Industry Developments

MBNA issues credit cards on MasterCard's and Visa's networks. MasterCard and Visa are facing significant litigation and increased competition. In 2003, MasterCard and Visa settled a suit by Wal-Mart and other merchants who claimed that MasterCard and Visa unlawfully tied acceptance of debit cards to acceptance of credit cards. Under the settlement MasterCard and Visa are required to, among other things, allow merchants to accept MasterCard or Visa branded credit cards without accepting their debit cards (and vice versa), reduce the prices charged to merchants for off-line signature debit transactions for a period of time, and pay over ten years amounts totaling $3.05 billion into a settlement fund. MasterCard and Visa are also parties to suits by U.S. merchants who opted out of the Wal-Mart settlement.

In October 2004, the United States Supreme Court let stand a federal court decision in a suit brought by the U.S. Department of Justice, in which MasterCard and Visa rules prohibiting banks that issue cards on MasterCard and Visa networks from issuing cards on other networks (the "association rules") were found to have violated federal antitrust laws. This decision effectively permits banks that issue cards on Visa's or MasterCard's networks, such as MBNA and MBNA Corporation's other banking subsidiaries, to issue cards on competitor networks. Discover and American Express have initiated separate civil lawsuits against MasterCard and Visa claiming substantial damages stemming from the association rules. MasterCard and Visa are also parties to suits alleging that MasterCard's and Visa's currency conversion practices are unlawful.

In 2005, certain retail merchants filed purported class action lawsuits in various federal courts, alleging that MasterCard and Visa and their member banks, including MBNA, conspired to charge retailers excessive interchange and other fees in violation of federal antitrust laws. MBNA is named as a defendant in certain of these lawsuits. MBNA is in the process of reviewing and assessing the impact of the lawsuits.

The costs associated with these and other matters could cause MasterCard and Visa to invest less in their networks and marketing efforts and could adversely affect the interchange paid to their member banks, including MBNA.

Litigation

Securities Class Actions

In 2005, several lawsuits were filed in federal court against MBNA Corporation, which is the parent of MBNA, and certain of its officers. These lawsuits are purported class actions seeking unspecified damages, interest and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, stemming from alleged violations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. On April 21, 2005, MBNA Corporation announced in its first quarter earnings release that management believed MBNA Corporation's 2005 earnings would be "significantly below" its previously-stated growth objective. MBNA Corporation's stock price dropped following publication of that earnings release. The lawsuits allege that MBNA Corporation and certain of its officers violated federal securities laws through material misstatements and omissions regarding MBNA Corporation's business, which the plaintiffs allege had the effect of inflating MBNA Corporation's stock price. Additionally, in 2005, shareholder derivative lawsuits were filed in federal and state court on behalf of MBNA Corporation alleging that certain officers and directors of MBNA Corporation breached their fiduciary duties to MBNA Corporation and violated federal securities laws. These claims arise from the facts stated above. One of these derivative lawsuits also alleges that the directors of MBNA Corporation violated their fiduciary duties in approving the merger of MBNA Corporation and Bank of America Corporation and seeks to enjoin the merger.

In June 2005, a purported class action lawsuit was filed in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware against MBNA Corporation, the Pension and 401(k) Plan Committee of MBNA Corporation and certain directors and officers of MBNA Corporation. The lawsuit alleges that the defendants violated certain provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 as a result of breaches of fiduciary duties owed to the 401(k) plan participants and beneficiaries. Specifically, the alleged breaches of fiduciary duties related to, but are not limited to, (i) offering MBNA Corporation common stock as an investment option, (ii) purchasing MBNA Corporation stock for the 401(k) plan, (iii) holding MBNA Corporation stock in the 401(k) plan, (iv) failing to monitor the 401(k) plan's investment in MBNA Corporation stock and (v) failing to communicate information concerning MBNA Corporation's financial performance to 401(k) plan participants and beneficiaries.

MBNA Corporation denies the claims made in the class action, shareholder derivative and ERISA lawsuits and intends to defend these matters vigorously.

Foreign Currency Conversion Fee Litigation

MBNA and MBNA Corporation are among the card issuers who are defendants in In Re Currency Conversion Fee Antitrust Litigation, a class action filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York that relates to foreign currency conversion fees charged to customers. MasterCard and Visa applied a currency conversion rate, equal to a wholesale rate plus 1% to credit card transactions in foreign currencies for conversion of the foreign currency into U.S. dollars. MasterCard and Visa required MBNA and other member banks to disclose the 1% add-on to the wholesale rate if the bank chose to pass it along to the cardholder. MBNA disclosed this information in its cardholder agreements. In January 2002, MBNA and MBNA Corporation were added as defendants in the matter. The plaintiffs claim that the defendants conspired in violation of the antitrust laws to charge foreign currency conversion fees and failed to properly disclose the fees in solicitations and applications, initial disclosure statements and cardholder statements, in violation of the Truth-in-Lending Act. The plaintiffs also claim that the bank defendants and MasterCard and Visa conspired to charge the 1% foreign currency conversion fee assessed by MasterCard and Visa and an additional fee assessed by some issuers. In the United States MBNA did not charge the additional fee on consumer credit cards in addition to the fee charged by MasterCard and Visa. However, MBNA did charge such an additional fee on business credit cards. The plaintiffs are seeking unspecified monetary damages and injunctive relief. In July 2003, the court granted a motion to dismiss certain Truth-in-Lending Act claims against MBNA, MBNA Corporation and other defendants, but denied a motion to dismiss the antitrust claims against the defendants. In October 2004, a class was certified by the court. MBNA and MBNA Corporation intend to defend this matter vigorously and believe that the claim is without merit.

Arbitration Litigation

In August 2005, a purported class action lawsuit was filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, alleging that several of the nation's largest credit card issuers illegally conspired to compel their customers to submit disputes to an arbitrator rather than a court. MBNA, MBNA Corporation and MBNA (Delaware) Bank N.A. are among the defendants named in the lawsuit. MBNA and its affiliates deny the claims made in the lawsuit and intend to defend the matter vigorously.

MBNA and its affiliates are commonly subject to various pending or threatened legal proceedings, including certain class actions, arising out of the normal course of business. In view of the inherent difficulty of predicting the outcome of such matters, MBNA cannot state what the eventual outcome of these matters will be.

MBNA Master Credit Card Trust II

We have examined management's assertion that MBNA America Bank, N.A. ("MBNA" or "the Company"), a wholly owned subsidiary of MBNA Corporation, complied with the covenants and conditions of sections 2.05(e), 2.06, 2.07, 2.08(a), 2.09, 3.02, 3.04, 3.05, 3.06(b), 4.02(a), 4.03(a), (c) and (d) and 13.02(d) of the Pooling and Servicing Agreement dated as of August 4, 1994, as amended (the "PSA") and the sections specified in Attachment A of the applicable Series' Pooling and Servicing Agreement Supplement (the "PSA Supplement"), between MBNA and The Bank of New York, during the compliance periods specified in Attachment A. In addition, we have examined management's assertion that MBNA complied with the covenants and conditions of sections 310(a), 402(a), 907, 908(a) and 1201 of the MBNA Credit Card Master Note Trust Indenture dated as of May 24, 2001 (the "Indenture") and sections 2.02(i)-(iv), 3.16 and 4.01(a) of the MBNA Credit Card Master Note Trust MBNAseries Indenture Supplement dated May 24, 2001 (the "Indenture Supplement" together with the PSA, PSA Supplement and Indenture, the "Agreements" as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission), between the MBNA Credit Card Master Note Trust and The Bank of New York, during the compliance periods specified in Attachment A.

Management's assertion is included in the accompanying report by management titled, "Report of Management on Credit Card and Consumer Loan Trust Internal Control and Pooling and Servicing Agreement/Indenture Compliance" (the "Report"). Management is responsible for MBNA's compliance with those requirements. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on management's assertions about the Company's compliance based on our examination.

Our examination was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and, accordingly, included examining, on a test basis, evidence about MBNA's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our examination provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our examination does not provide a legal determination on MBNA's compliance with specified requirements.

In our opinion, management's assertion that MBNA complied with the covenants and conditions of the Agreements referred to above during the compliance periods specified in Attachment A is fairly stated, in all material respects.

MBNA Master Credit Card Trust II

We have examined management's assertion that MBNA America Bank, N.A.'s ("MBNA"), a wholly owned subsidiary of MBNA Corporation, controls over the functions performed as servicer of the MBNA Master Credit Card Trust II (the "Master Trust"), including all Series of the Master Trust, as well as all MBNAseries Notes issued from the MBNA Master Credit Card Note Trust (the "Note Trust," together with the Master Trust, the "Trust") as specified in Attachment A, are effective, as of June 30, 2005, in providing reasonable assurance that (a) Trust assets are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, (b) transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization in conformity with the MBNA Master Credit Card Trust II Pooling and Servicing Agreement dated as of August 4, 1994, as amended (the "PSA"), the applicable Pooling and Servicing Agreement Supplement for each Series (the "PSA Supplements"), the MBNA Credit Card Master Note Trust Indenture dated as of May 24, 2001 ("Indenture"), and the MBNAseries Indenture Supplement dated as of May 24, 2001 ("Indenture Supplement," together with the PSA, PSA Supplements and Indenture, the "Agreements" as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission) and as specified in Attachment A, and (c) transactions are recorded properly to permit the preparation of the required financial reports. This assertion is included in the accompanying report by management titled, "Report of Management on Credit Card and Consumer Loan Trust Internal Control and Pooling and Servicing Agreement/Indenture Compliance" (the "Report"). Management is responsible for MBNA's controls over the functions performed as servicer of the Trust. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control based on our examination.

Our examination was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and, accordingly, included obtaining an understanding of the controls over the functions performed by MBNA as servicer of the Trust, testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of those controls, and such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our examination provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the controls over the functions performed by MBNA as servicer of the Trust to future periods are subject to the risk that the controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the controls may deteriorate.

In our opinion, management's assertion, that MBNA's controls over the functions performed as servicer of the Trust are effective as of June 30, 2005 in providing reasonable assurance that Trust assets are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization in conformity with the Agreements and that transactions are recorded properly to permit the preparation of the required financial reports is fairly stated, in all material respects, based upon the following criteria specified in the Report:

- o Funds collected are remitted to the Trustee in accordance with the Agreements.
- o Trust assets are segregated from those retained by MBNA in accordance with the Agreements.
- o Expenses incurred by the Trust are calculated and remitted in accordance with the Agreements.
- o Additions of accounts to the Trust are authorized in accordance with the Agreements.
- o Removals of accounts from the Trust are authorized in accordance with the Agreements.
- o Trust assets amortizing out of the Trust are calculated in accordance with the Agreements.
- o Monthly Trust reports generated in the form of "Exhibits" and provided to the Trustee are reviewed by a Vice President or above prior to distribution.
- o Monthly Trust reports generated in the form of "Exhibits" contain all information required by the Agreements.

In connection with your attestation engagements relating to our assertions on (1) the effectiveness of controls over the functions performed as servicer of MBNA's credit card and consumer loan trusts listed in Appendix I (the "Trusts") as of June 30, 2005, and (2) compliance by MBNA with the covenants and conditions of certain sections, as specified in Appendix I, of each Trusts' applicable Pooling and Servicing Agreement, Pooling and Servicing Agreement Supplements, the Indenture and the MBNAseries Indenture Supplement (together the "Agreements"), and in connection with your agreed upon procedures engagements relating to the amounts in the (a) "mathematical calculations" set forth in the monthly certificates or settlement reports prepared by MBNA pursuant to subsections 3.04(b) of the Pooling and Servicing Agreements, as applicable, for the periods specified in Appendix I, as well as (b) the "mathematical calculations" set forth in the monthly exhibits of the MBNA Credit Card Master Note Trust prepared by MBNA pursuant to subsections 907 and 908(a) of the Indenture for the period July 1, 2004 through June 30, 2005, we recognize that obtaining representations from us concerning the information contained in this letter is a significant procedure in enabling you to form an opinion about whether our assertions are fairly stated in all material respects and in performing the specific agreed upon procedures. Accordingly, we make the following representations with respect to these engagements which are true to our knowledge.

Controls Over the Functions Performed as Servicer of the Trusts

- o We acknowledge that, as members of management, we are responsible for establishing and maintaining effective controls over the functions performed as servicer of the Trusts that provide reasonable assurance to management and the board of directors that Trust assets are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization in conformity with the Agreements and are recorded properly to permit the preparation of required financial reports.
- o Management has determined that the objectives of our controls with respect to servicing and reporting of sold loans are to provide reasonable, but not absolute assurance that:

- o Funds collected are remitted to the Trustee in accordance with the Agreements.
- o Trust assets are segregated from those retained by MBNA in accordance with the Agreements.
- o Expenses incurred by the Trusts are calculated and remitted in accordance with the Agreements.
- o The additions of accounts to the Trusts are authorized in accordance with the Agreements.
- o The removals of accounts from the Trusts are authorized in accordance with the Agreements.
- o Trust assets amortizing out of the Trusts are calculated in accordance with the Agreements.
- o Monthly Trust reports generated in the form of "Exhibits" and provided to the Trustee are reviewed by a Vice President or above prior to distribution.
- o Monthly Trust reports generated in the form of "Exhibits" contain all information required by the Agreements.

Management has performed an evaluation of MBNA's controls over the functions performed as servicer of the Trusts in relation to these criteria. Based upon this evaluation, the controls over the functions performed as servicer of the Trusts as of June 30, 2005, are effective in providing reasonable assurance that Trust assets are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization in conformity with the Agreements between MBNA and the applicable Trustee and are recorded properly to permit the preparation of the required financial reports.

We confirm to our knowledge, the following representations made to you during your attestation engagement.

1. The criteria against which we measured our assertion, as specified above, are sufficiently clear and comprehensive for a knowledgeable user of the report to be able to understand them.

2. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design and implementation of programs and controls to prevent and detect fraud. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud involving management or other employees who have a significant role in internal control. In addition, we have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud involving other employees where the fraud could have a material effect on the functions performed as servicer of the Trusts. We have disclosed to you all allegations of financial improprieties, including fraud or suspected fraud, coming to our attention (regardless of the source or form and including, without limitation, allegations by "whistle blowers") where such allegations could affect MBNA's internal controls over the functions performed as servicer of the Trusts.
3. We have disclosed to you all significant deficiencies in the design or operation of the controls that could adversely affect MBNA's ability to safeguard Trust assets against loss, execute transactions in accordance with management's authority in conformity with the applicable Agreements and prepare the required financial reports.
4. We have made available to you all reports of examination from regulatory agencies. To our knowledge there were no situations of noncompliance with or deficiencies in controls communicated by any regulatory agencies which would preclude achievement of any of the criteria noted above.
5. No matters or occurrences, including those which may be communicated by regulatory agencies, have come to our attention up to the date of this letter that might significantly change or affect the controls over the functions performed as servicer of the Trusts, including any corrective actions taken (or that may be taken) by management regarding significant deficiencies.

We acknowledge that we are responsible for complying with the covenants and conditions of the Agreements. We are also responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the covenants and conditions of the Agreements. We have performed an evaluation of MBNA's compliance with the relevant covenants and conditions of the Agreements identified in Appendix I for each of the Agreements, for the periods specified in Appendix I. Based on this evaluation, MBNA complied with the relevant covenants and conditions of the Agreements identified in Appendix I for each of the Agreements during the periods specified in Appendix I.

We have made available to your representatives all documentation related to compliance with the specified requirements of the Agreements.

There has been no known noncompliance with the relevant covenants and conditions of the Agreements identified in Appendix I for each of the Agreements, for the periods specified in Appendix I and through the date of your attestation examination report.

Ernst and Young LLP

We have received no communications from regulatory agencies, internal auditors or other parties concerning possible non-compliance with the covenants and conditions of the Agreements including communications received between June 30, 2005 and the date of this letter.

No events or transactions have occurred since June 30, 2005 or are pending that would have an effect on the compliance with the covenants and conditions of the Agreements identified in Appendix I at that date or for the periods specified in Appendix I.

We are not aware of any instances of fraud involving management or employees who have significant roles in internal control over compliance, or other employees, with the covenants and conditions of the Agreements identified in Appendix I.

Agreed Upon Procedures Applied to Monthly Certificates or Settlement Reports

We acknowledge that, as members of management, we are responsible for preparing the monthly certificates pursuant to the applicable sections of the Agreements. We also are responsible for selecting the criteria against which the amounts in the "mathematical calculations" set forth in the monthly certificates (i.e. the Form of Monthly Servicer's Certificate and the Schedule to the Monthly Servicer's Certificate of each series of each trust) should be measured, and for determining that such criteria are appropriate for our purposes.

We have made available to your representatives all documentation related to the monthly certificates for the periods specified in Appendix I.

We understand that your examinations were made, and your agreed upon procedures engagement was conducted, in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and were therefore, designed primarily for the purpose of expressing opinions on whether our assertions regarding (1) the effectiveness of the controls over the functions performed as servicer of the Trusts and (2) our compliance with the covenants and conditions of certain sections of the Agreements were fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the specified criteria. We further understand that your tests of our records and other procedures were limited to those that you considered necessary for that purpose. We understand that an agreed upon procedures engagement is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on the amounts in the "mathematical calculations" set forth in the monthly certificates. We also understand that the sufficiency of the procedures performed in your agreed upon procedures engagement is solely the responsibility of the specified users of the report.

Report of Management on Credit Card and Consumer Loan Trust Internal Control and Pooling and Servicing Agreement/Indenture Compliance

Trust Internal Control

MBNA America Bank, N.A., ("MBNA" or the "Company"), a wholly owned subsidiary of MBNA Corporation is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective controls over the functions performed as servicer of MBNA's credit card and consumer loan trusts, listed in Appendix I (the "Trusts" or individually "Trust"). These controls are designed to provide reasonable assurance to the Company's management and board of directors that Trust assets are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization in conformity with the applicable Pooling and Servicing Agreements, Pooling and Servicing Agreement Supplements, Indenture and MBNAseries Indenture Supplement (together the "Agreements") as specified in Appendix I, between MBNA as Seller/Transferor and Servicer and the applicable Trustee (specific Agreements and Trustees are listed in Appendix I) and are recorded properly to permit the preparation of the required financial reports.

Because of inherent limitations in any control, no matter how well-designed, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected, including the possibility of the circumvention or overriding of controls. Accordingly, even effective controls can provide only reasonable assurance with respect to the achievement of any objectives of controls. Further, because of changes in conditions, the effectiveness of controls may vary over time.

The Company has determined that the objectives of controls with respect to servicing and reporting of sold loans are to provide reasonable, but not absolute assurance that:

- o Funds collected are remitted to the Trustee in accordance with the Agreements.
- o Trust assets are segregated from those retained by MBNA in accordance with the Agreements.
