Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

(a) Dismissal of principal accountant.

Effective November 21, 2003, our principal independent accountant Good Swartz Brown & Berns LLP, of Los Angeles, California (GSBB) resigned as our principal independent accountant. GSBB decided to discontinue providing auditing services for publicly held companies and therefore did not register with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board. Uncertainty regarding the interpretation of Sec. 102 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 has caused GSBB to conclude that it would be in the best interest of our company for GSBB to resign as auditors and for us to engage new auditors to complete the audits in process. Our board of directors accepted the resignation. The Board then approved the engagement of Weinberg and Company, P.A. of Los Angeles, California as our Company's independent auditor.

We initially engaged Good Swartz Brown & Berns to serve as our principal independent accountant on April 10, 2002. During the last fiscal year prior to and preceding the resignation of Good Swartz Brown & Berns, LLP and any subsequent interim period preceding such resignation, there were no disagreements with Good Swartz Brown & Berns, LLP on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosures or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements if not resolved to the satisfaction of Good Swartz Brown & Berns, LLP would have caused them to make reference thereto in their report on our financial statements for the period.

The resignation of Good Swartz Brown & Berns was effective as of November 21, 2003, and was not due to any disagreement between us and Good Swartz Brown & Berns.

We have provided Good Swartz Brown & Berns, LLP with a copy of the disclosures contained in this Report and have requested that Good Swartz Brown & Berns, LLP furnish to us a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not it agrees with the statements made in this Report. We will submit a copy of Good Swartz Brown & Berns, LLP letter to the SEC upon receipt of such report.

(b) Engagement of new independent accountant.

Effective November 21, 2003, the Company engaged Weinberg & Company, P.A., Los Angeles, California, as its independent auditor.

Item 5. Other Events.

Change of Address.

We have recently moved our corporate headquarters to 5125 Lankershim Boulevard, North Hollywood, California 91601.
