Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On March 17, 2017, SEACOR Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), received a notice from the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) indicating that the Company is not in compliance with the NYSE’s continued listing requirements under the timely filing criteria established in Section 802.01E of the NYSE Listed Company Manual as a result of its failure to timely file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016 (the “Form 10-K”).

As reported by the Company in its Form 12b-25 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on March 1, 2017, the Company was unable to file the Form 10-K by its original deadline without unreasonable effort and expense because the Company has not yet completed its assessment of the effectiveness of its internal controls over financial reporting as of December 31, 2016 due to certain control deficiencies identified related to impairment determinations and the approval of manual journal entries.

The NYSE informed the Company that, under the NYSE’s rules, the Company will have six months from March 17, 2017 to file the Form 10-K with the SEC. The Company currently anticipates that it will file the Form 10-K in the near future. If the Company fails to file the Form 10-K before the NYSE’s compliance deadline, the NYSE may grant, at its discretion, an extension of up to six additional months for the Company to regain compliance, depending on the specific circumstances.
