SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

In light of the risks and uncertainties inherent in all projected operational matters, the inclusion of forward-looking statements in this Form 10-K, should not be regarded as a representation by us or any other person that any of our objectives or plans will be achieved or that any of our operating expectations will be realized. Our revenues and results of operations are difficult to forecast and could differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements contained in this Form 10-K, as a result of certain risks and uncertainties including, but not limited to, our business reliance on third parties to provide us with technology, our ability to integrate and manage acquired technology, assets, companies and personnel, changes in market condition, the volatile and intensely competitive environment in the business sectors in which we operate, rapid technological change, and our dependence on key and scarce employees in a competitive market for skilled personnel. These factors should not be considered exhaustive; we undertake no obligation to release publicly the results of any future revisions we may make to forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

PART I

Except for historical information, this report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). Such forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, including, among other things, statements regarding our business strategy, future revenues and anticipated costs and expenses. Such forward-looking statements include, among others, those statements including the words "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "believes" and similar language. Our actual results may differ significantly from those projected in the forward-looking statements. Factors that might cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, those discussed in the section "Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations." You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this report. We undertake no obligation to publicly release any revisions to the forward-looking statements or reflect events or circumstances taking place after the date of this document.

Item 1. Business.

The Company

The Company was initially incorporated on November 15, 1999, as Menu Sites, Inc., a Florida corporation. On March 9, 2001, the Company's name was changed to CNE Communications, Inc. On October 1, 2004, the name was changed to CNE Industries, Inc. and on March 29, 2005, the name was changed to GlobalTel IP, Inc. On May 9, 2008, the Company's name was changed to Cleartronic, Inc.

All current operations are conducted through the Company's wholly owned subsidiary, ReadyOp Communications, Inc. ("ReadyOp"), a Florida corporation incorporated on September 15, 2014. ReadyOp facilitates the marketing and sales of subscriptions to the ReadyOp™, ReadyMed™ and Alastar platforms and the AudioMate IP gateways discussed below.

In March 2018, the Company approved the spin-off VoiceInterop into a separate company under a Form S-1 registration to be filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. On May 13, 2019, VoiceInterop filed an S-1 registration with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. All VoiceInterop transactions have been recorded as discontinued operations. On February 14, 2020, the distribution of shares was approved by FINRA and VoiceInterop was deconsolidated from Cleartronic, Inc.

In October 2019, the Company acquired the ReadyMed software platform from Collabria LLC. ReadyMed is a web-based secure communications platform initially designed for the healthcare industry. This includes hospitals, clinics, doctor's offices, health insurance companies, workers compensation insurance companies and many other segments of the healthcare industry. The Company offers both the ReadyOp and ReadyMed capabilities to clients and usually refers to the platform as ReadyOp to avoid confusion in the marketplace of two platforms.

On August 1, 2024, the Company acquired a group of similar assets from Alastar, Inc. ("Alastar") for $50,000. This asset group consisted of cash, prepaids and other current assets, as well as intellectual property including trademarks, software platforms, and a client list. The client list was the only asset ascribed value which was deemed to have continuing value to the Company. The Company has classified this client list as an intangible asset, which will be amortized over 5 years. All operations and marketing of the Alastar platform are conducted in the ReadyOp Communications subsidiary in conjunction with the current ReadyOp and ReadyMed activities.

ReadyOp™ Software

ReadyOp is a proprietary, innovative web-based planning and communications platform for efficiently and effectively planning, managing, communicating, and directing operations and emergency response. ReadyOp is used by local, state and federal government agencies, corporations, school districts, utilities, hospitals and others to manage and report daily operations as well as the ability to handle incidents and emergency situations. ReadyOp is offered as a software as a service (SAAS) program on an annual contract basis although an increasing number of clients have requested multi-year agreements.

ReadyOp requires no new or on-site hardware or programming by clients and provides multiple options for communications including radio interoperability using the Company's AudioMate gateways. Plans and operations can be built and stored securely in ReadyOp on a by-location, region and systemwide basis. Assets can be listed along with their location, person to contact and other information that may be needed. Diagrams, charts, maps, pictures, report forms and other documentation can be securely stored yet immediately available securely from any location. ReadyOp also provides efficient planning and response for responding to disasters and for continuity of operations (COOP) and recovery. ReadyOp is the COOP platform for multiple organizations including many federal agencies.

ReadyMed™ Software

In October 2019, the Company acquired the ReadyMed software platform from Collabria LLC. In exchange for this asset, the Company issued 12,000,000 shares of Common stock of the Company. ReadyMed is a web-based secure communications platform initially designed for the healthcare industry. This includes hospitals, clinics, doctor's offices, health insurance companies, workers compensation insurance companies and many other segments of the healthcare industry. The platform provides caregivers with patient tracking capability and allows physicians and other healthcare entities to track patient progress after medical treatment and/or release from hospital care. The software also enables monitoring and reporting of patients in medium- and long-term care. Additionally, the platform provides secure communications capabilities and recordkeeping to track the healing process of patients, record their recovery and monitor their medications. During the COVID-19 pandemic this software proved beneficial to multiple federal and state agencies and clients in the healthcare industry. The Company offers both the ReadyOp and ReadyMed capabilities to clients and usually refers to the platform as ReadyOp to avoid confusion in the marketplace of two products.

Alastar Software

The Company acquired the Alastar software and other assets in the transaction discussed above. The Company continues to support the clients who were using Alastar prior to the acquisition plus add additional new clients. Additionally, the Company has been transitioning much of the Alastar functionality into the ReadyOp platform as well as enhance the capabilities for existing and new clients. The Company plans to continue the transition and enhancement activities for at least the next two years.

AudioMate IP Gateways

The Company offers a proprietary line of Internet Protocol Gateways branded as AudioMate 360 IP Gateway. The AudioMate 360 IP Gateway was designed to provide an Internet Protocol Gateway to users of unified group communications. The AudioMate units are currently being sold directly to end-users by the Company's sales teams and by Value Added Resellers ("VARs"). More than 1,000 end-users in the United States and 18 foreign countries have purchased the Company's AudioMate gateways. Although other devices are available that perform the same or similar functions, we believe that our price for the AudioMate 360 IP Gateway is competitive with prices other companies are charging for similar devices.

Patents and Intellectual Property

Our business will be dependent in part on our intellectual property. For projects that are in development, we intend to rely on intellectual property rights afforded by trademark and trade secret laws, as well as confidentiality procedures, licensing arrangements and potential patent filings. These measures are to establish and protect our rights to the technology and other intellectual property. We cannot foretell if these procedures and arrangements will be adequate in protecting our intellectual property.

On March 13, 2012, the United States Patent Office notified the Company that U.S. Patent Number 8,135,001 B1 had been granted for the 34 claims of our patent application for Multi Ad Hoc Interoperable Communicating Networks. We may file similar patent applications in additional countries. The claims in the patent application relate to various aspects of the AudioMate 360 IP Gateway. It may be that one or more of the claims are not meaningful. Furthermore, the validity of issued patents is frequently challenged by others. One or more patent applications may have been filed by others previous to our filing, which encompass the same or similar claims. A patent application does not in and of itself grant exclusive rights. A patent application must be reviewed by the Patent Office of each relevant country prior to issuing as a patent and granting exclusive rights. The laws of many foreign countries do not protect intellectual property rights to the same extent as do the laws of the United States, if at all.

Because of limited resources, the Company may be unable to protect a patent, either owned or licensed, or to challenge others who may infringe upon a patent. Because many holders of patents have substantially greater resources and patent litigation is very expensive, we may not have the resources necessary to successfully challenge the validity of patents held by others or withstand claims of infringement or challenges to any patent the Company may possess or obtain. Even if we prevail, the cost and management distraction of litigation could have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Internet Protocol Gateways and their related manufacturing processes are covered by a large number of patents and patent applications. Infringement actions may be instituted against the Company if we use or are suspected of using technology, processes or other subject matter that is claimed under patents of others. An adverse outcome in any future patent dispute could subject us to significant liabilities to third parties, require disputed rights to be licensed or require us to cease using the infringed technology.

If trade secrets and other means of protection upon which the Company relies may not adequately protect us, the Company's intellectual property could become available to others. Although we may rely on trade secrets, copyright law, employee and third-party nondisclosure agreements and other protective measures to protect some of our intellectual property, these measures may not provide meaningful protection to the Company.

Exclusive Licensing Agreement

On May 5, 2017, the Company entered into an Exclusive Licensing Agreement with Sublicensing Terms (the "Agreement") with the University of South Florida Research Foundation, Inc. ("USFRF") relating to an exclusive license of certain patent rights in connection with one of USFRF's U.S. Patent Applications. Both parties recognize that the research and development work provided by the Company was sufficient for USFRF to enter into the Agreement with the Company.

The Agreement is effective April 25, 2017 and continues until the later of the date that no Licensed Patent remains a pending application or an enforceable patent or the date on which the Licensee's obligation to pay royalties expires.

The Company paid USFRF a License Issue Fee of $8,000 and $6,000 as reimbursement of expenses associated with the filing of the Licensed Patent for the year ended September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024, respectively. The company agreed to pay USFRF a royalty of 3% for sales of all Licensed Products and Licensed Processes and agreed to pay USFRF minimum royalty payments as follows:

	Payment	Year
$	1,000	2019
$	4,000	2020
$	8,000	2021

-and every year thereafter on the same date, for the life of the agreement.

In the event the Company proposes to sell any Equity Securities, then USFRF will have the right to purchase 5% of the securities issued in such offering on the same terms and conditions as are offered to other purchasers in such financing.

Rapid Technological Change Could Render the Company's Products Obsolete

The Company's markets are characterized by rapid technological changes, frequent new product introductions and enhancements, uncertain product life cycles, changes in customer requirements, and evolving industry standards. The introduction of new products embodying new technologies and the emergence of new industry standards could render our existing products obsolete. The Company's future success will depend upon our ability to continue to develop and introduce new products and services to address the increasingly sophisticated needs of customers. The Company may experience delays in releasing new products, product enhancements and services in the future which may cause customers and prospective to forego purchase and use of our products and purchase those of competitors.

Sales to government entities are subject to a number of challenges and risks.

The ReadyOp platform is a Cloud Service Offering (CSO) that is being used by several agencies of the federal government. In order to expand the usage by additional federal government agencies the Company is in the process of obtaining a FedRAMP Authorization. FedRAMP provides a standardized security framework for all cloud products and services that is recognized by all executive branch federal agencies. As a Cloud Service Provider or CSP the Company only needs to go through the FedRAMP Authorization process once for each CSO and perform continuous monitoring, with all agencies reviewing the same continuous monitoring deliverables, creating efficiencies across the government. The Company commenced the FedRAMP certification process in 2023 and expects to have completed the certification in early 2026.

Seasonality of Our Business

We do not anticipate that our business will be affected by seasonal factors.

Impact of Inflation

We are affected by inflation along with the rest of the economy. Specifically, our costs to complete our products could rise if specific components needed incur an increase in cost.

Manufacturing and Suppliers

We have outsourced the manufacturing of our AudioMate 360 IP Gateway. This outsourcing has allowed us to:

- Avoid costly capital expenditures for the establishment of manufacturing operations;
- Focus on the design, development, sales and support of our products and services; and

- Leverage the scale, expertise and purchasing power of specialized contract manufacturers.

Currently, Company has arrangements for the production of the AudioMate gateways with two contract manufacturers. The reliance on contract manufacturing involves a number of potential risks, including the absence of adequate capacity, ownership of certain elements of electronic designs, and reduced control over delivery schedules. The Company's contract manufacturers can provide a range of operational and manufacturing services, including component procurement and performing final testing and assembly of our products. The Company intends to continue use of contract manufacturers to procure components and to maintain adequate manufacturing capacity.

Competition

We are not aware of any direct competitors for ReadyOp, ReadyMed or the Alastar platform that offer the same combinations of capabilities and function. However, there are similar programs being marketed that appear similar and are sometimes confused with ReadyOp such as WebEOC and Everbridge. ReadyOp provides different capabilities and is priced lower than both of these and in fact, has several clients that use one or even both of these programs in addition to ReadyOp. We may have increased competition in the future. We continue to develop and enhance the ReadyOp/ReadyMed platforms and to integrate the Alastar platform capabilities into ReadyOp to improve the value and increase the potential market size and growth of our client clientele.

The unified communications industry where the Company's gateways are offered is competitive. The Company will continue to offer the AudioMate gateways, but primarily in conjunction with the ReadyOp platform to provide radio interoperability. Competition for an integrated radio and operations platform is limited and the Company will continue to market the ReadyOp platform, both with the gateways and without.

Sales and Marketing

The ReadyOp/ReadyMed and Alastar platforms are currently marketed through a combination of inside salespersons and outside sales groups. We intend to expand the use of commissioned sales groups and individual sales representatives to market and sell our programs and gateways.

Key Personnel of Cleartronic

Our future financial success depends to a large degree upon the personal efforts of our key personnel, Michael M. Moore, our Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Director, and Larry M. Reid, our Chief Financial Officer (CFO), Secretary and Director. They and their designees play the major role in securing persons capable of developing and executing the Company's business strategy. While the Company intends to employ additional executive, development and technical personnel in order to minimize dependency upon any one person, we may not be successful in attracting and retaining the persons needed.

At present, Cleartronic has two executive officers, Michael M. Moore and Larry M. Reid. A copy of the employment agreement with Mr. Moore has been previously filed on January 13, 2016 as an exhibit to a Form 10-K. Mr. Moore is paid a base salary of $16,667 per month. Effective April 20, 2022, the annual compensation increased to $220,000. See Item 13. "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions and Director Independence."

In March 2015, the Company entered into a new employment agreement with the Company's CFO, Larry M. Reid (the "Agreement"). Under the Agreement, Mr. Reid agreed to remit 2.0 billion shares of common stock back to the Company in exchange for 200,000 shares of Series C Convertible Preferred stock with a fair value of $252,000. Mr. Reid is paid a base salary of $8,000 per month. A copy of the employment agreement with Mr. Reid has been previously filed on March 18, 2015 with the SEC as an exhibit to a Form 8-K. Effective October 1, 2021, the annual compensation increased to $104,000.

Unless the Company shall have given Mr. Moore or Mr. Reid written notice at least 30 days prior to the Termination Date, the employment agreements automatically renew and continue in effect for additional one-year periods. The Company has the election at any time after the expiration of the initial term of the Mr. Reid's Agreement to give Mr. Reid notice of Termination.

The Financial Results for Cleartronic May Be Affected by Factors Outside of Our Control

Our future operating results may vary from quarter to quarter due to a variety of factors, many of which are outside our control. Our anticipated expense levels are based, in part, on our estimates of future revenues and may vary from projections. We may be unable to adjust spending rapidly enough to compensate for any unexpected revenue shortfall. Accordingly, any significant shortfall in revenue in relation to our planned expenditures could materially and adversely affect our business, operating results, and financial condition. Further, we believe that period-to-period comparisons of our operating results are not necessarily a meaningful indication of future performance.

Transfer Agent

Our transfer agent is ClearTrust, LLC, whose address is 16540 Pointe Village Drive, Suite 206, Lutz, Florida 33558, and telephone number is (813) 235-4490.

Company Contact Information

Our principal executive offices are located at 28050 US Highway 19 N., Ste 310, Clearwater, FL 33761, telephone (813) 289-7620. Our email address is info@cleartronic.com. The Cleartronic Internet website is www.cleartronic.com and the ReadyOp website is www.readyop.com. The information contained in our website does not constitute part of this report.

Item 1A. Risk Factors.

Not applicable.

Item 1B. Unresolved Staff Comments.

None.

Item 2. Property.

On December 2, 2022, and effective on January 1, 2023, the Company signed a two-year lease of 1,145 square feet for our principal offices in Clearwater, Florida. The monthly rent is $2,134 in year one and increases to $2,198 in year two. The lease expired on December 31, 2024. Effective January 1, 2025, the Company has a month-to-month lease (See Note 6).

Item 3. Legal Proceedings.

Cleartronic is not engaged in any litigation at the present time and management is unaware of any claims or complaints that could result in future litigation. Management will seek to minimize disputes with the Company's customers but recognizes the inevitability of legal action in today's business environment as an unfortunate price of conducting business.

Item 4. Safety Disclosures.

Not applicable.

PART II

Item 5. Market for Registrant's Common Equity, Related Stockholder Matters and Issuer Purchases of Equity Securities.

The Company's common stock has been traded on the OTC PINK under the symbol "CLRI." The last price of our common stock as reported on the pink tier of OTC Markets on September 30, 2025 was $0.0079 per share.

As of September 30, 2025 we were authorized to issue 5,000,000,000 shares of our common stock, of which 229,238,517 shares were outstanding. Our shares of common stock are held by approximately 218 stockholders of record. The number of record holders was determined from the records of our transfer agent and does not include beneficial owners of our common stock whose shares are held in the names of various securities brokers, dealers, and registered clearing agencies. In addition to our authorized common stock, Cleartronic has designated 200,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.00001 per share, of which 7,317,403 shares are issued or outstanding. There is no trading market for the shares of our preferred stock.

Dividends

We do not anticipate paying any cash dividends or other distributions on the Company's common stock in the foreseeable future. Any future dividends will be declared at the discretion of the Company's board of directors and will depend, among other things, on the earnings and financial requirements for future operations and growth, and other facts as the board of directors may then deem appropriate. See "Item 12. Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management and Related Stockholder Matters," for a description of the preferred stock and dividend rights pertaining to the preferred stock.

The Company is obligated to pay dividends on its Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. Each Series A Preferred Holder is entitled to receive cumulative dividends at the rate of 8% of $1.00 per annum for each outstanding share of Series A Preferred then held by such Series A Preferred Holder, on a pro rata basis. As of September 30, 2025 and 2024, the cumulative arrearage of undeclared dividends totaled $288,365 and $247,329, respectively.

Recent Sales of Unregistered Securities

Except for those unregistered securities previously disclosed in reports filed with the Securities Exchange Commission during the period covered by this report, we have not sold any securities under the Securities Act of 1933.

Issuer Purchases of Equity Securities

None

Item 6. Selected Financial Data.

Not applicable.

Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

THE FOLLOWING DISCUSSION SHOULD BE READ TOGETHER WITH THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND RELATED NOTES INCLUDED ELSEWHERE IN THIS ANNUAL REPORT ON FORM 10-K.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION

The following discussion reflects the Company's plan of operation. This discussion should be read in conjunction with the financial statements which are attached to this report. This discussion contains forward-looking statements, including statements regarding our expected financial position, business and financing plans. These statements involve risks and uncertainties. The actual results could differ materially from the results described in or implied by these forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including those discussed below and elsewhere in this report, particularly under the headings "Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements."

Unless the context otherwise suggests, "we," "our," "us," and similar terms, as well as references to "Cleartronic", all refer to Cleartronic, Inc. and our subsidiaries as of the date of this report.

Results of Operations

YEAR ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2025 COMPARED TO THE YEAR ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2024

Revenue

Revenues increased 31.26% to $4,103,388 for the year ended September 30, 2025 as compared to $3,126,148 for the year ended September 30, 2024. The primary reason for the increase was an increase in revenue from the ReadyOp platform from $2,414,949 in 2024 to $3,691,273 in 2025. These were offset by a decrease in sales of ReadyOp hardware products from $671,999 in 2024 to $85,195 in 2025. Consulting fees and related income increased from $39,200 in 2024 to $326,920 in 2025 due to an increase in contract development activities.

-4-

Cost of Revenue

Cost of revenues increased to $893,466 for the year ended September 30, 2025 as compared to $866,402 for the year ended September 30, 2024. Gross profits were $3,209,922 and $2,259,746 for the years ended September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024, respectively. Gross profit margins increased to 78.23% for the year ended September 30, 2025 from 72.29% for the year ended September 30, 2024.

Operating Expenses

Operating expenses increased 32.72% to $3,397,977 for the year ended September 30, 2025 compared to $2,560,333 for the year ended September 30, 2024. The increase was primarily due to an increase in payroll and benefits costs associated with the new employees gained associated with the acquisition of the Alastar platform. General and administrative expenses increased by $952,765 or 45.94% as a result primarily of the increase in payroll expenses, and personnel related costs. There were also charitable contributions and employee holiday bonuses paid during the year.

For the year ended September 30, 2025, selling expenses were $341,226 compared to $287,676 for the year ended September 30, 2024. This increase was primarily due to bad debt expense, and a decrease in advertising and travel expenses.

Research and development expenses were $8,000 for the year ended September 30, 2025, as compared to $189,022 for the year ended September 30, 2024. This decrease was primarily due to research and development expenses and Company's fees paid to outside consulting services that are assisting us in obtaining FedRAMP certification. For the year ended September 30, 2024, $166,419 was paid in connection with FedRAMP certification.

Other Income/(Expenses)

The Company's other income increased by $5,374 from other income of $33,836 during the year ended September 30, 2025 as compared to $28,462 in other income for the year ended September 30, 2024. This increase was due to a increase in interest income on treasury bill investments for the year ended September 30, 2025 and a decrease due to related party interest - receivable of $44,412 and extinguishment of liabilities of $42,941 and offset by a write off of note and interest receivable - related party of $58,891 for the year ended September 30, 2024.

Loss before Income Taxes

The Company's loss before income taxes was $154,219, during the year ended September 30, 2025, as compared to loss of $272,125 before income taxes for the year ended September 30, 2024. The increased costs were partially offset by an increase in subscriptions of ReadyOp licenses and an increase in contract development revenue.

Net Loss Attributable to Common Stockholders

Net loss attributable to common stockholders was $195,255 for the year ended September 30, 2025 as compared to a net loss of $313,273 for the year ended September 30, 2024. The decrease was primarily due to an increase in payroll-related expenses, a decrease in research and development expenses and offset by an increase in sales of ReadyOp licenses and a prior period adjustment, see Note 2. The preferred stock dividends remained consistent.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

For the year ended September 30, 2025, net cash provided in operations of $284,118 was the result of a net loss of $154,219, depreciation and amortization expense of $21,847, amortization of operating lease of $5,983, provision of bad debt of $110,143, an increase in inventory of $61,992, increase in accounts receivable of $87,690, an increase in prepaid expenses of $11,905, decrease in operating lease liability of $6,506. These were offset by an increase in accounts payable of $49,988, an increase in deferred revenue of $417,986.

For the year ended September 30, 2024, net cash provided in operations of $414,901 was the result of a net loss of $272,125, depreciation and amortization expense of $9,496, amortization of operating lease of $23,931, gain on extinguishment of liabilities of $ 42,941, provision of bad debt of $20,000, impairment of intangible assets of $44,373, note and interest receivable - related party write off of $58,891, an increase in accounts payable of $78,972, an increase in inventory of $19,619. These were offset by a decrease in accounts receivable of $359,404, an increase in prepaid expenses of $16,539 and an increase in deferred revenue of $195,645.

Net cash used in investing activities was $9,793 for the year ended September 30, 2025 which was for the purchase of fixed assets of $9,793.

Net cash used in investing activities was $82,135 for the year ended September 30, 2024 which was for the purchase of fixed assets of $32,135, and intangible asset - client list of $50,000.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

We prepare our consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and make estimates and assumptions that affect our reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses, and the related disclosures of contingent liabilities. We base our estimates on historical experience and other assumptions that we believe are reasonable in the circumstances. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The following critical accounting policies affect our more significant estimates and assumptions used in preparing our consolidated financial statements.

Accounts Receivable and Allowance for Credit Losses

The Company maintains current receivable amounts with most of its customers. The Company regularly monitors and assesses its risk of not collecting amounts owed by customers. This evaluation is based upon an analysis of current and past due amounts, along with relevant history and facts particular to the customer. The Company records its allowance for credit losses based on the results of this analysis. The analysis requires the Company to make significant estimates and as such, changes in facts and circumstances could result in material changes in the allowance for credit losses. The Company considers as past due any receivable balance not collected within its contractual terms.

The Company provided $150,308 and $60,665 allowances for doubtful accounts as of September 30, 2025, and September 30, 2024, respectively.

Inventory

Inventory consists of components held for assembly and finished goods held for resale or to be utilized for installation in projects. Inventory is valued at lower of cost or net realizable value on a first-in, first-out basis. The Company's policy is to record a reserve for technological obsolescence or slow-moving inventory items. The Company only carries finished goods to be shipped along with completed circuit boards and parts necessary for final assembly of finished product. All existing inventory is considered current and usable.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment are recorded at cost and depreciated or amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the asset or the underlying lease term for leasehold improvements, whichever is shorter or when the property and equipment is put into service.

IMPAIRMENT OF LONG-LIVED ASSETS

Management evaluates the recoverability of the Company's identifiable intangible assets and other long-lived assets when events or circumstances indicate a potential impairment exists, in accordance with the provisions of ASC 360-10-35-15 "Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets."

If impairment is indicated based on a comparison of the assets' carrying values and the undiscounted cash flows, the impairment to be recognized is measured as the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets.

INTANGIBLE ASSETS

We account for our goodwill and other indefinite-lived intangible assets as required by FASB ASC Topic 350, Intangibles - Goodwill and Other ("ASC 350"). We test goodwill for impairment at the reporting unit level and have concluded that our reporting units are generally the same as our reportable segments. We evaluate the determination of our reporting units periodically or whenever events or substantive changes in circumstances occur. ASC 350 requires that goodwill and certain intangible assets be assessed for impairment using fair value measurement techniques on an annual basis and when events occur that may suggest that the fair value of such assets cannot support the carrying value. ASC 350 gives an entity the option to first assess qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit or intangible asset is less than its carrying amount. If an entity determines it is not more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit or intangible asset is less than its carrying amount, then performing the quantitative impairment test is unnecessary. However, if an entity concludes otherwise, then the quantitative impairment test shall be used to identify the impairment and measure the amount of an impairment loss to be recognized (if applicable).

In 2024, the Company conducted an impairment assessment in accordance with ASC 350-30-35 and determined that all previously capitalized amounts related to costs that are no longer deemed recoverable. As a result, the Company recognized an impairment loss of $44,373.

REVENUE RECOGNITION AND DEFERRED REVENUES

The Company revenue recognition policy follows guidance from Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 606, Revenue from contract with customers. Revenue is recognized when the Company has transferred promised goods and services to the customer and in the amount that reflects the consideration to which the company expects to be entitled to in exchange for those goods and services. The Company applies the following five-step model in order to determine this amount:

- i. Establishment of a contract with the customer;
- ii. Identify the performance obligation of the contract;
- iii. Determine transaction price
- iv. Allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations; and
- v. Recognition of revenue when (or as) the Company satisfies each performance obligation.

The Company generates revenue primarily through the sale of software licenses and integrated hardware. The portion of the contract that is associated with ongoing hosting and related customer service is amortized monthly over the license period. The Company incurs certain incremental contract costs (referred to as deferred subscriber acquisition costs, net) including selling expenses (primarily commissions) related to acquiring customers. Deferred subscriber acquisition costs, net are included in prepaid and expenses and other current assets on the consolidated balance sheet. Commissions paid in connection with acquiring new customers are determined based on the value of the contractual fees. Deferred subscriber acquisition costs will be expensed as incurred on the date the revenue associated with the cost is recognized.

In transactions in which hardware is sold to a customer, the Company recognizes the revenue when the hardware has been shipped to the customer. The hardware supplied by the Company does not require a related software license and can be operated and fully functional without the Company's software.

From time to time clients request special training meetings. We send employees to these meetings and charge our clients on a per diem basis. These charges are recorded as consulting fees on our income statement.

On occasion we host conference for our current and potential clients. Conference registration revenues are recognized at a point in time when the related conference is held and the Company has satisfied its performance obligations. Payments received in advance are recorded as deferred revenue. These charges are recorded as consulting fees in our income statement.

Customer billings for services not yet rendered and hardware not yet installed are deferred and recognized as revenue as services are provided. These fees are recorded as current deferred revenue on the consolidated balance sheet as the Company expects to satisfy any remaining performance obligations as well as recognize the related revenue within the next twelve months. Accordingly, the Company has applied the practical expedient regarding deferred revenue to exclude the value of remaining performance obligations if (i) the contract has an original expected term of one year or less or (ii) the Company recognizes revenue in proportion to the amount it has the right to invoice for services performed.

As of September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024, respectively, the Company recorded $1,791,311 and $1,373,325, respectively, in deferred revenue.

FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company measures the fair value of its assets and liabilities under ASC topic 820, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures". ASC 820 defines "fair value" as the price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. There was no impact relating to the adoption of ASC 820 to the Company's consolidated financial statements.

ASC 820 also describes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

- Level 1: Observable inputs that reflect unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities traded in active markets.
- Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3: Inputs that are generally observable. These inputs may be used with internally developed methodologies that result in management's best estimate of fair value.

Financial instruments consist principally of cash, accounts receivable, prepaid expenses and other current assets, accounts payable, accrued expenses and deferred revenue. The carrying amounts of such financial instruments in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet approximate their fair values due to their relatively short-term nature. The carrying amounts approximate fair value. It is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to any significant currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments.

As of September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024, we held no assets that were required to be measured at fair value on a recurring basis. There were no transfers between levels in the fair value hierarchy during the years ended September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024, respectively.

RECENT ADOPTED ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

ASU 2025-05 — Financial Instruments—Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses for Accounts Receivable and Contract Assets

In July 2025, the FASB issued ASU 2025-05, which provides (1) all entities with a practical expedient and (2) entities other than public business entities with an accounting policy election when estimating expected credit losses for current accounts receivable and current contract assets arising from transactions accounted for under Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers.

The practical expedient allows an entity to assume that, when estimating expected credit losses, current conditions as of the balance sheet date remain unchanged for the remaining life of the asset. The accounting policy election permits nonpublic entities that elect the practical expedient to also consider collection activity occurring after the balance sheet date when estimating expected credit losses.

The standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2025, and for interim periods within those annual reporting periods. Early adoption is permitted. Accordingly, the Company will adopt ASU 2025-05 for its fiscal year beginning July 1, 2026.

In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280) – Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures, to require enhanced disclosures that include reportable segment expenses. The amendments in this update provide that a business entity disclose significant segment expenses, segment profit or loss (after significant segment expenses), and allows reporting of additional measures of a segments profit or loss if used in assessing segment performance. Such disclosures apply to entities with a single reportable segment. These amendments were effective for the Company in 2024 and retrospectively to all prior periods using the significant segment expense categories identified. The impact of the adoption of the amendments in this update was not material to the Company's consolidated financial position and results of operations, as the requirements impact only segment reporting disclosures in the footnotes to the Company's consolidated financial statements.

RECENT ISSUED ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

The Company continues to monitor new accounting pronouncements issued by the FASB and does not believe any accounting pronouncements issued through the date of this report will have a material impact on the Company's Financial Statements.

In the current year, the Company adjusted its classification of selling and administrative expenses in the Statement of Operations. For comparative purposes, amounts in the prior years have been reclassified to conform to current year presentations. These reclassifications had no effect on previously reported results of operations or retained earnings.

LEASE ACCOUNTING

We determine if an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, at inception and record the leases in our financial statements upon lease commencement, which is the date when the underlying asset is made available for use by the lessor.

We have a lease agreement with lease and non-lease components and have elected to utilize the practical expedient to account for lease and non-lease components together as a single combined lease component, from both a lessee and lessor perspective with the exception of direct sales-type leases and production equipment classes embedded in supply agreements. From a lessor perspective, the timing and pattern of transfer are the same for the non-lease components and associated lease component and, the lease component, if accounted for separately, would be classified as an operating lease.

We have elected not to present short-term leases on the balance sheet as these leases have a lease term of 12 months or less at lease inception and do not contain purchase options or renewal terms that we are reasonably certain to exercise. All other lease assets and lease liabilities are recognized based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term at commencement date. Because our lease does not provide an implicit rate of return, we used our incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at lease commencement date in determining the present value of lease payments.

In general, leases, where we are the lessee, may include options to extend the lease term. These leases may include options to terminate the lease prior to the end of the agreed upon lease term. For purposes of calculating lease liabilities, lease terms include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that we will exercise such options.

Lease expense for operating leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term as cost of revenues or operating expenses depending on the nature of the leased asset. Certain operating leases provide for annual increases to lease payments based on an index or rate. We calculate the present value of future lease payments based on the index or rate at the lease commencement date.

Differences between the calculated lease payment and actual payment are expensed as incurred. Amortization of finance lease assets is recognized over the lease term as cost of revenues or operating expenses depending on the nature of the leased asset.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We do not have any off-balance sheet arrangements.

Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

Not applicable.

Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data.

The financial statements and related notes are included as part of this report as indexed in the appendix on page F-1, et seq.

Item 9. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure.

None

Item 9A. Controls and Procedures.

Evaluation of Disclosure and Controls and Procedures.

We carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, of the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a - 15(c) and 15d - 15(e)). Based upon that evaluation, our chief executive officer and chief financial officer concluded that, as of September 30, 2025, our disclosure controls and procedures were effective, (1) to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms and (2) to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to us, including our Chief Executive and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

The term disclosure controls and procedures means controls and other procedures of an issuer that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act (15 U.S.C. 78a, et seq.) is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by an issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to the issuer's management, including its principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, does not expect that our disclosure controls and procedures or our internal controls over financial reporting will prevent all error and all fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because we are a small company with a limited number of employees, there is an inherent issue of segregation of duties as experienced by all small companies. Our independent outside financial consultant assists us with our bookkeeping and reporting requirements and is segregated from our operations and management. Because of inherent limitations in all control systems, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements, and no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within the registrant have been detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Management's Annual Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting.

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act. Our internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

The term internal control over financial reporting is defined as a process designed by, or under the supervision of, the issuer's principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, and effected by the issuer's board of directors, management and other personnel, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and includes those policies and procedures that:

- Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of our assets;
- Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the issuer are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the issuer; and
- Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of the issuer's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Our management assessed the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting as of September 30, 2025. In making this assessment, our management used the criteria set forth by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO-2013) in Internal Control-Integrated Framework. Management concluded that our internal control over financial reporting was effective as of September 30, 2025.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting.

There have been no changes in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting through the date of this report or during the quarter ended September 30, 2025, that materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the registrant's internal control over financial reporting.

Remediation of Material Weakness in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Management believes that significant progress has been made in enhancing internal controls as of September 30, 2025 and has concluded that the enhanced controls are operating effectively. The material weakness described in Part II, Item 9A, "Controls and Procedures" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2024 has been fully remediated.

Independent Registered Accountant's Internal Control Attestation.

This report does not include an attestation report of the registrant's registered public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Management's report was not subject to attestation by the registrant's registered public accounting firm pursuant to temporary rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission that permit the registrant to provide only management's report in this report.

Item 9B. Other Information.

PART IIIItem 10. Directors, Executive Officers and Corporate Governance.

The following table sets forth information concerning the directors and executive officers of Cleartronic as of the date of this report:

Name	Age	Position	Director Since
Richard J. Martin	65	Chairman and Director	2016
Michael M. Moore	71	Chief Executive Officer and Director	2015
Larry M. Reid	81	President, Chief Financial Officer, Secretary and Director	1999

The members of our board of directors are subject to change from time to time by the vote of the stockholders at special or annual meetings to elect directors. Our current board of directors consists of three directors who have expertise in the business of Cleartronic. Based on our continuing profitability, we intend to seek directors and officers who would be able to assist in the execution of our business plan.

The foregoing notwithstanding, except as otherwise provided in any resolution or resolutions of the board, directors who are elected at an annual meeting of stockholders, and directors elected in the interim to fill vacancies and newly created directorships, will hold office for the term for which elected and until their successors are elected and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal.

Whenever the holders of any class or classes of stock or any series thereof are entitled to elect one or more directors pursuant to any resolution or resolutions of the board, vacancies and newly created directorships of such class or classes or series thereof may generally be filled by a majority of the directors elected by such class or classes or series then in office, by a sole remaining director so elected or by the unanimous written consent or the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of such class or classes or series entitled to elect such director or directors. Officers are elected annually by the directors. There are no family relationships among our directors and officers.

We may employ additional management personnel, as our board of directors deems necessary. Cleartronic has not identified or reached an agreement or understanding with any other individuals to serve in management positions, but does not anticipate any problem in employing qualified staff.

A description of the business experience for the directors and executive officers of Cleartronic is set forth below.

Richard J. Martin currently serves as Chairman and Director of Cleartronic, Inc. Prior to joining the Cleartronic team, Martin served as CEO of SMARTLogix, Inc., a petroleum logistics technology company which he founded in 2000. Graduating with an Engineering degree from The University of Buffalo's School of Engineering, Martin joined the Exxon Management Development Program. Following his tenure at Exxon, he purchased an Exxon distributorship in the Carolinas. Culp Petroleum was transformed into a large regional distribution company. While at Culp, Martin developed and implemented several technologies that have since become industry standards. Martin sold the petroleum business in 2005 and focused his efforts on his technology ventures including the SMARTank division of SMARTLogix. SMARTank grew substantially and the technology was later sold to a public company in 2011.

Michael M. Moore is currently Chief Executive Officer and a Director of Cleartronic, Inc. He was founder and CEO of Collabria, LLC, a private software development company. Prior to founding Collabria in 2008, Moore for 13 years was CEO of DTNet Group and for seven years served as CEO of Payroll Transfers, Inc. He also was an assistant vice president with both Kidder Peabody and Merrill Lynch. Mr. Moore is an honors graduate of the United States Air Force Academy and served as an Air Force fighter pilot for eight years, flying F-4 and F-16 fighter aircraft. He is also one of six entrepreneurs profiled in the book Daring Visionaries, How Entrepreneurs Build Companies, Inspire Allegiance, and Create Wealth.

Larry Reid is the founder of Cleartronic and a co-founder of VoiceInterop. With over thirty years of executive management experience including sales and marketing, operations management, and financial management, from 2001 to 2005 Mr. Reid served as CFO and director of Connectivity, Inc., a manufacturer and distributor of emergency call boxes. He was instrumental in Connectivity's acquisition by CNE Group, Inc., (an American Stock Exchange listed company) and served as Executive Vice President and Director of CNE from 2003 to 2005. Mr. Reid has broad experience in venture start-ups, raising capital, building organizational synergies, creating and developing joint ventures and strategic partnerships, opening new markets, and driving key business initiatives. Early in his professional career in corporate financial management, Mr. Reid was responsible for raising more than $5 million in start-up capital for Ocurest Laboratories, Inc., a company he co-founded to package and distribute over-the-counter eye drops in a new (patented) eye drop dispenser. He forged Ocurest's successful IPO in 1996 and helped lead the company's achieving an estimated 80% market penetration of optical supply retail outlets in the United States.

Committees of the Board

We do not currently have an Audit, Executive, Finance, Compensation, or Nominating Committee, or any other committee of the Board of Directors.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Under Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, our directors and certain of our officers, and persons holding more than 10 percent of our common stock are required to file forms reporting their beneficial ownership of our common stock and subsequent changes in that ownership with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. Such persons are also required to furnish Cleartronic with copies of all forms so filed.

Based solely upon a review of copies of such forms filed on Forms 3, 4, and 5, and amendments thereto furnished to us, we believe that as of the date of this report, our executive officers, directors and greater than 10 percent beneficial owners have not complied on a timely basis with all Section 16(a) filing requirements.

Communication with Directors

Stockholders and other interested parties may contact any of our directors by writing to them at Cleartronic, Inc., at 28050 US Hwy 19N, Clearwater, Florida 33761, Attention: Corporate Secretary.

The Company's Board has approved a process for handling letters received by us and addressed to any of our directors. Under that process, the Secretary reviews all such correspondence and regularly forwards to the directors a summary of all such correspondence, together with copies of all such correspondence that, in the opinion of the Secretary, deal with functions of the board or committees thereof or that he otherwise determines requires their attention. Directors may at any time review a log of all correspondence received by us that are addressed to members of the board and request copies of such correspondence.

Conflicts of Interest

With respect to transactions involving real or apparent conflicts of interest, we have not adopted any written policies and procedures.

Code of Ethics for Senior Executive Officers and Senior Financial Officers

We have not adopted a Code of Ethics for Senior Executive Officers and Senior Financial Officers.

Item 11. Executive Compensation.

Summary of Cash and Certain Other Compensation

At present, Cleartronic has two executive officers, Michael M. Moore and Larry M. Reid. Michael M. Moore is the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The Company executed an Employment Agreement with Mr. Moore on November 28, 2016. Under the Agreement, Mr. Moore agreed that he shall carry out the strategic plans and policies as established by our business plan. Mr. Moore will advise us from time to time on organization, hiring, mergers, and execution of our business plan. Mr. Moore is paid a base salary of $16,667 per month.

Unless Cleartronic shall have given Mr. Moore written notice at least 30 days prior to the Termination Date, the Agreement shall automatically renew and continue in effect for additional one-year periods (and all provisions of this anniversary from such original Termination Date shall thereafter be designated as the "Termination Date" for all purposes under the Agreement, provided, however, that we may, at our election at any time after the expiration of the initial term of the Agreement, give Mr. Moore notice of Termination, in which event he shall continue to receive, as severance pay, six months of his base salary, if any, or the amount due through the next "Termination Date", whichever is less. Mr. Moore may terminate the Agreement without severance pay upon 10 days written notice to the Company.

The Company executed an Employment Agreement with Mr. Reid on March 13, 2015. The Employment Agreement replaces the previously executed Employment Agreement with Mr. Reid. Pursuant to the Employment Agreement (the "Agreement"), Cleartronic and Mr. Reid agreed that for a one year period beginning on March 13, 2015, we employed Mr. Reid to perform services for us both on and offsite. The last day of the one year period shall be the "Termination Date" for purposes of the Agreement. Termination of the agreement can be made by either party without penalty upon 10 days written notice. Pursuant to the Agreement, Cleartronic and Mr. Reid agreed that for a one year period beginning on November 28, 2016, Mr. Reid to perform services for us both on and offsite. The last day of the one year period shall be the "Termination Date" for purposes of the Agreement.

Unless Cleartronic shall have given Mr. Reid written notice at least 30 days prior to the Termination Date, the Agreement shall automatically renew and continue in effect for additional one-year periods (and all provisions of this anniversary from such original Termination Date shall thereafter be designated as the "Termination Date" for all purposes under the Agreement, provided, however, that we may, at our election at any time after the expiration of the initial term of the Agreement, give Mr. Reid notice of Termination, in which event he shall continue to receive, as severance pay, six months of his base salary, if any, or the amount due through the next "Termination Date", whichever is less. Mr. Reid may terminate the Agreement without severance pay upon 10 days written notice to the Company. Under the Agreement, Mr. Reid agreed that he shall carry out the strategic plans and policies as established by our business plan. Mr. Reid will advise us from time to time on organization, hiring, mergers, and execution of our business plan.

Pursuant to our Articles of Incorporation establishing our preferred stock:

- A holder of shares of the Series A Preferred Stock is entitled to the number of votes equal to the number of shares of the Series A Preferred Stock held by such holder multiplied by one on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. Each one share of our Series A Preferred Stock shall be convertible into 100 shares of our common stock. Each holder of Series A Preferred Stock is entitled to receive cumulative dividends at the rate of 8% of $1.00 per annum on each outstanding share of Series A Preferred Stock then held by such holder, on a pro rata basis.
- A holder of shares of the Series B Preferred Stock is entitled one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. If at least one share of Series B Preferred Stock is issued and outstanding, then the total aggregate issued shares of Series B Preferred Stock at any given time, regardless of their number, shall have voting rights equal to two times the sum of the total number of shares of our common stock which are issued and outstanding at the time of voting, plus the total number of shares of any shares of our preferred stock which are issued and outstanding at the time of voting. A holder of shares of the Series B Preferred Stock shall have no conversion rights or rights to dividends.
- A holder of shares of the Series C Preferred Stock is entitled, to the number of votes equal to the number of shares of the Series C Preferred Stock held by such holder multiplied by 5 on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. In addition, the holders of our Series C Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive dividends when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion. No dividends have been declared. Finally, each one share of our Series C Preferred Stock shall be convertible into five shares of our common stock.
- A holder of shares of the Series D Preferred Stock is entitled, to the number of votes equal to the number of shares of the Series D Preferred Stock held by such holder multiplied by 5 on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. In addition, the holders of our Series D Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive dividends when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion. No dividends have been declared. Finally, each one share of our Series D Preferred Stock shall be convertible into five shares of our common stock.
- A holder of shares of the Series E Preferred Stock is entitled, to the number of votes equal to the number of shares of the Series E Preferred Stock held by such holder multiplied by 100 on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. In addition, the holders of our Series E Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive dividends when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion. No dividends have been declared. Finally, each one share of our Series E Preferred Stock shall be convertible into 100 shares of our common stock.

Change in Audit Firms

On February 16, 2024, Assurance resigned as the independent auditors of Cleartronic, Inc., a company incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida (the "Company"). The Company's Board of Directors accepted Assurance's resignation on February 16, 2024.

The reports of Assurance on the financial statements of the Company as of and for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2024 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the Company's most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period through February 16, 2024, there were no disagreements with Assurance on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement(s), if not resolved to the satisfaction of Assurance, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its report. During the Company's most recent fiscal years and the subsequent period through February 16, 2024, there were no reportable events of the type described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The Company provided Assurance with a copy of the foregoing disclosure and requested Assurance to furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether it agrees with the statements made therein. A copy of such letter furnished by Assurance is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to the form 8-K filed by the Company.

On February 19, 2024 the Board of Directors of the Company approved the engagement of M&KCPAS, LLC ("M&K") as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the audit of the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2024.

Tax Fees

The aggregate tax fees billed by Webb CPA, P.A. professional services rendered for tax services for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2025 and 2024 was $1,600 and $1,500, respectively.

All Other Fees

There were no other fees billed by M&K CPAS, LLC ("M&K") for professional services rendered during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2025, other than as stated under the captions Audit Fees, Audit-Related Fees, and Tax Fees.

There were no other fees billed by Assurance Dimensions ("Assurance") for professional services rendered during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2025, other than as stated under the captions Audit Fees, Audit-Related Fees, and Tax Fees.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditors

Given the small size of our Board, our Board acts as our Audit Committee. Our Board pre-approves all audit and permissible non-audit services. These services may include audit services, audit-related services, tax services, and other services. Our Board approves these services on a case-by-case basis.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM (PCAOB ID 2738)

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of Cleartronic, Inc.

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Cleartronic, Inc. (the Company) as of September 30, 2025 and 2024, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity (deficit), and cash flows for each of the years in the two-year period ended September 30, 2025 and the related notes (collectively referred to as the financial statements). In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of September 30, 2025 and 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the two-year period ended September 30, 2025, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audits, we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Critical Audit Matter

The critical audit matter communicated below is a matter arising from the current period audit of the financial statements that was communicated or required to be communicated to the audit committee and that: (1) relate to accounts or disclosures that are material to the financial statements and (2) involved our especially challenging, subjective, or complex judgments. The communication of critical audit matters does not alter in any way our opinion on the financial statements, taken as a whole, and we are not, by communicating the critical audit matter below, providing separate opinions on the critical audit matter or on the accounts or disclosures to which it relates.

Revenue Transactions and Improper Revenue Recognition

Auditing the Company's revenue recognition required significant judgment in applying ASC 606. Specifically, auditing management's evaluation of customer agreements involved assessing the identification and allocation of standalone transaction prices to performance obligations under ASC 606.

As such, Revenue Transactions and Improper Revenue Recognition was identified as a Critical Audit Matter. This was due to the high volume of transactions, and the risk of improper cut-off. As a result, auditing revenue required significant auditor judgment, particularly in evaluating the completeness, existence, and accuracy of reported revenue.

Improper revenue recognition could materially misstate the financial statements and key financial indicators, especially given the Company's growth initiatives, which may create pressure to meet revenue targets.

To address these risks, we reviewed and assessed customer agreements and management's evaluation of key terms and related disclosures. We also performed substantive audit procedures to test the appropriateness, accuracy, and completeness of recorded revenue transactions.

/s/ M&K CPAS, PLLC

We have served as the Company's auditor since 2024.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements September 30, 2025 and 2024

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION

Cleartronic, Inc. (the “Company”) was incorporated in Florida on November 15, 1999. All current operations are conducted through the Company’s wholly owned subsidiary, ReadyOp Communications, Inc. (“ReadyOp”), a Florida corporation incorporated on September 15, 2014. ReadyOp facilitates the marketing and sales of subscriptions to the ReadyOp™, ReadyMed™ Alastar platforms and the AudioMate IP gateways discussed below.

The Company’s fiscal year end is September 30.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements contain the consolidated accounts of Cleartronic, Inc. and its subsidiary, ReadyOp Communications, Inc. All material intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

IMMATERIAL PRIOR PERIOD ADJUSTMENT

During the year ended September 30, 2024, the Company became aware that the consolidated financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2023, contained an immaterial understatement of $64,517 of both revenue and retained earnings.

The Company evaluated this prior period adjustment in accordance with SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin (“SAB”) 99, Materiality (ASC 250-10-S99) and based on its quantitative and qualitative analysis determined that this prior period adjustment was not material to the annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2023. Therefore, an amendment to the previously filed Form 10-K as of September 30, 2023, was not required.

Consequently, the Company elected to correct this prior period adjustment in the current year ended September 30, 2024. The cumulative impact of this adjustment had a net effect on retained earnings of $0. The Company recorded an adjustment of $64,517 to increase retained earnings with a corresponding reduction to revenues of $64,517, which has been reflected in the consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended September 30, 2024.

USE OF ESTIMATES

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the balance sheet and operations for the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on management’s knowledge of current events and actions it may undertake in the future, they may ultimately differ from actual results. Significant estimates include the assumptions used in valuation of deferred tax assets, estimated useful life of property and equipment, valuation of inventory, intangible assets and allowance for credit losses.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified for consistency with the current year presentation. These reclassifications had no material effect on the consolidated results of operations, stockholders’ equity, or cash flows.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For financial statement purposes, the Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

The Company has investments Treasury Bills. The Treasury Bills have remaining terms ranging from four-weeks to thirteen weeks on September 30, 2025. Treasury Bills with an original maturity date of three months or less are included within cash and cash equivalents on the balance sheet at September 30, 2025.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE AND ALLOWANCE FOR CREDIT LOSSES

The Company maintains current receivable amounts with most of its customers. The Company regularly monitors and assesses its risk of not collecting amounts owed by customers. This evaluation is based upon an analysis of current and past due amounts, along with relevant history and facts particular to the customer. The Company records its allowance for credit losses based on the results of this analysis. The analysis requires the Company to make significant estimates and as such, changes in facts and circumstances could result in material changes in the allowance for credit losses. The Company considers as past due any receivable balance not collected within its contractual terms.

The Company provided $150,308 and $60,665 allowances for doubtful accounts as of September 30, 2025, and September 30, 2024, respectively.

INVENTORY

Inventory consists of components held for assembly and finished goods held for resale or to be utilized for installation in projects. Inventory is valued at lower of cost or net realizable value on a first-in, first-out basis. The Company’s policy is to record a reserve for technological obsolescence or slow-moving inventory items. The Company only carries finished goods to be shipped along with completed circuit boards and parts necessary for final assembly of finished product. All existing inventory is considered current and usable. The Company recorded no reserve for obsolete inventory as of September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024, respectively.

At September 30, 2025 inventory was $103,524 of raw materials and finished goods.

At September 30, 2024, inventory was $41,532 of raw materials and finished goods.

PREPAID EXPENSES AND OTHER CURRENT ASSETS

Prepaid expenses and other current assets consist primarily of deferred subscriber costs and prepaid expenses. Deferred subscriber costs totaled $8,250 and $38,250 at September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024, respectively. Prepaid expenses totaled $94,101 and $82,196 at September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024, respectively.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment are recorded at cost and depreciated or amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the asset or the underlying lease term for leasehold improvements, whichever is shorter or when the property and equipment is put into service.

IMPAIRMENT OF LONG-LIVED ASSETS

Management evaluates the recoverability of the Company's identifiable intangible assets and other long-lived assets when events or circumstances indicate a potential impairment exists, in accordance with the provisions of ASC 360-10-35-15 "Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets."

If impairment is indicated based on a comparison of the assets' carrying values and the undiscounted cash flows, the impairment to be recognized is measured as the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets.

There were no impairments recorded during the years ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

F-6

INTANGIBLE ASSETS – FedRamp

During the year ended September 30, 2024, the Company conducted an impairment assessment in accordance with ASC 350-30-35 and determined that all previously capitalized amounts associated with the Company's expenses related to its FedRAMP certification are no longer deemed recoverable as described in ASC 350-30-35. As a result, the Company recognized an impairment loss of $44,373 for the year ended September 30, 2024.

At September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024, intangible assets, net, is as follows:

	For the year ended September 30, 2025	For the year ended September 30, 2024
Intangible Assets	$ -	$ 44,373

ASSET PURCHASE - INTANGIBLE ASSET – CLIENT LIST

Accounting for asset acquisitions falls under the guidance of Topic 805, Business Combinations, specifically Subtopic 805-50. A cost accumulation model is used to determine an asset acquisition's cost. Assets acquired are based on their cost, generally allocated to them on a relative fair value basis. Direct acquisition-related costs are included in the cost of the acquired assets. No goodwill is calculated in an asset acquisition.

On August 1, 2024, the Company acquired a group of similar assets from Alastar, Inc. ("Alastar") for $50,000.

This asset group consisted of cash, prepaids and other current assets, as well as intellectual property including trademarks, software platforms, and a client list. The client list was the only asset ascribed value which was deemed to have continuing value to the Company. The Company has classified this client list as an intangible asset, which will be amortized over 5 years.

The table below summarizes the estimated fair value of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed at the effective acquisition date.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The Company currently maintains cash balances at one FDIC-insured banking institution. Deposits held in non interest-bearing transaction accounts are insured up to a maximum of $250,000 at all FDIC-insured institutions. As of September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024, the Company had $23,583 and $92,982, respectively, in excess of FDIC insured limits.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT COSTS

The Company expenses research and development costs as incurred.

For the years ended September 30, 2025, and 2024, the Company incurred $8,000 and $189,022, respectively, in research and development expenses.

REVENUE RECOGNITION AND DEFERRED REVENUES

The Company revenue recognition policy follows guidance from Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 606, Revenue from contract with customers. Revenue is recognized when the Company has transferred promised goods and services to the customer and in the amount that reflects the consideration to which the company expects to be entitled for the exchange for those goods and services. The Company applies the following five-step model to determine this amount:

- i. Establishment of a contract with the customer;
- ii. Identify the performance obligation of the contract;
- iii. Determine transaction price
- iv. Allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations; and
- v. Recognition of revenue when (or as) the Company satisfies each performance obligation.

F-7

The Company generates revenue primarily through the sale of software licenses and integrated hardware. The portion of the contract that is associated with ongoing hosting and related customer service is amortized monthly over the license period. The Company incurs certain incremental contract costs (referred to as deferred subscriber acquisition costs, net) including selling expenses (primarily commissions) related to acquiring customers. Deferred subscriber acquisition costs, net are included in prepaid expenses and other current assets on the consolidated balance sheet. Commissions paid in connection with acquiring new customers are determined based on the value of the contractual fees. Deferred subscriber acquisition costs are expensed as incurred on the date the revenue associated with the cost is recognized.

In transactions in which hardware is sold to a customer, the Company recognizes the revenue when the hardware has been shipped to the customer. The hardware supplied by the Company does not require a related software license and can be operated and fully functional without the Company’s software.

From time to time clients request special training meetings. We send employees to these meetings and charge our clients on a per diem basis. These charges are recorded as consulting fees in our income statement.

On occasion we host conferences for our current and potential clients. Conference registration revenues are recognized at a point in time when the related conference is held and the Company has satisfied its performance obligations. Payments received in advance are recorded as deferred revenue. These charges are recorded as consulting fees in our income statement.

Customer billings for services not yet rendered and hardware not yet installed are deferred and recognized as revenue as services are provided. These fees are recorded as current deferred revenue on the consolidated balance sheet as the Company expects to satisfy any remaining performance obligations as well as recognize the related revenue within the next twelve months. Accordingly, the Company has applied the practical expedient regarding deferred revenue to exclude the value of remaining performance obligations if (i) the contract has an original expected term of one year or less or (ii) the Company recognizes revenue in proportion to the amount it has the right to invoice for services performed.

As of September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024, respectively, the Company recorded $1,791,311 and $1,373,325, respectively, in deferred revenue.

DISAGGREGATED REVENUE

EARNINGS PER SHARE

Earnings per share (“EPS”) are the amount of earnings attributable to each share of common stock. For convenience, the term is used to refer to either earnings or loss per share. EPS is computed pursuant to section 260-10-45 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. Pursuant to ASC Paragraphs 260-10-45-10 through 260-10-45-16, basic EPS shall be computed by dividing income available to common stockholders (the numerator) by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding (the denominator) during the period. Income available to common stockholders shall be computed by adding both the dividends declared in the period on preferred stock (whether or not paid) and the dividends accumulated for the period on cumulative preferred stock (whether or not earned) from income from continuing operations (if that amount appears in the income statement) and also from net income. The computation of diluted EPS is similar to the computation of basic EPS except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the dilutive potential common shares had been issued during the period to reflect the potential dilution that could occur from common shares issuable through contingent shares issuance arrangement, stock options or warrants.

Pursuant to ASC Paragraphs 260-10-45-45-21 through 260-10-45-45-23 Diluted EPS shall be based on the most advantageous conversion rate or exercise price from the standpoint of the security holder. The dilutive effect of outstanding call options and warrants (and their equivalents) issued by the reporting entity shall be reflected in diluted EPS by application of the treasury stock method unless the provisions of paragraphs 260-10-45-35 through 45-36 and 260-10-55-8 through 55-11 require that another method be applied. Equivalents of options and warrants include non-vested stock granted to employees, stock purchase contracts, and partially paid stock subscriptions (see paragraph 260-10-55-23). Anti-dilutive contracts, such as purchased put options and purchased call options, shall be excluded from diluted EPS. Under the treasury stock method: a. Exercise of options and warrants shall be assumed at the beginning of the period (or at time of issuance, if later) and common shares shall be assumed to be issued. b. The proceeds from exercise shall be assumed to be used to purchase common stock at the average market price during the period. (See paragraphs 260-10-45-29 and 260-10-55-4 through 55-5.) c. The incremental shares (the difference between the number of shares assumed issued and the number of shares assumed purchased) shall be included in the denominator of the diluted EPS computation.

As of September 30, 2025 and 2024, we had no options and warrants outstanding.

As of September 30, 2025 and 2024, we had 512,996 shares of Series A Convertible Preferred stock outstanding, which are convertible into 1,299,600 shares of common stock.

As of September 30, 2025 and 2024, we had 3,133,503 shares of Series C Convertible Preferred stock outstanding which are convertible into 15,667,515 and shares of common stock.

As of September 30, 2025 and 2024, we had 670,904 shares of Series D Preferred stock outstanding which are convertible into 3,354,520 shares of common stock.

As of September 30, 2025 and 2024, we had 3,000,000 shares of Series E Convertible Preferred stock outstanding which are convertible into 300,000,000 shares of common stock. The table below details the computation of basic and diluted earnings per share ("EPS") for the years ended September 30, 2025 and 2024:

FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company measures the fair value of its assets and liabilities under ASC topic 820, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures". ASC 820 defines "fair value" as the price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. There was no impact relating to the adoption of ASC 820 to the Company's consolidated financial statements.

ASC 820 also describes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

- Level 1: Observable inputs that reflect unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities traded in active markets.
- Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3: Inputs that are generally observable. These inputs may be used with internally developed methodologies that result in management's best estimate of fair value.

Financial instruments consist principally of cash, accounts receivable, prepaid expenses and other current assets, accounts payable, accrued expenses and deferred revenue. The carrying amounts of such financial instruments in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet approximate their fair values due to their relatively short-term nature. The carrying amounts approximate fair value. It is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to any significant currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments.

As of September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024, we held no assets that were required to be measured at fair value on a recurring basis. There were no transfers between levels in the fair value hierarchy during the year ended September 30, 2025 and year ended September 30, 2024, respectively.

ADVERTISING COSTS

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. The Company had advertising costs of $16,257 and $174,920 during year ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

The Company's employees have access to a qualified 401(k) defined contribution plan.

The Company's matching contributions expenditure under the plan was $98,423 and $14,965 during the year ended September 30, 2025 and 2024.

RECENTLY ADOPTED ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

ASU 2025-05 — Financial Instruments—Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses for Accounts Receivable and Contract Assets

In July 2025, the FASB issued ASU 2025-05, which provides (1) all entities with a practical expedient and (2) entities other than public business entities with an accounting policy election when estimating expected credit losses for current accounts receivable and current contract assets arising from transactions accounted for under Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers.

The practical expedient allows an entity to assume that, when estimating expected credit losses, current conditions as of the balance sheet date remain unchanged for the remaining life of the asset. The accounting policy election permits nonpublic entities that elect the practical expedient to also consider collection activity occurring after the balance sheet date when estimating expected credit losses.

The standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2025, and for interim periods within those annual reporting periods. Early adoption is permitted. Accordingly, the Company will adopt ASU 2025-05 for its fiscal year beginning July 1, 2026.

In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280) – Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures, to require enhanced disclosures that include reportable segment expenses. The amendments in this update provide that a business entity disclose significant segment expenses, segment profit or loss (after significant segment expenses), and allows reporting of additional measures of a segments profit or loss if used in assessing segment performance. Such disclosures apply to entities with a single reportable segment. These amendments were effective for the Company in 2024 and retrospectively to all prior periods using the significant segment expense categories identified. The impact of the adoption of the amendments in this update was not material to the Company's consolidated financial position and results of operations, as the requirements impact only segment reporting disclosures in the footnotes to the Company's consolidated financial statements.

RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

The Company continues to monitor new accounting pronouncements issued by the FASB and does not believe any accounting pronouncements issued through the date of this report will have a material impact on the Company's Financial Statements.

In the current year, the Company adjusted its classification of selling and administrative expenses in the Statement of Operations. For comparative purposes, amounts in the prior years have been reclassified to conform to current year presentations. These reclassifications had no effect on previously reported results of operations or retained earnings.

SEGMENT REPORTING

Operating segments are defined as components of an enterprise that have the following characteristics: (i) they engage in business activities from which they may earn revenue and incur expense, (ii) their operating results are regularly reviewed by the chief operating decision maker ("CODM") for resource allocation decisions and performance assessment, and (iii) their discrete financial information is available. Our CODM is our Chief Executive Officer, who manages and allocates resources to our operations on a consolidated basis. We operate as one segment, and ReadyOp facilitates the marketing and sales of subscriptions to the ReadyOp™, ReadyMed™ and Alastar platforms and the AudioMate IP gateways. Segment information is further described in Note 8.

LEASE ACCOUNTING

We determine if an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, at inception and record the leases in our financial statements upon lease commencement, which is the date when the underlying asset is made available for use by the lessor. We currently have no lease agreements in place.

When we have a lease agreement with lease and non-lease components, we have elected to utilize the practical expedient to account for lease and non-lease components together as a single combined lease component, from both a lessee and lessor perspective with the exception of direct sales-type leases and production equipment classes embedded in supply agreements. From a lessor perspective, the timing and pattern of transfer are the same for the non-lease components and associated lease component and, the lease component, if accounted for separately, would be classified as an operating lease.

We have elected not to present short-term leases on the balance sheet as these leases have a lease term of 12 months or less at lease inception and do not contain purchase options or renewal terms that we are reasonably certain to exercise. All other lease assets and lease liabilities are recognized based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term at commencement date. If a lease does not provide an implicit rate of return, we used our incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at lease commencement date in determining the present value of lease payments.

F-9

In general, leases, where we are the lessee, may include options to extend the lease term. These leases may include options to terminate the lease prior to the end of the agreed upon lease term. For purposes of calculating lease liabilities, lease terms include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that we will exercise such options.

Lease expense for operating leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term as cost of revenues or operating expenses depending on the nature of the leased asset. Certain operating leases provide for annual increases to lease payments based on an index or rate. We calculate the present value of future lease payments based on the index or rate at the lease commencement date.

Differences between the calculated lease payment and actual payment are expensed as incurred. Amortization of finance lease assets is recognized over the lease term as cost of revenues or operating expenses depending on the nature of the leased asset.

On December 2, 2022, and effective on January 1, 2023, the Company signed a two-year lease of 1,145 square feet for our principal offices in Clearwater, Florida. The monthly rent was $2,134 in year one and increases to $2,198 in year two. The lease expired on November 30, 2024. Our current office space lease is month-to-month.

The tables below present information regarding the Company's operating lease assets and liabilities at September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024:

NOTE 4 - EQUITY TRANSACTIONS

Preferred Stock Dividends

As of September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024, the cumulative arrearage of undeclared dividends for Series A Preferred stock totaled $88,365 and $247,329, respectively.

As of the date of this report, we have 200,000,000 authorized shares of preferred stock, par value $0.00001 per share, of which 7,317,403 shares were issued and outstanding. There are currently 5 series of preferred stock designated as follows:

- 1,250,000 shares have been designated as Series A Preferred Stock, 512,996 of which are issued and outstanding;
- 10 shares have been designated as Series B Preferred Stock, none of which is issued and outstanding;
- 50,000,000 shares have been designated as Series C Preferred Stock, 3,133,503 of which are issued and outstanding; and
- 10,000,000 shares have been designated Series D Preferred stock, of which 670,904 are issued and outstanding; and
- 10,000,000 shares have been designated Series E Preferred stock, of which 3,000,000 are issued and outstanding.

Pursuant to our Articles of Incorporation establishing our preferred stock:

- A holder of shares of the Series A Preferred Stock is entitled to the number of votes equal to the number of shares of the Series A Preferred Stock held by such holder multiplied by one on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. Each one share of our Series A Preferred Stock shall be convertible into 100 shares of our common stock. Each holder of Series A Preferred Stock is entitled to receive cumulative dividends at the rate of 8% of $1.00 per annum on each outstanding share of Series A Preferred Stock then held by such holder, on a pro rata basis.
- A holder of shares of the Series B Preferred Stock is entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. If at least one share of Series B Preferred Stock is issued and outstanding, then the total aggregate issued shares of Series B Preferred Stock at any given time, regardless of their number, shall have voting rights equal to two times the sum of the total number of shares of our common stock which are issued and outstanding at the time of voting, plus the total number of shares of any shares of our preferred stock which are issued and outstanding at the time of voting. A holder of shares of the Series B Preferred Stock shall have no conversion rights or rights to dividends.
- A holder of shares of the Series C Preferred Stock is entitled to the number of votes equal to the number of shares of the Series C Preferred Stock held by such holder multiplied by 5 on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. In addition, the holders of our Series C Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive dividends when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion. No dividends have been declared. Finally, each one share of our Series C Preferred Stock shall be convertible into five shares of our common stock.
- A holder of shares of the Series D Preferred Stock is entitled to the number of votes equal to the number of shares of the Series D Preferred Stock held by such holder multiplied by 5 on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. In addition, the holders of our Series D Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive dividends when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion. No dividends have been declared. Finally, each one share of our Series D Preferred Stock shall be convertible into five shares of our common stock.
- A holder of shares of the Series E Preferred Stock is entitled to the number of votes equal to the number of shares of the Series E Preferred Stock held by such holder multiplied by 100 on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. In addition, the holders of our Series E Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive dividends when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion. No dividends have been declared. Finally, each one share of our Series E Preferred Stock shall be convertible into 100 shares of our common stock.

Preferred Stock Classification

The Company applies the guidance outlined in ASC 480, Distinguishing Liabilities from Equity, to determine the appropriate classification and measurement of preferred stock. Under ASC 480-10-25-4, financial instruments that embody an obligation to repurchase equity shares or require mandatory redemption at a fixed or determinable date must be classified as liabilities and measured at fair value.

Preferred shares that are conditionally redeemable - including those redeemable at the option of the holder or subject to redemption upon the occurrence of events outside the issuer's control—are classified as temporary equity in accordance with ASC 480-10-S99-3A. Conversely, preferred shares that do not contain redemption provisions are appropriately classified as permanent equity.

None of the Company’s Series A, B, C, D, or E Preferred Stock contain any redemption rights, whether mandatory or conditional. Because no redemption provisions exist, these shares do not meet the criteria for liability classification under ASC 480-10-25-7. Furthermore, since redemption is not possible under any circumstances, the shares do not qualify as temporary equity under ASC 480-10-S99-3A. Accordingly, the preferred stock is properly classified as permanent equity.;

Since the Company has a stockholders' deficit, all issuances of Series A, B, C, D, and E Preferred Stock are presented as a component of stockholders’ deficit in the financial statements.

Stock repurchase program

On January 6, 2023, the Board of Directors approved a stock repurchase program pursuant to which the Company may repurchase shares of its outstanding common stock. The repurchase program may be extended, suspended, or discontinued at any time. As of September 30, 2025 and 2024, no common stock was repurchased.

NOTE 5 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During the years ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, the Company paid $36,000 and $39,000, respectively, to a related party consultant.

As of September 30, 2024, the Company owed $1,024 to the Company's Chief Executive Officer for the Company's operating expenses. The amount was repaid in October 2024.

Prior to September 30, 2024, the Company advanced $53,302 to VoiceInterop, the Company’s former wholly owned subsidiary and now 96% owned by our shareholders. The advance was related to certain expenses paid on VoiceInterop behalf by the Company. As of September 30, 2024, the Company recorded $5,589 in interest receivable - related party. In September 2024, the Company determined that it is probable the Company will not recover its loan principal and interest. Accordingly, the Company took a bad debt expense for uncollectible note receivable and interest receivable of $58,891 in connection therewith.

NOTE 6 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Legal Proceedings

From time to time, the Company may be subject to various legal proceedings and claims that arise in the ordinary course of the Company’s business activities. Cleartronic is not engaged in any litigation at the present time and management is unaware of any claims or complaints that could result in future litigation.

Obligation Under Operating Lease

On December 2, 2023, and effective on January 1, 2023, the Company signed a two-year lease of 1,145 square feet for our principal offices in Clearwater, Florida. The monthly rent is $2,134 in year one and increases to $2,198 in year two. The lease expired on November 30, 2024. On January 1, 2023, upon adoption of ASC 842, the Company will recognized right-to-use assets as operating leases and operating lease obligations. Effective January 1, 2025, the Company has a month-to-month lease.

Rent expense incurred during the years ended September 30, 2025 and 2024 was $22,862 and $21,266, respectively.

Revenue and Accounts Receivable Concentration

For the year ended September 30, 2025, no customer accounted for more than 10% of the Company’s revenues.

For the year ended September 30, 2024, one customer accounted for 15.99% of the Company’s revenues.

As of September 30, 2025, two customers accounted for more than 10% of the Company’s total outstanding accounts receivable.

As of September 30, 2024, one customer accounted for more than 12% of the Company’s total outstanding accounts receivable.

Deferred Revenue Concentration

As of September 30, 2025, one customer accounted for 17.38% of the Company’s total outstanding deferred revenue.

As of September 30, 2024, no customer accounted for more than 10% of the Company’s total outstanding deferred revenue.

Major Supplier and Sole Manufacturing Source

The Company relies on no major supplier for its products. The Company has contracted with local manufacturing facilities to provide completed circuit boards used in the assembly of its IP gateway devices. Interruption of adequate supply of components, primarily computer chips, to the manufacturing source presents additional risk to the Company. The Company believes that additional commercial facilities exist at competitive rates to match the resources and capabilities of its existing manufacturing source, but the current worldwide shortage of computer chips does limit our ability to supply our proprietary radio gateways to clients and other buyers.

Exclusive Licensing Agreement

On May 5, 2017, the Company entered into an Exclusive Licensing Agreement with Sublicensing Terms (the “Agreement”) with the University of South Florida Research Foundation, Inc. (“USFRF”) relating to an exclusive license of certain patent rights in connection with one of USFRF’s U.S. Patent Applications. Both parties recognize that the research and development work provided by the Company was sufficient for USFRF to enter into the Agreement with the Company.

The Agreement was effective April 25, 2017 and continues until the later of the date that no Licensed Patent remains a pending application or an enforceable patent or the date on which the Licensee’s obligation to pay royalties expires.

The Company agreed to pay USFRF a royalty of 3% for sales of all Licensed Products and Licensed Processes and agreed to pay USFRF minimum royalty payments of $8,000 for fiscal year 2023 and thereafter on the same date, for the life of the agreement.

In the event the Company proposes to sell any Equity Securities, then USFRF will have the right to purchase 5% of the securities issued in such offering on the same terms and conditions are offered to other purchasers in such financing.

NOTE 7 – EXTINGUISHMENT OF LIABILITIES

During the year ended September 30, 2024, the Company settled $44,052 of accounts payable with various vendors in exchange for $1,111, resulting in a gain on settlement of $2,941.

NOTE 8 - SEGMENT INFORMATION

We operate as one segment, and ReadyOp facilitates the marketing and sales of subscriptions to the ReadyOp™, ReadyMed™ and Alastar™ platforms and the AudioMate IP gateways.

Our Chief Executive Officer, as the CODM, evaluates our expenditures and monitor budget versus actual results. The monitoring of budget versus actual results and cash on hand are used in assessing the performance of the segment and in establishing resource allocation across the organization.

Factors used in determining the reportable segment include the nature of our operating activities, the organizational and reporting structure and the type of information reviewed by the CODM to allocate resources and evaluate financial performance.

Significant expenses include general and administrative, professional fees, officers' salary, research and development, and interest income, which are each separately presented on our consolidated statements of operations.

NOTE 9 - DEFERRED INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes is computed using the asset and liability method, under which deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and for operating losses and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the currently enacted tax rates that apply to taxable income in effect for the years in which those tax assets and liabilities are expected to be realized or settled. The Company records a valuation allowance to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount that is believed more likely than not to be realized.

Uncertain tax positions are recognized only when the Company believes it is more likely than not that the tax position will be upheld on examination by the taxing authorities based on the merits of the position. The Company has no material unrecognized tax benefits and no adjustments to its consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows were required as of September 30, 2025 and 2024.

The Company filed consolidated tax returns for the years ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, which are subject to examination by federal and state tax jurisdictions. No income tax returns are currently under examination by taxing authorities. The Company recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to uncertain tax positions in income tax expense. The Company did not have any accrued interest or penalties associated with uncertain tax positions as of September 30, 2025 and 2024. The Company's U.S. federal income tax returns for tax years 2020 through 2025 are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service.

The Company calculates its deferred tax assets based upon its consolidated net operating loss ("NOL") carryovers available to offset future taxable income, net of other tax credit(s) or tax deferred liabilities, if any. No deferred tax assets for the years ended September 30, 2025 and 2024 have been recorded since any available deferred tax assets are fully offset by increases in its valuation allowances. The Company increased its valuation allowance based on its history of consolidated net losses. At September 30, 2025, the Company has an adjusted net operating loss carryforward of approximately $13,837,000 that expire through 2045. Should a cumulative change in the ownership of more than 50% occur within a three-year period, there could be an annual limitation on the use of the net operating loss carryforwards.

Deferred income taxes reflect the tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes plus any available consolidated, net deferred tax credits. Significant components of the Company's net deferred income tax assets at September 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively are as follows:

	September 30, 2025	September 30, 2024
Depreciation	$ 5,537	$ 2,407
Allowance for credit losses	73,702	45,786
Net operating loss carryforward	3,507,047	3,505,693
Net deferred income tax asset	3,586,286	3,553,886
Less: valuation allowance	(3,586,286)	(3,553,886)
Total deferred income tax assets	$ -	$ -

A reconciliation of the Federal and respective State income tax rate as a percentage of income before taxes is as follows:

	September 30, 2025	September 30, 2024
Federal statutory taxes	$ (30,605)	$ (54,003)
State income taxes, net of federal benefit	(8,482)	(14,967)
Change in tax estimates	33,453	7,476
Less: Valuation allowance, non-deductible items	4,280	4,814
Change in valuation allowance	1,354	(56,680)
	$ -0-	$ -0-

	September 30, 2025	September 30, 2024
Federal statutory Income tax rate	21.00%	21.00%
State taxes, net of federal benefit	4.35%	4.35%
Effective rate of deferred tax asset	25.35%	25.35%
Less: Valuation allowance	(25.35%)	(25.35%)
Effective income tax rate	0.00%	0.00%

Management has determined that it is more likely than not that the Company will not use the NOL carryforward and has a 100% valuation allowance against the deferred asset.

The reserve is based on historical experience of the Company's operations as it has not recognized net income in its current incarnation and there is no indication of any events or conditions that would show that trend will not continue due to the Company's current expectation of expense requirements.
