodology of calculating existing Reserves, within five (5) Business Days following such notice), first, repay or prepay all Swingline Loans, second, repay or prepay Revolving Borrowings and third, replace or Cash Collateralize outstanding Letters of Credit in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 2.13(j), in an amount sufficient to eliminate such excess.

(iii) In the event that the Aggregate Exposures at any time (including, without limitation, on any Revaluation Date) exceeds the Line Cap then in effect, the Lead Borrowers shall, immediately after demand (or, if such overadvance is due to the imposition of new Reserves or a change in the methodology of calculating existing Reserves or a change in eligibility standards, within five (5) Business Days following notice), apply an amount equal to such excess to prepay the Loans and any interest accrued thereon, in accordance with this Section 2.09(b)(iii). The Lead Borrowers shall, first, repay or prepay all Swingline Loans, second, repay or prepay Revolving Borrowings, and third, replace or Cash Collateralize outstanding Letters of Credit in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 2.13(j), in an amount sufficient to eliminate such excess.

(iv) In the event that the aggregate LC Exposure exceeds the LC Commitment then in effect, the Lead Borrowers shall, without notice or demand, immediately replace or Cash Collateralize outstanding Letters of Credit in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 2.13(j), in an amount sufficient to eliminate such excess.

(c) Application of Prepayments.

(i) Prior to any optional or mandatory prepayment of Borrowings hereunder, the applicable Lead Borrower shall select the Borrowing or Borrowings to be prepaid and shall specify such selection in the notice of such prepayment pursuant to paragraph (i) of this Section 2.09(c). Unless during a Liquidity Period, except as provided in Section 2.09(b)(iii) hereof, all mandatory prepayments shall be applied as follows: first, to fees and reimbursable expenses of the Administrative Agent then due and payable pursuant to the Credit Documents; second, to interest then due and payable on the Borrowers' Swingline Loans; third, to the principal balance of the Swingline Loan outstanding until the same has been prepaid in full; fourth, to interest then due and payable on the Revolving Loans and other amounts due pursuant to Sections 3.02 and 4.01; fifth, to the principal balance of the Revolving Loans until the same have been prepaid in full; sixth, to Cash Collateralize all LC Exposure plus any accrued and unpaid interest thereon (to be held and applied in accordance with Section 2.13(j) hereof); seventh, to all other Obligations pro rata in accordance with the amounts that such Lender certifies is outstanding; and eighth, as required by the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement or, in the absence of any such requirement, returned to the applicable Lead Borrower or to such party as otherwise required by law.

(ii) Amounts to be applied pursuant to this Section 2.09 to the prepayment of Revolving Loans shall be applied, as applicable, first to reduce outstanding U.S. Base Rate Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, as applicable. Any amounts remaining after each such application shall be applied to prepay LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans, as applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the amount of any prepayment of Loans required under this Section 2.09 shall be in excess of the amount of the U.S. Base Rate Loans and Canadian Prime Rate Loans at the time outstanding, only the portion of the amount of such prepayment that is equal to the amount of such outstanding U.S. Base Rate Loans and Canadian Prime Rate Loans shall be immediately prepaid and, at the election of the applicable Lead Borrower, the balance of such required prepayment shall be either (A) deposited in the LC Collateral Accounts and applied to the prepayment of LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans on the last day of the then next-expiring Interest Period for LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans (with all interest accruing thereon for the account of the applicable Lead Borrower) or (B) prepaid immediately, together with any amounts owing to the Lenders under Section 2.10. Notwithstanding any such deposit in the LC Collateral Accounts, interest shall continue to accrue on such Loans until prepayment.

(d) Notice of Prepayment. The Lead Borrowers shall notify the Administrative Agent (and, in the case of prepayment of a Swingline Loan, the Swingline Lender) by electronic transmission of any prepayment hereunder (iii) in the case of prepayment of a Borrowing of LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans, not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time, three (3) Business Days before the date of prepayment, (iv) in the case of prepayment of a Borrowing of U.S. Base Rate Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on the date of prepayment or (v) in the case of prepayment of a Swingline Loan, not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time, on the date of prepayment. Each such notice shall specify the prepayment date, the principal amount of each Borrowing or portion thereof to be prepaid and, in the case of a mandatory prepayment, a reasonably detailed calculation of the amount of such prepayment. Each notice of prepayment pursuant to this Section 2.09 shall be irrevocable, except that the applicable Lead Borrower may, by subsequent notice to the Administrative Agent, revoke any such notice of prepayment if such notice of revocation is received not later than 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the day on which such prepayment is scheduled to occur and, provided that (i) the applicable Lead Borrower reimburses each Lender pursuant to Section 3.03 for any funding losses within five (5) Business Days after receiving written demand therefor and (ii) the amount of Loans as to which such revocation applies shall be deemed converted to (or continued as, as applicable) U.S. Base Rate Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, as applicable, in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.08 as of the date of notice of revocation (subject to subsequent conversion in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement). Promptly following receipt of any such notice (other than a notice relating solely to Swingline Loans), the Administrative Agent shall advise the Lenders of the contents thereof. Each partial prepayment of any Borrowing shall be in an amount that would be permitted in the case of an advance of a Borrowing of the same Type as provided in Section 2.02, except as necessary to apply fully the required amount of a mandatory prepayment. Each prepayment of a Borrowing shall be applied ratably to the Loans included in the prepaid Borrowing. Prepayments shall be accompanied by accrued interest to the extent required by Section 2.06.

Section 2.10. Payments Generally; Pro Rata Treatment; Sharing of Set-Offs.

(a) Each Borrower shall make each payment required to be made by it hereunder or under any other Credit Document (whether of principal, interest, fees or reimbursement of LC Disbursements, or of amounts payable under Sections 3.01 and 4.01 or otherwise) at or before the time expressly required hereunder or under such other Credit Document for such payment (or, if no such time is expressly required, prior to 2:00 p.m., New York City time), on the date when due, in immediately available funds, without setoff or counterclaim. Any amounts received after such time on any date may, in the reasonable discretion of the Administrative Agent, be deemed to have been received on the next succeeding Business Day for purposes of calculating interest thereon. All such payments shall be made to the Administrative Agent at the Payment Office, except payments to be made directly to the Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender as expressly provided herein and except that payments pursuant to Sections 3.01, 4.01 and 12.01 shall be made to the Administrative Agent for the benefit of to the Persons entitled thereto and payments pursuant to other Credit Documents shall be made to the Administrative Agent for the benefit of the Persons specified therein. The Administrative Agent shall distribute any such payments received by it for the account of any other Person to the appropriate recipient promptly following receipt thereof. If any payment under any Credit Document shall be due on a day that is not a Business Day, the date for payment shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day, and, in the case of any payment accruing interest, interest thereon shall be payable for the period of such extension. All Canadian Dollar Denominated Loans shall be paid in Canadian Dollars and all U.S. Dollar Denominated Loans shall be paid in U.S. Dollars.

(b) If at any time insufficient funds are received by and available to the Administrative Agent to pay fully all amounts of principal, unreimbursed LC Disbursements, interest and fees then due hereunder, such funds shall be applied in the manner as provided in Section 2.09(c) or 10.03 hereof, as applicable, ratably among the parties entitled thereto.

(c) If any Lender shall, by exercising any right of setoff or counterclaim or otherwise, obtain payment in respect of any principal of or interest on any of its Revolving Loans or participations in LC Disbursements or Swingline Loans resulting in such Lender receiving payment of a greater proportion of the aggregate amount of its Revolving Loans and participations in LC Disbursements and Swingline Loans and accrued interest thereon than the proportion received by any other Lender, then the Lender receiving such greater proportion shall purchase (for cash at face value) participations in the Revolving Loans and participations in LC Disbursements and Swingline Loans of other Lenders to the extent necessary so that the benefit of all such payments shall be shared by the Lenders ratably in accordance with the aggregate amount of principal of and accrued interest on their respective Revolving Loans and participations in LC Disbursements and Swingline Loans; provided that (vi) if any such participations are purchased and all or any portion of the payment giving rise thereto is recovered, such participations shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, without interest, and (vii) the provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed to apply to any payment made by the Lead Borrowers pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement or any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Loans or participations in LC Disbursements to any assignee or participant, other than to the Parent or any Subsidiary or Affiliate thereof (as to which the provisions of this paragraph shall apply). Each Borrower consents to the foregoing and agrees, to the extent it may effectively do so under applicable law that any Lender acquiring a participation pursuant to the foregoing arrangements may exercise against the Credit Parties rights of setoff and counterclaim with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were a direct creditor of a Credit Party in the amount of such participation.

(d) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from the applicable Lead Borrower prior to the date on which any payment is due to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Lenders or the Issuing Bank hereunder that the applicable Lead Borrower will not make such payment, the Administrative Agent may assume that the applicable Lead Borrower has made such payment on such date in accordance herewith and may, in reliance upon such assumption, distribute to the Lenders or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, the amount due. In such event, if the applicable Lead Borrower has not in fact made such payment, then each of the Lenders or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, severally agrees to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand the amount so distributed to such Lender or Issuing Bank with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is distributed to it to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at the greater of the Federal Funds Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation.

(e) If any Lender shall fail to make any payment required to be made by it pursuant to Section 2.02(c), 2.02(f), 2.10(d), 2.12(d) or 2.13(d), then the Administrative Agent may, in its discretion (notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof), apply any amounts thereafter received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Lender to satisfy such Lender's obligations under such Sections until all such unsatisfied obligations are fully paid.

Section 2.11. Defaulting Lenders.

(a) Reallocation of Pro Rata Share; Amendments. For purposes of determining the Lenders' obligations to fund or acquire participations in Loans or Letters of Credit, the Administrative Agent may exclude the Commitments and Loans of any Defaulting Lender(s) from the calculation of Pro Rata Shares. A Defaulting Lender shall have no right to vote on any amendment, waiver or other modification of a Credit Document, except as provided in Section 12.10.

(b) Payments; Fees. The Administrative Agent may, in its discretion, receive and retain any amounts payable to a Defaulting Lender under the Credit Documents, and a Defaulting Lender shall be deemed to have assigned to the Administrative Agent such amounts until all Obligations owing to the Administrative Agent, Non-Defaulting Lenders and other Secured Creditors have been paid in full. The Administrative Agent may apply such amounts to the Defaulting Lender's defaulted obligations, use the funds to Cash Collateralize such Lender's Fronting Exposure, or readvance the amounts to the applicable Lead Borrower hereunder. A Lender shall not be entitled to receive any fees accruing hereunder during the period in which it is a Defaulting Lender, and the unfunded portion of its Commitment shall be disregarded for purposes of calculating the Commitment Fee under Section 2.05(a). To the extent any LC Obligations owing to a Defaulted Lender are reallocated to other Lenders, LC Participation Fees attributable to such LC Obligations under Section 2.05(c) shall be paid to such other Lenders. The Administrative Agent shall be paid all LC Participation Fees attributable to LC Obligations that are not so reallocated.

(c) Cure. The Lead Borrowers, Administrative Agent and Issuing Bank may agree in writing that a Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender. At such time, Pro Rata Shares shall be reallocated without exclusion of such Lender's Commitments and Loans, and all outstanding Loans, LC Obligations and other exposures under the Commitments shall be reallocated among Lenders and settled by the Administrative Agent (with appropriate payments by the reinstated Lender) in accordance with the readjusted Pro Rata Shares. Unless expressly agreed by the Lead Borrowers, Administrative Agent and Issuing Bank, no reinstatement of a Defaulting Lender shall constitute a waiver or release of claims against such Lender. The failure of any Lender to fund a Loan, to make a payment in respect of LC Obligations or otherwise to perform its obligations hereunder shall not relieve any other Lender of its obligations, and no Lender shall be responsible for default by another Lender.

Section 2.12. Swingline Loans.

(a) Swingline Commitment. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Swingline Lender shall make Swingline Loans to the Lead Borrowers from time to time during the Revolving Availability Period, in an aggregate principal amount, the Dollar Equivalent of which, at any time outstanding, will not result in (viii) the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Swingline Loans exceeding $20,000,000 or (ix) the Aggregate Exposures exceeding the lesser of (A) the Aggregate Commitments and (B) the Borrowing Base then in effect; provided that the Swingline Lender shall not be required to make a Swingline Loan to refinance an outstanding Swingline Loan. Within the foregoing limits and subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Lead Borrowers may borrow, repay and reborrow Swingline Loans.

(b) Swingline Loans. To request a Swingline Loan, the applicable Lead Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent of such request by electronic transmission, not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time, on the day of a proposed Swingline Loan. Each such notice shall be irrevocable and specify the requested date (which shall be a Business Day) and amount of the requested Swingline Loan. The Administrative Agent will promptly advise the Swingline Lender of any such notice received from the Lead Borrowers. The Swingline Lender shall make each Swingline Loan available to the applicable Lead Borrower by means of a credit to the general deposit account of the applicable Lead Borrower with the Swingline Lender (or, in the case of a Swingline Loan made to finance the reimbursement of an LC Disbursement as provided in Section 2.13(e), by remittance to the Issuing Bank) by 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the requested date of such Swingline Loan. The Lead Borrowers shall not request a Swingline Loan if at the time of and immediately after giving effect to such request a Default has occurred and is continuing. Swingline Loans shall be made in minimum amounts of $100,000, in the case of Swingline Loans denominated in U.S. Dollars, and Cdn.$100,000 in the case of Swingline Loans denominated in Canadian Dollars.

(c) Prepayment. The Lead Borrowers shall have the right at any time and from time to time to repay, without premium or penalty, any Swingline Loan, in whole or in part, upon giving written notice to the Swingline Lender and to the Administrative Agent before 2:00 p.m., New York City time on the date of repayment at the Swingline Lender's address for notices specified in the Swingline Lender's administrative questionnaire. All principal payments of Swingline Loans shall be accompanied by accrued interest on the principal amount being repaid to the date of payment.

(d) Participations. The Swingline Lender may by written notice given to the Administrative Agent not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on any Business Day require the Revolving Lenders to acquire participations on such Business Day in all or a portion of the Swingline Loans outstanding. Such notice shall specify the aggregate amount of Swingline Loans in which Revolving Lenders will participate. Promptly upon receipt of such notice, the Administrative Agent will give notice thereof to each Revolving Lender, specifying in such notice such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of such Swingline Loan or Loans. Each Revolving Lender hereby absolutely and unconditionally agrees, upon receipt of notice as provided above, to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Swingline Lender, such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of such Swingline Loan or Loans. Each Revolving Lender acknowledges and agrees that its obligation to acquire participations in Swingline Loans pursuant to this paragraph is absolute and unconditional and shall not be affected by any circumstance whatsoever, including the occurrence and continuance of a Default or reduction or termination of the Aggregate Commitments or whether an Overadvance exists or is created thereby, and that each such payment shall be made without any offset, abatement, withholding or reduction whatsoever (provided that such payment shall not cause such Lender's Revolving Exposure to exceed such Lender's Revolving Commitment). Each Revolving Lender shall comply with its obligation under this paragraph by wire transfer of immediately available funds, in the same manner as provided in Section 2.02(f) with respect to Loans made by such Lender (and Section 2.02 shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the payment obligations of the Revolving Lenders), and the Administrative Agent shall promptly pay to the Swingline Lender the amounts so received by it from the Revolving Lenders and thereafter, payments by the applicable Borrower in respect of such Swingline Loan shall be made to the Administrative Agent and not to the Swingline Lender. The Administrative Agent from time to time, as reasonably requested by the Lead Borrowers, shall notify the Lead Borrowers of participations in any Swingline Loan acquired pursuant to this paragraph. Any amounts received by the Swingline Lender from a Lead Borrower (or other party on behalf of a Lead Borrower) in respect of a Swingline Loan after receipt by the Swingline Lender of the proceeds of a sale of participations therein shall be promptly remitted to the Administrative Agent; any such amounts received by the Administrative Agent shall be promptly remitted by the Administrative Agent to the Revolving Lenders that shall have made their payments pursuant to this paragraph and to the Swingline Lender, as their interests may appear. The purchase of participations in a Swingline Loan pursuant to this paragraph shall not relieve any Borrower of any default in the payment thereof. Further, in the event any Lender is a Defaulting Lender, to the extent the purchase of participations in accordance with each non-Defaulting Lender's Pro Rata Share, shall not be sufficient to cover the participation exposure attributable to the Defaulting Lender(s), then the Swingline Lender may require the Borrowers to repay such "uncovered" exposure in respect of such Swingline Loan(s) and the Swingline Lender will have no obligation to make new Swingline Loans to the extent such Swingline Loans would exceed the Revolving Commitments of the Non-Defaulting Lenders.

(e) If the Maturity Date shall have occurred at a time when Extended Revolving Loan Commitments are in effect, then on the Maturity Date all then outstanding Swingline Loans shall be repaid in full on such date (and there shall be no adjustment to the participations in such Swingline Loans as a result of the occurrence of such Maturity Date); provided that, if on the occurrence of the Maturity Date (after giving effect to any repayments of Revolving Loans and any reallocation of Letter of Credit participations as contemplated in Section 2.13(o)), there shall exist sufficient unutilized Extended Revolving Loan Commitments so that the respective outstanding Swingline Loans could be incurred pursuant to the Extended Revolving Loan Commitments which will remain in effect after the occurrence of the Maturity Date, then there shall be an automatic adjustment on such date of the participations in such Swingline Loans and same shall be deemed to have been incurred solely pursuant to the Extended Revolving Loan Commitments and such Swingline Loans shall not be so required to be repaid in full on the Maturity Date.

Section 2.13. Letters of Credit.

(a) General. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Lead Borrowers may request the issuance of Letters of Credit for a Lead Borrower's account or the account of the Parent or a Subsidiary of the Parent in a form reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent and the Issuing Bank, at any time and from time to time during the Revolving Availability Period. All Existing Letters of Credit shall be deemed, without further action by any party hereto, to have been issued on the Closing Date pursuant to this Agreement, and the Lenders shall thereupon acquire participations in the Existing Letters of Credit as if so issued without further action by any party hereto, to be acquired by the Lenders hereto. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the terms and conditions of any form of letter of credit application or other agreement submitted by a Lead Borrower to, or entered into by a Lead Borrower with, the Issuing Bank relating to any Letter of Credit, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall control.

(b) Request for Issuance, Amendment, Renewal, Extension; Certain Conditions . To request the issuance of a Letter of Credit or the amendment, renewal or extension of an outstanding Letter of Credit, the applicable Lead Borrower shall hand deliver or telecopy (or transmit by electronic communication, if arrangements for doing so have been approved by the Issuing Bank) a LC Request to the Issuing Bank and the Administrative Agent not later than 1:00 p.m. on the second Business Day preceding the requested date of issuance, amendment, renewal or extension (or such later date and time as is reasonably acceptable to the Issuing Bank). A request for an initial issuance of a Letter of Credit shall specify in form and detail reasonably satisfactory to the Issuing Bank: (i) the proposed issuance date of the requested Letter of Credit (which shall be a Business Day); (ii) the amount thereof; (iii) the expiry date thereof; (iv) the name and address of the beneficiary thereof; (v) the documents to be presented by such beneficiary in case of any drawing thereunder; (vi) the full text of any certificate to be presented by such beneficiary in case of any drawing thereunder, and (vii) such other matters as the Issuing Bank may reasonably require. A request for an amendment, renewal or extension of any outstanding Letter of Credit shall specify in form and detail reasonably satisfactory to the Issuing Bank (w) the Letter of Credit to be amended, renewed or extended; (x) the proposed date of amendment, renewal or extension thereof (which shall be a Business Day), (y) the nature of the proposed amendment, renewal or extension, and (z) such other matters as the Issuing Bank may reasonably require. If requested by the Issuing Bank, the applicable Lead Borrower also shall submit a letter of credit application substantially on the Issuing Bank's standard form in connection with any request for a Letter of Credit. A Letter of Credit shall be issued, amended, renewed or extended only if (and upon issuance, amendment, renewal or extension of each Letter of Credit the applicable Lead Borrower shall be deemed to represent and warrant (solely in the case of (w) and (x)) that, after giving effect to such issuance, amendment, renewal or extension (C) the LC Exposure shall not exceed $25,000,000, (D) the total Revolving Exposures shall not exceed the lesser of (1) the total Revolving Commitments and (2) the Borrowing Base then in effect and (E) if a Defaulting Lender exists, either such Lender or the applicable Lead Borrower has entered into arrangements satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and Issuing Bank to eliminate any Fronting Exposure associated with such Lender. Unless the Issuing Bank shall otherwise agree, no Letter of Credit shall be denominated in a currency other than U.S. Dollars.

(c) Expiration Date. Each Letter of Credit shall expire at or prior to the close of business on the earlier of the date which is one year after the date of the issuance of such Letter of Credit (or such other longer period of time as the Administrative Agent and the applicable Issuing Bank may agree and, in the case of any renewal or extension thereof, one (1) year after such renewal or extension) and, unless Cash Collateralized or otherwise credit supported to the reasonable satisfaction of the Administrative Agent and the applicable Issuing Bank (in which case the expiry may extend no longer than twelve months after the Letter of Credit Expiration Date) the Letter of Credit Expiration Date. Each Letter of Credit may, upon the request of the applicable Lead Borrower, include a provision whereby such Letter of Credit shall be renewed automatically for additional consecutive periods of twelve (12) months or less (but, subject to the foregoing, not beyond the date that is after the Letter of Credit Expiration Date) unless the applicable Issuing Bank notifies the beneficiary thereof at least thirty (30) days prior to the then-applicable expiration date that such Letter of Credit will not be renewed.

(d) Participations. By the issuance of a Letter of Credit (or an amendment to a Letter of Credit increasing the amount thereof) and without any further action on the part of the Issuing Bank or the Lenders, the Issuing Bank hereby grants to each Revolving Lender, and each Revolving Lender hereby acquires from the Issuing Bank, a participation in such Letter of Credit equal to such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of the aggregate amount available to be drawn under such Letter of Credit. In consideration and in furtherance of the foregoing, each Revolving Lender hereby absolutely and unconditionally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Issuing Bank, such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of each LC Disbursement (in the same currency as the underlying Letter of Credit (i.e., Canadian Dollars or U.S. Dollars)) made by the Issuing Bank and not reimbursed by the applicable Lead Borrower on the date due as provided in paragraph (e) of this Section 2.13, or of any reimbursement payment required to be refunded to the applicable Lead Borrower for any reason. Each Lender acknowledges and agrees that its obligation to acquire participations pursuant to this paragraph in respect of Letters of Credit is absolute and unconditional and shall not be affected by any circumstance whatsoever, including any amendment, renewal or extension of any Letter of Credit or the occurrence and continuance of a Default or reduction or termination of the Aggregate Commitments or whether or not an Overadvance exists or is created thereby, and that each such payment shall be made without any offset, abatement, withholding or reduction whatsoever.

(e) Reimbursement. If the Issuing Bank shall make any LC Disbursement in respect of a Letter of Credit, the Lead U.S. Borrower, in the case of an LC Disbursement to on account of a Letter of Credit for which any U.S. Borrower was the co-applicant, or the Lead Canadian Borrower, on account of any Letter of Credit for which any Canadian Borrower was the co-applicant, shall reimburse such LC Disbursement by paying to the Issuing Bank an amount equal to such LC Disbursement not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Business Day after receiving notice from the Issuing Bank of such LC Disbursement; provided that , whether or not the applicable Lead Borrower submits a Notice of Borrowing, the applicable Lead Borrower shall be deemed to have requested (except to the extent the applicable Lead Borrower makes payment to reimburse such LC Disbursement when due) a Borrowing of U.S. Base Rate Loans, in the case of a U.S. Dollar Denominated LC Disbursement, or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, in the case of a Canadian Dollar LC Disbursement, in an amount necessary to reimburse such LC Disbursement. If the applicable Lead Borrower fails to make such payment when due, the Issuing Bank shall notify the Administrative Agent and the Administrative Agent shall notify each Revolving Lender of the applicable LC Disbursement, the payment then due from the applicable Lead Borrower in respect thereof and such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage thereof. Promptly following receipt of such notice, each Revolving Lender shall pay to the Administrative Agent its Pro Rata Percentage of the unreimbursed LC Disbursement in the same manner as provided in Section 2.02(f) with respect to Loans made by such Lender, and the Administrative Agent shall promptly pay to the Issuing Bank the amounts so received by it from the Revolving Lenders (provided that such payment shall not cause such Revolving Lender's Exposure to exceed such Revolving Lender's Commitment). Promptly following receipt by the Administrative Agent of any payment from the applicable Lead Borrower pursuant to this paragraph, the Administrative Agent shall, to the extent that Revolving Lenders have made payments pursuant to this paragraph to reimburse the Issuing Bank, distribute such payment to such Lenders and the Issuing Bank as their interests may appear. Any payment made by a Revolving Lender pursuant to this paragraph to reimburse the Issuing Bank for any LC Disbursement (other than the funding of U.S. Base Rate Loans, Canadian Prime Rate Loans or a Swingline Loan as contemplated above) shall not constitute a Loan and shall not relieve the applicable Lead Borrower of its obligation to reimburse such LC Disbursement.

(f) Obligations Absolute.

(i) Subject to the limitations set forth below, the obligations of the Lead Borrowers to reimburse LC Disbursements as provided in paragraph (e) of this Section 2.13 shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable, and shall be performed strictly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement under any and all circumstances whatsoever and irrespective of (A) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Letter of Credit or this Agreement, or any term or provision therein, (B) any draft or other document presented under a Letter of Credit proving to be forged, fraudulent or invalid in any respect or any statement therein being untrue or inaccurate in any respect, (C) payment by the Issuing Bank under a Letter of Credit against presentation of a draft or other document that does not strictly comply with the terms of such Letter of Credit, (D) the existence of any claim, setoff, defense or other right which the applicable Lead Borrower may have at any time against a beneficiary of any Letter of Credit, or (E) any other event or circumstance whatsoever, whether or not similar to any of the foregoing, that might, but for the provisions of this Section 2.13, constitute a legal or equitable discharge of, or provide a right of setoff against, the obligations of the applicable Lead Borrower hereunder; provided that the applicable Lead Borrower shall have no obligation to reimburse the Issuing Bank to the extent that such payment was made in error due to the gross negligence, bad faith, or willful misconduct of the Issuing Bank (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction or another independent tribunal having jurisdiction). Neither the Administrative Agent, the Lenders nor the Issuing Bank, nor any of their Affiliates, shall have any liability or responsibility by reason of or in connection with the issuance or transfer of any Letter of Credit or any payment or failure to make any payment thereunder (irrespective of any of the circumstances referred to in the preceding sentence), or any error, omission, interruption, loss or delay in transmission or delivery of any draft, notice or other communication under or relating to any Letter of Credit (including any document required to make a drawing thereunder), any error in interpretation of technical terms or any consequence arising from causes beyond the control of the Issuing Bank; provided that the foregoing shall not be construed to excuse the Issuing Bank from liability to the Lead Borrowers to the extent of any direct damages (as opposed to consequential damages, claims in respect of which are hereby waived by the Lead Borrowers to the extent permitted by applicable law) suffered by the Lead Borrowers that are caused by the Issuing Bank's failure to exercise care when determining whether drafts and other documents presented under a Letter of Credit comply with the terms thereof. The parties hereto expressly agree that, in the absence of gross negligence, willful misconduct, or bad faith on the part of the Issuing Bank (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction or another independent tribunal having jurisdiction), the Issuing Bank shall be deemed to have exercised care in each such determination. In furtherance of the foregoing and without limiting the generality thereof, the parties agree that, with respect to documents presented which appear on their face to be in substantial compliance with the terms of a Letter of Credit, the Issuing Bank may, in its sole discretion, either accept and make payment upon such documents without responsibility for further investigation, regardless of any notice or information to the contrary, or refuse to accept and make payment upon such documents if such documents are not in strict compliance with the terms of such Letter of Credit.

(ii) The Issuing Bank does not assume any responsibility for any failure or delay in performance or any breach by the Lead Borrowers or other Person of any obligations under any LC Document. The Issuing Bank does not make to the Lenders any express or implied warranty, representation or guaranty with respect to the Collateral, such documents or any Credit Party. The Issuing Bank shall not be responsible to any Lender for any recitals, statements, information, representations or warranties contained in, or for the execution, validity, genuineness, effectiveness or enforceability of any LC Document; the validity, genuineness, enforceability, collectability, value or sufficiency of any Collateral or the perfection of any Lien therein; or the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business, creditworthiness or legal status of any Credit Party.

(iii) No Issuing Bank or any of its Affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents and investment advisors shall be liable to any Lender or other Person for any action taken or omitted to be taken in connection with any LC Documents except as a result of its actual gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by court of competent jurisdiction in a final nonappealable judgment. The Issuing Bank shall not have any liability to any Lender if the Issuing Bank refrains from any action under any Letter of Credit or such LC Documents until it receives written instructions from the Required Lenders.

(g) Disbursement Procedures. The Issuing Bank shall, promptly following its receipt thereof, examine all documents purporting to represent a demand for payment under a Letter of Credit. The Issuing Bank shall promptly notify the Administrative Agent and the applicable Lead Borrower by electronic transmission of such demand for payment and whether the Issuing Bank has made or will make an LC Disbursement thereunder; provided that any failure to give or delay in giving such notice shall not relieve the applicable Lead Borrower of its obligation to reimburse the Issuing Bank and the Revolving Lenders with respect to any such LC Disbursement (other than with respect to the timing of such reimbursement obligation set forth in Section 2.13(e)).

(h) Interim Interest. If the Issuing Bank shall make any LC Disbursement, then, unless the applicable Lead Borrower shall reimburse such LC Disbursement in full on the date such LC Disbursement is made, the unpaid amount thereof shall bear interest, for each day from and including the date such LC Disbursement is made to but excluding the date that the applicable Lead Borrower reimburses such LC Disbursement, at the rate per annum then applicable to U.S. Base Rate Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, as applicable; provided that , if the applicable Lead Borrower fails to reimburse such LC Disbursement when due pursuant to paragraph (e) of this Section 2.13, then Section 2.06(c) shall apply. Interest accrued pursuant to this paragraph shall be for the account of the Issuing Bank, except that interest accrued on and after the date of payment by any Revolving Lender pursuant to paragraph (e) of this Section 2.13 to reimburse the Issuing Bank shall be for the account of such Lender to the extent of such payment.

(i) Resignation or Removal of the Issuing Bank. The Issuing Bank may resign as Issuing Bank hereunder at any time upon at least 30 days' prior written notice to the Lenders, the Administrative Agent and the Lead Borrowers. The Issuing Bank may be replaced at any time by agreement between the Lead Borrowers and the Administrative Agent, provided that so long as no Default or Event of Default exists, such successor Issuing Bank shall be reasonably acceptable to the Lead Borrowers. One or more Lenders may be appointed as additional Issuing Banks in accordance with subsection (k) below. The Administrative Agent shall notify the Lenders of any such replacement of the Issuing Bank or any such additional Issuing Bank. At the time any such resignation or replacement shall become effective, the Lead Borrowers shall pay all unpaid fees accrued for the account of the replaced Issuing Bank pursuant to Section 2.05(c). From and after the effective date of any such resignation or replacement or addition, as applicable, (i) the successor or additional Issuing Bank shall have all the rights and obligations of the Issuing Bank under this Agreement with respect to Letters of Credit to be issued thereafter and (ii) references herein to the term "Issuing Bank" shall be deemed to refer to such successor or such addition or to any previous Issuing Bank, or to such successor or such additional Issuing Bank and all previous Issuing Banks, as the context shall require. After the resignation or replacement of an Issuing Bank hereunder, the replaced Issuing Bank shall remain a party hereto and shall continue to have all the rights and obligations of an Issuing Bank under this Agreement with respect to Letters of Credit issued by it prior to such resignation or replacement, but shall not be required to issue additional Letters of Credit. If at any time there is more than one Issuing Bank hereunder, the Lead Borrowers may, in their discretion, select which Issuing Bank is to issue any particular Letter of Credit.

(j) Cash Collateralization.

(i) If any Specified Event of Default shall occur and be continuing, on the Business Day that the Lead Borrowers receive notice from the Administrative Agent (acting at the request of the Required Lenders) demanding the deposit of Cash Collateral pursuant to this paragraph, the Lead Borrowers shall deposit in the LC Collateral Accounts (in Canadian Dollars with respect to Canadian Dollar denominated Letters of Credit and U.S. Dollars with respect to U.S. Dollar denominated Letters of Credit), in the name of the Administrative Agent and for the benefit of the Secured Creditors, an amount in cash equal to 102% of the LC Exposure as of such date. Each such deposit shall be held by the Administrative Agent as collateral for the payment and performance of the obligations of the Lead Borrowers under this Agreement, but shall be immediately released and returned to the Lead Borrowers (in no event later than two (2) Business Days) once all Specified Events of Default are cured or waived. The Administrative Agent shall have exclusive dominion and control, including the exclusive right of withdrawal, over such account. Other than any interest earned on the investment of such deposits, which investments shall be made only in Cash Equivalents and at the direction of the Lead Borrowers and at the Lead Borrowers' risk and expense, such deposits shall not bear interest. Interest or profits, if any, on such investments shall accumulate in such account. Moneys in such account shall be applied by the Administrative Agent to reimburse the Issuing Bank for LC Disbursements for which it has not been reimbursed and, to the extent not so applied, shall be held for the satisfaction of the reimbursement obligations of the Lead Borrowers for the LC Exposure at such time or, if the maturity of the Loans has been accelerated (but subject to the consent of Revolving Lenders with LC Exposure representing greater than 50% of the total LC Exposure), be applied to satisfy other Obligations of the Lead Borrowers.

(ii) The Lead Borrowers shall, on demand by the Issuing Bank or the Administrative Agent from time to time, Cash Collateralize the Fronting Exposure associated with any Defaulting Lender.

(k) Additional Issuing Banks. The Lead Borrowers may, at any time and from time to time with the consent of the Administrative Agent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) and such Lender, designate one or more additional Lenders to act as an issuing bank under the terms of this Agreement. Any Lender designated as an issuing bank pursuant to this paragraph (k) shall be deemed (in addition to being a Lender) to be the Issuing Bank with respect to Letters of Credit issued or to be issued by such Lender, and all references herein and in the other Credit Documents to the term "Issuing Bank" shall, with respect to such Letters of Credit, be deemed to refer to such Lender in its capacity as Issuing Bank, as the context shall require.

(l) The Issuing Bank shall be under no obligation to issue any Letter of Credit if:

(i) any order, judgment or decree of any Governmental Authority or arbitrator shall by its terms purport to enjoin or restrain the Issuing Bank from issuing such Letter of Credit, or any law applicable to the Issuing Bank or any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) from any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over the Issuing Bank shall prohibit, or request that the Issuing Bank refrain from, the issuance of letters of credit generally or such Letter of Credit in particular or shall impose upon the Issuing Bank with respect to such Letter of Credit any restriction, reserve or capital requirement (for which the Issuing Bank is not otherwise compensated hereunder) not in effect on the Closing Date, or shall impose upon the Issuing Bank any unreimbursed loss, cost or expense which was not applicable on the Closing Date and which the Issuing Bank in good faith deems material to it; or

(ii) the issuance of such Letter of Credit would violate one or more policies of the Issuing Bank.

(m) The Issuing Bank shall be under no obligation to amend any Letter of Credit if (i) the Issuing Bank would have no obligation at such time to issue such Letter of Credit in its amended form under the terms hereof, or (ii) the beneficiary of such Letter of Credit does not accept the proposed amendment to such Letter of Credit.

(n) LC Collateral Accounts.

(i) The Administrative Agent is hereby authorized to establish and maintain at the Notice Office, in the name of the Administrative Agent and pursuant to a dominion and control agreement, restricted deposit accounts designated "The Lead Borrowers Canadian LC Collateral Account" and "The Lead Borrowers U.S. LC Collateral Account". Each Credit Party shall deposit into the LC Collateral Accounts from time to time the Cash Collateral required to be deposited under Section 2.13(j) hereof.

(ii) The balance from time to time in such LC Collateral Accounts shall constitute part of the Collateral and shall not constitute payment of the Obligations until applied as hereinafter provided. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary, all amounts held in the LC Collateral Accounts shall constitute collateral security first for the liabilities in respect of Letters of Credit outstanding from time to time and second for the other Obligations hereunder until such time as all Letters of Credit shall have been terminated and all of the liabilities in respect of Letters of Credit have been paid in full. All funds in "The Lead Borrowers Canadian LC Collateral Account" and "The Lead Borrowers U.S. LC Collateral Account" may be invested in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.13(j).

(o) Extended Commitments. If the Maturity Date shall have occurred at a time when Extended Revolving Loan Commitments are in effect, then (i) such Letters of Credit shall automatically be deemed to have been issued (including for purposes of the obligations of the Lenders to purchase participations therein and to make payments in respect thereof pursuant to Section 2.13(d) and (e)) under (and ratably participated in by Lenders) the Extended Revolving Loan Commitments, up to an aggregate amount the Dollar Equivalent of which shall not exceed the aggregate principal amount of the unutilized Extended Revolving Loan Commitments thereunder at such time (it being understood that no partial face amount of any Letter of Credit may be so reallocated) and (ii) to the extent not reallocated pursuant to the immediately preceding clause (i), the Borrowers shall Cash Collateralize any such Letter of Credit in accordance with Section 2.13(j). Except to the extent of reallocations of participations pursuant to the prior sentence, the occurrence of the Maturity Date with respect to Existing Revolving Loans shall have no effect upon (and shall not diminish) the percentage participations of the Lenders of Extended Revolving Loans in any Letter of Credit issued before the Maturity Date.

Section 2.14. Settlement Amongst Lenders. (a) The Swingline Lender may, at any time (but, in any event shall, once every week), on behalf of the Lead Borrowers (which hereby authorize the Swingline Lender to act on its behalf in that regard) request the Administrative Agent to cause the Lenders to make a Revolving Loan (which shall be a U.S. Base Rate Loan or Canadian Prime Rate Loan, as applicable) in an amount equal to such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of the Outstanding Amount of Swingline Loans, which request may be made regardless of whether the conditions set forth in Article 6 have been satisfied. Upon such request, each Lender shall make available to the Administrative Agent the proceeds of such Revolving Loan for the account of the Swingline Lender. If the Swingline Lender requires a Revolving Loan to be made by the Lenders and the request therefor is received prior to 1:00 p.m. New York City time on a Business Day, such transfers shall be made in immediately available funds no later than 3:00 p.m. that day; and, if the request therefor is received after 1:00 p.m. New York City time, then no later than 3:00 p.m. on the next Business Day. The obligation of each such Lender to transfer such funds is irrevocable, unconditional and without recourse to or warranty by the Administrative Agent or the Swingline Lender. If and to the extent any Lender shall not have so made its transfer to the Administrative Agent, such Lender agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, forthwith on demand, such amount, together with interest thereon, for each day from such date until the date such amount is paid to the Administrative Agent, at the Federal Funds Rate.

(b) The amount of each Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of outstanding Revolving

Loans (including outstanding Swingline Loans) shall be computed weekly (or more frequently in the Administrative Agent's discretion) and shall be adjusted upward or downward based on all Revolving Loans (including Swingline Loans), repayments of Revolving Loans (including Swingline Loans) received by the Administrative Agent as of 3:00 p.m. on the first Business Day (such date, the "Settlement Date") following the end of the period specified by the Administrative Agent, and the occurrence of any Revaluation Dates.

(c) The Administrative Agent shall deliver to each of the Lenders promptly after a Settlement Date a summary statement of the amount of outstanding Revolving Loans (including Swingline Loans) for the period and the amount of repayments received for the period. As reflected on the summary statement, (i) the Administrative Agent shall transfer to each Lender its applicable Pro Rata Percentage of repayments, and (ii) each Lender shall transfer to the Administrative Agent (as provided below) or the Administrative Agent shall transfer to each Lender, such amounts as are necessary to insure that, after giving effect to all such transfers, the amount of Revolving Loans made by each Lender with respect to Revolving Loans to the Borrowers (including Swingline Loans) shall be equal to such Lender's applicable Pro Rata Percentage of Revolving Loans (including Swingline Loans) outstanding as of such Settlement Date. If the summary statement requires transfers to be made to the Administrative Agent by the Lenders and is received prior to 1:00 p.m. New York City time on a Business Day, such transfers shall be made in immediately available funds no later than 3:00 p.m. that day; and, if received after 1:00 p.m. New York City time, then no later than 3:00 p.m. on the next Business Day. The obligation of each Lender to transfer such funds is irrevocable, unconditional and without recourse to or warranty by the Administrative Agent. If and to the extent any Lender shall not have so made its transfer to the Administrative Agent, such Lender agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, forthwith on demand such amount, together with interest thereon, for each day from such date until the date such amount is paid to the Administrative Agent, at the Federal Funds Rate.

Section 2.15. Revolving Commitment Increase.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, after the Closing Date, the Lead Borrowers shall have the right to request, by written notice to the Administrative Agent, an increase in the Revolving Commitments (a "Revolving Commitment Increase") in an aggregate amount not to exceed $75,000,000 from one or more Lenders or prospective Lenders willing to provide such Revolving Commitment Increase in their own discretion; provided that any such prospective Lender shall be subject to the consent of the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Bank and the Swingline Lender (which consents shall not be unreasonably withheld) if such consents would be required in the case of an assignment to such prospective Lender pursuant to Section 12.04(b)(iii)(B) ; provided that (i) the Lead Borrowers shall only be permitted to request 3 Revolving Commitment Increases during the term of this Agreement, (ii) any Revolving Commitment Increase shall be in a minimum amount of $15,000,000 and (iii) in no event shall a Defaulting Lender be entitled to participate in such Revolving Commitment Increase.

(b) Each notice submitted pursuant to this Section 2.15 (a " Revolving Commitment Increase Notice") requesting a Revolving Commitment Increase shall specify the amount of the increase in the Revolving Commitments being requested. In the event that any Lender or other Person agrees to participate in any Revolving Commitment Increase (each an "Increase Loan Lender"), such Revolving Commitment Increase shall become effective on such date as shall be mutually agreed upon by the Increase Loan Lenders and the Lead Borrowers, which date shall be as soon as practicable after the date of receipt of the Revolving Commitment Increase Notice (such date, the "Increase Date"); provided that the establishment of such Revolving Commitment Increase shall be subject to the satisfaction of each of the following conditions: (1) no Default or Event of Default exists or would exist after giving effect thereto; (2) all representations and warranties in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects (or in all respects to the extent that any representation is qualified by materiality), (3) the Revolving Commitment Increase shall be effected pursuant to one or more joinder agreements executed and delivered by the Lead Borrowers, the Administrative Agent, and the Increase Loan Lenders, each of which shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Lead Borrowers, the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Bank, the Swingline Lender and the Increase Loan Lenders; (4) Credit Parties shall execute and deliver or cause to be executed and delivered to the Administrative Agent such amendments to the Credit Documents, legal opinions and other documents as the Administrative Agent may reasonably request in connection with any such transaction, which amendments, legal opinions and other documents shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent; and (5) the Borrowers shall have paid to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders such additional fees as may be agreed to be paid by the Borrowers in connection therewith.

(c) On the Increase Date, upon fulfillment of the conditions set forth in this Section 2.15, (i) the Administrative Agent shall effect a settlement of all outstanding Revolving Loans among the Lenders that will reflect the adjustments to the Revolving Commitments of the Lenders as a result of the Revolving Commitment Increase, (ii) the Administrative Agent shall notify the Lenders and Credit Parties of the occurrence of the Revolving Commitment Increase to be effected on the Increase Date, (iii) Schedule 1.01(c) shall be deemed modified to reflect the revised Revolving Commitments of the affected Lenders and (iv) Notes will be issued, at the expense of the Borrowers, to any Lender participating in the Revolving Commitment Increase and requesting a Note.

(d) The terms and provisions of the Revolving Commitment Increase shall be identical to the Revolving Loans and the Revolving Commitments and, for purposes of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, all Revolving Loans made under the Revolving Commitment Increase shall be deemed to be Revolving Loans; provided, however that notwithstanding the foregoing, upfront or similar fees, rate of interest and unused line fees applicable to the Revolving Commitment Increase may be different than the upfront or similar fees, rate of interest and/or unused line fees applicable to the existing Revolving Loans and the maturity date applicable for the Revolving Commitment Increase may be later than the maturity date applicable to the existing Revolving Loans. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (iv) the Revolving Commitment Increase shall share ratably in any mandatory prepayments of the Revolving Loans, (v) after giving effect to such Revolving Commitment Increases, Revolving Commitments in respect of LC Exposure and Swingline Loans shall be reduced based on each Lender's Pro Rata Percentage, and (vi) the Revolving Commitment Increase shall rank pari passu in right of payment and security with the existing Revolving Loans. Each joinder agreement and any amendment to any Credit Document requested by the Administrative Agent in connection with the establishment of the Revolving Commitment Increase may, without the consent of any of the Lenders, effect such amendments to this Agreement (an "Incremental Revolving Commitment Agreement") and the other Credit Documents as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate, in the opinion of the Administrative Agent and the Lead Borrowers, to effect the provisions of this Section 2.15.

(e) With respect to any Revolving Commitment Increase consummated by a Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.15, (i) all Borrowings shall be funded pro rata amongst the existing Revolving Commitments and any Revolving Commitment Increases, (ii) (F) each Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of any unreimbursed LC Disbursement Section 2.13(e)shall be calculated pursuant to Section 2.13(e) after giving effect to any such Revolving Commitment Increase and (G) if the aggregate amount of all Revolving Commitment Increases having a later maturity date do not exceed the LC Commitment, the LC Commitment shall be reduced upon the date that is five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (to the extent needed so that the LC Commitment does not exceed the aggregate Revolving Commitment which would be in effect after the Maturity Date) and, if applicable, the Borrowers shall Cash Collateralize obligations under any issued Letters of Credit in an amount equal to 102% of the stated amount of such Letters of Credit and (iii) (A) each Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of any Swingline Loan shall be calculated according to Section 2.12(d) after giving effect to any such Revolving Commitment Increase and (B) if the aggregate amount of all Revolving Commitment Increases having a later maturity date do not exceed the Swingline Commitment, the Swingline Commitment shall be reduced upon the date that is five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (to the extent needed so that the Swingline Commitment does not exceed the aggregate Revolving Commitment which would be in effect after the Maturity Date) and, if applicable, the Borrowers shall prepay any outstanding Swingline Loans.

Section 2.16. Lead Borrowers. Each U.S. Borrower hereby designates the Lead U.S. Borrower as its representative and agent and each Canadian Borrower hereby designates the Lead Canadian Borrower as its representative and agent, in each case for all purposes under the Credit Documents, including requests for Revolving Loans and Letters of Credit, designation of interest rates, delivery or receipt of communications, preparation and delivery of Borrowing Base and financial reports, receipt and payment of Obligations, requests for waivers, amendments or other accommodations, actions under the Credit Documents (including in respect of compliance with covenants), and all other dealings with the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Bank or any Lender. The Lead Borrowers each hereby accept such appointment. The Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall be fully protected in relying upon, any notice or communication (including any Notice of Borrowing) delivered by the applicable Lead Borrower on behalf of any Borrower. The Administrative Agent and the Lenders may give any notice or communication with a Borrower hereunder to the applicable Lead Borrower on behalf of such Borrower. Each of the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Bank and the Lenders shall have the right, in its discretion, to deal exclusively with the Lead Borrowers for any or all purposes under the Credit Documents. Each Borrower agrees that any notice, election, communication, representation, agreement or undertaking made on its behalf by the applicable Lead Borrower shall be binding upon and enforceable against it.

Section 2.17. Overadvances. If the Aggregate Exposure outstanding exceeds the Line Cap (an "Overadvance") at any time, the excess amount shall be payable by the Borrowers on demand by the Administrative Agent, but all such Revolving Loans shall nevertheless constitute Obligations secured by the Collateral and entitled to all benefits of the Credit Documents. The Administrative Agent may require the Lenders to honor requests for Overadvance Loans and to forbear from requiring the Borrowers to cure an Overadvance, (a) when no other Event of Default is known to the Administrative Agent, as long as (v) the Overadvance does not continue for more than 30 consecutive days (and no Overadvance may exist for at least five (5) consecutive days thereafter before further Overadvance Loans are required) and (vi) the aggregate amount of all Overadvances and Protective Advances is not known by the Administrative Agent to exceed 10% of the Borrowing Base, (b) regardless of whether an Event of Default exists, if the Administrative Agent discovers an Overadvance not previously known by it to exist, as long as from the date of such discovery the Overadvance (vii) is not increased by more than $1,000,000, and (viii) does not continue for more than 30 consecutive days. In no event shall Overadvance Loans be required that would cause the aggregate outstanding Revolving Loans and LC Obligations to exceed the aggregate Revolving Commitments. The making of any Overadvance shall not create nor constitute a Default or Event of Default; it being understood that the making or continuance of an Overadvance shall not constitute a waiver by the Administrative Agent or the Lenders of the then existing Event of Default. In no event shall any Borrower or other Credit Party be permitted to require any Overadvance Loan to be made.

Section 2.18. Protective Advances. The Administrative Agent shall be authorized, in its discretion, following notice to and consultation with the Lead Borrowers, at any time, to make U.S. Base Rate Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans ("Protective Advances") (a) in an aggregate amount, together with the aggregate amount of all Overadvance Loans, the Dollar Equivalent of which shall not exceed 10% of the Borrowing Base, if the Administrative Agent deems such Protective Advances necessary or desirable to preserve and protect the Collateral, or to enhance the collectability or repayment of the Obligations; or (b) to pay any other amounts chargeable to Credit Parties under any Credit Documents, including costs, fees and expenses; provided that, the aggregate amount of outstanding Protective Advances plus the outstanding amount of Revolving Loans and LC Obligations shall not exceed the aggregate Revolving Commitments. Each Lender shall participate in each Protective Advance in accordance with its Pro Rata Percentage. Required Lenders may at any time revoke the Administrative Agent's authority to make further Protective Advances under clause (a) by written notice to the Administrative Agent. Absent such revocation, the Administrative Agent's determination that funding of a Protective Advance is appropriate shall be conclusive. The Administrative Agent may use the proceeds of such Protective Advances to (a) protect, insure, maintain or realize upon any Collateral; or (b) defend or maintain the validity or priority of the Administrative Agent's Liens in any Collateral, including any payment of a judgment, insurance premium, warehouse charge, finishing or processing charge, or landlord claim, or any discharge of a Lien; provided that the Administrative Agent shall use reasonable efforts to notify the Lead Borrowers after paying any such amount or taking any such action and shall not make payment of any item that is being Properly Contested.

Section 2.19. Extended Loans. (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, subject to the terms of this Section 2.19, the Lead Borrowers may at any time and from time to time when no Event of Default then exists request that all or a portion of the Revolving Loans (the "Existing Revolving Loans"), together with any related outstandings, be converted to extend the scheduled maturity date(s) of any payment of principal with respect to all or any portion of the principal amount (and related outstandings) of such Revolving Loans (any such Revolving Loans which have been so converted, "Extended Revolving Loans") and to provide for other terms consistent with this Section 2.19. In order to establish any Extended Revolving Loans, the applicable Lead Borrower shall provide a notice to the Administrative Agent (who shall provide a copy of such notice to each of the Lenders) (each, an "Extension Request") setting forth the proposed terms of the Extended Revolving Loans to be established, which shall (x) be identical as offered to each Lender (including as to the proposed interest rates and fees payable) and (y) be identical to the Existing Revolving Loans, except that: (iv) repayments of principal of the Extended Revolving Loans may be delayed to later dates than the Maturity Date; (v) the Effective Yield with respect to the Extended Revolving Loans (whether in the form of interest rate margin, upfront fees, original issue discount or otherwise) may be different than the Effective Yield for the Existing Revolving Loans to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment; and (vi) the Extension Amendment may provide for other covenants and terms that apply solely to any period after the Maturity Date that is in effect on the effective date of the Extension Amendment (immediately prior to the establishment of such Extended Revolving Loans); provided, however, that (A) in no event shall the final maturity date of any Extended Revolving Loans at the time of establishment thereof be earlier than the then Maturity Date of any other Revolving Loans hereunder and (B) the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of any Extended Revolving Loans at the time of establishment thereof shall be no shorter than the remaining Weighted Average Life to Maturity of any other Revolving Loans then outstanding. Any Extended Revolving Loans converted pursuant to any Extension Request shall be designated a series (each, an "Extension Series") of Extended Revolving Loans, as applicable, for all purposes of this Agreement; provided that any Extended Revolving Loans converted from Existing Revolving Loans may, to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment, be designated as an increase in any previously established Extension Series with respect to such Revolving Loans.

(b) With respect to any Extended Revolving Loans, subject to the provisions of Sections 2.12(e) and 2.13(o), to the extent dealing with Swingline Loans and Letters of Credit which mature or expire after the Maturity Date, all Swingline Loans and Letters of Credit shall be participated in on a pro rata basis by all Lenders with Revolving Loan Commitments and/or Extended Revolving Loan Commitments in accordance with their Pro Rata Share of the Aggregate Commitments (and, except as provided in Sections 2.12(e) and 2.13(o), without giving effect to changes thereto on the Maturity Date with respect to Swingline Loans and Letters of Credit theretofore incurred or issued) and all borrowings under the Aggregate Commitments and repayments thereunder shall be made on a pro rata basis (except for (x) payments of interest and fees at different rates on Extended Revolving Loan Commitments (and related outstandings) and (y) repayments required upon any Maturity Date of any Revolving Commitments or Extended Revolving Loan Commitments).

(c) The applicable Lead Borrower shall provide the applicable Extension Request at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the date on which Lenders under the Existing Revolving Loans, are requested to respond, and shall agree to such procedures, if any, as may be established by, or acceptable to, the Administrative Agent, in each case acting reasonably to accomplish the purposes of this Section 2.19. No Lender shall have any obligation to agree to have any of its Existing Revolving Loans converted into Extended Revolving Loans pursuant to any Extension Request. Any Lender (each, an "Extending Lender") wishing to have all or a portion of its Existing Revolving Loans subject to such Extension Request converted into Extended Revolving Loans shall notify the Administrative Agent (each, an "Extension Election") on or prior to the date specified in such Extension Request of the amount of its Existing Revolving Loans which it has elected to request be converted into Extended Revolving Loans (subject to any minimum denomination requirements imposed by the Administrative Agent). Any Lender that does not respond to the Extension Request on or prior to the date specified therein shall be deemed to have rejected such Extension. In the event that the aggregate principal amount of Existing Revolving Loans subject to Extension Elections relating to a particular Extension Request exceeds the amount of Extended Revolving Loans requested pursuant to such Extension Request, Revolving Loans subject to such Extension Elections shall be converted to Extended Revolving Loans, on a pro rata basis based on the aggregate principal amount of Revolving Loans included in each such Extension Elections or to the extent such option is expressly set forth in the respective Extension Request, the Lead Borrowers shall have the option to increase the amount of Extended Revolving Loans so that such excess does not exist.

(d) Extended Revolving Loans shall be established pursuant to an amendment (each, an " Extension Amendment") to this Agreement among the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and each Extending Lender providing Extended Revolving Loans thereunder which shall be consistent with the provisions set forth in Section 2.19(a) above (but which shall not require the consent of any other Lender). The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each relevant Lender as to the effectiveness of each Extension Amendment.

(e) With respect to any Extension consummated by a Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.19, (i) such Extension shall not constitute voluntary or mandatory payments or prepayments for purposes of this Agreement, (ii) with respect to Extended Revolving Loan Commitments, if the aggregate amount extended is less than (C) the LC Commitment, the LC Commitment shall be reduced upon the date that is five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (to the extent needed so that the LC Commitment does not exceed the aggregate Revolving Commitment which would be in effect after the Maturity Date, and, if applicable, the Borrowers shall Cash Collateralize obligations under any issued Letters of Credit in an amount equal to 102% of the stated amount of such Letters of Credit, or (D) the Swingline Commitment, the Swingline Commitment shall be reduced upon the date that is five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (to the extent needed so that the Swingline Commitment does not exceed the aggregate Revolving Commitment which would be in effect after the Maturity Date, and, if applicable, the Borrowers shall prepay any outstanding Swingline Loans. The Administrative Agent and the Lenders hereby consent to each Extension and the other transactions contemplated by this Section 2.19 (including, for the avoidance of doubt, payment of any interest or fees in respect of any Extended Revolving Loan Commitments on such terms as may be set forth in the Extension Request) and hereby waive the requirements of any provision of this Credit Agreement or any other Credit Document that may otherwise prohibit any Extension or any other transaction contemplated by this Section 2.19, provided that such consent shall not be deemed to be an acceptance of the Extension Request.

(f) Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that this Agreement and the other Credit Documents may be amended pursuant to an Extension Amendment, without the consent of any other Lenders, to the extent (but only to the extent) necessary to (iii) reflect the existence and terms of any Extended Revolving Loans incurred pursuant thereto, (iv) establish new tranches or sub-tranches in respect of Revolving Loan Commitments so extended and such technical amendments as may be necessary in connection with the establishment of such new tranches or sub-tranches, in each case on terms consistent with this Section 2.19, and (v) effect such other amendments to this Agreement and the other Credit Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and the Lead Borrowers, to effect the provisions of this Section, and the Required Lenders hereby expressly authorize the Administrative Agent to enter into any such Extension Amendment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Administrative Agent shall have the right (but not the obligation) to seek the advice or concurrence of the Required Lenders with respect to any matter contemplated by this Section 2.19 and, if the Administrative Agent seeks such advice or concurrence, the Administrative Agent shall be permitted to enter into such amendments with the Borrowers in accordance with any instructions actually received by such Required Lenders and shall also be entitled to refrain from entering into such amendments with the Borrowers unless and until it shall have received such advice or concurrence; provided, however, that whether or not there has been a request by the Administrative Agent for any such advice or concurrence, all such amendments entered into with the Borrowers by the Administrative Agent hereunder shall be binding and conclusive on the Lenders. Without limiting the foregoing, in connection with any Extension, the applicable Credit Parties shall (at their expense) amend (and the Administrative Agent is hereby directed to amend) any Mortgage that has a maturity date prior to the Latest Maturity Date so that such maturity date is extended to the Latest Maturity Date (or such later date as may be advised by local counsel to the Administrative Agent), to the extent required pursuant to applicable local law.

Section 2.20. Canadian Interest Considerations. The parties hereto intend to comply with applicable law relating to usury. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or any other Credit Document, in no event shall any Credit Document require the payment or permit the collection of interest or other amounts in an amount or at a rate in excess of the amount or rate that is permitted by applicable law or in an amount or at a rate that would result in the receipt by the Lender or the Agents of interest at a criminal rate, as the terms "interest" and "criminal rate" are defined under the Criminal Code (Canada). Where more than one applicable law applies to the Credit Parties, the Credit Parties shall not be obliged to make payment in an amount or at a rate higher than the lowest permitted amount or rate. If from any circumstance whatever, fulfilment of any provision of any Credit Document would result in exceeding the highest rate or amount permitted by applicable law for the collection or charging of interest, the obligation to be fulfilled shall be reduced to reflect the highest permitted rate or amount. If from any circumstance the Agents or the Lenders shall ever receive anything of value as interest or deemed interest under any Credit Document that would result in exceeding the highest lawful rate or amount of interest permitted by applicable law, the amount that would be excessive interest shall be applied to the reduction of the principal amount of the relevant Loan, and not to the payment of interest, or if the excessive interest exceeds the unpaid principal balance of the relevant Loan, the amount exceeding the unpaid balance shall be refunded to the Credit Parties. In determining whether or not the interest paid or payable under any specified contingency exceeds the highest lawful rate, the Credit Parties, the Agents and the Lenders shall, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, (i) characterize any non-principal payment as an expense, fee or premium rather than as interest, (ii) exclude voluntary prepayments and their effects, (iii) amortize, prorate, allocate and spread the total amount of interest throughout the term of the applicable Loan so that interest does not exceed the maximum amount permitted by applicable law, and/or (iv) allocate interest between portions of the Obligations to the end that no portion shall bear interest at a rate greater than that permitted by applicable law. For the purposes of the Criminal Code (Canada), if there is any dispute as to the calculation of the effective annual rate of interest, the determination of a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries appointed by the Agents shall be conclusive.

YIELD PROTECTION, ILLEGALITY AND REPLACEMENT OF LENDERS

Section 3.01. Increased Costs Generally. (g) If any Change in Law shall:

(v) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, compulsory loan, insurance charge or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended or participated in by, any Lender (except any reserve requirement reflected in the LIBO Rate) or any Issuing Bank;

(vi) subject any Recipient to any Taxes (other than (A) Indemnified Taxes and (B) Taxes described in clauses (a) through (d) of the definition of Excluded Taxes) on its loans, loan principal, letters of credit, commitments, or other obligations, or its deposits, reserves, other liabilities or capital attributable thereto; or

(vii) impose on any Lender or any Issuing Bank or the London interbank market or the Canadian interbank market for Canadian Dollar bankers' acceptances any other condition, cost or expense (other than Taxes) affecting this Agreement or Loans made by such Lender or any Letter of Credit or participation therein;

and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender or such other Recipient of making, converting to, continuing or maintaining any Loan or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Loan, or to increase the cost to such Lender, such Issuing Bank or such other Recipient of participating in, issuing or maintaining any Letter of Credit (or of maintaining its obligation to participate in or to issue any Letter of Credit), or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender, Issuing Bank or other Recipient hereunder (whether of principal, interest or any other amount) then, upon request of such Lender, Issuing Bank or other Recipient, the Borrower will pay to such Lender, Issuing Bank or other Recipient, as the case may be, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender, Issuing Bank or other Recipient, as the case may be, for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(h) Capital Requirements. If any Lender or Issuing Bank determines that any Change in Law affecting such Lender or Issuing Bank or any Lending Office of such Lender or such Lender's or Issuing Bank's holding company, if any, regarding capital or liquidity requirements, has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's or Issuing Bank's capital or on the capital of such Lender's or Issuing Bank's holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement, the Commitments of such Lender or the Loans made by, or participations in Letters of Credit or Swingline Loans held by, such Lender, or the Letters of Credit issued by any Issuing Bank, to a level below that which such Lender or Issuing Bank or such Lender's or Issuing Bank's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's or Issuing Bank's policies and the policies of such Lender's or Issuing Bank's holding company with respect to capital adequacy), then from time to time the Borrower will pay to such Lender or Issuing Bank, as the case may be, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or Issuing Bank or such Lender's or Issuing Bank's holding company for any such reduction suffered.

(i) Certificates for Reimbursement. A certificate of a Lender or Issuing Bank setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or Issuing Bank or its holding company, as the case may be, as specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section and delivered to the Borrower, shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrower shall pay such Lender or Issuing Bank, as the case may be, the amount shown as due on any such certificate within ten (10) days after receipt thereof.

(j) Delay in Requests. Failure or delay on the part of any Lender or Issuing Bank to demand compensation pursuant to this Section shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's or Issuing Bank's right to demand such compensation; provided that the Borrowers shall not be required to compensate a Lender or Issuing Bank pursuant to this Section for any increased costs incurred or reductions suffered more than 180 days prior to the date that such Lender or Issuing Bank, as the case may be, notifies the Borrower of the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions, and of such Lender's or Issuing Bank's intention to claim compensation therefor (except that, if the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the 180 day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof).

Section 3.02. Illegality. (i) If any Lender determines that any Law has made it unlawful, or that any Governmental Authority has asserted that it is unlawful, for any Lender or its applicable Lending Office to make, maintain or fund Loans whose interest is determined by reference to the LIBO Rate or CDOR Rate, or to determine or charge interest rates based upon the LIBO Rate or CDOR Rate, or any Governmental Authority has imposed material restrictions on the authority of such Lender to purchase or sell, or to take deposits of U.S. Dollars in the London interbank market or Canadian Dollars in the Canadian interbank market for Canadian Dollar bankers' acceptances, then, on notice thereof by such Lender to the Lead Borrowers through the Administrative Agent, (i) any obligation of such Lender to make or continue LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans (as applicable) or to convert, as applicable U.S. Base Rate Loans to LIBO Rate Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans to CDOR Loans shall be suspended, and (ii) if such notice asserts the illegality of such Lender making or maintaining U.S. Base Rate Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans (as applicable) the interest rate on which is determined by reference to the LIBO Rate component of the U.S. Base Rate or the CDOR Rate component of the Canadian Prime Rate, the interest rate on which U.S. Base Rate Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans of such Lender shall, if necessary to avoid such illegality, be determined by the Administrative Agent without reference to the LIBO Rate component of the U.S. Base Rate or CDOR Rate component of the Canadian Prime Rate (as applicable), in each case until such Lender notifies the Administrative Agent and the Lead Borrowers that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer exist. Upon receipt of such notice, (x) the Borrower shall, upon demand from such Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), prepay or, if applicable, convert all LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans (as applicable) of such Lender to U.S. Base Rate Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans (the interest rate on which U.S. Base Rate Loans or CDOR Loans of such Lender shall, if necessary to avoid such illegality, be determined by the Administrative Agent without reference to the LIBO Rate component of the U.S. Base Rate or the CDOR Rate component of the Canadian Prime Rate), either on the last day of the Interest Period therefor, if such Lender may lawfully continue to maintain such LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans to such day, or immediately, if such Lender may not lawfully continue to maintain such LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans and (y) if such notice asserts the illegality of such Lender determining or charging interest rates based upon the LIBO Rate or CDOR Rate, the Administrative Agent shall during the period of such suspension compute, as applicable, the U.S. Base Rate or Canadian Prime Rate applicable to such Lender without reference to the LIBO Rate component or CDOR Rate component thereof until the Administrative Agent is advised in writing by such Lender that it is no longer illegal for such Lender to determine or charge interest rates based upon the LIBO Rate or CDOR Rate. Upon any such prepayment or conversion, the Borrowers shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so prepaid or converted.

(j) Any Lender may at its option may make any Credit Extension to any Borrower by causing any domestic or foreign branch or Affiliate of such Lender to make such Credit Extension; provided that any exercise of such option shall not affect the obligation of the relevant Borrower to repay such Credit Extension in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; provided, however, if the Lender determines that any Law has made it unlawful, or that any Governmental Authority has asserted that it is unlawful, for such Lender or its applicable Lending Office to issue, make, maintain, fund or any interest rate with respect to any Credit Extension to any Borrower who is organized under the laws of a jurisdiction other than the United States, a state thereof or the District of Columbia then, on notice thereof by such Lender to the Parent, and until such notice by such Lender is revoked, any obligation of such Lender to issue, make, maintain, fund or charge interest with respect to any such Credit Extension shall be suspended. Upon receipt of such notice, the Credit Parties shall, take all reasonable actions requested by such Lender to mitigate or avoid such illegality.

Section 3.03. Compensation. Each Borrower, jointly and severally, agrees to compensate each Lender, upon its written request (which request shall set forth in reasonable detail the basis for requesting such compensation and the calculation of the amount of such compensation), for all losses, expenses and liabilities (including, without limitation, any loss, expense or liability incurred by reason of the liquidation or reemployment of deposits or other funds required by such Lender to fund its LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans but excluding loss of anticipated profits) which such Lender may sustain: (i) if for any reason (other than a default by such Lender or the Administrative Agent) a Borrowing of, or conversion from or into, LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans does not occur on a date specified therefor in a Notice of Borrowing or Notice of Conversion/Continuation (whether or not withdrawn by the applicable Borrower or deemed withdrawn pursuant to Section 3.01(a)); (ii) if any prepayment or repayment (including any termination or reduction of Commitments made pursuant to Section 2.07 or as a result of an acceleration of the Loans pursuant to Article 10) or conversion of any of its LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans occurs on a date which is not the last day of an Interest Period with respect thereto; (iii) if any prepayment of any LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans is not made on any date specified in a notice of termination or reduction given by a Lead Borrower; or (iv) as a consequence of (x) any other default by any Borrower to repay its LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans when required by the terms of this Agreement or any Note held by such Lender or (y) any election made pursuant to Section 3.01(b).

Section 3.04. Change of Lending Office and Replacement of Lenders .

(e) If any Lender requests compensation under Section 3.01, or requires the Borrower to pay any Indemnified Taxes or additional amounts to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 4.01, then such Lender shall (at the request of any Borrower) use reasonable efforts to designate a different Lending Office for funding or booking its Loans hereunder or to assign its rights and obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or affiliates, if, in the judgment of such Lender, such designation or assignment (i) would eliminate or reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 3.01 or Section 4.01, as the case may be, in the future, and (ii) would not subject such Lender to any unreimbursed cost or expense and would not otherwise be disadvantageous to such Lender. The Borrower hereby agrees to pay all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by any Lender in connection with any such designation or assignment.

(f) If any Lender requests compensation under Section 3.01 or if any Borrower is required to pay any Indemnified Taxes or additional amounts to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 4.01 and, in each case, such Lender has declined or is unable to designate a different Lending Office in accordance with Section 3.04(a), the Borrowers may replace such Lender in accordance with Section 12.19.

Section 3.05. [Reserved].

Section 3.06. Inability to Determine Rates. If the Required Lenders determine in good faith that for any reason (d) Dollar deposits are not being offered to banks in the London interbank eurodollar market for the applicable amount and Interest Period of such LIBO Rate Loan, (e) Canadian Dollar deposits are not being offered to banks in the Canadian interbank market for Canadian Dollar bankers' acceptances for the applicable amount and Interest Period of such CDOR Loan, (f) adequate and reasonable means do not exist for determining the LIBO Rate or CDOR Loan for any requested Interest Period with respect to a proposed LIBO Rate Loan or CDOR Loan, or (g) that LIBO Rate or CDOR Loan for any requested Interest Period with respect to a proposed LIBO Rate Loan or CDOR Loan does not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lenders of funding such Loan, the Administrative Agent will promptly so notify the Lead Borrowers and each Lender. Thereafter, (x) the obligation of the Lenders to make or maintain LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans shall be suspended, and (y) in the event of a determination described in the preceding sentence with respect to the LIBO Rate or CDOR Rate component of the U.S. Base Rate or Canadian Prime Rate, the utilization of the LIBO Rate or CDOR Rate component in determining the U.S. Base Rate or Canadian Prime Rate shall be suspended, in each case until the Administrative Agent (upon the instruction of the Required Lenders) revokes such notice. Upon receipt of such notice, the applicable Lead Borrower may revoke any pending request for a Borrowing of, conversion to or continuation of LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans or, failing that, will be deemed to have converted such request into a request for a Borrowing of LIBO Rate Loans or CDOR Loans in the amount specified therein.

TAXES

Section 4.01. Net Payments. (k) All payments made by or on account of any Credit Party under any Credit Document shall be made free and clear of, and without deduction or withholding for, any Taxes, except as required by applicable law (as determined in the good-faith discretion of the withholding agent). If any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes are required to be withheld or deducted from such payments, then the Credit Parties jointly and severally agree that (i) to the extent such deduction or withholding is on account of an Indemnified Tax or Other Tax, the sum payable by the Credit Parties shall be increased as necessary so that after making all required deductions or withholding (including deduction or withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 4.01), the Administrative Agent or Lender (as the case may be) receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions or withholdings been made, (ii) the applicable withholding agent will make such deductions or withholdings, and (iii) the applicable withholding agent shall timely pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law. In addition, the Credit Parties shall timely pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law. As soon as practicable after any payment of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes to a Governmental Authority, the Credit Parties will furnish to the Administrative Agent certified copies of tax receipts evidencing such payment by the applicable Credit Party, a copy of the return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent. The Credit Parties jointly and severally agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Administrative Agent and each Lender, and reimburse the Administrative Agent and each Lender, within ten (10) days of written request therefor, for the amount of any Indemnified Taxes (including any Indemnified Taxes imposed on amounts payable under this Section 4.01) payable or paid by the Administrative Agent or such Lender or required to be withheld or deducted from a payment to the Administrative Agent or such Lender, and any Other Taxes, and any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to the Borrower by a Lender or the Issuing Bank (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), or by the Administrative Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of a Lender or the Issuing Bank, shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(l) Any Lender that is entitled to an exemption from or reduction of withholding Tax with respect to payments made under any Credit Document shall deliver to the Parent and the Administrative Agent, at the time or times reasonably requested by the Parent or the Administrative Agent, such properly completed and executed documentation reasonably requested by the Parent or the Administrative Agent, certifying as to any entitlement of such Lender to an exemption from, or a reduce rate of, withholding Tax. In addition, each Lender shall deliver to the Parent and the Administrative Agent, at the time or times reasonably requested by the Parent or the Administrative Agent, such other documentation prescribed by applicable law or reasonably requested by the Parent or the Administrative Agent as will enable the Parent or the Administrative Agent to determine whether such Lender is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Each Lender shall, whenever a lapse in time or change in circumstances renders such documentation (including any specific documents required below in Section 4.01(c)) expired, obsolete or inaccurate in any respect, deliver promptly to the Parent and the Administrative Agent updated or other appropriate documentation (including any new documentation reasonably requested by the Parent or the Administrative Agent) or promptly notify the Parent and the Administrative Agent in writing of its inability to do so.

(m) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing: (x) Each Lender that is not a United States person (as such term is defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) shall deliver to the Parent and the Administrative Agent on or prior to the Closing Date or, in the case of a Lender that is a Lender to the Parent and that is an assignee or transferee of an interest under this Agreement pursuant to Section 12.04 or Section 12.19 (unless the relevant Lender was already a Lender hereunder immediately prior to such assignment or transfer), on the date of such assignment or transfer to such Lender, (i) two accurate and complete original signed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN (or successor form) claiming eligibility for benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party or Form W-8ECI (or successor form), or (ii) in the case of a Lender claiming exemption from U.S. federal withholding tax under Section 871(h) or 881(c) of the Code with respect to payments of "portfolio interest," a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit C (any such certificate, a "U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate") and two accurate and complete original signed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN (or successor form) certifying to such Lender's entitlement as of such date to a complete exemption from U.S. withholding tax with respect to payments of interest to be made under this Agreement and under any Note; or (iii) to the extent a Lender is not the beneficial owner (for example, where the Lender is a partnership or a participating Lender), two accurate and complete original signed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8IMY (or successor form) of the Lender, accompanied by Form W-8ECI, Form W-8BEN, U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate, Form W-8IMY, and/or any other required information (or successor or other applicable form) from each beneficial owner that would be required under this Section 4.01(c) if such beneficial owner were a Lender (provided that, if the Lender is a partnership for U.S. federal income Tax purposes (and not a participating Lender), and one or more beneficial owners are claiming the portfolio interest exemption), the U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate may be provided by such Lender on behalf of such beneficial owners); (y) Each Lender to the Parent that is a United States person, as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code, shall deliver to the Parent and the Administrative Agent, at the times specified in Section 4.01(b), two accurate and complete original signed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-9, or any successor form that such Person is entitled to provide at such time, in order to qualify for an exemption from U.S. federal backup withholding requirements; and (z) if any payment made to a Lender under any Credit Document would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Sections 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the Parent and the Administrative Agent, at the time or times prescribed by applicable law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Parent or the Administrative Agent, such documentation prescribed by applicable law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Parent or the Administrative Agent as may be necessary for the Parent or the Administrative Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA, to determine whether such Lender has complied with such Lender's obligations under FATCA or to determine, if necessary, the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this Section 4.01(c)(z), "FATCA" shall include any amendment made to FATCA after the Closing Date.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 4.01, a Lender shall not be required to deliver any form that such Lender is not legally eligible to deliver.

(n) If the Administrative Agent or any Lender determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by the Credit Parties or with respect to which a Credit Party has paid additional amounts pursuant to Section 4.01(a), it shall pay to the relevant Credit Party an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made, or additional amounts paid, by such Credit Party under Section 4.01(a) with respect to the Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including any Taxes) of the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as the case may be, and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund), provided that the relevant Credit Party, upon the request of the Administrative Agent or such Lender, agrees to repay the amount paid over to such Credit Party (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) to the Administrative Agent or such Lender in the event the Administrative Agent or such Lender is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 4.04(d), in no event will the Administrative Agent or any Lender be required to pay any amount to any Credit Party pursuant to this Section 4.04(d) the payment of which would place the Administrative Agent or any Lender in a less favorable net after-Tax position than such party would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This Section 4.04(d) shall not be construed to require any Administrative Agent or any Lender to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to any Credit Party or any other Person.

(o) For the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of Section 4.01, the term " Lender" shall include any Issuing Bank.

(p) Each party's obligations under this Section 4.01 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent or any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all obligations under any Credit Document.

Section 8.10. Payment of Taxes. The Parent will pay and discharge prior to or when due, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to pay and discharge, all material Taxes imposed upon it or upon its income or profits or upon any properties belonging to it and all material lawful claims which, if unpaid, might become a Lien or charge upon any properties of the Parent or any of its Subsidiaries not otherwise permitted under Section 9.01(a); provided that neither the Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries shall be required to pay any such Tax which is being contested in good faith and by appropriate proceedings if it has maintained adequate reserves with respect thereto in accordance with IFRS.

All security interests and mortgage liens shall be granted pursuant to documentation reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to the Administrative Agent and (subject to exceptions as are reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent) shall constitute, upon taking all necessary perfection action (which the Credit Parties agree to promptly take) valid and enforceable perfected security interests and mortgage liens (except to the extent that the enforceability thereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement, moratorium or other similar laws generally affecting creditors' rights and by equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law), subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, superior to and prior to the rights of all third Persons and subject to no other Liens except for Permitted Liens. (c) If the Administrative Agent reasonably determines that it or the Lenders are required by law or regulation to have appraisals prepared in respect of any Mortgaged Property, the Parent will, at its own expense, provide to the Administrative Agent appraisals which (to the extent applicable) satisfy the applicable requirements of the Real Estate Appraisal Reform Amendments of the Financial Institution Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989, as amended, and which shall otherwise be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent.

(d) The Parent agrees that each action required by clauses (a) through (d) of this Section 8.12 shall be completed as soon as reasonably practicable, but in no event later than 90 days after such action is required to be taken pursuant to such clauses or requested to be taken by the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders (or such longer period as the Administrative Agent shall otherwise agree), as the case may be; provided that in no event will the Parent or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries be required to take any action, other than using its commercially reasonable efforts, to obtain consents from third parties with respect to its compliance with this Section 8.12.

Section 8.13. Post-Closing Actions. The Parent agrees that it will, or will cause its relevant Subsidiaries to, complete each of the actions described on Schedule 8.13 as soon as commercially reasonable and by no later than the date set forth in Schedule 8.13 with respect to such action or such later date as the Administrative Agent may reasonably agree.

(g) Subject to the provisions of this Section 8.14 and the requirements contained in the definition of Permitted Acquisition, the Parent and its Restricted Subsidiaries may from time to time after the Closing Date effect Permitted Acquisitions, so long as (in each case except to the extent the Required Lenders otherwise specifically agree in writing in the case of a specific Permitted Acquisition):

(iii) no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of the consummation of the proposed Permitted Acquisition or immediately after giving effect thereto;

(iv) the Acquired Entity or Business shall be engaged in a business permitted by Section 9.09;

(vi) after completion of the Permitted Acquisition, neither the Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries maintains, contributes to, or has any liability or contingent liability with respect to Canadian Defined Benefit Plans, where Canadian Unfunded Pension Liability exists in an amount exceeding the Threshold Amount or in such amount as would reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect; and

(vii) the Parent shall have delivered to the Administrative Agent and each Lender a certificate executed by its chief financial officer or treasurer, certifying to the best of such officer's knowledge, compliance with the requirements of the preceding clauses (i) through (iv), inclusive.

(h) At the time of each Permitted Acquisition involving the creation or acquisition of a Restricted Subsidiary, or the acquisition of Equity Interests of any Person, the Equity Interests thereof created or acquired in connection with such Permitted Acquisition shall be pledged for the benefit of the Secured Creditors pursuant to (and to the extent required by) the Pledge Agreement; provided that the pledge of the outstanding capital stock of any FSHCO or CFC shall be limited to (x) no more than sixty-five percent (65%) of the total combined voting power for all classes of the voting Equity Interests of such Foreign Subsidiary and (y) one-hundred percent (100%) of the non- voting Equity Interest of such FSHCO or CFC; provided that for the avoidance of doubt, no FSHCO or CFC shall be required to pledge any of its assets in connection with any such Permitted Acquisition.

(i) The Parent shall cause each Restricted Subsidiary (other than an Excluded Subsidiary, subject to clause (a)(iii) of Section 8.14(a)) which is formed to effect, or is acquired pursuant to, a Permitted Acquisition to comply with, and to execute and deliver all of the documentation as and to the extent required by, Section 8.12, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Administrative Agent.

(j) The consummation of each Permitted Acquisition shall be deemed to be a representation and warranty by the Parent that the certifications pursuant to this Section 8.14 are true and correct in all material respects and that all conditions thereto have been satisfied and that same is permitted in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, which representation and warranty shall be deemed to be a representation and warranty for all purposes hereunder, including, without limitation, Articles 7 and 10.

Section 8.16. Designation of Subsidiaries. The Parent may at any time after the Closing Date designate any Subsidiary acquired or created after the Closing Date as an Unrestricted Subsidiary or any Unrestricted Subsidiary as a Restricted Subsidiary by written notice to the Administrative Agent; provided that (i) the Payment Conditions shall be satisfied for such designation, (ii) immediately before and after such designation, no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, (iii) immediately after giving effect to such designation, the Consolidated Total Net Leverage Ratio, determined on a Pro Forma Basis as of the last day of the Test Period then most recently ended (or, if no Test Period has ended as of such time, as of the last day of the period of four consecutive fiscal quarters of the Parent then most recently ended for which financial statements have been delivered), does not exceed 5.50 to 1.00, (iv) in the case of the designation of any Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary, such designation shall constitute an Investment in such Unrestricted Subsidiary for purposes of Section 9.05 (calculated as an amount equal to the sum of (x) the net worth of the Subsidiary designated immediately prior to such designation (such net worth to be calculated without regard to any Obligations of such Subsidiary under the Guaranty) and (y) the aggregate principal amount of any Indebtedness owed by the Subsidiary to the Parent or any of its Subsidiaries immediately prior to such designation, all calculated, except as set forth in the parenthetical to clause (x) above, on a consolidated basis in accordance with IFRS), and such Investment must otherwise be permitted at such time under Section 9.05, (v) no Subsidiary may be designated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary if it is a "Restricted Subsidiary" for the purpose of (I) the Term Loan Credit Agreement, (II) any Refinancing Notes Indenture, any Permitted Junior Notes Document or (III) any other debt instrument, in the case of this clause (III), with a principal amount in excess of the Threshold Amount, (vi) immediately after giving effect to the designation of an Unrestricted Subsidiary as a Restricted Subsidiary, the Parent shall comply with the provisions of Section 8.12 with respect to such designated Restricted Subsidiary, (vii) no Restricted Subsidiary may be a Subsidiary of an Unrestricted Subsidiary, (viii) in the case of the designation of any Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary, no recourse whatsoever (whether by contract or by operation of law or otherwise) may be had to the Parent or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries or any of their respective properties or assets for any obligations of such Unrestricted Subsidiary, and (ix) the Parent shall have delivered to the Administrative Agent and each Lender a certificate executed by its chief financial officer or treasurer, certifying to the best of such officer's knowledge, compliance with the requirements of the preceding clauses (i) through (viii), inclusive, and containing the calculations (in reasonable detail) required by the preceding clause (iii). The designation of any Unrestricted Subsidiary as a Restricted Subsidiary shall constitute (i) the incurrence at the time of designation of any Investment, Indebtedness or Liens of such Subsidiary existing at such time and (ii) a return on any Investment by the Parent in Unrestricted Subsidiaries pursuant to the preceding sentence in an amount equal to the fair market value at the date of such designation of the Parent's Investment in such Subsidiary. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, [Redacted – Name of Subsidiary] may not be designated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary.

Section 10.02. Remedies Upon Event of Default. If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Administrative Agent may, with the consent of the Required Lenders, and shall, upon the written request of the Required Lenders, in each case by written notice to the Parent, take any or all of the following actions, without prejudice to the rights of the Administrative Agent, any Lender or the holder of any Note to enforce its claims against any Credit Party (provided that , if an Event of Default specified in Section 10.01(e) shall occur with respect to any Credit Party, the result which would occur upon the giving of written notice by the Administrative Agent as specified in clauses (a) and (b) below shall occur automatically without the giving of any such notice): (a) declare the Aggregate Commitments terminated, whereupon all Commitments of each Lender shall forthwith terminate immediately; (b) declare the principal of and any accrued interest in respect of all Loans and the Notes and all Obligations owing hereunder and thereunder to be, whereupon the same shall become, forthwith due and payable without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby waived by each Credit Party; (c) enforce, as Collateral Agent, all of the Liens and security interests created pursuant to the Security Documents; (d) enforce the Guaranty, (e) terminate, reduce or condition any Revolving Commitment, or make any adjustment to the Borrowing Base and (f) require the Credit Parties to Cash Collateralize LC Obligations, and, if the Credit Parties fail promptly to deposit such Cash Collateral, the Administrative Agent may (and shall upon the direction of Required Lenders) advance the required Cash Collateral as Revolving Loans (whether or not an Overadvance exists or is created thereby, or the conditions in Section 6.01 are satisfied).

Section 10.03. Application of Funds. After the exercise of remedies provided for above (or after the Loans have automatically become immediately due and payable and the LC Exposure has automatically been required to be Cash Collateralized as set forth above), any amounts received on account of the Obligations (including without limitation, proceeds received by the Administrative Agent in respect of any sale of, collection from, or other realization upon, all or any part of the Collateral (including, without limitation, pursuant to the exercise by the Administrative Agent of its remedies during the continuance of an Event of Default) or otherwise received on account of the Obligations) shall, subject to the provisions of Sections 2.11 and 2.13(j), be applied in the following order:

First, to the payment of all reasonable costs and out-of-pocket expenses, fees, commissions and taxes of such sale, collection or other realization including, without limitation, compensation to the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and all expenses, liabilities and advances made or incurred by the Administrative Agent in connection therewith;

Second, to the payment of all other reasonable costs and out-of-pocket expenses of such sale, collection or other realization including, without limitation, costs and expenses and all costs, liabilities and advances made or incurred by the other Secured Creditors in connection therewith (other than in respect of Secured Bank Product Obligations);

Third, to interest then due and payable on the Swingline Loans;

Fourth, to the principal balance of the Swingline Loans outstanding until the same has been prepaid in full;

Fifth, to interest then due and payable on Revolving Loans and other amounts due pursuant to Sections 3.01, 3.02 and 4.01;

Sixth, to Cash Collateralize all LC Exposures (to the extent not otherwise Cash Collateralized pursuant to the terms hereof) plus any accrued and unpaid interest thereon;

Seventh, to the principal balance of Revolving Borrowings then outstanding and all Obligations on account of Noticed Hedges with Secured Creditors, pro rata;

Eighth, to all other Obligations pro rata; and Ninth, the balance, if any, as required by the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement or any Additional Intercreditor Agreement or, in the absence of any such requirement, to the Person lawfully entitled thereto (including the applicable Credit Party or its successors or assigns).

Amounts used to Cash Collateralize the aggregate undrawn amount of Letters of Credit pursuant to clause Sixth above shall be applied to satisfy drawings under such Letters of Credit as they occur. If any amount remains on deposit as Cash Collateral after all Letters of Credit have either been fully drawn or expired, such remaining amount shall be applied to the other Obligations, if any, in the order set forth above. Amounts distributed with respect to any Secured Bank Product Obligations shall be the lesser of the maximum Secured Bank Product Obligations last reported to the Administrative Agent or the actual Secured Bank Product Obligations as calculated by the methodology reported to the Administrative Agent for determining the amount due. The Administrative Agent shall have no obligation to calculate the amount to be distributed with respect to any Secured Bank Product Obligations, and may request a reasonably detailed calculation of such amount from the applicable Secured Creditor. If a Secured Creditor fails to deliver such calculation within five (5) days following request by the Administrative Agent, the Administrative Agent may assume the amount to be distributed is zero.

In the event that any such proceeds are insufficient to pay in full the items described in clauses First through Eighth of this Section 10.03, the Credit Parties shall remain liable for any deficiency. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, this Section 10.03 is subject to the provisions of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT

Section 11.01. Appointment and Authority. (t) Each of the Lenders and the Issuing Banks hereby irrevocably appoints Bank of America to act on its behalf as the Administrative Agent hereunder and under the other Credit Documents and authorizes the Administrative Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Administrative Agent by the terms hereof or thereof, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. The provisions of this Article are solely for the benefit of the Administrative Agent, the Lenders and the Issuing Banks, and neither the Borrowers nor any other Credit Party shall have rights as a third party beneficiary of any of such provisions. It is understood and agreed that the use of the term "agent" herein or in any other Credit Documents (or any other similar term) with reference to the Administrative Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable Law. Instead such term is used as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between contracting parties.

(u) The Administrative Agent shall also act as the "Collateral Agent" under the Credit Documents, and each of the Lenders, the Issuing Banks hereby irrevocably appoints and authorizes the Administrative Agent to act as the agent of such Lender and the Issuing Banks for purposes of acquiring, holding and enforcing any and all Liens on Collateral granted by any of the Credit Parties to secure any of the Obligations, together with such powers and discretion as are reasonably incidental thereto. In this connection, the Administrative Agent, as "collateral agent" and any co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact appointed by the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 11.05 for purposes of holding or enforcing any Lien on the Collateral (or any portion thereof) granted under the Security Documents, or for exercising any rights and remedies thereunder at the direction of the Administrative Agent), shall be entitled to the benefits of all provisions of this Article 11 (including Section 11.05, as though such co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact were the "collateral agent" under the Credit Documents) as if set forth in full herein with respect thereto.

Section 11.02. Rights as a Lender. The Person serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent and the term "Lender" or "Lenders" shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the Person serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder in its individual capacity. Such Person and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, own securities of, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Parent or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if such Person were not the Administrative Agent hereunder and without any duty to account therefor to the Lenders.

Section 11.03. Exculpatory Provisions. The Administrative Agent shall not have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth herein and in the other Credit Documents, and its duties hereunder shall be administrative in nature. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent:

(ll) shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default has occurred and is continuing;

(mm) shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby or by the other Credit Documents that the Administrative Agent is required to exercise as directed in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Credit Documents), provided that the Administrative Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose the Administrative Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Credit Document or applicable law, including for the avoidance of doubt any action that may be in violation of the automatic stay under any Debtor Relief Law or that may effect a forfeiture, modification or termination of property of a Defaulting Lender in violation of any Debtor Relief Law; and

(nn) shall not, except as expressly set forth herein and in the other Credit Documents, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to the Borrower or any of its Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by the Person serving as the Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity.

(oo) The Administrative Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (i) with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary, or as the Administrative Agent shall believe in good faith shall be necessary, under the circumstances as provided in Section 10.02 and Section 12.10) or (ii) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by a final and nonappealable judgment. The Administrative Agent shall be deemed not to have knowledge of any Default unless and until notice describing such Default is given to the Administrative Agent by the Borrower, a Lender or the Issuing Banks.

(pp) The Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement or any other Credit Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein or the occurrence of any Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement, any other Credit Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien purported to be created by the Security Documents, (v) the value or the sufficiency of any Collateral, or (v) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article 5 or elsewhere herein, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Administrative Agent.

Section 11.04. Reliance by Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, Internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or otherwise authenticated by the proper Person. The Administrative Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan, or the issuance, extension, renewal or increase of a Letter of Credit, that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender or any Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender or such Issuing Bank unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice to the contrary from such Lender or such Issuing Bank prior to the making of such Loan or the issuance of such Letter of Credit. The Administrative Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Parent or the Lead Borrowers), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

Section 11.05. Delegation of Duties. The Administrative Agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers hereunder or under any other Credit Document by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Related Parties. The exculpatory provisions of this Article shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Related Parties of the Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any sub-agents except to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction determines in a final and nonappealable judgment that the Administrative Agent acted with gross negligence or willful misconduct in the selection of such sub-agents.

Section 11.06. Resignation of Administrative Agent. (p) The Administrative Agent may at any time give notice of its resignation to the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and the Borrower. Upon receipt of any such notice of resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right, in consultation with the Borrower, to appoint a successor, which shall be a bank with an office in the United States, or an Affiliate of any such bank with an office in the United States. If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Administrative Agent gives notice of its resignation, (or such earlier day as shall be agreed by the Required Lenders) (the "Resignation Effective Date"), then the retiring Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) on behalf of the Lenders and the Issuing Banks, appoint a successor Administrative Agent meeting the qualifications set forth above. Whether or not a successor has been appointed, such resignation shall become effective in accordance with such notice on the Resignation Effective Date.

(q) If the Person serving as Administrative Agent is a Defaulting Lender pursuant to clause (d) of the definition thereof, the Required Lenders may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, by notice in writing to the Borrower and such Person remove such Person as Administrative Agent and, in consultation with the Borrower, appoint a successor. If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days (or such earlier day as shall be agreed by the Required Lenders) (the "Removal Effective Date"), then such removal shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice on the Removal Effective Date.

(r) With effect from the Resignation Effective Date or the Removal Effective Date (as applicable) (1) the retiring or removed Administrative Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Credit Documents (except that in the case of any collateral security held by the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Lenders or the Issuing Banks under any of the Credit Documents, the retiring Administrative Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security until such time as a successor Administrative Agent is appointed) and (2) except for any indemnity payments or other amounts then owed to the retiring or removed Administrative Agent, all payments, communications and determinations provided to be made by, to or through the Administrative Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender and each Issuing Bank directly, until such time, if any, as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Administrative Agent as provided for above. Upon the acceptance of a successor's appointment as Administrative Agent hereunder, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring (or removed) Administrative Agent (other than as provided in Section 3.01(g) and other than any rights to indemnity payments or other amounts owed to the retiring or removed Administrative Agent as of the Resignation Effective Date or the Removal Effective Date, as applicable), and the retiring or removed Administrative Agent shall be discharged from all of its duties and obligations hereunder or under the other Credit Documents (if not already discharged therefrom as provided above in this Section). The fees payable by the Borrower to a successor Administrative Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrower and such successor. After the retiring or removed Administrative Agent's resignation or removal hereunder and under the other Credit Documents, the provisions of this Article shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring or removed Administrative Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while the retiring or removed Administrative Agent was acting as Administrative Agent.

(s) Any resignation or removal by Bank of America as Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section shall also constitute its resignation as Issuing Bank and Swingline Lender. If Bank of America resigns as an Issuing Bank, it shall retain all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of an Issuing Bank hereunder with respect to all Letters of Credit outstanding as of the effective date of its resignation as Issuing Bank and all Obligations with respect thereto, including the right to require the Lenders to make U.S. Base Rate Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans or fund risk participations in unreimbursed LC Disbursements pursuant to Section 2.13(e). If Bank of America resigns as Swingline Lender, it shall retain all the rights of the Swingline Lender provided for hereunder with respect to Swingline Loans made by it and outstanding as of the effective date of such resignation, including the right to require the Lenders to make U.S. Base Rate Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans or fund risk participations in outstanding Swingline Loans pursuant to Section 2.12(d). Until the appointment of a successor Swingline Lender, Swingline Loans will not be available. Upon the appointment by the Borrower of a successor Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender hereunder (which successor shall in all cases be a Lender other than a Defaulting Lender), (a) such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender, as applicable, (b) the retiring Issuing Bank and Swingline Lender shall be discharged from all of their respective duties and obligations hereunder or under the other Credit Documents, and (c) the successor Issuing Bank shall issue letters of credit in substitution for the Letters of Credit, if any, outstanding at the time of such succession or make other arrangements satisfactory to Bank of America to effectively assume the obligations of Bank of America with respect to such Letters of Credit.

Section 11.07. Non-Reliance on Administrative Agent and Other Lenders . Each Lender and each Issuing Bank acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement. Each Lender and each Issuing Bank also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement, any other Credit Document or any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder.

Section 11.08. No Other Duties, Etc. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, none of the Bookrunners, Arrangers or other titles as necessary listed on the cover page hereof shall have any powers, duties or responsibilities under this Agreement or any of the other Credit Documents, except in its capacity, as applicable, as the Administrative Agent, a Lender or an Issuing Bank hereunder.

Section 11.09. Administrative Agent May File Proofs of Claim; Credit Bidding. In case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relative to any Credit Party, the Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan or Obligation shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrower) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise

(j) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans, Letters of Credit and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders, any Issuing Bank and the Administrative Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and the Administrative Agent and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and the Administrative Agent under Section 2.05, Section 12.01 or Section 12.16 allowed in such judicial proceeding; and

(k) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender and the Issuing Banks to make such payments to the Administrative Agent and, if the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders and the Issuing Banks, to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under Section 2.05, Section 12.01 and Section 12.16.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender or Issuing Bank any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender or Issuing Bank to authorize the Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of such Lender or such Issuing Bank or in any such proceeding.

The Secured Parties hereby irrevocably authorize the Administrative Agent, at the direction of the Required Lenders, to credit bid all or any portion of the Obligations (including accepting some or all of the Collateral in satisfaction of some or all of the Secured Obligations pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise) and in such manner purchase (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) all or any portion of the Collateral (a) at any sale thereof conducted under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code of the United States, including under Sections 363, 1123 or 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code of the United States, or under the provisions of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) or the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada) or any similar Laws in any other jurisdictions to which a Credit Party is subject, (b) at any other sale or foreclosure or acceptance of collateral in lieu of debt conducted by (or with the consent or at the direction of) the Administrative Agent (whether by judicial action or otherwise) in accordance with any applicable Law. In connection with any such credit bid and purchase, the Obligations owed to the Secured Parties shall be entitled to be, and shall be, credit bid on a ratable basis (with Obligations with respect to contingent or unliquidated claims receiving contingent interests in the acquired assets on a ratable basis that would vest upon the liquidation of such claims in an amount proportional to the liquidated portion of the contingent claim amount used in allocating the contingent interests) in the asset or assets so purchased (or in the Equity Interests or debt instruments of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles that are used to consummate such purchase). In connection with any such bid (i) the Administrative Agent shall be authorized to form one or more acquisition vehicles to make a bid, (ii) to adopt documents providing for the governance of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles (provided that any actions by the Administrative Agent with respect to such acquisition vehicle or vehicles, including any disposition of the assets or Equity Interests thereof shall be governed, directly or indirectly, by the vote of the Required Lenders, irrespective of the termination of this Agreement and without giving effect to the limitations on actions by the Required Lenders contained in clauses (i) through (vi) of Section 12.10(a), (iii) the Administrative Agent shall be authorized to assign the relevant Obligations to any such acquisition vehicle pro rata by the Lenders, as a result of which each of the Lenders shall be deemed to have received a pro rata portion of any Equity Interests and/or debt instruments issued by such an acquisition vehicle on account of the assignment of the Obligations to be credit bid, all without the need for any Secured Party or acquisition vehicle to take any further action, and (iv) to the extent that Obligations that are assigned to an acquisition vehicle are not used to acquire Collateral for any reason (as a result of another bid being higher or better, because the amount of Obligations assigned to the acquisition vehicle exceeds the amount of debt credit bid by the acquisition vehicle or otherwise), such Obligations shall automatically be reassigned to the Lenders pro rata and the Equity Interests and/or debt instruments issued by any acquisition vehicle on account of the Obligations that had been assigned to the acquisition vehicle shall automatically be cancelled, without the need for any Secured Party or any acquisition vehicle to take any further action.

Section 11.10. Collateral and Guaranty Matters. Without limiting the provision of Section 11.09, each of the Lenders and Issuing Banks irrevocably authorizes the Administrative Agent, at its option and in its discretion,

(g) release any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Administrative Agent under any Credit Document (i) upon termination of the Aggregate Commitments and payment in full of all Obligations (other than (A) contingent indemnification obligations and (B) obligations and liabilities in respect of Secured Bank Product Obligations as to which arrangements satisfactory to the applicable Secured Bank Product Provider shall have been made) and the expiration or termination of all Letters of Credit (other than Letters of Credit as to which other arrangements satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and the applicable Issuing Bank shall have been made), (ii) that is sold or otherwise disposed of or to be sold or otherwise disposed of as part of or in connection with any sale or other disposition permitted hereunder or under any other Credit Document to a Person that is not a Credit Party, (iii) that constitutes "Excluded Collateral" (as such term is defined in the Security Agreement), or (iv) if approved, authorized or ratified in writing in accordance with Section 12.10;

(h) to release any Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty if such Person ceases to be a Subsidiary as a result of a transaction permitted under the Credit Documents; and

(i) to subordinate any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Administrative Agent under any Credit Document to the holder of any Lien on such property that is permitted by Section 9.01(f).

Upon request by the Administrative Agent at any time, the Required Lenders will confirm in writing the Administrative Agent's authority to release or subordinate its interest in particular types or items of property, or to release any Guarantor from its obligations under any Guaranty pursuant to this Section 11.10. In each case as specified in this Section 11.10, the Administrative Agent will, at each Borrower's expense, execute and deliver to the applicable Credit Party such documents as such Credit Party may reasonably request to evidence the release of such item of Collateral from the assignment and security interest granted under the Security Documents or to subordinate its interest in such item, or to release such Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Credit Documents and this Section 11.10.

The Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for or have a duty to ascertain or inquire into any representation or warranty regarding the existence, value or collectability of the Collateral, the existence, priority or perfection of the Administrative Agent's Lien thereon, or any certificate prepared by any Credit Party in connection therewith, nor shall the Administrative Agent be responsible or liable to the Lenders for any failure to monitor or maintain any portion of the Collateral.

Without limiting the powers of the Collateral Agent under this Agreement and the Security Documents, each Lender and the Collateral Agent acknowledges and agrees that the Collateral Agent shall, for the purposes of holding any security granted under the Security Documents governed by the laws of the Province of Québec to secure payment of bonds or any other title of indebtedness (collectively, in this subsection, the "Bonds"), be the holder of an irrevocable power of attorney (fondé de pouvoir), within the meaning of Article 2692 of the Civil Code of Québec, for all present and future holders and depositaries of the Bonds. Each of the Lenders and the Collateral Agent constitutes, to the extent necessary, the Collateral Agent as the holder of such irrevocable power of attorney (fondé de pouvoir) in order to hold security granted under the Security Documents governed by the laws of the Province of Québec to secure payment of the Bonds. Each Person who becomes a Lender and any successor to the Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have confirmed and ratified the constitution of the Collateral Agent as the holder of such irrevocable power of attorney (fondé de pouvoir). Furthermore, the Lenders hereby authorize the Collateral Agent to act in the capacity of the holder and depositary of any Bond for the benefit of all present and future Lenders. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 32 of an Act respecting the Special Powers of Legal Persons (Québec), the Collateral Agent may acquire and be the holder of a Bond. Each Credit Party acknowledges that each of the Bonds executed by it shall constitute a title of indebtedness, as such term is used in Article 2692 of the Civil Code of Québec. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 12.07, the provisions of this subsection shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Québec and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein.

Section 11.11. Secured Bank Product Obligations . Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein or in any other Credit Document, no Secured Bank Product Provider that obtains the benefits of Section 10.03, the Guaranty or any Collateral by virtue of the provisions hereof or of the Guaranty or any Collateral Document shall have any right to notice of any action or to consent to, direct or object to any action hereunder or under any other Credit Document or otherwise in respect of the Collateral (including the release or impairment of any Collateral) other than in its capacity as a Lender and, in such case, only to the extent expressly provided in the Credit Documents. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article 11 to the contrary, the Administrative Agent shall not be required to verify the payment of, or that other satisfactory arrangements have been made with respect to, Obligations arising under Secured Bank Product Obligations unless the Administrative Agent has received written notice of such Obligations, together with such supporting documentation as the Administrative Agent may request, from the applicable Secured Bank Product Provider.

Section 11.12. Special Provisions Applicable to Joint Lead Arrangers and Syndication Agents . Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above in this Article 11, the Lenders and Credit Parties hereby recognize and agree that the Joint Lead Arrangers and the Syndication Agents are titles given for recognition purposes only, and no Joint Lead Arranger or Syndication Agents shall have any obligation, duty or responsibility under this Agreement or the other Credit Documents. Furthermore, each Joint Lead Arranger or Syndication Agents may at any time resign hereunder by providing written notice of such resignation to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower.

Section 11.13. Withholding Taxes. To the extent required by any applicable law (as determined in the good-faith discretion of the withholding agent), the Administrative Agent may withhold from any payment to any Lender an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding Tax. If the Internal Revenue Service, the Canada Revenue Agency or any other authority of the United States, Canada or other jurisdiction asserts a claim that the Administrative Agent did not properly withhold Tax from amounts paid to or for the account of any Lender for any reason (including, without limitation, because the appropriate form was not delivered or not properly executed, or because such Lender failed to notify the Administrative Agent of a change in circumstance that rendered the exemption from, or reduction of withholding Tax ineffective), such Lender shall, within ten (10) days after written demand therefor, indemnify and hold harmless the Administrative Agent (to the extent that the Administrative Agent has not already been reimbursed by the Borrower pursuant to Section 4.01, and without limiting or expanding the obligation of the Borrower to do so) for all amounts paid, directly or indirectly, by the Administrative Agent as Taxes or otherwise, together with all expenses incurred, including legal expenses and any other out-of-pocket expenses, whether or not such Tax was correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under this Agreement or any other Credit Document against any amount due the Administrative Agent under this Section 11.13. The agreements in this Section 11.13 shall survive the resignation and/or replacement of the Administrative Agent, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all other Obligations.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 12.01. Payment of Expenses, etc. (ff) The Credit Parties hereby jointly and severally agree to: (i) if the Closing Date occurs, pay all reasonable invoiced out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the Agents and Issuing Banks (including, without limitation, the reasonable fees and disbursements of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP and Borden Ladner Gervais LLP and, if reasonably necessary, one local counsel in any other relevant jurisdiction) in connection with the preparation, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents and the documents and instruments referred to herein and therein, the administration hereof and thereof and any amendment, waiver or consent relating hereto or thereto (whether or not effective), of the Agents in connection with their syndication efforts with respect to this Agreement and of the Agents and each Lender in connection with the enforcement of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents and the documents and instruments referred to herein and therein or in connection with any refinancing or restructuring of the credit arrangements provided under this Agreement in the nature of a "work-out" or pursuant to any insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings (and, in each case, in the case of an actual or perceived conflict of interest, where the party affected by such

or any Lender or other Indemnified Person set forth in the preceding sentence may be unenforceable because it is violative of any law or public policy, the Credit Parties shall make the maximum contribution to the payment and satisfaction of each of the indemnified liabilities which is permissible under applicable law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 12.01(a) shall not apply with respect to Taxes other than any Taxes that represent losses, liabilities, claims and damages arising from a non-Tax claim.

(gg) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each of the Credit Parties shall not assert, and hereby waives, and acknowledges that no other Person shall have, any claim against any Indemnified Person, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any other Credit Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, any Loan or Letter of Credit or the use of the proceeds thereof. No Indemnified Person referred to above shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by others of any information or other materials distributed to such party by such Indemnified Person through telecommunications, electronic or other information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement or the other Credit Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby other than for direct or actual damages resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Person as determined by a final and nonappealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(hh) To the extent that the Credit Parties for any reason fail to indefeasibly pay any amount required under subsection (a) or (b) of this Section to be paid by them to the Administrative Agent (or any sub-agent thereof), the Issuing Bank, the Swingline Lender or to any Affiliate thereof, each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent (or any such sub-agent), the Issuing Bank, the Swingline Lender or to such Affiliate, as the case may be, such Lender's Pro Rata Share (determined as of the time that the applicable unreimbursed expense or indemnity payment is sought based on each Lender's share of the aggregate Revolving Loan Commitments at such time) of such unpaid amount (including any such unpaid amount in respect of a claim asserted by such Lender), provided, further that, the unreimbursed expense or indemnified loss, claim, damage, liability or related expense, as the case may be, was incurred by or asserted against the Administrative Agent (or any such sub-agent), the Issuing Bank, the Swingline Lender or against any Affiliate thereof acting for the Administrative Agent (or any such sub-agent), the Issuing Bank or the Swingline Lender in connection with such capacity. The obligations of the Lenders under this subsection (c) are several and not joint.

Section 12.02. Right of Setoff. (qq) In addition to any rights now or hereafter granted under applicable law or otherwise, and not by way of limitation of any such rights, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Administrative Agent and each Lender is hereby authorized at any time or from time to time, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind to any Credit Party or to any other Person, any such notice being hereby expressly waived, to set off and to appropriate and apply any and all deposits (general or special) (other than accounts used exclusively for payroll, payroll taxes, fiduciary and trust purposes, and employee benefits) and any other Indebtedness at any time held or owing by the Administrative Agent or such Lender (including, without limitation, by branches and agencies of the Administrative Agent or such Lender wherever located) to or for the credit or the account of the Parent or any of its Subsidiaries against and on account of the Obligations and liabilities of the Credit Parties to the Administrative Agent or such Lender under this Agreement or under any of the other Credit Documents, including, without limitation, all interests in Obligations purchased by such Lender pursuant to Section 12.04(b), and all other claims of any nature or description arising out of or connected with this Agreement or any other Credit Document, irrespective of whether or not the Administrative Agent or such Lender shall have made any demand hereunder and although said Obligations, liabilities or claims, or any of them, shall be contingent or unmatured.

(rr) NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING SUBSECTION (a), AT ANY TIME THAT THE LOANS OR ANY OTHER OBLIGATION SHALL BE SECURED BY REAL PROPERTY LOCATED IN CALIFORNIA, NO LENDER SHALL EXERCISE A RIGHT OF SETOFF, LIEN OR COUNTERCLAIM OR TAKE ANY COURT OR ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION OR INSTITUTE ANY PROCEEDING TO ENFORCE ANY PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY NOTE UNLESS IT IS TAKEN WITH THE CONSENT OF THE REQUIRED LENDERS OR APPROVED IN WRITING BY THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT, IF SUCH SETOFF OR ACTION OR PROCEEDING WOULD OR MIGHT (PURSUANT TO CALIFORNIA CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE SECTIONS 580a, 580b, 580d AND 726 OF THE CALIFORNIA CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE OR SECTION 2924 OF THE CALIFORNIA CIVIL CODE, IF APPLICABLE, OR OTHERWISE) AFFECT OR IMPAIR THE VALIDITY, PRIORITY OR ENFORCEABILITY OF THE LIENS GRANTED TO THE COLLATERAL AGENT PURSUANT TO THE SECURITY DOCUMENTS OR THE ENFORCEABILITY OF THE NOTES AND OTHER OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER, AND ANY ATTEMPTED EXERCISE BY ANY LENDER OF ANY SUCH RIGHT WITHOUT OBTAINING SUCH CONSENT OF THE REQUIRED LENDERS OR THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT SHALL BE NULL AND VOID. THIS SUBSECTION (b) SHALL BE SOLELY FOR THE BENEFIT OF EACH OF THE LENDERS AND THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT HEREUNDER.

Section 12.03. Notices; Effectiveness; Electronic Communications.

(jj) Notices Generally. Except as provided in subsection (b) below, all notices and other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand or overnight courier service, mailed by certified or registered mail or sent by facsimile or electronic mail as follows:

(iii) if to the Parent, the Lead Borrowers or the Administrative Agent, to the address, facsimile number or electronic mail address specified for such Person on Schedule 1.01(d); and

(iv) if to any other Lender, to the address, facsimile number or electronic mail address specified in its Administrative Questionnaire (including, as appropriate, notices delivered solely to the Person designated by a Lender on its Administrative Questionnaire then in effect for the delivery of notices that may contain material non-public information relating to the Parent or its Subsidiaries).

Notices and other communications sent by hand or overnight courier service, or mailed by certified or registered mail, shall be deemed to have been given when received; notices and other communications sent by facsimile shall be deemed to have been given when sent (except that, if not given during normal business hours for the recipient, shall be deemed to have been given at the opening of business on the next Business Day for the recipient). Notices and other communications delivered through electronic communications to the extent provided in subsection (b) below shall be effective as provided in such subsection (b).

(kk) Electronic Communications. Notices and other communications to the Lenders hereunder may be delivered or furnished by electronic communication (including e-mail and Internet or intranet websites) pursuant to procedures approved by the Administrative Agent, provided that the foregoing shall not apply to notices to any Lender pursuant to Article 2 if such Lender has notified the Administrative Agent that it is incapable of receiving notices under such Article by electronic communication. The Administrative Agent, the Parent or the Lead Borrowers may each, in its discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by it, provided that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications.

Unless the Administrative Agent otherwise prescribes, (i) notices and other communications sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received upon the sender's receipt of an acknowledgement from the intended recipient (such as by the "return receipt requested" function, as available, return e-mail or other written acknowledgement), and (ii) notices or communications posted to an Internet or intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (i) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefor; provided that, for both clauses (i) and (ii), if such notice, email or other communication is not sent during the normal business hours of the recipient, such notice, email or communication shall be deemed to have been sent at the opening of business on the next business day for the recipient.

(ll) The Platform. THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE." THE AGENT PARTIES (AS DEFINED BELOW) DO NOT WARRANT THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM, AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM LIABILITY FOR ERRORS IN OR OMISSIONS FROM THE BORROWER MATERIALS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM

VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY ANY AGENT PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE PLATFORM. In no event shall the Administrative Agent or any of its Related Parties (collectively, the " Agent Parties") have any liability to Parent, the Lead Borrowers, any Lender or any other Person for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of the Parent, Lead Borrowers', any Credit Party's or the Administrative Agent's transmission of Borrower Materials through the Internet, except for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by a final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Agent Party.

(mm) Change of Address, Etc. Each of the Parent, the Lead Borrowers and the Administrative Agent may change its address, facsimile or telephone number for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the other parties hereto. Each other Lender may change its address, facsimile or telephone number for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent. In addition, each Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent from time to time to ensure that the Administrative Agent has on record (i) an effective address, contact name, telephone number, facsimile number and electronic mail address to which notices and other communications may be sent and (ii) accurate wire instructions for such Lender. Furthermore, each Public Lender agrees to cause at least one individual at or on behalf of such Public Lender to at all times have selected the "Private Side Information" or similar designation on the content declaration screen of the Platform in order to enable such Public Lender or its delegate, in accordance with such Public Lender's compliance procedures and applicable Law, including United States Federal and state securities Laws and Canadian Federal and provincial securities Laws, to make reference to Borrower Materials that are not made available through the "Public Side Information" portion of the Platform and that may contain material non-public information with respect to the Borrower or its securities for purposes of such Laws.

(nn) Reliance by Administrative Agent and Lenders . The Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall be entitled to rely and act upon any notices (including electronic Committed Loan Notices) purportedly given by or on behalf of the Borrower even if (i) such notices were not made in a manner specified herein, were incomplete or were not preceded or followed by any other form of notice specified herein, or (ii) the terms thereof, as understood by the recipient, varied from any confirmation thereof. The Borrower shall indemnify the Administrative Agent, each Lender and the Related Parties of each of them from all losses, costs, expenses and liabilities resulting from the reliance by such Person on each notice purportedly given by or on behalf of the Borrower. All telephonic communications with the Administrative Agent may be recorded by the Administrative Agent, and each of the parties hereto hereby consents to such recording.

(g) Successors and Assigns Generally. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that the Borrowers may not assign or otherwise transfer any of their rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and each Lender and no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder except (i) to an assignee in accordance with the provisions of Section 12.04(b)(b), (ii) by way of participation in accordance with the provisions of Section 12.04(d), or (iii) by way of pledge or assignment of a security interest or hypothec subject to the restrictions of Section 12.04(e) (and any other attempted assignment or transfer by any party hereto shall be null and void). Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, Participants to the extent provided in subsection (d) of this Section and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Related Parties of each of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement. No Lender may assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder to an Ineligible Transferee. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall have no responsibility for monitoring any assignments or participations to Ineligible Transferees. The list of all Ineligible Transferees shall be made available to all Lenders.

(h) Assignments by Lenders. Any Lender may at any time assign to one or more assignees all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment(s) and the Loans at the time owing to it); provided that any such assignment shall be subject to the following conditions:

(A) in the case of an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Commitment and/or the Loans at the time owing to it or contemporaneous assignments to related Approved Funds that equal at least the amount specified in paragraph (b)(B) of this Section in the aggregate or in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund, no minimum amount need be assigned; and

(B) in any case not described in subsection (b)(i)(A) of this Section, the aggregate amount of the Commitment (which for this purpose includes Loans outstanding thereunder) or, if the applicable Commitment is not then in effect, the principal outstanding balance of the Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment, determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption Agreement with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent or, if "Trade Date" is specified in the Assignment and Assumption Agreement, as of the Trade Date, shall not be less than $5,000,000 unless each of the Administrative Agent and, so long as no Event of Default under Section 10.01(a) or (e) has occurred and is continuing, the Lead Borrowers otherwise consent (each such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

(x) Proportionate Amounts. Each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement with respect to the Loans or the Commitment assigned;

(xi) Required Consents. No consent shall be required for any assignment except to the extent required by subsection (b)(i)(B) of this Section and, in addition:

(A) the consent of the Lead Borrowers (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required unless (1) an Event of Default under Section 10.01(a) or Section 10.01(e) has occurred and is continuing at the time of such assignment or (2) such assignment is to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund; provided that the Lead Borrowers shall be deemed to have consented to any such assignment unless they shall object thereto by written notice to the Administrative Agent within ten (10) Business Days after having received notice thereof; and

(B) the consent of the Administrative Agent and the Issuing Bank (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required for assignments in respect of any Revolving Commitment if such assignment is to a Person that is not a Lender with a Revolving Commitment, an Affiliate of such Lender or an Approved Fund with respect to such Lender.

(xii) Assignment and Assumption. The parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Assumption Agreement, together with a processing and recordation fee in the amount of $3,500; provided, however, that the Administrative Agent may, in its sole discretion, elect to waive such processing and recordation fee in the case of any assignment. The assignee, if it is not a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire.

(xiii) No Assignment to Certain Persons. Except as expressly provided herein, no such assignment shall be made (A) to the Borrowers or any of the Borrowers' Affiliates or Subsidiaries, (B) to any Defaulting Lender or any of its Subsidiaries, or any Person who, upon becoming a Lender hereunder, would constitute any of the foregoing Persons described in this clause (B), (C) to an Ineligible Transferee or (D) to a natural Person.

(xiv) Certain Additional Payments. In connection with any assignment of rights and obligations of any Defaulting Lender hereunder, no such assignment shall be effective unless and until, in addition to the other conditions thereto set forth herein, the parties to the assignment shall make such additional payments to the Administrative Agent in an aggregate amount sufficient, upon distribution thereof as appropriate (which may be outright payment, purchases by the assignee of participations or subparticipations, or other compensating actions, including funding, with the consent of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, the applicable pro rata share of Term Loans previously requested but not funded by the Defaulting Lender, to each of which the applicable assignee and assignor hereby irrevocably consent), to (x) pay and satisfy in full all payment liabilities then owed by such Defaulting Lender to the Administrative Agent, or any Lender hereunder (and interest accrued thereon) and (y) acquire (and fund as appropriate) its full pro rata share of all Term Loans in accordance with its Applicable Percentage. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that any assignment of rights and obligations of any Defaulting Lender hereunder shall become effective under applicable Law without compliance with the provisions of this paragraph, then the assignee of such interest shall be deemed to be a Defaulting Lender for all purposes of this Agreement until such compliance occurs.

(xv) Subject to acceptance and recording thereof by the Administrative Agent pursuant to subsection (c) of this Section, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Assumption Agreement, the assignee thereunder shall be a party to this Agreement and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption Agreement, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption Agreement, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Assumption Agreement covering all of the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto) but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Section 4.01, Section 3.01, Section 3.03, Section 12.01(a)(iii) and Section 12.16 with respect to facts and circumstances occurring prior to the effective date of such assignment; provided, that except to the extent otherwise expressly agreed by the affected parties, no assignment by a Defaulting Lender will constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder arising from that Lender's having been a Defaulting Lender. Upon request, each Borrower (at its expense) shall execute and deliver a Note to the assignee Lender. Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this subsection shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with subsection (d) of this Section 12.04.

(i) Register. The Administrative Agent, acting solely for this purpose as an agent of the Parent and the Lead Borrowers (and such agency being solely for tax purposes), shall maintain at the Administrative Agent's Office in the United States of America a copy of each Assignment and Assumption Agreement delivered to it (or the equivalent thereof in electronic form) and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitments of, and principal amounts (and stated interest) of the Loans owing to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and each Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Lead Borrowers and any Lender, at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(j) Participations. Any Lender may at any time, without the consent of, or notice to, any Borrower or the Administrative Agent, sell participations to any Person (other than an Ineligible Transferee, a natural Person, a Defaulting Lender, the Parent or any of the Parent's Affiliates or Subsidiaries) (each, a "Participant") in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and/or obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and/or the Loans owing to it); provided that (i) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (ii) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations and (iii) all Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, each Lender shall be responsible for the indemnity under Section 11.13 without regard to the existence of any participation.

Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement; provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, waiver or other modification described in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of the first proviso to Section 12.10(a) or clause (1) of the second proviso to Section 12.10 , in each case, that affects such Participant. Each Borrower agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 4.01, Section 3.01, and Section 3.03 to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to subsection (b) of this Section (it being understood that the documentation required under Sections 4.01(b) and 4.01(c) shall be delivered to the Lender who sells the participation) to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section; provided that such Participant (A) agrees to be subject to the provisions of Section 3.04 and Section 12.19 as if it were an assignee under paragraph (b) of this Section and (B) shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 3.01 or Section 4.01, with respect to any participation, than the Lender from whom it acquired the applicable participation would have been entitled to receive, except to the extent such entitlement to receive a greater payment results from a Change in Law that occurs after the Participant acquired the applicable participation. Each Lender that sells a participation agrees, at each Borrower's request and expense, to use reasonable efforts to cooperate with each Borrower to effectuate the provisions of Section 2.19 with respect to any Participant. To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 12.02 as though it were a Lender; provided that such Participant agrees to be subject to Section 2.10(c) as though it were a Lender. Each Lender that sells a participation shall, acting solely for this purpose as an agent of each Borrower, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the principal amounts (and stated interest) of each Participant's interest in the Loans or other obligations under the Credit Documents (the "Participant Register"); provided that no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in any commitments, loans, letters of credit or its other obligations under any Credit Document) to any Person except to the extent that such disclosure is necessary to establish that such commitment, loan or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations or in connection with an enquiry by the Canada Revenue Agency in accordance with the provisions of the ITA. The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and such Lender shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrative Agent (in its capacity as Administrative Agent) shall have no responsibility for maintaining a Participant Register.

(k) Certain Pledges. Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest or hypothec in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (including under its Note, if any) to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank; provided that no such pledge or assignment shall release such Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(l) Resignation as Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender after Assignment . Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if at any time Bank of America assigns all of its Revolving Commitment and Revolving Loans pursuant to Section 12.04(b), Bank of America may, (i) upon 30 days' notice to the Lead Borrowers and the Lenders, resign as Issuing Bank and/or (ii) upon 30 days' notice to the Lead Borrowers, resign as Swingline Lender. In the event of any such resignation as Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender, the Lead Borrowers shall be entitled to appoint from among the Lenders a successor Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender hereunder; provided, however, that no failure by the Lead Borrowers to appoint any such successor shall affect the resignation of Bank of America as Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender, as the case may be. If Bank of America resigns as Issuing Bank, it shall retain all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the Issuing Bank hereunder with respect to all Letters of Credit outstanding as of the effective date of its resignation as Issuing Bank and all LC Obligations with respect thereto (including the right to require the Lenders to make U.S. Base Rate Loans or fund risk participations in unreimbursed LC Disbursements pursuant to Section 2.13(e)). If Bank of America resigns as Swingline Lender, it shall retain all the rights of the Swingline Lender provided for hereunder with respect to Swingline Loans made by it and outstanding as of the effective date of such resignation, including the right to require the Lenders to make U.S. Base Rate Loans or fund risk participations in outstanding Swingline Loans pursuant to Section 2.12(d). Upon the appointment of a successor Issuing bank and/or Swingline Lender, (a) such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender, as the case may be, and (b) the successor Issuing Bank shall issue letters of credit in substitution for the Letters of Credit, if any, outstanding at the time of such succession or make other arrangements satisfactory to Bank of America to effectively assume the obligations of Bank of America with respect to such Letters of Credit.

Section 12.05. No Waiver; Remedies Cumulative. No failure or delay on the part of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Credit Document and no course of dealing between the Parent or any other Credit Party and the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Credit Document preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege hereunder or thereunder. The rights, powers and remedies herein or in any other Credit Document expressly provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, powers or remedies which the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender would otherwise have. No notice to or demand on any Credit Party in any case shall entitle any Credit Party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of the rights of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Credit Document, the authority to enforce rights and remedies hereunder and under the other Credit Documents against the Credit Parties or any of them shall be vested exclusively in, and all actions and proceedings at law in connection with such enforcement shall be instituted and maintained exclusively by, the Administrative Agent in accordance with Section 11.10 for the benefit of all the Lenders; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not prohibit (t) the Administrative Agent from exercising on its own behalf the rights and remedies that inure to its benefit (solely in its capacity as Administrative Agent) hereunder and under the other Credit Documents, (u) any Lender from exercising setoff rights in accordance with Section 12.02 (subject to the terms of Section 2.13), or (v) any Lender from filing proofs of claim or appearing and filing pleadings on its own behalf during the pendency of a proceeding relative to any Credit Party under any Debtor Relief Law; and provided, further, that if at any time there is no Person acting as Administrative Agent hereunder and under the other Credit Documents, then (iv) the Required Lenders shall have the rights otherwise ascribed to the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 11.10 and (v) in addition to the matters set forth in clauses (b) and (c) of the preceding proviso and subject to Section 2.13 any Lender may, with the consent of the Required Lenders, enforce any rights and remedies available to it and as authorized by the Required Lenders.

Section 12.06. Calculations; Computations. (d) The financial statements to be furnished to the Lenders pursuant hereto shall be made and prepared in accordance with IFRS consistently applied throughout the periods involved (except as set forth in the notes thereto); provided that (ix) except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all computations of the Applicable Margin, and all computations and all definitions (including accounting terms) used in determining compliance with Section 8.14, shall utilize IFRS and policies in conformity with those used to prepare the audited financial statements of the Parent referred to in Section 7.05(a)(i) for the fiscal year of the Parent ended May 31, 2013 and, (x) to the extent expressly provided herein, certain calculations shall be made on a Pro Forma Basis; provided, further, that if any change in IFRS (including any change that is the result of an election by the Parent that its financial statements be prepared and maintained in accordance with GAAP or Canadian GAAP) results in a change in the calculation of the financial covenants or interpretation of related provisions of this Agreement or any other Credit Document, then the Parent, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders agree to amend such provisions of this Agreement so as to equitably reflect such changes in IFRS (including any change that is the result of an election by the Parent that its financial statements be prepared and maintained in accordance with GAAP or Canadian GAAP) with the desired result that the criteria for evaluating the Parent's financial condition shall be the same after such change in IFRS as if such change had not been made; provided, further, that, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Required Lenders' agreement to any amendment of such provisions shall be sufficient to bind all Lenders; provided, further, that until such time as the financial covenants and the related provisions of this Agreement have been amended in accordance with the terms of this paragraph, the calculations of financial covenants and the interpretation of any related provisions shall be calculated and interpreted in accordance with IFRS as in effect immediately prior to such change in IFRS (including any change that is the result of an election by the Parent that its financial statements be prepared and maintained in accordance with GAAP or Canadian GAAP); provided, further, that all determinations made pursuant to any applicable leverage test or any financial definition used therein shall be determined on the basis of IFRS as applied and in effect immediately before the relevant change in IFRS or the application thereof became effective, until such leverage test or such financial definition is amended. Notwithstanding any other provision contained herein, all terms of an accounting or financial nature used herein shall be construed, and all computations of amounts and ratios referred to herein shall be made, without giving effect to Statement of Financial Accounting Standards 141R or ASC 805 (or any other financial accounting standard having a similar result or effect). Notwithstanding any changes in IFRS after the Closing Date, any lease of the Borrower or the Subsidiaries that would be characterized as an operating lease under IFRS in effect on the Closing Date (whether such lease is entered into before or after the Closing Date) shall not constitute Indebtedness or a Capitalized Lease Obligation under this Agreement or any other Credit Document as a result of such changes in IFRS.

(e) The calculation of any financial ratios under this Agreement shall be calculated by dividing the appropriate component by the other component, carrying the result to one place more than the number of places by which such ratio is expressed herein and rounding the result up or down to the nearest number (with a rounding-down if there is no nearest number).

Section 12.08. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the different parties hereto on separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. A set of counterparts executed by all the parties hereto shall be lodged with the Parent and the Administrative Agent.

Section 12.09. Headings Descriptive. The headings of the several Sections and subsections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement.

Section 12.10. Amendment or Waiver; etc. (k) Neither this Agreement nor any other Credit Document nor any terms hereof or thereof may be changed, waived, discharged or terminated unless such change, waiver, discharge or termination is in writing signed by the Credit Parties party hereto or thereto and the Required Lenders (although additional parties may be added to (and annexes may be modified to reflect such additions) the Guaranty and the Security Documents in accordance with the provisions hereof and thereof without the consent of the other Credit Parties party thereto or the Required Lenders), provided that no such change, waiver, discharge or termination shall

(iii) without the prior written consent of each Lender (and Issuing Bank, if applicable) directly and adversely affected thereby, extend the final scheduled maturity of any Revolving Commitment, or reduce the rate or extend the time of payment of interest or Fees thereon (except in connection with the applicability of any post-default increase in interest rates) or reduce or forgive the principal amount thereof;

(iv) except as otherwise expressly provided in the Security Documents, release all or substantially all of the Collateral under all the Security Documents without the prior written consent of each Lender;

(v) except as otherwise provided in the Credit Documents, release all or substantially all of the value of the Guaranty without the prior written consent of each Lender;

(vi) amend, modify or waive any pro rata sharing provision of Section 2.10, the payment waterfall provision of Section 10.03, or any provision of this Section 12.10(a) (except for technical amendments with respect to additional extensions of credit pursuant to this Agreement which afford the protections to such additional extensions of credit of the type provided to the Revolving Commitments on the Closing Date), in each case, without the prior written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby;

(vii) reduce the percentage specified in the definitions of Required Lenders or Supermajority Lenders without the prior written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby (it being understood that, with the prior written consent of the Required Lenders or Supermajority Lenders, as applicable, additional extensions of credit pursuant to this Agreement may be included in the determination of the Required Lenders or Supermajority Lenders, as applicable, on substantially the same basis as the extensions of Revolving Commitments are included on the Closing Date);

(viii) consent to the assignment or transfer by any Borrower of any of its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of each Lender; provided further that no such change, waiver, discharge or termination shall (1) increase the Commitments of any Lender over the amount thereof then in effect without the consent of such Lender (it being understood that waivers or modifications of conditions precedent, covenants, Defaults or Events of Default or of a mandatory reduction in the Aggregate Commitments shall not constitute an increase of the Commitment of any Lender, and that an increase in the available portion of any Commitment of any Lender shall not constitute an increase of the Commitment of such Lender), (2) without the consent of each Agent adversely affected thereby, amend, modify or waive any provision of Article 11 or any other provision as same relates to the rights or obligations of such Agent, (3) without the consent of Collateral Agent, amend, modify or waive any provision relating to the rights or obligations of the Collateral Agent, (4) without the consent of an Issuing Bank or the Swingline Lender, amend, modify or waive any provision relating to the rights or obligations of the such Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender, (5) without the prior written consent of the Supermajority Lenders, change the definition of the terms "Availability" or "Borrowing Base" or any component definition used therein (including, without limitation, the definitions of "Eligible Accounts" and "Eligible Inventory") if, as a result thereof, the amounts available to be borrowed by the Borrowers would be increased; provided that the foregoing shall not limit the discretion of the Administrative Agent to change, establish or eliminate any Reserves or to add Accounts and Inventory acquired in a Permitted Acquisition to the Borrowing Base as provided herein or (6) without the prior written consent of the Supermajority Lenders, increase the percentages set forth in the term "Borrowing Base" or add any new classes of eligible assets thereto; and provided further that only the consent of the Administrative Agent shall be necessary for amendments described in clause (x) of the proviso contained in clause (vi) of the definition of "Permitted Junior Loans".

(l) If, in connection with any proposed change, waiver, discharge or termination of any of the provisions of this Agreement as contemplated by clauses (i) through (v), inclusive, of the first proviso to Section 12.10(a), the consent of the Required Lenders is obtained but the consent of one or more of such other Lenders whose consent is required is not obtained (such Lender, a "Non-Consenting Lender"), then the Parent shall have the right, so long as all Non-Consenting Lenders whose individual consent is required are treated as described in either clauses (i) or (ii) below, to either (i) replace each such Non-Consenting Lender or Lenders with one or more Replacement Lenders pursuant to Section 12.19 so long as at the time of such replacement, each such Replacement Lender consents to the proposed change, waiver, discharge or termination or (ii) terminate such Non-Consenting Lender's Commitments and/or repay the outstanding Revolving Loans of such Lender in accordance with Section 12.19; provided that, unless the Commitments that are terminated, and Revolving Loans repaid, pursuant to the preceding clause (ii) are immediately replaced in full at such time through the addition of new Lenders or the increase of outstanding Loans of existing Lenders (who in each case must specifically consent thereto), then in the case of any action pursuant to preceding clause (ii) the Required Lenders (determined after giving effect to the proposed action) shall specifically consent thereto, provided further that in any event the Parent shall not have the right to replace a Lender, terminate its Commitments or repay its Revolving Loans solely as a result of the exercise of such Lender's rights (and the withholding of any required consent by such Lender) pursuant to the second proviso to Section 12.10(a).

(m) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in clause (a) of this Section 12.10, the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and each Lender providing the relevant Revolving Commitment Increase may (i), in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.15, enter into an Incremental Revolving Commitment Agreement, and (ii) in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.19, enter into an Extension Amendment, provided that after the execution and delivery by the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and each such Lender, the terms set forth in such Extension Amendment may thereafter only be modified in accordance with the requirements of clause (a) above of this Section 12.10.

(n) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any fee letter may be amended, or rights and privileges thereunder waived, in a writing executed only by the parties thereto.

(o) Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, during such period as a Lender is a Defaulting Lender, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, such Lender will not be entitled to vote in respect of amendments, waivers and consents hereunder and the Commitment and the outstanding Loans or other extensions of credit of such Lender hereunder will not be taken into account in determining whether the Required Lenders or all of the Lenders, as required, have approved any such amendment, waiver or consent (and the definitions of "Supermajority" and "Required Lenders" will automatically be deemed modified accordingly for the duration of such period); provided that any such amendment or waiver that would increase or extend the term of the Commitment of such Defaulting Lender, extend the date fixed for the payment of principal or interest owing to such Defaulting Lender hereunder, reduce the principal amount of any obligation owing to such Defaulting Lender, reduce the amount of or the rate or amount of interest on any amount owing to such Defaulting Lender or of any fee payable to such Defaulting Lender hereunder, or alter the terms of this proviso, will require the consent of such Defaulting Lender.

(p) Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 12.10, if following the Closing Date, the Administrative Agent and any Credit Party shall have jointly identified an obvious error or any error or omission of a technical or immaterial nature, in each case, in any provision of the Credit Documents, then the Administrative Agent and the Credit Parties shall be permitted to amend such provision and such amendment shall become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to any Credit Documents if the same is not objected to in writing by the Required Lenders within five (5) Business Days following receipt of notice thereof.

Section 12.11. Survival. All indemnities set forth herein including, without limitation, in Sections 3.01, 3.02, 4.01, Section 11.13, 12.01 and Section 12.16 shall survive the execution, delivery and termination of this Agreement and the Notes and the making and repayment of the Obligations. All representations and warranties made hereunder and in any other Credit Document or other document delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or in connection herewith or therewith shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and thereof. Such representations and warranties have been or will be relied upon by the Administrative Agent and each Lender, regardless of any investigation made by the Administrative Agent or any Lender or on their behalf and notwithstanding that the Administrative Agent or any Lender may have had notice or knowledge of any Default at the time of any Credit Event, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as any Loan or any other Obligation hereunder shall remain unpaid or unsatisfied.

Section 12.12. Domicile of Loans. Each Lender may transfer and carry its Revolving Loans at, to or for the account of any office, Subsidiary or Affiliate of such Lender. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, to the extent that a transfer of Loans pursuant to this Section 12.12 would, at the time of such transfer, result in increased costs under Section 3.01 or 4.01 from those being charged by the respective Lender prior to such transfer, then the Borrowers shall not be obligated to pay such increased costs (although the Borrowers shall be obligated to pay any other increased costs of the type described above resulting from changes after the date of the respective transfer).

Section 12.13. Confidentiality. (i) Subject to the provisions of clause (b) of this Section 12.13, each Agent, Joint Lead Arranger, Syndication Agents and Lender agrees that it will use its commercially reasonable efforts not to disclose without the prior consent of the Parent (other than to its directors, officers, employees, accountants, auditors, advisors, counsel or other representatives or to another Lender if such Lender or such Lender's holding or parent company in its sole discretion determines that any such party should have access to such information, provided such Persons shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 12.13 to the same extent as such Lender (or language substantially similar to this Section 12.13(a)) any information with respect to the Parent or any of its Subsidiaries which is now or in the future furnished pursuant to this Agreement or any other Credit Document, provided that any Lender may disclose any such information (iii) as has become generally available to the public other than by virtue of a breach of this Section 12.13(a) by such Lender, (iv) as may be required or appropriate in any report, statement or testimony submitted to any municipal, state, provincial or federal regulatory body having or claiming to have jurisdiction over such Lender or to the Federal Reserve Board or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation or similar organizations (whether in the United States, Canada or elsewhere) or their successors, (v) as may be required or appropriate in respect to any summons or subpoena or in connection with any litigation, (vi) in order to comply with any law, order, regulation or ruling applicable to such Lender, (vii) to the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, (viii) to any prospective or actual direct or indirect contractual counterparty in any swap, hedge or similar agreement (or to any such contractual counterparty's professional advisor), so long as such contractual counterparty (or such professional advisor) agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Section 12.13 (or language substantially similar to this Section 12.13(a)), and (ix) to any prospective or actual transferee, pledgee or participant in connection with any contemplated transfer, pledge or participation of any of the Notes or Commitments or any interest therein by such Lender, provided that such prospective transferee, pledge or participant agrees to be bound by the confidentiality provisions contained in this Section 12.13 (or language substantially similar to this Section 12.13(a)); provided further that, to the extent permitted pursuant to any applicable law, order, regulation or ruling, and other than in connection with credit and other bank examinations conducted in the ordinary course with respect to such Lender, in the case of any disclosure pursuant to the foregoing clauses (ii), (iii) or (iv), such Lender will use its commercially reasonable efforts to notify the Lead Borrowers in advance of such disclosure so as to afford the Lead Borrowers the opportunity to protect the confidentiality of the information proposed to be so disclosed.

(j) The Borrowers hereby acknowledge and agree that each Lender may share with any of its affiliates, and such affiliates may share with such Lender, any information related to the Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (including, without limitation, any non-public customer information regarding the creditworthiness of the Parent and its Subsidiaries), provided such Persons shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 12.13 to the same extent as such Lender.

Section 12.14. USA Patriot Act and Canadian AML Acts Notice . Each Lender and the Administrative Agent (for itself and not on behalf of any Lender) hereby notifies the Parent and the Borrowers that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act Title III of Pub. 107-56 (signed into law October 26, 2001 and amended on March 9, 2009) (the "Patriot Act") and the Canadian AML Acts, it is required to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies the Parent, the Borrowers and each Subsidiary Guarantor, which information includes the name of each Credit Party and other information that will allow such Lender to identify the Credit Party in accordance with the Patriot Act and the Canadian AML Acts, and each Credit Party agrees to promptly provide such information from time to time to any Lender.

Section 12.15. Special Provisions Regarding Pledges of Equity Interests in Persons Not Organized in Qualified Jurisdictions . The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the provisions of the various Security Documents executed and delivered by the Credit Parties require that, among other things, all Equity Interests in various Persons owned by the respective Credit Party be pledged, and delivered for pledge, pursuant to the Security Documents. The parties hereto further acknowledge and agree that each Credit Party shall be required to take all actions under the laws of the jurisdiction in which such Credit Party is organized to create and perfect all security interests or hypothecs granted pursuant to the various Security Documents and to take all actions under the laws of the United States or Canada (as applicable) to perfect the security interests in the Equity Interests of any Person organized under the laws of said jurisdictions (to the extent said Equity Interests are owned by any Credit Party).

Section 12.16. Currency Indemnity. If a judgment or order is rendered by any court or tribunal for the payment of any amount owing to the Agents or any Lender under any Credit Document or for the payment of damages in respect of any breach of any Credit Document, or under or in respect of a judgment or order of another court or tribunal for the payment of those amounts or damages, and the judgment or order is expressed in a currency (the "Judgment Currency") except the currency payable under the relevant Credit Document (the "Agreed Currency"), the party against whom the judgment or order is made shall indemnify and hold the Agents and the Lenders harmless against any deficiency in terms of the Agreed Currency in the amounts received by the Agents and the Lenders arising or resulting from any variation as between (a) the actual rate of exchange at which the Agreed Currency is converted into the Judgment Currency for the purposes of the judgment or order, and (b) the actual rate of exchange at which the Agents or the Lender is able to purchase the Agreed Currency with the amount of the Judgment Currency actually received by the Agent or the Lender on the date of receipt. The indemnity in this Section shall constitute a separate and independent obligation from the other obligations of the Credit Parties under the Credit Documents and shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by the Agents or any Lender.

Section 12.17. Waiver of Sovereign Immunity. Each of the Credit Parties, in respect of itself, its Subsidiaries, its process agents, and its properties and revenues, hereby irrevocably agrees that, to the extent that the Parent, the Borrowers, or any of their respective Subsidiaries or any of its properties has or may hereafter acquire any right of immunity, whether characterized as sovereign immunity or otherwise, from any legal proceedings, whether in the United States, Canada or elsewhere, to enforce or collect upon the Loans or any Credit Document or any other liability or obligation of the Parent, the Borrowers, or any of their respective Subsidiaries related to or arising from the transactions contemplated by any of the Credit Documents, including, without limitation, immunity from service of process, immunity from jurisdiction or judgment of any court or tribunal, immunity from execution of a judgment, and immunity of any of its property from attachment prior to any entry of judgment, or from attachment in aid of execution upon a judgment, the Parent and the Borrowers, for themselves and on behalf of their respective Subsidiaries, hereby expressly waive, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, any such immunity, and agree not to assert any such right or claim in any such proceeding, whether in the United States, Canada or elsewhere. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Parent and the Lead Borrowers further agree that the waivers set forth in this Section 12.17 shall have the fullest extent permitted under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976 of the United States and are intended to be irrevocable for purposes of such Act.

Section 12.18. INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT. (a) EACH LENDER PARTY HERETO UNDERSTANDS, ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT (AND EACH OF ITS SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS) AND EACH OTHER LENDER (AND EACH OF THEIR SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS) SHALL BE BOUND BY THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT WHICH IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES MAY REQUIRE (AS MORE FULLY PROVIDED THEREIN) THE TAKING OF CERTAIN ACTIONS BY THE LENDERS, INCLUDING THE PURCHASE AND SALE OF PARTICIPATIONS BY VARIOUS LENDERS TO EACH OTHER IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TERMS THEREOF.

(b) THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION 12.18 ARE NOT INTENDED TO SUMMARIZE OR FULLY DESCRIBE THE PROVISIONS OF THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT OR ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT. REFERENCE MUST BE MADE TO THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT OR ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, AS APPLICABLE, TO UNDERSTAND ALL TERMS AND CONDITIONS THEREOF. EACH LENDER IS RESPONSIBLE FOR MAKING ITS OWN ANALYSIS AND REVIEW OF THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND THE TERMS AND PROVISIONS THEREOF, AND NO AGENT OR ANY OF AFFILIATES MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION TO ANY LENDER AS TO THE SUFFICIENCY OR ADVISABILITY OF THE PROVISIONS CONTAINED IN THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT. A COPY OF THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT MAY BE OBTAINED FROM THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT.

(c) THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT IS AN AGREEMENT SOLELY

AMONGST THE LENDERS (AND THEIR SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS) AND IS NOT AN AGREEMENT TO WHICH PARENT OR ANY OF ITS SUBSIDIARIES IS PARTY. AS MORE FULLY PROVIDED THEREIN, THE ABL/TERM INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT CAN ONLY BE AMENDED BY THE PARTIES THERETO IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS THEREOF.

Section 12.19. Replacement of Lenders. If the Lead Borrowers are entitled to replace a Lender pursuant to the provisions of Section 3.04(b), or if any Lender is a Defaulting Lender or a Non-Consenting Lender, then the Lead Borrowers may, at their sole expense and effort, upon notice to such Lender and the Administrative Agent, require such Lender to assign and delegate, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in, and consents required by, Section 12.04), all of its interests, rights (other than its existing rights to payments pursuant to Section 3.01 and Section 4.01) and obligations under this Agreement and the related Credit Documents to an Eligible Transferee that shall assume such obligations (which assignee may be another Lender, if a Lender accepts such assignment), provided that:

(a) the Borrower shall have paid to the Administrative Agent the processing and recordation fee (if any) specified in Section 12.04(b)(iv).

(b) such Lender shall have received payment of an amount equal to the outstanding principal of its Loans, accrued interest thereon, accrued fees and all other amounts payable to it hereunder and under the other Credit Documents from the assignee (to the extent of such outstanding principal and accrued interest and fees) or the Lead Borrowers (in the case of all other amounts);

(c) in the case of any such assignment resulting from a claim for compensation under Section 3.01 or payments required to be made pursuant to Section 4.01, such assignment will result in a reduction in such compensation or payments thereafter;

(d) such assignment does not conflict with applicable Laws; and

(e) in the case of an assignment resulting from a Lender becoming a Non-Consenting Lender, the applicable assignee shall have consented to the applicable amendment, waiver or consent.

A Lender shall not be required to make any such assignment or delegation if, prior thereto, as a result of a waiver by such Lender or otherwise, the circumstances entitling the Lead Borrowers to require such assignment and delegation cease to apply.

Section 12.20. Absence of Fiduciary Relationship. In connection with all aspects of each transaction contemplated hereby (including in connection with any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Credit Document), the Borrower acknowledges and agrees, and acknowledges its Affiliates' understanding, that: (ix) (A) the arranging and other services regarding this Agreement provided by the Administrative Agent, the Joint Lead Arrangers, and the Lenders are arm's-length commercial transactions between the Borrower and its respective Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Administrative Agent, the Joint Lead Arrangers, and the Lenders, on the other hand, (B) the Borrower has consulted its own legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors to the extent it has deemed appropriate, and (C) the Borrower is capable of evaluating, and understands and accepts, the terms, risks and conditions of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the other Credit Documents; (x) (A) the Administrative Agent, the Joint Lead Arrangers and the Lenders each is and has been acting solely as a principal and, except as expressly agreed in writing by the relevant parties, has not been, is not, and will not be acting as an advisor, agent or fiduciary for the Borrower or any of its Affiliates, or any other Person and (B) neither the Administrative Agent, the Joint Lead Arrangers, nor any Lender has any obligation to the Borrower or any of its Affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby except those obligations expressly set forth herein and in the other Credit Documents; and (xi) the Administrative Agent, the Arranger, the Joint Lead Arrangers, the Lenders, and their respective Affiliates may be engaged in a broad range of transactions that involve interests that differ from those of the Borrower and its Affiliates, and neither the Administrative Agent, the Joint Lead Arrangers, nor any Lender has any obligation to disclose any of such interests to the Borrower or its Affiliates. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Borrower hereby waives and releases any claims that it may have against the Administrative Agent, the Joint Lead Arrangers and the Lenders with respect to any breach or alleged breach of agency or fiduciary duty in connection with any aspect of any transaction contemplated hereby.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused their duly authorized officers to execute and deliver this Agreement as of the date first above written.

SECTION 1.04. Subordination to Prior Payment of All Senior Indebtedness, Dissolution, Liquidation or Reorganization of Borrowers. Upon any distribution of assets of any Borrower upon dissolution, winding up, liquidation or reorganization of such Borrower (whether in bankruptcy, insolvency or receivership proceedings or upon an assignment for the benefit of creditors or otherwise):

(a) the holders of all Senior Indebtedness shall first be entitled to receive payment in full in cash of all Senior Indebtedness (including, without limitation, post-petition interest at the rate provided in the documentation with respect to the Senior Indebtedness whether or not such post-petition interest is an allowed claim against the debtor in any bankruptcy or similar proceeding) before any Lender is entitled to receive any payment of any kind or character on account of the Subordinated Indebtedness;

Subject to the prior payment in full in cash of all Senior Indebtedness, each Lender shall be subrogated to the rights of the holders of Senior Indebtedness to receive payments or distributions of assets of the Issuers applicable to the Senior Indebtedness until all amounts owing under the Agreement shall be paid in full, and for the purpose of such subrogation no payments or distributions to the holders of the Senior Indebtedness by or on behalf of any Borrower or by or on behalf of any Lender by virtue of this Annex A that otherwise would have been made to a Lender shall, as between such Borrower, its creditors other than the holders of Senior Indebtedness, and such Lender, be deemed to be payment by such Borrower to or on account of the Senior Indebtedness, it being understood that the provisions of this Annex A are and are intended solely for the purpose of defining the relative rights of the Lenders, on the one hand, and the holders of the Senior Indebtedness, on the other hand.

Nothing contained in this Annex A or in the Agreement is intended to or shall impair, as between the Borrowers and the Lenders, the obligation of each Borrower, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay to the Lenders the principal of and interest on the Loan as and when the same shall become due and payable in accordance with their terms, or is intended to or shall affect the relative rights of the Lenders and other creditors of the Borrowers other than the Senior Indebtedness, nor, except as specifically provided herein, shall anything herein or therein prevent the Lenders from exercising all remedies otherwise permitted by applicable law upon an event of default under the Agreement, subject to the rights, if any, under this Annex A of the holders of Senior Indebtedness in respect of cash, property, or securities of the Borrowers received upon the exercise of any such remedy. Upon any distribution of assets of an Borrower, each Lender shall be entitled to rely upon any order or decree made by any court of competent jurisdiction in which such dissolution, winding up, liquidation or reorganization proceedings are pending, or a certificate of the liquidating trustee or agent or other person making any distribution to the Lenders, for the purpose of ascertaining the persons entitled to participate in such distribution, the holders of the Senior Indebtedness and other indebtedness of the Borrower, the amount thereof or payable thereon, the amount or amounts paid or distributed thereon and all other facts pertinent thereto or to this Annex

SECTION 1.07. Subordination Rights Not Impaired by Acts or Omissions of the Issuers or Holders of Senior Indebtedness. No right of any present or future holders of any Senior Indebtedness to enforce subordination as herein provided shall at any time in any way be prejudiced or impaired by any act or failure to act on the part of an Issuer or by any act or failure to act in good faith by any such holder, or by any noncompliance by a Borrower with the terms and provisions of the Agreement, regardless of any knowledge thereof which any such holder may have or be otherwise charged with.

Each and every right, power and remedy of the Pledgee provided for in this Agreement or in any other Secured Debt Agreement, or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute shall be cumulative and concurrent and, subject to Section 12(c) hereof, shall be in addition to every other such right, power or remedy. The exercise or beginning of the exercise by the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor of any one or more of the rights, powers or remedies provided for in this Agreement or any other Secured Debt Agreement or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor of all such other rights, powers or remedies, and no failure or delay on the part of the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor to exercise any such right, power or remedy shall operate as a waiver thereof. No notice to or demand on any Pledgor in any case shall entitle it to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of any of the rights of the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand. The Secured Creditors agree that this Agreement may be enforced only by the action of the Pledgee, in each case, acting upon the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors, and that no other Secured Creditor shall have any right individually to seek to enforce or to enforce this Agreement or to realize upon the security to be granted hereby, it being understood and agreed that such rights and remedies may be exercised by the Pledgee for the benefit of the Secured Creditors upon the terms of this Agreement and the Security Agreement.

Section 9. Application of Proceeds.

(a) Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, all monies collected by the Pledgee upon any sale or other disposition of the Collateral as a result of the exercise of any remedies by the Pledgee after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, together with all other monies received by the Pledgee hereunder, shall be applied in the manner provided in the Credit Agreement.

(b) It is understood and agreed that each Pledgor shall remain jointly and severally liable with respect to the Secured Obligations to the extent of any deficiency between the amount of the proceeds of the Collateral pledged by it hereunder and the aggregate amount of the Secured Obligations.

Section 10. Purchasers of Collateral.

Upon any sale of the Collateral by the Pledgee hereunder (whether by virtue of the power of sale herein granted, pursuant to judicial process or otherwise), the receipt of the Pledgee or the officer making such sale shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser or purchasers of the Collateral so sold, and such purchaser or purchasers shall not be obligated to see to the application of any part of the purchase money paid over to the Pledgee or such officer or be answerable in any way for the misapplication or nonapplication thereof.

Section 11. Indemnity and Payment of Expenses.

The terms of Section 12.01 of the Credit Agreement are incorporated herein by reference, mutatis mutandis, and the parties hereto agree to such terms.

Section 12. Pledgee Not A Partner or Limited Liability Company.

(a) Nothing herein shall be construed to make the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor liable as a member of any limited liability company or as a partner of any partnership and neither the Pledgee nor any other Secured Creditor by virtue of this Agreement or otherwise (except as referred to in the following sentence) shall have any of the duties, obligations or liabilities of a member of any limited liability company or as a partner in any partnership. The parties hereto expressly agree that, unless the Pledgee shall become the absolute owner of Collateral consisting of a Limited Liability Company Interest or a Partnership Interest pursuant hereto, this Agreement shall not be construed as creating a partnership or joint venture among the Pledgee, any other Secured Creditor, any Pledgor and/or any other Person.

(b) Except as provided in the last sentence of paragraph (a) of this Section 12, the Pledgee, by accepting this Agreement, did not intend to become a member of any limited liability company or a partner of any partnership or otherwise be deemed to be a co-venturer with respect to any Pledgor, any limited liability company, partnership and/or any other Person either before or after an Event of Default shall have occurred. The Pledgee shall have only those powers set forth herein and the Secured Creditors shall assume none of the duties, obligations or liabilities of a member of any limited liability company or as a partner of any partnership or any Pledgor except as provided in the last sentence of paragraph (a) of this Section 12.

(c) The Pledgee and the other Secured Creditors shall not be obligated to perform or discharge any obligation of any Pledgor as a result of the pledge hereby effected.

(d) The acceptance by the Pledgee of this Agreement, with all the rights, powers, privileges and authority so created, shall not at any time or in any event obligate the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor to appear in or defend any action or proceeding relating to the Collateral to which it is not a party, or to take any action hereunder or thereunder, or to expend any money or incur any expenses or perform or discharge any obligation, duty or liability under the Collateral.

Section 13. Further Assurances; Power-of-Attorney.

(a) Each Pledgor agrees that it will join with the Pledgee in executing and, at such Pledgor's own expense, file and refile under the UCC or other applicable law such financing statements, continuation statements and other documents, in form reasonably acceptable to the Pledgee, in such offices as the Pledgee (acting on its own or on the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors) may reasonably deem necessary or appropriate and wherever required or permitted by law in order to perfect and preserve the Pledgee's security interest in the Collateral hereunder and hereby authorizes the Pledgee to file financing statements and amendments thereto relative to all or any part of the Collateral (including, without limitation, financing statements which list the Collateral specifically and/or as "all assets whether now owned or hereafter acquired" without the signature of such Pledgor where permitted by law), and agrees to do such further acts and things and to execute and deliver to the Pledgee such additional conveyances, assignments, agreements and instruments as the Pledgee may reasonably require or deem advisable to carry into effect the purposes of this Agreement or to further assure and confirm unto the Pledgee its rights, powers and remedies hereunder or thereunder.

(b) Each Pledgor hereby constitutes and appoints the Pledgee its true and lawful attorney-in-fact, irrevocably, with full authority in the place and stead of such Pledgor and in the name of such Pledgor or otherwise, from time to time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and after giving any written prior notice required hereunder (if any) to the relevant Pledgor, in the Pledgee's discretion, to act, require, demand, receive and give acquittance for any and all monies and claims for monies due or to become due to such Pledgor under or arising out of the Collateral, to endorse any checks or other instruments or orders in connection therewith and to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings and to execute any instrument which the Pledgee may deem reasonably necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, which appointment as attorney is coupled with an interest.

Section 14. The Pledgee as Collateral Agent.

The Pledgee will hold in accordance with this Agreement all items of the Collateral at any time received under this Agreement. It is expressly understood, acknowledged and agreed by each Secured Creditor that by accepting the benefits of this Agreement each such Secured Creditor acknowledges and agrees that the obligations of the Pledgee as holder of the Collateral and interests therein and with respect to the disposition thereof, and otherwise under this Agreement, are only those expressly set forth in this Agreement and in Article 11 of the Credit Agreement. The Pledgee shall act hereunder on the terms and conditions set forth herein and in Article 11 of the Credit Agreement.

Section 15. Transfer by the Pledgors.

Except as permitted (a) prior to the date all Secured Credit Obligations have been paid in full and all Commitments under the Credit Agreement have been terminated, pursuant to the Credit Agreement, and (b) thereafter, pursuant to the other Secured Debt Agreements, no Pledgor will sell or otherwise dispose of, grant any option with respect to, or mortgage, pledge or otherwise encumber any of the Collateral or any interest therein.

(a) Each Pledgor represents, warrants and, until the Termination Date, covenants as to itself and each of its Subsidiaries that:

(i) it is the legal, beneficial and (except as to Securities credited on the books of a Clearing Corporation or a Securities Intermediary) record owner of, and has good and valid title to, all of its Collateral consisting of one or more Securities, Partnership Interests and Limited Liability Company Interests and that it has sufficient interest in all of its Collateral in which a security interest is purported to be created hereunder for such security interest to attach (subject, in each case, to no pledge, lien, mortgage, hypothecation, security interest, charge, option, Adverse Claim or other encumbrance whatsoever, except the liens and security interests created by this Agreement or permitted under the Secured Debt Agreements);

(ii) it has full power, authority and legal right to pledge all the Collateral pledged by it pursuant to this Agreement;

(iii) this Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by such Pledgor and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Pledgor enforceable against such Pledgor in accordance with its terms, subject to (A) the effects of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law) and (B) as it relates to the pledge of any capital stock of Foreign Subsidiaries of the Parent, the effects of the possible judicial application of foreign laws or foreign governmental or judicial action affecting creditors' rights;

(iv) no consent of any other party (including, without limitation, any stockholder, partner, member or creditor of such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries) and no material consent, license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority is required to be obtained by such Pledgor in connection with (A) the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement by such Pledgor, (B) the validity or enforceability of this Agreement against such Pledgor, (C) the filing of any financing statements, the perfection or enforceability of the Pledgee's security interest in such Pledgor's Collateral or (D) except for compliance with or as may be required by applicable securities laws, the exercise by the Pledgee of any of its rights or remedies provided herein, in each case, except as would not reasonable be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(v) neither the execution, delivery or performance by such Pledgor of this Agreement, or any other Secured Debt Agreement to which it is a party, nor compliance by it with the terms and provisions hereof and thereof, (A) will contravene any provision of any applicable law, statute, rule or regulation, or any applicable order, writ, injunction or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality, domestic or foreign, applicable to such Pledgor, (B) will conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of (or the obligation to create or impose) any Lien (except pursuant to the Security Documents and Permitted Liens) upon any of the properties or assets of any such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of, any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, credit agreement or loan agreement, or any other material agreement, contract or instrument, in each case to which such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which it or any of its properties or assets is bound or to which it may be subject (except, in the case of preceding clauses (A) and (B), other than in the case of any contravention, breach, default and/or conflict, that would not reasonably be expected, either individually or in the aggregate, to have a Material Adverse Effect); or (C) will violate any provision of the certificate or articles of incorporation, certificate of formation, limited liability company agreement or by-laws (or equivalent organizational documents), as applicable, of such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries.

(vi) all of such Pledgor's Collateral (consisting of Securities, Limited Liability Company Interests and Partnership Interests issued by any Pledgor or any Subsidiary of any Pledgor) has been duly and validly issued, is fully paid and non-assessable and is subject to no options to purchase or similar rights;

(vii) each of such Pledgor's Pledged Notes issued by any Pledgor or any Subsidiary of any Pledgor constitutes, or when executed by the obligor thereof will constitute, the legal, valid and binding obligation of such obligor, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that the enforceability thereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law);

(viii) the pledge, collateral assignment and delivery to the Pledgee of such Pledgor's Collateral consisting of Certificated Securities and Pledged Notes pursuant to this Agreement and the continued possession thereof by the Pledgee or an Affiliate creates a valid and perfected security interest in such Certificated Securities and Pledged Notes, and the proceeds thereof, having the priority specified in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, subject to no prior Lien or encumbrance or to any agreement purporting to grant to any third party a Lien or encumbrance on the property or assets of such Pledgor which would include the Securities (other than the liens and security interests permitted under the Secured Debt Agreements then in effect) and the Pledgee is entitled to all the rights, priorities and benefits afforded by the UCC or other relevant law as enacted in any relevant jurisdiction to perfect security interests in respect of such Collateral; and

(ix) to the extent required by Section 3(b) hereof, the Pledgor shall have taken all steps in its control so that the Pledgee may obtain "control" (as defined in Section 8-106 of the UCC) over all of such Pledgor's Collateral consisting of Securities (including, without limitation, Notes that are Securities) with respect to which such "control" may be obtained pursuant to Section 8-106 of the UCC, except to the extent that the obligation of the applicable Pledgor to provide the Pledgee with "control" of such Collateral has not yet arisen under this Agreement.

(b) Each Pledgor covenants and agrees that it will defend the Pledgee's right, title and security interest in and to such Pledgor's Collateral (whether now owned or hereinafter acquired) and the proceeds thereof against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever.

Section 17. Pledgors' Obligations Absolute, Etc. The obligations of each Pledgor under this Agreement shall be absolute and unconditional and shall remain in full force and effect without regard to, and shall not be released, suspended, discharged, terminated or otherwise affected by, any circumstance or occurrence whatsoever (other than termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 19 hereof or, with respect to a specific Pledgor, release of such Pledgor pursuant to Section 31 hereof), including, without limitation:

(a) any renewal, extension, amendment or modification of, or addition or supplement to or deletion from any Secured Debt Agreement (other than this Agreement in accordance with its terms), or any other instrument or agreement referred to therein, or any assignment or transfer of any thereof;

(b) any waiver, consent, extension, indulgence or other action or inaction under or in respect of any such agreement or instrument including, without limitation, this Agreement (other than a waiver, consent or extension with respect to this Agreement in accordance with its terms);

(c) any furnishing of any additional security to the Pledgee or its assignee or any acceptance thereof or any release of any security by the Pledgee or its assignee;

(d) any limitation on any party's liability or obligations under any such instrument or agreement or any invalidity or unenforceability, in whole or in part, of any such instrument or agreement or any term thereof; or

(e) any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, composition, adjustment, dissolution, liquidation or other like proceeding relating to any Pledgor or any Subsidiary of any Pledgor, or any action taken with respect to this Agreement by any trustee or receiver, or by any court, in any such proceeding, whether or not such Pledgor shall have notice or knowledge of any of the foregoing.

Section 18. Sale of Collateral Without Registration.

If at any time when the Pledgee shall determine to exercise its right to sell all or any part of the Collateral consisting of Securities, Limited Liability Company Interests or Partnership Interests pursuant to Section 7 hereof, and such Collateral or the part thereof to be sold shall not, for any reason whatsoever, be effectively registered under the Securities Act, as then in effect, the Pledgee may, in its sole and absolute discretion, sell such Collateral or part thereof by private sale in such manner and under such circumstances as the Pledgee may deem necessary or advisable in order that such sale may legally be effected without such registration. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in any such event the Pledgee, in its sole and absolute discretion (a) may proceed to make such private sale notwithstanding that a registration statement for the purpose of registering such Collateral or part thereof shall have been filed under such Securities Act, (b) may approach and negotiate with a single possible purchaser to effect such sale, and (c) may restrict such sale to a purchaser who will represent and agree, among other things, that such purchaser is purchasing for its own account, for investment, and not with a view to the distribution or sale of such Collateral or part thereof. In the event of any such sale, the Pledgee shall incur no responsibility or liability for selling all or any part of the Collateral at a price which the Pledgee, in its sole and absolute discretion, may in good faith deem reasonable under the circumstances, notwithstanding the possibility that a substantially higher price might be realized if the sale were deferred until the registration as aforesaid.

Section 19. Termination; Release.

(a) On the Termination Date (as defined below), this Agreement shall terminate (provided that all indemnities set forth herein including, without limitation, in Section 11 hereof shall survive any such termination) and the Pledgee, at the request and expense of such Pledgor, will execute and deliver to such Pledgor a proper instrument or instruments acknowledging the satisfaction and termination of this Agreement (including, without limitation, UCC termination statements and instruments of satisfaction, discharge and/or reconveyance), and will duly release from the security interest created hereby and assign, transfer and deliver to such Pledgor (without recourse and without any representation or warranty) such of the Collateral as may be in the possession of the Pledgee or any of its sub-agents hereunder and as has not theretofore been sold or otherwise applied or released pursuant to this Agreement, together with any moneys at the time held by the Pledgee or any of its sub-agents hereunder and, with respect to any Collateral consisting of an Uncertificated Security, a Partnership Interest or a Limited Liability Company Interest (other than an Uncertificated Security, Partnership Interest or Limited Liability Company Interest credited on the books of a Clearing Corporation or Securities Intermediary), a termination of the agreement relating thereto executed and delivered by the issuer of such Uncertificated Security pursuant to Section 3(b)(i)(B) or by the respective partnership or limited liability company pursuant to Section 3(b)(i)(D)(2). As used in this Agreement, "Termination Date" shall mean the date upon which the Commitments under the Credit Agreement have been terminated and all Secured Credit Obligations have been paid in full, no Note under the Credit Agreement is outstanding and all Revolving Loans and LC Disbursements thereunder have been repaid in full and all Letters of Credit have expired or otherwise terminated (excluding any contingent indemnity obligations not then asserted and Letters of Credit which have been Cash Collateralized or backstopped on terms reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent).

(b) In the event that any part of the Collateral is sold or otherwise disposed of (to a Person other than a Credit Party) (x) at any time prior to the time at which all Secured Credit Obligations have been paid in full and all Commitments under the Credit Agreement have been terminated and all Letters of Credit have expired or otherwise terminated , in connection with a sale or disposition permitted by Section 9.02 of the Credit Agreement or is otherwise released at the direction of the Required Lenders (or a greater percentage of Lenders if required by Section 12.10 of the Credit Agreement) or (y) at any time thereafter, to the extent permitted by the other Secured Debt Agreements, the Pledgee, at the request and expense of such Pledgor, will duly release from the security interest created hereby (and will execute and deliver such documentation, including termination or partial release statements and the like in connection therewith) and assign, transfer and deliver to such Pledgor (without recourse and without any representation or warranty) such of the Collateral as is then being (or has been) so sold or released and as may be in the possession of the Pledgee (or, in the case of Collateral held by any sub-agent designated pursuant to Section 4 hereof, such sub-agent) and has not theretofore been released pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) At any time that any Pledgor desires that the Pledgee take any action to acknowledge or give effect to any release of Collateral pursuant to the foregoing Section 20(a) or (b), such Pledgor shall deliver to the Pledgee (and the relevant sub-agent, if any, designated pursuant to Section 4 hereof) a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer of such Pledgor stating that the release of the respective Collateral is permitted pursuant to (a) or (b) hereof.

(d) The Pledgee shall have no liability whatsoever to any other Secured Creditor as the result of any release of Collateral by it in accordance with (or which the Collateral Agent in the absence of gross negligence and willful misconduct believes to be in accordance with) this Section 20.

Section 20. Notices, Etc.

This Agreement shall create a continuing security interest in the Collateral and shall (i) remain in full force and effect, subject to release and/or termination as set forth in Section 19 hereof, (ii) be binding upon each Pledgor, its successors and assigns; provided, however, that no Pledgor shall assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Pledgee (with the prior written consent of the Required Secured Creditors), and (iii) inure, together with the rights and remedies of the Pledgee hereunder, to the benefit of the Pledgee, the other Secured Creditors and their respective successors, transferees and permitted assigns. All agreements, statements, representations and warranties made by each Pledgor herein or in any certificate or other instrument delivered by such Pledgor or on its behalf under this Agreement shall be considered to have been relied upon by the Secured Creditors and shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the other Secured Debt Agreements regardless of any investigation made by the Secured Creditors or on their behalf.

It is expressly agreed, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, that each Pledgor shall remain liable to perform all of the obligations, if any, assumed by it with respect to the Collateral and the Pledgee shall not have any obligations or liabilities with respect to any Collateral by reason of or arising out of this Agreement, except for the safekeeping of Collateral actually in Pledgor's possession, nor shall the Pledgee be required or obligated in any manner to perform or fulfill any of the obligations of any Pledgor under or with respect to any Collateral.

Section 26. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the different parties hereto on separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall constitute an original, but all of which, when taken together, shall constitute one and the same instrument. A set of counterparts executed by all the parties hereto shall be lodged with each Pledgor and the Pledgee. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile, PDF or other electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of an original executed counterpart of this Agreement.

Section 27. Severability.

Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 28. Recourse.

This Agreement is made with full recourse to each Pledgor and pursuant to and upon all the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements on the part of such Pledgor contained herein and in the other Secured Debt Agreements and otherwise in writing in connection herewith or therewith.

Section 29. Additional Pledgors.

It is understood and agreed that any Restricted Subsidiary of the Parent that is required to become a party to this Agreement after the date hereof pursuant to the requirements of the Credit

Agreement or any other Credit Document, shall become a Pledgor hereunder by (x) executing a counterpart hereof, or a joinder agreement in form and substance satisfactory to the Pledgee, and delivering the same to the Pledgee, (y) delivering supplements to Annexes A through G, hereto as are necessary to cause such annexes to be complete and accurate with respect to such additional Pledgor on such date and (z) taking all actions as specified in this Agreement as would have been taken by such Pledgor had it been an original party to this Agreement, in each case with all documents required above to be delivered to the Pledgee and with all documents and actions required above to be taken to the reasonable satisfaction of the Pledgee.

Section 30. Limited Obligations.

It is the desire and intent of each Pledgor and the Secured Creditors that this Agreement shall be enforced against each Pledgor to the fullest extent permissible under the laws applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in furtherance of the foregoing, it is noted that the obligations of each Pledgor constituting a Guarantor have been limited as provided in the ABL Guaranty.

Section 31. Release of Pledgors.

If at any time all of the Equity Interests of any Pledgor owned by the Parent or any of its Subsidiaries are sold (to a Person other than a Credit Party) in a transaction permitted pursuant to the Credit Agreement (and which does not violate the terms of any other Secured Debt Agreement then in effect), then, such Pledgor shall be released as a Pledgor pursuant to this Agreement without any further action hereunder (it being understood that the sale of all of the Equity Interests in any Person that owns, directly or indirectly, all of the Equity Interests in any Pledgor shall be deemed to be a sale of all of the Equity Interests in such Pledgor for purposes of this Section), and the Pledgee is authorized and directed to execute and deliver such instruments of release as are reasonably satisfactory to it. At any time that the Lead U.S. Borrower desires that a Pledgor be released from this Agreement as provided in this Section 32, the Lead U.S. Borrower shall deliver to the Pledgee a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower stating that the release of such Pledgor is permitted pursuant to this Section 31.

Section 32. ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement.

This Agreement and the other Credit Documents are subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement in all respects and, in the event of any conflict between the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement and this Agreement, the terms of ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement shall govern. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Lien and security interest granted to the Pledgee pursuant to any Credit Document and the exercise of any right or remedy in respect of the Collateral by the Pledgee (or any Secured Creditor) hereunder or under any other Credit Document are subject to the provisions of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement and in the event of any conflict between the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, this Agreement and any other Credit Document, the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement shall govern and control with respect to the exercise of any such right or remedy. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no Credit Party shall be required hereunder or under any Credit Document to take any action with respect to the Collateral that is inconsistent with such Credit Parties' obligations under the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement. Prior to the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations (as defined in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement), the delivery or granting of "control" (as defined in the UCC) of any Fixed Asset Collateral (as defined in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement) to the collateral agent under the Term Loan Credit Agreement pursuant to the terms of the Fixed Asset Collateral Documents (as defined in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement) shall satisfy any such delivery or granting of "control" requirement hereunder or under any other Credit Document with respect to any Fixed Asset Collateral to the extent that such delivery or granting of "control" is consistent with the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement.

For greater certainty, unless and until there shall have occurred and be continuing any Event of Default under the Credit Agreement, each Pledgor shall be entitled to exercise any and all voting and other consensual rights pertaining to the Collateral owned by it, and to give consents, waivers or ratifications in respect thereof. Subject to Section 34 hereof, all such rights of each Pledgor to vote and to give consents, waivers and ratifications shall cease at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and, except in the case of an Event of Default under Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement, upon prior written notice from the Collateral Agent of its intent to exercise its rights under this Agreement, and Section 7 hereof shall become applicable.

Section 6. Dividends and Other Distributions.

For greater certainty, except as permitted under the Credit Agreement, unless and until there shall have occurred and be continuing an Event of Default and, other than in the case of an Event of Default under Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement, the Collateral Agent shall have given prior written notice of its intent to exercise such rights to the Pledgor, all cash dividends, cash distributions, cash Proceeds and other cash amounts payable in respect of the Collateral shall be paid to the respective Pledgor, provided, that all cash dividends payable in respect of the Collateral which are reasonably determined by the Collateral Agent to represent in whole or in part an extraordinary, liquidating or other distribution in return of capital shall be paid, to the extent so determined to represent an extraordinary, liquidating or other distribution in return of capital, to the Collateral Agent and retained by it as part of the Collateral. While this Agreement is in effect, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to receive directly, and to retain as part of the Collateral:

(a) all other or additional shares, units, trust units, partnership, membership or other interests, participations or other equivalent rights, notes, certificates, partnership interests, instruments or other securities or property (including, but not limited to, cash dividends other than as set forth above) paid or distributed by way of dividend or otherwise in respect of the Collateral;

(b) all other or additional shares, units, trust units, partnership, membership or other interests, participations or other equivalent rights, notes, certificates, partnership interests, instruments or other securities or property (including, but not limited to, cash (although such cash may be paid directly to the respective Pledgor so long as no Event of Default then exists)) paid or distributed in respect of the Collateral by way of stock-split, spin-off, split-up, reclassification, reorganization, combination of shares or similar rearrangement; and

(c) all other or additional shares, units, trust units, partnership, membership or other interests, participations or other equivalent rights, notes, certificates, partnership interests, instruments or other securities or property (including, but not limited to, cash) which may be paid in respect of the Collateral by reason of any consolidation, merger, amalgamation, exchange of stock, conveyance of assets, liquidation or similar corporate or other reorganization.

Nothing contained in this Section 6 shall limit or restrict in any way the Collateral Agent's right to receive the proceeds of the Collateral in any form in accordance with Section 3 hereof. All dividends, distributions or other payments which are received by any Pledgor contrary to the provisions of this Section 6 or Section 7 hereof shall be received in trust for the benefit of the Collateral Agent, shall be segregated from other property or funds of such Pledgor and shall be forthwith delivered to the Collateral Agent as Collateral in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement).

Section 7. Remedies in Case of an Event of Default. (a) If there shall have occurred and be continuing an Event of Default, then and in every such case, subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to exercise all of the rights, powers and remedies (whether vested in it by this Agreement, any other Secured Debt Agreement or by law) for the protection and enforcement of its rights in respect of the Collateral, and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to exercise all the rights and remedies of a secured party under the PPSA and the UCC as in effect in any relevant jurisdiction and also shall be entitled, without limitation, to exercise the following rights, with each Pledgor hereby agreeing that the rights set forth in clauses (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (vi) below are commercially reasonable:

(i) to receive all amounts payable in respect of the Collateral otherwise payable under Section 6 hereof to the respective Pledgor;

(ii) to transfer all or any part of the Collateral into the Collateral Agent's name or the name of its nominee or nominees;

(iii) to accelerate any Pledged Note which may be accelerated in accordance with its terms, and take any other lawful action to collect upon any Pledged Note (including, without limitation, to make any demand for payment thereon);

(iv) to vote (and exercise all rights and powers in respect of voting) all or any part of the Collateral (whether or not transferred into the name of the Collateral Agent) and give all consents, waivers and ratifications in respect of the Collateral and otherwise act with respect thereto as though it were the outright owner thereof (each Pledgor hereby irrevocably constituting and appointing the Collateral Agent the proxy and attorney-in-fact of such Pledgor, with full power of substitution to do so);

(v) at any time and from time to time to sell, assign and deliver, or grant options to purchase, all or any part of the Collateral, or any interest therein, at any public or private sale, without demand of performance, advertisement or, notice of intention to sell or of the time or place of sale or adjournment thereof or to redeem or otherwise purchase or dispose (all of which are hereby waived by each Pledgor), for cash, on credit or for other property, for immediate or future delivery without any assumption of credit risk, and for such price or prices and at such time or times, at such place or places and on such terms as the Collateral Agent may, in compliance with any mandatory requirements of applicable law, determine to be commercially reasonable, provided at least 10 days' written notice of the time and place of any such sale shall be given to the respective Pledgor. The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to make any such sale of Collateral regardless of whether any such notice of sale has theretofore been given. Each Pledgor hereby waives and releases to the fullest extent permitted by law any right or equity of redemption with respect to the Collateral, whether before or after sale hereunder, and all rights, if any, of marshalling the Collateral and any other security or the Obligations or otherwise. At any such sale, unless prohibited by applicable law, the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Secured Creditors may bid for and purchase all or any part of the Collateral so sold free from any such right or equity of redemption. The Collateral Agent may also accept the Collateral in satisfaction of the Secured Obligations. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Creditor shall be liable for failure to collect or realize upon any or all of the Collateral or for any delay in so doing nor shall any of them be under any obligation to take any action whatsoever with regard thereto; and

(vi) to set off any and all Collateral against any and all Secured Obligations, and to withdraw any and all cash or other Collateral from any and all Collateral Accounts and to apply such cash and other Collateral to the payment of any and all Secured Obligations.

(b) It is understood and agreed that in respect of Collateral consisting of Uncertificated Securities and Partnership Interests subject of an agreement substantially in the form of Annex E and as described in Section 3(b)(i)(B), unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Collateral Agent shall not deliver to the issuer of such Uncertificated Securities or Partnership Interests, as the case may be, a notice stating that the Collateral Agent is exercising exclusive control of such Uncertificated Securities or Partnership Interests, as the case may be, under, and as described in such respective agreement.

(c) The Collateral Agent may take proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a receiver (which term includes a receiver and manager) of the Collateral or may by appointment in writing appoint any person to be a receiver of the Collateral. The Collateral Agent may remove any receiver appointed by it and appoint another in its place, and may determine the remuneration of any receiver, which may be paid from the proceeds of the Collateral in priority to other Secured Obligations. Any receiver appointed by the Collateral Agent shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, have all of the rights, benefits and powers of the Collateral Agent under this Agreement, the PPSA or otherwise. Any receiver shall be deemed the agent of the Obligors and the Agent shall not be in any way responsible for any misconduct or negligence of any receiver.

Section 8. Remedies, Cumulative, Etc.

Each and every right, power and remedy of the Collateral Agent provided for in this Agreement or in any other Secured Debt Agreement, or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute shall be cumulative and concurrent and, subject to Section 12(c) hereof, shall be in addition to every other such right, power or remedy. The exercise or beginning of the exercise by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor of any one or more of the rights, powers or remedies provided for in this Agreement or any other Secured Debt Agreement or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor of all such other rights, powers or remedies, and no failure or delay on the part of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor to exercise any such right, power or remedy shall operate as a waiver thereof. No notice to or demand on any Pledgor in any case shall entitle it to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of any of the rights of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand. The Secured Creditors agree that this Agreement may be enforced only by the action of the Collateral Agent, in each case, acting upon the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors, and that no other Secured Creditor shall have any right individually to seek to enforce or to enforce this Agreement or to realize upon the security to be granted hereby, it being understood and agreed that such rights and remedies may be exercised by the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors upon the terms of this Agreement and the Security Agreement.

Section 9. Application of Proceeds.

(a) Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, all monies collected by the Collateral Agent upon any sale or other disposition of the Collateral as a result of the exercise of any remedies by the Collateral Agent after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, together with all other monies received by the Collateral Agent hereunder, shall be applied in the manner provided in the Credit Agreement.

(b) It is understood and agreed that each Pledgor shall remain jointly and severally liable with respect to the Secured Obligations to the extent of any deficiency between the amount of the proceeds of the Collateral pledged by it hereunder and the aggregate amount of the Secured Obligations.

Section 10. Purchasers of Collateral.

Upon any sale of the Collateral by the Collateral Agent hereunder (whether by virtue of the power of sale herein granted, pursuant to judicial process or otherwise), the receipt of the Collateral Agent or the officer making such sale shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser or purchasers of the Collateral so sold, and such purchaser or purchasers shall not be obligated to see to the application of any part of the purchase money paid over to the Collateral Agent or such officer or be answerable in any way for the misapplication or nonapplication thereof.

Section 11. Indemnity and Payment of Expenses.

The terms of Section 12.01 of the Credit Agreement are incorporated herein by reference, mutatis mutandis, and the parties hereto agree to such terms.

Section 12. Collateral Agent Not A Partner or Limited Liability Company.

(a) Nothing herein shall be construed to make the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor liable as a member of any limited liability company or as a partner of any partnership and neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Creditor by virtue of this Agreement or otherwise (except as referred to in the following sentence) shall have any of the duties, obligations or liabilities of a member of any limited liability company or as a partner in any partnership. The parties hereto expressly agree that, unless the Collateral Agent shall become the absolute owner of Collateral consisting of a Partnership Interest pursuant hereto, this Agreement shall not be construed as creating a partnership or joint venture among the Collateral Agent, any other Secured Creditor, any Pledgor and/or any other Person.

(b) Except as provided in the last sentence of paragraph (a) of this Section 12, the Collateral Agent, by accepting this Agreement, did not intend to become a member of any limited liability company or a partner of any partnership or otherwise be deemed to be a co-venturer with respect to any Pledgor, any limited liability company, partnership and/or any other Person either before or after an Event of Default shall have occurred. The Collateral Agent shall have only those powers set forth herein and the Secured Creditors shall assume none of the duties, obligations or liabilities of a member of any limited liability company or as a partner of any partnership or any Pledgor except as provided in the last sentence of paragraph (a) of this Section 12.

(c) The Collateral Agent and the other Secured Creditors shall not be obligated to perform or discharge any obligation of any Pledgor as a result of the pledge hereby effected.

(d) The acceptance by the Collateral Agent of this Agreement, with all the rights, powers, privileges and authority so created, shall not at any time or in any event obligate the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor to appear in or defend any action or proceeding relating to the Collateral to which it is not a party, or to take any action hereunder or thereunder, or to expend any money or incur any expenses or perform or discharge any obligation, duty or liability under the Collateral.

Section 13. Further Assurances; Power-of-Attorney.

(a) Each Pledgor agrees that it will join with the Collateral Agent in executing and, at such Pledgor's own expense, file and refile under the PPSA or other applicable law such financing statements, financing change statements, renewals and other documents, in form reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent, in such offices as the Collateral Agent (acting on its own or on the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors) may reasonably deem necessary or appropriate and wherever required or permitted by law in order to perfect and preserve the Collateral Agent's security interest in the Collateral hereunder and hereby authorizes the Collateral Agent to file financing statements and amendments thereto relative to all or any part of the Collateral (including, without limitation, financing statements which list the Collateral specifically and/or as "all present and after-acquired personal property" without the signature of such Pledgor where permitted by law), and agrees to do such further acts and things and to execute and deliver to the Collateral Agent such additional conveyances, assignments, agreements and instruments as the Collateral Agent may reasonably require or deem advisable to carry into effect the purposes of this Agreement or to further assure and confirm unto the Collateral Agent its rights, powers and remedies hereunder or thereunder. Each Pledgor waives the right to receive a copy of any financing statement or financing change statement that may be registered in connection with this Agreement or any verification statement issued with respect to a registration, if waiver is not otherwise prohibited by law.

(b) Each Pledgor hereby constitutes and appoints the Collateral Agent its true and lawful attorney-in-fact, irrevocably, with full authority in the place and stead of such Pledgor and in the name of such Pledgor or otherwise, from time to time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and after giving any written prior notice required hereunder (if any) to the relevant Pledgor, in the Collateral Agent's discretion, to act, require, demand, receive and give acquittance for any and all monies and claims for monies due or to become due to such Pledgor under or arising out of the Collateral, to endorse any cheques or other instruments or orders in connection therewith and to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings and to execute any instrument which the Collateral Agent may deem reasonably necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, which appointment as attorney is coupled with an interest.

Section 14. The Collateral Agent as Collateral Agent.

The Collateral Agent will hold in accordance with this Agreement all items of the Collateral at any time received under this Agreement. It is expressly understood, acknowledged and agreed by each Secured Creditor that by accepting the benefits of this Agreement each such Secured Creditor acknowledges and agrees that the obligations of the Collateral Agent as holder of the Collateral and interests therein and with respect to the disposition thereof, and otherwise under this Agreement, are only those expressly set forth in this Agreement and in Article 11 of the Credit Agreement. The Collateral Agent shall act hereunder on the terms and conditions set forth herein and in Article 11 of the Credit Agreement.

Section 15. Transfer by the Pledgors.

Except as permitted (a) prior to the date all Secured Credit Obligations have been paid in full and all Commitments under the Credit Agreement have been terminated, pursuant to the Credit Agreement, and (b) thereafter, pursuant to the other Secured Debt Agreements, no Pledgor will sell or otherwise dispose of, grant any option with respect to, or mortgage, pledge or otherwise encumber any of the Collateral or any interest therein.

Section 16. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Pledgors.

(a) Each Pledgor represents, warrants and, until the Termination Date, covenants as to itself and each of its Subsidiaries that:

(i) it is the legal, beneficial and (except as to Securities credited on the books of a Clearing House or a Securities Intermediary) record owner of, and has good and valid title to, all of its Collateral consisting of one or more Securities and Partnership Interests and that it has sufficient interest in all of its Collateral in which a security interest is purported to be created hereunder for such security interest to attach (subject, in each case, to no pledge, lien, mortgage, hypothecation, security interest, charge, option or other encumbrance whatsoever, except the liens and security interests created by this Agreement or permitted under the Secured Debt Agreements);

(ii) it has full power, authority and legal right to pledge all the Collateral pledged by it pursuant to this Agreement;

(iii) this Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by such Pledgor and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Pledgor enforceable against such Pledgor in accordance with its terms, subject to (A) the effects of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law) and (B) as it relates to the pledge of any Stock of Foreign Subsidiaries of the Parent, the effects of the possible judicial application of foreign laws or foreign governmental or judicial action affecting creditors' rights;

(iv) other than any approval or consent that may be required from the board of directors or shareholders of any Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to its constating documents, which has already been obtained and will be maintained in full force and effect during the term of this Agreement, except in the case of ULC Shares, no consent of any other party (including, without limitation, any shareholder, unitholder, stockholder, partner, member or creditor of such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries) and no material consent, license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority is required to be obtained by such Pledgor in connection with (A) the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement by such Pledgor, (B) the validity or enforceability of this Agreement against such Pledgor, (C) the filing of any financing statements, the perfection or enforceability of the Collateral Agent's security interest in such Pledgor's Collateral or (D) except for compliance with or as may be required by applicable securities laws, the exercise by the Collateral Agent of any of its rights or remedies provided herein, in each case, except as would not reasonable be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(v) neither the execution, delivery or performance by such Pledgor of this Agreement, or any other Secured Debt Agreement to which it is a party, nor compliance by it with the terms and provisions hereof and thereof, (A) will contravene any provision of any applicable law, statute, rule or regulation, or any applicable order, writ, injunction or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality, domestic or foreign, applicable to such Pledgor, (B) will conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of (or the obligation to create or impose) any Lien (except pursuant to the Security Documents and Permitted Liens) upon any of the properties or assets of any such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of, any indenture, mortgage, debenture, hypothec, deed of trust, credit agreement or loan agreement, or any other material agreement, contract or instrument, in each case to which such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which it or any of its properties or assets is bound or to which it may be subject (except, in the case of preceding clauses (A) and (B), other than in the case of any contravention, breach, default and/or conflict, that would not reasonably be expected, either individually or in the aggregate, to have a Material Adverse Effect); or (C) will violate any provision of the certificate or articles of incorporation, certificate of formation, limited liability company agreement, by-laws or partnership agreement (or equivalent organizational documents), as applicable, of such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries.

(vi) all of such Pledgor's Collateral (consisting of Securities and Partnership Interests issued by any Pledgor or any Subsidiary of any Pledgor) has been duly and validly issued, is fully paid and non-assessable and is subject to no options to purchase or similar rights;

(vii) each of such Pledgor's Pledged Notes issued by any Pledgor or any Subsidiary of any Pledgor constitutes, or when executed by the obligor thereof will constitute, the legal, valid and binding obligation of such obligor, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that the enforceability thereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law);

(viii) the pledge, collateral assignment and delivery to the Collateral Agent of such Pledgor's Collateral consisting of Certificated Securities and Pledged Notes pursuant to this Agreement and the continued possession thereof by the Collateral Agent or an Affiliate creates a valid and perfected security interest in such Certificated Securities and Pledged Notes, and the proceeds thereof, having the priority specified in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, subject to no prior Lien or encumbrance or to any agreement purporting to grant to any third party a Lien or encumbrance on the property or assets of such Pledgor which would include the Securities (other than the liens and security interests permitted under the Secured Debt Agreements then in effect) and the Collateral Agent is entitled to all the rights, priorities and benefits afforded by the PPSA or other relevant law as enacted in any relevant jurisdiction to perfect security interests in respect of such Collateral; and

(ix) to the extent required by Section 3(b) hereof, the Pledgor shall have taken all steps in its control so that the Collateral Agent may obtain "control" within the meaning of the PPSA over all of such Pledgor's Collateral consisting of Securities (including, without limitation, Notes that are Securities) with respect to which such "control" may be obtained pursuant to the PPSA, except to the extent that the obligation of the applicable Pledgor to provide the Collateral Agent with "control" of such Collateral has not yet arisen under this Agreement.

(b) Each Pledgor covenants and agrees that it will defend the Collateral Agent's right, title and security interest in and to such Pledgor's Collateral (whether now owned or hereinafter acquired) and the proceeds thereof against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever.

Section 17. Pledgors' Obligations Absolute, Etc. The obligations of each Pledgor under this Agreement shall be absolute and unconditional and shall remain in full force and effect without regard to, and shall not be released, suspended, discharged, terminated or otherwise affected by, any circumstance or occurrence whatsoever (other than termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 19 hereof or, with respect to a specific Pledgor, release of such Pledgor pursuant to Section 30 hereof), including, without limitation:

(a) any renewal, extension, amendment or modification of, or addition or supplement to or deletion from any Secured Debt Agreement (other than this Agreement in accordance with its terms), or any other instrument or agreement referred to therein, or any assignment or transfer of any thereof;

(b) any waiver, consent, extension, indulgence or other action or inaction under or in respect of any such agreement or instrument including, without limitation, this Agreement (other than a waiver, consent or extension with respect to this Agreement in accordance with its terms);

(c) any furnishing of any additional security to the Collateral Agent or its assignee or any acceptance thereof or any release of any security by the Collateral Agent or its assignee;

(d) any limitation on any party's liability or obligations under any such instrument or agreement or any invalidity or unenforceability, in whole or in part, of any such instrument or agreement or any term thereof; or

(e) any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, composition, adjustment, dissolution, liquidation or other like proceeding relating to any Pledgor or any Subsidiary of any Pledgor, or any action taken with respect to this Agreement by any trustee or receiver, or by any court, in any such proceeding, whether or not such Pledgor shall have notice or knowledge of any of the foregoing.

Section 18. Sale of Collateral Without Qualification

If the Collateral Agent determines to exercise its right to sell any or all of the Collateral consisting of Securities or Partnership Interests pursuant to Section 7 hereof, each Pledgor agrees that, upon request of the Collateral Agent, each Pledgor will, at its own expense, do or cause to be done all such other acts and things as may be necessary to make such sale of the Collateral or any part thereof valid and binding and in compliance with applicable law. The Collateral Agent is not required to take steps to qualify, or cause to be qualified, any Securities or Partnership Interests forming part of the Collateral for public distribution or request the issuer to qualify them. The Collateral Agent need not dispose of any Securities or Partnership Interests by public distribution even if they are qualified for public distribution. The Collateral Agent may dispose of Securities or Partnership Interests by an exemption from the prospectus requirements of applicable securities legislation as it considers appropriate notwithstanding that doing so may require them to comply with limitations or restrictions relating to the exemption. The limitations or restrictions may include complying with procedures that may restrict the number of prospective bidders and purchasers, requiring that prospective bidders and purchasers have certain qualifications (including being accredited investors, agreeing to pay a minimum price or demonstrating qualifications required to obtain any approval of the sale or resulting purchase that is required under applicable law), and restricting prospective bidders and purchasers to those who will represent and agree that they are purchasing as principal for their own account for investment and not with a view to distribution or resale. In the event of any such sale, the Collateral Agent shall incur no responsibility or liability for selling all or any part of the Collateral at a price which the Collateral Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, may in good faith deem reasonable under the circumstances, notwithstanding the possibility that a substantially higher price might be realized if the sale were deferred until the registration as aforesaid.

Section 19. Termination; Release.

(a) On the Termination Date (as defined below), this Agreement shall terminate (provided that all indemnities set forth herein including, without limitation, in Section 11 hereof shall survive any such termination) and the Collateral Agent, at the request and expense of such Pledgor, will execute and deliver to such Pledgor a proper instrument or instruments acknowledging the satisfaction and termination of this Agreement (including, without limitation, PPSA financing change statements or discharges and instruments of satisfaction, discharge and/or reconveyance), and will duly release from the security interest created hereby and assign, transfer and deliver to such Pledgor (without recourse and without any representation or warranty) such of the Collateral as may be in the possession of the Collateral Agent or any of its sub-agents hereunder and as has not theretofore been sold or otherwise applied or released pursuant to this Agreement, together with any moneys at the time held by the Collateral Agent or any of its sub-agents hereunder and, with respect to any Collateral consisting of an Uncertificated Security or a Partnership Interest (other than an Uncertificated Security or Partnership Interest credited on the books of a Clearing House or Securities Intermediary), a termination of the agreement relating thereto executed and delivered by the issuer of such Uncertificated Security pursuant to Section 3(b)(i)(B) or by the respective partnership pursuant to Section 3(b)(i)(C)(2). As used in this Agreement, "Termination Date" shall mean the date upon which the Commitments under the Credit Agreement have been terminated and all Secured Credit Obligations have been paid in full, no Note under the Credit Agreement is outstanding and all Revolving Loans and LC Disbursements thereunder have been repaid in full and all Letters of Credit have expired or otherwise terminated (excluding any contingent indemnity obligations not then asserted and Letters of Credit which have been Cash Collateralized or backstopped on terms reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent).

(b) In the event that any part of the Collateral is sold or otherwise disposed of (to a Person other than a Credit Party) (x) at any time prior to the time at which all Secured Credit Obligations have been paid in full and all Commitments under the Credit Agreement have been terminated and all Letters of Credit have expired or otherwise terminated , in connection with a sale or disposition permitted by Section 9.02 of the Credit Agreement or is otherwise released at the direction of the Required Lenders (or a greater percentage of Lenders if required by Section 12.10 of the Credit Agreement) or (y) at any time thereafter, to the extent permitted by the other Secured Debt Agreements, the Collateral Agent, at the request and expense of such Pledgor, will duly release from the security interest created hereby (and will execute and deliver such documentation, including termination or partial release statements and the like in connection therewith) and assign, transfer and deliver to such Pledgor (without recourse and without any representation or warranty) such of the Collateral as is then being (or has been) so sold or released and as may be in the possession of the Collateral Agent (or, in the case of Collateral held by any sub-agent designated pursuant to Section 4 hereof, such sub-agent) and has not theretofore been released pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) At any time that any Pledgor desires that the Collateral Agent take any action to acknowledge or give effect to any release of Collateral pursuant to the foregoing Section 19(a) or (b), such Pledgor shall deliver to the Collateral Agent (and the relevant sub-agent, if any, designated pursuant to Section 4 hereof) a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer of such Pledgor stating that the release of the respective Collateral is permitted pursuant to (a) or (b) hereof.

(d) The Collateral Agent shall have no liability whatsoever to any other Secured Creditor as the result of any release of Collateral by it in accordance with (or which the Collateral Agent in the absence of gross negligence and willful misconduct believes to be in accordance with) this Section 19.

mails, delivered to the telegraph company, cable company or overnight courier, as the case may be, or sent by telex or telecopier, except that notices and communications to the Collateral Agent or any Pledgor shall not be effective until received by the Collateral Agent or such Pledgor, as the case may be. All notices and other communications shall be in writing and addressed as follows:

The Collateral Agent or any Pledgor may, in its discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by it; provided that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications.

Section 21. Waiver; Amendment.

Except as provided in Section 30 and 33 hereof, none of the terms and conditions of this Agreement may be changed, waived, modified or varied in any manner whatsoever except in accordance with the requirements specified in the Security Agreement.

Section 22. Successors and Assigns.

This Agreement shall create a continuing security interest in the Collateral and shall (i) remain in full force and effect, subject to release and/or termination as set forth in Section 19 hereof, (ii) be binding upon each Pledgor, its successors and assigns; provided, however, that no

Pledgor shall assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent (with the prior written consent of the Required Secured Creditors), and (iii) inure, together with the rights and remedies of the Collateral Agent hereunder, to the benefit of the Collateral Agent, the other Secured Creditors and their respective successors, transferees and permitted assigns. All agreements, statements, representations and warranties made by each Pledgor herein or in any certificate or other instrument delivered by such Pledgor or on its behalf under this Agreement shall be considered to have been relied upon by the Secured Creditors and shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the other Secured Debt Agreements regardless of any investigation made by the Secured Creditors or on their behalf.

Section 23. Headings Descriptive.

The headings of the several Sections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement.

Section 24. GOVERNING LAW; SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION; VENUE; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO AND THE FEDERAL LAWS OF CANADA APPLICABLE THEREIN. EACH PLEDGOR AGREES THAT THE COURTS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO HAVE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OVER ANY DISPUTE ARISING FROM OR IN RELATION TO THIS AGREEMENT AND EACH PLEDGOR IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY ATTORNS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THAT PROVINCE. EACH PLEDGOR AGREES THAT THE COURTS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO ARE THE MOST APPROPRIATE AND CONVENIENT FORUM TO SETTLE DISPUTES AND AGREES NOT TO ARGUE TO THE CONTRARY. EACH SUCH PARTY FURTHER IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO THE SERVICE OF PROCESS OUT OF ANY OF THE AFOREMENTIONED COURTS IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BY THE MAILING OF COPIES THEREOF BY REGISTERED OR CERTIFIED MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID, TO SUCH PARTY, AS THE CASE MAY BE, AT ITS ADDRESS FOR NOTICES AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 20 ABOVE, SUCH SERVICE TO BECOME EFFECTIVE 30 DAYS AFTER SUCH MAILING. EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION TO SUCH SERVICE OF PROCESS AND FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVES AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING COMMENCED HEREUNDER OR UNDER ANY OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT THAT SUCH SERVICE OF PROCESS WAS IN ANY WAY INVALID OR INEFFECTIVE. NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF THE COLLATERAL AGENT OR ANY SECURED CREDITOR TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR TO COMMENCE LEGAL PROCEEDINGS OR OTHERWISE PROCEED AGAINST ANY OTHER SUCH PARTY IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

(b) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION WHICH IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY OF

THE AFORESAID ACTIONS OR PROCEEDINGS ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT BROUGHT IN THE COURTS REFERRED TO IN (a) ABOVE AND HEREBY FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVES AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM IN ANY SUCH COURT THAT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURT HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM.

(c) EACH OF THE PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENTS OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

Section 25. Pledgor's Duties.

It is expressly agreed, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, that each Pledgor shall remain liable to perform all of the obligations, if any, assumed by it with respect to the Collateral and the Collateral Agent shall not have any obligations or liabilities with respect to any Collateral by reason of or arising out of this Agreement, except for the safekeeping of Collateral actually in Pledgor's possession, nor shall the Collateral Agent be required or obligated in any manner to perform or fulfill any of the obligations of any Pledgor under or with respect to any Collateral.

Section 26. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the different parties hereto on separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall constitute an original, but all of which, when taken together, shall constitute one and the same instrument. A set of counterparts executed by all the parties hereto shall be lodged with each Pledgor and the Collateral Agent. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile, PDF or other electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of an original executed counterpart of this Agreement.

Section 27. Severability.

Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 28. Recourse.

This Agreement is made with full recourse to each Pledgor and pursuant to and upon all the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements on the part of such Pledgor contained herein and in the other Secured Debt Agreements and otherwise in writing in connection herewith or therewith.

Section 29. Limited Obligations.

It is the desire and intent of each Pledgor and the Secured Creditors that this Agreement shall be enforced against each Pledgor to the fullest extent permissible under the laws applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in furtherance of the foregoing, it is noted that the obligations of each Pledgor constituting a Guarantor have been limited as provided in the ABL Guaranty.

Section 30. Release of Pledgors.

If at any time all of the Equity Interests of any Pledgor owned by the Parent or any of its Subsidiaries are sold (to a Person other than a Credit Party) in a transaction permitted pursuant to the Credit Agreement (and which does not violate the terms of any other Secured Debt Agreement then in effect), then, such Pledgor shall be released as a Pledgor pursuant to this Agreement without any further action hereunder (it being understood that the sale of all of the Equity Interests in any Person that owns, directly or indirectly, all of the Equity Interests in any Pledgor shall be deemed to be a sale of all of the Equity Interests in such Pledgor for purposes of this Section), and the Collateral Agent is authorized and directed to execute and deliver such instruments of release as are reasonably satisfactory to it. At any time that the Parent desires that a Pledgor be released from this Agreement as provided in this Section 30, the Parent shall deliver to the Collateral Agent a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower stating that the release of such Pledgor is permitted pursuant to this Section 30.

Section 31. Amalgamation, Merger.

If any Pledgor amalgamates or merges with one or more other entities, the Obligations and the security interest granted to the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Agreement shall continue as to the Obligations and the Collateral of such Grantor at the time of amalgamation or merger, and shall extend to the Obligations and the present and future Collateral of the amalgamated or merged entity, and the term Grantor shall extend to the amalgamated or merged entity, all as if the amalgamated or merged entity had executed this Agreement as such Grantor.

Section 32. Limitation Periods.

To the extent that any limitation period applies to any claim for payment of the Secured Obligations or remedy for enforcement of the Secured Obligations, each Pledgor agrees that: (a) any limitation period is expressly excluded and waived entirely if permitted by applicable law; (b) if a complete exclusion and waiver of any limitation period is not permitted by applicable law, any limitation period is extended to the maximum length permitted by applicable law; (c) any applicable limitation period shall not begin before an express demand for payment of the Secured Obligations is made in writing by the Collateral Agent to the Pledgors; (d) any applicable limitation period shall begin afresh upon any payment or other acknowledgment of the Secured Obligations by the Credit Parties; and (e) this Agreement is a "business agreement" as defined in the Limitations Act, 2002 (Ontario) if that Act applies.

Section 33. ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement.

This Agreement and the other Credit Documents are subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement in all respects and, in the event of any conflict between the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement and this Agreement, the terms of ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement shall govern. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Lien and security interest granted to the Collateral Agent pursuant to any Credit Document and the exercise of any right or remedy in respect of the Collateral by the Collateral Agent (or any Secured Creditor) hereunder or under any other Credit Document are subject to the provisions of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement and in the event of any conflict between the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, this Agreement and any other Credit Document, the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement shall govern and control with respect to the exercise of any such right or remedy. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no Credit Party shall be required hereunder or under any Credit Document to take any action with respect to the Collateral that is inconsistent with such Credit Parties' obligations under the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement. Prior to the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations (as defined in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement), the delivery or granting of "control" (as defined in the UCC) of any Fixed Asset Collateral (as defined in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement) to the collateral agent under the Term Loan Credit Agreement pursuant to the terms of the Fixed Asset Collateral Documents (as defined in the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement) shall satisfy any such delivery or granting of "control" requirement hereunder or under any other Credit Document with respect to any Fixed Asset Collateral to the extent that such delivery or granting of "control" is consistent with the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement.

Section 34. ULC Provisions.

Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in this Agreement, any other Credit Document or any other document or agreement to which any party to this Agreement is also party, each Pledgor is the sole registered and beneficial owner of the Securities and other Equity Interests (collectively, the "ULC Shares") of each unlimited company, unlimited liability company or unlimited liability corporation incorporated or otherwise existing under the laws of any province of Canada or under the federal laws of Canada, or any other entity whose members or shareholders have liability comparable to that of members or shareholders of any of those entities (each, a "ULC") that is from time to time a Subsidiary. Each Pledgor will remain so until the ULC Shares are, with the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent (which has not been revoked) and in the course of realization of the liens under this Agreement, transferred on the books and records of the applicable issuer into the name of the Collateral Agent, its nominee or a purchaser designated by the Collateral Agent. Accordingly, each Pledgor shall be entitled to receive and retain for its own account any dividend, distribution, payment or other proceeds in respect of the ULC Shares (except insofar as such Pledgor has granted a security interest in the dividend or other distribution in favour of the Collateral Agent under this Agreement, in which case the other terms of the security interest will apply) and shall have the right to vote the ULC Shares and to control the direction, management and policies of the applicable issuer to the same extent as such Pledgor would if the ULC Shares were not pledged to the Collateral Agent. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Credit Document is intended to or shall constitute the Collateral Agent or any Person other than the Pledgors, a shareholder or member of any issuer of ULC Shares for the purposes of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta), the Companies Act (Nova Scotia), the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) or any other applicable legislation governing the formation of a ULC ("ULC Legislation") until such time as the ULC Shares are transferred in the course of realization as described above. To the extent any provision of this Agreement would have the effect of constituting the Collateral Agent or any Person other than the Pledgors as a shareholder or member of any ULC that is from time to time an issuer for the purposes of the ULC Legislation before then, the provision shall be deemed not to apply to the ULC Shares or that ULC, as the case may be, and shall be ineffective without otherwise invalidating or rendering this Agreement unenforceable or invalidating or rendering the provision in question unenforceable insofar as it relates to property that is not the ULC Shares. Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, except upon the exercise of rights to sell or otherwise dispose of the ULC Shares following the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Pledgors shall not cause, permit or enable any issuer of ULC Shares to cause, permit, or enable, the Collateral Agent to:

(a) be registered as a shareholder of the issuer;

(b) have any notation entered in its favour in the share register or other books and records of a ULC in respect of the ULC Shares;

(c) act or purport to act as a shareholder of the issuer, or obtain, exercise or attempt to exercise any rights of a shareholder of the issuer, including the right to attend a meeting of the issuer, or to vote the ULC Shares;

(d) be held out as shareholder or member of the issuer; or

(e) receive, directly or indirectly, any dividends, property or other distributions from the issuer by reason of the Collateral Agent holding a security interest in the ULC Shares.

The limitations in this Section shall not restrict the Collateral Agent from (i) exercising the rights to sell or otherwise dispose of ULC Shares that it is entitled to exercise under this Agreement or (ii) having the ULC Shares registered in its name, in either case at any time that the Collateral Agent is entitled to realize on all or any portion of the ULC Shares pursuant to this Agreement and, in either case, provided that the Collateral Agent has (x) given notice to the applicable Pledgor of its intention to realize upon those ULC Shares (including by selling or disposing of or re-registering those ULC Shares) and (y) consented in writing to any change in registration and not revoked its consent.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each Pledgor and the Collateral Agent have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly elected officers duly authorized as of the date first above written.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Subsidiaries Guaranty, each Subsidiary Guarantor has jointly and severally guaranteed to the Secured Creditors the payment when due of all Guaranteed Obligations;

WHEREAS, it is a condition precedent to the making of Revolving Loans to the Borrowers and the issuance of Letters of Credit on behalf of the Parent and the Borrowers under the Credit Agreement that each Grantor shall have executed and delivered to the Collateral Agent this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, each Grantor will obtain benefits from the incurrence of Revolving Loans by and the issuance of Letters of Credit on behalf of the Parent and the Borrowers under the Credit Agreement and the entering into by the Parent or any other Credit Party of Secured Bank Product Obligations with the Other Creditors and, accordingly, desires to execute this Agreement in order to satisfy the condition described in the preceding paragraph;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the benefits accruing to each Grantor, the

ARTICLE I

1.2 Certain Exceptions. Notwithstanding Section 1.1, no security interest is or will be granted pursuant hereto in any right, title or interest of any Grantor under or in (each of (a) through (o) collectively, the "Excluded Collateral"):

(a) any leases, licenses, Instruments, Contracts, Chattel Paper, General Intangibles, Permits, governmental licenses, state or local franchises, charters or authorizations or other contracts or agreements with or issued by Persons other than the Borrower or Subsidiaries of the Borrower or an Affiliate thereof (collectively, "Excluded Agreements") that would otherwise be included in the Collateral (and such Excluded Agreements shall not be deemed to constitute a part of the Collateral) for so long as, and to the extent that, the granting of such a security interest pursuant hereto would invalidate or result in a violation, breach, default or termination of such Excluded Agreements or create a right of termination in favor of, or require the consent of, any party thereto (in each case other than the Borrower or a Subsidiary Guarantor) (in each case, except to the extent any such violation, breach, default, termination, right or consent would be rendered ineffective under the UCC or other applicable law); provided, however, that a security interest in an Excluded Agreement in favor of the Secured Creditors shall attach immediately (i) at such time as Grantor's grant of a security interest in such Excluded Agreement no longer results in a violation, breach, default or termination thereof or thereunder or no longer creates such right of termination or such right has been waived or requires such consent or such consent has been obtained, (ii) to the extent severable, to any portion of such Excluded Agreement that does not result in a respective violation, breach, default, termination or right or consent thereof or thereunder and (iii) to any proceeds or receivables of such Excluded Agreement that are not Excluded Collateral; or

(c) any intent-to-use trademark application prior to the filing of a "Statement of Use" or "Amendment to Allege Use" with respect thereto, to the extent, if any, that, and solely during the period, if any, in which, the grant of a security interest therein would impair the validity or enforceability of such intent-to-use trademark application under applicable federal law;

(d) any rights or property to the extent that any valid and enforceable law or regulation applicable to such rights or property prohibits the creation of a security interest therein, except to the extent such prohibition is unenforceable after giving effect to the applicable provisions of the UCC or other applicable law;

(e) those assets located outside of the United States and Canada (solely to the extent action would be required in such other jurisdictions to obtain such security interests);

(f) those assets as to which the Administrative Agent and the Lead Borrower reasonably agree in a writing to the Collateral Agent that the cost of obtaining a security interest therein is excessive in relation to the value of the security to be afforded thereby;

(g) those assets as to which the grant of a security interest or Lien therein in favor of the Secured Creditors could reasonably be expected to result in material adverse tax consequences (including, without limitation, as a result of the operation of Section 956 of the Code or any similar law or regulation in any applicable jurisdiction), as reasonably determined in good faith by the Borrower;

(h) (a) any fee-owned real property with a fair market value less than $5,000,000 and (b) all leasehold interests in real property;

(i) any Equity Interests in (i) a joint venture or other non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary to the extent that granting a security interest in or Lien on such Equity Interests is not permitted by the governing documents of such joint venture or other non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary or would require the consent of any Person who owns Equity Interests in such joint venture or non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary which (other than any Grantor or its Subsidiaries) consent has not been obtained, (ii) Subsidiaries that are not directly owned by a Grantor, and (iii) Unrestricted Subsidiaries;

(n) any Commercial Tort Claims with a value of less than $100,000; and

(o) any of the following:

(1) any property that would otherwise be included in the Collateral (and such property shall not be deemed to constitute a part of the Collateral) if such property has been sold or otherwise transferred in connection with a sale-leaseback transaction permitted under Section 9.02(k) of the Credit Agreement, or is subject to any Liens permitted under Section 9.01(g) of the Credit Agreement, or constitutes the Proceeds or products of any property that has been so sold or otherwise transferred, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement, so long as such Proceeds or products remain subject to the Liens referenced above in this clause (1); and in each case pursuant to preceding clauses (o)(1) through (2), for so long as, and to the extent that, the granting or existence of such a security interest pursuant hereto would result in a breach, default or termination of any agreement relating to the respective Lien or obligations secured thereby (in each case, except to the extent any such breach, default or termination would be rendered ineffective under the UCC or other applicable law); provided that immediately upon repayment of the Indebtedness and/or other monetary obligation secured by a Lien referenced in clauses (o)(1) through (2), the relevant Grantor shall be deemed to have granted a security interest in all of its rights, title and interests under or in such asset, Equipment or other property that is the subject of such Lien;

provided, however, that Excluded Collateral shall not include any Proceeds, substitutions or replacements of any Excluded Collateral referred to in any of clauses (a) through (o) (unless such Proceeds, substitutions or replacements would constitute Excluded Collateral referred to in any of clauses (a) through (o)).

1.3 Power of Attorney. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, each Grantor hereby constitutes and appoints the Collateral Agent its true and lawful attorney, irrevocably, with full power after the occurrence of and during the continuance of an Event of Default (in the name of such Grantor or otherwise) to act, require, demand, receive, compound and give acquittance for any and all moneys and claims for moneys due or to become due to such Grantor under or arising out of the Collateral, to endorse any checks or other instruments or orders in connection therewith and to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings which the Collateral Agent may deem to be reasonably necessary or advisable to protect the interests of the Secured Creditors, which appointment as attorney is coupled with an interest.

ARTICLE II

GENERAL REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

Each Grantor represents and warrants as of the date hereof, and, until the Termination Date, covenants, which representations, warranties and covenants shall survive execution and delivery of this Agreement, as follows:

2.1 Necessary Perfection Action. The security interest granted to the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Agreement in and to the Collateral for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Creditors is a valid security interest and Lien upon such Grantor's right, title and interest in and to the Collateral. Upon (A) the filing of the UCC financing statements delivered to the Collateral Agent for filing in the appropriate jurisdictions set forth on Annex C, (B) the recordation of Annexes K - M in the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the United States Copyright Office or the Canadian Intellectual Property Office, as the case may be, and (C) the receipt by the Collateral Agent of all instruments, chattel paper and certificated pledged Equity Interests constituting Collateral in suitable form for transfer by delivery or accompanied by instruments of transfer or assignment duly executed in blank, such security interest and Lien shall be perfected in all of the Collateral in which a security interest may be perfected by filing, recording or registering a UCC financing statement or analogous document in the United States (or any political subdivision thereof) and its territories and possessions pursuant to the UCC or other applicable law in such jurisdictions and in which a security interest may be perfected upon the receipt and recording of this Agreement (or a short form hereof) with the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the United States Copyright Office or the Canadian Intellectual Property Office as the case may be; provided, however, that additional filings may be necessary to perfect the Collateral Agent's security interest in, and Lien on, any Recordable Intellectual Property acquired after the date hereof.

Upon the actions taken under this Section 2.1, such security interest will be superior to and prior to all other Liens of all other Persons (other than Permitted Liens), and, subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement, enforceable as such as against all other Persons (except to the extent that the enforceability thereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws generally affecting creditors' rights and by equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law)) other than Ordinary Course Transferees.

2.2 No Liens. Such Grantor is, and as to all Collateral acquired by it from time to time after the date hereof will be, the owner of, or otherwise have the right to use, all Collateral free from any Lien of any Person (other than Permitted Liens), and such Grantor shall, at its own expense, take all commercially reasonable actions necessary to defend the Collateral against all claims and demands of all Persons at any time claiming the same or any interest therein materially adverse to the Collateral Agent.

2.3 Other Financing Statements. As of the date hereof, no Grantor has filed, nor authorized the filing by any third party of any financing statement (or similar statement or instrument of registration under the law of any jurisdiction) covering or purporting to cover any interest of any kind in the Collateral (other than financing statements filed in respect of Permitted Liens), and so long as the Termination Date has not occurred, such Grantor will not authorize to be filed in any public office any financing statement (or similar statement or instrument of registration under the law of any jurisdiction) or statements relating to the Collateral, except financing statements filed or to be filed in respect of and covering the security interests granted hereby by such Grantor or in connection with Permitted Liens.

2.4 Chief Executive Office, Record Locations. The chief executive office of such Grantor is, on the date of this Agreement, located at the address indicated on Annex A hereto for such Grantor. During the period of the four calendar months preceding the date of this Agreement, the chief executive office of such Grantor has not been located at any address other than that indicated on Annex A in accordance with the immediately preceding sentence, in each case unless each such other address is also indicated on Annex A hereto for such Grantor.

2.5 Location of Inventory and Equipment. All Inventory and Equipment (having a fair market value in excess of $1,000,000 with respect to Collateral comprising Equipment only) held on the date hereof, or held at any time during the four calendar months prior to the date hereof, by each Grantor, other than Inventory in transit or Equipment moved in the ordinary course of business, is located at one of the locations shown on Annex B hereto for such Grantor.

2.6 Legal Names; Type of Organization (and Whether a Registered Organization); Jurisdiction of Organization; Location; Organizational Identification Numbers; Federal Employer Identification Number; Changes Thereto; etc. As of the Closing Date, the exact legal name of each Grantor, the type of organization of such Grantor, whether or not such Grantor is a Registered Organization, the jurisdiction of organization of such Grantor, such Grantor's Location, the organizational identification number (if any) of such Grantor and the Federal Employer Identification Number of such Grantor (if any), is listed on Annex C hereto for such Grantor. Such Grantor shall not change its legal name, its type of organization, its status as a Registered Organization (in the case of a Registered Organization), its jurisdiction of organization, its Location, its organizational identification number (if any) or its Federal Employer Identification Number (if any) from that used on Annex C hereto, except that any such changes shall be permitted (so long as not in violation of the applicable requirements of the Secured Debt Agreements and so long as same do not involve (x) a Registered Organization ceasing to constitute same or (y) such Grantor changing its jurisdiction of organization or Location from the United States or a State thereof to a jurisdiction of organization or Location, as the case may be, outside the United States or a State thereof) if (i) it shall have given to the Collateral Agent written notice of each change to the information listed on Annex C (as adjusted for any subsequent changes thereto previously made in accordance with this sentence), together with a supplement to Annex C which shall update all information contained therein for such Grantor within five (5) Business Days of such change (or such longer period as agreed to by the Collateral Agent) and (ii) in connection with such change or changes, it shall take all action reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent to maintain the security interests of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral intended to be granted hereby at all times fully perfected to the extent described in Section 2.1 and in full force and effect. In addition, to the extent that such Grantor does not have an organizational identification number on the date hereof and later obtains one, such Grantor shall promptly thereafter notify the Collateral Agent of such organizational identification number and shall take all actions reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent to the extent necessary to maintain the security interest of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral intended to be granted hereby fully perfected to the extent described in Section 2.1 and in full force and effect.

2.7 Trade Names; Etc. Such Grantor has not and does not operate in any jurisdiction under, or in the preceding five (5) years has not operated in any jurisdiction under, any trade names, fictitious names or other names except its legal name as specified in Annex C and such other trade or fictitious names as are listed on Annex D hereto for such Grantor.

2.8 Certain Significant Transactions. During the one year period preceding the date of this Agreement, no Person shall have merged or consolidated with or into any Grantor, and no Person shall have liquidated into, or transferred all or substantially all of its assets to, any Grantor, in each case except the mergers and consolidations contemplated by the Transaction and the mergers and consolidations described in Annex E hereto. With respect to any transactions so described in Annex E hereto, the respective Grantor shall have furnished such information with respect to the Person (and the assets of the Person and locations thereof) which merged with or into or consolidated with such Grantor, or was liquidated into or transferred all or substantially all of its assets to such Grantor, and shall have furnished to the Collateral Agent such UCC lien searches as may have been reasonably requested with respect to such Person and its assets, to establish that no security interest (excluding Permitted Liens) continues perfected on the date hereof with respect to any Person described above (or the assets transferred to the respective Grantor by such Person), including without limitation pursuant to Section 9-316(a)(3) of the UCC.

2.9 As-Extracted Collateral; Timber-to-be-Cut. On the date hereof, such Grantor does not own, or expect to acquire, any property which constitutes, or would constitute, As-Extracted Collateral or Timber-to-be-Cut. If at any time after the date of this Agreement such Grantor owns, acquires or obtains rights to any As-Extracted Collateral or Timber-to-be-Cut, such Grantor shall concurrently with the delivery of the next Compliance Certificate provided under the Credit Agreement furnish the Collateral Agent with written notice thereof (which notice shall describe in reasonable detail the As-Extracted Collateral and/or Timber-to-be-Cut and the locations thereof) and shall take all actions as may be deemed reasonably necessary or desirable by the Collateral Agent to perfect the security interest of the Collateral Agent therein.

2.10 Collateral in the Possession of a Bailee. If any Inventory or other Goods, the aggregate fair market value of which is equal to or greater than $1,000,000, are at any time in the possession of a bailee, such Grantor shall concurrently with the delivery of the next Compliance Certificate provided under the Credit Agreement furnish the Collateral Agent with written notice thereof and, if requested by the Collateral Agent after an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, shall use its reasonable efforts to promptly obtain an acknowledgment from such bailee, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, that the bailee holds such Collateral for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and shall act upon the instructions of the Collateral Agent, without the further consent of such Grantor, subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement. The Collateral Agent agrees with such Grantor that the Collateral Agent shall not give any such instructions unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and upon notice from the Collateral Agent of its intent to exercise remedies.

2.11 Recourse. This Agreement is made with full recourse to each Grantor and pursuant to and upon all the warranties, representations, covenants and agreements on the part of such Grantor contained herein, in the Secured Debt Agreements and otherwise in writing in connection herewith or therewith.

ARTICLE III

SPECIAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING ACCOUNTS; CONTRACT RIGHTS; INSTRUMENTS; CHATTEL PAPER AND CERTAIN OTHER COLLATERAL

3 . 1 Maintenance of Records. Each Grantor will keep and maintain proper books and records of its Accounts and Contracts, in which full, true and correct entries in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and all Requirements of Law shall be made of all such Accounts and Contracts, and such Grantor will make the same available on such Grantor's premises to officers and designated representatives of the Collateral Agent for inspection in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Credit Agreement. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and at the request of the Collateral Agent, such Grantor shall, at its own cost and expense, deliver all tangible evidence of its Accounts and Contract Rights (including, without limitation, all documents evidencing the Accounts and all Contracts) and such books and records to the Collateral Agent or to its representatives (copies of which evidence and books and records may be retained by such Grantor). Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and if the Collateral Agent so requests, such Grantor shall legend, in form and manner satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, the Accounts and the Contracts, as well as books, records and documents (if any) of such Grantor evidencing or pertaining to such Accounts and Contracts with an appropriate reference to the fact that such Accounts and Contracts have been assigned to the Collateral Agent and that the Collateral Agent has a security interest therein.

3 . 2 Direction to Account Debtors; Contracting Parties; etc. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, after giving notice to the relevant Grantor of its intent to do so, if the Collateral Agent so directs any Grantor, such Grantor agrees (i) to cause all payments on account of the Accounts and Contracts to be made directly to the Cash Collateral Account, (ii) that the Collateral Agent may, at its option, directly notify the obligors in its own name or in the name of others with respect to any Accounts and/or under any Contracts to make payments with respect thereto as provided in the preceding clause (i), and (iii) that the Collateral Agent may enforce collection of any such Accounts and Contracts and may adjust, settle or compromise the amount of payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as such Grantor; provided that, (x) any failure by the Collateral Agent to give or any delay in giving such notice to the relevant Grantor shall not affect the effectiveness of such notice or the other rights of the Collateral Agent created by this Section 3.2 and (y) no such notice shall be required if an Event of Default of the type described in Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, without notice to or assent by any Grantor, the Collateral Agent may, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, apply any or all amounts then in, or thereafter deposited in, the Cash Collateral Account toward the payment of the Obligations in the manner provided in Section 6.4 of this Agreement. The reasonable costs and expenses of collection (including reasonable attorneys' fees), whether incurred by a Grantor or the Collateral Agent, shall be borne by the relevant Grantor. The Collateral Agent shall deliver a copy of each notice referred to in the preceding clause (y) to the relevant Grantor, provided that (x) the failure by the Collateral Agent to so notify such Grantor shall not affect the effectiveness of such notice or the other rights of the Collateral Agent created by this Section 3.2 and (y) no such notice shall be required if an Event of Default of the type described in Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing.

3.3 Modification of Terms; etc. Except in accordance with such Grantor's ordinary course of business and consistent with reasonable business judgment, or as permitted by Section 3.4 hereof or by the Credit Documents, no Grantor shall rescind or cancel any indebtedness evidenced by any Account, or modify any material term thereof or make any material adjustment with respect thereto, or extend or renew the same, or compromise or settle any material dispute, claim, suit or legal proceeding relating thereto, or sell any Account, or interest therein, without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent unless such rescissions, cancellations, modifications, adjustments, extensions, renewals, compromises, settlements, releases, or sales would not reasonably be expected to materially adversely affect the value of the Accounts constituting Collateral taken as a whole. Except as otherwise permitted by the Credit Documents, no Grantor will do anything to impair the rights of the Collateral Agent in the Accounts or Contracts.

3.4 Collection. Each Grantor shall endeavor in accordance with historical business practices to cause to be collected from the Account Debtor named in each of its Accounts or obligor under any Contract, as and when due (including, without limitation, amounts which are delinquent, such amounts to be collected in accordance with generally accepted lawful collection procedures) any and all amounts owing under or on account of such Account or Contract, and apply forthwith upon receipt thereof all such amounts as are so collected to the outstanding balance of such Account or under such Contract. Except as otherwise directed by the Collateral Agent after the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default or otherwise required pursuant to the Credit Agreement, any Grantor may allow in the ordinary course of business as adjustments to amounts owing under its Accounts and Contracts (i) an extension or renewal of the time or times of payment, or settlement for less than the total unpaid balance, which such Grantor finds appropriate in accordance with reasonable business judgment, (ii) a refund or credit due as a result of returned or damaged merchandise or improperly performed services or for other reasons which such Grantor finds appropriate in accordance with reasonable business judgment and (iii) any other adjustments necessary or desirable in the Grantor's reasonable business judgment. The reasonable costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) of collection, whether incurred by a Grantor or the Collateral Agent, shall be borne by the relevant Grantor.

3.5 Instruments. If any Grantor at any time holds or acquires any Instrument constituting Collateral with a face value in excess of $100,000 individually (other than checks and other payment instruments received and collected in the ordinary course of business and promptly deposited into a Deposit Account), such Grantor shall, on or prior to the date of the required delivery of the Compliance Certificate pursuant to the Credit Agreement following such acquisition, notify the Collateral Agent thereof, and upon request by the Collateral Agent (subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement), promptly deliver such Instrument to the Collateral Agent appropriately endorsed in blank or to the order of the Collateral Agent, provided that, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, such Grantor may retain for collection in the ordinary course of business any Instrument received by such Grantor in the ordinary course of business, and the Collateral Agent shall, promptly upon request of such Grantor, make appropriate arrangements for making any Instruments in its possession and pledged by such Grantor available to such Grantor for purposes of presentation, collection or renewal. If such Grantor retains possession of any Instruments pursuant to the terms hereof, upon request of the Collateral Agent, such Instrument shall be marked with the following legend: "This writing and the obligations evidenced or secured hereby are subject to the security interests of Bank of America, N.A., as collateral agent, for the benefit of itself and certain Secured Creditors."

3.6 Grantors Remain Liable Under Accounts. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Grantors shall remain liable under each of the Accounts to observe and perform all of the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by it thereunder, all in accordance with the terms of any agreement giving rise to such Accounts. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Creditor shall have any obligation or liability under any Account (or any agreement giving rise thereto) by reason of or arising out of this Agreement, nor shall the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of any Grantor under or pursuant to any Account (or any agreement giving rise thereto), to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by them or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Account (or any agreement giving rise thereto), to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to them or to which they may be entitled at any time or times.

3.7 Grantors Remain Liable Under Contracts. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Grantors shall remain liable under each of the Contracts to observe and perform all of the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by them thereunder, all in accordance with and pursuant to the terms and provisions of each Contract. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Creditor shall have any obligation or liability under any Contract by reason of or arising out of this Agreement, nor shall the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of any Grantor under or pursuant to any Contract, to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Contract, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to them or to which they may be entitled at any time or times.

3.8 Collection Accounts; Etc.

(a) Annex F hereto accurately sets forth, as of the date of this Agreement, for each Grantor, each Collection Account maintained by such Grantor (including a description thereof and the respective account number), the name of the respective bank with which such Collection Account is maintained, and the jurisdiction of the respective bank with respect to such Collection Account. With respect to each Collection Account, the applicable Grantor shall cause the applicable bank with which such Collection Account is maintained to execute and deliver to the Collateral Agent, within 90 days (or such later date as the Collateral Agent may agree in its sole discretion) after the date of this Agreement or, if later, within 90 days (or such later date as the Collateral Agent may agree in its sole discretion) of the time of the establishment of the respective Collection Account, a Deposit Account Control Agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, if any bank with which a Collection Account is maintained refuses or is unable to, or does not, enter into such a "control agreement", then the applicable Grantor shall promptly close the applicable Collection Account and transfer all balances therein to a Collection Account meeting the requirements of this Section 3.8.

(b) After the date of this Agreement, no Grantor shall establish any Collection Account other than Collection Accounts established and maintained with banks and meeting the requirements of preceding clause (a).

3.9 Letter-of-Credit Rights. If any Grantor is at any time a beneficiary under a letter of credit with a stated amount of $100,000 or more, such Grantor shall, on or prior to the date of the required delivery of the Compliance Certificate pursuant to the Credit Agreement following the creation of such letter of credit, notify the Collateral Agent thereof and, at the request of the Collateral Agent after an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, such Grantor shall, pursuant to an agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, use its commercially reasonable efforts to (i) arrange for the issuer and any confirmer of such letter of credit to consent to an assignment to the Collateral Agent of the proceeds of any drawing under such letter of credit or (ii) arrange for the Collateral Agent to become the transferee beneficiary of such letter of credit, with the Collateral Agent agreeing, in each case, that the proceeds of any drawing under the letter of credit are to be applied as provided in this Agreement after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default (it being understood that unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing such proceeds shall be released to such Grantor).

3.10 Commercial Tort Claims. As of the Closing Date, no Grantor has Commercial Tort Claims with an individual claimed value of $100,000 or more other than those described in Annex H hereto. If any Grantor shall at any time after the date of this Agreement hold or acquire a Commercial Tort Claim in an amount (taking the greater of the aggregate claimed damages thereunder or the reasonably estimated value thereof) of $100,000 or more, such Grantor shall, on or prior to the date of the required delivery of the Compliance Certificate pursuant to the Credit Agreement following such acquisition, notify the Collateral Agent thereof in a writing signed by such Grantor and describing the details thereof and shall grant to the Collateral Agent in such writing a security interest therein (subject to Permitted Liens) and in the proceeds thereof, all upon the terms of this Agreement, with such writing to be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent.

3.11 Chattel Paper. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, each Grantor will promptly following any reasonable request by the Collateral Agent, deliver all of its Tangible Chattel Paper with a value in excess of $100,000 to the Collateral Agent, provided that, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, such Grantor may retain for collection in the ordinary course of business any Chattel Paper received by such Grantor in the ordinary course of business, and the Collateral Agent shall, promptly upon request of such Grantor, make appropriate arrangements for making any Chattel Paper in its possession and pledged by such Grantor available to such Grantor for purposes of presentation, collection or renewal. If such Grantor retains possession of any Chattel Paper pursuant to the terms hereof, subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon request of the Collateral Agent, such Chattel Paper shall be marked with the following legend: "This writing and the obligations evidenced or secured hereby are subject to the security interests of Bank of America, N.A., as collateral agent, for the benefit of itself and certain Secured Creditors."

3.12 Further Actions. Each Grantor will, at its own expense, make, execute, endorse, acknowledge, file and/or deliver to the Collateral Agent from time to time such vouchers, invoices, schedules, confirmatory assignments, conveyances, financing statements, transfer endorsements, certificates, reports and other assurances or instruments and take such further steps, including any and all actions as may be necessary or required relating to its Accounts, Contracts, Instruments and other property or rights which constitute Collateral, as the Collateral Agent may reasonably require for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of the security interests, rights and powers herein granted; provided, that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Grantors shall not be required to (i) take any action to perfect any security interest in any Collateral outside of the United States and Canada or (ii) enter into any control agreements or similar arrangements relating to any Deposit Account; except as set forth in Section 3.8.

ARTICLE IV

SPECIAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

4.1 Additional Representations and Warranties. Annex H hereto sets forth a complete and accurate list of all Recordable Intellectual Property that each Grantor owns. Each Grantor represents and warrants that it is the sole owner of all right, title and interest in all Recordable Intellectual Property listed in Annex H hereto. Each Grantor further warrants that it has no knowledge of any written third party claim received by it within the last twelve (12) months that any such Grantor or aspect of such Grantor's present business operations infringes, misappropriates, dilutes or otherwise violates any Intellectual Property of any other Person other than as has not, and would not, reasonably be expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. Each Grantor represents and warrants that no Recordable Intellectual Property listed in Annex H hereto has been canceled or is presently being opposed and, to such Grantor's knowledge, all such Recordable Intellectual Property is valid and subsisting, and such Grantor is not aware of any pending third-party claim that any of said registrations of Recordable Intellectual Property are invalid or unenforceable, and is not aware that there is any reason that any of said registrations of Recordable Intellectual Property are invalid or unenforceable, and is not aware that there is any reason that any of said applications of Recordable Intellectual Property will not mature into registrations, other than would not reasonably be expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. Each Grantor hereby grants to the Collateral Agent an absolute power of attorney to sign, solely upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, any document which may be required by the United States Patent and Trademark Office, any domain name registrar, the United States Copyright Office, the Canadian Intellectual Property Office or any other governmental authority in order to effect an assignment of all right, title and interest in any Intellectual Property constituting Collateral, and record the same.

4.2 Infringements. Each Grantor agrees, within 60 days of the end of each fiscal quarter, to notify the Collateral Agent in writing of the name and address of, and to furnish such pertinent information that may be available to such Grantor with respect to: (i) any party who such Grantor reasonably believes is infringing, misappropriating, diluting or otherwise violating any of such Grantor's rights in and to any Intellectual Property in any manner that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, or (ii) any party claiming that any Grantor or the conduct of any Grantor's business infringes, misappropriates, dilutes or otherwise violates any Intellectual Property right of any third party in any manner that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Each Grantor further agrees to prosecute diligently in accordance with its reasonable business judgment, any Person infringing, misappropriating, diluting or otherwise violating any Intellectual Property owned by it in any manner that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

4.3 Preservation of Trademarks. Each Grantor agrees to use its Trademarks that are material to such Grantor's business in interstate commerce during the time in which this Agreement is in effect to the extent required by the laws of the United States or other jurisdiction, as applicable, to maintain its rights in such Trademarks and to take all such other actions as are reasonably necessary to preserve such Trademarks as trademarks or service marks under the laws of the United States or other jurisdiction, as applicable (other than any such Trademarks that are deemed by a Grantor in its reasonable business judgment to no longer be material to the conduct of such Grantor's business).

4.4 Maintenance of Registration. Each Grantor shall, at its own expense, diligently maintain all material Recordable Intellectual Property in accordance with its reasonable business judgment, including but not limited to filing affidavits of use and applications for renewals of registration for all of its material registered Trademarks and timely payment of all post-issuance fees required to maintain in force its rights under each issued Patent or registered Copyright, and shall pay all fees and disbursements in connection therewith and shall not abandon any such registration, filing of affidavit of use or application of renewal prior to the exhaustion of all administrative and judicial remedies without prior written consent of the Collateral Agent, not to be unreasonably withheld (other than with respect to registrations and applications deemed by such Grantor in its reasonable business judgment to be no longer prudent to pursue).

4.5 Prosecution of Applications. At its own expense, each Grantor, in accordance with its reasonable business judgment, shall diligently prosecute all material applications for (i) United States Patents listed in Annex J hereto and (ii) Copyrights listed in Annex K hereto, in each case for such Grantor and shall not abandon any such application prior to exhaustion of all administrative and judicial remedies (other than applications that are no longer material or are deemed by such Grantor in its reasonable business judgment to no longer be necessary in the conduct of Grantor's business), absent written consent of the Collateral Agent not to be unreasonably withheld.

4.6 After-Acquired Intellectual Property. In the event that any Grantor, either itself or through any agent, employee, licensee or designee, files an application for or acquires any Recordable Intellectual Property following the date hereof, then the provisions of this Agreement shall automatically apply thereto and any such Intellectual Property (other than any Excluded Collateral) shall automatically constitute part of the Collateral and shall be subject to the Collateral Agent's security interest, without further action by any party, and such Grantor shall within 60 days of the end of each fiscal quarter execute and deliver any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers as necessary to evidence and perfect the Collateral Agent's security interest in such Recordable Intellectual Property provided that such agreements, instruments, documents and papers (the " Writings") are consistent with the terms of and conditions of this Agreement and the Annexes K – M, as applicable, and each Grantor hereby appoints the Collateral Agent as its attorney-in-fact to execute and file such Writings, solely upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and solely for the foregoing purposes, all acts of such attorney being hereby ratified and confirmed; such power, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable until this Agreement is terminated.

ARTICLE V

PROVISIONS CONCERNING ALL COLLATERAL

5.1 Protection of Collateral Agent's Security . Except as otherwise permitted by the Secured Debt Agreements, each Grantor will do nothing to impair the rights of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral. Each Grantor or an affiliate on behalf of such Grantor will at all times maintain insurance, at such Grantor's own expense to the extent and in the manner provided in the Secured Debt Agreements. If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Collateral Agent shall, at the time any proceeds of such insurance are distributed to the Secured Creditors, apply such proceeds in accordance with Section 6.4 hereof. Each Grantor assumes all liability and responsibility in connection with the Collateral acquired by it and the liability of such Grantor to pay the Obligations shall in no way be affected or diminished by reason of the fact that such Collateral may be lost, destroyed, stolen, damaged or for any reason whatsoever unavailable to such Grantor.

5.2 Warehouse Receipts Non-Negotiable . To the extent practicable, each Grantor agrees that if any warehouse receipt or receipt in the nature of a warehouse receipt is issued with respect to any of its Inventory, such Grantor shall request that such warehouse receipt or receipt in the nature thereof shall not be "negotiable" (as such term is used in Section 7-104 of the UCC as in effect in any relevant jurisdiction or under other relevant law).

5.3 Additional Information. Each Grantor will, at its own expense, from time to time upon the reasonable request of the Collateral Agent, promptly furnish to the Collateral Agent such information with respect to the Collateral (including the identity of the Collateral or such components thereof as may have been reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent, the value and location of such Collateral, etc.) as may be requested by the Collateral Agent.

5.4 Further Actions . Each Grantor will, at its own expense and upon the reasonable request of the Collateral Agent, make, execute, endorse, acknowledge, file and/or deliver to the Collateral Agent from time to time such lists, descriptions and designations of its Collateral, warehouse receipts, receipts in the nature of warehouse receipts, bills of lading, documents of title, vouchers, invoices, schedules, confirmatory assignments, conveyances, financing statements, transfer endorsements, certificates, reports and other assurances or instruments and take such further steps relating to the Collateral and other property or rights covered by the security interest hereby granted, which the Collateral Agent deems reasonably appropriate or advisable to perfect, preserve or protect its security interest in the Collateral; provided, that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Grantors shall not be required to (i) take any action to perfect any security interest in any Collateral under the laws of any jurisdiction outside of the United States and Canada or (ii) enter into any control agreements or similar arrangements relating to any Deposit Account, except as set forth in Section 3.8.

5.5 Financing Statements. Each Grantor will pay any applicable filing fees, recordation taxes and related expenses relating to its Collateral. Each Grantor hereby authorizes the Collateral Agent to file any such financing statements without the signature of such Grantor where permitted by law (and such authorization includes describing the Collateral as "all assets and all personal property whether now owned or hereafter acquired" of such Grantor or words of similar effect).

ARTICLE VI

REMEDIES UPON OCCURRENCE OF AN EVENT OF DEFAULT

6.1 Remedies; Obtaining the Collateral Upon Default. Each Grantor agrees that, subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, if any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, then and in every such case, the Collateral Agent, in addition to any rights now or hereafter existing under applicable law and under the other provisions of this Agreement, shall have all rights as a secured creditor under any UCC, and such additional rights and remedies to which a secured creditor is entitled under the laws in effect in all relevant jurisdictions and may:

(i) personally, or by agents or attorneys, immediately take possession of the Collateral or any part thereof, from such Grantor or any other Person who then has possession of any part thereof with or without notice or process of law, and for that purpose may enter upon such Grantor's premises where any of the Collateral is located and remove the same and use in connection with such removal any and all services, supplies, aids and other facilities of such Grantor;

(ii) instruct the obligor or obligors on any agreement, instrument or other obligation (including, without limitation, the Accounts and the Contracts) constituting the Collateral to make any payment required by the terms of such agreement, instrument or other obligation directly to the Collateral Agent and may exercise any and all remedies of such Grantor in respect of such Collateral;

(iii) sell, assign or otherwise liquidate any or all of the Collateral or any part thereof in accordance with Section 6.2 hereof, or direct such Grantor to sell, assign or otherwise liquidate any or all of the Collateral or any part thereof, and, in each case, take possession of the proceeds of any such sale or liquidation;

(iv) take possession of the Collateral or any part thereof, by directing such Grantor in writing to deliver the same to the Collateral Agent at any reasonable place or places designated by the Collateral Agent, in which event such Grantor shall at its own expense:

(a) forthwith cause the same to be moved to the place or places so designated by the Collateral Agent and there delivered to the Collateral Agent;

(b) store and keep any Collateral so delivered to the Collateral Agent at such place or places pending further action by the Collateral Agent as provided in Section 6.2 hereof; and

(c) while the Collateral shall be so stored and kept, provide such security and maintenance services as shall be reasonably necessary to protect the same and to preserve and maintain it in good condition;

(v) license or sublicense, on a royalty free, rent basis, whether on an exclusive or nonexclusive basis, any Intellectual Property included in the Collateral (in the case of Trademarks, subject to reasonable quality control and subject to those exclusive licenses granted by Grantors in effect on the date hereof and those granted by any Grantor hereafter to the extent permitted by the Credit Agreement) for such term and on such conditions and in such manner as the Collateral Agent shall in its sole judgment determine, it being understood that any such license, may be exercised, at the option of the Collateral Agent, only upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default; provided, that any such license shall be binding upon the Grantors notwithstanding any subsequent cure of an Event of Default.

(vi) apply any monies constituting Collateral or proceeds thereof in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.4; and

(vii) take any other action as specified in clauses (1) through (5), inclusive, of Section 9-607 of the UCC;

it being understood that each Grantor's obligation so to deliver the Collateral is of the essence of this Agreement and that, accordingly, upon application to a court of equity having jurisdiction, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to a decree requiring specific performance by such Grantor of said obligation. By accepting the benefits of this Agreement and each other Security Document, the Secured Creditors expressly acknowledge and agree that this Agreement and each other Security Document may be enforced only by the action of the Collateral Agent acting upon the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors and that no other Secured Creditor shall have any right individually to seek to enforce or to enforce this Agreement or to realize upon the security to be granted hereby, it being understood and agreed that such rights and remedies may be exercised by the Collateral Agent or the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Other Obligations, as the case may be, for the benefit of the Secured Creditors upon the terms of this Agreement and the other Security Documents.

6.2 Remedies; Disposition of the Collateral. To the extent permitted by applicable law, if any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, then any Collateral repossessed by the Collateral Agent under or pursuant to Section 6.1 hereof and any other Collateral whether or not so repossessed by the Collateral Agent, may be sold, assigned, leased or otherwise disposed of under one or more contracts or as an entirety, and without the necessity of gathering at the place of sale the property to be sold, and in general in such manner, at such time or times, at such place or places and on such terms as the Collateral Agent may, in compliance with any mandatory requirements of applicable law, determine to be commercially reasonable. Any of the Collateral may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of, in the condition in which the same existed when taken by the Collateral Agent or after any overhaul or repair at the expense of the relevant Grantor which the Collateral Agent shall reasonably determine to be commercially reasonable. Any such sale, lease or other disposition may be effected by means of a public disposition or private disposition, effected in accordance with the applicable requirements (in each case if and to the extent applicable) of Sections 9-610 through 9-613 of the UCC and/or such other mandatory requirements of applicable law as may apply to the respective disposition. The Collateral Agent may, without notice or publication, adjourn any public or private disposition or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for the disposition, and such disposition may be made at any time or place to which the disposition may be so adjourned. To the extent permitted by any such requirement of law, the Collateral Agent may bid for and become the purchaser (and may pay all or any portion of the purchase price by crediting Obligations against the purchase price) of the Collateral or any item thereof, offered for disposition in accordance with this Section 6.2 without accountability to the relevant Grantor. Each Grantor agrees to do or cause to be done all such other acts and things as may be reasonably necessary to make such disposition or dispositions of all or any portion of the Collateral valid and binding and in compliance with any and all applicable laws, regulations, orders, writs, injunctions, decrees or awards of any and all courts, arbitrators or governmental instrumentalities, domestic or foreign, having jurisdiction over any such sale or sales, all at such Grantor's expense.

6.3 Waiver of Claims. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, EACH GRANTOR HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, NOTICE AND JUDICIAL HEARING IN CONNECTION WITH THE COLLATERAL AGENT'S TAKING POSSESSION OR THE COLLATERAL AGENT'S DISPOSITION OF ANY OF THE COLLATERAL, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY AND ALL PRIOR NOTICE AND HEARING FOR ANY PREJUDGMENT REMEDY OR REMEDIES, and each Grantor hereby further waives, to the extent permitted by law:

(a) all damages occasioned by such taking of possession or any such disposition except any damages which are the direct result of the Collateral Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision);

(b) all other requirements as to the time, place and terms of sale or other requirements with respect to the enforcement of the Collateral Agent's rights hereunder; and

(c) all rights of redemption, appraisement, valuation, stay, extension or moratorium now or hereafter in force under any applicable law in order to prevent or delay the enforcement of this Agreement or the absolute sale of the Collateral or any portion thereof, and each Grantor, for itself and all who may claim under it, insofar as it or they now or hereafter lawfully may, hereby waives the benefit of all such laws.

Any sale of, or the grant of options to purchase, or any other realization upon, any Collateral shall operate to divest all right, title, interest, claim and demand, either at law or in equity, of the relevant Grantor therein and thereto, and shall be a perpetual bar both at law and in equity against such Grantor and against any and all Persons claiming or attempting to claim the Collateral so sold, optioned or realized upon, or any part thereof, from, through and under such Grantor.

6.4 Application of Proceeds.

(a) Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, all moneys collected by the Collateral Agent (or, to the extent the Pledge Agreement or any other Security Document requires proceeds of collateral under such other Security Document to be applied in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Pledgee under, and as defined in, the Pledge Agreement, or collateral agent under such other Security Document) upon any sale or other disposition of the Collateral (or the collateral under the relevant Security Document), together with all other moneys received by the Collateral Agent hereunder (or under the relevant Security Document), in each case, as a result of the exercise of remedies by the Collateral Agent after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, shall be applied as follows:

(i) first, to the payment of all amounts owing the Collateral Agent of the type described in clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv) of the definition of "Obligations";

(ii) second, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to the preceding clause (i), to the payment of all amounts owing to any Agent or any of its Affiliates of the type described in clauses (iv) and (v) of the definition of "Obligations";

(iii) third, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to the preceding clauses (i) and (ii), an amount equal to the outstanding Credit Document Obligations shall be paid to the Secured Creditors as provided in Section 6.4(c) hereof, with each Secured Creditor receiving an amount equal to its outstanding Credit Document Obligations or, if the proceeds are insufficient to pay in full all such Credit Document Obligations, its Pro Rata Share of the amount remaining to be distributed;

(iv) fourth, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to preceding clauses (i) through (iii), inclusive, ratably to any other then remaining unpaid Obligations; and

(v) fifth, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to the preceding clauses (i) through (iv), inclusive, and following the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.8(a) hereof, to the relevant Grantor or to whomever may be lawfully entitled to receive such surplus.

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, " Pro Rata Share" shall mean, when calculating a Secured Creditor's portion of any distribution or amount, that amount (expressed as a percentage) equal to a fraction the numerator of which is the then unpaid amount of such Secured Creditor's Obligations, and the denominator of which is the then outstanding amount of all Obligations.

(c) All payments required to be made hereunder shall be made to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Secured Creditors.

(d) For purposes of applying payments received in accordance with this Section6.4, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely upon the Administrative Agent for a determination (which the Administrative Agent agrees (or shall agree) to provide upon request of the Collateral Agent) of the outstanding Credit Document Obligations owed to the Secured Creditors.

(e) It is understood that the Grantors are and shall remain jointly and severally liable to the extent of any deficiency between the amount of the proceeds of the Collateral and the aggregate amount of the Obligations.

6.5 Remedies Cumulative. Each and every right, power and remedy hereby specifically given to the Collateral Agent shall be in addition to every other right, power and remedy specifically given to the Collateral Agent under this Agreement, the other Secured Debt Agreements or now or hereafter existing at law, in equity or by statute and each and every right, power and remedy whether specifically herein given or otherwise existing may be exercised from time to time or simultaneously and as often and in such order as may be deemed expedient by the Collateral Agent. All such rights, powers and remedies shall be cumulative and the exercise or the beginning of the exercise of one shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to exercise any other or others. No delay or omission of the Collateral Agent in the exercise of any such right, power or remedy and no renewal or extension of any of the Obligations shall impair any such right, power or remedy or shall be construed to be a waiver of any Default or Event of Default or an acquiescence thereof. No notice to or demand on any Grantor in any case shall entitle it to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of any of the rights of the Collateral Agent to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand. In the event that the Collateral Agent shall bring any suit to enforce any of its rights hereunder and shall be entitled to judgment, then in such suit the Collateral Agent may recover reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, and the amounts thereof shall be included in such judgment.

6.6 Discontinuance of Proceedings. In case the Collateral Agent shall have instituted any proceeding to enforce any right, power or remedy under this Agreement by foreclosure, sale, entry or otherwise, and such proceeding shall have been discontinued or abandoned for any reason or shall have been determined adversely to the Collateral Agent, then and in every such case the relevant Grantor, the Collateral Agent and each holder of any of the Obligations shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder with respect to the Collateral subject to the security interest created under this Agreement, and all rights, remedies and powers of the Collateral Agent shall continue as if no such proceeding had been instituted.

ARTICLE I

(a) As security for the prompt and complete payment or performance, as the case may be, when due of all of its Obligations, each Grantor does hereby pledge, assign, mortgage, charge and grant to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Creditors, as and by way of a fixed and specific mortgage and charge, and grants to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Creditors, a continuing security interest in, all of its present and after-acquired personal property, including, without limiting the foregoing, all of its right, title and interest in, to and under all of the following personal property and fixtures (and all rights therein), or in which or to which it has any rights, in each case whether now existing or hereafter from time to time acquired (but excluding any Excluded Collateral (as defined below)):

(i) each and every Account, including all claims of any kind that such Grantor has, including claims against the Crown and claims under insurance policies;

(ii) the Cash Collateral Account and all Money, Securities, Instruments and other investments deposited or required to be deposited in the Cash Collateral Account;

(iii) all Chattel Paper;

(iv) all Contracts, together with all Contract Rights arising thereunder;

(v) all Equipment and fixtures;

(vi) all Deposit Accounts and all Money, Securities, Instruments and other investments deposited or required to be deposited in any of the foregoing;

(vii) all Documents of Title;

(viii) all Financial Assets;

(ix) all Goods;

(x) all Instruments;

(xi) all Intangibles;

(xii) all Intellectual Property

(xiii) all Inventory;

(xiv) all Investment Property, including shares, stock, warrants, bonds, debentures, debenture stock and other Securities (in each case whether evidenced by a Security Certificate or an Uncertificated Security) and Security Entitlements, Securities Accounts, Futures Contracts and Futures Accounts;

(xv) all rights in letters of credit (whether or not the respective letter of credit is evidenced by a writing);

(xvi) all Money;

(xvii) all Patents;

(xviii) all Permits;

(xix) with respect to the foregoing, all parts, components, renewals, substitutions and replacements of that property and all attachments, accessories and increases, additions and Accessions to that property; and

(xx) all Proceeds and products of any and all of the foregoing, including property in any form derived directly or indirectly from any dealing with such property or an Affiliate thereof (collectively, " Excluded Agreements ") that would otherwise be included in the Collateral (and such Excluded Agreements shall not be deemed to constitute a part of the Collateral) for so long as, and to the extent that, the granting of such a security interest pursuant hereto would invalidate or result in a violation, breach, default or termination of such Excluded Agreements or create a right of termination in favour of, or require the consent of, any party thereto (in each case other than the Borrower or a Subsidiary Guarantor) (in each case, except to the extent any such violation, breach, default, termination, right or consent would be rendered ineffective under the PPSA or other applicable law); provided, however, that a security interest in an Excluded Agreement in favour of the Secured Creditors shall attach immediately (i) at such time as Grantor's grant of a security interest in such Excluded Agreement no longer results in a violation, breach, default or termination thereof or thereunder or no longer creates such right of termination or such right has been waived or requires such consent or such consent has been obtained, (ii) to the extent severable, to any portion of such Excluded Agreement that does not result in a respective violation, breach, default, termination or right or consent thereof or thereunder and (iii) to any proceeds or receivables of such Excluded Agreement that are not Excluded Collateral;

(b) any Consumer Goods;

(c) any intent-to-use trademark application prior to the filing of a "Statement of Use" or "Amendment to Allege Use" with respect thereto, to the extent, if any, that, and solely during the period, if any, in which, the grant of a security interest therein would impair the validity or enforceability of such intent-to-use trademark application under applicable federal law;

(d) any Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods to the extent that any valid and enforceable law or regulation applicable to such Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods prohibit the creation of a security interest therein, except to the extent such prohibition is unenforceable after giving effect to the applicable provisions of the PPSA or other applicable law;

(e) other than Equity Interests in [Redacted – Name of Subsidiary] , those assets located outside of the United States and Canada (solely to the extent action would be required in such other jurisdictions to obtain such security interests);

(f) those Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods as to which the Administrative Agent and the Lead Borrower reasonably agree in a writing to the Collateral Agent that the cost of obtaining a security interest therein is excessive in relation to the value of the security to be afforded thereby;

(g) (a) any fee-owned real property with a fair market value less than $5,000,000 and (b) all leasehold interests in real property;

(h) any Equity Interests in (i) a joint venture or other non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary to the extent that granting a security interest in or Lien on such Equity Interests is not permitted by the governing documents of such joint venture or other non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary or would require the consent of any Person who owns Equity Interests in such joint venture or non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary which (other than any Grantor or its Subsidiaries) consent has not been obtained, (ii) Subsidiaries that are not directly owned by a Grantor, and (iii) Unrestricted Subsidiaries;

(i) any margin stock;

(j) any motor vehicles and assets subject to certificates of title (other than to the extent such rights can be perfected by the filing of a financing statement under the PPSA);

(k) cash that secures any letters of credit outstanding and permitted to be outstanding and secured pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement; and

(l) any of the following:

(1) any Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods that would otherwise be included in the Collateral (and such Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods shall not be deemed to constitute a part of the Collateral) if such Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods have been sold or otherwise transferred in connection with a sale-leaseback transaction permitted under Section 9.02(k) of the Credit Agreement, or are subject to any Liens permitted under Section 9.01(g) of the Credit Agreement, or constitute the Proceeds or products of any Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods that have been so sold or otherwise transferred, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement, so long as such Proceeds or products remain subject to the Liens referenced above in this clause (1); and in each case pursuant to preceding clauses (l)(1) through (2), for so long as, and to the extent that, the granting or existence of such a security interest pursuant hereto would result in a breach, default or termination of any agreement relating to the respective Lien or obligations secured thereby (in each case, except to the extent any such breach, default or termination would be rendered ineffective under the PPSA or other applicable law); provided that immediately upon repayment of the Indebtedness and/or other monetary obligation secured by a Lien referenced in clauses (l)(1) through (2), the relevant Grantor shall be deemed to have granted a security interest in all of its rights, title and interests under or in such Intangibles, Instruments, Investment Property, Chattel Paper, Documents of Title, Money or Goods that are the subject of such Lien;

provided, however, that Excluded Collateral shall not include any Proceeds, substitutions or replacements of any Excluded Collateral referred to in any of clauses (a) through (l) (unless such Proceeds, substitutions or replacements would constitute Excluded Collateral referred to in any of clauses (a) through (l)).

1.3 Trademarks. The security interest with respect to trademarks constitutes a security interest in, and a charge and pledge of, such Collateral in favour of the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Creditors, but does not constitute an assignment or mortgage of such Collateral to the Collateral Agent or any Secured Creditor.

1.4 Attachment. Each Grantor has rights in its Collateral and agrees that the Secured Creditors have given value and that the security interests created by this Agreement are intended to attach (a) with respect to Collateral that is now in existence, upon execution of this Agreement, and (b) with respect to Collateral that comes into existence in the future, upon such Grantor acquiring rights in the Collateral or the power to transfer rights in the Collateral to the Collateral Agent. In each case, the parties do not intend to postpone the attachment of any security interests created by this Agreement.

1.5 Power of Attorney. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, each Grantor hereby constitutes and appoints the Collateral Agent its true and lawful attorney, irrevocably, with full power after the occurrence of and during the continuance of an Event of Default (in the name of such Grantor or otherwise) to act, require, demand, receive, compound and give acquittance for any and all moneys and claims for moneys due or to become due to such Grantor under or arising out of the Collateral, to endorse any cheques or other instruments or orders in connection therewith and to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings which the Collateral Agent may deem to be reasonably necessary or advisable to protect the interests of the Secured Creditors, which appointment as attorney is coupled with an interest.

1.6 In Addition to Other Rights; No Marshalling. This Agreement is in addition to and is not in any way prejudiced by or merged with any other security interest or Lien now or subsequently held by the Collateral Agent in respect of any Obligations. The Secured Creditors shall be under no obligation to marshal in favour of the Grantors any other security interest or Lien or any money or other property that the Secured Creditors may be entitled to receive or may have a claim upon.

ARTICLE II

GENERAL REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

Each Grantor represents and warrants as of the date hereof, and, until the Termination Date, covenants, which representations, warranties and covenants shall survive execution and delivery of this Agreement, as follows:

2.1 Necessary Perfection Action. The security interest granted to the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Agreement in and to the Collateral for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Creditors is a valid security interest and Lien upon such Grantor's right, title and interest in and to the Collateral. Upon (A) the filing of the PPSA and UCC financing statements in the appropriate jurisdictions set forth on Annexes A, B and C, (B) the recordation of Annex H in the Canadian Intellectual Property Office, and (C) the receipt by the Collateral Agent of all instruments, chattel paper and certificated pledged Equity Interests constituting Collateral in suitable form for transfer by delivery or accompanied by instruments of transfer or assignment duly executed in blank, such security interest and Lien shall be perfected in all of the Collateral in which a security interest may be perfected by filing, recording or registering a PPSA financing statement or analogous document in Canada (or any political subdivision thereof) and its territories and possessions pursuant to the PPSA or other applicable law in such jurisdictions and in which a security interest may be perfected upon the receipt and recording of this Agreement (or a short form hereof) with the Canadian Intellectual Property Office; provided, however, that additional filings may be necessary to perfect the Collateral Agent's security interest in, and Lien on, any Recordable Intellectual Property acquired after the date hereof.

Upon the actions taken under this Section 2.1, such security interest will be superior to and prior to all other Liens of all other Persons (other than Permitted Liens), and, subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Intercreditor Agreement, enforceable as such as against all other Persons (except to the extent that the enforceability thereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws generally affecting creditors' rights and by equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law)) other than Ordinary Course Transferees.

2.2 No Liens. Such Grantor is, and as to all Collateral acquired by it from time to time after the date hereof will be, the owner of, or otherwise have the right to use, all Collateral free from any Lien of any Person (other than Permitted Liens), and such Grantor shall, at its own expense, take all commercially reasonable actions necessary to defend the Collateral against all claims and demands of all Persons at any time claiming the same or any interest therein materially adverse to the Collateral Agent.

2.3 Other Financing Statements. As of the date hereof, no Grantor has filed, nor authorized the filing by any third party of any financing statement (or similar statement or instrument of registration under the law of any jurisdiction) covering or purporting to cover any interest of any kind in the Collateral (other than financing statements filed in respect of Permitted Liens), and so long as the Termination Date has not occurred, such Grantor will not authorize to be filed in any public office any financing statement (or similar statement or instrument of registration under the law of any jurisdiction) or statements relating to the Collateral, except financing statements filed or to be filed in respect of and covering the security interests granted hereby by such Grantor or in connection with Permitted Liens.

2.5 Locations of Collateral. All Inventory, Equipment and other tangible personal property (having a fair market value in excess of $100,000 with respect to Collateral comprising Equipment only) held on the date hereof, or held at any time during the four calendar months prior to the date hereof, by each Grantor, other than Inventory in transit or Equipment moved in the ordinary course of business within the jurisdictions shown on Annex B hereto, is located at one of the locations shown on Annex B hereto for such Grantor. No Grantor shall permit any of its Inventory, Equipment or other tangible personal property to be located out of the jurisdictions shown on Annex B hereto for such Grantor without providing the Collateral Agent with 10 (ten) days advance written notice and promptly taking all action reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent to maintain the security interests of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral intended to be granted hereby at all times fully perfected to the extent described in Section 2.1 and in full force and effect.

2 . 6 Legal Names; Type of Organization; Jurisdiction of Organization; Location; Organizational Identification Numbers; Federal Employer Identification Number; Changes Thereto; etc. As of the Closing Date, the exact legal name of each Grantor, the type of organization of such Grantor, the jurisdiction of organization of such Grantor, such Grantor's Location, the organizational identification number (if any) of such Grantor and the Federal Employer Identification Number of such Grantor (if any), is listed on Annex C hereto for such Grantor. Such Grantor shall not change its legal name, its type of organization, its jurisdiction of organization, its Location, its organizational identification number (if any) or its Federal Employer Identification Number (if any) from that used on Annex C hereto, except that any such changes shall be permitted (so long as not in violation of the applicable requirements of the Secured Debt Agreements and so long as same do not involve (x) a registered organization ceasing to constitute same or (y) such Grantor changing its jurisdiction of organization or Location from Canada or a province or territory thereof to a jurisdiction of organization or Location, as the case may be, outside Canada or a province or territory thereof) if (i) it shall have given to the Collateral Agent written notice of each change to the information listed on Annex C (as adjusted for any subsequent changes thereto previously made in accordance with this sentence), together with a supplement to Annex C which shall update all information contained therein for such Grantor within five (5) Business Days of such change (or such longer period as agreed to by the Collateral Agent) and (ii) in connection with such change or changes, it shall take all action reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent to maintain the security interests of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral intended to be granted hereby at all times fully perfected to the extent described in Section 2.1 and in full force and effect. In addition, to the extent that such Grantor does not have an organizational identification number on the date hereof and later obtains one, such Grantor shall promptly thereafter notify the Collateral Agent of such organizational identification number and shall take all actions reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent to the extent necessary to maintain the security interest of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral intended to be granted hereby fully perfected to the extent described in Section 2.1 and in full force and effect.

2.7 Trade Names; Etc. Such Grantor has not and does not operate in any jurisdiction under, or in the preceding five (5) years has not operated in any jurisdiction under, any trade names, fictitious names or other names except its legal name as specified in Annex C and such other trade or fictitious names as are listed on Annex D hereto for such Grantor.

2.8 Certain Significant Transactions. During the one year period preceding the date of this Agreement, no Person shall have merged, amalgamated or consolidated with or into any Grantor, and no Person shall have liquidated into, or transferred all or substantially all of its assets to, any Grantor, in each case except the mergers, amalgamations and consolidations contemplated by the Transaction and the mergers, amalgamations and consolidations described in Annex E hereto. With respect to any transactions so described in Annex E hereto, the respective Grantor shall have furnished such information with respect to the Person (and the assets of the Person and locations thereof) which merged with or into or amalgamated or consolidated with such Grantor, or was liquidated into or transferred all or substantially all of its assets to such Grantor, and shall have furnished to the Collateral Agent such PPSA and Bank Act (Canada) lien searches as may have been reasonably requested with respect to such Person and its assets, to establish that no security interest (excluding Permitted Liens) continues perfected on the date hereof with respect to any Person described above (or the assets transferred to the respective Grantor by such Person).

2.9 Consumer Goods. None of the Collateral consists of Consumer Goods.

2.10 Collateral in the Possession of a Bailee . If any Inventory or other Goods, the aggregate fair market value of which is equal to or greater than $1,000,000, are at any time in the possession of a bailee, such Grantor shall concurrently with the delivery of the next Compliance Certificate provided under the Credit Agreement furnish the Collateral Agent with written notice thereof and, if requested by the Collateral Agent after an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, shall use its reasonable efforts to promptly obtain an acknowledgment from such bailee, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, that the bailee holds such Collateral for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and shall act upon the instructions of the Collateral Agent, without the further consent of such Grantor, subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement. The Collateral Agent agrees with such Grantor that the Collateral Agent shall not give any such instructions unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and upon notice from the Collateral Agent of its intent to exercise remedies.

2.11 Recourse. This Agreement is made with full recourse to each Grantor and pursuant to and upon all the warranties, representations, covenants and agreements on the part of such Grantor contained herein, in the Secured Debt Agreements and otherwise in writing in connection herewith or therewith.

ARTICLE III

SPECIAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING ACCOUNTS; CONTRACT RIGHTS; INSTRUMENTS; CHATTEL PAPER AND CERTAIN OTHER COLLATERAL

3 . 1 Maintenance of Records. Each Grantor will keep and maintain proper books and records of its Accounts and Contracts, in which full, true and correct entries in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and all Requirements of Law shall be made of all such Accounts and Contracts, and such Grantor will make the same available on such Grantor's premises to officers and designated representatives of the Collateral Agent for inspection in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Credit Agreement. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and at the request of the Collateral Agent, such Grantor shall, at its own cost and expense, deliver all tangible evidence of its Accounts and Contract Rights (including, without limitation, all documents evidencing the Accounts and all Contracts) and such books and records to the Collateral Agent or to its representatives (copies of which evidence and books and records may be retained by such Grantor). Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and if the Collateral Agent so requests, such Grantor shall legend, in form and manner satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, the Accounts and the Contracts, as well as books, records and documents (if any) of such Grantor evidencing or pertaining to such Accounts and Contracts with an appropriate reference to the fact that such Accounts and Contracts have been assigned to the Collateral Agent and that the Collateral Agent has a security interest therein.

3.2 Direction to Account Debtors; Contracting Parties; etc. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, after giving notice to the relevant Grantor of its intent to do so, if the Collateral Agent so directs any Grantor, such Grantor agrees (i) to cause all payments on account of the Accounts and Contracts to be made directly to the Cash Collateral Account, (ii) that the Collateral Agent may, at its option, directly notify the obligors in its own name or in the name of others with respect to any Accounts and/or under any Contracts to make payments with respect thereto as provided in the preceding clause (i), and (iii) that the Collateral Agent may enforce collection of any such Accounts and Contracts and may adjust, settle or compromise the amount of payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as such Grantor; provided that, (x) any failure by the Collateral Agent to give or any delay in giving such notice to the relevant Grantor shall not affect the effectiveness of such notice or the other rights of the Collateral Agent created by this Section 3.2 and (y) no such notice shall be required if an Event of Default of the type described in Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, without notice to or assent by any Grantor, the Collateral Agent may, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, apply any or all amounts then in, or thereafter deposited in, the Cash Collateral Account toward the payment of the Obligations in the manner provided in Section 6.5 of this Agreement. The reasonable costs and expenses of collection (including reasonable legal fees), whether incurred by a Grantor or the Collateral Agent, shall be borne by the relevant Grantor. The Collateral Agent shall deliver a copy of each notice referred to in the preceding clause (y) to the relevant Grantor, provided that (x) the failure by the Collateral Agent to so notify such Grantor shall not affect the effectiveness of such notice or the other rights of the Collateral Agent created by this Section 3.2 and (y) no such notice shall be required if an Event of Default of the type described in Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing.

3.3 Modification of Terms; etc. Except in accordance with such Grantor's ordinary course of business and consistent with reasonable business judgment, or as permitted by Section 3.4 hereof or by the Credit Documents, no Grantor shall rescind or cancel any indebtedness evidenced by any Account, or modify any material term thereof or make any material adjustment with respect thereto, or extend or renew the same, or compromise or settle any material dispute, claim, suit or legal proceeding relating thereto, or sell any Account, or interest therein, without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent unless such rescissions, cancellations, modifications, adjustments, extensions, renewals, compromises, settlements, releases, or sales would not reasonably be expected to materially adversely affect the value of the Accounts constituting Collateral taken as a whole. Except as otherwise permitted by the Credit Documents, no Grantor will do anything to impair the rights of the Collateral Agent in the Accounts or Contracts.

3.4 Collection. Each Grantor shall endeavor in accordance with historical business practices to cause to be collected from the Account Debtor named in each of its Accounts or obligor under any Contract, as and when due (including, without limitation, amounts which are delinquent, such amounts to be collected in accordance with generally accepted lawful collection procedures) any and all amounts owing under or on account of such Account or Contract, and apply forthwith upon receipt thereof all such amounts as are so collected to the outstanding balance of such Account or under such Contract. Except as otherwise directed by the Collateral Agent after the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default or otherwise required pursuant to the Credit Agreement, any Grantor may allow in the ordinary course of business as adjustments to amounts owing under its Accounts and Contracts (i) an extension or renewal of the time or times of payment, or settlement for less than the total unpaid balance, which such Grantor finds appropriate in accordance with reasonable business judgment, (ii) a refund or credit due as a result of returned or damaged merchandise or improperly performed services or for other reasons which such Grantor finds appropriate in accordance with reasonable business judgment and (iii) any other adjustments necessary or desirable in the Grantor's reasonable business judgment. The reasonable costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees) of collection, whether incurred by a Grantor or the Collateral Agent, shall be borne by the relevant Grantor.

3.5 Instruments. If any Grantor at any time holds or acquires any Instrument constituting Collateral with a face value in excess of $100,000 individually (other than cheques and other payment instruments received and collected in the ordinary course of business and promptly deposited into a Deposit Account), such Grantor shall, on or prior to the date of the required delivery of the Compliance Certificate pursuant to the Credit Agreement following such acquisition, notify the Collateral Agent thereof, and upon request by the Collateral Agent (subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement), promptly deliver such Instrument to the Collateral Agent appropriately endorsed in blank or to the order of the Collateral Agent, provided that, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, such Grantor may retain for collection in the ordinary course of business any Instrument received by such Grantor in the ordinary course of business, and the Collateral Agent shall, promptly upon request of such Grantor, make appropriate arrangements for making any Instruments in its possession and pledged by such Grantor available to such Grantor for purposes of presentation, collection or renewal. If such Grantor retains possession of any Instruments pursuant to the terms hereof, upon request of the Collateral Agent, such Instrument shall be marked with the following legend: "This writing and the obligations evidenced or secured hereby are subject to the security interests of Bank of America, N.A., as collateral agent, for the benefit of itself and certain Secured Creditors."

3 . 6 Grantors Remain Liable Under Accounts . Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Grantors shall remain liable under each of the Accounts to observe and perform all of the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by it thereunder, all in accordance with the terms of any agreement giving rise to such Accounts. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Creditor shall have any obligation or liability under any Account (or any agreement giving rise thereto) by reason of or arising out of this Agreement, nor shall the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of any Grantor under or pursuant to any Account (or any agreement giving rise thereto), to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by them or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Account (or any agreement giving rise thereto), to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to them or to which they may be entitled at any time or times.

3 . 7 Grantors Remain Liable Under Contracts . Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Grantors shall remain liable under each of the Contracts to observe and perform all of the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by them thereunder, all in accordance with and pursuant to the terms and provisions of each Contract. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Creditor shall have any obligation or liability under any Contract by reason of or arising out of this Agreement, nor shall the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of any Grantor under or pursuant to any Contract, to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Contract, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to them or to which they may be entitled at any time or times.

3.8. Collection Accounts; Etc.

(a) Annex F hereto accurately sets forth, as of the date of this Agreement, for each Grantor, each Collection Account maintained by such Grantor (including a description thereof and the respective account number), the name of the respective bank with which such Collection Account is maintained, and the jurisdiction of the respective bank with respect to such Collection Account. With respect to each Collection Account, the applicable Grantor shall cause the applicable bank with which such Collection Account is maintained to execute and deliver to the Collateral Agent, within 90 days (or such later date as the Collateral Agent may agree in its sole discretion) after the date of this Agreement or, if later, within 90 days (or such later date as the Collateral Agent may agree in its sole discretion) of the time of the establishment of the respective Collection Account, a Deposit Account Control Agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, if any bank with which a Collection Account is maintained refuses or is unable to, or does not, enter into such a "control agreement", then the applicable Grantor shall promptly close the applicable Collection Account and transfer all balances therein to a Collection Account meeting the requirements of this Section 3.8.

(b) After the date of this Agreement, no Grantor shall establish any Collection Account other than Collection Accounts established and maintained with banks and meeting the requirements of preceding clause (a).

3.9 Rights in Letters of Credit . If any Grantor is at any time a beneficiary under a letter of credit with a stated amount of $100,000 or more, such Grantor shall, on or prior to the date of the required delivery of the Compliance Certificate pursuant to the Credit Agreement following the creation of such letter of credit, notify the Collateral Agent thereof and, at the request of the Collateral Agent after an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, such Grantor shall, pursuant to an agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, use its commercially reasonable efforts to (i) arrange for the issuer and any confirmer of such letter of credit to consent to an assignment to the Collateral Agent of the proceeds of any drawing under such letter of credit or (ii) arrange for the Collateral Agent to become the transferee beneficiary of such letter of credit, with the Collateral Agent agreeing, in each case, that the proceeds of any drawing under the letter of credit are to be applied as provided in this Agreement after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default (it being understood that unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing such proceeds shall be released to such Grantor).

deliver all of its Chattel Paper with a value in excess of $100,000 to the Collateral Agent, provided that, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, such Grantor may retain for collection in the ordinary course of business any Chattel Paper received by such Grantor in the ordinary course of business, and the Collateral Agent shall, promptly upon request of such Grantor, make appropriate arrangements for making any Chattel Paper in its possession and pledged by such Grantor available to such Grantor for purposes of presentation, collection or renewal. If such Grantor retains possession of any Chattel Paper pursuant to the terms hereof, subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon request of the Collateral Agent, such Chattel Paper shall be marked with the following legend: "This writing and the obligations evidenced or secured hereby are subject to the security interests of Bank of America, N.A., as collateral agent, for the benefit of itself and certain Secured Creditors."

3.11 Further Actions. Each Grantor will, at its own expense, make, execute, endorse, acknowledge, file and/or deliver to the Collateral Agent from time to time such vouchers, invoices, schedules, confirmatory assignments, conveyances, financing statements, transfer endorsements, certificates, reports and other assurances or instruments and take such further steps, including any and all actions as may be necessary or required relating to its Accounts, Contracts, Instruments and other property or rights which constitute Collateral, as the Collateral Agent may reasonably require for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of the security interests, rights and powers herein granted; provided that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Grantors shall not be required to (i) take any action to perfect any security interest in any Collateral outside of the United States or Canada or (ii) enter into any control agreement or similar arrangements relating to any Deposit Account, except as set forth in Section 3.8. On request by the Collateral Agent, the Grantors shall provide the Collateral Agent with details of all motor vehicles which are classified as equipment of the Grantors and all other serial numbered goods to which provisions of the PPSA or regulations or orders under the PPSA regarding serial numbers apply, in each case, having a fair market value in excess of $100,000.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

4 . 1 Additional Representations and Warranties. Annex G hereto sets forth a complete and accurate list of all Recordable Intellectual Property that each Grantor owns. Each Grantor represents and warrants that it is the sole owner of all right, title and interest in all Recordable Intellectual Property listed in Annex G hereto. Each Grantor further warrants that it has no knowledge of any written third party claim received by it within the last twelve (12) months that any such Grantor or aspect of such Grantor's present business operations infringes, misappropriates, dilutes or otherwise violates any Intellectual Property of any other Person other than as has not, and would not, reasonably be expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. Each Grantor represents and warrants that no Recordable Intellectual Property listed in Annex G hereto has been cancelled or is presently being opposed and, to such Grantor's knowledge, all such Recordable Intellectual Property is valid and subsisting, and such Grantor is not aware of any pending third-party claim that any of said registrations of Recordable Intellectual Property are invalid or unenforceable, and is not aware that there is any reason that any of said registrations of Recordable Intellectual Property are invalid or unenforceable, and is not aware that there is any reason that any of said applications of Recordable Intellectual Property will not mature into registrations, other than would not reasonably be expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. Each Grantor hereby grants to the Collateral Agent an absolute power of attorney to sign, solely upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, any document which may be required by the United States Patent and Trademark Office, any domain name registrar, the United States Copyright Office, the Canadian Intellectual Property Office or any other governmental authority in order to effect an assignment of all right, title and interest in any Intellectual Property constituting Collateral, and record the same.

4.2 Infringements. Each Grantor agrees, within 60 days of the end of each fiscal quarter, to notify the Collateral Agent in writing of the name and address of, and to furnish such pertinent information that may be available to such Grantor with respect to: (i) any party who such Grantor reasonably believes is infringing, misappropriating, diluting or otherwise violating any of such Grantor's rights in and to any Intellectual Property in any manner that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, or (ii) any party claiming that any Grantor or the conduct of any Grantor's business infringes, misappropriates, dilutes or otherwise violates any Intellectual Property right of any third party in any manner that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Each Grantor further agrees to prosecute diligently in accordance with its reasonable business judgment, any Person infringing, misappropriating, diluting or otherwise violating any Intellectual Property owned by it in any manner that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

4.3 Preservation of Trademarks. Each Grantor agrees to use its Trademarks that are material to such Grantor's business during the time in which this Agreement is in effect to the extent required by the laws of Canada or other jurisdiction, as applicable, to maintain its rights in such Trademarks and to take all such other actions as are reasonably necessary to preserve such Trademarks as trademarks or service marks under the laws of Canada or other jurisdiction, as applicable (other than any such Trademarks that are deemed by a Grantor in its reasonable business judgment to no longer be material to the conduct of such Grantor's business).

4.4 Maintenance of Registration. Each Grantor shall, at its own expense, diligently maintain all material Recordable Intellectual Property in accordance with its reasonable business judgment, including but not limited to filing affidavits of use and applications for renewals of registration for all of its material registered Trademarks and timely payment of all post-issuance fees required to maintain in force its rights under each issued Patent or registered Copyright, and shall pay all fees and disbursements in connection therewith and shall not abandon any such registration, filing of affidavit of use or application of renewal prior to the exhaustion of all administrative and judicial remedies without prior written consent of the Collateral Agent, not to be unreasonably withheld (other than with respect to registrations and applications deemed by such Grantor in its reasonable business judgment to be no longer prudent to pursue).

case for such Grantor and shall not abandon any such application prior to exhaustion of all administrative and judicial remedies (other than applications that are no longer material or are deemed by such Grantor in its reasonable business judgment to no longer be necessary in the conduct of Grantor's business), absent written consent of the Collateral Agent not to be unreasonably withheld.

4.6 After-Acquired Intellectual Property. In the event that any Grantor, either itself or through any agent, employee, licensee or designee, files an application for or acquires any Recordable Intellectual Property following the date hereof, then the provisions of this Agreement shall automatically apply thereto and any such Intellectual Property (other than any Excluded Collateral) shall automatically constitute part of the Collateral and shall be subject to the Collateral Agent's security interest, without further action by any party, and such Grantor shall within 60 days of the end of each fiscal quarter execute and deliver any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers as necessary to evidence and perfect the Collateral Agent's security interest in such Recordable Intellectual Property provided that such agreements, instruments, documents and papers (the "Writings") are consistent with the terms of and conditions of this Agreement and the Annex H and each Grantor hereby appoints the Collateral Agent as its attorney-in-fact to execute and file such Writings, solely upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and solely for the foregoing purposes, all acts of such attorney being hereby ratified and confirmed; such power, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable until this Agreement is terminated.

ARTICLE V

PROVISIONS CONCERNING ALL COLLATERAL

5.1 Protection of Collateral Agent's Security. Except as otherwise permitted by the Secured Debt Agreements, each Grantor will do nothing to impair the rights of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral. Each Grantor or an affiliate on behalf of such Grantor will at all times maintain insurance, at such Grantor's own expense to the extent and in the manner provided in the Secured Debt Agreements. If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Collateral Agent shall, at the time any proceeds of such insurance are distributed to the Secured Creditors, apply such proceeds in accordance with Section 6.5 hereof. Each Grantor assumes all liability and responsibility in connection with the Collateral acquired by it and the liability of such Grantor to pay the Obligations shall in no way be affected or diminished by reason of the fact that such Collateral may be lost, destroyed, stolen, damaged or for any reason whatsoever unavailable to such Grantor.

5.2 Warehouse Receipts Non-Negotiable. To the extent practicable, each Grantor agrees that if any warehouse receipt or receipt in the nature of a warehouse receipt is issued with respect to any of its Inventory, such Grantor shall request that such warehouse receipt or receipt in the nature thereof shall not be a "negotiable" document of title (as such term is used in Section 26(1) of the PPSA as in effect in any relevant jurisdiction or under other relevant law).

5.3 Additional Information. Each Grantor will, at its own expense, from time to time upon the reasonable request of the Collateral Agent, promptly furnish to the Collateral Agent such information with respect to the Collateral (including the identity of the Collateral or such components thereof as may have been reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent, the value and location of such Collateral, etc.) as may be requested by the Collateral Agent.

5.4 Further Actions. Each Grantor will, at its own expense and upon the reasonable request of the Collateral Agent, make, execute, endorse, acknowledge, file and/or deliver to the Collateral Agent from time to time such lists, descriptions and designations of its Collateral, warehouse receipts, receipts in the nature of warehouse receipts, bills of lading, documents of title, vouchers, invoices, schedules, confirmatory assignments, conveyances, financing statements, transfer endorsements, certificates, reports and other assurances or instruments and take such further steps relating to the Collateral and other property or rights covered by the security interest hereby granted, which the Collateral Agent deems reasonably appropriate or advisable to perfect, preserve or protect its security interest in the Collateral; provided, that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Grantors shall not be required to (i) take any action to perfect any security interest in any Collateral under the laws of any jurisdiction outside of the United States or Canada or (ii) enter into any control agreement or similar arrangements relating to any Deposit Account, except as set forth in Section 3.8.

5.5 Financing Statements. Each Grantor agrees to file such financing statements, in form reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent, as the Collateral Agent may from time to time reasonably request to establish and maintain a valid, enforceable, perfected security interest in the Collateral as provided herein and for the purpose of obtaining and preserving the full benefits of the other rights and security contemplated hereby at least to the extent described in Section 2.1. Each Grantor will pay any applicable filing fees, recordation taxes and related expenses relating to its Collateral. Each Grantor hereby authorizes the Collateral Agent to file any such financing statements without the signature of such Grantor where permitted by law (and such authorization includes describing the Collateral as "all present and after-acquired personal property" of such Grantor or words of similar effect). Each Grantor waives the right to receive a copy of any financing statement or financing change statement that may be registered in connection with this Agreement or any verification statement issued with respect to a registration, if waiver is not otherwise prohibited by law.

REMEDIES UPON OCCURRENCE OF AN EVENT OF DEFAULT

6.1 Remedies; Obtaining the Collateral Upon Default. Each Grantor agrees that, subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, if any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, then and in every such case, the Collateral Agent, in addition to any rights now or hereafter existing under applicable law and under the other provisions of this Agreement, shall have all rights as a secured party under any PPSA, any UCC, and such additional rights and remedies to which a secured party is entitled under the laws in effect in all relevant jurisdictions and may:

(i) personally, or by agents or attorneys, immediately take possession of the Collateral or any part thereof, from such Grantor or any other Person who then has possession of any part thereof with or without notice or process of law, and for that purpose may enter upon such Grantor's premises where any of the Collateral is located and remove the same and use in connection with such removal any and all services, supplies, aids and other facilities of such Grantor;

(ii) instruct the obligor or obligors on any agreement, instrument or other obligation (including, without limitation, the Accounts and the Contracts) constituting the Collateral to make any payment required by the terms of such agreement, instrument or other obligation directly to the Collateral Agent and may exercise any and all remedies of such Grantor in respect of such Collateral;

(iii) sell, assign or otherwise liquidate any or all of the Collateral or any part thereof in accordance with Section 6.2 hereof, or direct such Grantor to sell, assign or otherwise liquidate any or all of the Collateral or any part thereof, and, in each case, take possession of the proceeds of any such sale or liquidation;

(iv) take possession of the Collateral or any part thereof, by directing such Grantor in writing to deliver the same to the Collateral Agent at any reasonable place or places designated by the Collateral Agent, in which event such Grantor shall at its own expense:

(a) forthwith cause the same to be moved to the place or places so designated by the Collateral Agent and there delivered to the Collateral Agent;

(b) store and keep any Collateral so delivered to the Collateral Agent at such place or places pending further action by the Collateral Agent as provided in Section 6.2 hereof; and

(c) while the Collateral shall be so stored and kept, provide such security and maintenance services as shall be reasonably necessary to protect the same and to preserve and maintain it in good condition;

(v) license or sublicense, on a royalty free, rent basis, whether on an exclusive or nonexclusive basis, any Intellectual Property included in the Collateral (in the case of Trademarks, subject to reasonable quality control and subject to those exclusive licenses granted by Grantors in effect on the date hereof and those granted by any Grantor hereafter to the extent permitted by the Credit Agreement) for such term and on such conditions and in such manner as the Collateral Agent shall in its sole judgment determine, it being understood that any such license may be exercised, at the option of the Collateral Agent, only upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default; provided, that any such license shall be binding upon the Grantors notwithstanding any subsequent cure of an Event of Default.

(vi) apply any monies constituting Collateral or proceeds thereof in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.5; and it being understood that each Grantor's obligation so to deliver the Collateral is of the essence of this Agreement and that, accordingly, upon application to a court of equity having jurisdiction, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to a decree requiring specific performance by such Grantor of said obligation. By accepting the benefits of this Agreement and each other Security Document, the Secured Creditors expressly acknowledge and agree that this Agreement and each other Security Document may be enforced only by the action of the Collateral Agent acting upon the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors and that no other Secured Creditor shall have any right individually to seek to enforce or to enforce this Agreement or to realize upon the security to be granted hereby, it being understood and agreed that such rights and remedies may be exercised by the Collateral Agent or the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Other Obligations, as the case may be, for the benefit of the Secured Creditors upon the terms of this Agreement and the other Security Documents.

(vii) take any other action as specified in the PPSA;

6.2 Remedies; Disposition of the Collateral. To the extent permitted by applicable law, if any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, then any Collateral repossessed by the Collateral Agent under or pursuant to Section 6.1 hereof and any other Collateral whether or not so repossessed by the Collateral Agent, may be sold, assigned, leased or otherwise disposed of under one or more contracts or as an entirety, and without the necessity of gathering at the place of sale the property to be sold, and in general in such manner, at such time or times, at such place or places and on such terms as the Collateral Agent may, in compliance with any mandatory requirements of applicable law, determine to be commercially reasonable. Any of the Collateral may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of, in the condition in which the same existed when taken by the Collateral Agent or after any overhaul or repair at the expense of the relevant Grantor which the Collateral Agent shall reasonably determine to be commercially reasonable. Any such sale, lease or other disposition may be effected by means of a public disposition or private disposition, effected in accordance with the applicable requirements (in each case if and to the extent applicable) of the PPSA and/or such other mandatory requirements of applicable law as may apply to the respective disposition. The Collateral Agent may, without notice or publication, adjourn any public or private disposition or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for the disposition, and such disposition may be made at any time or place to which the disposition may be so adjourned. To the extent permitted by any such requirement of law, the Collateral Agent may bid for and become the purchaser (and may pay all or any portion of the purchase price by crediting Obligations against the purchase price) of the Collateral or any item thereof, offered for disposition in accordance with this Section 6.2 without accountability to the relevant Grantor. The Collateral Agent may also accept the Collateral in satisfaction of the Obligations. Each Grantor agrees to do or cause to be done all such other acts and things as may be reasonably necessary to make such disposition or dispositions of all or any portion of the Collateral valid and binding and in compliance with any and all applicable laws, regulations, orders, writs, injunctions, decrees or awards of any and all courts, arbitrators or governmental instrumentalities, domestic or foreign, having jurisdiction over any such sale or sales, all at such Grantor's expense.

6.3 Remedies; Receiver. The Collateral Agent may take proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a receiver (which term includes a receiver and manager) of the Collateral or may by appointment in writing appoint any person to be a receiver of the Collateral. The Collateral Agent may remove any receiver appointed by it and appoint another in its place, and may determine the remuneration, acting reasonably, of any receiver, which may be paid from the proceeds of the Collateral in priority to other Obligations. Any receiver appointed by the Collateral Agent shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, have all of the rights, benefits and powers of the Collateral Agent under this Agreement, the PPSA or otherwise. Any receiver shall be deemed the agent of the Grantors and the Collateral Agent shall not be in any way responsible for any misconduct or negligence of any receiver.

6.4 Waiver of Claims. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, EACH GRANTOR HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, NOTICE AND JUDICIAL HEARING IN CONNECTION WITH THE COLLATERAL AGENT'S TAKING POSSESSION OR THE COLLATERAL AGENT'S DISPOSITION OF ANY OF THE COLLATERAL, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY AND ALL PRIOR NOTICE AND HEARING FOR ANY PREJUDGMENT REMEDY OR REMEDIES, and each Grantor hereby further waives, to the extent permitted by law:

(a) all damages occasioned by such taking of possession or any such disposition except any damages which are the direct result of the Collateral Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision);

(b) all other requirements as to the time, place and terms of sale or other requirements with respect to the enforcement of the Collateral Agent's rights hereunder; and

(c) all rights of redemption, appraisement, valuation, stay, extension or moratorium now or hereafter in force under any applicable law in order to prevent or delay the enforcement of this Agreement or the absolute sale of the Collateral or any portion thereof, and each Grantor, for itself and all who may claim under it, insofar as it or they now or hereafter lawfully may, hereby waives the benefit of all such laws.

Any sale of, or the grant of options to purchase, or any other realization upon, any Collateral shall operate to divest all right, title, interest, claim and demand, either at law or in equity, of the relevant Grantor therein and thereto, and shall be a perpetual bar both at law and in equity against such Grantor and against any and all Persons claiming or attempting to claim the Collateral so sold, optioned or realized upon, or any part thereof, from, through and under such Grantor.

6.5 Application of Proceeds.

(a) Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, all moneys collected by the Collateral Agent (or, to the extent the Pledge Agreement or any other Security Document requires proceeds of collateral under such other Security Document to be applied in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Pledgee under, and as defined in, the Pledge Agreement, or collateral agent under such other Security Document) upon any sale or other disposition of the Collateral (or the collateral under the relevant Security Document), together with all other moneys received by the Collateral Agent hereunder (or under the relevant Security Document), in each case, as a result of the exercise of remedies by the Collateral Agent after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, shall be applied as follows:

(i) first, to the payment of all amounts owing the Collateral Agent of the type described in clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv) of the definition of "Obligations";

(ii) second, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to the preceding clause (i), to the payment of all amounts owing to any Agent or any of its Affiliates of the type described in clauses (iv) and (v) of the definition of "Obligations";

(iii) third, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to the preceding clauses (i) and (ii), an amount equal to the outstanding Credit Document Obligations shall be paid to the Secured Creditors as provided in Section 6.5(c) hereof, with each Secured Creditor receiving an amount equal to its outstanding Credit Document Obligations or, if the proceeds are insufficient to pay in full all such Credit Document Obligations, its Pro Rata Share of the amount remaining to be distributed;

(iv) fourth, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to preceding clauses (i) through (iii), inclusive, ratably to any other then remaining unpaid Obligations; and

(v) fifth, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to the preceding clauses (i) through (iv), inclusive, and following the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.8(a) hereof, to the relevant Grantor or to whomever may be lawfully entitled to receive such surplus.

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, " Pro Rata Share" shall mean, when calculating a Secured Creditor's portion of any distribution or amount, that amount (expressed as a percentage) equal to a fraction the numerator of which is the then unpaid amount of such Secured Creditor's Obligations, and the denominator of which is the then outstanding amount of all Obligations.

(c) All payments required to be made hereunder shall be made to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Secured Creditors.

(d) For purposes of applying payments received in accordance with this Section 6.5, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely upon the Administrative Agent for a determination (which the Administrative Agent agrees (or shall agree) to provide upon request of the Collateral Agent) of the outstanding Credit Document Obligations owed to the Secured Creditors.

(e) It is understood that the Grantors are and shall remain jointly and severally liable to the extent of any deficiency between the amount of the proceeds of the Collateral and the aggregate amount of the Obligations.

6.6 Remedies Cumulative. Each and every right, power and remedy hereby specifically given to the Collateral Agent shall be in addition to every other right, power and remedy specifically given to the Collateral Agent under this Agreement, the other Secured Debt Agreements or now or hereafter existing at law, in equity or by statute and each and every right, power and remedy whether specifically herein given or otherwise existing may be exercised from time to time or simultaneously and as often and in such order as may be deemed expedient by the Collateral Agent. All such rights, powers and remedies shall be cumulative and the exercise or the beginning of the exercise of one shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to exercise any other or others. No delay or omission of the Collateral Agent in the exercise of any such right, power or remedy and no renewal or extension of any of the Obligations shall impair any such right, power or remedy or shall be construed to be a waiver of any Default or Event of Default or an acquiescence thereof. No notice to or demand on any Grantor in any case shall entitle it to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of any of the rights of the Collateral Agent to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand. In the event that the Collateral Agent shall bring any suit to enforce any of its rights hereunder and shall be entitled to judgment, then in such suit the Collateral Agent may recover reasonable expenses, including reasonable legal fees, and the amounts thereof shall be included in such judgment.

6.7 Discontinuance of Proceedings. In case the Collateral Agent shall have instituted any proceeding to enforce any right, power or remedy under this Agreement by foreclosure, sale, entry or otherwise, and such proceeding shall have been discontinued or abandoned for any reason or shall have been determined adversely to the Collateral Agent, then and in every such case the relevant Grantor, the Collateral Agent and each holder of any of the Obligations shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder with respect to the Collateral subject to the security interest created under this Agreement, and all rights, remedies and powers of the Collateral Agent shall continue as if no such proceeding had been instituted.

The indemnity obligations of each Grantor contained in the Credit Agreement shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the full payment of all of the other Obligations and notwithstanding the full payment of all the Notes issued, Loans made and Letters of Credit issued, under the Credit Agreement and the payment of all other Obligations and notwithstanding the discharge thereof and the occurrence of the Termination Date.

The Bonds shall be numbered in any manner prescribed by the Grantor with the approval of the Attorney.

All of the Bonds shall rank pari passu and without preference or priority one over another on maturity or realization of the Hypothec created hereby, notwithstanding the date of their issue or the date of their certification by the Attorney.

3.2. Conditions Precedent to Issue of Bonds

Bonds to the aggregate principal amount referred to in Section 3.1 hereof may forthwith and from time to time be executed by the Grantor and certified by the Attorney upon receipt by or deposit with the Attorney of a written order or orders of the Grantor for the certification and delivery of Bonds, naming the Person or Persons to whom such Bonds are to be delivered.

Such certificate on any Bond shall be conclusive evidence that such Bond is duly issued and is a valid obligation of the Grantor. The certificate of the Attorney signed on the Bonds shall not be construed as a representation or warranty by the Attorney as to the validity of this Deed or of the Bonds or their issuance and the Attorney shall in no respect be liable or answerable for the use made of said Bonds or any of them or the proceeds thereof. The certificate of the Attorney signed on the Bonds shall, however, be a representation and warranty by the Attorney that such Bonds have been duly certified by or on behalf of the Attorney pursuant to the provisions of this Deed.

3.5. Registration of Bonds

The Attorney shall cause to be kept a register in which shall be entered the names and addresses of the holders of Bonds and particulars of the Bonds held by them respectively and of all transfers of Bonds. The Person in whose name any Bond shall be registered in the appropriate register shall be deemed to be the owner thereof for all purposes.

The register referred to in this Section shall at all reasonable times during regular business hours be open for inspection by the Grantor, by the Attorney and by any Bondholder.

The holder of a Bond may at any time and from time to time have such Bond transferred in accordance with this Deed at the place at which a register is kept pursuant to the provisions of this Section, in accordance with such reasonable regulations as the Attorney may prescribe.

The Attorney and/or the Grantor shall not be charged with notice of or be bound to see to the execution of any trust, whether express, implied or constructive, in respect of any Bond and may transfer in accordance with this Deed any Bond on the direction of the holder thereof, whether named as trustee or otherwise, as though that Person were the beneficial owner thereof.

The Attorney shall, when requested so to do in writing by the Grantor or any Bondholder, furnish the Grantor or such Bondholder, as the case may be, with a list of the names and addresses of the holders of Bonds showing the principal amounts and serial numbers of such Bonds held by each holder.

3.6. Persons entitled to Payment

Payment of or on account of the principal of any Bonds shall be made only to or upon the order in writing of the Person in whose name such Bonds shall be registered and such payment shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the Attorney and to the Grantor for the amounts so paid.

Where Bonds are registered in more than one name, the principal moneys and interest from time to time payable in respect thereof may be paid by cheque or warrant payable to the order of all such holders, failing written instructions from them to the contrary, and such payment shall be valid discharge to the Attorney for the amounts so paid and to the Grantor.

The holder for the time being of any Bond shall be entitled to the principal moneys and interest evidenced by such Bond, free from all equities or rights of set-off, compensation or counter-claim between the Grantor and the original or any intermediate holder thereof and all Persons may act accordingly and a transferee of a Bond shall, after the appropriate form of transfer is lodged with the Attorney and upon compliance with all other conditions in that behalf required by this Deed or by any conditions contained in such Bond or by law, be entitled to be entered on the register as the owner of such Bond free from all equities or rights of set-off, compensation or counter-claim between the Grantor and its transferor or any previous holder thereof, save in respect of equities of which the Grantor is required to take notice by statute or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction and save as otherwise expressly provided in this Deed.

3.7. Evidence of Ownership

The Grantor and the Attorney may treat the registered holder of any Bonds as the owner thereof without actual production of such Bond for the purpose of any request, requisition, direction, consent, instrument or other document.

3.8. Meaning of “outstanding” and Cancellation of Bonds

Every Bond certified and delivered by the Attorney hereunder shall be deemed to be outstanding until it shall be cancelled or delivered to the Attorney for cancellation, provided that where a new Bond has been issued in substitution for a Bond which has been mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, only such new Bond shall be counted for the purpose of determining the aggregate principal amount of Bonds or series of Bonds outstanding.

The Attorney shall note on the face of all Bonds that have been cancelled that such Bonds have been cancelled.

3.9. Mutilation, Loss, Theft or Destruction of Bonds

In case any of the Bonds shall become mutilated or be lost, stolen or destroyed, the Grantor, in its discretion, may issue, and thereupon the Attorney shall certify and deliver, a new Bond upon surrender and cancellation of the mutilated Bond, or in the case of a lost, stolen or destroyed Bond, in lieu of and in substitution for the same, and the substituted Bond shall be in a form approved by the Attorney and shall be entitled to the benefits of this Deed equally with all other Bonds without preference or priority one over another. In case of loss, theft or destruction, the applicant for a substituted Bond shall furnish the Grantor and the Attorney such evidence of such ownership and loss, theft or destruction as shall be satisfactory to each of them in their discretion, and shall also furnish indemnity satisfactory to each of them in their discretion and shall pay all expenses incidental to the issuance of such substituted Bond.

3.10. Exchanges of Bonds; Stamp Tax

Bonds of any denomination may be exchanged for Bonds of any other authorized denomination or denominations, any such exchange to be for Bonds of an equivalent aggregate principal amount remaining outstanding. Exchanges of Bonds may be made at the offices of the Attorney where registers are maintained for the Bonds pursuant to the provisions of this Deed.

Except as herein otherwise provided, in every case of exchange of Bonds of any denomination or form for other Bonds and for any transfer of Bonds, the Attorney may make a sufficient charge to reimburse it for any stamp tax or other governmental charge required to be paid, and in addition a reasonable charge for its services for each Bond exchanged or transferred and a reasonable charge for every Bond issued upon such exchange or transfer, and payment of the said charges shall be made by the party requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent thereto.

3.11. Place of Payment

The principal of all Bonds, interest thereon and all payments which may become payable at any time thereon, whether at maturity or otherwise, shall be payable to the respective registered holders thereof at the office of the Attorney in the City of Montréal or at such address as may be mentioned in the Bonds, without any presentment of such Bonds for payment of interest thereon and without the necessity of any notation of any payment being made thereon.

The Grantor will keep and maintain proper books and records of its Claims, in which full, true and correct entries in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and all Requirements of Law shall be made of all such Claims, and the Grantor will make the same available on its premises to officers and designated representatives of the Attorney for inspection in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the ABL Credit Agreement. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and at the request of the Attorney, the Grantor shall, at its own cost and expense, deliver all tangible evidence of its Claims (including, without limitation, all documents evidencing the Claims) and such books and records to the Attorney or to its representatives (copies of which evidence and books and records may be retained by the Grantor). Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and if the Attorney so requests, the Grantor shall legend, in form and manner satisfactory to the Attorney, the Claims, as well as books, records and documents (if any) of the Grantor evidencing or pertaining to such Claims with an appropriate reference to the fact that such Claims have been hypothecated and, if applicable, assigned to the Attorney and that the Attorney has a hypothec therein.

8.2. Direction to Account Debtors; Contracting Parties; etc.

Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, after giving notice to the Grantor of its intent to do so, if the Attorney so directs the Grantor, the Grantor agrees (i) to cause all payments on account of the Claims to be made directly to the Cash Collateral Account, (ii) that the Attorney may, at its option, directly notify the debtors of such claims in its own name or in the name of others with respect to any Claims to make payments with respect thereto as provided in the preceding clause (i) (a "Notice to Debtors"), and (iii) that the Attorney may enforce collection of any such Claims and may adjust, settle or compromise the amount of payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as the Grantor; provided that, (x) any failure by the Attorney to give or any delay in giving such notice to the Grantor shall not affect the effectiveness of such notice or the other rights of the Attorney created by this Section 8.2 and (y) no such notice shall be required if an Event of Default of the type described in Section 10.01(e) of the ABL Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing. Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, without notice to or assent by the Grantor, the Attorney may, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, apply any or all amounts then in, or thereafter deposited in, the Cash Collateral Account toward the payment of the Secured Obligations in the manner provided in Section 13.10 of this Deed. The reasonable costs and expenses of collection (including reasonable legal fees), whether incurred by the Grantor or the Attorney, shall be borne by the Grantor. The Attorney shall deliver a copy of each Notice to Debtors to the Grantor, provided that (i) the failure by the Attorney to so notify the Grantor shall not affect the effectiveness of such notice or the other rights of the Attorney created by this Section 8.2 and (ii) no such notice shall be required if an Event of Default of the type described in Section 10.01(e) of the ABL Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing.

8.3. Modification of Terms; etc.

Except in the Grantor's ordinary course of business and consistent with reasonable business judgment, or as permitted by Section 8.4 hereof or by the Credit Documents, the Grantor shall not rescind or cancel any indebtedness evidenced by any Claim, or modify any material term thereof or make any material adjustment with respect thereto, or extend or renew the same, or compromise or settle any material dispute, claim, suit or legal proceeding relating thereto, or sell any Claim, or interest therein, without the prior written consent of the Attorney unless such rescissions, cancellations, modifications, adjustments, extensions, renewals, compromises, settlements, releases, or sales would not reasonably be expected to materially adversely affect the value of the Claims constituting Hypothecated Property taken as a whole. Except as otherwise permitted by the ABL Credit Documents, the Grantor will not do anything to impair the rights of the Attorney in the Claims.

8.4. Collection

The Grantor shall endeavor in accordance with historical business practices to cause to be collected from the debtor or obligor, as the case may be, named in each of its Claims, as and when due (including, without limitation, amounts which are delinquent, such amounts to be collected in accordance with generally accepted lawful collection procedures) any and all amounts owing under or on account of such Claim, and apply forthwith upon receipt thereof all such amounts as are so collected to the outstanding balance of such Claim. The Attorney hereby authorizes the Grantor to collect the Claims. Such authorization may be withdrawn by the Attorney upon the occurrence of an Event of Default which is continuing in accordance with what is provided for by law. Except as otherwise directed by the Attorney after the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default or otherwise required pursuant to the ABL Credit Agreement, the Grantor may allow in the ordinary course of business as adjustments to amounts owing under its Claims (i) an extension or renewal of the time or times of payment, or settlement for less than the total unpaid balance, which the Grantor finds appropriate in accordance with reasonable business judgment, (ii) a refund or credit due as a result of returned or damaged merchandise or improperly performed services or for other reasons which the Grantor finds appropriate in accordance with reasonable business judgment and (iii) any other adjustments necessary or desirable in the Grantor's reasonable business judgment. The reasonable costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees) of collection, whether incurred by the Grantor or the Attorney, shall be borne by the Grantor.

8.5. Claims Evidenced by Titles of Indebtedness

If the Grantor at any time holds or acquires any Claim evidenced by a title of indebtedness constituting Hypothecated Property with a face value in excess of $100,000 individually (other than cheques and other payment instruments received and collected in the ordinary course of business and promptly deposited into a Deposit Account), the Grantor shall, on or prior to the date of the required delivery of the Compliance Certificate pursuant to the ABL Credit Agreement following such acquisition, notify the Attorney thereof, and upon request by the Attorney (subject to the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement), promptly deliver such title of indebtedness to the Attorney appropriately endorsed in blank or to the order of the Attorney, provided that, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Grantor may retain for collection in the ordinary course of business any title of indebtedness received by the Grantor in the ordinary course of business, and the Attorney shall, promptly upon request of the Grantor, make appropriate arrangements for making any title of indebtedness in its possession and pledged by the Grantor available to the Grantor for purposes of presentation, collection or renewal. If the Grantor retains possession of any title of indebtedness pursuant to the terms hereof, upon request of the Attorney, such title of indebtedness shall be marked with the following legend: "This writing and the obligations evidenced or secured hereby are subject to the hypothec of Bank of America, N.A., as fondé de pouvoir, for the benefit of itself and certain Secured Creditors."

8.6. Grantor Remains Liable Under Claims

Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Grantor shall remain liable under each of the Claims to observe and perform all of the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by it thereunder, all in accordance with the terms of any agreement giving rise to such Claim. Neither the Attorney nor any Bondholder shall have any obligation or liability under any Claim (or any agreement giving rise thereto) by reason of or arising out of this Deed, nor shall the Attorney or any Bondholder be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of the Grantor under or pursuant to any Claim (or any agreement giving rise thereto), to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by them or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Claim (or any agreement giving rise thereto), to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to them or to which they may be entitled at any time or times.

8.7. Collection Accounts; Etc.

8.7.1 Annex F to the Canadian Security Agreement accurately sets forth, as of the date of this Deed, for the Grantor, each Collection Account maintained by the Grantor (including a description thereof and the respective account number), the name of the respective bank with which such Collection Account is maintained, and the jurisdiction of the respective bank with respect to such Collection Account. With respect to each Collection Account, the Grantor shall cause the applicable bank with which such Collection Account is maintained to execute and deliver to the Attorney, within 90 days (or such later date as the Attorney may agree in its sole discretion) after the date of this Deed or, if later, within 90 days (or such later date as the Attorney may agree in its sole discretion) of the time of the establishment of the respective Collection Account, a Deposit Account Control Agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to the Attorney. 9.3. No Liens

10.6. After-Acquired Intellectual Property

In the event that the Grantor, either itself or through any agent, mandatary, employee, licensee or designee, files an application for or acquires any Recordable Intellectual Property following the date hereof, then the provisions of this Deed shall automatically apply thereto and any such Intellectual Property Right shall automatically constitute part of the Hypothecated Property and shall be subject to the Hypothec created hereunder, without further action by any party, and the Grantor shall within 60 days of the end of each fiscal quarter execute and deliver any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers as necessary to evidence the Attorney's hypothec in such Recordable Intellectual Property provided that such agreements, instruments, documents and papers (the "Writings") are consistent with the terms of and conditions of this Deed and the Grantor hereby appoints the Attorney as its mandatary to execute and file such Writings, solely upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and solely for the foregoing purposes, all acts of such mandatary being hereby ratified and confirmed.

13.2. Rights of the Attorney

Subject to the terms and conditions of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, after the occurrence of an Event of Default which is continuing, whichever hypothecary rights or recourses the Attorney may decide to exercise or whichever other rights or recourses the Attorney may wish to exercise in law or in equity, in addition to any rights provided by law, the following provisions shall apply:

Any such sale, lease or other disposition may be effected by means of a public disposition or private disposition, effected in accordance with the applicable requirements (in each case if and to the extent applicable) of the Civil Code and/or such other mandatory requirements of applicable law as may apply to the respective disposition. The Attorney may also accept the Hypothecated Property in satisfaction of the Secured Obligations. The Grantor agrees to do or cause to be done all such other acts and things as may be reasonably necessary to make such disposition or dispositions of all or any portion of the Hypothecated Property valid and binding and in compliance with any and all applicable laws, regulations, orders, writs, injunctions, decrees or awards of any and all courts, arbitrators or governmental instrumentalities, domestic or foreign, having jurisdiction over any such sale or sales, all at the Grantor's expense.

13.4. Taking in payment

13.5. Surrender of Hypothecated Property

Upon notice by the Attorney declaring due and payable the principal of and interest on the Bonds and all other moneys secured hereby or owing by the Grantor hereunder, the Grantor shall surrender the Hypothecated Property to the Attorney.

13.6. Sale of Hypothecated Property

The Attorney may choose to sell the Hypothecated Property with legal warranty given by the Grantor or with complete or partial exclusion of such warranty; the sale may also be made cash or with a term or under such conditions determined by the Attorney; it can be cancelled in case of non-payment of the purchase price and such Hypothecated Property may then be resold.

13.7. Use of premises

In order to exercise any of its rights, the Attorney may use the premises located in the Immovables without charge from the Grantor.

13.8. Several Administrators

Where several creditors are involved, the parties hereto waive the application of articles 1332 to 1338 inclusively of the Civil Code.

13.9. Waiver of Claims

Except as otherwise provided in this Deed, the Grantor hereby waives, to the extent permitted by applicable law, notice and judicial hearing in connection with the Attorney's taking possession or the Attorney's disposition of any of the Hypothecated Property, including, without limitation, any and all prior notice and hearing for any prejudgment remedy or remedies, and the Grantor hereby further waives, to the extent permitted by law:

13.9.1 all damages occasioned by such taking of possession or any such disposition except any damages which are the direct result of the Attorney's gross or intentional fault (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision);

13.9.2 all other requirements as to the time, place and terms of sale or other requirements with respect to the enforcement of the Attorney's rights hereunder; and the enforcement of this Deed or the absolute sale of the Hypothecated Property or any portion thereof, and the Grantor, for itself and all who may claim under it, insofar as it or they now or hereafter lawfully may, hereby waives the benefit of all such laws.

13.9.3 all rights of redemption, appraisement, valuation, stay, extension or moratorium now or hereafter in force under any applicable law in order to prevent or delay

13.10. Imputation of payments

Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, to the greatest extent permitted by all applicable law, the moneys and other proceeds arising from any sale or realization of the whole or any part of the Hypothecated Property, whether under any sale by the Attorney or by judicial process or otherwise, together with any other moneys or other proceeds then in the hands of the Attorney and available for such purpose, shall be applied on account of the principal and interest of the Bond or, at the option of the Attorney, may be held unappropriated in a collateral account in order to provide for payment of any charge or claim ranking prior to the Hypothec created hereunder.

13.11. Liability of Grantor

In the case of any judicial or other proceedings to enforce the Hypothec hereby created, the Grantor covenants and agrees with the Attorney that judgment may be rendered against it in favour of the Bondholders or in favour of the Attorney, as fondé de pouvoir for the Bondholders, for any amount which may remain due in respect of the Bonds after the application payment thereof of the proceeds of the sale of the Hypothecated Property or any part thereof.

13.12. Cumulative remedies

Each and every right, power and remedy hereby specifically given to the Attorney shall be in addition to every other right, power and remedy specifically given to the Attorney under this Deed, the other Secured Debt Agreements or now or hereafter existing at law, in equity or by statute and each and every right, power and remedy whether specifically herein given or otherwise existing may be exercised from time to time or simultaneously and as often and in such order as may be deemed expedient by the Attorney. All such rights, powers and remedies shall be cumulative and the exercise or the beginning of the exercise of one shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to exercise any other or others. No delay or omission of the Attorney in the exercise of any such right, power or remedy and no renewal or extension of any of the Secured Obligations shall impair any such right, power or remedy or shall be construed to be a waiver of any Default or Event of Default or an acquiescence thereof. No notice to or demand on the Grantor in any case shall entitle it to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of any of the rights of the Attorney to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand. In the event that the Attorney shall bring any suit to enforce any of its rights hereunder and shall be entitled to judgment, then in such suit the Attorney may recover reasonable expenses, including reasonable legal fees, and the amounts thereof shall be included in such judgment.

13.13. Discontinuance of Proceedings

In case the Attorney shall have instituted any proceeding to enforce any right, power or remedy under this Deed by taking in payment, sale or otherwise, and such proceeding shall have been discontinued or abandoned for any reason or shall have been determined adversely to the Attorney, then and in every such case the Grantor, the Attorney and each holder of any of the Secured Obligations shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder with respect to the Hypothecated Property subject to the Hypothec created under this Deed, and all rights, remedies and powers of the Attorney shall continue as if no such proceeding had been instituted.

14. CONCERNING THE ATTORNEY

By way of supplement to the provisions of law relating to fondé de pouvoir, it is expressly agreed that:

14.1. the Attorney shall only be accountable for reasonable diligence in the management of its duties and rights hereunder, and shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted by it in connection herewith unless caused by its gross or intentional fault;

14.2. except as otherwise provided herein, the Attorney shall, with respect to all rights, powers and authorities vested in it, have absolute and uncontrolled discretion as to the exercise thereof, whether in relation to the manner or as to the mode and time for the exercise thereof, and in the absence of fraud, it shall not be in any way responsible for any loss, costs, damages or inconvenience that may result from the exercise or non-exercise thereof;

14.3. the Attorney shall have the right in its discretion to proceed in its name as Attorney hereunder to the enforcement of the Hypothec hereby constituted by any remedy provided herein or by law, whether by legal proceedings or otherwise, but it shall not be bound to do or to take any act or action in virtue of the powers conferred on it by these presents unless and until it shall have been required to do so by way of a Bondholders' Instrument; the Attorney shall not be responsible or liable, otherwise than as a fondé de pouvoir, for any debts contracted by it, for damages to Persons or property or for salaries or non-fulfilment of contracts during any period for which the Attorney managed the Hypothecated Property upon entry, as herein provided, nor shall the Attorney be liable to account for anything except actual revenues or be liable for any loss on realization or for any default or omission for which a mortgagee in possession might be liable; the obligation of the Attorney to commence or continue any act, action or proceeding under this Deed shall, at the option of the Attorney, be conditional upon the Bondholders furnishing, when required, sufficient funds to commence or continue such action or proceeding and indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Attorney;

14.4. in the event of the Grantor making an authorized assignment, or a custodian, trustee or liquidator being appointed in respect of the Grantor or its assets under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act or any analogous act or proceeding, or any legislation which replaces or supplements the foregoing, the Attorney may, if directed to do so by a Bondholders' Instrument, file and prove a claim, value security and vote and act at all meetings of creditors and otherwise in bankruptcy, insolvency or similar proceedings, as agent on behalf of the Bondholders;

14.5. subject to receiving sufficient funds or indemnity in accordance with Section 14.3, the Attorney shall be obliged to act and shall act and be fully protected in acting upon a Bondholders' Instrument in connection with any proceedings, act, power, right, matter or thing relating to or conferred by or to be done under this Deed; none of the provisions of this Deed shall require the Attorney to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of any of its duties or in the exercise of any of its rights and powers unless indemnified as aforesaid;

14.6. the Attorney may act and rely and shall be protected in acting and relying upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, letter, telecopier or other paper document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by or on behalf of the property party or parties;

14.7. the Attorney may employ or retain such counsel, accountants, appraisers, engineers or other experts or advisors as it reasonably required for the purpose of determining and discharging its duties and administering the trusts hereunder and may pay reasonable remuneration for all services so performed by any of them, without taxation of costs of any counsel, and shall not be responsible for any misconduct on the part of any of them. Any remuneration so paid by the Attorney shall be repaid to the Attorney as Secured Obligations;

14.8. the Attorney may act and rely and shall be protected in acting and relying in good faith on the opinion or advice of or information obtained from any counsel, accountant, appraiser, engineer or other expert or advisor, whether retained or employed by the Grantor or by the Attorney, in relation to any matter arising in the administration of the trusts hereof;

14.9. no Person dealing with the Attorney or its agent shall be concerned to enquire whether the Hypothec constituted hereby has become enforceable, or whether the powers which the Attorney is purporting to exercise have become exercisable, or whether any moneys remain due upon the Hypothec hereunder or the Bonds, or as to the necessity or expediency of the stipulations and conditions subject to which any sale shall be made, or otherwise as to the propriety or regularity of any sale or of any other dealing by the Attorney with the Hypothecated Property or any part thereof, or to see to the application of any moneys paid to the Attorney;

14.10. all rights of action under this Deed may be enforced by the Attorney without the possession of the Bonds hereby secured or the production thereof; and

14.11. the Attorney may resign from the performance of all of its functions and duties under this Deed at any time by giving at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Grantor and each Bondholder. Such resignation shall take effect upon the appointment of a successor Attorney pursuant hereto. If a successor Attorney shall not have been appointed within such thirty (30) day period by the Majority Bondholders, the Attorney shall then appoint a successor Attorney who shall serve as Attorney hereunder until such time, if any, as the Majority Bondholders appoint a successor Attorney as provided above. The Attorney may be removed at any time with or without cause by the Majority Bondholders, such removal to take effect upon the appointment of a successor Attorney by the Majority Bondholders. Any new or successor Attorney without further act shall be vested and have all rights, powers and authorities granted to the Attorney hereunder and be subject in all respects to the terms, conditions and provisions hereof. The resigning or removed Attorney following payment of all outstanding fees and expenses and the successor Attorney shall execute such assignments, agreements and other instruments, effect such registrations and do such acts and things as they deem appropriate or the Majority Bondholders may require in order that the successor Attorney possess all the rights and powers and have all the duties of the resigning or removed Attorney hereunder.

15. BONDHOLDERS' INSTRUMENTS

15.1. Amendments, Waivers; etc.

The Bondholders may, by Bondholders' Instrument, direct or authorize the Attorney to (a) modify any of the rights of the holders of the Bonds of all or any series against the Grantor or its undertaking and property, (b) exercise, or refrain from exercising, any power, right, remedy or authority given by this Deed or the Bonds, (c) waive any default on the part of the Grantor in complying with any provision of this Deed or the Bonds either unconditionally or upon any conditions specified in such Bondholders' Instrument, (d) assent to any compromise or arrangement with any creditor or creditors of the Grantor, (e) assent to any modification of or change in or addition to the provisions of this Deed provided however that the Attorney may decline to agree, in its discretion, to any modification, abrogation, alteration, compromise or arrangement which would adversely affect its rights, (f) grant any approval or consent herein provided to be given by the Bondholders or make any determination herein provided to be made by the Bondholders, (g) sanction any scheme of reorganization, consolidation, merger or amalgamation of the Grantor on such terms as may be provided in such Bondholders' Instrument, (h) amend, alter or repeal any previous Bondholders' Instrument, and (i) sign such other deeds, instruments or take such other action or refrain from taking any action as may be specified in such Bondholders' Instrument. Every Bondholders' Instrument shall be binding on all the Bondholders, whether signatories thereto or not, and each and every Bondholder and the Attorney shall be bound to give effect accordingly to every such Bondholders' Instrument.

The Attorney may also, without the consent or concurrence of the Bondholders by Bondholders' Instrument, by supplemental deed or indenture or otherwise, concur with the Grantor in making any changes or corrections in this Deed which it shall have been advised by counsel are required for the purpose of curing or correcting any ambiguity or defective or inconsistent provisions or clerical omission or mistake or manifest error contained herein or in any deed or indenture supplemental or ancillary hereto, provided that in the opinion of the Attorney the rights of the Attorney and of the Bondholders are in no way prejudiced thereby.

Except as provided in Section 17.6, none of the terms and conditions of this Deed may be changed, waived, modified or varied in any manner whatsoever unless in writing duly signed by the Grantor and the Attorney (with the written consent of the Majority Bondholders).

17.3. Obligations Absolute

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the obligations of the Grantor hereunder shall remain in full force and effect without regard to, and shall not be impaired by, (a) any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment, composition, liquidation or the like of the Grantor; (b) any exercise or non-exercise, or any waiver of, any right, remedy, power or privilege under or in respect of this Deed or any other Secured Debt Agreement; or (c) any amendment to or modification of any Secured Debt Agreement or any security for any of the Secured Obligations; whether or not the Grantor shall have notice or knowledge of any of the foregoing.

17.4. Successors and Assigns

This Deed shall create a continuing hypothec in the Hypothec and shall (i) remain in full force and effect, subject to release and/or termination as set forth in Section 17.6, (ii) be binding upon the Grantor, its successors and assigns; provided, however, that the Grantor shall not assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Attorney (with the prior written consent of the Majority Bondholders), and (iii) enure, together with the rights and remedies of the Attorney hereunder, to the benefit of the Attorney and the Bondholders and their respective successors, transferees and permitted assigns. All agreements, statements, representations and warranties made by the Grantor herein or in any certificate or other instrument delivered by the Grantor or on its behalf under this Deed shall be considered to have been relied upon by the Bondholders and shall survive the execution and delivery of this Deed regardless of any investigation made by the Bondholders or on its behalf.

17.5. Grantor's Duties

It is expressly agreed, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, that the Grantor shall remain liable to perform all of the obligations, if any, assumed by it with respect to the Hypothecated Property and the Attorney shall not have any obligations or liabilities with respect to any Hypothecated Property by reason of or arising out of this Deed, nor shall the Attorney be required or obligated in any manner to perform or fulfill any of the obligations of the Grantor under or with respect to any Hypothecated Property.

17.6. Termination; Release

17.6.1 After the Termination Date, this Deed shall terminate, all without delivery of any instrument or performance of any act by any party, and all rights to the Hypothecated Property shall revert to the Grantor (provided that all indemnities set forth herein including, without limitation in Section 16.1 hereof, shall survive such termination) and the Attorney, at the request and expense of the Grantor, will promptly execute and deliver to the Grantor a proper instrument or instruments (including discharges to be published at the Register of Personal and Movable Real Rights and the Land Register of Québec) acknowledging the satisfaction and termination of this Deed, and will duly assign, transfer and deliver to the Grantor (without recourse and without any representation or warranty) such of the Hypothecated Property as may be in the possession of the Attorney and as has not theretofore been sold or otherwise applied or released pursuant to this Deed.

17.6.2 In the event that, at any time prior to the Termination Date, any part of the Hypothecated Property is sold or otherwise disposed of (to a Person other than a Credit Party) in connection with a sale or disposition permitted by Section 9.02 of the ABL Credit Agreement or is otherwise released at the direction of the Required Lenders (or all the Lenders if required by Section 12.10 of the ABL Credit Agreement), and the fruits and revenues of such sale or disposition (or from such release) are applied in accordance with the terms of the ABL Credit Agreement, to the extent required to be so applied, the Attorney, at the request and expense of the Grantor, will duly release from the Hypothec created hereby (and will execute and deliver such documentation, including termination or partial release statements and the like in connection therewith) and assign, transfer and deliver to the Grantor (without recourse and without any representation or warranty) such of the Hypothecated Property as is then being (or has been) so sold or otherwise disposed of, or released, and as may be in the possession of the Attorney and has not theretofore been released pursuant to this Deed.

17.6.3 At any time that the Grantor desires that the Attorney take any action to acknowledge or give effect to any release of Hypothecated Property pursuant to the foregoing Section 17.6.2, the Grantor shall deliver to the Attorney (and the relevant nominee or mandatary, if any, designated hereunder) a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer of the Grantor stating that the release of the respective Hypothecated Property is permitted pursuant to such Section 17.6.2. At any time that either the Borrower or the Grantor desires that a Subsidiary of the Borrower which has been released from the Subsidiaries Guaranty be released hereunder as provided in the last sentence of Section 17.6.2, it shall deliver to the Attorney a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower and the Grantor stating that the release of the Grantor (and its Hypothecated Property) is permitted pursuant to such Section 17.6.2.

17.6.4 The Attorney shall have no liability whatsoever to any Bondholder as the result of any release of Hypothecated Property by it in accordance with (or which the Attorney in the absence of gross or intentional fault believes to be in accordance with) this Section 17.6.

17.7. Severability

Any provision of this Deed which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

17.8. Irrevocable Mandate

Subject to the terms of the ABL/Term Intercreditor Agreement, the Grantor hereby constitutes and appoints the Attorney its true and lawful attorney and mandatary, irrevocably, with full power after the occurrence of and during the continuance of an Event of Default (in the name of the Grantor or otherwise) to act, require, demand, receive, compound and give acquittance for any and all moneys and claims for moneys due or to become due to the Grantor under or arising out of the Hypothecated Property, to endorse any cheques or other instruments or orders in connection therewith and to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings which the Attorney may deem to be reasonably necessary or advisable to protect the interests of the Bondholders.

17.9. Additional Security

The Hypothec is hereby created in addition to and not in substitution of or in replacement for any other Lien held or which may hereafter be held by the Attorney and does not affect the Attorney's rights of compensation and set-off.

17.10. Compensation

Provided the Secured Obligations are due and exigible or the Attorney is entitled to declare them owing and exigible, the Attorney may compensate and set-off these obligations with any and all amounts due to it, in its capacity as fondé de pouvoir for the Bondholders, by the Grantor, on any account whatsoever, whether such amount be exigible or not, and the Attorney shall then be deemed to have exercised such right to compensate and set-off as at the time the decision was taken by it even though the appropriate entries have not yet been made in its records.

17.11. Time of Essence

The mere lapse of time provided for to the Grantor to perform its obligations or the arrival of the term shall automatically create a default, without any obligation for the Attorney to serve any notice or prior notice to the Grantor.

17.12. Grantor to Execute Confirmatory Deeds and Additional Documents

In case of any sale under the provisions of this Deed or at law, whether by the Attorney or under judicial proceedings, the Grantor agrees that it will execute and deliver to the purchaser on demand any instrument reasonably necessary to confirm to the purchaser the title of the property so sold and, in case of any such sale, the Attorney is hereby irrevocably authorized by the Grantor to execute on its behalf and in its name any such confirmatory instrument.

Furthermore, the Grantor undertakes to sign a notice given in virtue of article 2949 of the Civil Code with regard to the Immovables where the Grantor's signature is necessary.

17.13. Not a Floating Hypothec or Trust

The Hypothec is not, nor shall it be construed as, a floating hypothec within the meaning of articles 2715 et. seq. of the Civil Code nor shall this Deed be deemed as creating a trust within the meaning of article 1260 of the Civil Code.

17.14. Waiver

Where the Grantor has taken an Immovable in payment for an hypothecated claim ranking prior to the Hypothec, the Grantor waives its right to take advantage of the provisions of Section 2771 of the Civil Code.

To the extent necessary or useful, the parties hereby waive the application of Section 32 of an Act Respecting the Special Powers of Legal Persons, R.S.Q., c. P-16 and of Articles 1310 and 2147 of the Civil Code. Each party renounces any right it may have to invoke the nullity of the Deed, the Bond and all related security documents governed by the laws of the Province of Québec as a result of the application of Section 32 of the Act Respecting the Special Powers of Legal Persons (Québec) or any other applicable law.

WHEREAS, it is a condition to the making of Revolving Loans to the Borrowers and the issuance of Letters of Credit on behalf of the Parent and the Borrowers under the Credit Agreement that each Guarantor shall have executed and delivered this Guaranty; and

WHEREAS, each Guarantor will obtain benefits from the incurrence of Revolving Loans by the Borrowers and the issuance of Letters of Credit on behalf of the Parent and the under the Credit Agreement and the entering into by the Parent or any other Credit Party of Secured Bank Product Obligations with the Other Creditors and, accordingly, desires to execute this Guaranty in order to satisfy the condition described in the preceding paragraph;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and other benefits accruing to each Guarantor, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, each Guarantor hereby makes the following representations and warranties to the Secured Creditors and hereby covenants and agrees with each Secured Creditor as follows:

1. Each Guarantor, jointly and severally, irrevocably, absolutely and unconditionally guarantees: (i) to the Lender Creditors the full and prompt payment when due (whether at the stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) of (x) the unpaid principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes issued by and the Revolving Loans made to the Borrowers and the Letters of Credit issued on behalf of the Parent, the Lead Borrowers and/or certain of their respective Subsidiaries, in each case, under the Credit Agreement and (y) all other obligations (including obligations which, but for the automatic stay under Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar provision of any other Debtor Relief Law, would become due), liabilities and indebtedness owing by each Borrower to the Lender Creditors under the Credit Agreement and each other Credit Document to which such Borrower is a party (including, without limitation, indemnities, Fees and interest thereon (including, in each case, any interest accruing after the commencement of any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar proceeding, including under any Debtor Relief Law, at the rate provided for in the Credit Agreement, whether or not such interest is an allowed claim in any such proceeding)), whether now existing or hereafter incurred under, arising out of, or in connection with, the Credit Agreement and each such other Credit Document and the due performance and compliance by each Borrower with all of the terms, conditions and agreements contained in all such Credit Documents (all such principal, premium, interest, reimbursement obligations, liabilities, indebtedness and obligations being herein collectively called the "Credit Document Obligations"); and (ii) to each Other Creditor the full and prompt payment when due (whether at the stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) of all obligations (including obligations which, but for the automatic stay under Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar provision of any other Debtor Relief Law, would become due), liabilities and indebtedness (including, in each case, any interest accruing after the commencement of any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar proceeding, including under any Debtor Relief Law, at the rate provided for in the respective Secured Bank Product Obligations whether or not such interest is an allowed claim in any such proceeding) owing by the Parent, the Lead Borrowers and/or one or more of their respective Subsidiaries under any Secured Bank Product Obligations, whether now in existence or hereafter arising, and the due performance and compliance by the Parent, such Borrowers and such Subsidiaries with all of the terms, conditions and agreements contained in each Secured Bank Product Obligations to which it is a party (all such obligations, liabilities and indebtedness being herein collectively called the "Other Obligations" and, together with the Credit Document Obligations, the "Guaranteed Obligations"); provided, that the Guaranteed Obligations of each Guarantor shall exclude all Excluded Swap Obligations for such Guarantor. As used herein, the term "Guaranteed Party" shall mean the Parent, each Borrower and each Subsidiary thereof party to any Secured Bank Product Obligations with an Other Creditor. Each Guarantor understands, agrees and confirms that the Secured Creditors may enforce this Guaranty up to the full amount of the Guaranteed Obligations against such Guarantor without proceeding against any other Guarantor, the Parent, any Borrower, any other Guaranteed Party, against any security for the Guaranteed Obligations, or under any other guaranty (including the Credit Party Guaranty) covering all or a portion of the Guaranteed Obligations.

2. Additionally, each Guarantor, jointly and severally, unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably, guarantees the payment of any and all Guaranteed Obligations whether or not due or payable by any Borrower or any such other Guaranteed Party upon the occurrence in respect of any Borrower or any such other Guaranteed Party of any of the events specified in Section 10.01(e) of the Credit Agreement, and unconditionally and irrevocably, jointly and severally, promises to pay such Guaranteed Obligations to the Secured Creditors, or order, on demand. This Guaranty shall constitute a guaranty of payment, and not of collection.

3. The liability of each Guarantor hereunder is primary, absolute, joint and several, and unconditional and is exclusive and independent of any security for or other guaranty of the indebtedness of any Borrower or any other Guaranteed Party, whether executed by such Guarantor, any other Guarantor, any other guarantor or by any other party, and the liability of each Guarantor hereunder shall not be affected or impaired by any circumstance or occurrence whatsoever, including, without limitation: (a) any direction as to application of payment by any Borrower, any other Guaranteed Party or any other party, (b) any other continuing or other guaranty, undertaking or maximum liability of a Guarantor or of any other party as to the Guaranteed Obligations, (c) any payment on or in reduction of any such other guaranty or undertaking (other than payment of the Guaranteed Obligations in cash in accordance with the terms hereof to the extent of such payment), (d) any dissolution, termination or increase, decrease or change in personnel by any Borrower or any other Guaranteed Party, (e) any payment made to any Secured Creditor on the indebtedness which any Secured Creditor repays any Borrower or any other Guaranteed Party pursuant to court order in any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, moratorium or other debtor relief proceeding, and each Guarantor waives any right to the deferral or modification of its obligations hereunder by reason of any such proceeding, or (f) any action or inaction by the Secured Creditors as contemplated in Section 6 hereof or (g) any invalidity, irregularity or unenforceability of all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or of any security therefor.

4. The obligations of each Guarantor hereunder are independent of the obligations of any other Guarantor, any other guarantor, any Borrower or any other Guaranteed Party, and a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against each Guarantor whether or not action is brought against any other Guarantor, any other guarantor, any Borrower or any other Guaranteed Party and whether or not any other Guarantor, any other guarantor, any Borrower or any other Guaranteed Party be joined in any such action or actions. Each Guarantor waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the benefits of any statute of limitations affecting its liability hereunder or the enforcement thereof. Any payment by any Borrower or any other Guaranteed Party or other circumstance which operates to toll any statute of limitations as to any Borrower or any such other Guaranteed Party shall operate to toll the statute of limitations as to each Guarantor.

5. To the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, each Guarantor hereby waives notice of acceptance of this Guaranty and notice of any liability to which it may apply, and waives promptness, diligence, presentment, demand of payment, protest, notice of dishonor or nonpayment of any such liabilities, suit or taking of other action by the Administrative Agent or any other Secured Creditor against, and any other notice to any party liable thereon (including such Guarantor, any other Guarantor, any other guarantor, any Borrower or any other Guaranteed Party).

6. Any Secured Creditor may at any time and from time to time without the consent of, or notice to, any Guarantor (except as shall be required by applicable statute and cannot be waived), without incurring responsibility to such Guarantor, without impairing or releasing the obligations of such Guarantor hereunder, upon or without any terms or conditions and in whole or in part:

(a) change the manner, place or terms of payment of, and/or change or extend the time of payment of, renew, increase, accelerate or alter, any of the Guaranteed Obligations (including any increase or decrease in the rate of interest thereon or the principal amount thereof), any security therefor, or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof, and the guaranty herein made shall apply to the Guaranteed Obligations as so changed, extended, renewed or altered;

(b) take and hold security for the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and sell, exchange, release, surrender, impair, realize upon or otherwise deal with in any manner and in any order any property by whomsoever at any time pledged or mortgaged to secure, or howsoever securing, the Guaranteed Obligations or any liabilities (including any of those hereunder) incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof or hereof, and/or any offset there against;

(c) exercise or refrain from exercising any rights against the Parent, any Borrower, any other Guaranteed Party, any other Credit Party, any Subsidiary thereof or otherwise act or refrain from acting;

(d) release or substitute any one or more endorsers, Guarantors, other guarantors, Borrowers, any other Guaranteed Parties, or other obligors;

(e) settle or compromise any of the Guaranteed Obligations, any security therefor or any liability (including any of those hereunder) incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof or hereof, and may subordinate the payment of all or any part thereof to the payment of any liability (whether due or not) of any Borrower or any other Guaranteed Party to creditors of such Borrower or such other Guaranteed Party other than the Secured Creditors;

(f) except as otherwise expressly required by the Security Documents, apply any sums by whomsoever paid or howsoever realized to any liability or liabilities of any Borrower or any other Guaranteed Party to the Secured Creditors regardless of what liabilities of such Borrower or such other Guaranteed Party remain unpaid;

(g) consent to or waive any breach of, or any act, omission or default under, any Secured Bank Product Obligation, any Credit Document or any of the instruments or agreements referred to therein, or otherwise amend, modify or supplement any of the Secured Bank Product Obligations or the Credit Documents or any of such other instruments or agreements;

(h) act or fail to act in any manner which may deprive such Guarantor of its right to subrogation against any Borrower or any other Guaranteed Party to recover full indemnity for any payments made pursuant to this Guaranty; and/or under this Guaranty.

(i) take any other action that would, under otherwise applicable principles of common law, give rise to a legal or equitable discharge of such Guarantor from its liabilities

7. This Guaranty is a continuing one and all liabilities to which it applies or may apply under the terms hereof shall be conclusively presumed to have been created in reliance hereon. No failure or delay on the part of any Secured Creditor in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Credit Document preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege hereunder or thereunder. The rights, powers and remedies expressly specified herein or in any other Credit Document are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, powers or remedies which any Secured Creditor would otherwise have. No notice to or demand on any Guarantor in any case shall entitle such Guarantor to any other further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of the rights of any Secured Creditor to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand. It is not necessary for any Secured Creditor to inquire into the capacity or powers of any Borrower or any other Guaranteed Party or the officers, directors, partners or agents acting or purporting to act on its or their behalf, and any indebtedness made or created in reliance upon the professed exercise of such powers shall be guaranteed hereunder.

8. Any indebtedness of any Borrower or any other Guaranteed Party now or hereafter owing to any Guarantor is hereby subordinated to the Guaranteed Obligations of such Borrower or such other Guaranteed Party to the Secured Creditors, and such Guaranteed Obligations of such Borrower or such other Guaranteed Party to any Guarantor, if the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, so requests, shall be collected, enforced and received by such Guarantor as trustee for the Secured Creditors and be paid over to the Secured Creditors on account of the Guaranteed Obligations of such Borrower or such other Guaranteed Parties to the Secured Creditors, but without affecting or impairing in any manner the liability of such Guarantor under the other provisions of this Guaranty. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Guarantor hereby agrees with the Secured Creditors that it will not exercise any right of subrogation which it may at any time otherwise have as a result of this Guaranty (whether contractual, under Section 509 of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar provision of any other Debtor Relief Law, or otherwise) until all Guaranteed Obligations have been irrevocably paid in full in cash.

9. (a) Each Guarantor waives any right (except as shall be required by applicable law and cannot be waived) to require the Secured Creditors to: (i) proceed against any Borrower, any other Guaranteed Party, any other Guarantor, any other guarantor of the Guaranteed Obligations or any other person or party; (ii) proceed against or exhaust any security held from any Borrower, any other Guaranteed Party, any other Guarantor, any other guarantor of the Guaranteed Obligations or any other person or party; or (iii) pursue any other remedy in the Secured Creditors' power whatsoever. Each Guarantor waives any defense based on or arising out of any defense of any Borrower, any other Guaranteed Party, any other Guarantor, any other guarantor of the Guaranteed Obligations or any other person or party other than payment in full in cash of the Guaranteed Obligations, including, without limitation, any defense based on or arising out of the disability of any Borrower, any other Guaranteed Party, any other Guarantor, any other guarantor of the Guaranteed Obligations or any other person or party, or the unenforceability of the Guaranteed

Obligations or any part thereof from any cause, or the cessation from any cause of the liability of any Borrower or any other Guaranteed Party other than payment in full in cash of the Guaranteed Obligations. The Secured Creditors may, at their election, foreclose on any security held by the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor by one or more judicial or nonjudicial sales, whether or not every aspect of any such sale is commercially reasonable, or exercise any other right or remedy any Secured Creditors may have against any Borrower, any other Guaranteed Party or any other person or party, or any security, without affecting or impairing in any way the liability of any Guarantor hereunder except to the extent the Guaranteed Obligations have been paid in full in cash. Each Guarantor waives, to the fullest extent permitted under law, any defense arising out of any such election by the Secured Creditors, even though such election operates to impair or extinguish any right of reimbursement or subrogation or other right or remedy of such Guarantor against any Borrower, any other Guaranteed Party or any other party or any security.

(b) Each Guarantor waives, to the fullest extent permitted under law, all presentments, demands for performance, protests and notices, including, without limitation, notices of nonperformance, notices of protest, notices of dishonor, notices of acceptance of this Guaranty, and notices of the existence, creation or incurring of new or additional indebtedness. Each Guarantor assumes all responsibility for being and keeping itself informed of the Borrower's and each other Guaranteed Party's financial condition and assets, and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Guaranteed Obligations and the nature, scope and extent of the risks which such Guarantor assumes and incurs hereunder, and agrees that the Secured Creditors shall have no duty to advise any Guarantor of information known to them regarding such circumstances or risks.

10. The Secured Creditors agree that this Guaranty may be enforced only by the action of the Administrative Agent or any Collateral Agent, in each case acting upon the instructions of the Required Lenders (or, after the date on which all Credit Document Obligations have been paid in full, the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Other Obligations) and that no other Secured Creditors shall have any right individually to seek to enforce or to enforce this Guaranty, it being understood and agreed that such rights and remedies may be exercised by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent or, after all the Credit Document Obligations have been paid in full, by the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Other Obligations, as the case may be, for the benefit of the Secured Creditors upon the terms of this Guaranty. The Secured Creditors further agree that this Guaranty may not be enforced against any director, officer, employee, partner, member or stockholder of any Guarantor (except to the extent such partner, member or stockholder is also a Guarantor hereunder).

11. In order to induce the Lenders to make Revolving Loans to, and the Issuing Bank to issue Letters of Credit on behalf of, the Parent, the Borrowers and/or any of their respective subsidiaries pursuant to the Credit Agreement, and in order to induce the Other Creditors to execute, deliver and perform the Secured Bank Product Obligations to which they are a party, each Guarantor represents, warrants and covenants that:

(a) Such Guarantor (i) is a duly organized and validly existing corporation, partnership or limited liability company, as the case may be, in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, (ii) has the corporate, partnership or limited liability company power and authority, as the case may be, to own its property and assets and to transact the business in which it is engaged and presently proposes to engage and (iii) is duly qualified and is authorized to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction where the conduct of its business requires such qualification except for failures to be so qualified which, either individually or in the aggregate, has not had, and would not reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Such Guarantor has the corporate, partnership or limited liability company power and authority, as the case may be, to execute, deliver and perform the terms and provisions of this Guaranty and each other Credit Document to which it is a party and has taken all necessary corporate, partnership or limited liability company action, as the case may be, to authorize the execution, delivery and performance by it of this Guaranty and each such other Credit Document. Such Guarantor has duly executed and delivered this Guaranty and each other Credit Document to which it is a party, and this Guaranty and each such other Credit Document constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of such Guarantor enforceable in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that the enforceability hereof or thereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement, moratorium or other similar laws generally affecting creditors' rights and by equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law).

(c) Neither the execution, delivery or performance by such Guarantor of this Guaranty or any other Credit Document to which it is a party, nor compliance by it with the terms and provisions hereof and thereof, will (i) contravene any provision of any applicable law, statute, rule or regulation or any applicable order, writ, injunction or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality, (ii) conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of (or the obligation to create or impose) any Lien (except pursuant to the Security Documents or Permitted Liens) upon any of the property or assets of such Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, loan agreement, credit agreement, or any other material agreement, contract or instrument, in each case to which such Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which it or any of its property or assets is bound or to which it may be subject (except, in the case of preceding clauses (i) and (ii), other than in the case of any contravention, breach, default and/or conflict, that would not reasonably be expected, either individually or in the aggregate, to have a Material Adverse Effect) or (iii) violate any provision of the certificate or articles of incorporation or by-laws (or equivalent organizational documents) of such Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries.

(d) Except to the extent the failure to obtain or make the same would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, no order, consent, approval, license, authorization or validation of, or filing, recording or registration with (except for (x) those that have otherwise been obtained or made on or prior to the Closing Date and which remain in full force and effect on the Closing Date and (y) filings which are necessary to perfect the security interests or hypothecs created under the Security Documents), or exemption by, any governmental or public body or authority, or any subdivision thereof, is required to authorize, or is required to be obtained or made by, or on behalf of, any Guarantor in connection with, the execution, delivery and performance of this Guaranty by such Guarantor or any other Credit Document to which such Guarantor is a party.

(e) There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to such Guarantor's knowledge, threatened (i) with respect to this Guaranty or any other Credit Document to which such Guarantor is a party or (ii) with respect to such Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries that, either individually or in the aggregate, has had, or would reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect.

12. Each Guarantor covenants and agrees that on and after the Closing Date and until the Termination Date, such Guarantor will comply, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to comply, with all of the applicable provisions, covenants and agreements contained in Articles 8 and 9 of the Credit Agreement, and will take, or will refrain from taking, as the case may be, all actions that are necessary to be taken or not taken so that it is not in violation of any provision, covenant or agreement contained in Articles 8 or 9 of the Credit Agreement, so that no Default or Event of Default is caused by the actions of such Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries. As used in this Agreement, "Termination Date" shall mean the date upon which the Aggregate Commitments under the Credit Agreement have been terminated and all Credit Document Obligations have been terminated, no Note under the Credit Agreement is outstanding and all Revolving Loans and LC Disbursements thereunder have been repaid in full (excluding any contingent indemnity obligations not then asserted and Letters of Credit which have been Cash Collateralized or backstopped on terms reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent).

13. The Guarantors hereby jointly and severally agree to pay all reasonable out- of-pocket costs and expenses of each Secured Creditor in connection with the enforcement of this Guaranty (including, without limitation, the reasonable fees and disbursements of counsels employed by each of the Secured Creditors, consistent with the arrangements provided for in the Credit Agreement) and of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent in connection with any amendment, waiver or consent relating hereto (including, without limitation, the reasonable fees and disbursements of counsels employed by each of the Agents).

14. This Guaranty shall be binding upon each Guarantor and its successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of the Secured Creditors and their successors and assigns.

15. Neither this Guaranty nor any provision hereof may be changed, waived, discharged or terminated except with the written consent of each Guarantor directly affected thereby and with the written consent of either (x) the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Required Lenders (or, to the extent required by Section 12.10 of the Credit Agreement, with the written consent of each Lender) at all times prior to the time on which all Credit Document Obligations have been paid in full or (y) the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Other Obligations at all times after the time on which all Credit Document Obligations have been paid in full; provided , that any change, waiver, modification or variance affecting the rights and benefits of a single Class (as defined below) of Secured Creditors (and not all Secured Creditors in a like or similar manner) shall also require the written consent of the Requisite Creditors (as defined below) of such Class of Secured Creditors (it being understood that the addition or release of any Guarantor hereunder in accordance with the terms hereof or the Credit Agreement shall not constitute a change, waiver, discharge or termination affecting any Guarantor other than the Guarantor so added or released and shall not require the consent of any Secured Creditor other than the Administrative Agent). For the purpose of this Guaranty, the term "Class" shall mean each class of Secured Creditors, i.e., whether (x) the Lender Creditors as holders of the Credit Document Obligations or (y) the Other Creditors as the holders of the Other Obligations. For the purpose of this Guaranty, the term "Requisite Creditors" of any Class shall mean (x) with respect to the Credit Document Obligations, the Required Lenders (or, to the extent required by Section 12.10 of the Credit Agreement, each Lender) and (y) with respect to the Other Obligations, the holders of at least a majority of all obligations outstanding from time to time under the Secured Bank Product Obligations.

16. Each Guarantor acknowledges that an executed (or conformed) copy of each of the Credit Documents, and Secured Bank Product Obligations has been made available to a senior officer of such Guarantor and such officer is familiar with the contents thereof.

17. In addition to any rights now or hereafter granted under applicable law (including, without limitation, Section 151 of the New York Debtor and Secured Creditor Law) and not by way of limitation of any such rights, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default (such term to mean and include any "Event of Default" as defined in the Credit Agreement and any payment default under any Secured Bank Product Obligations continuing after any applicable grace period), each Secured Creditor is hereby authorized, at any time or from time to time, without notice to any Guarantor or to any other Person, any such notice being expressly waived, to set off and to appropriate and apply any and all deposits (general or special) and any other indebtedness at any time held or owing by such Secured Creditor to or for the credit or the account of such Guarantor, against and on account of the obligations and liabilities of such Guarantor to such Secured Creditor under this Guaranty, irrespective of whether or not such Secured Creditor shall have made any demand hereunder and although said obligations, liabilities, deposits or claims, or any of them, shall be contingent or unmatured.

18. All notices, requests, demands or other communications pursuant hereto shall be sent or delivered by mail, telegraph, telex, telecopy, cable or courier service and all such notices and communications shall, when mailed, telegraphed, telexed, telecopied, or cabled or sent by overnight courier, be effective when deposited in the mails, delivered to the telegraph company, cable company or overnight courier, as the case may be, or sent by telex or telecopier, except that notices and communications to the Administrative Agent or any Guarantor shall not be effective until received by the Administrative Agent or such Guarantor, as the case may be. All notices and other communications shall be in writing and addressed to such party at (i) in the case of any Lender Creditor, as provided in the Credit Agreement, (ii) in the case of any Guarantor, at: Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. 100 Domain Drive, Exeter, NH, 03833, Attention: Michael Wall, Vice President and General Counsel, Telephone No.: 603-610-5805, Telecopier No.: 603-430-7332, and (iii) in the case of any Other Creditor, at such address as such Other Creditor shall have specified in writing to the Lead Borrowers and the Administrative Agent; or in any case at such other address as any of the Persons listed above may hereafter notify the others in writing.

19. If claim is ever made upon any Secured Creditor for repayment or recovery of any amount or amounts received in payment or on account of any of the Guaranteed Obligations and any of the aforesaid payees repays all or part of said amount by reason of (i) any judgment, decree or order of any court or administrative body having jurisdiction over such payee or any of its property or (ii) any settlement or compromise of any such claim effected by such payee with any such claimant (including the Parent, the Lead Borrowers or any other Guaranteed Party) then and in such event each Guarantor agrees that any such judgment, decree, order, settlement or compromise shall be binding upon such Guarantor, notwithstanding any revocation hereof or other instrument evidencing any liability of the Borrowers or any other Guaranteed Party, and such Guarantor shall be and remain liable to the aforesaid payees hereunder for the amount so repaid or recovered to the same extent as if such amount had never originally been received by any such payee.

20. (a) THIS GUARANTY AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE SECURED CREDITORS AND OF THE UNDERSIGNED HEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITHOUT REGARD TO ANY CONFLICTS OF LAW PROVISIONS THAT WOULD CAUSE THE LAW OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION TO APPLY. Any legal action or proceeding with respect to this Guaranty or any other Credit Document to which any Guarantor is a party may be brought in the courts of the State of New York or of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York in each case which are located in the County of New York, and, by execution and delivery of this Guaranty, each Guarantor and each Secured Creditor (by its acceptance of the benefits of this Guaranty) hereby irrevocably accepts for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, the jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts. Each Guarantor and each Secured Creditor (by its acceptance of the benefits of this Guaranty) hereby further irrevocably waives any claim that any such court lacks personal jurisdiction over it, and agrees not to plead or claim in any legal action or proceeding with respect to this Guaranty or any other Credit Document to which it is a party brought in any of the aforesaid courts that any such court lacks personal jurisdiction over such Guarantor. Each Guarantor and each Secured Creditor (by its acceptance of the benefits of this Guaranty) further irrevocably consents to the service of process out of any of the aforementioned courts in any such action or proceeding by the mailing of copies thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to such party at its address set forth in Section 18 hereof, such service to become effective 30 days after such mailing. Each Guarantor and each Secured Creditor (by its acceptance of the benefits of this Guaranty) hereby irrevocably waives any objection to such service of process and further irrevocably waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any action or proceeding commenced hereunder or under any other Credit Document to which it is a party that such service of process was in any way invalid or ineffective. Nothing herein shall affect the right of any such party to serve process in any other manner permitted by law or to commence legal proceedings or otherwise proceed against any other party in any other jurisdiction.

(b) Each Guarantor and each Secured Party (by its acceptance of the benefits of this Guaranty) hereby irrevocably waives (to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law) any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any of the aforesaid actions or proceedings arising out of or in connection with this Guaranty or any other Credit Document to which such Guarantor is a party brought in the courts referred to in clause (a) above and hereby further irrevocably waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any such court that such action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

(c) EACH GUARANTOR AND EACH SECURED CREDITOR (BY ITS ACCEPTANCE OF THE BENEFITS OF THIS GUARANTY) HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS GUARANTY, THE OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENTS TO WHICH SUCH GUARANTOR IS A PARTY OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

21. In the event that a Guarantor becomes an Excluded Subsidiary or all of the capital stock of a Guarantor is sold or otherwise disposed of or liquidated in compliance with the requirements of Section 9.02 of the Credit Agreement (or such sale or other disposition has been approved in writing by the Required Lenders (or all the Lenders if required by Section 12.10 of the Credit Agreement)) and the proceeds of such sale, disposition or liquidation are applied in accordance with the provisions of the Credit Agreement, to the extent applicable, such Guarantor shall upon consummation of such sale or other disposition (except to the extent that such sale or disposition is to another Credit Party) be released from this Guaranty automatically and without further action and this Guaranty shall, as to each such Guarantor, terminate, and have no further force or effect (it being understood and agreed that the sale of one or more Persons that own, directly or indirectly, all of the capital stock of any Guarantor shall be deemed to be a sale of such Guarantor for the purposes of this Section 21).

22. At any time a payment in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations is made under this Guaranty, the right of contribution of each Guarantor against each other Guarantor shall be determined as provided in the immediately following sentence, with the right of contribution of each Guarantor to be revised and restated as of each date on which a payment (a "Relevant Payment") is made on the Guaranteed Obligations under this Guaranty. At any time that a Relevant Payment is made by a Guarantor that results in the aggregate payments made by such Guarantor in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations to and including the date of the Relevant Payment exceeding such Guarantor's Contribution Percentage (as defined below) of the aggregate payments made by all Guarantors in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations to and including the date of the Relevant Payment (such excess, the "Aggregate Excess Amount"), each such Guarantor shall have a right of contribution against each other Guarantor who has made payments in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations to and including the date of the Relevant Payment in an aggregate amount less than such other Guarantor's Contribution Percentage of the aggregate payments made to and including the date of the Relevant Payment by all Guarantors in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations (the aggregate amount of such deficit, the "Aggregate Deficit Amount") in an amount equal to (x) a fraction the numerator of which is the Aggregate Excess Amount of such Guarantor and the denominator of which is the Aggregate Excess Amount of all Guarantors multiplied by (y) the Aggregate Deficit Amount of such other Guarantor. A Guarantor's right of contribution pursuant to the preceding sentences shall arise at the time of each computation, subject to adjustment to the time of each computation; provided that no Guarantor may take any action to enforce such right until the Guaranteed Obligations have been irrevocably paid in full in cash, it being expressly recognized and agreed by all parties hereto that any Guarantor's right of contribution arising pursuant to this Section 22 against any other Guarantor shall be expressly junior and subordinate to such other Guarantor's obligations and liabilities in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations and any other obligations owing under this Guaranty. As used in this Section 22: (i) each Guarantor's "Contribution Percentage" shall mean the percentage obtained by dividing (x) the Adjusted Net Worth (as defined below) of such Guarantor by (y) the aggregate Adjusted Net Worth of all Guarantors; (ii) the " Adjusted Net Worth" of each Guarantor shall mean the greater of (x) the Net Worth (as defined below) of such Guarantor and (y) zero; and (iii) the "Net Worth" of each Guarantor shall mean the amount by which the fair saleable value of such Guarantor's assets on the date of any Relevant Payment exceeds its existing debts and other liabilities (including contingent liabilities, but without giving effect to any Guaranteed Obligations arising under this Guaranty) on such date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above, any Guarantor that is released from this Guaranty shall thereafter have no contribution obligations, or rights, pursuant to this Section 22, and at the time of any such release, if the released Guarantor had an Aggregate Excess Amount or an Aggregate Deficit Amount, same shall be deemed reduced to $0, and the contribution rights and obligations of the remaining Guarantors shall be recalculated on the respective date of release (as otherwise provided above) based on the payments made hereunder by the remaining Guarantors. All parties hereto recognize and agree that, except for any right of contribution arising pursuant to this Section 22, each Guarantor who makes any payment in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations shall have no right of contribution or subrogation against any other Guarantor in respect of such payment until all of the Guaranteed Obligations have been irrevocably paid in full in cash. Each of the Guarantors recognizes and acknowledges that the rights to contribution arising hereunder shall constitute an asset in favor of the party entitled to such contribution. In this connection, each Guarantor has the right to waive its contribution right against any Guarantor to the extent that after giving effect to such waiver such Guarantor would remain solvent, in the reasonable determination of the Required Lenders.

23. Each Guarantor and each Secured Creditor (by its acceptance of the benefits of this Guaranty) hereby confirms that it is its intention that this Guaranty not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance for purposes of the Bankruptcy Code, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act of any similar federal, foreign, state or provincial law. To effectuate the foregoing intention, each Guarantor and each Secured Creditor (by its acceptance of the benefits of this Guaranty) hereby irrevocably agrees that the Guaranteed Obligations guaranteed by such Guarantor shall be limited to such amount as will, after giving effect to such maximum amount and all other (contingent or otherwise) liabilities of such Guarantor that are relevant under such laws and after giving effect to any rights to contribution pursuant to any agreement providing for an equitable contribution among such Guarantor and the other Guarantors, result in the Guaranteed Obligations of such Guarantor in respect of such maximum amount not constituting a fraudulent transfer or conveyance.

24. This Guaranty may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the different parties hereto on separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. A set of counterparts executed by all the parties hereto shall be lodged with the Guarantors and the Administrative Agent.

25. All payments made by any Guarantor hereunder will be made without setoff, counterclaim or other defense (other than payment in cash of such Guaranteed Obligations made in accordance with the terms of this Guaranty) and on the same basis as payments are made by the Borrowers under Sections 2.10 and 4.01 of the Credit Agreement.

26. It is understood and agreed that any Restricted Subsidiary of the Parent that is required to become a party to this Guaranty after the date hereof pursuant to the requirements of the Credit Agreement or any other Credit Document, shall become a Guarantor hereunder by (x) executing and delivering a counterpart hereof, or a joinder agreement in the form of Exhibit A hereto, and delivering same to the Administrative Agent and (y) taking all actions as specified in this Guaranty as would have been taken by such Guarantor had it been an original party to this Guaranty, in each case with all documents required by the Credit Documents to be delivered to the Administrative Agent and with all documents and actions required by the Credit Documents to be taken to the reasonable satisfaction of the Administrative Agent.

27. If a judgment or order is rendered by any court or tribunal for the payment of any amount owing to the Secured Creditors under any Credit Document or for the payment of damages in respect of any breach of any Credit Document, or under or in respect of a judgment or order of another court or tribunal for the payment of those amounts or damages, and the judgment or order is expressed in a currency (the "Judgment Currency") except the currency payable under the relevant Credit Document (the " Agreed Currency"), each Guarantor shall indemnify and hold the Secured Creditors harmless against any deficiency in terms of the Agreed Currency in the amounts received by that Secured Creditor arising or resulting from any variation as between (a) the actual rate of exchange at which the Agreed Currency is converted into the Judgment Currency for the purposes of the judgment or order, and (b) the actual rate of exchange at which that Secured Creditor is able to purchase the Agreed Currency with the amount of the Judgment Currency actually received by that Secured Creditor on the date of receipt. The indemnity in this Section shall constitute a separate and independent obligation from the other obligations of the Credit Parties under the Credit Documents and shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by the Secured Creditors.

28. Each Qualified ECP Guarantor hereby jointly and severally absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably undertakes to provide such funds or other support as may be needed from time to time by each other Credit Party party hereto to honor all of its obligations under this Guaranty in respect of Swap Obligations; provided however , that each Qualified ECP Guarantor shall only be liable under this Section 28 for the maximum amount of such liability that can be hereby incurred without rendering its obligations under this Section 28, or otherwise under this Guaranty, as it relates to such Credit Party, voidable under applicable Law relating to fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer, and not for any greater amount. The obligations of each Qualified ECP Guarantor under this Section 28 shall remain in full force and effect until all the Guaranteed Obligations have been paid in full and the commitments relating thereto have expired or been terminated. Each Qualified ECP Guarantor intends that this Section 28 constitute, and this Section 28 shall be deemed to constitute, a "keepwell, support, or other agreement" for the benefit of each other Loan Party for all purposes of Section 1a(18)(A)(v)(II) of the Commodity Exchange Act.

The following terms shall have the meanings herein specified. Such definitions shall be equally applicable to the singular and plural forms of the terms defined. "Commodity Exchange Act" means the U.S. Commodity Exchange Act (7 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.), as amended from time to time, and any successor statute. "Excluded Swap Obligation" means, with respect to any Guarantor, any Swap Obligation if, and to the extent that, all or a portion of the Guarantee of such Guarantor of, or the grant by such Guarantor of a security interest to secure, such Swap Obligation (or any Guarantee thereof) is or becomes illegal under the Commodity Exchange Act or any rule, regulation or order of the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission (or the application or official interpretation of any thereof) by virtue of such Guarantor's failure for any reason to constitute an "eligible contract participant" as defined in the Commodity Exchange Act and the regulations thereunder (determined after giving effect to Section 28 of this Guaranty and any and all Guarantees of such Guarantor's Swap Obligations by other Guarantors) at the time the Guarantee of such Guarantor or the grant of such security interest becomes effective with respect to such Swap Obligation, unless otherwise agreed by the Administrative Agent and the Parent, each in its sole discretion. If a Swap Obligation arises under a master agreement governing more than one swap, such exclusion shall apply only to the portion of such Swap Obligation that is attributable to swaps for which such Guarantee or security interest is or becomes illegal.

"Qualified ECP Guarantor" means, in respect of any Swap Obligation, each Guarantor that has total assets exceeding $10,000,000 at the time the relevant Guarantee or grant of the relevant security interest becomes effective with respect to such Swap Obligation or such other person as constitutes an "eligible contract participant" under the Commodity Exchange Act or any regulations promulgated there-under and can cause another person to qualify as an "eligible contract participant" at such time by entering into a keepwell under Section 1a(18)(A)(v)(II) of the Commodity Exchange Act.

"Swap Obligation" means with respect to any Guarantor, any obligation to pay or perform under any agreement, contract or transaction that constitutes a "swap" within the meaning of section 1a(47) of the Commodity Exchange Act.

This SOLVENCY CERTIFICATE (this " Certificate") is delivered in connection with that certain Credit Agreement dated as of April 15, 2014 (as amended, supplemented, amended and restated, replaced, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Credit Agreement") among Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. (the " Parent"), Bauer Hockey Corp. (the "Lead Canadian Borrower"), Bauer Hockey Inc. (the "Lead U.S. Borrower", together with the Lead Canadian Borrower, " Lead Borrowers"), the Subsidiary Borrowers, Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent and collateral agent, the financial institutions from time to time party thereto as lenders and the other parties thereto. Capitalized terms used herein without definition have the same meanings as in the Credit Agreement.

In my capacity as chief financial officer of the Borrower, and not in my individual or personal capacity, I believe that:

1. Company (as used herein "Company" means the Parent and each of its subsidiaries, taken as a whole) is not now, nor will the incurrence of the obligations under the Credit Agreement and the consummation of the Acquisition on the Closing Date, on a pro forma basis, render Company "insolvent" as defined in this paragraph; in this context, "insolvent" means that (i) the fair value of assets is less than the amount that will be required to pay the total liability on existing debts as they become absolute and matured and (ii) the present fair salable value of assets is less than the amount that will be required to pay the probable liability on existing debts as they become absolute and matured, (iii) it is unable to meet its obligations as they generally become due, or (iv) it ceases to pay its current obligations in the ordinary course of business as they generally become due, or (v) its aggregate property is not, at a fair valuation, sufficient, or if disposed of at a fairly conducted sale under legal process, would not be, sufficient to enable payment of all obligations, due and accruing due. The term "debts" as used in this Certificate includes any legal liability, whether matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, absolute, fixed or contingent (to the extent any such contingent liabilities are reasonably anticipated to become due and matured), and "values of assets" shall mean the amount of which the assets (both tangible and intangible) in their entirety would change hands between a willing buyer and a willing seller, with a commercially reasonable period of time, each having reasonable knowledge of the relevant facts, with neither being under compulsion to act.

2. As of the date hereof, after giving effect to the incurrence of the obligations under the Credit Agreement and the consummation of the Acquisition, Company is able to pay its debts as they become absolute and mature.

3. The incurrence of the obligations under the Credit Agreement and the consummation of the Acquisition on the Closing Date, on a pro forma basis, will not leave Company with property remaining in its hands constituting "unreasonably small capital." I understand that "unreasonably small capital" depends upon the nature of the particular business or businesses conducted or to be conducted, and I have reached my conclusion based on my current assumptions regarding the needs and anticipated needs for capital of the businesses conducted or anticipated to be conducted by Company in light of projected financial statements and available credit capacity, which current assumption I do not believe to be unreasonable in light of the circumstances applicable thereto.

I represent the foregoing information is provided to the best of my knowledge and belief and execute this Certificate as of the date first above written.

(i) will not exercise or seek to exercise any rights or remedies with respect to any Fixed Asset Priority Collateral or institute any action or proceeding with respect to such rights or remedies (including any action of foreclosure); provided, however, that the ABL Collateral Agent may exercise the rights provided for in Section 3.03 (with respect to any Access Period) and may exercise any or all such other rights or remedies after the passage of a period of at least 180 days has elapsed since the later of: (A) the date on which the ABL Collateral Agent declared the existence of any ABL Default and demanded the repayment of all the principal amount of any ABL Obligations; and (B) the date on which the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent received notice from the ABL Collateral Agent of such declaration of an ABL Default (the " ABL Standstill Period "); provided, further, however, that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholder exercise any rights or remedies (other than those under Section 3.03) with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral if, notwithstanding the expiration of the ABL Standstill Period, the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent shall have commenced and be diligently pursuing the exercise of their rights or remedies with respect to all or any material portion of such Collateral (prompt notice of such exercise to be given to the ABL Collateral Agent);

(ii) will not contest, protest or object to, or otherwise interfere with, any foreclosure proceeding or action brought by any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholder or any other exercise by a Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholder of any rights and remedies relating to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, whether under the Fixed Asset Documents or otherwise; and

(iii) subject to their rights under clause (a)(i) above and except as may be permitted in Section 3.02(c), will not object to the forbearance by any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or Fixed Asset Claimholders from bringing or pursuing any Collateral Enforcement Action;

provided, however, that in the case of (i), (ii) and (iii) above, the Liens granted to secure the ABL Obligations of the ABL Claimholders shall attach to the Proceeds thereof subject to the relative priorities described in Article 2.

(b) Until the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, whether or not any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Grantor, the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, agrees that the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders shall have the right to enforce rights, exercise remedies (including set-off and the right to credit bid their debt) and, in connection therewith (including voluntary Dispositions of Fixed Asset Priority Collateral by the respective Grantors after a Fixed Asset Default) make determinations regarding the release, disposition, or restrictions with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral without any consultation with or the consent of the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholder; provided, however, that the Lien securing the ABL Obligations shall remain on the Proceeds (other than those properly applied to the Fixed Asset Obligations) of such Collateral released or disposed of subject to the relative priorities described in Article 2. In exercising rights and remedies with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, agrees that the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders may enforce the provisions of the Fixed Asset Documents and exercise remedies thereunder, all in such order and in such manner as they may determine in the exercise of their sole discretion. Such exercise and enforcement shall include the rights of an agent appointed by them to sell or otherwise dispose of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral upon foreclosure or other disposition, to incur expenses in connection with such sale or disposition, and to exercise all the rights and remedies of a secured creditor under the UCC and the PPSA, as applicable, and of a secured creditor under the Bankruptcy Laws of any applicable jurisdiction. The ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, agrees that it will not seek, and hereby waives any right, to have any Fixed Asset Priority Collateral or any part thereof marshaled upon any foreclosure or other disposition of such Collateral.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the ABL Collateral Agent and any ABL Claimholder may:

(i) file a claim or statement of interest with respect to the ABL Obligations; provided that an Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Grantor;

(ii) take any action in order to create, perfect, preserve or protect its Lien on any of the Collateral; provided that such action shall not be inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement and shall not be adverse to the priority status of the Liens on the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, or the rights of any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any of the Fixed Asset Claimholders to exercise remedies in respect thereof;

(iii) file any necessary responsive or defensive pleadings in opposition to any motion, claim, adversary proceeding or other pleading made by any Person objecting to or otherwise seeking the disallowance of the claims of the ABL

Claimholders, including any claims secured by the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, if any, in each case in accordance with the terms of this Agreement;

(iv) file any pleadings, objections, motions or agreements which assert rights or interests available to unsecured creditors of the Grantors arising under either any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or applicable non-bankruptcy law, in each case not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement;

(v) vote on any plan of reorganization, file any proof of claim, make other filings and make any arguments and motions that are, in each case, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, with respect to the ABL Obligations and the ABL Priority Collateral; and

(vi) exercise any of its rights or remedies with respect to any of the Collateral after the termination of the ABL Standstill Period to the extent permitted by Section 3.02(a)(i).

The ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, agrees that it will not take or receive any Fixed Asset Priority Collateral or any Proceeds of such Collateral in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy (including set-off) with respect to any such Collateral in its capacity as a creditor in violation of this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, unless and until the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, except as expressly provided in Sections 3.02(a), 3.03, 3.04, 6.03(c)(ii) and this Section 3.02(c), the sole right of the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral is to hold a Lien on such Collateral pursuant to the ABL Collateral Documents for the period and to the extent granted therein and to receive a share of the Proceeds thereof, if any, after the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred.

(d) Subject to Sections 3.02(a) and (c) and Sections 3.03 and 6.03(c)(ii):

(i) the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, agrees that the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders will not, except as not prohibited herein, take any action that would hinder any exercise of remedies under the Fixed Asset Documents or that is otherwise prohibited hereunder, including any sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, whether by foreclosure or otherwise;

(ii) the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, hereby waives any and all rights it or the ABL Claimholders may have as a junior lien creditor with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral or otherwise to object to the manner in which the any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or the Fixed Asset Claimholders seek to enforce or collect the Fixed Asset Obligations or the Liens on the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral securing the Fixed Asset Obligations granted in any of the Fixed Asset Documents or undertaken in accordance with this Agreement, regardless of whether any action or failure to act by or on behalf of any

Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or the Fixed Asset Claimholders is adverse to the interest of the ABL Claimholders; and

(iii) the ABL Collateral Agent hereby acknowledges and agrees that no covenant, agreement or restriction contained in any of the ABL Collateral Documents or any other ABL Credit Document (other than this Agreement) shall be deemed to restrict in any way the rights and remedies of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents or the Fixed Asset Claimholders with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral as set forth in this Agreement and the Fixed Asset Documents.

(e) Except as otherwise specifically set forth in Sections 3.02(a) and (d) and 3.05, the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders may exercise rights and remedies as unsecured creditors against any Grantor and may exercise rights and remedies with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral, in each case, in accordance with the terms of the ABL Credit Documents and applicable law; provided, however, that in the event that any ABL Claimholder becomes a judgment Lien creditor in respect of Fixed Asset Priority Collateral as a result of its enforcement of its rights as an unsecured creditor with respect to the ABL Obligations, such judgment Lien shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement for all purposes (including in relation to the Fixed Asset Obligations) as the other Liens securing the ABL Obligations are subject to this Agreement.

(f) Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the receipt by the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholders of payments of interest, principal and other amounts owed in respect of the ABL Obligations so long as such receipt is not the direct or indirect result of the exercise by the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholders of rights or remedies as a secured creditor (including set-off) or enforcement of any Lien held by any of them, in each case in contravention of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement impairs or otherwise adversely affects any rights or remedies the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents or the Fixed Asset Claimholders may have against the Grantors under the Fixed Asset Documents, other than with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral solely to the extent expressly provided herein.

Section 3.03. Exercise of Remedies – Collateral Access Rights . (a) The ABL Collateral Agent and the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents agree not to commence any Collateral Enforcement Action until an Enforcement Notice has been given to the other Collateral Agent. Subject to the provisions of Sections 3.01 and 3.02 above, either Collateral Agent may join in any judicial proceedings commenced by the other Collateral Agent to enforce Liens on the Collateral; provided that neither Collateral Agent, nor the ABL Claimholders or the Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, shall interfere with the Collateral Enforcement Actions of the other with respect to Collateral in which such party has the priority Lien in accordance herewith.

(b) If any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, or any agent or representative of any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, or any receiver, shall obtain possession or physical control of any of the Mortgaged Premises, such Fixed Asset Collateral Agent shall promptly notify the ABL Collateral Agent of that fact (such notice, a "Notice of Occupancy") and the ABL

Collateral Agent shall, within ten (10) Business Days thereafter, notify the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent as to whether the ABL Collateral Agent desires to exercise access rights under this Agreement (such notice, an "Access Acceptance Notice"), at which time the parties shall confer in good faith to coordinate with respect to the ABL Collateral Agent's exercise of such access rights; provided, that it is understood and agreed that the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall obtain possession or physical control of the Mortgaged Premises in the manner provided in the applicable Fixed Asset Collateral Documents and in the manner provided herein. Access rights may apply to differing parcels of Mortgaged Premises at differing times, in which case, a differing Access Period may apply to each such property. In the event that the ABL Collateral Agent elects to exercise its access rights as provided in this Agreement, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent agrees, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, that in the event that any Fixed Asset Claimholder exercises its rights to sell or otherwise dispose of any Mortgaged Premises, whether before or after the delivery of a Notice of Occupancy to the ABL Collateral Agent, the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall (i) provide access rights to the ABL Collateral Agent for the duration of the Access Period in accordance with this Agreement and (ii) if such a sale or other disposition occurs prior to the ABL Collateral Agent delivering an Access Acceptance Notice during the time period provided therefor, or if applicable, the expiration of the applicable Access Period, shall ensure that the purchaser or other transferee of such Mortgaged Premises provides the ABL Collateral Agent the opportunity to exercise its access rights, and upon delivery of an Access Acceptance Notice to such purchaser or transferee, continued access rights to the ABL for the duration of the applicable Access Period, in the manner and to the extent required by this Agreement.

(c) Upon delivery of notice to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent as provided in Section 3.03(b), the Access Period shall commence for the subject parcel of Mortgaged Premises. During the Access Period, the ABL Collateral Agent and its agents, representatives and designees shall have a non-exclusive right to have access to, and a rent free right to use, the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral for the purpose of arranging for and effecting the sale or disposition of ABL Priority Collateral, including the production, completion, packaging and other preparation of such ABL Priority Collateral for sale or disposition. During any such Access Period, the ABL Collateral Agent and its agents, representatives and designees (and Persons employed on their respective behalves), may continue to operate, service, maintain, process and sell the ABL Priority Collateral, as well as to engage in bulk sales of ABL Priority Collateral. The ABL Collateral Agent shall take proper care of any Fixed Asset Priority Collateral that is used by the ABL Collateral Agent during the Access Period and repair and replace any damage (ordinary wear-and-tear excepted) caused by the ABL Collateral Agent or its agents, representatives or designees and the ABL Collateral Agent shall comply with all applicable laws in connection with its use or occupancy of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral. The ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders shall (to the extent that there are sufficient available proceeds of ABL Collateral for the purposes of paying such indemnity) indemnify and hold harmless the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders for any injury or damage to Persons or property caused by the acts or omissions of Persons under its control. The ABL Collateral Agent and the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall cooperate and use reasonable efforts to ensure that their activities during the Access Period as described above do not interfere materially with the activities of the other as described above, including the right of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents to show the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral to prospective purchasers and to ready the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral for sale.

(d) If any order or injunction is issued or stay is granted which prohibits the ABL Collateral Agent from exercising any of its rights hereunder, then at the ABL Collateral Agent's option, the Access Period granted to the ABL Collateral Agent under this Section 3.03 shall be stayed during the period of such prohibition and shall continue thereafter for the number of days remaining as required under this Section 3.03. If any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent shall foreclose or otherwise sell any of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, such Fixed Asset Collateral Agent will notify the buyer thereof of the existence of this Agreement and that the buyer is acquiring the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral subject to the terms of this Agreement.

(e) The Fixed Asset Collateral Agents (in the case of any Additional Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, to the extent such access rights have been granted to such Collateral Agent) and, to the extent such rights have been granted by the Grantors under any Initial Fixed Asset Documents, the Grantors, agree that the ABL Collateral Agent shall have access, during the Access Period, as described herein and each such Grantor that owns any of the Mortgaged Premises grants a non-exclusive easement in gross over its property to permit the uses by the ABL Collateral Agent contemplated by this Section 3.03. Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent consents to such easement and to the recordation of a collateral access easement agreement, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, in the relevant real estate records with respect to each parcel of real property that is now or hereafter subject to a Fixed Asset Mortgage. The ABL Collateral Agent agrees that upon either the occurrence of the Discharge of ABL Obligations or the expiration of the final Access Period with respect to any parcel of property covered by a Fixed Asset Mortgage, it shall, upon request, execute and deliver to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, or if a Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, to the respective Grantor, such documentation, in recordable form, as may reasonably be requested to terminate any and all rights with respect to such Access Periods.

Section 3.04. Exercise of Remedies – Intellectual Property Rights/Access to Information . Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent (in the case of any Additional Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, to the extent such rights have been granted to such Collateral Agent) and, to the extent such rights have been granted by the Grantors under any Initial Fixed Asset Documents, each Grantor hereby grants (to the full extent of their respective rights and interests) the ABL Collateral Agent and its agents, representatives and designees (a) a royalty free, rent free non-exclusive license and lease to use all of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral constituting Intellectual Property, to complete the sale of inventory and (b) a royalty free non-exclusive license (which will be binding on any successor or assignee of the Intellectual Property) to use any and all Intellectual Property, in each case, at any time in connection with its Collateral Enforcement Action; provided, however, the royalty free, rent free non-exclusive license and lease granted in clause (a) shall immediately expire upon the sale, lease, transfer or other disposition of all such inventory.

Section 3.05. Exercise of Remedies – Set Off and Tracing of and Priorities in Proceeds . (a) The ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, acknowledges and agrees that, to the extent the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholder exercises its rights of set-off against any Grantors' Deposit Accounts or Securities Accounts that contain identifiable Proceeds of Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, a percentage of the amount of such set-off equal to the percentage that such Proceeds bear to the total amount on deposit in or credited to the balance of such Deposit Accounts or Securities Accounts shall be deemed to constitute Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, which amount shall be held and distributed pursuant to Section 4.03; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any set-off by the ABL Collateral Agent against any ABL Priority Collateral to the extent applied to the payment of ABL Obligations.

(b) Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, also agrees that prior to an issuance of an Enforcement Notice, all funds deposited in an account subject to a Deposit Account Control Agreement or a Dominion Account that constitute ABL Priority Collateral and then applied to the ABL Obligations shall be treated as ABL Priority Collateral and, unless the ABL Collateral Agent has actual knowledge to the contrary, any claim that payments made to the ABL Collateral Agent through the Deposit Accounts and Securities Accounts that are subject to such Deposit Account Control Agreements or Dominion Accounts, respectively, are Proceeds of or otherwise constitute Fixed Asset Priority Collateral are waived by the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders.

(c) The ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, further agree that prior to an issuance of an Enforcement Notice, any Proceeds of Collateral, whether or not deposited in an account subject to a deposit account control agreement or a securities account control agreement, shall not (as between the Collateral Agents, the ABL Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Claimholders) be treated as Proceeds of Collateral for purposes of determining the relative priorities in the Collateral.

PAYMENTS.

Section 4.01. Application of Proceeds. (a) Until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred, whether or not any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Grantor, all ABL Priority Collateral or Proceeds thereof received in connection with the sale or other disposition of, or collection on, such Collateral upon the exercise of remedies by the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholder, shall be applied by the ABL Collateral Agent to the ABL Obligations in such order as specified in the relevant ABL Credit Documents. Upon the occurrence of the Discharge of ABL Obligations, the ABL Collateral Agent shall deliver to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent any Collateral and Proceeds of Collateral held by it as a result of the exercise of remedies in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct to be applied by the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent to the Fixed Asset Obligations in such order as specified in Section 4.01(b); it being understood that any security interest in Deposit Accounts in favor of the Fixed Asset Obligations shall no longer exist upon the occurrence of the Discharge of ABL Obligations.

(b) Until the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, whether or not any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Grantor, all Fixed Asset Priority Collateral or Proceeds thereof received in connection with the sale or other disposition of, or collection on, such Collateral upon the exercise of remedies by any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholder, shall be applied by the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent to the Fixed Asset Obligations in the following order: first, to payment of that portion of the Fixed Asset Obligations constituting fees, indemnities, expenses and other amounts payable to each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent in its capacity as such pursuant to the terms of any Fixed Asset Document; second, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities and other amounts (other than principal and interest) payable to the Fixed Asset Claimholders pursuant to the terms of any Fixed Asset Document; and third, to the payment in full of Fixed Asset Obligations of each Series on a ratable basis, and with respect to the Fixed Asset Obligations of a given Series in accordance with the terms of the terms of the applicable Fixed Asset Documents. Upon the occurrence of the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent shall deliver to the ABL Collateral Agent any Collateral and Proceeds of Collateral held by it as a result of the exercise of remedies in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct to be applied by the ABL Collateral Agent to the ABL Obligations in such order as specified in the ABL Collateral Documents.

Section 4.02. Payments Over in Violation of Agreement . So long as neither the Discharge of ABL Obligations nor the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, whether or not any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Grantor, any Collateral or Proceeds thereof (including assets or Proceeds subject to Liens referred to in the final sentence of Section 2.03) received by any Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholders or ABL Claimholders in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy (including set-off and the right to credit bid their debt) relating to the Collateral in contravention of this Agreement shall be segregated and held in trust and forthwith paid over to the appropriate Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Fixed Asset Claimholders or the ABL Claimholders, as the case may be, in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct. Each Collateral Agent is hereby authorized by the other Collateral Agent to make any such endorsements as agent for the other Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholders or ABL Claimholders, as the case may be. This authorization is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable until the Discharge of ABL Obligations and Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations have occurred.

Section 4.03. Application of Payments. Subject to the other terms of this Agreement, all payments received by (a) the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders may be applied, reversed and reapplied, in whole or in part, to the ABL Obligations to the extent provided for in the ABL Credit Documents and (b) the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents or the Fixed Asset Claimholders may be applied, reversed and reapplied, in whole or in part, to the Fixed Asset Obligations in the order set forth in Section 4.01(b).

Section 4.04. Reinstatement. (a) To the extent any payment with respect to any ABL Obligation (whether by or on behalf of any Grantor, as Proceeds of security, enforcement of any right of set-off or otherwise) is declared to be a fraudulent conveyance or a preference in any respect, set aside or required to be paid to a debtor in possession, any Fixed Asset Claimholders, receiver or similar Person, whether in connection with any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise, then the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied shall, for the purposes of this Agreement and the rights and obligations of the ABL Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, be deemed to be reinstated and outstanding as if such payment had not occurred. To the extent that any interest, fees, expenses or other charges (including, without limitation, Post-Petition Interest) to be paid pursuant to the ABL Credit Documents are disallowed by order of any court, including, without limitation, by order of a Bankruptcy Court in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, such interest, fees, expenses and charges (including, without limitation, Post-Petition Interest) shall, as between the ABL Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, be deemed to continue to accrue and be added to the amount to be calculated as the "ABL Obligations".

(b) To the extent any payment with respect to any Fixed Asset Obligation (whether by or on behalf of any Grantor, as Proceeds of security, enforcement of any right of set-off or otherwise) is declared to be a fraudulent conveyance or a preference in any respect, set aside or required to be paid to a debtor in possession, any ABL Claimholders, receiver or similar Person, whether in connection with any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise, then the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied shall, for the purposes of this Agreement and the rights and obligations of the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the ABL Claimholders, be deemed to be reinstated and outstanding as if such payment had not occurred. To the extent that any interest, fees, expenses or other charges (including, without limitation, Post-Petition Interest) to be paid pursuant to the Fixed Asset Documents are disallowed by order of any court, including, without limitation, by order of a Bankruptcy Court in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, such interest, fees, expenses and charges (including, without limitation, Post-Petition Interest) shall, as between the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the ABL Claimholders, be deemed to continue to accrue and be added to the amount to be calculated as the "Fixed Asset Obligations".

OTHER AGREEMENTS.

Section 5.01. Releases. (a) (i) If in connection with the exercise of the ABL Collateral Agent's remedies in respect of any Collateral as provided for in Section 3.01, the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any of the ABL Claimholders, releases any of its Liens on any part of the ABL Priority Collateral, then the Liens, if any, of each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of the Fixed Asset Claimholders, on the ABL Priority Collateral sold or disposed of in connection with such exercise, shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released. Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any such Fixed Asset Claimholders, promptly shall execute and deliver to the ABL Collateral Agent or such Grantor such termination statements, releases and other documents as the ABL Collateral Agent or such Grantor may request to effectively confirm such release.

(ii) If in connection with the exercise of the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent's remedies in respect of any Collateral as provided for in Section 3.02, the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any of the Fixed Asset Claimholders, releases any of its Liens on any part of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, then (x) the Liens, if any, of the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of the ABL Claimholders, on the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral sold or disposed of in connection with such exercise, shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released and (y) the Liens, if any, of each Non-Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, on the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral sold or disposed of in connection with such exercise, shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released. The ABL Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any such ABL Claimholders, and each Non-Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, promptly shall execute and deliver to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or such Grantor such termination statements, releases and other documents as the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or such Grantor may request to effectively confirm such release.

(b) If in connection with any sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition of any Collateral (collectively, a " Disposition") permitted under the terms of both the ABL Credit Documents and the Fixed Asset Documents (other than in connection with the exercise of the respective Collateral Agent's rights and remedies in respect of the Collateral as provided for in Sections 3.01 and 3.02), (i) the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any of the ABL Claimholders, releases any of its Liens on any part of the ABL Priority Collateral, in each case other than (A) except with respect to Deposit Accounts, in connection with the occurrence of the Discharge of ABL Obligations or (B) after the occurrence and during the continuance of a Fixed Asset Default, then the Liens, if any, of each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, on such Collateral shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released, and (ii) the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, releases any of its Liens on any part of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, in each case other than (A) in connection with the occurrence of the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations or (B) after the occurrence and during the continuance of a ABL Default, then the Liens, if any, of (x) the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of the ABL Claimholders and (y) each Non-Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, on such Collateral (or, if such Collateral includes the Capital Stock of any Subsidiary, the Liens on Collateral owned by such Subsidiary) shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released. The ABL Collateral Agent and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, each for itself and on behalf of any such ABL Claimholders or Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, promptly shall execute and deliver to the other Collateral Agents or such Grantor such termination statements, releases and other documents as the other Collateral Agents or such Grantor may request to effectively confirm such release.

(c) Until the Discharge of ABL Obligations and Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations have occurred, the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the other Collateral Agents and any officer or agent of the other Collateral Agent, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full irrevocable power and authority in the place and stead of the other Collateral Agent or such holder or in the Collateral Agent's own name, from time to time in such Collateral Agent's discretion, for the purpose of carrying out the terms of this Section 5.01, to take any and all appropriate action and to execute any and all documents and instruments which may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Section 5.01, including any endorsements or other instruments of transfer or release.

(d) Until the Discharge of ABL Obligations and Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations have occurred, to the extent that the Collateral Agents or the ABL Claimholders or the Fixed Asset Claimholders (i) have released any Lien on Collateral and such Lien is later reinstated or (ii) obtain any new Liens from any Grantor, then each other Collateral Agent, for itself and for the ABL Claimholders or applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, shall be granted a Lien on any such Collateral, subject to the lien priority provisions of this Agreement.

Section 5.02. Insurance. (a) Unless and until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred, subject to the terms of, and the rights of the Grantors under, the ABL Credit Documents, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders agrees, that (i) in accordance with the terms of the applicable Credit Documents, the ABL Collateral Agent shall have the sole and exclusive right to adjust settlement for any insurance policy covering the ABL Priority Collateral in the event of any loss thereunder and to approve any award granted in any condemnation or similar proceeding (or any deed in lieu of condemnation) affecting such Collateral; (ii) in accordance with the terms of the applicable Credit Documents, all Proceeds of any such policy and any such award (or any payments with respect to a deed in lieu of condemnation) if in respect of such Collateral and to the extent required by the ABL Credit Documents shall be paid to the ABL Collateral Agent for the benefit of the ABL Claimholders pursuant to the terms of the ABL Credit Documents (including, without limitation, for purposes of cash collateralization of letters of credit) and thereafter, to the extent no ABL Obligations are outstanding, and subject to the rights of the Grantors under the Fixed Asset Documents, to the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents for the benefit of the Fixed Asset Claimholders to the extent required under the Fixed Asset Collateral Documents and then, to the extent no Fixed Asset Obligations are outstanding, to the owner of the subject property, such other Person as may be entitled thereto or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct, and (iii) if any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholders shall, at any time, receive any Proceeds of any such insurance policy or any such award or payment in contravention of this Agreement, it shall segregate and hold in trust and forthwith pay such Proceeds over to the ABL Collateral Agent in accordance with the terms of Section 4.02.

(b) Unless and until the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, subject to the terms of, and the rights of the Grantors under, the Fixed Asset Documents, the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent other than the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, each agrees that (i) in accordance with the terms of the applicable Credit Documents, the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the Fixed Asset Claimholders shall have the sole and exclusive right to adjust settlement for any insurance policy covering the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral in the event of any loss thereunder and to approve any award granted in any condemnation or similar proceeding (or any deed in lieu of condemnation) affecting such Collateral; (ii) in accordance with the terms of the applicable Credit Documents, all Proceeds of any such policy and any such award (or any payments with respect to a deed in lieu of condemnation) if in respect of such Collateral and to the extent required by the Fixed Asset Documents shall be paid to the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents for the benefit of the Fixed Asset Claimholders pursuant to the terms of the Fixed Asset Documents and thereafter, to the extent no Fixed Asset Obligations are outstanding, and subject to the rights of the Grantors under the ABL Credit Documents, to the ABL Collateral Agent for the benefit of the ABL Claimholders to the extent required under the ABL Collateral Documents and then, to the extent no ABL Obligations are outstanding, to the owner of the subject property, such other Person as may be entitled thereto or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct, and (iii) in accordance with the terms of the applicable Credit Documents, if the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholders shall, at any time, receive any Proceeds of any such insurance policy or any such award or payment in contravention of this Agreement, it shall segregate and hold in trust and forthwith pay such Proceeds over to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent in accordance with the terms of Section 4.02.

(c) To effectuate the foregoing, the Collateral Agents shall each receive separate lender's loss payable endorsements naming themselves as loss payee and additional insured, as their interests may appear, with respect to policies which insure Collateral hereunder. To the extent any Proceeds are received for business interruption or for any liability or indemnification and those Proceeds are not compensation for a casualty loss with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, such Proceeds shall first be applied to repay the ABL Obligations (to the extent required pursuant to the ABL Credit Agreement) and then be applied, to the extent required by the Fixed Asset Documents, to the Fixed Asset Obligations.

Section 5.03. Amendments to ABL Credit Documents and Fixed Asset Documents;

Refinancing. (a) The Fixed Asset Documents may be amended, amended and restated, replaced, supplemented or otherwise modified in accordance with their terms and the Fixed Asset Obligations may be Refinanced, in each case, without notice to, or the consent of the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders, all without affecting the lien subordination or other provisions of this Agreement; provided, however, that the holders of such Refinancing debt, or their respective agent or representative on the behalf of such holders, bind themselves in a writing addressed to the ABL Collateral Agent and any other existing Collateral Agents to the terms of this Agreement and any such amendment, supplement, modification or Refinancing shall not contravene any provision of this Agreement.

(b) The ABL Credit Documents may be amended, amended and restated, replaced, supplemented or otherwise modified in accordance with their terms and the ABL Credit Agreement may be Refinanced, in each case, without notice to, or the consent of any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or the Fixed Asset Claimholders, all without affecting the lien subordination or other provisions of this Agreement; provided, however, that the holders of such Refinancing debt, or their respective agent or representative on the behalf of such holders, bind themselves in a writing addressed to the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents to the terms of this Agreement and any such amendment, supplement, modification or Refinancing shall not contravene any provision of this Agreement.

(c) On or after any Refinancing, and the receipt of notice thereof, which notice shall include the identity of a new or replacement Collateral Agent or other agent serving the same or similar function, each existing Collateral Agent shall promptly enter into such documents and agreements (including amendments or supplements to this Intercreditor Agreement) as the Parent or such new or replacement Collateral Agent may reasonably request in order to provide to such new or replacement Collateral Agent the rights, remedies and powers and authorities contemplated hereby, in each case consistent in all respects with the terms of this Intercreditor Agreement.

(d) The ABL Collateral Agent and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent shall each use good faith efforts to notify the other parties hereto of any written amendment or modification to any ABL Loan Document or any Fixed Asset Document, as applicable, but the failure to do so shall not create a cause of action against the party failing to give such notice or create any claim or right on behalf of any third party.

Section 5.04. Bailees for Perfection. (a) Each Collateral Agent agrees to hold that part of the Collateral that is in its possession or control (or in the possession or control of its agents or bailees) to the extent that possession or control thereof is taken to perfect a Lien thereon under the UCC or PPSA, as applicable, (such Collateral being the "Pledged Collateral") as collateral agent for the ABL Claimholders or the Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, and as bailee for the other Collateral Agents (such bailment being intended, among other things, to satisfy the requirements of Sections 8-106(d)(3), 8-301(a)(2) and 9-313(c) of the UCC) and any assignee solely for the purpose of perfecting the security interest granted under the ABL Credit Documents and the Fixed Asset Documents, respectively, subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 5.04.

(b) No Collateral Agent shall have any obligation whatsoever to the other Collateral Agents, to any ABL Claimholder, or to any Fixed Asset Claimholder to ensure that the Pledged Collateral is genuine or owned by any of the Grantors or to preserve rights or benefits of any Person except as expressly set forth in this Section 5.04. The duties or responsibilities of the respective Collateral Agents under this Section 5.04 shall be limited solely to holding the Pledged Collateral as bailee in accordance with this Section 5.04 and delivering the Pledged Collateral upon an occurrence of the Discharge of ABL Obligations or Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations, as the case may be, as provided in paragraph (d) below.

(c) No Collateral Agent acting pursuant to this Section 5.04 shall have by reason of the ABL Credit Documents, the Fixed Asset Documents, this Agreement or any other document a fiduciary relationship in respect of the other Collateral Agent, or any ABL Claimholders or any Fixed Asset Claimholders.

(d) Upon the occurrence of the Discharge of ABL Obligations or the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations, as the case may be, the Collateral Agent under the debt facility which has been discharged shall deliver the remaining Pledged Collateral (if any) together with any necessary endorsements and without recourse or warranty, first, to the other Collateral Agent (for the avoidance of doubt, in the case of the Discharge of ABL Obligations, to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent) to the extent the other Obligations (other than Contingent Obligations) remain outstanding, and second, to the applicable Grantor to the extent no ABL Obligations or Fixed Asset Obligations, as the case may be, remain outstanding (in each case, so as to allow such Person to obtain possession or control of such Pledged Collateral). Each Collateral Agent further agrees, to the extent that any other Obligations (other than applicable Contingent Obligations) remain outstanding, to take all other commercially reasonable action as shall be reasonably requested by the other Collateral Agent, at the sole cost and expense of the Credit Parties, to permit such other Collateral Agent to obtain, to the extent required by the applicable ABL Credit Documents or Fixed Asset Documents, for the benefit of the ABL Claimholders or Fixed Asset Claimholders, as applicable, a first-priority interest in the Collateral or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct.

(e) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, (i) until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred, the ABL Collateral Agent shall be entitled to deal with the Pledged Collateral or Collateral within its "control" in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and other ABL Credit Documents, but only to the extent that such Collateral constitutes ABL Priority Collateral, as if the Liens of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and Fixed Asset Claimholders did not exist and (ii) until the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent shall be entitled to deal with the Pledged Collateral or Collateral within its "control" in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and other Fixed Asset Documents, but only to the extent that such Collateral constitutes Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, as if the Liens of the ABL Collateral Agent and ABL Claimholders did not exist. In furtherance of the foregoing, promptly following the occurrence of the Discharge of ABL Obligations, unless a New Debt Notice in respect of new ABL Credit Documents shall have been delivered as provided in Section 5.05 below, the ABL Collateral Agent hereby agrees to deliver, at the cost and expense of the Credit Parties, to each bank and securities intermediary, if any, that is counterparty to a deposit account control agreement or securities account control agreement, as applicable, written notice as contemplated in such deposit account control agreement or securities account control agreement, as applicable, directing such bank or securities intermediary, as applicable, to comply with the instructions of the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, unless the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred (as certified to the ABL Collateral Agent by the Parent), in which case, such deposit account control agreement or securities account control agreement, as the case may be, shall be terminated.

(f) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary:

(i) each of the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, agrees that any requirement under any ABL Collateral Document that any Grantor deliver any Collateral that constitutes Fixed Asset Priority Collateral to the ABL Collateral Agent, or that requires any Grantor to vest the ABL Collateral Agent with possession or "control" (as defined in the UCC or the PPSA, as applicable) of any Collateral that constitutes Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, in each case, shall be deemed satisfied to the extent that, prior to the occurrence of the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations (other than Contingent Obligations), such Collateral is delivered to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agents, or the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall have been vested with such possession or (unless, pursuant to the UCC or the PPSA, as applicable, control may be given concurrently to the ABL Collateral Agent and the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent) "control", in each case, subject to the provisions of Section 5.04; and

(ii) each of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees that any requirement under any Fixed Asset Collateral Document that any Grantor deliver any Collateral that constitutes Fixed Asset Priority Collateral to such Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, or that requires any Grantor to vest such Fixed Asset Collateral Agent with possession or "control" (as defined in the UCC or the PPSA, as applicable) of any Collateral that constitutes Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, in each case, shall be deemed satisfied to the extent that, prior to the occurrence of the Discharge of Initial Fixed Asset Obligations (other than Contingent Obligations), such Collateral is delivered to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, or the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent shall have been vested with such possession or (unless, pursuant to the UCC or the PPSA, as applicable), control may be given concurrently to the applicable Fixed Asset Collateral Agent and the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent) "control", in each case, subject to the provisions of Section 5.04.

Section 5.05. When Discharge of ABL Obligations and Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations Deemed to Not Have Occurred . If in connection with the Discharge of ABL Obligations or the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations, any Borrower substantially concurrently enters into any Refinancing of any ABL Obligation or Fixed Asset Obligation, as the case may be, which Refinancing is permitted by both the Fixed Asset Documents and the ABL Credit Documents, in each case, to the extent such documents will remain in effect following such Refinancing, then such Discharge of ABL Obligations or the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations, shall automatically be deemed not to have occurred for all purposes of this Agreement (other than with respect to any actions taken pursuant to this Agreement as a result of the occurrence of such Discharge of ABL Obligations or Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations, as applicable) and, from and after the date on which the New Debt Notice is delivered to the appropriate Collateral Agents in accordance with the next sentence, the obligations under such Refinancing shall automatically be treated as ABL Obligations or Fixed Asset Obligations for all purposes of this Agreement, including for purposes of the Lien priorities and rights in respect of Collateral set forth herein, and the ABL Collateral Agent or applicable Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, as the case may be, under such new ABL Credit Documents or new Fixed Asset Documents shall be the ABL Collateral Agent or a Fixed Asset Collateral Agent for all purposes of this Agreement. Upon receipt of a notice (the "New Debt Notice") stating that a Borrower has entered into new ABL Credit Documents or new Fixed Asset Documents (which notice shall include a complete copy of the relevant new documents and provide the identity of the new collateral agent, such agent, the "New Agent"), the other Collateral Agents shall promptly (a) enter into such documents and agreements (including amendments or supplements to this Agreement) as such Borrower or such New Agent shall reasonably request in order to provide to the New Agent the rights contemplated hereby, in each case consistent in all material respects with the terms of this Agreement and (b) deliver to any New Agent that is the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent at such time any Pledged Collateral (that is Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, in the case of a New Agent that is the agent under any new Fixed Asset Documents or that is ABL Priority Collateral, in the case of a New Agent that is the agent under any new ABL Credit Documents) held by it together with any necessary endorsements (or otherwise allow the New Agent to obtain control of such Pledged Collateral). The New Agent shall agree in a writing addressed to the other Collateral Agents for the benefit of the ABL Claimholders or the Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, to be bound by the terms of this Agreement. If the new ABL Obligations under the new ABL Credit Documents or the new Fixed Asset Obligations under the new Fixed Asset Documents are secured by assets of the Grantors constituting Collateral that do not also secure the other Obligations, then, unless and to the extent such Collateral is not required to be granted under the applicable Additional Fixed Asset Documents, the other Obligations shall be secured at such time by a second priority Lien on such assets to the same extent provided in the ABL Credit Documents, the Fixed Asset Collateral Documents and this Agreement.

Section 5.06. Additional Fixed Asset Debt. The Parent and the other applicable Grantors will be permitted to designate as an additional holder of Fixed Asset Obligations hereunder each Person who is, or who becomes or who is to become, the registered holder of any Additional Fixed Asset Debt incurred by the Parent or such Grantor after the date of this Agreement in accordance with the terms of all applicable Additional Fixed Asset Documents. Upon the issuance or incurrence of any such Additional Fixed Asset Debt:

(a) The Parent shall deliver to the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the ABL Collateral Agent of an officers' certificate stating that the Parent or such Grantor intends to enter into an Additional Fixed Asset Instrument and certifying that the issuance or incurrence of Additional Fixed Asset Debt under such Additional Fixed Asset Instrument is permitted by the ABL Credit Documents and each applicable Additional Fixed Asset Documents;

(b) the administrative agent or trustee and collateral agent for such Additional Fixed Asset Debt shall execute and deliver to the Collateral Agents a Joinder Agreement pursuant to which it becomes a Fixed Asset Collateral Agent hereunder, the Additional Fixed Asset Debt in respect of which such Person is a Fixed Asset Collateral Agent constitutes Fixed Asset Obligations and the related Additional Fixed Asset Claimholders become subject hereto and bound hereby as Fixed Asset Claimholders;

(c) the Fixed Asset Collateral Documents in respect of such Additional Fixed Asset Debt shall be subject to, and shall comply with, Sections 2.03 and 2.04 of this Agreement; and

(d) each existing Collateral Agent shall promptly enter into such documents and agreements (including amendments or supplements to this Intercreditor Agreement) as the Parent or the Additional Fixed Asset Collateral Agent for such Additional Fixed Asset Debt may reasonably request in order to provide to them the rights, remedies and powers and authorities contemplated hereby, in each consistent in all respects with the terms of this Intercreditor Agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement will be construed to allow the Parent or any other Grantor to incur additional indebtedness unless otherwise permitted by the terms of each applicable Credit Document.

INSOLVENCY OR LIQUIDATION PROCEEDINGS.

Section 6.01. Finance Issues. Until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred, if any Grantor shall be subject to any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding and the ABL Collateral Agent shall desire to permit the use of "Cash Collateral" (as such term is defined in Section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code) constituting ABL Priority Collateral on which the ABL Collateral Agent or any other creditor has a Lien or to permit any Grantor to obtain financing, whether from the ABL Claimholders or any other Person (whether or not secured by any ABL Priority Collateral) under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar Bankruptcy Law ("DIP Financing") then each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees that it will raise no objection to such Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing so long as such Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing meet the following requirements: (i) the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders retain the right to object to any ancillary agreements or arrangements regarding the Cash Collateral use or the DIP Financing that are materially prejudicial to their interests in the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, and (ii) the terms of the DIP Financing (A) do not compel the applicable Grantor to seek confirmation of a specific plan of reorganization for which all or substantially all of the material terms are set forth in the DIP Financing documentation or a related document, (B) do not expressly require the liquidation of the Collateral prior to a default under the DIP Financing documentation or Cash Collateral order, and (C) do not require that any Lien of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents on the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral be subordinated to or pari passu with the Lien on the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral securing such DIP Financing. To the extent the Liens securing the ABL Obligations are subordinated to or pari passu with such DIP Financing which meets the requirements of clauses (i) through (ii) above, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent will subordinate its Liens in the ABL Priority Collateral to the Liens securing such DIP Financing (and all Obligations relating thereto) and will not request adequate protection or any other relief in connection therewith (except, as expressly agreed by the ABL Collateral Agent or to the extent permitted by Section 6.03).

Section 6.02. Relief from the Automatic Stay. (a) Until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees that none of them shall seek (or support any other Person seeking) relief from the automatic stay or any other stay in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding in respect of the ABL Priority Collateral, without the prior written consent of the ABL Collateral Agent, unless a motion for adequate protection permitted under Section 6.03 has been denied by the bankruptcy court.

(b) Until the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, agrees that none of them shall seek (or support any other Person seeking) relief from the automatic stay or any other stay in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding in respect of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral (other than to the extent such relief is required to exercise its rights under Section 3.03), without the prior written consent of the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, unless a motion for adequate protection permitted under Section 6.03 has been denied by the bankruptcy court.

Section 6.03. Adequate Protection. (a) Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees that none of them shall contest (or support any other Person contesting):

(i) any request by the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders for adequate protection with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral; provided that (A) such adequate protection claim shall not seek the creation of any Lien over additional assets or property of any Grantor other than with respect to assets or property that constitute ABL Priority Collateral and (B) if such additional assets or property shall also constitute Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, (1) a Lien shall have been created in favor of the Fixed Asset Claimholders in respect of such Collateral and (2) the Lien in favor of the ABL Claimholders shall be subordinated to the extent set forth in this Agreement; or

(ii) any objection by the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders to any motion, relief, action or proceeding based on the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders claiming a lack of adequate protection; provided that if the ABL Collateral Agent is granted adequate protection in the form of additional collateral, the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders may seek or request adequate protection in the form of Lien on such additional collateral; it being understood and agreed that (A) if such additional collateral shall also constitute Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the ABL Collateral Agent shall be subordinate to the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and (B) if such additional collateral shall also constitute ABL Priority Collateral, the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the ABL Collateral Agent shall be senior to the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents, in each case with respect to the foregoing clauses (A) and (B), to the extent required by this Agreement.

(b) The ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, agrees that none of them shall contest (or support any other Person contesting):

(i) any request by the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent for adequate protection with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral; provided that (A) such adequate protection claim shall not seek the creation of any Lien over additional assets or property of any Grantor other than with respect to assets or property that constitute Fixed Asset Collateral and (B) if such additional assets or property shall also constitute ABL Priority Collateral, (1) a Lien shall have been created in favor of the ABL Claimholders in respect of such Collateral and (2) the Lien in favor of the Fixed Asset Claimholders shall be subordinated to the extent set forth in this Agreement; or

(ii) any objection by the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent to any motion, relief, action or proceeding based on the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent claiming a lack of adequate protection; provided that if the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents are granted adequate protection in the form of additional collateral, the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders may seek or request adequate protection in the form of Lien on such additional collateral; it being understood and agreed that (A) if such additional collateral shall also constitute ABL Priority Collateral, the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall be subordinate to the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the ABL Collateral Agent and (B) if such additional collateral shall also constitute Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall be senior to the Lien on such additional collateral in favor of the ABL Collateral Agent, in each case with respect to the foregoing clauses (A) and (B), to the extent required by this Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions in this Section 6.03, in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding:

(i) if the ABL Claimholders (or any subset thereof) are granted adequate protection with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral in the form of additional collateral of the Credit Parties (even if such collateral is not of a type which would otherwise have constituted ABL Priority Collateral) in connection with any Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing, then the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself or any of the Fixed Asset Claimholders, may seek or request adequate protection with respect to its interests in such Collateral in the form of a Lien on the same additional collateral, which Lien will be subordinated to the Liens securing the ABL Obligations and such Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing (and all Obligations relating thereto) on the same basis as the other Liens of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents on ABL Priority Collateral;

(ii) if the Fixed Asset Claimholders (or any subset thereof) are granted adequate protection with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral in the form of additional collateral of the Credit Parties (even if such collateral is not of a type which would otherwise have constituted Fixed Asset Priority Collateral) in connection with any Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing, then the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself or any of the ABL Claimholders, may seek or request adequate protection with respect to its interests in such Collateral in the form of a Lien on the same additional collateral, which Lien will be subordinated to the Liens securing the Fixed Asset Obligations and such Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing (and all Obligations relating thereto) on the same basis as the other Liens of the ABL Collateral Agent on Fixed Asset Priority Collateral;

(iii) in the event the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself or any of the ABL Claimholders, seeks or requests adequate protection in respect of ABL Priority Collateral and such adequate protection is granted in the form of additional collateral of the Credit Parties (even if such collateral is not of a type which would otherwise have constituted ABL Priority Collateral), then the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and any of the ABL Claimholders, agrees that the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents may also be granted a Lien on the same additional collateral as security for the Fixed Asset Obligations and for any Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing provided by the Fixed Asset Claimholders, and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and any of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees that any Lien on such additional collateral securing the Fixed Asset Obligations shall be subordinated to the Liens on such collateral securing the ABL Obligations, any such use of Cash Collateral or any such DIP Financing provided by the Fixed Asset Claimholders (and all Obligations relating thereto) and to any other Liens granted to the Fixed Asset Claimholders as adequate protection, all on the same basis as the other Liens of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents on ABL Priority Collateral; and

(iv) in the event any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself or any of the Fixed Asset Claimholders, seeks or requests adequate protection in respect of Fixed Asset Priority Collateral and such adequate protection is granted in the form of additional collateral of the Credit Parties (even if such collateral is not of a type which would otherwise have constituted Fixed Asset Priority Collateral), then each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and any of the Fixed Asset

Claimholders, agrees that the ABL Collateral Agent may also be granted a Lien on the same additional collateral as security for the ABL Obligations and for any Cash Collateral use or DIP Financing provided by the ABL Claimholders, and the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and any of the ABL Claimholders, agrees that any Lien on such additional collateral securing the ABL Obligations shall be subordinated to the Liens on such collateral securing the Fixed Asset Obligations, any such use of cash Collateral or any such DIP Financing provided by the ABL Claimholders (and all Obligations relating thereto) and to any other Liens granted to the ABL Claimholders as adequate protection, all on the same basis as the other Liens of the ABL Collateral Agent on Fixed Asset Priority Collateral.

(d) Except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Article 6 or in connection with the exercise of remedies with respect to (i) the ABL Priority Collateral, nothing herein shall limit the rights of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents or the Fixed Asset Claimholders from seeking adequate protection with respect to their rights in the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding (including adequate protection in the form of a cash payment, periodic cash payments or otherwise) or (ii) the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, nothing herein shall limit the rights of the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders from seeking adequate protection with respect to their rights in the ABL Priority Collateral in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding (including adequate protection in the form of a cash payment, periodic cash payments or otherwise).

Section 6.04. Avoidance Issues. If any ABL Claimholder or Fixed Asset Claimholder is required in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise to turn over or otherwise pay to the estate of the applicable Grantor any amount paid in respect of ABL Obligations or the Fixed Asset Obligations, as the case may be (a "Recovery"), then such ABL Claimholders or Fixed Asset Claimholders shall be entitled to a reinstatement of ABL Obligations or the Fixed Asset Obligations, as the case may be, with respect to all such recovered amounts. If this Agreement shall have been terminated prior to such Recovery, this Agreement shall be reinstated in full force and effect, and such prior termination shall not diminish, release, discharge, impair or otherwise affect the obligations of the parties hereto from such date of reinstatement.

Section 6.05. Post-Petition Interest. (a) No Fixed Asset Collateral Agent nor any Fixed Asset Claimholder shall oppose or seek to challenge any claim by the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholder for allowance in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding of ABL Obligations consisting of Post-Petition Interest, fees or expenses to the extent of the value of the Lien securing any ABL Claimholder's claim, without regard to the existence of the Lien of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agent on behalf of the Fixed Asset Claimholders on the Collateral.

(b) Neither the ABL Collateral Agent nor any other ABL Claimholder shall oppose or seek to challenge any claim by any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholder for allowance in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding of Fixed Asset Obligations consisting of Post-Petition Interest, fees or expenses to the extent of the value of the Lien securing any Fixed Asset Claimholder's claim, without regard to the existence of the Lien of the ABL Collateral Agent on behalf of the ABL Claimholders on the Collateral.

Section 6.06. Waiver – 1111(b)(2) Issues. (a) Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, waives any claim it may hereafter have against any ABL Claimholder arising out of the election of any ABL Claimholder of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code or out of any grant of a security interest in connection with the ABL Priority Collateral in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding.

(b) The ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, waives any claim it may hereafter have against any Fixed Asset Claimholder arising out of the election of any Fixed Asset Claimholder of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code or out of any grant of a security interest in connection with the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding.

Section 6.07. Separate Grants of Security and Separate Classification. (a) Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, and the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, acknowledges and agrees that the grants of Liens pursuant to the ABL Collateral Documents and the Fixed Asset Collateral Documents constitute separate and distinct grants of Liens, and because of, among other things, their differing rights in the Collateral, the Fixed Asset Obligations are fundamentally different from the ABL Obligations and must be separately classified in any plan of reorganization proposed or adopted in an Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, each for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, and the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, each agrees that the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the ABL Claimholders will vote as separate classes in connection with any plan of reorganization in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding and that no Collateral Agent nor any Claimholder will seek to vote with the other as a single class in connection with any plan of reorganization in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding.

(b) To further effectuate the intent of the parties as provided in this Section 6.07, if it is held that the claims of the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the ABL Claimholders in respect of the Fixed Asset Collateral constitute only one secured claim (rather than separate classes of senior and junior secured claims), then each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders and the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, hereby acknowledges and agrees that, subject to 2.01 and 4.01, all distributions shall be made as if there were separate classes of senior and junior secured claims against the Grantors in respect of the Fixed Asset Collateral (with the effect being that, to the extent that the aggregate value of the Fixed Asset Collateral is sufficient (for this purpose ignoring all claims held by the ABL Claimholders), the Fixed Asset Claimholders shall be entitled to receive, in addition to amounts distributed to them in respect of principal, pre-petition interest and other claims, all amounts owing in respect of Post-Petition Interest, including any additional interest payable pursuant to the Fixed Asset Documents, arising from or related to a default, which is disallowed as a claim in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding) before any distribution is made in respect of the claims held by the ABL Claimholders, with the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, hereby acknowledging and agreeing to turn over to the Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the Non-Controlling Fixed Asset Collateral Agent and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, amounts otherwise received or receivable by them to the extent necessary to effectuate the intent of this sentence, even if such turnover has the effect of reducing the claim or recovery of the ABL Claimholders).

(c) To further effectuate the intent of the parties as provided in this Section 6.07, if it is held that the claims of the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the ABL Claimholders in respect of the ABL Collateral constitute only one secured claim (rather than separate classes of senior and junior secured claims), then each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders and the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, hereby acknowledges and agrees that, subject to Sections 2.01 and 4.01, all distributions shall be made as if there were separate classes of senior and junior secured claims against the Grantors in respect of the ABL Collateral (with the effect being that, to the extent that the aggregate value of the ABL Collateral is sufficient (for this purpose ignoring all claims held by the Fixed Asset Claimholders), the ABL Claimholders shall be entitled to receive, in addition to amounts distributed to them in respect of principal, pre-petition interest and other claims, all amounts owing in respect of Post-Petition Interest, including any additional interest payable pursuant to the ABL Credit Agreement, arising from or related to a default, which is disallowed as a claim in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding) before any distribution is made in respect of the claims held by the Fixed Asset Claimholders, with each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, hereby acknowledging and agreeing to turn over to the ABL Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the ABL Claimholders, amounts otherwise received or receivable by them to the extent necessary to effectuate the intent of this sentence, even if such turnover has the effect of reducing the claim or recovery of the Fixed Asset Claimholders).

(d) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing to the contrary, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, on the one hand, and the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders, on the other hand, shall retain the right to vote and otherwise act in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding (including the right to vote to accept or reject any plan of reorganization) to the extent not inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Section 6.08. Enforceability and Continuing Priority. This Agreement shall be applicable both before and after the commencement of any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding and all converted or succeeding cases in respect thereof. The relative rights of Claimholders in or to any distributions from or in respect of any Collateral or Proceeds of Collateral shall continue after the commencement of any Insolvency Proceeding.

Accordingly, the provisions of this Agreement (including, without limitation, Section 2.01 hereof) are intended to be and shall be enforceable as a subordination agreement within the meaning of Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Section 6.09. Sales. Subject to Sections 3.01(c)(v) and 3.02(c)(v) and 3.03, each Collateral Agent agrees that it will consent, and will not object or oppose, or support any party in opposing, a motion to dispose of any Priority Collateral of the other party free and clear of any Liens or other claims under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code if the requisite ABL Claimholders under the ABL Credit Agreement or Fixed Asset Claimholders under the applicable Fixed Asset Documents, as the case may be, have consented to such disposition of their respective Priority Collateral, such motion does not impair, subject to the priorities set forth in this Agreement, the rights of such party under Section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code (so long as the right of any Fixed Asset Claimholder to offset its claim against the purchase price for any ABL Priority Collateral exists only after the ABL Obligations have been paid in full in cash, and so long as the right of any ABL Claimholder to offset its claim against the purchase price for any Fixed Asset Priority Collateral exists only after the Fixed Asset Obligations have been paid in full in cash), and the terms of any proposed order approving such transaction provide for the respective Liens to attach to the proceeds of the Priority Collateral that is the subject of such disposition, subject to the Lien priorities in Section 2.01 and the other terms and conditions of this Agreement. Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent and the ABL Collateral Agent further agrees that it will not oppose, or support any party in opposing, the right of the other party to credit bid under Section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to the provision of the immediately preceding sentence.

RELIANCE; WAIVERS, ETC.

Section 7.01. Reliance. Other than any reliance on the terms of this Agreement, the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders under its ABL Credit Documents, acknowledges that it and such ABL Claimholders have, independently and without reliance on any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any Fixed Asset Claimholders, and based on documents and information deemed by them appropriate, made their own credit analysis and decision to enter into such ABL Credit Documents and be bound by the terms of this Agreement and they will continue to make their own credit decision in taking or not taking any action under the ABL Credit Agreement or this Agreement. Other than any reliance on the terms of this Agreement, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, acknowledges that it and the Fixed Asset Claimholders have, independently and without reliance on the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholder, and based on documents and information deemed by them appropriate, made their own credit analysis and decision to enter into each of the Fixed Asset Documents and be bound by the terms of this Agreement and they will continue to make their own credit decision in taking or not taking any action under the Fixed Asset Documents or this Agreement.

Section 7.02. No Warranties or Liability. The ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of

No Fixed Asset Collateral Agent nor any Fixed Asset Claimholders shall have any duty to the ABL Collateral Agent or any of the ABL Claimholders, and the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders shall have no duty to any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or any of the Fixed Asset Claimholders, to act or refrain from acting in a manner which allows, or results in, the occurrence or continuance of an event of default or default under any agreements with any Grantor (including the ABL Credit Documents and the Fixed Asset Documents), regardless of any knowledge thereof which they may have or be charged with.

Section 7.03. No Waiver of Lien Priorities . (a) No right of the Collateral Agents, the ABL Claimholders or the Fixed Asset Claimholders to enforce any provision of this Agreement or any ABL Credit Document or Fixed Asset Document shall at any time in any way be prejudiced or impaired by any act or failure to act on the part of any Grantor or by any act or failure to act by such Collateral Agents, ABL Claimholders or Fixed Asset Claimholders or by any noncompliance by any Person with the terms, provisions and covenants of this Agreement, any of the ABL Credit Documents or any of the Fixed Asset Documents, regardless of any knowledge thereof which the Collateral Agents or the ABL Claimholders or Fixed Asset Claimholders, or any of them, may have or be otherwise charged with.

other benefits provided in this Agreement (even if any right of subrogation or other right or remedy is affected, impaired or extinguished thereby) do any one or more of the following:

(i) change the manner, place or terms of payment or change or extend the time of payment of, or amend, renew, exchange, increase or alter, the terms of any of the Obligations or any Lien or guaranty thereof or any liability of any Grantor, or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof (including any increase in or extension of the Obligations, without any restriction as to the tenor or terms of any such increase or extension) or otherwise amend, renew, exchange, extend, modify or supplement in any manner any Liens held by the Collateral Agents or any rights or remedies under any of the ABL Credit Documents or the Fixed Asset Documents;

(iv) exercise or delay in or refrain from exercising any right or remedy against any security or any Grantor or any other Person, elect any remedy and otherwise deal freely with any Grantor.

(c) Except as otherwise provided herein, the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, also agrees that the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall have no liability to the ABL Collateral Agent or any ABL Claimholders, and the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, hereby waives any claim against any Fixed Asset Claimholder or any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, arising out of any and all actions which the Fixed Asset Claimholders or any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent may take or permit or omit to take with respect to:

(i) the Fixed Asset Documents;

(ii) the collection of the Fixed Asset Obligations; or

(iii) the foreclosure upon, or sale, liquidation or other disposition of, any Fixed Asset Collateral.

The ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, agrees that the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents have no duty to them in respect of the maintenance or preservation of the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral, the Fixed Asset Obligations or otherwise.

(d) Except as otherwise provided herein, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, also agrees that the ABL Claimholders and the ABL Collateral Agent shall have no liability to the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents or any Fixed Asset Claimholders, and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, hereby waives any claim against any ABL Claimholder or the ABL Collateral Agent, arising out of any and all actions which the ABL Claimholders or the ABL Collateral Agent may take or permit or omit to take with respect to:

(i) the ABL Credit Documents;

(iii) the foreclosure upon, or sale, liquidation or other disposition of, any ABL Collateral.

Each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees that the ABL Claimholders and the ABL Collateral Agent have no duty to them in respect of the maintenance or preservation of the ABL Priority Collateral, the ABL Obligations or otherwise.

(e) Until the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, agrees not to assert and hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right to demand, request, plead or otherwise assert or otherwise claim the benefit of, any marshalling, appraisal, valuation or other similar right that may otherwise be available under applicable law with respect to the Fixed Asset Priority Collateral or any other similar rights a junior secured creditor may have under applicable law.

(f) Until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, agrees not to assert and hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right to demand, request, plead or otherwise assert or otherwise claim the benefit of, any marshalling, appraisal, valuation or other similar right that may otherwise be available under applicable law with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral or any other similar rights a junior secured creditor may have under applicable law.

Section 7.04. Obligations Unconditional. All rights, interests, agreements and obligations of the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, respectively, hereunder shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of:

(a) any lack of validity or enforceability of any ABL Credit Documents or any Fixed Asset Documents;

(b) except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Agreement, any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other terms of, all or any of the ABL Obligations or Fixed Asset Obligations, or any amendment or waiver or other modification, including any increase in the amount thereof, whether by course of conduct or otherwise, of the terms of any ABL Credit Document or any Fixed Asset Document;

MISCELLANEOUS.

Section 8.01. Conflicts. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of any ABL Credit Document or any Fixed Asset Document, the provisions of this Agreement shall govern and control.

Section 8.02. Effectiveness; Continuing Nature of this Agreement; Severability . This Agreement shall become effective when executed and delivered by the parties hereto. This is a continuing agreement of lien subordination and the ABL Claimholders and Fixed Asset Claimholders may continue, at any time and without notice to any Collateral Agent, to extend credit and other financial accommodations and lend monies to or for the benefit of any Grantor in reliance hereon. Each of the Collateral Agents, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders or the Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be, hereby waives any right it may have under applicable law to revoke this Agreement or any of the provisions of this Agreement. The terms of this Agreement shall survive, and shall continue in full force and effect, in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding. Consistent with, but not in limitation of, the preceding sentence, each Collateral Agent, on behalf of the applicable Claimholders, irrevocably acknowledges that this Agreement constitutes a "subordination agreement" within the meaning of both New York law and Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction. All references to any Grantor shall include such Grantor as debtor and debtor-in-possession and any receiver or trustee for any Grantor (as the case may be) in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding. This Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force and effect:

(a) with respect to the ABL Collateral Agent, the ABL Claimholders and the ABL Obligations has occurred, on the date the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occured, subject to the rights of the ABL Claimholders under Section 6.04; and

(b) with respect to the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents, the Fixed Asset Claimholders and the Fixed Asset Obligations, on the date the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred, subject to the rights of the Fixed Asset Claimholders under Section 6.04.

Section 8.03. Amendments; Waivers. No amendment, modification or waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement by any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or the ABL Collateral Agent shall be deemed to be made unless the same shall be in writing signed on behalf of each party hereto or its authorized agent and each waiver, if any, shall be a waiver only with respect to the specific instance involved and shall in no way impair the rights of the parties making such waiver or the obligations of the other parties to such party in any other respect or at any other time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Grantor shall have any right to consent to or approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement except to the extent that such amendment, modification or waiver (i) adversely affects or impairs its rights hereunder, under the Fixed Asset Documents or under the ABL Credit Documents or (ii) imposes any additional obligation or liability upon it.

Section 8.04. Information Concerning Financial Condition of the Grantors and their Subsidiaries . The ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders, on the one hand, and the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, on the other hand, shall each be responsible for keeping themselves informed of (a) the financial condition of the Grantors and their Subsidiaries and all endorsers and/or guarantors of the ABL Obligations or the Fixed Asset Obligations and (b) all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the ABL Obligations or the Fixed Asset Obligations. Neither the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders, on the one hand, nor the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, on the other hand, shall have any duty to advise the other of information known to it or them regarding such condition or any such circumstances or otherwise. In the event that either the ABL Collateral Agent or any of the ABL Claimholders, on the one hand, or any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent and the Fixed Asset Claimholders, on the other hand, undertakes at any time or from time to time to provide any such information to any of the others, it or they shall be under no obligation:

(c) to make, and shall not make, any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the accuracy, completeness, truthfulness or validity of any such information so provided;

(d) to provide any additional information or to provide any such information on any subsequent occasion;

(e) to undertake any investigation; or

(f) to disclose any information, which pursuant to accepted or reasonable commercial finance practices, such party wishes to maintain confidential or is otherwise required to maintain confidential.

Section 8.05. Subrogation. (a) With respect to the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets that any of the Fixed Asset Claimholders or any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent pays over to the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders under the terms of this Agreement, the Fixed Asset Claimholders and Fixed Asset Collateral Agents shall be subrogated to the rights of the ABL Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders; provided, however, that, each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, hereby agrees not to assert or enforce all such rights of subrogation it may acquire as a result of any payment hereunder until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred. The Grantors acknowledge and agree that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets received by any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or the Fixed Asset Claimholders that are paid over to the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders pursuant to this Agreement shall not reduce any of the Fixed Asset Obligations.

(b) With respect to the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets that any of the ABL Claimholders or the ABL Collateral Agent pays over to any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or the Fixed Asset Claimholders under the terms of this Agreement, the ABL Claimholders and the ABL Collateral Agent shall be subrogated to the rights of the Fixed Asset Collateral Agents and the Fixed Asset Claimholders; provided, however, that, the ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, hereby agrees not to assert or enforce all such rights of subrogation it may acquire as a result of any payment hereunder until the Discharge of Fixed Asset Obligations has occurred. The ABL Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the ABL Claimholders, and each Fixed Asset Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the applicable Fixed Asset Claimholders, hereby irrevocably waive any defense based on the adequacy of a remedy at law and any other defense which might be asserted to bar the remedy of specific performance in any action which may be brought by the ABL Collateral Agent or the ABL Claimholders or any Fixed Asset Collateral Agent or the Fixed Asset Claimholders, as the case may be.

W I T N E S S E T H :

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to amend the Credit Agreement as set forth herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto agree as follows:

SECTION 1 .Defined Terms; References. Unless otherwise specifically defined herein, each term used herein that is defined in the Credit Agreement has the meaning assigned to such term in the Credit Agreement. Each reference to "hereof", "hereunder", "herein" and "hereby" and each other similar reference and each reference to "this Agreement" and each other similar reference contained in the Credit Agreement shall, after this Amendment becomes effective, refer to the Credit Agreement as amended hereby.

SECTION 2 . Definition of Eligible Inventory. The definition of "Eligible Inventory" in Section 1.01 of the Credit Agreement is amended to:

(a) replace clause (iv) of the fourth sentence thereof with the following:

(A) is placed on consignment, unless a valid consignment agreement which is reasonably satisfactory to Administrative Agent is in place with respect to such Inventory or (B) is in transit (except to the extent such Inventory (x)(1) is purchased under documentary letters of credit (other than Letters of Credit) and is in transit from any location in the United States or Canada for receipt by a Borrower within fifteen (15) days of the date of determination or (2) is in transit from any location outside of the United States or Canada for receipt by a Borrower within 60 days of the date of determination) and constitutes Eligible In-Transit Inventory, or (y) is in transit between locations leased, owned or occupied by a Borrower);

(b) replace clause (v) of the fourth sentence thereof with the following:

is covered by a negotiable document of title, unless such inventory is Eligible In-Transit Inventory or such document of title has been delivered to the Administrative Agent with all necessary endorsements, free and clear of all Liens except Liens in favor of landlords, carriers, bailees and warehousemen if clause (iii) has been complied with;

SECTION 3 . Definition of Eligible In-Transit Inventory. Section 1.01 of the Credit Agreement is amended to add the following definition in the appropriate alphanumeric order:

"Eligible In-Transit Inventory" shall mean Inventory owned by a Borrower that would be Eligible Inventory if it were not subject to a negotiable document of title and in transit from a foreign location to a location of the Borrower within the United States, and that the Administrative Agent, in its Permitted Discretion, deems to be Eligible In-Transit Inventory. Without limiting the foregoing, (a) no Inventory shall be Eligible In-Transit Inventory unless it (i) is fully insured in a manner reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent; (ii) it is not sold by a vendor that has a right to reclaim, divert shipment of, repossess, stop delivery, reserve title or otherwise enjoy Lien rights against the Inventory, or with respect to whom any Borrower is in default of any material obligations; (iii) it is subject to purchase orders and other sale documentation reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, and title has passed to the relevant Borrower; (iv) it is shipped by a common carrier that is not affiliated with the vendor and is not subject to any Sanction or on any specially designated nationals list maintained by OFAC; and (v) it is being handled by a customs broker, freight-forwarder or other handler that has delivered a Lien Waiver; and (b) no Inventory shall be Eligible in-Transit Inventory following the occurrence of a Liquidity Event unless it (i) satisfies all of the conditions set forth in the foregoing clause (a) and (ii) is subject to a negotiable document of title showing the Administrative Agent (or, with the consent of the Administrative Agent, the applicable Borrower) as consignee, which document of title is in the possession of the Administrative Agent or such other Person as the Administrative Agent shall approve.

SECTION 4 . Definition of Lien Waiver. Section 1.01 of the Credit Agreement is amended to add the following definition in the appropriate alphanumeric order:

"Lien Waiver" shall mean an agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, by which, for any Collateral held by a warehouseman, processor, shipper, customs broker or freight forwarder, such Person waives or subordinates any Lien it may have on the Collateral, agrees to hold any documents of title in its possession relating to the Collateral as agent for the Collateral Agent, and agrees to deliver the Collateral to the Collateral Agent upon request.

SECTION 5 . FATCA Grandfathered Status. Section 4.01(a) of the Credit Agreement is amended to add the following clause as a separate second paragraph:

Solely for purposes of determining withholding Taxes imposed under FATCA, from and after the effective date of the Amendment, the Borrower and the Administrative Agent shall treat (and the Lenders hereby authorize the Administrative Agent to treat) the Agreement as not qualifying as a "grandfathered obligation" within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.1471-2(b)(2)(i).

SECTION 6 . Representations of Parent and Borrowers. The Parent and each of the Borrowers represents and warrants that (i) the representations and warranties of the Parent and Borrowers set forth in Article 7 of the Credit Agreement are true and correct as of the date hereof and (ii) no Default will have occurred and be continuing on such date.

SECTION 7 . Governing Law. This Amendment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

SECTION 8 . Counterparts. This Amendment may be signed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument.

2.2. Licensee will only use the Licensed Mark on Licensed Apparel and Advertising Materials for Licensed Apparel that prominently bear Hockey and Skating Indicia. Hockey and Skating Indicia must be displayed on Licensed Apparel in a manner that will allow both the Hockey and Skating Indicia and the Licensed Mark to reside on the same plane of the Licensed Apparel, such that a consumer looking at the Licensed Apparel from a front, back or side view would observe both the Hockey and Skating Indicia and the Licensed Mark (for example, on a t-shirt, the Hockey and Skating Indicia and the Licensed Mark must both reside on the front, the back or the same side of the t-shirt); provided, however, that in the event of an assignment of this Agreement to a NIKE Competitor pursuant to Section 11.2, Hockey and Skating Indicia required to be prominently used on Licensed Apparel bearing the Licensed Mark and Advertising Materials for such Licensed Apparel pursuant to Section 1.9 and this Section 2.2 will, in addition to the foregoing requirements, be: (a) in the case of Licensed Apparel, (i) displayed no more than twelve (12) inches from the most prominent instance of the Licensed Mark on each plane, and (ii) at least one-half (1/2) the size of the largest instance of the Licensed Mark displayed on the same plane(s) of the Licensed Apparel as such Hockey and Skating Indicia; and (b) in the case of visual or printed Advertising Materials for Licensed Apparel, (i) displayed on the same plane or frame as each of the first instance and the largest instance of the Licensed Mark in the visual or printed Advertising Materials, and (ii) in each case, at least one-half (1/2) the size of the largest instance of the Licensed Mark appearing on such plane or frame. For the purpose of clarification, nothing in this Agreement will be deemed to prevent Licensee from using, on or in connection with any product or service during the Term or at any time thereafter, any graphic associated with the Licensed Mark (provided that such graphic does not contain the word "VAPOR") or the letter "V" by itself, provided that such use does not violate Sections 4.3(a) or 4.3(b). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Parties agree that Licensee will, within eighteen (18) months after the Agreement Effective Date, (x) discontinue the manufacture, production, assembly, marketing, promotion, distribution, provision, offering to sell, and sale of Licensed Apparel (other than Shower Sandals), and the use of Advertising Materials for Licensed Apparel (other than Shower Sandals), that are not in compliance with this Section 2.2; and (y) cause third parties to discontinue on its behalf the manufacture, production, and assembly of Licensed Apparel (other than Shower Sandals), and the use of Advertising Materials for Licensed Apparel (other than Shower Sandals), that are not in compliance with this Section 2.2. At the end of such eighteen (18) month period, Licensee will destroy or otherwise dispose of any remaining Licensed Apparel (other than Shower Sandals) and Advertising Materials for Licensed Apparel (other than Shower Sandals) that are not in compliance with this Section 2.2.

2.3. Licensee has the right to sublicense its right to use the Licensed Mark to its Affiliates, to third parties and to any Receiver, and to delegate to and permit any Receiver to assume Licensee's rights and obligations under this Agreement, in each case solely in connection with the manufacture, production, assembly, marketing, promotion, distribution, provision, offering to sell and sale of Licensed Products on behalf of Licensee or for the benefit of any Creditor in the realization of any security interest granted to such Creditor, whether in respect of Licensee's right, title and interest under this Agreement or in respect of any Licensed Product or Advertising Materials; provided, however, that Licensee may not sublicense its rights pursuant to this Section 2.3 to any NIKE Competitor, except (a) to an Affiliate of Licensee constituting a NIKE Competitor which at the time such Person became an Affiliate of Licensee, such Person was not a NIKE Competitor, or (b) in the event of an assignment of this Agreement to a NIKE Competitor pursuant to Section 11.2. Licensee (i) will be responsible for ensuring that its sublicensees' use of the Licensed Mark complies with all the requirements and obligations of Licensee hereunder, and (ii) as between NIKE and Licensee, assumes all responsibility for any actions and omissions of any sublicensees relating to the use of the Licensed Mark and the manufacture, production, assembly, marketing, promotion, distribution, provision, offering to sell and sale of Licensed Products. Licensee's rights and obligations under the license granted in Section 2.1 will not be assigned, delegated, sublicensed, or otherwise transferred in any way in whole or in part, except as provided in this Section 2.3 or in Section 11.2.

2.4. Nothing contained in this Agreement will in any way limit the right of NIKE or its Affiliates to (a) use the Licensed Mark on or in connection with products (including leisurewear, casual wear and accessories manufactured for or marketed to general athletic consumers, but excluding Licensed Products) or services which are manufactured by or for NIKE and/or any of its Affiliates and which are promoted, distributed, provided, marketed, advertised or sold anywhere in the world, or (b) license to others the right to do the same solely on behalf of NIKE; provided, however, that in consideration of the foregoing, neither NIKE nor its Affiliates will manufacture, produce, assemble, market, promote, distribute, provide, offer for sale or sell, or grant licenses to third parties to manufacture, produce, assemble, market, promote, distribute, provide, offer for sale or sell, Licensed Products under the Licensed Mark during the Term.

2.5. Each Party will give the other Party prompt written notice upon becoming aware of any instances it reasonably believes may constitute confusion in the marketplace based on NIKE's and Licensee's respective uses of the Licensed Mark. In the event of actual confusion, the Parties will work together in good faith to limit such confusion.

2.6. NIKE, Inc. and NIL are entering into this single license agreement for the convenience of the Parties. Although Licensee's rights and obligations with respect to NIKE, Inc. and NIL are separate, wherever this Agreement creates rights in favor of, or obligations on the part of, "NIKE," NIKE, Inc. and NIL will act jointly unless the context requires otherwise or unless NIKE, Inc. or NIL reasonably requests separate treatment, and Licensee will be entitled to treat them as a single entity when performing Licensee's obligations or exercising Licensee's rights. In no event will the licenses from NIKE under this Agreement reduce Licensee's rights beyond what they would have been had NIKE, Inc. and NIL entered into separate license agreements with Licensee, except that if Licensee breaches this Agreement as to either NIKE, Inc. or NIL, Licensee will be deemed to have breached this Agreement as to both NIKE, Inc. and NIL collectively, and both NIKE, Inc. and NIL will be entitled to exercise their respective rights and remedies even if the breach related only to one of them provided, however, that in no event will there be any duplication of damages.

3. RESTRICTION ON MANUFACTURING OR OTHER RELATIONSHIPS WITH COMPETITORS.

Buyer represents that, as of the date of this Agreement, it currently has no business relationships with any NIKE Competitors other than entities that design, manufacture, market or distribute products with the brand names listed on Exhibit D.

4. RECOGNITION OF OWNERSHIP AND TRADEMARK USE.

4.1. Licensee will use the Licensed Mark only to manufacture, produce, assemble, market, promote, distribute, provide, offer to sell and sell Licensed Products for the purposes set out in, and on the terms and conditions of, this Agreement, and for no other purpose.

4.2. Licensee hereby acknowledges that, as between Licensee and NIKE and its Affiliates, the Licensed Mark, the registrations and applications for registration thereof, the distinctive features thereof and the goodwill attaching thereto are the exclusive property of NIKE and its Affiliates throughout the world, and that no rights, title or interest therein, except the limited license and rights set forth in Section 2, are transferred to Licensee by this Agreement and that any and all prior and future uses by Licensee of the Licensed Mark will inure to the sole benefit of NIKE.

4.3. Licensee will not, at any time during the Term or following termination for any reason, (a) use any marks that would constitute an infringement of NIKE's rights in the Licensed Mark; (b) use the Licensed Mark in any manner that may reflect adversely on the Licensed Mark, on the good name of NIKE, its Affiliates or any of their programs or policies; or (c) use the Licensed Mark on or in connection with any Licensed Products or Advertising Materials that also bear a trademark, logo, trade name, or other designation owned by a NIKE Competitor; provided, however, that in the event of an assignment of this Agreement to a NIKE Competitor pursuant to Section 11.2, (i) such assignee will remain a NIKE Competitor for the purposes of the foregoing clause (c) with respect to the use of the Licensed Mark on or in connection with any Licensed Products that also bear a trademark, logo, trade name, or other designation owned by a NIKE Competitor, including such assignee (other than any trademark, logo, trade name or other designation owned by Licensee or any of its Affiliates prior to, and assigned, transferred or licensed to such assignee in connection with, a Licensee Change of Control resulting in an assignment of this Agreement to a NIKE Competitor pursuant to Section 11.2), and (ii) such assignee's use of the Licensed Mark on or in connection with Advertising Materials will be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Exhibit E, in addition to the applicable restrictions already imposed by Section 2.2. In no event will the foregoing clause (c) prohibit Licensee from sublicensing to unaffiliated Persons (that are not NIKE Competitors) the right to use the Licensed Mark solely in such unaffiliated Persons' Advertising Materials to market and promote Licensed Products on behalf of Licensee, where such unaffiliated Persons' Advertising Materials may also display the marks of NIKE Competitors to market and promote products of such NIKE Competitors, including, by way of example, in any store catalogs or print advertisements marketing and promoting the Licensed Products and the products of a NIKE Competitor, provided that such Advertising Materials may not imply any co-branding or cooperative relationship among (i) Licensee and the Licensed Products, and (ii) NIKE Competitors and products sold by NIKE Competitors, except in the event of any assignment of this Agreement to a NIKE Competitor pursuant to Section 11.2, and then only in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in Exhibit E. Licensee will not directly or indirectly contest, or aid others in contesting, or do anything that might impair the validity of, the Licensed Mark or NIKE's exclusive ownership of the Licensed Mark.

4.4. Licensee will not at any time register or cause to be registered, in any country, state, or any other jurisdiction throughout the world: (a) the Licensed Mark; (b) any mark that contains the Licensed Mark; (c) any mark that would constitute an infringement of NIKE's rights in the Licensed Mark; or (d) any mark that would constitute an infringement of NIKE's rights in any other mark owned by NIKE and/or its Affiliates.

4.5. Licensee will attach to the Licensed Products all such care and content labeling as is required by applicable federal, state and local law.

5. QUALITY STANDARDS AND INSPECTION.

5.1. Each Licensed Product, and all packaging therefor, will (a) materially comply with applicable laws, (b) be free from material defects, and (c) be of a quality consistent with other products manufactured by or for Licensee.

5.2. Licensee will implement and maintain a monitoring and quality control system to ensure that the Licensed Products and their packaging comply with Licensee's warranty in Section 5.1. The Parties agree that any monitoring and quality control system implemented and maintained by Licensee as of the Agreement Effective Date, will be deemed to comply with this Section 5.2.

5.3. Upon NIKE's request, upon at least ten (10) Business Days notice by NIKE to Licensee, and no more than once per year, Licensee will submit to NIKE (at NIKE's cost) one (1) random sample each of three (3) Licensed Products (and their packaging) taken from regular production, and accompanying Advertising Materials, so that NIKE can evaluate the quality of the Licensed Products and Licensee's use of the Licensed Mark on the Licensed Products, packaging and Advertising Materials.

5.4. Licensee will comply, to the fullest extent possible, with any full or partial mandatory product recall required by applicable law that applies, in whole or in part, to the Licensed Products.

5.5. Licensee will use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that each Facility manufacturing or producing finished goods will at all times materially comply with all applicable laws. The Parties agree that all of the Facilities in use as of the Agreement Effective Date materially comply with the applicable laws.

5.6. During the Term, an independent third-party inspector mutually agreed to by the Parties will have the right, during normal business hours, upon at least fifteen (15) days' written notice and no more than twice per calendar year, to inspect the Facilities manufacturing or producing finished goods in order to examine the quality of the Licensed Products in production, to determine whether or not the Licensed Mark is being used properly and to determine whether such Facility manufacturing or producing finished goods materially complies with all applicable laws. NIKE will ensure that any Person conducting such inspections will be bound by confidentiality agreements in form and substance satisfactory to Licensee.

5.7. In the event NIKE determines that Licensee has materially violated the provisions of this Section 5, NIKE will notify Licensee, and Licensee will promptly cure, or take reasonable steps to cure, such violation. If Licensee is unable to cure the violation within a reasonable period of time, not to exceed sixty (60) days, authorized agents or employees of each Party will meet to discuss Licensee's violation, and Licensee's plans to cure such violation.

6. PROTECTION OF THE LICENSED MARK.

6.1. Licensee will give NIKE prompt written notice of any and all infringements, possible infringements, adverse uses, acts of unfair competition or uses by other Persons of marks which it reasonably believes may be confusingly similar to the Licensed Mark (each, an "Infringement") of which Licensee has or acquires knowledge, together with all evidence in Licensee's possession, custody or control or which is available to it of such Infringement.

6.2. NIKE, at its own expense and in its absolute discretion, may commence, prosecute, undertake (including through a "cease and desist" letter), bring and/or settle on any terms not inconsistent with this Agreement ("Commence") any trademark, unfair competition or related action or proceeding or assert any claim of infringement, unfair competition or any other action (each, an "Infringement Action") relating to any Infringement of which Licensee gives NIKE prompt written notice. In such event, NIKE will retain any award, settlement, damages or recovery ("Recovery") obtained from such Infringement Action, except to the extent that the Recovery is based in whole or in part on damages suffered by Licensee after the Agreement Effective Date, in which case the Recovery will be allocated as follows: (a) first, NIKE will recover its costs and expenses related to the Infringement Action and the portion of the Recovery that is based on damages suffered by NIKE prior to the Agreement Effective Date; (b) second, if any portion of the Recovery remains after the allocation described in (a), Licensee will recover such portion of the Recovery that is based on damages suffered by Licensee after the Agreement Effective Date; and (c) third, if any portion of the Recovery remains after the allocations described in (a) and (b) above, then NIKE will recover such remaining portion. Licensee may be represented in such Infringement Action by attorneys of its own choice and at its own expense.

6.3. In the event that NIKE does not undertake an Infringement Action within sixty (60) days after NIKE becomes aware of such Infringement through notice by Licensee, then Licensee will have the right, but not the obligation, to Commence an Infringement Action in its own name. Nothing in this Section 6.3 will prevent NIKE from Commencing its own action related to such Infringement at its own expense after such sixty (60) day deadline has expired. In the event Licensee Commences an Infringement Action in its own name and Licensee requires NIKE to join such Infringement Action or a court having jurisdiction over such Infringement Action orders that NIKE join such suit, NIKE will join as a party to such Infringement Action at Licensee's expense. If Licensee elects to Commence an Infringement Action pursuant to this Section 6.3, (a) Licensee will be solely responsible for the expenses associated with such Infringement Action; and (b) NIKE may be represented in such Infringement Action by attorneys of its own choice and at its own expense (except as otherwise provided in this Section 6.3) with Licensee taking the lead in and controlling such Infringement Action. Licensee will be entitled to retain in full any Recovery on Infringement Actions pursued by it pursuant to this Section 6.3, except to the extent that the Recovery is based in whole or in part on damages suffered by NIKE prior to the Agreement Effective Date, in which case the Recovery will be allocated as follows: (x) first, Licensee will recover its costs and expenses related to the Infringement Action and the portion of the Recovery that is based on damages suffered by Licensee after the Agreement Effective Date; (y) second, if any portion of the Recovery remains after the allocation described in (x), NIKE will recover such portion of the Recovery that is based on damages suffered by NIKE prior to the Agreement Effective Date; and (z) third, if any portion of the Recovery remains after the allocations described in (x) and (y) above, then Licensee will recover such remaining portion.

6.4. Upon either Party's reasonable written request in the event such Party (the "Commencing Party") Commences an Infringement Action pursuant to this Section 6, the other Party will render to the Commencing Party all reasonable assistance as is reasonably requested in connection with any Infringement Action or other matter relating to protection or enforcement of the Licensed Mark before any court, administrative and/or quasi-judicial agencies, and will make available to the Commencing Party, its representatives, agents, private investigators and attorneys, all of the other Party's records, files and other information reasonably required to assist the Commencing Party with such Infringement Action; provided, however, that in no event will the disclosing Party be required to provide or make available such records, files or other information that in the reasonable business judgment of the disclosing Party contains competitively sensitive information. The Commencing Party will reimburse the other Party for reasonable fees and expenses incurred at the request of the Commencing Party under this Section 6. The Commencing Party will indemnify the other Party against any claims made against the other Party, to the extent resulting from the other Party complying with this Section 6.

6.5. Except as provided in this Section 6 or upon the prior written authorization of NIKE, Licensee will not take any action to prevent infringements, imitations or illegal uses of the Licensed Mark by Persons that are not Affiliates of Licensee.

7. TERM AND TERMINATION.

7.1. This Agreement will take effect on the Agreement Effective Date, and, unless terminated as set forth below, will be perpetual in duration; provided, however, that with respect to Licensee's right to sell Shower Sandals bearing the Licensed Mark, the term of such license will be limited to the Sandals Term unless this Agreement is earlier terminated as set forth below.

7.2. Licensee may terminate this Agreement without liability by written notice (a) effective immediately, in the event NIKE is in material breach of this Agreement, which breach is incapable of cure or though capable of cure, remains uncured for sixty (60) days after written notice describing in reasonable detail the nature of such material breach, or (b) upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to NIKE for any reason or no reason.

7.3. Except as provided in Exhibit E, NIKE may terminate this Agreement without liability, by written notice effective immediately, in the event Licensee is in material breach of Sections 2, 4 or 5 of this Agreement and such material breach remains uncured for sixty (60) days after Licensee's receipt of written notice from NIKE describing in reasonable detail the nature of such material breach.

7.4. Upon termination of this Agreement for any reason, the provisions of Sections 1, 4.2, 4.3, 4.4, 7.4, 7.5, 7.6, 7.7, 8.3, 9, 10, 11, the last sentence of Section 6.4 and any other clause that by its nature extends beyond the Term, will survive and continue in force.

7.5. Upon termination of this Agreement, Licensee will discontinue any and all use of the Licensed Mark and will sell, destroy or otherwise dispose of any remaining Licensed Products: (a) immediately, if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 7.3; or (b) within ninety (90) days of the date of termination, if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 7.2. Upon the termination of this Agreement by NIKE, NIKE will have no responsibility to Licensee for any liability or expense incurred by Licensee in connection with the termination hereof, including liability under any agreements for the lease or purchase of warehouses, showrooms, concept stores or factories.

7.6. Without limiting the applicability of Section 7.5 above, upon the earlier of the expiration of the Sandals Term or the termination of this Agreement, Licensee will discontinue any and all use of the Licensed Mark in connection with Shower Sandals and will sell, destroy or otherwise dispose of any remaining Shower Sandals bearing the Licensed Mark: (a) immediately, if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 7.3; or (b) within ninety (90) days after (i) the date of termination, if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 7.2, or (ii) the expiration of the Sandals Term.

7.7. Notwithstanding the termination of this Agreement, each Party will have, and specifically reserves, all rights and remedies it may have at law or in equity with regard to any violation of any term of this Agreement.

8. REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS.

8.1. NIKE represents and warrants to Licensee that: (a) it and/or its Affiliates are the sole and exclusive owners of all right, title and interest in and to the Licensed Mark in the Core Jurisdictions, and (b) it has the valid right to license the Licensed Mark for purposes of this Agreement.

8.2. Each Party represents and warrants to the other Party that:

(a) It is validly organized and existing, and in good standing under, the laws of its jurisdiction of formation, and that it has full and unrestricted power and authority to enter into, and to perform its obligations under, this Agreement.

(b) The execution, delivery and performance of its obligations under this Agreement will not violate any agreements or obligations it may have to any other Person or result in any breach or violation of any applicable law by which it or any of its assets is bound.

(c) This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by it and is binding upon and is enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited or affected by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other laws of general application relating to or affecting the rights of creditors and except as enforceability may be limited by rules of law governing specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable remedies.

8.3. Licensee will provide consumers with a warranty on the Licensed Products which is at least equivalent to the warranty which Licensee provides on similar products not bearing the Licensed Mark.

8.4. To the extent any Affiliate of NIKE owns any right, title and interest in and to the Licensed Mark, NIKE will: (a) cause any such Affiliate to comply with the terms of this Agreement, including with respect to the granting of rights in the Licensed Mark to Licensee, (b) not permit any such Affiliate at any time during or after the Term to contest or challenge any provision of this Agreement, and (c) take all necessary action to ensure that any NIKE Change of Control that results in such Affiliate becoming a Person unaffiliated with NIKE will not affect, reduce, or result in any diminution of, Licensee's rights hereunder.

8.5. NIKE will not abandon the Licensed Mark in any Core Jurisdiction without first obtaining the prior written consent of Licensee, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, however, that NIKE's foregoing obligation will not apply unless Licensee: (a) uses the Licensed Mark in such Core Jurisdiction as may be required by such Core Jurisdiction's laws relating to trademark rights; and (b) upon NIKE's request, cooperates with NIKE in preparing and filing renewals, statements of use, and other certificates and/or documents as required by the trademark offices in Core Jurisdictions. NIKE will not expressly abandon trademark registrations or applications for the Licensed Mark in any jurisdiction in which the Licensed Mark is, as of the Agreement Effective Date, registered, or in which an application for such Licensed Mark has been, as of the Effective Date, filed, without first obtaining the prior written consent of Licensee, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

9. INDEMNIFICATION.

9.1. NIKE will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Licensee, its Affiliates and agents from and against all Claims asserted by any Person alleging that Licensee's or any of its sublicensees' respective use of the Licensed Mark in a Core Jurisdiction or Distribution Jurisdiction in accordance with this Agreement violates, dilutes, misappropriates or infringes such Person's intellectual property or other proprietary rights; and NIKE will pay any fees, costs or damages finally awarded against Licensee attributable to that Claim, but only if Licensee complies with Section 9.3 below. This Section 9.1 will not apply to, and NIKE will not have any liability for, any Claim to the extent such Claim arises from or in connection with any act or omission of Licensee or its Affiliates in violation of this Agreement.

9.2. Licensee will indemnify, defend and hold harmless NIKE, its Affiliates and agents from and against all Claims asserted by any Person alleging any of the following, except to the extent such Claim is subject to indemnification by NIKE pursuant to Section 9.1 above: (a) the Licensed Products or any related goods or services infringe or misappropriate any intellectual property rights of such Person; (b) the Licensed Products are defective; or (c) Licensee, its Affiliates or their respective sublicensees were grossly negligent, breached any representations, warranty or covenant in this Agreement, engaged in intentional misconduct, or violated any applicable law; but only if NIKE complies with Section 9.3 below. This Section 9.2 will not apply to, and Licensee will not have any liability for, any Claim to the extent such Claim arises from or in connection with any act or omission of NIKE or its Affiliates in violation of this Agreement.

9.3. A Party (the "Indemnitor") will be obligated to indemnify the other Party (the "Indemnitee") under this Section 9 only if the Indemnitee: (a) promptly notifies the Indemnitor in writing of that Claim (except that the Indemnitee's delay in notifying the Indemnitor of a Claim will not excuse the Indemnitor from its indemnity obligations except to the extent the Indemnitor is prejudiced by the delay); (b) cooperates fully with the Indemnitor with respect to that Claim including providing information and assistance as the Indemnitor may request for the defense or settlement of that Claim provided, however, that in no event will the Indemnitee be required to provide or make available records, files or other information that in the reasonable business judgment of the Indemnitee contains competitively sensitive information; and (c) grants the Indemnitor the sole and exclusive right and authority to defend, prosecute, negotiate, compromise and otherwise handle the Claim, except that the Indemnitee will be entitled to participate in the defense of any Claim and to employ separate counsel for such purposes, at its own expense. No compromise or settlement of any action, claim or proceeding may be made by an Indemnitor unless full releases as to the subject matter are obtained for the Indemnitee.

10. CONFIDENTIALITY; PUBLICITY.

10.1. The Party receiving Confidential Information ("Recipient") of the other Party ("Discloser") will, and will cause its Representatives to, maintain in strict confidence and not disclose to any third party (except Recipient's Representatives who have a "need to know", have been advised of the confidential and proprietary nature of the Confidential Information, and are bound by non-use and confidentiality obligations that are at least as restrictive as those described in this Section 10) the Confidential Information of Discloser, except: (a) as may be required by any applicable law, in which case Recipient will, if permissible, promptly notify Discloser of any such requirement and Discloser or its Affiliates will be permitted to seek confidential treatment for such information, and Recipient will cooperate with Discloser in connection therewith; or (b) for such Confidential Information that (i) was, is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by Recipient or its Representatives in violation of this Section 10.1, (ii) is or becomes available to Recipient or its Affiliates on a non-confidential basis from a source other than Discloser or its representatives, provided that such source is not known to Recipient or its Affiliates at the time of disclosure to be bound by a confidentiality agreement with or other contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality to Discloser or any other party with respect to such information, or (iii) Recipient independently developed without reference to the Confidential Information. Recipient will be liable for any use or disclosure of Confidential Information by its Representatives that is not permitted pursuant to this Section 10.1.

10.2. With respect to any Confidential Information, Recipient: (a) will use at least the same degree of care in safeguarding Discloser's Confidential Information as Recipient uses to safeguard its own Confidential Information, but in no event less than reasonable care; and (b) upon the discovery of any inadvertent disclosure or unauthorized use of Discloser's Confidential Information, or upon obtaining notice of any inadvertent disclosure or unauthorized use of Discloser's Confidential Information, will take or cause to be taken all actions necessary or reasonably requested by Discloser to prevent any further inadvertent disclosure or unauthorized use, and Discloser will be entitled to pursue any other remedy at law or in equity which may be available to it (including specific performance).

10.3. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any Party to this Agreement (and its Representatives) may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) related to such tax treatment and tax structure.

10.4. Recipient will not use Discloser's Confidential Information for any purpose other than to perform its obligations under the Trademark Agreements.

10.5. Upon Discloser's written request, Recipient will either: (a) return to Discloser all copies of Confidential Documents and any other tangible material embodying or containing Confidential Information, including Confidential Information in its Representatives' possession; or (b) destroy every copy of Confidential Documents and any other tangible material embodying or containing Confidential Information, including all Confidential Information in its Representatives' possession, and deliver to Discloser within five (5) days a written statement verifying such destruction.

10.6. Except as specifically provided in the Trademark Agreements or in any other agreement pursuant to the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreements, Licensee will not (a) unless otherwise permitted in writing, use NIKE's name or any NIKE trademark, service mark, logo or copyright protected work (whether or not registered), other than the Licensed Mark (and then only in accordance with the terms of this Agreement) in any of Licensee's Advertising Materials; (b) identify NIKE on Licensee's website or in any metatags or key words for such website, except as necessary to identify Licensee as no longer affiliated with NIKE; provided that NIKE has given its prior consent to such use in writing; or (c) include a hyperlink from any website maintained by Licensee to any NIKE website. Except as specifically provided in the Trademark Agreements or in any other agreement pursuant to the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreements, neither Party will make any public announcement regarding (i) such Party's association with the other Party or (ii) the existence of this Agreement, without the prior written consent of the other Party.

11.1. Entire Agreement. This Agreement is the entire agreement between the Parties concerning its subject matter, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous oral and written agreements, commitments, and understandings concerning its subject matter.

11.2. Assignment. Licensee may not assign this Agreement, or any of Licensee's rights or obligations under this Agreement, without the prior written consent of NIKE, which will not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that Licensee may, without the prior written consent of NIKE, (a) pledge, charge or assign this Agreement or grant a security interest in respect of Licensee's right, title or interest therein to any Creditor for collateral security purposes only, or (b) assign this Agreement to any Person in connection with a Licensee Change of Control; provided, further, however, that such Licensee Change of Control will not release Licensee from any of its obligations under this Agreement unless the assignee agrees in writing to be bound by this Agreement in full. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing in this Section 11.2, Licensee may not assign this Agreement or any of Licensee's rights or obligations under this Agreement, to a NIKE Competitor, other than in connection with a Licensee Change of Control. Except as specifically set forth in Section 4.3(c), the Parties acknowledge and agree that, upon an assignment of this Agreement to a NIKE Competitor pursuant to this Section 11.2, such assignee will enjoy all the rights and undertake all the duties and obligations of Licensee hereunder and will no longer be considered a NIKE Competitor for the purposes of this Agreement. Any assignment of this Agreement by Licensee in violation of the foregoing, without NIKE's consent, will be void. NIKE may assign its rights and delegate its duties (but not its indemnity obligations without Licensee's consent, not to be unreasonably withheld) under this Agreement to any third party at any time upon written notice to Licensee.

11.3. Modification. This Agreement may be modified only by a written instrument signed by an authorized representative of each Party, which makes reference to the specific section it purports to amend.

11.4. Waiver. A Party's delay or failure to enforce or insist on strict compliance with any provision of this Agreement will not constitute a waiver or otherwise modify this Agreement. A Party's waiver of any right granted under this Agreement on one occasion will not (a) waive any other right; (b) constitute a continuing waiver; or (c) waive that right on any other occasion.

11.5. Notices. All notices and other communications hereunder will be in writing, will be effective when received, and will in any event be deemed to have been received (a) when delivered, if delivered personally or by commercial hand-delivery service, (b) two (2) Business Days after the Business Day of deposit with Federal Express or similar overnight courier for next day delivery, if delivered by such means, or (c) one (1) Business Day after delivery by facsimile transmission with copy by Federal Express or similar overnight courier, if sent via facsimile plus courier copy (with acknowledgment of complete transmission), to the Parties at the following addresses (or at such other address for a Party as will be specified by like notice):

11.6. Severability. In the event that any part or provision of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, such part or provision will be deemed severable from this Agreement and the validity of the remaining parts or provisions will not be affected by such holding.

11.7. Injunctive Relief. In the event of Licensee's breach of any of the provisions of Section 2, 3, 4, 5 or 10 of this Agreement, NIKE will be entitled to an injunction or other equitable relief, without the necessity of posting a bond, in addition to any other remedies to which it may be entitled under this Agreement or applicable law.

11.8. Governing Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement will be interpreted under, and any disputes arising out of this Agreement will be governed by, the laws of the State of Oregon, USA, without reference to its conflicts of law principles. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods will not apply to the interpretation or enforcement of this Agreement. Licensee irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in the State of Oregon, USA, in connection with all actions arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, and waives any objections that such venue is an inconvenient forum. Licensee further agrees that it will not initiate any action against NIKE in any other jurisdiction. Licensee agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding will be conclusive and may be enforced in any other jurisdiction (including the appropriate courts of the jurisdiction in which Licensee is resident or in which any property or an office of Licensee is located) by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

11.9. Attorneys' Fees. The prevailing Party in any litigation under this Agreement will be entitled to recover attorneys' fees and costs.

11.10. Status. Nothing in this Agreement creates a joint venture or partnership, establishes a relationship of principal and agent, establishes a relationship of employer and employee, or establishes any other relationship of a similar nature between the Parties. Neither Party will represent the other Party in any capacity, bind the other Party to any contract, or create or assume any obligation on behalf of the other Party for any purpose whatsoever, except as expressly authorized by this Agreement.

11.11. Interpretation. Section and paragraph headings are for convenience only and do not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. The words "includes" and "including" are not limited in any way and mean "includes or including without limitation." The term "and/or" means each and all of the Persons, words, provisions or items connected by that term; i.e., it has a joint and several meaning. The word "will" is a synonym for the word "shall." All Recitals and Exhibits attached to or referenced in this Agreement are a part of and are incorporated in this Agreement. Both Parties have had the opportunity to have this Agreement reviewed by their attorneys. Therefore, no rule of construction or interpretation that disfavors the Party drafting this Agreement or any of its provisions will apply to the interpretation of this Agreement. Instead, this Agreement will be interpreted according to the fair meaning of its terms.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have caused this Agreement to be executed as of the Agreement Effective Date. Each individual whose name appears below warrants that he or she is authorized to sign this Agreement on behalf of the Party he or she represents.

Exhibit E

Advertising Materials

This Exhibit is attached to and forms a part of that certain Trademark License Agreement ("Agreement") dated April __, 2008, among NIKE, Inc., NIKE International Limited, NIKE Bauer Hockey Corp., and, solely for the purposes of Section 3 of the Agreement, KBAU Holdings US, Inc. and KBAU Acquisition Canada, Inc. All capitalized terms not defined in this Exhibit will have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement.

The following terms and conditions will apply in the event of Licensee's assignment of this Agreement to a NIKE Competitor pursuant to Section 11.2 of the Agreement. For the purposes of this Exhibit E, such assignee will be the "Assignee."

Advertising Materials for Licensed Products directed primarily to the trade (as opposed to consumers), including trade catalogs, may display both the Assignee's marks and the Licensed Mark.

Advertising Materials for Licensed Products directed primarily to consumers, including direct-to-consumer catalogs or mailings, may not display both the Assignee's marks and the Licensed Mark.

Assignee's websites may not display Assignee's marks on the same web page as the Licensed Mark; provided, however, it will not constitute a breach of this Exhibit if a user can navigate to a web page displaying the Licensed Mark from a web page displaying Assignee's mark.

Nothing in this Exhibit E will prohibit any Representative of Assignee from referencing both the Licensed Mark and Assignee's marks in any factual statement, whether oral or written, including securities filings and press releases.

Any breach of this Exhibit E, of which Assignee receives notice, that can be cured timely and completely (e.g., by completely and absolutely removing an instance of the Licensed Mark from Assignee's webpage displaying Assignee's marks) (a "Curable Breach") will not immediately entitle NIKE to receive liquidated damages or a termination right, and will be subject to a cure period of limited duration to be mutually agreed upon between NIKE and Assignee (not to exceed 30 days); provided, however, that more than six Curable Breaches in a 12-month period will entitle NIKE to claim liquidated damages, as described in the next paragraph.

In the event of (1) the occurrence of any breach of this Exhibit E, of which Assignee receives notice, which cannot be cured timely and completely (a "Non-Curable Breach"); or (2) the occurrence of more than six Curable Breaches in a 12-month period, NIKE will be entitled to claim liquidated damages as follows: (A) liquidated damages for the first Non-Curable Breach at any time, or the seventh Curable Breach in a 12-month period, will be $10,000; (B) liquidated damages for the second Non-Curable Breach at any time (no matter the length of time that has passed since the last Non-Curable Breach, provided Assignee is the same Person as the Assignee under the first Non-Curable Breach giving rise to liquidated damages, or an Affiliate of such Person), or the eighth Curable Breach in a 12-month period will be $25,000; (C) the third, fourth and fifth Non-Curable Breaches at any time (subject to the same condition in the foregoing sentence), or the ninth, tenth and eleventh Curable Breaches in a 12-month period, will result in liquidated damages of $50,000, $75,000 and $100,000, respectively. Any subsequent Non-Curable Breach, or any subsequent Curable Breach in the same 12-month period, will subject Assignee to liquidated damages of $100,000 for each breach. More than six Non-Curable Breaches will give NIKE the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.3 of the Agreement.

ADMINISTRATION

3.1 Administration

Subject to Section 3.2, this Plan will be administered by the Board and the Board has sole and complete authority, in its discretion, to:

(a) determine the individuals (from among the Participants) to whom Options may be granted;

(b) grant Options in such amounts and, subject to the provisions of this Plan, on such terms and conditions as it determines including:

(i) the time or times at which Options may be granted;

(ii) the Exercise Price;

(iii) the time or times when each Option vests and becomes exercisable and, subject to Section 4.3, the duration of the Exercise Period;

(iv) whether any Option is subject to any Performance Vesting Condition;

(v) whether restrictions or limitations are to be imposed on the Options and the nature of such restrictions or limitations (including the conditions of exercise set forth in Article 4); and

(vi) any acceleration of exercisability or waiver of termination regarding any Option, based on such factors as the Board may determine;

(c) interpret this Plan and adopt, amend and rescind administrative guidelines and other rules and regulations relating to this Plan; and

(d) make all other determinations, settle all controversies and disputes that may arise under this Plan and take all other actions necessary or advisable for the implementation and administration of this Plan.

The Board's determinations and actions under this Plan are conclusive and binding on the Corporation and all other Persons. The day-to-day administration of this Plan may be delegated to such officers and employees of the Corporation as the Board determines.

3.2 Delegation to Committee

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Board may, from time to time, delegate to a committee of the Board (the "Committee") all or any of the powers conferred on the Board under this Plan. In such event, the Committee will exercise the powers delegated to it by the Board in the manner and on the terms authorized by the Board. Any decision made or action taken by the Committee arising out of or in connection with the administration or interpretation of this Plan in this context is final and conclusive.

No member of the Board or of the Committee shall be liable for any action or determination taken or made in good faith in the administration, interpretation, construction or application of this Plan or any Options granted hereunder, nor shall any member of the Board be liable for any action or determination taken or made in good faith by the Committee or a member thereof.

3.3 Eligibility

All Participants are eligible to participate in this Plan, subject to Section 4.8. Eligibility to participate does not confer upon any Participant any right to be granted Options pursuant to this Plan. The extent to which any Participant is entitled to be granted Options pursuant to this Plan will be determined in the sole and absolute discretion of the Board.

3.4 Total Common Shares Subject to Options

(a) The maximum number of Common Shares reserved for issuance under this Plan, together with all other Share Compensation Arrangements other than the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. Rollover Stock Option Plan, at any time shall be no greater than 12% of the total issued and outstanding Common Shares of the Corporation outstanding from time to time (assuming the conversion of all Proportionate Voting Shares to Common Shares). If any Option granted under this Plan is exercised, terminates, expires or is cancelled, new Options may thereafter be granted covering such Common Shares, subject to any required prior approval by any applicable stock exchange. At all times, the Corporation will reserve and keep available a sufficient number of Common Shares to satisfy the requirements of all outstanding Options granted under this Plan.

(b) No Option may be granted if such grant would have the effect of causing the total number of Common Shares subject to Options to exceed the total number of Common Shares reserved for issuance pursuant to the exercise of Options and set forth in Subsection 3.4(a).

3.5 Option Agreements

All grants of Options under Section 4.1 of this Plan will be evidenced by Option Agreements. Such Option Agreements will be subject to the applicable provisions of this Plan and will contain such provisions as are required by this Plan, applicable law and the rules of the TSX or other stock exchange upon which the Common Shares are listed and any other provisions that the Board may, in its discretion, determine. Any one Director or Officer is authorized and empowered to execute and deliver, for and on behalf of the Corporation, an Option Agreement to each Optionee.

3.6 Non-transferability

Subject to Section 4.8 and except as specifically provided in an Option Agreement approved by the Board, Options granted under this Plan may only be exercised during the lifetime of the Optionee by such Optionee personally. No sale, assignment, encumbrance or other transfer of Options, whether voluntary, involuntary, by operation of law or otherwise (other than upon the death of the Optionee), vests any interest or right in such Options whatsoever in any assignee or transferee (except that an Optionee may transfer Options to Registered Retirement Savings Plans or Registered Retirement Income Funds of which he is the annuitant, to a corporation in respect of which the Optionee is the sole shareholder or to a family trust for bona fide estate planning purposes, in each case, with the prior written approval of the Corporation) and immediately upon any assignment or transfer, or any attempt to make the same, such Options will terminate and be of no further force or effect. If any Optionee (the "Original Optionee") has transferred Options to a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Registered Retirement Income Fund or a corporation or a family trust pursuant to this Section 3.6, such Options will terminate and be of no further force or effect if at any time the Original Optionee should cease to be the annuitant of such Registered Retirement Savings Plans or Registered Retirement Income Funds or cease to own all of the issued shares of such corporation or cease to be a trustee or a beneficiary of the family trust, as the case may be, other than by reason of death, in which case the provisions of Section 4.8 shall apply, mutatis mutandis.

GRANT OF OPTIONS

4.1 Grant of Options

The Board may, from time to time by resolution, subject to the provisions of this Plan (including Appendix 1 hereto which is applicable to Participants whose compensation is subject to Section 409A of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, notwithstanding the other provisions of this Plan) and such other terms and conditions as the Board may prescribe, grant Options to any individual from among the Participants.

4.2 Exercise Price

The Exercise Price for Common Shares that are the subject of any Option shall be fixed by the Board or the Committee, as the case may be, when such Option is granted, but shall not be less than the Fair Market Value of such Common Shares at the time of the grant.

4.3 Expiration of Options

Subject to any accelerated termination as set forth in this Plan (including, without limitation, as provided in Sections 4.8 and 4.9), each Option expires on the 10th anniversary of the Date of Grant. Unless otherwise determined by the Board or the Committee, all unexercised Options shall be cancelled at the expiry of such Options.

Should the expiration date for an Option fall within a Black-Out Period or within nine Trading Days following the expiration of a Black-Out Period, such expiration date shall be automatically extended without any further act or formality to that date which is the tenth Trading Day after the end of the Black-Out Period, such tenth Trading Day to be considered the expiration date for such Option for all purposes under this Plan. Notwithstanding Article 6 hereof, the ten Trading Day period referred to in this Section 4.3 may not be extended by the Board.

4.4 Vesting

Unless otherwise specified in the Option Agreement entered into in connection with the grant of such Option, Options will vest over a four-year period, as to twenty-five percent (25%) of the Options on each anniversary of the Date of Grant, commencing on the first anniversary of the Date of Grant (the "Time Vesting Condition"). The Options may also be subject to Performance Vesting Conditions. Unless otherwise specified in the Option Agreement entered into in connection with the grant of such Option, an Option will be capable of exercise on vesting.

4.5 Conditions of Exercise and Exercise Period

An Option remains exercisable until expiration or termination of the Option in accordance with the Plan, unless otherwise specified by the Board in the Option Agreement. Each Option may be exercised at any time or from time to time, in whole or in part, for up to the total number of Common Shares with respect to which it is then exercisable. For greater certainty, no Option shall be exercised by a Participant during a Black-Out Period. Subject to the provisions of this Plan and any Option Agreement, Options shall be exercised by the Participant delivering to the Corporation a fully completed Exercise Notice together with a bank draft or certified cheque in an amount equal to the aggregate Exercise Price of the Common Shares to be purchased plus an amount sufficient to cover the withholding taxes payable on the exercise of such Options.

4.6 Payment of Exercise Price

No Common Shares will be issued or transferred until full payment for the Common Shares to be purchased and an amount sufficient to cover any withholding taxes payable on the exercise of such Options (to the extent required to be withheld by the Corporation) has been received by the Corporation. As soon as practicable after receipt of any Exercise Notice, along with such full payment, the Corporation will forthwith cause the transfer agent and registrar of the Common Shares to deliver to the Optionee a certificate or certificates in the name of the Optionee or a statement of account, at the discretion of the Optionee, representing in the aggregate the purchased Common Shares.

4.7 Use of an Administrative Agent and Trustee

The Board may in its sole discretion appoint from time to time one or more entities to act as administrative agent to administer the Options granted under this Plan and to act as trustee to hold and administer the assets that may be held in respect of Options granted under this Plan, the whole in accordance with the terms and conditions determined by the Board in its sole discretion. The Corporation and the administrative agent will maintain records showing the number of Options granted to each Optionee under this Plan as well as records showing any assignments or transfers of Options by an Optionee as permitted under Section 3.6. The administrative agent shall be permitted to arrange a broker assisted "cashless exercise", including a "short sale" for such number of Common Shares to be sold as is necessary to raise an amount equal to the amount specified in Section 4.6, and to cause the proceeds from the sale of such Common Shares to be delivered to the Corporation along with the Exercise Notice, promptly following which the Corporation shall issue the Common Shares underlying the number of Options exercised to the account designated by the administrative agent, acting on the instructions of the Participant.

4.8 Termination of Service

(a) All Options held by the Participant (whether vested or unvested) shall terminate automatically upon the termination of the Participant's service with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for any reason other than as set forth in Section 4.8(b).

(b) In the case of a termination of the Participant's service by reason of (A) termination by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries other than for Cause, (B) the Participant's death, or (C) voluntary resignation or for ceasing to be a Director or a director of a Subsidiary, only the Participant's unvested Options shall terminate automatically as of such date, and any time during the ninety (90) day period commencing on the date of such termination of service (or, if earlier, the Termination Date), the Participant (or his or her executor or administrator, or the Person or Persons to whom the Participant's Share Options are transferred by will or the applicable laws of descent and distribution) will be eligible to exercise his vested Options and upon the 90th day following such termination of service (or, if earlier, the Termination Date) any Options that have not been exercised shall automatically terminate.

(c) For greater certainty, where an Optionee's employment or term of office terminates by reason of termination by the Corporation or any Subsidiary for Cause then any Options held by the Optionee, whether or not vested at the Termination Date, immediately expire and are cancelled on the Termination Date or at a time as may be determined by the Board, in its sole discretion.

(d) An Optionee's eligibility to receive further grants of Options under this Plan ceases as of the date that the Corporation or any Subsidiary provides the Optionee with written notification that the Optionee's employment or term of office, as the case may be, is terminated, notwithstanding that such date may be prior to the Termination Date.

(e) For the purposes of the Plan, an Optionee shall not be deemed to have terminated service where: (i) the Optionee remains in employment or office within or among the Corporation or any Subsidiary or (ii) the Optionee is on a leave of absence approved by the Board.

4.9 Discretion to Permit Exercise

Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 4.3, 4,4, 4.5, 4.8 and 4.9 the Board may, in its discretion, at any time prior to or following the events contemplated in such Sections and in any Option Agreement, permit the exercise of any or all Options held by the Optionee in the manner and on the terms authorized by the Board, provided that, subject to an extension pursuant to Section 4.3 resulting from a Black-Out Period, the Board will not, in any case, authorize the exercise of an Option pursuant to this Section beyond the 10-year expiration of the Exercise Period of the particular Option.

4.10 Change of Control

Except as otherwise set forth in any Option Agreement, in the event of any Change of Control transaction, the Board may provide for substitute or replacement options of similar value from, or the assumption of outstanding Options by, the acquiring or surviving entity, any such substitution, replacement or assumption to be on such terms as the Board in good faith determines; provided, however, that in the event of a Change of Control transaction the Board may take, as to any outstanding Option, any one or more of the following actions:

(a) provide that any or all Options shall thereupon terminate; provided that any such outstanding Options that have vested shall remain exercisable until consummation of such Change of Control; and

(b) terminate any Option where the Exercise Price of such Option is equal to or greater than the fair market value of a Common Share, as determined in the sole discretion of the Board.

4.11 Conditions of Exercise

Each Optionee will, when requested by the Corporation, sign and deliver all such documents relating to the granting or exercise of Options which the Corporation deems necessary or desirable.

ARTICLE 5
SHARE CAPITAL ADJUSTMENTS

5.1 General

The existence of any Option does not affect in any way the right or power of the Corporation or its shareholders to make, authorize or determine any adjustment, recapitalization, reorganization or any other change in the Corporation's capital structure or its business, or any amalgamation, combination, plan of arrangement, merger or consolidation involving the Corporation, to create or issue any bonds, debentures, Proportionate Voting Shares, Common Shares or other securities of the Corporation or to determine the rights and conditions attaching thereto, to effect the dissolution or liquidation of the Corporation or any sale or transfer of all or any part of its assets or business, or to effect any other corporate act or proceeding, whether of a similar character or otherwise, whether or not any such action referred to in this Section would have an adverse effect on this Plan or any Option granted hereunder.

5.2 Reorganization of the Corporation's Capital

(a) In the event of any subdivision of the Common Shares into a greater number of Common Shares at any time after the grant of an Option to a Optionee and prior to the expiration of the Exercise Period of such Option, the Corporation will deliver to such Optionee at the time of any subsequent exercise of such Option in accordance with the terms hereof in lieu of the number of Common Shares to which such Optionee was theretofore entitled upon such exercise, but for the same aggregate consideration payable therefor, such number of Common Shares as such Optionee would have held as a result of such subdivision if on the record date thereof the Optionee had been the registered holder of the number of Common Shares to which such Optionee was theretofore entitled upon such exercise.

(b) In the event of any consolidation of Common Shares into a lesser number of Common Shares at any time after the grant of an Option to any Optionee and prior to the expiration of the Exercise Period of such Option, the Corporation shall deliver to such Optionee at the time of any subsequent exercise of such Option in accordance with the terms hereof in lieu of the number of Common Shares to which such Optionee was theretofore entitled upon such exercise, but for the same aggregate consideration payable therefor, such number of Common Shares as such Optionee would have held as a result of such consolidation if on the record date thereof the Optionee had been the registered holder of the number of Common Shares to which such Optionee was theretofore entitled upon such exercise.

5.3 Other Events Affecting the Corporation

If, at any time prior to the expiration of the Exercise Period of such Option, the Common Shares shall be reclassified, reorganised or otherwise changed into or exchanged for a different number or class of shares or other securities of the Corporation or of a Successor Corporation (otherwise than as specified in Section 5.1 and Section 5.2 hereof), or the Corporation shall consolidate, merge or amalgamate with or into another Person, the Optionee will, subject to the provisions of Article 6 hereof, be entitled to receive at the time of any subsequent exercise of such Option in accordance with the terms hereof and will accept in lieu of the number of Common Shares then subscribed for an aggregate consideration payable therefor, adjusted, if necessary, to preserve proportionately the rights and obligations of the Optionee, the aggregate number of shares of the appropriate class or other securities of the Corporation or the Successor Corporation (as the case may be) or other consideration from the Corporation or the Successor Corporation (as the case may be) that such Optionee would have been entitled to receive as a result of such reclassification, reorganization or other change or exchange of shares or, subject to the provisions of Article 6 hereof, as a result of such consolidation, merger or amalgamation, if on the record date of such reclassification, reorganization or other change or exchange of shares or the effective date of such consolidation, merger or amalgamation, as the case may be, such Optionee had been the registered holder of the number of Common Shares to which such Optionee was immediately theretofore entitled upon such exercise.

5.4 Distribution to Securityholders

If, at any time prior to the expiration of the Expiration Period of such Option, the Corporation makes a distribution to all holders of Common Shares of shares or other securities, cash, evidences of indebtedness or other assets in the capital of the Corporation (excluding a regular ordinary course dividend in cash or Common Shares, but including common shares or equity interests in a subsidiary or business unit of the Corporation or one of its Subsidiaries or cash proceeds of the disposition of such a subsidiary or business unit), or should the Corporation effect any transaction or change having a similar effect, then the Exercise Price, or the number of Common Shares to which the Optionee is entitled upon exercise of Options, or any combination thereof, will be adjusted to take into account such distribution, transaction or change. Subject to the TSX approval, the Board will determine the appropriate adjustments to be made in such circumstances in order to maintain the Optionee's economic rights in respect of their Options in connection with such distribution, transaction or change.

5.5 Immediate Exercise of Options

Where the Board determines that the steps provided in Sections 5.1 and 5.2 would not preserve proportionately the rights and obligations of the Optionees in the circumstances or otherwise determines that it is appropriate, the Board may permit the immediate exercise of any outstanding Options that are not otherwise exercisable.

5.6 Issue by Corporation of Additional Common Shares or Proportionate Voting Shares

Except as expressly provided in this Article 5, neither the issue by the Corporation of shares of any class or securities convertible into or exchangeable for shares of any class, nor the conversion or exchange of such shares or securities, affects, and no adjustment by reason thereof is to be made with respect to: (i) the number of Common Shares that may be acquired on the exercise of any outstanding Options, or (ii) the Exercise Price of any outstanding Options.

5.7 Fractions

No fractional Common Shares will be issued on the exercise of an Option. Accordingly, if, as a result of any adjustment pursuant to this Article 5, an Optionee would become entitled to a fractional Common Share, the Optionee has the right to acquire only the adjusted number of whole Common Shares and no payment or other adjustment will be made with respect to the fractional Common Shares so disregarded.

5.8 Conditions of Exercise

The Plan and each Option are subject to the requirement that if at any time the Board determines that the listing, registration or qualification of the Common Shares subject to such Option upon any stock exchange or under any provincial, state or federal law, or the consent or approval of any governmental body or stock exchange or of the holders of the Common Shares generally, is necessary or desirable, as a condition of, or in connection with, the granting of such Option or the issue or purchase of Common Shares thereunder, no such Option may be granted or exercised in whole or in part unless such listing, registration, qualification, consent or approval has been effected or obtained free of any conditions not acceptable to the Board. The Optionees shall, to the extent applicable, cooperate with the Corporation in relation to such listing, registration, qualification, consent or other approval and shall have no claim or cause of action against the Corporation or any of its directors or officers as a result of any failure by the Corporation to obtain or to take any steps to obtain any such registration, qualification or approval.

AMENDMENT OR DISCONTINUANCE OF THE PLAN

Subject to compliance with the applicable rules of the TSX, the Board may from time to time amend, suspend or terminate this Plan, or the terms of any previously granted Option, without obtaining the approval of shareholders of the Corporation, provided that no such amendment to the terms of any previously granted Option may, except as expressly provided in the Plan, or with the written consent of the Optionee, adversely alter or impair the terms or conditions of such Option previously granted to such Optionee under this Plan.

Any amendment to this Plan, or to the terms of any Option previously granted, is subject to compliance with all applicable laws, rules, regulations and policies of any applicable governmental entity or stock exchange, including receipt of any required approval from such governmental entity or stock exchange.

If this Plan is terminated, the provisions of this Plan and any administrative guidelines or other rules adopted by the Board and in force at the time of such termination shall continue in effect as long as any Options under the Plan or any rights pursuant thereto remain outstanding. Notwithstanding such termination of the Plan, the Board may make any amendments to the Plan or to the terms of any outstanding Options that it would be entitled to make if the Plan were still in effect.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

7.1 Legal Requirement

This Plan, and the Options granted under this Plan, shall at all times be subject to the ongoing requirements of applicable law and the rules of the TSX or other stock exchange upon which the Common Shares are listed.

The Corporation is not obligated to grant any Options, issue any Common Shares or other securities, make any payments or take any other action if, in the opinion of the Board, in its sole discretion, such action would constitute a violation by a Participant or the Corporation of any provision of any applicable statutory or regulatory enactment of any government or government agency.

7.2 Conformity to Plan

In the event that an Option is granted or an Option Agreement is executed which does not conform in all particulars with the provisions of this Plan, or purports to grant Options on terms different from those set out in this Plan, the Option, or the grant of such Option shall not be in any way void or invalidated, but the Option so granted will be adjusted to become, in all respects, in conformity with this Plan.

7.3 Optionee's Entitlement

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, Options previously granted under this Plan, whether or not then vested or exercisable, are not affected by any change in the ownership of the Corporation.

7.4 Expenses

All fees and expenses incurred by the Corporation in connection with this Plan shall be borne by the Corporation. All expenses incurred by a Participant in connection with a grant or exercise of Options, including all fees and expenses of financial or legal advisors retained by such Participant in connection therewith, shall be borne by the Participant.

7.5 Withholding Taxes

The exercise of each Option granted under this Plan is subject to the condition that if at any time the Corporation determines, in its discretion, that the satisfaction of withholding tax or other withholding liabilities is necessary or desirable in respect of such exercise, such exercise is not effective unless such withholding has been effected to the satisfaction of the Corporation. In such circumstances, the Corporation may require that an Optionee pay to the Corporation, in addition to and in the same manner as the Exercise Price for the Common Shares, or such other manner as the Board may specify, such amount as the Corporation is obliged to remit to the relevant taxing authority in respect of the exercise of the Option. Any such additional payment is due no later than the date as of which any amount with respect to the Option must be withheld by the Corporation.

7.6 Rights of Participant/Optionee

No Participant has any claim or right to be granted an Option (including an Option granted in substitution for any Option that has expired pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Plan), and the granting of any Option is not to be construed as giving an Optionee a right to remain in the employ of the Corporation or any Subsidiary. No Optionee has any rights as a shareholder of the Corporation in respect of Common Shares issuable on the exercise of rights to acquire Common Shares under any Option (including the payment of dividends or other distributions) until the allotment and issuance to the Optionee of a certificate or certificates in the name of the Optionee or a statement of account, at the discretion of the Optionee, representing such Common Shares. The loss of existing or potential profit in Options granted under this Plan will not constitute an element of damages in the event of termination of an Optionee's employment or service in any office or otherwise.

7.7 Indemnification

Every Director or member of the Committee will at all times be indemnified and saved harmless by the Corporation from and against all costs, charges and expenses whatsoever including any income tax liability arising from any such indemnification, that such Director or member of the Committee may sustain or incur by reason of any action, suit or proceeding, taken or threatened against such Director or member of the Committee, otherwise than by the Corporation, for or in respect of any act done or omitted by such Director or member of the Committee in respect of this Plan, such costs, charges and expenses to include any amount paid to settle such action, suit or proceeding or in satisfaction of any judgment rendered therein. This shall be in addition to any indemnification agreement between the Corporation and the Directors.

7.8 Participation in this Plan

The participation of any Participant in this Plan is entirely voluntary and not obligatory and shall not be interpreted as conferring upon such Participant any rights or privileges other than those rights and privileges expressly provided in this Plan. In particular, participation in this Plan does not constitute a condition of employment nor a commitment on the part of the Corporation or any Subsidiary to ensure the continued employment of such Participant or Optionee. The Plan does not provide any guarantee against any loss which may result from fluctuations in the market value of the Common Shares. Neither the Corporation nor any Subsidiary assumes any responsibility for the income or other tax consequences resulting to the Optionees and they are advised to consult with their own tax advisors.

7.9 Effective Date

This Plan was initially adopted by the Board on March 10, 2011 and amended on May 25, 2012 and further amended on April 9, 2013. Should any changes to this Plan be required by any securities commission or other governmental body of any jurisdiction of Canada to which this Plan has been submitted or by any stock exchange on which the Common Shares may from time to time be listed, such changes will be made to this Plan as are necessary to conform with such requests and, if such changes are approved by the Board, this Plan, as amended, will remain in full force and effect in its amended form as of and from that date.

7.10 Governing Law

This Plan is created under and is to be governed, construed and administered in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

Section 409A of the United States Internal Revenue Code

This Appendix sets forth special provisions of the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. Second Amended and Restated 2011 Stock Option Plan (the "Plan") that apply to Participants whose compensation is subject to section 409A of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Terms defined in the Plan and used herein and in any Option Agreement applicable to any Option issued under the Plan shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan document, as amended from time to time.

1. Definitions.

For purposes of this Appendix:

(a) "Code" means the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and any applicable United States Treasury Regulations and other binding regulatory guidance thereunder.

(b) "Section 409A" means section 409A of the Code.

(c) "Separation From Service" shall have the meaning as set forth in United States Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A 1(h).

(d) "US Taxpayer" means a Participant whose compensation from the Corporation or any of its Affiliates is subject to Section 409A.

2. Non-qualified stock options; Exemption from Section 409A.

Options granted to US Taxpayers are not intended to satisfy the requirements of Code Section 422 as "incentive stock options". Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan to the contrary, it is intended that Options granted under the Plan to US Taxpayers be exempt from Section 409A, and all provisions of the Plan shall be construed and interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements for avoiding taxes or penalties under Section 409A. Each US Taxpayer is solely responsible and liable for the satisfaction of all taxes and penalties that may be imposed on or for the account of such US Taxpayer in connection with the Plan (including any taxes and penalties under Section 409A), and neither the Corporation nor any Affiliate of the Corporation shall have any obligation to indemnify or otherwise hold such US Taxpayer (or any beneficiary) harmless from any or all of such taxes or penalties.

3. Exercise Price.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, so long as at the time of the grant of an Option the Common Shares are "readily tradable" as determined under United States Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(5)(vi)(G), the Exercise Price shall be the closing sale price of the Common Shares reported on the primary securities exchange on which the Common Shares are listed on the last business day on which such exchange is open for trading prior to the date of grant of such Option, and if at the time of grant the Common Shares are not "readily tradable" as determined under United States Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(5)(vi)(G), the Exercise Price shall be determined by the reasonable application of a reasonable valuation method in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(5)(iv)(B).

4. Expiry of Option/Trading Blackouts.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan and any provisions of the Option Agreement to the contrary, Options granted to US Taxpayers may not be exercised under any circumstance following the 10th anniversary of the Date of Grant.

5. Use of Trust

Notwithstanding Section 4.7 of the Plan, no trust shall be established or funded with respect to Options granted to US Taxpayers if such trust would cause such Options to be treated as other than a stock right described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(5)(i)(A) or (B).

6. Adjustments to Options.

Notwithstanding Article IV and Article V of the Plan or any provision of the Option Agreement to the contrary, in connection with any adjustment to the Options, the number of Common Shares deliverable on the exercise of an Option held by a US Taxpayer and the Exercise Price of an Option held by a US Taxpayer shall be adjusted in a manner intended to keep the Options exempt from Section 409A.

7. Amendment of Appendix

The Board shall retain the power and authority to amend or modify this Appendix to the extent the Board in its sole discretion deems necessary or advisable to comply with any guidance issued under Section 409A. Such amendments may be made without the approval of any US Taxpayer.

8. Non-transferability of Awards.

Notwithstanding Section 3.6 or 4.8 or any other provision of the Plan, except as otherwise set forth in the applicable Option Agreement, no Option or any interest or participation therein may be transferred (other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution) if such transfer would be treated as a "modification" of such Option for purposes of the Code.

The Committee may correct any defect or supply any omission or reconcile any inconsistency in the Plan in the manner and to the extent the Committee deems, in its sole and absolute discretion, necessary or desirable. Any decision of the Committee with respect to the administration and interpretation of the Plan shall be conclusive and binding on the Eligible Director. The Board may establish policies respecting minimum ownership of Common Shares of the Company by Eligible Directors and the ability to elect Deferred Share Units to satisfy any such policy.

1.4 Governing Law

The Plan shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein.

1.5 Common Shares Reserved for Issuance

The Company hereby reserves 100,000 Common Shares for issuance under this Plan, provided that Common Shares reserved for issuance pursuant to Deferred Share Units which are cancelled, terminated or settled without having been redeemed for Common Shares issued from treasury will again be available for issuance under this Plan.

Section 2. Election Under the Plan

2.1 Payment and Deferral of Director's Remuneration

Subject to such rules, approvals and conditions as the Committee may impose and subject to Annex 1 in respect of US Participants, an Eligible Director may elect to receive the Director's Remuneration, in whole or in part, in the form of Deferred Share Units.

(s) Method of Electing for Director's Remuneration. Unless otherwise permitted by the Committee, to elect to receive Deferred Share Units, the Eligible Director shall complete and deliver to the Chief Financial Officer of the Company, or other officer of the Company designated by the Committee, a written irrevocable election by no later than the last day of the Fiscal Year preceding the Fiscal Year respecting which the Director's Remuneration becomes payable. The Eligible Director's written election shall, subject to any minimum amount that may be required by the Committee, designate the portion or percentage of the Director's Remuneration for the applicable Fiscal Year that is to be deferred into Deferred Share Units, with the remaining portion or percentage to be paid in cash in accordance with the Company's regular practices of paying such cash compensation. In the absence of a designation to the contrary, the Eligible Director's election for the most recently ended Fiscal Year with respect to the portion or percentage of the Director's Remuneration that is to be deferred into Deferred Share Units shall continue to apply to all subsequent Director's Remuneration payments until the Eligible Director submits another written election in accordance with this paragraph. An Eligible Director shall only file one election in respect of the Director's Remuneration payable in any Fiscal Year and the election shall be irrevocable for that Fiscal Year. If no election is made, and no prior election remains effective, with respect to any Fiscal Year, the Eligible Director shall be deemed to have elected to defer any minimum amount that may be required by the Committee into Deferred Share Units and to receive the balance of the Director's Remuneration for the applicable Fiscal Year quarter in cash.

(t) Payment of Director's Remuneration. The portion or percentage of the Director's Remuneration credited as Deferred Share Units, as elected by the Participant, shall be determined on the first Business Day following the last day of each Fiscal Year quarter for which the Director's Remuneration is payable.

(u) Deferred Share Units. Deferred Share Units elected by a Participant pursuant to the Plan shall be credited to an account maintained for the Participant by the Company. The number of Deferred Share Units (including fractional Deferred Share Units) to be credited on the date prescribed by paragraph 2.1(b) shall be determined by dividing the amount of the Director's Remuneration to be deferred into Deferred Share Units on such date by the Market Price per Common Share on the Conversion Date.

(v) Dividends. When dividends are paid on Common Shares, a Participant shall be credited with dividend equivalents in respect of the Deferred Share Units credited to the Participant's account as of the record date for payment of dividends. Such dividend equivalents shall be converted into additional Deferred Share Units (including fractional Deferred Share Units) based on the Market Price per Common Share on the date credited.

2.2 Termination of Service

(a) Termination of Service. Subject to Annex I in respect of US Participants, a Participant who has retired from all positions as a director of the Company, or who, except as a result of death, has otherwise ceased for any reason to hold any such positions with the Company, may redeem the Deferred Share Units credited to the Participant's account by filing with the Chief Financial Officer of the Company, or other officer of the Company designated by the Committee, one or more notices of redemption of Deferred Share Units in the prescribed form on or before December 15 of the first calendar year commencing after the date the Participant retires from or otherwise ceases to hold such positions (other than as a result of the Participant's death). If the Participant fails to file a notice of redemption of the Deferred Share Units on or before such December 15, the Participant shall be deemed to have filed with the Chief Financial Officer of the Company a notice of redemption on such December 15 to redeem all Deferred Share Units credited to such Participant's account. Each date on which a notice of redemption is filed or deemed to be filed with the Chief Financial Officer of the Company, or other officer of the Company designated by the Committee, is the "Filing Date". Each notice of redemption filed by the Participant shall specify the number of Deferred Share Units to be redeemed and if such number is not so specified, it shall be deemed to be all the Deferred Share Units credited to the Participant's account.

(b) Death of Eligible Director. In the event of the death of a Participant while serving as a director of the Company, the Company shall redeem all Deferred Share Units credited to the Participant's Account (without any action on the part of the deceased Participant's estate).

(c) Subject to Annex I in respect of US Participants, within the earlier of 5 Business Days following the Filing Date or 90 days following the Participant's death, as applicable, the Company shall redeem, subject to Section 3.8, the Deferred Share Units (including fractional Deferred Share Units) required to be redeemed pursuant to section 2.2(a) or 2.2(b) by, in the discretion of the Company;

(i) issuing from treasury or by market purchase one Common Share for each full Deferred Share Unit to be redeemed and making a lump sum cash payment (net of any applicable withholdings) in respect of any partial Deferred Share Unit to be redeemed, determined in the same manner as set out in section 2.2(c)(ii),

(ii) making a lump sum payment (net of any applicable withholdings) in respect of all full and partial Deferred Share Units to be redeemed, equal to the number of Deferred Share Units (including fractional Deferred Share Units) to be redeemed on such Filing Date or date of death, as applicable, multiplied by the Market Price per Common Share determined as at such applicable date, or

(iii) a combination of (i) and (ii).

Section 1. General

1.6 Capital Adjustments

In the event of any stock dividend, stock split, combination or exchange of shares, merger, consolidation, spin-off or other distribution (other than normal cash dividends) of the Company's assets to shareholders, or any other change in the capital of the Company affecting Common Shares, the Committee will make such proportionate adjustments, if any, as the Committee in its discretion may deem appropriate to reflect such change, with respect to (i) the number or kind of shares or other securities on which the Deferred Share Units are based; and (ii) the number of Deferred Share Units credited to any Eligible Director's account and the number of Common Shares reserved for issuance hereunder.

1.7 Non-Exclusivity

Nothing contained herein will prevent the Board from adopting other additional compensation arrangements for the benefit of Eligible Directors, subject to any required regulatory or shareholder approval.

1.8 Unfunded Plan

Deferred Share Units shall be credited to an unfunded bookkeeping account established and maintained by the Company in the name of each Participant. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan to the contrary, a Deferred Share Unit shall not be considered or construed as an actual investment in Common Shares. To the extent any individual holds any rights under the Plan, such rights (unless otherwise determined by the Committee) shall be no greater than the rights of an unsecured general creditor of the Company.

1.9 Successors and Assigns

The Plan shall be binding on all successors and assigns of the Company and each Eligible Director, including without limitation, the legal representatives of each Eligible Director, or any receiver or trustee in bankruptcy or representative of the Company or an Eligible Director.

1.10 Transferability of Deferred Share Units

Rights respecting Deferred Share Units shall not be transferable or assignable other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution.

1.11 Amendment and Termination

(a) The Board may amend, suspend or terminate this Plan, or any portion thereof, at any time, subject to those provisions of applicable rules, regulations and policies of the Toronto Stock Exchange and the New York Stock Exchange, as applicable, if any, that require the approval of shareholders.

(b) No amendment, suspension or termination may materially adversely affect any Deferred Share Units, or any rights pursuant thereto, granted previously to any Participant without the consent of that Participant.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, any amendment of the Plan shall ensure that the Plan is continuously excluded from the salary deferral arrangements rules under the Income Tax Act (Canada) or any successor rules.

(d) If this Plan is terminated, the provisions of this Plan and any administrative guidelines, and other rules adopted by the Committee and in force at the time of this Plan, will continue in effect as long as a Deferred Share Unit or any rights pursuant thereto remain outstanding. However, notwithstanding the termination of the Plan, the Committee may make any amendments to the Plan or the Deferred Share Units it would be entitled to make if the Plan were still in effect.

(e) With the consent of the Participant affected thereby, the Committee may amend or modify any outstanding Deferred Share Unit in any manner to the extent that the Committee would have had the authority to initially grant the Deferred Share Units so modified or amended.

1.12 Tax Consequences

It is the responsibility of the Participant to complete and file any tax returns which may be required under Canadian and U.S. tax laws within the periods specified in those laws as a result of the Participant's participation in the Plan. The Company shall not be held responsible for any tax consequences to a Participant as a result of the Participant's participation in the Plan.

1.13 Withholding Taxes

The Company may take such steps as are considered necessary or appropriate for the withholding of any taxes which the Company is required by any law or regulation of any governmental authority whatsoever to withhold in connection with any payment under the Plan including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the withholding of all or any portion of any payment or the withholding of the issue of Common Shares to be issued upon the redemption of any Deferred Shares Units, until such time as the Participant has paid the Company for any amount which the Company is required to withhold with respect to such taxes.

1.14 US Participants

Compensation payable under the Plan to US Participants is intended to be exempt from taxes and penalties under Section 409A of the Code and the regulations issued thereunder, and the Plan (including Annex I) and all Deferred Share Units shall be construed, interpreted and administered in compliance with such intent. If the Committee determines that any amounts payable hereunder may be taxable to a Participant under Section 409A, the Committee may (i) subject to Section 3.6, adopt such amendments to the Plan and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, that the Committee determines necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by the Plan and/or (ii) take such other actions as the Committee determines necessary or appropriate to avoid or limit the imposition of an additional tax under Section 409A; provided, that neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries nor any other person or entity shall have any liability to a Participant (or any beneficiary thereof) with respect to any tax imposed by Section 409A. Annex I sets forth special terms of the Plan applicable to US Participants.

1.15 No Liability

The Company shall not be liable to any Participant for any loss resulting from a decline in the market value of any Common Shares.

1.16 No Right to Continued Board Membership

Nothing contained herein shall (i) be construed as conferring upon any Participant the right to continue as a member of the Board, (ii) affect in any way the right of the Company or shareholders to terminate such membership, or (iii) affect in any way the rights of any party contained in any agreement governing a Participant's service as a member of the Board or other agreement governing the Participant's non-employee services to the Company.

1.17 Effective Date

This Plan was initially adopted by the Board on September 18, 2012 (the "Effective Date") and amended and restated on October 14, 2014. Should any changes to this Plan be required by any securities commission or other governmental body of any jurisdiction of Canada or the United States to which this Plan has been submitted or by any stock exchange on which the Common Shares may from time to time be listed, such changes will be made to this Plan as are necessary to conform with such requests and, if such changes are approved by the Board, this Plan, as amended, will remain in full force and effect in its amended form as of and from that date.

ANNEX I TO PERFORMANCE SPORTS GROUP LTD. DIRECTORS' DEFERRED SHARE UNIT PLAN FOR US PARTICIPANTS

The following additional or special terms and conditions shall apply to all Eligible Directors who are US Participants.

In the event that there is any conflict between the terms and conditions of the Plan and the provisions of this Annex I, this Annex I shall govern.

Section 2. Election Under the Plan. With respect to US Participants, notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan to the contrary,

2.1 Payment and Deferral of Director's Remuneration

(e) Method of Electing for Director's Remuneration. Each Participant's irrevocable written deferral election with respect to Director Remuneration otherwise payable to him for services rendered in a Fiscal Year must be provided to the Company in the manner set forth in Section 2.1(a) no later than the last day of the Fiscal Year immediately preceding the Fiscal Year with respect to which such deferral election relates; provided, however, that with respect to Director Remuneration related to the first Fiscal Year in which an Eligible Director becomes eligible to participate in the Plan (including the 2013 Fiscal Year), the Eligible Director's completed election form must be received by the Company within 30 days following the date on which such Eligible Director first becomes eligible to participate in the Plan (provided that such election shall relate only to amounts payable for services performed after the date such Election Form is so received).

2.2 Termination of Service

(d) Redemption of Deferred Share Units. Each Participant's Deferred Share Units shall be redeemed in full on the earlier to occur of (A) the Participant's separation from service with the Company for any reason and (B) a Change in Control (such earlier date, the "Redemption Date").

(a) Deferred Share Units (including fractional Deferred Share Units) to be redeemed pursuant to section 2.2(d) on the Redemption Date shall be redeemed by, in the discretion of the Company,

(i) issuing to the Participant one Common Share for each full Deferred Share Unit to be redeemed and making a lump sum cash payment (net of any applicable withholdings) determined in the same manner as set out in section 2.2(e)(ii) in respect of any partial Deferred Share Unit to be redeemed;

(ii) making a lump sum payment (net of any applicable withholdings) in respect of all full and partial Deferred Share Units to be redeemed, equal to the number of Deferred Share Units (including fractional Deferred Share Units) to be redeemed on such Payment Designation Date multiplied by the closing market price Common Share on the Toronto Stock Exchange on the trading date immediately preceding the Redemption Date (or, if such shares are not then listed and posted for trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange, on such other stock exchange in Canada on which Common Shares are listed and posted for trading as may be selected for such purpose by the Committee); provided that, in the event that Common Shares are not listed and posted for trading on any stock exchange at the applicable date, the price in respect thereof for purposes of this Section 2.2(e) shall be the fair market value of a Common Share as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion, or

(f) "Change in Control" for purposes of this Annex I means a change in the ownership or effective control of the Company or in the ownership of a substantial portion of the assets of the Company, within the meaning of Section 409A(a)(2)(A)(v) of the Code.

(h) Advanced Redemption. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if any portion of a Participant's Deferred Share Units is required to be included in income by the Participant prior to the Redemption Date due to a violation of the requirements of Code Section 409A, the Participant may petition the Committee for the redemption of those portions of his or her Deferred Share Units that are required to be so included in income. As soon as reasonably practicable following the grant of such a petition, which grant shall not be unreasonably withheld, the Company shall redeem a portion of such Participant's Deferred Share Units equal to the amount required to be included in income as a result of the failure of the Plan to meet the requirements of Code Section 409A; provided, however, that in no event may the number of Deferred Share Units redeemed exceed the total number of Deferred Share Units credited to such Participant under the Plan.

(i) No Acceleration or Other Change. Except as provided in Section 2.2(e) of this Annex I, no acceleration or other change as to the time and form of payment in respect of Deferred Share Units shall be permitted following the date on which the Participant's deferral election becomes irrevocable as provided under Section 2.1 of this Annex I except to the extent permitted and in the manner specified under Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 409A of the Code; provided that if the Participant is a "specified employee" within the meaning of Code Section 409A, payments in respect of his or her Deferred Share Units in connection with such Participant's separation from service shall be subject to any delay required under Code Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) and the regulations thereunder.

ADMINISTRATION

3.1 Administration

Subject to Section 3.2, this Plan will be administered by the Board and the Board has sole and complete authority, in its discretion, to:

(a) interpret this Plan and any Option Agreement and adopt, amend and rescind administrative guidelines and other rules and regulations relating to this Plan; and

(b) make all other determinations, settle all controversies and disputes that may arise under this Plan and take all other actions necessary or advisable for the implementation and administration of this Plan.

The Board's determinations and actions under this Plan are conclusive and binding on the Corporation and all other Persons. The day-to-day administration of this Plan may be delegated to such officers and employees of the Corporation as the Board determines.

3.2 Delegation to Committee

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Board may, from time to time, delegate to a committee of the Board (the "Committee") all or any of the powers conferred on the Board under this Plan. In such event, the Committee will exercise the powers delegated to it by the Board in the manner and on the terms authorized by the Board. Any decision made or action taken by the Committee arising out of or in connection with the administration or interpretation of this Plan in this context is final and conclusive.

No member of the Board or of the Committee shall be liable for any action or determination taken or made in good faith in the administration, interpretation, construction or application of this Plan or any Options granted hereunder, nor shall any member of the Board be liable for any action or determination taken or made in good faith by the Committee or a member thereof.

3.3 Eligibility

All Participants are eligible to participate in this Plan. The extent to which any Participant is entitled to receive Options governed by this Plan will be determined based on the number of Predecessor Options held by the Participant immediately prior to the Effective Date as determined by the Board in its sole and absolute discretion.

3.4 Total Common Shares Subject to Options

(a) There is a maximum of 5,119,815 Common Shares reserved for issuance under this Plan. At all times, the Corporation will reserve and keep available a sufficient number of Common Shares to satisfy the requirements of all outstanding Options granted under this Plan.

(b) No Option may be granted if such grant would have the effect of causing the total number of Common Shares subject to Options to exceed the total number of Common Shares reserved for issuance pursuant to the exercise of Options and set forth in Subsection 3.4(a).

(c) No Option may be granted under this Plan other than in substitution for Predecessor Options.

3.5 Option Agreements

All grants of Options under Section 4.1 of this Plan will be evidenced by Option Agreements. Such Option Agreements will be subject to the applicable provisions of this Plan and will contain such provisions as are required by this Plan, applicable law and the rules of the TSX or other stock exchange upon which the Common Shares are listed and any other provisions that the Board may, in its discretion, determine. Any one Director or Officer is authorized and empowered to execute and deliver, for and on behalf of the Corporation, an Option Agreement to each Optionee.

3.6 Non-transferability

Subject to Section 4.9 and except as specifically provided in an Option Agreement approved by the Board, Options granted under this Plan may only be exercised during the lifetime of the Optionee by such Optionee personally. No sale, assignment, encumbrance or other transfer of Options, whether voluntary, involuntary, by operation of law or otherwise (other than upon the death of the Optionee), vests any interest or right in such Options whatsoever in any assignee or transferee (except that an Optionee may transfer Options to Registered Retirement Savings Plans or Registered Retirement Income Funds of which he is the annuitant, to a corporation in respect of which the Optionee is the sole shareholder or to a family trust for bona fide estate planning purposes, in each case, with the prior written approval of the Corporation) and immediately upon any assignment or transfer, or any attempt to make the same, such Options will terminate and be of no further force or effect. If any Optionee (the "Original Optionee") has transferred Options to a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Registered Retirement Income Fund or a corporation or a family trust pursuant to this Section 3.6, such Options will terminate and be of no further force or effect if at any time the Original Optionee should cease to be the annuitant of such Registered Retirement Savings Plans or Registered Retirement Income Funds or cease to own all of the issued shares of such corporation or cease to be a trustee or a beneficiary of the family trust, as the case may be, other than by reason of death, in which case the provisions of Section 4.9 shall apply, mutatis mutandis.

GRANT OF OPTIONS

4.1 Grant of Options

The Board may, from time to time by resolution, subject to the provisions of this Plan (including Appendix 1 hereto which is applicable to Participants whose compensation is subject to Section 409A of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, notwithstanding the other provisions of this Plan) and such other terms and conditions as the Board may prescribe, grant Options to the Participants. The number of Options granted to a Participant under this Plan shall be set with reference to the Exercise Price such that the total in the money value of all Options granted to a Participant under this Plan shall be equal to the total in the money value of such Participant's Predecessor Options immediately prior to the Effective Date.

4.2 Exercise Price

The Exercise Price for Common Shares that are the subject of any Option shall be fixed by the Board or the Committee, as the case may be, when such Option is granted, and shall be set with reference to the total in the money value of options granted to the Participant under the KBAU Plan.

4.3 Expiration of Options

Subject to any accelerated termination as set forth in this Plan (including, without limitation, as provided in Section 4.9), each Option expires on the 10th anniversary of the Date of Grant. Unless otherwise determined by the Board or the Committee, all unexercised Options shall be cancelled at the expiry of such Options.

Should the expiration date for an Option fall within a Black-Out Period or within nine Trading Days following the expiration of a Black-Out Period, such expiration date shall be automatically extended without any further act or formality to that date which is the tenth Trading Day after the end of the Black-Out Period, such tenth Trading Day to be considered the expiration date for such Option for all purposes under this Plan. Notwithstanding Article 6 hereof, the ten Trading Day period referred to in this Section 4.3 may not be extended by the Board.

4.4 Grants of Options to U.S. Taxpayers

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Plan, the terms of the Options granted to any Optionee who is a U.S. Taxpayer (including the number of Common Shares subject to the Option and the Exercise Price therefor) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 409A and the regulations thereunder in a manner intended to keep the Predecessor Options as adjusted and converted into the Options exempt from Section 409A.

4.5 Vesting

All Options awarded under the Plan shall be vested immediately in each Participant. Unless otherwise specified in the Option Agreement entered into in connection with the grant of such Option, an Option will be capable of exercise on vesting.

4.6 Conditions of Exercise and Exercise Period

An Option remains exercisable until expiration or termination of the Option in accordance with the Plan, unless otherwise specified by the Board in the Option. Each Option may be exercised at any time or from time to time, in whole or in part, for up to the total number of Common Shares with respect to which it is then exercisable. For greater certainty, no Option shall be exercised by a Participant during a Black-Out Period. Subject to the provisions of this Plan and any Option Agreement, Options shall be exercised by the Participant delivering to the Corporation a fully completed Exercise Notice together with a bank draft or certified cheque in an amount equal to the aggregate Exercise Price of the Common Shares to be purchased plus an amount sufficient to cover the withholding taxes payable on the exercise of such Options.

4.7 Payment of Exercise Price

No Common Shares will be issued or transferred until full payment for the Common Shares to be purchased and an amount sufficient to cover any withholding taxes payable on the exercise of such Options (to the extent required to be withheld by the Corporation) has been received by the Corporation. As soon as practicable after receipt of any Exercise Notice, along with such full payment, the Corporation will forthwith cause the transfer agent and registrar of the Common Shares to deliver to the Optionee a certificate or certificates in the name of the Optionee or a statement of account, at the discretion of the Optionee, representing in the aggregate the purchased Common Shares.

4.8 Use of an Administrative Agent and Trustee

The Board may in its sole discretion appoint from time to time one or more entities to act as administrative agent to administer the Options granted under this Plan and to act as trustee to hold and administer the assets that may be held in respect of Options granted under this Plan, the whole in accordance with the terms and conditions determined by the Board in its sole discretion. The Corporation and the administrative agent will maintain records showing the number of Options granted to each Optionee under this Plan as well as records showing any assignments or transfers of Options by an Optionee as permitted under Section 3.6. The administrative agent shall be permitted to arrange a broker assisted "cashless exercise", including a "short sale" for such number of Common Shares to be sold as is necessary to raise an amount equal to the amount specified in Section 4.7, and to cause the proceeds from the sale of such Common Shares to be delivered to the Corporation along with the Exercise Notice, promptly following which the Corporation shall issue the Common Shares underlying the number of Options exercised in the account designated by the administrative agent, acting on the instructions of the Participant.

4.9 Termination of Service

(a) All Options held by the Participant shall terminate automatically upon the termination of the Participant's service with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for any reason other than as set forth in Section 4.9(b).

(b) In the case of a termination of the Participant's service by reason of (A) termination by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries other than for Cause, (B) the Participant's death, or (C) voluntary resignation or for ceasing to be a Director or a director of a Subsidiary, at any time during the ninety (90) day period commencing on the date of such termination of service (or, if earlier, the Termination Date), the Participant (or his or her executor or administrator, or the Person or Persons to whom the Participant's Share Options are transferred by will or the applicable laws of descent and distribution) will be eligible to exercise his Options and upon the 90th day following such termination of service (or, if earlier, the Termination Date) any Options that have not been exercised shall automatically terminate.

(c) For greater certainty, where an Optionee's employment or term of office terminates by reason of termination by the Corporation or any Subsidiary for Cause, then any Options held by the Optionee immediately expire and are cancelled on the Termination Date.

(d) For the purposes of the Plan, an Optionee shall not be deemed to have terminated service where: (i) the Optionee remains in employment or office within or among the Corporation or any Subsidiary or (ii) the Optionee is on a leave of absence approved by the Board.

4.10 Discretion to Permit Exercise

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Plan, the Board may, in its discretion, at any time prior to or in connection with the Optionee's termination of service, permit the exercise of any or all Options held by the Optionee in the manner and on the terms authorized by the Board, provided that, subject to an extension pursuant to Section 4.3 resulting from a Black-Out Period, the Board will not, in any case, authorize the exercise of an Option pursuant to this Section beyond the 10-year expiration of the Exercise Period of the particular Option.

4.11 Change of Control

Except as otherwise set forth in any Option Agreement, in the event of any Change of Control transaction, the Board may provide for substitute or replacement options of similar value from, or the assumption of outstanding Options by, the acquiring or surviving entity, any such substitution, replacement or assumption to be on such terms as the Board in good faith determines; provided, however, that in the event of a Change of Control transaction the Board may take, as to any outstanding Option, any one or more of the following actions:

(a) provide that any or all Options shall thereupon terminate; provided that any such outstanding Options shall remain exercisable until consummation of such Change of Control; and

4.12 Conditions of Exercise

Each Optionee will, when requested by the Corporation, sign and deliver all such documents relating to the granting or exercise of Options which the Corporation deems necessary or desirable.

ARTICLE 5
SHARE CAPITAL ADJUSTMENTS

5.1 General

The existence of any Option does not affect in any way the right or power of the Corporation or its shareholders to make, authorize or determine any adjustment, recapitalization, reorganization or any other change in the Corporation's capital structure or its business, or any amalgamation, combination, plan of arrangement, merger or consolidation involving the Corporation, to create or issue any bonds, debentures, Proportionate Voting Shares, Common Shares or other securities of the Corporation or to determine the rights and conditions attaching thereto, to effect the dissolution or liquidation of the Corporation or any sale or transfer of all or any part of its assets or business, or to effect any other corporate act or proceeding, whether of a similar character or otherwise, whether or not any such action referred to in this Section would have an adverse effect on this Plan or any Option granted hereunder.

5.2 Reorganization of the Corporation's Capital

(a) In the event of any subdivision of the Common Shares into a greater number of Common Shares at any time after the grant of an Option to a Optionee and prior to the expiration of the Exercise Period of such Option, the Corporation will deliver to such Optionee at the time of any subsequent exercise of such Option in accordance with the terms hereof in lieu of the number of Common Shares to which such Optionee was theretofore entitled upon such exercise, but for the same aggregate consideration payable therefor, such number of Common Shares as such Optionee would have held as a result of such subdivision if on the record date thereof the Optionee had been the registered holder of the number of Common Shares to which such Optionee was theretofore entitled upon such exercise.

(b) In the event of any consolidation of Common Shares into a lesser number of Common Shares at any time after the grant of an Option to any Optionee and prior to the expiration of the Exercise Period of such Option, the Corporation shall deliver to such Optionee at the time of any subsequent exercise of such Option in accordance with the terms hereof in lieu of the number of Common Shares to which such Optionee was theretofore entitled upon such exercise, but for the same aggregate consideration payable therefor, such number of Common Shares as such Optionee would have held as a result of such consolidation if on the record date thereof the Optionee had been the registered holder of the number of Common Shares to which such Optionee was theretofore entitled upon such exercise.

5.3 Other Events Affecting the Corporation

If, at any time prior to the expiration of the Exercise Period of such Option, the Common Shares shall be reclassified, reorganised or otherwise changed into or exchanged for a different number or class of shares or other securities of the Corporation or of a Successor Corporation (otherwise than as specified in Section 5.1 and Section 5.2 hereof), or the Corporation shall consolidate, merge or amalgamate with or into another Person, the Optionee will, subject to the provisions of Article 6 hereof, be entitled to receive at the time of any subsequent exercise of such Option in accordance with the terms hereof and will accept in lieu of the number of Common Shares then subscribed for an aggregate consideration payable therefor, adjusted, if necessary, to preserve proportionately the rights and obligations of the Optionee, the aggregate number of shares of the appropriate class or other securities of the Corporation or the Successor Corporation (as the case may be) or other consideration from the Corporation or the Successor Corporation (as the case may be) that such Optionee would have been entitled to receive as a result of such reclassification, reorganization or other change or exchange of shares or, subject to the provisions of Article 6 hereof, as a result of such consolidation, merger or amalgamation, if on the record date of such reclassification, reorganization or other change or exchange of shares or the effective date of such consolidation, merger or amalgamation, as the case may be, such Optionee had been the registered holder of the number of Common Shares to which such Optionee was immediately theretofore entitled upon such exercise.

5.4 Distribution to Securityholders

If, at any time prior to the expiration of the Expiration Period of such Option, the Corporation makes a distribution to all holders of Common Shares of shares or other securities, cash, evidences of indebtedness or other assets in the capital of the Corporation (excluding a regular ordinary course dividend in cash or Common Shares, but including common shares or equity interests in a subsidiary or business unit of the Corporation or one of its Subsidiaries or cash proceeds of the disposition of such a subsidiary or business unit), or should the Corporation effect any transaction or change having a similar effect, then the Exercise Price, or the number of Common Shares to which the Optionee is entitled upon exercise of Options, or any combination thereof, will be adjusted to take into account such distribution, transaction or change. Subject to the TSX approval, the Board will determine the appropriate adjustments to be made in such circumstances in order to maintain the Optionee's economic rights in respect of their Options in connection with such distribution, transaction or change.

5.5 Issue by Corporation of Additional Common Shares or Proportionate Voting Shares

Except as expressly provided in this Article 5, neither the issue by the Corporation of shares of any class or securities convertible into or exchangeable for shares of any class, nor the conversion or exchange of such shares or securities, affects, and no adjustment by reason thereof is to be made with respect to: (i) the number of Common Shares that may be acquired on the exercise of any outstanding Options, or (ii) the Exercise Price of any outstanding Options.

5.6 Fractions

No fractional Common Shares will be issued on the exercise of an Option. Accordingly, if, as a result of any adjustment pursuant to this Article 5, an Optionee would become entitled to a fractional Common Share, the Optionee has the right to acquire only the adjusted number of whole Common Shares and no payment or other adjustment will be made with respect to the fractional Common Shares so disregarded.

5.7 Other Conditions of Exercise

The Plan and each Option are subject to the requirement that if at any time the Board determines that the listing, registration or qualification of the Common Shares subject to such Option upon any stock exchange or under any provincial, state or federal law, or the consent or approval of any governmental body or stock exchange or of the holders of the Common Shares generally, is necessary or desirable, as a condition of, or in connection with, the granting of such Option or the issue or purchase of Common Shares thereunder, no such Option may be granted or exercised in whole or in part unless such listing, registration, qualification, consent or approval has been effected or obtained free of any conditions not acceptable to the Board. The Optionees shall, to the extent applicable, cooperate with the Corporation in relation to such listing, registration, qualification, consent or other approval and shall have no claim or cause of action against the Corporation or any of its directors or officers as a result of any failure by the Corporation to obtain or to take any steps to obtain any such registration, qualification or approval.

AMENDMENT OR DISCONTINUANCE OF THE PLAN

Subject to compliance with the applicable rules of the TSX, the Board may from time to time amend, suspend or terminate this Plan, or the terms of any previously granted Option, without obtaining the approval of shareholders of the Corporation, provided that no such amendment to the terms of any previously granted Option may, except as expressly provided in the Plan, or with the written consent of the Optionee, adversely alter or impair the terms or conditions of such Option previously granted to such Optionee under this Plan.

Any amendment to this Plan, or to the terms of any Option previously granted, is subject to compliance with all applicable laws, rules, regulations and policies of any applicable governmental entity or stock exchange, including receipt of any required approval from such governmental entity or stock exchange.

If this Plan is terminated, the provisions of this Plan and any administrative guidelines or other rules adopted by the Board and in force at the time of such termination shall continue in effect as long as any Options under the Plan or any rights pursuant thereto remain outstanding. Notwithstanding such termination of the Plan, the Board may make any amendments to the Plan or to the terms of any outstanding Options that it would be entitled to make if the Plan were still in effect.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

7.1 Legal Requirement

This Plan, and the Options granted under this Plan, shall at all times be subject to the ongoing requirements of applicable law and the rules of the TSX or other stock exchange upon which the Common Shares are listed.

The Corporation is not obligated to grant any Options, issue any Common Shares or other securities, make any payments or take any other action if, in the opinion of the Board, in its sole discretion, such action would constitute a violation by a Participant or the Corporation of any provision of any applicable statutory or regulatory enactment of any government or government agency.

7.2 Conformity to Plan

In the event that an Option is granted or an Option Agreement is executed which does not conform in all particulars with the provisions of this Plan, or purports to grant Options on terms different from those set out in this Plan, the Option, or the grant of such Option shall not be in any way void or invalidated, but the Option so granted will be adjusted to become, in all respects, in conformity with this Plan.

7.3 Optionee's Entitlement

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, Options previously granted under this Plan, whether or not then vested or exercisable, are not affected by any change in the ownership of the Corporation.

7.4 Expenses

All fees and expenses incurred by the Corporation in connection with this Plan shall be borne by the Corporation. All expenses incurred by a Participant in connection with a grant or exercise of Options, including all fees and expenses of financial or legal advisors retained by such Participant in connection therewith, shall be borne by the Participant.

7.5 Withholding Taxes

The exercise of each Option granted under this Plan is subject to the condition that if at any time the Corporation determines, in its discretion, that the satisfaction of withholding tax or other withholding liabilities is necessary or desirable in respect of such exercise, such exercise is not effective unless such withholding has been effected to the satisfaction of the Corporation. In such circumstances, the Corporation may require that an Optionee pay to the Corporation, in addition to and in the same manner as the Exercise Price for the Common Shares, such amount as the Corporation is obliged to remit to the relevant taxing authority in respect of the exercise of the Option. Any such additional payment is due no later than the date as of which any amount with respect to the Option must be withheld by the Corporation.

7.6 Rights of Participant/Optionee

The granting of any Option is not to be construed as giving an Optionee a right to remain in the employ of the Corporation or any Subsidiary. No Optionee has any rights as a shareholder of the Corporation in respect of Common Shares issuable on the exercise of rights to acquire Common Shares under any Option (including the payment of dividends or other distributions) until the allotment and issuance to the Optionee of a certificate or certificates in the name of the Optionee or a statement of account, at the discretion of the Optionee, representing such Common Shares. The loss of existing or potential profit in Options granted under this Plan will not constitute an element of damages in the event of termination of an Optionee's employment or service in any office or otherwise.

7.7 Indemnification

Every Director or member of the Committee will at all times be indemnified and saved harmless by the Corporation from and against all costs, charges and expenses whatsoever including any income tax liability arising from any such indemnification, that such Director or member of the Committee may sustain or incur by reason of any action, suit or proceeding, taken or threatened against such Director or member of the Committee, otherwise than by the Corporation, for or in respect of any act done or omitted by such Director or member of the Committee in respect of this Plan, such costs, charges and expenses to include any amount paid to settle such action, suit or proceeding or in satisfaction of any judgment rendered therein. This shall be in addition to any indemnification agreement between the Corporation and the Directors.

7.8 Participation in this Plan

The participation of any Participant in this Plan is entirely voluntary and not obligatory and shall not be interpreted as conferring upon such Participant any rights or privileges other than those rights and privileges expressly provided in this Plan. In particular, participation in this Plan does not constitute a condition of employment nor a commitment on the part of the Corporation or any Subsidiary to ensure the continued employment of such Participant or Optionee. The Plan does not provide any guarantee against any loss which may result from fluctuations in the market value of the Common Shares. Neither the Corporation nor any Subsidiary assumes any responsibility for the income or other tax consequences resulting to the Optionees and they are advised to consult with their own tax advisors.

7.9 Effective Date

This Plan was initially adopted by the Board on March 10, 2011 and amended on May 25, 2012 and further amended on April 9, 2013. Should any changes to this Plan be required by any securities commission or other governmental body of any jurisdiction of Canada to which this Plan has been submitted or by any stock exchange on which the Common Shares may from time to time be listed, such changes will be made to this Plan as are necessary to conform with such requests and, if such changes are approved by the Board, this Plan, as amended, will remain in full force and effect in its amended form as of and from that date.

7.10 Governing Law

APPENDIX 1

US TAXPAYER EMPLOYEES

The terms of the Plan are hereby modified with respect to those Participants who are subject to income taxation under the laws of the U.S.:

Second Amended and Restated Rollover Stock Option Plan

Special Provisions Applicable to Participants Subject to Section 409A of the United States Internal Revenue Code

This Appendix sets forth special provisions of the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. Second Amended and Restated Rollover Stock Option Plan (the "Plan") that apply to Participants whose compensation is subject to section 409A of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Terms defined in the Plan and used herein and in any Option Agreement applicable to any Option issued under the Plan shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan document, as amended from time to time.

1. Definitions.

For purposes of this Appendix:

(a) "Code" means the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and any applicable United States Treasury Regulations and other binding regulatory guidance thereunder.

(b) "Section 409A" means section 409A of the Code.

(c) "Separation From Service" shall have the meaning as set forth in United States Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A 1(h).

(d) "US Taxpayer" means a Participant whose compensation from the Corporation or any of its Affiliates is subject to Section 409A.

2. Non-qualified stock options; Exemption from Section 409A.

Options granted to US Taxpayers are not intended to satisfy the requirements of Code Section 422 as "incentive stock options." Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan to the contrary, it is intended that Options granted under the Plan to US Taxpayers be exempt from Section 409A, and all provisions of the Plan shall be construed and interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements for avoiding taxes or penalties under Section 409A. Each US Taxpayer is solely responsible and liable for the satisfaction of all taxes and penalties that may be imposed on or for the account of such US Taxpayer in connection with the Plan (including any taxes and penalties under Section 409A), and neither the Corporation nor any Affiliate of the Corporation shall have any obligation to indemnify or otherwise hold such US Taxpayer (or any beneficiary) harmless from any or all of such taxes or penalties.

3. Expiry of Option/Trading Blackouts.

Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan and any provisions of the Option Agreement to the contrary, Options granted to US Taxpayers may not be exercised under any circumstance following the 10th anniversary of the Date of Grant.

4. Use of Trust

Notwithstanding Section 4.8 of the Plan, no trust shall be established or funded with respect to Options granted to US Taxpayers if such trust would cause such Options to be treated as other than a stock right described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(5)(i)(A) or (B).

5. Adjustments to Options.

Notwithstanding Article IV and Article V of the Plan or any provision of the Option Agreement to the contrary, in connection with the adjustment and conversion of the Predecessor Options contemplated in Sections 4.1 and 4.2 of the Plan, and any subsequent adjustment to the Options, the number of Shares deliverable on the exercise of an Option held by a US Taxpayer and the Exercise Price of an Option held by a US Taxpayer shall be adjusted in a manner intended to keep the Options exempt from Section 409A.

6. Amendment of Appendix.

The Board shall retain the power and authority to amend or modify this Appendix to the extent the Board in its sole discretion deems necessary or advisable to comply with any guidance issued under Section 409A. Such amendments may be made without the approval of any US Taxpayer.

7. Non-transferability of Awards.

Notwithstanding Section 3.6 or 4.9 or any other provision of the Plan, except as otherwise set forth in the applicable Option Agreement, no Option or any interest or participation therein may be transferred (other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution) if such transfer would be treated as a “modification” of such Option for purposes of the Code.

Exhibit 10.9

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Bauer Hockey, Inc., a Vermont corporation (the "Company"), and Angela Bass (the "Executive"), effective as of January 9, 2012 (the "Effective Date").

WHEREAS, the Company desires to employ Executive and Executive desires to be employed by the Company immediately as of the Effective Date, under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Term. The term of the Executive's employment hereunder (the "Term") shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue until terminated in accordance with Section 4 of this Agreement.

2. Title and Duties.

(a) During the Term, the Executive shall serve the Company as Vice President, Human Resources or in such other position as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company (the "CEO") may designate from time to time, and shall also serve in similar positions with any Company subsidiary or Affiliate (as hereinafter defined) if requested by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") or the CEO.

(b) During the Term, the Executive shall be employed by the Company on a full-time basis and shall perform such duties and responsibilities on behalf of the Company and its Affiliates consistent with her positions with the Company and its Affiliates and as may be designated from time to time by the Board or the CEO.

(c) During the Term, the Executive shall devote her full business time and her best efforts, business judgment, skill and knowledge exclusively to the advancement of the business and interests of the Company and its Affiliates and to the discharge of her duties and responsibilities hereunder. The Executive shall not engage in any other business activity or serve in any industry, trade, professional, governmental or academic position during the Term, except as may be expressly approved in advance by the CEO in writing.

3. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Executive during the Term and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement:

(a) Base Salary. During the Term, the Company shall pay the Executive a base salary (the "Base Salary") at the rate of $250,000 per annum, payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company for its executives and subject to increase (but not decrease) pursuant to Section 13 and otherwise from time to time by the Board, in its discretion.

(b) Annual Bonus Compensation. For each Company fiscal year during the Term, the Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual bonus under the Company's annual bonus plan for executives (the "Annual Bonus Plan") based on the Company's and the Executive's achievement of specified performance targets for each such fiscal year. The Executive's target bonus (the "Target Bonus") shall equal 55% of the Base Salary payable to her for the applicable fiscal year. The performance targets for each fiscal year and the applicable percentage of the Target Bonus payable at specified performance thresholds each year will be set by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee"), and the Compensation Committee will determine the actual amount of annual bonus, if any, payable to the Executive hereunder in accordance with the Annual Bonus Plan (the amount of bonus for any fiscal year, the "Annual Bonus"). Except as otherwise provided herein, in order to receive an Annual Bonus for any fiscal year under this Section 3(b), the Executive must be employed by the Company for the full fiscal year. In the event that the Effective Date is after the commencement of a fiscal year, the Annual Bonus will be pro-rated for such fiscal year, with such bonus amount determined by multiplying (A) the bonus amount that would have been payable under this Section 3(b) based on performance for the entire fiscal year by (B) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in such fiscal year on which the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365 (the "Pro-Rated Bonus"). For the avoidance of doubt, the Annual Bonus Plan for the fiscal year of the Company that includes the Effective Date will be that Annual Bonus Plan as in effect for the Company immediately prior to the Effective Date.

(c) Equity Based Awards. Effective on or about the Effective Date, the Executive shall be granted options (the "Option Awards") to acquire 67,000 common shares of BPS under the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. 2011 Stock Option Plan (the "2011 Plan"), and during the Term the Executive shall be eligible to receive additional awards thereunder. The terms and conditions of the Option Awards and any other such awards shall be as set forth in the 2011 Plan and award agreements entered into between BPS and the Executive.

(d) Bonus. The Executive shall receive a bonus in the amount of $10,000 (the "Bonus") during the payroll period that immediately follows the first anniversary of the Effective Date, provided that, during such twelve-month period, the employment of the Executive was not terminated under Section 4 below.

(e) Paid Time-Off. During the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to four (4) weeks of paid time-off per annum in accordance with the Company's paid time-off policy as in effect from time to time, to be taken at such times and intervals as shall be determined by the Executive and approved by the CEO, subject to the reasonable business needs of the Company.

(f) Other Benefits. During the Term and subject to any required employee contributions, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in employee benefit plans from time to time in effect for employees of the Company generally, except to the extent such plans are in a category of benefit otherwise provided to the Executive. Such participation shall be subject to (i) the terms of the applicable plan documents, (ii) generally applicable Company policies and (iii) the discretion of the Board or any administrative or other committee provided for in such plan. The Company may alter, modify, add to or delete its employee benefit plans at any time as it, in its sole judgment, determines to be appropriate, without recourse by the Executive.

(g) Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for reasonable and necessary business expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in the performance of her duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Board or Company policy from time to time. Such reimbursements, if any, shall be payable to the Executive promptly after the submission of such reasonable substantiation and documentation and shall be subject to Section 21 of this Agreement.

4. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. The Executive's employment hereunder and the Term may be terminated under the circumstances set forth in subsections (a) through (g) below. All payments and benefits specified in this Section 4 shall be subject to Sections 5 and 21 of this Agreement.

(a) Death. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with this Section 4, the Term shall end on the date of the Executive's death. In the event of the Executive's termination of employment by reason of her death, the Company shall pay or provide to the Executive's designated beneficiary or, if no beneficiary has been designated by the Executive, to her estate: (i) any earned, but unpaid Base Salary through the end of the month in which her death has occurred; (ii) any unpaid Annual Bonus for the fiscal year ended prior to the fiscal year of her termination of employment (the "Prior Year Bonus"); (iii) the Pro-Rated Bonus for the fiscal year in which her termination of employment occurs; (iv) any unreimbursed business expenses and (v) any accrued and unused paid time-off. The payments referred to in clauses (i), (iv) and (v) in the immediately preceding sentence are referred to herein as the "Accrued Obligations" and shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days after the date of death. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(b) Disability.

(i) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Executive, in the event that the Executive becomes disabled during the Term through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of her material duties and responsibilities hereunder ("Disability") for a period of (x) one hundred and twenty (120) consecutive calendar days or (y) one hundred and fifty (150) total days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days. The Board may designate another employee to act in the Executive's place during any period of the Executive's disability.

(ii) If any question shall arise as to whether Disability exists, the Executive may, and at the request of the Company shall, submit to a medical examination by a physician selected by the Company with the consent of the Executive (not to be unreasonably withheld) to determine whether the Executive is so disabled and such determination shall for the purposes of this Agreement be conclusive of the issue. If such question shall arise and the Executive shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

(iii) The date of termination of employment under this Section 4(b) shall be the 10th business day following the Company's notice to the Executive of such termination (provided she has not resumed the full-time performance of her duties hereunder by such date), which date shall be the last day of the Term. In the event of such termination of employment, the Company shall pay to the Executive: (i) the Accrued Obligations; (ii) any unpaid Prior Year Bonus; and (iii) the Pro-Rated Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days after the date of termination of employment; each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause, but in no event later than ninety (90) days following the date upon which at least two members of the Board (other than the Executive) became aware of such Cause. The following, as determined by the Board in its reasonable judgment, shall constitute "Cause" for termination:

(i) The Executive's commission of any material fraud, embezzlement, theft or dishonesty, or any deliberate misappropriation of any material amount of money or other assets or property of the Company or any of its Affiliates;

(ii) The Executive's willful failure to perform, or gross negligence in the performance of, her duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates which remains uncured fifteen (15) business days after written notice of such failure specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such failure or negligence is given to the Executive by the Board;

(iii) The Executive's intentional material breach of any of the terms of this Agreement or breach of her fiduciary duties to the Company and Affiliates (except where the breach of fiduciary duties is caused by the Executive's Disability and except where such breach is exculpated under the Company's articles of incorporation) which remains uncured fifteen (15) business days after written notice of such breach, specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such breach, is given to the Executive by the Board; or

(iv) The Executive's conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, a felony.

The date of termination for Cause shall be the date specified in the notice given by the Board to the Executive. Following termination of the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder, other than for payment of (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company.

(d) By the Company without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder without Cause at any time upon notice to the Executive by the Board, effective as of the date specified in such notice. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to (i) pay the Executive the Accrued Obligations; (ii) continue to pay the Executive her Base Salary at the rate in effect on the date of termination for the period of twelve (12) months following such termination (the "Continuation Period") in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices for its executives; (iii) continue to provide medical and dental benefits during the Continuation Period (subject to any employee contribution applicable to active employees generally and the Executive's timely election of continuation coverage under COBRA); (iv) pay the Executive the Annual Bonus, if any, that would otherwise have been payable to her under Section 3(b) of this Agreement with respect to the fiscal year of termination of employment, without regard to the Executive's termination of employment; (v) pay the Executive the Prior Year Bonus; and (vi) continue to provide the Executive the Annual Bonus for the portion of the Continuation Period beginning after the fiscal year of termination of employment, based on actual performance for the full fiscal year, pro-rated as though the Executive remained employed through the last day of the Continuation Period (collectively, the payments and benefits referred to in clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) and (vi) are referred to as the "Severance Benefit"). The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(e) By the Executive for Good Reason. The Executive may terminate her employment hereunder for Good Reason (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Company setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Good Reason, but in no event later than ninety (90) days following the initial existence of the condition or event giving rise to Good Reason and provided that the Company shall not have corrected the situation within thirty (30) business days after such notice of Good Reason from the Executive to the Board. The following shall constitute "Good Reason":

(i) material diminution in the nature or scope of the Executive's titles, duties, authority or reporting responsibilities (including a change in Executive's direct reporting relationship to the CEO), other than as is materially consistent with the Executive's assignment to another executive position in accordance with Section 2(a) hereof or as a result of the diminution of the business of the Company; provided, however, that a change in reporting relationships resulting from the direct or indirect control of the Company (or a successor corporation) by another entity or any sale or transfer of equity, property or other assets of the Company shall not constitute Good Reason;

(ii) material failure of the Company to provide the Executive the Base Salary, Annual Bonus and benefits in accordance with the terms of Section 3 hereof;

(iii) any material diminution in Base Salary or Target Bonus; or

(iv) a change in the geographic location of the Executive's principal place of performance of her services hereunder that increases her one-way commute from her primary residence at the time of such change by at least fifty (50) miles.

In the event of termination in accordance with this Section 4(e), the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to pay or provide the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Severance Benefit. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(f) By the Executive Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate her employment hereunder at any time without Good Reason upon forty-five (45) days' notice to the Board. In the event of termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Board may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Board so elects, the Company will pay the Executive her Base Salary for the notice period (or for any remaining portion of the period). In the event of termination of employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Company shall pay the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(g) Termination of Employment in Connection with a Change of Control. If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or the Executive terminates her employment for Good Reason, in each case, nine months prior to, or within twelve (12) months following, the consummation of a "Change of Control" (as defined in the 2011 Plan), the Executive shall be entitled to the payments and benefits set forth in Section 4(d) or (e), as applicable; provided that the Continuation Period as used in this Agreement shall be twenty-four (24) months.

5. Release; Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 5 shall apply to a termination pursuant to Section 4 or otherwise.

(a) A condition precedent to the Company's obligations to pay the Severance Benefit and other payments under each of Sections 4(d), (e), and (g) shall be the Executive's execution and delivery of a timely and effective Release of Claims, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Release of Claims") within fifty-five (55) days following the Executive's termination of employment (the "Release Condition"). (For the avoidance of doubt, the Release of Claims must be executed and delivered to the Company (and not subsequently be revoked) not later than forty-seven (47) days following the termination of employment in order to comply with the preceding sentence.) Payments and benefits of amounts which do not constitute nonqualified deferred compensation and are not subject to Section 409A (as defined below) shall commence five (5) days after the Release Condition is satisfied and payments and benefits which are subject to Section 409A shall commence on the 60th day after termination of employment (subject to further delay, if required, pursuant to Section 21 below) provided that the Release Condition is satisfied. If the Executive fails to execute and deliver the Release of Claims, or if she revokes the Release of Claims as provided therein, except for the Accrued Obligations, she shall not receive the Severance Benefit or any other payment to which she may otherwise be entitled under this Agreement.

(b) Upon termination of the Executive's employment with the Company, unless otherwise specifically provided herein, her rights to benefits and payments under any retirement, health or welfare employee benefits plan, under BPS equity plans (and any equity award agreements pursuant to which awards were granted thereunder) and under any other benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate shall be determined in accordance with the terms and provisions of such plans; provided, however, that the Executive shall not be entitled to severance or termination pay under such benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate in connection with termination of her employment.

(c) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination if so provided herein or if necessary or desirable fully to accomplish the purposes of such provision, including without limitation the obligations of the Executive under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The obligation of the Company to pay the Severance Benefit is expressly conditioned upon the Executive's continued full performance of obligations under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive recognizes that, except as expressly provided herein, no compensation is earned after termination of employment.

6. Confidential Information.

(a) The Executive acknowledges that the Company and its Affiliates continually develop Confidential Information, that the Executive may develop Confidential Information for the Company or its Affiliates and that the Executive may learn of Confidential Information during the course of employment. The Executive will comply with the policies and procedures of the Company and its Affiliates for protecting Confidential Information and shall never disclose to any Person, or use for her own benefit or gain, any Confidential Information obtained by the Executive incident to her employment or other association with the Company or any of its Affiliates, in each case except as required by applicable law, governmental or judicial process or procedure, or for the proper performance of her duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates or as may be reasonably necessary for the Executive to enforce her rights hereunder or under any of her equity agreements under a BPS equity plan. The Executive understands that this restriction shall continue to apply after her employment terminates, regardless of the reason for such termination, but only for as long as the Confidential Information remains confidential (other than where the Executive, in violation of the Agreement, discloses or publicizes such information).

(b) All documents, records, tapes and other media of every kind and description relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company or its Affiliates and any copies, in whole or in part, thereof (the " Documents"), whether or not prepared by the Executive, shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its Affiliates. The Executive shall safeguard all Documents and shall surrender to the Company at the time her employment terminates, or at such earlier time or times as the Board or its designee may specify, all Documents then in the Executive's possession or control; provided, however, that the Executive may keep such documents that represent agreements between herself and the Company and such documents as are necessary to allow the Executive to understand, exercise and protect her rights and obligations under any agreements between herself and the Company.

7. Assignment of Rights to Intellectual Property . The Executive shall promptly and fully disclose all Intellectual Property to the Company. The Executive hereby assigns and agrees to assign to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) the Executive's full right, title and interest in and to all Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to execute any and all applications for domestic and foreign patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights and to do such other acts (including without limitation the execution and delivery of instruments of further assurance or confirmation) requested by the Company to assign the Intellectual Property to the Company and to permit the Company to enforce any patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights to the Intellectual Property. The Executive will not charge the Company for time spent in complying with these obligations. All copyrightable works that the Executive creates while employed by the Company hereunder shall be considered "work made for hire".

8. Restricted Activities. In exchange for good and valuable consideration including, without limitation, the grant of stock options hereunder, the Executive agrees that some restrictions on her activities during and after her employment are necessary to protect the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates.

(a) While the Executive is employed by the Company, and through the last day of the twelve (12) month period following her termination of employment or, if later, the last day of the Continuation Period (whichever applies, the "Non-Competition Period"), the Executive shall not, whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise, compete in any material manner with the Company or any of its Affiliates in the Business anywhere in the United States, Canada or Europe; provided that the Executive shall be permitted to own, as a passive investor, not more than 5% of the publicly-traded securities of any Person; provided, further, that the foregoing prohibition shall not apply to any Person which competes with the Company in the Business in the United States, Canada or Europe through a division, subsidiary or other business unit of such Person so long as the Executive does not herself so compete and does not work or consult for, or otherwise give advice to, any division, subsidiary or business unit that does so compete. Specifically, but without limiting the foregoing, the Executive agrees not to engage in any manner in any activity that is competitive in any material manner with the Business. Restricted activity includes without limitation accepting employment or a consulting position with any Person who is, or at any time within twelve (12) months prior to termination of the Executive's employment has been, a customer of the Company or any of its Affiliates. For the purposes of this Agreement, the "Business" shall mean the designing, developing, manufacturing, producing, marketing, distributing, selling and supporting of (i) roller, ice and in-line skates, (ii) hockey equipment and apparel, namely roller, ice, in-line and street hockey equipment and apparel, (iii) lacrosse equipment and apparel, and

(iv) any other line of business in which the Company or any of its Affiliates is engaged, or has taken significant steps in connection with the preparation of engaging, in any material way, as of the Executive's termination of employment.

(b) The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period, the Executive will not hire or attempt to hire any Person who is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) an employee of the Company or any of its Affiliates, assist in such hiring by any Person, encourage any such employee to terminate his or her relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates, or solicit or encourage any Person which is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) a customer or vendor of the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate its relationship with them, or, in the case of a customer, to conduct with any Person any business or activity which such customer conducts or could conduct with the Company or any of its Affiliates. The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period she shall not make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Company or its Affiliates including, without limitation, their products, services, management, shareholders, employees and customers. The Company further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period it will instruct its employees not to make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Executive.

9. Enforcement of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges that she has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed upon her pursuant to Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive agrees without reservation that each of the restraints contained herein is necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates; that each and every one of those restraints is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area; and that these restraints, individually or in the aggregate, will not prevent her from obtaining other suitable employment during the period in which the Executive is bound by these restraints. The Executive further acknowledges that, were she to breach any of the covenants contained in Sections 6, 7 or 8 hereof, the damage to the Company would be irreparable. The Executive therefore agrees that the Company, in addition to any other remedies available to it, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Executive of any of said covenants, without having to post bond. The parties further agree that, in the event that any provision of Section 6, 7 or 8 hereof shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities, such provision shall be deemed to be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law.

10. Conflicting Agreements. The Executive hereby represents and warrants that the execution of this Agreement and the performance of her obligations hereunder will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which the Executive is a party or is bound and that the Executive is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants that would affect the performance of her obligations hereunder. The Executive will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company any proprietary information of a third party without such party's consent.

11. Definitions. Words or phrases which are initially capitalized or are within quotation marks shall have the meanings provided in this Section 11 and as provided elsewhere herein. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Affiliates" means all Persons and entities directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Company, where control may be by either management authority or equity interest. For the avoidance of doubt, Affiliates does not include any unrelated Kohlberg portfolio companies that are not directly or indirectly subsidiaries of BPS.

(b) "Confidential Information" means any and all information of the Company and its Affiliates that is not generally known at such time by others with whom they compete or do business, or with whom they plan to compete or do business and any and all information, not publicly known, which, if disclosed by the Company or its Affiliates would assist in competition against them. Confidential Information includes without limitation such information relating to (i) the development, research, testing, manufacturing, marketing and financial activities of the Company and its Affiliates, (ii) the Products, (iii) the costs, sources of supply, financial performance and strategic plans of the Company and its Affiliates, (iv) the identity and special needs of the customers of the Company and its Affiliates and (v) the people and organizations with whom the Company and its Affiliates have business relationships and the existence and nature of those relationships. Confidential Information also includes comparable information that the Company or any of its Affiliates has received belonging to others or which was received by the Company or any of its Affiliates with any understanding that it would not be disclosed. Confidential Information does not include information that is publicly known or becomes publicly known through no fault of the Executive.

(c) "Intellectual Property" means inventions, discoveries, developments, methods, processes, compositions, works, concepts and ideas (whether or not patentable or copyrightable or constituting trade secrets) conceived, made, created, developed or reduced to practice by the Executive (whether alone or with others, whether or not during normal business hours or on or off Company premises) during the Executive's employment that relate to the Business (as defined in Section 8), the Products or any prospective activity of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(d) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, an association, a partnership, an estate, a trust and any other entity or organization, other than the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(e) "Products" mean all products planned, researched, developed, tested, manufactured, sold, licensed, leased or otherwise distributed or put into use by the Company or any of its Affiliates, together with all services provided or planned by the Company or any of its Affiliates, during the Executive's employment.

12. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

13. Increase in Base Salary upon Certain Relocations . In the event the Company relocates its corporate headquarters outside the State of New Hampshire, the rate of Base Salary payable to the Executive shall be subject to a one-time increase in an amount equal to the sum of (i) the product of (A) the rate of Base Salary in effect immediately prior to such relocation multiplied by (B) the additional income taxes payable by the Executive (exclusive of any taxes imposed by Section 409A of the Code) on the amount determined in clause (A), calculated at the highest effective marginal combined rate of U.S. state and local personal income tax then in effect in the city and state to which the Company relocates, and (ii) an additional amount (intended to "gross-up" the Executive) equal to the additional federal, state and local income taxes (measured on a combined basis) payable by the Executive under U.S. law in respect of the amount payable to her under Section 13(i); provided, however, that the Executive will only be entitled to the Base Salary increase contemplated in this Section 13 if, as of immediately prior to such relocation of the corporate headquarters, the Executive's primary residence for purposes of U.S. federal taxes had been the State of New Hampshire for a continuous period of longer than twelve (12) months.

14. Parachute Payments

(a) This Section 14 shall apply only in the case of a Statutory Change in Control (as defined below) occurring after the initial public offering of shares of BPS, and at a time when the Company or BPS has stock which is "readily tradable on an established securities market or otherwise" (within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(5)(A)(ii)(I) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code")). In the event it is determined that any of the payments or benefits (including, without limitation, accelerated vesting of equity rights or other benefits) otherwise payable to the Executive under this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement with the Company or any Affiliate (collectively, the "Payments"), including by reason of the Executive's termination of employment in connection with a Change of Control or other event that constitutes a change in ownership or control of the Company as defined in Code Section 280G (a "Statutory Change in Control") would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Code Section 4999 (the "Excise Tax"), then such Payments shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent necessary so that the aggregate Payments received by the Executive will not be subject to the Excise Tax, but only if by reason of such reduction, the net after tax benefit to the Executive exceeds the net after tax benefit to the Executive without any such reduction. "Net after tax benefit" for purposes of this Section 14 shall mean the sum of (i) the Payments to be made less (ii) the amount of federal income and employment taxes payable with respect to such Payments, calculated at the maximum marginal income tax rate for the year of payment (based upon the rate in effect for such year as set forth in the Code at the time of termination of the Executive's employment) and less (iii) the amount of Excise Taxes imposed with respect to such Payments.

(b) If a reduction in the Payments is necessary, reduction shall occur in the following order: first, a reduction of cash payments not attributable to equity awards which vest on an accelerated basis; second, the cancellation of accelerated vesting of stock awards; third, the reduction of employee benefits and fourth a reduction in any other "parachute payments" (as defined in Code Section 280G). If acceleration of vesting of stock award compensation is to be reduced, such acceleration of vesting shall be cancelled in the reverse order of the date of grant of the Executive's stock awards unless the Executive elects in writing a different order for cancellation. The determinations with respect to this Section 14 shall be made by the Company's regular outside accountants, and the Company shall pay the fees and expenses of such accountants.

(c) While it is the intention of the Company and the Executive to reduce the amounts payable or distributable to the Executive hereunder only if the aggregate net after tax benefits to the Executive would thereby be increased, as a result of the uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of an initial determination hereunder, it is possible that amounts will have been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement which should not have been so paid or distributed ("Overpayment") or that additional amounts which will have not been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement could have been so paid or distributed ("Underpayment"), in each case, consistent with the calculations hereunder. In the event that the Company's accountants, based upon the assertion of a deficiency by the Internal Revenue Service against either the Company or the Executive which the accountants believe has a high probability of success, determine that an Overpayment has been made, then the Executive shall repay any such Overpayment to the Company within ten business days of her receipt of notice of such Overpayment; provided, however, that no amount shall be payable by the Executive to the Company if and to the extent such deemed payment would not either reduce the amount on which the Executive is subject to tax under Section 1 and Section 4999 of the Code or generate a refund of such taxes. In the event that the accountants, based upon controlling precedent or substantial authority, determine that an Underpayment has occurred, any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive; provided, that any such Underpayment shall constitute a payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-2(b)(2)) separate and apart from the Payments; and provided, further that any such Underpayment shall be deemed a disputed payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-3(g)) and shall be made no later than the end of the first taxable year of the Company in which the accounting firm determines pursuant to this Section 14(c) that such Underpayment is due.

15. Assignment. The Executive may not make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein. The Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of the Executive in the event that the Company shall hereafter affect a reorganization, or consolidate with, or merge into, any other Person or transfer all or substantially all of its properties, stock, or assets to any other Person. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and the Executive, their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

16. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

17. Waiver. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

18. Notices. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed to the Executive at her last known address on the books of the Company or, in the case of the Company, at its principal place of business, attention of the Chief Executive Officer, or to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

19. Entire Agreement/Effective Date. This Agreement shall be effective only upon the Effective Date, and upon the Effective Date shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede and terminate all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment with the Company, BPS and their respective Affiliates.

20. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Executive and by an expressly authorized representative of the Company.

(a) This Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 409A") with respect to amounts, if any, subject thereto and shall be interpreted and construed and shall be performed by the parties consistent with such intent. If either party notifies the other in writing that one or more or the provisions of this Agreement contravenes any Treasury Regulations or guidance promulgated under Section 409A or causes any amounts to be subject to interest, additional tax or penalties under Section 409A, the parties shall agree to negotiate in good faith to make amendments to this Agreement as the parties mutually agree, reasonably and in good faith are necessary or desirable, to (i) maintain to the maximum extent reasonably practicable the original intent of the applicable provisions without violating the provisions of Section 409A or increasing the costs to the Company of providing the applicable benefit or payment and (ii) to the extent possible, to avoid the imposition of any interest, additional tax or other penalties under Section 409A upon the parties.

(b) To the extent the Executive would otherwise be entitled to any payment or benefit under this Agreement, or any plan or arrangement of the Company or its Affiliates, that constitutes a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A and that if paid during the six (6) months beginning on the date of termination of the Executive's employment would be subject to the Section 409A additional tax because the Executive is a "specified employee" (within the meaning of Section 409A and as determined by the Company), the payment or benefit will be paid or provided to the Executive on the first day following the six (6) month anniversary of the Executive's termination of employment or, if earlier, the Executive's date of death.

shall be paid or provided to the Executive only upon a "separation from service" as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(h). Each payment made under this Agreement shall be deemed to be a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A. Amounts payable under this Agreement shall be deemed not to be a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A to the extent provided in the exceptions in Treasury Regulation §§ 1.409A-1(b)(4) ("short-term deferrals") and (b)(9) ("separation pay plans," including the exception under subparagraph (iii)) and other applicable provisions of Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1 through A-6. To the extent an annual bonus is payable under any provision of this Agreement, it shall be paid in the taxable year of the Company following the taxable year with respect to which the bonus relates, and not later than the 15th day of the third month of such taxable year; provided, that it shall not be a breach of this Agreement if payment is made later in such year to the extent financial results are not available by such date so long as payment is made no later than December 31 of such year.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Agreement, any payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise that is exempt from Section 409A pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(v)(A) or (C) (relating to certain reimbursements and in-kind benefits) shall be paid or provided to the Executive only to the extent that the expenses are not incurred, or the benefits are not provided, beyond the last day of the second calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs; and provided further that such expenses are reimbursed no later than the last day of the third calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs. To the extent any expense reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit is determined to be subject to Section 409A (and not exempt pursuant to the prior sentence or otherwise), the amount of any such expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the provision of any in-kind benefit (including tax return preparation fees and expenses described in Section 22(e)), in one calendar year shall not affect provision of in-kind benefits or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other calendar year (except for any life-time or other aggregate limitation applicable to medical expenses), and in no event shall any expenses be reimbursed after the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive incurred such expenses, and in no event shall any right to reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit. Any reimbursement of tax preparer fees and expenses incurred due to a tax audit addressing the existence or amount of a tax liability shall be made by the end of the Executive's taxable year following the Executive's taxable year in which the taxes that are subject of the audit are remitted to the taxing authority or, if as a result of such audit no taxes are remitted, by the end of the Executive's taxable year in which the audit is completed.

22. Tax Equalization

(a) During the Term of this Agreement and thereafter as provided in this Section 22, and provided that at all such times the Executive is a U.S. resident and not a Canadian resident for Canadian. federal income tax purposes, the Company will make an additional payment (the "Tax Equalization Payment") to the Executive in accordance with this Section 22, so that that the Executive does not materially suffer a loss by reason of any income and employment taxes that may be imposed on that portion, if any, of her Compensation (as defined below) which is taxable to the Executive under Canadian law as income from an office or employment performed by the Executive in Canada.

(b) The amount of any Tax Equalization Payment payable under this Section with respect to a taxable year of the Executive will equal the amount (the "Excess Tax"), if any, by which the Executive's combined aggregate U.S. federal, national, state and local actual income and employment tax liability , exclusive of any taxes under Section 409A or Section 4999 of the Code, and Canadian federal and provincial actual income and employment tax liability in respect of such year (the "Actual Tax Liability") on the Executive's Base Salary, Annual Bonus and the amount of income recognized upon the Executive's exercise of the Option Awards or other stock options granted to her under the 2011 Plan (the "BPS Options", and together with Base Salary and Annual Bonus, the " Compensation") exceeds the amount of aggregate U.S. federal, state and local income and employment tax liability, exclusive of any taxes under Section 409A or Section 4999 of the Code, that would have been payable by the Executive for such year with respect to the Compensation if the Executive had performed all services hereunder for the Company and BPS and their Affiliates entirely within the United States in the state in which the Company's corporate headquarters are located at all relevant times such that all Compensation were treated entirely as U.S. source income by both the U.S. and Canada, and as if that were the only income earned by the Executive (the "Hypothetical Tax Liability"), plus an additional payment to gross-up the Executive for her additional actual income and employment tax liability (on a combined federal, national, state, provincial and local basis) on the amount of any such Excess Tax. The Company shall make all determinations of the amount of Compensation, Hypothetical Tax Liability, Excess Tax, Actual Tax Liability and Tax Equalization Payment in accordance with this Section 22.

(c) Notwithstanding this Section 22 or any other provision of this Agreement, the Executive shall pay and be solely responsible for payment of all taxes imposed under U.S., Canadian and any other federal, national, provincial, state and local law on the Compensation and all other payments or benefits paid or provided to the Executive by the Company or any of its Affiliates during the Term of this Agreement and thereafter.

(d) The Tax Equalization Payment payable in respect of a taxable year of the Executive shall be paid during the following taxable year of the Executive.

(e) The Company shall pay the Executive's designated tax return preparer selected by the Executive and reasonably acceptable to the Company directly for the preparation of any Canadian tax returns required to be filed with respect to the Compensation for all tax periods of the Executive beginning or ending during the Term of this Agreement and through and including the date of exercise of any BPS Options, including all amendments to such returns, as well as costs related to audits of such returns and related amendments. The Executive will be solely responsible for the payment of any tax return preparer fees and expenses for the preparation of her federal, state and local U.S. tax returns. The Company and the Executive will provide each other access to and copies of any books, records and documents in the possession of the Company or the Executive, as the case may be, reasonably requested by the other in connection with this Section 22, and otherwise cooperate with each other and their respective tax return preparers in connection with the determinations and all matters contemplated by this Section 22.

(f) All income tax returns to be filed by the Executive will be prepared on a basis consistent with the determinations of the Executive's and the Company's tax return

preparers and this Section 22, and the Executive agrees that the Company shall have the right to review and approve all income tax returns (and amendments) to be filed by the Executive with respect to any taxable year covered by this Section 22 before the Executive files any such return with the relevant taxing authority. If the Company objects to any item in any such tax return the Company shall promptly notify the Executive and her tax return preparer of such item and the basis for such objection. The Company and the Executive shall act in good faith to resolve any disagreement between them prior to the date on which the relevant return is required to be filed under applicable law.

(g) The Executive and the Company agree that the Tax Equalization Payments are not intended to represent additional compensation to the Executive. Any Tax Equalization Payment will not be considered as additional Base Salary hereunder or taken into account as salary for purposes of the Annual Bonus Plan or any other benefit plan of the Company except as the terms of such plan may expressly provide otherwise.

23. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

24. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

25. Governing Law. This is a New Hampshire contract and shall be construed and enforced under and be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of New Hampshire, without regard to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

26. Dollar Amounts. All monetary figures in this Agreement shall be in United States dollars.

EXHIBIT A

RELEASE OF CLAIMS

1. Release of Claims

In partial consideration of the payments and benefits described in Section 4 of the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement (the "Employment Agreement") effective as of _____, by and between [_____] ("Executive") and Bauer Hockey, Inc., a Vermont corporation (the " Company"), to which Executive agrees Executive is not entitled until and unless she executes this Release, Executive, for and on behalf of herself and her heirs and assigns, subject to the last sentence of this Section 1, hereby waives and releases any employment, compensation or benefit-related common law, statutory or other complaints, claims, charges or causes of action of any kind whatsoever, both known and unknown, in law or in equity, which Executive ever had, now has or may have against the Company and its affiliates and their respective shareholders, subsidiaries, successors, assigns, trustees, directors, officers, limited and general partners, managers, joint venturers, members, employees or agents (collectively, the "Releasees") by reason of facts or omissions which have occurred on or prior to the date that Executive signs this Release (the "Employment Claims"), including, without limitation, any complaint, charge or cause of action arising under federal, state or local laws pertaining to employment, including the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (the "ADEA," a law which prohibits discrimination on the basis of age), the National Labor Relations Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, all as amended, and all other federal, state and local laws and regulations relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. By signing this Release, Executive acknowledges that she intends to waive and release any rights known or unknown that she may have against the Releasees under these and any other laws relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive does not release, discharge or waive, and the term "Employment Claims" shall not include: (i) any claims or causes of action arising under or related to any failure by person or entity to perform or fulfill any obligation owed to Executive on or after the date hereof under the Employment Agreement or the terms of any equity award agreement, including without limitation any obligation under Section 4(d), (e) or (g) of the Employment Agreement (as applicable); or (ii) any claims or rights to indemnification that she may have under the certificate of incorporation, the by-laws or equivalent governing documents of the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates, the laws of the State of Vermont or any other state of which any subsidiary or affiliate is a domiciliary, or any indemnification agreement between Executive and the Company, or any rights to insurance coverage under any directors' and officers' personal liability insurance or fiduciary insurance policy; or (iii) any claims to vested benefits.

2. Proceedings

Executive acknowledges that she has not filed any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding, if any, against any of the Releasees before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body (each individually a "Proceeding"). Executive represents that she is not aware of any basis on which such a Proceeding could reasonably be instituted. Executive (i) acknowledges that she will not initiate or cause to be initiated on her behalf any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims and will not participate in any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, in each case, except as required by law and (ii) waives any right she may have to benefit in any manner from any relief (whether monetary or otherwise) arising out of any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, including any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "EEOC"). Further, Executive understands that, by executing this Release, she will be limiting the availability of certain remedies that she may have against the Company and limiting also her ability to pursue certain claims against the Releasees. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in Section 1 of this Release shall prevent Executive from (i) initiating or causing to be initiated on her behalf any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding against the Company before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body challenging the validity of the waiver of her claims under the ADEA contained in Section 1 of this Release (but no other portion of such waiver) or (ii) initiating or participating in an investigation or proceeding conducted by the EEOC or any state fair employment practices agency.

3. Time to Consider

Executive acknowledges that she has been advised that she has twenty-one (21) days from the date of receipt of this Release to consider all the provisions of this Release and she does hereby knowingly and voluntarily waive said given twenty-one (21) day period. AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Bauer Hockey, Inc., a Vermont corporation (the "Company"), and Kevin Davis (the "Executive"), effective as of the closing date of the initial public offering of Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. (the "Effective Date").

WHEREAS, the Executive is presently employed as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company; and

WHEREAS, the Company desires to continue to employ the Executive, and the Executive desires to continue to provide services to the Company, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Term. The term of the Executive's employment hereunder (the "Term") shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue until terminated in accordance with Section 4 of this Agreement.

2. Title and Duties.

(a) During the Term, the Executive shall serve the Company as its President and Chief Executive Officer reporting to the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") and shall also serve in such other executive positions of materially similar duties, authority and reporting responsibility for any Company subsidiary or Affiliate (as hereinafter defined) as requested by the Board. In addition, during the Term the Executive shall also serve as Chief Executive Officer and President of Bauer Performance Sports Ltd., a corporation formed under the law of British Columbia, Canada ("BPS"). The Executive further agrees to accept election, and to serve during all or any part of the Term, as a director of the Company and of any subsidiary or Affiliate of the Company, without any compensation therefor other than that specified in this Agreement, if elected to any such position by the shareholders or by the board of directors of such entity, as the case may be.

(b) During the Term, the Executive shall be employed by the Company on a full-time basis and shall perform such duties and responsibilities on behalf of the Company consistent with his positions with the Company and its Affiliates and as may be designated from time to time by the Board or by its designees.

(c) During the Term, the Executive shall devote his full business time and his best efforts, business judgment, skill and knowledge exclusively to the advancement of the business and interests of the Company and its Affiliates and to the discharge of his duties and responsibilities hereunder. The Executive shall not engage in any other business activity or serve in any industry, trade, professional, governmental or academic position during the term of this Agreement, except as may be expressly approved in advance by the Board in writing; provided, however, that so long as such activities do not interfere in any material manner, or give rise to a conflict of interest, with the performance of the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder or otherwise violate this Agreement, the Executive may, without the necessity of seeking Board approval: (i) serve on industry, trade, professional, governmental, civic or charitable boards or committees disclosed to the Board; (ii) deliver lectures and fulfill speaking engagements with trade or other business or social associations and (iii) manage his personal investments.

3. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Executive during the Term and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement:

(a) Base Salary. During the Term, the Company shall pay the Executive a base salary (the "Base Salary") at the rate of $420,000 per annum, payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company for its executives and subject to increase (but not decrease) pursuant to Section13 and otherwise from time to time by the Board, in its discretion. The Board will review the Executive's rate of Base Salary each year.

(b) Annual Bonus Compensation. For each Company fiscal year during the Term, the Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual bonus under the Company's annual bonus plan for executives (the "Annual Bonus Plan") based on the Company's and the Executive's achievement of specified performance targets for each such fiscal year. The Executive's target bonus (the "Target Bonus") shall equal 85% of the Base Salary payable to him for the applicable fiscal year. The performance targets for each fiscal year and the applicable percentage of the Target Bonus payable at specified performance thresholds each year will be set by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee") in consultation with the Executive, and the Compensation Committee will determine the actual amount of annual bonus, if any, payable to the Executive hereunder in accordance with the Annual Bonus Plan (the amount of bonus for any fiscal year, the "Annual Bonus"). Except as otherwise provided herein, in order to receive an Annual Bonus for any fiscal year under this Section 3(b), the Executive must be employed by the Company for the full fiscal year. For the avoidance of doubt, the Annual Bonus Plan for the fiscal year of the Company that includes the Effective Date will be that Annual Bonus Plan as in effect for the Company immediately prior to the Effective Date.

(c) Equity Based Awards. The parties acknowledge that the Executive presently holds options to acquire shares of Kohlberg Sports Group. In connection with the reorganization transactions undertaken in contemplation of the initial public offering of common shares of BPS, those options (the "Outstanding Options") will be fully vested and converted into options to acquire shares of BPS (the "Rollover Options") as of the Effective Date. The Rollover Options will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. Rollover Stock Option Plan (the "Rollover Plan") and the award agreement governing Rollover Options to be entered into between BPS and the Executive. Effective on or about the Effective Date, the Executive shall be granted additional options (the "IPO Awards") to acquire common shares of BPS under the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. 2011 Stock Option Plan (the "2011 Plan"), and during the Term the Executive shall be eligible to receive additional awards thereunder. The terms and conditions of the IPO Awards and any other such awards shall be as set forth in the 2011 Plan and award agreements entered into between BPS and the Executive.

(d) Paid Time-Off. During the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to 6 weeks of paid time-off per annum in accordance with the Company's paid time-off policy as in effect from time to time, to be taken at such times and intervals as shall be determined by the Executive, subject to the reasonable business needs of the Company.

(e) Other Benefits. During the Term and subject to any required employee contributions, the Executive shall be entitled to participate in any and all employee benefit plans from time to time in effect for employees of the Company generally, except to the extent such plans are in a category of benefit otherwise provided to the Executive. Such participation shall be subject to (i) the terms of the applicable plan documents, (ii) generally applicable Company policies and (iii) the discretion of the Board or any administrative or other committee provided for in such plan. The Company may alter, modify, add to or delete its employee benefit plans at any time as it, in its sole judgment, determines to be appropriate, without recourse by the Executive.

(f) Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for reasonable and customary business expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in the performance of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Board or Company policy from time to time. Such reimbursements, if any, shall be payable to the Executive promptly after the submission of such reasonable substantiation and documentation and shall be subject to Section 21 of this Agreement.

4. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. The Executive's employment hereunder and the Term may be terminated under the circumstances set forth in subsections (a) through (g) below. All payments and benefits specified in this Section 4 shall be subject to Sections 5 and 21 of this Agreement.

(a) Death. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with this Section 4, the Term shall end on the date of the Executive's death. In the event of the Executive's termination of employment by reason of his death, the Company shall pay or provide to the Executive's designated beneficiary or, if no beneficiary has been designated by the Executive, to his estate: (i) any earned, but unpaid Base Salary through the end of the month in which his death has occurred; (ii) any unpaid Annual Bonus for the fiscal year ended prior to the fiscal year of his termination of employment (the "Prior Year Bonus"); (iii) a pro-rated Annual Bonus for the fiscal year in which his termination of employment occurs, with such bonus amount determined by multiplying (A) the bonus amount that would have been payable under Section 3(b) based on performance for the entire fiscal year by (B) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in such fiscal year on which the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365 (the "Pro-Rated Bonus"); (iv) any unreimbursed business expenses and (v) any accrued and unused paid time-off. The payments referred to in clauses (i), (iv) and (v) in the immediately preceding sentence are referred to herein as the "Accrued Obligations" and shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days after the date of death. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(b) Disability.

(i) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Executive, in the event that the Executive becomes disabled during the Term through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of his material duties and responsibilities hereunder ("Disability") for a period of (x) one hundred and twenty (120) consecutive calendar days or (y) one hundred and fifty (150) total days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days. The Board may designate another employee to act in the Executive's place during any period of the Executive's disability.

(ii) If any question shall arise as to whether Disability exists, the Executive may, and at the request of the Company shall, submit to a medical examination by a physician selected by the Company with the consent of the Executive (not to be unreasonably withheld) to determine whether the Executive is so disabled and such determination shall for the purposes of this Agreement be conclusive of the issue. If such question shall arise and the Executive shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

(iii) The date of termination of employment under this Section 4(b) shall be the 10th business day following the Company's notice to the Executive of such termination (provided he has not resumed the full-time performance of his duties hereunder by such date), which date shall be the last day of the Term. In the event of such termination of employment, the Company shall pay to the Executive: (i) the Accrued Obligations; (ii) any unpaid Prior Year Bonus; and (iii) the Pro-Rated Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days after the date of termination of employment; each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause, but in no event later than ninety (90) days following the date upon which at least two members of the Board (other than the Executive) became aware of such Cause. The following, as determined by the Board in its reasonable judgment, shall constitute "Cause" for termination:

(i) The Executive's commission of any material fraud, embezzlement, theft or dishonesty, or any deliberate misappropriation of any material amount of money or other assets or property of the Company or any of its Affiliates;

(ii) The Executive's willful failure to perform, or gross negligence in the performance of, his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates which remains uncured fifteen (15) business days after written notice of such failure specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such failure or negligence is given to the Executive by the Board;

(iii) The Executive's intentional material breach of any of the terms of this Agreement or breach of his fiduciary duties to the Company and Affiliates (except where the breach of fiduciary duties is caused by the Executive's Disability and except where such breach is exculpated under the Company's articles of incorporation) which remains uncured fifteen (15) business days after written notice of such breach, specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such breach, is given to the Executive by the Board; or

(iv) The Executive's conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, a felony.

The date of termination for Cause shall be the date specified in the notice given by the Board to the Executive. Following termination of the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder, other than for payment of (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company.

(d) By the Company without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder without Cause at any time upon notice to the Executive by the Board, effective as of the date specified in such notice. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to (i) pay the Executive the Accrued Obligations; (ii) continue to pay the Executive his Base Salary at the rate in effect on the date of termination for the period of twelve (12) months following such termination (the "Continuation Period") in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices for its executives; (iii) continue to provide medical and dental benefits during the Continuation Period (subject to any employee contribution applicable to active employees generally and the Executive's timely election of continuation coverage under COBRA); (iv) pay the Executive the Annual Bonus, if any, that would otherwise have been payable to him under Section 3(b) of this Agreement with respect to the fiscal year of termination of employment, without regard to the Executive's termination of employment; (v) pay the Executive the Prior Year Bonus; and (vi) continue to provide the Executive the Annual Bonus for the portion of the Continuation Period beginning after the fiscal year of termination of employment, based on actual performance for the full fiscal year, pro-rated as though the Executive remained employed through the last day of the Continuation Period (collectively, the payments and benefits referred to in clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) and (vi) are referred to as the "Severance Benefit"). The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(e) By the Executive for Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder for Good Reason (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Company setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Good Reason, but in no event later than ninety (90) days following the initial existence of the condition or event giving rise to Good Reason and provided that the Company shall not have corrected the situation within thirty (30) business days after such notice of Good Reason from the Executive to the Board. The following shall constitute "Good Reason":

(i) material diminution in the nature or scope of the Executive's titles, duties, authority or reporting responsibilities, other than as is materially consistent with the Executive's assignment to another executive position in accordance with Section 2(a) hereof or as a result of the diminution of the business of the Company; provided, however, that a change in reporting relationships resulting from the direct or indirect control of the Company (or a successor corporation) by another entity or any sale or transfer of equity, property or other assets of the Company shall not constitute Good Reason;

(ii) material failure of the Company to provide the Executive the Base Salary, Annual Bonus and benefits in accordance with the terms of Section 3 hereof;

(iii) any material diminution in Base Salary or Target Bonus; or

(iv) a change in the geographic location of the Executive's principal place of performance of his services hereunder that increases his one-way commute from his primary residence at the time of such change by at least fifty (50) miles.

In the event of termination in accordance with this Section 4(e), the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to pay or provide the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Severance Benefit. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(f) By the Executive Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder at any time without Good Reason upon forty-five (45) days' notice to the Board. In the event of termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Board may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Board so elects, the Company will pay the Executive his Base Salary for the notice period (or for any remaining portion of the period). In the event of termination of employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Company shall pay the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(g) Termination of Employment in Connection with a Change of Control . If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or the Executive terminates his employment for Good Reason, in each case, nine months prior to, or within twelve (12) months following, the consummation of a "Change of Control" (as defined in the 2011 Plan), the Executive shall be entitled to the payments and benefits set forth in Section 4(d) or (e), as applicable; provided that the Continuation Period as used in this Agreement shall be twenty-four (24) months.

5. Release; Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 5 shall apply to a termination pursuant to Section 4 or otherwise.

(a) A condition precedent to the Company's obligations to pay the Severance Benefit and other payments under each of Sections 4(d), (e), (f) and (g) shall be the Executive's execution and delivery of a timely and effective Release of Claims, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Release of Claims") within fifty-five (55) days following the Executive's termination of employment (the "Release Condition"). (For the avoidance of doubt, the Release of Claims must be executed and delivered to the Company (and not subsequently be revoked) not later than forty-seven (47) days following the termination of employment in order to comply with the preceding sentence.) Payments and benefits of amounts which do not constitute nonqualified deferred compensation and are not subject to Section 409A (as defined below) shall commence five (5) days after the Release Condition is satisfied and payments and benefits which are subject to Section 409A shall commence on the 60th day after termination of employment (subject to further delay, if required, pursuant to Section 21 below) provided that the Release Condition is satisfied. If the Executive fails to execute and deliver the Release of Claims, or if he revokes the Release of Claims as provided therein, except for the Accrued Obligations, he shall not receive the Severance Benefit or any other payment to which he may otherwise be entitled under this Agreement.

(b) Upon termination of the Executive's employment with the Company, unless otherwise specifically provided herein, his rights to benefits and payments under any retirement, health or welfare employee benefits plan, under BPS equity plans (and any equity award agreements pursuant to which awards were granted thereunder) and under any other benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate shall be determined in accordance with the terms and provisions of such plans; provided, however, that the Executive shall not be entitled to severance or termination pay under such benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate in connection with termination of his employment.

(c) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination if so provided herein or if necessary or desirable fully to accomplish the purposes of such provision, including without limitation the obligations of the Executive under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The obligation of the Company to pay the Severance Benefit is expressly conditioned upon the Executive's continued full performance of obligations under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive recognizes that, except as expressly provided herein, no compensation is earned after termination of employment.

6. Confidential Information.

(a) The Executive acknowledges that the Company and its Affiliates continually develop Confidential Information, that the Executive may develop Confidential Information for the Company or its Affiliates and that the Executive may learn of Confidential Information during the course of employment. The Executive will comply with the policies and procedures of the Company and its Affiliates for protecting Confidential Information and shall never disclose to any Person, or use for his own benefit or gain, any Confidential Information obtained by the Executive incident to his employment or other association with the Company or any of its Affiliates, in each case except as required by applicable law, governmental or judicial process or procedure, or for the proper performance of his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates or as may be reasonably necessary for the Executive to enforce his rights hereunder or under any of his equity agreements under a BPS equity plan. The Executive understands that this restriction shall continue to apply after his employment terminates, regardless of the reason for such termination, but only for as long as the Confidential Information remains confidential (other than where the Executive, in violation of the Agreement, discloses or publicizes such information).

(b) All documents, records, tapes and other media of every kind and description relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company or its Affiliates and any copies, in whole or in part, thereof (the "Documents"), whether or not prepared by the Executive, shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its Affiliates. The Executive shall safeguard all Documents and shall surrender to the Company at the time his employment terminates, or at such earlier time or times as the Board or its designee may specify, all Documents then in the Executive's possession or control; provided, however, that the Executive may keep such documents that represent agreements between himself and the Company and such documents as are necessary to allow the Executive to understand, exercise and protect his rights and obligations under any agreements between himself and the Company.

7. Assignment of Rights to Intellectual Property . The Executive shall promptly and fully disclose all Intellectual Property to the Company. The Executive hereby assigns and agrees to assign to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) the Executive's full right, title and interest in and to all Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to execute any and all applications for domestic and foreign patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights and to do such other acts (including without limitation the execution and delivery of instruments of further assurance or confirmation) requested by the Company to assign the Intellectual Property to the Company and to permit the Company to enforce any patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights to the Intellectual Property. The Executive will not charge the Company for time spent in complying with these obligations. All copyrightable works that the Executive creates while employed by the Company hereunder shall be considered "work made for hire".

8. Restricted Activities. In exchange for good and valuable consideration including, without limitation, the grant of stock options hereunder, the Executive agrees that some restrictions on his activities during and after his employment are necessary to protect the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates.

day of the Continuation Period (whichever applies, the " Non-Competition Period"), the Executive shall not, whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise, compete in any material manner with the Company or any of its Affiliates in the Business anywhere in the United States, Canada or Europe; provided that the Executive shall be permitted to own, as a passive investor, not more than 5% of the publicly-traded securities of any Person; provided, further, that the foregoing prohibition shall not apply to any Person which competes with the Company in the Business in the United States, Canada or Europe through a division, subsidiary or other business unit of such Person so long as the Executive does not himself so compete and does not work or consult for, or otherwise give advice to, any division, subsidiary or business unit that does so compete. Specifically, but without limiting the foregoing, the Executive agrees not to engage in any manner in any activity that is competitive in any material manner with the Business. Restricted activity includes without limitation accepting employment or a consulting position with any Person who is, or at any time within twelve (12) months prior to termination of the Executive's employment has been, a customer of the Company or any of its Affiliates. For the purposes of this Agreement, the "Business" shall mean the designing, developing, manufacturing, producing, marketing, distributing, selling and supporting of (i) roller, ice and in-line skates, (ii) hockey equipment and apparel, namely roller, ice, in-line and street hockey equipment and apparel, and (iii) any other line of business in which the Company or any of its Affiliates is engaged, or has taken significant steps in connection with the preparation of engaging, in any material way, as of the Executive's termination of employment.

(b) The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period, the Executive will not hire or attempt to hire any Person who is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) an employee of the Company or any of its Affiliates, assist in such hiring by any Person, encourage any such employee to terminate his or her relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates, or solicit or encourage any Person which is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) a customer or vendor of the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate its relationship with them, or, in the case of a customer, to conduct with any Person any business or activity which such customer conducts or could conduct with the Company or any of its Affiliates. The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period he shall not make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Company or its Affiliates including, without limitation, their products, services, management, shareholders, employees and customers. The Company further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period it will instruct its employees not to make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Executive.

9. Enforcement of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges that he has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed upon him pursuant to Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive agrees without reservation that each of the restraints contained herein is necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates; that each and every one of those restraints is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area; and that these restraints, individually or in the aggregate, will not prevent him from obtaining other suitable employment during the period in which the Executive is bound by these restraints. The Executive further acknowledges that, were he to breach any of the covenants contained in Sections 6, 7 or 8 hereof, the damage to the Company would be irreparable. The Executive therefore agrees that the Company, in addition to any other remedies available to it, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Executive of any of said covenants, without having to post bond. The parties further agree that, in the event that any provision of Section 6, 7 or 8 hereof shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities, such provision shall be deemed to be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law.

10. Conflicting Agreements. The Executive hereby represents and warrants that the execution of this Agreement and the performance of his obligations hereunder will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which the Executive is a party or is bound and that the Executive is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants that would affect the performance of his obligations hereunder. The Executive will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company any proprietary information of a third party without such party's consent.

11. Definitions. Words or phrases which are initially capitalized or are within quotation marks shall have the meanings provided in this Section 11 and as provided elsewhere herein. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Affiliates" means all Persons and entities directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Company, where control may be by either management authority or equity interest. For the avoidance of doubt, Affiliates does not include any unrelated Kohlberg portfolio companies that are not directly or indirectly subsidiaries of BPS.

(b) "Confidential Information" means any and all information of the Company and its Affiliates that is not generally known at such time by others with whom they compete or do business, or with whom they plan to compete or do business and any and all information, not publicly known, which, if disclosed by the Company or its Affiliates would assist in competition against them. Confidential Information includes without limitation such information relating to (i) the development, research, testing, manufacturing, marketing and financial activities of the Company and its Affiliates, (ii) the Products, (iii) the costs, sources of supply, financial performance and strategic plans of the Company and its Affiliates, (iv) the identity and special needs of the customers of the Company and its Affiliates and (v) the people and organizations with whom the Company and its Affiliates have business relationships and the existence and nature of those relationships. Confidential Information also includes comparable information that the Company or any of its Affiliates has received belonging to others or which was received by the Company or any of its Affiliates with any understanding that it would not be disclosed. Confidential Information does not include information that is publicly known or becomes publicly known through no fault of the Executive.

(c) "Intellectual Property" means inventions, discoveries, developments, methods, processes, compositions, works, concepts and ideas (whether or not patentable or copyrightable or constituting trade secrets) conceived, made, created, developed or reduced to practice by the Executive (whether alone or with others, whether or not during normal business hours or on or off Company premises) during the Executive's employment that relate to the Business (as defined in Section 8), the Products or any prospective activity of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(d) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, an association, a partnership, an estate, a trust and any other entity or organization, other than the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(e) "Products" mean all products planned, researched, developed, tested, manufactured, sold, licensed, leased or otherwise distributed or put into use by the Company or any of its Affiliates, together with all services provided or planned by the Company or any of its Affiliates, during the Executive's employment.

12. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

13. Increase in Base Salary upon Certain Relocations . In the event the Company relocates its corporate headquarters outside the State of New Hampshire, the rate of Base Salary payable to the Executive shall be subject to a one-time increase in an amount equal to the sum of (i) the product of (A) the rate of Base Salary in effect immediately prior to such relocation multiplied by (B) the additional income taxes payable by the Executive (exclusive of any taxes imposed by Section 409A of the Code) on the amount determined in clause (A), calculated at the highest effective marginal combined rate of U.S. state and local personal income tax then in effect in the city and state to which the Company relocates, and (ii) an additional amount (intended to "gross-up" the Executive) equal to the additional federal, state and local income taxes (measured on a combined basis) payable by the Executive under U.S. law in respect of the amount payable to him under Section 13(i).

14. Parachute Payments.

(a) This Section 14 shall apply only in the case of a Statutory Change in Control (as defined below) occurring after the initial public offering of shares of BPS, and at a time when the Company or BPS has stock which is "readily tradable on an established securities market or otherwise" (within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(5)(A)(ii)(I) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code")). In the event it is determined that any of the payments or benefits (including, without limitation, accelerated vesting of equity rights or other benefits) otherwise payable to the Executive under this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement with the Company or any Affiliate (collectively, the "Payments"), including by reason of the Executive's termination of employment in connection with a Change of Control or other event that constitutes a change in ownership or control of the Company as defined in Code Section 280G (a "Statutory Change in Control") would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Code Section 4999 (the "Excise Tax"), then the Company shall pay to the Executive an additional payment or payments (the " Gross-Up Payment") in an amount such that after payment by the Executive of all federal, national, state, provincial and local income and employment taxes imposed under U.S. and Canadian law (including any interest or penalties imposed with respect to such taxes), including without limitation any Excise Tax imposed upon the Gross-Up Payment (but excluding any taxes imposed by Section 409A of the Code), the Executive retains an amount of the Gross-Up Payment equal to the Excise Tax imposed upon the Payments. The Company shall pay to the Executive the Gross-Up Payment determined to be required under this Section 14 within 10 days after the determination by the Accounting Firm (as defined below) of the amount of such Gross-Up Payment. If, after the receipt by the Executive of a Gross-Up Payment but before the payment by the Executive of the Excise Tax, it is determined by the Accounting Firm that the Excise Tax payable by the Executive is less than the amount originally computed by the Accounting Firm and consequently that the amount of the Gross-Up Payment is larger than that required by this Section 14, the Executive shall promptly refund to the Company the amount by which the Gross-Up Payment initially made to the Executive exceeds the Gross-Up Payment required under this Section 14.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 14(e), all determinations required to be made under this Section 14, including whether an Excise Tax is payable by Executive and the amount of such Excise Tax and whether a Gross-Up Payment is required and the amount of such Gross-Up Payment, will be made by a firm of certified public accountants nationally recognized within the U.S. (the "Accounting Firm") selected by the Company, which may be the Company's regular outside auditors. The fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm for its services in connection with the determinations and calculations contemplated by this Section 14 will be borne by the Company. The initial determination of whether a Gross-Up Payment is required, and if so, the amounts of the Excise Tax and the Gross-Up Payment shall be determined by the Accounting Firm not later than sixty (60) days after the date of a Statutory Change in Control. Any determination by the Accounting Firm as to the amount of the Gross-Up Payment will be binding upon the Company and the Executive. The determinations of the Accounting Firm under this Section 14 and the written report and other supporting documentation shall be delivered to the Company and the Executive. The Executive shall have the opportunity to review such determination and provide input prior to its finalization.

(c) The Company and the Executive will each provide the Accounting Firm access to and copies of any books, records and documents in the possession of the Company or the Executive, as the case may be, reasonably requested by the Accounting Firm, and otherwise cooperate with the Accounting Firm in connection with the preparation and issuance of the determinations contemplated by this Section 14.

(d) The US. tax returns filed by the Executive will be prepared and filed on a basis consistent with the determination of the Accounting Firm with respect to the Excise Tax payable by Executive. The Executive will make proper payment of the amount of any Excise Tax, and at the request of the Company, provide to the Company true and correct copies (with any amendments) of his U.S. federal income tax return as filed with the Internal Revenue Service and corresponding state and local tax returns, if relevant, as filed with the applicable taxing authority, and such other documents reasonably requested by the Company, evidencing such payment.

(e) The Executive will notify the Company in writing of any claim by the Internal Revenue Service that, if successful, would require the payment by the Company of a Gross-Up Payment. Such notification will be given as promptly as practicable but no later than 10 business days after the Executive actually receives notice of such claim and the Executive will further apprise the Company of the nature of such claim and the date on which such claim is requested to be paid (in each case, to the extent known by the Executive). The Executive will not pay such claim prior to the earlier of (i) the expiration of the 30-calendar-day period following the date on which he gives such notice to the Company and (ii) the date that any payment of amount with respect to such claim is due. If the Company notifies the Executive in writing prior to the expiration of such period that it desires to contest such claim, the Executive will (i) provide the Company with any written records or documents in his possession relating to such claim reasonably requested by the Company; (ii) take such action in connection with contesting such claim as the Company will reasonably request in writing from time to time, including without limitation accepting legal representation with respect to such claim by an attorney competent in respect of the subject matter and reasonably selected by the Company; (iii) cooperate with the Company in good faith in order effectively to contest such claim; and (iv) permit the Company to participate in any proceedings relating to such claim; provided, however, that the Company will bear and pay directly all costs and expenses (including interest and penalties) incurred in connection with such contest. Without limiting the foregoing provisions of this Section 14, the Company will control all proceedings taken in connection with the contest of any claim contemplated by this Section 14 and, at its sole option, may pursue or forego any and all administrative appeals, proceedings, hearings and conferences with the taxing authority in respect of such claim (provided that the Executive may participate therein at his own cost and expense) and may, at its option, either direct the Executive to pay the tax claimed and sue for a refund or contest the claim in any permissible manner, and the Executive agrees to prosecute such contest to a determination before any administrative tribunal, in a court of initial jurisdiction and in one or more appellate courts, as the Company will determine. If the Company directs the Executive to pay any such claim and sue for a refund, the Company shall advance the amount of such payment to the Executive, on an interest-free basis, and the Company shall indemnify the Executive for and hold the Executive harmless from, on an after-tax basis, any Excise Tax or income tax (including interest or penalties with respect thereto) imposed with respect to such advance or with respect to any imputed income with respect to such advance (including as a result of any forgiveness by the Company of such advance) exclusive of taxes imposed by Section 409A of the Code, and the Executive agrees to extend the statute of limitations for assessment of a deficiency in connection with any such proceeding if so requested by the Company, provided, however, that any extension of the statute of limitations relating to payment of taxes for the taxable year of the Executive with respect to which the contested amount is claimed to be due is limited solely to such contested amount. Furthermore, the Company's control of any such contested claim will be limited to issues with respect to which a Gross-Up Payment would be payable hereunder and the Executive will be entitled to settle or contest, as the case may be, any other issue raised by the Internal Revenue Service or any other taxing authority.

(f) If, after the payment by the Executive of any tax at the Company's direction, using an amount advanced by the Company pursuant to Section 14(e), the Executive becomes entitled to receive any refund or credit with respect to such tax, the Executive shall promptly pay to the Company the amount of such refund or credit (together with any interest paid or credited thereon and after taxes applicable thereto). If, after the payment by the Executive of any tax at the Company's direction, using an amount advanced by the Company pursuant to Section 14(e), a determination is made that the Executive shall not be entitled to any refund or credit with respect to such tax and the Company does not notify the Executive in writing of its intent to contest such denial of refund prior to the expiration of 30 days after such determination, or if thereafter there is a final determination that the Executive is not entitled to such refund or credit, then such advance shall be forgiven and shall not be required to be repaid and the amount of such advance shall offset, to the extent thereof, the amount of the Gross-Up Payment required to be paid.

(g) If it is ultimately determined (by IRS private ruling or closing agreement, court decision or otherwise) that any amounts paid by the Company pursuant hereto were not necessary to accomplish the purpose of this Agreement, the Executive shall promptly cooperate with the Company to correct such Company overpayments (by way of assigning any refund to the Company as provided herein, by direct payment or otherwise) in a manner consistent with the purpose of this Agreement, which is to protect the Executive by making him whole, on an after-tax basis, from the application of the Excise Tax with respect to the Payments, without conferring any extra benefit or windfall on the Executive.

(h) The parties agree and acknowledge that the Gross-Up Payments are not intended to represent additional compensation to the Executive. Any Gross-Up Payment will not be considered as additional Base Salary hereunder or taken into account as salary for purposes of the Annual Bonus Plan or any other plan of the Company except as the terms of such plan may expressly provide otherwise.

(i) If the Company obtains a binding agreement from the IRS that is reasonably satisfactory to the Executive to the effect that the IRS will not pursue the Executive for the Excise Tax or any other amounts covered by a Gross-Up Payment and for any interest or penalties thereon, the Executive will agree (a) not to claim a credit or refund with respect to deposits made by the Company with respect to its liabilities as a withholding agent for the Excise Tax and amounts covered by the Gross-Up Payment; (b) consent to the Company's making a refund claim or receiving a refund of such amounts; and (c) take such other actions without cost or other detriment to the Executive as the Company may reasonably request to assist the Company in obtaining a favorable resolution of the Company's refund claim for its deposits.

15. Assignment. The Executive may not make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein. The Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of the Executive in the event that the Company shall hereafter affect a reorganization, or consolidate with, or merge into, any other Person or transfer all or substantially all of its properties, stock, or assets to any other Person. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and the Executive, their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

16. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

17. Waiver. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

18. Notices. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed to the Executive at his last known address on the books of the Company or, in the case of the Company, at its principal place of business, attention of the Board of Directors, or to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

19. Entire Agreement/Effective Date. This Agreement shall be effective only upon the Effective Date, and upon the Effective Date shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede and terminate all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment with the Company, BPS and their respective Affiliates, including, without limitation, the Employment Agreement entered into between KBAU Holdings US, Inc. and the Executive effective as of April 16, 2008 (the "Prior Agreement"). The Prior Agreement shall govern the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment with the Company and any termination thereof unless and until the Effective Date shall occur.

20. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Executive and by an expressly authorized representative of the Company.

(a) This Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 409A") with respect to amounts, if any, subject thereto and shall be interpreted and construed and shall be performed by the parties consistent with such intent. If either party notifies the other in writing that one or more or the provisions of this Agreement contravenes any Treasury Regulations or guidance promulgated under Section 409A or causes any amounts to be subject to interest, additional tax or penalties under Section 409A, the parties shall agree to negotiate in good faith to make amendments to this Agreement as the parties mutually agree, reasonably and in good faith are necessary or desirable, to (i) maintain to the maximum extent reasonably practicable the original intent of the applicable provisions without violating the provisions of Section 409A or increasing the costs to the Company of providing the applicable benefit or payment and (ii) to the extent possible, to avoid the imposition of any interest, additional tax or other penalties under Section 409A upon the parties.

(b) To the extent the Executive would otherwise be entitled to any payment or benefit under this Agreement, or any plan or arrangement of the Company or its Affiliates, that constitutes a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A and that if paid during the six (6) months beginning on the date of termination of the Executive's employment would be subject to the Section 409A additional tax because the Executive is a "specified employee" (within the meaning of Section 409A and as determined by the Company), the payment or benefit will be paid or provided to the Executive on the first day following the six (6) month anniversary of the Executive's termination of employment or, if earlier, the Executive's date of death.

(c) Any payment or benefit due upon a termination of the Executive's employment that represents a "deferral of compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A shall be paid or provided to the Executive only upon a "separation from service" as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(h). Each payment made under this Agreement shall be deemed to be a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A. Amounts payable under this Agreement shall be deemed not to be a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A to the extent provided in the exceptions in Treasury Regulation §§ 1.409A-1(b)(4) ("short-term deferrals") and (b)(9) ("separation pay plans," including the exception under subparagraph (iii)) and other applicable provisions of Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1 through A-6. To the extent an annual bonus is payable under any provision of this Agreement, it shall be paid in the taxable year of the Company following the taxable year with respect to which the bonus relates, and not later than the 15th day of the third month of such taxable year; provided, that it shall not be a breach of this Agreement if payment is made later in such year to the extent financial results are not available by such date so long as payment is made no later than December 31 of such year.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Agreement, any payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise that is exempt from Section 409A pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(v)(A) or (C) (relating to certain reimbursements and in-kind benefits) shall be paid or provided to the Executive only to the extent that the expenses are not incurred, or the benefits are not provided, beyond the last day of the second calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs; and provided further that such expenses are reimbursed no later than the last day of the third calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs. To the extent any expense reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit is determined to be subject to Section 409A (and not exempt pursuant to the prior sentence or otherwise), the amount of any such expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the provision of any in-kind benefit (including tax return preparation fees and expenses described in Section 22(e)), in one calendar year shall not affect provision of in-kind benefits or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other calendar year (except for any life-time or other aggregate limitation applicable to medical expenses), and in no event shall any expenses be reimbursed after the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive incurred such expenses, and in no event shall any right to reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit. Any reimbursement of tax preparer fees and expenses incurred due to a tax audit addressing the existence or amount of a tax liability shall be made by the end of the Executive's taxable year following the Executive's taxable year in which the taxes that are subject of the audit are remitted to the taxing authority or, if as a result of such audit no taxes are remitted, by the end of the Executive's taxable year in which the audit is completed.

22. Tax Equalization

(a) During the Term of this Agreement and thereafter as provided in this Section 22, and provided that at all such times the Executive is a U.S. resident and not a Canadian resident for Canadian. federal income tax purposes, the Company will make an additional payment (the "Tax Equalization Payment") to the Executive in accordance with this Section 22, so that that the Executive does not materially suffer a loss by reason of any income and employment taxes that may be imposed on that portion, if any, of his Compensation (as defined below) which is taxable to the Executive under Canadian law as income from an office or employment performed by the Executive in Canada.

(b) The amount of any Tax Equalization Payment payable under this Section 22 with respect to a taxable year of the Executive will equal the amount (the "Excess Tax"), if any, by which the Executive's combined aggregate U.S. federal, national, state and local actual income and employment tax liability , exclusive of any taxes under Section 409A or Section 4999 of the Code, and Canadian federal and provincial actual income and employment tax liability in respect of such year (the "Actual Tax Liability") on the Executive's Base Salary, Annual Bonus and the amount of income recognized upon the Executive's exercise of the Rollover Options, the IPO Awards or other stock options granted under the 2011 Plan (collectively, the "BPS Options", and together with Base Salary and Annual Bonus, the "Compensation") exceeds the amount of aggregate U.S. federal, state and local income and employment tax liability, exclusive of any taxes under Section 409A or Section 4999 of the Code, that would have been payable by the Executive for such year with respect to the Compensation if the Executive had performed all services hereunder for the Company and BPS and their Affiliates entirely within the United States in the state in which the Company's corporate headquarters are located at all relevant times such that all Compensation were treated entirely as U.S. source income by both the U.S. and Canada, and as if that were the only income earned by the Executive (the "Hypothetical Tax Liability"), plus an additional payment to gross-up the Executive for his additional actual income and employment tax liability (on a combined federal, national, state, provincial and local basis) on the amount of any such Excess Tax. The Company shall make all determinations of the amount of Compensation, Hypothetical Tax Liability, Excess Tax, Actual Tax Liability and Tax Equalization Payment in accordance with this Section 22.

(c) Notwithstanding this Section 22 or any other provision of this Agreement, the Executive shall pay and be solely responsible for payment of all taxes imposed under U.S., Canadian and any other federal, national, provincial, state and local law on the Compensation and all other payments or benefits paid or provided to the Executive by the Company or any of its Affiliates during the Term of this Agreement and thereafter.

(d) The Tax Equalization Payment payable in respect of a taxable year of the Executive shall be paid during the following taxable year of the Executive.

(e) The Company shall pay the Executive's designated tax return preparer selected by the Executive and reasonably acceptable to the Company directly for the preparation of any Canadian tax returns required to be filed with respect to the Compensation for all tax periods of the Executive beginning or ending during the Term of this Agreement and through and including the date of exercise of any BPS Options including all amendments to such returns, as well as costs related to audits of such returns and related amendments. The Executive will be solely responsible for the payment of any tax return preparer fees and expenses for the preparation of his federal, state and local U.S. tax returns. The Company and the Executive will provide each other access to and copies of any books, records and documents in the possession of the Company or the Executive, as the case may be, reasonably requested by the other in connection with this Section 22, and otherwise cooperate with each other and their respective tax return preparers in connection with the determinations and all matters contemplated by this Section 22.

(f) All income tax returns to be filed by the Executive will be prepared on a basis consistent with the determinations of the Executive's and the Company's tax return preparers and this Section 22, and the Executive agrees that the Company shall have the right to review and approve all income tax returns (and amendments) to be filed by the Executive with respect to any taxable year covered by this Section 22 before the Executive files any such return with the relevant taxing authority. If the Company objects to any item in any such tax return the Company shall promptly notify the Executive and his tax return preparer of such item and the basis for such objection. The Company and the Executive shall act in good faith to resolve any disagreement between them prior to the date on which the relevant return is required to be filed under applicable law.

(g) The Executive and the Company agree that the Tax Equalization Payments are not intended to represent additional compensation to the Executive. Any Tax Equalization Payment will not be considered as additional Base Salary hereunder or taken into account as salary for purposes of the Annual Bonus Plan or any other benefit plan of the Company except as the terms of such plan may expressly provide otherwise.

23. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

24. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

25. Governing Law. This is a New Hampshire contract and shall be construed and enforced under and be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of New Hampshire, without regard to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

26. Dollar Amounts. All monetary figures in this Agreement shall be in United States dollars.

By signing this Release, Executive acknowledges that he intends to waive and release any rights known or unknown that he may have against the Releasees under these and any other laws relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive does not release, discharge or waive, and the term "Employment Claims" shall not include: (i) any claims or causes of action arising under or related to any failure by person or entity to perform or fulfill any obligation owed to Executive on or after the date hereof under the Employment Agreement or the terms of any equity award agreement, including without limitation any obligation under Section 4(d), (e) or (g) of the Employment Agreement (as applicable); or (ii) any claims or rights to indemnification that he may have under the certificate of incorporation, the by-laws or equivalent governing documents of the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates, the laws of the State of Vermont or any other state of which any subsidiary or affiliate is a domiciliary, or any indemnification agreement between Executive and the Company, or any rights to insurance coverage under any directors' and officers' personal liability insurance or fiduciary insurance policy; or (iii) any claims to vested benefits.

2. Proceedings

Executive acknowledges that he has not filed any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding, if any, against any of the Releasees before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body (each individually a "Proceeding"). Executive represents that he is not aware of any basis on which such a Proceeding could reasonably be instituted. Executive (i) acknowledges that he will not initiate or cause to be initiated on his behalf any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims and will not participate in any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, in each case, except as required by law and (ii) waives any right he may have to benefit in any manner from any relief (whether monetary or otherwise) arising out of any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, including any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "EEOC"). Further, Executive understands that, by executing this Release, he will be limiting the availability of certain remedies that he may have against the Company and limiting also his ability to pursue certain claims against the Releasees. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in Section 1 of this Release shall prevent Executive from (i) initiating or causing to be initiated on his behalf any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding against the Company before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body challenging the validity of the waiver of his claims under the ADEA contained in Section 1 of this Release (but no other portion of such waiver) or (ii) initiating or participating in an investigation or proceeding conducted by the EEOC or any state fair employment practices agency.

3. Time to Consider

Executive acknowledges that he has been advised that he has twenty-one (21) days from the date of receipt of this Release to consider all the provisions of this Release and he does hereby knowingly and voluntarily waive said given twenty-one (21) day period. EXECUTIVE FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS READ THIS RELEASE CAREFULLY, HAS BEEN ADVISED BY THE COMPANY TO, AND HAS IN FACT, CONSULTED AN ATTORNEY, AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS THAT BY SIGNING BELOW HE IS GIVING UP CERTAIN RIGHTS WHICH HE MAY HAVE TO SUE OR ASSERT A CLAIM AGAINST ANY OF THE RELEASEES, AS DESCRIBED IN SECTION 1 OF THIS RELEASE AND THE OTHER PROVISIONS HEREOF. EXECUTIVE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS NOT BEEN FORCED OR PRESSURED IN ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER TO SIGN THIS RELEASE, AND EXECUTIVE AGREES TO ALL OF ITS TERMS VOLUNTARILY.

4. Revocation

Executive hereby acknowledges and understands that Executive shall have seven (7) days from the date of his execution of this Release to revoke this Release (including, without limitation, any and all claims arising under the ADEA) and that neither the Company nor any other person is obligated to provide any benefits to Executive pursuant to Section 4 of the Employment Agreement until eight (8) days have passed since Executive's signing of this Release without Executive having revoked this Release, in which event the Company immediately shall arrange and/or pay for any such benefits otherwise attributable to said eight-

(8) day period, consistent with the terms of the Employment Agreement. If Executive revokes this Release, Executive will be deemed not to have accepted the terms of this Release, and no action will be required of the Company under this Release, including without limitation any release by the Company of claims against the Executive.

5. No Admission

This Release does not constitute an admission of liability or wrongdoing of any kind by Executive or the Company.

6. General Provisions

A failure of any of the Releasees to insist on strict compliance with any provision of this Release shall not be deemed a waiver of such provision or any other provision hereof. If any provision of this Release is determined to be so broad as to be unenforceable, such provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable, and in the event that any provision is determined to be entirely unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed severable, such that all other provisions of this Release shall remain valid and binding upon Executive and the Releasees.

7. Governing Law

The validity, interpretations, construction and performance of this Release shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Hampshire without giving effect to conflict of laws principles.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Executive has hereunto set Executive's hand as of the day and year set forth opposite his signature below.

DATE	KEVIN DAVIS

AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this " Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Bauer Hockey, Inc., a Vermont corporation (the "Company"), and Paul Dachsteiner (the "Executive"), effective as of March 9, 2011 (the " Effective Date").

WHEREAS, the Executive is presently employed as the Vice President, Information Services of the Company; and

WHEREAS, the Company desires to continue to employ the Executive, and the Executive desires to continue to provide services to the Company, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Term. The term of the Executive's employment hereunder (the "Term") shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue until terminated in accordance with Section 4 of this Agreement.

2. Title and Duties.

(a) During the Term, the Executive shall serve the Company as Vice President, Information Services or in such other position as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company (the "CEO") may designate from time to time, and shall also serve in similar positions with any Company subsidiary or Affiliate (as hereinafter defined) if requested by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") or the CEO.

(b) During the Term, the Executive shall be employed by the Company on a full-time basis and shall perform such duties and responsibilities on behalf of the Company and its Affiliates consistent with his positions with the Company and its Affiliates and as may be designated from time to time by the Board or the CEO.

(c) During the Term, the Executive shall devote his full business time and his best efforts, business judgment, skill and knowledge exclusively to the advancement of the business and interests of the Company and its Affiliates and to the discharge of his duties and responsibilities hereunder. The Executive shall not engage in any other business activity or serve in any industry, trade, professional, governmental or academic position during the Term, except as may be expressly approved in advance by the CEO in writing.

3. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Executive during the Term and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement:

(a) Base Salary. During the Term, the Company shall pay the Executive a base salary (the "Base Salary") at the rate of $187,200 per annum, payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company for its executives and subject to increase (but not decrease) pursuant to Section 13 and otherwise from time to time by the Board, in its discretion.

(b) Annual Bonus Compensation. For each Company fiscal year during the Term, the Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual bonus under the Company's annual bonus plan for executives (the "Annual Bonus Plan") based on the Company's and the Executive's achievement of specified performance targets for each such fiscal year. The Executive's target bonus (the "Target Bonus") shall equal 40% of the Base Salary payable to him for the applicable fiscal year. The performance targets for each fiscal year and the applicable percentage of the Target Bonus payable at specified performance thresholds each year will be set by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee") in consultation with the Executive, and the Compensation Committee will determine the actual amount of annual bonus, if any, payable to the Executive hereunder in accordance with the Annual Bonus Plan (the amount of bonus for any fiscal year, the "Annual Bonus"). Except as otherwise provided herein, in order to receive an Annual Bonus for any fiscal year under this Section 3(b), the Executive must be employed by the Company for the full fiscal year. For the avoidance of doubt, the Annual Bonus Plan for the fiscal year of the Company that includes the Effective Date will be that Annual Bonus Plan as in effect for the Company immediately prior to the Effective Date.

(c) Equity Based Awards. The parties acknowledge that the Executive presently holds options to acquire shares of Kohlberg Sports Group. In connection with the reorganization transactions undertaken in contemplation of the initial public offering of common shares of BPS, those options (the "Outstanding Options") will be fully vested and converted into options to acquire shares of BPS (the "Rollover Options") as of the Effective Date. The Rollover Options will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. Rollover Stock Option Plan (the "Rollover Plan") and the award agreement governing Rollover Options to be entered into between BPS and the Executive. Effective on or about the Effective Date, the Executive shall be granted additional options (the "IPO Awards") to acquire common shares of BPS under the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. 2011 Stock Option Plan (the "2011 Plan"), and during the Term the Executive shall be eligible to receive additional awards thereunder. The terms and conditions of the IPO Awards and any other such awards shall be as set forth in the 2011 Plan and award agreements entered into between BPS and the Executive.

(d) Paid Time-Off. During the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to 5 weeks of paid time-off per annum in accordance with the Company's paid time-off policy as in effect from time to time, to be taken at such times and intervals as shall be determined by the Executive and approved by the CEO, subject to the reasonable business needs of the Company.

(e) Other Benefits. During the Term and subject to any required employee contributions, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in employee benefit plans from time to time in effect for employees of the Company generally, except to the extent such plans are in a category of benefit otherwise provided to the Executive. Such participation shall be subject to (i) the terms of the applicable plan documents, (ii) generally applicable Company policies and (iii) the discretion of the Board or any administrative or other committee provided for in such plan. The Company may alter, modify, add to or delete its employee benefit plans at any time as it, in its sole judgment, determines to be appropriate, without recourse by the Executive.

(f) Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for reasonable and necessary business expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in the performance of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Board or Company policy from time to time. Such reimbursements, if any, shall be payable to the Executive promptly after the submission of such reasonable substantiation and documentation and shall be subject to Section 21 of this Agreement.

4. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. The Executive's employment hereunder and the Term may be terminated under the circumstances set forth in subsections (a) through (g) below. All payments and benefits specified in this Section 4 shall be subject to Sections 5 and 21 of this Agreement.

(a) Death. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with this Section 4, the Term shall end on the date of the Executive's death. In the event of the Executive's termination of employment by reason of his death, the Company shall pay or provide to the Executive's designated beneficiary or, if no beneficiary has been designated by the Executive, to his estate: (i) any earned, but unpaid Base Salary through the end of the month in which his death has occurred; (ii) any unpaid Annual Bonus for the fiscal year ended prior to the fiscal year of his termination of employment (the "Prior Year Bonus"); (iii) a pro-rated Annual Bonus for the fiscal year in which his termination of employment occurs, with such bonus amount determined by multiplying (A) the bonus amount that would have been payable under Section 3(b) based on performance for the entire fiscal year by (B) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in such fiscal year on which the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365 (the "Pro-Rated Bonus"); (iv) any unreimbursed business expenses and (v) any accrued and unused paid time-off. The payments referred to in clauses (i), (iv) and (v) in the immediately preceding sentence are referred to herein as the "Accrued Obligations" and shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days after the date of death. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(b) Disability.

(i) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Executive, in the event that the Executive becomes disabled during the Term through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of his material duties and responsibilities hereunder ("Disability") for a period of (x) one hundred and twenty (120) consecutive calendar days or (y) one hundred and fifty (150) total days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days. The Board may designate another employee to act in the Executive's place during any period of the Executive's disability.

(ii) If any question shall arise as to whether Disability exists, the Executive may, and at the request of the Company shall, submit to a medical examination by a physician selected by the Company with the consent of the Executive (not to be unreasonably withheld) to determine whether the Executive is so disabled and such determination shall for the purposes of this Agreement be conclusive of the issue. If such question shall arise and the Executive shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

(iii) The date of termination of employment under this Section 4(b) shall be the 10th business day following the Company's notice to the Executive of such termination (provided he has not resumed the full-time performance of his duties hereunder by such date), which date shall be the last day of the Term. In the event of such termination of employment, the Company shall pay to the Executive: (i) the Accrued Obligations; (ii) any unpaid Prior Year Bonus; and (iii) the Pro-Rated Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days after the date of termination of employment; each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause, but in no event later than ninety (90) days following the date upon which at least two members of the Board (other than the Executive) became aware of such Cause. The following, as determined by the Board in its reasonable judgment, shall constitute "Cause" for termination:

(i) The Executive's commission of any material fraud, embezzlement, theft or dishonesty, or any deliberate misappropriation of any material amount of money or other assets or property of the Company or any of its Affiliates;

(ii) The Executive's willful failure to perform, or gross negligence in the performance of, his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates which remains uncured fifteen (15) business days after written notice of such failure specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such failure or negligence is given to the Executive by the Board;

(iii) The Executive's intentional material breach of any of the terms of this Agreement or breach of his fiduciary duties to the Company and Affiliates (except where the breach of fiduciary duties is caused by the Executive's Disability and except where such breach is exculpated under the Company's articles of incorporation) which remains uncured fifteen (15) business days after written notice of such breach, specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such breach, is given to the Executive by the Board; or

(iv) The Executive's conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, a felony.

The date of termination for Cause shall be the date specified in the notice given by the Board to the Executive. Following termination of the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder, other than for payment of (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company.

(d) By the Company without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder without Cause at any time upon notice to the Executive by the Board, effective as of the date specified in such notice. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to (i) pay the Executive the Accrued Obligations; (ii) continue to pay the Executive his Base Salary at the rate in effect on the date of termination for the period of twelve (12) months following such termination (the "Continuation Period") in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices for its executives; (iii) continue to provide medical and dental benefits during the Continuation Period (subject to any employee contribution applicable to active employees generally and the Executive's timely election of continuation coverage under COBRA); (iv) pay the Executive the Annual Bonus, if any, that would otherwise have been payable to him under Section 3(b) of this Agreement with respect to the fiscal year of termination of employment, without regard to the Executive's termination of employment; (v) pay the Executive the Prior Year Bonus; and (vi) continue to provide the Executive the Annual Bonus for the portion of the Continuation Period beginning after the fiscal year of termination of employment, based on actual performance for the full fiscal year, pro-rated as though the Executive remained employed through the last day of the Continuation Period (collectively, the payments and benefits referred to in clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) and (vi) are referred to as the "Severance Benefit"). The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(e) By the Executive for Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder for Good Reason (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Company setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Good Reason, but in no event later than ninety (90) days following the initial existence of the condition or event giving rise to Good Reason and provided that the Company shall not have corrected the situation within thirty (30) business days after such notice of Good Reason from the Executive to the Board. The following shall constitute "Good Reason":

(i) material diminution in the nature or scope of the Executive's titles, duties, authority or reporting responsibilities, other than as is materially consistent with the Executive's assignment to another executive position in accordance with Section 2(a) hereof or as a result of the diminution of the business of the Company; provided, however, that a change in reporting relationships resulting from the direct or indirect control of the Company (or a successor corporation) by another entity or any sale or transfer of equity, property or other assets of the Company shall not constitute Good Reason;

(ii) material failure of the Company to provide the Executive the Base Salary, Annual Bonus and benefits in accordance with the terms of Section 3 hereof;

(iii) any material diminution in Base Salary or Target Bonus; or

(iv) a change in the geographic location of the Executive's principal place of performance of his services hereunder that increases his one-way commute from his primary residence at the time of such change by at least fifty (50) miles.

In the event of termination in accordance with this Section 4(e), the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to pay or provide the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Severance Benefit. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(f) By the Executive Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder at any time without Good Reason upon forty-five (45) days' notice to the Board. In the event of termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Board may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Board so elects, the Company will pay the Executive his Base Salary for the notice period (or for any remaining portion of the period). In the event of termination of employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Company shall pay the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(g) Termination of Employment in Connection with a Change of Control. If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or the Executive terminates his employment for Good Reason, in each case, nine months prior to, or within twelve (12) months following, the consummation of a "Change of Control" (as defined in the 2011 Plan), the Executive shall be entitled to the payments and benefits set forth in Section 4(d) or (e), as applicable; provided that the Continuation Period as used in this Agreement shall be twenty-four (24) months.

5. Release; Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 5 shall apply to a termination pursuant to Section 4 or otherwise.

(a) A condition precedent to the Company's obligations to pay the Severance Benefit and other payments under each of Sections 4(d), (e), (f) and (g) shall be the Executive's execution and delivery of a timely and effective Release of Claims, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Release of Claims") within fifty-five (55) days following the Executive's termination of employment (the "Release Condition"). (For the avoidance of doubt, the Release of Claims must be executed and delivered to the Company (and not subsequently be revoked) not later than forty-seven (47) days following the termination of employment in order to comply with the preceding sentence.) Payments and benefits of amounts which do not constitute nonqualified deferred compensation and are not subject to Section 409A (as defined below) shall commence five (5) days after the Release Condition is satisfied and payments and benefits which are subject to Section 409A shall commence on the 60th day after termination of employment (subject to further delay, if required, pursuant to Section 21 below) provided that the Release Condition is satisfied. If the Executive fails to execute and deliver the Release of Claims, or if he revokes the Release of Claims as provided therein, except for the Accrued Obligations, he shall not receive the Severance Benefit or any other payment to which he may otherwise be entitled under this Agreement.

(b) Upon termination of the Executive's employment with the Company, unless otherwise specifically provided herein, his rights to benefits and payments under any retirement, health or welfare employee benefits plan, under BPS equity plans (and any equity award agreements pursuant to which awards were granted thereunder) and under any other benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate shall be determined in accordance with the terms and provisions of such plans; provided, however, that the Executive shall not be entitled to severance or termination pay under such benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate in connection with termination of his employment.

(c) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination if so provided herein or if necessary or desirable fully to accomplish the purposes of such provision, including without limitation the obligations of the Executive under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The obligation of the Company to pay the Severance Benefit is expressly conditioned upon the Executive's continued full performance of obligations under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive recognizes that, except as expressly provided herein, no compensation is earned after termination of employment.

6. Confidential Information.

(a) The Executive acknowledges that the Company and its Affiliates continually develop Confidential Information, that the Executive may develop Confidential Information for the Company or its Affiliates and that the Executive may learn of Confidential Information during the course of employment. The Executive will comply with the policies and procedures of the Company and its Affiliates for protecting Confidential Information and shall never disclose to any Person, or use for his own benefit or gain, any Confidential Information obtained by the Executive incident to his employment or other association with the Company or any of its Affiliates, in each case except as required by applicable law, governmental or judicial process or procedure, or for the proper performance of his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates or as may be reasonably necessary for the Executive to enforce his rights hereunder or under any of his equity agreements under a BPS equity plan. The Executive understands that this restriction shall continue to apply after his employment terminates, regardless of the reason for such termination, but only for as long as the Confidential Information remains confidential (other than where the Executive, in violation of the Agreement, discloses or publicizes such information).

(b) All documents, records, tapes and other media of every kind and description relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company or its Affiliates and any copies, in whole or in part, thereof (the "Documents"), whether or not prepared by the Executive, shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its Affiliates. The Executive shall safeguard all Documents and shall surrender to the Company at the time his employment terminates, or at such earlier time or times as the Board or its designee may specify, all Documents then in the Executive's possession or control; provided, however, that the Executive may keep such documents that represent agreements between himself and the Company and such documents as are necessary to allow the Executive to understand, exercise and protect his rights and obligations under any agreements between himself and the Company.

7. Assignment of Rights to Intellectual Property . The Executive shall promptly and fully disclose all Intellectual Property to the Company. The Executive hereby assigns and agrees to assign to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) the Executive's full right, title and interest in and to all Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to execute any and all applications for domestic and foreign patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights and to do such other acts (including without limitation the execution and delivery of instruments of further assurance or confirmation) requested by the Company to assign the Intellectual Property to the Company and to permit the Company to enforce any patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights to the Intellectual Property. The Executive will not charge the Company for time spent in complying with these obligations. All copyrightable works that the Executive creates while employed by the Company hereunder shall be considered "work made for hire".

8. Restricted Activities. In exchange for good and valuable consideration including, without limitation, the grant of stock options hereunder, the Executive agrees that some restrictions on his activities during and after his employment are necessary to protect the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates.

(a) While the Executive is employed by the Company, and through the last day of the twelve (12) month period following his termination of employment or, if later, the last day of the Continuation Period (whichever applies, the "Non-Competition Period"), the Executive shall not, whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise, compete in any material manner with the Company or any of its Affiliates in the Business anywhere in the United States, Canada or Europe; provided that the Executive shall be permitted to own, as a passive investor, not more than 5% of the publicly-traded securities of any Person; provided, further, that the foregoing prohibition shall not apply to any Person which competes with the Company in the Business in the United States, Canada or Europe through a division, subsidiary or other business unit of such Person so long as the Executive does not himself so compete and does not work or consult for, or otherwise give advice to, any division, subsidiary or business unit that does so compete. Specifically, but without limiting the foregoing, the Executive agrees not to engage in any manner in any activity that is competitive in any material manner with the Business. Restricted activity includes without limitation accepting employment or a consulting position with any Person who is, or at any time within twelve (12) months prior to termination of the Executive's employment has been, a customer of the Company or any of its Affiliates. For the purposes of this Agreement, the "Business" shall mean the designing, developing, manufacturing, producing, marketing, distributing, selling and supporting of (i) roller, ice and in-line skates, (ii) hockey equipment and apparel, namely roller, ice, in-line and street hockey equipment and apparel, and (iii) any other line of business in which the Company or any of its Affiliates is engaged, or has taken significant steps in connection with the preparation of engaging, in any material way, as of the Executive's termination of employment.

(b) The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period, the Executive will not hire or attempt to hire any Person who is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) an employee of the Company or any of its Affiliates, assist in such hiring by any Person, encourage any such employee to terminate his or her relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates, or solicit or encourage any Person which is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) a customer or vendor of the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate its relationship with them, or, in the case of a customer, to conduct with any Person any business or activity which such customer conducts or could conduct with the Company or any of its Affiliates. The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period he shall not make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Company or its Affiliates including, without limitation, their products, services, management, shareholders, employees and customers. The Company further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period it will instruct its employees not to make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Executive.

9. Enforcement of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges that he has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed upon him pursuant to Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive agrees without reservation that each of the restraints contained herein is necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates; that each and every one of those restraints is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area; and that these restraints, individually or in the aggregate, will not prevent him from obtaining other suitable employment during the period in which the Executive is bound by these restraints. The Executive further acknowledges that, were he to breach any of the covenants contained in Sections 6, 7 or 8 hereof, the damage to the Company would be irreparable. The Executive therefore agrees that the Company, in addition to any other remedies available to it, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Executive of any of said covenants, without having to post bond. The parties further agree that, in the event that any provision of Section 6, 7 or 8 hereof shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities, such provision shall be deemed to be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law.

10. Conflicting Agreements. The Executive hereby represents and warrants that the execution of this Agreement and the performance of his obligations hereunder will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which the Executive is a party or is bound and that the Executive is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants that would affect the performance of his obligations hereunder. The Executive will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company any proprietary information of a third party without such party's consent.

11. Definitions. Words or phrases which are initially capitalized or are within quotation marks shall have the meanings provided in this Section 11 and as provided elsewhere herein. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Affiliates" means all Persons and entities directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Company, where control may be by either management authority or equity interest. For the avoidance of doubt, Affiliates does not include any unrelated Kohlberg portfolio companies that are not directly or indirectly subsidiaries of BPS.

(b) "Confidential Information" means any and all information of the Company and its Affiliates that is not generally known at such time by others with whom they compete or do business, or with whom they plan to compete or do business and any and all information, not publicly known, which, if disclosed by the Company or its Affiliates would assist in competition against them. Confidential Information includes without limitation such information relating to (i) the development, research, testing, manufacturing, marketing and financial activities of the Company and its Affiliates, (ii) the Products, (iii) the costs, sources of supply, financial performance and strategic plans of the Company and its Affiliates, (iv) the identity and special needs of the customers of the Company and its Affiliates and (v) the people and organizations with whom the Company and its Affiliates have business relationships and the existence and nature of those relationships. Confidential Information also includes comparable information that the Company or any of its Affiliates has received belonging to others or which was received by the Company or any of its Affiliates with any understanding that it would not be disclosed. Confidential Information does not include information that is publicly known or becomes publicly known through no fault of the Executive.

(c) "Intellectual Property" means inventions, discoveries, developments, methods, processes, compositions, works, concepts and ideas (whether or not patentable or copyrightable or constituting trade secrets) conceived, made, created, developed or reduced to practice by the Executive (whether alone or with others, whether or not during normal business hours or on or off Company premises) during the Executive's employment that relate to the Business (as defined in Section 8), the Products or any prospective activity of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(d) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, an association, a partnership, an estate, a trust and any other entity or organization, other than the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(e) "Products" mean all products planned, researched, developed, tested, manufactured, sold, licensed, leased or otherwise distributed or put into use by the Company or any of its Affiliates, together with all services provided or planned by the Company or any of its Affiliates, during the Executive's employment.

12. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

13. Increase in Base Salary upon Certain Relocations . In the event the Company relocates its corporate headquarters outside the State of New Hampshire, the rate of Base Salary payable to the Executive shall be subject to a one-time increase in an amount equal to the sum of (i) the product of (A) the rate of Base Salary in effect immediately prior to such relocation multiplied by (B) the additional income taxes payable by the Executive (exclusive of any taxes imposed by Section 409A of the Code) on the amount determined in clause (A), calculated at the highest effective marginal combined rate of U.S. state and local personal income tax then in effect in the city and state to which the Company relocates, and (ii) an additional amount (intended to "gross-up" the Executive) equal to the additional federal, state and local income taxes (measured on a combined basis) payable by the Executive under U.S. law in respect of the amount payable to him under Section 13(i); provided, however, that the Executive will only be entitled to the Base Salary increase contemplated in this Section 13 if, as of immediately prior to such relocation of the corporate headquarters, the Executive's primary residence for purposes of U.S. federal taxes had been the State of New Hampshire for a continuous period of longer than twelve (12) months.

14. Parachute Payments

(a) This Section 14 shall apply only in the case of a Statutory Change in Control (as defined below) occurring after the initial public offering of shares of BPS, and at a time when the Company or BPS has stock which is "readily tradable on an established securities market or otherwise" (within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(5)(A)(ii)(I) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code")). In the event it is determined that any of the payments or benefits (including, without limitation, accelerated vesting of equity rights or other benefits) otherwise payable to the Executive under this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement with the Company or any Affiliate (collectively, the "Payments"), including by reason of the Executive's termination of employment in connection with a Change of Control or other event that constitutes a change in ownership or control of the Company as defined in Code Section 280G (a "Statutory Change in Control") would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Code Section 4999 (the "Excise Tax"), then such Payments shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent necessary so that the aggregate Payments received by the Executive will not be subject to the Excise Tax, but only if by reason of such reduction, the net after tax benefit to the Executive exceeds the net after tax benefit to the Executive without any such reduction. "Net after tax benefit" for purposes of this Section 14 shall mean the sum of (i) the Payments to be made less (ii) the amount of federal income and employment taxes payable with respect to such Payments, calculated at the maximum marginal income tax rate for the year of payment (based upon the rate in effect for such year as set forth in the Code at the time of termination of the Executive's employment) and less (iii) the amount of Excise Taxes imposed with respect to such Payments.

(b) If a reduction in the Payments is necessary, reduction shall occur in the following order: first, a reduction of cash payments not attributable to equity awards which vest on an accelerated basis; second, the cancellation of accelerated vesting of stock awards; third, the reduction of employee benefits and fourth a reduction in any other "parachute payments" (as defined in Code Section 280G). If acceleration of vesting of stock award compensation is to be reduced, such acceleration of vesting shall be cancelled in the reverse order of the date of grant of the Executive's stock awards unless the Executive elects in writing a different order for cancellation. The determinations with respect to this Section 14 shall be made by the Company's regular outside accountants, and the Company shall pay the fees and expenses of such accountants.

(c) While it is the intention of the Company and the Executive to reduce the amounts payable or distributable to the Executive hereunder only if the aggregate net after tax benefits to the Executive would thereby be increased, as a result of the uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of an initial determination hereunder, it is possible that amounts will have been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement which should not have been so paid or distributed ("Overpayment") or that additional amounts which will have not been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement could have been so paid or distributed ("Underpayment"), in each case, consistent with the calculations hereunder. In the event that the Company's accountants, based upon the assertion of a deficiency by the Internal Revenue Service against either the Company or the Executive which the accountants believe has a high probability of success, determine that an Overpayment has been made, then the Executive shall repay any such Overpayment to the Company within ten business days of his receipt of notice of such Overpayment; provided, however, that no amount shall be payable by the Executive to the Company if and to the extent such deemed payment would not either reduce the amount on which the Executive is subject to tax under Section 1 and Section 4999 of the Code or generate a refund of such taxes. In the event that the accountants, based upon controlling precedent or substantial authority, determine that an Underpayment has occurred, any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive; provided, that any such Underpayment shall constitute a payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-2(b)(2)) separate and apart from the Payments; and provided, further that any such Underpayment shall be deemed a disputed payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-3(g)) and shall be made no later than the end of the first taxable year of the Company in which the accounting firm determines pursuant to this Section 14(c) that such Underpayment is due.

15. Assignment. The Executive may not make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein. The Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of the Executive in the event that the Company shall hereafter affect a reorganization, or consolidate with, or merge into, any other Person or transfer all or substantially all of its properties, stock, or assets to any other Person. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and the Executive, their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

16. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

17. Waiver. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

18. Notices. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed to the Executive at his last known address on the books of the Company or, in the case of the Company, at its principal place of business, attention of the Chief Executive Officer, or to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

19. Entire Agreement/Effective Date. This Agreement shall be effective only upon the Effective Date, and upon the Effective Date shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede and terminate all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment with the Company, BPS and their respective Affiliates, including, without limitation, the Employment Agreement entered into between the Company (f/k/a NIKE Bauer Hockey U.S.A., Inc.) and the Executive dated as of May 22, 2008 (the "Prior Agreement"). The Prior Agreement shall govern the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment with the Company and any termination thereof unless and until the Effective Date shall occur.

20. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Executive and by an expressly authorized representative of the Company.

21. Section 409A.

(a) This Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 409A") with respect to amounts, if any, subject thereto and shall be interpreted and construed and shall be performed by the parties consistent with such intent. If either party notifies the other in writing that one or more or the provisions of this Agreement contravenes any Treasury Regulations or guidance promulgated under Section 409A or causes any amounts to be subject to interest, additional tax or penalties under Section 409A, the parties shall agree to negotiate in good faith to make amendments to this Agreement as the parties mutually agree, reasonably and in good faith are necessary or desirable, to (i) maintain to the maximum extent reasonably practicable the original intent of the applicable provisions without violating the provisions of Section 409A or increasing the costs to the Company of providing the applicable benefit or payment and (ii) to the extent possible, to avoid the imposition of any interest, additional tax or other penalties under Section 409A upon the parties.

(b) To the extent the Executive would otherwise be entitled to any payment or benefit under this Agreement, or any plan or arrangement of the Company or its Affiliates, that constitutes a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A and that if paid during the six (6) months beginning on the date of termination of the Executive's employment would be subject to the Section 409A additional tax because the Executive is a "specified employee" (within the meaning of Section 409A and as determined by the Company), the payment or benefit will be paid or provided to the Executive on the first day following the six (6) month anniversary of the Executive's termination of employment or, if earlier, the Executive's date of death.

(c) Any payment or benefit due upon a termination of the Executive's employment that represents a "deferral of compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A shall be paid or provided to the Executive only upon a "separation from service" as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(h). Each payment made under this Agreement shall be deemed to be a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A. Amounts payable under this Agreement shall be deemed not to be a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A to the extent provided in the exceptions in Treasury Regulation §§ 1.409A-1(b)(4) ("short-term deferrals") and (b)(9) ("separation pay plans," including the exception under subparagraph (iii)) and other applicable provisions of Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1 through A-6. To the extent an annual bonus is payable under any provision of this Agreement, it shall be paid in the taxable year of the Company following the taxable year with respect to which the bonus relates, and not later than the 15th day of the third month of such taxable year; provided, that it shall not be a breach of this Agreement if payment is made later in such year to the extent financial results are not available by such date so long as payment is made no later than December 31 of such year.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Agreement, any payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise that is exempt from Section 409A pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(v)(A) or (C) (relating to certain reimbursements and in-kind benefits) shall be paid or provided to the Executive only to the extent that the expenses are not incurred, or the benefits are not provided, beyond the last day of the second calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs; and provided further that such expenses are reimbursed no later than the last day of the third calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs. To the extent any expense reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit is determined to be subject to Section 409A (and not exempt pursuant to the prior sentence or otherwise), the amount of any such expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the provision of any in-kind benefit (including tax return preparation fees and expenses described in Section 22(e)), in one calendar year shall not affect provision of in-kind benefits or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other calendar year (except for any life-time or other aggregate limitation applicable to medical expenses), and in no event shall any expenses be reimbursed after the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive incurred such expenses, and in no event shall any right to reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit. Any reimbursement of tax preparer fees and expenses incurred due to a tax audit addressing the existence or amount of a tax liability shall be made by the end of the Executive's taxable year following the Executive's taxable year in which the taxes that are subject of the audit are remitted to the taxing authority or, if as a result of such audit no taxes are remitted, by the end of the Executive's taxable year in which the audit is completed.

22. Tax Equalization

(a) During the Term of this Agreement and thereafter as provided in this Section 22, and provided that at all such times the Executive is a U.S. resident and not a Canadian resident for Canadian. federal income tax purposes, the Company will make an additional payment (the "Tax Equalization Payment") to the Executive in accordance with this Section 22, so that that the Executive does not materially suffer a loss by reason of any income and employment taxes that may be imposed on that portion, if any, of his Compensation (as defined below) which is taxable to the Executive under Canadian law as income from an office or employment performed by the Executive in Canada.

(b) The amount of any Tax Equalization Payment payable under this Section with respect to a taxable year of the Executive will equal the amount (the "Excess Tax"), if any, by which the Executive's combined aggregate U.S. federal, national, state and local actual income and employment tax liability , exclusive of any taxes under Section 409A or Section 4999 of the Code, and Canadian federal and provincial actual income and employment tax liability in respect of such year (the "Actual Tax Liability") on the Executive's Base Salary, Annual Bonus and the amount of income recognized upon the Executive's exercise of the Rollover Options, the IPO Awards or other stock options granted under the 2011 Plan (collectively, the "BPS Options", and together with Base Salary and Annual Bonus, the "Compensation") exceeds the amount of aggregate U.S. federal, state and local income and employment tax liability, exclusive of any taxes under Section 409A or Section 4999 of the Code, that would have been payable by the Executive for such year with respect to the Compensation if the Executive had performed all services hereunder for the Company and BPS and their Affiliates entirely within the United States in the state in which the Company's corporate headquarters are located at all relevant times such that all Compensation were treated entirely as U.S. source income by both the U.S. and Canada, and as if that were the only income earned by the Executive (the "Hypothetical Tax Liability"), plus an additional payment to gross-up the Executive for his additional actual income and employment tax liability (on a combined federal, national, state, provincial and local basis) on the amount of any such Excess Tax. The Company shall make all determinations of the amount of Compensation, Hypothetical Tax Liability, Excess Tax, Actual Tax Liability and Tax Equalization Payment in accordance with this Section 22.

(c) Notwithstanding this Section 22 or any other provision of this Agreement, the Executive shall pay and be solely responsible for payment of all taxes imposed under U.S., Canadian and any other federal, national, provincial, state and local law on the Compensation and all other payments or benefits paid or provided to the Executive by the Company or any of its Affiliates during the Term of this Agreement and thereafter.

(d) The Tax Equalization Payment payable in respect of a taxable year of the Executive shall be paid during the following taxable year of the Executive.

(e) The Company shall pay the Executive's designated tax return preparer selected by the Executive and reasonably acceptable to the Company directly for the preparation of any Canadian tax returns required to be filed with respect to the Compensation for all tax periods of the Executive beginning or ending during the Term of this Agreement and through and including the date of exercise of any BPS Options, including all amendments to such returns, as well as costs related to audits of such returns and related amendments. The Executive will be solely responsible for the payment of any tax return preparer fees and expenses for the preparation of his federal, state and local U.S. tax returns. The Company and the Executive will provide each other access to and copies of any books, records and documents in the possession of the Company or the Executive, as the case may be, reasonably requested by the other in connection with this Section 22, and otherwise cooperate with each other and their respective tax return preparers in connection with the determinations and all matters contemplated by this Section 22.

(f) All income tax returns to be filed by the Executive will be prepared on a basis consistent with the determinations of the Executive's and the Company's tax return preparers and this Section 22, and the Executive agrees that the Company shall have the right to review and approve all income tax returns (and amendments) to be filed by the Executive with respect to any taxable year covered by this Section 22 before the Executive files any such return with the relevant taxing authority. If the Company objects to any item in any such tax return the Company shall promptly notify the Executive and his tax return preparer of such item and the basis for such objection. The Company and the Executive shall act in good faith to resolve any disagreement between them prior to the date on which the relevant return is required to be filed under applicable law.

(g) The Executive and the Company agree that the Tax Equalization Payments are not intended to represent additional compensation to the Executive. Any Tax Equalization Payment will not be considered as additional Base Salary hereunder or taken into account as salary for purposes of the Annual Bonus Plan or any other benefit plan of the Company except as the terms of such plan may expressly provide otherwise.

23. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

24. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

25. Governing Law. This is a New Hampshire contract and shall be construed and enforced under and be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of New Hampshire, without regard to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

26. Dollar Amounts. All monetary figures in this Agreement shall be in United States dollars.

1. Release of Claims

In partial consideration of the payments and benefits described in Section 4 of the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement (the "Employment Agreement") effective as of _____, by and between [_____] ("Executive") and Bauer Hockey, Inc., a Vermont corporation (the " Company"), to which Executive agrees Executive is not entitled until and unless he executes this Release, Executive, for and on behalf of himself and his heirs and assigns, subject to the last sentence of this Section 1, hereby waives and releases any employment, compensation or benefit-related common law, statutory or other complaints, claims, charges or causes of action of any kind whatsoever, both known and unknown, in law or in equity, which Executive ever had, now has or may have against the Company and its affiliates and their respective shareholders, subsidiaries, successors, assigns, trustees, directors, officers, limited and general partners, managers, joint venturers, members, employees or agents (collectively, the "Releasees") by reason of facts or omissions which have occurred on or prior to the date that Executive signs this Release (the "Employment Claims"), including, without limitation, any complaint, charge or cause of action arising under federal, state or local laws pertaining to employment, including the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (the "ADEA," a law which prohibits discrimination on the basis of age), the National Labor Relations Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, all as amended, and all other federal, state and local laws and regulations relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. By signing this Release, Executive acknowledges that he intends to waive and release any rights known or unknown that he may have against the Releasees under these and any other laws relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive does not release, discharge or waive, and the term "Employment Claims" shall not include: (i) any claims or causes of action arising under or related to any failure by person or entity to perform or fulfill any obligation owed to Executive on or after the date hereof under the Employment Agreement or the terms of any equity award agreement, including without limitation any obligation under Section 4(d), (e) or (g) of the Employment Agreement (as applicable); or (ii) any claims or rights to indemnification that he may have under the certificate of incorporation, the by-laws or equivalent governing documents of the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates, the laws of the State of Vermont or any other state of which any subsidiary or affiliate is a domiciliary, or any indemnification agreement between Executive and the Company, or any rights to insurance coverage under any directors' and officers' personal liability insurance or fiduciary insurance policy; or (iii) any claims to vested benefits.

2. Proceedings

Executive acknowledges that he has not filed any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding, if any, against any of the Releasees before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body (each individually a "Proceeding"). Executive represents that he is not aware of any basis on which such a Proceeding could reasonably be instituted. Executive (i) acknowledges that he will not initiate or cause to be initiated on his behalf any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims and will not participate in any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, in each case, except as required by law and (ii) waives any right he may have to benefit in any manner from any relief (whether monetary or otherwise) arising out of any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, including any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "EEOC"). Further, Executive understands that, by executing this Release, he will be limiting the availability of certain remedies that he may have against the Company and limiting also his ability to pursue certain claims against the Releasees. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in Section 1 of this Release shall prevent Executive from (i) initiating or causing to be initiated on his behalf any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding against the Company before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body challenging the validity of the waiver of his claims under the ADEA contained in Section 1 of this Release (but no other portion of such waiver) or (ii) initiating or participating in an investigation or proceeding conducted by the EEOC or any state fair employment practices agency.

3. Time to Consider

Executive acknowledges that he has been advised that he has twenty-one (21) days from the date of receipt of this Release to consider all the provisions of this Release and he does hereby knowingly and voluntarily waive said given twenty-one (21) day period. EXECUTIVE FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS READ THIS RELEASE CAREFULLY, HAS BEEN ADVISED BY THE COMPANY TO, AND HAS IN FACT, CONSULTED AN ATTORNEY, AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS THAT BY SIGNING BELOW HE IS GIVING UP CERTAIN RIGHTS WHICH HE MAY HAVE TO SUE OR ASSERT A CLAIM AGAINST ANY OF THE RELEASEES, AS DESCRIBED IN SECTION 1 OF THIS RELEASE AND THE OTHER PROVISIONS HEREOF. EXECUTIVE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS NOT BEEN FORCED OR PRESSURED IN ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER TO SIGN THIS RELEASE, AND EXECUTIVE AGREES TO ALL OF ITS TERMS VOLUNTARILY.

4. Revocation

Executive hereby acknowledges and understands that Executive shall have seven (7) days from the date of his execution of this Release to revoke this Release (including, without limitation, any and all claims arising under the ADEA) and that neither the Company nor any other person is obligated to provide any benefits to Executive pursuant to Section 4 of the Employment Agreement until eight (8) days have passed since Executive's signing of this

Release without Executive having revoked this Release, in which event the Company immediately shall arrange and/or pay for any such benefits otherwise attributable to said eight-(8) day period, consistent with the terms of the Employment Agreement. If Executive revokes this Release, Executive will be deemed not to have accepted the terms of this Release, and no action will be required of the Company under this Release, including without limitation any release by the Company of claims against the Executive.

5. No Admission

This Release does not constitute an admission of liability or wrongdoing of any kind by Executive or the Company.

6. General Provisions

A failure of any of the Releasees to insist on strict compliance with any provision of this Release shall not be deemed a waiver of such provision or any other provision hereof. If any provision of this Release is determined to be so broad as to be unenforceable, such provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable, and in the event that any provision is determined to be entirely unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed severable, such that all other provisions of this Release shall remain valid and binding upon Executive and the Releasees.

7. Governing Law

The validity, interpretations, construction and performance of this Release shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Hampshire without giving effect to conflict of laws principles.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Executive has hereunto set Executive's hand as of the day and year set forth opposite his signature below.

DATE	PAUL DACHSTEINER

AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Bauer Hockey, Inc., a Vermont corporation (the "Company"), and Paul Gibson (the "Executive"), effective as of the closing date of the initial public offering of Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. (the "Effective Date").

WHEREAS, the Executive is presently employed as the Executive Vice President, Product Creation and Supply Chain of the Company; and

WHEREAS, the Company desires to continue to employ the Executive, and the Executive desires to continue to provide services to the Company, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Term. The term of the Executive's employment hereunder (the "Term") shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue until terminated in accordance with Section 4 of this Agreement.

2. Title and Duties.

(a) During the Term, the Executive shall serve the Company as Executive Vice President, Product Creation and Supply Chain or in such other executive positions of materially similar duties, authority and reporting responsibility for any Company subsidiary or Affiliate (as hereinafter defined) as requested by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board"). In addition, during the Term to the extent such office (or a comparable office) is maintained by any entity which, directly or indirectly, owns all of the outstanding common stock of the Company (each, a "Parent"), the Executive shall also serve in such same (or comparable) executive position with each Parent, without additional compensation hereunder.

(b) During the Term, the Executive shall be employed by the Company on a full-time basis and shall perform such duties and responsibilities on behalf of the Company consistent with his positions with the Company and its Affiliates and as may be designated from time to time by the Board.

(c) During the Term, the Executive shall devote his full business time and his best efforts, business judgment, skill and knowledge exclusively to the advancement of the business and interests of the Company and its Affiliates and to the discharge of his duties and responsibilities hereunder. The Executive shall not engage in any other business activity or serve in any industry, trade, professional, governmental or academic position during the term of this Agreement, except as may be expressly approved in advance by the Board in writing; provided, however, that so long as such activities do not interfere in any material manner, or give rise to a conflict of interest, with the performance of the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder or otherwise violate this Agreement, the Executive may, without the necessity of seeking Board approval: (i) serve on industry, trade, professional, governmental, civic or charitable boards or committees disclosed to the Board; (ii) deliver lectures and fulfill speaking engagements with trade or other business or social associations and (iii) manage his personal investments.

3. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Executive during the Term and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement:

(a) Base Salary. During the Term, the Company shall pay the Executive a base salary (the "Base Salary") at the rate of $309,000 per annum, payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company for its executives and subject to increase (but not decrease) pursuant to Section 13 and otherwise from time to time by the Board, in its discretion. The Board will review the Executive's rate of Base Salary each year.

(b) Annual Bonus Compensation. For each Company fiscal year during the Term, the Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual bonus under the Company's annual bonus plan for executives (the "Annual Bonus Plan") based on the Company's and the Executive's achievement of specified performance targets for each such fiscal year. The Executive's target bonus (the "Target Bonus") shall equal 65% of the Base Salary payable to him for the applicable fiscal year. The performance targets for each fiscal year and the applicable percentage of the Target Bonus payable at specified performance thresholds each year will be set by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee") in consultation with the Executive, and the Compensation Committee will determine the actual amount of annual bonus, if any, payable to the Executive hereunder in accordance with the Annual Bonus Plan (the amount of bonus for any fiscal year, the "Annual Bonus"). Except as otherwise provided herein, in order to receive an Annual Bonus for any fiscal year under this Section 3(b), the Executive must be employed by the Company for the full fiscal year. For the avoidance of doubt, the Annual Bonus Plan for the fiscal year of the Company that includes the Effective Date will be that Annual Bonus Plan as in effect for the Company immediately prior to the Effective Date.

(c) Equity Based Awards. The parties acknowledge that the Executive presently holds options to acquire shares of Kohlberg Sports Group. In connection with the reorganization transactions undertaken in contemplation of the initial public offering of common shares of BPS, those options (the "Outstanding Options") will be fully vested and converted into options to acquire shares of BPS (the "Rollover Options") as of the Effective Date. The Rollover Options will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. Rollover Stock Option Plan (the "Rollover Plan") and the award agreement governing Rollover Options to be entered into between BPS and the Executive. Effective on or about the Effective Date, the Executive shall be granted additional options (the "IPO Awards") to acquire common shares of BPS under the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. 2011 Stock Option Plan (the "2011 Plan"), and during the Term the Executive shall be eligible to receive additional awards thereunder. The terms and conditions of the IPO Awards and any other such awards shall be as set forth in the 2011 Plan and award agreements entered into between BPS and the Executive.

(d) Paid Time-Off. During the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to 6 weeks of paid time-off per annum in accordance with the Company's paid time-off policy as in effect from time to time, to be taken at such times and intervals as shall be determined by the Executive, subject to the reasonable business needs of the Company.

(e) Other Benefits. During the Term and subject to any required employee contributions, the Executive shall be entitled to participate in any and all employee benefit plans from time to time in effect for employees of the Company generally, except to the extent such plans are in a category of benefit otherwise provided to the Executive. Such participation shall be subject to (i) the terms of the applicable plan documents, (ii) generally applicable Company policies and (iii) the discretion of the Board or any administrative or other committee provided for in such plan. The Company may alter, modify, add to or delete its employee benefit plans at any time as it, in its sole judgment, determines to be appropriate, without recourse by the Executive.

(f) Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for reasonable and customary business expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in the performance of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Board or Company policy from time to time. Such reimbursements, if any, shall be payable to the Executive promptly after the submission of such reasonable substantiation and documentation and shall be subject to Section 21 of this Agreement.

4. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. The Executive's employment hereunder and the Term may be terminated under the circumstances set forth in subsections (a) through (f) below. All payments and benefits specified in this Section 4 shall be subject to Sections 5 and 21 of this Agreement.

(a) Death. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with this Section 4, the Term shall end on the date of the Executive's death. In the event of the Executive's termination of employment by reason of his death, the Company shall pay or provide to the Executive's designated beneficiary or, if no beneficiary has been designated by the Executive, to his estate: (i) any earned, but unpaid Base Salary through the end of the month in which his death has occurred; (ii) any unpaid Annual Bonus for the fiscal year ended prior to the fiscal year of his termination of employment (the "Prior Year Bonus"); (iii) a pro-rated Annual Bonus for the fiscal year in which his termination of employment occurs, with such bonus amount determined by multiplying (A) the bonus amount that would have been payable under Section 3(b) based on performance for the entire fiscal year by (B) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in such fiscal year on which the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365 (the "Pro-Rated Bonus"); (iv) any unreimbursed business expenses and (v) any accrued and unused paid time-off. The payments referred to in clauses (i), (iv) and (v) in the immediately preceding sentence are referred to herein as the "Accrued Obligations" and shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days after the date of death. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(b) Disability.

(i) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Executive, in the event that the Executive becomes disabled during the Term through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of his material duties and responsibilities hereunder ("Disability") for a period of (x) one hundred and twenty (120) consecutive calendar days or (y) one hundred and fifty (150) total days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days. The Board may designate another employee to act in the Executive's place during any period of the Executive's disability.

(ii) If any question shall arise as to whether Disability exists, the Executive may, and at the request of the Company shall, submit to a medical examination by a physician selected by the Company with the consent of the Executive (not to be unreasonably withheld) to determine whether the Executive is so disabled and such determination shall for the purposes of this Agreement be conclusive of the issue. If such question shall arise and the Executive shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

(iii) The date of termination of employment under this Section 4(b) shall be the 10th business day following the Company's notice to the Executive of such termination (provided he has not resumed the full-time performance of his duties hereunder by such date), which date shall be the last day of the Term. In the event of such termination of employment, the Company shall pay to the Executive: (i) the Accrued Obligations; (ii) any unpaid Prior Year Bonus; and (iii) the Pro-Rated Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days after the date of termination of employment; each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause, but in no event later than ninety (90) days following the date upon which at least two members of the Board (other than the Executive) became aware of such Cause. The following, as determined by the Board in its reasonable judgment, shall constitute "Cause" for termination:

(i) The Executive's commission of any material fraud, embezzlement, theft or dishonesty, or any deliberate misappropriation of any material amount of money or other assets or property of the Company or any of its Affiliates;

(ii) The Executive's willful failure to perform, or gross negligence in the performance of, his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates which remains uncured fifteen (15) business days after written notice of such failure specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such failure or negligence is given to the Executive by the Board;

(iii) The Executive's intentional material breach of any of the terms of this Agreement or breach of his fiduciary duties to the Company and Affiliates (except where the breach of fiduciary duties is caused by the Executive's Disability and except where such breach is exculpated under the Company's articles of incorporation) which remains uncured fifteen (15) business days after written notice of such breach, specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such breach, is given to the Executive by the Board; or

(iv) The Executive's conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, a felony.

The date of termination for Cause shall be the date specified in the notice given by the Board to the Executive. Following termination of the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder, other than for payment of (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company.

(d) By the Company without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder without Cause at any time upon notice to the Executive by the Board, effective as of the date specified in such notice. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to (i) pay the Executive the Accrued Obligations; (ii) continue to pay the Executive his Base Salary at the rate in effect on the date of termination for the period of twenty-four (24) months following such termination (the "Continuation Period") in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices for its executives; (iii) continue to provide medical and dental benefits during the Continuation Period (subject to any employee contribution applicable to active employees generally and the Executive's timely election of continuation coverage under COBRA); (iv) pay the Executive the Annual Bonus, if any, that would otherwise have been payable to him under Section 3(b) of this Agreement with respect to the fiscal year of termination of employment, without regard to the Executive's termination of employment; (v) pay the Executive the Prior Year Bonus; and (vi) continue to provide the Executive the Annual Bonus for the portion of the Continuation Period beginning after the fiscal year of termination of employment, based on actual performance for the full fiscal year, pro-rated as though the Executive remained employed through the last day of the Continuation Period (collectively, the payments and benefits referred to in clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) and (vi) are referred to as the "Severance Benefit"). The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

than ninety (90) days following the initial existence of the condition or event giving rise to Good Reason and provided that the Company shall not have corrected the situation within thirty (30) business days after such notice of Good Reason from the Executive to the Board. The following shall constitute "Good Reason":

(i) material diminution in the nature or scope of the Executive's titles, duties, authority or reporting responsibilities, other than as is materially consistent with the Executive's assignment to another executive position in accordance with Section 2(a) hereof or as a result of the diminution of the business of the Company; provided, however, that a change in reporting relationships resulting from the direct or indirect control of the Company (or a successor corporation) by another entity or any sale or transfer of equity, property or other assets of the Company shall not constitute Good Reason;

(ii) material failure of the Company to provide the Executive the Base Salary, Annual Bonus and benefits in accordance with the terms of Section 3 hereof;

(iii) any material diminution in Base Salary or Target Bonus; or

(iv) a change in the geographic location of the Executive's principal place of performance of his services hereunder that increases his one-way commute from his primary residence at the time of such change by at least fifty (50) miles.

In the event of termination in accordance with this Section 4(e), the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to pay or provide the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Severance Benefit. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(f) By the Executive Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder at any time without Good Reason upon forty-five (45) days' notice to the Board. In the event of termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Board may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Board so elects, the Company will pay the Executive his Base Salary for the notice period (or for any remaining portion of the period). In the event of termination of employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Company shall pay the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

5. Release; Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 5 shall apply to a termination pursuant to Section 4 or otherwise.

(a) A condition precedent to the Company's obligations to pay the Severance Benefit and other payments under each of Sections 4(d), (e) and (f) shall be the Executive's execution and delivery of a timely and effective Release of Claims, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Release of Claims") within fifty-five (55) days following the Executive's termination of employment (the "Release Condition"). (For the avoidance of doubt, the Release of Claims must be executed and delivered to the Company (and not subsequently be revoked) not later than forty-seven (47) days following the termination of employment in order to comply with the preceding sentence.) Payments and benefits of amounts which do not constitute nonqualified deferred compensation and are not subject to Section 409A (as defined below) shall commence five (5) days after the Release Condition is satisfied and payments and benefits which are subject to Section 409A shall commence on the 60th day after termination of employment (subject to further delay, if required, pursuant to Section 21 below) provided that the Release Condition is satisfied. If the Executive fails to execute and deliver the Release of Claims, or if he revokes the Release of Claims as provided therein, except for the Accrued Obligations, he shall not receive the Severance Benefit or any other payment to which he may otherwise be entitled under this Agreement.

(b) Upon termination of the Executive's employment with the Company, unless otherwise specifically provided herein, his rights to benefits and payments under any retirement, health or welfare employee benefits plan, under BPS equity plans (and any equity award agreements pursuant to which awards were granted thereunder) and under any other benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate shall be determined in accordance with the terms and provisions of such plans; provided, however, that the Executive shall not be entitled to severance or termination pay under such benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate in connection with termination of his employment.

(c) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination if so provided herein or if necessary or desirable fully to accomplish the purposes of such provision, including without limitation the obligations of the Executive under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The obligation of the Company to pay the Severance Benefit is expressly conditioned upon the Executive's continued full performance of obligations under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive recognizes that, except as expressly provided herein, no compensation is earned after termination of employment.

6. Confidential Information.

(a) The Executive acknowledges that the Company and its Affiliates continually develop Confidential Information, that the Executive may develop Confidential Information for the Company or its Affiliates and that the Executive may learn of Confidential Information during the course of employment. The Executive will comply with the policies and procedures of the Company and its Affiliates for protecting Confidential Information and shall never disclose to any Person, or use for his own benefit or gain, any Confidential Information obtained by the Executive incident to his employment or other association with the Company or any of its Affiliates, in each case except as required by applicable law, governmental or judicial process or procedure, or for the proper performance of his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates or as may be reasonably necessary for the Executive to enforce his rights hereunder or under any of his equity agreements under a BPS equity plan. The Executive understands that this restriction shall continue to apply after his employment terminates, regardless of the reason for such termination, but only for as long as the Confidential Information remains confidential (other than where the Executive, in violation of the Agreement, discloses or publicizes such information).

(b) All documents, records, tapes and other media of every kind and description relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company or its Affiliates and any copies, in whole or in part, thereof (the "Documents"), whether or not prepared by the Executive, shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its Affiliates. The Executive shall safeguard all Documents and shall surrender to the Company at the time his employment terminates, or at such earlier time or times as the Board or its designee may specify, all Documents then in the Executive's possession or control; provided, however, that the Executive may keep such documents that represent agreements between himself and the Company and such documents as are necessary to allow the Executive to understand, exercise and protect his rights and obligations under any agreements between himself and the Company.

7. Assignment of Rights to Intellectual Property . The Executive shall promptly and fully disclose all Intellectual Property to the Company. The Executive hereby assigns and agrees to assign to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) the Executive's full right, title and interest in and to all Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to execute any and all applications for domestic and foreign patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights and to do such other acts (including without limitation the execution and delivery of instruments of further assurance or confirmation) requested by the Company to assign the Intellectual Property to the Company and to permit the Company to enforce any patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights to the Intellectual Property. The Executive will not charge the Company for time spent in complying with these obligations. All copyrightable works that the Executive creates while employed by the Company hereunder shall be considered "work made for hire".

8. Restricted Activities. In exchange for good and valuable consideration including, without limitation, the grant of stock options hereunder, the Executive agrees that some restrictions on his activities during and after his employment are necessary to protect the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates.

(a) While the Executive is employed by the Company, and through the last day of the twelve (12) month period following his termination of employment (the "Non-Competition Period"), the Executive shall not, whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise, compete in any material manner with the Company or any of its Affiliates in the Business anywhere in the United States, Canada or Europe; provided that the Executive shall be permitted to own, as a passive investor, not more than 5% of the publicly-traded securities of any Person; provided, further, that the foregoing prohibition shall not apply to any Person which competes with the Company in the Business in the United States, Canada or Europe through a division, subsidiary or other business unit of such Person so long as the Executive does not himself so compete and does not work or consult for, or otherwise give advice to, any division, subsidiary or business unit that does so compete. Specifically, but without limiting the foregoing, the Executive agrees not to engage in any manner in any activity that is competitive in any material manner with the Business. Restricted activity includes without limitation accepting employment or a consulting position with any Person who is, or at any time within twelve (12) months prior to termination of the Executive's employment has been, a customer of the Company or any of its Affiliates. For the purposes of this Agreement, the "Business" shall mean the designing, developing, manufacturing, producing, marketing, distributing, selling and supporting of (i) roller, ice and in-line skates, (ii) hockey equipment and apparel, namely roller, ice, in-line and street hockey equipment and apparel, and (iii) any other line of business in which the Company or any of its Affiliates is engaged, or has taken significant steps in connection with the preparation of engaging, in any material way, as of the Executive's termination of employment.

(b) The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period, the Executive will not hire or attempt to hire any Person who is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) an employee of the Company or any of its Affiliates, assist in such hiring by any Person, encourage any such employee to terminate his or her relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates, or solicit or encourage any Person which is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) a customer or vendor of the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate its relationship with them, or, in the case of a customer, to conduct with any Person any business or activity which such customer conducts or could conduct with the Company or any of its Affiliates. The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period he shall not make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Company or its Affiliates including, without limitation, their products, services, management, shareholders, employees and customers. The Company further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period it will instruct its employees not to make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Executive.

9. Enforcement of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges that he has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed upon him pursuant to Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive agrees without reservation that each of the restraints contained herein is necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates; that each and every one of those restraints is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area; and that these restraints, individually or in the aggregate, will not prevent him from obtaining other suitable employment during the period in which the Executive is bound by these restraints. The Executive further acknowledges that, were he to breach any of the covenants contained in Sections 6, 7 or 8 hereof, the damage to the Company would be irreparable. The Executive therefore agrees that the Company, in addition to any other remedies available to it, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Executive of any of said covenants, without having to post bond. The parties further agree that, in the event that any provision of Section 6, 7 or 8 hereof shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities, such provision shall be deemed to be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law.

10. Conflicting Agreements. The Executive hereby represents and warrants that the execution of this Agreement and the performance of his obligations hereunder will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which the Executive is a party or is bound and that the Executive is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants that would affect the performance of his obligations hereunder. The Executive will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company any proprietary information of a third party without such party's consent.

11. Definitions. Words or phrases which are initially capitalized or are within quotation marks shall have the meanings provided in this Section 11 and as provided elsewhere herein. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Affiliates" means all Persons and entities directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Company, where control may be by either management authority or equity interest. For the avoidance of doubt, Affiliates does not include any unrelated Kohlberg portfolio companies that are not directly or indirectly subsidiaries of BPS.

(b) "Confidential Information" means any and all information of the Company and its Affiliates that is not generally known at such time by others with whom they compete or do business, or with whom they plan to compete or do business and any and all information, not publicly known, which, if disclosed by the Company or its Affiliates would assist in competition against them. Confidential Information includes without limitation such information relating to (i) the development, research, testing, manufacturing, marketing and financial activities of the Company and its Affiliates, (ii) the Products, (iii) the costs, sources of supply, financial performance and strategic plans of the Company and its Affiliates, (iv) the identity and special needs of the customers of the Company and its Affiliates and (v) the people and organizations with whom the Company and its Affiliates have business relationships and the existence and nature of those relationships. Confidential Information also includes comparable information that the Company or any of its Affiliates has received belonging to others or which was received by the Company or any of its Affiliates with any understanding that it would not be disclosed. Confidential Information does not include information that is publicly known or becomes publicly known through no fault of the Executive.

(c) "Intellectual Property" means inventions, discoveries, developments, methods, processes, compositions, works, concepts and ideas (whether or not patentable or copyrightable or constituting trade secrets) conceived, made, created, developed or reduced to practice by the Executive (whether alone or with others, whether or not during normal business hours or on or off Company premises) during the Executive's employment that relate to the Business (as defined in Section 8), the Products or any prospective activity of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(d) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, an association, a partnership, an estate, a trust and any other entity or organization, other than the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(e) "Products" mean all products planned, researched, developed, tested, manufactured, sold, licensed, leased or otherwise distributed or put into use by the Company or any of its Affiliates, together with all services provided or planned by the Company or any of its Affiliates, during the Executive's employment.

12. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

13. Increase in Base Salary upon Certain Relocations . In the event the Company relocates its corporate headquarters outside the State of New Hampshire, the rate of Base Salary payable to the Executive shall be subject to a one-time increase in an amount equal to the sum of (i) the product of (A) the rate of Base Salary in effect immediately prior to such relocation multiplied by (B) the additional income taxes payable by the Executive (exclusive of any taxes imposed by Section 409A of the Code) on the amount determined in clause (A), calculated at the highest effective marginal combined rate of U.S. state and local personal income tax then in effect in the city and state to which the Company relocates, and (ii) an additional amount (intended to "gross-up" the Executive) equal to the additional federal, state and local income taxes (measured on a combined basis) payable by the Executive under U.S. law in respect of the amount payable to him under Section 13(i).

14. Parachute Payments.

(a) This Section 14 shall apply only in the case of a Statutory Change in Control (as defined below) occurring after the initial public offering of shares of BPS, and at a time when the Company or BPS has stock which is "readily tradable on an established securities market or otherwise" (within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(5)(A)(ii)(I) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code")). In the event it is determined that any of the payments or benefits (including, without limitation, accelerated vesting of equity rights or other benefits) otherwise payable to the Executive under this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement with the Company or any Affiliate (collectively, the "Payments"), including by reason of the Executive's termination of employment in connection with a Change of Control or other event that constitutes a change in ownership or control of the Company as defined in Code Section 280G (a "Statutory Change in Control") would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Code Section 4999 (the "Excise Tax"), then such Payments shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent necessary so that the aggregate Payments received by the Executive will not be subject to the Excise Tax, but only if by reason of such reduction, the net after tax benefit to the Executive exceeds the net after tax benefit to the Executive without any such reduction. "Net after tax benefit" for purposes of this Section 14 shall mean the sum of (i) the Payments to be made less (ii) the amount of federal income and employment taxes payable with respect to such Payments, calculated at the maximum marginal income tax rate for the year of payment (based upon the rate in effect for such year as set forth in the Code at the time of termination of the Executive's employment) and less (iii) the amount of Excise Taxes imposed with respect to such Payments.

(b) If a reduction in the Payments is necessary, reduction shall occur in the following order: first, a reduction of cash payments not attributable to equity awards which vest on an accelerated basis; second, the cancellation of accelerated vesting of stock awards; third, the reduction of employee benefits and fourth a reduction in any other "parachute payments" (as defined in Code Section 280G). If acceleration of vesting of stock award compensation is to be reduced, such acceleration of vesting shall be cancelled in the reverse order of the date of grant of the Executive's stock awards unless the Executive elects in writing a different order for cancellation. The determinations with respect to this Section 14 shall be made by the Company's regular outside accountants, and the Company shall pay the fees and expenses of such accountants.

(c) While it is the intention of the Company and the Executive to reduce the amounts payable or distributable to the Executive hereunder only if the aggregate net after tax benefits to the Executive would thereby be increased, as a result of the uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of an initial determination hereunder, it is possible that amounts will have been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement which should not have been so paid or distributed ("Overpayment") or that additional amounts which will have not been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement could have been so paid or distributed ("Underpayment"), in each case, consistent with the calculations hereunder. In the event that the Company's accountants, based upon the assertion of a deficiency by the Internal Revenue Service against either the Company or the Executive which the accountants believe has a high probability of success, determine that an Overpayment has been made, then the Executive shall repay any such Overpayment to the Company within ten business days of his receipt of notice of such Overpayment; provided, however, that no amount shall be payable by the Executive to the Company if and to the extent such deemed payment would not either reduce the amount on which the Executive is subject to tax under Section 1 and Section 4999 of the Code or generate a refund of such taxes. In the event that the accountants, based upon controlling precedent or substantial authority, determine that an Underpayment has occurred, any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive; provided, that any such Underpayment shall constitute a payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-2(b)(2)) separate and apart from the Payments; and provided, further that any such Underpayment shall be deemed a disputed payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-3(g)) and shall be made no later than the end of the first taxable year of the Company in which the accounting firm determines pursuant to this Section 14(c) that such Underpayment is due.

15. Assignment. The Executive may not make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein. The Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of the Executive in the event that the Company shall hereafter affect a reorganization, or consolidate with, or merge into, any other Person or transfer all or substantially all of its properties, stock, or assets to any other Person. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and the Executive, their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

16. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

17. Waiver. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

18. Notices. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed to the Executive at his last known address on the books of the Company or, in the case of the Company, at its principal place of business, attention of the Board of Directors, or to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

19. Entire Agreement/Effective Date. This Agreement shall be effective only upon the Effective Date, and upon the Effective Date shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede and terminate all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment with the Company, BPS and their respective Affiliates, including, without limitation, the Employment Agreement entered into between KBAU Holdings US, Inc. and the Executive effective as of April 16, 2008 (the "Prior Agreement"). The Prior Agreement shall govern the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment with the Company and any termination thereof unless and until the Effective Date shall occur.

20. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Executive and by an expressly authorized representative of the Company.

(a) This Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 409A") with respect to amounts, if any, subject thereto and shall be interpreted and construed and shall be performed by the parties consistent with such intent. If either party notifies the other in writing that one or more or the provisions of this Agreement contravenes any Treasury Regulations or guidance promulgated under Section 409A or causes any amounts to be subject to interest, additional tax or penalties under Section 409A, the parties shall agree to negotiate in good faith to make amendments to this Agreement as the parties mutually agree, reasonably and in good faith are necessary or desirable, to (i) maintain to the maximum extent reasonably practicable the original intent of the applicable provisions without violating the provisions of Section 409A or increasing the costs to the Company of providing the applicable benefit or payment and (ii) to the extent possible, to avoid the imposition of any interest, additional tax or other penalties under Section 409A upon the parties.

(b) To the extent the Executive would otherwise be entitled to any payment or benefit under this Agreement, or any plan or arrangement of the Company or its Affiliates, that constitutes a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A and that if paid during the six (6) months beginning on the date of termination of the Executive's employment would be subject to the Section 409A additional tax because the Executive is a "specified employee" (within the meaning of Section 409A and as determined by the Company), the payment or benefit will be paid or provided to the Executive on the first day following the six (6) month anniversary of the Executive's termination of employment or, if earlier, the Executive's date of death.

(c) Any payment or benefit due upon a termination of the Executive's employment that represents a "deferral of compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A shall be paid or provided to the Executive only upon a "separation from service" as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(h). Each payment made under this Agreement shall be deemed to be a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A. Amounts payable under this Agreement shall be deemed not to be a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A to the extent provided in the exceptions in Treasury Regulation §§ 1.409A-1(b)(4) ("short-term deferrals") and (b)(9) ("separation pay plans," including the exception under subparagraph (iii)) and other applicable provisions of Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1 through A-6. To the extent an annual bonus is payable under any provision of this Agreement, it shall be paid in the taxable year of the Company following the taxable year with respect to which the bonus relates, and not later than the 15th day of the third month of such taxable year; provided, that it shall not be a breach of this Agreement if payment is made later in such year to the extent financial results are not available by such date so long as payment is made no later than December 31 of such year.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Agreement, any payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise that is exempt from Section 409A pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(v)(A) or (C) (relating to certain reimbursements and in-kind benefits) shall be paid or provided to the Executive only to the extent that the expenses are not incurred, or the benefits are not provided, beyond the last day of the second calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs; and provided further that such expenses are reimbursed no later than the last day of the third calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs. To the extent any expense reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit is determined to be subject to Section 409A (and not exempt pursuant to the prior sentence or otherwise), the amount of any such expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the provision of any in-kind benefit (including tax return preparation fees and expenses described in Section 22(e)), in one calendar year shall not affect provision of in-kind benefits or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other calendar year (except for any life-time or other aggregate limitation applicable to medical expenses), and in no event shall any expenses be reimbursed after the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive incurred such expenses, and in no event shall any right to reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit. Any reimbursement of tax preparer fees and expenses incurred due to a tax audit addressing the existence or amount of a tax liability shall be made by the end of the Executive's taxable year following the Executive's taxable year in which the taxes that are subject of the audit are remitted to the taxing authority or, if as a result of such audit no taxes are remitted, by the end of the Executive's taxable year in which the audit is completed.

22. Tax Equalization

(a) During the Term of this Agreement and thereafter as provided in this Section 22, and provided that at all such times the Executive is a U.S. resident and not a Canadian resident for Canadian. federal income tax purposes, the Company will make an additional payment (the "Tax Equalization Payment") to the Executive in accordance with this Section 22, so that that the Executive does not materially suffer a loss by reason of any income and employment taxes that may be imposed on that portion, if any, of his Compensation (as defined below) which is taxable to the Executive under Canadian law as income from an office or employment performed by the Executive in Canada.

(b) The amount of any Tax Equalization Payment payable under this Section with respect to a taxable year of the Executive will equal the amount (the "Excess Tax"), if any, by which the Executive's combined aggregate U.S. federal, national, state and local actual income and employment tax liability , exclusive of any taxes under Section 409A or Section 4999 of the Code, and Canadian federal and provincial actual income and employment tax liability in respect of such year (the "Actual Tax Liability") on the Executive's Base Salary, Annual Bonus and the amount of income recognized upon the Executive's exercise of the Rollover Options, the IPO Awards or other stock options granted under the 2011 Plan (collectively, the "BPS Options", and together with Base Salary and Annual Bonus, the "Compensation") exceeds the amount of aggregate U.S. federal, state and local income and employment tax liability, exclusive of any taxes under Section 409A or Section 4999 of the Code, that would have been payable by the Executive for such year with respect to the Compensation if the Executive had performed all services hereunder for the Company and BPS and their Affiliates entirely within the United States in the state in which the Company's corporate headquarters are located at all relevant times such that all Compensation were treated entirely as U.S. source income by both the U.S. and Canada, and as if that were the only income earned by the Executive (the "Hypothetical Tax Liability"), plus an additional payment to gross-up the Executive for his additional actual income and employment tax liability (on a combined federal, national, state, provincial and local basis) on the amount of any such Excess Tax. The Company shall make all determinations of the amount of Compensation, Hypothetical Tax Liability, Excess Tax, Actual Tax Liability and Tax Equalization Payment in accordance with this Section 22.

(c) Notwithstanding this Section 22 or any other provision of this Agreement, the Executive shall pay and be solely responsible for payment of all taxes imposed under U.S., Canadian and any other federal, national, provincial, state and local law on the Compensation and all other payments or benefits paid or provided to the Executive by the Company or any of its Affiliates during the Term of this Agreement and thereafter.

(d) The Tax Equalization Payment payable in respect of a taxable year of the Executive shall be paid during the following taxable year of the Executive.

(e) The Company shall pay the Executive's designated tax return preparer selected by the Executive and reasonably acceptable to the Company directly for the preparation of any Canadian tax returns required to be filed with respect to the Compensation for all tax periods of the Executive beginning or ending during the Term of this Agreement and through and including the date of exercise of any BPS Options, including all amendments to such returns, as well as costs related to audits of such returns and related amendments. The Executive will be solely responsible for the payment of any tax return preparer fees and expenses for the preparation of his federal, state and local U.S. tax returns. The Company and the Executive will provide each other access to and copies of any books, records and documents in the possession of the Company or the Executive, as the case may be, reasonably requested by the other in connection with this Section 22, and otherwise cooperate with each other and their respective tax return preparers in connection with the determinations and all matters contemplated by this Section 22.

(f) All income tax returns to be filed by the Executive will be prepared on a basis consistent with the determinations of the Executive's and the Company's tax return preparers and this Section 22, and the Executive agrees that the Company shall have the right to review and approve all income tax returns (and amendments) to be filed by the Executive with respect to any taxable year covered by this Section 22 before the Executive files any such return with the relevant taxing authority. If the Company objects to any item in any such tax return the Company shall promptly notify the Executive and his tax return preparer of such item and the basis for such objection. The Company and the Executive shall act in good faith to resolve any disagreement between them prior to the date on which the relevant return is required to be filed under applicable law.

(g) The Executive and the Company agree that the Tax Equalization Payments are not intended to represent additional compensation to the Executive. Any Tax Equalization Payment will not be considered as additional Base Salary hereunder or taken into account as salary for purposes of the Annual Bonus Plan or any other benefit plan of the Company except as the terms of such plan may expressly provide otherwise.

23. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

24. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

25. Governing Law. This is a New Hampshire contract and shall be construed and enforced under and be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of New Hampshire, without regard to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

26. Dollar Amounts. All monetary figures in this Agreement shall be in United States dollars.

RELEASE OF CLAIMS

1. Release of Claims

In partial consideration of the payments and benefits described in Section 4 of the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement (the "Employment Agreement") effective as of _____, by and between Paul Gibson ("Executive") and Bauer Hockey, Inc., a Vermont corporation (the " Company"), to which Executive agrees Executive is not entitled until and unless he executes this Release, Executive, for and on behalf of himself and his heirs and assigns, subject to the last sentence of this Section 1, hereby waives and releases any employment, compensation or benefit-related common law, statutory or other complaints, claims, charges or causes of action of any kind whatsoever, both known and unknown, in law or in equity, which Executive ever had, now has or may have against the Company and its affiliates and their respective shareholders, subsidiaries, successors, assigns, trustees, directors, officers, limited and general partners, managers, joint venturers, members, employees or agents (collectively, the "Releasees") by reason of facts or omissions which have occurred on or prior to the date that Executive signs this Release (the "Employment Claims"), including, without limitation, any complaint, charge or cause of action arising under federal, state or local laws pertaining to employment, including the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (the "ADEA," a law which prohibits discrimination on the basis of age), the National Labor Relations Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, all as amended, and all other federal, state and local laws and regulations relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. By signing this Release, Executive acknowledges that he intends to waive and release any rights known or unknown that he may have against the Releasees under these and any other laws relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive does not release, discharge or waive, and the term "Employment Claims" shall not include: (i) any claims or causes of action arising under or related to any failure by person or entity to perform or fulfill any obligation owed to Executive on or after the date hereof under the Employment Agreement or the terms of any equity award agreement, including without limitation any obligation under Section 4(d) or (e) of the Employment Agreement (as applicable); or (ii) any claims or rights to indemnification that he may have under the certificate of incorporation, the by-laws or equivalent governing documents of the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates, the laws of the State of Vermont or any other state of which any subsidiary or affiliate is a domiciliary, or any indemnification agreement between Executive and the Company, or any rights to insurance coverage under any directors' and officers' personal liability insurance or fiduciary insurance policy; or (iii) any claims to vested benefits.

2. Proceedings

Executive acknowledges that he has not filed any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding, if any, against any of the Releasees before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body (each individually a "Proceeding"). Executive represents that he is not aware of any basis on which such a Proceeding could reasonably be instituted. Executive (i) acknowledges that he will not initiate or cause to be initiated on his behalf any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims and will not participate in any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, in each case, except as required by law and (ii) waives any right he may have to benefit in any manner from any relief (whether monetary or otherwise) arising out of any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, including any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "EEOC"). Further, Executive understands that, by executing this Release, he will be limiting the availability of certain remedies that he may have against the Company and limiting also his ability to pursue certain claims against the Releasees. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in Section 1 of this Release shall prevent Executive from (i) initiating or causing to be initiated on his behalf any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding against the Company before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body challenging the validity of the waiver of his claims under the ADEA contained in Section 1 of this Release (but no other portion of such waiver) or (ii) initiating or participating in an investigation or proceeding conducted by the EEOC or any state fair employment practices agency.

3. Time to Consider

Executive acknowledges that he has been advised that he has twenty-one (21) days from the date of receipt of this Release to consider all the provisions of this Release and he does hereby knowingly and voluntarily waive said given twenty-one (21) day period. EXECUTIVE FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS READ THIS RELEASE CAREFULLY, HAS BEEN ADVISED BY THE COMPANY TO, AND HAS IN FACT, CONSULTED AN ATTORNEY, AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS THAT BY SIGNING BELOW HE IS GIVING UP CERTAIN RIGHTS WHICH HE MAY HAVE TO SUE OR ASSERT A CLAIM AGAINST ANY OF THE RELEASEES, AS DESCRIBED IN SECTION 1 OF THIS RELEASE AND THE OTHER PROVISIONS HEREOF. EXECUTIVE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS NOT BEEN FORCED OR PRESSURED IN ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER TO SIGN THIS RELEASE, AND EXECUTIVE AGREES TO ALL OF ITS TERMS VOLUNTARILY.

4. Revocation

Executive hereby acknowledges and understands that Executive shall have seven (7) days from the date of his execution of this Release to revoke this Release (including, without limitation, any and all claims arising under the ADEA) and that neither the Company nor any other person is obligated to provide any benefits to Executive pursuant to Section 4 of the Employment Agreement until eight (8) days have passed since Executive's signing of this Release without Executive having revoked this Release, in which event the Company immediately shall arrange and/or pay for any such benefits otherwise attributable to said eight-

(8) day period, consistent with the terms of the Employment Agreement. If Executive revokes this Release, Executive will be deemed not to have accepted the terms of this Release, and no action will be required of the Company under this Release, including without limitation any release by the Company of claims against the Executive.

5. No Admission

This Release does not constitute an admission of liability or wrongdoing of any kind by Executive or the Company.

6. General Provisions

A failure of any of the Releasees to insist on strict compliance with any provision of this Release shall not be deemed a waiver of such provision or any other provision hereof. If any provision of this Release is determined to be so broad as to be unenforceable, such provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable, and in the event that any provision is determined to be entirely unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed severable, such that all other provisions of this Release shall remain valid and binding upon Executive and the Releasees.

7. Governing Law

The validity, interpretations, construction and performance of this Release shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Hampshire without giving effect to conflict of laws principles.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Executive has hereunto set Executive's hand as of the day and year set forth opposite his signature below.

Exhibit 10.13

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Easton Baseball/Softball Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Todd Harman, the " Executive"), effective as of April 6, 2015 (the "Effective Date").

WHEREAS, the Company desires to employ Executive and Executive desires to be employed by the Company immediately as of the Effective Date, under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing promises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Term. The term of the Executive's employment hereunder (the "Term") shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue until terminated in accordance with Section 4 of this Agreement.

2. Title and Duties.

(a) During the Term, the Executive shall serve the Company as Executive Vice President, Easton Baseball/Softball, or in such other position or positions as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company (the "CEO") may designate from time to time, and shall also serve in similar positions with any Company subsidiary or Affiliate (as hereinafter defined) if designated by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") or the CEO.

(b) During the Term, the Executive shall be employed by the Company on a full-time basis and shall perform such duties and responsibilities on behalf of the Company, its subsidiaries and its Affiliates consistent with his positions with the Company, and its subsidiaries and Affiliates and as may be designated from time to time by the Board or the CEO.

(c) During the Term, the Executive shall devote his full business time and his best efforts, business judgment, skill and knowledge exclusively to the advancement of the business and interests of the Company and its subsidiaries and Affiliates and to the discharge of his duties and responsibilities hereunder. The Executive shall not engage in any other business activity or serve in any industry, trade, professional, governmental or academic position during the Term, except as may be expressly approved in advance by the CEO in writing.

3. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Executive during the Term and the obligations set forth in this Agreement and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Executive shall receive from the Company:

(a) Base Salary. During the Term, the Company shall pay the Executive a base salary (the "Base Salary") at the rate of $350,000 (three hundred fifty thousand US dollars) per annum, payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company for its executives and subject to increase (but not decrease) from time to time by the CEO, in his/her discretion.

(b) Annual Bonus Compensation. For each Company fiscal year during the Term, the Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual bonus under the Company's annual bonus plan for executives (the "Annual Bonus Plan") based on the Company's and the Executive's achievement of specified performance targets for each such fiscal year. The Executive's target bonus (the "Target Bonus") shall equal 65% (Sixty-Five Percent) of the fiscal earnings payable to him for the applicable fiscal year, excluding any earnings from Bonus paid during the fiscal year. The performance targets for each fiscal year and the applicable percentage of the Target Bonus payable at specified performance thresholds each year will be set by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee"), and the Compensation Committee will determine the actual amount of annual bonus, if any, payable to the Executive hereunder in accordance with the Annual Bonus Plan (the amount of bonus for any fiscal year, the "Annual Bonus"). Except as otherwise provided herein, in order to receive an Annual Bonus for any fiscal year under this Section 3(b), the Executive must be employed by the Company for the full fiscal year. In the event that the Effective Date is after the commencement of a fiscal year, the Annual Bonus will be pro-rated for such fiscal year, with such bonus amount determined by multiplying (A) the bonus amount that would have been payable under this Section 3(b) based on performance for the entire fiscal year by (B) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in such fiscal year on which the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365 (the "Pro-Rated Bonus"). In order to receive the pro-rated Annual Bonus, the Executive must be employed by the Company at the end of the fiscal year. For the avoidance of doubt, the Annual Bonus Plan for the fiscal year of the Company that includes the Effective Date will be that Annual Bonus Plan as in effect for the Company immediately prior to the Effective Date. To the extent an Annual Bonus is payable under any provision of this Agreement, it shall be paid in the taxable year of the Company following the taxable year with respect to which such Annual Bonus relates, and not later than the 15th day of the third month of such taxable year; provided, that it shall not be a breach of this Agreement if payment is made later in such year to the extent financial results are not available by such date so long as payment is made no later than December 31 of such year.

(c) Equity Based Awards. Subject to Board approval, on or about the Effective Date, the Executive shall be granted options (the "Option Awards") to acquire 125,000 (one hundred twenty-five thousand) common shares of PSG under the Bauer Performance Sports Limited Second Amended and Restated 2011 Stock Option Plan (the "2011 Plan"), and during the term the Executive shall be eligible to receive additional awards thereunder. If the Effective Date is within a "no trade" period, during which the Company is not allowed to grant awards under the 2011 plan or under applicable securities laws, the Executive shall be granted the Option Awards within thirty (30) days after the end of such period. The terms and conditions of the Option Awards and any other such awards shall be set forth in the 2011 Plan and award agreements entered into between PSG and the Executive.

d) Relocation. The Executive shall be eligible for relocation benefits as outlined in the attached Exhibit B. In the event the Executive voluntarily resigns his position without Good Reason (as defined in Section 4(e) below) or is terminated by the Company for Cause (as defined in Section 4(c) below), (i) within the first twelve-month period after the Effective Date, the Executive shall repay to the Company 100% of the relocation benefits paid to the Executive or (ii) within the second twelve-month period after the Effective Date, the Executive shall repay to the Company 50% of the relocation benefits paid to the Executive. Executive agrees to make such repayment within sixty (60) days after the last day of his employment with the Company.

e) Paid Time-Off. During the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to four (4) weeks of paid time-off per annum in accordance with the Company's paid time-off policy as in effect from time to time, to be taken at such times and intervals as shall be determined by the Executive and approved by the CEO, subject to the reasonable business needs of the Company.

(f) Other Benefits. During the Term and subject to any required employee contributions, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in employee benefit plans from time to time in effect for employees of the Company generally, except to the extent any benefit plan is in a category of benefits that is provided to the Executive (but not for employees of the Company generally) under this Agreement. Such participation shall be subject to (i) the terms of the applicable plan documents, (ii) generally applicable Company policies and (iii) the discretion of the Board or any administrative or other committee provided for in such plan. The Company may alter, modify, add to or delete its employee benefit plans at any time as it, in its sole judgment, determines to be appropriate, without recourse to the Executive.

(g) Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for reasonable and necessary business expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in the performance of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Board or Company policy from time to time. Such reimbursements, if any, shall be payable to the Executive promptly after the submission of such reasonable substantiation and documentation and shall be subject to Section 20 of this Agreement.

4. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. The Executive's employment hereunder and the Term may be terminated under the circumstances set forth in subsections (a) through (f) below. All payments and benefits specified in this Section 4 shall be subject to Sections 5 and 20 of this Agreement.

(a) Death. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with this Section 4, the Term shall end on the date of the Executive's death. In the event of the Executive's termination of employment by reason of Executive's death, the Company shall pay or provide to the Executive's designated beneficiary or, if no beneficiary has been designated by the Executive, to his estate: (i) any earned, but unpaid Base Salary through the end of the month in which his death has occurred; (ii) any unpaid Annual Bonus for the fiscal year ended prior to the fiscal year of Executive's termination of employment (the "Prior Year Bonus"); (iii) the Pro-Rated Bonus for the fiscal year in which Executive's termination of employment occurs; (iv) any unreimbursed business expenses (subject to the provisions of subsection 3 (g) above) and (v) any accrued and unused paid time-off. The payments referred to in clauses (i), (iv) and (v) in the immediately preceding sentence are referred to herein as the "Accrued Obligations" and shall be payable in accordance with applicable law. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests, if any, shall be governed by the terms of the applicable Company equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no other or further obligation to the Executive hereunder upon the death of the Executive.

(i) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Executive, in the event that the Executive becomes disabled during the Term through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of Executive's material duties and responsibilities hereunder ("Disability") for a period of (x) one hundred and twenty (120) consecutive calendar days or (y) one hundred and fifty (150) total days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days. The Board may designate another employee to act in the Executive's place during any period of the Executive's disability.

(ii) If any question shall arise as to whether Disability exists, the Executive may, and at the request of the Company shall, submit to a medical examination by a physician selected by the Company with the consent of the Executive (not to be unreasonably withheld) to determine whether the Executive is so disabled and such determination shall for the purposes of this Agreement be conclusive of the issue. If such question shall arise and the Executive shall fail to submit to a medical examination requested by the Company, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

(iii) The date of termination of employment under this Section 4(b) shall be the 10th business day following the Company's notice to the Executive of such termination (provided he has not resumed the full-time performance of his duties hereunder by such date), which date shall be the last day of the Term. In the event of such termination of employment, the Company shall pay to the Executive: (i) the Accrued Obligations; (ii) any unpaid Prior Year Bonus; and (iii) the Pro-Rated Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in accordance with applicable law. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable Company equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder in the event of Disability.

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for "Cause" (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause. The following, as determined by the CEO in his/her reasonable judgment, shall constitute Cause for termination:

(i) The Executive's commission of any material fraud, embezzlement, theft or dishonesty, or any deliberate misappropriation of any material amount of money or other assets or property of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates;

(ii) The Executive's willful failure to perform, or gross negligence in the performance of, his duties and responsibilities to the Company or any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates;

(iii) The Executive's material breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, Company policies (including policies such as those prohibiting harassment), or his fiduciary duties to the Company or any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates (except where the breach of fiduciary duties is caused by the Executive's Disability and except where such breach is exculpated under the Company's articles of incorporation); or

(iv) The Executive's conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, a felony or any other action by the Executive that has resulted, or could be reasonably expected to result, in material injury to the reputation of Executive or the business of the Company, any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates.

The date of termination for Cause shall be the date specified in the notice given by the Board to the Executive. Following termination of the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder for, or as a result of, the termination of Executive's employment, other than for payment of (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable under applicable law. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company.

(d) By the Company without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder without Cause at any time upon notice to the Executive by the Board, effective as of the date specified in such notice. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive for or as a result of the termination of Executive's employment, other than to (i) pay the Executive the Accrued Obligations; (ii) continue to pay the Executive his Base Salary at the rate in effect on the date of termination for the period of twelve (12) months following such termination (the "Continuation Period") in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices for its executives; (iii) with regard to payments made by the Executive pursuant to the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act ("COBRA"), to reimburse the Executive an amount equal to the percentage of medical and dental benefits provided by the Company to the Executive at the conclusion of the Term (subject to the Executive's timely election of continuation coverage under COBRA); (iv) pay the Executive the Annual Bonus, if any, that would otherwise have been payable to Executive under Section 3(b) of this Agreement with respect to the fiscal year of termination of employment, without regard to the timing of the termination of the Executive's employment; (v) pay the Executive the Prior Year Bonus; and (vi) pay the Executive the Annual Bonus, pro-rated for the portion of the Continuation Period beginning after the fiscal year of termination of employment, based on the Company's actual performance for the full fiscal year (collectively, the payments and benefits referred to in clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) and (vi) are referred to as the "Severance Benefit"). The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in accordance with applicable law. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable Company equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(e) By the Executive for Good Reason. The Executive may terminate Executive's employment hereunder for "Good Reason" (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Board setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Good Reason, but in no event later than ninety (90) days following the initial existence of the condition or event giving rise to Good Reason and provided that the Company shall not have corrected the situation within thirty (30) business days after such notice of Good Reason from the Executive to the Board. The following shall constitute Good Reason:

(i) material diminution in the nature or scope of the Executive's titles, duties, authority or reporting responsibilities (including a change in Executive's direct reporting relationship to the CEO), other than as is materially consistent with the Executive's assignment to another executive position in accordance with Section 2(a) hereof, or as a result of the diminution of the business of the Company; provided, however, that a change in reporting responsibilities resulting from the direct or indirect control of the Company (or a successor corporation) by another entity or any sale or transfer of equity, property or other assets of the Company shall not constitute Good Reason;

(ii) material failure of the Company to provide the Executive the Base Salary or Annual Bonus in accordance with the terms of Section 3 hereof;

(iii) any material diminution in Base Salary or Target Bonus; or

(iv) a change in the geographic location of the Executive's principal place of performance of his services hereunder that increases his one-way commute from his primary residence at the time of such change by more than fifty (50) miles.

In the event of termination in accordance with this Section 4(e), the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive for, or as a result of, the termination of the Executive's employment, other than to pay or provide the Executive with (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Severance Benefit. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in accordance with applicable law. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable PSG equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(f) By the Executive Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder at any time without Good Reason upon forty-five (45) days' notice to the Board. In the event of termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Board may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Board so elects, the Company shall pay the Executive his Base Salary for the notice period (or for any remaining portion of the period, as the case may be). In the event of termination of employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Company shall pay the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in accordance with applicable law. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable Company equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

5. Release; Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 5 shall apply to a termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to Section 4 or otherwise.

(a) A condition precedent to the Company's obligations contained in each of Sections 4(d), (e), and (f) shall be the Executive's execution and delivery of a timely and effective Release of Claims, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Release of Claims"), and the expiration of any applicable revocation period contained in such Release of Claims following the Executive's termination of employment (the "Release Condition"). For avoidance of doubt, depending upon the Executive's age and other relevant circumstances, the twenty-one (21) and/or forty-five (45) day provisions in paragraph 3 and the revocation provisions in paragraph 4 may be excluded from the Release of Claims. Payments and benefits of amounts which do not constitute nonqualified deferred compensation and are not subject to Section 409A (as defined below) shall commence five (5) days after the Release Condition is satisfied and payments and benefits which are subject to Section 409A shall commence on the 60th day after termination of employment (subject to further delay, if required, pursuant to Section 20 below) provided that the Release Condition is satisfied. If the Executive fails to execute and deliver the Release of Claims, or if he revokes the Release of Claims as provided therein, except for the Accrued Obligations, the Company shall have no obligation to comply with Sections 4(d), (e), or (f) of this Agreement.

(b) Upon termination of the Executive's employment with the Company, unless otherwise specifically provided herein, Executive's rights to benefits and payments under any retirement, health or welfare employee benefits plan, under the Company's equity plans (and any equity award agreements pursuant to which awards were granted thereunder) and under any other benefit plan of the Company or any subsidiary or Affiliate shall be determined in accordance with the terms and provisions of such plans; provided, however, that in light of the provisions of this Agreement, the Executive shall not be entitled to severance or termination pay under any benefit plan of the Company or any subsidiary or Affiliate in connection with the termination of Executive's employment.

(c) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination of employment if so provided herein or if necessary or desirable to accomplish fully the purposes of such provisions, including without limitation the obligations of the Executive contained in Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The obligation of the Company to pay the Severance Benefit is expressly conditioned upon the Executive's continued full performance of obligations contained in Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive recognizes that, except as expressly provided herein, he shall not earn or be entitled to any compensation or benefits after the termination of Executive's employment.

1. Confidential Information.

(a) The Executive acknowledges that the Company and its subsidiaries and Affiliates continually develop Confidential Information, that the Executive may develop Confidential Information for the Company or its subsidiaries or Affiliates and that the Executive may learn of Confidential Information during the course of Executive's employment with the Company. The Executive will comply with the policies and procedures of the Company and its Affiliates for protecting Confidential Information and shall never disclose to any Person, or use for his own benefit or gain, any Confidential Information obtained by the Executive incident to his employment or other association with the Company or any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates, in each case except as required by applicable law, governmental or judicial process or procedure, or for the proper performance of his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its subsidiaries and Affiliates or as may be reasonably necessary for the Executive to enforce his rights hereunder or under any of his equity agreements under a Company equity plan. The Executive understands that this restriction shall continue to apply after Executive's employment terminates, regardless of the reason for such termination, but only for as long as the Confidential Information remains confidential (other than where the Executive, in violation of the Agreement, discloses or publicizes such information).

(b) The Executive acknowledges and agrees that all documents, records, tapes and other media of every kind and description relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company and its subsidiaries and Affiliates and any copies, in whole or in part, thereof (the "Documents"), whether or not prepared by the Executive, shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its subsidiaries and Affiliates. The Executive shall safeguard all Documents and shall surrender to the Company at the time Executive's employment terminates, or at such earlier time or times as the Board or its designee may specify, all Documents then in the Executive's possession or control; provided, however, that the Executive may keep such documents that represent agreements between himself and the Company and such documents as are necessary to allow the Executive to understand, exercise and protect his rights and obligations under any agreements (including this Agreement) between himself and the Company.

2. Assignment of Rights to Intellectual Property . The Executive shall promptly and fully disclose all Intellectual Property to the Company. The Executive hereby assigns and agrees to assign to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) the Executive's full right, title and interest in and to all Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to execute any and all applications for domestic and foreign patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights and to do such other acts (including without limitation the execution and delivery of instruments of further assurance or confirmation) requested by the Company to assign the Intellectual Property to the Company and to permit the Company to enforce any patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights to the Intellectual Property. The Executive will not charge the Company for time spent in complying with these obligations. All copyrightable works that the Executive creates while employed by the Company hereunder shall be considered "work made for hire".

3. Restricted Activities. Executive acknowledges that he will receive trade secret and confidential information during his employment, and in an effort to protect such information, Executive agrees as follows:

(d) While the Executive is employed by the Company, and through the last day of the twelve (12) month period following the termination of the Executive's employment or, if later, the last day of the Continuation Period (whichever applies, the "Restriction Period"), the Executive shall not solicit any customer of the Company to terminate its relationship with the Company. For avoidance of doubt, the Executive agrees and acknowledges that this Agreement is necessary to protect the trade secrets of the Company. The Executive acknowledges as well that in his role as Executive Vice President, Easton Baseball/Softball and as a member of the executive team, he will be privy to trade secrets relating to the following affiliates of the Company: Bauer Hockey, Mission Roller Hockey, Combat, Maverik Lacrosse, Cascade Helmets, and Inaria Soccer, as well as affiliates acquired subsequently by the Company or one of its affiliates. The Executive agrees and acknowledges that this Agreement also is necessary to protect the trade secrets of those affiliates.

(e) The Executive further agrees that during the Restriction Period, the Executive will not solicit any Person who is an employee of the Company to discontinue working for the Company, whether for the purpose of working for any competitor or otherwise.

(f) The Executive further agrees that during the Restriction Period he shall not make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Company or its subsidiaries or Affiliates including, without limitation, their products, services, management, shareholders, employees and customers.

4. Enforcement of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges that the Executive has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed upon him pursuant to Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive agrees without reservation that each of the restraints contained therein is necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its subsidiaries and Affiliates; that each and every one of those restraints is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area; and that these restraints, individually or in the aggregate, will not prevent the Executive from obtaining other suitable employment during the period in which the Executive is bound by these restraints. The Executive further acknowledges that, were the Executive to breach any of the covenants contained in Sections 6, 7 or 8 hereof, the damage to the Company would be irreparable. The Executive therefore agrees that the Company, in addition to any other remedies available to it, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Executive of any of said covenants, without having to post a bond. The parties agree that, in the event that any provision of Section 6, 7 or 8 hereof shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area, too great a range of activities, or otherwise, such provision shall be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law. The parties further agree (a) that the Company, in its sole discretion, may waive any of the provisions in Sections 6, 7, or 8 by providing notice to the Executive and (b) that in the event of any breach of Section 8 by the Executive, the Restriction Period shall be extended by the period of time during which the Executive was in breach.

10. Conflicting Agreements. The Executive hereby represents and warrants that the execution of this Agreement and the performance of the Executive's obligations hereunder will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which the Executive is a party or is bound and that the Executive is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants that would affect the performance of his obligations hereunder. The Executive will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company any proprietary information of a third party without such party's consent.

11. Definitions. Words or phrases which are capitalized or are within quotation marks shall have the meanings provided in this Section 11 and as provided elsewhere herein. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

(g) "Affiliates" means all Persons and entities directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Company, where control may be by either management authority or equity interest. For the avoidance of doubt, Affiliates does not include any unrelated Kohlberg portfolio companies that are not directly or indirectly subsidiaries of PSG.

(h) "Confidential Information" means any and all information of the Company and its subsidiaries or Affiliates that is not generally known by others with whom it or they compete or do business, or with whom they plan to compete or do business and any and all information, not publicly known, which, if disclosed by the Company or its subsidiaries or Affiliates would assist in competition against it or them. Confidential Information includes without limitation such information whether in verbal form, machine-readable form, written or other tangible form, and whether designated as confidential or not, relating to (i) the development, research, testing, manufacturing, marketing and financial activities of the Company and its subsidiaries and Affiliates, (ii) the Products, (iii) the costs, sources of supply, financial performance and strategic plans of the Company and its subsidiaries and Affiliates, (iv) the identity and special needs of the customers of the Company and its subsidiaries and Affiliates (v) the Intellectual Property of the Company, its subsidiaries and Affiliates, (vi) the filing or pendency of patent applications, trade secrets, techniques, methods, styles, designs, design concepts and ideas, customer, client and vendor lists, contract factory lists, pricing information, manufacturing plans, business and marketing plans, financial information, sales information, methods of operation, manufacturing processes and methods, products, prospect lists, and other information regarding prospects or potential prospects or projects, concepts, data, information (including financial, accounting, and other information) relating to customers, clients, employees, agents, contractors, suppliers and distributors of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates, (vii) the Persons with whom the Company and its subsidiaries and Affiliates otherwise have business relationships and the existence and nature of those relationships, and (viii) all printed or electronic copies of any of the foregoing, including notes, extracts and documents containing Confidential Information. Confidential Information also includes information similar to Confidential Information that the Company or any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates has received belonging to others or which was received by the Company or any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates with any understanding that it would not be disclosed. Confidential Information does not include information that is publicly known or becomes publicly known through no fault of the Executive.

(i) "Intellectual Property" means inventions, discoveries, developments, methods, processes, compositions, works, concepts and ideas (whether or not patentable or copyrightable or constituting trade secrets) conceived, made, created, developed or reduced to practice by the Executive (whether alone or with others, whether or not during normal business hours or on or off Company premises) during the Executive's employment that relate to the Business (as defined in Section 8), the Products or any prospective activity of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(j) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, an association, a partnership, an estate, a trust and any other entity or organization, other than the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(k) "Products" mean all products planned, researched, developed, tested, manufactured, sold, licensed, leased or otherwise distributed or put into use by the Company or any of its Affiliates, together with all services provided or planned by the Company or any of its Affiliates, during the Executive's employment.

12. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

13. Parachute Payments

(a) This Section 13 shall apply only in the case of a Statutory Change in Control (as defined below) and at a time when the Company or PSG has stock which is "readily tradeable on an established securities market or otherwise" (within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(5)(A)(ii)(I) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code")). In the event it is determined that any of the payments or benefits (including, without limitation, accelerated vesting of equity rights or other benefits) otherwise payable to the Executive under this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement with the Company or any Affiliate (collectively, the "Payments"), including by reason of the Executive's termination of employment in connection with a Change of Control or other event that constitutes a change in ownership or control of the Company as defined in Code Section 280G (a "Statutory Change in Control") would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Code Section 4999 (the "Excise Tax"), then such Payments shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent necessary so that the aggregate Payments received by the Executive will not be subject to the Excise Tax, but only if by reason of such reduction, the net after tax benefit to the Executive exceeds the net after tax benefit to the Executive without any such reduction. "Net after tax benefit" for purposes of this Section 13 shall mean the sum of (i) the Payments to be made less (ii) the amount of federal income and employment taxes payable with respect to such Payments, calculated at the maximum marginal income tax rate for the year of payment (based upon the rate in effect for such year as set forth in the Code at the time of termination of the Executive's employment) and less (iii) the amount of Excise Taxes imposed with respect to such Payments.

(b) If a reduction in the Payments is necessary, reduction shall occur in the following order: first, a reduction of cash payments not attributable to equity awards which vest on an accelerated basis; second, the cancellation of accelerated vesting of stock awards; third, the reduction of employee benefits and fourth a reduction in any other "parachute payments" (as defined in Code Section 280G). If acceleration of vesting of stock award compensation is to be reduced, such acceleration of vesting shall be cancelled in the reverse order of the date of grant of the Executive's stock awards unless the Executive elects in writing a different order for cancellation. The determinations with respect to this Section 13 shall be made by the Company's regular outside accountants, and the Company shall pay the fees and expenses of such accountants.

(c) While it is the intention of the Company and the Executive to reduce the amounts payable or distributable to the Executive hereunder only if the aggregate net after tax benefits to the Executive would thereby be increased, as a result of the uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of an initial determination hereunder, it is possible that amounts will have been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement which should not have been so paid or distributed ("Overpayment") or that additional amounts which will have not been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement could have been so paid or distributed ("Underpayment"), in each case, consistent with the calculations hereunder. In the event that the Company's accountants, based upon the assertion of a deficiency by the Internal Revenue Service against either the Company or the Executive which the accountants believe has a high probability of success, determine that an Overpayment has been made, then the Executive shall repay any such Overpayment to the Company within ten business days of his receipt of notice of such Overpayment; provided, however, that no amount shall be payable by the Executive to the Company if and to the extent such deemed payment would not either reduce the amount on which the Executive is subject to tax under Section 1 and Section 4999 of the Code or generate a refund of such taxes. In the event that the accountants, based upon controlling precedent or substantial authority, determine that an Underpayment has occurred, any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive; provided, that any such Underpayment shall constitute a payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-2(b)(2)) separate and apart from the Payments; and provided, further that any such Underpayment shall be deemed a disputed payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-3(g)) and shall be made no later than the end of the first taxable year of the Company in which the accounting firm determines pursuant to this Section 13(c) that such Underpayment is due.

14. Assignment. The Executive may not make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein. The Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of the Executive in the event that the Company shall hereafter affect a reorganization, or consolidate with, or merge into, any other Person or transfer all or substantially all of its properties, stock, or assets to any other Person. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and the Executive, their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

15. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

16. Waiver. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

17. Notices. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed to the Executive at his last known address on the books of the Company or, in the case of the Company, at its principal place of business, attention of the Chief Executive Officer, or to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

18. Entire Agreement/Effective Date. This Agreement shall be effective only upon the Effective Date, and upon the Effective Date shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede and terminate all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment with the Company, PSG and their respective Affiliates.

19. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Executive and by an expressly authorized representative of the Company.

20. Section 409A.

(a) This Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 409A") with respect to amounts, if any, subject thereto and shall be interpreted and construed and shall be performed by the parties consistent with such intent. If either party notifies the other in writing that one or more or the provisions of this Agreement contravenes any Treasury Regulations or guidance promulgated under Section 409A or causes any amounts to be subject to interest, additional tax or penalties under Section 409A, the parties shall agree to negotiate in good faith to make amendments to this Agreement as the parties mutually agree, reasonably and in good faith are necessary or desirable, to (i) maintain to the maximum extent reasonably practicable the original intent of the applicable provisions without violating the provisions of Section 409A or increasing the costs to the Company of providing the applicable benefit or payment and (ii) to the extent possible, to avoid the imposition of any interest, additional tax or other penalties under Section 409A upon the parties.

(b) To the extent the Executive would otherwise be entitled to any payment or benefit under this Agreement, or any plan or arrangement of the Company or its Affiliates, that constitutes a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A and that if paid during the six (6) months beginning on the date of termination of the Executive's employment would be subject to the Section 409A additional tax because the Executive is a "specified employee" (within the meaning of Section 409A and as determined by the Company), the payment or benefit will be paid or provided to the Executive on the first day following the six (6) month anniversary of the Executive's termination of employment or, if earlier, the Executive's date of death.

(c) Any payment or benefit due upon a termination of the Executive's employment that represents a "deferral of compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A shall be paid or provided to the Executive only upon a "separation from service" as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(h). Each payment made under this Agreement shall be deemed to be a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A. Amounts payable under this Agreement shall be deemed not to be a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A to the extent provided in the exceptions in Treasury Regulation §§ 1.409A-1(b)(4) ("short-term deferrals") and (b)(9) ("separation pay plans," including the exception under subparagraph (iii)) and other applicable provisions of Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1 through A-6. To the extent an Annual Bonus is payable under any provision of this Agreement, it shall be paid in the taxable year of the Company following the taxable year with respect to which such Annual Bonus relates, and not later than the 15th day of the third month of such taxable year; provided, that it shall not be a breach of this Agreement if payment is made later in such year to the extent financial results are not available by such date so long as payment is made no later than December 31 of such year.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Agreement, any payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise that is exempt from Section 409A pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(v)(A) or (C) (relating to certain reimbursements and in-kind benefits) shall be paid or provided to the Executive only to the extent that the expenses are not incurred, or the benefits are not provided, beyond the last day of the second calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs; and provided further that such expenses are reimbursed no later than the last day of the third calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs. To the extent any expense reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit is determined to be subject to Section 409A (and not exempt pursuant to the prior sentence or otherwise), the amount of any such expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the provision of any in-kind benefit, in one calendar year shall not affect provision of in-kind benefits or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other calendar year (except for any life-time or other aggregate limitation applicable to medical expenses), and in no event shall any expenses be reimbursed after the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive incurred such expenses, and in no event shall any right to reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit. Any reimbursement of tax preparer fees and expenses incurred due to a tax audit addressing the existence or amount of a tax liability shall be made by the end of the Executive's taxable year following the Executive's taxable year in which the taxes that are subject of the audit are remitted to the taxing authority or, if as a result of such audit no taxes are remitted, by the end of the Executive's taxable year in which the audit is completed.

21. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

22. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

23. Governing Law. This is a California and shall be construed and enforced under and be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of California, without regard to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

24. Arbitration. The Company and Executive agree, as a necessary and material condition of Executive's employment, that any dispute between Executive and the Company or any of its employees, agents, officers, directors or affiliates, which relates to Executive's employment with the Company, shall be resolved exclusively through final and binding arbitration. Excluded from this Agreement are claims for workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, claims under the National Labor Relations Act or a collective bargaining agreement, or any other claim that is non-arbitrable under applicable state or federal law as well as claims for injunctive relief.

Thus, except for the claims excluded above, this Agreement includes all common law and statutory claims, including but not limited to, any claim for breach of contract, unpaid wages, wrongful termination, unfair competition, and for violation of laws forbidding discrimination, harassment, and retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, age, national origin, disability, and other protected status. The parties agree that any arbitration required by this Agreement will take place on an individual basis. Class arbitrations and class actions are not allowed by signing this Agreement, Executive acknowledges and agrees that he is knowingly and voluntarily waiving his right to pursue such claims in court and instead will pursue them in arbitration. The Company and Executive understand that a request for to arbitrate a claim must be made to the other party in writing within the time limits applicable to the filing of a civil complaint in court or the complaining party will have waived his or its right to pursue such claim.

Executive further agrees that any such arbitration will be before a mutually agreed upon arbitrator, and will be administered in accordance with the applicable arbitration rules and procedures of JAMS in accordance with the JAMS Employment Arbitration Rules and Procedures (except where the JAMS or other ADR provider's rules are contrary to applicable state or federal law) or California Code of Civil Procedure section 1280 et seq. or similar state laws. The parties may agree to use another dispute resolution service (such as ADR Services, Judicate West, or AAA) but agree that if another dispute resolution service is used, the arbitration will be conducted in accordance with the JAMS Employment Arbitration Rules and Procedures, a current copy of which have been provided to the Executive prior to the execution of this agreement and is also accessible at http://www.jamsadr.com/rules-employment-arbitration/.

The Company shall pay all costs uniquely attributable to any arbitration encompassed by this Agreement, including the administrative fees and costs of the arbitrator. Executive is not required to pay any fee or cost that he would not be required to pay in a state or federal court action.

The parties agree that any remedies that would have been available in a state or federal court action are available to the parties in arbitration under this Agreement. If the law applicable to the claim(s) being arbitrated, or any agreement, affords the prevailing party attorneys' fees and costs, then the arbitrator shall apply the same standards a court would apply to award such attorneys' fees and/or costs. Each party shall pay his or its own costs and attorneys' fees, if any, associated with any arbitration encompassed by this Agreement unless the arbitrator rules otherwise.

If the parties cannot agree on an arbitrator, then the JAMS rules will govern selection. The arbitrator's decision is to be in writing, with reasons given and evidence cited for his the award. Any court of competent jurisdiction may enter judgment upon the award, either by (a) confirming the award or (b) vacating, modifying, or correcting the award on any ground referred to in the Federal Arbitration Act, California Code of Civil Procedure section 1286 et seq. or similar state law. Judgment of the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. Arbitration hearings will be held in the county in which the Employee lives or at such other location as the parties may agree in writing. The arbitrator selected will have the power to control the timing, scope, and manner of the taking of discovery and will have the same powers to enforce the parties' respective duties concerning discovery as would a Superior Court of California, including, but not limited to, the imposition of sanctions. The arbitrator will have the power to grant all remedies provided by federal and California law.

The arbitrator will prepare in writing an award that indicates the prevailing party or parties, the amount, if any, and other relevant terms of the award, and that includes the legal and factual reasons for the decision. The requirement of binding arbitration will not preclude a party from seeking a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction or other provisional remedies from a court with jurisdiction; however, any and all other aspects of and proceedings relevant to the claims or causes of action being asserted, including, but not limited to, those seeking damages, will be subject to binding arbitration as provided herein.

If any court of competent jurisdiction finds that any part of the arbitration provisions of this Agreement is illegal, invalid or unenforceable, such finding will not affect the legality, validity or enforceability of the remaining parts of the arbitration provisions, and the illegal, invalid or unenforceable part will be stricken from the Agreement.

25. Dollar Amounts. All monetary figures in this Agreement shall be in United States dollars.

EXHIBIT A

RELEASE OF CLAIMS

1. Release of Claims

In partial consideration of the payments and benefits described in Section 4 of the Employment Agreement (the "Employment Agreement") effective as of _____, by and between [_____] (" Executive") and Easton Baseball/Softball Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), to which Executive agrees Executive is not entitled until and unless Executive executes this Release, Executive, for and on behalf of Executive and Executive's heirs and assigns, subject to the last sentence of this Section 1, hereby waives and releases any employment, compensation or benefit-related common law, statutory or other complaints, claims, charges or causes of action of any kind whatsoever, both known and unknown, in law or in equity, which Executive ever had, now has or may have against the Company and its affiliates and their respective shareholders, subsidiaries, successors, assigns, trustees, directors, officers, limited and general partners, managers, joint venturers, members, employees or agents (collectively, the "Releasees") by reason of facts or omissions which have occurred on or prior to the date that Executive signs this Release (the "Employment Claims"), including, without limitation, any complaint, charge or cause of action arising under federal, state or local laws pertaining to employment, including the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (the "ADEA," a law which prohibits discrimination on the basis of age), the National Labor Relations Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, all as amended, and all other federal, state and local laws and regulations relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. By signing this Release, Executive acknowledges that Executive intends to waive and release any rights known or unknown that he may have against the Releasees under these and any other laws relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive does not release, discharge or waive, and the term "Employment Claims" shall not include: (i) any claims or causes of action arising under or related to any failure by person or entity to perform or fulfill any obligation owed to Executive on or after the date hereof under the Employment Agreement or the terms of any equity award agreement, including without limitation any obligation under Section 4(d), (e) or (f) of the Employment Agreement (as applicable); or (ii) any claims or rights to indemnification that Executive may have under the certificate of incorporation, the by-laws or equivalent governing documents of the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates, the laws of the State of Vermont or any other state of which any subsidiary or affiliate of the Company is a domiciliary, or any indemnification agreement between Executive and the Company, or any rights to insurance coverage under any directors' and officers' personal liability or fiduciary insurance policy; or (iii) any claims to vested benefits.

2. California Civil Code section 1542 Waiver

In connection with the above release, Executive acknowledges reading and understanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which provides:

> A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.

Executive knowingly and voluntarily waives all rights under section 1542. Accordingly, Executive bears the risk that he may later discover additional or different facts that might have materially affected his settlement with the company. Nonetheless, it is his intention to fully, finally and forever settle and release all of his claims that now exist, may exist, or have existed, except as otherwise herein expressly provided.

3. Proceedings

Executive acknowledges that the Executive has not filed any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding, if any, against any of the Releasees before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body (each individually a "Proceeding"). Executive represents that the Executive is not aware of any basis on which such a Proceeding could reasonably be instituted. Executive (i) acknowledges that the Executive will not initiate or cause to be initiated on the Executive's behalf any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims and will not participate in any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, in each case, except as required by law and (ii) waives any right the Executive may have to benefit in any manner from any relief (whether monetary or otherwise) arising out of any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, including any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "EEOC") or the New Hampshire Commission for Human Rights. Further, Executive understands that, by executing this Release, the Executive will be limiting the availability of certain remedies that the Executive may have against the Company and limiting also the Executive's ability to pursue certain claims against the Releasees. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in Section 1 of this Release shall prevent Executive from (i) initiating or causing to be initiated on the Executive's behalf any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding against the Company before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body challenging the validity of the waiver of the Executive's claims under the ADEA contained in Section 1 of this Release (but no other portion of such waiver) or (ii) initiating or participating in an investigation or proceeding conducted by the EEOC or any state fair employment practices agency.

4. Time to Consider

Executive acknowledges that he has been advised that the Executive has [twenty-one (21)] [forty-five (45)] days from the date of receipt of this Release to consider all the provisions of this Release and, should the Executive execute this release prior to [twenty-one (21)] [forty-five (45)] days from the date of receipt of this Release, the Executive does hereby knowingly and voluntarily waive said given [twenty-one (21)] [forty-five (45)] day period. EXECUTIVE FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THE EXECUTIVE HAS READ THIS RELEASE CAREFULLY, HAS BEEN ADVISED BY THE COMPANY TO, AND HAS IN FACT, CONSULTED AN ATTORNEY, AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS THAT BY SIGNING BELOW THE EXECUTIVE IS GIVING UP CERTAIN RIGHTS WHICH THE EXECUTIVE MAY HAVE TO SUE OR ASSERT A CLAIM AGAINST ANY OF THE RELEASEES, AS DESCRIBED IN SECTION 1 OF THIS RELEASE AND THE OTHER PROVISIONS HEREOF. EXECUTIVE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THE EXECUTIVE HAS NOT BEEN FORCED OR PRESSURED IN ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER TO SIGN THIS RELEASE, AND EXECUTIVE AGREES TO ALL OF ITS TERMS VOLUNTARILY.

5. Revocation

Executive hereby acknowledges and understands that Executive shall have seven (7) days from the date of the Executive's execution of this Release to revoke this Release (including, without limitation, any and all claims arising under the ADEA) and that neither the Company nor any other person is obligated to provide any benefits to Executive pursuant to Section 4 of the Employment Agreement until eight (8) days have passed since Executive's signing of this Release without Executive having revoked this Release, in which event the Company immediately shall arrange and/or pay for any such benefits otherwise attributable to said eight-(8) day period, consistent with the terms of the Employment Agreement. If Executive fails to execute this Release within [twenty-one (21)] [forty-five (45)] days from the date of receipt of this Release or the Executive revokes this Release within seven (7) days of the Executive's execution of this Release, Executive will be deemed not to have accepted the terms of this Release and will not be due any consideration referenced in the Employment Agreement dependent upon, or the result of, Executive's execution of this Release, and no action will be required of the Company under this Release, including without limitation any release by the Company of claims against the Executive. The Executive's failure to execute this release within [twenty-one (21)] [forty-five (45)] days from the date of receipt of this Release, or his revocation of this Release within seven (7) days of his execution of this Release, will not relieve the Executive of any obligations set forth in the Employment Agreement.

6. No Admission

This Release does not constitute an admission of liability or wrongdoing of any kind by Executive or the Company.

7. General Provisions

A failure of any of the Releasees to insist on strict compliance with any provision of this Release shall not be deemed a waiver of such provision or any other provision hereof. If any provision of this Release is determined to be so broad as to be unenforceable, such provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable, and in the event that any provision is determined to be entirely unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed severable, such that all other provisions of this Release shall remain valid and binding upon Executive and the Releasees.

8. Governing Law

The validity, interpretations, construction and performance of this Release shall be governed by the laws of the State of California without giving effect to conflict of laws principles.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Executive has hereunto set Executive's hand as of the day and year set forth opposite his signature below.

DATE

In consideration of the Executive's acceptance of this Release and his meeting in full his obligations under it, the Company hereby releases and forever discharges the Executive, the Executive's heirs, assigns, executors, administrators and representatives, and all others connected with the Executive, from any and all complaints, claims, charges or causes of action of any kind whatsoever which the Company has had in the past, has or might have against the Executive that are in any way related to, arising out of or connected with the Executive's employment by the Company and that are known to the Company's Chairman of the Board as of the date this Release is signed on behalf of the Company.

AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Bauer Hockey, Inc., a Vermont corporation (the "Company"), and Troy Mohns (the "Executive"), effective as of the closing date of the initial public offering of Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. (the "Effective Date").

WHEREAS, the Executive is presently employed as the Vice President, Category Management of the Company; and

WHEREAS, the Company desires to continue to employ the Executive, and the Executive desires to continue to provide services to the Company, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Term. The term of the Executive's employment hereunder (the "Term") shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue until terminated in accordance with Section 4 of this Agreement.

2. Title and Duties.

(a) During the Term, the Executive shall serve the Company as Vice President, Category Management and in such other executive position of materially similar duties, authority and reporting responsibility for any Company subsidiary or Affiliate (as hereinafter defined) as requested by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board"). In addition, during the Term to the extent such office (or a comparable office) is maintained by any entity which, directly or indirectly, owns all of the outstanding common stock of the Company (each, a "Parent"), the Executive shall also serve in such same (or comparable) executive position with each Parent, without additional compensation hereunder.

(b) During the Term, the Executive shall be employed by the Company on a full-time basis and shall perform such duties and responsibilities on behalf of the Company consistent with his positions with the Company and its Affiliates and as may be designated from time to time by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

(c) During the Term, the Executive shall devote his full business time and his best efforts, business judgment, skill and knowledge exclusively to the advancement of the business and interests of the Company and its Affiliates and to the discharge of his duties and responsibilities hereunder. The Executive shall not engage in any other business activity or serve in any industry, trade, professional, governmental or academic position during the term of this Agreement, except as may be expressly approved in advance by the Board in writing; provided, however, that so long as such activities do not interfere in any material manner, or give rise to a conflict of interest, with the performance of the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder or otherwise violate this Agreement, the Executive may, without the necessity of seeking Board approval: (i) serve on industry, trade, professional, governmental, civic or charitable boards or committees disclosed to the Board; (ii) deliver lectures and fulfill speaking engagements with trade or other business or social associations and (iii) manage his personal investments.

3. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Executive during the Term and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement:

(a) Base Salary. During the Term, the Company shall pay the Executive a base salary (the "Base Salary") at the rate of $205,000 per annum, payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company for its executives and subject to increase (but not decrease) pursuant to Section 13 and otherwise from time to time by the Board, in its discretion. The Board will review the Executive's rate of Base Salary each year.

(b) Annual Bonus Compensation. For each Company fiscal year during the Term, the Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual bonus under the Company's annual bonus plan for executives (the "Annual Bonus Plan") based on the Company's and the Executive's achievement of specified performance targets for each such fiscal year. The Executive's target bonus (the "Target Bonus") shall equal 65% of the Base Salary payable to him for the applicable fiscal year. The performance targets for each fiscal year and the applicable percentage of the Target Bonus payable at specified performance thresholds each year will be set by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee") in consultation with the Executive, and the Compensation Committee will determine the actual amount of annual bonus, if any, payable to the Executive hereunder in accordance with the Annual Bonus Plan (the amount of bonus for any fiscal year, the "Annual Bonus"). Except as otherwise provided herein, in order to receive an Annual Bonus for any fiscal year under this Section 3(b), the Executive must be employed by the Company for the full fiscal year. For the avoidance of doubt, the Annual Bonus Plan for the fiscal year of the Company that includes the Effective Date will be that Annual Bonus Plan as in effect for the Company immediately prior to the Effective Date.

(c) Equity Based Awards. The parties acknowledge that the Executive presently holds options to acquire shares of Kohlberg Sports Group. In connection with the reorganization transactions undertaken in contemplation of the initial public offering of common shares of BPS, those options (the "Outstanding Options") will be fully vested and converted into options to acquire shares of BPS (the "Rollover Options") as of the Effective Date. The Rollover Options will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. Rollover Stock Option Plan (the "Rollover Plan") and the award agreement governing Rollover Options to be entered into between BPS and the Executive. Effective on or about the Effective Date, the Executive shall be granted additional options (the "IPO Awards") to acquire common shares of BPS under the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. 2011 Stock Option Plan (the "2011 Plan"), and during the Term the Executive shall be eligible to receive additional awards thereunder. The terms and conditions of the IPO Awards and any other such awards shall be as set forth in the 2011 Plan and award agreements entered into between BPS and the Executive.

(d) Paid Time-Off. During the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to 6 weeks paid time-off per annum in accordance with the Company's paid time-off policy as in effect from time to time, to be taken at such times and intervals as shall be determined by the Executive, subject to the reasonable business needs of the Company.

(e) Other Benefits. During the Term and subject to any required employee contributions, the Executive shall be entitled to participate in any and all employee benefit plans from time to time in effect for employees of the Company generally, except to the extent such plans are in a category of benefit otherwise provided to the Executive. Such participation shall be subject to (i) the terms of the applicable plan documents, (ii) generally applicable Company policies and (iii) the discretion of the Board or any administrative or other committee provided for in such plan. The Company may alter, modify, add to or delete its employee benefit plans at any time as it, in its sole judgment, determines to be appropriate, without recourse by the Executive.

(f) Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for reasonable and customary business expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in the performance of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Board or Company policy from time to time. Such reimbursements, if any, shall be payable to the Executive promptly after the submission of such reasonable substantiation and documentation and shall be subject to Section 21 of this Agreement.

4. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. The Executive's employment hereunder and the Term may be terminated under the circumstances set forth in subsections (a) through (g) below. All payments and benefits specified in this Section 4 shall be subject to Sections 5 and 21 of this Agreement.

(a) Death. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with this Section 4, the Term shall end on the date of the Executive's death. In the event of the Executive's termination of employment by reason of his death, the Company shall pay or provide to the Executive's designated beneficiary or, if no beneficiary has been designated by the Executive, to his estate: (i) any earned, but unpaid Base Salary through the end of the month in which his death has occurred; (ii) any unpaid Annual Bonus for the fiscal year ended prior to the fiscal year of his termination of employment (the "Prior Year Bonus"); (iii) a pro-rated Annual Bonus for the fiscal year in which his termination of employment occurs, with such bonus amount determined by multiplying (A) the bonus amount that would have been payable under Section 3(b) based on performance for the entire fiscal year by (B) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in such fiscal year on which the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365 (the "Pro-Rated Bonus"); (iv) any unreimbursed business expenses and (v) any accrued and unused paid time-off. The payments referred to in clauses (i), (iv) and (v) in the immediately preceding sentence are referred to herein as the "Accrued Obligations" and shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days after the date of death. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(b) Disability.

(i) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Executive, in the event that the Executive becomes disabled during the Term through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of his material duties and responsibilities hereunder ("Disability") for a period of (x) one hundred and twenty (120) consecutive calendar days or (y) one hundred and fifty (150) total days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days. The Board may designate another employee to act in the Executive's place during any period of the Executive's disability.

(ii) If any question shall arise as to whether Disability exists, the Executive may, and at the request of the Company shall, submit to a medical examination by a physician selected by the Company with the consent of the Executive (not to be unreasonably withheld) to determine whether the Executive is so disabled and such determination shall for the purposes of this Agreement be conclusive of the issue. If such question shall arise and the Executive shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

(iii) The date of termination of employment under this Section 4(b) shall be the 10th business day following the Company's notice to the Executive of such termination (provided he has not resumed the full-time performance of his duties hereunder by such date), which date shall be the last day of the Term. In the event of such termination of employment, the Company shall pay to the Executive: (i) the Accrued Obligations; (ii) any unpaid Prior Year Bonus; and (iii) the Pro-Rated Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days after the date of termination of employment; each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause, but in no event later than ninety (90) days following the date upon which at least two members of the Board (other than the Executive) became aware of such Cause. The following, as determined by the Board in its reasonable judgment, shall constitute "Cause" for termination:

(i) The Executive's commission of any material fraud, embezzlement, theft or dishonesty, or any deliberate misappropriation of any material amount of money or other assets or property of the Company or any of its Affiliates;

(ii) The Executive's willful failure to perform, or gross negligence in the performance of, his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates which remains uncured fifteen (15) business days after written notice of such failure specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such failure or negligence is given to the Executive by the Board;

(iii) The Executive's intentional material breach of any of the terms of this Agreement or breach of his fiduciary duties to the Company and Affiliates (except where the breach of fiduciary duties is caused by the Executive's Disability and except where such breach is exculpated under the Company's articles of incorporation) which remains uncured fifteen (15) business days after written notice of such breach, specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such breach, is given to the Executive by the Board; or

(iv) The Executive's conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, a felony.

The date of termination for Cause shall be the date specified in the notice given by the Board to the Executive. Following termination of the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder, other than for payment of (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company.

(d) By the Company without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder without Cause at any time upon notice to the Executive by the Board, effective as of the date specified in such notice. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to (i) pay the Executive the Accrued Obligations; (ii) continue to pay the Executive his Base Salary at the rate in effect on the date of termination for the period of twelve (12) months following such termination (the "Continuation Period") in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices for its executives; (iii) continue to provide medical and dental benefits during the Continuation Period (subject to any employee contribution applicable to active employees generally and the Executive's timely election of continuation coverage under COBRA); (iv) pay the Executive the Annual Bonus, if any, that would otherwise have been payable to him under Section 3(b) of this Agreement with respect to the fiscal year of termination of employment, without regard to the Executive's termination of employment; (v) pay the Executive the Prior Year Bonus; and (vi) continue to provide the Executive the Annual Bonus for the portion of the Continuation Period beginning after the fiscal year of termination of employment, based on actual performance for the full fiscal year, pro-rated as though the Executive remained employed through the last day of the Continuation Period (collectively, the payments and benefits referred to in clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) and (vi) are referred to as the "Severance Benefit"). The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

than ninety (90) days following the initial existence of the condition or event giving rise to Good Reason and provided that the Company shall not have corrected the situation within thirty (30) business days after such notice of Good Reason from the Executive to the Board. The following shall constitute "Good Reason":

(i) material diminution in the nature or scope of the Executive's titles, duties, authority or reporting responsibilities, other than as is materially consistent with the Executive's assignment to another executive position in accordance with Section 2(a) hereof or as a result of the diminution of the business of the Company; provided, however, that a change in reporting relationships resulting from the direct or indirect control of the Company (or a successor corporation) by another entity or any sale or transfer of equity, property or other assets of the Company shall not constitute Good Reason;

(ii) material failure of the Company to provide the Executive the Base Salary, Annual Bonus and benefits in accordance with the terms of Section 3 hereof;

(iii) any material diminution in Base Salary or Target Bonus; or

(iv) a change in the geographic location of the Executive's principal place of performance of his services hereunder that increases his one-way commute from his primary residence at the time of such change by at least fifty (50) miles.

In the event of termination in accordance with this Section 4(e), the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to pay or provide the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Severance Benefit. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(f) By the Executive Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder at any time without Good Reason upon forty-five (45) days' notice to the Board. In the event of termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Board may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Board so elects, the Company will pay the Executive his Base Salary for the notice period (or for any remaining portion of the period). In the event of termination of employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Company shall pay the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(g) Termination of Employment in Connection with a Change of Control. If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or the Executive terminates his employment for Good Reason, in each case, nine months prior to, or within twelve

(12) months following the consummation of a "Change of Control" (as defined in the 2011 Plan), the Executive shall be entitled to the payments and benefits set forth in Section 4(d) or (e), as applicable; provided that the Continuation Period as used in this Agreement shall be twenty-four (24) months.

5. Release; Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 5 shall apply to a termination pursuant to Section 4 or otherwise.

(a) A condition precedent to the Company's obligations to pay the Severance Benefit and other payments under each of Sections 4(d), (e), (f) and (g) shall be the Executive's execution and delivery of a timely and effective Release of Claims, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Release of Claims") within fifty-five (55) days following the Executive's termination of employment (the "Release Condition"). (For the avoidance of doubt, the Release of Claims must be executed and delivered to the Company (and not subsequently be revoked) not later than forty-seven (47) days following the termination of employment in order to comply with the preceding sentence.) Payments and benefits of amounts which do not constitute nonqualified deferred compensation and are not subject to Section 409A (as defined below) shall commence five (5) days after the Release Condition is satisfied and payments and benefits which are subject to Section 409A shall commence on the 60th day after termination of employment (subject to further delay, if required, pursuant to Section 21 below) provided that the Release Condition is satisfied. If the Executive fails to execute and deliver the Release of Claims, or if he revokes the Release of Claims as provided therein, except for the Accrued Obligations, he shall not receive the Severance Benefit or any other payment to which he may otherwise be entitled under this Agreement.

(b) Upon termination of the Executive's employment with the Company, unless otherwise specifically provided herein, his rights to benefits and payments under any retirement, health or welfare employee benefits plan, under BPS equity plans (and any equity award agreements pursuant to which awards were granted thereunder) and under any other benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate shall be determined in accordance with the terms and provisions of such plans; provided, however, that the Executive shall not be entitled to severance or termination pay under such benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate in connection with termination of his employment.

(c) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination if so provided herein or if necessary or desirable fully to accomplish the purposes of such provision, including without limitation the obligations of the Executive under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The obligation of the Company to pay the Severance Benefit is expressly conditioned upon the Executive's continued full performance of obligations under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive recognizes that, except as expressly provided herein, no compensation is earned after termination of employment.

6. Confidential Information.

(a) The Executive acknowledges that the Company and its Affiliates continually develop Confidential Information, that the Executive may develop Confidential Information for the Company or its Affiliates and that the Executive may learn of Confidential Information during the course of employment. The Executive will comply with the policies and procedures of the Company and its Affiliates for protecting Confidential Information and shall never disclose to any Person, or use for his own benefit or gain, any Confidential Information obtained by the Executive incident to his employment or other association with the Company or any of its Affiliates, in each case except as required by applicable law, governmental or judicial process or procedure, or for the proper performance of his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates or as may be reasonably necessary for the Executive to enforce his rights hereunder or under his equity agreements under a BPS equity plan. The Executive understands that this restriction shall continue to apply after his employment terminates, regardless of the reason for such termination, but only for as long as the Confidential Information remains confidential (other than where the Executive, in violation of the Agreement, discloses or publicizes such information).

(b) All documents, records, tapes and other media of every kind and description relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company or its Affiliates and any copies, in whole or in part, thereof (the "Documents"), whether or not prepared by the Executive, shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its Affiliates. The Executive shall safeguard all Documents and shall surrender to the Company at the time his employment terminates, or at such earlier time or times as the Board or its designee may specify, all Documents then in the Executive's possession or control; provided, however, that the Executive may keep such documents that represent agreements between himself and the Company and such documents as are necessary to allow the Executive to understand, exercise and protect his rights and obligations under any agreements between himself and the Company.

7. Assignment of Rights to Intellectual Property . The Executive shall promptly and fully disclose all Intellectual Property to the Company. The Executive hereby assigns and agrees to assign to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) the Executive's full right, title and interest in and to all Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to execute any and all applications for domestic and foreign patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights and to do such other acts (including without limitation the execution and delivery of instruments of further assurance or confirmation) requested by the Company to assign the Intellectual Property to the Company and to permit the Company to enforce any patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights to the Intellectual Property. The Executive will not charge the Company for time spent in complying with these obligations. All copyrightable works that the Executive creates while employed by the Company hereunder shall be considered "work made for hire".

8. Restricted Activities. In exchange for good and valuable consideration including, without limitation, the grant of stock options hereunder, the Executive agrees that some restrictions on his activities during and after his employment are necessary to protect the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates.

(a) While the Executive is employed by the Company, and through the last day of the twelve (12) month period following his termination of employment or, if later, the last day of the Continuation Period (whichever applies, the "Non-Competition Period"), the Executive shall not, whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise, compete in any material manner with the Company or any of its Affiliates in the Business anywhere in the United States, Canada or Europe; provided that the Executive shall be permitted to own, as a passive investor, not more than 5% of the publicly-traded securities of any Person; provided, further, that the foregoing prohibition shall not apply to any Person which competes with the Company in the Business in the United States, Canada or Europe through a division, subsidiary or other business unit of such Person so long as the Executive does not himself so compete and does not work or consult for, or otherwise give advice to, any division, subsidiary or business unit that does so compete. Specifically, but without limiting the foregoing, the Executive agrees not to engage in any manner in any activity that is competitive in any material manner with the Business. Restricted activity includes without limitation accepting employment or a consulting position with any Person who is, or at any time within twelve (12) months prior to termination of the Executive's employment has been, a customer of the Company or any of its Affiliates. For the purposes of this Agreement, the "Business" shall mean the designing, developing, manufacturing, producing, marketing, distributing, selling and supporting of (i) roller, ice and in-line skates, (ii) hockey equipment and apparel, namely roller, ice, in-line and street hockey equipment and apparel, and (iii) any other line of business in which the Company or any of its Affiliates is engaged, or has taken significant steps in connection with the preparation of engaging, in any material way, as of the Executive's termination of employment.

(b) The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period, the Executive will not hire or attempt to hire any Person who is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) an employee of the Company or any of its Affiliates, assist in such hiring by any Person, encourage any such employee to terminate his or her relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates, or solicit or encourage any Person which is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) a customer or vendor of the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate its relationship with them, or, in the case of a customer, to conduct with any Person any business or activity which such customer conducts or could conduct with the Company or any of its Affiliates. The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period he shall not make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Company or its Affiliates including, without limitation, their products, services, management, shareholders, employees and customers. The Company further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period it will instruct its employees not to make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Executive.

9. Enforcement of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges that he has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed upon him pursuant to Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive agrees without reservation that each of the restraints contained herein is necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates; that each and every one of those restraints is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area; and that these restraints, individually or in the aggregate, will not prevent him from obtaining other suitable employment during the period in which the Executive is bound by these restraints. The Executive further acknowledges that, were he to breach any of the covenants contained in Sections 6, 7 or 8 hereof, the damage to the Company would be irreparable. The Executive therefore agrees that the Company, in addition to any other remedies available to it, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Executive of any of said covenants, without having to post bond. The parties further agree that, in the event that any provision of Section 6, 7 or 8 hereof shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities, such provision shall be deemed to be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law.

10. Conflicting Agreements. The Executive hereby represents and warrants that the execution of this Agreement and the performance of his obligations hereunder will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which the Executive is a party or is bound and that the Executive is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants that would affect the performance of his obligations hereunder. The Executive will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company any proprietary information of a third party without such party's consent.

11. Definitions. Words or phrases which are initially capitalized or are within quotation marks shall have the meanings provided in this Section 11 and as provided elsewhere herein. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Affiliates" means all Persons and entities directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Company, where control may be by either management authority or equity interest. For the avoidance of doubt, Affiliates does not include any unrelated Kohlberg portfolio companies that are not directly or indirectly subsidiaries of BPS.

(b) "Confidential Information" means any and all information of the Company and its Affiliates that is not generally known at such time by others with whom they compete or do business, or with whom they plan to compete or do business and any and all information, not publicly known, which, if disclosed by the Company or its Affiliates would assist in competition against them. Confidential Information includes without limitation such information relating to (i) the development, research, testing, manufacturing, marketing and financial activities of the Company and its Affiliates, (ii) the Products, (iii) the costs, sources of supply, financial performance and strategic plans of the Company and its Affiliates, (iv) the identity and special needs of the customers of the Company and its Affiliates and (v) the people and organizations with whom the Company and its Affiliates have business relationships and the existence and nature of those relationships. Confidential Information also includes comparable information that the Company or any of its Affiliates has received belonging to others or which was received by the Company or any of its Affiliates with any understanding that it would not be disclosed. Confidential Information does not include information that is publicly known or becomes publicly known through no fault of the Executive.

(c) "Intellectual Property" means inventions, discoveries, developments, methods, processes, compositions, works, concepts and ideas (whether or not patentable or copyrightable or constituting trade secrets) conceived, made, created, developed or reduced to practice by the Executive (whether alone or with others, whether or not during normal business hours or on or off Company premises) during the Executive's employment that relate to the Business (as defined in Section 8), the Products or any prospective activity of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(d) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, an association, a partnership, an estate, a trust and any other entity or organization, other than the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(e) "Products" mean all products planned, researched, developed, tested, manufactured, sold, licensed, leased or otherwise distributed or put into use by the Company or any of its Affiliates, together with all services provided or planned by the Company or any of its Affiliates, during the Executive's employment.

12. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

13. Increase in Base Salary upon Certain Relocations . In the event the Company relocates its corporate headquarters outside the State of New Hampshire, the rate of Base Salary payable to the Executive shall be subject to a one-time increase in an amount equal to the sum of (i) the product of (A) the rate of Base Salary in effect immediately prior to such relocation multiplied by (B) the additional income taxes payable by the Executive (exclusive of any taxes imposed by Section 409A of the Code) on the amount determined in clause (A), calculated at the highest effective marginal combined rate of U.S. state and local personal income tax then in effect in the city and state to which the Company relocates, and (ii) an additional amount (intended to "gross-up" the Executive) equal to the additional federal, state and local income taxes (measured on a combined basis) payable by the Executive under U.S. law in respect of the amount payable to him under Section 13(i).

14. Parachute Payments.

(a) This Section 14 shall apply only in the case of a Statutory Change in Control (as defined below) occurring after the initial public offering of shares of BPS, and at a time when the Company or BPS has stock which is "readily tradable on an established securities market or otherwise" (within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(5)(A)(ii)(I) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code")). In the event it is determined that any of the payments or benefits (including, without limitation, accelerated vesting of equity rights or other benefits) otherwise payable to the Executive under this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement with the Company or any Affiliate (collectively, the "Payments"), including by reason of the Executive's termination of employment in connection with a Change of Control or other event that constitutes a change in ownership or control of the Company as defined in Code Section 280G (a "Statutory Change in Control") would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Code Section 4999 (the "Excise Tax"), then such Payments shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent necessary so that the aggregate Payments received by the Executive will not be subject to the Excise Tax, but only if by reason of such reduction, the net after tax benefit to the Executive exceeds the net after tax benefit to the Executive without any such reduction. "Net after tax benefit" for purposes of this Section 14 shall mean the sum of (i) the Payments to be made less (ii) the amount of federal income and employment taxes payable with respect to such Payments, calculated at the maximum marginal income tax rate for the year of payment (based upon the rate in effect for such year as set forth in the Code at the time of termination of the Executive's employment) and less (iii) the amount of Excise Taxes imposed with respect to such Payments.

(b) If a reduction in the Payments is necessary, reduction shall occur in the following order: first, a reduction of cash payments not attributable to equity awards which vest on an accelerated basis; second, the cancellation of accelerated vesting of stock awards; third, the reduction of employee benefits and fourth a reduction in any other "parachute payments" (as defined in Code Section 280G). If acceleration of vesting of stock award compensation is to be reduced, such acceleration of vesting shall be cancelled in the reverse order of the date of grant of the Executive's stock awards unless the Executive elects in writing a different order for cancellation. The determinations with respect to this Section 14 shall be made by the Company's regular outside accountants, and the Company shall pay the fees and expenses of such accountants.

(c) While it is the intention of the Company and the Executive to reduce the amounts payable or distributable to the Executive hereunder only if the aggregate net after tax benefits to the Executive would thereby be increased, as a result of the uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of an initial determination hereunder, it is possible that amounts will have been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement which should not have been so paid or distributed ("Overpayment") or that additional amounts which will have not been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement could have been so paid or distributed ("Underpayment"), in each case, consistent with the calculations hereunder. In the event that the Company's accountants, based upon the assertion of a deficiency by the Internal Revenue Service against either the Company or the Executive which the accountants believe has a high probability of success, determine that an Overpayment has been made, then the Executive shall repay any such Overpayment to the Company within ten business days of his receipt of notice of such Overpayment; provided, however, that no amount shall be payable by the Executive to the Company if and to the extent such deemed payment would not either reduce the amount on which the Executive is subject to tax under Section 1 and Section 4999 of the Code or generate a refund of such taxes. In the event that the accountants, based upon controlling precedent or substantial authority, determine that an Underpayment has occurred, any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive; provided, that any such Underpayment shall constitute a payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-2(b)(2)) separate and apart from the Payments; and provided, further that any such Underpayment shall be deemed a disputed payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-3(g)) and shall be made no later than the end of the first taxable year of the Company in which the accounting firm determines pursuant to this Section 14(c) that such Underpayment is due.

15. Assignment. The Executive may not make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein. The Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of the Executive in the event that the Company shall hereafter affect a reorganization, or consolidate with, or merge into, any other Person or transfer all or substantially all of its properties, stock, or assets to any other Person. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and the Executive, their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

16. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

17. Waiver. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

18. Notices. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed to the Executive at his last known address on the books of the Company or, in the case of the Company, at its principal place of business, attention of the Board of Directors, or to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

19. Entire Agreement/Effective Date. This Agreement shall be effective only upon the Effective Date, and upon the Effective Date shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede and terminate all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment with the Company, BPS and their respective Affiliates, including, without limitation, the Employment Agreement entered into between KBAU Holdings US, Inc. and the Executive effective as of April 16, 2008 (the "Prior Agreement"). The Prior Agreement shall govern the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment with the Company and any termination thereof unless and until the Effective Date shall occur.

20. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Executive and by an expressly authorized representative of the Company.

(a) This Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 409A") with respect to amounts, if any, subject thereto and shall be interpreted and construed and shall be performed by the parties consistent with such intent. If either party notifies the other in writing that one or more or the provisions of this Agreement contravenes any Treasury Regulations or guidance promulgated under Section 409A or causes any amounts to be subject to interest, additional tax or penalties under Section 409A, the parties shall agree to negotiate in good faith to make amendments to this Agreement as the parties mutually agree, reasonably and in good faith are necessary or desirable, to (i) maintain to the maximum extent reasonably practicable the original intent of the applicable provisions without violating the provisions of Section 409A or increasing the costs to the Company of providing the applicable benefit or payment and (ii) to the extent possible, to avoid the imposition of any interest, additional tax or other penalties under Section 409A upon the parties.

(b) To the extent the Executive would otherwise be entitled to any payment or benefit under this Agreement, or any plan or arrangement of the Company or its Affiliates, that constitutes a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A and that if paid during the six (6) months beginning on the date of termination of the Executive's employment would be subject to the Section 409A additional tax because the Executive is a "specified employee" (within the meaning of Section 409A and as determined by the Company), the payment or benefit will be paid or provided to the Executive on the first day following the six (6) month anniversary of the Executive's termination of employment or, if earlier, the Executive's date of death.

(c) Any payment or benefit due upon a termination of the Executive's employment that represents a "deferral of compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A shall be paid or provided to the Executive only upon a "separation from service" as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(h). Each payment made under this Agreement shall be deemed to be a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A. Amounts payable under this Agreement shall be deemed not to be a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A to the extent provided in the exceptions in Treasury Regulation §§ 1.409A-1(b)(4) ("short-term deferrals") and (b)(9) ("separation pay plans," including the exception under subparagraph (iii)) and other applicable provisions of Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1 through A-6. To the extent an annual bonus is payable under any provision of this Agreement, it shall be paid in the taxable year of the Company following the taxable year with respect to which the bonus relates, and not later than the 15th day of the third month of such taxable year; provided, that it shall not be a breach of this Agreement if payment is made later in such year to the extent financial results are not available by such date so long as payment is made no later than December 31 of such year.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Agreement, any payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise that is exempt from Section 409A pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(v)(A) or (C) (relating to certain reimbursements and in-kind benefits) shall be paid or provided to the Executive only to the extent that the expenses are not incurred, or the benefits are not provided, beyond the last day of the second calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs; and provided further that such expenses are reimbursed no later than the last day of the third calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs. To the extent any expense reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit is determined to be subject to Section 409A (and not exempt pursuant to the prior sentence or otherwise), the amount of any such expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the provision of any in-kind benefit (including tax return preparation fees and expenses described in Section 22(e)), in one calendar year shall not affect provision of in-kind benefits or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other calendar year (except for any life-time or other aggregate limitation applicable to medical expenses), and in no event shall any expenses be reimbursed after the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive incurred such expenses, and in no event shall any right to reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit. Any reimbursement of tax preparer fees and expenses incurred due to a tax audit addressing the existence or amount of a tax liability shall be made by the end of the Executive's taxable year following the Executive's taxable year in which the taxes that are subject of the audit are remitted to the taxing authority or, if as a result of such audit no taxes are remitted, by the end of the Executive's taxable year in which the audit is completed.

22. Tax Equalization

(a) During the Term of this Agreement and thereafter as provided in this Section 22, and provided that at all such times the Executive is a U.S. resident and not a Canadian resident for Canadian. federal income tax purposes, the Company will make an additional payment (the "Tax Equalization Payment") to the Executive in accordance with this Section 22, so that that the Executive does not materially suffer a loss by reason of any income and employment taxes that may be imposed on that portion, if any, of his Compensation (as defined below) which is taxable to the Executive under Canadian law as income from an office or employment performed by the Executive in Canada.

(b) The amount of any Tax Equalization Payment payable under this Section with respect to a taxable year of the Executive will equal the amount (the "Excess Tax"), if any, by which the Executive's combined aggregate U.S. federal, national, state and local actual income and employment tax liability , exclusive of any taxes under Section 409A or Section 4999 of the Code, and Canadian federal and provincial actual income and employment tax liability in respect of such year (the "Actual Tax Liability") on the Executive's Base Salary, Annual Bonus and the amount of income recognized upon the Executive's exercise of the Rollover Options, the IPO Awards or other stock options granted under the 2011 Plan (collectively, the "BPS Options", and together with Base Salary and Annual Bonus, the "Compensation") exceeds the amount of aggregate U.S. federal, state and local income and employment tax liability, exclusive of any taxes under Section 409A or Section 4999 of the Code, that would have been payable by the Executive for such year with respect to the Compensation if the Executive had performed all services hereunder for the Company and BPS and their Affiliates entirely within the United States in the state in which the Company's corporate headquarters are located at all relevant times such that all Compensation were treated entirely as U.S. source income by both the U.S. and Canada, and as if that were the only income earned by the Executive (the "Hypothetical Tax Liability"), plus an additional payment to gross-up the Executive for his additional actual income and employment tax liability (on a combined federal, national, state, provincial and local basis) on the amount of any such Excess Tax. The Company shall make all determinations of the amount of Compensation, Hypothetical Tax Liability, Excess Tax, Actual Tax Liability and Tax Equalization Payment in accordance with this Section 22.

(c) Notwithstanding this Section 22 or any other provision of this Agreement, the Executive shall pay and be solely responsible for payment of all taxes imposed under U.S., Canadian and any other federal, national, provincial, state and local law on the Compensation and all other payments or benefits paid or provided to the Executive by the Company or any of its Affiliates during the Term of this Agreement and thereafter.

(d) The Tax Equalization Payment payable in respect of a taxable year of the Executive shall be paid during the following taxable year of the Executive.

(e) The Company shall pay the Executive's designated tax return preparer selected by the Executive and reasonably acceptable to the Company directly for the preparation of any Canadian tax returns required to be filed with respect to the Compensation for all tax periods of the Executive beginning or ending during the Term of this Agreement and through and including the date of exercise of any BPS Options, including all amendments to such returns, as well as costs related to audits of such returns and related amendments. The Executive will be solely responsible for the payment of any tax return preparer fees and expenses for the preparation of his federal, state and local U.S. tax returns. The Company and the Executive will provide each other access to and copies of any books, records and documents in the possession of the Company or the Executive, as the case may be, reasonably requested by the other in connection with this Section 22, and otherwise cooperate with each other and their respective tax return preparers in connection with the determinations and all matters contemplated by this Section 22.

(f) All income tax returns to be filed by the Executive will be prepared on a basis consistent with the determinations of the Executive's and the Company's tax return preparers and this Section 22, and the Executive agrees that the Company shall have the right to review and approve all income tax returns (and amendments) to be filed by the Executive with respect to any taxable year covered by this Section 22 before the Executive files any such return with the relevant taxing authority. If the Company objects to any item in any such tax return the Company shall promptly notify the Executive and his tax return preparer of such item and the basis for such objection. The Company and the Executive shall act in good faith to resolve any disagreement between them prior to the date on which the relevant return is required to be filed under applicable law.

(g) The Executive and the Company agree that the Tax Equalization Payments are not intended to represent additional compensation to the Executive. Any Tax Equalization Payment will not be considered as additional Base Salary hereunder or taken into account as salary for purposes of the Annual Bonus Plan or any other benefit plan of the Company except as the terms of such plan may expressly provide otherwise.

23. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

24. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

25. Governing Law. This is a New Hampshire contract and shall be construed and enforced under and be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of New Hampshire, without regard to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

26. Dollar Amounts. All monetary figures in this Agreement shall be in United States dollars.

1. Release of Claims

In partial consideration of the payments and benefits described in Section 4 of the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement (the "Employment Agreement") effective as of _____, by and between [_____] ("Executive") and Bauer Hockey, Inc., a Vermont corporation (the " Company"), to which Executive agrees Executive is not entitled until and unless he executes this Release, Executive, for and on behalf of himself and his heirs and assigns, subject to the last sentence of this Section 1, hereby waives and releases any employment, compensation or benefit-related common law, statutory or other complaints, claims, charges or causes of action of any kind whatsoever, both known and unknown, in law or in equity, which Executive ever had, now has or may have against the Company and its affiliates and their respective shareholders, subsidiaries, successors, assigns, trustees, directors, officers, limited and general partners, managers, joint venturers, members, employees or agents (collectively, the "Releasees") by reason of facts or omissions which have occurred on or prior to the date that Executive signs this Release (the "Employment Claims"), including, without limitation, any complaint, charge or cause of action arising under federal, state or local laws pertaining to employment, including the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (the "ADEA," a law which prohibits discrimination on the basis of age), the National Labor Relations Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, all as amended, and all other federal, state and local laws and regulations relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. By signing this Release, Executive acknowledges that he intends to waive and release any rights known or unknown that he may have against the Releasees under these and any other laws relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive does not release, discharge or waive, and the term "Employment Claims" shall not include: (i) any claims or causes of action arising under or related to any failure by person or entity to perform or fulfill any obligation owed to Executive on or after the date hereof under the Employment Agreement or the terms of any equity award agreement, including without limitation any obligation under Section 4(d), (e) or (g) of the Employment Agreement (as applicable); or (ii) any claims or rights to indemnification that he may have under the certificate of incorporation, the by-laws or equivalent governing documents of the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates, the laws of the State of Vermont or any other state of which any subsidiary or affiliate is a domiciliary, or any indemnification agreement between Executive and the Company, or any rights to insurance coverage under any directors' and officers' personal liability insurance or fiduciary insurance policy; or (iii) any claims to vested benefits.

2. Proceedings

Executive acknowledges that he has not filed any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding, if any, against any of the Releasees before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body (each individually a "Proceeding"). Executive represents that he is not aware of any basis on which such a Proceeding could reasonably be instituted. Executive (i) acknowledges that he will not initiate or cause to be initiated on his behalf any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims and will not participate in any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, in each case, except as required by law and (ii) waives any right he may have to benefit in any manner from any relief (whether monetary or otherwise) arising out of any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, including any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "EEOC"). Further, Executive understands that, by executing this Release, he will be limiting the availability of certain remedies that he may have against the Company and limiting also his ability to pursue certain claims against the Releasees. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in Section 1 of this Release shall prevent Executive from (i) initiating or causing to be initiated on his behalf any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding against the Company before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body challenging the validity of the waiver of his claims under the ADEA contained in Section 1 of this Release (but no other portion of such waiver) or (ii) initiating or participating in an investigation or proceeding conducted by the EEOC or any state fair employment practices agency.

3. Time to Consider

Executive acknowledges that he has been advised that he has twenty-one (21) days from the date of receipt of this Release to consider all the provisions of this Release and he does hereby knowingly and voluntarily waive said given twenty-one (21) day period. EXECUTIVE FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS READ THIS RELEASE CAREFULLY, HAS BEEN ADVISED BY THE COMPANY TO, AND HAS IN FACT, CONSULTED AN ATTORNEY, AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS THAT BY SIGNING BELOW HE IS GIVING UP CERTAIN RIGHTS WHICH HE MAY HAVE TO SUE OR ASSERT A CLAIM AGAINST ANY OF THE RELEASEES, AS DESCRIBED IN SECTION 1 OF THIS RELEASE AND THE OTHER PROVISIONS HEREOF. EXECUTIVE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS NOT BEEN FORCED OR PRESSURED IN ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER TO SIGN THIS RELEASE, AND EXECUTIVE AGREES TO ALL OF ITS TERMS VOLUNTARILY.

4. Revocation

Executive hereby acknowledges and understands that Executive shall have seven (7) days from the date of his execution of this Release to revoke this Release (including, without limitation, any and all claims arising under the ADEA) and that neither the Company nor any other person is obligated to provide any benefits to Executive pursuant to Section 4 of the Employment Agreement until eight (8) days have passed since Executive's signing of this Release without Executive having revoked this Release, in which event the Company immediately shall arrange and/or pay for any such benefits otherwise attributable to said eight-

(8) day period, consistent with the terms of the Employment Agreement. If Executive revokes this Release, Executive will be deemed not to have accepted the terms of this Release, and no action will be required of the Company under this Release, including without limitation any release by the Company of claims against the Executive.

5. No Admission

This Release does not constitute an admission of liability or wrongdoing of any kind by Executive or the Company.

6. General Provisions

A failure of any of the Releasees to insist on strict compliance with any provision of this Release shall not be deemed a waiver of such provision or any other provision hereof. If any provision of this Release is determined to be so broad as to be unenforceable, such provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable, and in the event that any provision is determined to be entirely unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed severable, such that all other provisions of this Release shall remain valid and binding upon Executive and the Releasees.

7. Governing Law

The validity, interpretations, construction and performance of this Release shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Hampshire without giving effect to conflict of laws principles.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Executive has hereunto set Executive's hand as of the day and year set forth opposite his signature below.

DATE TROY MOHNS

AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this " Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Bauer Hockey, Inc., a Vermont corporation (the "Company"), and Amir Rosenthal (the "Executive"), effective as of the closing date of the initial public offering of Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. (the "Effective Date").

WHEREAS, the Executive is presently employed as the Chief Financial Officer of the Company; and

WHEREAS, the Company desires to continue to employ the Executive, and the Executive desires to continue to provide services to the Company, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Term. The term of the Executive's employment hereunder (the "Term") shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue until terminated in accordance with Section 4 of this Agreement.

2. Title and Duties.

(a) During the Term, the Executive shall serve the Company as the Chief Financial Officer or in such other executive positions of materially similar duties, authority and reporting responsibility for any Company subsidiary or Affiliate (as hereinafter defined) as requested by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board"). In addition, during the Term to the extent such office (or comparable office) is maintained by any entity which, directly or indirectly, owns all of the outstanding common stock of the Company (each, a "Parent"), the Executive shall also serve in such same (or comparable) executive position with each Parent, without additional compensation hereunder.

(b) During the Term, the Executive shall be employed by the Company on a full-time basis and shall perform such duties and responsibilities on behalf of the Company and its Affiliates consistent with his positions with the Company and its Affiliates and as may be designated from time to time by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

(c) During the Term, the Executive shall devote his full business time and his best efforts, business judgment, skill and knowledge exclusively to the advancement of the business and interests of the Company and its Affiliates and to the discharge of his duties and responsibilities hereunder. The Executive shall not engage in any other business activity or serve in any industry, trade, professional, governmental or academic position during the term of this Agreement, except as may be expressly approved in advance by the Board in writing; provided, however, that so long as such activities do not interfere in any material manner, or give rise to a conflict of interest, with the performance of the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder or otherwise violate this Agreement, the Executive may, without the necessity of seeking Board approval: (i) serve on industry, trade, professional, governmental, civic or charitable boards or committees disclosed to the Board; (ii) deliver lectures and fulfill speaking engagements with trade or other business or social associations and (iii) manage his personal investments.

3. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Executive during the Term and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement:

(a) Base Salary. During the Term, the Company shall pay the Executive a base salary (the "Base Salary") at the rate of $325,000 per annum, payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company for its executives and subject to increase (but not decrease) pursuant to Section 13 and otherwise from time to time by the Board, in its discretion. The Board will review the Executive's rate of Base Salary each year.

(b) Annual Bonus Compensation. For each Company fiscal year during the Term, the Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual bonus under the Company's annual bonus plan for executives (the "Annual Bonus Plan") based on the Company's and the Executive's achievement of specified performance targets for each such fiscal year. The Executive's target bonus (the "Target Bonus") shall equal 65% of the Base Salary payable to him for the applicable fiscal year. The performance targets for each fiscal year and the applicable percentage of the Target Bonus payable at specified performance thresholds each year will be set by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee") in consultation with the Executive, and the Compensation Committee will determine the actual amount of annual bonus, if any, payable to the Executive hereunder in accordance with the Annual Bonus Plan (the amount of bonus for any fiscal year, the "Annual Bonus"). Except as otherwise provided herein, in order to receive an Annual Bonus for any fiscal year under this Section 3(b), the Executive must be employed by the Company for the full fiscal year. For the avoidance of doubt, the Annual Bonus Plan for the fiscal year of the Company that includes the Effective Date will be that Annual Bonus Plan as in effect for the Company immediately prior to the Effective Date.

(c) Equity Based Awards. The parties acknowledge that the Executive presently holds options to acquire shares of Kohlberg Sports Group. In connection with the reorganization transactions undertaken in contemplation of the initial public offering of common shares of BPS, those options (the "Outstanding Options") will be fully vested and converted into options to acquire shares of BPS (the "Rollover Options") as of the Effective Date. The Rollover Options will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. Rollover Stock Option Plan (the "Rollover Plan") and the award agreement governing Rollover Options to be entered into between BPS and the Executive. Effective on or about the Effective Date, the Executive shall be granted additional options (the "IPO Awards") to acquire common shares of BPS under the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. 2011 Stock Option Plan (the "2011 Plan"), and during the Term the Executive shall be eligible to receive additional awards thereunder. The terms and conditions of the IPO Awards and any other such awards shall be as set forth in the 2011 Plan and award agreements entered into between BPS and the Executive.

(d) Paid Time-Off. During the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to 5 weeks of paid time-off per annum in accordance with the Company's paid time-off policy as in effect from time to time, to be taken at such times and intervals as shall be determined by the Executive, subject to the reasonable business needs of the Company.

(e) Other Benefits. During the Term and subject to any required employee contributions, the Executive shall be entitled to participate in any and all employee benefit plans from time to time in effect for employees of the Company generally, except to the extent such plans are in a category of benefit otherwise provided to the Executive. Such participation shall be subject to (i) the terms of the applicable plan documents, (ii) generally applicable Company policies and (iii) the discretion of the Board or any administrative or other committee provided for in such plan. The Company may alter, modify, add to or delete its employee benefit plans at any time as it, in its sole judgment, determines to be appropriate, without recourse by the Executive.

(f) Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for reasonable and customary business expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in the performance of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Board or Company policy from time to time. Such reimbursements, if any, shall be payable to the Executive promptly after the submission of such reasonable substantiation and documentation and shall be subject to Section 21 of this Agreement.

4. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. The Executive's employment hereunder and the Term may be terminated under the circumstances set forth in subsections (a) through (g) below. All payments and benefits specified in this Section 4 shall be subject to Sections 5 and 21 of this Agreement.

(a) Death. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with this Section 4, the Term shall end on the date of the Executive's death. In the event of the Executive's termination of employment by reason of his death, the Company shall pay or provide to the Executive's designated beneficiary or, if no beneficiary has been designated by the Executive, to his estate: (i) any earned, but unpaid Base Salary through the end of the month in which his death has occurred; (ii) any unpaid Annual Bonus for the fiscal year ended prior to the fiscal year of his termination of employment (the "Prior Year Bonus"); (iii) a pro-rated Annual Bonus for the fiscal year in which his termination of employment occurs, with such bonus amount determined by multiplying (A) the bonus amount that would have been payable under Section 3(b) based on performance for the entire fiscal year by (B) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in such fiscal year on which the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365 (the "Pro-Rated Bonus"); (iv) any unreimbursed business expenses and (v) any accrued and unused paid time-off. The payments referred to in clauses (i), (iv) and (v) in the immediately preceding sentence are referred to herein as the "Accrued Obligations" and shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days after the date of death. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(b) Disability.

(i) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Executive, in the event that the Executive becomes disabled during the Term through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of his material duties and responsibilities hereunder ("Disability") for a period of (x) one hundred and twenty (120) consecutive calendar days or (y) one hundred and fifty (150) total days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days. The Board may designate another employee to act in the Executive's place during any period of the Executive's disability.

(ii) If any question shall arise as to whether Disability exists, the Executive may, and at the request of the Company shall, submit to a medical examination by a physician selected by the Company with the consent of the Executive (not to be unreasonably withheld) to determine whether the Executive is so disabled and such determination shall for the purposes of this Agreement be conclusive of the issue. If such question shall arise and the Executive shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

(iii) The date of termination of employment under this Section 4(b) shall be the 10th business day following the Company's notice to the Executive of such termination (provided he has not resumed the full-time performance of his duties hereunder by such date), which date shall be the last day of the Term. In the event of such termination of employment, the Company shall pay to the Executive: (i) the Accrued Obligations; (ii) any unpaid Prior Year Bonus; and (iii) the Pro-Rated Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days after the date of termination of employment; each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause, but in no event later than ninety (90) days following the date upon which at least two members of the Board (other than the Executive) became aware of such Cause. The following, as determined by the Board in its reasonable judgment, shall constitute "Cause" for termination:

(i) The Executive's commission of any material fraud, embezzlement, theft or dishonesty, or any deliberate misappropriation of any material amount of money or other assets or property of the Company or any of its Affiliates;

(ii) The Executive's willful failure to perform, or gross negligence in the performance of, his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates which remains uncured fifteen (15) business days after written notice of such failure specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such failure or negligence is given to the Executive by the Board;

(iii) The Executive's intentional material breach of any of the terms of this Agreement or breach of his fiduciary duties to the Company and Affiliates (except where the breach of fiduciary duties is caused by the Executive's Disability and except where such breach is exculpated under the Company's articles of incorporation) which remains uncured fifteen (15) business days after written notice of such breach, specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such breach, is given to the Executive by the Board; or

(iv) The Executive's conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, a felony.

The date of termination for Cause shall be the date specified in the notice given by the Board to the Executive. Following termination of the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder, other than for payment of (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company.

(d) By the Company without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder without Cause at any time upon notice to the Executive by the Board, effective as of the date specified in such notice. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to (i) pay the Executive the Accrued Obligations; (ii) continue to pay the Executive his Base Salary at the rate in effect on the date of termination for the period of twelve (12) months following such termination (the "Continuation Period") in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices for its executives; (iii) continue to provide medical and dental benefits during the Continuation Period (subject to any employee contribution applicable to active employees generally and the Executive's timely election of continuation coverage under COBRA); (iv) pay the Executive the Annual Bonus, if any, that would otherwise have been payable to him under Section 3(b) of this Agreement with respect to the fiscal year of termination of employment, without regard to the Executive's termination of employment; (v) pay the Executive the Prior Year Bonus; and (vi) continue to provide the Executive the Annual Bonus for the portion of the Continuation Period beginning after the fiscal year of termination of employment, based on actual performance for the full fiscal year, pro-rated as though the Executive remained employed through the last day of the Continuation Period (collectively, the payments and benefits referred to in clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) and (vi) are referred to as the "Severance Benefit"). The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

than ninety (90) days following the initial existence of the condition or event giving rise to Good Reason and provided that the Company shall not have corrected the situation within thirty (30) business days after such notice of Good Reason from the Executive to the Board. The following shall constitute "Good Reason":

(i) material diminution in the nature or scope of the Executive's titles, duties, authority or reporting responsibilities, other than as is materially consistent with the Executive's assignment to another executive position in accordance with Section 2(a) hereof or as a result of the diminution of the business of the Company; provided, however, that a change in reporting relationships resulting from the direct or indirect control of the Company (or a successor corporation) by another entity or any sale or transfer of equity, property or other assets of the Company shall not constitute Good Reason;

(ii) material failure of the Company to provide the Executive the Base Salary, Annual Bonus and benefits in accordance with the terms of Section 3 hereof;

(iii) any material diminution in Base Salary or Target Bonus; or

(iv) a change in the geographic location of the Executive's principal place of performance of his services hereunder that increases his one-way commute from his primary residence at the time of such change by at least fifty (50) miles.

In the event of termination in accordance with this Section 4(e), the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to pay or provide the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Severance Benefit. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(f) By the Executive Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder at any time without Good Reason upon forty-five (45) days' notice to the Board. In the event of termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Board may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Board so elects, the Company will pay the Executive his Base Salary for the notice period (or for any remaining portion of the period). In the event of termination of employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Company shall pay the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(g) Termination of Employment in Connection with a Change of Control. If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or the Executive terminates his employment for Good Reason, in each case, nine months prior to, or within twelve

(12) months following, the consummation of a "Change of Control" (as defined in the 2011 Plan), the Executive shall be entitled to the payments and benefits set forth in Section 4(d) or (e), as applicable; provided that the Continuation Period as used in this Agreement shall be twenty-four (24) months.

5. Release; Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 5 shall apply to a termination pursuant to Section 4 or otherwise.

(a) A condition precedent to the Company's obligations to pay the Severance Benefit and other payments under each of Sections 4(d), (e), (f) and (g) shall be the Executive's execution and delivery of a timely and effective Release of Claims, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Release of Claims") within fifty-five (55) days following the Executive's termination of employment (the "Release Condition"). (For the avoidance of doubt, the Release of Claims must be executed and delivered to the Company (and not subsequently be revoked) not later than forty-seven (47) days following the termination of employment in order to comply with the preceding sentence.) Payments and benefits of amounts which do not constitute nonqualified deferred compensation and are not subject to Section 409A (as defined below) shall commence five (5) days after the Release Condition is satisfied and payments and benefits which are subject to Section 409A shall commence on the 60th day after termination of employment (subject to further delay, if required, pursuant to Section 21 below) provided that the Release Condition is satisfied. If the Executive fails to execute and deliver the Release of Claims, or if he revokes the Release of Claims as provided therein, except for the Accrued Obligations, he shall not receive the Severance Benefit or any other payment to which he may otherwise be entitled under this Agreement.

(b) Upon termination of the Executive's employment with the Company, unless otherwise specifically provided herein, his rights to benefits and payments under any retirement, health or welfare employee benefits plan, under BPS equity plans (and any equity award agreements pursuant to which awards were granted thereunder) and under any other benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate shall be determined in accordance with the terms and provisions of such plans; provided, however, that the Executive shall not be entitled to severance or termination pay under such benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate in connection with termination of his employment.

(c) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination if so provided herein or if necessary or desirable fully to accomplish the purposes of such provision, including without limitation the obligations of the Executive under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The obligation of the Company to pay the Severance Benefit is expressly conditioned upon the Executive's continued full performance of obligations under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive recognizes that, except as expressly provided herein, no compensation is earned after termination of employment.

6. Confidential Information.

(a) The Executive acknowledges that the Company and its Affiliates continually develop Confidential Information, that the Executive may develop Confidential Information for the Company or its Affiliates and that the Executive may learn of Confidential Information during the course of employment. The Executive will comply with the policies and procedures of the Company and its Affiliates for protecting Confidential Information and shall never disclose to any Person, or use for his own benefit or gain, any Confidential Information obtained by the Executive incident to his employment or other association with the Company or any of its Affiliates, in each case except as required by applicable law, governmental or judicial process or procedure, or for the proper performance of his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates or as may be reasonably necessary for the Executive to enforce his rights hereunder or under any of his equity agreements under a BPS equity plan. The Executive understands that this restriction shall continue to apply after his employment terminates, regardless of the reason for such termination, but only for as long as the Confidential Information remains confidential (other than where the Executive, in violation of the Agreement, discloses or publicizes such information).

(b) All documents, records, tapes and other media of every kind and description relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company or its Affiliates and any copies, in whole or in part, thereof (the "Documents"), whether or not prepared by the Executive, shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its Affiliates. The Executive shall safeguard all Documents and shall surrender to the Company at the time his employment terminates, or at such earlier time or times as the Board or its designee may specify, all Documents then in the Executive's possession or control; provided, however, that the Executive may keep such documents that represent agreements between himself and the Company and such documents as are necessary to allow the Executive to understand, exercise and protect his rights and obligations under any agreements between himself and the Company.

7. Assignment of Rights to Intellectual Property . The Executive shall promptly and fully disclose all Intellectual Property to the Company. The Executive hereby assigns and agrees to assign to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) the Executive's full right, title and interest in and to all Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to execute any and all applications for domestic and foreign patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights and to do such other acts (including without limitation the execution and delivery of instruments of further assurance or confirmation) requested by the Company to assign the Intellectual Property to the Company and to permit the Company to enforce any patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights to the Intellectual Property. The Executive will not charge the Company for time spent in complying with these obligations. All copyrightable works that the Executive creates while employed by the Company hereunder shall be considered "work made for hire".

8. Restricted Activities. In exchange for good and valuable consideration including, without limitation, the grant of stock options hereunder, the Executive agrees that some restrictions on his activities during and after his employment are necessary to protect the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates.

(a) While the Executive is employed by the Company, and through the last day of the twelve (12) month period following his termination of employment or, if later, the last day of the Continuation Period (whichever applies, the "Non-Competition Period"), the Executive shall not, whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise, compete in any material manner with the Company or any of its Affiliates in the Business anywhere in the United States, Canada or Europe; provided that the Executive shall be permitted to own, as a passive investor, not more than 5% of the publicly-traded securities of any Person; provided, further, that the foregoing prohibition shall not apply to any Person which competes with the Company in the Business in the United States, Canada or Europe through a division, subsidiary or other business unit of such Person so long as the Executive does not himself so compete and does not work or consult for, or otherwise give advice to, any division, subsidiary or business unit that does so compete. Specifically, but without limiting the foregoing, the Executive agrees not to engage in any manner in any activity that is competitive in any material manner with the Business. Restricted activity includes without limitation accepting employment or a consulting position with any Person who is, or at any time within twelve (12) months prior to termination of the Executive's employment has been, a customer of the Company or any of its Affiliates. For the purposes of this Agreement, the "Business" shall mean the designing, developing, manufacturing, producing, marketing, distributing, selling and supporting of (i) roller, ice and in-line skates, (ii) hockey equipment and apparel, namely roller, ice, in-line and street hockey equipment and apparel, and (iii) any other line of business in which the Company or any of its Affiliates is engaged, or has taken significant steps in connection with the preparation of engaging, in any material way, as of the Executive's termination of employment.

(b) The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period, the Executive will not hire or attempt to hire any Person who is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) an employee of the Company or any of its Affiliates, assist in such hiring by any Person, encourage any such employee to terminate his or her relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates, or solicit or encourage any Person which is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) a customer or vendor of the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate its relationship with them, or, in the case of a customer, to conduct with any Person any business or activity which such customer conducts or could conduct with the Company or any of its Affiliates. The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period he shall not make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Company or its Affiliates including, without limitation, their products, services, management, shareholders, employees and customers. The Company further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period it will instruct its employees not to make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Executive.

9. Enforcement of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges that he has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed upon him pursuant to Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive agrees without reservation that each of the restraints contained herein is necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates; that each and every one of those restraints is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area; and that these restraints, individually or in the aggregate, will not prevent him from obtaining other suitable employment during the period in which the Executive is bound by these restraints. The Executive further acknowledges that, were he to breach any of the covenants contained in Sections 6, 7 or 8 hereof, the damage to the Company would be irreparable. The Executive therefore agrees that the Company, in addition to any other remedies available to it, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Executive of any of said covenants, without having to post bond. The parties further agree that, in the event that any provision of Section 6, 7 or 8 hereof shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities, such provision shall be deemed to be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law.

10. Conflicting Agreements. The Executive hereby represents and warrants that the execution of this Agreement and the performance of his obligations hereunder will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which the Executive is a party or is bound and that the Executive is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants that would affect the performance of his obligations hereunder. The Executive will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company any proprietary information of a third party without such party's consent.

11. Definitions. Words or phrases which are initially capitalized or are within quotation marks shall have the meanings provided in this Section 11 and as provided elsewhere herein. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Affiliates" means all Persons and entities directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Company, where control may be by either management authority or equity interest. For the avoidance of doubt, Affiliates does not include any unrelated Kohlberg portfolio companies that are not directly or indirectly subsidiaries of BPS.

(b) "Confidential Information" means any and all information of the Company and its Affiliates that is not generally known at such time by others with whom they compete or do business, or with whom they plan to compete or do business and any and all information, not publicly known, which, if disclosed by the Company or its Affiliates would assist in competition against them. Confidential Information includes without limitation such information relating to (i) the development, research, testing, manufacturing, marketing and financial activities of the Company and its Affiliates, (ii) the Products, (iii) the costs, sources of supply, financial performance and strategic plans of the Company and its Affiliates, (iv) the identity and special needs of the customers of the Company and its Affiliates and (v) the people and organizations with whom the Company and its Affiliates have business relationships and the existence and nature of those relationships. Confidential Information also includes comparable information that the Company or any of its Affiliates has received belonging to others or which was received by the Company or any of its Affiliates with any understanding that it would not be disclosed. Confidential Information does not include information that is publicly known or becomes publicly known through no fault of the Executive.

(c) "Intellectual Property" means inventions, discoveries, developments, methods, processes, compositions, works, concepts and ideas (whether or not patentable or copyrightable or constituting trade secrets) conceived, made, created, developed or reduced to practice by the Executive (whether alone or with others, whether or not during normal business hours or on or off Company premises) during the Executive's employment that relate to the Business (as defined in Section 8), the Products or any prospective activity of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(d) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, an association, a partnership, an estate, a trust and any other entity or organization, other than the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(e) "Products" mean all products planned, researched, developed, tested, manufactured, sold, licensed, leased or otherwise distributed or put into use by the Company or any of its Affiliates, together with all services provided or planned by the Company or any of its Affiliates, during the Executive's employment.

12. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

13. Increase in Base Salary upon Certain Relocations . In the event the Company relocates its corporate headquarters outside the State of New Hampshire, the rate of Base Salary payable to the Executive shall be subject to a one-time increase in an amount equal to the sum of (i) the product of (A) the rate of Base Salary in effect immediately prior to such relocation multiplied by (B) the additional income taxes payable by the Executive (exclusive of any taxes imposed by Section 409A of the Code) on the amount determined in clause (A), calculated at the highest effective marginal combined rate of U.S. state and local personal income tax then in effect in the city and state to which the Company relocates, and (ii) an additional amount (intended to "gross-up" the Executive) equal to the additional federal, state and local income taxes (measured on a combined basis) payable by the Executive under U.S. law in respect of the amount payable to him under Section 13(i); provided, however, that the Executive will only be entitled to the Base Salary increase contemplated in this Section 13 if, as of immediately prior to such relocation of the corporate headquarters, the Executive's primary residence for purposes of U.S. federal taxes had been the State of New Hampshire for a continuous period of longer than twelve (12) months.

14. Parachute Payments

(a) This Section 14 shall apply only in the case of a Statutory Change in Control (as defined below) occurring after the initial public offering of shares of BPS, and at a time when the Company or BPS has stock which is "readily tradable on an established securities market or otherwise" (within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(5)(A)(ii)(I) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code")). In the event it is determined that any of the payments or benefits (including, without limitation, accelerated vesting of equity rights or other benefits) otherwise payable to the Executive under this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement with the Company or any Affiliate (collectively, the "Payments"), including by reason of the Executive's termination of employment in connection with a Change of Control or other event that constitutes a change in ownership or control of the Company as defined in Code Section 280G (a "Statutory Change in Control") would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Code Section 4999 (the "Excise Tax"), then such Payments shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent necessary so that the aggregate Payments received by the Executive will not be subject to the Excise Tax, but only if by reason of such reduction, the net after tax benefit to the Executive exceeds the net after tax benefit to the Executive without any such reduction. "Net after tax benefit" for purposes of this Section 14 shall mean the sum of (i) the Payments to be made less (ii) the amount of federal income and employment taxes payable with respect to such Payments, calculated at the maximum marginal income tax rate for the year of payment (based upon the rate in effect for such year as set forth in the Code at the time of termination of the Executive's employment) and less (iii) the amount of Excise Taxes imposed with respect to such Payments.

(b) If a reduction in the Payments is necessary, reduction shall occur in the following order: first, a reduction of cash payments not attributable to equity awards which vest on an accelerated basis; second, the cancellation of accelerated vesting of stock awards; third, the reduction of employee benefits and fourth a reduction in any other "parachute payments" (as defined in Code Section 280G). If acceleration of vesting of stock award compensation is to be reduced, such acceleration of vesting shall be cancelled in the reverse order of the date of grant of the Executive's stock awards unless the Executive elects in writing a different order for cancellation. The determinations with respect to this Section 14 shall be made by the Company's regular outside accountants, and the Company shall pay the fees and expenses of such accountants.

(c) While it is the intention of the Company and the Executive to reduce the amounts payable or distributable to the Executive hereunder only if the aggregate net after tax benefits to the Executive would thereby be increased, as a result of the uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of an initial determination hereunder, it is possible that amounts will have been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement which should not have been so paid or distributed ("Overpayment") or that additional amounts which will have not been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement could have been so paid or distributed ("Underpayment"), in each case, consistent with the calculations hereunder. In the event that the Company's accountants, based upon the assertion of a deficiency by the Internal Revenue Service against either the Company or the Executive which the accountants believe has a high probability of success, determine that an Overpayment has been made, then the Executive shall repay any such Overpayment to the Company within ten business days of his receipt of notice of such Overpayment; provided, however, that no amount shall be payable by the Executive to the Company if and to the extent such deemed payment would not either reduce the amount on which the Executive is subject to tax under Section 1 and Section 4999 of the Code or generate a refund of such taxes. In the event that the accountants, based upon controlling precedent or substantial authority, determine that an Underpayment has occurred, any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive; provided, that any such Underpayment shall constitute a payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-2(b)(2)) separate and apart from the Payments; and provided, further that any such Underpayment shall be deemed a disputed payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-3(g)) and shall be made no later than the end of the first taxable year of the Company in which the accounting firm determines pursuant to this Section 14(c) that such Underpayment is due.

15. Assignment. The Executive may not make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein. The Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of the Executive in the event that the Company shall hereafter affect a reorganization, or consolidate with, or merge into, any other Person or transfer all or substantially all of its properties, stock, or assets to any other Person. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and the Executive, their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

16. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

17. Waiver. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

18. Notices. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed to the Executive at his last known address on the books of the Company or, in the case of the Company, at its principal place of business, attention of the Chief Executive Officer, or to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

19. Entire Agreement/Effective Date. This Agreement shall be effective only upon the Effective Date, and upon the Effective Date shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede and terminate all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment with the Company, BPS and their respective Affiliates, including, without limitation, the Employment Agreement entered into between the Company (f/k/a Nike Bauer Hockey U.S.A., Inc.) and the Executive dated as of April 1, 2009 (the "Prior Agreement"). The Prior Agreement shall govern the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment with the Company and any termination thereof unless and until the Effective Date shall occur.

20. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Executive and by an expressly authorized representative of the Company.

21. Section 409A.

(a) This Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 409A") with respect to amounts, if any, subject thereto and shall be interpreted and construed and shall be performed by the parties consistent with such intent. If either party notifies the other in writing that one or more or the provisions of this Agreement contravenes any Treasury Regulations or guidance promulgated under Section 409A or causes any amounts to be subject to interest, additional tax or penalties under Section 409A, the parties shall agree to negotiate in good faith to make amendments to this Agreement as the parties mutually agree, reasonably and in good faith are necessary or desirable, to (i) maintain to the maximum extent reasonably practicable the original intent of the applicable provisions without violating the provisions of Section 409A or increasing the costs to the Company of providing the applicable benefit or payment and (ii) to the extent possible, to avoid the imposition of any interest, additional tax or other penalties under Section 409A upon the parties.

(b) To the extent the Executive would otherwise be entitled to any payment or benefit under this Agreement, or any plan or arrangement of the Company or its Affiliates, that constitutes a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A and that if paid during the six (6) months beginning on the date of termination of the Executive's employment would be subject to the Section 409A additional tax because the Executive is a "specified employee" (within the meaning of Section 409A and as determined by the Company), the payment or benefit will be paid or provided to the Executive on the first day following the six (6) month anniversary of the Executive's termination of employment or, if earlier, the Executive's date of death.

(c) Any payment or benefit due upon a termination of the Executive's employment that represents a "deferral of compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A shall be paid or provided to the Executive only upon a "separation from service" as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(h). Each payment made under this Agreement shall be deemed to be a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A. Amounts payable under this Agreement shall be deemed not to be a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A to the extent provided in the exceptions in Treasury Regulation §§ 1.409A-1(b)(4) ("short-term deferrals") and (b)(9) ("separation pay plans," including the exception under subparagraph (iii)) and other applicable provisions of Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1 through A-6. To the extent an annual bonus is payable under any provision of this Agreement, it shall be paid in the taxable year of the Company following the taxable year with respect to which the bonus relates, and not later than the 15th day of the third month of such taxable year; provided, that it shall not be a breach of this Agreement if payment is made later in such year to the extent financial results are not available by such date so long as payment is made no later than December 31 of such year.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Agreement, any payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise that is exempt from Section 409A pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(v)(A) or (C) (relating to certain reimbursements and in-kind benefits) shall be paid or provided to the Executive only to the extent that the expenses are not incurred, or the benefits are not provided, beyond the last day of the second calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs; and provided further that such expenses are reimbursed no later than the last day of the third calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs. To the extent any expense reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit is determined to be subject to Section 409A (and not exempt pursuant to the prior sentence or otherwise), the amount of any such expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the provision of any in-kind benefit (including tax return preparation fees and expenses described in Section 22(e)), in one calendar year shall not affect provision of in-kind benefits or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other calendar year (except for any life-time or other aggregate limitation applicable to medical expenses), and in no event shall any expenses be reimbursed after the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive incurred such expenses, and in no event shall any right to reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit. Any reimbursement of tax preparer fees and expenses incurred due to a tax audit addressing the existence or amount of a tax liability shall be made by the end of the Executive's taxable year following the Executive's taxable year in which the taxes that are subject of the audit are remitted to the taxing authority or, if as a result of such audit no taxes are remitted, by the end of the Executive's taxable year in which the audit is completed.

22. Tax Equalization

(a) During the Term of this Agreement and thereafter as provided in this Section 22, and provided that at all such times the Executive is a U.S. resident and not a Canadian resident for Canadian. federal income tax purposes, the Company will make an additional payment (the "Tax Equalization Payment") to the Executive in accordance with this Section 22, so that that the Executive does not materially suffer a loss by reason of any income and employment taxes that may be imposed on that portion, if any, of his Compensation (as defined below) which is taxable to the Executive under Canadian law as income from an office or employment performed by the Executive in Canada.

(b) The amount of any Tax Equalization Payment payable under this Section 22 with respect to a taxable year of the Executive will equal the amount (the "Excess Tax"), if any, by which the Executive's combined aggregate U.S. federal, national, state and local actual income and employment tax liability , exclusive of any taxes under Section 409A or Section 4999 of the Code, and Canadian federal and provincial actual income and employment tax liability in respect of such year (the "Actual Tax Liability") on the Executive's Base Salary, Annual Bonus and the amount of income recognized upon the Executive's exercise of the Rollover Options, the IPO Awards or other stock options granted under the 2011 Plan (collectively, the "BPS Options", and together with Base Salary and Annual Bonus, the "Compensation") exceeds the amount of aggregate U.S. federal, state and local income and employment tax liability, exclusive of any taxes under Section 409A or Section 4999 of the Code, that would have been payable by the Executive for such year with respect to the Compensation if the Executive had performed all services hereunder for the Company and BPS and their Affiliates entirely within the United States in the state in which the Company's corporate headquarters are located at all relevant times such that all Compensation were treated entirely as U.S. source income by both the U.S. and Canada, and as if that were the only income earned by the Executive (the "Hypothetical Tax Liability"), plus an additional payment to gross-up the Executive for his additional actual income and employment tax liability (on a combined federal, national, state, provincial and local basis) on the amount of any such Excess Tax. The Company shall make all determinations of the amount of Compensation, Hypothetical Tax Liability, Excess Tax, Actual Tax Liability and Tax Equalization Payment in accordance with this Section 22.

(c) Notwithstanding this Section 22 or any other provision of this Agreement, the Executive shall pay and be solely responsible for payment of all taxes imposed under U.S., Canadian and any other federal, national, provincial, state and local law on the Compensation and all other payments or benefits paid or provided to the Executive by the Company or any of its Affiliates during the Term of this Agreement and thereafter.

(d) The Tax Equalization Payment payable in respect of a taxable year of the Executive shall be paid during the following taxable year of the Executive.

(e) The Company shall pay the Executive's designated tax return preparer selected by the Executive and reasonably acceptable to the Company directly for the preparation of any Canadian tax returns required to be filed with respect to the Compensation for all tax periods of the Executive beginning or ending during the Term of this Agreement and through and including the date of exercise of any BPS Options; including all amendments to such returns, as well as costs related to audits of such returns and related amendments. The Executive will be solely responsible for the payment of any tax return preparer fees and expenses for the preparation of his federal, state and local U.S. tax returns. The Company and the Executive will provide each other access to and copies of any books, records and documents in the possession of the Company or the Executive, as the case may be, reasonably requested by the other in connection with this Section 22, and otherwise cooperate with each other and their respective tax return preparers in connection with the determinations and all matters contemplated by this Section 22.

(f) All income tax returns to be filed by the Executive will be prepared on a basis consistent with the determinations of the Executive's and the Company's tax return preparers and this Section 22, and the Executive agrees that the Company shall have the right to review and approve all income tax returns (and amendments) to be filed by the Executive with respect to any taxable year covered by this Section 22 before the Executive files any such return with the relevant taxing authority. If the Company objects to any item in any such tax return the Company shall promptly notify the Executive and his tax return preparer of such item and the basis for such objection. The Company and the Executive shall act in good faith to resolve any disagreement between them prior to the date on which the relevant return is required to be filed under applicable law.

(g) The Executive and the Company agree that the Tax Equalization Payments are not intended to represent additional compensation to the Executive. Any Tax Equalization Payment will not be considered as additional Base Salary hereunder or taken into account as salary for purposes of the Annual Bonus Plan or any other benefit plan of the Company except as the terms of such plan may expressly provide otherwise.

23. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

24. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

25. Governing Law. This is a New Hampshire contract and shall be construed and enforced under and be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of New Hampshire, without regard to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

26. Dollar Amounts. All monetary figures in this Agreement shall be in United States dollars.

RELEASE OF CLAIMS

1. Release of Claims

In partial consideration of the payments and benefits described in Section 4 of the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement (the "Employment Agreement") effective as of _____, by and between [_____] ("Executive") and Bauer Hockey, Inc., a Vermont corporation (the " Company"), to which Executive agrees Executive is not entitled until and unless he executes this Release, Executive, for and on behalf of himself and his heirs and assigns, subject to the last sentence of this Section 1, hereby waives and releases any employment, compensation or benefit-related common law, statutory or other complaints, claims, charges or causes of action of any kind whatsoever, both known and unknown, in law or in equity, which Executive ever had, now has or may have against the Company and its affiliates and their respective shareholders, subsidiaries, successors, assigns, trustees, directors, officers, limited and general partners, managers, joint venturers, members, employees or agents (collectively, the "Releasees") by reason of facts or omissions which have occurred on or prior to the date that Executive signs this Release (the "Employment Claims"), including, without limitation, any complaint, charge or cause of action arising under federal, state or local laws pertaining to employment, including the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (the "ADEA," a law which prohibits discrimination on the basis of age), the National Labor Relations Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, all as amended, and all other federal, state and local laws and regulations relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. By signing this Release, Executive acknowledges that he intends to waive and release any rights known or unknown that he may have against the Releasees under these and any other laws relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive does not release, discharge or waive, and the term "Employment Claims" shall not include: (i) any claims or causes of action arising under or related to any failure by person or entity to perform or fulfill any obligation owed to Executive on or after the date hereof under the Employment Agreement or the terms of any equity award agreement, including without limitation any obligation under Section 4(d), (e) or (g) of the Employment Agreement (as applicable); or (ii) any claims or rights to indemnification that he may have under the certificate of incorporation, the by-laws or equivalent governing documents of the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates, the laws of the State of Vermont or any other state of which any subsidiary or affiliate is a domiciliary, or any indemnification agreement between Executive and the Company, or any rights to insurance coverage under any directors' and officers' personal liability insurance or fiduciary insurance policy; or (iii) any claims to vested benefits.

2. Proceedings

Executive acknowledges that he has not filed any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding, if any, against any of the Releasees before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body (each individually a "Proceeding"). Executive represents that he is not aware of any basis on which such a Proceeding could reasonably be instituted. Executive (i) acknowledges that he will not initiate or cause to be initiated on his behalf any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims and will not participate in any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, in each case, except as required by law and (ii) waives any right he may have to benefit in any manner from any relief (whether monetary or otherwise) arising out of any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, including any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "EEOC"). Further, Executive understands that, by executing this Release, he will be limiting the availability of certain remedies that he may have against the Company and limiting also his ability to pursue certain claims against the Releasees. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in Section 1 of this Release shall prevent Executive from (i) initiating or causing to be initiated on his behalf any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding against the Company before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body challenging the validity of the waiver of his claims under the ADEA contained in Section 1 of this Release (but no other portion of such waiver) or (ii) initiating or participating in an investigation or proceeding conducted by the EEOC or any state fair employment practices agency.

3. Time to Consider

Executive acknowledges that he has been advised that he has twenty-one (21) days from the date of receipt of this Release to consider all the provisions of this Release and he does hereby knowingly and voluntarily waive said given twenty-one (21) day period. EXECUTIVE FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS READ THIS RELEASE CAREFULLY, HAS BEEN ADVISED BY THE COMPANY TO, AND HAS IN FACT, CONSULTED AN ATTORNEY, AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS THAT BY SIGNING BELOW HE IS GIVING UP CERTAIN RIGHTS WHICH HE MAY HAVE TO SUE OR ASSERT A CLAIM AGAINST ANY OF THE RELEASEES, AS DESCRIBED IN SECTION 1 OF THIS RELEASE AND THE OTHER PROVISIONS HEREOF. EXECUTIVE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS NOT BEEN FORCED OR PRESSURED IN ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER TO SIGN THIS RELEASE, AND EXECUTIVE AGREES TO ALL OF ITS TERMS VOLUNTARILY.

4. Revocation

Executive hereby acknowledges and understands that Executive shall have seven (7) days from the date of his execution of this Release to revoke this Release (including, without limitation, any and all claims arising under the ADEA) and that neither the Company nor any other person is obligated to provide any benefits to Executive pursuant to Section 4 of the Employment Agreement until eight (8) days have passed since Executive's signing of this Release without Executive having revoked this Release, in which event the Company immediately shall arrange and/or pay for any such benefits otherwise attributable to said eight-

(8) day period, consistent with the terms of the Employment Agreement. If Executive revokes this Release, Executive will be deemed not to have accepted the terms of this Release, and no action will be required of the Company under this Release, including without limitation any release by the Company of claims against the Executive.

5. No Admission

This Release does not constitute an admission of liability or wrongdoing of any kind by Executive or the Company.

6. General Provisions

A failure of any of the Releasees to insist on strict compliance with any provision of this Release shall not be deemed a waiver of such provision or any other provision hereof. If any provision of this Release is determined to be so broad as to be unenforceable, such provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable, and in the event that any provision is determined to be entirely unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed severable, such that all other provisions of this Release shall remain valid and binding upon Executive and the Releasees.

7. Governing Law

The validity, interpretations, construction and performance of this Release shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Hampshire without giving effect to conflict of laws principles.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Executive has hereunto set Executive's hand as of the day and year set forth opposite his signature below.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Bauer Hockey, Inc., a Vermont corporation (the "Company"), and Richard M. Wuerthele (the "Executive"), effective as of March 1, 2014 (the "Effective Date").

WHEREAS, the Company desires to employ Executive and Executive desires to be employed by the Company immediately as of the Effective Date, under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing promises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Term. The term of the Executive's employment hereunder (the "Term") shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue until terminated in accordance with Section 4 of this Agreement.

2. Title and Duties.

(a) During the Term, the Executive shall serve the Company as Executive Vice President, Hockey or in such other position as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company (the "CEO") may designate from time to time, and shall also serve in similar positions with any Company subsidiary or Affiliate (as hereinafter defined) if requested by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") or the CEO.

(b) During the Term, the Executive shall be employed by the Company on a full-time basis and shall perform such duties and responsibilities on behalf of the Company and its Affiliates consistent with his positions with the Company and its Affiliates and as may be designated from time to time by the Board or the CEO.

(c) During the Term, the Executive shall devote his full business time and his best efforts, business judgment, skill and knowledge exclusively to the advancement of the business and interests of the Company and its Affiliates and to the discharge of his duties and responsibilities hereunder. The Executive shall not engage in any other business activity or serve in any industry, trade, professional, governmental or academic position during the Term, except as may be expressly approved in advance by the CEO in writing.

3. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Executive during the Term and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement:

(a) Base Salary. During the Term, the Company shall pay the Executive a base salary (the "Base Salary") at the rate of $350,000 per annum, payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company for its executives and subject to increase (but not decrease) from time to time by the CEO, in his/her discretion.

(b) Annual Bonus Compensation. For each Company fiscal year during the Term, the Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual bonus under the Company's annual bonus plan for executives (the "Annual Bonus Plan") based on the Company's and the Executive's achievement of specified performance targets for each such fiscal year. The Executive's target bonus (the "Target Bonus") shall equal 65% of the Base Salary payable to him for the applicable fiscal year. The performance targets for each fiscal year and the applicable percentage of the Target Bonus payable at specified performance thresholds each year will be set by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee"), and the Compensation Committee will determine the actual amount of annual bonus, if any, payable to the Executive hereunder in accordance with the Annual Bonus Plan (the amount of bonus for any fiscal year, the "Annual Bonus"). Except as otherwise provided herein, in order to receive an Annual Bonus for any fiscal year under this Section 3(b), the Executive must be employed by the Company for the full fiscal year. In the event that the Effective Date is after the commencement of a fiscal year, the Annual Bonus will be pro-rated for such fiscal year, with such bonus amount determined by multiplying (A) the bonus amount that would have been payable under this Section 3(b) based on performance for the entire fiscal year by (B) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in such fiscal year on which the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365 (the "Pro-Rated Bonus"). In order to receive the pro-rated Annual Bonus, the Executive must be employed by the Company at the end of the fiscal year. For the avoidance of doubt, the Annual Bonus Plan for the fiscal year of the Company that includes the Effective Date will be that Annual Bonus Plan as in effect for the Company immediately prior to the Effective Date. To the extent an Annual Bonus is payable under any provision of this Agreement, it shall be paid in the taxable year of the Company following the taxable year with respect to which such Annual Bonus relates, and not later than the 15th day of the third month of such taxable year; provided, that it shall not be a breach of this Agreement if payment is made later in such year to the extent financial results are not available by such date so long as payment is made no later than December 31 of such year.

(c) Equity Based Awards. Subject to Board approval, effective on or about the Effective Date, the Executive shall be granted options (the "Option Awards") to acquire 175,000 (one hundred seventy-five thousand) common shares of BPS under the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. Second Amended and Restated 2011 Stock Option Plan (the "2011 Plan"), and during the Term the Executive shall be eligible to receive additional awards thereunder. The terms and conditions of the Option Awards and any other such awards shall be as set forth in the 2011 Plan and award agreements entered into between BPS and the Executive.

(d) Signing Bonus. The Executive shall receive a signing bonus in the amount of $100,000 (the "Signing Bonus") during the first regular payroll period that immediately follows the Effective Date. In the event that the Executive voluntarily resigns his position without Good Reason (as defined in Section 4(e) below) or is terminated by the Company for Cause (as defined in Section 4(c) below) , (i) within the first twelve-month period after the Effective Date, the Executive shall repay to the Company 100% of the Signing Bonus or (ii) within the second twelve-month period after the Effective Date, the Executive shall repay to the Company 50% of the Signing Bonus. Executive agrees to make such repayment within thirty (30) days after the last day of his employment with the Company.

(e) Paid Time-Off. During the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to four (4) weeks of paid time-off per annum in accordance with the Company's paid time-off policy as in effect from time to time, to be taken at such times and intervals as shall be determined by the Executive and approved by the CEO, subject to the reasonable business needs of the Company.

(f) Other Benefits. During the Term and subject to any required employee contributions, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in employee benefit plans from time to time in effect for employees of the Company generally, except to the extent any such plan is in a category of benefits that is provided to the Executive under this Agreement. Such participation shall be subject to (i) the terms of the applicable plan documents, (ii) generally applicable Company policies and (iii) the discretion of the Board or any administrative or other committee provided for in such plan. The Company may alter, modify, add to or delete its employee benefit plans at any time as it, in its sole judgment, determines to be appropriate, without recourse by the Executive.

(g) Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for reasonable and necessary business expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in the performance of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Board or Company policy from time to time. Such reimbursements, if any, shall be payable to the Executive promptly after the submission of such reasonable substantiation and documentation and shall be subject to Section 20 of this Agreement.

4. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. The Executive's employment hereunder and the Term may be terminated under the circumstances set forth in subsections (a) through (g) below. All payments and benefits specified in this Section 4 shall be subject to Sections 5 and 20 of this Agreement.

(a) Death. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with this Section 4, the Term shall end on the date of the Executive's death. In the event of the Executive's termination of employment by reason of his death, the Company shall pay or provide to the Executive's designated beneficiary or, if no beneficiary has been designated by the Executive, to his estate: (i) any earned, but unpaid Base Salary through the end of the month in which his death has occurred; (ii) any unpaid Annual Bonus for the fiscal year ended prior to the fiscal year of his termination of employment (the "Prior Year Bonus"); (iii) the Pro-Rated Bonus for the fiscal year in which his termination of employment occurs; (iv) any unreimbursed business expenses and (v) any accrued and unused paid time-off. The payments referred to in clauses (i), (iv) and (v) in the immediately preceding sentence are referred to herein as the "Accrued Obligations" and shall be payable in accordance with applicable law. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(b) Disability.

(i) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Executive, in the event that the Executive becomes disabled during the Term through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of his material duties and responsibilities hereunder ("Disability") for a period of (x) one hundred and twenty (120) consecutive calendar days or (y) one hundred and fifty (150) total days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days. The Board may designate another employee to act in the Executive's place during any period of the Executive's disability.

(ii) If any question shall arise as to whether Disability exists, the Executive may, and at the request of the Company shall, submit to a medical examination by a physician selected by the Company with the consent of the Executive (not to be unreasonably withheld) to determine whether the Executive is so disabled and such determination shall for the purposes of this Agreement be conclusive of the issue. If such question shall arise and the Executive shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

(iii) The date of termination of employment under this Section 4(b) shall be the 10th business day following the Company's notice to the Executive of such termination (provided he has not resumed the full-time performance of his duties hereunder by such date), which date shall be the last day of the Term. In the event of such termination of employment, the Company shall pay to the Executive: (i) the Accrued Obligations; (ii) any unpaid Prior Year Bonus; and (iii) the Pro-Rated Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in accordance with applicable law. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause. The following, as determined by the CEO in his/her reasonable judgment, shall constitute "Cause" for termination:

(i) The Executive's commission of any material fraud, embezzlement, theft or dishonesty, or any deliberate misappropriation of any material amount of money or other assets or property of the Company or any of its Affiliates;

(ii) The Executive's willful failure to perform, or gross negligence in the performance of, his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates;

(iii) The Executive's material breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, company policies (including policies such as those prohibiting harassment), or his fiduciary duties to the Company and Affiliates (except where the breach of fiduciary duties is caused by the Executive's Disability and except where such breach is exculpated under the Company's articles of incorporation); or

(iv) The Executive's conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, a felony or any other action by the Executive that has, or could be reasonably expected to result in, material injury to the reputation of Executive or the business of the Company.

The date of termination for Cause shall be the date specified in the notice given by the Board to the Executive. Following termination of the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder, other than for payment of (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable under applicable law. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company.

(d) By the Company without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder without Cause at any time upon notice to the Executive by the Board, effective as of the date specified in such notice. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to (i) pay the Executive the Accrued Obligations; (ii) continue to pay the Executive his Base Salary at the rate in effect on the date of termination for the period of twelve (12) months following such termination (the "Continuation Period") in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices for its executives; (iii) continue to provide medical and dental benefits during the Continuation Period (subject to any employee contribution applicable to active employees generally and the Executive's timely election of continuation coverage under COBRA); (iv) pay the Executive the Annual Bonus, if any, that would otherwise have been payable to him under Section 3(b) of this Agreement with respect to the fiscal year of termination of employment, without regard to the Executive's termination of employment; (v) pay the Executive the Prior Year Bonus; and (vi) continue to provide the Executive the Annual Bonus for the portion of the Continuation Period beginning after the fiscal year of termination of employment, based on actual performance for the full fiscal year, pro-rated as though the Executive remained employed through the last day of the Continuation Period (collectively, the payments and benefits referred to in clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) and (vi) are referred to as the "Severance Benefit"). The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in accordance with applicable law. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(e) By the Executive for Good Reason. The Executive may terminate him employment hereunder for Good Reason (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Company setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Good Reason, but in no event later than ninety (90) days following the initial existence of the condition or event giving rise to Good Reason and provided that the Company shall not have corrected the situation within thirty (30) business days after such notice of Good Reason from the Executive to the Board. The following shall constitute "Good Reason":

(i) material diminution in the nature or scope of the Executive's titles, duties, authority or reporting responsibilities (including a change in Executive's direct reporting relationship to the CEO), other than as is materially consistent with the

Executive's assignment to another executive position in accordance with Section 2(a) hereof or as a result of the diminution of the business of the Company; provided, however, that a change in reporting relationships resulting from the direct or indirect control of the Company (or a successor corporation) by another entity or any sale or transfer of equity, property or other assets of the Company shall not constitute Good Reason;

(ii) material failure of the Company to provide the Executive the Base Salary or Annual Bonus in accordance with the terms of Section 3 hereof;

(iii) any material diminution in Base Salary or Target Bonus; or

(iv) a change in the geographic location of the Executive's principal place of performance of his services hereunder that increases his one-way commute from his primary residence at the time of such change by at least fifty (50) miles.

In the event of termination in accordance with this Section 4(e), the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to pay or provide the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Severance Benefit. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in accordance with applicable law. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(f) By the Executive Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder at any time without Good Reason upon forty-five (45) days' notice to the Board. In the event of termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Board may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Board so elects, the Company shall pay the Executive his Base Salary for the notice period (or for any remaining portion of the period, as the case may be). In the event of termination of employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Company shall pay the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in accordance with applicable law. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

5. Release; Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 5 shall apply to a termination pursuant to Section 4 or otherwise.

(a) A condition precedent to the Company's obligations to pay the Severance Benefit and other payments under each of Sections 4(d), (e), and (g) shall be the Executive's execution and delivery of a timely and effective Release of Claims, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Release of Claims"), and the expiration of any revocation period contained in such Release of Claims following the Executive's termination of employment (the "Release Condition"). Payments and benefits of amounts which do not constitute nonqualified deferred compensation and are not subject to Section 409A (as defined below) shall commence five (5) days after the Release Condition is satisfied and payments and benefits which are subject to Section 409A shall commence on the 60th day after termination of employment (subject to further delay, if required, pursuant to Section 20 below) provided that the Release Condition is satisfied. If the Executive fails to execute and deliver the Release of Claims, or if he revokes the Release of Claims as provided therein, except for the Accrued Obligations, he shall not receive the Severance Benefit or any other payment to which he may otherwise be entitled under this Agreement.

(b) Upon termination of the Executive's employment with the Company, unless otherwise specifically provided herein, his rights to benefits and payments under any retirement, health or welfare employee benefits plan, under BPS equity plans (and any equity award agreements pursuant to which awards were granted thereunder) and under any other benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate shall be determined in accordance with the terms and provisions of such plans; provided, however, that the Executive shall not be entitled to severance or termination pay under such benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate in connection with termination of his employment.

(c) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination if so provided herein or if necessary or desirable fully to accomplish the purposes of such provision, including without limitation the obligations of the Executive under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The obligation of the Company to pay the Severance Benefit is expressly conditioned upon the Executive's continued full performance of obligations under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive recognizes that, except as expressly provided herein, no compensation is earned after termination of employment.

6. Confidential Information.

(a) The Executive acknowledges that the Company and its Affiliates continually develop Confidential Information, that the Executive may develop Confidential Information for the Company or its Affiliates and that the Executive may learn of Confidential Information during the course of employment. The Executive will comply with the policies and procedures of the Company and its Affiliates for protecting Confidential Information and shall never disclose to any Person, or use for his own benefit or gain, any Confidential Information obtained by the Executive incident to his employment or other association with the Company or any of its Affiliates, in each case except as required by applicable law, governmental or judicial process or procedure, or for the proper performance of his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates or as may be reasonably necessary for the Executive to enforce his rights hereunder or under any of his equity agreements under a BPS equity plan. The Executive understands that this restriction shall continue to apply after his employment terminates, regardless of the reason for such termination, but only for as long as the Confidential Information remains confidential (other than where the Executive, in violation of the Agreement, discloses or publicizes such information).

(b) All documents, records, tapes and other media of every kind and description relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company or its Affiliates and any copies, in whole or in part, thereof (the "Documents"), whether or not prepared by the Executive, shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its Affiliates. The Executive shall safeguard all Documents and shall surrender to the Company at the time his employment terminates, or at such earlier time or times as the Board or its designee may specify, all Documents then in the Executive's possession or control; provided, however, that the Executive may keep such documents that represent agreements between himself and the Company and such documents as are necessary to allow the Executive to understand, exercise and protect his rights and obligations under any agreements between himself and the Company.

7. Assignment of Rights to Intellectual Property . The Executive shall promptly and fully disclose all Intellectual Property to the Company. The Executive hereby assigns and agrees to assign to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) the Executive's full right, title and interest in and to all Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to execute any and all applications for domestic and foreign patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights and to do such other acts (including without limitation the execution and delivery of instruments of further assurance or confirmation) requested by the Company to assign the Intellectual Property to the Company and to permit the Company to enforce any patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights to the Intellectual Property. The Executive will not charge the Company for time spent in complying with these obligations. All copyrightable works that the Executive creates while employed by the Company hereunder shall be considered "work made for hire".

8. Restricted Activities. In exchange for good and valuable consideration including, without limitation, his employment by the Company and the compensation and benefits described herein and the grant of stock options hereunder, the Executive agrees that some restrictions on his activities during and after his employment are necessary to protect the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates.

(a) While the Executive is employed by the Company, and through the last day of the twelve (12) month period following his termination of employment or, if later, the last day of the Continuation Period (whichever applies, the "Non-Competition Period"), the Executive shall not, whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise, compete in any material manner with the Company or any of its Affiliates in the Business anywhere in the United States, Canada or Europe; provided that the Executive shall be permitted to own, as a passive investor, not more than 5% of the publicly-traded securities of any Person; provided, further, that the foregoing prohibition shall not apply to any Person which competes with the Company in the Business in the United States, Canada or Europe itself or through a division, subsidiary or other business unit of such Person so long as the Executive does not himself so compete and does not work or consult for, or otherwise give advice to, any division, subsidiary or business unit that does so compete. Specifically, but without limiting the foregoing, the Executive agrees not to engage in any manner in any activity that is competitive in any material manner with the Business. Restricted activity includes without limitation accepting employment or a consulting position with any Person who is, or at any time within twelve (12) months prior to termination of the Executive's employment has been, a customer of the Company or any of its Affiliates. For the purposes of this Agreement, the "Business" shall mean the designing, developing, manufacturing, producing, marketing, distributing, selling and supporting of (i) roller, ice and in-line skates; (ii) hockey equipment and apparel, namely roller, ice, in-line and street hockey equipment and apparel; (iii) lacrosse equipment and apparel; (iv) baseball and softball equipment and apparel; (v) any other line of business in which the Company or any of its Affiliates, as of the date of termination of the Executive, is engaged; and (vi) any other line of business in which the Company or any of its Affiliates, as of the date of termination of the Executive, has taken significant steps in connection with preparing to engage and, during the Non-Competition Period, has become engaged.

(b) The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period, the Executive will not hire or attempt to hire any Person who is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) an employee of the Company or any of its Affiliates, assist in such hiring by any Person, encourage any such employee to terminate his or his relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates, or solicit or encourage any Person which is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) a customer or vendor of the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate its relationship with them, or, in the case of a customer, to conduct with any Person any business or activity which such customer conducts or could conduct with the Company or any of its Affiliates. The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period he shall not make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Company or its Affiliates including, without limitation, their products, services, management, shareholders, employees and customers.

9. Enforcement of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges that he has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed upon him pursuant to Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive agrees without reservation that each of the restraints contained therein is necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates; that each and every one of those restraints is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area; and that these restraints, individually or in the aggregate, will not prevent him from obtaining other suitable employment during the period in which the Executive is bound by these restraints. The Executive further acknowledges that, were he to breach any of the covenants contained in Sections 6, 7 or 8 hereof, the damage to the Company would be irreparable. The Executive therefore agrees that the Company, in addition to any other remedies available to it, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Executive of any of said covenants, without having to post bond. The parties further agree that, in the event that any provision of Section 6, 7 or 8 hereof shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities, such provision shall be deemed to be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law.

10. Conflicting Agreements. The Executive hereby represents and warrants that the execution of this Agreement and the performance of his obligations hereunder will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which the Executive is a party or is bound and that the Executive is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants that would affect the performance of his obligations hereunder. The Executive will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company any proprietary information of a third party without such party's consent.

11. Definitions. Words or phrases which are initially capitalized or are within quotation marks shall have the meanings provided in this Section 11 and as provided elsewhere herein. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Affiliates" means all Persons and entities directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Company, where control may be by either management authority or equity interest. For the avoidance of doubt, Affiliates does not include any unrelated Kohlberg portfolio companies that are not directly or indirectly subsidiaries of BPS.

(b) "Confidential Information" means any and all information of the Company and its Affiliates that is not generally known at such time by others with whom they compete or do business, or with whom they plan to compete or do business and any and all information, not publicly known, which, if disclosed by the Company or its Affiliates would assist in competition against them. Confidential Information includes without limitation such information relating to (i) the development, research, testing, manufacturing, marketing and financial activities of the Company and its Affiliates, (ii) the Products, (iii) the costs, sources of supply, financial performance and strategic plans of the Company and its Affiliates, (iv) the identity and special needs of the customers of the Company and its Affiliates and (v) the people and organizations with whom the Company and its Affiliates have business relationships and the existence and nature of those relationships. Confidential Information also includes comparable information that the Company or any of its Affiliates has received belonging to others or which was received by the Company or any of its Affiliates with any understanding that it would not be disclosed. Confidential Information does not include information that is publicly known or becomes publicly known through no fault of the Executive.

(c) "Intellectual Property" means inventions, discoveries, developments, methods, processes, compositions, works, concepts and ideas (whether or not patentable or copyrightable or constituting trade secrets) conceived, made, created, developed or reduced to practice by the Executive (whether alone or with others, whether or not during normal business hours or on or off Company premises) during the Executive's employment that relate to the Business (as defined in Section 8), the Products or any prospective activity of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(d) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, an association, a partnership, an estate, a trust and any other entity or organization, other than the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(e) "Products" mean all products planned, researched, developed, tested, manufactured, sold, licensed, leased or otherwise distributed or put into use by the Company or any of its Affiliates, together with all services provided or planned by the Company or any of its Affiliates, during the Executive's employment.

12. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

13. Parachute Payments

(a) This Section 13 shall apply only in the case of a Statutory Change in Control (as defined below) and at a time when the Company or BPS has stock which is "readily tradeable on an established securities market or otherwise" (within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(5)(A)(ii)(I) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code")). In the event it is determined that any of the payments or benefits (including, without limitation, accelerated vesting of equity rights or other benefits) otherwise payable to the Executive under this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement with the Company or any Affiliate (collectively, the "Payments"), including by reason of the Executive's termination of employment in connection with a Change of Control or other event that constitutes a change in ownership or control of the Company as defined in Code Section 280G (a "Statutory Change in Control") would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Code Section 4999 (the "Excise Tax"), then such Payments shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent necessary so that the aggregate Payments received by the Executive will not be subject to the Excise Tax, but only if by reason of such reduction, the net after tax benefit to the Executive exceeds the net after tax benefit to the Executive without any such reduction. "Net after tax benefit" for purposes of this Section 13 shall mean the sum of (i) the Payments to be made less (ii) the amount of federal income and employment taxes payable with respect to such Payments, calculated at the maximum marginal income tax rate for the year of payment (based upon the rate in effect for such year as set forth in the Code at the time of termination of the Executive's employment) and less (iii) the amount of Excise Taxes imposed with respect to such Payments.

(b) If a reduction in the Payments is necessary, reduction shall occur in the following order: first, a reduction of cash payments not attributable to equity awards which vest on an accelerated basis; second, the cancellation of accelerated vesting of stock awards; third, the reduction of employee benefits and fourth a reduction in any other "parachute payments" (as defined in Code Section 280G). If acceleration of vesting of stock award compensation is to be reduced, such acceleration of vesting shall be cancelled in the reverse order of the date of grant of the Executive's stock awards unless the Executive elects in writing a different order for cancellation. The determinations with respect to this Section 13 shall be made by the Company's regular outside accountants, and the Company shall pay the fees and expenses of such accountants.

(c) While it is the intention of the Company and the Executive to reduce the amounts payable or distributable to the Executive hereunder only if the aggregate net after tax benefits to the Executive would thereby be increased, as a result of the uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of an initial determination hereunder, it is possible that amounts will have been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement which should not have been so paid or distributed ("Overpayment") or that additional amounts which will have not been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement could have been so paid or distributed ("Underpayment"), in each case, consistent with the calculations hereunder. In the event that the Company's accountants, based upon the assertion of a deficiency by the Internal Revenue Service against either the Company or the Executive which the accountants believe has a high probability of success, determine that an Overpayment has been made, then the Executive shall repay any such Overpayment to the Company within ten business days of hisr receipt of notice of such Overpayment; provided, however, that no amount shall be payable by the Executive to the Company if and to the extent such deemed payment would not either reduce the amount on which the Executive is subject to tax under Section 1 and Section 4999 of the Code or generate a refund of such taxes. In the event that the accountants, based upon controlling precedent or substantial authority, determine that an Underpayment has occurred, any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive; provided, that any such Underpayment shall constitute a payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-2(b)(2)) separate and apart from the Payments; and provided, further that any such Underpayment shall be deemed a disputed payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-3(g)) and shall be made no later than the end of the first taxable year of the Company in which the accounting firm determines pursuant to this Section 13(c) that such Underpayment is due.

14. Assignment. The Executive may not make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein. The Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of the Executive in the event that the Company shall hereafter affect a reorganization, or consolidate with, or merge into, any other Person or transfer all or substantially all of its properties, stock, or assets to any other Person. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and the Executive, their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

15. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

16. Waiver. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

17. Notices. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed to the Executive at his last known address on the books of the Company or, in the case of the Company, at its principal place of business, attention of the Chief Executive Officer, or to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

18. Entire Agreement/Effective Date. This Agreement shall be effective only upon the Effective Date, and upon the Effective Date shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede and terminate all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Executive’s employment with the Company, BPS and their respective Affiliates.

19. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Executive and by an expressly authorized representative of the Company.

20. Section 409A.

(a) This Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 409A") with respect to amounts, if any, subject thereto and shall be interpreted and construed and shall be performed by the parties consistent with such intent. If either party notifies the other in writing that one or more or the provisions of this Agreement contravenes any Treasury Regulations or guidance promulgated under Section 409A or causes any amounts to be subject to interest, additional tax or penalties under Section 409A, the parties shall agree to negotiate in good faith to make amendments to this Agreement as the parties mutually agree, reasonably and in good faith are necessary or desirable, to (i) maintain to the maximum extent reasonably practicable the original intent of the applicable provisions without violating the provisions of Section 409A or increasing the costs to the Company of providing the applicable benefit or payment and (ii) to the extent possible, to avoid the imposition of any interest, additional tax or other penalties under Section 409A upon the parties.

(b) To the extent the Executive would otherwise be entitled to any payment or benefit under this Agreement, or any plan or arrangement of the Company or its Affiliates, that constitutes a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A and that if paid during the six (6) months beginning on the date of termination of the Executive's employment would be subject to the Section 409A additional tax because the Executive is a "specified employee" (within the meaning of Section 409A and as determined by the Company), the payment or benefit will be paid or provided to the Executive on the first day following the six (6) month anniversary of the Executive's termination of employment or, if earlier, the Executive's date of death.

(c) Any payment or benefit due upon a termination of the Executive's employment that represents a "deferral of compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A shall be paid or provided to the Executive only upon a "separation from service" as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(h). Each payment made under this Agreement shall be deemed to be a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A. Amounts payable under this Agreement shall be deemed not to be a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A to the extent provided in the exceptions in Treasury Regulation §§ 1.409A-1(b)(4) ("short-term deferrals") and (b)(9) ("separation pay plans," including the exception under subparagraph (iii)) and other applicable provisions of Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1 through A-6. To the extent an Annual Bonus is payable under any provision of this Agreement, it shall be paid in the taxable year of the Company following the taxable year with respect to which such Annual Bonus relates, and not later than the 15th day of the third month of such taxable year; provided, that it shall not be a breach of this Agreement if payment is made later in such year to the extent financial results are not available by such date so long as payment is made no later than December 31 of such year.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Agreement, any payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise that is exempt from Section 409A pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(v)(A) or (C) (relating to certain reimbursements and in-kind benefits) shall be paid or provided to the Executive only to the extent that the expenses are not incurred, or the benefits are not provided, beyond the last day of the second calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs; and provided further that such expenses are reimbursed no later than the last day of the third calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs. To the extent any expense reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit is determined to be subject to Section 409A (and not exempt pursuant to the prior sentence or otherwise), the amount of any such expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the provision of any in-kind benefit, in one calendar year shall not affect provision of in-kind benefits or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other calendar year (except for any life-time or other aggregate limitation applicable to medical expenses), and in no event shall any expenses be reimbursed after the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive incurred such expenses, and in no event shall any right to reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit. Any reimbursement of tax preparer fees and expenses incurred due to a tax audit addressing the existence or amount of a tax liability shall be made by the end of the Executive's taxable year following the Executive's taxable year in which the taxes that are subject of the audit are remitted to the taxing authority or, if as a result of such audit no taxes are remitted, by the end of the Executive's taxable year in which the audit is completed.

21. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

22. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

23. Governing Law. This is a New Hampshire contract and shall be construed and enforced under and be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of New Hampshire, without regard to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

24. Arbitration. Except as expressly set forth in this Section, in the event any dispute should arise between the parties with respect to any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and/or the Executive's employment with the Company, the parties agree that any and all controversies, claims or disputes between them, including but not limited to any complaint, charge or cause of action arising under federal, state or local laws pertaining to employment, including the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (the "ADEA," a law which prohibits discrimination on the basis of age), the National Labor Relations Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, all as amended, and all other federal, state and local laws and regulations relating to employment, compensation or related benefits, shall be submitted to final and binding arbitration, to be held in Boston, Massachusetts and administered by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). Any arbitration shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter 542 of the New Hampshire Revised Statutes and conducted pursuant to AAA's Employment Arbitration Rules (the "Arbitration Rules"). Issues of arbitrability shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1-16, and not state law.

The arbitration shall be conducted before a single neutral arbitrator appointed in accordance with the Arbitration Rules. The arbitrator may award any form of remedy or relief that would otherwise be available in court (including equitable relief such as injunctions, temporary restraining orders, etc.), consistent with applicable law. Any award pursuant to said arbitration shall be accompanied by a detailed written opinion of the arbitrator setting forth the reason for the award.

The Executive knows that options other than arbitration, such as state and federal administrative and judicial remedies, are available to resolve any discrimination claim and, despite such knowledge, the Executive agrees to arbitrate all claims pursuant to this Section. The Executive understands that by signing this Agreement, he is waiving, and will forever be precluded from asserting, his right to utilize statutory administrative procedures and to seek judicial remedies with respect to such claims. The parties agree not to institute any litigation or proceedings against each other in connection with this Agreement except as provided in this Section, provided, however, that either Party shall have the right to seek injunctive relief or other provisional remedies exclusively in any federal or state court of competent jurisdiction in the State of New Hampshire, and both parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts of New Hampshire for such purposes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section shall be construed to preclude the Executive from participating or cooperating in any investigation or proceeding conducted by the New Hampshire Commission for Human Rights, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or any other administrative agency. However, in the event that a charge or complaint is filed against the Company with any administrative agency or in the event of an authorized investigation, charge or lawsuit filed against the Company by any administrative agency, the Executive expressly waives and shall not accept any award or damages from such a proceeding but instead will pursue any claim for such damages in an arbitration proceeding as set forth in this Section.

25. Dollar Amounts. All monetary figures in this Agreement shall be in United States dollars.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Agreement has been executed by the Company, by its duly authorized representative, and by the Executive, as of the date first above written.

In partial consideration of the payments and benefits described in Section 4 of the Employment Agreement (the "Employment Agreement") effective as of _____, by and between [_____] (" Executive") and Bauer Hockey, Inc., a Vermont corporation (the "Company"), to which Executive agrees Executive is not entitled until and unless he executes this Release, Executive, for and on behalf of himself and his heirs and assigns, subject to the last sentence of this Section 1, hereby waives and releases any employment, compensation or benefit-related common law, statutory or other complaints, claims, charges or causes of action of any kind whatsoever, both known and unknown, in law or in equity, which Executive ever had, now has or may have against the Company and its affiliates and their respective shareholders, subsidiaries, successors, assigns, trustees, directors, officers, limited and general partners, managers, joint venturers, members, employees or agents (collectively, the "Releasees") by reason of facts or omissions which have occurred on or prior to the date that Executive signs this Release (the "Employment Claims"), including, without limitation, any complaint, charge or cause of action arising under federal, state or local laws pertaining to employment, including the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (the "ADEA," a law which prohibits discrimination on the basis of age), the National Labor Relations Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, all as amended, and all other federal, state and local laws and regulations relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. By signing this Release, Executive acknowledges that he intends to waive and release any rights known or unknown that he may have against the Releasees under these and any other laws relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive does not release, discharge or waive, and the term "Employment Claims" shall not include: (i) any claims or causes of action arising under or related to any failure by person or entity to perform or fulfill any obligation owed to Executive on or after the date hereof under the Employment Agreement or the terms of any equity award agreement, including without limitation any obligation under Section 4(d), (e) or (g) of the Employment Agreement (as applicable); or (ii) any claims or rights to indemnification that he may have under the certificate of incorporation, the by-laws or equivalent governing documents of the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates, the laws of the State of Vermont or any other state of which any subsidiary or affiliate is a domiciliary, or any indemnification agreement between Executive and the Company, or any rights to insurance coverage under any directors' and officers' personal liability insurance or fiduciary insurance policy; or (iii) any claims to vested benefits.

2. Proceedings

Executive acknowledges that he has not filed any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding, if any, against any of the Releasees before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body (each individually a "Proceeding"). Executive represents that he is not aware of any basis on which such a Proceeding could reasonably be instituted. Executive (i) acknowledges that he will not initiate or cause to be initiated on his behalf any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims and will not participate in any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, in each case, except as required by law and (ii) waives any right he may have to benefit in any manner from any relief (whether monetary or otherwise) arising out of any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, including any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "EEOC") or the New Hampshire Commission for Human Rights. Further, Executive understands that, by executing this Release, he will be limiting the availability of certain remedies that he may have against the Company and limiting also his ability to pursue certain claims against the Releasees. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in Section 1 of this Release shall prevent Executive from (i) initiating or causing to be initiated on his behalf any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding against the Company before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body challenging the validity of the waiver of his claims under the ADEA contained in Section 1 of this Release (but no other portion of such waiver) or (ii) initiating or participating in an investigation or proceeding conducted by the EEOC or any state fair employment practices agency.

3. Time to Consider

Executive acknowledges that he has been advised that he has [twenty-one (21)] [forty-five (45)] days from the date of receipt of this Release to consider all the provisions of this Release and, should he execute this release prior to [twenty-one (21)] [forty-five (45)] days from the date of receipt of this Release, he does hereby knowingly and voluntarily waive said given [twenty-one (21)] [forty-five (45)] day period. EXECUTIVE FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS READ THIS RELEASE CAREFULLY, HAS BEEN ADVISED BY THE COMPANY TO, AND HAS IN FACT, CONSULTED AN ATTORNEY, AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS THAT BY SIGNING BELOW HE IS GIVING UP CERTAIN RIGHTS WHICH HE MAY HAVE TO SUE OR ASSERT A CLAIM AGAINST ANY OF THE RELEASEES, AS DESCRIBED IN SECTION 1 OF THIS RELEASE AND THE OTHER PROVISIONS HEREOF. EXECUTIVE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS NOT BEEN FORCED OR PRESSURED IN ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER TO SIGN THIS RELEASE, AND EXECUTIVE AGREES TO ALL OF ITS TERMS VOLUNTARILY.

4. Revocation

Executive hereby acknowledges and understands that Executive shall have seven (7) days from the date of his execution of this Release to revoke this Release (including, without limitation, any and all claims arising under the ADEA) and that neither the Company nor any other person is obligated to provide any benefits to Executive pursuant to Section 4 of the Employment Agreement until eight (8) days have passed since Executive's signing of this Release without Executive having revoked this Release, in which event the Company immediately shall arrange and/or pay for any such benefits otherwise attributable to said eight-(8) day period, consistent with the terms of the Employment Agreement. If Executive fails to execute this Release within [twenty-one (21)] [forty-five (45)] days from the date of receipt of this Release or he revokes this Release within seven (7) days of his execution of this Release, Executive will be deemed not to have accepted the terms of this Release and will not be due any consideration referenced in the Employment Agreement dependent upon his execution of this Release, and no action will be required of the Company under this Release, including without limitation any release by the Company of claims against the Executive. The Executive's failure to execute this release within [twenty-one (21)] [forty-five (45)] days from the date of receipt of this Release, or his revocation of this Release within seven (7) days of his execution of this Release, will not relieve him of any obligations set forth in the Employment Agreement.

5. No Admission

This Release does not constitute an admission of liability or wrongdoing of any kind by Executive or the Company.

6. General Provisions

A failure of any of the Releasees to insist on strict compliance with any provision of this Release shall not be deemed a waiver of such provision or any other provision hereof. If any provision of this Release is determined to be so broad as to be unenforceable, such provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable, and in the event that any provision is determined to be entirely unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed severable, such that all other provisions of this Release shall remain valid and binding upon Executive and the Releasees.

7. Governing Law

The validity, interpretations, construction and performance of this Release shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Hampshire without giving effect to conflict of laws principles.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Executive has hereunto set Executive's hand as of the day and year set forth opposite his signature below.

AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Bauer Hockey, Inc., a Vermont corporation (the "Company"), and Michael J. Wall (the "Executive"), effective as of the closing date of the initial public offering of Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. (the "Effective Date").

WHEREAS, the Executive is presently employed as the Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary of the Company; and

WHEREAS, the Company desires to continue to employ the Executive, and the Executive desires to continue to provide services to the Company, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Term. The term of the Executive's employment hereunder (the "Term") shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue until terminated in accordance with Section 4 of this Agreement.

2. Title and Duties.

(a) During the Term, the Executive shall serve the Company as its Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary or in such other position as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company (the "CEO") may designate from time to time, and shall also serve in similar positions with any Company subsidiary or Affiliate (as hereinafter defined) if requested by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") or the CEO. In addition, during the Term to the extent such office (or comparable office) is maintained by any entity which, directly or indirectly, owns all of the outstanding common stock of the Company (each, a "Parent"), the Executive shall also serve in such same (or comparable) executive position with each Parent, without additional compensation hereunder.

(b) During the Term, the Executive shall be employed by the Company on a full-time basis and shall perform such duties and responsibilities on behalf of the Company consistent with his positions with the Company and its Affiliates and as may be designated from time to time by the CEO.

(c) During the Term, the Executive shall devote his full business time and his best efforts, business judgment, skill and knowledge exclusively to the advancement of the business and interests of the Company and its Affiliates and to the discharge of his duties and responsibilities hereunder. The Executive shall not engage in any other business activity or serve in any industry, trade, professional, governmental or academic position during the term of this Agreement, except as may be expressly approved in advance by the CEO in writing.

3. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Executive during the Term and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement:

(a) Base Salary. During the Term, the Company shall pay the Executive a base salary (the "Base Salary") at the rate of $249,100 per annum, payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company for its executives and subject to increase (but not decrease) pursuant to Section 13 and otherwise from time to time by the Board, in its discretion. The Board will review the Executive's rate of Base Salary each year.

(b) Annual Bonus Compensation. For each Company fiscal year during the Term, the Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual bonus under the Company's annual bonus plan for executives (the "Annual Bonus Plan") based on the Company's and the Executive's achievement of specified performance targets for each such fiscal year. The Executive's target bonus (the "Target Bonus") shall equal 40% of the Base Salary payable to him for the applicable fiscal year. The performance targets for each fiscal year and the applicable percentage of the Target Bonus payable at specified performance thresholds each year will be set by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee") in consultation with the Executive, and the Compensation Committee will determine the actual amount of annual bonus, if any, payable to the Executive hereunder in accordance with the Annual Bonus Plan (the amount of bonus for any fiscal year, the "Annual Bonus"). Except as otherwise provided herein, in order to receive an Annual Bonus for any fiscal year under this Section 3(b), the Executive must be employed by the Company for the full fiscal year. For the avoidance of doubt, the Annual Bonus Plan for the fiscal year of the Company that includes the Effective Date will be that Annual Bonus Plan as in effect for the Company immediately prior to the Effective Date.

(c) Equity Based Awards. The parties acknowledge that the Executive presently holds options to acquire shares of Kohlberg Sports Group. In connection with the reorganization transactions undertaken in contemplation of the initial public offering of common shares of BPS, those options (the "Outstanding Options") will be fully vested and converted into options to acquire shares of BPS (the "Rollover Options") as of the Effective Date. The Rollover Options will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. Rollover Stock Option Plan (the "Rollover Plan") and the award agreement governing Rollover Options to be entered into between BPS and the Executive. Effective on or about the Effective Date, the Executive shall be granted additional options (the "IPO Awards") to acquire common shares of BPS under the Bauer Performance Sports Ltd. 2011 Stock Option Plan (the "2011 Plan"), and during the Term the Executive shall be eligible to receive additional awards thereunder. The terms and conditions of the IPO Awards and any other such awards shall be as set forth in the 2011 Plan and award agreements entered into between BPS and the Executive.

(d) Paid Time-Off. During the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to 4 weeks of paid time-off per annum in accordance with the Company's paid time-off policy as in effect from time to time, to be taken at such times and intervals as shall be determined by the Executive and approved by the CEO, subject to the reasonable business needs of the Company.

(e) Other Benefits. During the Term and subject to any required employee contributions, the Executive shall be entitled to participate in any and all employee benefit plans from time to time in effect for employees of the Company generally, except to the extent such plans are in a category of benefit otherwise provided to the Executive. Such participation shall be subject to (i) the terms of the applicable plan documents, (ii) generally applicable Company policies and (iii) the discretion of the Board or any administrative or other committee provided for in such plan. The Company may alter, modify, add to or delete its employee benefit plans at any time as it, in its sole judgment, determines to be appropriate, without recourse by the Executive.

(f) Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for reasonable and necessary business expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in the performance of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Board or Company policy from time to time. Such reimbursements, if any, shall be payable to the Executive promptly after the submission of such reasonable substantiation and documentation and shall be subject to Section 21 of this Agreement.

4. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. The Executive's employment hereunder and the Term may be terminated under the circumstances set forth in subsections (a) through (g) below. All payments and benefits specified in this Section 4 shall be subject to Sections 5 and 21 of this Agreement.

(a) Death. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with this Section 4, the Term shall end on the date of the Executive's death. In the event of the Executive's termination of employment by reason of his death, the Company shall pay or provide to the Executive's designated beneficiary or, if no beneficiary has been designated by the Executive, to his estate: (i) any earned, but unpaid Base Salary through the end of the month in which his death has occurred; (ii) any unpaid Annual Bonus for the fiscal year ended prior to the fiscal year of his termination of employment (the "Prior Year Bonus"); (iii) a pro-rated Annual Bonus for the fiscal year in which his termination of employment occurs, with such bonus amount determined by multiplying (A) the bonus amount that would have been payable under Section 3(b) based on performance for the entire fiscal year by (B) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in such fiscal year on which the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365 (the "Pro-Rated Bonus"); (iv) any unreimbursed business expenses and (v) any accrued and unused paid time-off. The payments referred to in clauses (i), (iv) and (v) in the immediately preceding sentence are referred to herein as the "Accrued Obligations" and shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days after the date of death. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(b) Disability.

(i) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Executive, in the event that the Executive becomes disabled during the Term through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of his material duties and responsibilities hereunder ("Disability") for a period of (x) one hundred and twenty (120) consecutive calendar days or (y) one hundred and fifty (150) total days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days. The Board may designate another employee to act in the Executive's place during any period of the Executive's disability.

(ii) If any question shall arise as to whether Disability exists, the Executive may, and at the request of the Company shall, submit to a medical examination by a physician selected by the Company with the consent of the Executive (not to be unreasonably withheld) to determine whether the Executive is so disabled and such determination shall for the purposes of this Agreement be conclusive of the issue. If such question shall arise and the Executive shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

(iii) The date of termination of employment under this Section 4(b) shall be the 10th business day following the Company's notice to the Executive of such termination (provided he has not resumed the full-time performance of his duties hereunder by such date), which date shall be the last day of the Term. In the event of such termination of employment, the Company shall pay to the Executive: (i) the Accrued Obligations; (ii) any unpaid Prior Year Bonus; and (iii) the Pro-Rated Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days after the date of termination of employment; each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Pro-Rated Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder.

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause, but in no event later than ninety (90) days following the date upon which at least two members of the Board (other than the Executive) became aware of such Cause. The following, as determined by the Board in its reasonable judgment, shall constitute "Cause" for termination:

(i) The Executive's commission of any material fraud, embezzlement, theft or dishonesty, or any deliberate misappropriation of any material amount of money or other assets or property of the Company or any of its Affiliates;

(ii) The Executive's willful failure to perform, or gross negligence in the performance of, his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates which remains uncured fifteen (15) business days after written notice of such failure specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such failure or negligence is given to the Executive by the Board;

(iii) The Executive's intentional material breach of any of the terms of this Agreement or breach of his fiduciary duties to the Company and Affiliates (except where the breach of fiduciary duties is caused by the Executive's Disability and except where such breach is exculpated under the Company's articles of incorporation) which remains uncured fifteen (15) business days after written notice of such breach, specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such breach, is given to the Executive by the Board; or

(iv) The Executive's conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, a felony.

The date of termination for Cause shall be the date specified in the notice given by the Board to the Executive. Following termination of the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder, other than for payment of (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company.

(d) By the Company without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder without Cause at any time upon notice to the Executive by the Board, effective as of the date specified in such notice. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to (i) pay the Executive the Accrued Obligations; (ii) continue to pay the Executive his Base Salary at the rate in effect on the date of termination for the period of twelve (12) months following such termination (the "Continuation Period") in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices for its executives; (iii) continue to provide medical and dental benefits during the Continuation Period (subject to any employee contribution applicable to active employees generally and the Executive's timely election of continuation coverage under COBRA); (iv) pay the Executive the Annual Bonus, if any, that would otherwise have been payable to him under Section 3(b) of this Agreement with respect to the fiscal year of termination of employment, without regard to the Executive's termination of employment; (v) pay the Executive the Prior Year Bonus; and (vi) continue to provide the Executive the Annual Bonus for the portion of the Continuation Period beginning after the fiscal year of termination of employment, based on actual performance for the full fiscal year, pro-rated as though the Executive remained employed through the last day of the Continuation Period (collectively, the payments and benefits referred to in clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) and (vi) are referred to as the "Severance Benefit"). The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(e) By the Executive for Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder for Good Reason (as hereinafter defined) at any time upon notice to the Company setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Good Reason, but in no event later than ninety (90) days following the initial existence of the condition or event giving rise to Good Reason and provided that the Company shall not have corrected the situation within thirty (30) business days after such notice of Good Reason from the Executive to the Board. The following shall constitute "Good Reason":

(i) material diminution in the nature or scope of the Executive's titles, duties, authority or reporting responsibilities, other than as is materially consistent with the Executive's assignment to another executive position in accordance with Section 2(a) hereof or as a result of the diminution of the business of the Company; provided, however, that a change in reporting relationships resulting from the direct or indirect control of the Company (or a successor corporation) by another entity or any sale or transfer of equity, property or other assets of the Company shall not constitute Good Reason;

(ii) material failure of the Company to provide the Executive the Base Salary, Annual Bonus and benefits in accordance with the terms of Section 3 hereof;

(iii) any material diminution in Base Salary or Target Bonus; or

(iv) a change in the geographic location of the Executive's principal place of performance of his services hereunder that increases his one-way commute from his primary residence at the time of such change by at least fifty (50) miles.

In the event of termination in accordance with this Section 4(e), the Company shall have no further obligation or liability to the Executive, other than to pay or provide the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Severance Benefit. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. Each of the Prior Year Bonus and the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(f) By the Executive Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder at any time without Good Reason upon forty-five (45) days' notice to the Board. In the event of termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Board may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Board so elects, the Company will pay the Executive his Base Salary for the notice period (or for any remaining portion of the period). In the event of termination of employment pursuant to this Section 4(f), the Company shall pay the Executive (i) the Accrued Obligations and (ii) the Prior Year Bonus. The Accrued Obligations shall be payable in a lump-sum within thirty (30) days following the date of the termination of employment. The Prior Year Bonus, if any, shall be payable when annual bonuses for the applicable fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. The Executive's equity interests shall be governed by the terms of the applicable BPS equity plan and the Executive's equity agreements.

(g) Termination of Employment in Connection with a Change of Control. If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or the Executive terminates his employment for Good Reason, in each case, nine months prior to, or within twelve (12) months following, the consummation of a "Change of Control" (as defined in the 2011 Plan), the Executive shall be entitled to the payments and benefits set forth in Section 4(d) or (e), as applicable; provided that the Continuation Period as used in this Agreement shall be twenty-four (24) months.

5. Release; Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 5 shall apply to a termination pursuant to Section 4 or otherwise.

(a) A condition precedent to the Company's obligations to pay the Severance Benefit and other payments under each of Sections 4(d), (e), (f) and (g) shall be the Executive's execution and delivery of a timely and effective Release of Claims, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Release of Claims") within fifty-five (55) days following the Executive's termination of employment (the "Release Condition"). (For the avoidance of doubt, the Release of Claims must be executed and delivered to the Company (and not subsequently be revoked) not later than forty-seven (47) days following the termination of employment in order to comply with the preceding sentence.) Payments and benefits of amounts which do not constitute nonqualified deferred compensation and are not subject to Section 409A (as defined below) shall commence five (5) days after the Release Condition is satisfied and payments and benefits which are subject to Section 409A shall commence on the 60th day after termination of employment (subject to further delay, if required, pursuant to Section 21 below) provided that the Release Condition is satisfied. If the Executive fails to execute and deliver the Release of Claims, or if he revokes the Release of Claims as provided therein, except for the Accrued Obligations, he shall not receive the Severance Benefit or any other payment to which he may otherwise be entitled under this Agreement.

(b) Upon termination of the Executive's employment with the Company, unless otherwise specifically provided herein, his rights to benefits and payments under any retirement, health or welfare employee benefits plan, under BPS equity plans (and any equity award agreements pursuant to which awards were granted thereunder) and under any other benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate shall be determined in accordance with the terms and provisions of such plans; provided, however, that the Executive shall not be entitled to severance or termination pay under such benefit plan of the Company or any Affiliate in connection with termination of his employment.

(c) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination if so provided herein or if necessary or desirable fully to accomplish the purposes of such provision, including without limitation the obligations of the Executive under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The obligation of the Company to pay the Severance Benefit is expressly conditioned upon the Executive's continued full performance of obligations under Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive recognizes that, except as expressly provided herein, no compensation is earned after termination of employment.

6. Confidential Information.

(a) The Executive acknowledges that the Company and its Affiliates continually develop Confidential Information, that the Executive may develop Confidential Information for the Company or its Affiliates and that the Executive may learn of Confidential Information during the course of employment. The Executive will comply with the policies and procedures of the Company and its Affiliates for protecting Confidential Information and shall never disclose to any Person, or use for his own benefit or gain, any Confidential Information obtained by the Executive incident to his employment or other association with the Company or any of its Affiliates, in each case except as required by applicable law, governmental or judicial process or procedure, or for the proper performance of his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates or as may be reasonably necessary for the Executive to enforce his rights hereunder or under any of his equity agreements under a BPS equity plan. The Executive understands that this restriction shall continue to apply after his employment terminates, regardless of the reason for such termination, but only for as long as the Confidential Information remains confidential (other than where the Executive, in violation of the Agreement, discloses or publicizes such information).

(b) All documents, records, tapes and other media of every kind and description relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company or its Affiliates and any copies, in whole or in part, thereof (the "Documents"), whether or not prepared by the Executive, shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its Affiliates. The Executive shall safeguard all Documents and shall surrender to the Company at the time his employment terminates, or at such earlier time or times as the Board or its designee may specify, all Documents then in the Executive's possession or control; provided, however, that the Executive may keep such documents that represent agreements between himself and the Company and such documents as are necessary to allow the Executive to understand, exercise and protect his rights and obligations under any agreements between himself and the Company.

7. Assignment of Rights to Intellectual Property . The Executive shall promptly and fully disclose all Intellectual Property to the Company. The Executive hereby assigns and agrees to assign to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) the Executive's full right, title and interest in and to all Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to execute any and all applications for domestic and foreign patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights and to do such other acts (including without limitation the execution and delivery of instruments of further assurance or confirmation) requested by the Company to assign the Intellectual Property to the Company and to permit the Company to enforce any patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights to the Intellectual Property. The Executive will not charge the Company for time spent in complying with these obligations. All copyrightable works that the Executive creates while employed by the Company hereunder shall be considered "work made for hire".

8. Restricted Activities. In exchange for good and valuable consideration including, without limitation, the grant of stock options hereunder, the Executive agrees that some restrictions on his activities during and after his employment are necessary to protect the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates.

(a) While the Executive is employed by the Company, and through the last day of the twelve (12) month period following his termination of employment or, if later, the last day of the Continuation Period (whichever applies, the "Non-Competition Period"), the Executive shall not, whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise, compete in any material manner with the Company or any of its Affiliates in the Business anywhere in the United States, Canada or Europe; provided that the Executive shall be permitted to own, as a passive investor, not more than 5% of the publicly-traded securities of any Person; provided, further, that the foregoing prohibition shall not apply to any Person which competes with the Company in the Business in the United States, Canada or Europe through a division, subsidiary or other business unit of such Person so long as the Executive does not himself so compete and does not work or consult for, or otherwise give advice to, any division, subsidiary or business unit that does so compete. Specifically, but without limiting the foregoing, the Executive agrees not to engage in any manner in any activity that is competitive in any material manner with the Business. Restricted activity includes without limitation accepting employment or a consulting position with any Person who is, or at any time within twelve (12) months prior to termination of the Executive's employment has been, a customer of the Company or any of its Affiliates. For the purposes of this Agreement, the "Business" shall mean the designing, developing, manufacturing, producing, marketing, distributing, selling and supporting of (i) roller, ice and in-line skates, (ii) hockey equipment and apparel, namely roller, ice, in-line and street hockey equipment and apparel, and (iii) any other line of business in which the Company or any of its "Affiliates" (shall be limited to Affiliates from whom the Executive has provided legal services during the term hereof) is engaged, or has taken significant steps in connection with the preparation of engaging, in any material way, as of the Executive's termination of employment.

(b) The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period, the Executive will not hire or attempt to hire any Person who is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) an employee of the Company or any of its Affiliates, assist in such hiring by any Person, encourage any such employee to terminate his or her relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates, or solicit or encourage any Person which is (or within the six months prior to such date has been) a customer or vendor of the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate its relationship with them, or, in the case of a customer, to conduct with any Person any business or activity which such customer conducts or could conduct with the Company or any of its Affiliates. The Executive further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period he shall not make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Company or its Affiliates including, without limitation, their products, services, management, shareholders, employees and customers. The Company further agrees that during the Non-Competition Period it will instruct its employees not to make false, misleading or disparaging statements about the Executive.

9. Enforcement of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges that he has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed upon him pursuant to Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof. The Executive agrees without reservation that each of the restraints contained herein is necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates; that each and every one of those restraints is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area; and that these restraints, individually or in the aggregate, will not prevent him from obtaining other suitable employment during the period in which the Executive is bound by these restraints. The Executive further acknowledges that, were he to breach any of the covenants contained in Sections 6, 7 or 8 hereof, the damage to the Company would be irreparable. The Executive therefore agrees that the Company, in addition to any other remedies available to it, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Executive of any of said covenants, without having to post bond. The parties agree that the provisions of Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof shall be interpreted so as to comply with any applicable rules of professional conduct (the "Rules"), including ABA Model Rule 5.6 or its state counterpart and further agree further agree that, in the event that any provision of Section 6, 7 or 8 hereof shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being in violation of the Rules, being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities, such provision shall be deemed to be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law.

10. Conflicting Agreements. The Executive hereby represents and warrants that the execution of this Agreement and the performance of his obligations hereunder will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which the Executive is a party or is bound and that the Executive is not now subject to any covenants against competition or similar covenants that would affect the performance of his obligations hereunder. The Executive will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company any proprietary information of a third party without such party's consent.

11. Definitions. Words or phrases which are initially capitalized or are within quotation marks shall have the meanings provided in this Section 11 and as provided elsewhere herein. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Affiliates" means all Persons and entities directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Company, where control may be by either management authority or equity interest. For the avoidance of doubt, Affiliates does not include any unrelated Kohlberg portfolio companies that are not directly or indirectly subsidiaries of BPS.

(b) "Confidential Information" means any and all information of the Company and its Affiliates that is not generally known at such time by others with whom they compete or do business, or with whom they plan to compete or do business and any and all information, not publicly known, which, if disclosed by the Company or its Affiliates would assist in competition against them. Confidential Information includes without limitation such information relating to (i) the development, research, testing, manufacturing, marketing and financial activities of the Company and its Affiliates, (ii) the Products, (iii) the costs, sources of supply, financial performance and strategic plans of the Company and its Affiliates, (iv) the identity and special needs of the customers of the Company and its Affiliates and (v) the people and organizations with whom the Company and its Affiliates have business relationships and the existence and nature of those relationships. Confidential Information also includes comparable information that the Company or any of its Affiliates has received belonging to others or which was received by the Company or any of its Affiliates with any understanding that it would not be disclosed. Confidential Information does not include information that is publicly known or becomes publicly known through no fault of the Executive.

(c) "Intellectual Property" means inventions, discoveries, developments, methods, processes, compositions, works, concepts and ideas (whether or not patentable or copyrightable or constituting trade secrets) conceived, made, created, developed or reduced to practice by the Executive (whether alone or with others, whether or not during normal business hours or on or off Company premises) during the Executive's employment that relate to the Business (as defined in Section 8), the Products or any prospective activity of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(d) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, an association, a partnership, an estate, a trust and any other entity or organization, other than the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(e) "Products" mean all products planned, researched, developed, tested, manufactured, sold, licensed, leased or otherwise distributed or put into use by the Company or any of its Affiliates, together with all services provided or planned by the Company or any of its Affiliates, during the Executive's employment.

12. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

13. Increase in Base Salary upon Certain Relocations . In the event the Company relocates its corporate headquarters outside the State of New Hampshire, the rate of Base Salary payable to the Executive shall be subject to a one-time increase in an amount equal to the sum of (i) the product of (A) the rate of Base Salary in effect immediately prior to such relocation multiplied by (B) the additional income taxes payable by the Executive (exclusive of any taxes imposed by Section 409A of the Code) on the amount determined in clause (A), calculated at the highest effective marginal combined rate of U.S. state and local personal income tax then in effect in the city and state to which the Company relocates, and (ii) an additional amount (intended to "gross-up" the Executive) equal to the additional federal, state and local income taxes (measured on a combined basis) payable by the Executive under U.S. law in respect of the amount payable to him under Section 13(i); provided, however, that the Executive will only be entitled to the Base Salary increase contemplated in this Section 13 if, as of immediately prior to such relocation of the corporate headquarters, the Executive's primary residence for purposes of U.S. federal taxes had been the State of New Hampshire for a continuous period of longer than twelve (12) months.

14. Parachute Payments

(a) This Section 14 shall apply only in the case of a Statutory Change in Control (as defined below) occurring after the initial public offering of shares of BPS, and at a time when the Company or BPS has stock which is "readily tradable on an established securities market or otherwise" (within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(5)(A)(ii)(I) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code")). In the event it is determined that any of the payments or benefits (including, without limitation, accelerated vesting of equity rights or other benefits) otherwise payable to the Executive under this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement with the Company or any Affiliate (collectively, the "Payments"), including by reason of the Executive's termination of employment in connection with a Change of Control or other event that constitutes a change in ownership or control of the Company as defined in Code Section 280G (a "Statutory Change in Control") would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Code Section 4999 (the "Excise Tax"), then such Payments shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent necessary so that the aggregate Payments received by the Executive will not be subject to the Excise Tax, but only if by reason of such reduction, the net after tax benefit to the Executive exceeds the net after tax benefit to the Executive without any such reduction. "Net after tax benefit" for purposes of this Section 14 shall mean the sum of (i) the Payments to be made less (ii) the amount of federal income and employment taxes payable with respect to such Payments, calculated at the maximum marginal income tax rate for the year of payment (based upon the rate in effect for such year as set forth in the Code at the time of termination of the Executive's employment) and less (iii) the amount of Excise Taxes imposed with respect to such Payments.

(b) If a reduction in the Payments is necessary, reduction shall occur in the following order: first, a reduction of cash payments not attributable to equity awards which vest on an accelerated basis; second, the cancellation of accelerated vesting of stock awards; third, the reduction of employee benefits and fourth a reduction in any other "parachute payments" (as defined in Code Section 280G). If acceleration of vesting of stock award compensation is to be reduced, such acceleration of vesting shall be cancelled in the reverse order of the date of grant of the Executive's stock awards unless the Executive elects in writing a different order for cancellation. The determinations with respect to this Section 14 shall be made by the Company's regular outside accountants, and the Company shall pay the fees and expenses of such accountants.

(c) While it is the intention of the Company and the Executive to reduce the amounts payable or distributable to the Executive hereunder only if the aggregate net after tax benefits to the Executive would thereby be increased, as a result of the uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of an initial determination hereunder, it is possible that amounts will have been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement which should not have been so paid or distributed ("Overpayment") or that additional amounts which will have not been paid or distributed by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive pursuant to this Agreement could have been so paid or distributed ("Underpayment"), in each case, consistent with the calculations hereunder. In the event that the Company's accountants, based upon the assertion of a deficiency by the Internal Revenue Service against either the Company or the Executive which the accountants believe has a high probability of success, determine that an Overpayment has been made, then the Executive shall repay any such Overpayment to the Company within ten business days of his receipt of notice of such Overpayment; provided, however, that no amount shall be payable by the Executive to the Company if and to the extent such deemed payment would not either reduce the amount on which the Executive is subject to tax under Section 1 and Section 4999 of the Code or generate a refund of such taxes. In the event that the accountants, based upon controlling precedent or substantial authority, determine that an Underpayment has occurred, any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive; provided, that any such Underpayment shall constitute a payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-2(b)(2)) separate and apart from the Payments; and provided, further that any such Underpayment shall be deemed a disputed payment (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-3(g)) and shall be made no later than the end of the first taxable year of the Company in which the accounting firm determines pursuant to this Section 14(c) that such Underpayment is due.

15. Assignment. The Executive may not make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein. The Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of the Executive in the event that the Company shall hereafter affect a reorganization, or consolidate with, or merge into, any other Person or transfer all or substantially all of its properties, stock, or assets to any other Person. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and the Executive, their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

16. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

17. Waiver. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

18. Notices. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed to the Executive at his last known address on the books of the Company or, in the case of the Company, at its principal place of business, attention of the CEO, or to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

19. Entire Agreement/Effective Date. This Agreement shall be effective only upon the Effective Date, and upon the Effective Date shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede and terminate all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment with the Company, BPS and their respective Affiliates, including, without limitation, the Employment Agreement entered into between NIKE Bauer Hockey U.S.A., Inc., and the Executive effective as of June 23, 2008 (the "Prior Agreement"). The Prior Agreement shall govern the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment with the Company and any termination thereof unless and until the Effective Date shall occur.

20. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Executive and by an expressly authorized representative of the Company.

(a) This Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 409A") with respect to amounts, if any, subject thereto and shall be interpreted and construed and shall be performed by the parties consistent with such intent. If either party notifies the other in writing that one or more or the provisions of this Agreement contravenes any Treasury Regulations or guidance promulgated under Section 409A or causes any amounts to be subject to interest, additional tax or penalties under Section 409A, the parties shall agree to negotiate in good faith to make amendments to this Agreement as the parties mutually agree, reasonably and in good faith are necessary or desirable, to (i) maintain to the maximum extent reasonably practicable the original intent of the applicable provisions without violating the provisions of Section 409A or increasing the costs to the Company of providing the applicable benefit or payment and (ii) to the extent possible, to avoid the imposition of any interest, additional tax or other penalties under Section 409A upon the parties.

(b) To the extent the Executive would otherwise be entitled to any payment or benefit under this Agreement, or any plan or arrangement of the Company or its Affiliates, that constitutes a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A and that if paid during the six (6) months beginning on the date of termination of the Executive's employment would be subject to the Section 409A additional tax because the Executive is a "specified employee" (within the meaning of Section 409A and as determined by the Company), the payment or benefit will be paid or provided to the Executive on the first day following the six (6) month anniversary of the Executive's termination of employment or, if earlier, the Executive's date of death.

(c) Any payment or benefit due upon a termination of the Executive's employment that represents a "deferral of compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A shall be paid or provided to the Executive only upon a "separation from service" as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(h). Each payment made under this Agreement shall be deemed to be a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A. Amounts payable under this Agreement shall be deemed not to be a "deferral of compensation" subject to Section 409A to the extent provided in the exceptions in Treasury Regulation §§ 1.409A-1(b)(4) ("short-term deferrals") and (b)(9) ("separation pay plans," including the exception under subparagraph (iii)) and other applicable provisions of Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1 through A-6. To the extent an annual bonus is payable under any provision of this Agreement, it shall be paid in the taxable year of the Company following the taxable year with respect to which the bonus relates, and not later than the 15th day of the third month of such taxable year; provided, that it shall not be a breach of this Agreement if payment is made later in such year to the extent financial results are not available by such date so long as payment is made no later than December 31 of such year.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Agreement, any payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise that is exempt from Section 409A pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(v)(A) or (C) (relating to certain reimbursements and in-kind benefits) shall be paid or provided to the Executive only to the extent that the expenses are not incurred, or the benefits are not provided, beyond the last day of the second calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs; and provided further that such expenses are reimbursed no later than the last day of the third calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs. To the extent any expense reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit is determined to be subject to Section 409A (and not exempt pursuant to the prior sentence or otherwise), the amount of any such expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the provision of any in-kind benefit (including tax return preparation fees and expenses described in Section 22(e)), in one calendar year shall not affect provision of in-kind benefits or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other calendar year (except for any life-time or other aggregate limitation applicable to medical expenses), and in no event shall any expenses be reimbursed after the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive incurred such expenses, and in no event shall any right to reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit. Any reimbursement of tax preparer fees and expenses incurred due to a tax audit addressing the existence or amount of a tax liability shall be made by the end of the Executive's taxable year following the Executive's taxable year in which the taxes that are subject of the audit are remitted to the taxing authority or, if as a result of such audit no taxes are remitted, by the end of the Executive's taxable year in which the audit is completed.

22. Tax Equalization

(a) During the Term of this Agreement and thereafter as provided in this Section 22, and provided that at all such times the Executive is a U.S. resident and not a Canadian resident for Canadian. federal income tax purposes, the Company will make an additional payment (the "Tax Equalization Payment") to the Executive in accordance with this Section 22, so that that the Executive does not materially suffer a loss by reason of any income and employment taxes that may be imposed on that portion, if any, of his Compensation (as defined below) which is taxable to the Executive under Canadian law as income from an office or employment performed by the Executive in Canada.

(b) The amount of any Tax Equalization Payment payable under this Section with respect to a taxable year of the Executive will equal the amount (the "Excess Tax"), if any, by which the Executive's combined aggregate U.S. federal, national, state and local actual income and employment tax liability , exclusive of any taxes under Section 409A or Section 4999 of the Code, and Canadian federal and provincial actual income and employment tax liability in respect of such year (the "Actual Tax Liability") on the Executive's Base Salary, Annual Bonus and the amount of income recognized upon the Executive's exercise of the Rollover Options, the IPO Awards or other stock options granted under the 2011 Plan (collectively, the "BPS Options", and together with Base Salary and Annual Bonus, the "Compensation") exceeds the amount of aggregate U.S. federal, state and local income and employment tax liability, exclusive of any taxes under Section 409A or Section 4999 of the Code, that would have been payable by the Executive for such year with respect to the Compensation if the Executive had performed all services hereunder for the Company and BPS and their Affiliates entirely within the United States in the state in which the Company's corporate headquarters are located at all relevant times such that all Compensation were treated entirely as U.S. source income by both the U.S. and Canada, and as if that were the only income earned by the Executive (the "Hypothetical Tax Liability"), plus an additional payment to gross-up the Executive for his additional actual income and employment tax liability (on a combined federal, national, state, provincial and local basis) on the amount of any such Excess Tax. The Company shall make all determinations of the amount of Compensation, Hypothetical Tax Liability, Excess Tax, Actual Tax Liability and Tax Equalization Payment in accordance with this Section 22.

(c) Notwithstanding this Section 22 or any other provision of this Agreement, the Executive shall pay and be solely responsible for payment of all taxes imposed under U.S., Canadian and any other federal, national, provincial, state and local law on the Compensation and all other payments or benefits paid or provided to the Executive by the Company or any of its Affiliates during the Term of this Agreement and thereafter.

(d) The Tax Equalization Payment payable in respect of a taxable year of the Executive shall be paid during the following taxable year of the Executive.

(e) The Company shall pay the Executive's designated tax return preparer selected by the Executive and reasonably acceptable to the Company directly for the preparation of any Canadian tax returns required to be filed with respect to the Compensation for all tax periods of the Executive beginning or ending during the Term of this Agreement and through and including the date of exercise of any BPS Options, including all amendments to such returns, as well as costs related to audits of such returns and related amendments. The Executive will be solely responsible for the payment of any tax return preparer fees and expenses for the preparation of his federal, state and local U.S. tax returns. The Company and the Executive will provide each other access to and copies of any books, records and documents in the possession of the Company or the Executive, as the case may be, reasonably requested by the other in connection with this Section 22, and otherwise cooperate with each other and their respective tax return preparers in connection with the determinations and all matters contemplated by this Section 22.

(f) All income tax returns to be filed by the Executive will be prepared on a basis consistent with the determinations of the Executive's and the Company's tax return preparers and this Section 22, and the Executive agrees that the Company shall have the right to review and approve all income tax returns (and amendments) to be filed by the Executive with respect to any taxable year covered by this Section 22 before the Executive files any such return with the relevant taxing authority. If the Company objects to any item in any such tax return the Company shall promptly notify the Executive and his tax return preparer of such item and the basis for such objection. The Company and the Executive shall act in good faith to resolve any disagreement between them prior to the date on which the relevant return is required to be filed under applicable law.

(g) The Executive and the Company agree that the Tax Equalization Payments are not intended to represent additional compensation to the Executive. Any Tax Equalization Payment will not be considered as additional Base Salary hereunder or taken into account as salary for purposes of the Annual Bonus Plan or any other benefit plan of the Company except as the terms of such plan may expressly provide otherwise.

23. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

24. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

25. Governing Law. This is a New Hampshire contract and shall be construed and enforced under and be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of New Hampshire, without regard to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

26. Dollar Amounts. All monetary figures in this Agreement shall be in United States dollars.

By signing this Release, Executive acknowledges that he intends to waive and release any rights known or unknown that he may have against the Releasees under these and any other laws relating to employment, compensation or related benefits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive does not release, discharge or waive, and the term "Employment Claims" shall not include: (i) any claims or causes of action arising under or related to any failure by person or entity to perform or fulfill any obligation owed to Executive on or after the date hereof under the Employment Agreement or the terms of any equity award agreement, including without limitation any obligation under Section 4(d), (e) or (g) of the Employment Agreement (as applicable); or (ii) any claims or rights to indemnification that he may have under the certificate of incorporation, the by-laws or equivalent governing documents of the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates, the laws of the State of Vermont or any other state of which any subsidiary or affiliate is a domiciliary, or any indemnification agreement between Executive and the Company, or any rights to insurance coverage under any directors' and officers' personal liability insurance or fiduciary insurance policy; or (iii) any claims to vested benefits.

Executive (i) acknowledges that he will not initiate or cause to be initiated on his behalf any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims and will not participate in any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, in each case, except as required by law and (ii) waives any right he may have to benefit in any manner from any relief (whether monetary or otherwise) arising out of any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims, including any Proceeding regarding Employment Claims conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "EEOC"). Further, Executive understands that, by executing this Release, he will be limiting the availability of certain remedies that he may have against the Company and limiting also his ability to pursue certain claims against the Releasees. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in Section 1 of this Release shall prevent Executive from (i) initiating or causing to be initiated on his behalf any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding against the Company before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body challenging the validity of the waiver of his claims under the ADEA contained in Section 1 of this Release (but no other portion of such waiver) or (ii) initiating or participating in an investigation or proceeding conducted by the EEOC or any state fair employment practices agency.

3. Time to Consider

Executive acknowledges that he has been advised that he has twenty-one (21) days from the date of receipt of this Release to consider all the provisions of this Release and he does hereby knowingly and voluntarily waive said given twenty-one (21) day period. EXECUTIVE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS NOT BEEN FORCED OR PRESSURED IN ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER TO SIGN THIS RELEASE, AND EXECUTIVE AGREES TO ALL OF ITS TERMS VOLUNTARILY.

4. Revocation

Executive hereby acknowledges and understands that Executive shall have seven (7) days from the date of his execution of this Release to revoke this Release (including, without limitation, any and all claims arising under the ADEA) and that neither the Company nor any other person is obligated to provide any benefits to Executive pursuant to Section 4 of the Employment Agreement until eight (8) days have passed since Executive's signing of this Release without Executive having revoked this Release, in which event the Company immediately shall arrange and/or pay for any such benefits otherwise attributable to said eight-

(8) day period, consistent with the terms of the Employment Agreement. If Executive revokes this Release, Executive will be deemed not to have accepted the terms of this Release, and no action will be required of the Company under this Release, including without limitation any release by the Company of claims against the Executive.

5. No Admission

This Release does not constitute an admission of liability or wrongdoing of any kind by Executive or the Company.

6. General Provisions

A failure of any of the Releasees to insist on strict compliance with any provision of this Release shall not be deemed a waiver of such provision or any other provision hereof. If any provision of this Release is determined to be so broad as to be unenforceable, such provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable, and in the event that any provision is determined to be entirely unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed severable, such that all other provisions of this Release shall remain valid and binding upon Executive and the Releasees.

7. Governing Law

This Code provides an overview of PSG's expectations for its Representatives and is supplemented by and intended to work in conjunction with other current policies adopted by PSG and those other polices that may be adopted by PSG from time to time. You should refer to those policies for more detail in the specific context.

6.0 Certification Regarding Compliance

All directors and officers of PSG, together with any employees, consultants and contractors specified by the Board of Directors (the "Board"), shall provide, upon request, certification of compliance with this Code, confirming compliance with all laws and regulations of the jurisdictions where they carry out their duties and where PSG is conducting its business activities, as well as compliance with all PSG policies.

The Chief Executive Officer of PSG shall be responsible for ensuring that certifications are obtained from time to time, as the Chief Executive Officer determines to be necessary, for all directors, officers, specified employees, specified consultants and specified contractors and for providing written confirmation to the Board, upon the request of the Chair, that such certifications have been obtained and summarizing the results thereof.

All directors, officers, employees and, as appropriate, consultants and contractors shall participate from time to time, as the Chief Executive Officer determines to be necessary, in a training session to help ensure that they understand the terms of the Code and all corporate policies of PSG.

7.0 Standards of Good Professional Ethics

PSG intends that its good reputation shall be maintained and, accordingly, all of PSG's activities shall be carried out ethically and with honesty and integrity, and for greater certainty, in accordance with the Anti-Corruption Policy, in the expectation that these activities will become a matter of public knowledge. Anything less is unacceptable and shall be treated as a serious breach of duty.

8.0 Conflict of Interest

Representatives, in discharging their duties, shall act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of PSG. Representatives shall avoid situations involving a conflict, or potential conflict, between their personal, family or business interests, and the interests of PSG, and shall promptly disclose any such conflict, or potential conflict, to PSG.

Representatives shall perform their duties and arrange their personal business affairs in a manner that does not interfere with their independent exercise of judgment. No one working for or on behalf of PSG shall accept financial compensation of any kind, nor any special discount, loan or favor, from persons, corporations or organizations having dealings or potential dealings with PSG. See "Gifts and Entertainment" below.

A conflict of interest may not be immediately recognizable, so potential conflicts must be reported immediately. See "Reporting Violations of Law, the Code or PSG's Corporate Policies" below.

9.0 Public Reporting

As discussed in further detail in the Corporation's Corporate Disclosure Policy, full, fair, accurate and timely disclosure must be made in the reports and other documents that PSG files with, or submits to, the securities regulatory authorities in Canada and the United States and in its other public communications. Such disclosure is critical to ensure that PSG maintains its good reputation, complies with its obligations under the securities laws and meets the expectations of its shareholders.

Persons responsible for the preparation of such documents and reports and other public communications must exercise a high standard of care in accordance with the following guidelines:

- all accounting records, and the reports produced from such records, must comply with all applicable laws and regulations;
- all accounting records must fairly and accurately reflect the transactions or occurrences to which they relate;
- all accounting records must fairly and accurately reflect in reasonable detail PSG's assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses;
- accounting records must not contain any false or intentionally misleading entries;
- no transactions should be intentionally misclassified as to accounts, departments or accounting periods;
- all transactions must be supported by accurate documentation in reasonable detail and recorded in the proper account and in the proper accounting period;
- no information should be concealed from the internal auditors or the independent auditors; and
- compliance with PSG's internal control over financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures is required.

10.0 Protection and Proper Use of Assets

All Representatives shall deal with PSG's assets and resources, including all data, proprietary information (confidential or otherwise), records, material, supplies, facilities, equipment and software, and other assets owned or leased by PSG or that are otherwise in its possession, with the strictest integrity and with due regard to the interests of shareholders and all other stakeholders. PSG's assets may only be used for legitimate business purposes and must never be used for illegal purposes. PSG's assets may not to be used for personal gain or benefit. In addition, all Representatives must act in a manner to protect such assets from loss, damage, misuse, theft and waste and ensure that such assets are used only for legitimate business purposes. Any suspected incidents of fraud or theft should be immediately reported for investigation.

Proprietary information includes any information that is not generally known to the public or would be valued by, or helpful to, our competitors. Examples of proprietary information are intellectual property, business and marketing plans and employee information. The obligation to use proprietary information only for legitimate business purposes continues even after individuals leave PSG.

11.0 Confidentiality

Information is a key asset of PSG. It is PSG's policy to ensure that its proprietary and confidential information, including proprietary and confidential information that has been entrusted to PSG by others, is adequately safeguarded, as set out in its Corporate Disclosure Policy. All confidential information, including information about PSG's business, assets, opportunities, suppliers and competitors should be properly protected from advertent or inadvertent disclosure. The obligation to preserve confidential information continues even after Representatives leave PSG.

Confidential information includes all non-public information (including, for example, "inside information" or information that suppliers and customers have entrusted to PSG) that may be of use to competitors, or may otherwise be harmful to PSG or its key stakeholders, if disclosed. Financial information is of special sensitivity and should under all circumstances be considered confidential, except where its disclosure is approved by PSG or when the information has already been publicly disseminated in a lawful manner.

For greater certainty, Representatives shall at all times act in a manner consistent with the high standards of ethical conduct set forth in the Anti-Corruption Policy.

12.0 Fair Dealing

All business dealings undertaken on behalf of PSG, including with its security holders, customers, suppliers, competitors, employees, consultants and contractors should be conducted in a manner that preserves PSG's integrity and reputation and complies with the Anti-Corruption Policy. It is PSG's policy, as outlined in the Anti-Corruption Policy, to seek to avoid bribery, corruption or unethical business practices of any kind in all dealings with its security holders, customers, suppliers, competitors, employees, consultants and contractors.

13.0 Good Ambassadorship

All Representatives are ambassadors of PSG in both their business and personal lives. While PSG supports the freedom of the individual to pursue life in his or her own way outside of business hours, Representatives are encouraged to act in a manner which upholds their good reputation and that of PSG.

All Representatives shall represent PSG in a professional manner at all times. Neither the reputation nor the image of PSG shall be jeopardized at any time. The behavior of all Representatives is seen to reflect that of PSG, so all actions must reflect its policies.

14.0 Corporate Opportunities

Representatives are prohibited from taking for themselves personally opportunities that arise through the use of corporate property, information or position and from using corporate property, information or position for personal gain. Representatives are also prohibited from competing with PSG directly or indirectly and owe a duty to PSG to advance the legitimate interests of PSG when the opportunity to do so arises.

15.0 Anti-Hedging and Anti-Pledging Policies

Representatives are prohibited from purchasing any financial instruments or engaging in any transactions that are designed to hedge or offset any decrease in the market value of PSG securities granted to them as part of their compensation or held directly or indirectly by them. Representatives may not sell "short" or sell a "call option" on any of PSG's securities or purchase a "put option" where they do not own the underlying security or, in the case of a short sale, an option currently exercisable therefor.

Further, Representatives are not permitted to buy PSG securities on margin, and directors and officers are prohibited from pledging securities as collateral for a loan. Please refer to PSG's Insider Trading Policy for its anti-hedging and anti-pledging policies.

16.0 Gifts and Entertainment

Representatives and their families shall not give nor accept gifts, gratuities or entertainment that has greater than a nominal monetary value, as more particularly outlined in the Anti-Corruption Policy and in PSG's broader policies on gifts and entertainment.

17.0 Human Rights

All Representatives shall adhere to PSG's commitment to promoting respect for internationally recognized human rights as set forth in the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

18.0 Equal Opportunity

PSG is committed to providing a work environment that enables all employees to be recruited, and to pursue their careers, free from any form of unwarranted discrimination.

In particular, PSG shall not discriminate on the basis of age, color, creed, disability, ethnic origin, gender, marital status, national origin, political belief, race, religion or sexual orientation, unless required for occupational reasons as permitted by law.

19.0 Harassment

All employees have a right to work in an environment free from all forms of harassment. Harassment is defined as any unwanted conduct or comment that is intimidating, hostile or offensive in the work environment. Examples include derogatory comments based on racial or ethnic characteristics and unwelcome sexual advances. PSG encourages the reporting of harassment when it occurs.

20.0 Alcohol and Drugs

Any misuse of alcohol or legal drugs (prescribed or un-prescribed), or the use of any illegal drugs, may jeopardize job safety and/or performance, and is prohibited in the workplace. No officer, employee, consultant or contractor shall enter the workplace under the influence of alcohol or such drugs that may impair safety and/or performance.

21.0 Use of Electronic Media

PSG has developed a policy to ensure that you understand the rules governing your use of PSG's computer network, and options for e-mail and voicemail or other messaging services, Internet access or other use of electronic media. All PSG equipment, including desks, computers and computer systems, computer software, electronic storage devices, cellphones or other mobile devices, e-mail, voicemail and other physical items are for business use only. PSG at all times retains the right to access and search all such electronic media or other items contained in or used in conjunction with PSG's computer, e-mail, voicemail and Internet access systems and equipment with no prior notice.

Like PSG's computer network, e-mail and voicemail services, access to Internet services such as web-browsing or newsgroups is provided to employees by PSG only for business use. Any personal use must be infrequent and must not involve any prohibited activity, interfere with the productivity of the employee or his or her co-workers, consume system resources or storage capacity on an ongoing basis or involve large file transfers or otherwise deplete system resources available for business purposes.

Your messages and computer information in the workplace are considered PSG property and consequently, employees should not have an expectation of privacy in the context of computer and voice mail use. Unless prohibited by law, PSG reserves the right to access and disclose this information as necessary for business purposes. Use good judgment, and do not access, send messages or store any information that you would not want to be seen or heard by other individuals.

PSG also recognizes that many employees are choosing to express themselves by using Internet technologies, such as blogs, wikis, file-sharing, user generated audio and video, virtual worlds, and social networking sites, such as Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter. Whether you choose to participate in such social networking outside of work on your own time is your own decision, however, we remind you of your responsibility as a PSG Representative to behave with honesty, integrity and in accordance with our high ethical and legal standards.

22.0 Political Contributions

PSG respects the right of each of its employees to participate in the political process and to engage in political activities of his or her choosing; however, while involved in their personal and civic affairs employees must make clear at all times that their views and actions are their own, and not those of PSG. Employees may not use PSG's resources to support their choice of political parties, causes or candidates.

PSG does not make contributions, directly or indirectly, to any political party or candidate, in any country, even if such contributions are legal in that country, and employees, directors and third parties must not do so on PSG's behalf. This prohibition includes financial contributions as well as contributions of anything else of value. Notwithstanding the foregoing prohibition, participation by PSG in trade or other industry associations is permitted even where such trade or other industry associations may engage in direct political activity.

23.0 Reporting Violations of Law, the Code or PSG's Corporate Policies

All Representatives shall adhere to PSG's commitment to conduct its business and affairs in a lawful and ethical manner. All Representatives are encouraged to talk to appropriate personnel within PSG when in doubt about the best course of action in a particular situation and to immediately report any breach or suspected breach of law, this Code or any of PSG's corporate policies.

PSG has an open door policy and invites all Representatives to share their questions, concerns or suggestions with someone who can address them properly. In most cases, a Representative's immediate supervisor is in the best position to address an area of concern. A breach or suspected breach of law, of this Code or any of PSG's other corporate policies may also be reported to a HR Representative or a member of PSG's legal department.

While PSG encourages Representatives to report breaches or suspected breaches of law, this Code or any other corporate policies of PSG through the aforementioned channels, it has also implemented a compliance hotline (the "Compliance Hotline") through which Representatives may report their concerns. PSG's Compliance Hotline website can be accessed at www.performancesportsgroup.ethicspoint.com and additional information for the Compliance Hotline can be found at www.performancesportsgroup.com/site/investors/governance.php. The Compliance Hotline is run by an independent call center operated by a vendor, Ethics Point.

Information provided through the Compliance Hotline will be forwarded and/or summarized in a report and delivered to the Board Chair and members of PSG's Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee and, if concerning financial statement disclosure, accounting procedures, internal financial controls or auditing matters, the information or report will be forwarded to the independent Chair of PSG's Audit Committee for due consideration, in each case with notice to the Chair of the Board.

Representatives may also submit such financial, accounting and auditing concerns directly to the independent Chair of PSG's Audit Committee at:

Audit Committee Chair
c/o Performance Sports Group Ltd.
100 Domain Drive
Exeter, New Hampshire
03833 USA

audit.committeechair@performancesportsgroup.com

Information submitted through the Compliance Hotline or directly to the Chair of the Audit Committee will be treated on a confidential or anonymous basis, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, regulation or legal proceedings and to the greatest extent possible, consistent with the need for PSG to conduct an effective investigation of the reported issue.

PSG prohibits retaliatory action against any officer or employee who, in good faith, reports a possible violation. It is unacceptable to file a report knowing it to be false.

24.0 Consequences of Violation of the Code

Failure to comply with the Code may result in severe consequences, which could include internal disciplinary action or termination of employment or consulting arrangements without notice. The violation of the Code may also violate certain Canadian, U.S., stock exchange and/or other applicable laws in the country in which the Representative works or the jurisdictions in which PSG operates and if it appears that a Representative may have violated such laws, then PSG may refer the matter to the appropriate regulatory authorities, which could lead to penalties, fines or imprisonment.

25.0 Review of Code

The Board shall review and evaluate this Code from time to time as the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee determines to be necessary to determine whether this Code is effective in ensuring that PSG's business and affairs are conducted with honesty, integrity and in accordance with high ethical and legal standards.

26.0 Queries

If you have any questions about how this Code should be followed in a particular case, please contact your HR Representative or a member of PSG's legal department.

27.0 Waivers of The Code

Any waiver of this Code with respect to a director or senior executive of PSG may be made only by the Board or the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. Any such waiver shall be disclosed to the extent and in the manner required by applicable laws and regulations.

PERFORMANCE SPORTS GROUP LTD.
CHARTER OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

This charter (this "Charter") sets forth the purpose, composition, responsibilities and authority of the Audit Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Performance Sports Group Ltd. (the"Corporation").

1.0 Purpose

The purpose of the Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities with respect to:

- the Corporation's financial statements;
- the integrity of the Corporation's internal control over financial reporting and management information systems;
- the qualifications and independence of the Corporation's external auditor;
- the performance of the Corporation's internal audit function and external auditor; and
- any other matters assigned to the Committee by the Board pursuant to this Charter or as mandated by applicable laws, rules and regulations, as well as the Toronto Stock Exchange and New York Stock Exchange listing standards.

Although the Committee has the powers and responsibilities set forth in this Charter, the role of the Committee is oversight. The members of the Committee (the "Members") are not full-time employees of the Corporation and may or may not be accountants or auditors by profession or experts in the fields of accounting or auditing and, in any event, do not serve in such capacity. Consequently, it is not the duty of the Committee to conduct audits or to determine that the Corporation's financial statements and disclosures are complete and accurate and are in accordance with applicable financial reporting standards and other Applicable Regulatory Requirements. These are the responsibilities of management and the Corporation's external auditor.

2.0 Composition and Membership

(a) The Board will appoint the Members of the Committee. The Members will be appointed to hold office until the next annual general meeting of shareholders of the Corporation or until their successors are appointed. The Board may add or remove a Member at any time and may fill any vacancy occurring on the Committee. A Member may resign at any time and a Member will automatically cease to be a Member upon ceasing to be a director.

(b) The Committee will consist of at least three directors, each of whom shall satisfy the applicable independence, financial literacy and experience requirements of the Corporation's Corporate Governance Guidelines, the Toronto Stock Exchange, the New York Stock Exchange, Section 10A-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), National Instrument 52-110 — Audit Committees ("NI 52-110") and any other applicable regulatory authority (collectively, the "Applicable Regulatory Requirements"). At least one Member shall qualify as an audit committee financial expert as defined under Item 407 of Regulation S-K of the Exchange Act.

(c) No Member shall simultaneously serve on the audit committees of more than two other public companies, unless the Board determines that such simultaneous service does not impair the ability of such Member to effectively serve on the Committee and such determination is disclosed in accordance with the Applicable Regulatory Requirements.

(d) The Board will appoint one of the Members to act as the chair of the Committee (the "Chair") (or if it fails to do so, the Members of the Committee shall appoint the Chair of the Committee from among its Members).

(e) The Committee may delegate any or all of its functions to any of its Members or any sub-set thereof, from time to time as it sees fit, provided that such subcommittees are composed entirely of directors who satisfy the applicable independence standards of the Applicable Regulatory Requirements.

3.0 Meetings

(a) Meetings of the Committee will be held at such times and places as the Chair may determine, but in any event not less than four times per year. Twenty-four hours advance notice of each meeting will be given to each Member orally, by telephone, by facsimile or email, unless all Members are present and waive notice, or if those absent waive notice before or after a meeting. Members may attend all meetings either in person or by telephone.

(b) The Chair, if present, will act as the chair of meetings of the Committee. If the Chair is not present at a meeting of the Committee, the Members in attendance may select one of their Members to act as chair of the meeting.

(c) The Committee will appoint any person in attendance at the meeting, who may, but need not, be a Member to act as the secretary of that meeting, and such person will maintain minutes of the meeting and deliberations of the Committee. The secretary of the meeting will circulate the minutes of each meeting of the Committee to the members of the Board.

(d) A majority of Members will constitute a quorum for a meeting of the Committee. Each Member will have one vote and decisions of the Committee will be made by an affirmative vote of the majority. The Chair will not have a deciding or casting vote in the case of an equality of votes. Powers of the Committee may also be exercised by written resolutions signed by all Members.

(e) The Committee may invite from time to time such persons as it sees fit to attend its meetings and to take part in the discussion and consideration of the affairs of the Committee.

(f) In advance of every regular meeting of the Committee, the Chair will prepare and distribute to the Members and others as deemed appropriate by the Chair, an agenda of matters to be addressed at the meeting together with appropriate briefing materials. The Committee may require officers and employees of the Corporation to produce such information and reports as the Committee may deem appropriate in order for it to fulfill its duties.
