The following relates solely to preliminary communications made before the commencement of an anticipated voluntary employee stock option exchange program by Advanced Micro Devices, Inc. ("AMD").

On June 25, 2003, AMD posted a company-wide notice on its stock option exchange program website (<http://hr/stock/exchange>) accessible by its employees regarding the anticipated commencement of the option exchange program, which is filed as Exhibit 99.3.

Neither this information nor the Proxy Statement constitutes an offer to holders of options to purchase AMD common stock to exchange their stock options. At the time the option exchange program is commenced, AMD will make available to option holders who are eligible to participate in the exchange program written materials explaining the terms, conditions and timing of the exchange program. Persons who are eligible to participate should read the written materials carefully because they will contain important information about the exchange program. AMD will file the written tender offer materials with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") as part of a tender offer statement. AMD's stockholders and option holders will be able to obtain these written materials and other documents filed by AMD with the SEC free of charge from the SEC's website at <http://www.sec.gov>.
